CHAPTER VII

ALLOCATION OF PROFITS

Article 36 – The fiscal year begins on July 1 and ends on June 30 of each year.

Sole Paragraph – At the end of each fiscal year, the Board of Officers will cause the financial statements of the Company to be prepared, in compliance with the relevant legal provisions.

Article 37 – Together with the financial statements for each year, the Board of Directors shall submit to the General Shareholders' Meeting a proposal for the allocation of the annual net income (lucro líquido anual), calculated after deducting the participations referred to in article 190 of the Corporation Law and in Paragraph 2 of this Article, adjusted for purposes of calculating dividends, pursuant to article 202 of Corporation Law, observing the following order of deduction:

- a. a minimum of five percent (5%) of the annual net income shall be retained as legal reserve (reserva legal) until it reaches the percentage of at least twenty percent (20%) of the capital stock. In the fiscal year in which the balance of the legal reserve plus the amounts of the capital reserve (reserva de capital) exceeds thirty percent (30%) of the capital stock, the allocation of a portion of the net income of the year in the legal reserve shall not be mandatory;
- b. the portion necessary for the payment of a mandatory dividend shall not be lower, each year, than twenty-five percent (25%) of the adjusted net income (lucro líquido ajustado), pursuant to article 202 of Corporation Law; and

c. the remaining part of the adjusted net income shall be destined to the Investment and Expansion Reserve (Reserva para Investimento e Expansão), based or not on a capital budget approved by the General Shareholders' Meeting, pursuant to article 196 of Corporation Law. The amounts registered in this reserve may be used as ballast for the acquisition by the Company of shares of its own issuance, under the terms of share buyback programs approved by the Board of Directors.

Paragraph 1 – The balance of profit reserves, except for unrealized profit reserves and reserves for contingencies, cannot exceed the capital stock of the Company. Once this maximum limit is reached, the General Shareholders' Meeting may decide on the application of the surplus in the payment of the capital stock, the increase of the capital stock or even on the distribution of dividends.

Paragraph 2 – The General Shareholders' Meeting may assign to the members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Officers a share in the profits of the Company, after deducting the accumulated losses and the provision for income tax and social contribution, pursuant to applicable law.

Article 38 – By proposal of the Board of Officers, approved by the Board of Directors, ad referendum of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Company may pay or credit interest to the shareholders, as remuneration of the equity of the latter, in compliance with the applicable legislation. Any amounts thus disbursed may be charged to the amount of the mandatory dividend provided for in these Bylaws.

Paragraph 1 – If interest is credited to shareholders during the fiscal year, the shareholders will be offset against the dividends to which they are entitled and will be assured of payment of any remaining balance. Should the amount of the dividends be less than the amount credited to them, the Company may not charge the excess balance to the shareholders.

Paragraph 2 – The effective payment of interest on capital (juros sobre o capital próprio), having been credited during the fiscal year, will be made by resolution of the Board of Directors in the same or the next fiscal year, but no later than the dividend payment dates.

Article 39 – The Company may draw up balance sheets on a half-yearly basis or at shorter periods, and may declare upon resolution of the Board of Directors:

- a. intercalary dividends (dividendos intercalares) or interest on capital to the retained earnings account, being certain that such amounts may be deducted from the amount of the mandatory dividend (if its amount has not yet been reached), provided that the total amount of dividends and interest on capital paid in each semester of the fiscal year does not exceed the amount of the capital reserve; and
- b. interim dividends or interest on capital based on the balance of the profit reserves, being certain that such amounts may be deducted from the amount of the mandatory dividend (if its amount has not yet been reached).

Article 40 – The General Shareholders' Meeting may resolve on the capitalization of the profit or capital reserve, including those established in interim balance sheets, pursuant to the applicable law.

ANNUAL AND EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS’ MEETING OF BRASILAGRO – COMPANHIA BRASILEIRA DE PROPRIEDADES AGRÍCOLAS HELD ON OCTOBER 24, 2023, AT 2 P.M

PROTEST

1. CHARLES RIVER ADMINISTRADORA DE RECURSOS FINANCEIROS LTDA., a company authorized by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“CVM”) to provide portfolio management services and registered with CNPJ under number 17.723.993/0001-22 (“Charles River”), hereby, as the manager of the Charles River Fundo de Investimento de Ações (CNPJ No. 14.438.229/0001-17) and the Nordland Fundo de Investimento de Ações - BDR NÍVEL I – INVESTIMENTO NO EXTERIOR (CNPJ No. 38.537.602/0001-55 (“Funds”), with reference to the Annual and Extraordinary General Shareholders’ Meeting of the Company held on October 24, 2023 (“Meeting”), wishes to present to the President of the Board of the Meeting its protest regarding the calculation of the votes of the Funds in the consolidated remote voting map related to the Meeting disclosed by the Company on October 23, 2023 (“Consolidated Voting Map”).

2. According to contacts made with the Company’s representatives on this date, upon analyzing the Consolidated Voting Map, we identified that a portion of the Funds’ votes, submitted through remote voting ballots directly sent to the Company, were not accurately counted.

3. In this regard, we note that the Funds duly submitted the remote voting ballots to the Company, both with respect to the matters of the Annual Shareholders’ Meeting and the matters of the Extraordinary General Shareholders’ Meeting, on October 13, 2023.

4. Specifically in the case of the ballot containing matters of the Annual Shareholders’ Meeting, the Funds voted ‘No’ on item 7, which inquired the following:

“7. In the event of the adoption of the multiple voting process, should the votes corresponding to your shares be distributed equally among the members of the slate you have chosen?”

5. In this matter, by choosing the ‘No’ option, the Funds expressly decided not to distribute their votes equally among the candidates for the Board of Directors who are part of the slate, in the event that the multiple voting process was adopted. Furthermore, in accordance with the ballots sent to the Company, the Funds expressly stated that in case of the adoption of the multiple voting process, their votes should be distributed as follows: (i) 50% for the candidates Eliane Aleixo Lustosa de Andrade (Sitting - Independent) / Janine Meira Souza Koppe Eiriz (Alternate); and (ii) 50% for the candidates Isabella Saboya de Albuquerque (Sitting - Independent) / Sérgio Werneck Filho (Alternate).

6. Taking these considerations into account and considering that the votes counted in item 8 of the Consolidated Voting Map do not reflect the distribution expressly guided by the Funds, Charles River requested, prior to the holding of this Meeting, that the Consolidated Voting Map should have been resubmitted to identify these votes.

7. Even if the election of the Board of Directors resolved on this Meeting does not take place through the multiple voting process, Charles River considers it important to note that the Consolidated Voting Map should accurately reflect the voting instructions sent by the Funds on this item as well.

8. In this regard, Charles River emphasizes the importance of the voting instructions sent via remote voting ballot, which were previously disclosed to the market in compliance with CVM Resolution No. 81/2022 (“RCVM 81”), accurately reflecting the vote distributions in the scenario of a potential multiple voting process.

9. In the view of Charles River, this issue should be raised regardless of whether the multiple voting process has been adopted or not.

10. This is because this issue – that is, the accuracy of the Consolidated Voting Map – is important not only to ensure the proper counting of votes at the end of the meeting, guaranteeing the exercise of the voting rights of all shareholders, including those who participated via remote voting ballots.

11. Furthermore, the accurate prior disclosure of the voting instructions contained in the remote voting ballots is important even to allow other shareholders to see the positions taken by voting shareholders, which can be decisive or at least considered by other shareholders when defining their own voting strategies during a meeting, especially in elections for members of the Board of Directors, where shareholder coordination can be important for the election of candidates.

12. In light of the above, we reiterate the request for the Consolidated Voting Map to be resubmitted to include the votes of all shareholders who, as well as the Funds, marked ‘No’ on item 7 of the ballot for Annual Shareholders’ Meeting matters.

13. Finally, we request this protest to be received by the President and to be clearly identified and mentioned in the minutes of the Meeting, and, in addition to being filed at the Company’s headquarters, it should be submitted for filing with the Public Registry of Commercial Companies and disclosure, in accordance with applicable regulations, along with the minutes of the Meeting.

Rio de Janeiro, October 24, 2023.
