Under such regulations, the designation or identification of a person as an audit committee financial expert does not impose on such person any duties, obligations or liability that are greater than the duties, obligations and liability imposed on such person as a member of the audit committee and the Board of Directors in the absence of such designation or identification nor does the designation or identification of a person as an audit committee financial expert affect the duties, obligations or liability of any other member of the audit committee or Board of Directors. Mr. Usher-Jones also serves as a member of the Board of Directors Compensation Committee.

Board and Committee Meetings

Information concerning the two Committees maintained by the Board of Directors is set forth below.

Brian Usher-Jones (Chair)	Kenneth Adelberg (Chair)
Kenneth Adelberg	Brian Usher-Jones
Stephen Dulmage	Stephen Dulmage

The current committees are comprised as follows:

2005 Audit Committee	2005 Compensation Committee
----------------------	-----------------------------

Brian Usher-Jones (Chair)
Kenneth Adelberg
Stephen Dulmage

Kenneth Adelberg (Chair)
Brian Usher-Jones
Stephen Dulmage

The audit committee of the Board (the "Audit Committee") held four meetings during fiscal 2004. The Audit Committee, among other things, recommends the Company's independent auditors, reviews the Company's financial statements, reports and recommendations regarding the adequacy of internal accounting controls made by the independent auditors and considers such other matters with respect to the accounting, auditing and financial reporting procedures as it may deem appropriate or as may be brought to its attention. The Audit Committee acts under a written charter adopted and approved by the Board on March 26, 2004. A copy of the Audit Committee Charter was attached as an Exhibit to the Company's definitive proxy statement for 2004. The Audit Committee is composed of outside directors who are not officers or employees of the Company or its subsidiaries. In the opinion of the Board and as "independent" is defined under current standards of the American Stock Exchange (including the heightened independence requirements of audit committee members), these directors are independent of management and free of any relationship that would interfere with their exercise of independent judgment as member of this committee.

The compensation committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") held two meetings during the 2004 fiscal year as of even date with regularly scheduled Board meetings. The Compensation Committee is responsible for allocating cash compensation and stock options to senior executive officers of the Company.

Board of Directors Independence

The Board of Directors reviews the relationships that each director has with us and other parties. Only those directors who do not have any of the categorical relationships that preclude them from being independent within the meaning of American Stock Exchange Company Guide, Part I Section 121, and who the Board of Directors affirmatively determines have no relationships that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director, are considered to be Independent Directors. The Board of Directors has reviewed a number of factors to evaluate the independence of each of its members. These factors include its members' current and historic relationships with us and our subsidiaries; their relationships with management and other directors; the relationships their current and former employers have with us and our subsidiaries; and the relationships between us and other companies on which our board members are directors or executive officers. After evaluating these factors, the Board of Directors has determined that three of its current five members are "independent" as defined by American Stock Exchange Company Guide, Part I Section 121, all applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, and for purposes of Rule 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. These directors are Messrs. Brian Usher-Jones, Kenneth Adelberg and Stephen Dulmage. Independent members of our Board of Directors meet in executive session without management present, and are scheduled to do so at least two times per year. The Board of Directors has designated Mr. Usher-Jones as the presiding director for these meetings.

Shareholder Communications

The Board of Directors believes that it is important for our shareholders to have a process to send confidential communications directly to the board as a whole and to the Independent Directors in particular. Accordingly, shareholders desiring to send a communication to the Board of Directors, or to a specific director, may do so by delivering a letter to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal offices as set forth on the cover page to this Amendment to the Annual Report on Form 10-KSB. The mailing envelope must contain a clear notation indicating that the enclosed letter is a "stockholder-board communication" or "stockholder director-specific" communication." All such letters must identify the author and clearly state whether the intended recipients of the letter are all members of our Board of Directors or certain specified individual directors. To the extent indicated as addressed, the Secretary will observe any requests for confidentiality and forward such correspondence unopened directly to a specific director. With respect to correspondence addressed to the Board as a whole or to a group of directors or a specific committee, the Secretary will open such communications and make copies, and then circulate them to the appropriate director or directors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall reserve the right to open all correspondence as it believes reasonably necessary to assure the safety and personal privacy of all directors.

Report of Audit Committee of the Board of Directors

The Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the internal control, accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices of the Company. Specific responsibilities of the Audit Committee include:

- o reviewing and discussing the audited financial statements with management;
- o discussing with the Company's independent auditors information relating to the auditors' judgments about the quality of the Company's accounting policies and financial reporting practices;
- o recommending to the Board that the Company include the audited financials in its Annual Report on Form 10-KSB; and

- o overseeing compliance with the Securities and Exchange Commission requirements for disclosure of auditors' services and activities.

The Committee regularly meets with management to consider the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and the integrity of its financial reporting. The Committee discusses these matters with the Company's independent auditors and with appropriate Company financial personnel and internal auditors. The Committee regularly meets privately with management, the independent auditors and the internal auditors. Each of the independent auditors has unrestricted access to the Committee. The Committee retains and, if circumstances warrant, replaces the independent auditors and regularly reviews their performance and independence from management. The Committee also pre-approves all audit and permitted non-audit services and related fees.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter setting out the roles and responsibilities the Committee is to perform. The Board has determined that Brian Usher-Jones, an independent director serving on the Audit Committee, is an "audit committee financial expert," as such term is defined under the regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Under such regulations, the designation or identification of a person as an audit committee financial expert does not impose on such person any duties, obligations or liability that are greater than the duties, obligations and liability imposed on such person as a member of the audit committee and the Board of Directors in the absence of such designation or identification nor does the designation or identification of a person as an audit committee financial expert affect the duties, obligations or liability of any other member of the audit committee or Board of Directors.

Management has primary responsibility for the Company's financial statements and the overall reporting process, including the Company's system of internal controls.

Review of Audited Financial Statements

The Audit Committee has reviewed the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, as audited by Mintz & Partners, the Company's independent auditors, and has discussed these financial statements with management. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with Mintz & Partners the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, regarding the codification of statements on auditing standards. Furthermore, the Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from Mintz & Partners required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with Mintz & Partners its independence.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The members of the Audit Committee are not currently professionally engaged in the practice of auditing or accounting. Members of the Audit Committee rely, without independent verification, on the information provided to them and on the representations made by management and the independent accountants. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's considerations and discussions referred to above do not assure that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, that the financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that the Company's independent accountants are in fact "independent."

Item 12. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

("Pivotal"), including all of the intellectual property rights of Prime to operate its business, the name of Prime, its Vertex Standard Distribution Agreement, its Midland Master License including all sub-licenses, inventory, accounts receivable, trademarks, copyrights and tooling, in exchange for 1,500,000 shares of Company Common Stock. Mr. John Simmonds, Chairman and CEO of the Company and Mr. Gary Hokkanen, CFO of the Company, at the time provided management services to Pivotal. In addition, Mr. Brian Usher-Jones serves on the Board of Directors of Pivotal as well as on the Board of the Company. Each of Mr. Simmonds and Mr. Usher-Jones recused themselves from deliberation and voting on all matters related to the Board's approval of the Company's acquisition of Prime which the Board deemed to be fair and reasonable to the Company as of such date.

On July 2, 2003, the Company acquired all of the current lines of business operated by a sibling of John Simmonds, CEO and Chairman of the Board of the Company under the trade-name A.C. Simmonds & Sons in exchange for 1,500,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. The A.C. Simmonds & Sons lines of business consist primarily of the sale of electronics products to certain customers and clients. Since July 2, 2003, and in anticipation of the acquisition of Wireless Source Distribution Ltd. ("Wireless Source", discussed below), the Company operated the A.C. Simmonds & Sons Business through financing from Wireless Source, and, upon the Company's acquisition of Wireless Source on September 19, 2003, the A.C. Simmonds & Sons Business became a division of Wireless Source.

On September 19, 2003, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Wireless Source Distribution Ltd. from related parties. Wireless Source was owned 50% by Dallas L. Robinson, former CEO of the Company and an officer of a subsidiary of the Company, Wireless Age Communications Ltd. and 50% by an entity solely owned by Robert Sim, then a director of the Company who resigned on January 18, 2004. The acquisition was consummated through a series of agreements. On September 19, 2003 the Company and a wholly owned subsidiary, (1588102 Ontario) entered into a Share Exchange Agreement with an officer of Wireless Age Communications Ltd. under which 1588102 Ontario issued 1,000,000 preferred shares of itself to Mr. Robinson, for 50 class B common shares of Wireless Source. The exchangeable preferred shares held by Mr. Robinson were exchanged into 1,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in 2004. The Company also entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with an entity solely owned by Robert Sim under which the Company issued 1,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock to the entity in exchange for 50 class B common shares of Wireless Source. As total consideration the Company issued 1,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock and 1,000,000 preferred shares of 1588102 Ontario valued at $2,740,000. The Company's consolidated financial statements include the operating results of Wireless Source from September 1, 2003.

Mr. Simmonds privately purchased 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in August 2003, 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock and warrants to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in November 2003 on terms and conditions approved by the Board of Directors of the Company and deemed fair and reasonable as of such dates.

Mr. Brian Usher-Jones privately purchased 300,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in July 2003, 500,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in August 2003 and an additional 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock and warrants to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in November 2003 on terms and conditions approved by the Board of Directors of the Company and deemed fair and reasonable as of such dates.

Mr. Adelberg privately purchased 100,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in May 2003, 500,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in August 2003 and an additional 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock and warrants to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in November 2003 on terms and conditions approved by the Board of Directors of the Company and deemed fair and reasonable as of such dates.

The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of Directors, Mr. John Simmonds, the Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Gary Hokkanen, and the Corporate Secretary, Ms. Carrie Weiler, were compensated in 2003 pursuant to the terms of a Management Services Agreement between Simmonds Capital Limited and the Company. Management fees paid for the executive management services of such officers of the Company under the Management Services Agreement totaled $268,874 during Fiscal Year 2003. On May 1, 2003, the Company by verbal consent entered into the management services agreement with Simmonds Capital Limited pursuant to which Simmonds Capital Limited would provide executive, accounting and financial reporting, human resources, information technology and other general management and administrative services to the Company. The initial term of the agreement was one year. The agreement would automatically renew for a two year period after the first year, unless either party provided written notice of cancellation prior to 60 days of expiration of the initial term. Neither party provided written notice of cancellation prior to the expiration of the initial term. Under the terms of the agreement the Company agreed to pay $35,000 per month for services rendered. The services provided under the agreement are primarily provided by John G. Simmonds, as Chief Executive Officer, Gary N. Hokkanen, as Chief Financial Officer and Carrie J. Weiler, as Corporate Secretary. On January 1, 2004, the agreement was effectively assigned from Simmonds Capital Limited to Simmonds Mercantile and Management Inc. a private Canadian corporation owned by John Simmonds, Carrie Weiler, Gary Hokkanen and Graham Simmonds.

The Company entered into a Placement Agreement as of June 30, 2004 with Robert Sim, Rosemary Sim and 101016305 Saskatchewan Ltd. (collectively, the "Sellers"), providing for the Company's private secondary restricted stock placement of an aggregate of 2,499,450 shares of Company Common Stock, par value $.001 per share (the Shares"). The basic terms of the Placement Agreement provided for a firm commitment first placement of 500,000 Sellers' Shares in a restricted stock placement (the "First Placement"), which closed July 9, 2004. The Placement Agreement provided for the exercise of Company best efforts to cause a second restricted stock placement of 1,999,450 Sellers' Shares, on or before the close of business on September 30, 2004 (the "Second Placement"). In addition, the Company negotiated the option for the secondary private restricted stock placement of up to 1 million additional Shares owned by 101016305 Saskatchewan Ltd. The Second Placement did not close and the option was not exercised. In connection with the Placement Agreement, the Company's obligations with respect to (i) the Note Purchase and Security Agreement between the Company and Stacey Minichiello, dated as of December 31, 2003; (ii) a Note issued thereunder in the principal amount of $1,930,000.00 (the "First Note"), and (iii) a second Note in the principal amount of $400,000.00, dated as of January 21, 2004 (together with the First Note, each as amended June 30, 2004, collectively the "Notes") were extended to September 30, 2004. Robert Sim is a former director of the Company. Mr. Sim resigned as a director of the Company on January 18, 2004.

On September 30, 2004 the Company entered into an agreement to further amend the Notes, and to amend the Placement Agreement entered into with Robert Sim, Rosemary Sim and 101016305 Saskatchewan Ltd., dated as of June 30, 2004 (together with the Notes, as amended, referred to as the "September Amendments"). Pursuant to the terms of the September Amendments, the maturity date for repayment of the Notes was extended to December 31, 2004. Under the terms of the September Amendments the Company agreed to issue certain promissory notes. The Company issued a $50,000 non-interest bearing note to Robert Sim repayable in six monthly installments of $16,667 on the first of the month beginning November 1, 2004 and ending on April 1, 2005. This note was issued in exchange for 18,750 common shares of Wireless Age Communications Ltd., the Company's majority owned subsidiary, which represents an ownership position of approximately 1.3%. In addition, the Company issued another $50,000 note on the exact same terms and conditions to Diane Sim, the former spouse of Robert Sim. The Company also issued a CND 119,165 non-interest bearing note to Robert Sim repayable in six monthly installments of CND 19,860.83 beginning on November 1, 2004 and ending on April 1, 2005. This note was in repayment of amounts owed to Robert Sim in respect of shareholder loans he provided the Company while he was a director that had no specific repayment terms. In connection with the transaction, the Company also acquired 30,000 shares of Wireless Age Communications Ltd. held by Rosemary Sim, Robert Sim's spouse, in exchange for the issuance on January 10, 2005 of 61,200 restricted shares of the Company's Common Stock to Rosemary Sim.

On March 4, 2005 the Company completed the acquisition of all of the issued and outstanding shares of mmwave Technologies Inc., ("mmwave"). Concurrent with the acquisition, Mr. Brad Poulos, former President of mmwave was appointed to the newly created position of President of Wireless Age Communications, reporting to Mr. John Simmonds, Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Glenn Poulos (the brother of Mr. Brad Poulos), who founded mmwave in 1991 and served as its president until 1998, has returned to resume the presidency of mmwave. Mr. Brad Poulos has also been appointed to the Company's Board of Directors.

The mmwave acquisition was consummated through a series of agreements among the Company, its wholly owned subsidiary 1588102 Ontario Inc. ("1588102") and the former shareholders of mmwave (collectively the "Vendors"). Company and 1588102 entered into a Share Exchange Agreement with the Vendors to acquire all the issued and outstanding common shares of mmwave in exchange for 4,500,000 Class B Exchangeable Shares of 1588102. Each of the Exchangeable Shares is exchangeable for one share of Company Common Stock which has been issued into the escrow of an escrow agent until such exercise date. After giving effect to the 4.5 million shares of Company common stock issued in connection with the mmwave acquisition, the number of Company shares beneficially owned by the former shareholders of mmwave in the aggregate constitutes 15.8% of the approximately 28 million issued and outstanding shares of Company common stock. Mr. Brad Poulos, the new President of the Company and Mr. Glenn Poulos, the President of mmwave, each indirectly beneficially own approximately 1,350,000 shares of Company common stock, with each such holding constituting approximately 4.7% of the Company issued and outstanding common stock. Each of the holders of the Exchangeable Shares may direct the escrow agent to vote the Company shares and deliver dividends and distributions issued in respect of such Exchangeable Shares in accordance with the instructions of the respective holder. In addition, the holders of the Exchangeable Shares are entitled to a preference over the Wireless Age common shares and any other shares of Wireless Age with respect to the payment of dividends and on a liquidation distribution. Prior to the fifth anniversary of the date of the mmwave acquisition, the Exchangeable Shares may be exercised at any time by any of the Vendors for a same amount of escrow shares.

The Board believes that all of the foregoing related party transactions were made on terms that were fair and reasonable to the Company. Directors having an economic interest in the outcome of such transactions did not participate in the deliberation or voting with respect to such actions on the part of the Company.

Item 14. Principal Accountant Fees and Services.

On March 26, 2004, the Audit Committee adopted a Pre-approval Policy ("Policy") governing the approval of all audit and non-audit services performed by the independent auditor in order to ensure that the performance of such services does not impair the auditor's independence.

According to the Policy, the Audit Committee will annually review and pre-approve the services and fees that may be provided by the independent auditor during the following year. The Policy specifically describes the services and fees related to the annual audit, other services that are audit-related, preparation of tax returns and tax related compliance services and all other services that have the general pre-approval of the Audit Committee. The term of any general pre-approval is 12 months from the date of pre-approval, unless the Audit Committee specifically provides for a different period.

Any service to be provided by the independent auditor that has not received general pre-approval under the Policy is required to be submitted to the Audit Committee for approval prior to the commencement of a substantial portion of the engagement. Any proposed service exceeding pre-approved cost levels is also required to be submitted to the Audit Committee for specific approval.

The Audit Committee will revise the list of general pre-approved services from time to time based on subsequent determinations. The Committee does not delegate its responsibilities to pre-approve services performed by the independent auditor to management.
