Press Release dated April 15, 1994

TRITON OFFICERS PURCHASE DEBENTURES
CONVERTIBLE INTO COMMON STOCK

DALLAS--April 15, 1994--Triton Energy Corporation (NYSE: OIL) today announced that a group of senior officers purchased $6.3 million aggregate principal amount of debentures that are convertible into shares of Triton's common stock through the company's 1986 Convertible Debenture Plan. The purchasers included Thomas G. Finck, president and CEO; John P. Tatum, executive vice president; Nick De'Ath, senior vice president, exploration; Robert B. Holland, senior vice president and general counsel; Peter Rugg, senior vice president and chief financial officer; and Al Turner, senior vice president, operations.

"This commitment of personal financial resources by senior management reflects our strong faith in the company's future and the upside potential of its stock," according to Finck.

The debentures are convertible into 250,000 shares of common stock at the market price on the date of purchase.

Triton Energy, based in Dallas, is an international independent oil and gas exploration and development company with ongoing oil and gas operations in numerous countries around the world.
