New well off the coast of Espírito Santo confirms light oil accumulation

Rio de Janeiro, January 9th, 2013 – Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras announces that extension well 3-BRSA-1128-ESS, whose objective is to delineate the accumulation, has confirmed the presence of light oil and gas in sandstones reservoirs in the post-salt of Espírito Santo Basin. Discovery of the accumulation had already been announced on December 17th, 2010, when well 1-BRSA-882-ESS, known as Indra, was drilled.

The new well, informally known as Arjuna, is part of the 1-BRSA-882-ESS (Indra) Evaluation Plan, and is about 130 km off the coast of Espírito Santo state and 0.9 km northwest of the discovery well.

The oil reservoirs, whose age ranges from the Paleocene to the Santonian, have a total thickness of some 200 meters and are approximately 3,679 meters deep, at a water depth of 2,143 meters.

A formation test will be carried out to assess the productivity of the reservoir. As verified in the discovery well, the oil found is of good quality (29° API).

The consortium of concession BM-ES-22A (Block ES-M-527), made up by Petrobras (75%), as operator, and Vale (25%), will proceed with the activities and investments set out in the Discovery Evaluation Plan (PAD), approved by Brazil's National Petroleum, Natural Gas and Biofuels Agency (ANP).

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) that are not based on historical facts and are not assurances of future results. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and you should not place reliance on any forward-looking statement contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.
