SUPPLEMENT TO THE

FIDELITY INTERNATIONAL
EQUITY FUNDS

PROSPECTUS

DATED FEBRUARY 28, 1994

The Board of Trustees of Fidelity Japan Fund has authorized adoption of a redemption fee of 1.00% (payable to the fund) on shares purchased after June 6, 1994, and held less than 90 days. The following information replaces the corresponding sections with respect to Fidelity Japan Fund under the heading "Expenses" on page 5.

FIDELITY JAPAN FUND

Maximum sales charge on purchases, beginning

June 1, 1994 (as a % of offering price) 3.00%

Deferred sales charge on redemptions None

Redemption fee for shares purchased after

June 6, 1994 1.00%

The following information replaces the corresponding paragraph on page 35. The Redemption Fee for Japan, Emerging Markets, Latin America, and Southeast Asia, if applicable, will be deducted from the amount of your redemption. This fee is paid to the fund rather than FMR, and it does not apply to shares that were acquired through reinvestment of distributions. If shares were not all held for the same length of time, those shares you held longest will be redeemed first for purposes of determining whether the fee applies.

The following replaces the corresponding section found on page 36 under the heading "Transactions Details."

FDC collects the proceeds from each fund's sales charge and may pay a portion of them to securities dealers who have sold the fund's shares, or to others, including banks and other financial institutions (qualified recipients), under special arrangements in connection with FDC's sales activities. The sales charge paid is 2.25% of the offering price, (except for International Growth & Income Fund which is 1.50%).
