Q&A on Transaction Timeline

1. Why is there a delay?

This is a complex and innovative transaction subject, among other things, to approvals of several regulators, including the United Kingdom Listing Authority, the Hellenic Capital Markets Commission and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. In light of the progress of the transaction to-date, we wanted to update investors on our current expectations regarding its timetable.

2. Are any of the outstanding issues serious enough to affect the structure of the transaction or even prevent it from moving forward?

It would not be appropriate to comment on particular aspects of the transaction at this time and pending regulatory review.

3. Is there a risk of further delay?

The revised timeline reflects our best estimate based on the progress we have made to date.

4. We note your financial statements have gone stale for the purposes of achieving a premium listing on the LSE. Was this expected? Are you disappointed you were not able to launch on the basis of your 1H results?

This revised timetable takes this fact into account and contemplates that our full year audited financial statements will be available before launch. The audit of our 1H results was important in order to achieve the progress we have made to date.

5. Will an ATHEX listing be part of the transaction? Is that what is causing the delay?

We have worked very well with ATHEX to date and the ATHEX listing is expected to be part of the transaction.

6. Are you reconsidering the transaction now that the Greek economy seems to be stabilizing?

We remain fully committed to the transaction, its rationale and purpose.

Only for Employees

7. What will happen with the ESPP and the SOP?

The ESPP will continue to be suspended. We will not withhold any contributions from employees' payroll during that suspension, but when the new plan is in place, the Company will make a catch-up contribution for the entire period that the plan was suspended.

Stock option holders will not be able to exercise their stock options following our annual earnings announcement. They may still trade on any CCH SA shares they currently hold. As a result of this additional delay to our original timetable, we will extend the term of all outstanding options by a quarter. The stock option grants for 2013 will be made shortly after completion of the transaction. The one-off replacement of the existing CCH SA options with CCHBC AG options will take place at the same time.

8. Will the date of the OpCo relocation now be postponed?

Yes, the OpCo will not relocate until shortly before the transaction is completed in early Q2.
