ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On April 15, 2022, Ashford Hospitality Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("AHH"), a subsidiary of Ashford Inc., a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), and Remington Holdings, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership and an indirect subsidiary of the Company and AHH ("Remington"), closed on an acquisition of the Chesapeake Companies (defined below) pursuant to a Membership Interest Purchase and Contribution Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with MHI Hotels Services, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Seller"), Chesapeake Hospitality, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Chesapeake I"), Chesapeake Hospitality II, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Chesapeake Hospitality IV, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Chesapeake Hospitality V, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Chesapeake Hospitality VI, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Chesapeake VI"), Chesapeake Hospitality VI, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Chesapeake VI"), ACSB Hospitality, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Chesapeake VI"), Chesapeake III, Chesapeake III, Chesapeake IV, Chesapeake V and Chesapeake VI, each a "Chesapeake Company" and collectively, the "Chesapeake Companies"), KES Family Partnership, R.L.L.L.P, a Virginia limited partnership ("CLS"), Steven McDonnell Smith Family Partnership, LLP, a Maryland limited liability partnership ("SMS"), W. Chris Green ("Green"), Clifford G. Ferrara ("Ferrara") and Louis Schaab ("Schaab" and together with KES, CLS, SMS, Green and Ferrara, each an "Owner" and collectively, the "Owners"); and solely for purposes of Section 6.15 of the Purchase Agreement, Kim Sims, Chris Sims and Steven Smith.

Purchase Agreement

Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, (i) Seller sold to Remington, 40% of the membership interests in each Chesapeake Company (collectively, the "Purchased Interests") and (ii) Seller contributed to AHH, 60% of the membership interests in each Chesapeake Company (the "Contributed Interests"). At the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement (collectively, the "Transactions"), (i) in consideration for the sale of the Purchased Interests by Seller to Remington, Remington paid to Seller $6.3 million in cash, subject to certain adjustments, and (ii) in consideration for the contribution of the Contributed Interests by Seller to Parent, Parent issued to Seller 378,000 Series CHP Convertible Preferred Units of AHH (the "Series CHP Units") at $25 per Unit, for a total value of $9.45 million. Seller also has the ability to earn up to $10.25 million of additional consideration based on its base management fee contribution for the trailing twelve month periods ending March 2024 and March 2025, respectively, for a total potential consideration of $26 million, subject to certain adjustments. The first $6.3 million of such additional consideration is payable by Remington in cash and any amounts payable in excess of such $6.3 million may be satisfied by the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company, common units of AHH or additional Series CHP Units, as determined by AHH in its sole discretion. Upon the closing of the Transactions, AHH immediately contributed the Contributed Interests, through its subsidiaries, to Remington such that Remington owns all of the issued and outstanding membership interests of the Chesapeake Companies.

The Board unanimously (i) determined that the Transactions were advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders and (ii) approved and adopted the Purchase Agreement, the other Transaction Documents (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) and the Transactions.

Amendment to Holdings LLC Agreement

On April 4, 2022, the members of the Board of Directors of the Company approved Amendment No. 2 (the "Amendment") to the Third Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of AHH, dated as of November 6, 2019 (the "LLC Agreement"). The purpose of the Amendment is to create the Series CHP Units, a new class of Units in AHH, the terms of which are discussed below. The Amendment was approved in order to provide certain equity consideration to the Seller in connection with the Transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement set forth above.

Terms of Series CHP Units

The Amendment establishes the terms of the Series CHP Units to be issued in exchange for the Contributed Interests pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, and provides that each Series CHP Unit will (i) have a liquidation value of $25 per share, (ii) be entitled to cumulative dividends at the rate of 7.28% per annum, payable quarterly in arrears, (iii) participate in any dividend or distribution on the common stock of the Company in addition to the preferred dividends set forth in clause (ii), (iv) be convertible into common units of AHH at $117.50 per unit, which common units of AHH will then be exchangeable into common stock of the Company on a 1:1 ratio, and (v) provide for customary anti-dilution protections. In the event AHH fails to pay the required dividends on the Series CHP Units for two consecutive quarterly periods (a "Preferred Unit Breach"), then until such arrearage is paid in cash in full, the dividend rate on the Series CHP Units will increase to 10.00% per annum until no Preferred Unit Breach exists.

Except with respect to certain protective provisions, no holder of Series CHP Units will have voting rights in its capacity as such. The Amendment provides that, so long as any Series CHP Units are outstanding, AHH is prohibited from taking specified actions without the consent of at least 50% of the holders of Series CHP Units, including (i) modifying the terms, rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers of the Series CHP Units, or (ii) altering the rights, preferences or privileges of any Units of AHH so as to adversely affect the Series CHP Units.

This summary of the Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

ITEM 2.01 COMPLETION OF ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

The information contained in Item 1.01 is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.01.

ITEM 2.03 CREATION OF A DIRECT FINANCIAL OBLIGATION OR AN OBLIGATION UNDER AN OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENT OF A REGISTRANT

The disclosure set forth in Item 1.01 is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.03.

ITEM 3.02 UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES

The disclosure set forth in Item 1.01 is incorporated by reference into this Item 3.02. Because the Series CHP Units are ultimately exchangeable into shares of the Company's common stock, the issuance of the Series CHP Units may be deemed to constitute a sale of equity securities of the Company. Upon issuance, the shares of common stock will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and Regulation D promulgated thereunder. The issuance of the shares of the Company's common stock will not involve a public offering, general solicitation or advertising and there will not be any underwriter or commissions paid in connection therewith.

EXHIBIT H

DESIGNATION OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERIES CHP PREFERRED UNITS

A. Designation, Number and Definitions.

- A.1 Designation and Number. A series of Preferred Units, designated as Series CHP Preferred Units, is hereby established. The number of authorized Series CHP Preferred Units shall be 536,000. For purposes of this Exhibit H, "Liquidation Value" means, with respect to any Series CHP Preferred Unit on any given date, an amount equal to the sum of: (a) $25.00 (as adjusted for any unit splits, unit dividends, recapitalizations or similar transaction with respect to the Series CHP Preferred Units), plus (b) all unpaid accrued and accumulated distributions on such Series CHP Preferred Unit (as determined under Section D whether or not authorized by the Company).
- A.2 Defined Terms. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Exhibit H shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Third Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of Ashford Hospitality Holdings LLC, dated November 6, 2019, as amended (the "Agreement"). For purposes hereof, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
- "Conversion Units" means the Common Units then issuable upon conversion of the Series CHP Preferred Units in accordance with the terms of Section F.
- "Date of Issuance" means, for any Series CHP Preferred Unit, the date on which the Company initially issues such Series CHP Preferred Unit (without regard to any subsequent transfer of such Unit or, if applicable, reissuance of the certificate(s) representing such Unit).
- "Excluded Issuances" means any issuance or sale by the Company after the Date of Issuance of Common Units issued on the conversion of the Series CHP Preferred Units.
 - "Preferred Conversion Price" means $117.50, as adjusted pursuant to Section F.
- B. Rank. The Series CHP Preferred Units, with respect to distribution rights and rights upon the liquidation, winding-up or dissolution of the Company, rank: (i) senior to all classes or series of the Common Units and to all other equity securities issued by the Company other than equity securities referred to in clauses (ii) and (iii) (collectively, "Junior Units"); (ii) junior to all equity securities whose terms specifically provide that those equity securities rank senior to the Series CHP Preferred Units with respect to rights to distributions or the distribution of the Company's assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up; (iii) on parity with the Series D Preferred Units and all other equity securities issued by the Company whose terms provide that those equity securities rank on parity with the Series CHP Preferred Units with respect to rights to distributions or the distribution of the Company's assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up; and (iv) junior to all of the Company's existing and future indebtedness. The term "equity securities" does not include convertible debt securities, which will rank senior to the Series CHP Preferred Units. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section B, payments may be made to the Manager, Ashford Inc., Ashford OAINC Inc. and Ashford OAINC II Inc. before distributions are paid with respect to the Series CHP Preferred Units to pay any tax due by Ashford Inc., Ashford OAINC Inc. or Ashford OAINC II Inc. and to pay any other obligations of Ashford Inc. not constituting a Junior Security (as defined in Section 2 of the Series D Certificate of Designation) of Ashford Inc. and to pay Ashford Inc. Expenses.

C. Maturity. The Series CHP Preferred Units have no stated maturity and will not be subject to any sinking fund or mandatory redemption. The Series CHP Preferred Units will remain outstanding indefinitely unless the Company redeems or otherwise repurchases the Series CHP Preferred Units. The Company is not required to set aside funds to redeem or repurchase the Series CHP Preferred Units.

D. Distributions.

D.1 From and after the original date of issuance of any Series CHP Preferred Unit, cumulative distributions on such Series CHP Preferred Unit shall accrue, whether or not authorized by the Company and whether or not there are funds available for the payment of distributions, on a daily basis at the rate of 7.28% per annum on the sum of the Liquidation Value of the Series CHP Preferred Units (the "Interest Rate"). All accrued distributions on any Series CHP Preferred Unit shall be paid in cash only when, as and if authorized by the Company out of funds available therefor or upon a liquidation of the Series CHP Preferred Units in accordance with the provisions of Section E; provided, that to the extent not paid on April 15, July 15, October 15 and January 15 of each calendar year in respect of the quarterly periods ending on March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31, respectively (each such date, a "Series CHP Preferred Distribution Payment Date"), all accrued distributions on any Series CHP Preferred Unit shall accumulate and compound on the applicable Series CHP Preferred Distribution Payment Date whether or not authorized by the Company or funds are available to make the distribution and shall remain accumulated, compounding distributions until paid in cash pursuant hereto or converted pursuant to Section F. If the Company fails to pay accrued distributions on the Series CHP Preferred Units in cash with respect to two consecutive Series CHP Preferred Distribution Payment Dates (the accrued distributions not paid in cash, the "Missed Distribution Payments"), then the Interest Rate shall be increased to 10.00% per annum on the sum of the Liquidation Value of the Series CHP Preferred Units until the earlier of (x) such time that the Company has paid all Missed Distribution Payments in cash and (y) the Series CHP Preferred Units have been converted pursuant to Section F.

- D.2 In addition to the distributions accruing on the Series CHP Preferred Units under Section D.1 (but subject to such Section D.1)), if the Company pays a distribution on all Common Units, whether such distribution is payable in cash, securities or other property, including the purchase or redemption by the Company of Common Units held by Ashford OAINC Inc., Ashford OAINC II Inc. or Ashford Inc. for cash, securities or property, then the Company shall authorize and pay a distribution on the Series CHP Preferred Units on a pro rata basis with the Common Units determined on an as-converted basis assuming all Series CHP Preferred Units had been converted pursuant to Section F, but only to the extent of funds available therefor.
- D.3 No distributions on Series CHP Preferred Units shall be authorized by the Company or paid or set apart for payment by the Company at any time when the authorization or payment thereof would be unlawful or would be in excess of funds available to the Company to make any such distribution, after taking into account any payments for Ashford Inc. Expenses and other payments described in the last sentence of Section B. The Company shall not be required to borrow funds or request a Capital Contribution to pay distributions on Series CHP Preferred Units.

D.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Exhibit H, nothing in this Exhibit H shall restrict the Company's right to pay or otherwise deliver any dividends or distributions on any Series D Preferred Units with respect to amounts accrued and unpaid on such Series D Preferred Units, if any, as of the first Date of Issuance of a Series CHP Preferred Unit hereunder (payment of such accrued and unpaid amounts by the Company, the "Series D Accrued Payments") in advance and senior to the payment or other delivery of any dividends or distributions on any Series CHP Preferred Unit, and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not be required to pay or otherwise deliver or accrue any dividends or distributions on the Series CHP Preferred Units in connection with making any Series D Accrued Payments.

E. Liquidation Preference.

- E.1 In the event of the Company's voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up, each holder of Series CHP Preferred Units will be entitled to be paid out of the assets the Company has available for distribution to the Members, subject to the preferential rights of any class or series of the equity securities the Company may issue ranking senior to the Series CHP Preferred Units with respect to the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the aggregate Liquidation Value of all Series CHP Preferred Units held by such holder.
- E.2 In addition to and after payment in full of all preferential amounts required to be paid to the holders of a Series CHP Preferred Unit upon an event described in Section E.1, a Series CHP Preferred Unit shall be entitled to participate with the holders of Common Units then outstanding, pro rata as a single class based on the number of outstanding Common Units on an as-converted basis held by each holder as of immediately prior to the liquidation, in the distribution of all the remaining assets and funds of the Company available for distribution to its Members.
- E.3 In the event that, upon any such voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the Company's available assets, or proceeds thereof, distributable among the holders of Series CHP Preferred Units are insufficient to pay the amount of the liquidating distributions on all outstanding Series CHP Preferred Units and the corresponding amounts payable on all Units of other classes or series of the equity securities that the Company may issue ranking on parity with the Series CHP Preferred Units upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, the holders of the Series CHP Preferred Units and all other such classes or series of equity securities shall share ratably in any such distribution of assets or the proceeds thereof in proportion to the full liquidating distributions or amounts to which they would otherwise be respectively entitled.

F. Conversion.

F.1 Right to Convert. Subject to the provisions of this Section F, at any time and from time to time on or after the Date of Issuance, (a) any holder of Series CHP Preferred Units shall have the right by written election to the Company or (b) the Manager, on behalf of the Company, shall have the right by written election to any holder of Series CHP Preferred Units, in each case, to convert all or any portion of the outstanding Series CHP Preferred Units (including any fraction of a Unit) held by such holder along with the aggregate accrued or accumulated and unpaid distributions thereon into an aggregate number of Common Units (including any fraction of a Unit) as is determined by: (i) multiplying the number of Series CHP Preferred Units (including any fraction of a Unit) to be converted by the Liquidation Value thereof; and then (ii) dividing the result by the Preferred Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such conversion.

F.2 Procedures for Conversion.

- (a) In order for a holder of Series CHP Preferred Units to effectuate a conversion of Series CHP Preferred Units pursuant to Section F.1, such holder shall submit a written election to the Company that such holder elects to convert one or more of the Series CHP Preferred Units and the number of Series CHP Preferred Units elected to be converted. The conversion of such Series CHP Preferred Units hereunder shall be deemed effective as of the date set forth in the written election, which shall be no less than 10 days nor more than 60 days after the date the election is delivered to the Company.
- (b) In order for the Manager, on behalf of the Company, to effectuate a conversion of Series CHP Preferred Units pursuant to Section F.1, the Manager, on behalf of the Company, shall submit a written notice to the holder of such Series CHP Preferred Units that the Company elects to convert one or more of the Series CHP Preferred Units and the number of Series CHP Preferred Units elected to be converted. The conversion of such Series CHP Preferred Units hereunder shall be deemed effective as of the date set forth in the written election, which shall be no less than 10 days nor more than 60 days after the date the election is delivered to the holder of the Series CHP Preferred Units being converted.
- (c) All Common Units issued by the Company upon the conversion of Series CHP Preferred Units shall be duly and validly issued, free and clear of all taxes, liens, charges and encumbrances with respect to the issuance thereof.
- F.3 Effect of Conversion. All Series CHP Preferred Units converted as provided in this Section F shall no longer be deemed outstanding as of the effective time of the applicable conversion and all rights with respect to such Series CHP Preferred Units shall immediately cease and terminate as of such time.
- F.4 Reservation of Units. The Company shall at all times when any Series CHP Preferred Units are outstanding reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued Units, solely for the purpose of issuance upon the conversion of the Series CHP Preferred Units, such number of Common Units issuable upon the conversion of all outstanding Series CHP Preferred Units pursuant to this Section F, taking into account any adjustment to such number of Units so issuable in accordance with Section F.6 hereof. The Company shall take all such actions as may be necessary to assure that all such Common Units may be so issued without violation of any applicable law or governmental regulation. The Company shall not close its books against the transfer of any of its Units in any manner which would prevent the timely conversion of Series CHP Preferred Units.

- F.5 No Charge or Payment. The issuance of Common Units upon conversion of Series CHP Preferred Units pursuant to this Section F shall be made without payment of additional consideration by, or other charge, cost or tax to, the holder in respect thereof.
- F.6 Adjustment to Preferred Conversion Price and Number of Conversion Units. In order to prevent dilution of the conversion rights granted under this Section F, the Preferred Conversion Price and the number of Conversion Units issuable on conversion of the Series CHP Preferred Units shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as provided in this Section F.6.
 - (a) Adjustment to Preferred Conversion Price and Conversion Units Upon Subdivision or Combination of Common Units. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Date of Issuance subdivide (by any stock split, recapitalization or otherwise) its outstanding Common Units into a greater number of units, then the Preferred Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to any such subdivision shall be proportionately reduced and the number of Conversion Units issuable upon conversion of the Series CHP Preferred Units shall be proportionately increased. If the Company at any time combines (by combination, reverse stock split or otherwise) its outstanding Common Units into a smaller number of units, the Preferred Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such combination shall be proportionately increased in order that the number of Conversion Units issuable upon conversion of the Series CHP Preferred Units shall be proportionately decreased. Any adjustment under this Section F.6(a) shall become effective at the close of business on the date the subdivision or combination becomes effective.

Adjustment to Preferred Conversion Price and Conversion Units Upon Reorganization, Reclassification, Consolidation or Merger. In the event of any: (i) capital reorganization of the Company; (ii) reclassification of the units of the Company (other than as a result of a dividend, distribution or subdivision, split-up or combination of units); (iii) consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another Person; (iv) sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets to another Person; or (v) other similar transaction (other than any such transaction covered by Section F.6(a), in each case which entitles the holders of Common Units to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation) units, securities or assets with respect to or in exchange for Common Units, each Series CHP Preferred Unit shall, immediately after such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or similar transaction, remain outstanding and shall thereafter, in lieu of or in addition to (as the case may be) the number of Conversion Units then issuable upon conversion of such Series CHP Preferred Units, be exercisable for the kind and number of units or other securities or assets of the Company or of the successor Person resulting from such transaction to which such Series CHP Preferred Units would have been entitled upon such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or similar transaction if the Series CHP Preferred Units had been converted in full immediately prior to the time of such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or similar transaction and acquired the applicable number of Conversion Units then issuable hereunder as a result of such conversion (without taking into account any limitations or restrictions on the convertibility of such Units, if any); and, in such case, appropriate adjustment shall be made with respect to such holder's rights under this Exhibit H to insure that the provisions of this Section F shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as possible, to the Series CHP Preferred Units in relation to any units, securities or assets thereafter acquirable upon conversion of Series CHP Preferred Units (including, in the case of any consolidation, merger, sale or similar transaction in which the successor or purchasing Person is other than the Company, an immediate adjustment in the Preferred Conversion Price to the value per Common Unit reflected by the terms of such consolidation, merger, sale or similar transaction, and a corresponding immediate proportional adjustment to the number of Conversion Units acquirable upon conversion of the Series CHP Preferred Units without regard to any limitations or restrictions on conversion, if the value so reflected is less than the Preferred Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such consolidation, merger, sale or similar transaction). The provisions of this Section F.6(b) shall similarly apply to successive reorganizations, reclassifications, consolidations, mergers, sales or similar transactions. The Company shall not effect any such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or similar transaction unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the successor Person (if other than the Company) resulting from such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or similar transaction, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Exhibit H, the obligation to deliver to the holders of Series CHP Preferred Units such units, securities or assets which, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, such holders shall be entitled to receive upon conversion of the Series CHP Preferred Units.

- (c) Exceptions To Adjustment Upon Issuance of Common Units. Anything in this Exhibit H to the contrary notwithstanding, there shall be no adjustment to the Preferred Conversion Price or the number of Conversion Units issuable upon conversion of the Series CHP Preferred Units with respect to any Excluded Issuance.
 - (d) Certificate as to Adjustment.

ASHFORD ANNOUNCES ACQUISITION OF CHESAPEAKE HOSPITALITY TO ACCELERATE GROWTH OF ITS HOTEL MANAGEMENT BUSINESS

DALLAS, April 18, 2022 - Ashford Inc. (NYSE American: AINC) ("Ashford" or the "Company") today announced that Remington Hotels ("Remington"), a dynamic, growing, independent hotel management company with over 40 years of experience in the hospitality business and a wholly-owned portfolio company of Ashford, has acquired privately held Chesapeake Hospitality ("Chesapeake"), a premier third-party hotel management company. Ashford is acquiring Chesapeake for an initial consideration of $15.75 million, payable with $6.3 million in cash and $9.45 million of a new Series CHP Convertible Preferred Unit, which will pay a 7.28% annual dividend and have a $117.50 conversion price per share. Chesapeake will also have the ability to earn up to $10.25 million of additional consideration based on its base management fee contribution for the trailing 12-month ("TTM") periods ending March 2024 and March 2025 for a total potential consideration of $26 million. Should Chesapeake's performance result in the full earnout for the seller, Ashford expects $5.3 million of EBITDA contribution for the full year of 2024, which would represent an acquisition multiple of 4.9x EBITDA.

With 65 years of experience helping hotel owners and real estate investors in the eastern United States, Chesapeake joins Remington with a complementary vision and mission. Chesapeake is known for its legacy of creating asset value by performing re-brandings and repositionings, and has a reputation for helping client hotels achieve their full potential through exceptional guest experiences and reliable performance.

The strategic transaction is expected to increase the scale and scope of Remington's hotel management business while expanding Remington's geographic footprint to complementary Midwestern markets, including Pittsburgh, Milwaukee, Detroit, and St. Louis. Further, the acquisition adds several IHG Hotels & Resorts to its portfolio, as well as the 877 key Showboat Atlantic City, which will be the largest hotel in Remington's portfolio. The combined company will operate under the Remington brand and will be focused on leveraging its enhanced scale to pursue profitable growth opportunities, including the continued expansion of hotel management business to third parties. This transaction also diversifies Remington's client base away from the Company's advised REITs. As a result of the acquisition, Remington's mix of third party hotels will increase from approximately 20% to approximately 40%.

"Though the hospitality space has faced massive challenges over the past few years, Remington has remained steadfast in its commitment to being the best hotel manager in the industry," commented Remington President and Chief Executive Officer, Sloan Dean. "By melding Chesapeake's culture and know-how with ours, we believe we are well-positioned to cultivate even stronger relationships with our properties' owners by providing them with more resources, better economies of scale, and a more satisfying guest experience."

"I'm so proud that Chesapeake is joining Remington, a company that is known for its stellar results and has made a real cultural shift in the hotel management space," said Chris Green, former President and CEO of Chesapeake and newly appointed Divisional President of Remington Hotels. "This partnership will be a practice in blending two companies that have operated in different geographical lanes and have a steadfast commitment to doing what is best for their clients and employees. I'm looking forward to taking the service our clients know and love to the next level as we access the resources Remington has to offer."

"This is a powerful combination of two highly complementary and synergistic businesses, and we are confident this transaction will come as a value-added partnership to our combined third-party client base," commented Monty J. Bennett, Ashford's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "This is a terrific acquisition for Remington, and underscores Ashford's commitment to supporting our portfolio companies as they execute on organic and inorganic growth initiatives to create shareholder value."

With the completion of this acquisition, Remington now manages 121 hotels in 28 states across 25 brands, including 19 independent and boutique properties. The combined company will be headquartered in Dallas, where Remington's management will oversee day-to-day operations of its entire national portfolio of properties. Upon integration, all former Chesapeake managed hotels will remain under the same teams to ensure continued delivery of excellent service to owners and guests.

Included in this press release are references to Chesapeake's EBITDA contribution, which is a non-GAAP financial measure. The Company is not providing a reconciliation of Chesapeake's expected EBITDA contribution to Chesapeake's net income contribution because the Company is unable to predict with reasonable certainty the reconciling items that may affect net income without unreasonable effort. These reconciling items are uncertain, depend on various factors, and could significantly impact, either individually or in the aggregate, the GAAP measures for the applicable period.

The Company presents Chesapeake's EBITDA contribution because it is used extensively by our management and board of directors to evaluate the impact of the acquisition of Chesapeake on our operational performance. Accordingly, the Company believes that the EBITDA contribution provides useful information to investors and others in understanding and evaluating its operating results in the same manner as its management team and board of directors. This metric, however, has limitations as a financial measure, and investors should not consider it in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP. The Company urges investors to carefully review the GAAP financial information as shown in our subsequent periodic reports on Form 10-Q and our Current Reports on Form 8-K.
