EXECUTIVE OFFICES

The executive offices of the Company are located at 365 West Passaic Street, Rochelle Park, New Jersey 07662 (telephone no. (201) 845-0880).

No person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representations other than those contained in this Prospectus and, if given or made, such information or representations must not be relied upon as having been authorized. This Prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities to which it relates in any circumstances in which such offer or solicitation is unlawful. Neither the delivery of this Prospectus nor any sale hereunder shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in the affairs of the Company since the date hereof or that the information contained or incorporated by reference herein is correct as of any time subsequent to its date.

THESE SECURITIES HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION NOR HAS THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION PASSED UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THIS PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

RISK FACTORS

Cumulative Loss

From Fiscal 2000 through Fiscal 2004 the Company incurred a cumulative net loss of $48.0 million, which, however, included the following non-cash items that contributed to the net loss: recognition of goodwill impairment in the amount of $5.6 million and provision for the valuation allowance for the net deferred tax assets in the amount of $24.2 million. See, "Incorporation of Certain Information."

There is no assurance that the Company's net losses will not continue.

Compliance With Minimum Listing Requirements

Continued quotation of the Common Stock on the NASDAQ Stock Market requires a minimum bid price of at least $1.00 per share to be maintained except for periods of less than 10 consecutive days each, subject to an opportunity to cure the deficiency after receipt from NASDAQ of a deficiency notice.

There is no assurance that the Common Stock will continue to meet the minimum requirements for listing on the NASDAQ Stock Market.

Increased Competition

The women's retail apparel and shoe industries are highly competitive. Operating results of businesses in these industries, especially businesses like the Company that emphasize fashionable merchandise, can vary materially from time to time. The Company's competition includes other specialty retailers, mass merchants, department stores, discount stores, mail order companies, television shopping channels and Internet websites. Management believes that total sales of large size women's apparel from these sources of supply increased in recent years and had an adverse impact on the Company's operations. Among specialty retailers for large size women like the Company, the competition includes large store chains that have announced long-term store growth plans to aggressively expand into additional strip shopping center locations, where the Company's stores are concentrated.

The Company has adopted a product repositioning strategy in response to increased competition. See, "Incorporation of Certain Information." There is no assurance, however, that the product repositioning strategy will offset the increased competition.

Deflationary Price Trend in Apparel Industry

The Consumer Price Index published by the U.S. Dept. of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics city average for women's and girls' apparel declined 5.0% in fiscal 2001, 1.9% in fiscal 2002, 1.8% in fiscal 2003 and 0.6% in fiscal 2004. Management believes that price deflation had an adverse impact on the Company's operations. There is no assurance that this deflationary trend will not continue.

External Influences

Any forward-looking statements (as such term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act) contained in this Prospectus involve variables, risks and uncertainties and are subject to change based on various important factors, many of which may be beyond the Company's control. Accordingly, the Company's future performance and financial results may differ materially from those expressed or implied in any such forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could affect the Company's actual results and could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements included in this Prospectus: threats of terrorism; war risk; shifts in consumer spending patterns; overall economic conditions; the impact of increased competition; variations in weather patterns; uncertainties relating to execution of the Company's product repositioning strategy; store lease expirations; risks associated with the financial performance of the World Financial Network National Bank private label credit card program; increases in interest rates; the ability to retain, hire and train key personnel; risks associated with the ability of the Company's manufacturers to deliver products in a timely manner; political instability and other risks associated with foreign sources of production and increases in fuel costs.

Dependence on Key Executive

The Company believes that it has benefited substantially from the leadership of Raphael Benaroya, the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Company believes that the loss of his services could have an adverse effect on the Company. Mr. Benaroya has an Employment Agreement with the Company that expires on September 3, 2009. See "Incorporation of Certain Information."

Shares Eligible For Future Resale

Under a Restated Stockholders' Agreement, dated December 23, 1992 (as amended, the "Restated Stockholders' Agreement"), Raphael Benaroya, the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, has demand registration rights to require the Company to prepare and file registration statements under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), with respect to certain outstanding shares of Common Stock. In addition, under the Restated Stockholders' Agreement, Mr. Benaroya, certain other officers of the Company and its subsidiaries and certain other stockholders have the right to participate on a "piggyback" basis in any future registration statements filed by the Company under the Securities Act to raise capital for itself through an offering of its equity securities, subject to the right of the underwriters of any such offering to limit the number of shares included in such registration on a "piggyback" basis. See "Incorporation of Certain Information."

At January 29, 2005, stock options issued to Company associates and Directors of the Company and outstanding totaled 1,893,812 and options to purchase 257,860 shares were available for grant. Through January 29, 2005, 1,689,800 shares had been issued upon the exercise of stock options. Currently, 72,000 outstanding shares are held by the Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan and 293,674 outstanding shares are held by the Company's Retirement Savings Plan. In addition, 279,870 shares that are treasury stock may be sold by the Company's Supplemental Retirement Savings Plan. All the foregoing were registered under the Securities Act pursuant to registration statements on Form S-8.

The potential for resales under the registration statements referred to in the preceding paragraph and for resales pursuant to the exercise of Demand Registration Rights and the obligation to include sales by certain stockholders on a "piggyback" basis in any future registration statements could impair the Company's future ability to raise capital through an offering of its equity securities by increasing the number and size of public offerings of Common Stock by sellers other than the Company.

Any shares being resold by an "affiliate" of the Company (as that term is defined under the rules and regulations adopted under the Securities Act) or by a person who would be deemed to have been an "affiliate" at any time during the 90 days preceding a resale will be subject to the volume limitations in Rule 144 adopted under the Securities Act except for certain sales pursuant to a prospectus filed in accordance with the Securities Act. See, "Incorporation of Certain Information." On the other hand, a person who is not deemed to have been an "affiliate" at any time during the 90 days preceding a resale would be entitled to resell shares that are "restricted securities" under Rule 144 without regard to the volume limitations in Rule 144, provided that two years have elapsed since such shares were acquired from the Company or an "affiliate" of the Company.

Based on available information, the Company believes that all of its outstanding shares of Common Stock not held by its "affiliates" or recently resigned "affiliates" are eligible for resale without regard to the volume limitations in Rule 144.

The Company can make no prediction as to the effect, if any, that resales of shares of Common Stock or the availability of shares of Common Stock for resale will have on the market price prevailing from time to time. Nevertheless, resales of substantial amounts of the Common Stock in the public market could adversely affect the market price of the Common Stock and could impair the Company's future ability to raise capital through an offering of its equity securities.

The Company is subject to the informational requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and in accordance therewith files reports, proxy statements and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). - d. the 2001 Stock Option Plan, which is attached as the Appendix to the Corporation's proxy statement on Schedule 14A for its 2001 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

All documents subsequently filed by the Corporation pursuant to Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act, and all Form 4 Statements of Changes in Beneficial Ownership filed by the Selling Stockholders, prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment which indicates that all securities offered hereunder have been sold or which deregisters all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in this registration statement and to be part hereof from the date of filing of such documents.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not Applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The validity of the shares of Common Stock being resold in the offering is being passed upon by Kenneth P. Carroll, Esq., the Company's Senior Vice President-General Counsel. Mr. Carroll holds employee stock options to purchase 179,000 shares of Common Stock (vested currently or within 60 days) under Company Stock Option Plans. Mr. Carroll is the beneficiary of retirement trusts that hold 27,587 shares of Common Stock for his account.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

In the case of an action by or in the right of the corporation, Section 145 empowers a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit in any of the capacities set forth above against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, except that indemnification is not permitted in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person is adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court deems proper. Section 145 further provides: that a Delaware corporation is required to indemnify a present or former director, officer, employee or agent against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein as to which such person has been successful on the merits or otherwise; that indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled; and that indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors and administrators. A Delaware corporation may provide indemnification only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct. Such determination is to be made with respect to a person who is an officer or director at the time of determination (i) by the board of directors by majority vote of directors who were not party to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, (ii) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, (iii) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion or (iv) by the stockholders.

The Restated By-laws of the Corporation provide for indemnification of directors and officers of the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by law, as now in effect or later amended. The Restated By-laws also provide that expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of final disposition upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount if it ultimately is determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation. The Restated By-laws further provide that such indemnification provisions are not exclusive.

Additionally, the Corporation's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation eliminates the personal liability of the Corporation's directors to the fullest extent permitted by the provisions of Section 102 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same may be amended and supplemented.

The Corporation carries directors' and officers' insurance policies that provide indemnification to its officers and directors under certain circumstances.

Item 9. Undertakings.

a. The undersigned Corporation hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To including any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports with or furnished to the Commission by the Corporation pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

b. The undersigned Corporation hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Corporation's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

h. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Corporation pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Corporation has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Corporation of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Corporation in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Corporation will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
