Section 3.02. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholder shall be held on the date and time and at the place set by the board of directors. Failure to hold the annual meeting shall not cause a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

Section 3.03. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holder or holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares of stock entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 3.04. Notice of Meetings – Waiver. Attendance by a stockholder, without objection to the notice, whether in person or by proxy, at a stockholders' meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting.

Section 3.05. Quorum. A majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of stockholders. Section 3.09. Consent of Absentees. The transactions of any meeting of stockholders, either annual or special and however called and noticed, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if a quorum be present either in person or by proxy and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the stockholders entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice, or a consent to the holding of such meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof, all such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 3.10. Action or Ratification of Action Without Meeting. Any action which may be taken or ratified at a meeting of the stockholders, may be taken or ratified without a meeting if authorized in writing by stockholders holding the percentage of the voting power required by law for taking such action by written consent.

Section 3.11. Proxies. Every person entitled to vote or execute consents shall have the right to do so either in person or by an agent or agents authorized by a written proxy executed by such person or the person's duly authorized agent and reasonable evidence of which is filed with the Secretary of the Corporation; provided that no such proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless the person executing it specified therein the length of time for which such proxy is to continue in force, which in no event shall exceed seven (7) years from the date of its execution.

At the first annual meeting of stockholders and at each annual meeting thereafter, the stockholders shall elect Directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting. If any such annual meeting is not held, or the Directors are not elected thereat, the Directors will continue for consecutive one year terms until the next annual meeting. Each Director shall hold office for the term for which the Director is elected or until the Director's successor shall be elected and qualified.

Section 4.04. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors, or by a sole remaining Director. A Director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of the Director's predecessor in office.

A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, resignation or removal of any Directors, or if the authorized number of Directors be increased, or if the stockholders fail at any annual or special meeting of stockholders at which any Director or Directors are elected to elect the full authorized number of directors to be voted for at that meeting, or if a vacancy is declared by the Board of Directors for any reason permitted by law.

The stockholders may elect a Director or Directors at any time to fill any vacancy or vacancies not filled by the Directors. If the Board of Directors accepts the resignation of a Director tendered to take effect at a future time, the Board or the stockholders shall have power to elect a successor to take office when the resignation is to become effective.

No reduction of the authorized number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director prior to the expiration of the Director's term of office.

Section 4.05. Place of Meetings. Immediately after the annual meeting of the stockholders, at the same place as the meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors shall meet each year for the purpose of organization, election of Officers, and consideration of any other business that may properly be brought before the meeting. No notice of any kind to either old or new members of the Board of Directors for this annual meeting shall be necessary unless the meeting is to be held at a place other than the Place of Meeting provided in Section 3.01, in which case notice of the place of the meeting shall be given as provided in Section 4.07.

Section 4.06. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such times and places within or without the State of Nevada as may be designated from time to time by resolution of the Board or by written consent of all members of the Board. No notice of any kind to members of the Board for these regular meetings shall be necessary unless the meeting is to be held at a place other than the Place of Meeting provided in Section 3.01, in which case notice of the place of the meeting shall be given as provided in Section 4.07.

Section 4.07. Other Meetings. Other meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be held at any time upon call by the President or, if the President is absent or unable to or refuses to act, by any Vice President or by any two (2) Directors. Such meetings may be held at any place within or without the State of Nevada as may be designated from time to time by resolution of the Board or by written consent of all members of the Board.

Written notice of the time and place of other meetings shall be delivered personally to each Director or sent to each Director by mail or other form of written communication, charges prepaid, addressed to the Director at the Director's address as it is shown upon the records of the Corporation or, if it is not so shown on such records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place in which the meetings of the Directors are regularly held. In case such notice is mailed, it shall be deposited in the United States Mail at least one hundred twenty (120) hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. In case such notice is personally delivered, it shall be so delivered at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. Such mailing or delivery as above provided shall constitute due, legal and personal notice to such Director.

Section 4.08. Notice of Adjourned Meetings. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent Directors if the time and place be fixed at the meeting adjourned.

Section 4.09. Entry of Notice. An entry in the minutes of any special meeting of the Board of Directors to the effect that notice has been duly given shall be conclusive and incontrovertible evidence that due notice of such special meeting was given to all Directors as required by law and by these Bylaws.

Section 4.10. Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the Directors not present signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to holding such meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 4.11. Quorum. A majority of the authorized number of Directors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as hereinafter provided. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting, duly held at which a quorum is present, shall be regarded as the act of the Board of Directors unless a greater number be required by law or by the Articles of Incorporation.

Section 4.12. Adjournment. A quorum of the Directors may adjourn any Directors' meeting to meet again at a stated day and hour; provided, however, that in the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present at any Directors' meeting either regular or special, may adjourn from time to time until the time fixed for the next regular meeting of the Board.

Section 4.13. Action Without Meeting. Any action which may be taken or ratified at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken or ratified without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors shall individually or collectively consent, in writing, to such action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of such Directors. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

Section 4.14. Telephone Meetings. Members of the board of directors or of any committee designated by the board may participate in a meeting of the board or committee by means of a telephone conference or similar method of communication by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this section constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

Section 4.15. Voting. The vote of the directors shall mean the unanimous written action or ratification of action of the directors or the vote of a majority of the voting power of the directors present in person or by proxy at a telephone or other meeting of the directors, having a quorum and called upon proper notice or waiver of notice.

Section 4.16. Fees and Compensation. Directors shall not receive any stated salary for their services as Directors or as members of committees, but, by resolution of the Board, a fixed annual, monthly, or quarterly fee, with or without expenses if attendance, may be allowed to Directors for such services. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity as an Officer, agent, employee or otherwise, and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 4.17. Indemnification of Directors and Officers. The following provisions are in addition to any other rights and remedies of a person for advancement of expenses or indemnification by law or contract, or as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction. A director or officer of the corporation, or a director, officer, partner, manager, or trustee of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other business venture serving at the request of the corporation (in this section, "Person") may be eligible for indemnification or advancement of expenses. Expenses subject to indemnification or advancement include expenses incurred because the Person was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, whether or not by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact of the Person's duties to or on behalf of the corporation (in this section, "Litigation"). The character of expenses subject to indemnification or advancement include attorneys' fees, costs, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the Person in connection with the Litigation (in this section, "Costs"), but exclude judgments in favor of the corporation and amounts paid in settlement with the corporation and attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with such judgments or settlements. The corporation shall pay the Costs of Persons incurred in Litigation as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the Litigation, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the person is not entitled to indemnification by the corporation. The corporation shall indemnify the Costs of Persons incurred in Litigation, regardless of the conduct of the Person, unless a final adjudication establishes that the Person's acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action.

Section 4.18. Powers of Directors. Subject to limitations of the Articles of Incorporation, of these Bylaws, and of applicable law as to action to be authorized or approved by the stockholders and subject to the duties of Directors as prescribed by these Bylaws, all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled by, the Board of Directors. Without prejudice to such general powers, but subject to the same limitations, it is hereby expressly declared that the Directors shall have the following powers, to-wit:

First: To select and remove all Officers, agents and employees of the Corporation, prescribe such powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with law, with the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service.

Second: To conduct, manage and control the affairs and business of the Corporation and to make such rules and regulations therefor not inconsistent with law, with the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as they may deem best.
