Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Advisors' Inner Circle Fund (the "Trust") is a trust organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with its principal place of business in Boston, Massachusetts. The Trust is about to file a Rule 24f-2 Notice pursuant to Rule 24f-2 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, for the purpose of making definite the number of shares of beneficial interest ("Shares") which it has registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and which it sold during its fiscal year ended October 31, 1996.

As counsel to SEI Financial Services Company, I have examined copies, either certified or otherwise proved to be genuine, of its Agreement and Declaration of Trust, and By-Laws, as now in effect, the minutes of meetings of its Trustees and other documents relating to the Trust's organization and operation, as I have deemed necessary in rendering this opinion. I have been advised that during its fiscal year ended October 31, 1996, the Trust sold 20,838,600,923 Shares (including Dividend Reinvestment Plan Shares), at an aggregate sales price of $20,838,600,923 and redeemed 20,883,490,523 Shares having an aggregate redemption price of $20,883,490,523. Based upon the foregoing, it is my opinion that:

1. The Trust is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Shares, including those Shares now issued and outstanding. Under Massachusetts law, such Shares which were issued and subsequently were redeemed by the Trust may be resold.

2. The 20,838,600,923 Shares sold during the Trust's fiscal year ended October 31, 1996, the registration of which will be made definite by the filing of a Rule 24f-2 Notice, were legally issued, fully paid and non-assessable. I express no legal opinion with respect to compliance with the Securities Act of 1933, the Investment Company Act of 1940 or applicable state securities laws in connection with the sale of such Shares.

The Trust is an entity of the type commonly known as a "Massachusetts business trust". Under Massachusetts law, shareholders could, under certain circumstances, be held personally liable for the obligations of the Trust. The Declaration of Trust states that creditors of, contractors with and claimants against the Trust shall look only to the assets of the Trust for payment. It also requires that notice of such disclaimer be given in each contract or instrument made or issued by the officers or the Trustees of the Trust on behalf of the Trust. The Declaration of Trust further provides: (i) for indemnification out of Trust assets for all loss and expense of any shareholder held personally liable for the obligations of the Trust by virtue of ownership of Shares of the Trust; and (ii) for the Trust to assume the defense of any claim against the shareholder for any act or obligation of the Trust. Thus, the risk of a shareholder incurring financial loss on account of shareholder liability is limited to circumstances in which the Trust would be unable to meet its obligations.

I hereby consent to this opinion accompanying the Rule 24f-2 Notice which the Trust is about to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Advisors' Inner Circle Fund (the "Trust") is a trust organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with its principal place of business in Boston, Massachusetts. The Trust is about to file a Rule 24f-2 Notice pursuant to Rule 24f-2 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, for the purpose of making definite the number of shares of beneficial interest ("Shares") which it has registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and which it sold during its fiscal year ended October 31, 1996.

As counsel to SEI Financial Services Company, I have examined copies, either certified or otherwise proved to be genuine, of its Agreement and Declaration of Trust, and By-Laws, as now in effect, the minutes of meetings of its Trustees and other documents relating to the Trust's organization and operation, as I have deemed necessary in rendering this opinion. I have been advised that during its fiscal year ended October 31, 1996, the Trust sold 699,460 Shares (including Dividend Reinvestment Plan Shares), at an aggregate sales price of $13,948,036 and redeemed 86,497 Shares having an aggregate redemption price of $1,655,404. Based upon the foregoing, it is my opinion that:

1. The Trust is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Shares, including those Shares now issued and outstanding. Under Massachusetts law, such Shares which were issued and subsequently were redeemed by the Trust may be resold.

2. The 699,460 Shares sold during the Trust's fiscal year ended October 31, 1996, the registration of which will be made definite by the filing of a Rule 24f-2 Notice, were legally issued, fully paid and non-assessable. I express no legal opinion with respect to compliance with the Securities Act of 1933, the Investment Company Act of 1940 or applicable state securities laws in connection with the sale of such Shares.

The Trust is an entity of the type commonly known as a "Massachusetts business trust". Under Massachusetts law, shareholders could, under certain circumstances, be held personally liable for the obligations of the Trust. The Declaration of Trust states that creditors of, contractors with and claimants against the Trust shall look only to the assets of the Trust for payment. It also requires that notice of such disclaimer be given in each contract or instrument made or issued by the officers or the Trustees of the Trust on behalf of the Trust. The Declaration of Trust further provides: (i) for indemnification out of Trust assets for all loss and expense of any shareholder held personally liable for the obligations of the Trust by virtue of ownership of Shares of the Trust; and (ii) for the Trust to assume the defense of any claim against the shareholder for any act or obligation of the Trust. Thus, the risk of a shareholder incurring financial loss on account of shareholder liability is limited to circumstances in which the Trust would be unable to meet its obligations.

I hereby consent to this opinion accompanying the Rule 24f-2 Notice which the Trust is about to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Very truly yours,
