1. Basis of Presentation

The Company, formerly known as Portaltochina.com, Inc. was formed on March 18, 2003 under the laws of the State of Nevada. The Company was in the business of operating an internet portal facilitating business with China. On May 13, 2010, the Company changed its name to Northridge Ventures Inc. The Company is presently engaged in the acquisition and exploration of mining properties and is considered an exploration stage company as defined in FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 915.

The accompanying unaudited interim financial statements of the registrant have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and should be read in conjunction with the registrant's audited 2012 annual financial statements and notes thereto. In the opinion of management, all adjustments consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and the results of operations for the interim periods presented have been reflected herein. The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. Notes to the financial statements, which would substantially duplicate the disclosure required in the registrant's 2012 annual financial statements have been omitted.

2. Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. Since inception, the registrant has incurred losses of $445,080. In addition, the registrant generated negative cash flows from operations during the three months ended November 30, 2012. These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt about the registrant's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

If necessary, the registrant will pursue additional equity and/or debt financing while managing cash flows from operations in an effort to provide funds to meet its obligations on a timely basis and to support future business development.

The consolidated financial statements do not contain any adjustments to reflect the possible future effects on the classification of assets or the amounts and classification of liabilities that may result should the registrant be unable to continue as a going concern.

3. Mineral Property

On October 8, 2010, the Company acquired a 100% interest in two non-contiguous mineral exploration licenses (license numbers 018059M and 018061M) comprising 19 claims located along southeastern coastal Labrador, approximately 13 kilometers northeast of the community of Charlottetown in Labrador, Canada, having a total area of 475 hectares (1,174 acres). The closing of the acquisition took place on December 17, 2010. The Company paid the agreed-upon amount of $9,883 (CAD$10,000) to the seller of the mineral licenses, who is the son of the Company's majority stockholder. During the years ended May 31, 2012 and 2011, the Company wrote off the carrying cost of its mineral property interest of $3,619 and $9,798, respectively, as a result of an impairment assessment.

4. Related Party Transactions

During the three months ended November 30, 2012, an affiliate of the registrant paid $2,013 on behalf of the registrant in satisfaction of accounts payable. The amount remains owing and is due and payable on demand to the affiliate.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operations

USE OF FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the statements in this Form 10-Q, including some statements in "Management's Discussion and Analysis and Results of Operations" are forward-looking statements about what may happen in the future. They include statements regarding our current beliefs, goals, and expectations about matters such as our expected financial position and operating results, our business strategy, and our financing plans. These statements can sometimes be identified by our use of forward-looking words such as "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "will," and similar expressions. We cannot guarantee that our forward-looking statements will turn out to be correct or that our beliefs and goals will not change. Our actual results could be very different from and worse than our expectations for various reasons. You are urged to carefully consider these factors, as well as other information contained in this Form 10-Q and in our other periodic reports and documents filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

In our Form 10-K filed with the SEC for the year ended May 31, 2012 and in the footnotes to the unaudited financial statements, included elsewhere in this Report, we have identified critical accounting policies and estimates for our business.

General

Our business is in the early stages of development. We have not generated any significant revenue since the date of inception, but have suffered recurring losses and net cash outflows from operations. We expect to continue to incur substantial losses to implement our business plan until we obtain an interest in a property, find mineralized material, delineate an ore body, and begin profitably removing and selling minerals. We have no proven or probable mineral reserves, and there is no assurance that any mineral claims that we now have or may acquire in the future will contain commercially exploitable reserves of valuable minerals.

To date, our activities have been financed from the proceeds of share subscriptions and loans from management and non-affiliated third parties. We have not established any other source of equity or debt financing and there can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain sufficient funds to implement our business plan. As a result of the foregoing, our auditors have expressed substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. If we cannot continue as a going concern, then our investors may lose all of their investment.

Results of Operations

We have not earned any meaningful revenue since inception on March 18, 2003. We do not anticipate earning revenue until such time as we have entered into commercial production of our mineral property. We are presently in the exploration stage of our business and we can provide no assurance that we will discover commercially exploitable reserves of valuable minerals on our mineral property, or that if such resources are discovered that we will commercially produce them.

We posted an operating loss of $6,500 for the three months ended November 30, 2012, due entirely to accounting fees. This was a decrease from our operating loss of $8,500 for the same period in the previous fiscal year.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of November 30, 2012, we had no assets. This is a decrease from $17,975 in total assets as of May 31, 2012. The decrease was primarily attributable to the earn-out of prepaid professional fees and geological consulting fees.

As of November 30, 2012, our total liabilities increased to $8,530 from $18 as of May 31, 2012. This increase primarily resulted from trade debt.

We do not presently have sufficient working capital and therefore will need to obtain financing to sustain our present level of operations for the next 12 months, or to acquire additional mineral properties or to commission the preparation of a technical report on our current mineral property.

Commitments

We do not have any commitments that are required to be disclosed in tabular form as of November 30, 2012.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

As of November 30, 2012, we have no off-balance sheet arrangements such as guarantees, retained or contingent interest in assets transferred, obligation under a derivative instrument and obligation arising out of or a variable interest in an unconsolidated entity.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

As required by Rule 13a-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as of the end of the period covered by the quarterly report, being November 30, 2012, we have carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our company's disclosure controls and procedures. This evaluation was carried out under the supervision and with the participation of our company's management, including our company's president. Based upon that evaluation, our company's president concluded that our company's disclosure controls and procedures are not effective as at the end of the period covered by this report. There have been no significant changes in our internal controls over financial reporting that occurred during our most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect our internal controls over financial reporting.

Disclosure controls and procedures and other procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed or submitted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time period specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is accumulated and communicated to management, including our president and secretary as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.
