Item 4. Change In Registrant's Certifying Accountants.

On July 31, 2001, CareAdvantage, Inc. (the "Company") informed Richard A.

Eisner & Company, LLP ("Eisner") that it would no longer be retained as the Company's independent auditor. Eisner audited the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999. Eisner's reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999 did not contain an adverse opinion nor a disclaimer of opinion, nor were such reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999 and during the portion of 2001 prior to the decision to make a change, there were no disagreements between the Company and Eisner on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Eisner, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports on the annual financial statements of the Company.

The decision not to retain Eisner has been approved by the Company's board of directors.

Effective July 31, 2001, the Company retained Arthur Andersen LLP ("AA") to serve as its independent auditor for fiscal year 2001. The decision to retain AA has also been approved by the Company's board of directors. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and during the portion of 2001 prior to the board of director's decision, the Company did not consult with AA regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction nor the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements.
