Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 9, 2013, the American Medical Response subsidiary (“AMR”) of Emergency Medical Services Corporation (“EMSC”) announced the departure of AMR’s President, Mark Bruning, effective January 14, 2013. The Chief Executive Officer of EMSC, William A. Sanger, will assume Mr. Bruning’s duties on an interim basis until a successor is appointed, and Mr. Bruning will remain with AMR as an adviser for a transitional period of time. A copy of AMR’s press release announcing Mr. Bruning’s departure is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Effective upon Mr. Bruning’s departure from his position as President of AMR, Mr. Bruning is entering into a Separation Agreement, pursuant to which Mr. Bruning will receive two years of his existing base salary in the total amount of $1,055,750, as well as a lump sum payment of $131,969, all in accordance with the terms of his existing employment agreement. Mr. Bruning will also remain eligible to exercise his previously granted options to purchase common stock of EMSC’s parent company, CDRT Holding Corporation (the “Options”), that are vested and exercisable as of January 14, 2013, under the terms of the CDRT Holding Corporation Stock Incentive Plan and Mr. Bruning’s standard option agreements, and any unvested Options outstanding at such time will be cancelled. In addition, Mr. Bruning will continue to be eligible to receive any bonus payment owed under EMSC’s bonus plans for services rendered in fiscal year 2012, and certain standard benefits customarily offered to senior executives, such as eligibility for subsidized coverage under EMSC’s and AMR’s medical, dental and vision plans for 18 months from the date of his departure.

AMR Announces Departure of President Mark Bruning

Denver, CO (January 9, 2013) – EMSC CEO William A Sanger today announced the departure of AMR president Mark Bruning. EMSC is the parent company of AMR, a provider of emergency medical transportation services. Sanger said Bruning will continue to serve as an adviser to the company.

“Mark’ s breadth of knowledge of the industry, coupled with his sincere compassion for our patients, clients and employees are second to none,” said Sanger. “He will remain with us in an advisory capacity as we navigate the rapidly-changing world of healthcare delivery.”

Bruning has worked with AMR for 30 years, beginning as an EMT. He is the first field caregiver to lead AMR in the company’ s history. He joined the company after several years’ service in the U.S. Navy. In 2007, Bruning earned his Master’ s in Business Administration from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.

“I have the utmost pride and respect for the employees of AMR, who I have come to consider family over the past 30 years,” said Bruning. “Whether responding to Hurricane Katrina, or Super-Storm Sandy, or in any of the hundreds of communities in which AMR serves to provide 9-1-1 emergency medical services and patient transport, our front lines respond with the courage and compassion that have become synonymous with AMR. I look forward to a continued relationship with all of my colleagues.”

Bruning’ s departure as president is effective January 14. Sanger will assume his duties on an interim basis.
