CREDIT SUISSE ALTERNATIVE CAPITAL MULTI-STRATEGY FUND, LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

1. ORGANIZATION

Credit Suisse Alternative Capital Multi-Strategy Fund, LLC (the "Fund") was formed on December 15, 2004, in the State of Delaware, as a closed-end, non-diversified management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"). The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing all of its investable assets in the Credit Suisse Alternative Capital Multi-Strategy Master Fund, LLC (the "Master Fund"), which has the same objective as the Fund. The Master Fund seeks to achieve its objective through the allocation of capital among selected alternative asset managers (the "Portfolio Fund Managers"). The value of the Fund's investment in the Master Fund included in the Statement of Assets, Liabilities and Members' Capital reflects the Fund's proportionate beneficial interest in the members' capital of the Master Fund which was 40.99% at September 30, 2007. The Fund commenced operations on April 1, 2005 and its fiscal year ends March 31.

The Fund is managed by a Board of Managers (the "Board") that is comprised of a majority of independent managers. The Board has overall responsibility to manage and control the business operations of the Fund on behalf of the members (the "Members").

The Master Fund is one of two master funds registered under the 1940 Act managed by the Board. Each of these master funds utilizes a master feeder fund structure in which there are two registered feeder funds investing in each of the master funds. In total there are six registered funds, including master funds and feeder funds, each registered under the 1940 Act, that are managed by the Board (the "Credit Suisse Funds"). In addition, there is one unregistered feeder fund (the "Private Fund") investing in the Master Fund.

On March 23, 2007, the Board approved a one-year extension of the investment advisory agreement between the Master Fund and Credit Suisse Alternative Capital, Inc. (the "Investment Adviser"). The Investment Adviser, a Delaware corporation and an affiliate of Credit Suisse Securities (USA), LLC and Credit Suisse Asset Management Securities, Inc., is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission as a "commodity pool operator", and is a member of the National Futures Association. The Investment Adviser pursuant to the terms of the investment advisory agreement will direct the Master Fund's investment program. The Board has approved advisory agreements with the Investment Adviser relating to both of the master funds included in the Credit Suisse Funds.

The financial statements of the Master Fund, including its schedule of investments, are included elsewhere within this report and should be read in conjunction with the Fund's financial statements. Other funds managed by the Investment Adviser, whose financial statements are not presented here, also invest in the Master Fund.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of financial statements requires management to make assumptions and use estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of income and expenses for the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

A. VALUATION

The net asset value per unit of the Fund is determined by or at the direction of the Investment Adviser as of the last business day of each month in accordance with the valuation procedures set forth below or as may be determined from time to time pursuant to policies established by the Board.

The Fund's investment in the Master Fund is considered to be illiquid and can only be redeemed periodically. In accordance with the established procedures, fair value of the Fund's investment in the Master Fund as of each month-end ordinarily is the value determined by the Master Fund as of such month-end for such investment in accordance with the Master Fund's valuation policies.

The Master Fund's valuation policies provide that the fair value it assigns to each of its investments in pooled investment vehicles ("Portfolio Funds") ordinarily will be the value determined as of each such month-end for each Portfolio Fund in accordance with each Portfolio Fund's valuation policies and reported by each Portfolio Fund or each Portfolio Fund's administrator to the Master Fund or its administrator. Although the procedures approved by the Board provide that the Investment Adviser will review the valuations provided by Portfolio Fund Managers, neither the Investment Adviser nor the Board will be able to independently confirm the accuracy of valuation calculations provided by the Portfolio Fund Managers.

As a general matter, the fair value of the Fund's interest in the Master Fund represents the amount that the Fund could reasonably expect to receive from the Master Fund if its interest were redeemed at the time of the valuation, based on information reasonably available at the time the valuation is made and that the Fund believes to be reliable. The value assigned to the Fund's investment in the Master Fund is based on available information and does not necessarily represent the amount that might ultimately be realized, as such amount depends on future circumstances and cannot reasonably be determined until the Master Fund investment is actually liquidated.

Considerable judgment is required to interpret the factors used to develop estimates of fair value. Accordingly, the estimates may not be indicative of the amount the Fund could realize in a current market exchange and the differences could be material to the financial statements. The use of different factors or estimation methodologies could have a significant effect on the estimated fair value.

Please see Note 2(a) to the financial statements of the Master Fund attached hereto for further discussion of the Master Fund's valuation policies.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

B. INVESTMENT TRANSACTIONS, INCOME AND EXPENSES

Investment transactions are accounted for on the effective date (the date the subscription/ redemption is effective). The Fund records its allocated share of the Master Fund's income, expenses and realized and unrealized gains and losses. Realized gains and losses and changes in unrealized appreciation and depreciation represent the Fund's share of such elements allocated from the Master Fund. In addition, the Fund accrues its own expenses as incurred. The Fund bears all expenses incurred in its business other than those that the Investment Adviser assumes. The expenses of the Fund include, but are not limited to, the following: all costs and expenses related to investment transactions and positions for the Fund's account; legal fees; accounting and administration fees; custodial fees; insurance; auditing and tax preparation fees; costs of computing the Fund's net asset value; costs of insurance; registration expenses; due diligence, including travel and related expenses; expenses of meetings of the Board and Members; all costs with respect to communications to Members; and other types of expenses as may be approved from time to time by the Board.

C. INCOME TAXES

The Fund intends to operate and has elected to be treated as a partnership for Federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, no provision for Federal, state or local income taxes has been provided. Each Member is individually required to report on its own tax return its distributive share of the Fund's taxable income or loss. On behalf of the Master Fund's foreign members, the Master Fund withholds and pays taxes on U.S. source income and U.S. effectively connected income, if any, allocated from Portfolio Funds to the extent such income is not exempt from withholding under the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations thereunder.

D. CASH

Cash includes amounts held in an interest bearing overnight account. At September 30, 2007, the Fund held $726,273 in an interest bearing cash account at PNC Bank, an affiliate of the Master Fund's administrator (see Note 5).

3. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") issued Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109" (the "Interpretation"). The Interpretation establishes for all entities, including pass-through entities such as the Fund, a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of positions taken in filing tax returns (including whether an entity is taxable in a particular jurisdiction), and requires certain expanded tax disclosures. The Interpretation is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006, and is to be applied to all open tax years as of the effective date. Management has determined that the adoption of the Interpretation did not have a material impact to the Fund's financial statements. However, management's conclusions regarding the Interpretation will be subject to review and may be adjusted at a later date based on factors, including but not limited to, further implementation guidance expected from the FASB and on-going analyses of tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof.

3. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS (CONTINUED)

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 157, "Fair Value Measurements", ("Statement 157"), which clarifies the definition of fair value and requires companies to expand their disclosure about the use of fair value to measure assets and liabilities in interim and annual periods subsequent to initial recognition. Adoption of Statement 157 requires the use of the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Statement 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and is to be applied prospectively as of the beginning of the fiscal year in which Statement 157 is initially applied. Management has recently begun to evaluate the application of Statement 157 to the Fund, and is not in a position at this time to evaluate the significance of its impact, if any, on the Fund's financial statements.

4. ALLOCATION OF MEMBERS' CAPITAL ACCOUNT

The Fund accepts subscriptions for units as of the first business day of each calendar month. Any amounts received in connection with the offer of units will be promptly placed in an escrow account with PFPC Inc., as the Fund's escrow agent, prior to their investment in the Fund. All subscriptions are subject to the receipt of cleared funds prior to the applicable subscription date as outlined in the subscription agreement in the full amount of the subscription. Although the Fund may accept, in its sole discretion, a subscription prior to receipt of cleared funds, a prospective Member may not become a Member until cleared funds have been received, and the prospective Member is not entitled to interest or performance returns until accepted as a Member.

Allocation periods begin on the day after the last day of the preceding allocation period and end at the close of business on (1) the last day of each month, (2) the last day of each taxable year; (3) the day preceding each day on which interests are purchased, (4) the day on which interests are repurchased, or (5) the day on which any amount is credited to or debited from the capital account of any Member other than an amount to be credited to or debited from the capital accounts of all Members in accordance with their respective investment percentages. Net profits or net losses of the Fund for each allocation period will be allocated among and credited to or debited from the capital accounts of the Members, in accordance with their respective unit ownership for such fiscal period.

5. TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES, RELATED PARTIES AND OTHER

The Investment Adviser has contractually agreed to limit total annualized expenses of the Fund to 2.25% of average members' capital (including the Member Servicing Fee, defined below) (the "Expense Limitation Agreement"). The Expense Limitation Agreement will automatically renew on an annual basis unless terminated. The Expense Limitation Agreement also covers the Fund's pro rata share of expenses incurred by the Master Fund, including the management fee paid to the Investment Adviser.

Pursuant to a Services Agreement by and between the Fund and the Investment Adviser, the Investment Adviser provides certain administrative services to the Fund and may charge the Fund a quarterly fee at an annual rate of 0.35% of the aggregate value of members' capital (the "Services Fee"). For the six months ended September 30, 2007, the Fund incurred $76,938 of Services Fees, of which $52,377 is payable to the Investment Adviser as of September 30, 2007.

5. TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES, RELATED PARTIES AND OTHER (CONTINUED)

Effective March 28, 2007, Credit Suisse Asset Management Securities, Inc. (the "Distributor") serves as a distributor of units of limited liability company interests of the Fund. A Fund's units may be purchased through the Distributor or through broker/dealers that have entered into selling agreements with the Distributor. Purchases of Fund interests may be subject to a charge of up to 3.5%, subject to waivers for certain types of investors. The sales charge will be added to each prospective Member's purchase amount and will not constitute part of a Member's capital contribution to the Fund or part of the assets of the Fund.

The Fund is subject to paying the Investment Adviser a member servicing fee (the "Member Servicing Fee") at the annual rate up to 0.50% of the Fund's month end members' capital, including assets attributable to the Investment Adviser (or its affiliates) and before giving effect to any repurchases by the Fund to reimburse it for payments made to the Distributor, broker/dealers and certain financial advisers that have agreed to provide ongoing investor services and account maintenance services to investors in the Fund that are customers of third party distributors. For the six months ended September 30, 2007, the Fund incurred $71,818 of Member Servicing Fees, all of which is payable as of September 30, 2007. Member Servicing Fees are reported on the Statement of Operations.

All payables and receivables between the Investment Adviser and the Fund outstanding as of September 30, 2007 have subsequently been settled.

Each Board member who is not an employee of the Investment Adviser, or one of its affiliates, receives an annual retainer for his/her service to all of the Credit Suisse Funds of $15,000 plus a fee for each meeting attended. The Board expenses are allocated among the Credit Suisse Funds.

In accordance with the terms of the Administration, Accounting and Investor Services Agreement ("Administration Agreement") and with the approval of the Fund's Board, PFPC, Inc. (an affiliate of PNC Bank, N.A.) ("PFPC") serves as the Fund's administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement between PFPC and the Fund. Under the Administration Agreement, PFPC provides administrative, accounting, investor services and regulatory administration services to the Fund. As compensation for services set forth herein that are rendered by PFPC during the term of the Administration Agreement, the Fund pays PFPC a fee for services rendered. PFPC Trust Company, an affiliate of PNC Bank, N.A., serves as custodian of the Fund's assets and provides custodial services to the Fund.

At September 30, 2007, Credit Suisse Private Equity, Inc. (formerly Credit Suisse First Boston Private Equity Inc.), an affiliate of the Investment Adviser, held an interest in the Fund's members' capital of $123,745.

6. REPURCHASE OF MEMBERS' INTERESTS

The Fund may, at the sole discretion of the Board, offer from time to time to repurchase interests or portions of interests in the Fund from Members pursuant to written tenders by the Members. In determining whether the Fund should offer to repurchase interests, the Board will consider the recommendation of the Investment Adviser. The Investment Adviser expects that it will generally recommend to the Board that the Fund offer to repurchase a portion of the Members' interests quarterly as of the last business day of March, June, September and December.

6. REPURCHASE OF MEMBERS' INTERESTS (CONTINUED)

Repurchases of Units held less than one year from the date of purchase will be subject to an early withdrawal charge of 2.00% calculated as a percentage of repurchase proceeds, which will remain in the Fund.

7. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS WITH OFF-BALANCE SHEET RISK

In the normal course of business, the Portfolio Funds in which the Master Fund invests trade various financial instruments and enter into various investment activities with off-balance sheet risk. The off-balance sheet risk in these financial instruments is discussed in the notes to the Master Fund's financial statements.

8. RISK FACTORS

The Master Fund invests primarily in Portfolio Funds that are not registered under the 1940 Act. These Portfolio Funds may invest in and actively trade securities and other financial instruments using different strategies and investment techniques, including leverage that may involve significant risks. The risk factors attributable to these financial instruments are discussed in the notes to the Master Fund's financial statements.

An investment in the Master Fund is a highly illiquid investment and involves a substantial degree of risk. The Master Fund is also subject to the risk that should it decide to sell an illiquid Portfolio Fund when a ready buyer is not available at a price the Investment Adviser deems representative of its value, the value of the Master Fund's members' capital could be adversely affected.

9. CONCENTRATION AND INDEMNIFICATIONS

In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that provide general indemnifications. The Fund's maximum exposure under these agreements is dependent on future claims that may be made against the Fund or Master Fund, and therefore cannot be established; however, based on the Investment Adviser's experience, the risk of loss from such claims is considered remote.

10. CAPITAL UNIT TRANSACTIONS

(f) The percentage reflects the portfolio turnover rate of the Master Fund, in which the Fund invested substantially all of its investable assets.
(g) The expense reimbursement includes voluntary reimbursements made by the Investment Adviser with the approval of the Board. If such voluntary reimbursements were not made, the net expense ratio would be higher.
(h) Average members' capital is the average of the monthly members' capital balances throughout the period.
(i) Not annualized.
(j) Ratios are annualized for periods less than one year.

OTHER INFORMATION (UNAUDITED)

PROXY VOTING

The Fund invests in the Master Fund, which in turn invests substantially all of its assets in the securities of Portfolio Funds, which are privately placed investment vehicles, typically referred to as "hedge funds" ("Hedge Funds"). These securities do not typically convey traditional voting rights to the holder and the occurrence of corporate governance or other notices for this type of investment is substantially less than that encountered in connection with registered equity securities. However, to the extent the Master Fund receives notices or proxies from Portfolio Funds (or receives proxy statements or similar notices in connection with any other portfolio securities), the Master Fund has delegated proxy-voting responsibilities to the Investment Adviser. The Investment Adviser has adopted its own Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures ("Policies"). The Policies address, among other things, conflicts of interest that may arise between the interests of the Master Fund and the interests of the Investment Adviser and its affiliates.

A description of the Investment Adviser's Policies is available (i) without charge, upon request, by calling the Fund toll-free at 1-800-910-2732, and (ii) on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

In addition, the Fund is required to file Form N-PX with its complete proxy voting record for the 12 months ended June 30th, no later than August 31st of each year. The Fund Form N-PX is available (i) without charge, upon request, by calling the Fund toll free at 1-800-910-2732 and (ii) on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

AVAILABILITY OF QUARTERLY PORTFOLIO SCHEDULES

The Fund files its complete schedule of portfolio holdings with the SEC for the first and third quarters of each fiscal year on Form N-Q. The Fund's Form N-Q filings are available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov or may be reviewed and copied at the SEC's Public Reference Room in Washington D.C. Information on the operation of the Public Reference Room may be obtained by calling 1-800-SEC-0330.

CREDIT SUISSE ALTERNATIVE CAPITAL MULTI-STRATEGY MASTER FUND, LLC

1. ORGANIZATION

Credit Suisse Alternative Capital Multi-Strategy Master Fund, LLC (the "Master Fund") was formed on December 15, 2004, in the State of Delaware as a closed-end, non-diversified management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"). The Master Fund seeks to maximize its risk-adjusted performance by investing in pooled investment vehicles (collectively, "Portfolio Funds"). The Master Fund seeks to achieve its objective through the allocation of capital among selected alternative asset managers (the "Portfolio Fund Managers"), and by maintaining diversified exposure to a number of Portfolio Funds employing different strategies and opportunistically adjusting its strategy allocations based upon Credit Suisse Alternative Capital Inc.'s (the "Investment Adviser") evaluation of the relative prospects and risks. The Master Fund commenced operations on April 1, 2005 and its fiscal year ends March 31.

The Master Fund is managed by a Board of Managers ("Board") that is comprised of a majority of independent managers. The Board has overall responsibility to manage and control the business operations of the Master Fund on behalf of the members (the "Members").

The Master Fund is one of two master funds registered under the 1940 Act managed by the Board. Each of these master funds utilizes a master feeder fund structure in which there are two registered feeder funds investing in each of the master funds. In total there are six registered funds, including master funds and feeder funds, each registered under the 1940 Act, that are managed by the Board (the "Credit Suisse Funds"). In addition, there is one unregistered feeder fund (the "Private Fund") investing in the Master Fund.

On March 23, 2007, the Board approved a one-year extension of the investment advisory agreement between the Master Fund and the Investment Adviser. The Investment Adviser, a Delaware corporation and an affiliate of Credit Suisse Securities (USA), LLC and Credit Suisse Asset Management Securities, Inc., is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission as a "commodity pool operator", and is a member of the National Futures Association. The Investment Adviser, pursuant to the terms of the investment advisory agreement, will direct the Master Fund's investment programs. The Board has approved advisory agreements with the Investment Adviser relating to both of the master funds included in the Credit Suisse Funds.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Master Fund in preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of financial statements requires management to make assumptions and use estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of income and expenses for the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

A. VALUATION

The net asset value per unit of the Master Fund is determined by or at the direction of the Investment Adviser as of the last business day of each month in accordance with the valuation policy set forth below or as may be determined from time to time pursuant to policies established by the Board.

The Master Fund's investments in the Portfolio Funds are considered to be illiquid and may be subject to limitations on redemptions, including the assessment of early redemption fees. Further, redemption requests might not be granted by the Portfolio Fund Managers. The Board has approved procedures pursuant to which the Master Fund values its investments in Portfolio Funds at fair value. The fair value of the Master Fund's interest in a Portfolio Fund will represent the amount that the Master Fund could reasonably expect to receive (without regard to early redemption fees, if any, which might be assessed and which may be significant based on liquidity terms of the Portfolio Funds) from a Portfolio Fund or from a third party if the Master Fund's interest was redeemed or sold at the time of valuation, based on information available at that time, which the Investment Adviser reasonably believes to be reliable. In accordance with the Master Fund's valuation procedures, fair value as of each month-end ordinarily will be the value determined as of such month-end for each Portfolio Fund in accordance with the Portfolio Fund's valuation policies and reported by the Portfolio Fund or the Portfolio Fund's administrator to the Master Fund or its administrator. Although the procedures approved by the Board provide that the Investment Adviser will review the valuations provided by Portfolio Fund Managers, neither the Investment Adviser nor the Board will be able to independently confirm the accuracy of valuation calculations provided by the Portfolio Fund Managers.

Considerable judgment is required to interpret the factors used to develop estimates of fair value. Accordingly, the estimates may not be indicative of the amounts the Master Fund could realize in a current market exchange and the differences could be material to the financial statements. The use of different factors or estimation methodologies could have a significant effect on the estimated fair value.

Investments of the Master Fund with a value of $134,573,801, which is 100% of the Master Fund's investments at September 30, 2007, have been fair valued and are illiquid and restricted as to resale or transfer as described above.

Some of the Portfolio Funds may invest all or a portion of their assets in so-called "side pockets", sub funds within the Portfolio Funds, which provide for their separate liquidation potentially over a much longer period than the liquidity an investment in the Portfolio Funds may provide. Should the Master Fund seek to liquidate its investment in a Portfolio Fund that maintains these investments in a side pocket arrangement or that holds substantially all of its assets in illiquid securities, the Master Fund might not be able to fully liquidate its investment without delay, that could be considerable. In such cases, during the period until the Master Fund is permitted to fully liquidate its interest in the Portfolio Fund, the value of its investment could fluctuate.

B. INVESTMENT TRANSACTIONS AND INVESTMENT INCOME

Investment transactions are accounted for on the effective date (the date the subscription/redemption is effective). Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. The Portfolio Funds generally do not make regular cash distributions of income and gains and are generally considered non-income producing securities. The Master Fund records a realized gain or loss on its investments in Portfolio Funds only to the extent that the cost of such investment, as well as any side pocket investment, has been fully recovered through previous redemptions from its investment in such Portfolio Fund.

C. FUND EXPENSES

The Master Fund will bear all expenses incurred in the business of the Master Fund. The expenses of the Master Fund include, but are not limited to, the following: all costs and expenses related to investment transactions and positions for the Master Fund's account; legal fees; accounting and administration fees; custodial fees; insurance; auditing and tax preparation fees; expenses of meetings of the Board and Members; all costs with respect to communications to Members; and other types of expenses as may be approved from time to time by the Board.

D. INCOME TAXES

The Master Fund intends to operate and has elected to be treated as a partnership for Federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, no provision for Federal, state or local income taxes has been provided. Each Member is individually required to report on its own tax return, its distributive share of the Master Fund's taxable income or loss. On behalf of the Master Fund's foreign members, the Master Fund withholds and pays taxes on certain U.S. source income and U.S. effectively connected income, if any, allocated from Portfolio Funds to the extent such income is not exempt from withholding under the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations thereunder.

E. CASH

Cash includes amounts held in an interest bearing overnight account. At September 30, 2007, the Master Fund held $3,237,774 in an interest bearing cash account at PNC Bank, an affiliate of the Master Fund's administrator (see Note

3. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") issued Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109" (the "Interpretation"). The Interpretation establishes for all entities, including pass-through entities such as the Master Fund, a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of positions taken in filing tax returns (including whether an entity is taxable in a particular jurisdiction), and requires certain expanded tax disclosures. The Interpretation is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006, and is to be applied to all open tax years as of the effective date. Management has determined that the adoption of the Interpretation did not have a material impact to the Master Fund's financial statements. However, management's conclusions regarding the Interpretation will be subject to review and may be adjusted at a later date based on factors, including but not limited to, further implementation guidance expected from the FASB and on-going analyses of tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof.

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 157, "Fair Value Measurements", ("Statement 157"), which clarifies the definition of fair value and requires companies to expand their disclosure about the use of fair value to measure assets and liabilities in interim and annual periods subsequent to initial recognition. Adoption of Statement 157 requires the use of the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Statement 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and is to be applied prospectively as of the beginning of the fiscal year in which Statement 157 is initially applied. Management has recently begun to evaluate the application of Statement 157 to the Master Fund, and is not in a position at this time to evaluate the significance of its impact, if any, on the Master Fund's financial statements.

4. ALLOCATION OF MEMBERS' CAPITAL ACCOUNT

Allocation periods begin on the day after the last day of the preceding allocation period and end at the close of business on (1) the last day of each month, (2) the last day of each taxable year; (3) the day preceding each day on which interests are purchased, (4) the day on which interests are repurchased, or (5) the day on which any amount is credited to or debited from the capital account of any Member other than an amount to be credited to or debited from the capital accounts of all Members in accordance with their respective investment percentages. Net profits or net losses of the Master Fund for each allocation period will be allocated among and credited to or debited from the capital accounts of the Members in accordance with their respective unit ownership for such fiscal period.

5. INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICES, TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES, RELATED PARTIES AND OTHER

The Investment Adviser provides certain management and administration services to the Master Fund, including, among other things, providing day-to-day investment decisions and general management of investments in accordance with stated policies, subject to supervision of the Board and other support services. In consideration for such management services, the Master Fund pays the Investment Adviser a monthly management fee (the "Management Fee") as amended, at an annual rate of 1.00% of the aggregate value of its outstanding interests determined as of the last day of each month and payable quarterly (before any repurchases of interests).

5. INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICES, TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES, RELATED PARTIES AND OTHER (CONTINUED)

Each Board member who is not an employee of the Investment Adviser, or one of its affiliates, receives an annual retainer for his/her service to all of the Credit Suisse Funds of $15,000 plus a fee for each meeting attended. The Board expenses are allocated among the Credit Suisse Funds.

In accordance with the terms of the Administration, Accounting and Investor Services Agreement ("Administration Agreement") and with the approval of the Master Fund's Board, PFPC, Inc. (an affiliate of PNC Bank, N.A.) ("PFPC") serves as the Master Fund's administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement between PFPC and the Master Fund. Under the Administration Agreement, PFPC provides administrative, accounting, investor services and regulatory administration services to the Master Fund. As compensation for services set forth herein that are rendered by PFPC during the term of the Administration Agreement, the Master Fund pays PFPC a fee for services rendered. PFPC Trust Company, an affiliate of PNC Bank, N.A., serves as custodian of the Master Fund's assets and provides custodial services to the Master Fund.

At September 30, 2007, Credit Suisse Private Equity, Inc. (formerly Credit Suisse First Boston Private Equity, Inc.) and the Private Fund, each an affiliate of the Investment Adviser, held an aggregate interest in the Master Fund's members' capital of $73,035,290.

6. SECURITY TRANSACTIONS

During the six months ended September 30, 2007, aggregate purchases of Portfolio Funds amounted to $43,500,000 and aggregate sales of Portfolio Funds amounted to $11,689,705.

The cost of investments in Portfolio Funds for Federal income tax purposes is adjusted for items of taxable income allocated to the Master Fund from the Portfolio Funds. The Master Fund has not received information from the Portfolio Funds as to the amounts of taxable income allocated to the Master Fund for the six months ended September 30, 2007.

7. PORTFOLIO FUNDS

With respect to the Master Fund's investments in other registered investment companies, private investment funds, and other commingled investment vehicles, the Master Fund bears its ratable share of each such entity's expenses and would also be subject to its share of the management and performance fees, if any, charged by such entity. The Master Fund's share of management and performance fees charged by such entities is in addition to fees paid by the Master Fund to the Investment Adviser.

As of September 30, 2007, the Master Fund had investments in Portfolio Funds valued at $134,573,801. The agreements related to investments in Portfolio Funds provide for compensation to the general partners/managers in the form of management fees of 1.00% to 4.00% (per annum) of the net assets and performance fees or allocations of up to 20.00% to 25.00% of net profits earned. The Portfolio Funds provide for periodic redemptions, with various lock-up provisions from initial investment. The liquidity provisions shown in the Schedule of Investments apply after the expiration of any lock-up provisions.

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS WITH OFF-BALANCE SHEET RISK

In the normal course of business, the Portfolio Funds in which the Master Fund invests trade various financial instruments and enter into various investment activities with off-balance sheet risk. These include, but are not limited to, short selling activities, writing option contracts, contracts for differences, and interest rate, credit default and total return equity swap contracts. The Master Fund's risk of loss in these Portfolio Funds is limited to the value of these investments reported by the Master Fund. The Master Fund itself does not invest in securities with off-balance sheet risk.

9. RISK FACTORS

In pursuing its investment objectives, the Master Fund invests in Portfolio Funds that are not registered under the 1940 Act. These Portfolio Funds may utilize diverse investment strategies, which are not generally managed against traditional investment indices. The Portfolio Funds selected by the Master Fund will invest in and actively trade securities and other financial instruments using a variety of strategies and investment techniques that may involve significant risks. Such risks arise from the volatility of the equity, fixed income, commodity and currency markets, leverage both on and off balance sheet associated with borrowings, short sales and derivative instruments, the potential illiquidity of certain instruments including emerging markets, private transactions, derivatives, and counterparty and broker defaults. Various risks are also associated with an investment in the Master Fund, including risks relating to the multi-manager structure of the Master Fund, risks relating to compensation arrangements and risks related to limited liquidity of the units. The Portfolio Funds provide for periodic redemptions ranging from monthly to annually, and may be subject to various lock-up provisions and early withdrawal fees.

A. MARKET RISK

The investments of the Portfolio Funds are subject to normal market fluctuations and other risks inherent in investing in securities and there can be no assurance that any appreciation in value will occur. The value of investments can fall as well as rise and investors may not realize the amount that they invest.

B. LIQUIDITY RISK

Although the Investment Adviser will seek to select Portfolio Funds that offer the opportunity to have their shares or units redeemed within a reasonable timeframe, there can be no assurance that the liquidity of the investments of such Portfolio Funds will always be sufficient to meet redemption requests as, and when, made.

The Investment Adviser may invest the Master Fund's assets in Portfolio Funds that invest in illiquid securities and do not permit frequent withdrawals. Illiquid securities owned by Portfolio Funds are riskier than liquid securities because the Portfolio Funds may not be able to dispose of the illiquid securities if their investment performance deteriorates, or may be able to dispose of the illiquid securities only at a greatly reduced price. Similarly, the illiquidity of the Portfolio Funds may cause Members to incur losses because of an inability to withdraw their investments from the Master Fund during or following periods of negative performance.

An investment in the Master Fund is a highly illiquid investment and involves a substantial degree of risk. Should the Master Fund decide to sell an illiquid Portfolio Fund when a ready buyer is not available at a price the Investment Adviser deems representative of its value, the value of the members' capital could be adversely affected.

C. CREDIT RISK

The Master Fund's investment activities expose it to credit risk on Portfolio Funds with whom they trade and will always bear the risk of settlement default.

D. INTEREST RATE RISK

The Portfolio Funds that the Master Fund invests in may be interest rate sensitive, which means that their value and, consequently, the value of the Master Fund's investment may fluctuate as interest rates fluctuate.

E. FOREIGN SECURITIES AND CURRENCY RISK

The Portfolio Funds may invest in the securities of foreign companies that involve special risks and considerations not typically associated with investing in U.S. companies. These risks include devaluation of currencies, less reliable information about issuers, different securities transaction clearance and settlement practices, and future adverse political and economic developments. Moreover, securities of many foreign companies and their markets may be less liquid and their prices more volatile than those securities of comparable U.S. companies.

F. DERIVATIVES

The Portfolio Funds may also invest in derivatives which represent agreements between the Portfolio Fund and a counterparty. Such agreements, which include forward contracts, non-exchange-traded options and swaps, usually represent an agreement between two parties to either receive or pay monies equal to the difference between a selective value or market rate and/or corresponding value or market value ("Reference Rates") upon the termination of an agreement. Such transactions can be effected on a leveraged basis which may amplify the positive or negative outcome of the change in Reference Rates.

10. REPURCHASE OF MEMBERS' INTERESTS

The Master Fund may, at the sole discretion of the Board, offer from time to time to repurchase interests or portions of interests in the Master Fund from members pursuant to written tenders by the Members. In determining whether the Master Fund should offer to repurchase interests, the Board will consider the recommendation of the Investment Adviser. The Investment Adviser expects that it will generally recommend to the Board that the Master Fund offer to repurchase a portion of the Members' interests quarterly as of the last business day of March, June, September and December.

11. CONCENTRATION AND INDEMNIFICATIONS

In the normal course of business, the Master Fund enters into contracts that provide general indemnifications. The Master Fund's maximum exposure under these agreements is dependent on future claims that may be made against the Master Fund, and therefore cannot be established; however, based on the Investment Adviser's experience, the risk of loss from such claims is considered remote.

The Master Fund invests substantially all of its assets in the securities of Portfolio Funds, which are privately placed investment vehicles, typically referred to as "hedge funds" ("Hedge Funds"). These securities do not typically convey traditional voting rights to the holder and the occurrence of corporate governance or other notices for this type of investment is substantially less than that encountered in connection with registered equity securities. However, to the extent the Master Fund receives notices or proxies from Portfolio Funds (or receives proxy statements or similar notices in connection with any other portfolio securities), the Master Fund has delegated proxy-voting responsibilities to the Investment Adviser. The Investment Adviser has adopted its own Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures ("Policies"). The Policies address, among other things, conflicts of interest that may arise between the interests of the Master Fund and the interests of the Investment Adviser and its affiliates.

A description of the Investment Adviser's Policies is available (i) without charge, upon request, by calling the Master Fund toll-free at 1-800-910-2732, and (ii) on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

In addition, the Master Fund is required to file Form N-PX with its complete proxy voting record for the 12 months ended June 30th, no later than August 31st of each year. The Master Fund Form N-PX is available (i) without charge, upon request, by calling the Master Fund toll free at 1-800-910-2732 and (ii) on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.
