Item 1. Security and Issuer.

The class of equity securities to which this statement relates is the common stock, $.01 par value, of TII Industries, Inc. (the "Issuer"), a Delaware corporation, whose principal executive offices are located at 1385 Akron Street, Copiague, New York 11726 (the "Common Stock").

The percentage of beneficial ownership reflected in this Statement is based upon 5,478,592 shares of Common Stock outstanding on June 30, 1995, which number has been provided to the Reporting Person by the Issuer.

Item 2. Identity and Background.

(a) Name: This statement is filed on behalf of Ronald I. Heller ("Heller").

(b) Business Address: Heller has a business address of c/o M.H. Meyerson & Co., Inc., 30 Montgomery Street, Jersey City, New Jersey 07302.

(c) Principal Business: Heller is principally engaged in the investment banking business for M.H. Meyerson & Co., Inc. ("Meyerson"), an investment banking firm with its offices at 30 Montgomery Street, Jersey City, New Jersey 07302.

(d) During the last five years, Heller has not been convicted in any criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors).

(e) During the last five years, Heller has not been a party to any civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction resulting in any judgment, decree or final order against him enjoining him from engaging in future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws, except that Heller consented to certain findings by the Market Surveillance Committee ("MSC") of the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD"). Specifically, effective January 17, 1994, Heller consented to findings that R.H. Damon & Co., Inc. ("RHD"), an investment banking firm of which Heller was a principal, distributed shares of Star Classic, Inc. in violation of certain NASD rules at a time when RHD acted as one of that public company's common stock's numerous market makers. While it was noted that such violations occurred without scienter on Heller's part and that the transactions in question were made in a negotiated, large block transaction accomplished through the over-the-counter market at prices believed by RHD to be the then current market prices, the MSC stated that RHD was negligent to make such transactions without first withdrawing from market making activities for the requisite period of time. It was also found that certain of RHD's compliance procedures were inadequate and, although Heller had passed the Series 24 principals' examination, for a period of time before passing such examination, he served as the principal supervising RHD's trading. Heller consented to receiving a $20,000 fine, a two-week suspension from being associated with an NASD member firm in any capacity and a two-month suspension from being associated with an NASD member firm in a principal capacity, which latter suspension ended on March 17, 1994.

(f) Heller is a citizen of the United States.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or other Consideration.

Heller used personal funds to purchase the securities described below in Item 5(c).

Item 4. Purpose of Transactions.

Heller has acquired the securities specified in Item 5(c) of this Schedule 13D in order to obtain individual equity positions in the Issuer for investment purposes. Heller sold the Common Stock described in Item 5(c)(1) to obtain trading profit. Heller may acquire or dispose of additional shares of the Issuer, but does not presently intend to do so, although this intention may change depending upon market conditions. Heller has no present plans which relate to or would result in: an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the issuer or any of its subsidiaries; a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; any change in the present board of directors or management of the Issuer, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board; any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer; any other material change in the Issuer's business or corporate structure; changes in the Issuer's charter, by-laws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer by any person; causing a class of securities of the Issuer to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; causing a class of equity securities of the Issuer becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934; or any action similar to the above.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a) Heller directly owns 59,260 shares of Common Stock. Heller and his wife directly own 190,410 shares of Common Stock as joint tenants. Accordingly, Heller has beneficial ownership over 249,670 shares of Common Stock, or approximately 4.56% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

(b) Heller and his wife share voting and dispositive powers over the 190,410 shares of Common Stock held in joint tenancy. Heller has sole voting and dispositive powers over the balance of 59,260 shares of Common Stock described in Item 5(a).
