ZIONS BANCORPORATION REPORTS EARNINGS OF $0.19
PER DILUTED COMMON SHARE FOR FOURTH QUARTER 2012

SALT LAKE CITY, January 28, 2013 – Zions Bancorporation (NASDAQ: ZION) (“Zions” or “the Company”) today reported fourth quarter net earnings applicable to common shareholders of $35.6 million or $0.19 per diluted common share, compared to $62.3 million or $0.34 per diluted share for the third quarter of 2012. Net earnings were adversely affected this quarter by a net amount of $73.6 million pretax, or $0.25 per diluted share, consisting of $83.8 million of other-than-temporary impairment (“OTTI”) on collateralized debt obligation (“CDO”) securities, partially offset by $10.2 million of CDO securities gains.

Fourth Quarter 2012 Highlights

- Loans and leases, excluding FDIC-supported loans, increased $463 million to $37.1 billion at December 31, 2012. Average loans and leases, excluding FDIC-supported loans, increased only $100 million, as most of the loan growth occurred near quarter-end.
- Net loan and lease charge-offs declined 51% and nonperforming lending-related assets declined 11% compared to the third quarter. The continued improvement in credit quality resulted in a fourth quarter negative provision for loan losses of $10 million.
- The OTTI on CDO securities was primarily attributable to significant changes in modeling assumptions related to prepayment speeds and PDs on certain deferring bank holding company trust preferred securities.
- Tangible common equity per common share improved $0.71 to $20.95 from $20.24 in the third quarter.

“Credit quality and net interest income exceeded our expectations for the fourth quarter of 2012,” said Harris H. Simmons, chairman and chief executive officer. Mr. Simmons continued, “We expect continued reduction in problem loans in the near term, along with relatively stable net interest income, resulting from moderate loan growth offset by some continued net interest margin pressure.” Mr. Simmons concluded, “Over the next several quarters, we expect to execute several capital actions that will significantly reduce interest expense and dividends associated with legacy debt and preferred stock, which should have a favorable effect on our return on equity.”

Reclassifications in Statement of Income

For the fourth quarter of 2012, approximately $9 million of credit card interchange fees were reclassified from interest and fees on loans to other service charges, commissions and fees. In addition, $3 million of income on factored receivables was reclassified from other service charges, commissions and fees to interest and fees on loans. These reclassifications reduced net interest income by approximately $6 million and the net interest margin by 5 basis points for the fourth quarter of 2012. At December 31, 2012, the reclassifications related to factored receivables also increased loan and lease balances by approximately $96 million and the allowance for loan losses by $2 million, with a corresponding reduction in other assets of $94 million. The changes were made primarily to conform with prevailing reporting practices in the banking industry. Current and prior period amounts for all periods presented throughout this press release have been adjusted where appropriate so that amounts are on a comparable basis. There was no change in net earnings for any prior period presented.

Loans

Loans and leases, excluding FDIC-supported loans, increased $463 million on a net basis to $37.1 billion at December 31, 2012, compared to $36.7 billion at September 30, 2012. The increases were predominantly in commercial and industrial and 1-4 family residential loans and were widespread geographically. Decreases of $174 million in commercial owner occupied, construction and land development, and term commercial real estate loans partially offset increases in other loan categories. Most of this increase occurred during the month of December. Average loans and leases, excluding FDIC-supported loans, increased $100 million to $36.7 billion during the fourth quarter of 2012, compared to $36.6 billion during the third quarter of 2012.

Deposits

Average total deposits for the fourth quarter of 2012 increased $1.4 billion, or 3.3%, to $44.9 billion, compared to $43.5 billion for the third quarter of 2012. The increase resulted primarily from a higher level of average noninterest-bearing demand deposits, primarily in nonpersonal accounts, for the fourth quarter of 2012, which were $17.9 billion compared to $16.8 billion for the third quarter of 2012. The ratio of average loans to average deposits was 83% at December 31, 2012, compared to 86% at September 30, 2012.

Debt and Shareholders' Equity

The tangible common equity ratio was 7.09% at December 31, 2012, compared to 7.17% at September 30, 2012. The decline was primarily due to a 5% increase in total tangible assets, driven primarily by a 24% increase in cash-related balances that resulted from increased deposits late in the year. The estimated common equity tier 1 capital ratio was 9.78% at December 31, 2012, compared to 9.86% at September 30, 2012.

The $89 million after-tax improvement in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) (“AOCI”) during the fourth quarter related primarily to CDO securities and consisted of $52 million due to the reduction of unrealized losses in AOCI from the OTTI discussed subsequently and $37 million due primarily to net fair value increases.

Net Interest Income

Net interest income (adjusted for the previously-discussed reclassifications) decreased 2% to $430 million for the fourth quarter of 2012, compared to $438 million for the third quarter of 2012. Net interest income during the fourth quarter was reduced by approximately $12 million for the discount amortization resulting from subordinated debt conversions and increased by $13 million from additional accretion on acquired FDIC-supported loans. The net interest margin decreased to 3.47% in the fourth quarter of 2012, compared to 3.58% in the third quarter of 2012. The decrease in the margin continues to reflect both increases in cash equivalents and other low-yielding assets, as well as lower yields on resetting or maturing older loans, which is expected to continue. New loan pricing has been relatively stable in recent months. The cost of interest-bearing deposits continued to decline and was 0.25% in the fourth quarter compared to 0.28% in the third quarter.

Noninterest Income

Noninterest income for the fourth quarter of 2012 was $54 million, compared to $125 million for the third quarter of 2012. The decrease was primarily due to the increased OTTI, partially offset by increased gains on CDO securities, as discussed subsequently. Excluding the incremental pretax effect of these items compared to the third quarter, noninterest income was approximately $128 million in the fourth quarter.

CDO Investment Securities

During the fourth quarter of 2012, the Company recognized credit-related OTTI on CDOs of $83.8 million or $0.28 per diluted share, compared to $2.7 million or $0.01 per diluted share during the third quarter of 2012. The significant increase in OTTI this quarter compared to recent quarters resulted from (1) increasing our assumed probabilities of default (“PDs”) for bank holding company issuers of trust preferred securities that are still deferring, and (2) increasing our near-term prepayment assumptions for some banks. This quarter, the Company observed greater regulatory and restructuring risk than previously modeled in those deferrals that have not yet chosen to or been allowed to resume payments on trust preferred securities. Approximately 61% of the OTTI was attributable solely to the increased PDs. Also this quarter the Company observed a significant increase in prepayments from small bank holding companies, which led us to increase the assumed prepayment rates on issuers with less than $15 billion in assets. The Company also recognized

$10.2 million or $0.03 per diluted share in gains during the quarter, compared to $3.0 million or $0.01 per diluted share in the third quarter, from cash principal payments on CDOs previously written down.

The following table stratifies the CDOs into performing tranches without credit impairment and nonperforming tranches at December 31, 2012:

² Margin over related LIBOR index.

³ Defined as either deferring current interest (“PIKing”) or OTTI; the majority are predominantly bank CDOs.

The net unrealized pretax losses in AOCI improved to $718 million in the fourth quarter of 2012 from $857 million in the third quarter of 2012 due to OTTI and to significant improvement in credit spreads for junior tranches.

Noninterest Expense

Noninterest expense for the fourth quarter of 2012 was $407 million compared to $395 million for the third quarter of 2012. The increase was due primarily to costs for legal-related matters and increased other real estate expense.

Asset Quality

Net loan and lease charge-offs decreased 51% to $19 million for the fourth quarter of 2012, compared to $38 million for the third quarter of 2012. The $19 million includes $5 million resulting from the new OCC regulatory guidance that requires the write-down of borrowers’ loans discharged in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy even when the loans are performing. Gross charge-offs declined 7% compared to the third quarter and have declined 55% compared to the year-ago period.

Recoveries increased to $36 million for the fourth quarter of 2012, compared to $20 million for the third quarter of 2012. Net charge-offs declined primarily in commercial- and commercial real estate-related loans.

Nonperforming lending-related assets declined 11% to $746 million at December 31, 2012 from $838 million at September 30, 2012. Nonaccrual loans declined 10% to $647 million at December 31, 2012 (including $6 million resulting from the new OCC guidance) from $719 million at September 30, 2012. The ratio of nonperforming lending-related assets to loans and leases and other real estate owned decreased to 1.96% at December 31, 2012, compared to 2.23% at September 30, 2012.

Classified loans, excluding FDIC-supported loans, decreased approximately 2% to $1.77 billion at December 31, 2012, compared to $1.81 billion at September 30, 2012. Approximately 79% of classified loans were current as to principal and interest for the fourth quarter of 2012, compared to 76% for the third quarter of 2012.

The provision (credit) for loan losses was $(10.4) million for the fourth quarter of 2012, compared to $(1.9) million for the third quarter of 2012. The allowance for credit losses was $1.0 billion, or 2.66% of loans and leases at December 31, 2012, essentially unchanged from $1.0 billion, or 2.77% of loans and leases at September 30, 2012.

Conference Call

Zions will host a conference call to discuss these fourth quarter results at 5:30 p.m. ET this afternoon (January 28, 2013). This press release presents the non-GAAP financial measure previously shown. The adjustments to reconcile from the applicable GAAP financial measure to the non-GAAP financial measure are included where applicable in financial results presented in accordance with GAAP. The Company considers these adjustments to be relevant to ongoing operating results.

The Company believes that excluding the amounts associated with these adjustments to present the non-GAAP financial measure provides a meaningful base for period-to-period and company-to-company comparisons, which will assist investors and analysts in analyzing the operating results of the Company and in predicting future performance. This non-GAAP financial measure is used by management and the Board of Directors to assess the performance of the Company's business for evaluating bank reporting segment performance, for presentations of Company performance to investors, and for other reasons as may be requested by investors and analysts. The Company further believes that presenting this non-GAAP financial measure will permit investors and analysts to assess the performance of the Company on the same basis as that applied by management and the Board of Directors.

Non-GAAP financial measures have inherent limitations, are not required to be uniformly applied, and are not audited. Although non-GAAP financial measures are frequently used by stakeholders to evaluate a company, they have limitations as an analytical tool and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of results reported under GAAP.
