Updated Information

Final Distribution Received in
Ayers v. Sutcliffe Litigation

U.S. Trust Company of New York, the Trustee of this Trust (the "Trustee"), recently received a distribution from the Special Master in the litigation entitled Ayers, et al. v. Sutcliffe, et al., a class action commenced on behalf of classes of various First Humanics bonds including bonds held in the Unit Trust. An initial settlement distribution was made in December 1992. The final distribution, which concludes the litigation, represents payment to existing claimants of settlement proceeds that were not claimed by other potential claimants. The proceeds from this settlement will be used by the Trust to defray Trust expenses and to redeem units. Any excess proceeds will be payable to Unitholders in accordance with the provisions of the Trust Indenture.

Approximately five percent of the final distribution represents net interest income resulting from investments of the settlement proceeds in U.S. Treasury obligations by the Special Master. Federal income tax must be paid on the interest income. The Trustee will forward to each Unitholder a form 1099 with respect to the taxable distribution in respect of each Unitholder.
