Proxy Statement

for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders

May 17, 2005

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement is being furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors (the "Board of Directors" or "Board") of Graphic Packaging Corporation, a Delaware Corporation, (the "Company") of proxies to be voted at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at the Renaissance Waverly Hotel, located at 2450 Galleria Parkway, Atlanta, Georgia 30339, on Tuesday, May 17, 2005, at 10:00 a.m. local time (the "Annual Meeting"). This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card will first be sent on or about April 20, 2005 to the Company's stockholders of record as of the close of business on March 21, 2005 (the "Record Date"). References in this Proxy Statement to "Graphic Packaging," "we," "us," and "our" or similar terms are to Graphic Packaging Corporation.

Outstanding Shares

As of the close of business on the Record Date, there were 198,602,294 shares of the Company's common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Stockholders are entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters to come before the Annual Meeting.

Who May Vote

Only stockholders who held shares of the Company's common stock at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

How to Vote in Person

If your shares are registered directly in your name, you are considered the stockholder of record and you may vote in person at the Annual Meeting. If your shares are registered through a bank or brokerage firm, your shares are considered to be held beneficially in street name. If your shares are held beneficially in street name and you wish to vote in person at the Annual Meeting, you will need to obtain a proxy from the bank or brokerage firm that holds your shares. Please note that even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, the Company recommends that you vote before the Annual Meeting.

How to Vote by Proxy

Whether you hold shares directly as a stockholder of record or beneficially in street name, you may direct how your shares are voted without attending the Annual Meeting. If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote by any of the methods described below. If you hold shares beneficially in street name, you may vote by submitting voting instructions to your broker, trustee or nominee. For directions on how to vote, please refer to the instructions below and those included on your proxy card or, for shares held beneficially in street name, the voting instruction card provided by your bank or brokerage firm.

Voting over the Internet. Stockholders of record of the Company's common stock with Internet access may submit proxies from any location in the world by following the "Vote by Internet" instructions on their proxy cards. In addition, most of the Company's stockholders who hold shares beneficially in street name may vote by accessing the website specified on the voting instruction cards provided by their bank or brokerage firm. Please check the voting instruction card to determine Internet voting availability.

Voting by Telephone. Stockholders of record of the Company's common stock who live in the United States or Canada may submit proxies by following the "Vote by Phone" instructions on their proxy cards. Most of the Company's stockholders who hold shares beneficially in street name may vote by phone by calling the number specified on the voting instruction cards provided by their bank or brokerage firm. Please check the voting instruction card to determine telephone voting availability.

Voting by Mail. Stockholders of record of the Company's common stock may submit proxies by completing, signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the accompanying pre-addressed envelope. The Company's stockholders who hold shares beneficially in street name may vote by mail by completing, signing and dating the voting instruction cards provided by their bank or brokerage firm and mailing them in the accompanying pre-addressed envelope.

How Proxies Work

The Board is asking for your proxy. By giving the Board your proxy, your shares will be voted at the Annual Meeting in the manner you direct. If you do not specify how you wish to vote your shares, your shares will be voted "FOR" the election of each of the Director nominees and "FOR" the amendment to the Riverwood Holding, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan (the "1996 SIP") described herein. Proxyholders will vote shares according to their discretion on any other matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting.

If for any reason any of the nominees for election as Director is unable or declines to serve as Director, discretionary authority may be exercised by the proxyholders to vote for substitutes proposed by the Board.

If the shares you own are held beneficially in street name by a bank or brokerage firm, such firm, as the record holder of your shares, is required to vote your shares according to your instructions. In order to vote your shares, you will need to follow the directions your bank or brokerage firm provides to you. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), if you do not give instructions to your bank or brokerage firm, it will still be able to vote your shares with respect to certain "discretionary" items, but will not be allowed to vote your shares with respect to certain "non-discretionary" items. In the case of non-discretionary items, the shares will be treated as "broker non-votes."

How to Vote Your 401(k) Plan Shares

If you participate in the Company's 401(k) Savings Plan or in the Company's Hourly 401(k) Savings Plan, you may give voting instructions as to the number of shares of the Company's common stock held in your account as of the Record Date to the trustee of the savings plan. You provide voting instructions to the trustee, Fidelity Management Trust Company, by completing and returning the proxy card accompanying this Proxy Statement. The trustee will vote your shares in accordance with your duly executed instructions received by 12:00 midnight on May 12, 2005. If you do not send instructions, the trustee will vote the number of shares equal to the share equivalents credited to your account in the same proportion that it votes shares for which it did receive timely instructions.

You may also revoke voting instructions previously given to the trustee by 12:00 midnight on May 12, 2005, by filing either a written notice of revocation or a properly completed and signed proxy card bearing a later date with the trustee. Your voting instructions will be kept confidential by the trustee.

Quorum

In order to carry out the business of the Annual Meeting, there must be a quorum. This means that at least one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the outstanding shares eligible to vote must be represented at the Annual Meeting, either by proxy or in person. Proxies received but marked as abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of votes present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of calculating whether a quorum is present.

Votes Needed

The Director nominees receiving the largest number of votes cast are elected, up to the maximum number of Directors fixed by the Board to be elected at the Annual Meeting. As a result, any shares not voted, whether by abstention, broker non-vote or otherwise, have no effect on the election of Directors, except to the extent that the failure to vote for a particular nominee may result in another nominee receiving a larger number of votes. Approval of the amendment of the 1996 SIP and any other matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. An abstention with respect to the approval of the amendment of the 1996 SIP will have the effect of a vote against such proposal and broker non-votes will have no effect on the approval of the amendment of the 1996 SIP, as broker non-votes are not treated as shares present and entitled to vote.

Changing Your Vote

Shares of the Company's common stock represented by proxy will be voted as directed unless the proxy is revoked. Any proxy may be revoked before it is exercised by sending to the Company's Corporate Secretary an instrument revoking the proxy or a proxy bearing a later date. Any notice of revocation should be sent to: Graphic Packaging Corporation, 814 Livingston Court, Marietta, Georgia 30067, Attention: Corporate Secretary. Any proxy submitted over the Internet or by telephone may also be revoked by submitting a new proxy over the Internet or by telephone. A proxy is also revoked if the person who executed the proxy is present at the Annual Meeting and elects to vote in person.

Attending in Person

Only stockholders, their designated proxies and guests of the Company may attend the Annual Meeting. If your shares are held beneficially in street name, you must bring an account statement or letter from your brokerage firm or bank showing that you are the beneficial owner of shares of the Company's common stock as of the Record Date in order to be admitted to the Annual Meeting.

SUMMARY OF MERGER WITH GRAPHIC PACKAGING INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated March 25, 2003 among Riverwood Holding, Inc. ("Riverwood"), Riverwood Acquisition Sub LLC and Graphic Packaging International Corporation ("GPIC"), Riverwood and GPIC agreed to merge in a stock-for-stock transaction (the "Merger"). On August 8, 2003, the Merger was consummated and Riverwood issued approximately 83.4 million shares of common stock to former GPIC stockholders. Such former GPIC stockholders owned approximately 42% of the Company's outstanding common stock immediately after the Merger.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE MATTERS

The Company's Board of Directors periodically reviews its governance policies, practices and procedures to ensure that the Company meets or exceeds the requirements of applicable laws and rules, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the related rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the corporate governance listing standards of the NYSE. Below, in question and answer format, is a summary of certain of the Company's corporate governance policies and practices.

Who are Graphic Packaging's Directors?

The Board consists of Jeffrey H. Coors (who serves as Executive Chairman of the Board), John D. Beckett, G. Andrea Botta, Kevin J. Conway, Stephen M. Humphrey, Harold R. Logan, Jr., John R. Miller, Robert W. Tieken and Martin D. Walker.

How does Graphic Packaging determine which Directors are independent?

For these purposes, "independent" and "independence" have the meanings set forth under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), the rules and regulations adopted thereunder by the SEC, the NYSE's corporate governance and listing standards, and the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, all as in effect from time to time. A Director will not qualify as independent unless the Board affirmatively determines that the Director has no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). In addition, in accordance with the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Company will also apply the following standards in determining whether a Director is independent:

A Director who is an employee of the Company, or whose immediate family member serves as one of the Company's executive officers, may not be deemed independent until three years after the end of such employment relationship.

A Director who receives, or whose immediate family member receives, more than $100,000 per year in direct compensation from the Company, other than Board and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service, may not be deemed independent until three years after he or she ceases to receive more than $100,000 per year in such compensation. Compensation received by an immediate family member for service as one of the Company's non-executive employees will not be considered in determining independence under this test.

A Director who is affiliated with or employed by, or whose immediate family member is affiliated with or employed in a professional capacity by, the Company's present or former internal or external auditor may not be deemed independent until three years after the end of the affiliation or the employment or auditing relationship.

A Director who is employed, or whose immediate family member is employed, as an executive officer of another company where any of the Company's current executive officers serve on that company's compensation committee may not be deemed independent until three years after the end of such service or the employment relationship.

A Director who is an executive officer, general partner or employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer or general partner, of an entity that makes payments to, or receives payments from the Company for property or services in an amount which, in any single fiscal year, exceeds the greater of $1 million or 2% of such other entity's consolidated gross revenues, may not be deemed independent until three years after falling below that threshold.

Applying these standards, the following six of the Company's nine Directors are independent: Messrs. Beckett, Botta, Logan, Miller, Tieken and Walker. Messrs. Coors and Humphrey are not considered independent because they serve as executive officers and Mr. Conway is not considered independent because of his status as a principal of Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc. ("CD&R"), an investment banking firm that provided certain services to the Company in connection with the Merger.

The Company is a "controlled company," as that term is defined in the NYSE's corporate governance listing standards, because more than 50% of the Company's voting power is held by a group of stockholders consisting of members of the Coors family and certain related trusts, Clayton, Dubilier & Rice Fund V Limited Partnership (the "CD&R Fund") and EXOR Group, S.A. ("EXOR") and their respective affiliates. Please see "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" below. As a "controlled company," the Company is exempt from the requirements of Rule 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual with respect to having the Board comprised of a majority of independent Directors and having the Compensation and Benefits Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee being composed solely of independent Directors.

How many times did Graphic Packaging's Board of Directors meet last year?

The Board held six meetings in 2004.

Did any of Graphic Packaging's Directors attend fewer than 75% of the meetings of the Board and their assigned committees?

No, all of the Directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and their assigned committees during 2004.

What is Graphic Packaging's policy on Director attendance at annual meetings of stockholders'?

Directors are expected to attend each annual meeting of stockholders, but are not required to do so. All of the Company's Directors attended the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders, except for Mr. Logan, Mr. Tieken and Mr. Walker.

Do the non-management Directors of Graphic Packaging meet during the year in executive session?

Yes, the Company's non-management Directors met separately at regularly scheduled executive sessions during 2004 and will continue to do so without any member of management being present. Mr. Miller, as the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, acted as presiding Director at each executive session during 2004.

Can stockholders and other interested parties communicate directly with the Directors of Graphic Packaging or with the non-management Directors of Graphic Packaging?

Yes. If you wish to communicate with the Board or any individual Director, you may send correspondence to Graphic Packaging Corporation, 814 Livingston Court, Marietta, Georgia 30067, Attention: Corporate Secretary. The Corporate Secretary will submit your correspondence to the Board, the appropriate committee or the appropriate Director, as applicable. You may also communicate directly with the presiding non-management Director of the Board or the non-management Directors as a group by sending correspondence to Graphic Packaging Corporation, 814 Livingston Court, Marietta, Georgia 30067, Attention: Presiding Director.

Does Graphic Packaging have an Audit Committee Financial Expert?

Yes. The Board has examined the SEC's definition of "audit committee financial expert" and has determined that each of Harold R. Logan, Jr., John R. Miller and Robert W. Tieken meet these standards and are each "independent directors," as defined by Section 303A of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual. Accordingly, Messrs. Logan, Miller and Tieken have each been designated by the Board as an audit committee financial expert.

What does the Compensation and Benefits Committee do?

The Compensation and Benefits Committee oversees the compensation and benefits of the Company's management and employees and is responsible for, among other things:

reviewing and making recommendations as to the compensation of the President and Chief Executive Officer, the four other most highly-compensated executive officers and any other individuals whose compensation the Compensation and Benefits Committee anticipates may become subject to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code");

approving any awards of stock or options to those of the Company's Directors who are employees and to other individuals who are "officers" for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act; and administering the Company's short- and long-term incentive plans.

Who are the members of the Compensation and Benefits Committee?

The current members of the Compensation and Benefits Committee are Messrs. Beckett, Botta and Logan, with Mr. Beckett serving as Chairman. Mr. Walker served as a member of the Compensation and Benefits Committee through November 2004, when Mr. Logan was appointed to the Committee.

How many meetings did the Compensation and Benefits Committee have last year?

Who are the members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee?

The current members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are Messrs. Beckett, Botta, Conway, Coors and Miller, with Mr. Miller serving as Chairman. Messrs. Beckett, Botta and Miller are each "independent directors," as defined by Section 303A of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual. As discussed above, Messrs. Conway and Coors would not be considered "independent directors."

How many meetings did the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee hold last year?

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee held four meetings during 2004.

Does Graphic Packaging have Corporate Governance Guidelines?

Yes, the Board has formally adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines to assure that it will have the necessary authority and practices in place to review and evaluate the Company's business operations as needed and to assure that the Board is focused on increasing stockholder value. The Corporate Governance Guidelines set forth the practices the Board will follow with respect to Board composition and selection, Board meetings and involvement of senior management, CEO performance and succession planning, and Board committees and compensation. Directors Emeritus

William K. Coors and B. Charles Ames each serve on the Board as a Director Emeritus. In such capacity, they have the right to attend Board meetings and to receive copies of all written materials provided to the Board, but do not have any right to vote on any matter presented to the Board.

Compensation of Directors

Effective in May 2004, each Director who is not an officer or employee of the Company receives an annual cash retainer fee of $20,000, payable in quarterly installments. In addition, each non-employee Director receives $1,500 per Board meeting attended and $1,000 per committee meeting attended. Committee chairmen receive a further retainer fee of $5,000, payable in equal quarterly installments. In addition to the retainers and meeting fees, each non-employee Director receives an annual grant of shares of restricted stock with a value of $40,000 on the date of grant. All of the restrictions on such shares lapse on the first anniversary of the date of grant or, if earlier, the date that the Director's service is terminated for any reason other than removal in accordance with the Company's By-Laws or resignation following conviction of a felony. Non-employee Directors have the option to defer all or part of the cash compensation payable to them.

Directors who are officers or employees do not receive any additional compensation for serving as a Director. Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Conway's employment with CD&R, he has assigned his right to receive compensation for his service as a Director to CD&R. The Company reimburses all Directors for reasonable and necessary expenses they incur in performing their duties as Directors.

Criteria for Potential Directors

The Company's Board is responsible for selecting nominees for election as Directors by stockholders and for filling vacancies on the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for identifying and recommending to the Board individuals for nomination as members of the Board and its committees and, in this regard, reviewing with the Board on an annual basis the current skills, background and expertise of the members of the Board, as well as the Company's future and ongoing needs. This assessment is used to establish criteria for identifying and evaluating potential candidates for the Board. However, as a general matter, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee seeks individuals who demonstrate:

the highest personal and professional integrity, commitment to driving the Company's success;

an ability to provide informed and thoughtful counsel on a range of issues; and exceptional ability and judgment.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers candidates recommended by its members and other Directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will also consider whether to nominate any person recommended by a stockholder pursuant to the provisions of the Company's By-Laws relating to stockholder nominations as described in "Stockholder Proposals and Nominations," below. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee uses the same criteria to evaluate proposed nominees that are recommended by its members and other Directors as it does for stockholder-recommended nominees.

Board Recommendation

The Board believes that voting for each of the three nominees for Director selected by the Board is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The Board recommends a vote "FOR" each of the three nominees for Director.

Pension Plans

Employees Retirement Plan. All U.S. salaried employees who satisfy the service eligibility criteria and who are not participants in the GPIC Retirement Plan (as defined below) are participants in the Riverwood International Employees Retirement Plan (the "Employees Retirement Plan"). Pension benefits under this plan are limited in accordance with the provisions of the Code governing tax-qualified pension plans. The Company also maintains the Supplemental Plan for participants in the Employees Retirement Plan that provides for payment to participants of retirement benefits equal to the excess of the benefits that would have been earned by each participant had the limitations of the Code not applied to the Employees Retirement Plan and the amount actually earned by such participant under such plan. Messrs. Humphrey, Baldwin and Spiller are each eligible to participate in these pension plans. Benefits under the supplemental plan are not pre-funded; such benefits were paid by the Company or through the retirement plan through a qualified supplemental employee's retirement plan.

The Pension Plan Table below sets forth the estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement, including amounts attributable to the supplemental plan, for specified five-year average remuneration levels and years of service.

Annual remuneration, defined as "Salary" in the Employees Retirement Plan, includes amounts paid as bonuses under the annual incentive compensation plan, but excludes payments under any equity incentive plan or long-term incentive plan. Had Messrs. Humphrey, Baldwin and Spiller retired as of December 31, 2004, their respective five-year average salaries, plus bonuses, for purposes of the table set forth above, would have been as follows: Stephen M. Humphrey, $1,257,743; John T. Baldwin, $400,000; and Robert W. Spiller, $404,326.

On December 31, 2004, Messrs. Humphrey, Baldwin and Spiller had the following years of credited service under the retirement plan: Stephen M. Humphrey, 8; John T. Baldwin, 1, and Robert W. Spiller, 2. Estimated benefits have been calculated on the basis of a straight-life annuity form of payment and are not subject to a reduction to reflect the payment of Social Security benefits.

GPIC Retirement Plan. All of the Company's U.S. salaried employees who satisfy the service eligibility criteria and who do not participate in the Employees Retirement Plan participate in the Graphic Packaging Retirement Plan (the "GPIC Retirement Plan"). Pension benefits under the GPIC Retirement Plan are limited in accordance with the provisions of the Code governing tax qualified pension plans. GPIC also maintained the Graphic Packaging Excess Benefit Plan (formerly the ACX Technologies, Inc. Excess Benefit Plan) and the Graphic Packaging Supplemental Retirement Plan (formerly the ACX Technologies, Inc. Supplemental Retirement Plan) that provided the benefits that were not payable from the qualified retirement plan because of limitations under the Code. The Pension Plan Table below sets forth the estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement, including amounts attributable to the non-qualified supplemental retirement plans, for specified remuneration levels and years of service.

Unlike the Employees Retirement Plan, the annual remuneration covered by the GPIC Retirement Plan is salary only and does not include any of the other compensation items shown in the Summary Compensation Table above. The salary used to compute benefits is the average highest salary amount over a 36 consecutive month period in the last 10 years. Had Mr. Coors and Mr. Scheible retired as of December 31, 2004, the average annual compensation covered by the GPIC Retirement Plan would have been $551,505 and $422,657, respectively. On December 31, 2004, Mr. Coors and Mr. Scheible had 36 and 6 credited years of service under the GPIC Retirement Plan, respectively. The benefit is computed on the basis of a straight-life annuity and is subject to a reduction to reflect, in part, the payment of Social Security benefits.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS AND TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE IN CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

Employment Agreement with Stephen M. Humphrey

The Company has an employment agreement dated March 25, 2003, with President and Chief Executive Officer, Stephen M. Humphrey. The agreement has a term of four years and provides that Mr. Humphrey will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and its subsidiaries, GPI Holding, Inc. and Graphic Packaging International, Inc.

Pursuant to this agreement, Mr. Humphrey's base salary was $950,000 from April 1, 2003 to March 31, 2004, and increased to $1,000,000 per year thereafter. During the employment term, Mr. Humphrey is eligible for an annual target bonus of 100% of base salary (with a maximum annual bonus opportunity equal to 200% of base salary) and welfare benefits including life, medical, dental, accidental death and dismemberment, business travel accident, prescription drug and disability insurance. Mr. Humphrey is also eligible to participate in all of the profit sharing, pension, retirement, deferred compensation and savings plans applicable to the Company's executive officers.

If Mr. Humphrey's employment is terminated without cause or he terminates his employment for good reason, Mr. Humphrey will be entitled to receive (in addition to accrued amounts of salary, bonus and other compensation) the following severance benefits:

base salary for the shorter of the remainder of the employment term or three years;

a pro rata bonus for the year in which his employment is terminated, provided that applicable performance objectives have been achieved;

continued life, medical, dental, accidental death and dismemberment and prescription drug insurance benefits for as long as base salary is paid; and reimbursement for outplacement and career counseling services in an amount not to exceed the lesser of $25,000 or 20% of base salary.

A termination is for "cause" under Mr. Humphrey's agreement if it is due to Mr. Humphrey's:

willful failure substantially to perform his duties (other than due to physical or mental illness) or other willful and material breach of any of his obligations under the agreement, after a demand for substantial performance is delivered and a reasonable opportunity to cure is given;

engaging in willful and serious misconduct that has caused or would reasonably be expected to result in material injury to the Company or its affiliates; or conviction of, or entering a plea of nolo contendere to, a felony.

A termination is for "good reason" under Mr. Humphrey's agreement if it is within 30 days of any of the following:

the assignment of duties that are significantly different from and that result in a substantial diminution of his duties at the commencement of the employment term;

the Company's failure to require a successor to assume the agreement;

a reduction in his base salary; or the Company's breach of any of its obligations under the agreement, the option agreement with Mr. Humphrey or any other incentive award agreement granted to Mr. Humphrey.

Upon his retirement, Mr. Humphrey will be entitled to a supplemental retirement benefit equal to the difference between the benefits provided under the Employees Retirement Plan and Supplemental Pension Plan and the benefits he would have received under such plans if he had ten years of service with the Company. Mr. Humphrey will not receive this benefit if his employment is terminated due to death, disability or cause, or if he terminates his employment without good reason or retires before the end of the employment term.

The agreement also amends the vesting schedule of special performance options granted to Mr. Humphrey under a Management Stock Option Agreement dated January 1, 2002. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, one-third of the special performance options granted under the option agreement vested one-third on August 8, 2003, and the remainder will vest in equal installments on August 8, 2005, and August 8, 2006.

Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, 1,140,750 of the unvested performance options granted to Mr. Humphrey under stock incentive plans were exchanged for 228,150 new stock options and 342,225 restricted units. One-third of these options and restricted units, as well as the other unvested performance options held by Mr. Humphrey, vested on August 8, 2004, and the remainder will vest in equal installments on August 8, 2005 and August 8, 2006.

The agreement also provides that Mr. Humphrey may not work for a competitor of the Company for a period of one year after his employment is terminated or the end of his severance period, whichever is later. Mr. Humphrey is also prohibited from soliciting employees of the Company for three years after his termination.

Employment Agreement with Jeffrey H. Coors

Jeffrey H. Coors, who was GPIC's President and Chief Executive Officer, entered into an employment agreement with GPIC dated March 25, 2003. Under Mr. Coors' employment agreement, he serves as the Company's Executive Chairman and as the Executive Chairman of the Company's subsidiaries, GPI Holding, Inc. and Graphic Packaging International, Inc. The agreement has a term of three years and provides for an annual base salary of $555,000, which salary will be reviewed annually.

Under the terms of his agreement, Mr. Coors participates in short-term incentive plans existing from time to time and other incentive plans, in each case as determined by the Compensation and Benefits Committee. He also participates in savings and retirement plans and welfare benefit plans sponsored by the Company. In connection with the Merger, on August 8, 2003, Mr. Coors received the following compensation and benefits from GPIC:

all cash target amounts under GPIC's long-term incentive plans that were not previously paid or had not expired, regardless of whether the performance targets for those plans had been achieved;

the conversion of certain options previously granted under GPIC's equity incentive plan or long-term incentive plans, which options were immediately exercisable and will remain exercisable until August 8, 2013; and restricted stock units representing the right to receive shares of the Company's common stock, one-third of which vested on August 8, 2004, with the remainder vesting in equal increments on August 8, 2005 and August 8, 2006. However, the restricted shares vest in full immediately if: (1) Mr. Coors' employment is terminated without cause, due to death, disability or retirement, or he terminates employment for good reason; or (2) upon a change of control.

Pursuant to these provisions, Mr. Coors received a cash payment of approximately $1.1 million and options worth approximately $0.4 million (based on the difference between the exercise price of the option and GPIC's common stock price of $3.99 per share on August 8, 2003), and 386,885 shares of GPIC restricted stock were converted into restricted stock units convertible into shares of the Company's common stock.

If, during the term of his employment agreement, the Company terminates the employment of Mr. Coors without cause or Mr. Coors terminates his employment for good reason, he would be entitled to receive (in addition to accrued amounts of salary, bonus and other compensation), the following amounts and benefits:

the greater of the amount of his highest bonus under the Company's bonus plan, or any comparable bonus under any predecessor or successor plan, for the last three full fiscal years, and the annual bonus paid or payable to him under the Company's short-term incentive plan or plans;

a lump sum in cash equal to three times:

his highest annual base salary for any of the past three years;

an amount equal to his highest base salary during any of the past three years multiplied by the highest percentage payout of bonus under a short-term incentive plan paid or accrued during any of the past three years; and the highest one-year cash equivalent amount of fringe benefits paid in any of the past three years;

any benefits due under any supplemental executive retirement plan in accordance with the provisions of the plan, with the amount of benefits to be adjusted to reflect five additional years of service and five additional years of age (with such additional years of service to decrease by one for each year of employment following the merger);

welfare benefits for him and his family for three years or, if earlier, until he receives such benefits through subsequent employment; and outplacement services for one year (with a cost not to exceed $15,000).

For purposes of Mr. Coors' employment agreement, a termination is for "cause" if it is due to Mr. Coors':

willful and continued failure to perform substantially his duties (other than due to physical or mental illness), after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered; or willful engagement in illegal conduct or gross misconduct that is materially and demonstrably injurious to the Company.

For purposes of Mr. Coors' employment agreement, a termination is for "good reason" if it is within 90 days of any of the following and without Mr. Coors' consent:

material diminution of his title, responsibilities and duties;

failure to pay compensation;

failure to pay the gross-up described below;

purported termination of employment otherwise than as expressly permitted by the agreement; or mandatory relocation, other than in connection with a promotion, of Mr. Coors' principal office to a location more than 35 miles from the location of such office on August 8, 2003.

If any payments that resulted from the Merger or from the termination of Mr. Coors' employment without cause or for good reason constitute an excess parachute payment (as defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), he is entitled to receive a full gross-up payment to compensate him for the amount of the tax owed.

Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Coors is prohibited from engaging in any of the following activities, both during the term of his employment with the Company and for a period of two years thereafter if his employment is terminated for any reason before the end of the three-year term:

directly or indirectly owning, managing, operating, lending money to or participating in the ownership, management, operation or control of, or serving as a director, officer, employee, partner, consultant, agent or independent contractor with a business or organization in the printing and packaging business in a capacity that assists such competitor in a material respect in the printing and packaging business in the geographic areas where the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates operate;

owning a controlling interest in a business that competes in a material respect in the printing or packaging business in the geographic areas where the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates operate; or soliciting or interfering with the Company's suppliers, customers or employees or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates.

The employment agreement provides, however, that Mr. Coors will not be in violation of the foregoing by virtue of the fact that he owns 5% or less of the outstanding common stock of a corporation, if such stock is listed on a national securities exchange, is reported on NASDAQ or is regularly traded in the over-the-counter market.

Employment Agreement with David W. Scheible

David W. Scheible, who was GPIC's Chief Operating Officer, entered into an employment agreement with GPIC dated as of March 25, 2003. Under Mr. Scheible's agreement, he served as the Executive Vice President of Commercial Operations until his promotion to Chief Operating Officer of the Company and its subsidiaries, GPI Holding, Inc. and Graphic Packaging International, Inc., effective October 1, 2004. The employment agreement has a term of three years beginning August 8, 2003 and provides for an annual base salary of $420,000, which salary will be reviewed annually.

Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Scheible participates in short-term incentive plans existing from time to time and other incentive plans, in each case as determined by the Compensation and Benefits Committee at a level commensurate with other similarly situated executives of the Company. He also participates in savings and retirement plans and welfare benefit plans sponsored by the Company.

In connection with the Merger, on August 8, 2003, Mr. Scheible received the following compensation and benefits from GPIC:

all cash target amounts under GPIC's long-term incentive plans that were not previously paid or had not expired, regardless of whether the performance targets for those plans had been achieved;

the conversion of certain options previously granted under GPIC's equity incentive plan or long-term incentive plans, which options were immediately exercisable and will remain exercisable until August 8, 2013; and restricted stock units representing the right to receive shares of the Company's common stock, one-third of which vested on August 8, 2004, with the remainder vesting in equal increments on August 8, 2005 and August 8, 2006. However, the restricted shares vest in full immediately if: (1) Mr. Scheible's employment is terminated without cause, due to death, disability or retirement, or he terminates employment for good reason; or (2) upon a change of control.

Pursuant to these provisions, Mr. Scheible received a cash payment of approximately $875,000 and 413,710 options worth approximately $606,875 (based on the difference between the exercise price of the option and GPIC's common stock price of $3.99 per share on August 8, 2003), and 315,574 shares of GPIC restricted stock were converted into restricted stock units convertible into shares of the Company's common stock.

If, during the term of his employment agreement the Company terminates the employment of Mr. Scheible without cause or Mr. Scheible terminates his employment for good reason, Mr. Scheible would be entitled to receive (in addition to accrued amounts), the following amounts and benefits:

the greater of the amount of his highest bonus under the Company's bonus plan, or any comparable bonus under any predecessor or successor plan, for the last three full fiscal years, and the annual bonus paid or payable to him under the Company's short-term incentive plan or plans;

a lump sum in cash equal to three times:

his highest annual base salary for any of the past three years;

an amount equal to his highest base salary during any of the past three years multiplied by the highest percentage payout of bonus under a short-term incentive plan paid or accrued during any of the past three years; and

the highest one-year cash equivalent amount of fringe benefits paid in any of the past three years;

any benefits due under any supplemental executive retirement plan in accordance with the provisions of the plan, with the amount of benefits to be adjusted to reflect five additional years of service and five additional years of age (with such additional years of service to decrease by one for each year of employment following the Merger);

welfare benefits for him and his family for three years or, if earlier, until he receives such benefits through subsequent employment; and outplacement services for one year (with a cost not to exceed $15,000).

For purposes of Mr. Scheible's employment agreement, a termination is for "cause" if it is due to Mr. Scheible's:

willful and continued failure to perform substantially his duties (other than due to physical or mental illness), after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered; or willful engagement in illegal conduct or gross misconduct that is materially and demonstrably injurious to the Company.

For purposes of Mr. Scheible's employment agreement, a termination is for "good reason" if it is within 90 days of any of the following and without Mr. Scheible's consent:

material diminution of his title, responsibilities and duties;

failure to pay compensation;

failure to pay the gross-up described below;

purported termination of employment otherwise than as expressly permitted by the agreement; or mandatory relocation, other than in connection with a promotion, of Mr. Scheible's principal office to a location more than 35 miles from the location of such office on August 8, 2003.

If any payments that resulted from the Merger or from the termination of Mr. Scheible's employment without cause or for good reason constitute an excess parachute payment (as defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), he is entitled to receive a full gross-up payment to compensate him for the amount of the tax owed.

Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Scheible is prohibited from engaging in any of the following activities, both during the term of his employment with the Company and for a period of two years thereafter if his employment with the Company is terminated for any reason before the end of the three-year term:

directly or indirectly owning, managing, operating, lending money to or participating in the ownership, management, operation or control of, or serving as a director, officer, employee, partner, consultant, agent or independent contractor with a business or organization in the printing and packaging business in a capacity that assists such competitor in a material respect in the printing and packaging business in the geographic areas where the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates operate;

owning a controlling interest in a business that competes in a material respect in the printing or packaging business in the geographic areas where the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates operate; or soliciting or interfering with the Company's suppliers, customers or employees or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates.

The employment agreement provides, however, that Mr. Scheible will not be in violation of the foregoing by virtue of the fact that he owns 5% or less of the outstanding common stock of a corporation, if such stock is listed on a national securities exchange, is reported on NASDAQ or is regularly traded in the over-the-counter market.

Employment Agreement with John T. Baldwin

The Company entered into an employment agreement with John T. Baldwin to serve as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company and its subsidiaries, GPI Holding, Inc. and Graphic Packaging International, Inc. as of September 8, 2003. The agreement has an initial three-year term that automatically extends for additional one-year periods following the expiration of the initial term. The agreement provides for a minimum base salary of at least $350,000 and for Mr. Baldwin's participation in the Company's incentive compensation programs for similarly situated executives at levels commensurate with his position and duties and as established by the Company's Compensation and Benefits Committee. For 2003, Mr. Baldwin's bonus was guaranteed to be not less than $100,000, and his target bonus opportunity was set at 70% of his base salary.

In the event the Company terminates Mr. Baldwin's employment without cause or Mr. Baldwin terminates his employment for good reason, the agreement provides for severance of:

a pro-rata incentive bonus for the year in which termination of employment occurs, assuming that all performance targets had been achieved as of the termination date; and

base salary and continued welfare benefits for the longer of the remainder of the employment term, one year or a period equal to one month for each full year of service with the Company.

Under the terms of Mr. Baldwin's employment agreement, a termination is for cause if it is due to:

the willful failure to perform his duties (other than due to physical or mental illness) or other willful and material breach of his obligations under his employment agreement or other incentive award agreement, after a written demand for performance is delivered and a reasonable opportunity for cure has been given;

willful and serious misconduct that caused or is reasonably expected to result in material injury to the Company; or conviction of, or the entering of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, a crime that constitutes a felony.

Under Mr. Baldwin's employment agreement, a termination is for "good reason" if it is within 30 days of any of the following and without Mr. Baldwin's consent:

the assignment of duties that are significantly different from and that result in a substantial diminution of his duties at the commencement of the employment term;

the Company's failure to require a successor to assume the agreement;

a reduction in his base salary; or

the Company's breach of any of its obligations under the employment agreement or any other incentive award agreement granted to Mr. Baldwin.

The employment agreement also provides that Mr. Baldwin may not work for a competitor of the Company for a period of one year after his employment is terminated or the end of his severance period, whichever is later. Mr. Baldwin is also prohibited from employing, soliciting employees of the Company for employment or interfering with the Company's relationship with the Company's employees during his employment and until the end of his severance period.

Employment Agreement with Robert W. Spiller

The Company entered into an Employment Agreement with Robert W. Spiller to serve as Senior Vice President, Performance Packaging Division of the Company and its subsidiary, Graphic Packaging International, Inc. as of September 30, 2002. The Agreement has an initial three-year term that automatically extends for additional one-year periods following the expiration of the initial term. Such agreement was amended as of August 7, 2004. The agreement provides for a minimum base salary of at least $350,000 and for Mr. Spiller's participation in the Company's incentive compensation programs for similarly situated executives at levels commensurate with his position and duties and as established by the Company's Compensation and Benefits Committee, with an annual target bonus opportunity of 70% of base salary. In the event the Company terminates Mr. Spiller's employment without cause or Mr. Spiller terminates his employment for good reason, the agreement provides for severance of:

a pro-rata incentive bonus for the year in which termination of employment occurs, assuming that all performance targets had been achieved; and

base salary and continued welfare benefits for the longer of the remainder of the employment term, one year or a period equal to one month for each full year of service with the Company.

Under the terms of Mr. Spiller's employment agreement, a termination is for cause if it is due to:

the willful failure to perform his duties (other than due to physical or mental illness) or other willful and material breach of his obligations under his employments agreement or other incentive award agreement, after a written demand for performance is delivered and a reasonable opportunity for cure has been given;

willful and serious misconduct that caused or is reasonably expected to result in material injury to the Company; or conviction of, or the entering of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, a crime that constitutes a felony.

Under Mr. Spiller's employment agreement, a termination is for "good reason" if it is within 30 days of any of the following and without Mr. Spiller's consent:

the assignment of duties that are significantly different from and that result in a substantial diminution of his duties at the commencement of the employment term;

the Company's failure to require a successor to assume the agreement;

a reduction in his base salary; or

the Company's breach of any of its obligations under the employment agreement or any other incentive award agreement granted to Mr. Spiller.

The employment agreement also provides that Mr. Spiller may not work for a competitor of the Company for a period of one year after his employment is terminated or the end of his severance period, whichever is later. Mr. Spiller is also prohibited from employing, soliciting employees of the Company for employment or interfering with the Company's relationship with the Company's employees during his employment and until the end of his severance period.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Stockholders Agreement

The Company entered into a Stockholders Agreement with the Coors family stockholders and certain related Coors family trusts (the "Coors Family Stockholders"), the CD&R Fund and EXOR, dated as of March 25, 2003, as amended (the "Stockholders Agreement"), under which the parties thereto made certain agreements regarding matters further described below, including the voting of their shares and governance after the Merger.

Board of Directors. The Stockholders Agreement provides that the Company's Board will consist of nine members, classified into three classes. Each of the three classes consist initially of three Directors, the initial terms of which would expire, respectively, at the first, second and third annual meetings of stockholders following the Merger.

Designation Rights. The Stockholders Agreement provides that a representative of the Coors Family Stockholders, the CD&R Fund and EXOR have the right, subject to requirements related to stock ownership, to designate a person for nomination for election to the Board. The Coors family representative is entitled to designate one person for nomination for election to the Company's Board for so long as the Coors Family Stockholders, in the aggregate, own at least 5% of the fully-diluted shares of the Company's common stock. The CD&R Fund is entitled to designate one person for nomination for election to the Board: (1) for so long as it owns at least 5% of the fully-diluted shares of Company's common stock, or (2) for so long as it owns less than 5% of such shares and the other stockholders, the CD&R Fund and EXOR continue to own, in the aggregate, at least 30% of such shares. EXOR is entitled to designate one person for nomination for election to the Board for so long as it owns at least 5% of the fully-diluted shares of the Company's common stock.

Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, at each meeting of stockholders at which Directors of the Company are to be elected, the Board of Directors will recommend that the stockholders elect to the Board the designees of the individuals designated by the Coors family representative, CD&R and EXOR. In addition, for so long as Stephen M. Humphrey serves as Chief Executive Officer, the Stockholders Agreement provides that he will be nominated for election to the Board at any meeting of the stockholders at which Directors of his class are to be elected.

Currently, Mr. Coors serves on the Board as the Coors Family Stockholders' designee, Mr. Conway serves on the Board as the CD&R Fund's designee and Mr. Botta serves on the Board as EXOR's designee.

Independent Directors. The Stockholders Agreement further provides that each of the other Directors, not designated in the manner described above, will be an independent Director designated for nomination by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. In the event that the Coors family representative, the CD&R Fund or EXOR loses the right to designate a person to the Board, such designee will resign immediately upon receiving notice from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee that it has identified a replacement Director, and will resign in any event no later than 120 days after the designating person or entity loses the right to designate such designee to the Board. At such time as Mr. Humphrey is no longer Chief Executive Officer, he will similarly resign upon receipt of notice from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and, in any event, no later than 120 days after ceasing to serve as Chief Executive Officer.

Agreement to Vote for Directors; Vacancies. Each party to the Stockholders Agreement agreed to vote all of the shares owned by such stockholder in favor of Mr. Humphrey (for so long as he is Chief Executive Officer) and each of the parties' designees to the Board, and to take all other steps within such stockholder's power to ensure that the composition of the Board is as contemplated by the Stockholders Agreement. As long as the Coors family representative, the CD&R Fund or EXOR, as the case may be, has the right to designate a person for nomination for election to the Board, at any time at which the seat occupied by such party's designee becomes vacant as a result of death, disability, retirement, resignation, removal or otherwise, such party will be entitled to designate for appointment by the remaining Directors an individual to fill such vacancy and to serve as a Director.

Actions of the Board; Affiliate Agreements. The Stockholders Agreement provides that a Board decision regarding the Merger, consolidation or sale of substantially all the Company's assets would require the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office. In addition, the decision to enter into, modify or terminate any agreement with an affiliate of the Coors Family Stockholders, CD&R or EXOR will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors not nominated by a stockholder which, directly or indirectly through an affiliate, has an interest in that agreement.

Board Committees. The Stockholders Agreement provides for the Board to have an Audit Committee, a Compensation and Benefits Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee as follows:

The Audit Committee will have three members, consisting of the Directors designated by the CD&R Fund and the Coors family representative and one independent Director. The Audit Committee will have the authority, at its discretion, to invite the Director designated by EXOR to attend meetings of the Audit Committee as a non-voting observer.

The Compensation and Benefits Committee will have three members, consisting of the Directors designated by the CD&R Fund and the Coors family representative and one independent Director. None of the Company's employees (other than Mr. Coors) will serve on this committee. The Director designated by EXOR has the right to attend meetings of the Compensation and Benefits Committee as a non-voting observer.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will have five members, consisting of the Directors designated by the CD&R Fund, the Coors family representative and EXOR and two independent Directors. None of the Company's employees (other than Mr. Coors) will serve on this committee.

The rights of the CD&R Fund, the Coors family representative and EXOR to have its Director designee sit as a member of Board committees will cease when such stockholder holds less than 5% of the Company's fully-diluted shares of common stock, except that the CD&R Fund will continue to have such right so long as the Company's stockholders immediately before the closing of the Merger own, in the aggregate, at least 30% of the fully-diluted shares of the Company's common stock. The Board will fill any committee seats that become vacant in the manner provided in the preceding sentence with independent Directors.

Transfer Restrictions. The parties to the Stockholders Agreement had agreed not to transfer any of the Company's shares of common stock during the restricted period (defined below), except for transfers to certain affiliated permitted transferees that agreed to be bound by the Stockholders Agreement, and a sale to the public pursuant to an effective registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"). The "restricted period" began on August 8, 2003 and ended on February 8, 2005.

Termination. The Stockholders Agreement will remain in effect until terminated by unanimous agreement or until such time as no more than one of the CD&R Fund, EXOR or the CD&R Fund and the other stockholders in the aggregate, or the Coors Family Stockholders holds 5% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock on a fully-diluted basis. In addition, the Stockholders Agreement will terminate as to any stockholder party at such time as such stockholder no longer owns any of the Company's shares of common stock.

Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement

The Company and the parties to the Stockholders Agreement and the Company's stockholders immediately before the Merger are parties to an Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March 25, 2003, under which the parties agreed to amend and restate the previous registration rights agreement in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger agreement.

The Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement provides that holders of 15% or more of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock may request that the Company effect the registration under the Securities Act of all or part of such holders' registrable securities. Upon receiving such request, the Company is required to give prompt written notice of such requested registration to all holders of registrable securities and to use its reasonable best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of all registrable securities that the Company has been requested to register. After the expiration of 180 days after the closing of an initial secondary offering, holders of 5% or more of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock may again request that the Company effect the registration under the Securities Act of all or part of such holders' registrable securities.

With respect to the first two requests to effect registration of registrable securities, the Company is not required to effect such registration if such requests relate to less than 15% of the outstanding shares of common stock or, without the approval of the Board, more than 25% of the outstanding shares. Any request for registration of registrable securities after the first two requests will be subject to a minimum offering size of 5% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock. The Company will pay all expenses in connection with the first four successfully effected registrations requested. The Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement also provides that, with certain exceptions, the parties thereto have certain incidental registration rights in the event that the Company at any time proposes to register any of its equity securities and the registration form to be used may be used for the registration of securities otherwise registrable under the Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement.

The CD&R Fund

The CD&R Fund is a private investment fund managed by CD&R. The general partner of the CD&R Fund is Associates V, and the general partners of Associates V are Associates II, CD&R Investment Associates, Inc., and CD&R Cayman Investment Associates, Inc. Mr. Ames, who is a principal of CD&R, a Director of Associates II and a limited partner of Associates V, was the Chairman of the Board of Riverwood until the Merger. Mr. Conway, who is a principal of CD&R, a Director of Associates II and a limited partner of Associates V, is one of the Company's Directors. The CD&R Fund purchased $225 million of the Company's equity in 1996.

During the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company paid CD&R a management fee of $470,000 for providing management and financial consulting services. In addition, under the terms of the Stockholders Agreement, the Company also paid a transaction fee of $10 million to CD&R for assistance in connection with negotiation of all aspects of the Merger, including the contribution analysis, financial and business due diligence, structure of the proposed refinancing and arranging for proposals by and handling negotiations with financing sources to provide funds for the refinancing. The Company made no payments to CD&R in 2004, other than payments earned by Mr. Conway for service as a Director, which Mr. Conway assigned to CD&R.

The Company entered into an indemnification agreement dated March 27, 1996, with CD&R and the CD&R Fund pursuant to which the Company agreed to indemnify CD&R, the CD&R Fund, Associates V, Associates II, together with any other general partner of Associates V, and their respective directors, officers, partners, employees, agents, advisors, representatives and controlling persons against certain liabilities arising under the federal securities laws, liabilities arising out of the performance of a certain consulting agreement between the Company and CD&R that is no longer effective, and certain other claims and liabilities.

Management Indebtedness

In November 1999, the Company lent Stephen M. Humphrey, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, $5.0 million pursuant to a full-recourse, non-interest bearing promissory note, which was amended in December 2001. The promissory note will become due and payable on the earlier of March 26, 2007, and such time as Mr. Humphrey voluntarily terminates his employment other than for "good reason" or the Company terminates his employment for "cause," in each case as defined in Mr. Humphrey's employment agreement. If payment on the note is not made when due, the payment will bear interest, payable on demand, equal to 5.93% per year. The note will be forgiven and will not have to be repaid if, on or before March 26, 2007, Mr. Humphrey terminates his employment for "good reason," the Company terminates Mr. Humphrey's employment without "cause" or because of his "disability," in each case as defined in his employment agreement, or Mr. Humphrey's employment terminates because of his death. As of April 1, 2005, $5.0 million remained outstanding under the note.

Effective July 30, 2002, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 prohibits the granting of any personal loans to or for the benefit of any of the Company's executive officers or Directors and the modification or renewal of any such existing personal loans. The Company has not granted any new personal loans to or for the benefit of the executive officers or Directors or modified or renewed the loan to Mr. Humphrey since the effective date of such provision.

Coors Family Relationships

William K. Coors, Joseph Coors, Jr., Jeffrey H. Coors, John K. Coors, J. Bradford Coors, Peter H. Coors, Melissa E. Coors and Christian Coors Ficeli are co-trustees of one or more of the Coors family trusts and, along with Holland Coors, the Adolph Coors Foundation, which collectively own approximately 30% of the Company's common stock. In addition, one of those trusts owns approximately 30% of the voting common stock of Molson Coors Brewing Company (formerly, the Adolph Coors Company) and a related entity owns 100% of CoorsTek, Inc. ("CoorsTek").

Jeffrey H. Coors, John K. Coors, Joseph Coors, Jr., and Peter H. Coors are brothers. Jeffrey H. Coors is the Company's Executive Chairman and a member of the Board and of the Board of Directors of the Company's subsidiaries, GPI Holding, Inc. and Graphic Packaging International, Inc. J. Bradford Coors is the son of Joseph Coors, Jr., and an employee of CoorsTek. Melissa E. Coors and Christian Coors Ficeli are Peter H. Coors' daughters and employees of Molson Coors Brewing Company. William K. Coors is a Director Emeritus on the Company's Board. Peter H. Coors is an executive officer and Director of Molson Coors Brewing Company. John K. Coors is an executive officer and Director of CoorsTek. The Company, Molson Coors Brewing Company (or its predecessor, the Adolph Coors Company) and CoorsTek, or their subsidiaries, have certain business relationships and have engaged in certain transactions with one another, as described below.

Transactions with Adolph Coors Company. On December 28, 1992, GPIC was spun off from Adolph Coors Company and since that time Adolph Coors Company had no ownership interest in GPIC. However, certain Coors family trusts had significant interests in both GPIC and Adolph Coors Company. GPIC also entered into various business arrangements with the Coors family trusts and related entities from time-to-time since its spin-off. GPIC's policy was to negotiate market prices and competitive terms with all third parties, including related parties.

GPIC originated as the packaging division of Adolph Coors Company. At the time of the spin-off from Adolph Coors Company, GPIC entered into an agreement with Coors Brewing Company to continue to supply its packaging needs. The Company executed a new supply agreement, effective April 1, 2004, with Coors Brewing Company (now a subsidiary of Molson Coors Brewing Company) that expires on December 31, 2006. The Company continues to sell packaging products to Coors Brewing Company; such sales accounted for approximately $110.3 million of the Company's consolidated net sales for the year ended December 31, 2004.

One of the Company's subsidiaries, Golden Equities, Inc., is the general partner in a limited partnership in which Coors Brewing Company is the limited partner. Before the Merger, Golden Equities was a subsidiary of GPIC. The partnership owns, develops, operates and sells certain real estate previously owned directly by Coors Brewing Company or Adolph Coors Company. Coors Brewing Company was allocated $484,000 as its share of the partnership's profit in 2004.

Transactions with CoorsTek. The spin-off of CoorsTek from GPIC was made pursuant to a distribution agreement between GPIC and CoorsTek in December 1999. It established the procedures to effect the spin-off and contractually provided for the distribution of the CoorsTek common stock to GPIC's stockholders, the allocation to CoorsTek of certain assets and liabilities and the transfer to and assumption by CoorsTek of those assets and liabilities. In the distribution agreement, CoorsTek agreed to repay all outstanding intercompany debt owed by CoorsTek to GPIC together with a special dividend. The total amount of the repayment and the special dividend was $200 million. Under the distribution agreement, GPIC and CoorsTek each agreed to retain, and to make available to the other, books and records and related assistance for audit, accounting, claims defense, legal, insurance, tax, disclosure, benefit administration and other business purposes. CoorsTek also agreed to indemnify GPIC if the CoorsTek spin-off is taxable under certain circumstances or if GPIC incurred certain liabilities. The tax sharing agreement defines the parties' rights and obligations with respect to deficiencies and refunds of federal, state and other taxes relating to the CoorsTek business for tax years preceding the CoorsTek spin-off and with respect to certain tax attributes of CoorsTek after the CoorsTek spin-off.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS COMMITTEE

The main responsibilities of the Compensation and Benefits Committee are to establish the Company's general compensation philosophy, to oversee the development and implementation of compensation programs and to balance appropriately the competing factors that influence management compensation. These factors include pay for performance and retention of key executives, short-term and long-term focus, and internal and external measures of success. The goal is a program that drives stockholder value and encourages key members of management to remain with the Company.

The Compensation and Benefits Committee has engaged an independent compensation consultant to assist the committee in its deliberations regarding executive compensation. The consultant provides market data and assists in program design. The consultant works with both the Compensation and Benefits Committee and management, but reports to the Compensation and Benefits Committee.

Elements of the Executive Pay Program

The three key elements of the Company's executive compensation program are discussed below. The compensation philosophy for each is also discussed.

Salary. Salary is established by the Compensation and Benefits Committee after evaluating each executive's performance for the prior year, as well as any changes in responsibilities and scope of work. Salary levels are set to encourage ongoing performance throughout the year. The Compensation and Benefits Committee sets executive salaries between the 50th and 75th percentiles of a general industry peer group composed of manufacturing companies of a similar size to the Company. Use of up to the 75th percentile reflects the fact that bonus payouts under the short-term incentive plan require significant improvements in performance. This is discussed further below.

Actual changes to base salaries occur on a non-regular basis that is generally at least 12 months after the most recent prior adjustment for the individual. Base salary changes take into account market data for similar positions, the executive's experience and time in position, and individual performance.

Short-Term Incentives. The Company's short-term incentive plan, the Management Incentive Plan (the "MIP") provides cash awards based upon the accomplishment by the Company of performance thresholds established at the beginning of each year. Payouts under the MIP are determined based on the Company's achievement of earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") and free cash flow targets. Under the MIP, EBITDA is weighted 67% and free cash flow is weighted 33%. Although the measures overlap somewhat, the Compensation and Benefits Committee believes that for 2005, both measures are important. The Compensation and Benefits Committee set goals for those measures that reflect superior performance when compared to similar companies, and analysis indicates that prior year goals have been set at or above the 75th percentile of industry performance. As a result, should executives reach those goals, the plan will pay at approximately the 75th percentile of the market in base salary plus bonus. Should the Company fail to reach the goals, however, the MIP will pay out to a lesser degree, and will pay nothing if the threshold goals are not met.

Long-Term Incentives and Repricing. In connection with the Merger, some prior long-term incentive grants at Riverwood and GPIC were converted into new stock options and restricted stock under the 2003 Riverwood Holding, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan. No long-term incentive grants were made during 2004, during which the Company developed a new long-term incentive program that meets various goals including pay for performance, aligning the long-term interests of management with stockholders and promoting an ownership mindset. The program provides flexibility to the Compensation and Benefits Committee to assess Company results and reward outstanding performance. Grants were made under the new program in March 2005.

Perquisites

Executives are provided perquisites as part of the Company's overall executive compensation program. These perquisites generally include reimbursements for financial counseling and tax preparation, an annual executive physical and social club membership fees. Certain executive officers are provided different perquisites as stipulated in their employment agreements. These perquisites include flexible perquisite and car allowances, and additional executive life insurance.

Basis for Chief Executive Officer Compensation

During 2004, the Company paid Mr. Humphrey $987,500 in salary pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement dated March 31, 2003. Mr. Humphrey's base salary was determined when the contract was signed, and is slightly above the 75th percentile of the general industry manufacturing market for companies near the Company's size (per the Company's executive compensation philosophy as noted above.) The Company also paid Mr. Humphrey a cash bonus of $982,563 for 2004, based on EBITDA and free cash flow as discussed above. For 2004, the Company's EBITDA was below the target goal and its free cash flow was above the target goal.

For 2005 and future years, Mr. Humphrey's contract sets his target bonus at 100% of base salary, with a maximum opportunity equal to 200% of base salary. The total of Mr. Humphrey's base salary and target bonus is at the 75th percentile of the market. Again, this presumes performance goals that represent 75th percentile performance.

No long-term incentive grants were made to Mr. Humphrey in 2004 as discussed above. In addition, no grants were made to him in March 2005 when grants to other executives were made. Mr. Humphrey does not participate in a voluntary deferred compensation program; no such program is available at the Company. The Company does not maintain a company plane.

Income Tax Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Code limits the deductibility of certain executives' compensation that exceeds $1 million per year, unless the compensation is paid under a performance-based plan, as defined in the Code, that has been approved by stockholders. The Company has obtained stockholder approval of the 2004 Plan. However, because the Compensation and Benefits Committee's policy is to maximize long-term stockholder value, tax deductibility is only one factor considered in setting compensation.

Summary

We believe that the policies and programs described in this report link pay and performance and serve the best interests of the Company's stockholders. The Compensation and Benefits Committee regularly tests the Company's executive pay plans and policies and modifies them as necessary to continue to achieve the appropriate balance of factors.

PROPOSAL 2—AMENDMENT OF THE RIVERWOOD HOLDING, INC. STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

General

The Company is seeking stockholder approval of an amendment of the 1996 SIP to permit the extension of the terms of certain stock options granted to employees of the Company in 1996 and 1997 and to facilitate a cashless method of exercising stock options that does not require the concurrent sale of shares into the open market. Specifically, the amendment would (i) permit the Compensation and Benefits Committee of the Company to extend (x) the termination date of stock options granted under the 1996 SIP by three years for a maximum 13-year term and (y) the time period after Retirement, as defined in the 1996 SIP, during which the stock options may be exercised to a maximum of three years (but not to exceed the 13-year maximum term), (ii) redefine the term "Retirement" in the 1996 SIP to mean termination of employment by a participant in the 1996 SIP (a "Participant") with age and years of service credit totaling at least 65, with the minimum age at which a participant may be considered retired being 55, and (iii) remove the requirement that shares of the Company's common stock be held for a period of at least six months in order to be used as payment of the exercise price for stock options. The purposes of the amendment are to modify the outstanding stock options so that they provide the compensation and incentive value intended when originally granted, which is currently negatively impacted by the thinly-traded nature of the Company's common stock, and to update the definition of retirement to be consistent with that found in the 2004 Plan.

Material Features of the 1996 SIP

The following summary of the 1996 SIP is qualified in its entirety by the specific language of the 1996 SIP, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this summary shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the 1996 SIP.

Authorized Shares and Awards. The 1996 SIP authorizes the issuance of up to 10,570,950 shares of common stock (after giving effect to the 15.21-to-1 stock split effected immediately prior to the Merger) to executive officers and other key management employees of the Company selected by the Board to participate. Permitted awards under the 1996 SIP consisted of non-qualified stock options or rights to purchase shares, although the 1996 SIP was amended as of August 8, 2003 to provide that no additional awards would be made thereunder. As of April 1, 2005, only 21 of the 29 Participants in the 1996 SIP had outstanding grants of stock options under the 1996 SIP.

Eligibility. The 1996 SIP authorized awards only to executive officers and other key management employees of the Company and any successor to the Company.

Administration. The Board of Directors is responsible for administering the 1996 SIP, although the Board may delegate all of the powers, duties and responsibilities to the Compensation Committee (or another committee of the Board responsible for compensation of officers) to the full extent permitted by law. As of April 3, 1996, the Board delegated responsibility for administration of the 1996 SIP to the Compensation and Benefits Committee.

Stock Options. Stock options granted under the 1996 SIP must be evidenced by a written agreement between the Participant and the Company that specifies the number of shares subject to options, the exercise price per share, the duration or term of the options and the other terms and conditions of the award. The exercise price per share is determined by the Compensation and Benefits Committee, and, unless otherwise specified in an agreement evidencing an award of stock options, may not be less than the fair market value of a share on the date the option is granted. Under Section 6.3(c) of the 1996 SIP, no option could be exercisable for more than 10 years after the date of grant, although if this proposal to amend the 1996 SIP receives stockholder approval, the last sentence of Section 6.3(c) will be changed to provide that no options shall be exercisable for more than 13 years after the date of grant.

The 1996 SIP provides that the Compensation and Benefits Committee shall establish procedures governing the exercise of stock options, including procedures for providing notice to the Company and paying the exercise price in full in cash or cash equivalents at the time of exercise. Section 6.4 of the 1996 SIP allows the payment of the exercise price in full or in part in the form of shares of the Company's common stock that have been held for at least six months prior to the date of exercise. If this proposal to amend the 1996 SIP receives stockholder approval, however, the 1996 SIP will be changed to eliminate the requirement that shares tendered in payment be held for six months prior to the date of exercise. This will allow Participants greater flexibility to utilize this method of payment of the exercise price, which is not dependent upon an active public market for the Company's common stock.

Rights to Purchase Common Stock. In addition to stock options, the 1996 SIP also permitted awards of rights to purchase shares directly from the Company from time to time at a price and subject to such terms and conditions as may be established by the Board. Currently no rights to purchase shares are outstanding and no additional awards of such rights may be made.

Termination of Employment. Unless otherwise provided in the agreement evidencing an award of stock options under the 1996 SIP, upon termination of employment due to death, Permanent Disability or Retirement all "Service Options" become fully vested as of the date of such termination and a proportionate share of all "Performance Options" become fully vested pursuant to the formula set forth in Section 8.1 of the 1996 SIP. "Service Options" are defined as options that vest based upon an employee's completion of service and "Performance Options" are defined as options that vest based on the financial performance of the Company and its subsidiaries. Section 8.1 of the 1996 SIP currently specifies that following termination, such vested options are exercisable until the first to occur of (i) the one-year anniversary of the date of the Participant's termination of employment or (ii) the expiration of the term of the option. If this proposal to amend the 1996 SIP is approved, however, Section 8.1 of the 1996 SIP will be changed to permit vested options to be exercisable until the first to occur of (i) the first anniversary of the date of the Participant's termination of employment due to death or Permanent Disability or the third anniversary of the date of the Participant's termination of employment due to Retirement or (ii) the expiration of the term of the option. In addition, the definition of "Retirement" set forth in Section 2.1(bb) of the 1996 SIP will be changed from retirement from active employment at or after age 65 to mean a Participant's termination of employment with age and years of service credit totaling at least 65, with the minimum age at which a Participant may be considered retired being 55. This change will make the definition of Retirement in the 1996 SIP consistent with the 2004 Plan.

Unless otherwise provided in the agreement evidencing an award of stock options under the 1996 SIP, upon termination of employment for Cause, all options, whether vested or unvested, shall terminate immediately. Upon termination for any reason other than death, Permanent Disability, Retirement or Cause, any unvested stock options shall terminate and be cancelled and any vested stock options may be exercised until the first to occur of (i) the 60th day after the date of termination or (ii) the expiration of the term of the options.

Change of Control. The 1996 SIP provides that in the event of a change of control, Participants are entitled to receive a cash payment for each Service Option (whether vested or not) equal to the price per share paid in connection with the change of control transaction less the exercise price of such option. Participants are entitled to receive a similar payment for vested Performance Options based upon the formula set forth in Section 8.1 of the 1996 SIP.

Transferability. No options granted under the 1996 SIP may be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned or otherwise alienated other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution.

Amendment. The 1996 SIP may be amended, modified, terminated or suspended by the Board of Directors, provided that no amendment, modification, termination or suspension of the 1996 SIP will in any manner adversely affect any award previously granted without the consent of the Participant holding such award. Stockholder approval for any such amendment, modification, termination or suspension must be obtained to the extent required by applicable law or if otherwise deemed appropriate by the Company's Board of Directors.

On April 15, 2005, the closing price of the Company's common stock on the NYSE was $3.88 per share.

Summary of U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following summary generally describes the principal federal income tax consequences of the non-qualified stock options granted under the 1996 SIP as of this time. The summary is general in nature and is not intended to cover all tax consequences that may apply to a particular employee or to the Company. The provisions of the Code and regulations thereunder relating to equity compensation are complicated and their impact in any one case may depend upon the particular circumstances.

In general, when a Participant in the 1996 SIP is granted non-qualified stock options, he or she will not recognize any taxable income. Upon exercise of the stock options, however, the difference between the fair market value of the stock on the date of exercise and the aggregate exercise price will constitute taxable ordinary income to the Participant on the date of exercise. Generally, the Company will be entitled to a deduction in the same year in an amount equal to the income taxable to the Participant. The Participant's basis in shares of common stock acquired upon the exercise of stock options will equal the exercise price plus the amount of income taxable at the time of exercise. Any subsequent disposition of the stock by the Participant will be taxed as a capital gain or loss to the Participant, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Participant has held the stock for more than one year at the time of sale.

The Company generally will not be entitled to a federal income tax deduction upon the grant or termination of a non-qualified stock option, or upon the sale or disposition of the shares acquired upon the exercise of a non-qualified stock option. Upon exercise, however, the Company will be entitled to a deduction for federal income tax purposes equal to the amount of ordinary income that a Participant is required to recognize as a result of the exercise, provided that the deduction is not otherwise disallowed under the Code.

Awards of stock options under the 1996 SIP may, in some cases, result in the deferral of compensation that is subject to the requirements of Code Section 409A ("Section 409A"). To date, the U.S. Treasury Department and Internal Revenue Service have issued only preliminary guidance regarding the impact of Section 409A on the taxation of these types of awards. Generally, to the extent that any award that is subject to Section 409A fails to meet certain requirements under Section 409A, the award will be subject to immediate taxation and tax penalties in the year in which the award fails to conform to the requirements of Section 409A. It is the Company's current intent that amendment of awards under the 1996 SIP will be structured and administered in a manner that complies with the requirements of Section 409A.

Option Grants to be Amended

If the amendment to the 1996 SIP outlined above is approved, the Compensation and Benefits Committee currently intends to extend the maximum terms of 3,764,600 stock options granted to 19 employees in June 1996 and March 1997. Under their original terms, 519,575 of such stock options expire in 2006 and 3,245,025 of such options expire in 2007. None of the Company's Named Executive Officers, Directors or nominees for Director will be affected by the extension of the term of the stock options, except Mr. Stephen M. Humphrey, who serves a President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and is a nominee for election as a Director at the Annual Meeting, who holds all of the stock options expiring in 2007. Mr. Humphrey has three tranches of 1,081,675 vested stock options with per share exercise prices of $6.57, $4.93 and $3.28, respectively. Other than Mr. Humphrey, no Participant has received 5% or more of the outstanding options under the 1996 SIP.

The only other executive officer of the Company holding stock options that the Compensation and Benefits Committee currently intends to extend is Mr. Michael R. Schmal, who holds 60,840 stock options with an exercise price of $6.57 per share. In addition to Mr. Humphrey and Mr. Schmal, the Compensation and Benefits Committee intends to extend the terms of 458,735 options with an exercise price of $6.57 per share held by 17 management employees of the Company. The Compensation and Benefits Committee does not currently intend to extend the terms of 164,258 stock options with an exercise price of $6.57 per share held by two executive officers of the Company granted in 1999. Including options held by these two executive officers, the Company's executive officers as a group hold 3,470,123 options under the 1996 SIP.

Board Recommendation

The Board of Directors believes that the proposed amendment to the 1996 SIP is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The Board of Directors recommends a vote "FOR" approval of the amendment to the 1996 SIP.

AUDIT MATTERS

Report of the Audit Committee

This report by the Audit Committee is required by the rules of the SEC. It is not to be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement that incorporates by reference this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, and it is not to be otherwise deemed filed under either such Act.

The Audit Committee is currently comprised of three members, each of which is an "independent director," as defined by Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual. Each of the members of the Audit Committee is financially literate and each qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" under federal securities laws. The Audit Committee's purposes are to assist the Board in overseeing: (a) the quality and integrity of the Company's financial statements; (b) the qualifications and independence of the Company's independent auditors; and (c) the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors.

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee has:

reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements with management; discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed with audit committees by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended; and received the written disclosures and the letter from the Company's independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with independent auditors their independence.

Based on the review and discussions noted above and the Company's independent auditors' report to the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004.

Principal Accountant–Audit and Non-Audit Fees

Aggregate fees for professional services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's principal accountants ("PWC"), are as follows:

	Year Ended
	December 31,
	2004	2003
	(in millions)
Audit Fees	$ 3.8	$ 1.6
Audit-Related Fees	0.3	1.5
Tax Fees	0.0	0.1
All Other Fees	0.1	1.5
Total	$ 4.2	$ 4.7

Audit Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered for the audits of the Company's consolidated financial statements for fiscal years ended December 31, 2004, and December 31, 2003, for the reviews of the financial statements included in the quarterly reports on Form 10-Q during 2004 and 2003, and for services that are normally provided by PWC in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for the relevant fiscal years.

Audit-Related Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed in each of the last two fiscal years for assurance and related services by PWC that are reasonably related to the performance of the audits or reviews of the financial statements and are not reported under "Audit Fees," as noted above. These services consist of fees for accounting consultation and audits of employee benefit plans, and in 2003, fees for due diligence done in connection with the Merger.

Tax Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed in each of the last two fiscal years for professional services rendered by PWC for tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice.

All Other Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed in each of the last two fiscal years for products and services provided by PWC that are not reported under "Audit Fees," "Audit-Related Fees" or "Tax Fees," as noted above.

The Audit Committee reviews and pre-approves audit and non-audit services performed by PWC, the Company's independent auditors, as well as the fees charged for such services. Pre-approval is generally provided for up to one year, is detailed as to the particular service or category of service and is subject to a specific budget. The Audit Committee may also pre-approve particular services on a case-by-case basis. The Chairman of the Audit Committee may grant pre-approval authority for such services, and such pre-approval is then presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting for ratification.

The Audit Committee has considered and determined the fees charged for services other than "Audit Fees" discussed above are compatible with maintaining independence by PWC. Beginning May 6, 2004, 100% of the audit and non-audit services provided by PWC were pre-approved by the Audit Committee in accordance with the Audit Committee Charter.

Independent Auditors

Upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board has reappointed PWC as independent auditors to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005. PWC has served in such capacity continuously since June 2002.

Representatives of PWC are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, where they will have the opportunity to make a statement, if they desire to do so, and be available to respond to appropriate questions.

A proposed nomination or proposal will also be disregarded if the stockholder or a qualified representative of the stockholder does not appear at the Annual Meeting of stockholders to present the nomination or proposal, notwithstanding that the Company may have received proxies with respect of such vote.

6.3. Exercise of Options.

(a) Service Options. Unless otherwise provided by the Board in the Option Agreement evidencing such Award, subject to the continuous employment of the Participant with the Company or one of the Subsidiaries, Service Options granted to a Participant shall become vested in five equal annual installments on each of the first five anniversaries of the date of grant, provided that in all events 100% of such Service Options shall become exercisable (i) at the time and under the circumstances described in Sections 9.1 or 10, if applicable, or (ii)(x) in the event that the CD&R Fund and, if applicable, its Affiliates effect a sale or other disposition of all of the Common Stock then held by the CD&R Fund and its Affiliates to one or more persons other than any person who is an Affiliate of the CD&R Fund and (y) thereafter, the Participant's employment with the Company and the Subsidiaries is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or, to the extent provided in the Award Agreement evidencing such Service Options, by the Participant for "good reason" (as defined in such Option Agreement) (a "Disposition Transaction and Termination"), as of the date of such termination.

(b) Performance Options. Unless otherwise provided by the Board in the Option Agreement evidencing such Award, subject to Section 9.1 and 10, no portion of any Performance Options shall become vested unless and until the Company shall have achieved the EBITDA target specified in the Option Agreement evidencing such Performance Options and provided the Participant is in the continuous employment of the Company or one of the Subsidiaries from the date of grant to the date such target is achieved, provided, however, that in the event of a Disposition Transaction and Termination, a proportionate share of any Performance Options that have not vested and become exercisable on or prior to the date of such Disposition Transaction and Termination shall vest and become exercisable as of such date, such proportionate share to equal the product of (i) the percentage obtained by dividing (x) the cumulative EBITDA achieved by the Company as of the last day of the calendar quarter ending coincident with or immediately prior to the date of the Disposition Transaction and Termination by (y) the EBITDA target specified in the Option Agreement, multiplied by (ii) the total number of Shares subject to the Performance Options. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (b), subject to the continuous employment of the Participant with the Company or one of the Subsidiaries, Performance Options shall become vested in full, nine years and six months following the date of grant, regardless of whether the applicable EBITDA target shall have been achieved.

(c) Conditions. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, the Board may accelerate the vesting or exercisability of any Option, all Options or any class of Options, at any time and from time to time. On or before the date upon which any Employee will exercise any exercisable Option, the Company and such Employee shall enter into a Subscription Agreement with respect to the Common Stock to be purchased upon exercise of such Option. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, no Option shall be exercisable for more than 10 years after the date on which it is granted.

6.4. Payment. The Board shall establish procedures governing the exercise of Options, which procedures shall generally require that written notice of the exercise thereof be given and that the exercise price thereof be paid in full in cash or cash equivalents, including by personal check, at the time of exercise. The exercise price of any Options exercised at any time following a Public Offering may be paid in full or in part in the form of shares of Common Stock that have been owned by the Participant for at least six months, based on the Fair Market Value of such shares of Common Stock on the date of exercise, subject to such rules and procedures as may be adopted by the Board and, if the Board deems it necessary or appropriate, subject to shareholder approval of the Plan. Subject to Section 6.3, as soon as practicable after receipt of a written exercise notice and payment in full of the exercise price of any Options, the Company shall deliver to the Participant a certificate or certificates representing the shares of Common Stock acquired upon the exercise thereof, bearing appropriate legends if applicable.

Section 7. Terms of Offers to Purchase Common Stock

7.1. Offers to Purchase Common Stock. Offers to purchase Common Stock may be made to Participants at such time or times as shall be determined by the Board. Each purchase of Common Stock by a Participant shall be made pursuant to a Subscription Agreement that shall include customary representations, warranties, covenants and other terms and conditions with respect to securities law matters and such other terms and conditions as the Board shall determine. Unless otherwise determined by the Board, such Subscription Agreement shall also state that in respect of any shares of Common Stock purchased by the Participant pursuant to such Subscription Agreement (i) prior to a Public Offering, such shares shall be subject to certain repurchase rights of Holding and the CD&R Fund and (ii) such Participant shall be entitled to certain of the benefits (relating to the right to participate in certain sales and purchases of Common Stock by the Investors) set forth in the Registration and Participation Agreement and shall be bound by the obligations set forth in such Registration and Participation Agreement, in each case, to the extent set forth in the Subscription Agreement evidencing the purchase of such Common Stock.

7.2. Purchase Price. The purchase price per share of Common Stock to be purchased under the Plan shall be determined by the Board.

Section 8. Termination of Employment

8.1. Extraordinary Termination. Unless otherwise provided in the Option Agreement or otherwise determined by the Board, in the event that a Participant's employment with the Company and the Subsidiaries terminates by reason of an Extraordinary Termination, then (i) all Service Options granted to such Participant shall become fully vested as of the date of such termination, (ii) if the Performance Options granted to such Participant have not become vested on or prior to the date of such termination, a proportionate share of such Performance Options shall become vested as of the date of such termination, such proportionate share to equal the percentage obtained by dividing (A) the cumulative EBITDA achieved during the period from the date of grant (or such other date specified in the applicable Option Agreement) to the last day of the calendar quarter ending coincident with or immediately prior to the Participant's termination of employment, by (B) the cumulative EBITDA target specified in such Option Agreement and (iii) all such Service Options and vested Performance Options shall remain exercisable solely until the first to occur of (x) the one year anniversary of the date of the Participant's termination of employment or (y) the expiration of the term of any such Option. Any Performance Options held by the Participant that are not vested as of the date of an Extraordinary Termination shall terminate and be canceled immediately upon such Extraordinary Termination and all other Options that are not exercised within the period described in the preceding sentence shall terminate and be canceled upon the expiration of such period.

8.2. Termination for Cause. Unless otherwise provided in the Award Agreement or otherwise determined by the Board, in the event a Participant's employment with the Company and the Subsidiaries is terminated by the Company or a Subsidiary for Cause, any Options held by such Participant (whether or not then vested or exercisable) shall terminate and be canceled immediately upon such termination of employment and any Common Stock purchased by the Participant may be repurchased for a purchase price calculated in accordance with the terms of the Subscription Agreement.

8.3. Other Termination of Employment. Unless otherwise determined by the Board at the time of grant, the Board shall provide in the Option Agreement evidencing options granted hereunder that, in the event that a Participant's employment with the Company and the Subsidiaries terminates for any reason other than (i) an Extraordinary Termination or (ii) for Cause, any Options then held by such Participant that have become vested on or prior to the date of such termination shall, subject to Section 8.4, remain exercisable until the first to occur of (x) the 60th day after the expiration of the period, if any, specified in such Participant's Option Agreement during which the Company or the CD&R Fund has a right to purchase such Options from the Participant or (y) the expiration of the term of such Option. Any Options held by the Participant that are not vested Options as of the date of the Participant's termination of employment shall terminate and be canceled immediately upon such termination, and any vested Options that are not exercised within the period described in the preceding sentence shall terminate and be canceled upon the expiration of such period.

8.4. Certain Rights upon Termination of Employment Prior to Public Offering. Unless otherwise determined by the Board at the time of grant, the Board shall provide in each Award Agreement evidencing Incentive Awards granted hereunder that, upon a termination of a Participant's employment with the Company and the Subsidiaries prior to a Public Offering for any reason, the Company and the CD&R Fund and its Affiliates shall have successive rights to repurchase for cash any vested Options or shares of Common Stock then held by the Participant, and, upon an Extraordinary Termination, the Participant shall have the right to require the Company to repurchase shares of Common Stock then owned by him (provided the Participant has held such shares of Common Stock for at least six months), for a repurchase price equal to the Fair Market Value, reduced in the case of any Options by the exercise price per share of Common Stock for such Option, and upon such additional terms and conditions as are set forth in such Award Agreement.

Section 9. Change in Control

9.1. Accelerated Vesting and Payment.

(a) Service Options and Vested Performance Options. Unless the Board otherwise determines in the manner set forth in Section 9.2, in the event of a Change in Control, each outstanding Service Option (regardless of whether such Option is at such time otherwise exercisable) and each outstanding Performance Option that has become vested prior to the Change in Control, without regard to this Section 9.1, shall be canceled in exchange for a payment in cash of an amount equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the Change in Control Price over the Option Price, multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock covered by such Option.

(b) Performance Options. Unless the Board otherwise determines in the manner set forth in Section 9.2, in the event of a Change of Control prior to the date as of which Performance Options have become vested in accordance with Section 6.3(b), a proportionate share (determined in accordance with the immediately succeeding sentence) of each outstanding Performance Option shall be canceled in exchange for a payment in cash of an amount equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the Change in Control Price over the Option Price, multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock covered by the vested portion of the Performance Option. Such proportionate share shall be determined in accordance with the formula described in Section 8.1 based on the cumulative EBITDA achieved as of the date of the Change in Control.

(c) Timing of Option Cancellation Payments. The cash payment described in paragraphs (a) and (b) above shall be payable in full, as soon as reasonably practicable, but in no event later than, 30 days following the Change in Control, unless provided otherwise by the Board in the Award Agreement evidencing such Options.

9.2. Alternative Options. Notwithstanding Section 9.1, no cash settlement or other payment shall be made with respect to any Option in the event that the transaction constituting the Change in Control is to be accounted for using the "pooling of interest" method of accounting. In such event, each Option then held by a Participant shall become fully vested immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction and each such Participant shall have the right, subject to compliance with all applicable securities laws, to (i) exercise his Options in connection with the Change in Control or (ii) provided such opportunity is made available by the New Employer, exchange such Options for fully exercisable options to purchase common stock of the New Employer having substantially equivalent economic value to the Options being exchanged therefor (determined at the time of the Change in Control).

9.3 Certain Take-Along Rights Prior to a Public Offering. Unless otherwise determined by the Board at time of grant, the Board shall provide in each Subscription Agreement evidencing Incentive Awards granted hereunder that, upon certain transactions constituting a Change in Control, the Participant will be required to sell shares of Common Stock then owned by him, for a cash payment per share of Common Stock equal to the Change in Control Price, and upon such additional terms and conditions as are set forth in such Subscription Agreement.

Section 10. Amendment, Modification, and Termination of the Plan

The Board at any time may terminate or suspend the Plan, and from time to time may amend or modify the Plan. No amendment, modification, termination or suspension of the Plan shall in any manner adversely affect any Incentive Award theretofore granted under the Plan, without the consent of the Participant holding such Incentive Award. Shareholder approval of any such amendment, modification, termination or suspension shall be obtained to the extent mandated by applicable law, or if otherwise deemed appropriate by the Board.

Section 11. Miscellaneous Provisions

11.1. Nontransferability of Awards. No Options granted under the Plan may be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. All rights with respect to any Option granted to a Participant under the Plan shall be exercisable during his lifetime only by such Participant. Restrictions, if any, on the transfer of Common Stock purchased pursuant to Section 7.1 of the Plan or upon exercise of any Options shall be set forth in the applicable Award Agreement evidencing such Incentive Award, including without limitations, restrictions described in Section 8.4 herein.

11.2. Beneficiary Designation. Each Participant under the Plan may from time to time name any beneficiary or beneficiaries (who may be named contingently or successively) to whom any benefit under the Plan is to be paid or by whom any right under the Plan is to be exercised in case of his death. Each designation will revoke all prior designations by the same Participant, shall be in a form prescribed by the Board and will be effective only when filed by the Participant in writing with the Board during his lifetime. In the absence of any such designation, benefits remaining unpaid or Options or Deferred Stock Units outstanding at the Participant's death shall be paid to or exercised by the Participant's surviving spouse, if any, or otherwise to or by his estate.

11.3. No Guarantee of Employment or Participation. Nothing in the Plan shall interfere with or limit in any way the right of the Company or any Subsidiary to terminate any Participant's employment at any time and for any reason, nor confer upon any Participant any right to continue in the employ of the Company or any Subsidiary. No Employee shall have a right to be selected as a Participant, or, having been so selected, to receive any Incentive Awards under the Plan.

11.4. Tax Withholding. The Company and the Subsidiaries shall have the power to withhold, or require a Participant to remit to the Company or a Subsidiary promptly upon notification of the amount due, an amount determined by the Company or such Subsidiary to be sufficient to satisfy all Federal, state, local and foreign withholding tax requirements in respect of any Incentive Award and the Company may (or may cause a Subsidiary to) defer payment of cash or issuance or delivery of Common Stock until such requirements are satisfied. The Board may permit or require a Participant to satisfy his tax withholding obligation hereunder in such other manner, subject to such conditions, as the Board shall determine.

11.5. Indemnification. Each person who is or shall have been a member of the Committee or the Board shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company and RIC to the fullest extent permitted by law against and from any loss, cost, liability or expense (including any related attorney's fees and advances thereof) in connection with, based upon or arising or resulting from any claim, action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made a party or in which he may be involved by reason of any action taken or failure to act under or in connection with the Plan or any Award Agreement and from and against any and all amounts paid by him in settlement thereof, with the Company's approval, or paid by him in satisfaction of any judgment in any such action, suit or proceeding against him, provided he shall give the Company an opportunity, at its own expense, to handle and defend the same before he undertakes to handle and defend it on his own behalf. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive and shall be independent of any other rights of indemnification to which such persons may be entitled under the Company's or RIC's Articles of Incorporation or By-laws, by contract, as a matter of law or otherwise.

11.6. No Limitation on Compensation. Nothing in the Plan shall be construed to limit the right of the Company to establish other plans or to pay compensation to its employees in cash or property, in a manner which is not expressly authorized under the Plan.

11.7. Requirements of Law. The granting of Incentive Awards and the issuance of shares of Common Stock shall be subject to all applicable laws, rules and regulations, and to such approvals by any governmental agencies or national or foreign securities exchanges as may be appropriate or required, as determined by the Board. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan or any Award Agreement, no Incentive Awards shall be granted under the Plan, and no shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon exercise of, or otherwise in connection with, any Incentive Award granted under the Plan, if such grant or issuance would result in a violation of applicable law, including the federal securities laws and any applicable state or foreign securities laws.

11.8. Governing Law. The Plan, and all agreements hereunder, shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of New York, except to the extent that the corporate law of the State of Delaware specifically and mandatorily applies.

11.9. No Impact On Benefits. Incentive Awards granted under the Plan are not compensation for purposes of calculating an Employee's rights under any employee benefit plan, except to the extent provided in any such plan.

11.10. Freedom of Action. Subject to Section 10, nothing in the Plan or any Award Agreement shall be construed as limiting or preventing the Company or any Subsidiary from taking any action with respect to the operation or conduct of its business that it deems appropriate or in its best interest.

11.11. Term of Plan. The Plan shall be effective as of the Effective Date. The Plan shall expire on the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date (except as to Incentive Awards outstanding on that date), unless sooner terminated pursuant to Section 10.

11.12. No Right to Particular Assets. Nothing contained in this Plan and no action taken pursuant to this Plan shall create or be construed to create a trust of any kind or any fiduciary relationship between the Company and the Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and any Participant or executor, administrator or other personal representative or designated beneficiary of such Participant, on the other hand, or any other persons. Any reserves that may be established by the Company or any Subsidiary in connection with this Plan shall continue to be held as part of the general funds of the Company or such Subsidiary, and no individual or entity other than the Company or such Subsidiary shall have any interest in such funds until paid to a Participant. To the extent that any Participant or his executor, administrator or other personal representative, as the case may be, acquires a right to receive any payment from the Company or any Subsidiary pursuant to this Plan, such right shall be no greater than the right of an unsecured general creditor of the Company or such Subsidiary.

11.13. Notices. Each Participant shall be responsible for furnishing the Board with the current and proper address for the mailing of notices and delivery of agreements and shares of Common Stock. Any notices required or permitted to be given shall be deemed given if directed to the person to whom addressed at such address and mailed by regular United States mail, first-class and prepaid. If any item mailed to such address is returned as undeliverable to the addressee, mailing will be suspended until the Participant furnishes the proper address.

11.14. Severability of Provisions. If any provision of this Plan shall be held invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions hereof, and this Plan shall be construed and enforced as if such provision had not been included.

11.15. Incapacity. Any benefit payable to or for the benefit of a minor, an incompetent person or other person incapable of receiving such benefit shall be deemed paid when paid to such person's guardian or to the party providing or reasonably appearing to provide for the care of such person, and such payment shall fully discharge the Committee, the Company and other parties with respect thereto.

11.16. No Rights as Stockholder. No Participant shall have any voting or other rights as a stockholder of the Company with respect to any Common Stock covered by any Incentive Award until the issuance of a certificate or certificates to the Participant for such Common Stock. No adjustment shall be made for dividends or other rights for which the record date is prior to the issuance of such certificate or certificates.

11.17. Headings and Captions. The headings and captions herein are provided for reference and convenience only, shall not be considered part of this Plan and shall not be employed in the construction of this Plan.
