QuickLogic Announces Preliminary Q4 2012 Revenue

Sunnyvale, CA - January 9, 2013 - QuickLogic Corporation (NASDAQ: QUIK), the leader in low-power Customer Specific Standard Products (CSSPs), today announced that it expects to report fourth quarter revenue of approximately $3.1 million compared to previously announced guidance of approximately $3.7 million, plus or minus 10%. New product revenue is expected to be approximately $1.0 million while mature product revenue is expected to be approximately $2.1 million as compared to previously announced guidance of approximately $1.6 million and $2.1 million plus or minus 10%, respectively.

“While I’m disappointed in our revenue performance for the fourth quarter, we are continuing to make progress in our long term customer and partner strategy,” said Andy Pease, QuickLogic’s President and CEO. “This progress includes the initial shipment on the new handset design mentioned in our last conference call, and 3 new orders that were booked in December for our ArcticLink III platform, two of which utilize our MIPI interface. I will provide more details on our progress during our upcoming earnings conference call.”

QuickLogic cautions that the financial results disclosed are preliminary based on the best information currently available to the company and are subject to completion of the financial statements and the audit of QuickLogic’s year-end financial results. Complete financial results are expected to be released on February 6, 2013.
