IN EXCHANGE FOR 12 3/4% SENIOR SUBORDINATED NOTES DUE 2005
OF
UNITED STATIONERS SUPPLY CO.

[LOGO OF UNITED STATIONERS APPEARS HERE]

United Stationers Supply Co. (the "Company"), an Illinois corporation which is the direct operating subsidiary of United Stationers Inc. ("United"), hereby offers, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Prospectus and the accompanying Letter of Transmittal (which together constitute the "Exchange Offer"), to exchange $1,000 principal amount of its 12 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2005 (the "New Notes") for each $1,000 principal amount of its 12 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2005 (the "Old Notes"), of which an aggregate principal amount of $150,000,000 is outstanding. The form and terms of the New Notes are identical to the form and terms of the Old Notes except that (i) interest on the New Notes shall accrue from the last date on which interest was paid on the Old Notes, (ii) certain provisions relating to an increase in the stated rate of interest on the Old Notes shall be eliminated and (iii) the New Notes have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and will not bear any legends restricting the transfer thereof. The New Notes will evidence the same debt as the Old Notes and will be issued pursuant to, and entitled to the benefits of, the Indenture governing the Old Notes. The New Notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a senior subordinated basis (the "Guarantees") by United and any future domestic Restricted Subsidiary of the Company. The Exchange Offer is being made in order to satisfy certain contractual obligations of the Company. See "The Exchange Offer" and "Description of the New Notes." The Old Notes and the New Notes are sometimes referred to collectively herein as the "Notes."

Interest on the Notes will be payable semiannually on May 1 and November 1 of each year, commencing November 1, 1995. The Notes will be redeemable at the option of the Company, in whole or in part, at any time on or after May 1, 2000 at the redemption prices set forth herein, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption. In addition, on or prior to May 1, 1998, the Company may redeem up to $50.0 million principal amount of the Notes with the proceeds of one or more Public Equity Offerings at 112.75% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption; provided that Notes having an aggregate principal amount of at least $100.0 million remain outstanding immediately after any such redemption. Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, each holder of the Notes may require the Company to repurchase all or a portion of such holder's Notes at 101% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase. If a Change of Control occurs, there can be no assurance that the agreements controlling the Company's then-existing Senior Indebtedness would permit the Company to make payments pursuant to a Change of Control Offer without the prior repayment of such Senior Indebtedness or that the Company would have available funds sufficient to purchase all Notes that might be delivered by the holders thereof. Such limitations may have the effect of delaying or deterring a third-party takeover of the Company. See "Description of New Notes -- Certain Covenants" and "--Purchase of Notes Upon a Change of Control."

The Notes and the Guarantees will be subordinated to all Senior Indebtedness of the Company and Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of each Guarantor, respectively. After giving pro forma balance sheet effect to the repurchase of certain preferred stock to be effected with the proceeds of the Old Notes as if such transaction had occurred on March 31, 1995, there would have been approximately $435.7 million of Senior Indebtedness and Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of United outstanding on such date, substantially all of which represents Indebtedness or guarantees of Indebtedness under the New Credit Facilities which is secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company; in addition, after taking into account approximately $68.1 million of outstanding letters of credit, there would have been approximately $32.8 million available to be drawn by the Company as secured Senior Indebtedness under the revolving credit portion of the New Credit Facilities, which amount would have been secured Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of United, and there would have been approximately $264.1 million of Indebtedness of the Company that would have been pari passu to the New Notes. See "Risk Factors--Limited Practical Value of Guarantees by United."

The Company will accept for exchange any and all Old Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on , 1995, unless extended (as so extended, the "Expiration Date"). Tenders of Old Notes may be withdrawn at any time prior to the Expiration Date. The Exchange Offer is subject to certain customary conditions. See "The Exchange Offer."

Based on no-action letters issued by the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") to third parties, the Company believes the New Notes issued pursuant to the Exchange Offer may be offered for resale, resold and otherwise transferred by any holder thereof (other than any such holder that is an "affiliate" of the Company within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act) without compliance with the registration and prospectus delivery provisions of the Securities Act, provided that such New Notes are acquired in the ordinary course of such holder's business and such holder has no arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in the distribution of such New Notes. Because the Company has not obtained a no-action letter with respect to the Exchange Offer, there can be no assurance that the staff of the Commission would make a similar determination with respect to the resale of the New Notes. See "The Exchange Offer--Purpose and Effect." Each broker-dealer that receives New Notes for its own account pursuant to the Exchange Offer must acknowledge that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of such New Notes. The Letter of Transmittal states that by so acknowledging and by delivering a prospectus, a broker-dealer will not be deemed to admit that it is an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act. This Prospectus, as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time, may be used by a broker-dealer in connection with resales of New Notes received in exchange for Old Notes where such Old Notes were acquired by such broker-dealer as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities. The Company has agreed that, for a period of 180 days after the Expiration Date, it will make this Prospectus available to any broker-dealer for use in connection with any such resale. See "Plan of Distribution."

Prior to the Exchange Offer, there has been no public market for the Old Notes. If a market for the New Notes should develop, the New Notes could trade at a discount from their principal amount. The Company currently does not intend to list the New Notes on any securities exchange or to seek approval for quotation through any automated quotation system and no active public market for the New Notes is currently anticipated. The Company will pay all the expenses incident to the Exchange Offer.

The Exchange Offer is not conditioned upon any minimum principal amount of Old Notes being tendered for exchange pursuant to the Exchange Offer.

SEE "RISK FACTORS" FOR A DISCUSSION OF CERTAIN FACTORS WHICH HOLDERS OF OLD NOTES SHOULD CONSIDER IN CONNECTION WITH THE EXCHANGE OFFER.

THESE SECURITIES HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR HAS THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION PASSED UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THIS PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

THE DATE OF THIS PROSPECTUS IS , 1995.

United and the Company will also in any event (x) within 15 days of each Required Filing Date transmit by mail to all holders of the Notes and file with the trustee under the Indenture copies of the annual reports, quarterly reports and other documents which United and the Company would have been required to file with the Commission pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act if United and the Company were so subject and (y) if filing such documents by United and the Company with the Commission is not permitted under the Exchange Act, promptly upon written request, supply copies of such documents to any prospective holder of the Notes. In addition, for so long as any of the Old Notes remain outstanding, United has agreed to make available to any prospective purchaser of the Old Notes or beneficial owner of the Old Notes in connection with any sale thereof the information required by paragraph (d)(iv) of Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

THIS IS IN addition TO THE OBLIGATION OF DEALERS TO DELIVER A PROSPECTUS WHEN ACTING AS UNDERWRITERS.

THE COMPANY

OVERVIEW

The Company is the largest office products wholesaler in the United States. As a result of the merger of the Company with ASI on March 30, 1995, the Company's net sales on a pro forma basis for 1994 were approximately $2.0 billion and for the three months ended March 31, 1995 were approximately $0.6 billion. Through its extensive office products catalogs, the Company markets a full line of over 25,000 (post-consolidation) branded and private brand office and other related business products ("office products"), including traditional office supplies; office furniture and desk accessories; office machines, equipment and supplies; computer hardware, peripherals and supplies; and facilities management supplies, including sanitation products and janitorial items. These products are offered through a network of 39 (post-consolidation) strategically located distribution centers to over 14,000 resellers, consisting principally of commercial dealers and contract stationers, retail dealers, superstores, mail order companies and mass merchandisers.

Although the office products distribution industry has seen many changes over the past decade, including the growth of national superstores and a consolidation among wholesalers, dealers and contract stationers, large national wholesalers have continued to perform a significant role in the distribution of office products. For manufacturers, the wholesaler provides wide market coverage, assumes credit risk, carries inventory and processes smaller orders than manufacturers can economically service. In addition, wholesalers provide resellers with prompt service and delivery, a source for filling small quantity orders and the opportunity to obtain credit, minimize investment in inventory and access marketing resources and technical support.

COMPETITIVE STRENGTHS

The Company believes that it has a strong competitive position attributable to a number of factors, including the following:

- Largest Office Products Wholesaler. As the largest office products wholesaler in the United States, the Company has substantial purchasing power and can realize significant economies of scale.

- High Level of Customer Service. The Company provides its customers with a broad product selection, a high degree of product availability, expeditious distribution and comprehensive customer assistance.

- Diverse Customer Base. With over 14,000 resellers as customers, the Company has one of the broadest customer bases in the industry.

- State-of-the-Art Distribution Capabilities. The Company's network of 39 (post-consolidation) distribution centers located throughout the United States employs state-of-the-art technology to efficiently distribute products to customers.

- Growth of Private Brand Products. The Company offers a growing line of over 1,300 private brand products under the Universal(TM) brand name, which the Company believes is the broadest private brand product offering in the industry.

- Experienced Management Team. The Company's senior management team comprises individuals who combine many years of experience in the office products distribution industry, including experience in acquiring and integrating companies in the office products industry. See "Business -- Competitive Strengths".

BUSINESS STRATEGY

The Company's business strategy is to seek to improve its competitive position and grow its revenues and profitability through (i) the continuation of a high level of customer service, (ii) expanding the breadth of both its product line and its customer base and (iii) continuing an emphasis on cost effective operations. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to effect its business strategy in a timely manner, if at all. See "Business -- Business Strategy".

CONSOLIDATION PLAN AND BENEFITS OF THE ACQUISITION

Consistent with its business strategy, since the consummation of the Acquisition on March 30, 1995, the Company has been engaged in implementing its consolidation plan to integrate its business with the business of ASI. Through the integration of distribution facilities and product lines in a manner designed to enable the Company to offer its customers better service and selection, the Company expects to improve its competitive position. In addition, the Company plans to achieve cost savings and other benefits from the elimination of redundant or overlapping functions and facilities and by minimizing overlapping products. Elements of the consolidation plan include (i) consolidating the product offerings of ASI and the Company by minimizing overlapping products while at the same time adding more niche products, (ii) qualifying for improved terms with vendors as a result of placing higher volume purchases among fewer suppliers, (iii) consolidating distribution centers by eliminating eight redundant facilities and achieving more efficient operations in the four market areas that will continue to have two facilities, (iv) reducing corporate overhead, (v) eliminating redundant sales representatives and (vi) increasing sales of private brand products and off-shore sourcing of these and other products. Management anticipates that the implementation of its consolidation plan should result in significant cost savings and synergies which will enhance the Company's financial and operational performance.

Management estimates that, upon phase-in of its consolidation plan over a 12-month period following the Acquisition, the Company expects to realize approximately $26.0 million per year in savings as a result of a successful implementation of its consolidation plan, although the Acquisition is also likely to result in a reduction in the rate of revenue growth for some period following the Acquisition as a result of the loss of some customers to competition. See "Risk Factors -- Risk Inherent In Implementation of Consolidation Plan," "Pro Forma Combined Financial Information" and "Business -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition."

THE ACQUISITION

On March 30, 1995, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of February 13, 1995 (the "Merger Agreement"), and in accordance with the terms of Associated's related Offer to Purchase dated February 21, 1995 (the "Offer to Purchase"), Associated purchased (together with the Mergers, the "Acquisition") 92.5% of the outstanding shares of common stock, $0.10 par value (the "Shares"), of United for $15.50 per Share, or approximately $266.6 million in the aggregate, pursuant to a tender offer (the "Offer") that expired on March 22, 1995. Immediately thereafter, the Mergers were consummated, with Associated and ASI merging with and into United and the Company, respectively, and United and the Company continuing as the respective surviving corporations. As a result of share conversions in the Merger, immediately after the Merger, the former holders of Associated Common Stock (as hereinafter defined) and warrants or options to purchase Associated Common Stock owned Shares and warrants or options to purchase Shares constituting in the aggregate approximately 80% of the Shares on a fully diluted basis, while pre-Merger holders of Shares (other than Associated-Owned Shares and Treasury Shares (each as hereinafter defined)) owned in the aggregate approximately 20% of the Shares on a fully diluted basis. See "The Acquisition."

To finance the Offer, refinance existing debt of ASI, United and the Company, redeem United stock options and pay related fees and expenses, Associated, ASI, United and the Company entered into (i) the New Credit Facilities (as hereinafter defined) with a group of banks and financial institutions led by The Chase Manhattan Bank (National Association) ("Chase Bank") providing for term loan borrowings of $200.0 million and revolving loan borrowings of up to $300.0 million and (ii) a senior subordinated bridge loan facility with The Roebling Fund, whose investors comprise a group of banks and financial institutions, including Chase Bank, in the aggregate principal amount of $130.0 million (the "Subordinated Bridge Facility"). In addition, simultaneously with the consummation of the Offer, Associated obtained $12.0 million from the sale of additional shares of Associated Common Stock primarily to certain existing holders of Associated Common Stock, which proceeds were used to finance the purchase of a portion of Shares pursuant to the Offer. The Company used a portion of the net proceeds of the Old Notes to refinance the Subordinated Bridge Facility. See "Financing the Acquisition."

(1) Borrowings under the New Credit Facilities at the time the Acquisition was consummated consisted of term loan borrowings of $200.0 million and revolving loan borrowings of approximately $206.8 million. Also included is approximately $9.7 million of additional revolving loan borrowings drawn to pay fees and expenses after consummation of the Acquisition.

(2) Refinanced with a portion of the net proceeds of the Old Notes.

(3) Excludes approximately $2.6 million borrowed by the Company and $3.2 million borrowed by ASI prior to closing of the Offer to pay fees and expenses in connection with consummation of the Acquisition. These amounts are included under "Refinance Existing Company Debt" and "Refinance Existing ASI Debt," respectively, above. Estimated Fees and Expenses include the discount received by Chase Securities, Inc. ("Chase Securities" or the "Initial Purchaser") on the Old Notes.

(4) This amount was used to repurchase United stock options. This amount excludes approximately $3.2 million borrowed by the Company prior to closing of the Offer to discharge compensation and other liabilities in connection with consummation of the Acquisition. This latter amount is included under "Refinance Existing Company Debt" above.

THE EXCHANGE OFFER

The Exchange Offer applies to $150,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Old Notes. The form and terms of the New Notes are the same as the form and terms of the Old Notes except that the New Notes have been registered under the Securities Act and, therefore, will not bear legends restricting the transfer thereof. The New Notes will evidence the same debt as the Old Notes and will be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture pursuant to which the Old Notes were issued. See "Description of the New Notes."

The Exchange Offer.....	$1,000 principal amount of New Notes in exchange for each $1,000 principal amount of Old Notes. As of the date hereof, $150,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Old Notes are outstanding. The terms of the New Notes and the Old Notes are substantially identical. Based on an interpretation by the staff of the Commission set forth in no-action letters issued to unrelated third parties, the Company believes that New Notes issued pursuant to the Exchange Offer in exchange for Old Notes may be offered for resale, resold and otherwise transferred by any person receiving such New Notes, whether or not such person is the holder (other than any such holder or such other person which is an "affiliate" of the Company within the meaning of Rule 405 promulgated under the Securities Act), without compliance with the registration and prospectus delivery provisions of the Securities Act, provided that (i) such New Notes are acquired in the ordinary course of business of such holder or such other person, (ii) neither the holder nor such other person is engaging in or intends to engage in a distribution of such New Notes and (iii) neither such holder nor such other person has an arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in the distribution of such New Notes. See "The Exchange Offer -- Purpose and Effect." Following the consummation of the Exchange Offer (except as set forth in the second paragraph under "Exchange Offer--Purpose and Effect"), holders of Old Notes not tendered will not have any further registration rights and the Old Notes will continue to be subject to certain restrictions on transfer. Accordingly, the liquidity of the market for a holder's Old Notes could be adversely affected upon consummation of the Exchange Offer if such holder does not participate in the Exchange Offer. See "Exchange Offer--Purpose and Effect."
Registration Agreement.....	The Old Notes were sold by the Company on May 3, 1995 in a private placement. In connection therewith, the Company entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with the Initial Purchaser (the "Registration Agreement") providing for the Exchange Offer. See "The Exchange Offer -- Purpose and Effect."

Expiration Date.....	The Exchange Offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on , 1995, or such later date and time to which it is extended.
Withdrawal.....	The tender of Old Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. Any Old Notes not accepted for exchange for any reason will be returned without expense to the tendering holder thereof as promptly as practicable after the expiration or termination of the Exchange Offer.

Conditions to the Exchange Offer.....	The Exchange Offer is subject to certain customary conditions, certain of which may be waived by the Company. See "The Exchange Offer -- Conditions."
Procedures for Tendering Old Notes.....	Each holder of Old Notes wishing to accept the Exchange Offer must complete, sign and date the Letter of Transmittal, or a facsimile thereof, in accordance with the instructions contained herein and therein, and mail or otherwise deliver such Letter of Transmittal, or such facsimile, together with the Old Notes and any other required documentation, to the Exchange Agent at the address set forth herein. By executing the Letter of Transmittal, each holder will represent to the Company that, among other things, (i) the New Notes acquired pursuant to the Exchange Offer are being obtained in the ordinary course of business of the person receiving such New Notes, whether or not such person is the holder, (ii) neither the holder nor any such other person is engaging in or intends to engage in a distribution of such New Notes, (iii) neither the holder nor any such other person has an arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in the distribution of such New Notes and (iv) neither the holder nor any such other person is an "affiliate," as defined under Rule 405 promulgated under the Securities Act, of the Company. Pursuant to the Registration Agreement, the Company is required to file a registration statement for a continuous offering pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act in respect of the Old Notes of any holder that indicates in the Letter of Transmittal that it cannot make such representations to the Company and that it wishes to have its Old Notes registered under the Securities Act. See "The Exchange Offer-- Procedures for Tendering."
Acceptance of Old Notes and Delivery of New Notes.....	The Company will accept for exchange any and all Old Notes which are properly tendered in the Exchange Offer prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. The New Notes issued pursuant to the Exchange Offer will be delivered promptly following the Expiration Date. See "The Exchange Offer -- Terms of the Exchange Offer."

Exchange Agent.....	The Bank of New York is serving as Exchange Agent in connection with the Exchange Offer.
Federal Income Tax Consequences.....	The exchange pursuant to the Exchange Offer should not be a taxable event for federal income tax purposes. See "Certain Federal Income Tax Considerations."

USE OF PROCEEDS

There will be no cash proceeds to the Company from the exchange pursuant to the Exchange Offer. The proceeds received by the Company from the offer of the Old Notes were used (i) to repay the loan (the "Bridge Loan") under the Subordinated Bridge Facility (plus accrued interest thereon) and (ii) to pay down the Term Loan Facilities (as hereinafter defined). If the necessary consents are obtained, the Company intends to pay a dividend to United in an amount sufficient to repurchase all of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock (as hereinafter defined), together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, with a portion of the proceeds from the Old Notes. See "Financing the Acquisition."

TERMS OF THE NEW NOTES

Maturity Date.....	May 1, 2005.
Interest Payment Dates.....	May 1 and November 1 of each year, commencing November 1, 1995.
Optional Redemption.....	The Notes will be redeemable at the option of the Company at any time on or after May 1, 2000, in whole or in part, at redemption prices set forth herein plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption. In addition, on or prior to May 1, 1998, the Company may redeem up to $50.0 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes with the proceeds of one or more Public Equity Offerings (as hereinafter defined) at 112.75% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption; provided that Notes having an aggregate principal amount of $100.0 million remain outstanding immediately after any such redemption. See "Description of the New Notes -- Optional Redemption."
Change of Control.....	Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control (as defined), each holder of the Notes may require the Company to repurchase all or a portion of such holder's Notes at 101% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase. See "Description of the New Notes -- Certain Covenants." If a Change of Control occurs, there can be no assurance that the agreements controlling the Company's then-existing Senior Indebtedness would permit the Company to make payments pursuant to a Change of Control Offer without the prior repayment of such Senior Indebtedness or that the Company would have available funds sufficient to purchase all Notes that might be delivered by the holders thereof. Such limitations may have the effect of delaying or deterring a third-party takeover of the Company.

Subordination.....	The Notes and the Guarantees will be subordinated to all Senior Indebtedness of the Company and Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of each Guarantor, respectively, which will include, without limitation, all indebtedness incurred under the New Credit Facilities. After giving pro forma balance sheet effect to the repurchase of Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, that may be effected with a portion of the proceeds from the Old Notes as if such transaction had occurred on March 31, 1995, there would have been approximately $435.7 million of Senior Indebtedness and Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of United outstanding on such date, substantially all of which is secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company; in addition, after taking into account approximately $68.1 million of outstanding letters of credit, there would have been approximately $32.8 million available to be drawn by the Company as secured Senior Indebtedness under the revolving credit portion of the New Credit Facilities, which amount would have been secured Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of United, and approximately $264.1 million of Indebtedness of the Company that would have been pari passu to the New Notes. See "Risk Factors -- High Leverage," "-- Subordination" and "--Limited Practical Value of Guarantees by United" and "Capitalization."

Guarantees.....	The Notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a senior subordinated basis as to payment of principal, premium, if any, and interest by United and by any future domestic Restricted Subsidiary (as hereinafter defined) of the Company. The Company has no present intention to acquire any domestic Restricted Subsidiary. United conducts no independent operations. Its only asset is the capital stock of the Company. See "Risk Factors--Limited Practical Value of Guarantees by United."
Certain Covenants.....	The indenture governing the Notes (the "Indenture") contains certain covenants, including limitations on the incurrence of indebtedness, the making of restricted payments, transactions with affiliates, the existence of liens, disposition of proceeds of asset sales, the making of guarantees by restricted subsidiaries, transfers and issuances of stock of subsidiaries, the imposition of certain payment restrictions on restricted subsidiaries and certain mergers and sales of assets. See "Description of the New Notes -- Certain Covenants."
Exchange Offer;Registration Rights.....	Pursuant to the Registration Agreement, United and the Company have agreed to use their best efforts to (i) file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") on or prior to June 2, 1995, and cause to become effective on or prior to August 31, 1995, a registration statement (the "Exchange Offer Registration Statement") with respect to a registered offer under the Securities Act to exchange the New Notes for the Old Notes in accordance with the terms of the Exchange Offer and (ii) cause such Exchange Offer to be consummated on or prior to September 30, 1995. In the event that either (i) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not declared effective on or prior to August 31, 1995, (ii) the Exchange Offer is not consummated on or prior to September 30, 1995 or (iii) changes in law or the applicable interpretation of the Commission staff do not permit the Company to effect the Exchange Offer and a shelf registration statement pursuant to the Securities Act (a "Shelf Registration Statement") with respect to the Old Notes is not declared effective under the Securities Act on or prior to the later of (x) August 31, 1995 and (y) the 45th calendar day after the publication of the change in law or interpretation, the interest rate borne by the Old Notes shall be increased by one-half of one percent per annum following the relevant date described in clause (i), (ii) or (iii), as applicable. The aggregate amount of such increase from the original interest rate pursuant to these provisions will in no event exceed one-half of one percent per annum. See "The Exchange Offer -- Adjustment to Old Notes." Such increase will cease to be effective on the date of effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, consummation of the Exchange Offer or the effectiveness of a Shelf Registration Statement, as the case may be. See "The Exchange Offer."

RISK FACTORS

Investment in the Notes involves a high degree of risk. For a discussion of certain considerations relevant to an investment in the Notes, see "Risk Factors."

SUMMARY FINANCIAL DATA

Set forth below and on the following pages is summary pro forma information for United and summary historical financial information for United and Associated. United, which has no operations independent of those of the Company, unconditionally guarantees the Notes on a senior subordinated basis. Associated had no operations independent of those of ASI.

UNITED -- PRO FORMA

The unaudited pro forma combined financial data set forth below should be read in conjunction with the unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements included elsewhere herein, which are based on the historical financial statements of Associated and United after giving effect to: (i) the purchase accounting and other merger related adjustments relating to the Acquisition and (ii) the refinancing of certain debt and repurchase of the Series B Preferred Stock assumed to be effected with the proceeds of the offering of Old Notes, as described in the notes thereto. The unaudited pro forma combined financial data is intended for informational purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the future financial position or future results of operations of United after the Acquisition, or of the financial position or results of operations of United that would have actually occurred had the Acquisition occurred on the date or been in effect for the period presented. The unaudited pro forma combined financial data should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by, the historical consolidated financial statements of United and Associated, including the related notes thereto, included elsewhere herein.

(1) The unaudited pro forma income statement and operating and other data is presented giving effect to (i) the Acquisition as if it had been consummated on January 1, 1994 and (ii) the refinancing of certain debt and the repurchase of Series B Preferred Stock (including accrued and unpaid dividends thereon) assumed to be effected with the proceeds of the Old Notes as if such refinancing and repurchase had been consummated one month thereafter. The unaudited pro forma balance sheet data is presented giving effect to the Acquisition and the refinancing of certain debt and the repurchase of Series B Preferred Stock (including accrued and unpaid dividends thereon) assumed to be effected with the proceeds of the Old Notes as if all such transactions had been consummated on March 31, 1995. Although United was the surviving corporation in the Merger, the transaction was treated as a reverse acquisition for accounting purposes with Associated as the acquiring corporation. Accordingly, the pro forma income statement for the year ended December 31, 1994 combines Associated for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1994 with United for its twelve month period ended November 30, 1994 (the date of its fiscal quarter ending nearest to December 31, 1994), the pro forma income statement for the three months ended March 31, 1995 combines Associated for the three months ended March 31, 1995 with United for the three months ended February 28, 1995 and the pro forma balance sheet data as of March 31, 1995 for United include the preliminary purchase price allocation, which may be revised at a later date, and other Merger related adjustments. United's historical statement of income previously reported on a fiscal year ended August 31, 1994 has been adjusted to reflect the twelve month period ended November 30, 1994.

(2) The pro forma income statement data excludes (i) the extraordinary non-recurring write-off of approximately $2.4 million ($1.4 million net of tax benefit of $1.0 million) of financing costs and original issue discount relating to the retirement of debt, (ii) a non-recurring charge for restructuring of approximately $9.8 million ($5.9 million net of tax benefit of $3.9 million), for costs expected to be incurred in connection with integration and transition (e.g., severance and the cost of closing certain facilities operated by Associated prior to the Merger) and (iii) compensation expense relating to employee stock options of approximately $1.5 million ($0.9 million net of tax benefit of $0.6 million). Approximately $14.6 million of additional integration and transition costs (e.g., severance and the cost of closing facilities operated by United prior to the Merger) will be recorded as additional costs of the Merger, in accordance with the purchase method of accounting. The above-referenced restructuring reserve and the purchase accounting reserve relating to the integration and transition expenses total $24.4 million and are reflected as a reserve in the Pro Forma Combined Balance Sheet. See "Pro Forma Combined Financial Information."

(3) Includes estimated cost savings of $26.0 million for the year ended December 31, 1994 and $6.5 million for the three months ended March 31, 1995 that United expects to realize from the actions that management has committed to undertake pursuant to its consolidation plan that has been approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, as if the consolidation plan had been implemented in full as of January 1, 1994. United plans to implement its consolidation plan over a 12-month period following the Acquisition. See "Risk Factors -- Implementation of Consolidation Plan" and "Business -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition."

(4) Pro forma interest expense is based on historical interest rates in effect during the year ended December 31, 1994 and the three months ended March 31, 1995 in calculating the basis for variable rates. Average 30-day LIBOR in effect for the year ended December 31, 1994 ranged from 3.15% to 6.09% and for the three months ended March 31, 1994 was 6.125%. The average prime rate during January 1994 was 6.0% and for the three months ended March 31, 1995 ranged from 8.50% to 9.0%. At March 31, 1995, 30-day LIBOR was 6.125% and the prime rate was 9.0%. If the March 31, 1995 interest rates were used as base interest rates instead of the historical rates, pro forma interest expense for United would amount to $56.1 million instead of $48.8 million for the year ended December 31, 1994. Each 1/8 of 1% change in the base interest rate for variable rate debt has a $521 thousand effect on annual pro forma interest expense for United. In April 1995, the Company entered into three-year interest rate protection arrangements totaling $200,000,000 pursuant to which the Company (i) is protected to the extent that the 3-month LIBOR interest rate exceeds 8.0% and (ii) is liable to the extent that such interest rate drops below 6.0%.

(5) EBITDA is defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization and is presented because it is commonly used by certain investors and analysts to analyze and compare companies on the basis of operating performance and to determine a company's ability to service and incur debt.

EBITDA should not be considered in isolation from or as a substitute for net income, cash flows from operating activities or other consolidated income or cash flow statement data prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or as a measure of profitability or liquidity.

(6) EBITDA margin represents EBITDA as a percentage of net sales.

(7) Total debt and capital leases includes current maturities.

UNITED -- HISTORICAL

The summary financial information of United set forth below for each of the fiscal years in the five-year period ended August 31, 1994 and the seven months ended March 30, 1995 has been derived from the financial statements of United, which have been audited by Arthur Andersen LLP, independent public accountants for the years ended August 31, 1991 through 1994, and by Ernst & Young LLP, independent public accountants, for the seven months ended March 30, 1995. Audited financial statements for the fiscal years ended August 31, 1990 and 1991 are not included in this filing. The summary financial information at and for the seven-month period ended March 31, 1994 is unaudited and in the opinion of management reflects all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation of such data. The results of operations for any interim period are not necessarily indicative of results of operations for the fiscal year and should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations -- Historical Results of Operations of United" and "-- Historical Liquidity and Capital Resources of United" and the financial statements of United included elsewhere in this Prospectus.

ASSOCIATED -- HISTORICAL

The summary financial information of Associated set forth below with respect to the period from January 31, 1992 (when certain of the assets and certain liabilities of ASI were acquired (the "Boise Transaction") from the Wholesale Division of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation ("BCOP")) through December 31, 1992 and the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1994 has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations -- Historical Results of Operations of Associated" and "-- Historical Liquidity and Capital Resources of Associated" and the financial statements of Associated included elsewhere in this Prospectus, which have been audited by Arthur Andersen LLP, independent public accountants. The data at and for the years ended December 31, 1990 and 1991 and the one month ended January 31, 1992 are derived from the unaudited financial statements of BCOP for such periods. Associated has accounted for the Boise Transaction using the purchase method of accounting. There are material operational and accounting differences between BCOP and Associated resulting from the Boise Transaction. Accordingly, the historical financial data of BCOP may not be comparable in all material respects with data of Associated. The data at and for the three months ended March 31, 1994 and 1995 are unaudited and in the opinion of management reflect all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation of such data. On March 30, 1995, Associated merged with United. Although United was the surviving corporation in the Merger, the transaction was treated as a reverse acquisition for accounting purposes, with Associated as the acquiring corporation. Therefore, the income statement and operating and other data for the three months ended March 31, 1994 and 1995 reflect the financial information of Associated only. The balance sheet data at March 31, 1995 reflect the consolidated balances of Associated and United including the preliminary purchase price allocation, which may be revised at a later date, and other Merger-related adjustments. The balance sheet data at March 31, 1994 reflect Associated only.

(1) The capital structure and accounting basis of the assets and liabilities of the predecessor of ASI, BCOP, differ from those of Associated and ASI. Accordingly, certain of the financial information for periods before January 31, 1992 is not comparable to that for periods after January 31, 1992 and therefore is not presented in this table.

(2) The Predecessor operated as a segment of BCOP. BCOP did not allocate income tax or interest expense to the Predecessor. Accordingly, actual operating results for the Predecessor reflect only income from operations before interest expense and income taxes.

(3) Derived from the unaudited financial statements of BCOP at and for the year ended December 31, 1990.

(4) Derived from the unaudited financial statements of BCOP at and for the year ended December 31, 1991.

(5) Derived from the unaudited financial statements of BCOP for the one month ended January 31, 1992.

(6) Includes restructuring charge of $9.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 1995.

(7) EBITDA is defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization and restructuring charge and extraordinary item, and is presented because it is commonly used by certain investors and analysts to analyze and compare companies on the basis of operating performance and to determine a company's ability to service and incur debt. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation from or as a substitute for net income, cash flows from operating activities or other consolidated income or cash flow statement data prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or as a measure of profitability or liquidity.

(9) Total debt and capital leases is defined as long-term debt including current maturities but excluding original issue discount, plus deferred obligations due to the holder of the Associated Class B redeemable preferred stock.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in this Prospectus, the following factors should be considered carefully in evaluating an investment in the Notes offered hereby.

CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO EXCHANGE

Holders of Old Notes who do not exchange their Old Notes for New Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offer will continue to be subject to the restrictions on transfer of such Old Notes as set forth in the legend thereon and in the Offering Memorandum dated April 26, 1995, because the Old Notes were issued pursuant to exemptions from, or in transactions not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. In general, the Old Notes may not be offered or sold unless registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, or pursuant to an exemption therefrom, or in a transaction not subject to the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. The Company does not intend to register the Old Notes under the Securities Act and, after consummation of the Exchange Offer, will not be obligated to do so except under limited circumstances. See "The Exchange Offer--Purpose and Effect." Based on an interpretation by the staff of the Commission set forth in no-action letters issued to third parties, the Company believes that the New Notes issued pursuant to the Exchange Offer in exchange for Old Notes may be offered for resale, resold or otherwise transferred by holders thereof (other than any such holder which is an "affiliate" of the Company within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act) without compliance with the registration and prospectus delivery provisions of the Securities Act, provided that such New Notes are acquired in the ordinary course of such holders' business, such holders have no arrangement with any person to participate in the distribution of such New Notes and neither such holders nor any such other person is engaging in or intends to engage in a distribution of such New Notes. Each broker-dealer that receives New Notes for its own account in exchange for Old Notes, where such Old Notes were acquired by such broker-dealer as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities, must acknowledge that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of such New Notes. See "Plan of Distribution." To the extent that Old Notes are tendered and accepted in the Exchange Offer, the trading market for untendered and tendered but unaccepted Old Notes could be adversely affected. See "The Exchange Offer."

HIGH LEVERAGE

As a result of the Acquisition and the refinancing of certain debt and, assuming necessary consents are obtained, the repurchase of the Series B Preferred Stock (including accrued and unpaid dividends thereon) which the Company expects to effect with the proceeds of the Old Notes, the Company has significant debt and debt service obligations. Assuming the Acquisition and such refinancing and repurchase had occurred on March 31, 1995, and after giving effect to the debt, redeemable preferred stock and redeemable warrants of United "pushed down" to the accounts of the Company, (i) the Company would have had $585.7 million of long-term indebtedness (including current maturities), $17.0 million of redeemable preferred stock, $11.9 million of redeemable warrants, and $45.5 million of common stock and other stockholders' equity; (ii) the Company would have had a long-term indebtedness to redeemable preferred stock, redeemable warrants and total stockholders' equity ratio of 7.9 to 1; and (iii) the Company would have had a long-term indebtedness, redeemable preferred stock and redeemable warrants to total stockholders' equity ratio of 13.5 to 1. See "Pro Forma Combined Financial Information." By contrast, after giving effect to "push-down" accounting, the Company's historical long-term indebtedness, redeemable preferred stock and redeemable warrants to stockholders' equity ratio as of March 31, 1995 was 13.4 to 1 and its historical long-term indebtedness to redeemable preferred stock plus redeemable warrants plus stockholders' equity ratio as of March 31, 1995 was 7.1 to 1.

The degree to which the Company is leveraged could have important consequences to holders of the Notes, including the following: (i) the Company's ability to obtain additional financing in the future for working capital, capital expenditures, potential acquisition opportunities, general corporate purposes or other purposes may be impaired; (ii) a substantial portion of the Company's cash flow from operations must be dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on its indebtedness; (iii) the Company may be more vulnerable to economic downturns, may be limited in its ability to withstand competitive pressures and may have reduced flexibility in responding to changing business and economic conditions; and (iv) fluctuations in market interest rates will affect the cost of the Company's borrowings to the extent not covered by interest rate hedge agreements because interest under the New Credit Facilities will be payable at variable rates. The Company's ability to service its indebtedness will be dependent on its future performance, which will be affected by prevailing economic conditions and financial, business and other factors, certain of which are beyond the Company's control.

The Company believes that, based upon current levels of operations, it should be able to meet its debt service obligations, including principal and interest payments on the Notes, when due. However, if the Company cannot generate sufficient cash flow from operations to meet its debt service obligations, defaults may occur thereunder and the Company might be required to refinance its indebtedness. There is no assurance that refinancings could be effected on satisfactory terms or would be permitted by the terms of the New Credit Agreement.

SUBORDINATION

The indebtedness evidenced by the Notes and the Guarantees (including principal, premium, if any, and interest) will be subordinated in right of payment to present and future Senior Indebtedness of the Company and Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of each Guarantor. In the event of the dissolution or liquidation of United or the Company, or in the case of certain events of default with respect to the Notes or such Senior Indebtedness or Senior Guarantor Indebtedness, certain creditors of the Company holding Senior Indebtedness or of any Guarantor holding Senior Guarantor Indebtedness will be entitled to be paid in full before any payment is made to holders of the Notes or the Guarantees. Senior Indebtedness and Senior Guarantor Indebtedness would currently include, among other things, the debt incurred under the New Credit Facilities and, in the case of Senior Indebtedness, the Company's current and future obligations under capitalized leases. After giving pro forma effect to the Acquisition and the refinancing of certain debt and repurchase of Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, assumed to be effected with the proceeds of the Old Notes as if all such transactions had occurred on March 31, 1995, there would have been approximately $435.7 million of Senior Indebtedness and Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of United outstanding on such date, substantially all of which represents Indebtedness or guarantees of Indebtedness under the New Credit Facilities which would have been secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company; in addition, after taking into account approximately $68.1 million of outstanding letters of credit, there would have been approximately $32.8 million available to be drawn by the Company as secured Senior Indebtedness under the revolving credit portion of the New Credit Facilities, which amounts would have been secured Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of United; and, on a pro forma basis on such date, Indebtedness pari passu to the Notes would have been $264.1 million,and there would not have been any Indebtedness subordinated to the Notes. See "Pro Forma Combined Financial Information." The Indenture does not prohibit or limit the designation of Indebtedness otherwise permitted to be incurred as Senior Indebtedness or Senior Guarantor Indebtedness. See "Description of the New Notes -- Subordination."

LIMITED PRACTICAL VALUE OF GUARANTEES BY UNITED

United unconditionally guarantees, on a senior subordinated basis, all payments of principal, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes. However, since at present United's only significant asset is the capital stock of the Company (and such asset is pledged to the lenders under the New Credit Facilities), if the Company should be unable to meet its payment obligations with respect to the Notes, it is unlikely that United would be able to do so.

RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

The Indenture and the credit agreement (as amended, the "New Credit Agreement") for the New Credit Facilities contain numerous restrictive covenants that will limit the discretion of management with respect to certain business matters. These covenants place significant restrictions on, among other things, the ability of the Company to incur additional indebtedness, to create liens or other encumbrances, to make certain payments, investments, loans and guarantees and to sell or otherwise dispose of assets and merge or consolidate with another entity. The New Credit Agreement also contains a number of financial covenants that require the Company to meet certain financial ratios and tests. See "Financing the Acquisition." A failure to comply with the obligations in the New Credit Agreement or the Indenture could result in an event of default under the New Credit Agreement, or an Event of Default (as hereinafter defined) under the Indenture, which, if not cured or waived, could permit acceleration of the indebtedness thereunder and acceleration of indebtedness under other instruments that may contain cross-acceleration or cross-default provisions. Other indebtedness of the Company and its subsidiaries that may be incurred in the future may contain financial or other covenants more restrictive than those applicable under the New Credit Agreement. The New Credit Agreement restricts the prepayment, purchase, redemption, defeasance or other payment of any of the principal of the Notes so long as any loans remain outstanding under the New Credit Agreement.

RISKS INHERENT IN IMPLEMENTATION OF CONSOLIDATION PLAN

The Company's future operations and earnings will be largely dependent upon the Company's ability to integrate the businesses separately conducted by ASI and the Company prior to the Merger. The Company must, among other things, eliminate approximately 10,000 overlapping items from its catalogs to be distributed in the fourth calendar quarter of 1995, close redundant distribution centers effectively, while at the same time maximizing retention of the related business, and eliminate certain corporate and sales positions and otherwise reduce combined administrative costs and expenses. There can be no assurance that the Company will successfully integrate the former separate businesses of ASI and the Company, and a failure to do so would have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations and financial condition. Additionally, although the Company does not currently have any acquisition plans, the need to focus management's attention on integration of the former businesses and implementation of the Company's consolidation plan may limit the Company's ability to successfully pursue acquisitions or other opportunities related to its business for the foreseeable future.

As discussed under "Business -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition" and as presented under "Pro Forma Combined Financial Information," management estimates that the Company expects to realize significant cost savings as a result of a successful implementation of its consolidation plan. The achievement of these savings is significantly dependent on the successful implementation of such plan. There can be no assurances, however, that such savings will be achieved or sustained. In addition, the Company believes that the Acquisition is likely to result in a reduction in the rate of revenue growth for some period following the Acquisition as a result of the loss of customers to competition.

COMPETITION

The Company operates in a highly competitive environment. The Company competes to obtain reseller purchases both with office products manufacturers and with other national, regional and specialty wholesalers of office products, office furniture, computers and related items. A trend toward consolidation has occurred in recent years throughout the office products industry. Although as the result of such consolidations at the national full-line wholesale level only one competitor (S.P. Richards) remains, consolidation of commercial dealers and contract stationers has also resulted in an increased ability of those resellers to buy goods directly from manufacturers. In addition, over the last decade, office products superstores (which largely buy directly from manufacturers) have entered virtually every major metropolitan market and commercial dealers, contract stationers and retail dealers have formed buying groups to purchase directly from manufacturers on a collective basis. Increased competition in the office products industry has also led to heightened price awareness among consumers, making purchasers of commodity type office products extremely price sensitive and requiring the Company to increase its efforts to convince resellers of the continuing advantages of its competitive strengths (as compared to those of manufacturers and other wholesalers), such as marketing and catalog programs, speed of delivery, and the ability to offer resellers a broad line of business products from multiple manufacturers with lower minimum order quantities on a "one-stop shop" basis. See "Business --Competition."

CHANGING END USER DEMANDS

The Company's sales and profitability are largely dependent on its ability to continually enhance its product offerings to meet changing end user demands. End users' traditional demands for office products have changed over the last several years as a result of (i) increased recycling efforts, (ii) efforts by various businesses to establish "paperless" work environments, (iii) the widespread use of computers and other technological advances, resulting in the elimination or reduction in use of traditional office supplies and (iv) a trend toward non-traditional offices, such as home-offices. The Company's ability to continually monitor and react to such trends and changes in end user demands will be necessary to avoid adverse effects on its sales and profitability.

SERVICE INTERRUPTIONS

Substantially all of the Company's shipping, warehouse and maintenance employees at certain of the Company's facilities in Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Los Angeles, Minneapolis and New York City are covered by various collective bargaining agreements, which expire at various times during the next three years. Although the Company considers its relationships with its employees to be satisfactory, a prolonged labor dispute could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business as well as the Company's results of operations and financial condition. In addition, the Company's ability to readily deliver its products could be impaired by work stoppages by its employees. Although the Company has maintained service levels during past work stoppages by distributing to its customers from unaffected distribution centers, profitability has been reduced during such periods as a result of higher distribution costs. The Company's ability to receive and distribute products is largely dependent on the availability of trucks utilized by both manufacturers and the Company, and therefore the occurrence of a national trucking strike could also impair the Company's operations. The Company's service levels would also be affected in the event of an interruption in operation of its computers or telecommunications network on a company-wide scale for an extended period of time, although the Company has developed contingency plans to limit its exposure. The Company has not experienced any work stoppages for the financial periods presented herein that had a material effect on the Company's operations and financial condition.

DEPENDENCE ON KEY PERSONNEL

The Company's continued success largely will depend on the efforts and abilities of its executive officers and certain other key employees, particularly Mr. Thomas W. Sturgess, the Company's Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Michael D. Rowsey and Mr. Steven R. Schwarz, each an Executive Vice President of the Company, and Mr. Daniel H. Bushell, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, the loss of any of whom could have a material adverse effect on the Company. Although all but Mr. Sturgess have entered into employment agreements with the Company as described under "Management," the Company is currently integrating two formerly separate management teams and any officer could choose to resign at any time. On May 31, 1995, Jeffrey K.

Hewson resigned as President and Chief Executive Officer of United and the Company, and Thomas W. Sturgess, Chairman of the Board of United and the Company, assumed such responsibilities. The Company currently does not have any "key man" life insurance for its key personnel.

CONTROL BY WINGATE PARTNERS

As of the date of this Prospectus, approximately 75% of the outstanding Shares were controlled by the Voting Trust (as hereinafter defined), the five trustees of which hold all voting power to vote such Shares and may act by majority vote of the trustees. Three of the five trustees serve as indirect general partners of Wingate Partners, L.P. ("Wingate Partners") or Wingate Partners II, L.P. ("Wingate II"), each of which is a Delaware limited partnership and a private investment firm located in Dallas, Texas. In addition, the trustees are obligated to nominate and vote for a board of directors of United of which directors designated by Wingate Partners comprise a majority. Four of the current nine directors of United are indirect general partners of Wingate Partners or Wingate II. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of United. Consequently, Wingate Partners and Wingate II and their indirect general partners will control United and, through control of United, the Company and, thus, will have the power to elect a majority of the directors thereof and to approve any action requiring stockholder approval. See "Management --Directors and Executive Officers," "Certain Transactions" and "Ownership of Voting Securities."

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE CONSIDERATIONS

Substantially all of the net proceeds of the offering of the Old Notes were used to refinance the Bridge Loan under the Subordinated Bridge Facility, repay approximately $6.5 million outstanding under the Term Loan Facilities and, upon receipt of necessary consents, are expected to be used to pay a dividend to United to repurchase the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon. In addition, pursuant to the Merger, United assumed all of the obligations of Associated; pursuant to the Subsidiary Merger, the Company assumed all obligations of ASI; and, pursuant to the Indenture, each future domestic Restricted Subsidiary of the Company will guarantee the Notes. Accordingly, the obligations of the Company under the Notes and the obligations of United and any future Restricted Subsidiary under the Guarantees may be subject to review under relevant federal and state fraudulent conveyance statutes ("fraudulent conveyance statutes") in a bankruptcy, reorganization or rehabilitation case or similar proceeding or a lawsuit by or on behalf of unpaid creditors of the Company, United or any future Restricted Subsidiary. If a court were to find under relevant fraudulent conveyance statutes that, at the time of issuance, incurrence or assumption by any debtor of obligations under the Notes, Guarantees, the Bridge Loan or the term or revolving loans ("Senior Loans") under the New Credit Facilities, (a) such debtor incurred such obligation with the intent of hindering, delaying or defrauding current or future creditors or (b)(i) such debtor received less than reasonably equivalent value or fair consideration for incurring such obligation and (ii)(A) was insolvent or was rendered insolvent by reason of such incurrence, (B) was engaged, or about to engage, in a business or transaction for which its assets constituted unreasonably small capital, or (C) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, obligations beyond its ability to pay as such obligations matured (as all of the foregoing terms are defined in or interpreted under such fraudulent conveyance statutes), such court could subordinate such obligations to presently existing and future indebtedness of such debtor, as the case may be, and take other action detrimental to the holders of the Notes, including, under certain circumstances, invalidating the Notes or the Guarantees.

The measure of insolvency for purposes of the foregoing will vary depending upon the law of the jurisdiction which is being applied. Generally, however, a company would be considered insolvent for purposes of the foregoing if, at the time it incurs any given obligation, the sum of the company's debts (including unliquidated or contingent debt) is greater than all the company's property at a fair valuation, or if the present fair saleable value of the company's assets is less than the amount that will be required to pay its probable liability on its existing debts (including unliquidated or contingent debt) as they become absolute and matured.

On the basis of the historical financial information of United and Associated and other factors, management believes that (i) each obligation of each debtor was and is being incurred for proper purposes and in good faith and (ii) (A) after giving effect to the Acquisition, the Mergers, the Bridge Loan, the Senior Loans and related transactions, each such prior or current debtor received or is receiving reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for incurring such obligation and (B) each such prior or current debtor was, is and will be solvent under the foregoing standards, had, has and will have sufficient capital for carrying on their businesses, was, is and will be able to pay their debts as they mature, and had, has and will have sufficient assets to satisfy any probable money judgment against it in any pending action. There can be no assurance, however, as to whether a court would concur in such view.

LIQUIDITY OF THE NOTES

The New Notes are being offered to the holders of the Old Notes. Although the Initial Purchaser currently makes a market in the Old Notes and has informed the Company that it currently intends to make a market in the New Notes, it is not obligated to do so, and any such market making may be discontinued at any time without notice. Accordingly, there can be no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any market for the New Notes. The Company does not intend to apply for listing of the Notes on any securities exchange or for quotation through the Nasdaq National Market System.

THE EXCHANGE OFFER

PURPOSE AND EFFECT

The Old Notes were sold by the Company on May 3, 1995 in a private placement. In connection therewith, the Company entered into the Registration Agreement, which requires that the Company file the Exchange Offer Registration Statement under the Securities Act with respect to the New Notes and, upon the effectiveness of such Exchange Offer Registration Statement, offer to the holders of the Old Notes the opportunity to exchange their Old Notes for a like principal amount of New Notes, which will be issued without a restrictive legend and, with the exceptions provided below, may be reoffered and resold by the holder without registration under the Securities Act. The Registration Agreement further provides that the Exchange Offer Registration Statement must be declared effective on or prior to August 31, 1995. Upon the completion of the Exchange Offer (unless any holder is unable to make the requisite representations in order to participate in the Exchange Offer), the Company's obligations with respect to the registration of the Old Notes and the New Notes will terminate. A copy of the Registration Agreement has been filed as an exhibit to the Exchange Offer Registration Statement of which this Prospectus is a part. As a result of the filing and the effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, certain prospective increases in the interest rate on the Old Notes provided for in the Registration Agreement and the Indenture will not occur. Following the consummation of the Exchange Offer (except as set forth in the paragraph immediately below), Holders of Old Notes not tendered will not have any further registration rights and the Old Notes will continue to be subject to certain restrictions on transfer. Accordingly, the liquidity of the market for the Old Notes could be adversely affected upon consummation of the Exchange Offer.

In order to participate in the Exchange Offer, a holder must represent to the Company, among other things, that (i) the New Notes acquired pursuant to the Exchange Offer are being obtained in the ordinary course of business of the person receiving such New Notes, whether or not such person is the holder, (ii) neither the holder nor any such other person is engaging in or intends to engage in a distribution of such New Notes, (iii) neither the holder nor any such other person has an arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in the distribution of such New Notes, and (iv) neither the holder nor any such other person is an "affiliate," as defined under Rule 405 promulgated under the Securities Act, of the Company. In the event that any holder of Old Notes cannot make the requisite representations to the Company in order to participate in the Exchange Offer, such holder can elect, by so indicating on the Letter of Transmittal and providing certain additional necessary information, to have such holder's Old Notes registered in a "shelf" registration statement on an appropriate form pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act. In the event that the Company is obligated to file a "shelf" registration statement, it will be required to keep such "shelf" registration statement effective for a period of 180 days. Other than as set forth in this paragraph, no holder will have the right to participate in the "shelf" registration statement nor otherwise to require that the Company register such holder's Notes under the Securities Act. See "-- Procedures for Tendering."

Based on an interpretation by the staff of the Commission set forth in no-action letters issued to third parties, the Company believes that, with the exceptions set forth below, New Notes issued pursuant to the Exchange Offer in exchange for Old Notes may be offered for resale, resold and otherwise transferred by any person receiving such New Notes, whether or not such person is the holder (other than any such holder or such other person which is an "affiliate" of the Company within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act) without compliance with the registration and prospectus delivery provisions of the Securities Act, provided that such New Notes are acquired in the ordinary course of business of such holder or such other person and neither such holder nor such other person has an arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in the distribution of such New Notes. Any holder who tenders in the Exchange Offer for the purpose of participating in a distribution of the New Notes cannot rely on such interpretation by the staff of the Commission and must comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act in connection with a secondary resale transaction. Each broker-dealer that receives New Notes for its own account in exchange for Old Notes, where such Old Notes were acquired by such broker-dealer as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities, must acknowledge that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of such New Notes. See "Plan of Distribution."

CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO EXCHANGE

Following the consummation of the Exchange Offer (except as set forth in the second paragraph under " -- Purpose and Effect" above), holders of Old Notes not tendered will not have any further registration rights and the Old Notes will continue to be subject to certain restrictions on transfer. Accordingly, the liquidity of the market for a holder's Old Notes could be adversely affected upon consummation of the Exchange Offer if such holder does not participate in the Exchange Offer.

TERMS OF THE EXCHANGE OFFER

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Prospectus and in the Letter of Transmittal, the Company will accept any and all Old Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. The Company will issue $1,000 principal amount of New Notes in exchange for each $1,000 principal amount of outstanding Old Notes accepted in the Exchange Offer. Holders may tender some or all of their Old Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offer. However, Old Notes may be tendered only in integral multiples of $1,000 in principal amount.

The form and terms of the New Notes are the same as the form and terms of the Old Notes except that the New Notes have been registered under the Securities Act and hence will not bear legends restricting the transfer thereof. The New Notes will evidence the same debt as the Old Notes and will be issued pursuant to, and entitled to the benefits of, the Indenture pursuant to which the Old Notes were issued.

As of May 3, 1995, $150,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Old Notes was outstanding and there were five registered holders. This Prospectus, together with the Letter of Transmittal, is being sent to such registered Holders and to others believed to have beneficial interests in the Old Notes. Holders of Old Notes do not have any appraisal or dissenters' rights under the Business Corporation Act of the State of Illinois or the Indenture in connection with the Exchange Offer. The Company intends to conduct the Exchange Offer in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder.

The Company shall be deemed to have accepted validly tendered Old Notes when, as, and if the Company has given oral or written notice thereof to the Exchange Agent. The Exchange Agent will act as agent for the tendering holders for the purpose of receiving the New Notes from the Company. If any tendered Old Notes are not accepted for exchange because of an invalid tender, the occurrence of certain other events set forth herein or otherwise, certificates for any such unaccepted Old Notes will be returned, without expense, to the tendering holder thereof as promptly as practicable after the Expiration Date.

Holders who tender Old Notes in the Exchange Offer will not be required to pay brokerage commissions or fees or, subject to the instructions in the Letter of Transmittal, transfer taxes with respect to the exchange of Old Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offer. The Company will pay all charges and expenses, other than certain applicable taxes, in connection with the Exchange Offer. See " --- Fees and Expenses" below.

EXPIRATION DATE; EXTENSIONS; AMENDMENTS

The term "Expiration Date" shall mean 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on , 1995, unless the Company, in its sole discretion, extends the Exchange Offer, in which case the term "Expiration Date" shall mean the latest date and time to which the Exchange Offer is extended. In order to extend the Exchange Offer, the Company will notify the Exchange Agent and each registered holder of any extension by oral or written notice prior to 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled Expiration Date. The Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, (i) to delay accepting any Old Notes, to extend the Exchange Offer or, if any of the conditions set forth below under "-- Conditions" shall not have been satisfied, to terminate the Exchange Offer, by giving oral or written notice of such delay, extension or termination to the Exchange Agent, or (ii) to amend the terms of the Exchange Offer in any manner.

PROCEDURES FOR TENDERING

Only a holder of Old Notes may tender such Old Notes in the Exchange Offer. To tender in the Exchange Offer, a holder must complete, sign, and date the Letter of Transmittal, or a facsimile thereof, have the signatures thereon guaranteed if required by the Letter of Transmittal, and mail or otherwise deliver such Letter of Transmittal or such facsimile to the Exchange Agent prior to the Expiration Date. In addition, either (i) certificates for such Old Notes must be received by the Exchange Agent along with the Letter of Transmittal, or (ii) a timely confirmation of a book-entry transfer (a "Book-Entry Confirmation") of such Old Notes, if such procedure is available, into the Exchange Agent's account at The Depository Trust Company (the "Book-Entry Transfer Facility") pursuant to the procedure for book-entry transfer described below, must be received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Expiration Date, or (iii) the Holder must comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures described below. To be tendered effectively, the Letter of Transmittal and other required documents must be received by the Exchange Agent at the address set forth below under "-- Exchange Agent" prior to the Expiration Date.

The tender by a holder which is not withdrawn prior to the Expiration Date will constitute an agreement between such holder and the Company in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein and in the Letter of Transmittal.

THE METHOD OF DELIVERY OF OLD NOTES AND THE LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL AND ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT IS AT THE ELECTION AND RISK OF THE HOLDER. INSTEAD OF DELIVERY BY MAIL, IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT HOLDERS USE AN OVERNIGHT OR HAND DELIVERY SERVICE. IN ALL CASES, SUFFICIENT TIME SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO ASSURE DELIVERY TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE. NO LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL OR OLD NOTES SHOULD BE SENT TO THE COMPANY. HOLDERS MAY REQUEST THEIR RESPECTIVE BROKERS, DEALERS, COMMERCIAL BANKS, TRUST COMPANIES, OR NOMINEES TO EFFECT THE ABOVE TRANSACTIONS FOR SUCH HOLDERS.

Any beneficial owner whose Old Notes are registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company, or other nominee and who wishes to tender should contact the registered holder promptly and instruct such registered holder to tender on such beneficial owner's behalf. If such beneficial owner wishes to tender on such owner's own behalf, such owner must, prior to completing and executing the Letter of Transmittal and delivering such owner's Old Notes, either make appropriate arrangements to register ownership of the Old Notes in such beneficial owner's name or obtain a properly completed bond power from the registered holder. The transfer of registered ownership may take considerable time.

Signatures on a Letter of Transmittal or a notice of withdrawal, as the case may be, must be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution (as defined below) unless Old Notes tendered pursuant thereto are tendered (i) by a registered holder who has not completed the box entitled "Special Registration Instructions" or "Special Delivery Instructions" on the Letter of Transmittal or (ii) for the account of an Eligible Institution. In the event that signatures on a Letter of Transmittal or a notice of withdrawal, as the case may be, are required to be guaranteed, such guarantee must be by a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States or an "eligible guarantor institution" within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Exchange Act (an "Eligible Institution").

If the Letter of Transmittal is signed by a person other than the registered holder of any Old Notes listed therein, such Old Notes must be endorsed or accompanied by a properly completed bond power, signed by such registered holder as such registered holder's name appears on such Old Notes.

If the Letter of Transmittal or any Old Notes or bond powers are signed by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations, or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such persons should so indicate when signing, and unless waived by the Company, evidence satisfactory to the Company of their authority to so act must be submitted with the Letter of Transmittal.

All questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt), acceptance, and withdrawal of tendered Old Notes will be determined by the Company in its sole discretion, which determination will be final and binding. The Company reserves the absolute right to reject any and all Old Notes not properly tendered or any Old Notes the Company's acceptance of which would, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, be unlawful. The Company also reserves the right to waive any defects, irregularities, or conditions of tender as to particular Old Notes. The Company's interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Exchange Offer (including the instructions in the Letter of Transmittal) will be final and binding on all parties. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with tenders of Old Notes must be cured within such time as the Company shall determine. Although the Company intends to notify holders of defects or irregularities with respect to tenders of Old Notes, neither the Company, the Exchange Agent, nor any other person shall incur any liability for failure to give such notification. Tenders of Old Notes will not be deemed to have been made until such defects or irregularities have been cured or waived. Any Old Notes received by the Exchange Agent that are not properly tendered and as to which the defects or irregularities have not been cured or waived will be returned by the Exchange Agent to the tendering holders, unless otherwise provided in the Letter of Transmittal, as soon as practicable following the Expiration Date.

In addition, the Company reserves the right in its sole discretion to purchase or make offers for any Old Notes that remain outstanding subsequent to the Expiration Date or, as set forth below under " -- Conditions," to terminate the Exchange Offer and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, purchase Old Notes in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. The terms of any such purchases or offers could differ from the terms of the Exchange Offer.

By tendering, each holder will represent to the Company that, among other things, (i) the New Notes acquired pursuant to the Exchange Offer are being obtained in the ordinary course of business of the person receiving such New Notes, whether or not such person is the holder, (ii) neither the holder nor any such other person is engaged in or intends to engage in a distribution of such New Notes, (iii) neither the holder nor any such other person has an arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in the distribution of such New Notes, and (iv) neither the holder nor any such other person is an "affiliate," as defined under Rule 405 of the Securities Act, of the Company.

In the event that any holder of Old Notes cannot make the requisite representations to the Company in order to participate in the Exchange Offer, such holder can elect, by so indicating on the Letter of Transmittal and providing certain additional necessary information, to have such holder's Old Notes registered in a "shelf" registration statement on an appropriate form pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act. Such election must be made by the Expiration Date in order for such holder to participate in the "shelf" registration.

In all cases, issuance of New Notes for Old Notes that are accepted for exchange pursuant to the Exchange Offer will be made only after timely receipt by the Exchange Agent of certificates for such Old Notes or a timely Book-Entry Confirmation of such Old Notes into the Exchange Agent's account at the Book-Entry Transfer Facility, a properly completed and duly executed Letter of Transmittal and all other required documents. If any tendered Old Notes are not accepted for any reason set forth in the terms and conditions of the Exchange Offer or if Old Notes are submitted for a greater principal amount than the holder desires to exchange, such unaccepted or non-exchanged Old Notes will be returned without expense to the tendering Holder thereof (or, in the case of Old Notes tendered by book-entry transfer into the Exchange Agent's account at the Book-Entry Transfer Facility pursuant to the book-entry transfer procedures described below, such non-exchanged Old Notes will be credited to an account maintained with such Book-Entry Transfer Facility) as promptly as practicable after the expiration or termination of the Exchange Offer.

BOOK-ENTRY TRANSFER

The Exchange Agent will make a request to establish an account with respect to the Old Notes at the Book-Entry Transfer Facility for purposes of the Exchange Offer within two business days after the date of this Prospectus, and any financial institution that is a participant in the Book-Entry Transfer Facility's systems may make book-entry delivery of Old Notes by causing the Book-Entry Transfer to transfer such Old Notes into the Exchange Agent's account at the Book-Entry Transfer Facility in accordance with such Book-Entry Transfer Facility's procedures for transfer. However, although delivery of Old Notes may be effected through book-entry transfer at the Book-Entry Transfer Facility, the Letter of Transmittal or facsimile thereof, with any required signature guarantees and any other required documents, must, in any case, be transmitted to and received by the Exchange Agent at the address set forth below under "-- Exchange Agent" on or prior to the Expiration Date or the guaranteed delivery procedures described below must be complied with.

GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES

If a registered holder of the Old Notes desires to tender such Old Notes and the Old Notes are not immediately available, or time will not permit such holder's Old Notes or other required documents to reach the Exchange Agent before the Expiration Date, or the procedure for book-entry transfer cannot be completed on a timely basis, a tender may be effected if (i) the tender is made through an Eligible Institution, (ii) prior to the Expiration Date, the Exchange Agent received from such Eligible Institution a properly completed and duly executed Letter of Transmittal (or a facsimile thereof) and Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, substantially in the form provided by the Company (by telegram, telex, facsimile transmission, mail or hand delivery), setting forth the name and address of the holder of Old Notes and the amount of Old Notes tendered, stating that the tender is being made thereby and guaranteeing that within three New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") trading days after the date of execution of the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, the certificates for all physically tendered Old Notes, in proper form for transfer, or a Book-Entry Confirmation, as the case may be, and any other documents required by the Letter of Transmittal will be deposited by the Eligible Institution with the Exchange Agent, and (iii) the certificates for all physically tendered Old Notes, in proper form for transfer, or a Book-Entry Confirmation, as the case may be, and all other documents required by the Letter of Transmittal, are received by the Exchange Agent within three NYSE trading days after the date of execution of the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery.

WITHDRAWAL RIGHTS

Tenders of Old Notes may be withdrawn at any time prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

For a withdrawal of a tender of Old Notes to be effective, a written, telegraphic, telex, or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal must be received by the Exchange Agent at its address set forth under " -- Exchange Agent" prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. Any such notice of withdrawal must (i) specify the name of the person having deposited the Old Notes to be withdrawn (the "Depositor"), (ii) identify the Old Notes to be withdrawn (including the certificate number or numbers and principal amount of such Old Notes), (iii) be signed by the holder in the same manner as the original signature on the Letter of Transmittal by which such Old Notes were tendered (including any required signature guarantees) or be accompanied by documents of transfer sufficient to have the Trustee register the transfer of such Old Notes into the name of the person withdrawing the tender, and (iv) specify the name in which any such Old Notes are to be registered, if different from that of the Depositor. All questions as to the validity, form, and eligibility (including time of receipt) of such notices will be determined by the Company, whose determination shall be final and binding on all parties. Any Old Notes so withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validity tendered for exchange for purposes of the Exchange Offer. Any Old Notes which have been tendered for exchange but which are not exchanged for any reason will be returned to the holder thereof without cost to such holder as soon as practicable after withdrawal, rejection of tender, or termination of the Exchange Offer. Properly withdrawn Old Notes may be retendered by following one of the procedures described under "--Procedures for Tendering" above at any time on or prior to the Expiration Date.

CONDITIONS

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Exchange Offer, the Company shall not be required to accept Old Notes for exchange, or to issue New Notes in exchange for Old Notes, and may terminate or amend the Exchange Offer as provided herein, if at any time before the acceptance of such Old Notes for exchange any of the following events shall occur:

(a) there shall be threatened, instituted or pending any action or proceeding before, or any injunction, order or decree shall have been issued by, any court or governmental agency or other governmental regulatory or administrative agency or commission, (i) seeking to restrain or prohibit the making or consummation of the Exchange Offer or any other transactions contemplated by the Exchange Offer, or assessing or seeking any damages as a result thereof, or (ii) resulting in a material delay in the ability of the Company to accept for exchange or exchange some or all of the Old Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offer, or any statute, rule, regulation, order, interpretation or injunction shall be sought, proposed, introduced, enacted, promulgated or deemed applicable to the Exchange Offer or any of the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Offer by any government or governmental authority, domestic or foreign, or any action shall have been taken, proposed or threatened, by any government or governmental authority or agency or court, domestic or foreign, that in the sole judgment of the Company, might directly or indirectly result in any of the consequences referred to in clauses (i), (ii) above or, in the sole judgment of the Company, might otherwise make it inadvisable to proceed with the Exchange Offer; or

(b) there shall have occurred (i) any general suspension of or general limitation on prices for, or trading in, securities on any national securities exchange or the over-the-counter market, (ii) any limitation by any governmental agency or authority which adversely affects the ability of the Company to complete the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Offer, (iii) a declaration of a banking moratorium or any suspension of payments in respect of banks in the United States or any limitation by any governmental agency or authority which adversely affects the extension of credit or (iv) a commencement of a war, armed hostilities or other similar international calamity directly or indirectly involving the United States, or, in the case of any of the foregoing existing at the time of the commencement of the Exchange Offer, a material acceleration or worsening thereof;

which, in the reasonable judgment of the Company in any case, and regardless of the circumstances (including any action by the Company) giving rise to any such condition, makes it inadvisable to proceed with the Exchange Offer and/or with such acceptance for exchange or with such exchange.

If the Company determines, in its reasonable discretion, that any of the conditions are not satisfied, the Company may (i) refuse to accept any Old Notes and return all tendered Old Notes to the tendering holders, (ii) extend the Exchange Offer and retain all Old Notes tendered prior to the Expiration Date, subject, however, to the rights of holders to withdraw such Old Notes (see "Withdrawal of Tenders") or (iii) waive such unsatisfied conditions with respect to the Exchange Offer and accept all validly tendered Old Notes which have not been withdrawn. If such waiver constitutes a material change to the Exchange Offer, the Company will promptly disclose such waiver by means of a prospectus supplement that will be distributed to the registered holders, and the Company will extend the Exchange Offer for a period of five to 10 business days, depending upon the significance of the waiver and the manner of disclosure to the registered holders, if the Exchange Offer would otherwise expire during such five to 10 business day period.

The foregoing conditions are for the sole benefit of the Company and may be asserted by the Company regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any such condition or may be waived by the Company in whole or in part at any time and from time to time in its reasonable discretion. The failure by the Company at any time to exercise any of the foregoing rights shall not be deemed a waiver of any such right and each such right shall be deemed an ongoing right which may be asserted at any time and from time to time.

ADJUSTMENT TO OLD NOTES

Pursuant to the Registration Agreement, United and the Company have agreed to use their best efforts to (i) cause to become effective on or prior to August 31, 1995, the Exchange Offer Registration Statement with respect to a registered offer under the Securities Act to exchange the New Notes for the Old Notes in accordance with the terms of the Exchange Offer and (ii) cause such Exchange Offer to be consummated on or prior to September 30, 1995.

In the event that either (i) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not declared effective on or prior to August 31, 1995, (ii) the Exchange Offer is not consummated on or prior to September 30, 1995 or (iii) changes in law or the applicable interpretation of the Commission staff do not permit the Company to effect the Exchange Offer and a Shelf Registration Statement with respect to the Old Notes is not declared effective under the Securities Act on or prior to the later of (x) August 31, 1995 and (y) the 45th calendar day after the publication of the change in law or interpretation, the interest rate borne by the Old Notes shall be increased by one-half of one percent per annum following the relevant date described in clause (i), (ii) or (iii), as applicable. The aggregate amount of such increase from the original interest rate pursuant to these provisions will in no event exceed one-half of one percent per annum. Such increase will cease to be effective on the date of effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, consummation of the Exchange Offer or the effectiveness of a Shelf Registration Statement, as the case may be.

THE COMPANY

The Company is the largest office products wholesaler in the United States. As a result of the Merger of the Company with ASI on March 30, 1995, the Company's net sales on a pro forma basis for 1994 were approximately $2.0 billion and for the three months ended March 31, 1995 were approximately $0.6 billion. Through its extensive office products catalogs, the Company markets a full line of over 25,000 (post-consolidation) branded and private brand office products, including traditional office supplies; office furniture and desk accessories; office machines, equipment and supplies; computer hardware, peripherals and supplies; and facilities management supplies, including sanitation products and janitorial items. These products are offered through a network of 39 (post-consolidation) strategically located distribution centers to over 14,000 resellers, consisting principally of commercial dealers and contract stationers, retail dealers, superstores, mail order companies and mass merchandisers.

Although the office products distribution industry has seen many changes over the past decade, including the growth of national superstores and a consolidation among wholesalers, dealers and contract stationers, large national wholesalers have continued to perform a significant role in the distribution of office products. For manufacturers, the wholesaler provides wide market coverage, assumes credit risk, carries inventory and processes smaller orders than manufacturers can economically service. In addition, wholesalers provide resellers with prompt service and delivery, a source for filing small quantity orders and the opportunity to obtain credit, minimize investment in inventory and access marketing resources and technical support.

The Company is currently engaged in implementing its consolidation plan to integrate the two separate office products wholesale businesses conducted by the Company and ASI prior to the Acquisition. See "Business -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition" and "Risk Factors --Risks Inherent in Implementation of Consolidation Plan." The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of United, which has no operations independent of those of the Company.

United is a holding company with no independent operations. United's only significant asset is the stock of the Company.

The Company was incorporated in Illinois in 1922, and United was incorporated in Delaware in 1981. The principal executive offices of the Company and United are each located at 2200 East Golf Road, Des Plaines, Illinois 66016-1267, telephone number (708) 699-5000.

USE OF PROCEEDS

There will be no cash proceeds to the Company or United from the exchange pursuant to the Exchange Offer. The net proceeds to the Company from the sale of the Old Notes were $144.5 million (after approximately $5.5 million in estimated fees and expenses related to the offering). Such net proceeds were used (i) to repay the Bridge Loan, scheduled to mature on March 29, 1996, in the principal amount of $130.0 million, plus accrued interest thereon (at an annual rate of 13%) of approximately $1.6 million, (ii) to repay approximately $4.1 million of the outstanding amounts under the Tranche A Facility (as hereinafter defined), scheduled to mature on March 31, 2000, plus accrued interest thereon (at an annual rate of 8.9%) of approximately $0.02 million, (iii) to repay approximately $2.4 million of the outstanding Tranche B Facility (as hereinafter defined), scheduled to mature on February 28, 2002, plus accrued interest thereon (at an annual rate of 9.4%) of approximately $0.01 million and (iv) for general corporate purposes. In the event the necessary consents are obtained, the Company is permitted under its lending arrangements and intends to pay a dividend to United in an amount sufficient to repurchase the Series B Preferred Stock of United, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon with a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the Old Notes. The lenders under the Bridge Loan were The Roebling Fund, a statutory business trust, and Chase Bank, each of which is an affiliate of the Initial Purchaser. The lenders under the Term Loan Facility and the Revolving Credit Facility also include Chase Bank. For further information regarding the Bridge Loan and the New Credit Facilities, see "Financing the Acquisition."

THE ACQUISITION

On March 30, 1995, pursuant to the Merger Agreement and in accordance with the terms of the Offer to Purchase, Associated purchased 92.5% of the outstanding Shares at a purchase price of $15.50 per share, or approximately $266.6 million in the aggregate, pursuant to the Offer that expired on March 22, 1995. On March 30, 1995, at the time (the "Effective Time") the Mergers were consummated, Associated and ASI merged with and into United and the Company, respectively, and United and the Company continued as the respective surviving corporations. For a discussion of the financing of the Acquisition, see "Financing the Acquisition" and "Ownership of Voting Securities."

At the Effective Time of the Merger, (i) each Share (other than those Shares owned by Associated or its affiliates (the "Associated-Owned Shares"), Shares held by United or its subsidiaries (the "Treasury Shares") (which were canceled) and Shares as to which statutory appraisal rights were validly exercised and perfected in respect of the Merger and not withdrawn (the "Dissenting Shares")) remained outstanding and unaffected by the Merger, (ii) each share of Class A Common Stock, $0.01 par value, and Class B Common Stock, $0.01 par value (collectively, the "Associated Common Stock"), of Associated outstanding immediately prior to the Merger was converted into 3.446286 Shares and each warrant or option to acquire shares of Associated Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Merger was converted into the right to purchase 3.446286 Shares for each share of Associated Common Stock into which such warrant or option was exercisable immediately prior to the Merger, (iii) each outstanding share of Class A Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value, of Associated was converted into one share of Series A Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value (the "Series A Preferred Stock"), of United, (iv) each outstanding share of Class B Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value, of Associated was converted into one share of Series B Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value (the "Series B Preferred Stock"), of United, and (v) each outstanding share of Class C Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value, of Associated was converted into one share of Series C Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value (the "Series C Preferred Stock"), of United. In addition, prior to consummation of the Merger, the Company made adjustments to all stock options held by executive officers and directors of United such that such options were redeemed at the Effective Time, with the holders thereof being entitled to receive cash in settlement thereof. As used herein, the term "Shares" includes shares of Nonvoting Common Stock, $0.01 par value, of United, which are immediately convertible into Shares for no additional consideration.

Immediately following the Merger, the number of outstanding Shares was 5,998,117 (or 6,973,720 on a fully-diluted basis), of which (i) the former holders of Associated Common Stock and warrants or options to purchase Associated Common Stock in the aggregate owned 4,603,373 Shares constituting approximately 76.8% of the outstanding Shares and outstanding warrants or options for 975,603 Shares (collectively 80.0% on a fully-diluted basis) and (ii) pre-Merger holders of Shares (other than Associated-Owned Shares and Treasury Shares) in the aggregate owned 1,394,744 Shares constituting approximately 23.2% of the outstanding Shares (or 20.0% on a fully-diluted basis).

Upon consummation of the Merger, seven of the nine directors of United serving prior thereto were replaced by nominees designated by Associated. Such directors designated by Associated comprise the persons who were the directors of Associated prior to the Acquisition. See "Management."

Prior to the Acquisition, Associated, through its wholly owned subsidiary, ASI, was engaged in the wholesale distribution of a broad line of office products. Associated and ASI were formed in January 1992 and August 1991, respectively, by Wingate Partners.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth the historical debt and capitalization of United as of March 31, 1995 and as adjusted as of March 31, 1995 to give pro forma effect to the issuance and subsequent exchange of Old Notes and the application of the net proceeds therefrom to repay in full the Bridge Loan incurred in connection with the Acquisition, assuming necessary consents are obtained, to repurchase all of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, and to reduce outstanding amounts borrowed under the Term Loan Facilities. See "Use of Proceeds." United, which has no operations independent of those of the Company, unconditionally guarantees the Notes on a senior subordinated basis. The table should be read in conjunction with "Pro Forma Combined Financial Information."

PRO FORMA COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The accompanying unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements are based on the historical financial statements of Associated and United after giving effect to (i) the purchase accounting and other merger related adjustments relating to the Acquisition and (ii) the issuance and sale of the Old Notes and the application of the net proceeds therefrom to repay in full the Bridge Loan incurred in connection with the Acquisition and, assuming necessary consents are obtained, to repurchase all of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, and to reduce outstanding amounts borrowed under the Term Loan Facilities to the extent of the remaining net proceeds, all as described in Notes to Pro Forma Combined Financial Information. The Pro Forma Balance Sheet is presented giving effect to the issuance and sale of the Old Notes and the refinancing of certain debt and repurchase of the Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, to be effected with the proceeds thereof as if all such transactions had been consummated on December 31, 1994. The Pro Forma Combined Income Statement for the year ended December 31, 1994 is presented giving effect to (i) the Acquisition as if it had been consummated on January 1, 1994 and (ii) the refinancing of certain debt and repurchase of the Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, to be effected with the proceeds from the Old Notes as if such refinancing and repurchase had been consummated one month after consummation of the Acquisition.

Although United was the surviving corporation in the Merger, the transaction was treated as a reverse acquisition for accounting purposes with Associated as the acquiring corporation. Accordingly, the Pro Forma Balance Sheet as of March 31, 1995 for United reflects the consolidated balances of Associated and United, including the preliminary purchase price allocation, which may be revised at a later date, and other Merger-related adjustments, the Pro Forma Combined Income Statement for the year ended December 31, 1994 combines Associated for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1994 with United for its twelve month period ended November 30, 1994 and the Pro Forma Combined Income Statement for the three months ended March 31, 1995 combines Associated for the three months ended March 31, 1995 with United for the three months ended February 28, 1995. United's historical statement of income previously reported on a fiscal year ended August 31, 1994 has been adjusted to reflect the twelve month period ended November 30, 1994.

The unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements are intended for informational purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of the future financial position or future results of operations of United after the Acquisition, or of the financial position or results of operations of United that would have actually occurred had the Acquisition occurred on the date or been in effect for the period presented.

Pro forma interest expense included in the Pro Forma Combined Income Statement is based on historical interest rates in effect during the year ended December 31, 1994 and the three months ended March 31, 1995 in calculating the basis for variable rates. Average 30-day LIBOR in effect for the year ended December 31, 1994 ranged from 3.15% to 6.09% and for the three months ended March 31, 1995 was 6.125%. The average prime rate during the three months ended March 31, 1994 was 6.02%. In comparison, at March 31, 1995, the prime rate was 9.0%. If the March 31, 1995 interest rates were used as base interest rates instead of the historical rates, pro forma interest expense for United would amount to $56.1 million instead of $48.8 million for the year ended December 31, 1994. Each 1/8 of 1% change in the base interest rate for variable rate debt has a $521 thousand effect on annual pro forma interest expense for United. In April 1995, the Company entered into three-year interest rate protection arrangements totaling $200,000,000 pursuant to which the Company (i) is protected to the extent that the 3-month LIBOR interest rate exceeds 8.0% and (ii) is liable to the extent that such interest rate drops below 6.0%.

The Pro Forma Combined Income Statement excludes (i) the extraordinary non-recurring write-off of approximately $2.4 million ($1.4 million net of tax benefit of $1.0 million) of financing costs and original issue discount relating to debt retired, (ii) a non-recurring charge for restructuring of approximately $9.8 million ($5.9 million net of tax benefit of $3.9 million) for costs expected to be incurred in connection with integration and transition (e.g., severance and the cost of closing certain facilities operated by Associated prior to the Merger) and (iii) compensation expense relating to employee stock options of approximately $1.5 million ($0.9 million net of tax benefit of $0.6 million). Pro forma net income available to common stockholders and net income per common and common equivalent share exclude the charge to retained earnings to adjust Redeemable Warrants to the put value, due to the non-recurring nature of this charge.

The unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements and the accompanying notes should be read in conjunction with, and are qualified in their entirety by, the historical consolidated financial statements of United and Associated, including the related notes thereto, included elsewhere herein.

* EBITDA is defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization and is presented because it is commonly used by certain investors and analysts to analyze and compare companies on the basis of operating performance and to determine a company's ability to service and incur debt. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation from or as a substitute for net income, cash flows from operating activities or other consolidated income or cash flow statement data prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or as a measure of profitability or liquidity.

 For purposes of calculating the ratio of earnings to fixed charges, earnings represent income before income taxes plus fixed charges. Fixed charges consist of interest expense, net of interest income, including amortization of discount and financing costs and one-third of the operating rental expense which Management believes is representative of the interest component of rent expense.

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC. AND UNITED STATIONERS INC.

NOTES TO PRO FORMA COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements have been prepared giving effect to the following:

(1) Associated acquired 92.5% of United's outstanding Shares for $15.50 per Share, or an aggregate of approximately $266.6 million.

(2) Outstanding options to purchase United's Shares were retired for $15.50 per share less the exercise price, or an aggregate of approximately $3.0 million.

(3) Certain pre-Merger stockholders of Associated purchased 340,158 new shares of Associated Common Stock for $12.0 million prior to the Merger.

(4) As a result of the Acquisition, stockholders of United whose Shares were not acquired in the Offer hold a 20.0% ownership interest in United after the Merger on a fully diluted basis. Chase Manhattan Investment Holdings, Inc. ("CMIHI") received a 2.0% ownership interest in United on a fully diluted basis and received an additional 2.0% ownership interest shortly after the issuance of the Old Notes. The remaining 76.0% of Shares of United on a fully diluted basis were allocated pro rata to pre-Merger holders of Associated Common Stock and warrants or options exercisable for Associated Common Stock. Shares of Associated Common Stock were converted into Shares of United in the Merger.

(5) The total purchase price for United, including the ownership interest held by the pre-Merger stockholders of United, based on the per share price of $15.50, plus transaction costs of $6.2 million was approximately $294.5 million. The purchase price has been preliminarily allocated to the net assets of United based on estimated fair values at the date of acquisition with the excess of cost over fair value allocated to goodwill. The purchase price allocation to property, plant and equipment is amortized over the estimated useful lives ranging from 3 to 40 years. Goodwill is amortized over 40 years.

Purchase price:
Price of United Shares purchased by Associated	$ 266,629
Fair value of United Shares not acquired in Offer	21,618
Transaction costs	6,225
Total purchase price	$ 294,472
Allocation of purchase price on a preliminary basis:
Current assets	$ 509,610
Property, plant and equipment	178,005
Goodwill	71,076
Other assets	9,253
Liabilities assumed	(473,472)

(6) The accrual by United on a pre-Merger basis of severance payments to be made to United's management personnel under existing employment contracts is assumed to have totaled $17.9 million. The non-recurring charge to net income recorded by United on a pre-Merger basis (i.e., in the period immediately preceding the period covered by the Pro Forma Combined Income Statement) for severance payments under employment contracts, insurance benefits under employment contracts, legal, accounting and other professional services fees, the retirement of outstanding options to purchase Shares of United, and fees for letters of credit related to severance payments and other costs is assumed to have totaled $17.1 million, net of the tax benefit.

(7) For purposes of determining the put value of Lender Warrants ("Redeemable Warrants") and the value of employee stock options ("Options"), the quoted market price of Shares of United at the date of the Acquisition is assumed to have been $15.50 per share.

(8) The net proceeds from the offering of Old Notes are assumed to have been used to refinance the Subordinated Bridge Facility in full and to reduce outstanding amounts under the Term Loan Facilities. On the assumption that necessary consents are obtained, the remaining net proceeds are assumed to have been used to repurchase all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, including accrued and unpaid dividends thereon.

(9) Pro forma interest expense has been calculated based upon pro forma debt levels and the applicable interest rates. The Subordinated Bridge Facility, which carries a variable interest rate based on the prime rate, is assumed to be outstanding for one month after the consummation of the Merger. Pro forma interest expense on the Subordinated Bridge Facility was calculated using an average prime rate of 6.0%. One month after the closing date, the Subordinated Bridge Facility is assumed to have been refinanced with a portion of the proceeds from the Old Notes carrying an assumed fixed interest rate of 12.75%. For the Term Loan Facilities and the Revolving Credit Facility, pro forma interest expense was calculated on a monthly basis using as a base interest rate the average historical 30-day LIBOR in effect for the month. Average monthly LIBOR in effect for the year ended December 31, 1994 ranged from 3.15% to 6.09% and for the three months ended March 31, 1995 was 6.125%. Using 30-day LIBOR and the prime rate each as of March 31, 1995 (6.125% and 9.0%, respectively) as the base interest rates would increase pro forma interest expense by $7.3 million for the year ended December 31, 1994. Each 1/8 of 1% change in the base interest rate for variable rate debt has a $521 thousand effect on annual pro forma interest expense.

(10) Estimated cost savings of $26 million that the Company expects to realize from the actions that Management has committed to undertake pursuant to its consolidation plan that has been approved by the Board of Directors of the Company have been reflected in the Pro Forma Combined Income Statement as if the Company's consolidation plan had been implemented in full as of January 1, 1994. The Company plans to implement its consolidation plan over a 12-month period following the Acquisition. See footnotes (d), (e) and (i) below. See "Business -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition" and "Risk Factors -- Consolidation Plan."

(11) Income taxes have been provided for all adjustments at an assumed rate of 40.0%.

(12) In computing per share information, dividends on preferred stock are assumed to have been paid in preferred shares at the rate of 13.0% per annum for Series A Preferred Stock and 10.0% per annum for Series B and Series C Preferred Stock. Series B Preferred Stock is assumed to have been outstanding for only one month. The preferred stock dividends reduce the net income available to common stockholders by $1.6 million for the year ended December 31, 1994 and $0.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 1995.

ASSOCIATED -- HISTORICAL

The selected consolidated financial information of Associated set forth below with respect to the period from January 31, 1992 (when certain of the assets and certain liabilities of ASI were acquired from the Wholesale Division of BCOP) through December 31, 1992 and the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1994 has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations -- Historical Results of Operations of Associated" and "-- Historical Liquidity and Capital Resources of Associated" and the financial statements of Associated included elsewhere in this Prospectus, which have been audited by Arthur Andersen LLP, independent public accountants. The data at and for the years ended December 31, 1990 and 1991 and the one month ended January 31, 1992 are derived from the unaudited financial statements of BCOP for such periods. Associated has accounted for the Boise Transaction using the purchase method of accounting. There are material operational and accounting differences between BCOP and Associated resulting from the Boise Transaction. Accordingly, the historical financial data of BCOP may not be comparable in all material respects with data of Associated. The data at and for the three months ended March 31, 1994 and 1995 are unaudited and in the opinion of management reflect all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation of such data. On March 30, 1995, Associated was merged with United. Although United was the surviving corporation in the Merger, the transaction was treated as a reverse acquisition for accounting purposes, with Associated as the acquiring corporation. Therefore, the income statement and operating and other data for the three months ended March 31, 1994 and 1995 reflect the financial information of Associated only. The balance sheet data at March 31, 1995 reflect the consolidated balances of Associated and United. The balance sheet data at March 31, 1994 reflect Associated only.

(1) The capital structure and accounting basis of the assets and liabilities of the predecessor of ASI, BCOP, differ from those of Associated and ASI. Accordingly, certain of the financial information for periods before January 31, 1992 is not comparable to that for periods after January 31, 1992 and therefore is not presented in this table.

(2) The Predecessor operated as a segment of BCOP. BCOP did not allocate income tax or interest expense to the Predecessor. Accordingly, actual operating results for the Predecessor reflect only income from operations before interest expense and income taxes.

(3) Derived from the unaudited financial statements of BCOP at and for the year ended December 31, 1990.

(4) Derived from the unaudited financial statements of BCOP at and for the year ended December 31, 1991.

(5) Derived from the unaudited financial statements of BCOP for the one month ended January 31, 1992.

(6) Includes restructuring charge of $9.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 1995.

(7) EBITDA is defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization and restructuring charge and extraordinary item, and is presented because it is commonly used by certain investors and analysts to analyze and compare companies on the basis of operating performance and to determine a company's ability to service and incur debt. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation from or as a substitute for net income, cash flows from operating activities or other consolidated income or cash flow statement data prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or as a measure of profitability or liquidity.

(8) EBITDA margin represents EBITDA as a percentage of net sales.

(9) For purposes of calculating the ratio of earnings to fixed charges, earnings represent income before income taxes and extraordinary item plus restructuring and fixed charges. Fixed charges consist of interest expense, net, including amortization of discount and financing costs and one-third of the operating rental expense which management believes is representative of the interest component of rent expense.

(10) Total debt and capital leases is defined as long-term debt including current maturities but excluding original issue discount, plus deferred obligations due to the holder of the Associated Class B redeemable preferred stock.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Except as otherwise indicated, the following discussion and analysis of the results of operations and financial condition of United and Associated covers periods before completion of the Acquisition. Accordingly, the discussion and analysis of such periods do not reflect the significant impact that the Acquisition and the financing thereof will have on United after the Merger. See "Pro Forma Combined Financial Information" and "Business -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition." United, which has no operations independent of those of the Company, fully and unconditionally guarantees the Notes on a senior subordinated basis. Associated had no operations independent of those of ASI.

HISTORICAL RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OF UNITED

General

The Company was incorporated in 1922 under the name Utility Supply Co. and has operated under its present name since 1960. As part of the Company's business strategy, United acquired Stationers Distributing Company, Inc. ("SDC") in June 1992 in order to increase its share of the office products wholesale market. On March 30, 1995, Associated and United consummated the Acquisition.

United's results of operations, expressed as the percentage which each line item represents of total net sales, for each of its fiscal years 1992, 1993 and 1994 and the seven-month periods ended March 31, 1994 and March 30, 1995, are set forth below:

Comparison of the Seven Months Ended March 30, 1995 and March 31, 1994

Net Sales. Net sales were $980.6 million for the seven months ended March 30, 1995, a 12.5% increase from net sales of $871.6 million in the comparable period in 1994. The primary reason for the increase is growth in unit volume.

Gross Profit on Sales. Gross profit as a percent of net sales was 21.1% for the seven months ended March 30, 1995, compared with 22.5% in the comparable period in 1994. This lower margin rate is primarily the result of a shift in the sale of products to items that have lower gross margins and is consistent with the margin rate achieved in the latter half of United's fiscal year ended August 31, 1994.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses as a percent of net sales increased to 20.6% in the seven month period ended March 30, 1995 from 19.6% in the comparable period in 1994. The increase is primarily attributable to $27.8 million ($18.5 million net of tax benefit of $9.3 million) of merger-related costs consisting of severance payments under employment contracts; insurance benefits under employment contracts; legal, accounting and other professional services fees; the retirement of stock options; and fees for letters of credit related to employment contracts and other costs. Operating expenses as a percent of net sales prior to the merger-related costs were 17.7% for the seven month period ended March 30, 1995. This decline from the comparable period in 1994 is a result of savings in employee-related payroll and freight expenses.

Income From Operations. Income from operations as a percent of net sales was 0.5% in the seven month period ended March 30, 1995, compared with 2.9% in the comparable period in 1994. The decrease was attributable to the merger-related costs discussed under "Operating Expenses" above. Income from operations as a percent of net sales was 3.3% in the seven month period ended March 30, 1995, excluding the merger-related costs.

Interest Expense. Interest expense was $7.6 million for the seven month period ended March 30, 1995, compared with $6.1 million for the same period in 1994. The increase was due to higher interest expense from increased debt to meet working capital and other capital expenditure needs and higher interest rates on borrowings.

Income Before Income Taxes. Income (loss) before income taxes as a percent of net sales was a loss of 0.3% in the seven month period ended March 30, 1995, compared to income of 2.3% in the comparable period of 1994. The decrease in income before income taxes was attributable to the factors stated above.

Income Taxes. The effective tax rate for the seven month period ended March 30, 1995 was (184.6%), compared with 41.5% for the seven month period ended March 31, 1994. The increase is primarily due to non-deductible merger related costs and the non-deductible amortization of goodwill.

Net Income. Net income (loss) was a loss of $7.2 million for the seven month period ended March 30, 1995, compared with income of $11.5 million for the same period in 1994. Net income (loss) per share was a loss of $0.39 in the seven month period ended March 30, 1995, compared with income of $0.62 for the same period in 1994, due to the factors set forth above.

Comparison of the Fiscal Years Ended August 31, 1994 and 1993

Net Sales. Net sales increased to $1,473.0 million in fiscal 1994 from $1,470.1 million in fiscal 1993, a 0.2% increase reflecting a slight increase in unit volume. Sales in the early part of fiscal 1994 were affected by a temporary drop in in-stock service levels and the discontinuing of nearly 12,000 items as a final step in the consolidation process of the June 1992 acquisition of SDC. Sales were also negatively impacted by the SDC acquisition-related operational disruptions in the west and southwest regions. Sales grew in the fourth quarter by 3.4%, reversing the decline experienced in the prior two quarters.

Gross Profit on Sales. Gross profit on sales decreased to $322.9 million in fiscal 1994 from $344.5 million in fiscal 1993, a 6.3% decrease, due principally to a decrease in gross margin. Gross margin decreased to 21.9% in fiscal 1994 from 23.4% in fiscal 1993. The decline primarily reflects higher levels of rebates and volume allowances earned by United's customers as a result of ongoing consolidations. Gross margins over the last half of fiscal 1994 were relatively stable reflecting the slowing pace of dealer consolidations. In addition, gross margin was affected by a LIFO charge (an increase to "cost of sales") of $2.2 million in fiscal 1994 versus LIFO income (a decrease to "cost of sales") of $4.7 million in fiscal 1993, and a shift in the sale of products to items that have lower gross margins.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses decreased to $286.6 million in fiscal 1994 from $298.4 million in fiscal 1993, a 4.0% decrease. Operating expenses as a percentage of net sales decreased to 19.4% in fiscal 1994 from 20.3% in fiscal 1993. The decrease is the result of streamlining United's work processes and reducing payroll and freight expense.

Income From Operations. Income from operations decreased to $36.3 million in fiscal 1994 from $46.1 million in fiscal 1993, a 21.3% decrease, and as a percentage of net sales was 2.5% in fiscal 1994, compared with 3.1% in fiscal 1993, for the reasons stated above.

Interest Expense. Interest expense increased to $10.7 million in fiscal 1994 from $9.8 million in fiscal 1993, an 8.9% increase, primarily due to additional debt incurred to support working capital and other capital expenditures.

Income Before Income Taxes. Income before income taxes decreased to $26.1 million in fiscal 1994 from $36.9 million in fiscal 1993, a 29.4% decrease, for the reasons stated above.

Certain interim expense and inventory estimates are recognized throughout the fiscal year relating to shrinkage, inflation and product mix. The results of the year-end close and physical inventory reflected a favorable adjustment with respect to such estimates, resulting in approximately $0.5 million of additional net income, which is reflected in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1994.

Income Taxes. Income taxes decreased to $10.3 million in fiscal 1994 from $15.6 million in fiscal 1993, a $5.3 million decrease. The effective tax rates for 1994 and 1993 were 39.6% and 42.1%, respectively. The decrease is primarily due to the liquidation of a foreign subsidiary and a decrease in the effective state income tax rate, offset by an increase in the non-deductible losses in United's foreign operation and the non-deductible amortization of goodwill.

Net Income. Net income decreased to $15.7 million in 1994 from $21.4 million in 1993, a decrease of $5.7 million, or 26.3%. Net income as a percentage of net sales decreased to 1.1% in 1994 from 1.5% in 1993 for the reasons stated above.

Net Sales. Net sales increased to $1,470.1 million in fiscal 1993 from $1,094.3 million in fiscal 1992, a 34.3% increase. This increase was due to an increase in sales volume substantially attributable to the June 1992 acquisition of SDC.

Gross Profit on Sales. Gross profit on sales increased to $344.5 million in fiscal 1993 from $245.7 million in fiscal 1992, a 40.2% increase, due to an increase in sales and gross margin. Gross margin increased to 23.4% in fiscal 1993 from 22.5% in fiscal 1992, caused by LIFO income (a decrease to "cost of sales") of $4.7 million in fiscal 1993 versus a LIFO charge (an increase to "cost of sales") of $2.7 million in fiscal 1992 and a favorable product mix.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased to $298.4 million in fiscal 1993 from $219.3 million in fiscal 1992, a 36.1% increase. Operating expenses as a percentage of net sales increased to 20.3% in fiscal 1993 from 20.1% in fiscal 1992. This increase was the result of higher expense levels associated with offering a free-freight marketing program to customers and costs related to temporarily managing the separate product offerings of United and SDC. In addition, United incurred delays in its SDC acquisition-related facilities consolidations, which resulted in additional expenses. Operating expenses for 1992 include a $5.9 million pre-tax restructuring charge related to severance payments and the closing of certain United facilities associated with the acquisition of SDC.

Income From Operations. Income from operations increased to $46.1 million in fiscal 1993 from $26.4 million in fiscal 1992, a 74.7% increase, and as a percentage of net sales was 3.1% in fiscal 1993, compared with 2.4% in fiscal 1992, for the reasons stated above.

Interest Expense. Interest expense increased to $9.8 million in fiscal 1993 from $7.0 in fiscal 1992, a 41.1% increase, primarily due to the full-year impact of the additional debt incurred in connection with the acquisition of SDC and the debt required to meet working capital and other capital expenditure needs.

Income Before Income Taxes. Income before income taxes increased to $36.9 million in fiscal 1993 from $20.3 million in fiscal 1992, an 82.2% increase, for the reasons stated above.

Certain interim expense and inventory estimates are recognized throughout the fiscal year relating to shrinkage, inflation and product mix. The results of the year-end close and physical inventory reflected a favorable adjustment with respect to such estimates, resulting in approximately $2.6 million of additional net income, which is reflected in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1993.

Income Taxes. Income taxes increased to $15.6 million in fiscal 1993 from $8.9 million in fiscal 1992, a $6.7 million increase. The effective tax rates for the fiscal years ending August 31, 1993 and August 31, 1992 were 42.1% and 43.9%, respectively. The decrease is primarily due to a decline in the non-deductible losses in United's foreign operation and a decrease in the effective state tax rate, offset by an increase in the federal tax rate.

Net Income. Net income increased to $21.4 million in 1993 from $11.4 million in 1992, an increase of $10.0 million, or 88.0%. Net income as a percentage of net sales increased to 1.5% in 1993 from 1.0% in 1992 for the reasons stated above.

HISTORICAL RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OF ASSOCIATED

General

Associated was formed by an investor group led by Wingate Partners in 1992 to effect the Boise Transaction, in which Associated purchased the wholesale office products operations of BCOP for approximately $87.1 million. The Boise Transaction was consummated through a combination of bank debt and equity financing.

As part of Associated's strategy to increase sales, management has worked to expand Associated's geographical presence in order to increase market share. In 1992, Associated acquired Lynn-Edwards Corp. ("Lynn Edwards"), a regional west coast office products wholesaler, for approximately $2.4 million, plus assumed liabilities of approximately $7.2 million (the "Lynn-Edwards Acquisition"). The Lynn-Edwards Acquisition added two distribution facilities. Associated also opened two new distribution facilities in 1992 and 1993 in the Chicago and Baltimore metropolitan markets, respectively. On March 30, 1995, Associated and United consummated the Acquisition.

Associated's results of operations, expressed as the percentage which each line item represents of total net sales, for each of the periods ended December 31, 1992, 1993 and 1994 and the three months ended March 31, 1994 and 1995, are set forth below:

Comparison of the Three Months Ended March 31, 1995 and 1994

Net Sales. Net sales were $137.3 million for the first quarter of 1995, a 10.8% increase over net sales of $123.9 million in the comparable period in 1994. The sales growth reflects increased unit volume.

Gross Profit. Gross profit as a percent of net sales increased to 24.6% in the first quarter of 1995 from 24.0% in the first quarter of 1994. The increase reflects higher levels of vendor volume allowances and increased forward-buying efforts in anticipation of future price increases. The increase was partially offset by a higher level of volume allowances earned by Associated's customers.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses as a percent of net sales increased to 28.2% in the first quarter of 1995 from 21.6% in the first quarter of 1994. The actual results for the quarter ended March 31, 1995 include a restructuring charge of $9.8 million ($5.9 million net of tax benefit of $3.9 million). The restructuring charge includes severance costs totaling $3.0 million. The restructuring plan specifies that certain distribution, sales, and corporate positions, approximately 330 in total, will be eliminated substantially within a one-year period. As of March 31, 1995, no employees had been terminated and no benefits had been paid or charged against the reserve. The restructuring charge also includes distribution center closing costs totaling $4.7 million and stockkeeping unit reduction costs totaling $2.1 million. The restructuring plan specifies the closing of eight redundant distribution centers and the elimination of overlapping inventory items from the Company's catalogs substantially within a one-year period. Distribution center closing costs include (i) the net occupancy costs of leased facilities after they are vacated until expiration of leases and (ii) the losses on the sale of owned facilities and the facilities' furniture, fixtures, and equipment. Stockkeeping unit reduction costs include losses on the sale of inventory items which have been discontinued solely as a result of the Acquisition and Merger. As of March 31, 1995, no amounts had been charged against the reserve.

The decrease in operating expenses as a percent of net sales before the restructuring charge is primarily due to improved productivity and higher sales volume, partially offset by Merger related compensation expense relating to an increase in the value of employee stock options of approximately $1.5 million ($0.9 million net of tax benefit of $0.6 million). Operating expenses in the first quarter of 1995 as a percent of net sales before the restructuring charge and the compensation expense relating to the redemption of stock options were 20.0%.

Income (Loss) from Operations. Income (loss) from operations as a percent of net sales was a negative 3.6% in the first quarter of 1995 (a positive 3.5% before the restructuring charge) compared with a positive 2.4% in the first quarter of 1994.

Interest Expense. Interest expense increased to $2.2 million in the first quarter of 1995 from $1.7 million in 1994. The increase is primarily due to higher interest rates.

Income (Loss) Before Income Taxes. Income (loss) before income taxes as a percent of net sales was a negative 5.3% in the first quarter of 1995 compared to a positive 1.0% in the first quarter of 1994. Net income (loss) before extraordinary items and preferred stock dividends was a negative $4.2 million (net income of $1.5 million before the restructuring charge) in the first quarter of 1995 compared to a positive $0.7 million in the first quarter of 1994. An extraordinary item, the loss on early retirement of debt related to the Merger of $2.4 million ($1.4 million after tax benefit), was recognized in the first quarter of 1995. The net income (loss) attributable to common stock after the extraordinary item was a negative $6.3 million (net loss of $0.5 million before the restructuring charge) in the first quarter of 1995 compared to a positive $0.2 million in the first quarter of 1994.

Comparison of the Years Ended December 31, 1994 and 1993

Net Sales. Net sales increased to $477.4 million in 1994 from $462.5 million in 1993, a 3.2% increase, primarily as a result of inclusion in 1994 of the full year of sales from Associated's new Baltimore distribution facility and increased unit sales volume to existing Associated customers as, in management's estimation, Associated's customers channeled more of their purchasing through Associated with the goal of reducing their internal inventory levels.

Gross Profit. Gross profit increased to $120.2 million in 1994 from $112.3 million in 1993, a 7.0% increase, primarily due to increased unit volume as well as Associated's lower net cost of goods, as a percentage of sales, resulting from increased allowances granted to Associated by its suppliers. Management of Associated believes improvement in vendor allowances was due to competition among Associated's vendors that resulted in increased purchasing leverage. The increase in gross profit also resulted in part from Associated's increased forward-buying efforts, as management better identified and utilized product pricing opportunities available in the marketplace. Gross profit increases were partially offset by increased allowances extended by Associated to its customers in response to increased competition.

Warehouse and Distribution Expenses. Warehouse and distribution expenses decreased to $77.9 million in 1994 from $78.5 million in 1993, a 0.8% decrease, due to management's increased emphasis on improved productivity through manpower planning programs including (i) staggered work hours, (ii) personnel redeployment and (iii) operational analysis. An additional contributor to this decrease was the reduction in delivery costs, as a percentage of net sales, through the continued evaluation and refinement of delivery routes.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased to $25.2 million in 1994 from $23.8 million in 1993, a 5.8% increase, mostly attributable to lump-sum incentive awards earned in 1994 by employees and management based on Associated's increased level of profitability.

Income From Operations. Income from operations increased to $17.1 million in 1994 from $10.0 million in 1993, a 71.4% increase, and as a percentage of net sales was 3.6% in 1994, compared with 2.2% in 1993, for the reasons stated above.

Interest Expense. Interest expense increased to $6.8 million in 1994 from $6.3 million in 1993, a 7.8% increase, as a result of an increase in the weighted average interest rate on the Old Associated Revolver (as hereinafter defined) in effect during the year from 7.75% in 1993 to 8.90% in 1994, which was offset in part by a reduction in average revolving debt balances to $39.6 million in 1994 from $46.9 million in 1993.

Income Before Income Taxes. Income before income taxes increased to $10.4 million in 1994 from $3.7 million in 1993, a 177.7% increase, for the reasons stated above.

Income Taxes. Income taxes increased to $4.0 million in 1994 from $0.8 million in 1993, a $3.2 million increase. The effective tax rates for 1994 and 1993 were 38.4% and 20.9%, respectively. The increase in rate was due primarily to the effect of the change in the amount of tax valuation allowances.

Net Income. Net income increased to $6.4 million in 1994 from $3.0 million in 1993, an increase of $3.4 million, or 116.2%. Net income as a percentage of net sales increased to 1.3% in 1994 from 0.6% in 1993 for the reasons stated above.

Comparison of Year Ended December 31, 1993

and the Eleven Month Period From Inception Through December 31, 1992

Net Sales. Net sales increased to $462.5 million in 1993 from $365.9 million for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992. This increase was due to the inclusion of a full year of Associated operations in 1993, an increase in sales volume attributable to the October 1992 acquisition of Lynn-Edwards and an increase in unit sales volume to both existing and new Associated customers.

Gross Profit. Gross profit increased to $112.3 million in 1993 from $89.4 million for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992, but remained relatively stable as a percentage of net sales at 24.3% in 1993 compared to 24.4% for the eleven month period ending December 31, 1992. The integration of Lynn-Edwards was accomplished without significant deterioration in gross margin as management focused on cost containment and inventory assimilation.

Warehouse and Distribution Expenses. Warehouse and distribution expenses increased to $78.5 million in 1993 from $60.6 million for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992, primarily due to the inclusion of a full year of expenses of Associated's operations in 1993 and the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition. Additional expenses were incurred as management and general staffing were increased during the assimilation of Lynn-Edwards's operations.

Selling, General, and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general, and administrative expenses increased to $23.8 million in 1993 from $19.3 million for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992, primarily due to the inclusion of a full year of Associated's operations and the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition, increased staffing requirements related to the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition and a non-recurring customer sales promotion held in 1993.

Income from Operations. Income from operations increased to $10.0 million in 1993 from $9.5 million for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992, and as a percentage of net sales was 2.2% in 1993, compared with 2.6% for the eleven month period ending December 31, 1992 for the reasons stated above.

Interest Expense. Interest expense increased to $6.3 million in 1993 from $4.8 million for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992, primarily due to the full-year impact of additional debt incurred in connection with the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition and indebtedness incurred to meet working capital and capital expenditure needs. This expense was offset, in part, by lower weighted average interest rates on the Old Associated Revolver (as hereinafter defined) in effect during the year, which declined from 8.0% for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992 to 7.75% in 1993.

Income Before Income Taxes. Income before income taxes decreased to $3.7 million in 1993 from $4.7 million for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992 for the reasons stated above.

Income Taxes. The effective tax rates for the years ended December 31, 1993 and for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992 were 20.9% and 37.6%, respectively. The decrease was primarily due to lower required provisions in 1993.

Net income. Net income remained level at $3.0 million for 1993 and the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992 and as a percentage of net sales decreased to 0.6% in 1993 from 0.8% for the eleven month period ended December 31, 1992 for the reasons stated above.

Operating Activities. The decrease in net cash used in operating activities from $55.8 million in the seven months ended March 31, 1994 to $47.6 million in the seven months ended March 30, 1995 is primarily due to increases in accounts payable and accrued liabilities partially offset by an increase to inventory.

Investing Activities. The increase in net cash used in investing activities from $4.3 million in the seven months ended March 31, 1994 to $7.8 million in the seven months ended March 30, 1995 is primarily due to the acquisition of property, plant, and equipment.

Financing Activities. The increase in net cash provided by financing activities from $62.5 million in the seven months ended March 31, 1994 to $62.9 million in the seven months ended March 30, 1995 is primarily due to increases in short-term debt partially offset by an increase in payments on long-term obligations.

The decrease in net cash provided by operations from $36.0 million in fiscal 1993 to $8.1 million in fiscal 1994 was primarily attributable to a decrease in accounts payable and accrued liabilities as well as lower net income in 1994, partially offset by a decrease in accounts receivable and inventory. The substantial increase in net cash provided by operations from a use of cash of $2.5 million in fiscal 1992 to $36.0 million of cash being provided in fiscal 1993 was primarily the result of an increase in accrued liabilities, net income, accounts payable, deferred taxes and inventory, partially offset by an increase in accounts receivable.

Net cash used in investing activities declined from $30.0 million in fiscal 1993 to $10.5 million in fiscal 1994, as a result of a commensurate decline in capital expenditures. The $30.0 million of capital expenditures in fiscal 1993 includes the purchase of $16.0 million of computer and related hardware. Net cash used in investing activities in fiscal 1992 included $37.3 million of cash as part of the purchase price of SDC. Net capital expenditures in fiscal 1994, 1993, and 1992 were $10.5 million, $30.0 million and $8.2 million, respectively.

Net cash of $1.4 million was provided by financing activities in fiscal 1994 as compared to a net use of cash in financing activities in fiscal 1993 of $10.1 million. Net cash provided by financing activities in fiscal 1992 primarily reflects additional debt to finance the acquisition of SDC.

The Company's credit agreement ("Old Company Credit Agreement") in effect prior to consummation of the Offer consisted of a $130.0 million reducing revolving credit facility ("Old Company Revolver") and a $30.0 million term loan (the "Old Company Term Loan") (collectively, the "Old Company Credit Facilities"). The Old Company Revolver provided for revolving credit loans up to the amount of the commitment, which reduced upon quarterly decreases to $83.6 million at maturity. The borrowing capacity under the Old Company Revolver at March 30, 1995 was $119.3 million versus the total borrowed at March 31, 1994 of $123.0 million. Interest was payable at varying rates in the Old Company Credit Agreement. The Old Company Revolver was to mature on August 31, 1997. The Old Company Term Loan was payable on September 30, 1995. As of March 30, 1995, borrowings outstanding under the Old Company Term Loan were $30.0 million. In addition, prior to the consummation of the Offer the Company borrowed $6.0 million pursuant to a $30.0 million revolving line of credit ("Overline Facility"). Debt maturities (other than amounts borrowed under the Old Company Credit Facilities) were as follows: $6.3 million in fiscal 1995, $7.4 million in fiscal 1996, $8.2 million in fiscal 1997 and $8.8 million in fiscal 1998. The Old Company Credit Facilities and the Overline Facility were refinanced as part of the Acquisition. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations -- Post-Merger Liquidity and Capital Resources."

HISTORICAL LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES OF ASSOCIATED

Associated was a holding company and, as a result, Associated's primary source of funds was cash generated from operating activities of its operating subsidiary, ASI, and bank borrowings by ASI. The Old Associated Credit Agreement (as hereinafter defined) included restrictions on the ability of ASI to transfer cash to Associated which could be used by Associated to pay cash dividends on its redeemable preferred stock. Associated's statement of cash flows for the periods indicated is summarized below.

Operating Activities. The decline in net cash provided by operating activities from $3.2 million in the first three months of 1994 to $2.1 million in the first three months of 1995 is primarily due to an increase in accounts payable partially offset by a decrease in inventory.

Investing Activities. The net cash used in investing activities for the three months ended March 31, 1995 reflects the acquisition of United on March 30, 1995.

Financing Activities. The net cash provided by financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 1995 reflects the issuance of debt to finance the acquisition of United.

Net cash provided by operating activities for 1994 increased to $13.6 million from a use of cash of $18.2 million in 1993. This increase in 1994 was principally due to an increase in accounts payable, a lesser increase in inventory levels and an increase in net income. Associated used $18.2 million of cash in operations in 1993 as compared to operating activities being a source of cash of $19.8 million in 1992. The decrease primarily was attributed to (i) a reduction in accounts payable in 1993 and (ii) an increase in inventory in 1993 due to a full year of Associated's operations, additional inventory to support the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition and an overall increase in sales volume. During the eleven months ended December 31, 1992, Associated deferred payment on purchases from or services rendered in the amount of $9.0 million pursuant to a transition services agreement. During 1994, Associated settled the obligation by issuing 58,653 shares of Associated Common Stock.

Net cash used in investing activities in 1994 was $0.6 million, reflecting capital expenditures necessary to maintain existing assets. Net cash used in investing activities in 1993 was $3.3 million stemming mostly from capital expenditures in connection with the opening of the new Baltimore facility and those expenditures related to the assimilation of the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition. Net cash used in investing activities in 1992 was $96.8 million which primarily consisted of $82.1 million of cash used for the acquisition of certain BCOP assets. In addition, $2.7 million was incurred to effect the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition. In 1993, the selling stockholders of Lynn-Edwards returned $0.3 million of the $2.7 million to Associated pursuant to a subsequent agreement between the parties as to the purchase price of Lynn-Edwards. Capital expenditures in 1992 were $4.3 million. A total of $7.7 million of acquisition costs were incurred in 1992 in connection with the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition and the Boise Transaction.

Net cash used in financing activities in 1994 was $12.2 million which was attributable to the pay down of debt under the Old Associated Credit Facilities (as hereinafter defined). Net cash provided by financing activities in 1993 was $14.2 million due to $11.5 million of borrowings under the Old Associated Credit Facilities and an equipment loan and cash overdrafts of $6.1 million due to timing of payroll, partially offset by scheduled principal payments of $3.4 million. Net cash provided by financing activities in 1992 was $85.3 million which reflects the initial capitalization of Associated in connection with its formation and additional debt incurred to finance the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition. Borrowings under the Old Associated Credit Facilities in 1992 were partially offset by scheduled amortization payments of $8.1 million.

Associated's credit agreement ("Old Associated Credit Agreement") in effect prior to consummation of the Offer consisted of a $65.0 million revolving credit facility ("Old Associated Revolver"), a $20.0 million term loan, Tranche A, and a $10.0 million term loan, Tranche B (together, the "Old Associated Term Loans") (collectively, the "Old Associated Credit Facilities"). The Old Associated Revolver provided for revolving credit loans up to the amount of the commitment, based on eligible receivables and inventory, as defined in the Old Associated Credit Agreement. The borrowing capacity under the Old Associated Revolver at December 31, 1994 was $62.5 million versus the total borrowed at December 31, 1994 of $39.9 million. Interest was payable at a rate per annum of 1.75% plus the higher of either the prime rate or 0.5% plus the federal funds rate, as defined in the Old Associated Credit Agreement. The Old Associated Revolver was to mature on January 31, 1997. Prepayments were required when cash flow, as defined in the Old Associated Credit Agreement, exceeded specified levels. Term Loan Tranches A and B were payable in 57 and 24 monthly installments commencing on April 30, 1992 and January 31, 1997, respectively. As of December 31, 1994, total borrowings under the Old Associated Term Loans, excluding original issue discount, were $21.0 million. Debt maturities, excluding the original issue discount, were as follows: $5.9 million in 1995, $7.0 million in 1996, $46.3 million in 1997 and $5.5 million in 1998. The Old Associated Credit Facilities were refinanced as part of the Acquisition. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations -- Post-Merger Liquidity and Capital Resources."

POST-MERGER LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

In connection with consummation of the Acquisition, Associated received an equity investment of $12.0 million primarily from existing stockholders and borrowed an aggregate of $416.5 million under the New Credit Facilities and $130.0 million under the Subordinated Bridge Facility, all as described under "Financing the Acquisition." The proceeds of these investments and borrowings were used to (i) finance the purchase of Shares pursuant to the Offer, (ii) refinance certain existing indebtedness of Associated (including all amounts outstanding under the existing Old Associated Credit Facilities) and certain indebtedness of United and the Company (including all amounts outstanding under the existing Old Company Credit Facilities), (iii) redeem United stock options and (iv) pay fees and expenses relating to the Acquisition.

The New Credit Facilities consist of a Tranche A Facility providing for a $125.0 million term loan requiring repayment in 20 quarterly installments, a Tranche B Facility providing for a $75.0 million term loan requiring repayment in 28 quarterly installments and a Revolving Credit Facility in the aggregate amount of $300.0 million. The New Credit Agreement contains restrictions on, among other things, dividends by the Company to United. For a more detailed description of the payment and other terms of the New Credit Facilities, see "Financing the Acquisition -- Loan Facilities -- New Credit Facilities." Including amounts borrowed to consummate the Acquisition, total scheduled mandatory principal payments due on long-term debt from 1995 through 2000 are expected to be $156.3 million.

Quarterly dividends currently accrue on United's three outstanding series of the Merger Preferred Stock (as hereinafter defined) at the respective rates of 10.0% (for Series A) and 9.0% (for Series B and C) per annum (or, when dividends are not paid in cash, 13.0% (for Series A) and 10.0% (for Series B and C)), and may be paid in the form of additional shares of the respective series of Merger Preferred Stock (except, in the case of the Series C Preferred Stock, for dividends payable after January 31, 1999). Based upon the Company's anticipated operating results and the requirements under the New Credit Agreement and the Indenture, management expects to pay dividends on the Merger Preferred Stock when such dividends become due and payable in kind (rather than in cash) for the foreseeable future. If the necessary consents are obtained, the Company expects to pay a dividend to United in an amount sufficient to repurchase all the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, with a portion of the proceeds from the Old Notes.

The New Credit Facilities permit capital expenditures for the Company of up to $12.0 million for the post-merger portion of its fiscal year ending December 31, 1995. Capital expenditures will be financed from internally generated funds and the New Credit Facilities.

Management anticipates making changes in the operations of the Company and ASI as conducted prior to the Acquisition as described under "Business -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition." Based on internally generated funds and the expected results of these changes, management believes that United's cash on hand, anticipated funds generated from operations and available borrowings under the New Credit Facilities will be sufficient to meet the short term and long term operating and capital needs of United after the Acquisition as well as to service its debt in accordance with its terms. There is, however, no assurance this will be accomplished.

INFLATION AND CHANGING PRICES

Inflation during the last three years has not been a significant factor to operations. United's business is not generally governed by contracts that establish prices substantially in advance of the receipt of goods or services. As suppliers increase their prices for merchandise to United, United generally seeks to increase its prices to its customers.

SEASONALITY

Although the Company's sales are generally relatively level throughout the year, the Company's sales vary to the extent of seasonal differences in the buying patterns of end users who purchase office products. In particular, the Company's sales are generally higher than average during the months of January through March when many offices begin operating under new annual budgets.

The Company experiences significant seasonality in terms of its capital needs, with highest requirements in December and January reflecting a build up in inventory prior to the peak sales period. In 1994, on a pro forma basis as if the Acquisition occurred on January 1, 1994, outstanding balances on the revolving credit facilities of the Company ranged between $236 million in January to $138 million in September. The Company believes that its current availability under the Revolving Credit Facility is sufficient to satisfy such seasonal capital needs for the foreseeable future.

BUSINESS

OVERVIEW

The Company is the largest office products wholesaler in the United States. As a result of the Merger of the Company with ASI on March 30, 1995, the Company's net sales on a pro forma basis for 1994 were approximately $2.0 billion for the year ended December 31, 1994 and $0.6 billion for the three months ended March 31, 1995. Through its extensive office products catalogs, the Company markets a full line of over 25,000 (post-consolidation) branded and private brand products, including traditional office supplies; office furniture and desk accessories; office machines, equipment and supplies; computer hardware, peripherals and supplies; and facilities management supplies, including sanitation products and janitorial items. These products are offered through a network of 39 (post-consolidation) strategically located distribution centers to over 14,000 resellers, consisting principally of commercial dealers and contract stationers, retail dealers, superstores, mail order companies and mass merchandisers.

Although the office products distribution industry has seen many changes over the past decade, including the growth of national superstores and a consolidation among wholesalers, dealers and contract stationers, large national wholesalers have continued to perform a significant role in the distribution of office products. For manufacturers, the wholesaler provides wide market coverage, assumes credit risk, carries inventory and processes smaller orders than manufacturers can economically service. In addition, wholesalers provide resellers with prompt service and delivery, a source for filling small quantity orders and the opportunity to obtain credit, minimize investment in inventory and access marketing resources and technical support.

The Company is currently engaged in implementing its consolidation plan to integrate the two separate office products wholesale businesses conducted by the Company and ASI prior to the Acquisition. See "Business -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition" and "Risk Factors -- Implementation of Consolidation Plan." The Company was originally incorporated under the name Utility Supply Co. in 1922 and has operated under its present name since 1960.

COMPETITIVE STRENGTHS

The Company believes that it has a strong competitive position attributable to a number of factors, including the following:

Largest Office Products Wholesaler. As the largest office products wholesaler in the United States, the Company has substantial purchasing power and can realize significant economies of scale. The Company obtains products from over 500 manufacturers, for many of whom the Company believes it is a significant customer. The Company's size also enables it to seek cost-effective sourcing of product in the United States and, in many cases, worldwide. In addition, the Company's size allows it to maintain a broad and deep product selection, permitting resellers to hold less inventory while still providing end users with a high level of service.

High Level of Customer Service. The Company provides its customers with a broad product selection, a high degree of product availability, expeditious distribution and comprehensive customer assistance. The Company seeks to base its business decisions on an "If I were the customer. . ." approach. With over 25,000 products being offered, the Company believes that it has the broadest selection of office products available in the industry, enabling resellers in most cases to do "one-stop shopping" for all of their office products needs. The Company's broad product selection, inventory procurement and management procedures and state-of-the-art distribution facilities enable it to achieve an order fill rate in excess of 90%. The Company's management information systems have been designed, in part, to enable Management to monitor five key measures of customer satisfaction: fill rate, order accuracy, inventory accuracy, on-time delivery and accessibility to customers. The Company makes substantially all of its orders nationwide available by next day delivery to assist resellers in successfully meeting end users' demands. The Company publishes a wide array of product catalogs ranging from its full-line catalogs to custom specialty catalogs to meet end user needs for information on specific product offerings. Most of these product catalogs are custom imprinted with particular resellers' names, which enables the reseller to distribute the catalogs directly to its customers and garner repeat orders. In addition, the Company provides its customers with a variety of support services such as its "wrap and pack" program which offers resellers the option to receive orders packaged in accordance with the specifications of particular end users. This service allows resellers to lower their inventory investment and minimize double handling costs while allowing them to continue to offer a wide product range. The Company also offers a furniture set-up program in which the Company delivers furniture directly to consumers on the reseller's behalf, thereby enabling the reseller to offer a wide range of furniture on a cost-effective basis.

The Company also provides its resellers a variety of electronic order entry systems, pricing software programs and business management and marketing training programs. For instance, the Company maintains electronic data interchange ("EDI") systems that link the Company to selected resellers, and multifaceted interactive order systems that link the Company to selected resellers and such resellers to their ultimate end users. The Company's sophisticated electronic management systems enable dealers to manage critical business functions including order entry, purchasing, pricing, accounts receivable, accounts payable and inventory control. The Company's matrix pricing software program permits resellers to identify the optimum pricing mix between high and low margin items, thereby enabling resellers to enhance their operating margins. The Company's specialized business management programs enhance particular resellers' ability to increase profits by providing a higher level of service to the end user while the Company's marketing training programs are designed to instruct resellers on how to market to the end user based upon a total cost of procurement approach rather than focusing on specific product prices. The Company continually reviews additional services that might be helpful to its customers.

Diverse Customer Base. With over 14,000 resellers as customers, the Company has one of the broadest customer bases in the industry. The Company's customers include full-line office products resellers, such as commercial dealers and contract stationers, retail dealers, office products superstores, mail order companies and mass merchandisers, as well as specialized resellers, such as office furniture, janitorial and computer dealers. No single reseller accounted for more than 3.2% of the Company's net sales in 1994 on a pro forma basis. The Company plans to continue to expand its customer base by (i) maintaining and building its business with commercial dealers and contract stationers who, through consolidation, continue to increase in size, (ii) developing additional programs for marketing and buying groups that represent groups of dealers, (iii) expanding relationships with the major office products superstore chains and (iv) continuing to focus on niche markets, including specialty dealers (e.g., furniture, janitorial and computer dealers) and particular end users (e.g., healthcare, legal, financial and advertising specialty businesses).

State-of-the-Art Distribution Capabilities. The Company's network of 39 (post-consolidation) distribution centers located throughout the United States employs state-of-the-art technology to efficiently distribute products to customers. For example, as described above, the Company has developed EDI capabilities that link the Company to the majority of its resellers and multifaceted interactive order systems that link the Company to selected resellers and such resellers to the ultimate end user. In 1994 on a pro forma basis, approximately 85% of all of the Company's orders were received electronically. The Company also uses a proprietary computer-based system to enhance fill rates by automatically searching alternative distribution centers for products and routing those products for shipment. In addition, the Company's advanced communication system with many of its resellers is intended to enhance the Company's ability to efficiently manage and distribute its inventory.

Growth of Private Brand Products. The Company offers a growing line of over 1,300 private brand products under the Universal brand name, which the Company believes is the broadest private brand product offering in the industry. Universal brand products represented approximately 9% of the Company's net sales in 1994 on a pro forma basis. Prior to the Merger, the Universal private brand line was offered only by the Company but will now also be marketed to ASI's customers. The Company believes its private brand products offer significant benefits both to the reseller, by providing an alternative to branded products that offers similar quality at a moderate price, and to the manufacturer, by enabling the manufacturer to increase sales without diluting its brand name pricing structure. The Company sees significant opportunity to expand its private brand product line in the future. To further develop the Universal brand, the Company recently opened a trading company in Hong Kong to facilitate the global purchasing of products.

Experienced Management Team. The Company's senior management team comprises individuals who combine many years of experience in the office products distribution industry. Management also has had significant experience in acquiring and integrating companies in the office products industry through the SDC Acquisition by United and the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition by Associated, each in 1992.

BUSINESS STRATEGY

The Company's business strategy is to seek to improve its competitive position and grow its revenues and profitability through (i) the continuation of a high level of customer service, (ii) expanding the breadth of both its product line and its customer base, and (iii) a continuing emphasis on cost effective operations.

High Level of Customer Service. Customer service has been an important factor in the Company's business strategy in the increasingly competitive office products industry. The Company intends to continue its efforts to differentiate itself from competitors by providing its customers with a broad product selection, a high degree of product availability, expeditious distribution and a variety of customer services. The Company plans to accomplish these goals by continuing to (i) offer one of the broadest product selections available in the industry, (ii) achieve high fill rates to assure availability of product to its resellers, (iii) offer next day delivery on substantially all of its orders and (iv) assist its resellers by offering electronic order entry systems, pricing software programs and business management and marketing training programs, as well as continually reviewing additional support services which might be helpful to resellers. In addition, because resellers sell directly to end users, the Company has also focused on the needs of the end user by designing informative, user-friendly catalogs and marketing programs to assist the reseller's sales efforts.

Expanding Product Line and Customer Base. The Company's product line expansion plans include growing its ancillary product lines, such as office furniture, computer hardware, peripherals and supplies and facilities management supplies, which the Company believes allow it to gain incremental sales from its existing resellers and thereby strengthen its position with resellers as a "one-stop shop." In addition, ancillary products allow the Company to enter additional distribution channels and, by adding new types of resellers beyond full-line office products dealers alone, to expand its customer base. The Company also plans to continue to expand its customer base by developing additional programs for marketing and buying groups, expanding relationships with superstore chains and maintaining and building its business with commercial dealers and contract stationers. The Company also expects to expand its private brand product offerings within these new product lines and to begin marketing private brand items to ASI's customers. In addition, the Company plans to evaluate opportunities for growth in market share in connection with the trend toward direct delivery of products to end users through arrangements with various resellers seeking to minimize inventory investment. The Company believes that there is opportunity to capture a portion of the sizeable percentage of total shipments by office products manufacturers currently sold directly to resellers or end users without wholesaler involvement.

Cost Effective Operations. The Company intends to continue to actively seek cost reductions at both the corporate and operating levels in order to continue to operate in a cost effective manner.

Examples of such cost reductions include (i) reduced merchandise costs through suppliers' incentives, (ii) continued efforts to increase inventory turnover without lowering service levels, (iii) reduced payroll and benefits costs through improved labor allocation, (iv) reduced freight costs through ongoing refinements to delivery systems, (v) increased sourcing of certain products off-shore, (vi) continued development of computer systems and (vii) streamlining of work practices and procedures.

CONSOLIDATION PLAN AND BENEFITS OF THE ACQUISITION

Consistent with its business strategy, since the consummation of the Acquisition on March 30, 1995 the Company has been engaged in implementing its consolidation plan to integrate its business with the business of ASI. Through the integration of distribution facilities and product lines in a manner designed to enable the Company to offer its customers increased service and product availability, the Company expects to improve its competitive position. In addition, the Company plans to achieve cost savings and other benefits from the elimination of redundant or overlapping functions and facilities and by minimizing overlapping products.

In implementing its consolidation plan, another critical objective will be to maintain and enhance customer relationships, service and marketing programs of the combined businesses. Management believes that the Company's experience integrating the SDC Acquisition in 1992, together with ASI's experience integrating the Lynn-Edwards Acquisition in 1992, will enhance the Company's ability to implement its strategy while maintaining competitive levels of customer service.

Management anticipates that the implementation of its consolidation strategy should result in significant cost savings and synergies which will enhance the Company's financial and operational performance. Management estimates that, upon phase-in of its consolidation plan over a 12-month period following the Acquisition, the Company expects to realize approximately $26.0 million per year in savings as a result of a successful implementation of its consolidation plan, although the Acquisition is likely to result in a reduction in the rate of revenue growth for some period following the Acquisition as a result of the loss of some customers to competition. See "Risk Factors -- Implementation of Consolidation Plan" and "Pro Forma Combined Financial Information."

Consolidate Number of Product Offerings and Increase Volume. Management plans to consolidate the Company's product offerings by eliminating approximately 10,000 overlapping items from the catalogs that management expects will be distributed in the fourth calendar quarter of 1995, while at the same time adding more niche products, including more specialty items. In addition, following the Acquisition, the Company is expected to have substantially greater sales volume than either ASI or the Company separately prior to the Acquisition. Management believes that the Company will benefit by being able to (i) qualify for improved terms with vendors as a result of placing higher volume purchases among fewer suppliers, (ii) offer a more diverse product line, thereby enhancing end user purchasing options and (iii) achieve higher fill rates as a result of greater inventory and warehousing capacity.

Consolidate Distribution Centers. Management has identified eight redundant distribution centers between ASI and the Company prior to the Merger and plans to close such redundant facilities within 12 months of the Merger. Management currently estimates that the first facility will be closed in October of 1995. Management believes that the Company will benefit by achieving cost reductions arising from the elimination of such facilities. After the elimination of such redundant distribution centers, the aggregate number of distribution centers will be 39, which is greater than the number of distribution centers operated by either company separately. Management believes that such increased number of the Company's distribution centers and, in some markets, the proximity of distribution centers to each other, ultimately will improve service levels and make additional inventory available through the Company's automated inventory management system and, as a result, improve the delivery services of the Company. In addition, the Company intends to achieve cost savings from more efficient operation post-Merger of two distributions centers in each of the Chicago, Sacramento, Nashville and Minneapolis/St. Paul market areas, where the size of existing facilities requires, or demand is sufficient to support, multiple facilities.

Reduce Corporate Overhead. Management has identified a number of corporate positions which it believes can be eliminated in the Company and plans to eliminate such positions and to close Associated's corporate headquarters. Additionally, management plans to eliminate redundant sales positions where customer coverage overlaps. Management believes that the Company will benefit by realizing savings (phased in over a 12-month period) from reduced payroll, benefits and other related expenses derived from (i) the elimination of such positions, (ii) the closing of Associated's corporate headquarters and (iii) the consolidation of legal, audit and tax consulting functions of Associated and United prior to the Merger. Management has specifically identified 330 employees to be terminated, each of their job classifications or functions, and their location. Sales representatives and headquarter employees have been given termination notices. Distribution center employees will specifically be notified prior to the closing of their respective distribution centers. In addition, the Company has begun modifying and consolidating its computer systems.

Expand Private Brand Products and Off-Shore Sourcing. Because of the cost advantages and popularity of United's Universal private brand products, management plans to market both the Universal line and off-shore sourced products to ASI's customers as well as use the combined volume of the Company after the Merger to enhance the Company's ability, when appropriate, to introduce new private brand products and, as appropriate, to source certain additional products off-shore. Management believes that the Company will benefit from such strategy by increasing sales of private brand and off-shore products, which should provide higher profit margins to both resellers and the Company.

THE OFFICE PRODUCTS DISTRIBUTION INDUSTRY

The Company operates in a large, fragmented and rapidly consolidating industry. The office products distribution industry consists of several different channels by which office products are distributed from the manufacturer to the end user. These channels include both routes in which resellers buy through wholesalers and routes in which resellers purchase directly from manufacturers. Due to consolidation, the distinct boundaries that once clearly defined distribution channels have become blurred. The industry today consists principally of wholesalers, commercial dealers and contract stationers, retail dealers, office products superstores, mail order companies and mass merchandisers.

Wholesalers. Wholesalers purchase products directly from manufacturers and sell them directly to resellers who, in turn, sell the products to end users. The wholesale segment of the office products distribution industry consists of national, specialty and regional wholesalers. The two national wholesalers (i.e., the Company and S.P. Richards) compete with a full product offering and extensive marketing and distribution services for their reseller customers. Specialty wholesalers focus on limited product lines such as computer supplies, legal supplies, medical filing systems, office furniture or janitorial products. Regional wholesalers generally offer a full range of office products and marketing services on a smaller scale and within a much more limited geographic area than national wholesalers.

For manufacturers, the wholesaler provides wide market coverage, assumes credit risk, carries inventory and processes smaller orders than manufacturers can economically service. Wholesalers also provide resellers with prompt service and delivery, a source for placing small quantity orders and the opportunity to obtain credit, minimize investment in inventory and access marketing resources and technical support. In order for resellers, such as superstores, to perform these functions themselves, a source of significant capital is generally required for both investment in systems and additional distribution facilities, as well as for the working capital requirements needed to establish appropriate inventory levels.

Office products wholesalers compete not only with other wholesalers but also with office products manufacturers. See "Business -- Competition" and "Risk Factors -- Competition." A sizeable percentage of total shipments by office products manufacturers are currently sold directly to resellers or end users without wholesaler involvement.

Commercial Dealers and Contract Stationers. The most significant reseller channel for office product distribution continues to be commercial dealers and contract stationers who serve medium- and large-sized business customers through the use of catalogs and sales forces. These resellers typically stock products in distribution centers and deliver them to customers on a next-day basis against orders received electronically, by telephone or fax, or taken by a salesperson on the customer's premises. Major commercial dealers and contract stationers purchase in large quantities directly from manufacturers, rely upon wholesalers for inventory backup and product breadth and offer significant volume-related discounts and a high level of service to their customers.

Retail Dealers. Retail office products dealers typically serve small- and medium-sized businesses, home offices and individuals. For many years, retail dealers consisted principally of a large number of independent dealers, operating one or a few relatively small stores in a single local area. During the last decade, however, the office products retail market has undergone significant change, including the elimination or consolidation of many retail dealers, as a result of the emergence and rapid growth of discount office supply retailers, which are known as superstores. To compete with the lower prices generally offered by superstores, many independent retail dealers have joined marketing or buying groups to negotiate on a collective basis directly with manufacturers and wholesalers.

Office Products Superstores. Superstores employ a warehouse format, are typically open for business seven days a week, stock a large number and broad range of items in inventory (typically in the range of 5,000 products), purchase in volume and typically take delivery at their stores for the most part direct from manufacturers and offer many of their products at discounts from manufacturers' list prices. Virtually every major metropolitan area in the United States is now served by at least one, and most by several, office products superstores, and the three largest superstore companies (Office Depot, OfficeMax and Staples) operate and advertise nationally with stores in many metropolitan areas. Superstores also purchase from wholesalers for "fill-in" needs and to fill customer orders from special wholesaler catalogs made available to end users in certain superstores when the superstore does not carry an item. This allows the superstores to expand the range of products offered without increasing their on hand inventory levels.

Mail Order Companies. Mail order marketers of office products typically serve small and medium-sized business customers and home offices. While their procurement and order fulfillment functions are similar to contract stationers, they rely exclusively on catalogs and other database marketing programs, rather than direct sales forces, to sell their product offerings. Their operations are based upon large, proprietary customer data bases and sophisticated circulation strategies drawn from consumer marketing programs. Mail order companies purchase both from wholesalers and manufacturers.

Mass Merchandisers. The mass market retailers (e.g., Sears, Wal-Mart Stores/Sam's Club, Price/Costco, Kmart and Target) have recently taken a growing interest in office products. Office supplies is one of many categories of products more typically available in these stores.

PRODUCTS

The Company markets a broad array of products, which include traditional office supplies; office furniture and desk accessories; office machines, equipment and supplies; computer hardware, peripherals and supplies; and facilities management supplies. The Company's core business continues to be traditional office supplies, which includes both brand-name products and the Company's private brand products marketed under the Universal name. As part of the Company's business strategy to acquire incremental sales and increase market share through ancillary product offerings, the Company began to focus on niche markets in fiscal year 1991 and has expanded steadily upon this concept since then. A furniture division was established to offer national delivery and product "set-up" capabilities to office products dealers as well as to attract new furniture dealers. The Company's sale of this division's items such as leather chairs, wooden and steel desks and computer furniture has enabled it to become the nation's largest office furniture wholesaler, with the Company currently offering nearly 3,000 furniture items from 80 different manufacturers. The Company's "Pro-Image" program enables resellers with no previous expertise to provide high-end furniture and office design services to end users. Another one of the Company's niche markets is business presentation products. The Company also sells computers, printers, modems, monitors and supplies with major brand names through its MicroUnited Division. Additionally, the Company offers its "Signature Image" program, which provides traditional office products resellers with access into the advertising products market (such as imprinted and logo items). The Company's newest product line encompasses the facilities management supplies market, which includes janitorial and sanitation supplies, specialty mailroom and warehouse items, kitchen and cafeteria items, first aid products and ergonomic products designed to enhance worker productivity, comfort and safety.

CUSTOMERS

The Company principally sells to resellers of office products, consisting primarily of commercial dealers and contract stationers, retail dealers, superstores, mail order companies and mass merchandisers. In addition, the Company sells to office furniture dealers, computer resellers and janitorial and sanitation supply distributors. In 1994 on a pro forma basis, no single reseller accounted for more than 3.2% of the Company's consolidated net sales.

Commercial dealers and contract stationers are the most significant reseller channel for office product distribution and typically serve large businesses, institutions and government agencies. Through consolidation, these dealers are getting larger and becoming even more important to the Company. Commercial dealers and contract stationers remain one of the Company's fastest growing customers classes.

The number of retail dealers has been declining for some time as the result of individual retail dealers' inability to successfully compete with the growing number of superstores and, more recently, as a result of dealerships being acquired and brought under an umbrella of common ownership. However, many retail office products dealers continue to thrive, adapting to the highly competitive environment with the help of resources the Company offers. Many retail dealers, commercial dealers and contract stationers have joined forces in marketing or buying groups in order to increase purchasing leverage. The Company believes it is the leading wholesale source for many of these groups, providing not only merchandise but also special programs that enable these dealers to take advantage of their combined strengths.

While the Company maintains and builds its business with commercial dealers and contract stationers and retail dealers, it has also initiated relationships with most major office products superstore chains. The Company sells superstores commodity items as "fill-ins" when they are out of stock. In addition, the Company has installed order stations in many superstores that display the Company's catalogs thereby allowing end users to order products from the Company through the superstore that the superstore does not carry in stock.

Through its furniture division, the Company offers middle-grade office furniture to both office products and office furniture dealers. The Company also provides computer-related products to most categories of computer resellers through its MicroUnited division and sells janitorial products to sanitation supply distributors. The Company provides marketing materials and professional expertise to meet the various needs of these specialized resellers.

MARKETING AND CUSTOMER SUPPORT

The Company concentrates its marketing efforts on providing value-added services to resellers. The Company distributes products that are generally available at similar prices from multiple sources, and most of its customers purchase their products from more than one source. As a result, the Company seeks to differentiate itself from its competitors through broad product offerings, a high degree of product availability, a variety of customer services and expeditious distribution capabilities.

In addition to emphasizing its broad product line, extensive inventory, computer integration and national distribution capabilities, the Company's marketing programs have relied upon two additional major components. First, the Company produces an extensive array of catalogs for commercial dealers, contract stationers and retail dealers that are usually custom imprinted with each resellers' name and sold to these resellers who, in turn, distribute the catalogs to their customers. Second, the Company provides its resellers with a variety of dealer support and marketing services, including business management systems, promotional programs and price services. These services are designed to aid the reseller in differentiating itself from its competitors by addressing the steps in the consumer's procurement process.

Currently, substantially all of the Company's products are sold through its comprehensive office product catalogs and flyers. These materials include full line catalogs, promotional pieces and specialty catalogs for the legal, financial, healthcare, office furniture, facilities management and advertising specialty markets. Catalogs also are provided for a variety of end user markets, including: annual General Line Catalogs listing 25,000 items; an annual office furniture catalog featuring furniture and accessories; an Office Impressions catalog featuring the Company's private-brand furniture; a quarterly Concept 90 catalog offering approximately 1,000 high-volume commodity products; Office Saver and Flexi Flyer promotional pieces targeted at deep discount markets; annual Universal and Universal Plus catalogs promoting the Company's private-brand merchandise; an annual Computer Products Catalog offering hardware, peripherals and supplies; an annual Computer Concepts catalog; Specialty Market catalogs targeting healthcare, legal, financial and advertising specialty businesses; an annual Facilities Management Supply catalog featuring janitorial and sanitation supplies and ergonomic products; a business presentation products catalog; and Access, a new promotional flyer offering related office products distributed to end users on behalf of resellers. Because commercial dealers, contract stationers and retail dealers typically distribute only one wholesaler's catalogs in order to streamline order entry, the Company attempts to maximize the distribution of its catalogs by offering advertising credits to resellers, based on the volume of products purchased, which can be used to offset the cost of catalogs.

To assist its resellers with pricing, the Company offers a matrix pricing software program. Traditionally, resellers have priced products on a discount from list price basis. With the advent of the superstore, pricing has shifted towards a net pricing approach, whereby the superstore sells certain products at significant discounts, assuming that it can recapture the discounts through the sale of other higher margin products. The Company's matrix pricing program provides the reseller with a tool to assist it in identifying the optimum pricing mix between high and low margin items and, as a result, enables the reseller to enhance its operating margins.

The Company provides sales representatives and managers of selected resellers the opportunity to participate in marketing training programs sponsored by it. Similar to its matrix pricing software, the Company's training programs are designed to instruct the resellers in how to market to the end user based upon a total cost of procurement approach, and thereby to minimize the focus on specific product prices. Since the inception of the Company's program, over 3,000 individuals have attended such training programs.

The Company offers to its resellers a variety of electronic order entry systems and business management and marketing programs which enhance the reseller's ability to manage its business profitably. For instance, the Company maintains EDI systems that link the Company to selected resellers, and multifaceted interactive order systems that link the Company to selected resellers and such resellers to the ultimate end user. The Company's most sophisticated electronic management system enables dealers to manage critical business functions including order entry, purchasing, pricing, accounts receivable, accounts payable and inventory control. In July 1993, the Company entered into a joint venture with a software developer, investing approximately $0.9 million as of February 28, 1995 for its 45% equity interest in a new corporation called United Business Computers, Inc. to enhance, market and support PC-based dealer operating systems compatible with the Company's system. The Company estimates that in 1994 on a pro forma basis, approximately 85% of its orders were received electronically.

In addition to the Company's Pro-Image and Signature Image business management and marketing programs described above, the Company also offers resellers its "Desk Top Marketing" software program, which enables the reseller to identify potential customers in a given market based upon parameters selected by the reseller. The Company also offers, on an exclusive basis, the Customer Self-Service program, which allows the reseller to provide end users with on-line access to such reseller's computer for ordering, product inquiries and promotion information.

DISTRIBUTION

Management has determined that, as a result of the Merger, eight of the Company's 47 current regional distribution centers are redundant and, accordingly, plans to close such redundant facilities within 12 months of the Merger. As a result, the Company will have a network of 39 (post-consolidation) regional distribution centers located in 35 metropolitan areas in 24 states, most of which will carry the Company's full line of inventory. In addition, the Company intends to achieve cost savings from the more efficient operation post-Merger of two distribution centers in each of four market areas, where size of existing facilities requires, or demand is sufficient to support, multiple facilities. For a discussion of the benefits arising from the elimination of such facilities, see "Business -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition."

The Company supplements its regional distribution centers with local distribution points throughout the United States that serve as reshipment points for orders filled at the regional distribution centers. The Company utilizes over 500 trucks owned, leased or contracted for by the Company to enable direct delivery from the regional distribution centers and local distribution points to resellers.

The Company's distribution capabilities are augmented by its proprietary, computer-based system. If a reseller places an order for an item that is out of stock at the Company location which usually serves the particular reseller, the Company's system will automatically search for the item at two alternative distribution centers. If the item is available at an alternative location, the system will automatically forward the order to that alternate location, which will then coordinate shipping with the primary facility and provide a single on-time delivery to the reseller. The system effectively provides the Company with added inventory support, which enables it to provide higher service levels to the reseller, to reduce back orders and to minimize time spent searching for merchandise substitutes, all of which contribute to the Company's high fill rate and efficient levels of inventory balances. See "Risk Factors -- Service Interruptions."

Another service offered by the Company to selected resellers is its "wrap and pack" program, which allows resellers the option to receive orders in accordance with the specifications of particular end users. For example, when a reseller receives orders from a number of separate end users, the Company groups and wraps the items separately by end user so that the reseller need only deliver the package. The "wrap and pack" program is attractive to resellers because it eliminates the need to break down case shipments and to repackage the orders before delivering them to the end user.

MERCHANDISING AND PURCHASING

The Company utilizes over 500 suppliers of its products. As a centralized corporate function, the Company's merchandising department interviews and selects suppliers and products for inclusion in the catalogs. Selection is based upon end user acceptance and demand for the product and the manufacturer's total service, price and product quality offering. In 1994 on a pro forma basis, no supplier accounted for more than 9.4% of the Company's aggregate purchases. The Company believes it is a significant customer for many vendors.

The Company, like many other wholesalers, has a centrally controlled, computerized forward buying program under which the Company, from time to time, purchases items of inventory in advance of its specific needs when favorable purchasing opportunities present themselves.

COMPETITION

The Company competes with office products manufacturers and with other national, regional and specialty wholesalers of office products, office furniture, computers and related items. Most wholesale distributors of office products conduct operations regionally and locally, sometimes with limited product lines such as writing instruments or computer products. Other wholesalers, including the Company, carry a full line of business products. Manufacturers typically sell their products through a variety of distribution channels, including business products wholesalers and resellers.

Competition between the Company and manufacturers is based primarily upon net pricing, minimum order quantity and product availability. Although manufacturers may provide lower prices to resellers than the Company does, the Company's marketing and catalog programs, combined with speed of delivery and its ability to offer resellers a broad line of business products from multiple manufacturers on a "one-stop shop" basis and with lower minimum order quantities, are important factors in enabling the Company to compete effectively. Competition between the Company and other wholesalers is based primarily on net pricing to resellers, breadth of product lines, availability of products, speed of delivery to resellers, fill rates and the quality of its marketing and other services. The Company believes it is competitive in each of these areas.

A trend toward consolidation has occurred in recent years throughout the office products industry. Although at the national wholesale level only one competitor (S.P. Richards) remains, consolidation of commercial dealers and contract stationers has also resulted in an increased ability of those resellers to buy goods directly from manufacturers. In addition, over the last decade, office products superstores (which largely buy directly from manufacturers but offer fewer items than the Company) have entered virtually every major metropolitan market and dealers and contract stationers have formed buying groups to purchase directly from manufacturers on a collective basis. Increased competition in the office products industry has also led to heightened price awareness among consumers, making commodity type office products extremely price sensitive and requiring the Company to increase its efforts to convince resellers of the continuing advantages of its competitive strengths (as compared to those of manufacturers and other wholesalers), such as marketing and catalog programs, speed of delivery, and the ability to offer resellers a broad line of business products from multiple manufacturers with lower minimum order quantities on a "one-stop shop" basis. See "Risk Factors -- Competition."

EMPLOYEES

At March 1, 1995, the Company and ASI employed approximately 5,015 persons in the aggregate. Management has determined that as a result of the Merger, certain warehouse, corporate and sales positions within the Company will be eliminated. For a discussion of management's plans with respect to the elimination of such positions and the resulting expected benefits to the Company, see "Business

- -- Consolidation Plan and Benefits of the Acquisition -- Consolidate Distribution Centers," "-- Reduce Corporate Overhead" and "-- Reduce Sales Representatives."

The Company considers its relationships with its employees to be satisfactory. Substantially all of the shipping, warehouse and maintenance employees at certain of the Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Los Angeles, Minneapolis and New York City facilities are covered by various collective bargaining agreements. The agreements expire at various times during the next three years. See "Risk Factors -- Service Interruptions."

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company is involved in legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of its business. The Company is not involved in any legal proceeding that it believes will result, individually or in the aggregate, in a material adverse effect upon its financial condition or results of operations.

PROPERTIES

The Company considers its properties to be suitable and adequate for their intended uses. These properties consist of the following:

Executive Offices. The Company's office facility in Des Plaines, Illinois has approximately 135,800 square feet of office and storage space. In September 1993, approximately 47,000 square feet of office space located in Mount Prospect, Illinois was leased by the Company. This lease expires in four years, with an option to renew for two five-year terms.

The Company currently leases 20,568 square feet of office space in Itasca, Illinois which previously served as Associated's corporate headquarters and 7,095 square feet of office space in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania as a sales office. As a result of the closing of Associated's corporate headquarters, the Company plans to terminate the lease in Itasca, Illinois.

Local Distribution Points. The Company also operates 28 local distribution points. Two are leased by the Company; the other local distribution points are operated through cross-docking arrangements with third party distribution companies.

Canadian Office. The Company currently leases a sales office in Woodbridge, Ontario (7,000 sq. ft.). This lease expires August 31, 1995 with an option to renew for one additional year.

Hong Kong Trading Office. United Stationers Hong Kong Limited leases 1,500 square feet for a trading office in Hong Kong with the lease expiring on October 14, 1995.

Distribution Centers. The Company presently operates 47 distribution centers in 24 states, with eight scheduled for closing in the near future as part of the Company's consolidation plan. The following table sets forth information regarding the principal leased and owned properties.

JAMES A. JOHNSON was elected to the Board of Directors of United upon consummation of the Merger. Prior to the Merger, he had been a director of Associated since 1992. Mr. Johnson is a general partner of various Wingate entities, including the indirect general partner of each of Wingate Partners and Wingate II. From 1980 until he joined Wingate Partners in 1990, Mr. Johnson served as a Principal of Booz-Allen & Hamilton, an international management consulting firm. Mr. Johnson currently serves as a director of Century Products and AmeriStat.

JOEL D. SPUNGIN has served as a member of the Board of Directors of United since 1972 and prior to the consummation of the Offer was a member of the Board of Directors of the Company, and Chairman of the Board of Directors of United and the Company and prior to the Merger was Chief Executive Officer of United and the Company since August 1988. From October 1989 until April 1991, he was also President of United and the Company. Prior to that, since March 1987, Mr. Spungin was Vice Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of United and the Company. Previously, since August 1981, Mr. Spungin was President and Chief Operating Officer of United and the Company. He also serves as a director of AAR Corp.

Approximately 75% of the Shares expected to be outstanding on the date of this Prospectus are held in a voting trust (the "Voting Trust") pursuant to a Voting Trust Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 (the "Voting Trust Agreement"). The trustees of the Voting Trust are Thomas W. Sturgess, Frederick B. Hegi, Jr., James A. Johnson, Daniel J. Good and Gary G. Miller. The trustees of the Voting Trust hold all voting power to vote the Shares held in the Voting Trust and may act by a majority vote of the trustees. The trustees agree to vote all Shares in trust to elect a board of directors of United with (i) a least one representative designated by Good Capital, (ii) at least one representative designated by ASI Partners, L.P., the general partner of which is Cumberland, (iii) at least one representative designated by certain key executives (consisting of Messrs. Rowsey, Eberspacher, Schleppe and L. Miller) of United and (iv) such number of directors designated by Wingate Partners as will represent a majority of the total number of directors. The Voting Trust terminates on January 31, 2002 or upon the consummation of an underwritten public offering of the Shares which meets certain criteria specified in the Voting Trust Agreement. The Voting Trust Agreement does not apply to the election of directors of the Company, although by virtue of the power to elect the directors of United the trustees of the Voting Trust will indirectly have the power to elect the directors of the Company. Officers of United and the Company are elected by their respective Boards of Directors and hold office until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified.

United's Restated Certificate of Incorporation (as hereinafter defined) provides that the Board of Directors of United shall be divided into three classes, each class as nearly equal in number as possible, and each term consistent of three years. The Directors currently in each class are as follows: Class I (having terms expiring in 1996) -- Messrs. Good, Johnson and Hewson; Class II (having terms expiring in 1997) -- Messrs. Sturgess, Hegi and Rowsey; and Class III (having terms expiring in 1998) -- Messrs. G. Miller, Callier and Spungin.

Certain directors of United who are not officers or employees of United or the Company currently receive an annual retainer fee of $18,000, plus a fee of $1,000 for each board meeting attended and a fee of $600 for each committee meeting attended. An additional fee of $250 per committee meeting is currently paid to the chairman of each committee. When United's business requires an overnight stay for a board or committee meeting, an additional $600 is currently paid. Certain of such fees may be deferred under the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan. United also has a retirement program for its outside directors who have served at least one year as a director. Under the program, directors are entitled to receive, upon their retirement from the board after the age of 65, 50.0% of their last annual retainer per year of service for those directors with less than seven years of service and 100.0% of their last annual retainer per year of service as a director for those with seven or more years of service. In addition, all directors are reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in attending meetings. United also maintains a term life insurance policy in the amount of $100,000 for the benefit of each director. United is in the process of evaluating the extent to which the fees and other benefits currently received by directors of United and the Company will be retained, modified or terminated for directors of United and the Company after the Merger.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION FOR UNITED

Compensation for executive officers of United and the Company is currently governed by plans and other arrangements established by United for the benefit of the employees of both United and the Company. United is in the process of evaluating the extent to which the benefit plans and arrangements and other matters relating to executive compensation described below that were in effect for officers and employees of United and the Company prior to the Merger will be retained, modified or terminated for officers and employees of United and the Company after the Merger.

The following table sets forth the compensation paid during United's last three fiscal years to the Chief Executive Officer and each of the four most highly compensated officers of United in all capacities in which they served at the end of United's fiscal year ended August 31, 1994.

Dividends are paid on restricted shares at the same rate paid to all shareholders. On August 31, 1994, Mr. Schwarz held 2,500 shares of restricted stock valued at year-end market value for Shares of $9.50 per share, or a total value of $23,750.

(5) Includes payments from Executive Bonus Plan (as hereinafter defined) of awards earned in prior years payable in three annual installments as shown below. Bonus Plans. A Management Incentive Plan ("MIP") provides annual incentive compensation opportunities to officers and other upper management level participants based on United's performance, region or division performance, and personal performance. Under the MIP, annual targets are set by the Board of Directors and bonuses are awarded under a formula based on percentage attainment of the targets. The incentive awards for the Chief Executive Officer

("CEO"), Chief Operating

Officer ("COO") and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") are based solely on the earnings performance of United. If United fails to produce minimum targeted results, no incentives are paid to the CEO, COO or CFO. For fiscal year 1994, United failed to meet the targets set by the Compensation Committee; therefore, no bonuses were earned by the executive officers based on United's performance although certain officers (other than the CEO, COO and CFO) did earn bonuses based on personal performance targets.

United's Executive Bonus Plan ("EBP") applied to the Company's officers prior to the Merger. While the EBP provided annual incentive opportunity, it also focuses on long-term results. Annual targets were established by the Compensation Committee measured by return on equity ("ROE") or the treasury bill rate. Bonus awards were made annually, if earned, based on the percentage achievement of targets set, with 50% of the awards deferred and paid over a three-year period. Of the deferred amounts, approximately 30% is in cash to be paid in three annual installments. The deferred cash portion was to increase based on the subsequent ROE performance. The other 70% of the deferred award was converted to "Share Units" having a value equal to the market price of one share of Common Stock. Thus the value of the Share Units rises and falls in response to market fluctuations. The Share Units are converted into Shares upon distribution in three annual increments. For fiscal year 1994, no bonuses were earned under the EBP because United failed to meet the ROE target set by the Compensation Committee.

Based on amendments to the MIP and the EBP completed shortly before the execution of the Merger Agreement, amounts accrued under the EBP in respect of Messrs. Spungin, Hewson, Weissman, Kravis and Schwarz (collectively, the "Protected Employees") were paid out based on United's performance through the date of the consummation of the Offer for the portion of the plan year through the last day of the month in which the Merger occurred and amounts accrued through March 30, 1995 under the MIP in respect of the Protected Employees have not been paid as of June 2, 1995 (such amounts are guaranteed under the Bonus Trust Agreement (as hereinafter defined)). In addition, amounts shall be paid out for the balance of the plan year under the MIP at 100% of the financial targets under that plan. The Bonus Trust Agreement (as hereinafter defined) secures the amount reasonably estimated by United to be owed to the Protected Employees of United with respect to the EBP and MIP with respect to the current fiscal year. The amount of the bonus under the MIP for the post-Merger remainder of the current fiscal year was established at 100% of the bonus opportunity for each of the Protected Employees. The amount of the bonus to which each Protected Employee was entitled for the pre-Merger portion of the current fiscal year was established, in accordance with the terms of the MIP, at 150% of the bonus opportunity under such plan. These bonus payments are expected to be made by the trustee under the Bonus Trust Agreement on or before October 1995. Following the payment of all bonuses, the trust created by the Bonus Trust Agreement shall terminate.

United adopted a severance plan for the officers of the Company shortly before the execution of the Merger Agreement which provides a severance payment of one year's base salary if an officer is terminated without cause or leaves after remaining for the full transition period requested by United.

Prior to the consummation of the Offer, United, as settlor, entered into an irrevocable trust agreement (the "Benefits Trust Agreement") with American National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, as trustee (the "Benefits Trustee"). The Benefits Trust Agreement secures the payment of all amounts owed to certain employees under their amended employment contracts, certain obligations of United to provide post-employment medical benefits, certain severance benefits to former employees, and related costs. Under the terms of the Benefits Trust Agreement and the Merger Agreement, United has caused an irrevocable letter of credit in the initial amount of $24.0 million to be furnished to the Benefits Trustee by Chase Bank. Each compensation or benefit payment by the Benefits Trustee reduces the amount of the letter of credit. To the extent that United makes payments of compensation and benefits covered by the Benefits Trust Agreement or otherwise satisfies its obligation to these current and former employees (or, in some cases, their eligible dependents or surviving beneficiaries) and obtains a waiver from such persons, the letter of credit will be reduced as provided in such waiver.

Prior to the consummation of the Offer, United, as settlor, entered into an irrevocable trust agreement (the "Bonus Trust Agreement") with the Benefits Trustee. The Bonus Trust Agreement secures the amount reasonably estimated by United to be owed to certain employees for amounts accrued and to be accrued under the MIP. Under the terms of the Bonus Trust Agreement, United has caused an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of approximately $3.4 million (the "Bonus LOC") to be furnished by Chase Bank to the Benefits Trustee. The Benefits Trustee will draw on the Bonus LOC (without the necessity of a default by United) on October 16, 1995 to make distributions to trust beneficiaries for amounts accrued through the date of the Merger under United's MIP, unless such amounts have been previously paid. After this one-time distribution, the trust will be closed.

Spungin Employment Contract. Prior to the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement, Joel D. Spungin had an employment and consulting agreement under which Mr. Spungin was to be employed at a salary of not less than $425,000, plus participation in all bonus, stock options and other benefit plans generally available to executive officers of United.

United has amended the employment agreement with Mr. Spungin, effective as of the consummation of the Offer. On March 20, 1995, Mr. Spungin resigned his offices with United and was relieved of all duties thereto, except that he remains an employee of United, and shall, subject to nomination and election, serve as a member of the Board of Directors of United. His term of employment will continue until August 31, 1995, unless terminated by either Mr. Spungin or United. Mr. Spungin will continue to be paid his current employee benefits and salary until August 31, 1995. On September 1, 1995, Mr. Spungin shall become an executive consultant to United for a period of 11 years in accordance with the terms of his amended employment agreement. Mr. Spungin will act as a consultant to Thomas W. Sturgess, chairman of the board of directors of United and the Company, through August 31, 1996, and will continue to serve on the board of directors of United, for which he will receive no additional fees. United shall pay the sum of $2,276,209 to Mr. Spungin on September 1, 1995, and for the period of September 1, 1995 through August 31, 1996, United shall pay Mr. Spungin $530,000 in equal or nearly equal monthly installments. Beginning on September 1, 1996 and continuing until the end of the consulting term, United shall make a monthly payment of approximately $34,269.63 to Mr. Spungin amounting to a total of $6,918,565.

Mr. Spungin and his spouse will receive coverage under United's present medical plan for their lives, subject to a $1,000,000 lifetime maximum payment limit in the aggregate for each of them. United is not permitted to terminate such coverage without also terminating United's medical plan. If Mr. Spungin or his spouse lose their medical coverage on account of a termination of United's medical plan or United's failure to provide such medical coverage, (i) United will pay premiums not to exceed, in the aggregate, $242,701 (such amount shall not be applied against the $1,000,000 per person lifetime maximum) for individual insurance coverage until Mr. Spungin and his spouse become eligible for Medicare, (ii) United will pay premiums for Medicare supplemental policies for the remainder of their lives (such amount shall not be applied against the $1,000,000 per person lifetime maximum) and (iii) at any time Mr. Spungin and his spouse are not reimbursed for medical expenses under such individual insurance policies, United will pay or reimburse such medical expenses incurred by Mr. Spungin and his spouse up to a $1,000,000 lifetime maximum payment for each of them. If United fails to obtain an individual insurance policy within 30 days after termination of United's medical plan, it shall then pay Mr. Spungin the sum of $242,701 in addition to expenses which may be paid under his $1,000,000 million lifetime maximum benefit referred to in clause (iii) above. United's obligation to provide such medical payments may be satisfied by payments made under the Benefits Trust Agreement.

A failure by Mr. Spungin to render services to United or his disability shall not cause a forfeiture of his entitlement to any amount or benefit under his employment agreement. Upon Mr. Spungin's death, his spouse shall receive the remainder of the salary and consulting payments due.

If United breaches any of its obligations to Mr. Spungin, he may resign and remain entitled to the amounts under his employment agreement. Further, if United fails to make any payment to which Mr.

Spungin is entitled when due, all the unpaid consulting payments and fringe benefits shall become payable immediately. Substantially all of United's obligations are secured by the Benefits Trust Agreement.

Hewson Employment Contract. Mr. Hewson resigned as President and Chief Executive Officer of United and the Company on May 31, 1995. Effective as of the consummation of the Offer, United amended the employment agreement with Mr. Hewson to, among other matters, reduce his term of employment to not more than one year, eliminate his consulting term and provide for additional bonuses. In recognition of Mr. Hewson's efforts prior to the consummation of the Offer and his expected responsibilities following the consummation of the Offer, United agreed to make a single payment of $875,000 to Mr. Hewson on September 26, 1995 (180 days after the consummation of the Offer). On the expiration of Mr. Hewson's term of employment, he became entitled to receive an aggregate amount equal to $1,575,000, which, except in limited circumstances, will commence with an initial payment of $650,370 and the remainder payable monthly in equal installments of $26,418.

Mr. Hewson and his spouse (and their eligible dependent children) became entitled, upon the termination of Mr. Hewson's employment, to post-employment medical coverage under United's medical plan until he reaches age 65 and his spouse will also continue to be covered until she reaches age 65, subject to a $1,000,000 maximum benefit payment limit, in the aggregate. United is not permitted to terminate such coverage without also terminating United's medical plan. If such plan is terminated, Mr. Hewson will be entitled to receive until age 65 (but for not more than 18 months) (i) monthly payments equal to the conversion premium under such plan and (ii) reimbursements for medical expenses not covered by any insurance policy up to an aggregate of $300,000 for Mr. Hewson and his eligible dependents, subject to an aggregate limit of $700,000 for all officers referred to as "contract officers" under the medical plan.

Other Executive Employment Contracts. Prior to the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement, employment and consulting agreements were also entered into with Ronald W. Weissman, Allen B. Kravis, Steven R. Schwarz, Robert H. Cornell, Otis H. Halleen, Jerold A. Hecktman and Ted S. Rzeszuto. The agreements generally provide for annual compensation of not less than the officer's salary at the time the employment agreement was made, plus participation in all bonus, stock option and other benefit plans generally available to executive officers of United. The existing employment agreements with Messrs. Schwarz, Cornell, Halleen, Hecktman and Rzeszuto were amended or restated, effective as of the consummation of the Offer to, among other matters, reduce the term for which United is obligated to employ these officers and to encourage these officers not to voluntarily resign during the transitional period following the consummation of the Offer. Existing letters describing Ergin Uskup's terms of employment have been substituted by a new employment agreement which is intended to encourage Mr. Uskup not to voluntarily resign for the one-year period following the consummation of the Offer.

Each amendment provides that the term of employment shall be limited to one year following the consummation of the Offer unless, within 30 days after the consummation of the Offer, United notifies the officer of an earlier date of termination. Further, each amendment eliminates the four-year consulting term previously included in the employment agreements. Upon completion of the term of employment, each officer (other than Mr. Uskup) shall be entitled to a bonus equal to two times his highest annual compensation (including salary, retirement benefit accruals and incentive compensation) paid or accrued during the preceding five years, except the officer shall not be entitled to such bonus if he voluntarily resigns without good reason (as defined in the employment agreement, as amended) or is terminated by United for breach of a fiduciary duty to United. Upon completion of his term of employment, Mr. Uskup shall be entitled to receive a bonus equal to his annual salary. The stay bonuses are secured as an obligation of the trust under the Benefits Trust Agreement. Jeffrey K. Hewson, Steven R. Schwarz, Robert H. Cornell, Otis H. Halleen, Ted S. Rzeszuto, Jerold A. Hecktman and Ergin Uskup are entitled to receive stay bonuses of $1,575,000, $678,227, $602,985, $589,210, $511,297, $492,050 and $175,000, respectively. The aggregate amount of stay bonuses under all amendments to the employment agreements is $5,520,066.

As to certain current and former officers, amendments preclude United from eliminating their eligibility for retiree medical coverage under United's medical plan so long as United maintains such plan. In the event such medical plan is terminated, United shall provide each officer with a monthly amount equivalent to the current monthly premium under United's group medical plan to convert to an individual medical policy for a period not to exceed 18 months. This transition medical coverage also applies to Melvin L. Hecktman, James A. Pribel and certain former employees currently entitled to retiree medical coverage. In addition, for not more than 18 months, the covered officers and their eligible dependents would be entitled to reimbursement of medical expenses which are not covered by such individual medical policy or other medical insurance, up to an aggregate of $300,000 for each such officer and his dependents, subject to an aggregate limit of $700,000 for all of the covered officers and their dependents.

The amendments also update the employment agreements to reflect the salary and employee benefits to which the officers are currently entitled. The amendments also set forth a procedure for an officer to exercise his right to resign for good reason (as defined in the employment agreement, as amended) or for United to terminate his employment for a breach of his fiduciary duty.

Profit Sharing PluSavings Plan. United has a qualified Profit Sharing PluSavings Plan (the "Profit Sharing Plan") in which all salaried employees and certain hourly paid employees of United and its subsidiaries are eligible to participate following completion of six consecutive months of employment. The Profit Sharing Plan provides for annual contributions by United in an amount determined by the Board of Directors of United. The Profit Sharing Plan consists of a "Basic Contribution," "Excess Contribution" and "Matching Contributions." The Basic Contribution is allocated based on the ratio of each participant's earnings to the earnings of all participants for the year. Allocations under the Excess Contribution are based upon participants' earnings in excess of 85% of the Social Security Taxable Wage Base. The portion vested under the Basic Contribution described above will be immediately fully vested in the participant's account. The portion described under the Excess Contribution vests 10% each year for the first four years and 20% per year thereafter, until fully vested after seven years. Upon retirement, death or disability, a participant or his beneficiary is entitled to the entire amount of his account. A participant whose employment terminates for any reason other than retirement, death or disability is entitled to only the vested portion of his account. The plan also permits employees to have contributions made as 401(k) salary deferrals on their behalf and to make after-tax voluntary contributions.

United did not make any contribution to the Profit Sharing Plan for the year ended August 31, 1994 (except for the Matching Contributions described below).

The Profit Sharing Plan provides that United may match employee contributions made as 401(k) salary deferrals. United is contributing $.25 for each $1.00 of pre-tax employee contributions, on contributions up to 4% of eligible wages. For the fiscal year ended August 31, 1994, United paid $494,347 in matching contributions.

Pension Plans. United maintains a noncontributory pension plan covering officers of United and the Company (the "Pension Plan"). Employees are eligible to participate following the conclusion of twelve consecutive months of employment and the attainment of age 21. The Pension Plan provides for annual retirement benefits at age 65 equal to one percent of an employee's career-average annual compensation (as reported to the Internal Revenue Service) multiplied by the number of years of credited service up to a maximum of 40 years; however, an employee's annual compensation for each year of service prior to September 1989, is deemed to be the compensation earned by such employee during the twelve month period ending on August 31, 1989. An employee's pension rights fully vest after five years of service. These benefits are in addition to normal Social Security retirement benefits. Alternative benefit options of early retirement, joint and survivor annuity, and disability are also available. All such options are of actuarially equivalent value to the basic pension. The normal retirement age under this plan is 65.

The following table sets forth the estimated annual benefits upon retirement at age 65 under the Pension Plan to the five executive officers individually named in United's Summary Compensation Table (calculated on the basis of estimated years of service at retirement age and levels of compensation paid in calendar year 1994, assuming 5.5% compounded annual increases):

<CAPTION>

NAME OF PARTICIPANT	ANNUAL PENSION AT RETIREMENT
<S>	<C>
Joel D. Spungin	$150,493
Jeffrey K. Hewson	37,607
Ronald W. Weissman	65,071
Allen B. Kravis	43,813
Steven R. Schwarz	85,042

As of August 31, 1994, the credited years of service under the Pension Plan for the five individuals named were as follows: Mr. Spungin, 36 years; Mr. Hewson, 4 years; Mr. Weissman, 26 years; Mr. Kravis, 19 years and Mr. Schwarz, 17 years.

United's contributions to the Pension Plan are not allocated to the accounts of the individual participants.

In connection with the Merger, the Pension Plan was amended to provide that the actuarial factors employed by the plan may not be adjusted in a manner that would reduce lump sum benefits payable under the Pension Plan.

United also maintains a number of retirement benefit plans for its employees who are covered under collective bargaining agreements.

Supplemental Benefits Plan. The Board of Directors of United has adopted a nonqualified unfunded program ("Supplemental Benefits Plan") to provide for the payment to individuals of benefits which would otherwise be payable under United's Pension Plan and Profit Sharing Plan but which may not be paid under such plans due to limits imposed by Sections 401(a)(17) and 415 of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the plan also provides that a participant in the plan who has reached 40 years of service and age 65, but continues as an employee (for example, under a consulting agreement) would be able to elect to receive, upon retirement, the lump sum amount to which he or she would have been entitled had retirement begun at age 65. As of September 1, 1994, Messrs. Spungin, Hewson, Weissman, Kravis and Schwarz would be entitled to receive potential annual pension payments, pursuant to the Supplemental Benefits Plan, of approximately $93,089, $109,434, $4,303, $17,625 and $79,031 respectively, commencing at normal retirement age.

Amendments to Medical Plan. United amended its medical plan shortly before the execution of the Merger Agreement. United's medical plan was amended to generally provide that: (i) the plan cannot be changed or terminated with respect to certain designated officers or early retirees; and (ii) certain designated officers (upon termination of employment) and early retirees and their spouses can continue to participate in the medical plan until age 65 under the same general terms and conditions applicable to active employees, subject to an aggregate maximum benefit limit of $250,000 for each early retiree and $1,000,000 for certain designated officers. The medical plan was also amended to provide that, in the event of its termination, United will provide certain funds to designated individuals for a specified period of time for the purpose of (i) obtaining health insurance; and (ii) reimbursing such individuals for medical expenses in the event of their uninsurability or catastrophic illness.

Compensation Committee Interlock and Insider Participation. Compensation decisions for executive officers of United and the Company for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1994 were made by the compensation committee of the Board of Directors of United consisting of E. David Coolidge III (Chairman), Jack J. Crocker, David R. Smith, Jack Twyman and, upon the retirement of Jack J. Crocker in January 1994, Douglas K. Chapman. None of such persons was during such fiscal year, or was formerly, an officer or employee of United or the Company. Mr. Coolidge is the Managing Partner of William Blair & Company, which from time to time has rendered investment banking and related services to United, for which United has paid customary fees. After the Merger, the Company does not expect to have a compensation committee or other committee of the Board of Directors of United or the Company performing similar functions. Decisions concerning compensation of executive officers are expected to be made by the Board of Directors of the Company which will include Thomas W. Sturgess, Daniel H. Bushell and Michael D. Rowsey, each of whom is an executive officer of United and the Company.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION FOR ASSOCIATED

Cash Compensation. The following table sets forth all cash compensation paid by ASI, as well as certain other compensation paid as accrued, during Associated's last three fiscal years to the Chief Executive Officer and each of the four most highly compensated officers of Associated in all capacities in which they served at the end of Associated's fiscal year ended December 31, 1994.

(2) Mr. Sturgess was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Associated effective January 1992. Although Mr. Sturgess did not receive a salary for his services to Associated, he serves as a general partner of various Wingate entities including the indirect general partner of Wingate Partners. Wingate Partners earned annual management fees from Associated of $350,000, $210,000 and $320,833 with respect to fiscal years 1994, 1993 and 1992, respectively, for providing management services to Associated pursuant to an Investment Banking Fee and Management Agreement described below under "Certain Transactions -- Management Agreements." None of the compensation received by Mr. Sturgess from Wingate Partners is specifically allocated based upon services provided by him to Associated.
(3) Mr. Simon resigned as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of ASI effective December 18, 1994.
(4) Amounts do not exceed the lesser of $50,000 or 10.0% of the individual's salary and bonus for the indicated fiscal year.

Employment Agreements. Prior to the consummation of the Merger, Associated entered into employment agreements with the following former executive officers of Associated pursuant to which such executives have agreed to serve in the capacities and for the salaries listed below. Such employment agreements are now obligations of United.

Such salaries are subject to increase at the discretion of the Board of Directors of United. In addition, the agreements provide for payment of an annual bonus to such executives, based on the performance of United and such executive's performance, in such amount, if any, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of United. The agreements were initially scheduled to terminate on January 31, 1995, but by their terms have been extended on a year to year basis until terminated in writing by either party at least sixty (60) days prior to the end of such term. If, prior to expiration, such employee's employment is terminated by United other than for cause, such executive will be entitled to a continuation of base salary and benefits for one year after termination.

Stock Option Plan. Associated adopted the Associated Holdings, Inc. 1992 Management Stock Option Plan (the "Management Stock Option Plan") pursuant to which incentive and non-qualified stock options could be issued to certain of its officers, key employees and directors. A total of 86,735 shares of Associated Common Stock was reserved for issuance under the Management Stock Option Plan. In connection with the Merger, United assumed all of the obligations of Associated under the Management Stock Option Plan, with an aggregate of 202,962 Shares being authorized for issuance under the plan.

The Management Stock Option Plan, as amended, is administered by the Board of Directors of United, although the plan provides that the Board of Directors of United may designate an option committee to administer the plan. Options outstanding under the Management Stock Option Plan as of the Merger Date became exercisable for a number of Shares equal to the number of such Shares that would have been received in respect of such option if it had been exercised immediately prior to the Effective Time. See "The Acquisition."

Under the Management Stock Option Plan, certain executive officers, key employees and directors are eligible to receive incentive and non-qualified options to purchase shares of Associated Common Stock. Subject to restrictions contained in the Management Stock Option Plan, stock options are exercisable at such time and on such terms as the Board of Directors of Associated determined. The exercise price of any option granted pursuant to the Management Stock Option Plan is not permitted to be less than the fair market value per Share on the date of grant, as determined by the board of directors of United. Subject to certain additional limitations, no option by its terms was permitted to be exercisable after the expiration of ten years from the date of grant, or such other period (in the case of non-qualified options) or such shorter period (in the case of incentive options) as the Board of Directors of United in its sole discretion may determine. Stock options are not transferable, except by legal will and by the laws of descent and distribution.

An optionee under the Management Stock Option Plan must pay the full option price upon exercise of an option (i) in cash, (ii) with the consent of the Board of Directors of United, by delivering Shares already owned by such optionee (including Shares to be received upon exercise of the option) and having a fair market value at least equal to the exercise price or (iii) in any combination of the foregoing. United may require the optionee to satisfy federal tax withholding obligations with respect to the exercise of options by (i) additional withholding from the employee's salary, (ii) requiring the optionee to pay in cash or (iii) reducing the number of Shares to be issued (except in the case of incentive options).

As of the date of this Prospectus, options to purchase an aggregate of 105,047 Shares subject to the terms and conditions of the Management Stock Option Plan are outstanding. In addition, in accordance with the terms of Executive Stock Purchase Agreements ("Executive Purchase Agreements") pursuant to which Messrs. Rowsey, Schleppe, Eberspacher and L. Miller purchased shares of Associated Common Stock and Associated Class A Preferred Stock and which United assumed in the Merger, United is obligated to issue options exercisable for an aggregate of 72,248 Shares to such executives by January 31, 1996 so long as such executives continue to be employed by the Company at the time of issuance. Accordingly, United has reserved an additional 72,248 Shares for issuance upon exercise of options to be granted in accordance with the Executive Purchase Agreements. The outstanding options have an exercise price of $2.90 per Share and vest in four equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant. Of the options granted under the Management Stock Option Plan, options representing an aggregate of 77,306 Shares have been granted to the named executive officers of Associated, as follows:

<CAPTION>

Robert W. Eberspacher	17,196

(1) Does not include the additional option approved by the Board of Directors of Associated described below.

The above options were granted effective January 31, 1992. The number of Shares subject to such options are subject to reduction to the extent Wingate Partners and its affiliates do not achieve certain internal rates of return on their investment in United and, unless certain internal rates of return to Wingate Partners and its affiliates are met, such options automatically terminate (and any Shares previously acquired on exercise of such options are deemed canceled). Such options terminate in any event on January 31, 1999.

Prior to the consummation of the Offer, the Board of Directors of Associated approved (i) the grant of an additional option exercisable for an aggregate of 18,928 Shares at an exercise price of $2.90 per Share to Mr. Bushell and (ii) the establishment of a bonus pool consisting of an aggregate of up to $150,000 which was awarded to Messrs. Rowsey and Bushell in connection with the consummation of the Offer.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation. During Associated's fiscal year ended December 31, 1994, Associated had no Compensation Committee or other committee of the Board of Directors performing similar functions. Decisions concerning compensation of executive officers were made during such fiscal year by the Board of Directors of Associated, which included Thomas W. Sturgess and Michael D. Rowsey, each of whom was an executive officer of Associated.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

CERTAIN AGREEMENTS REGARDING THE SHARES

In connection with the Boise Transaction in 1991, Messrs. Rowsey, Schleppe, Eberspacher and L. Miller purchased shares of Associated Common Stock pursuant to the Executive Purchase Agreements, which agreements, as now in effect after the Merger, (i) require, under certain circumstances, that United issue options exercisable for an aggregate of 72,248 Shares by January 31, 1996 to such executives (see "Management -- Executive Compensation for Associated -- 1992 Stock Option Plan"), (ii) allow each executive to cause United to repurchase (subject to cash availability and lending restrictions) such executive's Shares in the event of such executive's death, retirement or disability at the fair market value thereof at the time of repurchase and (iii) enable United to repurchase an executive's Shares upon such executive's death, retirement, disability or termination of employment at the net book value thereof at the date of such termination.

Associated, Wingate Partners, Cumberland, ASI Partners, L.P., Good Capital, Boise Cascade Corporation ("Boise Cascade") and certain other holders of Associated Common Stock (including Messrs. Rowsey, Schleppe, Eberspacher and L. Miller) entered into the Associated Holdings, Inc. Stockholders Agreement, dated as of January 31, 1992 (the "Stockholders Agreement"), which was terminated as of the date of the Merger. The Stockholders Agreement provided for, among other things, certain restrictions on transfer of Shares held by the parties to the agreement and preemptive rights with respect to certain issuances by United of Shares. Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, parties thereto purchased Associated Common Stock offered in connection with the Offer. See "Financing the Acquisition -- Equity Investment."

Also in connection with the Boise Transaction, Associated, on January 31, 1992, entered into a registration rights agreement (the "Stockholders Registration Rights Agreement") with Wingate Partners, Cumberland, ASI Partners, L.P., Good Capital, Boise and certain other holders of Associated Common Stock (including Messrs. Rowsey, Schleppe, Eberspacher and L. Miller) pursuant to which it granted to such stockholders certain rights with respect to registration under the Securities Act of shares of Associated Common Stock held by them. United assumed the obligation of Associated under the Stockholder Registration Rights Agreement by operation of law in connection with the Merger and such agreement has been amended accordingly. Under the amended agreement, a holder of 20.0% of the Shares subject to the agreement can, in certain circumstances, require United to effect up to three registrations of all or part of such holder's Shares. United is not required to honor any request to register Shares if the request is received either prior to March 30, 1996 or less than 300 days following the effective date of any previous registration statement filed in connection with any such request. Upon receipt of a written request to register a holder's Shares, United must send notice to the other holders subject to the agreement and permit them to also request to have their respective Shares registered under the Securities Act. Registrations effected at the request of the holders will be at the expense of United (excluding underwriting discounts and commissions).

Prior to the Merger, substantially all shares of Associated Common Stock were held in the Voting Trust pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement. As of the Effective Time, the Voting Trust Agreement was amended to govern Shares held by the parties thereto in substantially the same manner as such agreement previously governed shares of Associated Common Stock. The trustees of the Voting Trust are Thomas W. Sturgess, Frederick B. Hegi, Jr., James A. Johnson, Daniel J. Good and Gary G. Miller. The trustees of the Voting Trust hold all voting power to vote the Shares held in the Voting Trust and may act by a majority vote of the trustees. The trustees agree to vote all of the Shares held in trust to elect a board of directors of United with (i) a least one representative designated by Good Capital, (ii) at least one representative designated by ASI Partners, L.P., the sole general partner of which is Cumberland (iii) at least one representative designated by certain former key executives (consisting of Messrs. Rowsey, Eberspacher, Schleppe and L. Miller) of Associated and (iv) such number of directors that will represent a majority of the total number of directors designated by Wingate Partners. Except with respect to Boise Cascade, the Voting Trust terminates on January 31, 2005 or upon the consummation of an underwritten public offering of the Shares which meets certain criteria specified in the Voting Trust Agreement. Boise Cascade's rights and obligations under the Voting Trust Agreement will terminate on March 30, 1997. The Voting Trust Agreement does not apply to the election of directors of the Company. Officers of United and the Company are elected by their respective boards of directors and hold office until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified.

BOISE WARRANTS

In connection with the Boise Transaction, Associated entered into a warrant agreement with Boise Cascade pursuant to which it issued to Boise Cascade warrants (the "Boise Warrants") entitling the holder thereof to acquire an aggregate of 23,129 shares of Associated Common Stock for an exercise price of

$1.00 per share. Associated amended the Boise Warrants prior to the Merger Date to apply to the Shares in the same manner as they formerly applied to Associated Common Stock. Accordingly, the holder thereof is presently entitled to acquire an aggregate of 77,104 Shares for an exercise price of $0.29 per Share. The following is a summary of the material terms of the Boise Warrants:

The Boise Warrants contain customary antidilution provisions and are exercisable through January 31, 2002. In addition, United is entitled to repurchase the Boise Warrants at any time after the repurchase or redemption of all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock at an aggregate purchase price which would provide Boise Cascade with a yield from issue of at least 15% on its investment in the Series B Preferred Stock (including the related preferred stock of Associated prior to the Merger), giving effect to dividends received by Boise Cascade.

The Boise Warrants provide the holders with certain "tag along rights" which entitle such holders to participate, on a pro rata basis, in certain sales of Shares by Wingate Partners, Cumberland, Good Capital or any other controlling stockholder of United. Pursuant to the Boise Warrants, Wingate Partners has been granted certain "go along rights" which are triggered (subject to certain exceptions) in the event (i) Wingate Partners sells 100% of its equity interest in United in a private offering, (ii) all or substantially all of the assets of United are sold and the proceeds of such sale are distributed to the stockholders of United or (iii) United participates in a merger or consolidation. In the event Wingate Partners exercises its "go along rights" in connection with the occurrence of one of the events described above, each holder of Boise Warrants would become obligated to sell all Boise Warrants and Shares held by such holders in the applicable transaction and to vote all Shares in favor of such transaction.

The holders of the Boise Warrants are entitled, pursuant to the terms of the Boise Warrants, to preemptive rights with respect to certain issuances of Shares by United. The Boise Warrants also contain certain covenants and agreements with respect to, among other things, (i) transactions with affiliates (other than certain specified transactions with Wingate Partners, Cumberland and Good Capital), (ii) certain mergers, reorganizations, recapitalization and other events with respect to the Shares, (iii) the repurchase or redemption of Shares, (iv) changes of the fiscal year of United, (v) the taking of actions that would cause United or any subsidiary of United to own less than 80% of any subsidiary of United, (vi) delivery of financial statements of United, (vii) board observation rights for meetings of the Boards of Directors of United and its subsidiaries and (viii) indemnification. Associated obtained the consent of Boise Cascade to the consummation of the Offer, the Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby. In connection with the issuance of the Boise Warrants, Associated entered into the Stockholder Registration Rights Agreement with the holders of the Boise Warrants among others.

LENDER WARRANTS

In connection with the Boise Transaction, Associated entered into a warrant agreement with CMIHI (the "Lender Warrant Agreement") pursuant to which it issued to CMIHI and certain of Associated's senior lenders warrants (the "Lender Warrants") entitling the holders thereof to acquire an aggregate of 150,340 shares of Associated Common Stock (or, at such holder's option, nonvoting common stock of Associated) for an exercise price of $0.01 per share. The Lender Warrants were issued in two tranches representing an aggregate of 34,694 shares of Associated Common Stock (the "Tranche A Warrants") and 115,646 shares of Associated Common Stock (the "Tranche B Warrants"), respectively.

In connection with the purchase by Associated of Lynn-Edwards in 1992, the Tranche B Warrant holders received additional Tranche B Warrants exercisable for an additional 39,878 shares of Associated Common Stock. In addition, an antidilution adjustment mechanism in the Lender Warrant Agreement caused the holders of the Tranche A and Tranche B Warrants to be entitled to purchase an additional 2,017 and 9,040 shares of Associated Common Stock, respectively, on a pro rata basis as an adjustment relating to the issuance of shares of Associated Common Stock to Boise.

The Tranche A and Tranche B Warrants were assumed by United upon consummation of the Merger and now allow the holders thereof to acquire an aggregate of 122,316 and 549,644 Shares (or, at such holder's option, shares of Nonvoting Common Stock), respectively, at an exercise price of $0.0029 per share; provided, however, that the exercise price shall never be less than par value of the Shares or Nonvoting Common Stock, as applicable. Prior to the Merger, Wingate Partners, Wingate II, Wingate Affiliates, L.P., Wingate Affiliates II, L.P. and Daniel J. Good purchased from one of Associated's former senior lenders Tranche A and Tranche B Warrants exercisable for an aggregate of 238,795 Shares for an aggregate of approximately $1.7 million.

The following is a summary of the material terms of the Lender Warrants:

The Lender Warrants contain customary antidilution provisions and are exercisable through January 31, 2001. In addition, United is entitled to repurchase the Lender Warrants at any time after January 31, 1999 at the greater of the then fair market value of the Shares (less the applicable exercise price for the Lender Warrants) or the Equity Value (which is defined generally as (i) five times United's and its consolidated subsidiaries' earnings before interest, taxes and depreciation and amortization minus (ii) non-convertible debt of United and its consolidated subsidiaries minus (iii) preferred stock of United plus (iv) cash and cash equivalents). In the event United repurchases Lender Warrants or Shares pursuant to the call option granted under the Lender Warrants and, within twelve months after the date of such repurchase, United, any subsidiary of United, or Wingate Partners, Cumberland or Good Capital or their subsidiaries, or affiliates (but excluding any limited partners of Wingate Partners as such) or associates has entered into any contract relating to a merger of United or sale of all or substantially all of the assets of United or any subsidiary of United (a "Look Back Event"), then United is required to make a payment to each holder whose Lender Warrants or Shares were repurchased in an amount generally equal to (i) the excess of the fair market value of the consideration received by United, the subsidiaries and the stockholders of United (on a per share basis) in connection with the Look Back Event over (ii) the sum of (a) the amount paid to such holder pursuant to the exercise by United of its call option plus (b) imputed interest on such amount through the date of repurchase at the base rate under United's existing senior credit agreement.

The Lender Warrants also contain certain put rights which require United to repurchase such Lender Warrants upon the earlier of January 31, 1997 or the occurrence of certain extraordinary corporate events. The purchase price payable by United or the Company upon the exercise of the put rights is the greater of the then fair market value of the Shares (less the applicable exercise price of the Lender Warrants) or the Equity Value. Because Associated refinanced all of its existing indebtedness in connection with the Acquisition (including its indebtedness under old Associated Term Loans), the Lender Warrants were amended to provide that no put rights may be exercised thereunder until February 10, 1996.

The Lender Warrants provide the holders with certain "tag along rights" which entitle such holders to participate, on a pro rata basis, in certain sales of Shares by Wingate Partners, Cumberland, Boise Cascade, Good Capital or any of their subsidiaries, affiliates (but excluding any limited partners of Wingate as such) or associates. Pursuant to the Lender Warrants, Wingate Partners has been granted certain "go along rights" which are triggered (subject to certain exceptions) in the event (i) Wingate Partners sells 100% of its equity interest in United in a private offering, (ii) all or substantially all of the assets of United are sold and the proceeds of such sale are distributed to the stockholders of United or (iii) United participates in a merger or consolidation. In the event Wingate Partners exercises its "go along rights" in connection with the occurrence of one of the events described above, each holder of Lender Warrants would become obligated to sell all Lender Warrants and Shares held by such holders in the applicable transaction and to vote all Shares in favor of such transaction.

The Lender Warrants contain a mechanism whereby after the Lender Warrants (or a portion thereof) have been sold pursuant to the put rights, tag along rights, or go along rights under the Lender Warrants (provided that such events have occurred prior to January 31, 1999), each holder of Tranche B Warrants is required to refund to United a portion of the aggregate amount earned by such holder on its Tranche B Warrant investment (the "Refunded Amount"). The Refunded Amount is only required to be paid in the event the amount earned by all holders of the Tranche B Warrants exceeds $6,500,000 and such holders received an internal rate of return on their investment represented by the Tranche B portion of the Old Associated Term Loans of at least 25%. The Refunded Amount ranges from 10.0% of amounts earned on the Tranche B Warrants to 40% of such amounts, depending upon the amount by which the aggregate amount earned by all holders of the Tranche B Warrants exceeds $6,500,000 and the internal rate of return received by such holders on their investment represented by the Tranche B portion of the Old Associated Term Loans exceeds 25%.

Pursuant to the terms of the Lender Warrants, if, at any time, United does not have securities registered under Section 12(b) or 12(g) of the Exchange Act and is not required to file reports under Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, the holders of the Lender Warrants will be entitled to preemptive rights with respect to certain issuances of Shares by United and to board observation rights for meetings of the boards of directors of United and its subsidiaries. The Lender Warrants also contain certain covenants and agreements with respect to, among other things, (i) transactions with affiliates (other than the payment of a limited amount of management fees to Wingate Partners, Cumberland and Good Capital), (ii) certain mergers, reorganizations, recapitalization and other events with respect to the Shares, (iii) the redemption of Shares, (iv) changes of the fiscal year of United, (v) the taking of actions that would cause United or any subsidiary of United to own less than 80% of any subsidiary of United, except that United and each subsidiary of United may own a percentage of the stock of any such subsidiary not lower than the percentage owned at the effective time of the Merger, (vi) delivery of financial statements of United, and (vii) indemnification.

In connection with the issuance of the Lender Warrants, Associated, on January 31, 1992, entered into a registration rights agreement (the "Lender Registration Rights Agreement") with the holders of the Lender Warrants pursuant to which it granted to such holders certain rights with respect to registration under the Securities Act of shares of Associated Common Stock issuable to them upon exercise of the Lender Warrants. United assumed the obligations of Associated under the Lender Registration Rights Agreement by operation of law in connection with the Merger and such agreement has been amended accordingly. Pursuant to the amended agreement, United agreed to use its best efforts to effect a "shelf" registration of all Shares issuable or issued upon exercise of the Lender Warrants and subject to the agreement as promptly as practicable following the sixtieth day after the Merger. In addition, the holders of a majority of the Shares issuable or issued upon exercise of the Lender Warrants and subject to the agreement will be able to require United, after consummation of a public offering of Shares meeting certain specified criteria, and after satisfaction of certain other conditions, to effect up to five registrations of all or part of the Shares held by them. United is not required to honor any request to register Shares if the request is received less than 300 days following the effective date of any previous registration statement filed in connection with any such request. Upon receipt of a written request to register a holder's Shares, United must send notice to the other holders subject to the agreement and permit them to also request to have their respective Shares registered under the Securities Act. Registrations effected at the request of the holders will be at the expense of United (excluding underwriting discounts and commissions).

CERTAIN INTERESTS OF CHASE BANK

Chase Bank has certain interests in the Acquisition and in the Company in addition to its affiliate, Chase Securities which served as the Initial Purchaser of the Old Notes and received a discount in the amount of $4.5 million.

Upon consummation of the sale of the Old Notes, CMIHI, an affiliate of Chase Bank, beneficially owned 9.85% of the Shares outstanding as a result of its ownership of (i) certain Lender Warrants received in connection with the Boise Transaction that entitle CMIHI to purchase 237,748 Shares for $0.01 per Share, (ii) 240,023 shares of Nonvoting Common Stock purchased or received in connection with the Acquisition and (iii) 139,474 shares of Nonvoting Common Stock issued to CMIHI upon consummation of the sale of the Old Notes. See "Certain Transactions -- Lender Warrants" and "Financing the Acquisition -- Loan Facilities -- New Credit Facilities."

Chase Securities served as financial advisor to Associated in connection with the Acquisition. Chase Bank is the agent and a lender under the New Credit Facilities. In addition, in connection with the Offer, Chase Securities served as dealer manager and Chase Bank served as depositary for tendered Shares. A substantial portion of the net proceeds of the Old Notes were used to repay the Bridge Loan and a portion of the remainder was used to prepay loans under the Term Loan Facilities. See "Use of Proceeds." The lenders under the Bridge Loan were Chase Bank, an affiliate of the Initial Purchaser, and The Roebling Fund, a statutory business trust, of which Chase Bank serves as manager and is a substantial beneficial owner. In all such capacities, Chase Bank and its affiliates received or will receive an aggregate of approximately $23.3 million in fees (although certain of such fees were shared with other members of the lending groups) and had certain of their expenses reimbursed.

MISCELLANEOUS

Melvin L. Hecktman, who resigned as vice chairman of United effective September 1, 1993, had a consulting agreement with United by which Mr. Hecktman, until February 28, 1995, received annual compensation of $275,000, plus participation in all bonus and other benefit plans generally available to executive officers of United. The amount of his consulting compensation was subject to reduction by the amount of compensation he may receive from new employment. Under the terms of the consulting agreement, Mr. Hecktman was to render such advisory and consulting services as requested by United. Mr. Hecktman was restricted from disclosing proprietary materials and confidential information. In addition, Mr. Hecktman was restricted from being employed by or consulting with any competing firm during the consulting period.

Mr. Coolidge, a director of the Company until consummation of the Merger, is the Managing Partner of William Blair & Company, which from time to time has rendered investment banking and related services to United, for which United has paid customary fees (including a fee of approximately $2.0 million in connection with investment banking services and a fairness opinion rendered in connection with the Acquisition).

FINANCING THE ACQUISITION

GENERAL

The total amount of funds required by Associated to consummate the Acquisition, redeem United stock options, refinance certain existing indebtedness of the Company, United and ASI and pay related fees and expenses was approximately $558.5 million. In connection with the Acquisition, aggregate proceeds of approximately $416.5 million under the New Credit Facilities, together with the $130.0 million in proceeds of the Bridge Loan under the Subordinated Bridge Facility, were used to (i) to finance the purchase of Shares pursuant to the Offer, (ii) refinance certain existing indebtedness of ASI, United and the Company, (iv) redeem United stock options and (v) pay certain of the fees, expenses and financing costs relating to the Acquisition. In addition, simultaneously with the consummation of the Offer, Associated obtained $12.0 million from the sale of additional shares of Associated Common Stock primarily to certain existing holders of Associated Common Stock or warrants to purchase the same that was used to finance the purchase of Shares pursuant to the Offer. See "Financing the Acquisition -- Equity Investment." The aggregate proceeds under the New Credit Facilities consist of $125.0 million under the Tranche A Facility (as hereinafter defined), $75.0 million under the Tranche B Facility (as hereinafter defined) and approximately $216.5 million under the Revolving Credit Facility.

The following table sets forth the approximate amounts and sources and uses of funds that were necessary to consummate the Offer and the Merger:

LOAN FACILITIES

New Credit Facilities. Immediately prior to acceptance for payment of Shares in the Offer, Associated and ASI entered into the New Credit Agreement with Chase Bank, as agent, and a group of banks and financial institutions (including Chase Bank, the "Senior Lenders"), providing for (a) a tranche A term loan facility (the "Tranche A Facility") in an aggregate principal amount of $125,000,000, (b) a tranche B term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of $75,000,000 (the "Tranche B Facility" and, together with the Tranche A Facility, the "Term Loan Facilities") and (c) a revolving credit facility (the "Revolving Credit Facility" and, together with the Term Loan Facilities, the "New Credit Facilities") in an aggregate principal amount of up to $300,000,000, including a $90,000,000 sublimit available for issuance of letters of credit. Upon consummation of the Mergers, the obligations of Associated and ASI in respect of the New Credit Agreement were assumed by United and the Company, respectively.

The following is a summary of the principal terms of the New Credit Agreement, which summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, all the provisions of the New Credit Agreement, a copy of which is available upon request to the Company. See "Available Information."

The loans outstanding under the Term Loan Facilities and the Revolving Credit Facility bear interest, at the Company's option, equal to (i) the Base Rate (as hereinafter defined) plus 2.25% (if the Tranche B Facility) or 1.75% (if either the Tranche A Facility or the Revolving Credit Facility) or (ii) LIBOR (as defined), based on one, two, three or six month periods, provided that until the date 90 days after the Merger Date, each interest period shall be one month and shall be coterminous with other outstanding LIBOR loans, plus 3.25% (if the Tranche B Facility) or 2.75% (if the Tranche A Facility or the Revolving Credit Facility), with the applicable margins for all but the Tranche B Facility being subject to reductions based on a debt to cash flow ratio test.

Amounts outstanding under the Tranche A Facility are required to be repaid in 20 consecutive quarterly installments, the first four of which (each in the aggregate principal amount of $3,750,000) will be due on the last day of each of the first four calendar quarters commencing with the quarter ending June 30, 1995. Subsequent quarterly payments under the Tranche A Facility are each in the aggregate principal amount of $6,250,000 for each of the eight consecutive calendar quarters commencing with the quarter ending June 30, 1996 and $7,500,000 for each of the eight consecutive calendar quarters commencing with the quarter ending June 30, 1998. Amounts outstanding under the Tranche B Facility will be repaid in 28 consecutive quarterly installments, the first twenty of which (in the aggregate principal amount of $250,000 each) will be due on the last day of each of the first twenty calendar quarters commencing with the quarter ending June 30, 1995. The remaining eight installments in the aggregate principal amount of $8,750,000 each will be due on the last day of each calendar quarter commencing with the quarter ending June 30, 2000. The final installments under the Tranche A Facility and the Tranche B Facility will be payable on March 31, 2000 and March 31, 2002, respectively. The Revolving Credit Facility will mature on March 31, 2000. A portion of the proceeds from the Old Notes was used to prepay approximately $4.1 million (plus interest accrued thereon) of amounts outstanding under the Tranche A Facility and approximately $2.4 million (plus interest accrued thereon) of amounts outstanding under the Tranche B Facility.

The Revolving Credit Facility is subject to (i) a borrowing base equal to 80% of Eligible Receivables (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) plus 50% of Eligible Inventory (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) (provided that no more than 60% or, during certain periods 65%, of the Borrowing Base may be attributable to Eligible Inventory) plus the aggregate amount of cover for Letter of Credit Liabilities (as defined) and (ii) the requirement that, for each fiscal year commencing January 1, 1996, the Company must repay revolving loans so that for a consecutive period of 30 days in each fiscal year the aggregate revolving loans do not exceed $200,000,000.

Loans under the Term Loan Facilities and the Revolving Credit Facility may be prepaid at any time and are subject to certain mandatory prepayments out of (i) net proceeds in excess of $15,000,000 received from the issuance of equity by the Company or any of its subsidiaries after the Merger Date, (ii) net proceeds from certain asset sales in excess of $10,000,000 and (iii) 50% of the Company's Excess Cash Flow (as defined) if the Debt to Cash Flow Ratio (as defined) as of the last day of the fiscal year is less than 3 to 1 and otherwise 75% of the Company's Excess Cash Flow. Optional prepayments under the Term Loan Facilities will be applied, pro rata to loans outstanding under the Tranche A Facility and the Tranche B Facility (pro rata to the remaining installments). Mandatory prepayments will be applied first, pro rata to loans outstanding under the Tranche A Facility and the Tranche B Facility (pro rata to the remaining installments), and second, to the permanent reduction of commitments (and the payment of loans outstanding) under, the Revolving Credit Facility.

The Term Loan Facilities and the Revolving Credit Facility are guaranteed, on a joint and several basis, by United and will be guaranteed by all of the direct and indirect domestic subsidiaries of the Company (if any).

The Term Loan Facilities and the Revolving Credit Facility are secured by perfected first priority pledges of the stock of the Company, all of the stock of the domestic direct and indirect subsidiaries of the Company and certain of the stock of all of the foreign direct and indirect subsidiaries of the Company and security interests in and liens upon all accounts receivable, inventory, contract rights and other personal and real property of the Company and its domestic subsidiaries.

The New Credit Agreement contains representations and warranties, affirmative and negative covenants and events of default customary for financings of the type. The Company has obtained the consent of the requisite percentage of Senior Lenders under the New Credit Agreement to permit the repurchase of the Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, although additional consents from other persons are required to effect such redemption.

United and the Company are obligated under the New Credit Agreement to pay the costs and expenses arising in connection with the preparation, execution, and delivery of the New Credit Agreement and to indemnify the Senior Lenders (and their respective officers, directors, employees and affiliates) against certain liabilities in connection with the Acquisition and the New Credit Facilities.

At the closing of the Offer, 40,471 shares of Associated nonvoting common stock were issued to CMIHI (which shares converted into 139,474 shares of Nonvoting Common Stock in the Merger). Upon consummation of the offering of the Old Notes, 139,474 additional shares of Nonvoting Common Stock (representing an additional 2% of the Shares on a fully diluted basis) were issued to CMIHI.

Subordinated Bridge Facility. Immediately prior to the acceptance for payment of Shares in the Offer, Associated and ASI entered into the Subordinated Bridge Facility with The Roebling Fund, as agent and lender, and Chase Bank, as lender, providing for the Bridge Loan to ASI in an aggregate principal amount of $130,000,000. Upon consummation of the Mergers, the obligations of Associated and ASI in respect of the Subordinated Bridge Facility were assumed by United and the Company, respectively. The Subordinated Bridge Facility (together with approximately $1.6 million in accrued and unpaid interest thereon) was refinanced in full from a portion of the proceeds of the sale of the Old Notes. See "Use of Proceeds."

EQUITY INVESTMENT

Associated obtained $12,000,000 from the sale of additional shares of Associated Common Stock prior to the consummation of the Offer to Wingate Partners, Wingate II, certain affiliates thereof, CMIHI, Daniel J. Good, ASI Partners, L.P., ASI Partners II, L.P. and others, which amount was used to finance part of the purchase of Shares pursuant to the Offer.

FEES AND EXPENSES

An aggregate of approximately $35.1 million of fees and expenses was incurred by Associated and United in connection with the Acquisition. Such amounts include usual and customary fees and expenses for accounting, lending, financial advisory, dealer-manager, legal, printing, appraisal, consulting and related services, a substantial portion of which have been paid to Chase Bank and its affiliates. See "Certain Transactions -- Certain Interests of Chase Bank."

The authorized capital stock of United consists of 46,500,000 shares, consisting of (a) 1,500,000 shares of a class designated as Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value (the "Preferred Stock"), (b) 40,000,000 shares of a class designated as Common Stock, par value $0.10 per share (the "Common Stock"), and (c) 5,000,000 shares of a class designated as Nonvoting Common Stock, $0.01 par value (the "Nonvoting Common Stock"). Of the authorized shares of capital stock, 5,648,935 shares of Common Stock, 379,497 shares of Nonvoting Common Stock and an aggregate of 21,811.1093 shares of Preferred Stock, consisting of 5,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock, 6,724.4436 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, and 10,086.6657 shares of Series C Preferred Stock (the Series A, Series B and Series C Preferred Stock being collectively referred to herein as the "Merger Preferred Stock"), are outstanding. If the necessary consents are obtained, the Company expects to pay a dividend to United in an amount sufficient to repurchase all of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, from the proceeds of the Old Notes.

The following is a summary of the terms of Merger Preferred Stock. Such summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to United's restated certificate of incorporation, as amended (the "Restated Certificate of Incorporation"), a copy of which is available upon request to the Company. See "Available Information."

Dividends. The holders of Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive dividends at a rate of 10% per annum applied to a dividend base per share of $1,000 (the "Dividend Base") payable on April 30, July 31, October 31 and January 31 (each a "Dividend Payment Date") of each year, subject as described below under "Description of Capital Stock -- Capital Stock of United -- Dividend and Redemption Restrictions." If United fails to pay a dividend in cash on any Dividend Payment Date or fails to make any redemption payment when due, the dividend rate shall be retroactively increased to 13% per annum and shall remain at such rate until the failure is cured.

The holders of Series B Preferred Stock and Series C Preferred Stock are entitled to receive dividends at a rate of 9% per annum applied to the Dividend Base, payable on each Dividend Payment Date, subject as described below under "Description of Capital Stock -- Capital Stock of United --Dividend and Redemption Restrictions." In the event United fails to pay a dividend in cash on the Series B or Series C Preferred Stock on any Dividend Payment Date or fails to make any redemption payment in respect of the Series B or Series C Preferred Stock when due, the dividend rate thereon shall retroactively be increased to 10% per annum and shall remain at such rate until such failure is cured.

The dividends on the Merger Preferred Stock are cumulative and shall accrue, whether or not declared or restricted by the terms of any loan agreements and regardless of whether there are funds legally available for payment of the dividends. In the discretion of the Board of Directors of United, the dividends may be payable in cash or in additional shares of the same class of Merger Preferred Stock. Dividends on the Series C Preferred Stock may be payable in additional shares of Series C Preferred Stock only for Dividend Payment Dates occurring on or prior to January 31, 1999.

If at any time United fails to pay any dividends on the Dividend Payment Date or United fails to redeem the requisite number of shares of a series of Merger Preferred Stock (the "Defaulted Series"), United shall not (a) declare or pay any dividend on any Junior Shares (as defined below) or make any payment on account of, or set apart money for, a sinking or other analogous fund, for the purchase, redemption or other retirement of any Junior Shares or make any distribution with respect thereto (other than in Junior Shares); (b) purchase any shares of a Defaulted Series (except for a consideration payable in Junior Shares) or redeem fewer than all of the shares of the Defaulted Series outstanding;

or (c) permit any subsidiary of United to purchase any Junior Shares or permit any subsidiary to purchase fewer than all of the shares of the Defaulted Series then outstanding, unless, at the time of such dividend, payment, distribution, purchase or redemption, all accrued and unpaid dividends on shares of the Defaulted Series are contemporaneously paid in full in cash or additional shares of the Defaulted Series and all shares of the Defaulted Series which the Company so failed to redeem are contemporaneously redeemed.

United also may not take any of the actions specified in (a), (b) or (c) in the previous paragraph in respect of the Series B or Series C Preferred Stock in excess of $1 million for all such actions unless at the time such action is taken: (i) United has redeemed for cash all shares of Series B and Series C Preferred Stock, if any, which have been issued to the holders of Series B and Series C Preferred Stock, respectively, as in-kind dividends; (ii) United and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, have common equity computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles after giving effect to any purchases, redemptions, payments, distributions or disbursements under (a), (b) or (c) above, of at least $26 million; (iii) if any such purchases, redemptions, payments, distributions or disbursements specified in (a), (b) or (c) above are to be made after July 31, 1999, then all shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall have been redeemed or otherwise retired; and (iv) if any such purchases, redemptions, payments, distributions or disbursements specified in (a), (b) or (c) above are to be made on or after the dates required for redemptions of shares of Series C Preferred Stock specified below, then that portion of such Series C Preferred Stock so required to be redeemed as of such dates shall have been redeemed or otherwise retired. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, nothing in this paragraph limits United's obligation to make payments or disbursements for any amount it is obligated to pay under or pursuant to the Lender Warrants; and nothing in this paragraph limits United or its subsidiaries from re-purchasing Shares or options to purchase Shares held by any employee of United or its subsidiaries in connection with the termination of such employee's employment.

Redemption. United will be required to redeem all shares of the Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock on July 31, 1999 and to redeem the Series C Preferred Stock on January 31, 2002 each for the sum of $1,000 per share plus the aggregate of accrued and unpaid dividends to such date, subject to appropriate adjustments in the event of a stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction (the "Redemption Price"), subject as described below under "Description of Capital Stock-- Capital Stock of United -- Dividend and Redemption Restrictions." The Series C Preferred Stock redemptions will be required to be made in four quarterly installments on April 30, 2001, July 31, 2001, October 31, 2001 and January 31, 2002.

In the event of a Cash-Out Event (as hereinafter defined) and, in such event, at the request of a holder of Merger Preferred Stock, United will be required to redeem all of such holder's shares of preferred stock then outstanding at the Redemption Price, subject as described below under "Description of Capital Stock -- Capital Stock of United -- Dividend and Redemption Restrictions." If pursuant to the sale or Change in Control (as hereinafter defined) of United, the holders of Shares receive cash, Shares or common stock or other securities of any corporation that is the successor to substantially all of the business or assets of United or the ultimate parent of such successor which is (or will, upon distribution thereof, be) listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, or approved for quotation on the Nasdaq National Market ("Marketable Securities") or a combination thereof, then, United may at its option and in lieu of the cash redemption described in the previous sentence, redeem the Merger Preferred Stock by converting each share into cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, in the same proportions received by the holders of Shares, the value of which shall equal the Redemption Price. "Cash-Out Event" means the occurrence of a Business Sale, a Change in Control, a Qualified Public Offering or a Recapitalization. In the case of the Series C Preferred Stock, "Cash-Out Event" shall also include the expiration of the agreement between United (as successor to Associated) and Affiliated Computer Services, Inc. providing for the furnishing of information systems services for United (as successor to Associated), or the early termination of such agreement for any reason other than termination of such agreement by Affiliated Computer Services, Inc. For purposes of the foregoing, "Business Sale" means a transaction or a series of transactions, whether effected by sale or exchange of securities or assets, merger or consolidation, or otherwise, that results in the sale of United or its business to any person (i) who, immediately prior to the contemplated transaction, does not own in excess of 5.0% of the Shares on a fully diluted and converted basis (a "5.0% Owner"), (ii) who is not controlling, controlled by or under common control with United or any such 5.0% Owner and (iii) who is not the spouse or descendant of any such 5.0% Owner or a trust for the benefit of such 5.0% Owner or such other persons ("Independent Third Party") or group of Independent Third Parties, pursuant to which such Independent Third Party or group of Independent Third Parties would acquire (a) capital stock of United possessing the voting power under normal circumstances to elect a majority of the Board or (b) all or substantially all of United's assets determined on a consolidated basis; "Change in Control" means an occurrence by which Wingate Partners and its affiliates and Cumberland and its affiliates shall have collectively sold or otherwise disposed of and received the pecuniary benefit of 33 1/3% of the Shares legally or beneficially owned by them collectively as of January 31, 1992, subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of a stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction and excluding any sales or other dispositions made by any of them to employees of United or of any of its subsidiaries of up to 10.0% of such holdings; "Qualified Public Offering" means a sale in a public offering or series of public offerings, registered under the Securities Act, of Shares; provided, however, that such offering or series of offerings shall not be deemed to be a Qualified Public Offering unless such offering or offerings shall have resulted in (A)(i) public ownership of not less than 20.0% of the Shares of United on a fully-diluted basis (which such Shares are listed upon the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or are approved for quotation on the Nasdaq National Market), and (ii) such offering or offerings shall have resulted in receipt by United of aggregate cash proceeds (after deduction of underwriter discounts and the costs associated with such offering or offerings) of at least $37.5 million, or (B) the holders of Shares of United receive, as a result of such offering or offerings, cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof valued at not less than $1.0 million; and "Recapitalization" means a recapitalization of United pursuant to which the holders of Shares of United receive cash, securities (other than shares junior to the Series B or Series C Preferred Stock), property or other assets and such consideration is valued at not less than $1.0 million.

United may, at its option, redeem any portion or all of any series of the Merger Preferred Stock outstanding at the Redemption Price. Any such redemption of shares of Series A Preferred Stock must be made ratably among the holders of Series A Preferred Stock, and any redemption of shares of Series B Preferred Stock or Series C Preferred Stock must be made ratably among the holders of both Series B and Series C Preferred Stock.

Exchange Notes. Provided United has paid all accrued dividends on the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock, United may redeem all shares of Series A Preferred Stock then outstanding in exchange for subordinated notes that shall have a maturity date of July 31, 1999 and shall bear interest at the rate of 10.0% for interest paid in cash or 13.0% for interest paid in kind ("Series A Exchange Notes"). The Series A Exchange Notes issued to each holder shall be in an aggregate principal amount equal to the Redemption Price.

Provided United has redeemed any outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock and has paid all accrued dividends on the outstanding shares of Series B and Series C Preferred Stock, United may redeem all shares of Series B and Series C Preferred Stock in exchange for respective subordinated notes (the "Series B Exchange Notes" and the "Series C Exchange Notes," respectively). The Series B Exchange Notes will have a maturity date of July 31, 1999 and the Series C Exchange Notes will mature on January 31, 2002, with any payments on the Series C Exchange Notes to be in four equal installments on April 30, 2001, July 31, 2001, October 31, 2001, and January 31, 2002. Both Series B and Series C Exchange Notes shall bear interest at the rate of 11.0% for interest paid in cash or 12.0% for interest paid in kind. The Series B and Series C Exchange Notes issued to each holder shall be in an aggregate principal amount equal to the Redemption Price of the redeemed shares.

Payments on the Series A, Series B and Series C Exchange Notes will be subordinated to any obligations of United for borrowed money (including all amounts owing under the Guarantees and the New Credit Facilities) and, in the case only of the Series B and Series C Exchange Notes, will be subordinated to Series A Exchange Notes.

Voting Rights. Holders of shares of Merger Preferred Stock generally will have no voting rights. However, United shall not, without the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of at least 51.0% of all outstanding shares of a series of Merger Preferred Stock voting separately as a series (the "Affected Series") (a) amend any provision of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of United in any manner which adversely (and, in the case of the Series A Preferred Stock only, materially) affects the relative rights, preferences, qualifications, powers, limitations or restrictions of the Affected Series; (b) either (i) in the case of Series A Preferred Stock, increase the authorized number of shares of Preferred Stock, or authorize, issue or otherwise create securities convertible into any shares of capital stock of United other than Junior Shares, or (ii) in the case of Series B or Series C Preferred Stock, increase the authorized number of shares of capital stock of United, or authorize, issue or otherwise create securities convertible into any shares of capital stock of the corporation other than Series A (only for purposes of paying dividends in kind on Series A Preferred Stock), Series B or Series C Preferred Stock, Common Stock or Junior Shares; or (c) voluntarily effect any reclassification of the Affected Series.

Whenever dividends on any series of Merger Preferred Stock are in arrears in an amount equal to at least six quarterly dividends (an "Impaired Series"), (i) the number of members of the Board of Directors of United shall be increased by one for each Impaired Series and (ii) the holders of each Impaired Series (voting separately as a series) will have the exclusive right to vote for and elect one additional director of United. The right of the Impaired Series to vote for an additional director shall terminate when all accrued and unpaid dividends on the Impaired Series have been declared and paid in cash or in-kind or set apart for payment.

Liquidation Preferences. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of United, the holders of the Merger Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the Redemption Price of such shares held by them in preference to and in priority over any distributions upon Junior Shares. If the assets of United are not sufficient to pay in full the Redemption Price to holders of Series A Preferred Stock, the holders of all such shares shall share ratably (to the exclusion of any other holders of capital stock) in such distribution of assets. If the assets of United are not sufficient to pay in full the Redemption Price to holders of Series B and Series C Preferred Stock, after payment in full of the Redemption Price of the Series A Preferred Stock, the holders of all such shares shall share ratably (to the exclusion of any other holders of capital stock) in such distribution of assets.

"Junior Shares" means with respect to the priority of any class or series of Preferred Stock, shares of Common Stock or shares of any other series or class of Preferred Stock of United which are designated as junior to such series in United's certificate of incorporation or any amendment thereto, or in the resolution designating the class or series of such Preferred Stock and any warrants, options or other rights to acquire or purchase such securities. The shares of Series B and Series C Preferred Stock are Junior Shares in relation to the Series A Preferred Stock. Any shares of additional Preferred Stock, regardless of designation, shall be deemed Junior Shares in relation to the Series A, Series B and Series C Preferred Stock.

Dividend and Redemption Restrictions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no dividend payment or redemption may be made with respect to any Merger Preferred Stock if such payment or redemption would contravene the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Debt Agreements or any law or regulation. "Debt Agreements" is defined to mean the New Credit Facilities, the Indenture for the Notes and any agreements evidencing any renewal, extension, refinancing, refunding or replacement thereof.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NEW NOTES

The New Notes will be issued under an Indenture dated as of May 3, 1995 (the "Indenture") among the Company, United, as Guarantor, and The Bank of New York, as trustee (the "Trustee"), a copy of the form of which is available upon request to the Company. See "Available Information." The Old Notes were also issued pursuant to the Indenture. Upon the effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, the Indenture will be subject to and governed by the Trust Indenture Act. The following summary of the material provisions of the Indenture does not purport to be complete, and where reference is made to particular provisions of the Indenture, such provisions, including the definitions of certain terms, are qualified in their entirety by reference to all of the provisions of the Indenture and those terms made a part of the Indenture by the Trust Indenture Act. For definitions of certain capitalized terms used in the following summary, see "Description of the New Notes -- Certain Definitions." References in this "Description of the New Notes" to the Company or United are to United Stationers Supply Co. or United Stationers Inc., respectively, excluding any subsidiaries thereof, and their successors.

GENERAL

The Notes will mature on May 1, 2005, will be limited to $150,000,000 aggregate principal amount at any one time outstanding (including any New Notes that may be issued from time to time in exchange for the Old Notes as described under "The Exchange Offer") and will be unsecured senior subordinated obligations of the Company. Each Note will bear interest at the rate set forth on the cover page hereof from May 3, 1995 or from the most recent interest payment date to which interest has been paid, payable semi-annually on May 1 and November 1 in each year, commencing November 1, 1995, to the Person in whose name the Note (or any predecessor Note) is registered at the close of business on the April 15 or the October 15 next preceding such interest payment date. For a description of the circumstances under which the interest rate on the Old Notes may be increased from the rate set forth on the cover page of this Prospectus, see "The Exchange Offer -- Adjustment to Old Notes."

Principal of (and premium, if any, on) and interest on the Notes will be payable, and the Notes will be exchangeable and transferable, at the office or agency of the Company in the City of New York maintained for such purposes (which initially will be the office of the Trustee maintained at 101 Barclay Street, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10286 Attention: Corporate Trust Administration); provided, however, that payment of principal or interest may be made at the option of the Company by check mailed to the Person entitled thereto as shown on the security register. The Notes will be issued only in fully registered form without coupons, in denominations of $1,000 and any integral multiple thereof. No service charge will be made for any registration of transfer, exchange or redemption of Notes, except in certain circumstances for any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection therewith.

Initially, the Company was permitted to issue only the Old Notes; however, the Company may issue New Notes in exchange for a like principal amount of Old Notes in connection with the Exchange Offer. Upon any such exchange the Old Notes so exchanged shall be cancelled and shall no longer be deemed outstanding for any purpose. In no event shall the aggregate principal amount of Old Notes and New Notes outstanding exceed $150,000,000. The Old Notes and the New Notes shall be one class for all purposes under the Indenture, including, without limitation, amendments, waivers, redemptions, Change of Control Offers, and Offers, and for purposes of this "Description of the New Notes," all references herein to "Notes" shall be deemed to refer collectively to Old Notes and New Notes, unless the context otherwise requires.

OPTIONAL REDEMPTION

The Notes will be subject to redemption at any time on or after May 1, 2000, at the option of the Company, in whole or in part, on not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' prior notice in amounts of

$1,000 or an integral multiple thereof at the following redemption prices (expressed as percentages of the principal amount), if redeemed during the 12-month period beginning May 1 of the years indicated below:

YEAR	REDEMPTION PRICE

and thereafter at 100.0% of the principal amount, in each case together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date (subject to the right of holders of record on relevant record dates to receive interest due on relevant interest payment dates).

In addition, at any time or from time to time prior to May 1, 1998, the Company may redeem Notes having a principal amount of up to $50.0 million within 180 days following one or more Public Equity Offerings with the net proceeds of such offerings at a redemption price equal to 112.75% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption (subject to the right of holders of record on relevant record dates to receive interest due on relevant interest payment dates); provided that immediately after giving effect to each such redemption, at least $100.0 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes remain outstanding.

If less than all of the Notes are to be redeemed, the Trustee shall select the Notes or portions thereof to be redeemed pro rata, by lot or by any other method the Trustee shall deem fair and reasonable.

SINKING FUND

The Notes will not be entitled to the benefit of any sinking fund or other mandatory redemption obligation prior to maturity.

SUBORDINATION

The payment of the principal of (and premium, if any, on) and interest on, the Notes will be subordinated, as set forth in the Indenture, in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all Senior Indebtedness in cash or in any other form acceptable to the holders of Senior Indebtedness (or such payment shall be duly provided for to the satisfaction of the holders of the Senior Indebtedness). The Notes will be senior subordinated indebtedness of the Company ranking pari passu with all other existing and future senior subordinated indebtedness of the Company and senior to all existing and future Subordinated Indebtedness of the Company.

During the continuance of any default in the payment of any Senior Indebtedness beyond any applicable grace period, no payment (other than payments previously made pursuant to the provisions described under "Description of Notes -- Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance of Indenture") or distribution of any assets of the Company of any kind or character shall be made by the Company on account of principal of (and premium, if any, on) or interest on, the Notes or on account of the purchase, redemption, defeasance or other acquisition of the Notes (other than such payments or distributions as may be agreed to by the lenders under the Senior Bank Facility in accordance with the terms of the Senior Bank Facility) unless and until such default shall have been cured or waived or shall have ceased to exist or the Senior Indebtedness with respect to which such payment default shall have occurred shall have been discharged or paid in full in cash or in any other form acceptable to the holders of such Senior Indebtedness (or such payment shall be duly provided for to the satisfaction of the holders of the Senior Indebtedness), after which the Company shall resume making any and all required payments in respect of the Notes, including any missed payments.

During the continuance of any non-payment event of default with respect to any Designated Senior Indebtedness (as such event of default is defined in the instrument creating or evidencing such Designated Senior Indebtedness) pursuant to which the maturity thereof may be accelerated (a "Non-payment Default") and after receipt by the Trustee and the Company from a representative of the holders of such Designated Senior Indebtedness of written notice of such event of default, no payment (other than payments previously made pursuant to the provisions described under "Description of Notes -- Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance of Indenture") or distribution of any assets of the Company of any kind or character (other than such payments or distributions as may be agreed to by the holders of such Designated Senior Indebtedness in accordance with the terms of the agreement governing such Designated Senior Indebtedness) shall be made by the Company on account of any principal of (and premium, if any, on) or interest on the Notes or on account of the purchase, redemption, defeasance or other acquisition of the Notes for the period specified below (the "Payment Blockage Period").

The Payment Blockage Period shall commence upon the receipt of notice of the Non-payment Default by the Trustee from a Representative of the holder of any Designated Senior Indebtedness and shall end on the earliest of (i) the first date on which 179 days shall have elapsed since the receipt of such written notice, (ii) the date on which such Non-payment Default is cured, waived or ceases to exist or on which such Designated Senior Indebtedness is discharged or paid in full in cash or in any other manner acceptable to the holders of Designated Senior Indebtedness (as determined in accordance with the terms of the agreement governing such Designated Senior Indebtedness) (or the date on which payment shall be duly provided for to the satisfaction of the holders of such Designated Senior Indebtedness) or (iii) the date on which such Payment Blockage Period shall have been terminated by written notice to the Company or the Trustee from the Representative of, or the holders of at least a majority in principal amount of, the Designated Senior Indebtedness initiating such Payment Blockage Period, after which, in the case of clause (i), (ii) and (iii), the Company shall resume making any and all required payments in respect of the Notes, including any missed payments. In no event will a Payment Blockage Period extend beyond 179 days from the date of the receipt by the Company or the Trustee of the notice initiating such Payment Blockage Period (such 179-day period referred to as the "Initial Period"). Any number of notices of Non-payment Defaults may be given during the Initial Period; provided that during any 365 consecutive day period, only one such period during which payment of principal of, or interest on, the Notes may not be made may be commenced, and the duration of such period may not exceed 179 days. No Non-payment Default with respect to Designated Senior Indebtedness which existed or was continuing on the date of the commencement of any Payment Blockage Period will be, or can be, made the basis for the commencement of a second Payment Blockage Period, whether or not within a period of 365 consecutive days, unless such event of default has been cured or waived for a period of not less than 90 consecutive days.

If the Company fails to make any payment on the Notes when due or within any applicable grace period, whether or not on account of the subordination provisions referred to above, such failure would constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture and would enable the holders of the Notes to accelerate the maturity thereof. See "Description of the New Notes -- Events of Default."

The Indenture provides that, in the event of any insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization case or proceeding, or any receivership, liquidation, or other similar case or proceeding, relative to the Company or to its creditors, as such, or to its assets, or any liquidation, dissolution or other winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any assignment for the benefit of creditors or any other marshalling of assets or liabilities of the Company, all Senior Indebtedness must be paid in full in cash or in any other form acceptable to the holders of Senior Indebtedness (or such payment shall be duly provided for to the satisfaction of the holders of Senior Indebtedness), before any payment or distribution is made on account of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Notes.

By reason of such subordination, in the event of liquidation or insolvency, creditors of the Company who are holders of Senior Indebtedness may recover more, ratably, than the holders of the Notes, and funds which would be otherwise payable to the holders of the Notes will be paid to the holders of the Senior Indebtedness to the extent necessary to pay the Senior Indebtedness in full in cash or in any other form acceptable to the holders of Senior Indebtedness, and the Company may be unable to meet its obligations fully with respect to the Notes.

"Senior Indebtedness" means the principal of, premium, if any, and interest (including interest accruing after the filing of a petition initiating any proceeding under any state, federal or foreign bankruptcy law whether or not allowable as a claim in such proceeding) on any Indebtedness of the Company (except as otherwise provided in this definition), whether outstanding on the Closing Date or thereafter created, incurred or assumed, unless, in the case of any particular Indebtedness, the instrument creating or evidencing the same or pursuant to which the same is outstanding expressly provides that such Indebtedness shall not be senior in right of payment to the Notes. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, "Senior Indebtedness" shall include the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest (including interest accruing after the filing of a petition initiating any proceeding under any state, federal or foreign bankruptcy laws whether or not allowable as a claim in such proceeding) and all other obligations of every nature of the Company from time to time owed under the Senior Bank Facility (including, without limitation, agency fees, commitment fees and letter of credit fees); provided, however, that any Indebtedness under any refinancing, refunding or replacement of the Senior Bank Facility shall not constitute Senior Indebtedness to the extent that the Indebtedness thereunder is by its express terms subordinate to any other Indebtedness of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, "Senior Indebtedness" shall not include any of the following (whether or not constituting Indebtedness under the Indenture): (i) Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes, (ii) Indebtedness that, by its express terms, is subordinate or junior in right of payment to any Indebtedness of the Company, (iii) Indebtedness which, when incurred and without respect to any election under Section 1111(b) of Title 11 United States Code, is without recourse to the Company, (iv) Indebtedness which is represented by Redeemable Capital Stock, (v) any liability for foreign, federal, state, local or other taxes owed or owing by the Company, (vi) Indebtedness of the Company to a Subsidiary, and (vii) any trade payables.

"Designated Senior Indebtedness" means (i) all Senior Indebtedness under the Senior Bank Facility; and (ii) any other Senior Indebtedness outstanding in a principal amount of at least $50 million, and which is specifically designated by the Company in the agreement governing or the instrument evidencing such Senior Indebtedness as "Designated Senior Indebtedness."

GUARANTEES

Payment of the Notes is guaranteed by United on a senior subordinated basis and will be guaranteed on a senior subordinated basis by any newly formed domestic Restricted Subsidiary of the Company created or acquired after the Closing Date. The Company has no present intention to form any domestic Restricted Subsidiary.

Each Guarantee of the Notes will be an unsecured senior subordinated obligation of the Guarantor, ranking pari passu with, or senior in right of payment to, all other existing and future indebtedness of such Guarantor that is expressly subordinated to Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of such Guarantor. The Indebtedness of any Guarantor evidenced by its Guarantee will be subordinated to Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of such Guarantor to the same extent as the Notes are subordinated to Senior Indebtedness, and during any period when payment on the Notes is prohibited pursuant to the subordination provisions of the Indenture, payment on any Guarantee will be similarly prohibited.

"Senior Guarantor Indebtedness" means, with respect to any Guarantor, the principal of, premium, if any, and interest (including interest accruing after the filing of a petition initiating any proceeding under any state, federal or foreign bankruptcy laws whether or not allowable as a claim in such proceeding) on any Indebtedness of such Guarantor (except as otherwise provided in this definition), whether outstanding on the Closing Date or thereafter created, incurred or assumed, unless, in the case of any particular Indebtedness, the instrument creating or evidencing the same or pursuant to which the same is outstanding expressly provides that such Indebtedness shall not be senior in right of payment to such Guarantor's Guarantee of the Notes. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, "Senior Guarantor Indebtedness" shall include the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest (including interest accruing after the filing of a petition initiating any proceeding under any state, federal or foreign bankruptcy laws whether or not allowable as a claim in such proceeding) and all other obligations of every nature of any Guarantor from time to time owed under the Senior Bank Facility; provided, however, that any Indebtedness under any refinancing, refunding or replacement of the Senior Bank Facility shall not constitute Senior Guarantor Indebtedness to the extent that the Indebtedness thereunder is by its express terms subordinate to any other Indebtedness of any Guarantor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, "Senior Guarantor Indebtedness" shall not include any of the following (whether or not constituting Indebtedness under the Indenture): (i) Indebtedness evidenced by the Guarantees of the Notes, (ii) Indebtedness that, by its express terms, is subordinate or junior in right of payment to any Indebtedness of any Guarantor, (iii) Indebtedness which when incurred and without respect to any election under Section 1111(b) of Title 11 United States Code, is without recourse to any Guarantor, (iv) Indebtedness which is represented by Redeemable Capital Stock, (v) any liability for foreign, federal, state, local or other taxes owed or owing by any Guarantor, (vi) Indebtedness of any Guarantor to a Subsidiary, and (vii) any trade payables.

"Designated Senior Guarantor Indebtedness" means (i) all Senior Guarantor Indebtedness under the Senior Bank Facility; and (ii) any other Senior Guarantor Indebtedness outstanding in a principal amount of at least $50 million, and which is specifically designated by the Guarantor in the agreement governing or the instrument evidencing such Senior Guarantor Indebtedness as "Designated Senior Guarantor Indebtedness."

Each Guarantor shall not, and (except in the case of United) the Company will not permit any Guarantor to, in a single transaction or through a series of related transactions, merge or consolidate with or into any other corporation (other than the Company or any Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary) or other entity, sell, assign, convey, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of such Guarantor's properties and assets on a Consolidated basis to any entity (other than the Company or any Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary) unless at the time and after giving effect thereto: (i) either (1) such Guarantor shall be the continuing corporation or partnership or (2) the entity (if other than such Guarantor) formed by such consolidation or into which such Guarantor is merged or the entity which acquires by sale, assignment, conveyance, transfer, lease or disposition the properties and assets of such Guarantor shall be a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia and shall expressly assume by a supplemental indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee, all the obligations of such Guarantor under its Guarantee of the Notes and the Indenture; (ii) immediately before and immediately after giving effect to such transaction or transactions, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing; and (iii) such Guarantor shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an opinion of counsel in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, each stating that such consolidation, merger, sale, assignment, conveyance, transfer, lease or disposition and such supplemental indenture comply with the Indenture, and thereafter all obligations of the predecessor shall terminate; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to any Guarantor (other than United) if (A) immediately after such merger, consolidation, sale, assignment, conveyance, transfer, lease or other disposition, the Person surviving such merger or consolidation or the assignee, conveyee, transferee, lessee or recipient of such other disposition is not a Subsidiary and (B) the "Limitation on Sale of Assets" covenant of the Indenture is complied with in connection with such transaction.

is not the continuing corporation, the successor Person formed or remaining shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, such Guarantor and the Guarantor will be discharged from all obligations and covenants under the Indenture and its Guarantee.

After giving pro forma balance sheet effect to the Acquisition and the refinancing of certain debt and repurchase of the Series B Preferred Stock, including accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, assumed to be effected with the proceeds of the Old Notes as if all such transactions had occurred on March 31, 1995, there would have been approximately $394.2 million of Senior Indebtedness of the Company (all of which would have been Designated Senior Indebtedness) and approximately $394.2 million of Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of United (all of which would have been Designated Senior Guarantor Indebtedness) outstanding on such date, substantially all of which represents Indebtedness or guarantees of Indebtedness under the New Credit Facilities which is secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company and United, respectively; in addition, after taking into account approximately $68.1 million of outstanding letters of credit, there would have been approximately $32.8 million available to be drawn by the Company as secured Senior Indebtedness under the revolving credit portion of the New Credit Facilities (all of which would have been Designated Senior Indebtedness), which amount would have been secured Senior Guarantor Indebtedness of United (all of which would have been Designated Senior Guarantor Indebtedness); and there would have been approximately $264.1 million of Indebtedness of the Company that would have been pari passu to the New Notes. See "Risk Factors -- Subordination" and "-- Limited Practical Value of Guarantees by United," "Capitalization" and "Pro Forma Combined Financial Information."

CERTAIN COVENANTS

The Indenture contains, among others, the covenants described below.

Limitation on Incurrence of Indebtedness. (a) The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, create, issue, assume, incur, guarantee, or otherwise in any manner become directly or indirectly liable for (collectively, "incur") any Indebtedness (including any Acquired Indebtedness); provided that the Company may incur Indebtedness (including any Acquired Indebtedness) if (A) the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio of the Company for the four full fiscal quarters immediately preceding the incurrence of such Indebtedness taken as one period (and after giving pro forma effect to (i) if the computation of the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is made on any date prior to the end of the four full fiscal quarters immediately following the effective date of the Merger, the consummation of the Merger and the financing related thereto (but excluding any anticipated savings, whether or not related thereto), including the issuance of the Notes as though they had been issued and outstanding at the effective time of the Merger and the incurrence of indebtedness under the Senior Bank Facility and, in each case, the application of the proceeds thereof, as though such transaction had occurred on the first day of the four full fiscal quarters commencing immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger, (ii) the incurrence of such Indebtedness and the application of the net proceeds therefrom, including to refinance other Indebtedness, as if such Indebtedness was incurred, and the application of such proceeds occurred, at the beginning of such four-quarter period; (iii) the incurrence, repayment or retirement of any other Indebtedness by the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries since the first day of such four-quarter period as if such Indebtedness was incurred, repaid or retired at the beginning of such four-quarter period (except that, in making such computation, the amount of Indebtedness outstanding under any revolving credit facility shall be computed based upon the average daily balance of such Indebtedness during such four-quarter period); (iv) in the case of Acquired Indebtedness, the related acquisition as if such acquisition occurred at the beginning of such four-quarter period; and (v) any acquisition or disposition by the Company or its Restricted Subsidiaries of any company or any business or any assets out of the ordinary course of business, whether by merger, stock purchase or sale or asset purchase or sale, as if such acquisition or disposition, as the case may be, occurred at the beginning of such four-quarter period, and any related incurrence or repayment of Indebtedness, in each case since the first day of such four-quarter period, assuming such acquisition or disposition had been consummated on the first day of such four-quarter period) is (x) for the period from the Closing Date through May 3, 1998 at least equal to 2.00:1.00 and (y) thereafter at least equal to 2.25:1.00 and (B) if such Indebtedness is Subordinated Indebtedness, such Indebtedness shall have an Average Life to Stated Maturity longer than the Average Life to Stated Maturity of the Notes and a final Stated Maturity of principal later than the final Stated Maturity of principal of the Notes.

(b) The foregoing limitation will not apply to the incurrence of any of the following (collectively, "Permitted Indebtedness"):

(i) Indebtedness of the Company (x) outstanding at any time in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed an amount equal to $200 million minus all principal amounts actually repaid under the term loan portion of the Senior Bank Facility, including any such amount repaid as provided under the "Limitation on Sale of Assets" covenant described below, and (y) outstanding at any time in an aggregate amount equal to the greater of (I) the Borrowing Base and (II) $300 million;

(ii) subject to the "Limitation on Guarantees of Indebtedness" covenant, Guarantees by Restricted Subsidiaries of Senior Indebtedness of the Company; provided that such Indebtedness of the Company is incurred in compliance with the provisions of the Indenture;

(iii) Indebtedness of the Company pursuant to the Notes and Indebtedness of any Guarantor pursuant to its Guarantee of the Notes;

(iv) Indebtedness of the Company outstanding on the Closing Date;

(v) Indebtedness of the Company owing to a Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary, provided that any such Indebtedness (x) is made pursuant to an intercompany note in the form attached to the Indenture and (y) is subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment and performance of the Company's obligations under the Notes, if applicable; provided further that (A) any disposition, pledge or transfer of any such Indebtedness to a Person (other than a disposition, pledge or transfer to a Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary or a pledge to or for the benefit of any holder of Senior Indebtedness) or (B) any transaction pursuant to which such Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary ceases to be a Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary shall be deemed to be an incurrence of such Indebtedness by the Company not permitted by this clause (v);

(vi) Indebtedness of a Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary owing to the Company or to a Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary; provided that, with respect to Indebtedness owing to any Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary, (x) any such Indebtedness is made pursuant to an intercompany note in the form attached to the Indenture and (y) any such Indebtedness shall be subordinated in right of payment to the payment and performance of such Subsidiary's obligations under its Guarantee of the Notes, if applicable; provided further that (A) any disposition, pledge or transfer of any such Indebtedness to a Person (other than a disposition, pledge or transfer to the Company or a Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary or a pledge to or for the benefit of any holder of Senior Indebtedness) shall be deemed to be an incurrence of such Indebtedness by the obligor not permitted by this clause (vi), and (B) any transaction pursuant to which any Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary, which has Indebtedness owing to the Company or any other Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary, ceases to be a Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary shall be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness by such Subsidiary that is not permitted by this clause (vi);

(vii) any renewals, extensions, substitutions, refundings, refinancings or replacements (collectively, a "refinancing") of any Indebtedness described in clauses (iii) and (iv) of this paragraph (b) (including any successive refinancings), so long as the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness represented thereby is not increased by such refinancing, except by an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the stated amount of any premium, interest or other payment required to be paid in connection with such a refinancing pursuant to the terms of the Indebtedness being refinanced or (y) the amount of premium, interest or other payment actually paid at such time to refinance the Indebtedness, plus, in either case, the amount of expenses incurred in connection with such refinancing; provided that in the case of Pari Passu Indebtedness or Subordinated Indebtedness, (A) such new Indebtedness does not have a shorter Average Life to Stated Maturity or a final Stated Maturity of principal earlier than the Indebtedness being refinanced, (B) in the case of Pari Passu Indebtedness, such new Indebtedness is pari passu with, or subordinated to, the Notes and (C) in the case of Subordinated

Indebtedness, such new Indebtedness is subordinated to the Notes at least to the same extent as the Indebtedness being refinanced; and provided further that in no event may Indebtedness of the Company be refinanced with Indebtedness of any Restricted Subsidiary pursuant to this clause (vii);

(viii) Indebtedness of the Company consisting of Capitalized Lease Obligations or purchase money obligations, in addition to that described in clauses (i) through (vii) of this paragraph (b), not to exceed $10 million outstanding at any one time in the aggregate;

(ix) Indebtedness of the Company (whether or not constituting purchase money obligations or Capitalized Lease Obligations) not to exceed $20 million at any one time outstanding; and

(x) Indebtedness of the Company consisting of bona fide Interest Rate Agreements designed to protect the Company from, or control the exposure of the Company to, fluctuations in interest rates in respect of Indebtedness.

Limitation on Restricted Payments. (a) The Company will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly:

(i) declare or pay any dividend on, or make any distribution to holders of, any shares of its Capital Stock (other than dividends or distributions payable solely in shares of its Qualified Capital Stock or in options, warrants or other rights to acquire such Qualified Capital Stock and other than dividends and distributions paid to the Company);

(ii) purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire or retire for value, directly or indirectly, any shares of the Capital Stock of United, the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than any Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary) or options, warrants or other rights to acquire such Capital Stock;

(iii) make any principal payment on, or repurchase, redeem, defease, retire or otherwise acquire for value, prior to the relevant scheduled principal payment, sinking fund or maturity, any Subordinated Indebtedness; or

(iv) make any Investment in any Person, including, without limitation, any Unrestricted Subsidiary (other than any Permitted Investments)

(the foregoing actions described in clauses (i) through (iv), collectively, "Restricted Payments") unless after giving effect to the proposed Restricted Payment (the amount of any such Restricted Payment, if other than cash, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company, such determination to be conclusive and evidenced by a Board Resolution), (A) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and such Restricted Payment shall not cause or constitute any of the foregoing; (B) immediately before and immediately after giving effect to such transaction on a pro forma basis, the Company could incur $1.00 of additional Indebtedness (other than Permitted Indebtedness) under the "Limitation on Indebtedness" covenant; and (C) the aggregate amount of all such Restricted Payments declared or made after the Closing Date (including such Restricted Payment) does not exceed the sum of:

(I) 50% of the aggregate cumulative Consolidated Net Income (or, if such aggregate cumulative Consolidated Net Income shall be a loss, minus 100% of such loss) of the Company accrued on a cumulative basis during the period (taken as one accounting period) beginning on the date of the Merger and ending on the last day of the Company's last fiscal quarter ending prior to the date of the Restricted Payment;

(II) the aggregate Net Cash Proceeds received after the Closing Date by the Company from the issuance or sale (other than to any of its Subsidiaries) of its shares of Qualified Capital Stock or any options, warrants or rights to purchase such shares of Qualified Capital Stock (less the value of any equity security referred to (and determined in accordance with) the parenthetical in clause (a)(i) of the definition of Consolidated Interest Expense);

(III) the aggregate Net Cash Proceeds received after the Closing Date by the Company (other than from any of its Subsidiaries) upon the exercise of any options, warrants or rights to purchase shares of Qualified Capital Stock of the Company;

(IV) the aggregate Net Cash Proceeds received after the Closing Date by the Company from Indebtedness of the Company or Redeemable Capital Stock of the Company that has been converted into or exchanged for Qualified Capital Stock of the Company (or options, warrants or rights to purchase such Qualified Capital Stock), to the extent such Indebtedness of the Company or Redeemable Capital Stock of the Company was originally incurred or issued for cash, plus the aggregate Net Cash Proceeds received by the Company at the time of such conversion or exchange;

(V) without duplication of any of the foregoing, 100% of the aggregate Net Cash Proceeds received by the Company as a capital contribution from United; plus

(VI) to the extent not included in Consolidated Net Income, the net reduction (received by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary in cash) in Investments (other than Permitted Investments) made by the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries since the Closing Date, not to exceed, in the case of any Investments in any Person, the amount of Investments (other than Permitted Investments) made by the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries in such Person since the Closing Date.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, and in the case of clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi), (vii), (viii) and (ix) below, so long as there is no Default or Event of Default continuing, the foregoing provisions shall not prohibit the following actions:

(i) the payment of any dividend within 60 days after the date of declaration thereof, if at such date of declaration such payment would be permitted by the provisions of paragraph (a) of this "Limitation on Restricted Payments" covenant (such payment shall be deemed to have been paid on such date of declaration for purposes of the calculation required by paragraph (a) of this "Limitation on Restricted Payments" covenant);

(ii) the repurchase, redemption, or other acquisition or retirement of any shares of any class of Capital Stock of the Company or warrants, options or other rights to acquire such stock in exchange for, or out of the Net Cash Proceeds of a substantially concurrent issue and sale (other than to a Subsidiary) for cash of, any Qualified Capital Stock of the Company or warrants, options or other rights to acquire such stock;

(iii) any repurchase, redemption, defeasance, retirement, refinancing or acquisition for value or payment of principal of any Subordinated Indebtedness in exchange for, or out of the net proceeds of a substantially concurrent issuance and sale (other than to a Subsidiary) for cash of, any Qualified Capital Stock of the Company or warrants, options or other rights to acquire such stock;

(iv) the repurchase, redemption, defeasance, retirement or other acquisition for value or payment of principal of any Subordinated Indebtedness through the issuance of Indebtedness meeting the requirements of clause (vii) of paragraph (b) of the "Limitation on Indebtedness" covenant;

(v) the repurchase, redemption, acquisition or retirement of shares of Capital Stock of United or options, warrants or other rights to purchase such shares held by officers or employees or former officers or employees of United and the Subsidiaries (or their estates or beneficiaries), upon death, disability, retirement, or termination of employment, pursuant to the terms of any employee stock option or stock purchase plan or agreement under which such shares were acquired; provided that the aggregate consideration paid for all such shares following the Closing Date does not exceed $600,000 in any fiscal year of the Company; and provided further that the amount by which $600,000 exceeds the amount so used in any fiscal year of the Company shall be available to be so used in subsequent fiscal years of the Company, notwithstanding the immediately preceding proviso;

(vi) payments to United, to the extent used by United to pay its operating and administrative expenses including, without limitation, directors' fees, legal and audit expenses, Commission compliance expenses and corporate franchise and other taxes, not to exceed $500,000 in any fiscal year of the Company;

(vii) payments to United, not to exceed $250,000 in the aggregate after the Closing Date, to the extent used by United to make cash payments to holders of its Capital Stock in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares of Capital Stock and to redeem or repurchase stock purchase or similar rights issued as a shareholder rights device;

(viii) payments to United of up to $1,000,000 in any fiscal year of the Company, to the extent used by United to satisfy its payment obligations under the Management Services Agreements; and

(ix) the payment of dividends or the making of distributions to United, within 30 days of the Closing Date, to the extent that United, within such 30 days, uses such dividends and distributions to redeem or repurchase all or any portion of United's Series B Preferred Stock that is outstanding on the Closing Date (plus any shares of Series B Preferred Stock issued as dividends on such outstanding shares after the Closing Date and prior to such redemption or repurchase); and the purchase by the Company of all or any portion of United's Series B Preferred Stock that is outstanding on the Closing Date (plus any shares of Series B Preferred Stock issued as dividends on such outstanding shares after the Closing Date and prior to such purchase), within 30 days of the Closing Date; provided that the aggregate amount of all such payments by the Company under this clause (ix) shall not exceed $7.0 million.

The actions described in clauses (i) through (iii) and clauses (v) through (vii) of this paragraph (b) shall be Restricted Payments that shall be permitted to be taken in accordance with this paragraph (b) but shall reduce the amount that would otherwise be available for Restricted Payments under clause (C) of paragraph (a) of this "Limitation on Restricted Payments" covenant (provided that any dividend paid pursuant to clause (i) of this paragraph (b) shall reduce the amount that would otherwise be available under clause (C) of paragraph (a) of this "Limitation on Restricted Payments" covenant when declared, but not also when paid pursuant to such clause (i)) and the actions described in clauses (iv), (viii) and (ix) of this paragraph (b) shall be permitted to be taken in accordance with this paragraph and shall not reduce the amount that would otherwise be available for Restricted Payments under clause (C) of paragraph (a).

Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates. The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, enter into or suffer to exist any transaction or series of related transactions (including, without limitation, the sale, purchase, exchange or lease of assets or property or the rendering of any services) with any Affiliate of the Company (other than a Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary of the Company) unless (i) such transaction or series of transactions is in writing on terms that are no less favorable to the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, than would be available in a comparable transaction in arm's-length dealings with an unrelated third party, (ii) with respect to any such transaction or series of transactions involving aggregate payments in excess of $1.0 million, the Company delivers an officers' certificate to the Trustee certifying that such transaction or series of related transactions complies with clause (i) above and such transaction or series of related transactions has been approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, and (iii) with respect to a transaction or series of related transactions involving aggregate value in excess of $5.0 million, the Company delivers to the Trustee an opinion of an independent investment banking firm of national standing stating that the transaction or series of transactions is fair to the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary from a financial point of view.

The foregoing shall not apply to the performance of obligations under the Management Service Agreements and the Employment Contracts, in each case as in effect on the Closing Date.

Limitation on Senior Subordinated Indebtedness. The Company and each Guarantor will not, directly or indirectly, incur or otherwise permit to exist any Indebtedness that is subordinate in right of payment to any Indebtedness of the Company or such Guarantor, as the case may be, unless such Indebtedness is also pari passu with the Notes or the Guarantee of the Notes by such Guarantor, as the case may be, or subordinate in right of payment to the Notes or such Guarantee of the Notes, as the case may be, to at least the same extent as the Notes or such Guarantee are subordinate in right of payment to Senior Indebtedness or Senior Guarantor Indebtedness, as the case may be, as set forth in the Indenture.

Limitation on Liens. The Company will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien of any kind upon any of its property or assets (including any shares of Capital Stock or Indebtedness of any Restricted Subsidiary), owned on the Closing Date or acquired after the Closing Date, or any income or profits therefrom, except if the Notes (or the Guarantee of the Notes, in the case of Liens on properties or assets of a Restricted Subsidiary that is a Guarantor) and all other amounts due under the Indenture are directly secured equally and ratably with (or prior to in the case of Liens with respect to Subordinated Indebtedness) the obligation or liability secured by such Lien, excluding, however, from the operation of the foregoing any of the following:

(a) any Lien existing as of the Closing Date;

(b) any Lien arising by reason of (i) any judgment, decree or order of any court, so long as such Lien is adequately bonded and any appropriate legal proceedings which may have been duly initiated for the review of such judgment, decree or order shall not have been finally terminated or the period within which such proceedings may be initiated shall not have expired; (ii) taxes, assessments or other governmental charges not yet delinquent or which are being contested in good faith; (iii) security for payment of workers' compensation or other insurance; (iv) good faith deposits in connection with tenders, leases or contracts (other than contracts for the payment of money); (v) zoning restrictions, easements, licenses, reservations, provisions, covenants, conditions, waivers, restrictions on the use of property or minor irregularities of title (and with respect to leasehold interests, mortgages, obligations, liens and other encumbrances incurred, created, assumed or permitted to exist and arising by, through or under a landlord or owner of the leased property, with or without consent of the lessee), none of which materially impairs the use of any property or assets material to the operation of the business of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary or the value of such property or assets for the purpose of such business; (vi) deposits to secure public or statutory obligations, or in lieu of surety or appeal bonds with respect to matters not yet finally determined and being contested in good faith by negotiations or by appropriate proceedings which suspend the collection thereof; or (vii) operation of law in favor of mechanics, materialmen, laborers, employees or suppliers, incurred in the ordinary course of business for sums which are not yet delinquent or are being contested in good faith by negotiations or by appropriate proceedings which suspend the collection thereof;

(c) any Lien now or hereafter existing on property of the Company or any Guarantor securing Senior Indebtedness or Senior Guarantor Indebtedness, as the case may be, of such Person;

(d) any Lien securing Acquired Indebtedness created prior to (and not created in connection with, or in contemplation of) the incurrence of such Indebtedness by the Company, which Indebtedness is permitted under the "Limitation on Indebtedness" covenant; provided that any such Lien only extends to the assets that were subject to such Lien securing such Acquired Indebtedness prior to the related acquisition; and

(e) any extension, renewal, refinancing or replacement, in whole or in part, of any Lien described in the foregoing clauses (a) through (d) so long as the amount of property or assets subject to such Lien is not increased thereby.

Limitation on Sale of Assets. (a) The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, consummate an Asset Sale unless (i) at least 75% of the proceeds from such Asset Sale are received in cash and (ii) the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary receives consideration at the time of such Asset Sale at least equal to the Fair Market Value of the shares or assets sold.

(b) If all or a portion of the Net Cash Proceeds of any Asset Sale is not applied to repay permanently any Senior Indebtedness or Senior Guarantor Indebtedness then outstanding as required by the terms thereof, and the Company determines not to apply such Net Cash Proceeds to the prepayment of such Senior Indebtedness or Senior Guarantor Indebtedness or if no such Senior Indebtedness or Senior Guarantor Indebtedness is then outstanding, then the Company may, within 12 months of the Asset Sale, invest (or enter into a written, legally binding commitment to invest, provided that the investment provided for in such commitment is actually made within 24 months of the Asset Sale) the Net Cash Proceeds in other properties and assets that will be used in the businesses of the Company existing on the Closing Date or in any company having such properties and assets. The amount of such Net Cash Proceeds neither used to permanently repay or prepay Senior Indebtedness or Senior Guarantor Indebtedness nor used or invested as set forth in this paragraph (b) constitutes "Excess Proceeds."

(c) When the aggregate amount of Excess Proceeds equals $10.0 million or more, the Company shall, within 15 Business Days: make an offer (an "Offer") to purchase, for cash, at 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the repurchase date (the "Repurchase Date"), in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Indenture the maximum principal amount (expressed as a multiple of $1,000) of Notes that may be purchased out of an amount (the "Note Amount") equal to the product of such Excess Proceeds multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the outstanding principal amount of the Notes, and the denominator of which is the sum of the outstanding principal amount of the Notes and any Pari Passu Indebtedness that is required to be repurchased under the instrument governing such Pari Passu Indebtedness and (ii) to the extent required by such Pari Passu Indebtedness, the Company shall make an offer to purchase or, if required by the terms of such Pari Passu Indebtedness, otherwise repurchase or redeem Pari Passu Indebtedness (a "Pari Passu Repayment") in an amount (the "Pari Passu Debt Amount") equal to the excess of the Excess Proceeds over the Note Amount; provided that in no event shall the Pari Passu Debt Amount exceed the principal amount of such Pari Passu Indebtedness plus the amount of any premium, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest required to be paid to repurchase such Pari Passu Indebtedness. To the extent that the aggregate principal amount of and accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer is less than the Note Amount relating thereto or the aggregate amount of Pari Passu Indebtedness that is purchased is less than the Pari Passu Debt Amount, the Company may use such amounts not necessary to purchase the tendered Notes and the Pari Passu Indebtedness required to be purchased for any purpose not prohibited by the Indenture. Upon completion of the purchase of all the Notes tendered pursuant to an Offer and the purchase of the Pari Passu Indebtedness pursuant to a Pari Passu Repayment, the amount of Excess Proceeds, if any, shall be reset at zero.

The Company will comply with the applicable tender offer rules, including Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act, and any other applicable securities laws and regulations in connection with an Offer.

Limitation on Issuances of Guarantees of Indebtedness. (a) The Company will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to incur any Guaranteed Debt, other than Guaranteed Debt in respect of Senior Indebtedness of the Company; provided that, concurrently with the incurrence of such Guaranteed Debt by any Restricted Subsidiary, the Restricted Subsidiary incurring such Guaranteed Debt (if it is not a Guarantor) shall execute a supplemental indenture setting forth such Restricted Subsidiary's senior subordinated guarantee of the Notes, such guarantee to be on the same terms as United's Guarantee of the Notes. Neither the Company nor any Guarantor shall be required to make a notation on the Notes or the Guarantees to reflect such Guarantee. In connection with such Guarantee of the Notes, such Restricted Subsidiary shall waive, and agree that it will not in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any rights or reimbursement, indemnity or subrogation or any other rights against the Company or any Guarantor as a result of any payment by such Restricted Subsidiary with respect to such Guaranteed Debt.

(b) United will not incur any Guaranteed Debt with respect to any Pari Passu Indebtedness or Subordinated Indebtedness unless such Guaranteed Debt is subordinated (at least to the extent that Notes are subordinated in right of payment to Senior Indebtedness) in right of payment to (or, in the case of Guaranteed Debt with respect to Pari Passu Indebtedness, is pari passu in right of payment with) United's Guarantee of the Notes.

(c) The Company will cause each of its domestic Restricted Subsidiaries, other than the Joint Venture, promptly upon becoming a Restricted Subsidiary, to execute a supplemental indenture providing for a Guarantee of the Notes on the same terms as United's Guarantee of the Notes, including, without limitation, the waiver and agreement referred to in the last sentence of paragraph (a) above. Neither the Company nor any Guarantor shall be required to make a notation on the Notes or the Guarantees to reflect such Guarantee.

Limitation on Subsidiary Capital Stock. The Company will not transfer, and will not permit the transfer or issuance of, any Capital Stock of any Restricted Subsidiary (including options, warrants or other rights to purchase shares of such Capital Stock) except for (i) Capital Stock issued to and held by the Company or a Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary, (ii) Capital Stock issued by a Person prior to the time (A) such Person becomes a Restricted Subsidiary, (B) such Person merges with or into a Restricted Subsidiary or (C) a Restricted Subsidiary merges with or into such Person; provided that such Capital Stock was not issued or incurred by such Person in anticipation of the type of transaction contemplated by subclause (A), (B) or (C), (iii) the transfer of all of the Capital Stock of a Restricted Subsidiary or (iv) the issuance or transfer of directors' qualifying shares or a de minimis number of shares required to be held by foreign nationals, in each case to the extent required by applicable law. The foregoing shall not prohibit the pledge of any shares of Capital Stock permitted under the "Limitation on Liens" covenant.

Limitation on Dividends and Other Payment Restrictions Affecting Restricted Subsidiaries. The Company will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, create or otherwise cause or suffer to exist or become effective any encumbrance or restriction on the ability of any Restricted Subsidiary to (i) pay dividends, in cash or otherwise, or make any other distribution on or in respect of its Capital Stock, (ii) pay any Indebtedness owed to the Company or any other Restricted Subsidiary, (iii) make any loans or advances to, or Investments in, the Company or any other Restricted Subsidiary or (iv) transfer any of its properties or assets to the Company or any other Restricted Subsidiary, except in any such case (1) any encumbrance or restriction pursuant to an agreement in effect on the Closing Date (2) any encumbrance or restriction, with respect to a Person that becomes a Subsidiary after the Closing Date, in existence at the time such Person becomes a Subsidiary and not incurred in connection with, or in contemplation of, such Person becoming a Subsidiary; (3) any encumbrance or restriction existing under any agreement that extends, renews, refinances or replaces the agreements containing the encumbrances or restrictions in the foregoing clauses (1) and (2), or in this clause (3), provided that the terms and conditions of any such encumbrances or restrictions are not materially less favorable to the Holders of the Notes than those under or pursuant to the agreement so extended, renewed, refinanced or replaced; (4) any encumbrance or restriction created pursuant to an asset sale agreement, stock sale agreement or similar instrument pursuant to which a bona-fide Asset Sale the proceeds of which are applied as provided in the Indenture is to be consummated, so long as such restriction or encumbrance shall apply only to the assets subject to such Asset Sale and shall be effective only for a period from the execution and delivery of such agreement or instrument through the earlier of the consummation of such Asset Sale or the termination of such agreement or instrument; (5) customary non-assignment provisions of any lease governing any leasehold interest of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiaries; (6) to the extent required by the Indenture; and (7) any encumbrance or restriction existing under or by reason of applicable law.

Purchase of Notes upon a Change of Control. If a Change of Control shall occur at any time, then each holder of Notes shall have the right to require that the Company purchase such holder's Notes in whole or in part in integral multiples of $1,000, at a purchase price (the "Change of Control Purchase Price") in cash in an amount equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of purchase (the "Change of Control Purchase Date"), pursuant to the offer described below (the "Change of Control Offer") and the other procedures set forth in the Indenture.

Within 15 days following any Change of Control, the Company shall notify the Trustee thereof and give written notice of such Change of Control to each holder of Notes by first-class mail, postage prepaid, at his address appearing in the security register, stating, among other things, (i) the purchase price and the purchase date which shall be a Business Day no earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is mailed, or such later date as is necessary to comply with requirements under the Exchange Act; (ii) that any Note not tendered will continue to accrue interest; (iii) that, unless the Company defaults in the payment of the purchase price, any Notes accepted for payment pursuant to the Change of Control Offer shall cease to accrue interest after the Change of Control Purchase Date; and (iv) certain other procedures that a holder of Notes must follow to accept a Change of Control Offer or to withdraw such acceptance.

If a Change of Control Offer is made, there can be no assurance that the Company will have available funds sufficient to pay the Change of Control Purchase Price for all of the Notes that might be delivered by holders of the Notes seeking to accept the Change of Control Offer. The Senior Bank Facility prohibits the purchase of the Notes by the Company prior to full repayment of Indebtedness thereunder and, upon a Change of Control, all amounts outstanding under the Senior Bank Facility may become due and payable. There can be no assurance that, in the event of a Change in Control, the Company will be able to obtain the necessary consents from the lenders under the Senior Bank Facility to consummate a Change of Control Offer. The failure of the Company to make or consummate the Change of Control Offer or pay the Change of Control Purchase Price when due would result in an Event of Default and would give the Trustee and the holders of the Notes the rights described under "Description of Notes -- Events of Default," subject to the subordination provisions of the Indenture.

"Change of Control" is defined in the Indenture to mean the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) any "person" or "group" (as such terms are used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than one or more of the Permitted Holders, becomes the ultimate "beneficial owner" (as defined in Rules 13d-3 and 13d-5 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting power of the total outstanding Voting Stock of United (or any successor) or the Company (or any successor) voting as one class; (ii) during any period of two consecutive years, individuals who at the beginning of such period constituted the Board of Directors of United or the Company (together with any new directors whose election to such Board of Directors or whose nomination for election by the shareholders of such Person, was approved by a vote of 66 2/3% of the directors then still in office who were either directors at the beginning of such period or whose election or nomination for election was previously so approved) cease for any reason to constitute a majority of such Board of Directors then in office; (iii) United or the Company conveys, transfers, or leases or otherwise disposes of all or substantially all of its assets to any Person (other than one or more of the Permitted Holders); (iv) United (or any successor) or the Company (or any successor) is liquidated or dissolved or adopts a plan of liquidation or dissolution other than in a transaction which complies with the provisions described under "Description of Notes -- Consolidation, Merger, Sale of Assets"; and (v) the failure of United (or any successor) to "beneficially own" 100% of the voting power of the total outstanding Voting Stock of the Company (or any successor).

The phrase "all or substantially all" as used in the definition of "Change of Control" has not been interpreted under New York law (which is the governing law of the Indenture) to represent a specific quantitative test. As a consequence, in the event the holders of the Notes elected to exercise their rights under the Indenture and the Company elected to contest such election, there could be no assurance as to how a court interpreting New York law would interpret such phrase.

The existence of a Holder's right to require the Company to purchase such Holder's Notes upon a Change of Control may deter a third party from acquiring the Company in a transaction which constitutes a Change of Control.

United will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, create or permit to exist or become effective any restriction (other than restrictions in effect on the Closing Date with respect to Indebtedness outstanding on the Closing Date and refinancings thereof and customary default provisions) that would materially impair the ability of the Company to make a Change of Control Offer to purchase the Notes or, if such Change of Control Offer is made, to pay for the Notes tendered for purchase.

Provision of Financial Statements. Whether or not United or the Company is subject to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, United and the Company will, to the extent permitted under the Exchange Act, deliver to the Commission for filing the annual reports, quarterly reports and other documents which United and the Company would have been required to file with the Commission pursuant to such Section 13(a) or 15(d) if United and the Company were so subject, such documents to be filed with the Commission on or prior to the respective dates (the "Required Filing Dates") by which United and the Company would have been required to so file such documents if United and the Company were so subject (subject to a five day grace period). United and the Company will also in any event (x) within 15 days of each Required Filing Date (subject to a five day grace period) (i) transmit by mail to all Holders, as their names and addresses appear in the security register, without cost to such Holders and (ii) file with the Trustee copies of the annual reports, quarterly reports and other documents which United and the Company would have been required to file with the Commission pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act if United and the Company were subject to such Sections and (y) if filing such documents by United and the Company with the Commission is not permitted under the Exchange Act, promptly upon written request, supply copies of such documents to any prospective Holder at United's and the Company's cost

CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, SALE OF ASSETS

The Company shall not, in a single transaction or through a series of related transactions, consolidate with or merge with or into any other Person or sell, assign, convey, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties and assets as an entirety to any Person or group of affiliated Persons (and the Company will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to enter into any such transaction or transactions if such transaction or transactions, in the aggregate, would result in the sale, assignment, conveyance, transfer, lease or disposal of all or substantially all of the properties and assets of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries on a Consolidated basis to any other Person or group of affiliated Persons) unless at the time and after giving effect thereto: (i) either (a) the Company shall be the continuing corporation or (b) the Person (if other than the Company) formed by such consolidation or into which the Company or such Subsidiary is merged or the Person which acquires by sale, assignment, conveyance, transfer, lease or disposition of all or substantially all of the properties and assets of the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, substantially as an entirety (the "Surviving Entity") shall be a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the United States of America, any state thereof or the District of Columbia and such Person shall expressly assume, by a supplemental indenture executed and delivered to the Trustee, all the obligations of the Company under the Notes and the Indenture, and the Indenture shall remain in full force and effect; (ii) immediately before and immediately after giving effect to such transaction or transactions, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing; (iii) immediately after giving effect to such transaction on a pro forma basis, the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company (or of the Surviving Entity if other than the Company), is equal to or greater than the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company immediately prior to such transaction or transactions; (iv) immediately before and immediately after giving effect to such transaction on a pro forma basis (on the assumption that the transaction occurred on the first day of the four-quarter period immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction with the appropriate adjustments with respect to the transaction being included in such pro forma calculation), the Company (or the Surviving Entity if other than the Company), could incur at least $1.00 of additional Indebtedness under the "Limitation on Indebtedness" covenant (other than Permitted Indebtedness); and (v) the Company or the Surviving Entity shall have delivered, or caused to be delivered, to the Trustee, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, an Officers' Certificate and an opinion of counsel, each to the effect that such consolidation, merger, transfer, sale, assignment, conveyance, lease or other transaction and the supplemental indenture in respect thereto comply with the Indenture and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction have been complied with.

In the event of any transaction described in and complying with the conditions listed in the immediately preceding paragraph in which the Company is not the continuing corporation, the successor Person formed or remaining shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of the Company and the Company will be discharged from all obligations and covenants under the Indenture and the Notes.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT

The following will be "Events of Default" under the Indenture:

(i) failure to pay any interest on any Note when it becomes due and payable, and such failure shall continue for a period of 30 days;

(ii) failure to pay the principal of (or premium, if any, on) any Note at its Maturity (upon acceleration, optional or mandatory redemption, required repurchase or otherwise);

(iii) (a) failure to perform, or breach of, any covenant or agreement of the Company, United or any Guarantor under the Indenture (other than a default in the performance of, or breach of, a covenant or agreement which is specifically dealt with in clause (i) or (ii) or in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of this clause (iii)), and such default or breach shall continue for a period of 30 days after written notice of such failure has been given, by certified mail, (x) to the Company by the Trustee or (y) to the Company and the Trustee by the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes, specifying such default or breach and requiring it to be remedied and stating that such notice is a "Notice of Default" under the Indenture; (b) default in the performance or breach of the provisions described under "Description of Notes -- Consolidation, Merger, Sale of Assets"; (c) the Company shall have failed to make or consummate an Offer in accordance with the provisions of the "Limitation on Sale of Assets" covenant; or (d) the Company shall have failed to make or consummate a Change of Control Offer in accordance with the provisions of the "Purchase of Notes Upon a Change of Control" covenant;

(iv) one or more defaults shall have occurred under any agreements, indentures or instruments under which the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary then has outstanding Indebtedness in excess of $10 million principal amount in the aggregate and, if not already matured at its final maturity in accordance with its terms, such Indebtedness shall have been accelerated;

(v) any Guarantee shall for any reason cease to be, or shall be asserted in writing by such Guarantor, United or the Company not to be, in full force and effect and enforceable in accordance with its terms or any Subsidiary shall fail to Guarantee the Notes as required by the "Limitation on Issuances of Guarantees of Indebtedness" covenant;

(vi) one or more judgments, orders or decrees for the payment of money in excess of $10 million, either individually or in the aggregate (net of amounts covered by insurance, bond, surety or similar instrument), shall be entered against the Company, United or any Restricted Subsidiary, or any of their respective properties, and shall not be discharged and either (a) any creditor shall have commenced an enforcement proceeding upon such judgment, order or decree or (b) there shall have been a period of 60 consecutive days during which a stay of enforcement of such judgment or order, by reason of an appeal or otherwise, shall not be in effect;

(vii) there shall have been the entry by a court of competent jurisdiction of (a) a decree or order for relief in respect of the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary in an involuntary case or proceeding under any applicable Bankruptcy Law or (b) a decree or order adjudging the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition of or in respect of the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary under any applicable federal or state law, or appointing a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary or of any substantial part of their respective properties, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of their affairs, and any such decree or order for relief shall continue to be in effect, or any such other decree or order shall be unstayed and in effect, for a period of 60 consecutive days; or

(viii) (a) the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary commences a voluntary case or proceeding under any applicable Bankruptcy Law or any other case or proceeding to be adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent, (b) the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary consents to the entry of a decree or order for relief in respect of the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary in an involuntary case or proceeding under any applicable Bankruptcy Law or to the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency case or proceeding against it, (c) the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary files a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under any applicable federal or state law, (d) the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary (x) consents to the filing of such petition or the appointment of, or taking possession by, a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator or similar official of the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary or of any substantial part of their respective properties or (y) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or (e) the Company, United or any Significant Subsidiary takes any corporate action in furtherance of any such actions in this paragraph (viii).

If an Event of Default (other than as specified in clauses (vii) and (viii) of the prior paragraph) shall occur and be continuing, the Trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding may, and the Trustee at the request of such Holders shall, declare all unpaid principal of (and premium, if any, on) and accrued interest on all the Notes to be due and payable immediately, by a notice in writing to the Company (and to the Trustee if given by the Holders of the Notes); provided that so long as the Senior Bank Facility is in effect, such declaration shall not become effective until the earlier of (a) five business days after receipt of such notice of acceleration from the Holders or the Trustee by the agent under the Senior Bank Facility or (b) acceleration of the Indebtedness under the Senior Bank Facility. Thereupon such principal shall become immediately due and payable, and the Trustee may, at its discretion, proceed to protect and enforce the rights of the holders of Notes by appropriate judicial proceeding. If an Event of Default specified in clause (vii) or (viii) of the prior paragraph occurs, then all the Notes shall ipso facto become and be immediately due and payable, in an amount equal to the principal amount of the Notes, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date the Notes become due and payable, without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Holder.

After a declaration of acceleration, but before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding, by written notice to the Company and the Trustee, may rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences if (a) the Company has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay

(i) all sums paid or advanced by the Trustee under the Indenture and the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, (ii) all overdue interest on all Notes, and (iii) to the extent that payment of such interest is lawful, interest upon overdue interest at the rate borne by the Notes; and (b) all Events of Default, other than the non-payment of principal of the Notes which has become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived; and (c) the rescission will not conflict with any judgment or decree.

The Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes outstanding may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past defaults under the Indenture and its consequences, except a default in the payment of the principal of (and premium, if any, on) or interest on any Note, or in respect of a covenant or provision which under the Indenture cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holder of each Note outstanding.

The Company is also required to notify the Trustee within five business days of the occurrence of any Default.

The Trust Indenture Act contains limitations on the rights of the Trustee, should it become a creditor of the Company or any Guarantor, to obtain payment of claims in certain cases or to realize on certain property received by it in respect of any such claims, as security or otherwise. The Trustee is permitted to engage in other transactions; provided that if it acquires any conflicting interest, it must eliminate such conflict upon the occurrence of an Event of Default or else resign.

DEFEASANCE OR COVENANT DEFEASANCE OF INDENTURE

The Company may, at its option and at any time, elect to have the obligations of the Company and each Guarantor and any other obligor upon the Notes, if any, discharged with respect to the outstanding Notes ("defeasance"). Such defeasance means that the Company shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire Indebtedness represented by the outstanding Notes, except for (i) the rights of holders of outstanding Notes to receive payments in respect of the principal of (and premium, if any, on) and interest on such Notes when such payments are due, (ii) the Company's obligations with respect to the Notes concerning issuing temporary Notes, registration of Notes, mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes, and the maintenance of an office or agency for payment and money for security payments held in trust, (iii) the rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the Trustee, and (iv) the defeasance provisions of the Indenture. In addition, the Company may, at its option and at any time, elect to have the obligations of the Company and each Guarantor released with respect to certain covenants that are described in the Indenture ("covenant defeasance") and any omission to comply with such obligations shall not constitute a Default or an Event of Default with respect to the Notes. In the event covenant defeasance occurs, certain events (not including non-payment, enforceability of any Guarantee, bankruptcy and insolvency events) described in "Description of Notes -- Events of Default" will no longer constitute an Event of Default with respect to the Notes.

In order to exercise either defeasance or covenant defeasance, (i) the Company must irrevocably deposit with the Trustee, in trust, for the benefit of the holders of the Notes, cash in United States dollars, U.S. Government Obligations (as defined in the Indenture), or a combination thereof, in such amounts as will be sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants, to pay and discharge the principal of (and premium, if any, on) and interest on the outstanding Notes on the Stated Maturity of such principal or installment of principal (or, if specified by the Company in an Officers' Certificate delivered to the Trustee at the time of such deposit, any date upon which the Company would be entitled to redeem all Notes outstanding); (ii) in the case of defeasance, the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an opinion of independent counsel in the United States stating that since the Closing Date (A) the Company has received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling or (B) there has been a change in the applicable federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such opinion of counsel in the United States shall confirm that, the holders of the outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case of such defeasance had not occurred; (iii) in the case of covenant defeasance, the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an opinion of independent counsel in the United States to the effect that the holders of the outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of such covenant defeasance and will be subject to federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such covenant defeasance had not occurred; (iv) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit; (v) such defeasance or covenant defeasance shall not cause the Trustee to have a conflicting interest with respect to any securities of the Company or any Guarantor; (vi) such defeasance or covenant defeasance shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, the Indenture or any other material agreement or instrument to which the Company or any Guarantor is a party or by which it is bound; (vii) the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an opinion of independent counsel to the effect that (A) the trust funds will not be subject to any rights of holders of Senior Indebtedness or Senior Guarantor Indebtedness, including, without limitation, those arising under the Indenture and (B) after the 123rd day following the deposit, the trust funds will not be subject to the avoidance under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally; (viii) the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate stating that the deposit was not made by the Company with the intent of preferring the holders of the Notes or any Guarantee over the other creditors of the Company or any Guarantor or with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors of the Company, any Guarantor or others; (ix) no event or condition shall exist that would prohibit the Company from making payments of the principal of (and premium, if any on) and interest on the Notes on the date of such deposit; and (x) the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an opinion of counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent provided for relating to either defeasance or covenant defeasance, as the case may be, have been complied with.

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

The Indenture will be discharged and will cease to be of further effect (except as to surviving rights of registration of transfer or exchange of the Notes, as expressly provided for in the Indenture) as to all outstanding Notes when (a) either (i) all the Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other than lost, stolen or destroyed Notes which have been replaced or paid) have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or (ii) all Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation (x) have become due and payable, (y) will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year or (z) are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Company, and the Company or any Guarantor has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee funds in an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness on the Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, including principal of (and premium, if any, on) and accrued interest at such Stated Maturity or redemption date; (b) the Company or any Guarantor has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable under the Indenture by the Company and each Guarantor; and (c) the Company has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an opinion of counsel each stating that (i) all conditions precedent under the Indenture relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture have been complied with and (ii) such satisfaction and discharge will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, the Indenture or any other material agreement or instrument to which the Company or any Guarantor is a party or by which the Company or any Guarantor is bound.

MODIFICATIONS AND AMENDMENTS

Without the consent of any Holders, the Company, the Guarantors and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental to the Indenture for any of the following purposes: (1) to add to the covenants of the Company and the Guarantors for the benefit of the Holders, or to surrender any right or power therein conferred upon the Company and the Guarantors; (2) to add additional Events of Default; (3) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of the appointment under the Indenture by a successor Trustee; (4) to secure the Notes; (5) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision in the Indenture which may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision in the Indenture, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under the Indenture, provided that such actions pursuant to this clause shall not adversely affect the interests of the Holders in any material respect; or (6) to comply with any requirements of the Commission in order to effect and maintain the qualification of the Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act; provided that certain legal opinions and Officers' Certificates are delivered.

Modifications and amendments of the Indenture may be made by the Company, the Guarantors and the Trustee with the consent of the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Notes; provided, however, that no such modification or amendment may, without the consent of the holder of each outstanding Note affected thereby: (i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or any installment of interest on, any Note or reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon or any premium payable upon the redemption thereof, or change the coin or currency in which the principal of any Note or any premium or the interest thereon is payable, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the Stated Maturity thereof; (ii) amend, change or modify the obligation of the Company to make and consummate an Offer with respect to any Asset Sale or Asset Sales in accordance with the "Limitation on Sale of Assets" covenant or the obligation of the Company to make and consummate a Change of Control Offer in the event of a Change of Control in accordance with the "Purchase of Notes upon a Change of Control" covenant, including, without limitation, amending, changing or modifying any definitions with respect thereto; (iii) reduce the percentage in principal amount of outstanding Notes, the consent of whose holders is required for any such modifications and amendments, or the consent of whose holders is required for any waiver; (iv) modify any of the provisions relating to supplemental indentures requiring the consent of holders or relating to the waiver of past defaults or relating to the waiver of certain covenants, except to increase the percentage of outstanding Notes required for such actions or to provide that certain other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the holder of each of each Note affected thereby; (v) except as otherwise permitted under "Description of the New Notes -- Consolidation, Merger, Sale of Assets," consent to the assignment or transfer by the Company or any Guarantor of any of its rights and obligations under the Indenture; or (vi) amend or modify any of the provisions of the Indenture relating to the subordination of the Notes or any Guarantee in any manner adverse to the holders of the Notes.

GOVERNING LAW

The Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees are governed by, and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the conflicts of law principles thereof.

CERTAIN DEFINITIONS

"Acquired Indebtedness" means Indebtedness of a Person (i) existing at the time such Person becomes a Restricted Subsidiary or (ii) assumed in connection with the acquisition of assets from such Person. Acquired Indebtedness shall be deemed to be incurred on the date of the related acquisition of assets from any Person or the date the acquired Person becomes a Subsidiary.

"Affiliate" means, with respect to any specified Person, (i) any other Person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with such specified Person or (ii) any other Person that owns, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of such specified Person's Capital Stock or any executive officer or director of any such specified Person or other Person or, with respect to any natural Person, any person having a relationship with such Person by blood, marriage or adoption not more remote than first cousin. For the purposes of this definition, "control" when used with respect to any specified Person means the power to direct the management and policies of such Person, directly or indirectly, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise; and the terms "controlling" and "controlled" have meanings correlative to the foregoing. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, for purposes of the Indenture, The Chase Manhattan Corporation and its subsidiaries shall be deemed not to be an Affiliate of United, the Company or any Subsidiary.

"Asset Sale" means any sale, issuance, conveyance, transfer, lease or other disposition (including, without limitation, by way of merger, consolidation or Sale and Leaseback Transaction) (collectively, a "transfer"), directly or indirectly, in one or a series of related transactions, of (i) any Capital Stock of any Subsidiary; (ii) all or substantially all of the properties and assets of any division or line of business of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary; or (iii) any other properties or assets of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary, other than in the ordinary course of business. For the purposes of this definition, the term "Asset Sale" shall not include (x) any transfer of properties or assets (A) that is governed by the first paragraph under "-- Consolidation, Merger, Sale of Assets" or (B) that is by the Company to any Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary, or by any Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary to the Company or any Restricted Wholly Owned Subsidiary in accordance with the terms of the Indenture or (y) transfers of properties and assets listed on Schedule I to the Indenture.

"Average Life to Stated Maturity" means, as of the date of determination with respect to any Indebtedness, the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the sum of the products of (a) the number of years from the date of determination to the date or dates of each successive scheduled principal payment of such Indebtedness multiplied by (b) the amount of each such principal payment by (ii) the sum of all such principal payments.

"Bankruptcy Law" means Title 11, United States Bankruptcy Code of 1978, as amended, or any similar United States federal or state law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, winding-up, liquidation, reorganization or relief of debtors or any amendment to, succession to or change in any such law.

"Borrowing Base" means, as of any date, an amount equal to the sum of (a) 80% of the face amount of all accounts receivable of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries as of such date and (b) 50% of the book value (calculated on a FIFO basis) of all inventory owned by the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries as of such date, all calculated on a consolidated basis and in accordance with GAAP. To the extent that information is not available as to the amount of accounts receivable or inventory as of a specific date, the Company may utilize the most recent available quarterly or annual financial report for purposes of calculating the Borrowing Base.

"Capital Lease Obligation" means any obligations of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries on a Consolidated basis under any capital lease of real or personal property which, in accordance with GAAP, has been recorded as a capitalized lease obligation.

"Capital Stock" of any Person means any and all shares, interests, participations, partnership interests or other equivalents (however designated) of such Person's capital stock.

"Closing Date" means May 3, 1995.

CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following discussion is a summary of certain federal income tax considerations relevant to the exchange of Old Notes for New Notes, but does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax effects. The discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Treasury regulations, Internal Revenue Service rulings and pronouncements and judicial decisions now in effect, all of which are subject to change at any time by legislative, judicial or administrative action. Any such changes may be applied retroactively in a manner that could adversely affect a holder of the New Notes. The description does not consider the effect of any applicable foreign, state, local or other tax laws or estate or gift tax considerations.

EACH HOLDER SHOULD CONSULT HIS OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO HIM OF EXCHANGING OLD NOTES FOR NEW NOTES, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAX LAWS.

EXCHANGE OF OLD NOTES FOR NEW NOTES

The exchange of Old Notes for New Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offer should not constitute a material modification of the terms of the Old Notes and, therefore, such exchange should not constitute an exchange for federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, such exchange should have no federal income tax consequences to holders of Old Notes.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Each broker-dealer that receives New Notes for its own account pursuant to the Exchange Offer must acknowledge that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of such New Notes. This Prospectus, as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time, may be used by a broker-dealer in connection with resales of New Notes received in exchange for Old Notes where such Old Notes were acquired as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities. The Company has agreed that, for a period of 180 days after the Expiration Date, it will make this Prospectus, as amended or supplemented, available to any broker-dealer for use in connection with any such resale. In addition, for 90 days following the later of (i) the effective date of the Registration Statement and (ii) the first date upon which the New Notes were bona fide offered to the public, all dealers effecting transactions in the New Notes may be required to deliver a prospectus.

The Company will not receive any proceeds from any sale of New Notes by broker-dealers. New Notes received by broker-dealers for their own account pursuant to the Exchange Offer may be sold from time to time in one or more transactions in the over-the-counter market, in negotiated transactions, through the writing of options on the New Notes or a combination of such methods of resale, at market prices prevailing at the time of resale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or negotiated prices. Any such resale may be made directly to purchasers or to or though brokers or dealers who may receive compensation in the form of commissions or concessions from any such broker-dealer and/or the purchasers of any such New Notes. Any broker-dealer that resells New Notes that were received by it for its own account pursuant to the Exchange Offer and any broker or dealer that participates in a distribution of such New Notes may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act and any profit on any such resale of New Notes and any commissions or concessions received by any such persons may be deemed to be underwriting compensation under the Securities Act. The Letter of Transmittal states that by acknowledging that it will deliver and by delivering a prospectus, a broker-dealer will not be deemed to admit that it is an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act.

For a period of 180 days after the Expiration Date the Company will promptly send additional copies of this Prospectus and any amendment or supplement to this Prospectus to any broker-dealer that requests such documents in the Letter of Transmittal. The Company has agreed to pay all expenses incident to the Exchange Offer other than commissions or concessions of any brokers or dealers.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters in connection with the New Notes will be passed upon for United and the Company by Weil, Gotshal & Manges, a partnership including professional corporations, Dallas, Texas.

UNITED STATIONERS INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On March 30, 1995, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 13, 1995 (the "Merger Agreement"), between Associated Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Associated") and United Stationers Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company") and Associated's related Offer to Purchase dated February 21, 1995 (the "Offer"), Associated purchased 17,201,839 shares of Common Stock, $0.10 par value (the "Shares"), of the Company at a purchase price of $15.50 per share, or approximately $266.6 million, from the Company's stockholders. On March 30, 1995, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Associated was merged with and into the Company, with the Company surviving (the "Merger"), and immediately thereafter, Associated Stationers, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Associated ("ASI") was merged with and into United Stationers Supply Co., an Illinois corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("USSC"), with USSC surviving. The acquisition of the Shares by Associated pursuant to the Offer together with the Merger is referred to herein as the "Acquisition." Although the Company was the surviving corporation in the Merger, the transaction was treated as a reverse acquisition for accounting purposes with Associated as the acquiring corporation.

Immediately following the Merger, the number of outstanding Shares was 5,998,117 (or 6,973,720 on a fully diluted basis), of which (i) the former holders of Class A Common Stock, $0.01 par value, and Class B Common Stock, $0.01 par value, of Associated ("Associated Common Stock") and warrants or options to purchase Associated Common Stock in the aggregate owned 4,603,373 Shares constituting approximately 76.8% of the outstanding Shares and outstanding warrants or options for 975,603 Shares (collectively 80.0% on a fully diluted basis) and (ii) pre-Merger holders of Shares (other than Associated-owned Shares and treasury Shares) in the aggregate owned 1,394,744 Shares constituting approximately 23.2% of the outstanding Shares (or 20.0% on a fully diluted basis). As used in this paragraph, the term "Shares" includes shares of Nonvoting Common Stock, $0.01 par value, of the Company, which are immediately convertible into Shares for no additional consideration.

To finance the Offer, refinance existing debt of ASI, the Company and USSC, repurchase stock options and pay related fees and expenses, Associated, ASI, USSC and the Company entered into (i) new credit facilities ("New Credit Facilities") with a group of banks and financial institutions providing for term loan borrowings of $200.0 million and revolving loan borrowings of up to $300.0 million and (ii) a senior subordinated bridge loan facility in the aggregate principal amount of $130.0 million (the "Subordinated Bridge Facility"). In addition, simultaneously with the consummation of the Offer, Associated obtained $12.0 million from the sale of additional shares of Associated Common Stock, which proceeds were used to finance the purchase of a portion of the Shares pursuant to the Offer.

On May 3, 1995, USSC completed the issuance of $150.0 million of 12 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes (the "Notes") due 2005. The net proceeds of the Notes (after discount and fees of approximately $5.5 million) were used to pay certain expenses, to repay the $130.0 million Subordinated Bridge Facility (together with $1.6 million in accrued and unpaid interest thereon), to repay a portion of the Tranche A and Tranche B term loans (totaling approximately $6.5 million) and provide working capital. In the event the necessary consents are obtained, the Company expects to repurchase the Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon (approximately $7.0 million).

The New Credit Facilities contain certain financial covenants covering the Company and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, including, without limitation, covenants relating to tangible net worth, capitalization, fixed charge coverage, capital expenditures and payment of dividends by the Company.

Effective for 1995, the Company changed its fiscal year from a year end of August 31 to December 31. The financial statements included herein represent the final financial statements of the Company through the date of the consummation of the Merger. Future financial statements of the Company will reflect Associated and its acquisition of the Company, and will be on the basis of a December 31 fiscal year end.

As part of the Merger, the Company incurred approximately $27.8 million of merger-related costs. The amount consisted of severance payments under employment contracts ($9.6 million); insurance benefits under employment contracts ($7.4 million); legal, accounting and other professional services fees ($5.2 million); retirement of stock options ($3.0 million); and fees for letters of credit related to employment contracts and other costs ($2.6 million).

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of United Stationers Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries ("the Company"). Investments in 20% to 50% owned companies are accounted for by the equity method. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Certain prior-year amounts have been reclassified to conform with current-year presentations.

Revenue Recognition

Sales and provisions for estimated sales returns and allowances are recorded at the time of shipment.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Investments in low-risk instruments which have an original maturity of three months or less are considered to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are stated at cost which approximates market value. The Company's cash equivalent policy conforms to the requirements of Financial Accounting Standard No. 95.

Inventories

Inventories constituting approximately 82% of total inventories at August 31, 1993, August 31, 1994 and March 30, 1995 have been valued under the last-in, first-out (LIFO) method with the remainder of the inventory valued under the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method. Inventory valued under the FIFO and LIFO accounting methods are recorded at the lower of cost or market. If the lower of FIFO cost or market method of inventory accounting had been used by the Company for all inventories, merchandise inventories would have been approximately $16,679,000, $18,854,000 and $21,797,000 higher than reported at August 31, 1993, 1994 and March 30, 1995, respectively.

In 1994, liquidations of certain LIFO inventories had the effect of increasing net earnings by $830,000 or $0.04 per share.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization are determined by using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

The estimated useful life assigned to fixtures and equipment is from two to 10 years; the estimated useful life assigned to buildings does not exceed 40 years; leasehold improvements and assets under capital leases are amortized over the lesser of their useful lives or the term of the applicable lease.

Goodwill reflecting the excess of cost over the value of net assets of businesses acquired is being amortized on a straight-line basis over 40 years. The cumulative amount of goodwill amortized at August 31, 1993, 1994 and March 30, 1995 is $1,200,000, $2,315,000 and $2,965,000, respectively.

Software Capitalization

The Company capitalizes major internal and external systems development costs determined to have benefits for future periods. Amortization expense is recognized over the periods in which the benefits are realized, generally not to exceed three years. Systems development costs capitalized were $4,202,000, $1,955,000, $2,166,000 and $1,896,000 in 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1995, respectively. Amortization expense was $3,384,000, $2,946,000, $2,376,000 and $1,795,000 in 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1995, respectively.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, trade payables and debt instruments. The book value of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and trade payables are considered to be representative of their respective fair values.

Borrowings under the Company's Reducing Revolving Credit and Term Loan Agreement are considered to be at fair market value. The Company had approximately $66.1 million, $62.7 million and $62.4 million of long-term debt (excluding borrowings under the Company's Reducing Revolving Credit and Term Loan Agreement) outstanding as of August 31, 1993, 1994 and March 30, 1995, respectively. The approximate fair value was $68.0 million, $59.8 million and $61.3 million as of August 31, 1993, 1994 and March 30, 1995, respectively. The fair value is based on the current rates offered to the Company for debt of similar maturities. The fair values on the long-term debt financial instruments are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that would be realized in a current market exchange and exclude any liquidation or origination costs.

Foreign Currency Translation

All assets and liabilities of the Company's foreign operations are translated at current exchange rates. Revenues and expenses are translated at average exchange rates for the year in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 52. The amounts for all years presented were immaterial.

Earnings Per Share

Earnings per share and the effect on earnings per share of potentially dilutive stock options are computed by the treasury stock method. This computation takes into account the weighted average number of shares outstanding during each year, outstanding stock options and their exercise prices, and the market price of the stock throughout the year. The exercise of outstanding stock options would not result in a material dilution of earnings per share.

3. BUSINESS COMBINATION AND RESTRUCTURING CHARGE

On June 24, 1992, the Company acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of SDC Distributing Corp., parent of Stationers Distributing Company, Inc. ("SDC"). The results of operations of SDC have been included in the Company's consolidated financial statements since June 25, 1992.

The following summarized unaudited pro forma results of operations for the years ended August 31, 1991 and 1992 assume the acquisition occurred at the beginning of the respective periods. These pro forma results have been prepared for comparative purposes only and do not purport to be indicative of the results of operations that actually would have resulted had the combination been in effect on the dates indicated, or which may result in the future.

The prevailing prime interest rate at August 31, 1993, August 31, 1994 and March 30, 1995 was 6.0%, 7.8% and 9.0%, respectively.

The Company has a $160.0 million Reducing Revolving Credit and Term Loan Agreement ("Credit Agreement") with a group of seven lenders (the "Lenders"). The Credit Agreement consists of a $130.0 million revolving credit facility ("Revolver") and a $30.0 million term loan ("Term Loan"). Proceeds are used to finance working capital requirements and capital expenditures of the Company.

The Revolver provides for revolving credit loans up to the amount of the commitment until August 31, 1997, at the Company's option. The initial $130.0 million commitment decreases to $83.6 million as of August 31, 1997 based on quarterly decreases which began in May 1994 as specified in the Credit Agreement. As of August 31, 1994, the Revolver commitment is $126.0 million. Under the terms of the Credit Agreement, the Company is required to pay a facility fee of 3/16 of 1% of the total available Revolver. The Term Loan (as amended) matures on September 30, 1995 (or earlier upon certain subsequent offerings by the Company of debt or equity). The Term Loan can be prepaid without penalty. Interest on both loans is payable at varying rates provided for in the Credit Agreement.

On February 28, 1995, the Company entered into a $30.0 million line of credit with a major bank. This credit facility was entered into to meet seasonal requirements after the Revolver and Term Loan was fully utilized, and bore interest at agreed upon market rates. The Company had $6.0 million outstanding under this agreement immediately prior to the Merger. This agreement was terminated in connection with the Merger.

The Credit Agreement contains certain financial covenants covering the Company and its subsidiary on a consolidated basis, including, without limitation, covenants relating to the consolidated current ratio, tangible net worth, capitalization, fixed charge coverage, capital expenditures and payment of dividends by the Company.

The net book value of assets subject to secured mortgages and industrial development bonds as of August 31, 1993 and 1994 was $28,962,000 and $28,610,000, respectively.

Maturities of long-term debt (excluding amounts borrowed under the Credit Agreement), for the following periods as indicated, are as follows (in thousands of dollars):

As part of the Merger, approximately $180 million of debt at March 30, 1995 was refinanced. The refinanced debt consisted of various mortgages, the Edison, New Jersey industrial development bonds, the private placement loan, and the Term Loan and Revolver.

5. PENSION PLANS AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS

The Company has pension plans in effect for substantially all employees. Non-contributory plans covering non-union employees provide pension benefits that are based on years of credited service and a percentage of annual compensation. Non-contributory plans covering union members generally provide benefits of stated amounts based on years of service. The Company funds the plans in accordance with current tax laws.

The Company also has a non-contributory, non-qualified plan ("Supplemental Benefits Plan") in effect for certain executives. The Company has not funded this plan.

Pension expense in 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1995 was approximately $866,000, $1,269,000, $1,755,000, $1,707,000, respectively.

The following table sets forth the plans' funded status at August 31, 1993, August 31, 1994 and March 30, 1995 (in thousands of dollars):

(1) The Supplemental Benefit Plan was funded and paid out as a result of the merger.

The plans' assets consist of debt securities, equity securities and government securities. Net periodic pension cost for 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1995 for pension and supplemental benefits plans includes the following components (in thousands of dollars):

Net periodic pension cost	$ 866	$1,269	$1,755	$1,707

The projected benefit obligations for 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1995 were determined using an assumed discount rate of 7.5%, 7.25%, 7.5% and 7.5%, respectively. In 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1995, the assumed rate of compensation increase ranged from 0% to 5.5%. The expected long-term rate of return on assets used in determining net periodic pension cost was 7.5%.

The Company provides an unfunded health care plan to substantially all retired non-union employees and their dependents. Eligibility requirements are based on the individual's age (minimum age of 55), years of service and hire date. The benefits are subject to retiree contributions, deductibles, co-payment provisions and other limitations.

During the first quarter of 1994, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 106 (SFAS 106), "Employer's Accounting for Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions." SFAS 106 requires companies to accrue the expected cost of postretirement health care and life insurance benefits throughout the employee's active service period. Previously, postretirement health care costs were recognized as claims were paid. The Company elected to amortize the unfunded Accumulated Postretirement Benefit Obligation (APBO) over 20 years.

The assumed health care average cost trend rate used in measuring the APBO at March 30, 1995 was 11.0% in 1995 and 3% in 1996 and beyond. Beginning in 1996, retirees will pay the difference between actual plan costs and the portion of cost paid by the Company which is limited to a cost trend rate of 3%. The assumed discount rate was 7.75%. A 1% increase in the care cost trend rate would increase the APBO as of March 30, 1995 by approximately $339,000 and the sum of the 1995 annual service cost and interest cost by approximately $35,000.

The cost of postretirement health care benefits for the year ended August 31, 1994 and seven months ended March 30, 1995 are as follows (in thousands of dollars):

The following table sets forth the amounts recognized in the Company's Balance Sheet at August 31, 1994 and March 30, 1995 (in thousands of dollars):

Prior to 1994, the cost of providing postretirement health care benefits net of retiree contributions was $33,396 in 1992 and $46,777 in 1993.

The Company has a qualified Profit Sharing Plan in which all salaried employees and certain hourly paid employees of the Company are eligible to participate upon completion of six consecutive months of employment. The Profit Sharing Plan provides for annual contributions by the Company in an amount determined by the Board of Directors. The Plan also permits employees to have contributions made as 401(k) salary deferrals on their behalf and to make after-tax voluntary contributions. The Plan provides that the Company may match employee contributions as 401(k) salary deferrals. Company contributions to the Plan for both profit sharing and matching of employee contributions were approximately $1.0 million in 1992, $1.4 million in 1993, $0.5 million in 1994 and $0.8 million in 1995.

6. STOCK INCENTIVE PLANS

As a result of the change in control of the Company, the Company paid out approximately $3.0 million to option holders representing the difference between the tender offer price of the stock ($15.50 per share) and the option exercise price. The amount was included in merger-related costs in 1995.

Under the Directors' Stock Option Plan, the Company granted options for 7,500 shares at a price of $19.25 per share in 1993, 7,500 shares at a price of $15.25 per share in 1994 and 7,500 shares at a price of $13.75 per share in 1995. The Directors' Option Plan provides for the granting of options covering up to 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock, subject to anti-dilution adjustments. Options are exercisable at any time after they are granted, but for not more than ten years after the option's grant. As of the period ended 1993, 1994, and 1995, 45,500, 41,000 and 0 options, respectively, were outstanding at a price range of $8.75 to $22.13 per share.

During fiscal 1995, options for a total of 100,000 shares at $10.50 were granted to certain officers. The grant was approved at the 1995 Annual Meeting held in January.

Under the Company's 1981 Stock Incentive Award Plan, options outstanding had an exercisable life of either five, six or ten years from the date of grant. The Company granted certain officers 16,700 and 15,000 shares of restricted stock in 1991 and 1992, respectively. There have been no restricted stock grants since 1992. The grants of restricted shares resulted in deferred compensation expense of $699,000 of which $185,000, $132,000, $39,000 and $16,000 was recognized in 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1995, respectively. The unrecognized portion of deferred compensation was $55,000, $16,000 and $0 as of August 31, 1993, August 31, 1994 and March 30, 1995, respectively. Under the terms of the grant, the stock does not vest to the employee until completion of three years of employment after the date of grant. The 1981 Stock Incentive Award Plan was terminated by the Company's Board of Directors on March 30, 1995.

In 1989, the Board of Directors terminated the 1985 Non-qualified Stock Option Plan so that no further stock options would be issued under this plan. The termination of the plan did not affect the options previously granted and outstanding. No option could have been exercised more than ten years after its grant.

The following table summarizes the transactions of the 1981 and 1985 Option Plans for 1993, 1994 and 1995.

8. INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes," which was adopted in 1992.

The Company does not intend to provide Federal income taxes on the undistributed earnings for its foreign subsidiaries. The Company's policy is to leave the income in the country of origin until such time as all Federal income tax due upon its distribution will be fully offset by foreign tax credits. As of March 30, 1995, neither foreign subsidiary had undistributed earnings.

The Company provides for income taxes at statutory rates based on income reported for financial statement purposes. A summary of income tax expense is shown below (in thousands of dollars):

A valuation allowance of $1,504,000 was recorded at August 31, 1993. No valuation allowance was recorded in 1994 or 1995.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 1994 AND 1993
(IN THOUSANDS, EXCEPT SHARE AND PER SHARE DATA)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION:

Associated Holdings, Inc. ("AHI") and Associated Stationers, Inc. ("ASI"), a wholly owned subsidiary of AHI, both Delaware corporations (collectively the "Company"), were formed to acquire certain assets and assume certain liabilities (the "Acquisition") of the Wholesale Division of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation ("BCOP").

The Acquisition was consummated effective January 31, 1992, for approximately $87,122, of which $82,122 was paid in cash and $5,000 was paid in preferred stock. The transaction was accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. Accordingly, the purchase price was allocated to acquired assets and liabilities based on their fair market values as of January 31, 1992, as follows:

Cash and accounts receivable.....	$36,774

Accrued expenses and other liabilities.....	(18,779)

On October 27, 1992, L. E. Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of ASI and a Delaware corporation, acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Lynn-Edwards Corp. ("Lynn-Edwards"), a privately held office products wholesaler, for approximately $2,360. Lynn-Edwards was headquartered in Sacramento, California, and operated distribution centers in Sacramento and Los Angeles, California. On October 28, 1992, the L. E. Acquisition Corp. name was relinquished and the Lynn-Edwards Corp. name was assumed.

The acquisition of Lynn-Edwards was effective as of September 30, 1992. The acquisition has been accounted for as a purchase transaction and, accordingly, the purchase price was allocated to assets and liabilities based on their estimated fair market values as of the effective date of the transaction. At October 1, 1992, the allocation was based on preliminary estimates of the fair value of the net assets. In July, 1993, agreement was reached with the selling shareholders of Lynn-Edwards regarding the final purchase price. The excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair value of net tangible assets acquired of $5,242 is being amortized on a straight-line basis over 40 years. On March 23, 1994, Lynn-Edwards was merged into ASI.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include AHI and its wholly owned subsidiary, ASI. The consolidated financial statements include Lynn-Edwards in the results of operations since its acquisition date. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. Certain prior-year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current-year presentation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents are composed of highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less. As a result of the Company's cash management system, checks issued but not presented to the banks for payment may create negative book cash balances. Such negative balances are classified as bank overdrafts.

Inventory

All inventory is purchased in a state ready for resale to customers and is considered finished goods. Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out ("FIFO") method for all inventory.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property and equipment purchased by the Company through the acquisitions referred to in Note 1 are stated at fair market value on the date of acquisition as prescribed by the purchase method of accounting. Subsequent purchases of property and equipment are stated at cost.

Buildings	40 years
Machinery and equipment	3-15 years
Furniture and fixtures	3-10 years
Assets held under capital lease...	Lesser of useful lives or term of lease

Repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred.

Software Capitalization

Significant system development costs determined to have benefits for future periods are capitalized at cost. Software costs and software development costs of $513, $767 and $780 as of December 31, 1992, 1993 and 1994, respectively, were capitalized and subject to amortization. Amortization expense is recognized over the periods in which benefits are realized, generally not to exceed five years. Amortization expense for the eleven months ended December 31, 1992 and for the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1994, was $88, $128 and $157, respectively. Capitalized software, net of accumulated amortization, as of December 31, 1993 and 1994, was $551 and $407, respectively.

Intangibles

Intangible assets, included in other long-term assets on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets, consist principally of excess purchase price over net tangible assets of businesses acquired ("goodwill"). Goodwill is amortized on a straight-line basis over periods not exceeding 40 years. The Company continually evaluates whether events or circumstances have occurred indicating that the remaining estimated useful life of goodwill may not be appropriate. When factors indicate that goodwill should be evaluated for possible impairment, the Company uses an estimate of the acquired business' undiscounted future operating income compared to the carrying value of goodwill to determine if a write-off is necessary. Gross goodwill as of December 31, 1993 and 1994 was $5,242. Accumulated goodwill amortization as of December 31, 1993 and 1994, was $164 and $295, respectively.

The Company incurred legal and other direct costs in connection with the issuance of its outstanding debt. These transaction costs of $4,217 and $2,945 at December 31, 1993 and 1994, respectively, net of accumulated amortization, are included in other long-term assets. Accumulated transaction cost amortization as of December 31, 1993 and 1994, was $2,034 and $3,306, respectively. These costs are being amortized over the weighted average term of the related outstanding debt.

Income Taxes

Effective January 31, 1992, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Accordingly, the Company records a provision for income taxes using the "liability" method of accounting for income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities, less an appropriate valuation allowance, are recorded for all temporary differences between financial and tax reporting and are the result of differences in the timing of recognition of certain income and expense items for financial and tax accounting purposes. Deferred tax expense (benefit) results from the net changes during the year in the deferred tax assets and liabilities and the valuation allowance.

3. DEBT:

Long-term debt consists of the following as of December 31, 1993 and 1994:

In connection with the Acquisition, and as amended in connection with the acquisition of Lynn-Edwards, the Company entered into a $95,000 Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement ("Credit Agreement"). The Credit Agreement consists of a $65,000 revolving credit facility ("Revolver"), a $20,000 term loan, Tranche A, and a $10,000 term loan, Tranche B ("Term Loan"). The proceeds of the Revolver and the Term Loan were used to fund the Acquisition, to fund the purchase of the outstanding capital stock of Lynn-Edwards, to pay off certain indebtedness of Lynn-Edwards at the acquisition date and to pay expenses related to these two transactions. In addition, proceeds were used to finance the working capital requirements of the combined companies.

The Revolver provides for revolving credit loans up to the amount of the commitment based on eligible receivables and inventory, as defined in the Credit Agreement. Interest is payable at a rate per annum of 1 3/4% plus the higher of either the prime rate or 1/2% plus the federal funds rate, as defined. The Revolver terminates on January 31, 1997. Prepayments are required when cash flow, as defined, exceeds specified levels. The Revolver interest rates and outstanding amounts during the year and at the end of the year are as follows:

Term loan tranche A is payable in 57 monthly installments which commenced on April 30, 1992. Interest is payable at a rate per annum of 2% plus the higher of either the prime rate or 1/2% plus the federal funds rate, as defined. The weighted average interest rate was 8.25%, 8.00% and 9.15% during the eleven months ended December 31, 1992 and the years 1993 and 1994, respectively. The interest rate was 8.00% and 10.50% at December 31, 1993 and 1994, respectively.

Term loan tranche B is payable in 24 monthly installments, commencing on January 31, 1997. Interest is payable at a rate per annum of 5% plus the higher of either the prime rate or 1/2% plus the federal funds rate, as defined. The weighted average interest rate was 11.25%, 11.00% and 12.15% during the eleven months ended December 31, 1992 and the years 1993 and 1994, respectively. The interest rate was 11.00% and 13.50% at December 31, 1993 and 1994, respectively.

The Credit Agreement contains certain covenants and provisions which, among others, include restrictions on dividend payments, required levels of total capital, required ratio of current assets to current liabilities and restrictions on capital expenditures. Borrowings under the Credit Agreement are collateralized by substantially all of the real and personal property of the Company.

The Company entered into a capital lease in December, 1992, for substantially all of the equipment at the Carol Stream warehouse facility. As of December 31, 1993 and 1994, assets recorded under this capital lease were approximately $3,002 with related accumulated amortization of $425 and $726, respectively. As of December 31, 1993 and 1994, total obligations under this capital lease were $2,540 and $2,052, respectively, of which $488 and $534 is recorded as a current liability, respectively. The lease agreement contains certain financial covenants and provisions, including a maximum level of debt to tangible net worth, a required level of tangible net worth, and a ratio of cash flow, as defined, to the current portion of long-term debt.

In 1993, Lynn-Edwards entered into a $2,000 term loan to finance the purchase of capital equipment. The loan agreement contains certain financial covenants and provisions, including a maximum level of debt to tangible net worth, a required level of tangible net worth and a ratio of cash flow, as defined, to current portion of long-term debt. The loan is amortized over 60 equal installments.

1996	6,980
1997	46,276
1998	5,466

Maturities of long-term debt in 1997 include a balance under the Revolver of $39,910.

Fair Market Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents and short-term debt approximates fair value because of the short-term maturity of the instruments.

Management believes that the fair value of the Revolver and Term Loan approximates its carrying value as of December 31, 1993 and 1994, respectively, because the interest rate on the debt is a floating rate tied to the prime rate.

4. LEASE OBLIGATIONS:

The Company leases certain facilities under noncancelable operating leases expiring through July, 2004, with various renewal options.

The following table shows future minimum annual lease commitments on noncancelable operating leases. The table excludes real estate taxes, insurance, maintenance and other costs related to the properties which are paid by the Company.

Thereafter	3,804
Total minimum lease payments	$13,955

Rent expense for operating leases was approximately $1,590 for the eleven months ended December 31, 1992, and $2,711 and $2,952 for the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1994, respectively.

5. RETIREMENT BENEFITS:

Defined Contribution Plan

The ASI Profit Sharing and Savings Plan ("the Plan") is a Section 401(k) plan with a discretionary profit sharing component which commenced on April 1, 1992. The Plan and the trust established pursuant to the Plan are intended to meet the requirements of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") and qualify under Sections 401(a) and 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Plan covers substantially all full-time employees of the Company. Pursuant to the Plan, the Company matched employee contributions in the amount of $0.50 for each $1.00 contributed through July, 1993, and $0.25 for each $1.00 contributed subsequently, up to an employee contribution maximum of 6.0% of compensation, as defined. The expense under the above plan was $256 for the eleven months ended December 31, 1992 and $435 and $277 for the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1994, respectively.

Postretirement Benefits

In December, 1990, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Standard No. 106, "Accounting for Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions." This standard requires that the expected cost of these postemployment benefits be charged to expense during the years that the employees render service. The Company does not offer postretirement benefits to its employees.

6. INCOME TAXES:

At January 31, 1992, the date of the Acquisition, the Company had a net deferred tax asset primarily due to the higher tax basis allocated to the net assets acquired, including intangible assets and certain reserves. A valuation allowance was established at the date of the Acquisition for the entire amount of the net deferred tax asset.

For the eleven months ended December 31, 1992, and the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1994, and components of the provision for income taxes were as follows:

The Company has 190,218 warrants ("Lender Warrants") outstanding as of December 31, 1993 and 1994, which allow the holders thereof to buy shares of AHI common stock at an exercise price of $0.01 per share. 9. STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY:

Common Stock and Warrants

AHI has 10,000,000 authorized shares of common stock, consisting of 5,000,000 shares of $0.01 par value Class A voting common stock and 5,000,000 shares of $0.01 par value Class B nonvoting common stock. Each holder of Class A common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held of record by such holder. No dividends on common shares were accrued or paid for the eleven months ended December 31, 1992, or for the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1994. All common stock issued at the date of inception was valued at the amount of cash paid for the stock or, in the case of services rendered or to be rendered, at $10.00 per share.

As of December 31, 1993 and 1994, the Company has 23,129 warrants outstanding which allow the holders to buy shares of AHI common stock at an exercise price of $1 per share. At the date of inception, these warrants were valued at $10.00 per warrant. In addition, 2,506 warrants have been accrued but not issued, as of December 31, 1994. These warrants were valued at $11.43 per warrant. The exercise period expires January 31, 2002.

Earnings Per Share

The Company presents earnings per share on both a primary and fully diluted basis. Earnings per common and dilutive common equivalent share amounts were computed by dividing net income, after deducting dividends on preferred stock, by the weighted average number of common and dilutive common equivalent shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of shares includes the dilutive effect of warrants computed using the treasury stock method, as well as the common shares that would result from the conversion of the deferred obligation related to the TS Agreement.

Earnings per common share assuming full dilution amounts were computed by dividing net income, after deducting dividends on preferred stock, by the weighted average number of fully diluted common shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of shares includes the dilutive effect of warrants computed using the treasury stock method, as well as the common shares that would result from the conversion of the deferred obligation related to the TS Agreement.

For the eleven months ended December 31, 1992, and the year ended December 31, 1993 employee stock options (discussed in Note 9) were not included in either the weighted average number of common and dilutive common equivalent shares or the weighted average shares on a fully diluted basis, as they would have an anti-dilutive result. For the year ended December 31, 1994, the stock options of one employee were included in the weighted average share computations, as they had a dilutive result. The remainder of the employee stock options were not included in the weighted average share computations for the year ended December 31, 1994, as they would have an anti-dilutive effect.

The net income, preferred stock dividends and shares used to compute primary and fully diluted earnings per share are presented in the following table.

The acquisition of the Shares by Associated pursuant to the Offer together with the Merger is referred to herein as the "Acquisition."

Immediately following the Merger, the number of outstanding Shares was 5,998,077 (or 6,973,720 on a fully diluted basis), of which (i) the former holders of Class A Common Stock, $0.01 par value, and Class B Common Stock, $0.01 par value, of Associated ("Associated Common Stock") and warrants or options to purchase Associated Common Stock in the aggregate owned 4,603,333 Shares constituting approximately 76.7% of the outstanding Shares and outstanding warrants or options for 975,643 Shares (collectively 80.0% on a fully diluted basis) and (ii) pre-Merger holders of Shares (other than Associated-owned Shares and treasury Shares) in the aggregate owned 1,394,744 Shares constituting approximately 23.3% of the outstanding Shares (or 20.0% on a fully diluted basis). As used in this paragraph, the term "Shares" includes shares of Nonvoting Common Stock, $0.01 par value, of the Company, which are immediately convertible into Shares for no additional consideration.

To finance the Offer, refinance existing debt of ASI, the Company and USSC, repurchase stock options and pay related fees and expenses, Associated, ASI, USSC and the Company entered into (i) new credit facilities ("New Credit Facilities") with a group of banks and financial institutions providing for term loan borrowings of $200.0 million and revolving loan borrowings of up to $300.0 million and (ii) a senior subordinated bridge loan facility in the aggregate principal amount of $130.0 million (the "Subordinated Bridge Facility"). In addition, simultaneously with the consummation of the Offer, Associated obtained $12.0 million from the sale of additional shares of Associated Common Stock, which proceeds were used to finance the purchase of a portion of the Shares pursuant to the Offer.

On May 3, 1995, USSC completed the issuance of $150.0 million of 12 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes (the "Notes") due 2005. The net proceeds of the Notes (after discount and fees of approximately $5.5 million) were used to pay certain expenses, to repay the $130.0 million Subordinated Bridge Facility (together with $1.6 million in accrued and unpaid interest thereon), to repay a portion of the Tranche A and Tranche B term loans (totaling approximately $6.5 million) and provide working capital. In the event the necessary consents are obtained, the Company expects to repurchase the Series B Preferred Stock, together with accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, for approximately $7.0 million.

Although the Company was the surviving corporation in the Merger, the transaction was treated as a reverse acquisition for accounting purposes with Associated as the acquiring corporation. The total purchase price of approximately $293.4 million was allocated to assets and liabilities of the Company based on the estimated fair value as of the date of acquisition. The allocation was based on preliminary estimates which may be revised at a later date. The excess of consideration paid over the estimated fair value of net assets acquired in the amount of $66.7 million has been recorded as goodwill and is being amortized on a straight-line basis over 40 years.

Effective for 1995, the Company changed its fiscal year from a year-end of August 31 to December 31. A report on Form 8-K was filed on April 26, 1995, reporting that the Company had changed its fiscal year end to December 31. A Form 10-K was filed by the Company on June 27, 1995 which included audited financial statements for the period from September 1, 1994 through March 30, 1995, the date on which the Merger was consummated.

The Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet combines Associated and the Company as of March 31, 1995 and reflects a preliminary allocation of the purchase price which may be revised at a later date. The Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet as of December 31, 1994 reflects Associated only. The Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations reflects the results of operations for Associated only for the three months ended March 31, 1995 and March 31, 1994. The Condensed Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the three months ended March 31, 1995 and March 31, 1994 reflects that of Associated only, including the effects of the Acquisition and Merger.

The actual results for the quarter ended March 31, 1995 include a restructuring charge of $9.8 million ($5.9 million net of tax benefit of $3.9 million). The restructuring charge includes severance costs totaling $3.0 million. The restructuring plan specifies that certain distribution, sales, and corporate positions, approximately 330 in total, will be eliminated substantially within a one-year period. As of March 31, 1995, no employees have been terminated and no benefits have been paid or charged against the reserve. The restructuring charge also includes distribution center closing costs totaling $4.7 million and stockkeeping unit reduction costs totaling $2.1 million. The restructuring plan specifies the closing of eight redundant distribution centers and the elimination of overlapping inventory items from the Company's catalogs substantially within a one-year period. Distribution center closing costs include (i) the net occupancy costs of leased facilities after they are vacated until expiration of leases and (ii) the losses on the sale of owned facilities and the facilities' furniture, fixtures, and equipment. Stockkeeping unit reduction costs include losses on the sale of inventory items which have been discontinued solely as a result of the acquisition and Merger. As of March 31, 1995, no amounts have been charged against the reserve.

The actual results for the quarter ended March 31, 1995 also include compensation expense relating to an increase in the value of employee stock options of approximately $1.5 million, ($0.9 million net of tax benefit of $0.6 million) as a result of the Acquisition and Merger and an extraordinary write-off of approximately $2.4 million ($1.4 million net of tax benefit of $1.0 million) of financing costs and original issue discount relating to the debt retired. See Note 5--Extraordinary Item.

The unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements for the two companies for the year ended December 31, 1994 were included in the Company's Form 8-K dated April 14, 1995.

The following summarized unaudited pro forma operating data for the three months ended March 31, 1995 and 1994 is presented giving effect to the Acquisition as if it had been consummated at the beginning of the respective periods and, therefore, reflects the results of the Company and Associated on a consolidated basis for the period from January 1, 1995 through March 31, 1995 and January 1, 1994 through March 31, 1994, respectively. These pro forma results have been prepared for comparative purposes only and do not purport to be indicative of the results of operations that actually would have resulted had the combination been in effect on the dates indicated, or which may result in the future. The pro forma results exclude one-time non-recurring charges or credits directly attributable to the transaction. The estimated cost savings that the Company expects to realize ($26.0 million on a total year basis and $6.5 million on a quarterly basis) pursuant to its consolidation plan that has been approved by the Board of Directors of the Company have been reflected in the pro forma results as if the Company's consolidation plan had been implemented in full for the periods reflected. The Company plans to implement its consolidation plan over a 12-month period following the Acquisition.

The pro forma income statement adjustments consisted of (i) estimated cost savings of $6.5 million that the Company expects to realize, (ii) increased depreciation expense resulting from the write-up of certain fixed assets to fair value, (iii) additional incremental goodwill amortization, (iv) additional incremental interest expense due to debt issued, net of debt retired, (v) reduction in preferred stock dividends due to the assumed retirement of the Series B Preferred Stock, which the Company is permitted to redeem pursuant to its New Credit Facilities.

quarter of 1994 reflects $380.1 million in net sales for the Company and $123.8 million for Associated.

(2) CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

Effective January 1, 1995, Associated changed its method of accounting for the cost of inventory from the FIFO method to the LIFO method. Associated made this change in contemplation of its acquisition of the Company (accounted for as a reverse acquisition) so that its method would conform to that of the Company. Associated believes that in an inflationary environment the LIFO method provides a better matching of current costs and current revenues and that earnings reported under the LIFO method are more easily compared to that of other companies in the wholesale industry where the LIFO method is common. This change resulted in a charge to pre-tax income of approximately $0.5 million ($0.3 million net of tax benefit) or $.05 per common and common equivalent share for the quarter ended March 31, 1995. The cumulative effect of this accounting change for years prior to 1995 is not determinable, nor are the pro forma effects of retroactive application of the LIFO method to prior years. The Associated LIFO reserve as of March 31, 1995 was $0.5 million.

(3) BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements are unaudited, except for the Associated Consolidated Balance Sheet as of December 31, 1994, which is condensed from the audited Consolidated Balance Sheet of Associated at that date. Certain prior-year amounts have been reclassified to conform with current-year presentations. These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. In the opinion of the Company's management, the condensed consolidated financial statements for the unaudited interim periods presented include all adjustments necessary to fairly present the results of such interim periods and the financial position as of the end of said periods. Other than the restructuring charge, the extraordinary item and the compensation expense relating to employee stock options, these adjustments were of a normal recurring nature and did not have a material impact on the financial statements presented. Certain interim expense and inventory estimates are recognized throughout the fiscal year relating to marginal income tax rates, shrinkage, inflation and product mix. Any appropriate adjustments to reflect actual experience, which historically have been immaterial, will be recognized in the fourth quarter.

(4) EXTRAORDINARY ITEM

The Extraordinary Item reflects the write-off of financing costs and original issue discount relating to the retired debt which was being amortized over the life of the original debt.

(5) NET INCOME (LOSS) ATTRIBUTABLE TO COMMON AND COMMON EQUIVALENT SHARES

Net income (loss) per common and common equivalent shares is based on net income (loss) after preferred stock dividend requirements. Net income per common and common equivalent share in the first quarter of 1994 on a primary and fully diluted basis are computed using the weighted average number of shares outstanding adjusted for the effect of stock options and warrants considered to be dilutive common stock equivalents. For the first quarter of 1995, the stock options and warrants were excluded from the calculation of net loss attributable to common and common equivalent shares as they would be anti-dilutive.

ITEM 14. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

The Articles of Incorporation and the By-laws of the Company provide for the indemnification of directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the Business Corporation Act of the State of Illinois ("IBCA"). Pursuant to Section 8.75 of the IBCA, the Company generally has the power to indemnify its present and former directors and officers against expenses incurred by them in connection with any suit to which such directors and officers are, or are threatened to be made, a party by reason of their serving in such positions, so long as they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action, they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful.

Indemnification is not available if such person has been adjudged to have been liable to the Company, unless and only to the extent the court in which such action was brought determines that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances, the person is reasonably and fairly entitled to indemnification for such expenses as the court shall deem proper. The Company has the power to purchase and maintain insurance for such persons. The statute also expressly provides that the power to indemnify authorized thereby is not exclusive of any rights granted under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

The above discussion of the Articles of Incorporation and By-laws of the Company and of Section 8.75 of the IBCA is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by such Articles of Incorporation, By-laws and the IBCA.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is therefore unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person thereof in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by a director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

ITEM 15. RECENT SALES OF UNREGISTERED SECURITIES.

On May 3, 1995, the Company sold $150,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 12 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2005 (the "Old Notes") in a private placement in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act, at a price equal to 100% of the stated principal amount of such Old Notes.

Exemption from registration with respect to the above-described sale was claimed under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act regarding transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering.

PLAN AND AGREEMENT OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT dated March 28, 1986 by and between:

JOHNSON & STALEY, INC., a Delaware corporation ("J&S")

UNITED STATIONERS SUPPLY CO., an Illinois corporation ("USSCo.")

Said corporations are hereinafter sometimes called "Constituent Corporations".

A. J&S is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware. The authorized capital stock of J&S consists of 1,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, all of which shares are issued and outstanding.

B. USSCo. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois. The authorized capital stock of USSCo. consists of 890,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of which 847,250 shares are issued and outstanding.

C. All of the issued and outstanding shares of both Constituent Corporations are held by United Stationers, Inc.

D. The parties desire to provide for the merger of J&S into USSCo. by a statutory merger of the parties intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended.

THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein, the parties agree to the following terms and conditions of merger and the mode of carrying it into effect:

1. Merger. Pursuant to and in accordance with this Agreement, J&S shall be merged into USSCo., which shall be the surviving corporation, and the separate existence of J&S shall cease upon the effectiveness of its merger with and into USSCo.

Upon the merger becoming effective, USSCo. shall possess all the rights and privileges, powers and franchises, and be subject to all the restrictions, disabilities and duties of the Constituent Corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed and all debts due to either of the Constituent Corporations on whatever account and all other things in action or belonging to either of the Constituent Corporations shall be vested in USSCo., and all and every other interest shall be thereafter as effectively the property of USSCo. as they were of the respective Constituent Corporations, and the title to any real estate vested by deed or otherwise in either of the Constituent Corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the merger, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of either of the Constituent Corporations shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities, obligations and duties of the respective Constituent Corporations shall attach to USSCo. and may be entered against it to the same extent as if the debts, liabilities, obligations and duties had been contracted by it.

2. Effective Date. The merger shall be effective March 31, 1986 for accounting purposes only.

3. Name. The name of the surviving corporation shall continue to be United Stationers Supply Co.

4. Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. The Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of USSCo. in effect on the effective date of the merger shall be the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the surviving corporation.

5. Office and Registered Agent. The principal office, the registered office and the registered agent of USSCo. on the effective date of the merger shall remain the same.

6. Officers and Directors. The persons who are officers and/or directors of USSCo. on the effective date of the merger shall continue to be the respective directors and officers of the surviving corporation until the next annual meeting of the shareholder and directors of USSCo. and until their successors are elected and qualified.

7. Conversion of Shares. The manner and basis of converting the shares of the Constituent Corporations into shares of USSCo. shall be as follows:

As of the effective date and without any action by the holders of such shares, each share of stock of J&S outstanding on the effective date of the merger shall be converted into 32,750 shares of USSCo. Each of the parties hereto agree that, at anytime after the effective time of the merger the surviving corporation shall issue, or shall have returned to it, such number of shares of USSCo., if any, as are necessary to correct the foregoing exchange ratio such that the holders of the shares of stock of J&S, outstanding, at the effective time of the merger shall have received that number of shares of USSCo. which will have the fair market value equivalent to the fair market value of J&S immediately prior to the merger, determined on the basis of the respective "tangible net book value" of each Constituent Corporation. "Tangible net book value" shall mean the excess of the value of the tangible assets of the corporation over all liabilities of the corporation as of the effective date.

5. The plan of merger was approved, (a) as to each corporation not organized in Illinois, in compliance with the laws of the state under which it is organized, and (b) as to each Illinois corporation, as follows:

Article III

3.1 Conversion of Shares.

1. At the Effective Time, each issued and outstanding share of common stock, $0.10 par value per share, of SDC ("SDC Common") will be converted into the right to receive:

(a) for each share of SDC Common held by a stockholder of SDC who has irrevocably elected to receive cash in exchange for his shares of SDC Common: $11.636364 per share in cash (the "Cash Stockholder Per Share Amount"); or

(b) for each share of SDC Common held by a stockholder of SDC (a "Continuing Stockholder") who has irrevocably elected to receive consideration (the "Combined Consideration") consisting of a combination of cash and shares of common stock, $0.10 par value per share ("Parent Common"), of United Stationers Inc., a Delaware corporation and the sole shareholder of the Corporation ("Parent") in exchange for their shares of SDC Common:

PLAN AND AGREEMENT OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT dated as of August 31, 1994 by and between: MICROUNITED INC., a Delaware corporation ("MU"), and UNITED STATIONERS SUPPLY CO., an Illinois corporation ("USSCo.") (Said corporations are hereinafter sometimes called ("Constituent Corporations"), and UNITED STATIONERS INC., a Delaware corporation ("Parent").

A. MU is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware. The authorized capital stock of MU consists of 1,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, all of which shares are issued and outstanding.

B. USSCo. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois. The authorized capital stock of USSCo. consists of 890,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, 880,000 of which shares are issued and outstanding.

C. All of the issued and outstanding shares of both Constituent Corporations are held by Parent.

D. Parent desires to provide for the merger of MU into USSCo. by a statutory merger of the parties intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended.

E. Parent, as the sole shareholder of each of the Constituent Corporations waives the 30-day period for notice as specified in Section 11.30(b) of the Illinois Business Corporation Act of 1983 ("BCA").

THEREFORE, the parties agree to the following terms and conditions of merger and the mode of carrying it into effect:

1. Merger. Pursuant to Section 11.30 of the BCA and in accordance with this Agreement, MU shall be merged into USSCo., which shall be the surviving corporation, and the separate existence of MU shall cease upon the effectiveness of its merger with and into USSCo.

2. Effectiveness. The merger shall be effective at 5:00 p.m. Central Daylight Savings Time, on the date the Articles of Merger are filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Illinois in accordance with the BCA. Upon the merger becoming effective, USSCo. shall possess all the rights and privileges, powers and franchises, and be subject to all the restrictions, disabilities and duties of the Constituent Corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed and all debts due to either of the Constituent Corporations on whatever account and all other things in action or belonging to either of the Constituent Corporations shall be vested in USSCo., and all and every other interest shall be thereafter as effectively the property of USSCo. as they were of the respective Constituent Corporations, and the title to any real estate vested by deed or otherwise in either of the Constituent Corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the merger, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of either of the Constituent Corporations shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities, obligations and duties of the respective Constituent Corporations shall attach to USSCo., and may be entered against it to the same extent as if the debts, liabilities, obligations and duties had been contracted by it.

3. Name. The name of the surviving corporation shall continue to be United Stationers Supply Co.

4. Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. The Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of USSCo. in effect on the effective date of the merger shall be the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the surviving corporation.

5. Office and Registered Agent. The principal office, the registered office and the registered agent of USSCo. on the effective date of the merger shall remain the same.

6. Officers and Directors. The persons who are officers and/or directors of USSCo. on the effective date of the merger shall continue to be the respective directors and officers of the surviving corporation until the next annual meeting of the shareholder and directors of USSCo. and until their successors are elected and qualified.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, pursuant to the authority duly given by resolutions adopted by their respective Boards of Directors, have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date shown above.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 30, 1995, is made and entered into between Associated Stationers, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("ASI"), and United Stationers Supply Co., an Illinois corporation (USSC").

1. Parties to the Merger; Effective Date. Pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement and Plan of Merger, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") and the Business Corporation Act of the State of Illinois (the "IBCA"), ASI shall be merged with and into USSC (the "Merger"). USSC, which shall be the surviving corporation, is hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Surviving Corporation." The Merger shall become effective upon the filing of properly executed articles of merger (the "Articles of Merger") in the office of the Secretary of State. As used in this Agreement and Plan of Merger, the term "Effective Date" shall mean the date and time at which a certificate of merger has been issued by the Secretary of State of the State of Illinois.

2. Capitalization of Constituent Corporations. (a) The authorized capital stock of ASI is 3,000 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value ("ASI Common Stock"), of which 1,000 shares are validly issued and outstanding, fully paid, non-assessable and owned by United Stationers Inc., a Delaware corporation ("USI").

(b) The authorized capital stock of USSC is 890,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value ("USSC Common Stock"), of which 880,000 shares are validly issued and outstanding, fully paid, non-assessable, and owned by USI.

3. Effect of the Merger. (a) From and after the Effective Date (i) the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of USSC in effect immediately prior to the Effective Date shall continue to be its Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws until amended or repealed in a manner provided by law; (ii) each of the officers and directors of USSC in office immediately prior to the Effective Date shall remain its officers and directors until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed; and (iii) USI, as the former holder of the shares of USSC Common Stock and ASI Common Stock, shall only be entitled to the rights provided in this Agreement and Plan of Merger or to its dissenters' rights provided by the IBCA or the DGCL.

4. Conversion of Securities. (a) Each authorized or issued and outstanding share of USSC Common Stock shall not in any way be affected by the Merger.

(b) All shares of ASI Common Stock outstanding on the Effective Date shall be cancelled and cease to be outstanding, without any payment being made in respect thereof.

5. Transfer of Certificates. After the Effective Date there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of ASI of the shares of ASI Common Stock which were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date.

6. Amendment and Termination. The Boards of Directors of USSC and ASI may amend this Agreement and Plan of Merger at any time prior to the Effective Date. An amendment made subsequent to the submission of the plan to the shareholder of either party to the Merger shall not (i) alter or change the amount or kind of securities or cash which the shareholders of ASI will have the right to receive in the Merger or (ii) alter or change any of the terms or conditions of the plan if such alteration or effect would adversely affect the shares of any class or series of either USSC or ASI.

The Boards of Directors of USSC and ASI may terminate and abandon this Agreement and Plan of Merger at any time prior to the Effective Date, subject to any contractual rights, without further shareholder action, in such manner as shall be agreed upon by USSC and ASI.

7. Counterparts. This Agreement and Plan of Merger may be executed in or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but which together shall constitute a single agreement.

VOTING TRUST AGREEMENT

This Voting Trust Agreement (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of January 31, 1992, by and among Associated Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), the beneficial owners of shares of Common Stock (the "Common Stock") of the Company, whose names are set forth on the signature pages hereto (the "Beneficiaries"), and Gary G. Miller, Daniel J. Good, Thomas W. Sturgess, Frederick B. Hegi, Jr., and James A. Johnson as the voting trustees pursuant to this Agreement (the "Trustees").

WHEREAS, the Beneficiaries deem it in the best interest of the Company and themselves to act together concerning the direction of the affairs of the Company in order to secure continuity and stability of policy and management and to promote the continuous and uninterrupted development of the business and, to that end, to unite the voting power held by them and vest such voting power in the Trustees as provided herein.

NOW THEREFORE, the Company, the Beneficiaries and the Trustees agree as follows:

1. Parties. Any owner of, or person entitled to acquire, fully paid and nonassessable shares of the Class A Common Stock of the Corporation (the "Common Stock") may become a party to this Agreement at any time by executing a counterpart signature page to this Agreement and by depositing with the Trustees the certificate or certificates representing his Common Stock, together with a proper and sufficient instrument, duly executed, for the transfer to the Trustees.

Each Beneficiary expressly covenants that upon his obtaining any shares of the Common Stock, by virtue of the exercise of rights he now owns or acquires in the future or upon obtaining such shares by any other means, he promptly will transfer such stock to the Trustees as provided in this paragraph 1. The Company agrees that it will not, without the consent of the Trustees, issue or sell any Common Stock or any options or other rights to acquire Common Stock to any Beneficiary without first obtaining such Beneficiary's agreement to deposit any such Common Stock (and any Common Stock obtained upon exercise or conversion of any such options or rights) with the Trustees pursuant to this Agreement.

3. Powers of the Trustees. Shares of Common Stock, the certificates evidencing which shall have been deposited with the Trustees as provided in paragraph 1, shall be vested in the Trustees and shall be transferred into the names of the Trustees upon the Company's books. The Trustees shall, as to all stock so held by them, possess and be entitled to exercise all rights of the Beneficiaries of every kind, including the right to vote for election and/or removal of directors and all such other matters as may be voted upon by the Beneficiaries, except as otherwise provided by this Agreement and the Stockholders Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992, among the Company and certain beneficial owners of shares of Common Stock of the Company and warrants for the purchase of Common Stock of the Company, as the same may be amended from time to time (the "Stockholders' Agreement"). The Trustees may be directors of the Company and may vote all shares of Common Stock deposited pursuant to this Agreement in favor of their election as directors; provided, that all votes for the election of directors of the Company shall be cast as provided hereinbelow. The holders of voting trust certificates shall not have any right with respect to any such stock held by the Trustees to vote, take part in or consent to any corporate or stockholders' action of the Company, except as provided herein.

The Trustees shall vote on matters which may come before them at any meeting of the Company's stockholders, and shall vote for directors of the Company as specified herein. The Trustees may vote all shares of Common Stock held pursuant to this Agreement in person or by such person or persons as they shall select as their proxy.

The Trustees shall vote all of the Common Stock held by them in order to:

(i) elect to the Board of Directors of the Company:

a. at least one representative designated by Good Capital

Co., Inc.;

b. at least one representative designated by ASI Partners, L.P.;

c. such number of directors that shall constitute at least a majority of the directors of the Company at all times as designated by Wingate Partners, L.P.; and

d. one representative designated by the Key Executives (as defined below) for so long as such Key Executives retain the right to designate such representative. As used herein, the term "Key Executives" shall mean, collectively, Michael D. Rowsey, Robert D. Eberspacher, Daniel J. Schleppe, and Lawrence E. Miller.

(ii) Remove as a director (with or without cause) any representative so designated, upon, and only upon, the written request of the entity, group or individual set forth above as designating such representative (the "Appointing Principal").

(iii) Fix the authorized number of directors on the Company's Board of Directors at not less than seven directors (provided that a greater number may from time to time be set by the board in order to give effect fully to the provisions of this paragraph).

(iv) On any other matter on which shares of Common Stock deposited pursuant to this Agreement shall be voted or shall have the right to give or withhold consent, the Trustee shall vote (or refrain from voting) in accordance with the written directions from the holders of Voting Trust Certificates representing not less than 66-2/3% of the shares of Common Stock held in trust pursuant to this Agreement, or in the absence of such written direction, as the Trustees may determine in their sole discretion.

4. Liability of Trustees. No Trustee shall be liable for any error of judgment or mistakes of law, or other mistake, or for anything including in connection with his voting of the Common Stock, save only his own willful misconduct or gross negligence. It is expressly understood and agreed that the Trustees shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company from any and all expenses, costs, damages or other liabilities in voting the Common Stock and otherwise acting as Trustees hereunder.

5. Decisions by the Trustees. The decision or act of a majority of the Trustees, whether at a meeting or by writing, with or without a meeting, shall for all purposes of this Agreement, including but not limited to the exercise of the voting power of the shares of Common Stock held in trust hereunder, be required for any decision or act of the Trustees pursuant to this Agreement. The Trustees may, in their discretion, establish rules of action, consistent with the provisions of this Agreement, that govern their actions pursuant to this Agreement.

6. Reimbursement and Indemnity of Trustee. The Trustees shall be reimbursed by the Company for any reasonable expenses and indemnified by the Company for all liabilities incurred by them in connection with their duties under this Agreement, including the disbursement and reasonable compensation of their agents, attorneys, employees, and officers whom they may employ in carrying out the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

7. Replacement of the Trustees. Any of the Trustees may resign at any time by delivering to the other Trustees his resignation in writing. Any of the Trustees may be removed at any time (with or without cause) by the Appointing Principal for such Trustee by written notice to the Trustees. In the case of death, disability, resignation or removal of any Trustee, the resulting vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of a successor by the Appointing Principal. Each such successor shall become a Trustee by executing a counterpart of this Voting Trust Agreement, as then in effect. Upon becoming a Trustee, a successor shall have all title, rights and powers of a Trustee named in this Agreement. The Appointing Principals are:

(a) Wingate Partners, L.P. - As to Thomas W. Sturgess, Frederick B. Hegi, Jr., and James A. Johnson

(b) ASI Partners, L.P. - As to Gary G. Miller.

(c) Good Capital Co., Inc. - As to Daniel J. Good.

8. Transfer of Voting Trust Certificates. During the term of this Agreement, each Beneficiary agrees that the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge or other disposition of his or her interests in any voting trust certificate (a "Transfer") shall be subject to any limitations and restrictions on transfer noted on the voting trust certificate, including those limitations and restrictions contained in the Stockholders Agreement.

9. Dividends and Other Rights. The holder of each voting trust certificate shall be entitled to receive all dividends, distributions, and sales proceeds, if any, collected by the Trustees upon the like number of shares of Common Stock of the Company as specified in the voting trust certificate; provided, that any dividends or distributions consisting of shares of Common Stock or other voting securities of the Company shall be retained by the Trustees pursuant to this Agreement.

10. Filing of Agreement. A copy of this Agreement shall be filed by the Trustees in the registered office of the Company within the State of Delaware, and shall be open to the inspection of any stockholder of the Company or any beneficiary of the trust created under this Agreement daily during business hours.

11. Amendment. (a) If at any time the Trustees shall deem it advisable to amend this Agreement, they shall, by resolution adopted or signed by all of the Trustees, declare such amendment advisable, and shall submit such amendment to the holders of the voting trust certificates for their approval at a meeting called for that purpose, or for approval by written consent in lieu of a meeting. Notice of such meeting shall be given in the manner provided for stockholders' meetings in the bylaws of the Company.

(b) Subject to the last sentence of this subsection (b), if the proposed amendment shall be approved by the vote, in person or by proxy, of the holders of voting trust certificates for 66-2/3% of the shares of Common Stock held in trust, a certificate to that effect shall be made and verified by the chairman and secretary of the meeting and filed in the Company's registered office in Delaware. Upon such filing, the proposed amendment shall become a part of this Agreement, with the same force and effect as it originally set forth herein. No amendment to this Agreement that materially and adversely affects the rights of a Beneficiary hereunder shall be enforceable against such Beneficiary until such Beneficiary has consented in writing to such amendment; provided that any amendment made for the purpose of adding an additional party (including, without limitation, an additional Beneficiary) hereto shall not be deemed to materially or adversely affect the rights of any other Beneficiary hereto.

12. Termination. (a) This Agreement shall terminate upon the earlier of (i) ten years from the date hereof, unless extended as provided in Section 218 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or (ii) the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering. As used herein, the term Qualified Public Offering shall mean the sale in an underwritten public offering or a series of public offerings, registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, of Common Stock which results in public ownership of not less than 20% of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company determined on a fully diluted basis, which shares of Common Stock are listed upon the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or are approved for quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System and which offerings shall have resulted in the receipt by the Company and any selling stockholders of aggregate cash proceeds (after deduction of underwriter discounts and the costs associated with the offerings) of at least $37.5 million.

(b) Upon the termination of this Agreement, the holders of voting trust certificates will be entitled, upon surrender for cancellation of such certificates and upon payment of any transfer tax required by law, to receive certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock represented by their respective voting trust certificates. The Beneficiaries acknowledge and agree that, upon termination of this Agreement, each Beneficiary, as a holder of Common Stock, shall be subject to all obligations and entitled to all rights as a stockholder of the Company and the assignee of the Trustees.

13. Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law or rule in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other provision or any other jurisdiction, but this Agreement will be reformed, construed and enforced in such jurisdiction as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision never had been contained herein.

14. Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, this document embodies the complete agreement and understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and preempts any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties, written or oral, which may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

15. Successors and Assigns. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement will bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Company and its successors and assigns, the Trustees and their respective successors, and the Beneficiaries and any subsequent holders of voting trust certificates and the respective successors and assigns of each of them, so long as they hold voting trust certificates.

16. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts each of which will be an original and all of which taken together will constitute one and the same agreement.

17. Remedies. The Trustees shall be entitled to enforce their rights under this Agreement specifically, to recover damages by reason of any breach of any provision of this hereto agree and acknowledge that money damages may not be an adequate remedy for any breach of the provisions of this Agreement and that the Trustees may in their sole discretion apply to any court of law or equity of competent jurisdiction for specific performance and/or injunctive relief (without posting a bond or other security) in order to enforce or prevent any violation of the provisions of this Agreement.

Agreement and to exercise all other rights existing in their favor. The parties

18. Notices. Any notice provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be either personally delivered, or mailed registered or certified (postage and registration or certification fees prepaid) or sent by facsimile or reputable overnight courier service (charges prepaid) to the recipient at the address indicated on the signature page hereto and to any subsequent holder of voting trust certificates subject to this Agreement at such address as indicated by the Trustees records, or at such address or to the attention of such other person as the recipient party has specified by prior written notice to the sending party. Notices will be deemed to have been given hereunder when delivered personally, three days after deposit in the U.S. mail, on the date of delivery by facsimile, and one day after deposit with a reputable overnight courier service.

19. Legends. Voting Trust Certificates evidencing shares of Common Stock deposited in trust pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall bear such legend or legends as the Company shall reasonably deem necessary to protect the parties hereto.

20. Governing Law. The Corporate law of the State of Delaware shall govern all issues concerning the relative rights of the Company and its stockholders. All other questions concerning the construction, validity and interpretation of this Agreement and any exhibits and schedules hereto shall be governed by the internal law, and not the law of conflicts, of the State of Illinois.

21. Descriptive Headings. The descriptive headings of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement on the day and year first above written.

EXECUTION COPY

WAIVER AND AMENDMENT NO. 1

WAIVER AND AMENDMENT NO. 1 dated as of April 13, 1995, between UNITED STATIONERS SUPPLY CO., a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Company"); UNITED STATIONERS INC., a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Delaware ("the Guarantor" and, together with the Company, the "Obligors"); each of the lenders that is a signatory hereto; and THE CHASE MANHATTAN BANK (NATIONAL ASSOCIATION), a national banking association, as agent for the Lenders under the Credit Agreement referred to below (in such capacity, together with its successors in such capacity, the "Agent").

The Company, the Guarantor, certain lenders and the Agent are parties to a Credit Agreement dated as of March 30, 1995 (as heretofore modified and supplemented and in effect on the date hereof, the "Credit Agreement"), providing, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, for extensions of credit (by making of loans and issuing letters of credit) to be made by said lenders to the Company in an aggregate principal or face amount not exceeding $500,000,000. The Company, the Guarantor, certain lenders and the Agent wish to amend the Credit Agreement in certain respects, and accordingly, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

Section 1. Definitions. Except as otherwise defined in this Waiver and Amendment No. 1, terms defined in the Credit Agreement are used herein as defined therein.

Section 2. Waivers. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 9.07, 9.09 or 9.16 of the Credit Agreement and subject to Section 5 below, but effective as of the date hereof,

(a) the Lenders hereby agree and consent to the issuance of the Take-Out Notes in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $150,000,000, provided that the proceeds of such issuance are applied as follows (and the Lenders hereby consent to such application):

(i) First, an amount of such proceeds equal to (x) $130,000,000 plus (y) accrued interest on the Bridge Loans as of the date of such issuance shall be applied to the payment in full of the Bridge Loans;

(ii) Second, $6,500,000 of such proceeds shall be applied to the prepayment of the Term Loans in accordance with Section 2.09 of the Credit Agreement; and

(iii) Finally, the remaining amount of such proceeds shall be applied to the prepayment of the Revolving Credit Loans; and

(b) the Lenders hereby agree and consent to the redemption in full (but not any partial redemption) or repurchase of all (but not less than all) of the Guarantor's Class B Preferred Stock at any time, unless a Default has occurred and is continuing at the time the Guarantor has committed so to repurchase or redeem such Class B Preferred Stock, provided that (i) such redemption or repurchase is for an aggregate price of not more than $7,500,000, (ii) the Guarantor shall have received all applicable consents thereto (other than any such consent required under the Credit Agreement waived hereby), (iii) any such Class B Preferred Stock so repurchased shall be immediately retired, (iv) such redemption or repurchase shall be permitted only if the Take-Out Notes are issued in the aggregate principal amount of $150,000,000 and (v) such redemption or repurchase shall have taken place not more than 60 days after the Guarantor has committed to such repurchase or redemption.

Section 3. Amendments. Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions precedent specified in Section 5 below, but effective as of the date hereof, the Credit Agreement shall be amended as follows:

3.01. References in the Credit Agreement (including references to the Credit Agreement as amended hereby) to "this Agreement" (and indirect references such as "hereunder", "hereby", "herein" and "hereof") shall be deemed to be references to the Credit Agreement as amended hereby.

3.02. Section 9.10 of the Credit Agreement shall be amended by adding immediately after clause (b) thereto the following:

"minus (c) at any time after the redemption in full or repurchase and retirement of all of the Class B Preferred Stock of the Guarantor, $3,750,000."

Section 4. Representations and Warranties. Each of the Guarantor and the Company represents and warrants to the Lenders that (a) no Default has occurred and is continuing and

(b) the representatives and warranties set forth in Section 8 of the Credit Agreement and in each other Basic Document to which the Guarantor or the Company is a party are true and complete on the date hereof as if made on and as of the date hereof (or, if any such representation or warranty is expressly stated to have been made as of a specific date, as of such specific date) and as if each reference in said Section 8 to "this Agreement" included reference to this Waiver and Amendment No. 1.

Section 5. Effectiveness. As provided in Sections 2 and 3 above, the waivers of and amendments to the Credit Agreement set forth in said Sections 2 and 3 shall become effective, as of the date hereof, upon the execution and delivery hereof.

Section 6. Miscellaneous. Except as herein provided, the Credit Agreement shall remain unchanged and in full force and effect. This Waiver and Amendment No. 1 may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same amendatory instrument and any of the parties hereto may execute this Waiver and Amendment No. 1 by signing any such counterpart. This Waiver and Amendment No. 1 shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York.

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

THIS REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into May 3, 1995 among UNITED STATIONERS SUPPLY CO., an Illinois corporation (the "Company"), UNITED STATIONERS INC. ("United"), a Delaware corporation, and CHASE SECURITIES, INC. (the "Initial Purchaser").

This Agreement is made in connection with the Purchase Agreement dated April 26, 1995 among the Company, United and the Initial Purchaser (the "Purchase Agreement"), which provides for the sale by the Company to the Initial Purchaser of an aggregate of $150,000,000 principal amount of the Company's 12 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2005 (the "Securities"). In order to induce the Initial Purchaser to enter into the Purchase Agreement, the Company has agreed to provide to the Initial Purchaser and its direct and indirect transferees the registration rights set forth in this Agreement. The execution of this Agreement is a condition to the closing under the Purchase Agreement.

In consideration of the foregoing, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following capitalized defined terms shall have the following meanings:

"Closing Date" shall mean the Closing Date as defined in the Purchase Agreement.

"Company" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble and also includes the Company's successors.

"Depositary" shall mean The Depository Trust Company, or any other depositary appointed by the Company; provided, however, that such depositary must have an address in the Borough of Manhattan, in the City of New York.

"Exchange Securities" shall mean 12 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2005 issued by the Company under the Indenture containing terms identical to the Securities (except that (i) interest thereon shall accrue from the last date on which interest was paid on the Securities or, if no such interest has been paid, from the date of their original issue, (ii) the transfer restrictions thereon shall be eliminated and (iii) certain provisions relating to an increase in the stated rate of interest thereon shall be eliminated), to be offered to Holders of Securities in exchange for Securities pursuant to the Exchange Offer.

"Holders" shall mean the Initial Purchaser, for so long as it owns any Registrable Securities, and each of its successors, assigns and direct and indirect transferees who become registered owners of Registrable Securities under the Indenture.

"Initial Purchaser" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Majority Holders" shall mean the Holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Registrable Securities; provided that whenever the consent or approval of Holders of a specified percentage of Registrable Securities is required hereunder, Registrable Securities held by the Company shall be disregarded in determining whether such consent or approval was given by the Holders of such required percentage or amount.

"Person" shall mean an individual, partnership, corporation, trust or unincorporated organization, or a government or agency or political subdivision thereof.

"Prospectus" shall mean the prospectus included in a Registration Statement, including any preliminary prospectus, and any such prospectus as amended or supplemented by any prospectus supplement, including a prospectus supplement with respect to the terms of the offering of any portion of the Registrable Securities covered by a Shelf Registration Statement, and by all other amendments and "Purchase Agreement" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Registrable Securities" shall mean the Securities; provided, however, that Securities shall cease to be Registrable Securities when (i) a Registration Statement with respect to such Securities shall have been declared effective under the 1933 Act and such Securities shall have been disposed of pursuant to such Registration Statement, (ii) such Securities shall be entitled to be sold to the public pursuant to Rule 144(k) (or any similar provision then in force, but not Rule 144A) under the 1933 Act, (iii) such Securities shall have ceased to be outstanding or (iv) such Securities have been exchanged for Exchange Securities upon consummation of the Exchange Offer.

"Registration Expenses" shall mean any and all expenses incident to performance of or compliance by the Company and United with this Agreement, including without limitation: (i) all SEC, stock exchange or National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") registration and filing fees, (ii) all fees and expenses incurred in connection with compliance with state securities or blue sky laws and compliance with the rules of the NASD (including reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel for any underwriters or Holders in connection with blue sky qualification of any of the Exchange Securities or Registrable Securities), (iii) all printers' fees and expenses with respect to word processing, printing and distributing any Registration Statement, any Prospectus and any amendments or supplements thereto, (iv) all rating agency fees, (v) all fees and disbursements relating to the qualification of the Indenture under applicable securities laws; (vi) the fees and disbursements of the Trustee and its counsel and any escrow agent or custodian; (vii) all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the listing, if any, of any of the Registrable Securities on any securities exchange or exchanges, (viii) the fees and disbursements of counsel for the Company and, in the case of a Shelf Registration statement required to be filed under Section 2(b)(i), (ii) or (iii), the reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel for the Holders (which counsel shall be selected by the Majority Holders and which counsel may also be counsel for the Initial Purchaser); (ix) the fees and disbursements of the independent public accountants of the Company, including the expenses of any special audits or "cold comfort" letters required by or incident to such performance and compliance, and (x) in the case of a Shelf Registration statement required to be filed under Section 2(b)(i), (ii) or (iii), any reasonable disbursements of the underwriters customarily required to be paid by issuers or sellers of securities and the reasonable fees and expenses of any special experts retained by the Company in connection with any Registration Statement, but excluding fees of counsel to the underwriters (other than fees and expenses set forth in clause (ii) above) or the Holders (other than fees and expenses set forth in clause (viii) above) and underwriting discounts and commissions and transfer taxes, if any, relating to the sale or disposition of Registrable Securities by a Holder.

"Registration Statement" shall mean any registration statement of the Company which covers any of the Exchange Securities or Registrable Securities pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, and all amendments and supplements to any such Registration Statement, including post-effective amendments, in each case including the Prospectus contained therein, all exhibits thereto and all material incorporated by reference therein.

"SEC" shall mean the Securities and Exchange Commission.

"Shelf Registration" shall mean a registration effected pursuant to Section 2(b) hereof.

"Trustee" shall mean the trustee with respect to the Securities under the Indenture.

2. Registration Under the 1933 Act. (a) Exchange Offer Registration. To the extent not prohibited by any applicable law or applicable interpretation of the Staff of the SEC, the Company shall use its best efforts (i) to file within 30 days after the Closing Date an Exchange Offer Registration Statement covering the offer by the Company to the Holders to exchange all of the Registrable Securities for Exchange Securities, (ii) to cause such Exchange Offer Registration Statement to be declared effective by the SEC within 120 days after the Closing Date, (iii) to cause such Registration Statement to remain effective until the closing of the Exchange Offer and (iv) to consummate the Exchange Offer within 150 days following the Closing Date. The Exchange Securities will be issued under the Indenture. Upon the effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, the Company shall promptly commence the Exchange Offer, it being the objective of such Exchange Offer to enable each Holder (other than Participating Broker-Dealers (as defined in Section 3(f) hereof) eligible and electing to exchange Registrable Securities for Exchange Securities (assuming that such Holder is not an affiliate of the Company within the meaning of Rule 405 under the 1933 Act, acquires the Exchange Securities in the ordinary course of such Holder's business and has no arrangements or understandings with any person to participate in the Exchange Offer for the purpose of distributing the Exchange Securities) to trade such Exchange Securities from and after their receipt without any limitations or restrictions under the 1933 Act.

In connection with the Exchange Offer, the Company shall:

(i) mail to each Holder, at its address reflected on the security register, a copy of the Prospectus forming part of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, together with an appropriate letter of transmittal (a "Letter of Transmittal") and related documents;

(ii) keep the Exchange Offer open for not less than 30 calendar days after the date notice thereof is mailed to the Holders (or longer if required by applicable law);

(iii) permit Holders to withdraw tendered Registrable Securities at any time prior to the close of business, New York City time, on the last business day on which the Exchange Offer shall remain open, by sending to the institution specified in the notice, a telegram, telex, facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of such Holder, the principal amount of Registrable Securities delivered for exchange, and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing his election to have such Securities exchanged; and

(iv) otherwise comply in all respects with all applicable laws relating to the Exchange Offer.

As soon as practicable after the close of the Exchange Offer, the Company shall:

(i) accept for exchange Registrable Securities duly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to the Exchange Offer in accordance with the terms of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement and the Letter of Transmittal;

(ii) deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Trustee for cancellation all Registrable Securities so accepted for exchange by the Company; and

(iii) cause the Trustee promptly to authenticate and deliver Exchange Securities to, or upon the instructions of, each Holder of Registrable Securities equal in principal amount to the Registrable Securities of such Holder so accepted for exchange.

Interest on each Exchange Security will accrue from the last date on which interest was paid on the Registrable Securities surrendered in exchange therefor or, if no interest has been paid on the Registrable Securities, from the date of its original issue. The Exchange Offer shall not be subject to any conditions, other than that the Exchange Offer, or the making of any exchange by a Holder, does not violate applicable law or any applicable interpretation of the Staff of the SEC. Each Holder of Registrable Securities (other than Participating Broker-Dealers) who wishes to exchange such Registrable Securities for Exchange Securities in the Exchange Offer will be required to represent that (i) it is not an affiliate of United or the Company, (ii) any Exchange Securities to be received by it were acquired in the ordinary course of its business and (iii) at the time of the commencement of the Exchange Offer, it has no arrangement with any person to participate in the distribution (within the meaning of the 1933 Act) of the Exchange Securities. The Company shall inform the Initial Purchaser of the names and addresses of the Holders to whom the Exchange Offer is made, and the Initial Purchaser shall have the right to contact such Holders and otherwise facilitate the tender of Registrable Securities in the Exchange Offer.

(b) Shelf Registration. (i) If, because of any change in law or applicable interpretations thereof by the Staff of the SEC, the Company is not permitted to effect the Exchange Offer as contemplated by Section 2(a) hereof, (ii) upon the request of the Initial Purchaser (with respect to any Registrable Securities which it acquired directly from the Company) within 30 calendar days after the Closing Date if the Initial Purchaser shall hold Registrable Securities which it acquired directly from the Company and if the Initial Purchaser is not permitted, in the opinion of counsel to the Initial Purchaser addressed to the Company (which counsel shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company), pursuant to applicable law or applicable interpretation of the Staff of the SEC to participate in the Exchange Offer, or (iii) if any Holder other than the Initial Purchaser is not eligible to participate in the exchange offer due to a change in law or the applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission and such holder so notifies the Company, the Company shall, at its cost,

(A) as promptly as practicable, file with the SEC a Shelf Registration Statement relating to the offer and sale of the Registrable Securities (limited solely to the Initial Purchaser if clause (ii) alone applies) by the Holders from time to time in accordance with the methods of distribution elected by the Majority Holders of such Registrable Securities and set forth in such Shelf Registration Statement, and use its best efforts to cause such Shelf Registration Statement to be declared effective by the SEC by the later of (1) 120 days after the Closing Date and (2) 45 days after publication of the change in law or interpretation. In the event that the Company is required to file a Shelf Registration Statement upon the request of the Initial Purchaser pursuant to clause (ii) above, the Company shall file and have declared effective by the SEC both an Exchange Offer Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2(a) hereof with respect to all Registrable Securities and a Shelf Registration Statement (which may be a combined Registration Statement with the Exchange Offer Registration Statement) with respect to offers and sales of Registrable Securities held by the Initial Purchaser after completion of the Exchange Offer;

(B) use its best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement continuously effective in order to permit the Prospectus forming part thereof to be usable by Holders for a period of (i), in the case of clause 2(b)(i) above, three years from the date the Shelf Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, or (ii) in the case of clauses 2(b)(ii) and 2(b)(iii) above, three years after the closing date, or in any case such shorter period which will terminate when all of the Registrable Securities covered by the Shelf Registration Statement have been sold pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement or cease to be outstanding; and

(C) notwithstanding any other provisions hereof, use its best efforts to ensure that (i) any Shelf Registration Statement complies in all material respects with the 1933 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, (ii) any Shelf Registration Statement does not, when it becomes effective, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (iii) any Prospectus forming part of any Shelf Registration Statement, and any supplement to such Prospectus (as amended or supplemented from time to time), does not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

The Company further agrees, if necessary, to supplement or amend the Shelf Registration Statement if reasonably requested by the Majority Holders with respect to information relating to the Holders and otherwise as required by Section 3(b) below, to use all reasonable efforts to cause any such amendment to become effective and such Shelf Registration to become usable as soon as thereafter practicable and to furnish to the Holders of Registrable Securities copies of any such supplement or amendment promptly after its being used or filed with the SEC.

(c) Expenses. The Company shall pay all Registration Expenses in connection with the registration pursuant to Section 2(a) or 2(b).

(d) Effective Registration Statement. An Exchange Offer Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2(a) hereof or a Shelf Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2(b) hereof will not be deemed to have become effective unless it has been declared effective by the SEC; provided, however, that if, after it has been declared effective, the offering of Registrable Securities pursuant to a Registration Statement is interfered with by any stop order, injunction or other order or requirement of the SEC or any other governmental agency or court, such Registration Statement will be deemed not to have been effective during the period of such interference, until the offering of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Registration Statement may legally resume.

(e) Increase in Interest Rate. In the event that (i) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not filed with the SEC on or prior to the 30th calendar day after the Closing Date (unless changes in law or the applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission do not permit the Company to effect the Exchange Offer, in which case clause (iv) shall apply), (ii) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not initially declared effective on or prior to the 120th calendar day after the Closing Date (unless changes in law or the applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission do not permit the Company to effect the Exchange Offer, in which case clause (iv) shall apply) or (iii) the Exchange Offer is not consummated on or prior to the 150th day after the Closing Date (unless changes in law or the applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission do not permit the Company to effect the Exchange Offer, in which case clause (iv) shall apply) or (iv) a Shelf Registration Statement required under Section 2(b)(i) hereof with respect to the Registrable Securities is not initially declared effective on or prior to the later of 120th calendar day after the Closing Date or the 45th calendar day after the publication of the change in law or interpretation, the interest rate borne by the Securities shall be increased by one-half of one percent per annum following such 30-day period in the case of clause (i) above, such 120-day period in the case of clause (ii) above, such 150-day period in the case of clause (iii) above or such 120-day or 45-day period in the case of clause (iv) above (as applicable); provided that the aggregate increase in such interest rate will in no event exceed one-half of one percent per annum. Immediately upon (A) the filing of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement after the 30-day period described in clause (i) above, (B) the effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement after the 120-day period described in clause (ii) above, (C) the consummation of the Exchange Offer after the 150-day period described in clause (iii) above or (D) the effectiveness of a Shelf Registration Statement after such 120-day or 45-day period described in clause (iv) above (as applicable), the interest rate borne by the Securities from the date of such filing, effectiveness or consummation, as the case may be, will be reduced to the original interest rate.

(f) Specific Enforcement. Without limiting the remedies available to the Initial Purchaser and the Holders, the Company acknowledges that any failure by the Company to comply with its obligations under Section 2(a) and Sections 2(b) hereof may result in material irreparable injury to the Initial Purchaser or the Holders for which there is no adequate remedy at law, that it will not be possible to measure damages for such injuries precisely and that, in the event of any such failure, the Initial Purchaser or any Holder may obtain such relief as may be required to specifically enforce the Company's obligations under Section 2(a) and Section 2(b) hereof.

(g) Acknowledgment of Holders. Each Holder shall be deemed to have agreed that any broker-dealer and any such Holder using the Exchange Offer to participate in a distribution of the securities to be acquired in the Exchange Offer must comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the 1933 Act in connection with secondary resale transactions and that such secondary resale transactions should be covered by an effective registration statement.

3. Registration Procedures. In connection with the obligations of the Company with respect to the Registration Statements pursuant to Sections 2(a) and 2(b) hereof, the Company shall:

(a) prepare and file with the SEC a Registration Statement, within the time period specified in Section 2 hereof, on the appropriate form under the 1933 Act, which form (i) shall be selected by the Company, (ii) shall, in the case of a Shelf Registration, be available for the sale of the Registrable Securities by the selling Holders thereof and (iii) shall comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the applicable form and include or incorporate by reference all financial statements required by the SEC to be filed therewith, and use its best efforts to cause such Registration Statement to become effective and remain effective in accordance with Section 2 hereof;

(b) prepare and file with the SEC such amendments and post-effective amendments to each Registration Statement as may be necessary under applicable law to keep such Registration Statement effective for the applicable period; cause each Prospectus to be supplemented by any required prospectus supplement, and as so supplemented to be filed if required pursuant to Rule 424 under the 1933 Act; comply with the provisions of the 1933 Act with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by each Registration Statement during the applicable period in accordance with the intended method or methods of distribution by the selling Holders thereof; and keep each Prospectus current during the period described under Section 4(3) and Rule 174 under the 1933 Act that is applicable to transactions by brokers or dealers with respect to Exchange Securities or Registrable Securities;

(c) in the case of a Shelf Registration, (i) notify each Holder of Registrable Securities, at least five days prior to filing, that a Shelf Registration Statement with respect to the Registrable Securities is being filed and advising such Holders that the distribution of Registrable Securities will be made in accordance with the method elected by the Majority Holders; and (ii) furnish to each Holder of Registrable Securities, to counsel for the Initial Purchaser, to counsel for the Holders and to each underwriter of an underwritten offering of Registrable Securities, if any, without charge, as many copies of each Prospectus, including each preliminary Prospectus, and any amendment or supplement thereto and such other documents as such Holder or underwriter may reasonably request, including financial statements and schedules and, if the Holder so requests, all exhibits (including those incorporated by reference) in order to facilitate the public sale or other disposition of the Registrable Securities; and (iii) subject to the last paragraph of Section 3 hereof, hereby consent to the use of the Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto by each of the selling Holders of Registrable Securities in connection with the offering and sale in accordance with applicable law of the Registrable Securities covered by the Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto;

(d) use its best efforts to register or qualify the Registrable Securities under all applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws of such jurisdictions as any Holder of Registrable Securities covered by a Registration Statement and each underwriter of an underwritten offering of Registrable Securities shall reasonably request in writing by the time the applicable Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, to cooperate with the Holders in connection with any filings required to be made with the NASD, and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable such Holder to consummate the disposition in each such jurisdiction of such Registrable Securities owned by such Holder; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to (i) qualify as a foreign corporation or as a dealer in securities in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to qualify but for this Section 3(d) or (ii) take any action which would subject it to general service of process or taxation in any such jurisdiction if it is not then so subject;

(e) in the case of a Shelf Registration, notify each Holder of Registrable Securities and counsel for the Initial Purchaser promptly and, if requested by such Holder or counsel, confirm such advice in writing promptly (i) when a Registration Statement has become effective and when any post-effective amendments and supplements thereto become effective, (ii) of any request by the SEC or any state securities authority for post-effective amendments and supplements to a Registration Statement and Prospectus or for additional information after the Registration Statement has become effective, (iii) of the issuance by the SEC or any state securities authority of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of a Registration Statement or the initiation of any proceedings for that purpose, (iv) if, between the effective date of a Registration Statement and the closing of any sale of Registrable Securities covered thereby, the representations and warranties of the Company contained in any underwriting agreement, securities sales agreement or other similar agreement, if any, relating to such offering cease to be true and correct in all material respects, (v) of the receipt by the Company of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the Registrable Securities for sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose, (vi) of the happening of any event or the discovery of any facts during the period a Shelf Registration Statement is effective which makes any statement made in such Registration Statement or the related Prospectus untrue in any material respect or which requires the making of any changes in such Registration Statement or Prospectus in order to make the statements therein not misleading and (vii) of any determination by the Company that a post-effective amendment to a Registration Statement would be appropriate;

(f) a reasonable time prior to the filing of any Registration Statement, any Prospectus, any amendment to a Registration Statement or amendment or supplement to a Prospectus or any document which is to be incorporated by reference into a Registration Statement or a Prospectus after initial filing of a Registration Statement, provide copies of such document to the Initial Purchaser and its counsel (and, in the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Holders and their counsel) and make representatives of the Company as shall be reasonably requested by the Initial Purchaser and their counsel (and, in the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Holders or their counsel) available for discussion of such document and shall not at any time file or make any amendment to the Registration Statement, any Prospectus or any amendment of or supplement to a Registration Statement or a Prospectus or any document which is to be incorporated by reference into a Registration Statement or a Prospectus, of which the Initial Purchaser and its counsel (and, in the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Holders and their counsel) shall not have previously been advised and furnished a copy or to which the Initial Purchaser or its counsel (and, in the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Holders or their counsel) shall reasonably object unless counsel for the Company advises the Company that such filing by the Company is required under applicable law;

(g) (i) in the case of an Exchange Offer, furnish counsel for the Initial Purchaser and (ii) in the case of a Shelf Registration, furnish counsel for the Holders of Registrable Securities copies of any request by the SEC or any state securities authority for amendments or supplements to a Registration Statement and Prospectus or for additional information;

(h) make every reasonable effort to obtain the withdrawal of any order suspending the effectiveness of a Registration Statement as soon as practicable and provide immediate notice to each Holder of the withdrawal of any such order;

(i) in the case of a Shelf Registration, furnish to each Holder of Registrable Securities, without charge, at least one conformed copy of each Registration Statement and any post-effective amendment thereto (without documents incorporated therein by reference or exhibits thereto, unless requested);

(j) in the case of a Shelf Registration, cooperate with the selling Holders of Registrable Securities to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing Registrable Securities to be sold and not bearing any restrictive legends; and cause such Registrable Securities to be in such denominations (consistent with the provisions of the Indenture) and registered in such names as the selling Holders or the underwriters, if any, may reasonably request at least two business days prior to the closing of any sale of Registrable Securities;

(k) in the case of a Shelf Registration, upon the occurrence of any event or the discovery of any facts, each as contemplated by Section 3(e)(vi) hereof, use its best efforts to prepare a supplement or post-effective amendment to a Registration Statement or the related Prospectus or any document incorporated therein by reference or file any other required document so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of the Registrable Securities, such

Prospectus will not contain at the time of such delivery any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Company agrees to notify each Holder to suspend use of the Prospectus as promptly as practicable after the occurrence of such an event, and each Holder hereby agrees to suspend use of the Prospectus until the Company has amended or supplemented the Prospectus to correct such misstatement or omission. At such time as such public disclosure is otherwise made or the Company determines that such disclosure is not necessary, in each case to correct any misstatement of a material fact or to include any omitted material fact, the Company agrees promptly to notify each Holder of such determination and to furnish each Holder such numbers of copies of the Prospectus, as amended or supplemented, as such Holder may reasonably request;

(l) obtain a CUSIP number for all Exchange Securities, or Registrable Securities, as the case may be, not later than the effective date of a Registration Statement, and provide the Trustee with printed certificates for the Exchange Securities or the Registrable Securities, as the case may be, in a form eligible for deposit with the Depositary;

(m) (i) cause the Indenture to be qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended (the "TIA"), in connection with the registration of the Exchange Securities, or Registrable Securities, as the case may be, (ii) cooperate with the Trustee and the Holders to effect such changes to the Indenture as may be required for the Indenture to be so qualified in accordance with the terms of the TIA and (iii) execute, and use its best efforts to cause the Trustee to execute, all documents as may be required to effect such changes, and all other forms and documents required to be filed with the SEC to enable the Indenture to be so qualified in a timely manner;

(n) in the case of a Shelf Registration, enter into agreements (including customary underwriting agreements) and take all other customary and appropriate actions (including those reasonably requested by the Majority Holders) in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of such Registrable Securities and in such connection whether or not an underwriting agreement is entered into and whether or not the registration is an underwritten registration:

(i) to the extent possible, make such representations and warranties to the Holders of such Registrable Securities and the underwriters, if any, in form, substance and scope as are customarily made by issuers to underwriters in similar underwritten offerings as may be reasonably requested by them;

(ii) obtain opinions of counsel to the Company and, subject to the proviso in the first sentence of the last paragraph of this clause (n), updates thereof (which counsel and opinions (in form, scope and substance) shall be reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriters, if any, and the Majority Holders of the Registrable Securities being sold) addressed to each selling Holder and the underwriters, if any, covering the matters customarily covered in opinions requested in sales of securities or underwritten offerings and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by such Holders and underwriters;

(iii) obtain "cold comfort" letters and, subject to the proviso in the first sentence of the last paragraph of this clause (n), updates thereof from the Company's independent certified public accountants addressed to the underwriters, if any, and use reasonable best efforts to have such letter addressed to the selling Holders of Registrable Securities, such letters to be in customary form and covering matters of the type customarily covered in "cold comfort" letters to underwriters in connection with similar underwritten offerings;

(iv) enter into a securities sales agreement with the Holders and an agent of the Holders providing for, among other things, the appointment of such agent for the selling Holders for the purpose of soliciting purchases of Registrable Securities, which agreement shall be in form, substance and scope customary for similar offerings;

(v) if an underwriting agreement is entered into, cause the same to set forth indemnification provisions and procedures substantially equivalent to the indemnification provisions and procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof with respect to the underwriters and all other parties to be indemnified pursuant to said Section; and

(vi) deliver such other documents and certificates as may be reasonably requested and as are customarily delivered in similar offerings.

The above shall be done at (i) the effectiveness of such Registration Statement (and, if appropriate, each post-effective amendment thereto) and (ii) each closing under any underwriting or similar agreement as and to the extent required thereunder; provided that the updates referred to in clauses (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph (n) shall only be required in the case of (A) any closing with respect to sales under such Shelf Registration Statement of Securities having a principal amount of $7.5 million or more or, if the Initial Purchaser shall waive such updates under clause (A), then (B) in the case of up to three such closings. In the case of any underwritten offering, the Company shall provide written notice to the Holders of all Registrable Securities of such underwritten offering at least 30 days prior to the filing of a prospectus supplement for such underwritten offering. Such notice shall (x) offer each such Holder the right to participate in such underwritten offering, (y) specify a date, which shall be no earlier than 10 days following the date of such notice, by which such Holder must inform the Company of its intent to participate in such underwritten offering and (z) include the instructions such Holder must follow in order to participate in such underwritten offering;

(o) in the case of a Shelf Registration, make available for inspection by one representative appointed by the Majority Holders of the Registrable Securities and any underwriters participating in any disposition pursuant to a Shelf Registration Statement and one counsel or accountant retained by such Holders or underwriters, all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Company reasonably requested by any such persons, and cause the respective officers, directors, employees, and any other agents of the Company to supply all information reasonably requested by any such representative, underwriter, special counsel or accountant in connection with a Registration Statement; provided, however, that any records, information or documents that are designated by the Company as confidential at the time of delivery of such records, information or documents shall be kept confidential by such persons, unless (i) such records, information or documents are in the public domain or otherwise publicly available; (ii) disclosure of such records, information or documents is required by court or administrative order, provided that such person will, promptly upon learning that disclosure of such information is sought in a court of competent jurisdiction, give notice to the Company so that the Company may at its expense undertake appropriate action to prevent disclosure of the information deemed to be confidential, (iii) disclosure of such records, information or documents, in the opinion of counsel to such person, is otherwise required by law (including, without limitation, pursuant to the requirements of the 1933 Act) or (iv) upon the advice of counsel, disclosure of such records, information or documents is necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission in the Registration Statement;

(p) in the case of a Shelf Registration, use its best efforts to cause all Registrable Securities to be listed on any securities exchange on which similar debt securities issued by the Company are then listed if requested in writing by the Majority Holders or by the underwriter or underwriters of an underwritten offering of Registrable Securities, if any;

(q) in the case of a Shelf Registration, use its best efforts to cause the Registrable Securities to be rated with the appropriate rating agencies, if so requested by the Majority Holders or by the underwriter or underwriters of an underwritten offering of Registrable Securities, if any, unless the Registrable Securities are already so rated;

(r) otherwise use its best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the SEC and make available to its security holders, as soon as reasonably practicable, an earnings statement covering at least 12 months which shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the 1933 Act and Rule 158 thereunder; and

(s) cooperate and assist in any filings required to be made with the NASD and in the performance of any due diligence investigation by any underwriter and its counsel.

In the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Company may (as a condition to such Holder's participation in the Shelf Registration) require each

Holder of Registrable Securities to furnish to the Company such information regarding such Holder and the proposed distribution by such Holder of such Registrable Securities as the Company may from time to time reasonably request in writing.

In the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, each Holder agrees that, upon receipt of any notice from the Company of the happening of any event or the discovery of any facts, each of the kind described in Section 3(e)(ii)-(vi) hereof, such Holder will forthwith discontinue disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to a Registration Statement until such Holder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus contemplated by Section 3(k) hereof, and, if so directed by the Company, such Holder will deliver to the Company (at its expense) all copies in its possession or certify in writing that such copies have been destroyed, in each case other than permanent file copies then in such Holder's possession, of the Prospectus covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice. If the Company shall give any such notice to suspend the disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to a Shelf Registration Statement as a result of the happening of any event or the discovery of any facts, each of the kind described in Section 3(e)(vi) hereof, the Company shall be deemed to have used its best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement effective during such period of suspension provided that the Company shall use its best efforts to file and have declared effective (if an amendment) as soon as practicable an amendment or supplement to the Shelf Registration Statement and shall extend the period during which the Registration Statement shall be maintained effective pursuant to this Agreement by the number of days during the period from and including the date of the giving of such notice to and including the date when the Holders shall have received copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus necessary to resume such dispositions.

4. Underwritten Registrations. If any of the Registrable Securities covered by any Shelf Registration are to be sold in an underwritten offering as contemplated by Section 3 hereof, the investment banker or investment bankers and manager or managers (and their counsel) that will manage the offering will be agreed to by the Company and the Majority Holders of such Registrable Securities included in such offering.

No Holder of Registrable Securities may participate in any underwritten registration hereunder unless such Holder (a) agrees to sell such Holder's Registrable Securities on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements approved by the persons entitled hereunder to approve such arrangements and (b) completes, executes and delivers all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents required of such Holder under the terms of such underwriting arrangements.

5. Participation of Broker-Dealers in Exchange Offer

(a) The Staff of the SEC has taken the position that any broker-dealer that receives Exchange Securities for its own account in the Exchange Offer in exchange for Registrable Securities that were acquired by such broker-dealer as a result of market-making or other trading activities (a "Participating Broker-Dealer") may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the 1933 Act in connection with any resale of such Exchange Notes.

The Company understands that it is the Staff's position that if the Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement includes a plan of distribution containing a statement to the above effect and the means by which Participating Broker-Dealers may resell the Exchange Securities owned by them, such Prospectus may be delivered by Participating Broker-Dealers to satisfy their prospectus delivery obligations under the 1933 Act in connection with resales of Exchange Securities for their own accounts, so long as the Prospectus otherwise meets the requirements of the 1933 Act.

(b) In light of the above, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company agrees (x) that the provisions of this Agreement as they relate to a Shelf Registration shall also apply to an Exchange Offer Registration to the extent, and with such modifications thereto as may be, reasonably requested by the Initial Purchaser or one or more Participating Broker-Dealers, in each case as provided in clause (ii) below, in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of any Exchange Securities by Participating Broker-Dealers consistent with the positions of the Staff recited in Section 5(a) above and (y) without limiting the preceding clause (x), to maintain the effectiveness of the Registration Statement for such purposes for the earlier of one year or until such Participating Broker Dealers have sold all Exchange Securities (as determined in accordance with FIFO accounting), but in any event only if applicable interpretations of the Staff continue to require Prospectus delivery; provided that:

(i) the Company shall not be required to amend or supplement the Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, as would otherwise be contemplated by Section 3(k), for a period exceeding 180 days after the last Exchange Date (as such period may be extended pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 3 of this Agreement) and Participating Broker-Dealers shall not be authorized by the Company to deliver and shall not deliver such Prospectus after such period in connection with the resales contemplated by this Section 5; and

(ii) the application of the Shelf Registration procedures set forth in Section 3 of this Agreement to an Exchange Offer Registration, to the extent not required by the positions of the Staff of the SEC or the 1933 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, will be in conformity with the reasonable request to the Company by the Initial Purchaser or with the reasonable request in writing to the Company by one or more broker-dealers who certify to the Initial Purchaser and the Company in writing that they anticipate that they will be Participating Broker-Dealers; and provided

further that, in connection with such application of the Shelf Registration
----
procedures set forth in Section 3 to an Exchange Offer Registration, the Company shall be obligated (x) to deal only with one entity representing the Participating Broker-Dealers, which shall be the Initial Purchaser unless it elects not to act as such representative, (y) to pay the fees and expenses of only one counsel representing the Participating Broker-Dealers, which shall be counsel to the Initial Purchaser unless such counsel elects not to so act and (z) to cause to be delivered only one, if any, "cold comfort" letter with respect to the Prospectus in the form existing on the last Exchange Date and with respect to each subsequent amendment or supplement, if any, effected during the period specified in clause (i) above.

(c) The Initial Purchaser shall have no liability to the Company or any Holder with respect to any request that it may make pursuant to this Section 5.

Section 6. Indemnification. (a) The Company and United each agree
jointly and severally to indemnify and hold harmless the Initial Purchaser, each Holder, including Participating Broker Dealers, each underwriter who participated in an offering of the Registrable Securities and each person, if any, who controls such parties within the meaning of Section 15 of the 1933 Act as follows:

(i) against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever, as incurred, arising out of an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or the omission or alleged omission therefrom of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading or arising out of an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact included in any preliminary prospectus or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or the omission or alleged omission therefrom of a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(ii) against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever, as incurred, to the extent of the aggregate amount paid in settlement of any litigation, or investigation or proceeding by any governmental agency or body, commenced or threatened, or of any claim whatsoever based upon any such untrue statement or omission, or any such alleged untrue statement or omission, if such settlement is effected with the written consent of the Company; and

(iii) against any and all expense whatsoever, as incurred (including fees and disbursements of counsel chosen by you), reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, or investigation or proceeding by any governmental agency or body, commenced or threatened, or any claim whatsoever based upon any such untrue statement or omission, or any such alleged untrue statement or omission, to the extent that any such expense is not paid under subparagraph (i) or (ii) above;

provided, however, that this indemnity agreement does not apply to any loss, liability, claim, damage or expense to the extent arising out of an untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company or United by the Initial Purchaser expressly for use in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or any preliminary prospectus or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto); and provided, further, that the Company will not be liable to the Initial Purchaser or any person controlling the Initial Purchaser with respect to any such untrue statement or omission made in any preliminary prospectus that is corrected in the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) if the person asserting any such loss, claim, damage or liability purchased Securities from the Initial Purchaser in reliance upon a preliminary prospectus but was not sent or given a copy of the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented) at or prior to the written confirmation of the sale of such Securities to such person in any case where such delivery of the Prospectus (as so amended or supplemented) is required by the 1933 Act, unless such failure to deliver the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented) was a result of noncompliance by the Company with Section 3 of this Agreement.

(b) The Initial Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each of the Company, United and each person, if any, who controls the Company or United within the meaning of Section 15 of the 1933 Act, against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense described in the indemnity agreement in Section (a), as incurred, but only with respect to untrue statements or omissions, or alleged untrue statements or omissions, made in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto), or any preliminary prospectus or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company or United by the Initial Purchaser expressly for use in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto), or such preliminary prospectus or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto).

(c) In the case of a Shelf Registration, each Holder agrees, severally and not jointly, to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, United, the Initial Purchaser, each underwriter who participates in an offering of Registrable Securities and the other selling Holders and each person, if any, who controls such persons within the meaning of Section 15 of the 1933 Act, against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses described in the indemnity contained in (a) hereof, as incurred, but only with respect to untrue statements or omissions, or alleged untrue statements or omissions, made in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company or United by such Holder, expressly for use in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto), or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto); provided, however, that no such Holder shall be liable for any claims hereunder in excess of the amount of net proceeds received by such Holder from the sale of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Shelf Registration Statement.

(d) Each indemnified party shall give prompt notice to each indemnifying party of any action commenced against it in respect of which indemnity may be sought hereunder, but failure to so notify an indemnifying party shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have otherwise than on account of this indemnity agreement. An indemnifying party may participate at its own expense in the defense of such action. In no event shall the indemnifying party or parties be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for all indemnified parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances.

(e) In order to provide for just and equitable contribution in circumstances under which the indemnity provided for in this Section 6 is for any reason held to be unenforceable by the indemnified parties although applicable in accordance with its terms, the Company, United and the Initial Purchaser shall contribute to the aggregate losses, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses of the nature contemplated by such indemnity incurred by the Company, United and the Initial Purchaser, as incurred, in such proportions that the Initial Purchaser is responsible for that portion represented by the percentage that the initial purchaser's discount appearing on the cover page of the Prospectus bears to the price to investors appearing thereon, and the Company and United are responsible for the balance; provided, however, that no person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 1(f) of the 1933 Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. For purposes of this Section, each person, if any, who controls the Initial Purchaser within the meaning of Section 5 of the 1933 Act shall have the same rights to contribution as the Initial Purchaser, and each director of the Company or United, each officer of the Company or United who signed the Registration Statement, and each person, if any, who controls the Company or United within the meaning of Section 5 of the 1933 Act shall have the same rights to contribution as the Company or United.

7. Miscellaneous. (a) Rule 144 and Rule 144A. Regardless of whether the Company is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15 of the 1934 Act, the Company covenants that it will file the reports that would be required to be filed by it under Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the 1934 Act and the rules and regulations adopted by the SEC thereunder if such Sections were applicable to it, and that if it ceases to be permitted to file such reports, it will upon the request of any Holder of Registrable Securities (i) make publicly available such information as is necessary to permit sales pursuant to Rule 144 under the 1933 Act and (ii) deliver such information to a prospective purchaser as is reasonably necessary to permit sales pursuant to Rule 144A under the 1933 Act, in each case, to the extent required from time to time to enable such Holder to sell its Registrable Securities without registration under the 1933 Act within the limitation of the exemptions provided by (x) Rule 144 under the 1933 Act, as such Rule may be amended from time to time, (y) Rule 144A under the 1993 Act, as such Rule may be amended from time to time, or (z) any similar rules or regulations hereafter adopted by the SEC. Upon the request of any Holder of Registrable Securities, the Company will deliver to such Holder a written statement as to whether it has complied with such requirements.

(b) No Inconsistent Agreements. Neither the Company or United has entered into nor will the Company or United on or after the date of this Agreement enter into, any agreement which is inconsistent with the rights granted to the Holders of Registrable Securities in this Agreement or otherwise conflicts with the provisions hereof. The Company and United represent and warrant that the rights granted to the Holders hereunder do not conflict with and are not inconsistent with the rights granted to the holders of the Company's other issued and outstanding securities under any such agreements.

(c) Amendments and Waivers. The provisions of this Agreement, including the provisions of this sentence, may not be amended, modified or supplemented, and waivers or consents to departures from the provisions hereof may not be given unless the Company has obtained the written consent of Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Registrable Securities affected by such amendment, modification, supplement, waiver or departure; provided, however, that no amendment, modification, supplement or waiver or consent to any departure from the provisions of Section 6 hereof shall be effective as against any Holder of Registrable Securities unless consented to in writing by such Holder.

(d) Notices. All notices and other communications provided for or permitted hereunder shall be made in writing by hand-delivery, registered first-class mail, telex, telecopier, or any courier guaranteeing overnight delivery (i) if to a Holder, at the most current address given by such Holder to the Company by means of a notice given in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7(d), which address initially is, with respect to the Initial Purchaser, the address set forth in the Purchase Agreement and (ii) if to the Company, initially at the Company's address set forth in the Purchase Agreement and thereafter at such other address, notice of which is given in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7(d).

All such notices and communications shall be deemed to have been duly given at the time delivered by hand, if personally delivered; three business days after being deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, if mailed; when answered back, if telexed; when receipt is acknowledged, if telecopied; and on the next business day if timely delivered to an air courier guaranteeing overnight delivery.

Copies of all such notices, demands, or other communications shall be concurrently delivered by the person giving the same to the Trustee, at the address specified in the Indenture.

(e) Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the successors, assigns and transferees of each of the parties, including, without limitation and without the need for an express assignment, subsequent Holders; provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to permit any assignment, transfer or other disposition of Registrable Securities in violation of the terms hereof or of the Purchase Agreement or the Indenture. If any transferee of any Holder shall acquire Registrable Securities, in any manner, whether by operation of law or otherwise, such Registrable Securities shall be held subject to all of the terms of this Agreement, and by taking and holding such Registrable Securities, such Person shall be conclusively deemed to have agreed to be bound by and to perform all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, including the restrictions on resale set forth in this Agreement and, if applicable, the Purchase Agreement, and such Person shall be entitled to receive the benefits hereof.

(f) Third Party Beneficiary. The Initial Purchaser shall be third party beneficiary to the agreements made hereunder between the Company, on the one hand, and the Holders, on the other hand, and shall have the right to enforce such agreements directly to the extent it deems such enforcement necessary or advisable to protect its rights or the rights of Holders hereunder.

(g) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

(h) Headings. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not limit or otherwise affect the meaning hereof.

(i) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTS PERFORMED ENTIRELY IN THAT STATE.

(j) Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein, or the application thereof in any circumstance, is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such provision in every other respect and of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not be affected or impaired thereby.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

Chase Securities, Inc.
One Chase Manhattan Plaza
New York, New York 10081

Ladies and Gentlemen:

United Stationers Supply Co., an Illinois corporation (the "Company"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of United Stationers Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Guarantor"), proposes to issue and sell to you (the "Initial Purchaser") an aggregate of $150,000,000 principal amount of its 12 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2005 (the "Securities"). The securities will be unconditionally guaranteed by the Guarantor (the "Guarantee"). The Securities are to be issued pursuant to an indenture to be dated as of May 3, 1995 (the "Indenture") among the Company, the Guarantor, and The Bank of New York, as trustee (the "Trustee"). The Securities and the Indenture are more fully described in the Offering Memorandum referred to below. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein have the respective meanings specified in the Offering Memorandum.

The Securities will be offered and sold to you without being registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "1933 Act"), in reliance on an exemption therefrom. The Company has prepared a preliminary offering memorandum, dated April 5, 1995 (such preliminary offering memorandum being hereinafter referred to as the "Preliminary Offering Memorandum"), and an offering memorandum, dated April 26, 1995 (such offering memorandum, in the form first furnished to the Initial Purchaser for use in connection with the offering of the Securities, being hereinafter referred to as the "Offering Memorandum"), setting forth information regarding the Company and the Securities. The Company hereby confirms that it has authorized the use of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum in connection with the offering and resale of the Securities to such potential purchasers as specified therein.

The Company understands that you propose to make an offering of the Securities on the terms set forth in the Offering Memorandum, as soon as you deem advisable after this Agreement has been executed and delivered only (i) to persons in the United States whom you reasonably believe to be qualified institutional buyers ("Qualified Institutional Buyers") as defined in Rule 144A under the 1933 Act, as such rule may be amended from time to time ("Rule 144A"), in transactions under Rule 144A, (ii) to a limited number of other institutional "accredited investors" (as defined in Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under Regulation D of the 1933 Act ("Accredited Investors")) in private sales exempt from registration under the 1933 Act and/or (iii) to non-U.S. persons outside the United States to whom offers and sales of the Securities may be made in reliance upon Regulation S under the 1933 Act.

The holders of the Securities will be entitled to the benefits of a Registration Rights Agreement, in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A with such changes as shall be agreed to by the parties hereto (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), pursuant to which the Company has agreed to use its best efforts to file within 30 days of the date of original issue of the Securities a registration statement (the "Registration Statement") with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") registering the Securities or the Exchange Securities referred to in the Registration Rights Agreement under the 1933 Act.

Section 1. Representations and Warranties. (a) The Company represents and warrants to, and agrees with, the Initial Purchaser that:

(i) As of the date of each of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum, and at all times subsequent thereto up to the Time of Delivery, none of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum, the Offering Memorandum nor any amendment or supplement thereto prepared by the Company and delivered to the Initial Purchaser for use prior to the Time of Delivery included or will include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, however, that this representation and warranty shall not apply to any statements or omissions made in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished in writing to the Company by the Initial Purchaser expressly for use therein.

(ii) The Preliminary Offering Memorandum, the Offering Memorandum and the amendments or supplements thereto prepared by the Company and delivered to the Initial Purchaser for use prior to the Time of Delivery, as of their respective dates, collectively contain all the information specified in, and meet the requirements of, Rule 144A(d)(4).

(iii) Arthur Andersen LLP, who are reporting upon the audited financial statements included in the Registration Statement, are independent public accountants as required by the 1933 Act and the rules and regulations of the Commission under the 1933 Act (the "1933 Act Regulations").

(iv) This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by each of the Company and the Guarantor.

(v) The consolidated financial statements included in the Offering Memorandum present fairly the consolidated financial position of each of the Guarantor and its subsidiaries and Associated Holdings, Inc. ("Associated") and its subsidiaries as of the dates indicated and the consolidated results of operations and the consolidated cash flows of the Guarantor and its subsidiaries and Associated and its subsidiaries for the periods specified. Such financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods involved other than the change in accounting for inventories to the LIFO method effective January 1, 1995. The selected financial data included in the Offering Memorandum present fairly the information shown therein and have been compiled on a basis consistent with that of the audited consolidated financial statements included in the Offering Memorandum. The pro forma financial statements and other pro forma financial information included in the Offering Memorandum present fairly the information shown therein, have been prepared in accordance with the Commission's rules and guidelines with respect to pro forma financial statements, have been properly compiled on the pro forma bases described therein, and, in the opinion of the Company, the assumptions used in the preparation thereof are reasonable and the adjustments used therein are appropriate to give effect to the transactions or circumstances referred to therein.

(vi) The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Illinois with corporate power and authority under such laws to own, lease and operate its properties and conduct its business as described in the Offering Memorandum; and the Company is duly qualified to transact business as a foreign corporation and is in good standing in each other jurisdiction in which it owns or leases property of a nature, or transacts business of a type, that would make such qualification necessary, except to the extent that the failure to so qualify or be in good standing would not have a material adverse effect on the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries (as defined herein), considered as one enterprise.

(vii) The Guarantor is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware with corporate power and authority under such laws to own, lease and operate its properties and conduct its business as described in the Offering Memorandum; and the Guarantor is duly qualified to transact business as a foreign corporation and is in good standing in each other jurisdiction in which it owns or leases property of a nature, or transacts business of a type, that would make such qualification necessary, except to the extent that the failure to so qualify or be in good standing would not have a material adverse effect on the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise.

(viii) The Guarantor's only direct subsidiary is the Company. The Company's only subsidiaries are United Business Computers, Inc. ("UBC"), United Stationers Hong Kong Limited ("USHK"), United Worldwide Limited ("UW"), CJS/GT Corporation ("CJS") and 4303 Pleasantville Road Associates, L.P. ("4303" and, together with UBC, USHK, UW and CJS, the "Subsidiaries"). Each Subsidiary is a corporation or limited partnership, as applicable, duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation with corporate power and authority under such laws to own, lease and operate its properties and conduct its business; and each Subsidiary is duly qualified to transact business as a foreign corporation and is in good standing in each other jurisdiction in which it owns or leases property of a nature, or transacts business of a type, that would make such qualification necessary, except to the extent that the failure to so qualify or be in good standing would not have a material adverse effect on the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise. All of the outstanding shares of capital stock of each Subsidiary have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable. All of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company are owned by the Guarantor free and clear of any pledge, lien, security interest, charge, claim, equity or encumbrance of any kind, except as disclosed in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum. Schedule 1(a)(viii) attached hereto sets forth the Company's ownership of capital stock of each Subsidiary. The Company owns such capital stock of each such Subsidiary free and clear of any pledge, lien, security interest, charge, claim, equity or encumbrance of any kind, except as disclosed in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum or as set forth in Schedule 1(a)(viii) attached hereto.

(ix) The table in the Offering Memorandum under the caption "Capitalization," under "Pro Forma at December 31, 1994," sets forth the pro forma consolidated capitalization of the Guarantor as of the date indicated therein, as adjusted to give effect to the consummation of the Mergers.

(x) The Indenture has been duly authorized by the Company and by the Guarantor, will be substantially in the form heretofore delivered to you and, when duly executed and delivered by the Company, the Guarantor and the Trustee, will constitute a valid and binding obligation of the Company and the Guarantor, enforceable against the Company and the Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency (including, without limitation, all laws relating to fraudulent conveyances or transfers), reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally and except as enforcement thereof is subject to general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law); and the Indenture conforms in all material respects to the description thereof in the Offering Memorandum.

(xi) The Securities have been duly authorized by the Company, and the Guarantee has been duly authorized by the Guarantor. When executed, authenticated, issued and delivered by the Company in the manner provided for in the Indenture and sold and paid for as provided in this Agreement, the Securities will constitute valid and binding obligations of the Company entitled to the benefits of the Indenture and enforceable against the Company in accordance with their terms, except as enforcement thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency (including, without limitation, all laws relating to fraudulent conveyances or transfers), reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally and except as enforcement thereof is subject to general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law), and the Guarantee, when the Indenture has been duly executed and delivered by the Guarantor, will constitute a valid and binding obligation of the Guarantor enforceable against the Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency (including, without limitation, all laws relating to fraudulent conveyances or transfers), reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally and except as enforcement thereof is subject to general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law); and each of the Securities and the Guarantee conforms in all material respects to the descriptions thereof in the Offering Memorandum.

(xii) The Registration Rights Agreement has been duly authorized by the Company and the Guarantor, will be substantially in the form heretofore delivered to you and, when duly executed and delivered by the Company, the Guarantor and the Initial Purchaser, will constitute a valid and binding obligation of the Company and the Guarantor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency (including, without limitation, all laws relating to fraudulent conveyances or transfers), reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting enforcement of creditors' rights generally and except as enforcement thereof is subject to general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law); and the Registration Rights Agreement conforms in all material respects to the description thereof in the Offering Memorandum.

(xiii) All of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable; all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Guarantor have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable; no holder thereof is or will be subject to personal liability by reason of being such a holder; and none of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Guarantor was issued in violation of the preemptive rights of any stockholder of the Guarantor.

(xiv) Since the respective dates as of which information is given in the Offering Memorandum, except as otherwise stated therein or contemplated thereby, there has not been (A) any material adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, (B) any transaction entered into by the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary, other than in the ordinary course of business, that is material to the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, or (C) any dividend or distribution of any kind declared, paid or made by the Company or the Guarantor on their capital stock except for dividends declared on the Guarantor's Series A, B and C Preferred Stock effective April 30, 1995.

(xv) None of the Company, the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary is in default in the performance or observance of any obligation, agreement, covenant or condition contained in any contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease or other agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it may be bound or to which any of its properties may be subject, except for such defaults that are disclosed in the Offering Memorandum or that would not have a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise. The execution and delivery of the Indenture by the Company and the Guarantor, the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company and the Guarantor, the issuance and delivery by the Company of the Securities, the consummation by each of the Company, the Guarantor and each Subsidiary of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement and in the Offering Memorandum, and the compliance by each of the Company and the Guarantor with the terms of the Indenture have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of each of the Company and the Guarantor and do not and will not result in any violation of the charter or by-laws of the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary, and do not and will not conflict with, or result in a breach of any of the terms or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon any property or assets of the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary under (A) any contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease or other agreement or instrument to which the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary is a party or by which it may be bound or to which any of its properties may be subject (except for such violations, conflicts, breaches or defaults or liens, charges or encumbrances that would not have a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise) or (B) any existing applicable law, rule, regulation (other than the securities or blue sky laws of any states), judgment, order or decree of any government, governmental authority or court, domestic or foreign, having jurisdiction over the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary or any of their respective properties (except for such violations, conflicts, breaches or defaults or liens, charges or encumbrances that would not have a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise).

(xvi) No authorization, approval, consent, order, registration or qualification of or with any government, governmental instrumentality or court, domestic or foreign (other than under the securities or blue sky laws of the various states), except such authorizations, approvals, consents, orders, registrations or qualifications as have already been obtained, is required for the consummation by the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement and in the Offering Memorandum, and the valid authorization, issuance, sale and delivery of the Securities by the Company, or for the execution, delivery or performance of the Indenture by the Company and the Guarantor.

(xvii) Except as disclosed in the Offering Memorandum, there is no action, suit or proceeding before or by any government, governmental instrumentality or court, domestic or foreign, now pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against or affecting the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary that is required to be disclosed in the Offering Memorandum or that could reasonably be expected to result in any material adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, or that could reasonably be expected to materially and adversely affect the properties or assets of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, or that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or that seeks to enjoin, invalidate or obtain any award or damages in respect of, the Acquisition; the aggregate of all pending legal or governmental proceedings that are not described in the Offering Memorandum to which the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary is a party or which affect any of their respective properties, including ordinary routine litigation incidental to the business of the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary, would not have a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise.

(xviii) The Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries each have good and marketable title to all properties and assets described in the Offering Memorandum as owned by it, free and clear of all liens, charges, encumbrances or restrictions, except such as (A) are described in the Offering Memorandum or (B) are neither material in amount nor materially significant in relation to the business of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise; all of the leases and subleases material to the business of the Company and its subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, and under which the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries hold properties described in the Offering Memorandum, are in full force and effect, and none of the Company, the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary has any notice of any material claim of any sort that has been asserted by anyone adverse to the rights of the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary under any of the leases or subleases mentioned above, or affecting or questioning the rights of such corporation to the continued possession of the leased or subleased premises under any such lease or sublease.

(xix) The Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries each owns, possesses or has obtained all material governmental licenses, permits, certificates, consents, orders, approvals and other authorizations necessary to own or lease, as the case may be, and to operate its properties and to carry on its business as presently conducted, and none of the Company, the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary has received any notice of proceedings relating to revocation or modification of any such licenses, permits, certificates, consents, orders, approvals or authorizations.

(xx) The Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries each owns or possesses, or can acquire on reasonable terms, adequate patents, patent licenses, trademarks, service marks and trade names necessary to carry on its business as presently conducted, and none of the Company, the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary has received any notice of infringement of or conflict with asserted rights of others with respect to any patents, patent licenses, trademarks, service marks or trade names that in the aggregate, if the subject of an unfavorable decision, ruling or finding, could materially adversely affect the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise.

(xxi) To the best knowledge of the Company, no labor problem exists with its employees or with employees of the Subsidiaries or is imminent that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, and the Company is not aware of any existing or imminent labor disturbance by the employees of any of its or the Subsidiaries' principal suppliers, contractors or customers that could reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise.

(xxii) The Company has not taken and will not take, directly or indirectly, any action designed to, or that might reasonably be expected to, cause or result in stabilization or manipulation of the price of the Securities.

(xxiii) All United States federal income tax returns of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries required by law to be filed have been filed and all taxes shown by such returns or otherwise assessed, which are due and payable, have been paid, except assessments against which appeals have been or will be promptly taken and as to which adequate reserves have been provided. The United States federal income tax returns of the Company through the fiscal year ended August 31, 1990 and of Stationers Distributing Company, Inc. through December 31, 1991 have been settled and no assessment in connection therewith has been made against the Company. The Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries each has filed all other tax returns that are required to have been filed by it pursuant to applicable foreign, state, local or other law except insofar as the failure to file such returns would not have a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, and has paid all taxes due pursuant to such returns or pursuant to any assessment received by the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, except for such taxes, if any, as are being contested in good faith and as to which adequate reserves have been provided. The charges, accruals and reserves on the books of the Company in respect of any income and corporation tax liability for any years not finally determined are adequate to meet any assessments or re-assessments for additional income tax for any years not finally determined, except to the extent of any inadequacy that would not have a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise.

(xxiv) The Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries each maintains a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that (A) transactions are executed in accordance with management's general or specific authorization; (B) transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and to maintain accountability for assets; (C) access to assets is permitted only in accordance with management's general or specific authorization; and (D) the recorded accountability for assets is compared with the existing assets at reasonable intervals and appropriate action is taken with respect to any differences.

(xxv) No event of default exists under any material contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease or other agreement or instrument constituting Senior Indebtedness (as defined in the Indenture).

(xxvi) The Company is, and immediately after the Closing Time will be, Solvent. As used herein, the term "Solvent" means, with respect to the Company on a particular date, that on such date (A) the fair market value of the assets of the Company is greater than the total amount of liabilities (including contingent liabilities) of the Company, (B) the present fair salable value of the assets of the Company is greater than the amount that will be required to pay the probable liabilities of the Company on its debts as they become absolute and matured, (C) the Company is able to pay its debts and other liabilities, including contingent obligations, as they mature and (D) the Company does not have an unreasonably small capital.

(xxvii) Except as would not individually or in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, (A) each of the Company, the Guarantor and each Subsidiary is in material compliance with all applicable Environmental Laws, (B) each of the Company, the Guarantor and each Subsidiary has all permits, authorizations and approvals required under any applicable Environmental Laws and are each in compliance with their requirements, (C) there are no pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened Environmental Claims against the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary, and (D) there are no conditions with respect to any property or operations of the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary that could reasonably be expected to form the basis of an Environmental Claim against the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary.

For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings: "Environmental Law" means any applicable United States (or other applicable jurisdiction's) federal, state, provincial, local or municipal statute, law, rule, regulation, ordinance, code, legally binding policy or rule of common law and any applicable judicial or administrative interpretation thereof including any applicable and binding judicial or administrative order, consent decree or judgment, relating to the environment, health, safety or any hazardous chemical, material or substance, exposure to which is prohibited, limited or regulated by any governmental authority. "Environmental Claims" means any and all administrative, regulatory or judicial actions, suits, demands, demand letters, claims, liens, notices of noncompliance or violation, investigations or proceedings relating in any way to any Environmental Law.

(xxviii) Assuming the accuracy of your representations contained in Section 2(d) hereof, it is not necessary in connection with the offer, sale and delivery of the Securities to the Initial Purchaser under, or in connection with the initial resale of such Securities by the Initial Purchaser in accordance with, this Agreement and the Offering Memorandum to register the Securities under the 1933 Act or to qualify the Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended (the "Trust Indenture Act").

(xxix) None of the Company or any affiliate (as such term is defined in Rule 501(b) of Regulation D under the 1933 Act) of the Company, or any person acting on behalf thereof (other than you, as to whom the Company makes no representation), has engaged in any directed selling efforts (as such term is defined in Regulation S ("Regulation S") under the 1933 Act) with respect to any Securities offered and sold in reliance on Rule 903 of Regulation S, and the Company and such affiliates, and such other persons acting on behalf thereof (other than you and any initial purchasers of the Securities from you), have complied with the offering restrictions requirement of Regulation S with respect to such Securities if any are imposed prior to the Time of Delivery.

(xxx) The Company has complied and will comply with all the provisions of Florida H.B. 1771, codified as Section 517.075 of the Florida statutes, and all regulations promulgated thereunder relating to issuers doing business in Cuba.

(xxi) The Company and each Subsidiary maintain reasonably adequate insurance covering their respective properties, operations, personnel and business.

(xxxii) Neither the Company nor the Guarantor is an "investment company" or an entity "controlled" by an "investment company," as such terms are defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "Investment Company Act").

(b) Any certificate signed by any officer of the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary and delivered to the Initial Purchaser or to counsel for the Initial Purchaser shall be deemed a representation and warranty by the Company to the Initial Purchaser as to the matters covered thereby.

Section 2. Sale and Delivery to the Initial Purchaser; Closing. (a) At the Closing Time, you shall have received a signed opinion of Weil, Gotshal & Manges, counsel for the Company and the Guarantor, dated as of the Closing Time, in form and substance satisfactory to counsel for the Initial Purchaser, to the effect that:

(i) The Guarantor is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has all requisite corporate power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as now being conducted.

(ii) All of the outstanding shares of the Guarantor's capital stock are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable, with no personal liability attaching to the ownership thereof, and have not been issued in violation of any preemptive rights of any stockholder of the Guarantor.

(iii) The execution, delivery and performance of the Indenture, the Registration Rights Agreement and this Agreement by the Guarantor have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Guarantor. Each of the Indenture, the Registration Rights Agreement and this Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Guarantor and (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by each of the other parties thereto, including the Company) constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Guarantor and the Company, as applicable, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors rights and remedies generally, and subject as to enforceability to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity) and except that rights to indemnification and contribution under this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement may be limited by federal or state securities laws or public policy relating thereto and subject to the qualification that such counsel expresses no opinion as to the effect on the Indenture or this Agreement of the laws of any jurisdiction other than federal law and the laws of the States of New York and Texas wherein any purchaser of the Securities may be located or wherein enforcement of the Indenture or the Purchase Agreement may be sought which limits the rate of interest legally chargeable or collectible.

(iv) Assuming the due authorization and execution of the Securities by the Company, the Securities, when duly authenticated by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and duly delivered against receipt of payment therefor in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against it in accordance with their terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity) and subject to the qualification that such counsel expresses no opinion as to the effect on the Securities of the laws of any jurisdiction other than federal law and the laws of the States of New York and Texas wherein any purchaser of the Securities may be located or wherein enforcement may be sought which limits the rate of interest legally chargeable or collectible.

(v) The execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Indenture and the Registration Rights Agreement by the Company and the Guarantor, the issuance and delivery of the Securities by the Company and the consummation by the Company and the Guarantor of the transactions contemplated thereby and compliance by the Company and the Guarantor with any of the provisions thereof will not (a) conflict with, constitute a default under or violate (i) any of the terms, conditions or provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the Guarantor, United Business Computers, Inc. or the Subsidiaries,

(ii) any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any document, agreement or other instrument to which the Guarantor, the Company or any Subsidiary is a party or by which it is bound of which we are aware (except for such conflicts, defaults or violations that would not have a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise), (iii) any New York, Delaware corporate or federal law or regulation (other than federal and state securities or blue sky laws, as to which such counsel expresses no opinion) or (iv) any judgment, writ, injunction, decree, order or ruling of any court or government authority binding on the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary of which such counsel is aware or (b) result in the creation of any lien on any of the material assets or properties of the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary pursuant to any material agreement to which the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary is a party of which we are aware.

(vi) The Indenture, the Securities, the Registration Rights Agreement, the Credit Agreement, dated as of March 30, 1995, among the Company, the Guarantor, The Chase Manhattan Bank (National Association), and the lenders party thereto, and Article Fourth of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Guarantor, as amended to the date hereof, conform in all material respects to the descriptions thereof in the Offering Memorandum.

(vii) No consent, approval, waiver, license or authorization or other action by or filing with any New York, Delaware corporate or federal governmental authority is required in connection with the execution and delivery by the Company of the Securities or for the execution, delivery or performance of the Indenture by the Company and the Guarantor, except for federal and state securities or blue sky laws, as to which such counsel expresses no opinion in this paragraph (vii).

(viii) Except as disclosed in the Offering Memorandum, to our knowledge, there is no litigation, proceeding or governmental investigation pending or overtly threatened against the Company or the Guarantor or any of the Subsidiaries that relates to any of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement, the Indenture, the Securities and the Registration Rights Agreement or which, if adversely determined, would have a material adverse effect on the business, assets or financial condition of the Guarantor, the Company and the Subsidiaries taken as a whole or on the ability of either the Guarantor or the Company to perform its respective obligations under the Agreement, the Indenture, the Securities and the Registration Rights Agreement to which it is a party or to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum.

(ix) Such counsel has participated in conferences with officers and other representatives of the Guarantor and the Company and representatives of the independent public accountants for the Guarantor and the Company in connection with the preparation of the Offering Memorandum and although such counsel has not independently verified and is not passing upon and assumes no responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or fairness of the statements contained in the Offering Memorandum (except to the extent specified in the foregoing opinion) no facts have come to such counsel's attention which lead such counsel to believe that the Offering Memorandum, at any time from the date thereof through the Time of Delivery, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements contained therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (it being understood that such counsel expresses no view with respect to the financial statements and related notes, the projections and the other financial, statistical and accounting data included in or appended as exhibits to the Offering Memorandum).

Such opinion shall be to such further effect with respect to other legal matters relating to this Agreement and the sale of the Securities pursuant to this Agreement as counsel for the Initial Purchaser may reasonably request no less than two business days prior to the Time of Delivery. Such counsel may also state that, insofar as such opinion involves factual matters, such counsel has relied, to the extent such counsel deems proper, upon certificates of officers of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries and certificates of public officials; provided that copies of such certificates have been delivered to the Initial Purchaser.

(b) At the Closing Time, you shall have received a signed opinion of Altheimer & Gray, local counsel for the Company and the Guarantor, dated as of the Closing Time, in form and substance satisfactory to counsel for the Initial Purchaser, to the effect that:

(i) The Company is a corporation organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the State of Illinois with the corporate power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and conduct its business as described in the Offering Memorandum.

(ii) The Company is qualified to transact business as a foreign corporation in good standing in the states listed on Schedule 1 thereto.

(iii) All of the outstanding shares of stock of the Company are held by the Guarantor and have been duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

(iv) Each of the Indenture, the Securities, the Registration Rights Agreement and this Agreement have been duly authorized and executed by the Company.

(v) No authorization, approval, consent or license of any government or government instrumentality (other than under any securities or blue sky laws) is required for the valid authorization, issuance, sale and delivery of the Securities.

(vi) The execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Indenture and the Registration Rights Agreement by the Company, the issuance and delivery of the Securities, the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated thereby in the Offering Memorandum and compliance by the Company with the terms of this Agreement, the Indenture and the Registration Rights Agreement do not and will not result in any violation of the charter or by-laws of the Company.

(c) At the Closing Time, you shall have received the favorable opinion of Shearman & Sterling, counsel for the Initial Purchaser, dated as of the Closing Time, to the effect that the opinion delivered pursuant to Sections 5(a) appears on its face to be appropriately responsive to the requirements of this Agreement except, specifying the same, to the extent waived by you, and with respect to the incorporation and legal existence of the Company, the incorporation and legal existence of the Guarantor, the Securities, this Agreement, the Indenture, the Registration Rights Agreement, the Preliminary Offering Memorandum, the Offering Memorandum and such other related matters as you may require. In giving such opinion such counsel may rely, as to all matters governed by the laws of jurisdictions other than the law of the State of New York, the federal law of the United States and the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, upon the opinions of counsel satisfactory to you. Such counsel may also state that, insofar as such opinion involves factual matters, they have relied, to the extent they deem proper, upon certificates of officers of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries and certificates of public officials; provided that such certificates have been delivered to the Initial Purchaser.

(d) At the Closing Time, (i) the Offering Memorandum, as it may then be amended or supplemented, shall not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, (ii) there shall not have been, since the respective dates as of which information is given in the Offering Memorandum, any material adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, whether or not arising in the ordinary course of business, (iii) no action, suit or proceeding shall be pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary that could reasonably be expected to result in any material adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise other than as set forth in the Offering Memorandum and no proceedings shall be pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary before or by any government, governmental instrumentality or court, domestic or foreign, that could reasonably be expected to result in any material adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, other than as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, (iv) the Company and the Guarantor shall have complied with all agreements and satisfied all conditions on their respective parts to be performed or satisfied at or prior to the Closing Time, (v) no event of default shall exist under any contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease or other agreement or instrument constituting Senior Indebtedness (as defined in the Indenture) and (vi) the other representations and warranties of the Company set forth in Section 1(a) shall be accurate as though expressly made at and as of the Closing Time. At the Closing Time, you shall have received a certificate of the President or a Vice President, and the Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer or Controller, of the Company and the Guarantor, dated as of the Closing Time, to such effect.

(e) You shall have received on each of the date hereof and the Closing Date a letter, dated the date hereof or the Closing Date, as the case may be, in form and substance satisfactory to you, from Arthur Andersen LLP,

(f) You shall have received on each of the date hereof and the Closing Date a letter, dated the date hereof or the Closing Date, as the case may be, in form and substance satisfactory to you, from Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent public accountants, containing statements and information of the type ordinarily included in accountants "comfort letters" to underwriters with respect to the pro forma financial information contained in the Offering Memorandum;

(g) You shall have received a solvency letter from Valuation Research Corp. to the effect of Section 1(a)(xxvi) hereof in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to you.

(h) at the Time of Delivery, the Registration Rights Agreement shall have been duly executed and delivered by the Company and the Guarantor.

(i) At the Closing Time, counsel for the Initial Purchaser shall have been furnished with all such documents, certificates and opinions as they may reasonably request for the purpose of enabling them to pass upon the issuance and sale of the Securities as contemplated in this Agreement and the matters referred to in Section 5(d) and in order to evidence the accuracy and completeness of any of the representations, warranties or statements of the Company, the performance of any of the covenants of the Company, or the fulfillment of any of the conditions herein contained; and all proceedings taken by the Company at or prior to the Closing Time in connection with the authorization, issuance and sale of the Securities as contemplated in this Agreement shall be reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to the Initial Purchaser and to counsel for the Initial Purchaser.

Section 6. Indemnification. (a) The Company and the Guarantor each agree jointly and severally to indemnify and hold harmless the Initial Purchaser and each person, if any, who controls the Initial Purchaser within the meaning of Section 15 of the 1933 Act as follows:

(i) against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever, as incurred, arising out of or based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or the omission or alleged omission therefrom of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(ii) against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever, as incurred, to the extent of the aggregate amount paid in settlement of any litigation, or investigation or proceeding by any governmental agency or body, commenced or threatened, or of any claim whatsoever based upon any such untrue statement or omission, or any such alleged untrue statement or omission, if such settlement is effected with the written consent of the Company or the Guarantor; and

(iii) against any and all expense whatsoever, as incurred (including fees and disbursements of counsel chosen by you), reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, or investigation or proceeding by any governmental agency or body, commenced or threatened, or any claim whatsoever based upon any such untrue statement or omission, or any such alleged untrue statement or omission, to the extent that any such expense is not paid under subparagraph (i) or (ii) above;

provided, however, that this indemnity agreement does not apply to any loss, liability, claim, damage or expense to the extent arising out of an untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company by the Initial Purchaser expressly for use in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum (or any amendment or supplement thereto); and provided, further, that the Company will not be liable to the Initial Purchaser or any person controlling the Initial Purchaser with respect to any such untrue statement or omission made in any preliminary prospectus that is corrected in the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) if the person asserting any such loss, claim, damage or liability purchased Securities from the Initial Purchaser in reliance upon a preliminary prospectus but was not sent or given a copy of the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented) at or prior to the written confirmation of the sale of such Securities to such person in any case where such delivery of the Prospectus (as so amended or supplemented) is required by the 1933 Act, unless such failure to deliver the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented) was a result of noncompliance by the Company with Section 3 of this Agreement.

(b) The Initial Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and the Guarantor, and each person, if any, who controls the Company or the Guarantor within the meaning of Section 15 of the 1933 Act, against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense described in the indemnity agreement in Section (a), as incurred, but only with respect to untrue statements or omissions, or alleged untrue statements or omissions, made in any preliminary offering memorandum or the Offering Memorandum (or any amendment or supplement thereto) in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company by the Initial Purchaser expressly for use in such preliminary offering memorandum or the Offering Memorandum (or any amendment or supplement thereto).

(c) Each indemnified party shall give prompt notice to each indemnifying party of any action commenced against it in respect of which indemnity may be sought hereunder, but failure to so notify an indemnifying party shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have otherwise than on account of this indemnity agreement. An indemnifying party may participate at its own expense in the defense of such action. In no event shall the indemnifying party or parties be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for all indemnified parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances.

Section 7. Contribution. In order to provide for just and equitable contribution in circumstances under which the indemnity provided for in Section 6 is for any reason held to be unenforceable by the indemnified parties although applicable in accordance with its terms, the Company and the Guarantor on the one hand and the Initial Purchaser on the other shall contribute to the aggregate losses, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses of the nature contemplated by such indemnity incurred by the Company and the Initial Purchaser, as incurred, in such proportions that the Initial Purchaser is responsible for that portion represented by the percentage that the Initial Purchaser's discount appearing on the cover page of the Offering Memorandum bears to the price to investors appearing thereon, and the Company and the Guarantor are responsible for the balance; provided, however, that no person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 1(f) of the 1933 Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. For purposes of this Section, each person, if any, who controls the Initial Purchaser within the meaning of Section 5 of the 1933 Act shall have the same rights to contribution as the Initial Purchaser, and each person, if any, who controls the Company or the Guarantor within the meaning of Section 5 of the 1933 Act shall have the same rights to contribution as the Company and the Guarantor.

Section 8. Representations, Warranties and Agreements to Survive Delivery. The representations, warranties, indemnities, agreements and other statements of the Company, the Guarantor, the Initial Purchaser, or their respective officers set forth in or made pursuant to this Agreement will remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the Company, the Guarantor, the Initial Purchaser or any person who controls the Company, the Guarantor or the Initial Purchaser within the meaning of Section 5 of the 1933 Act and will survive delivery of and payment for the Securities.

Section 9. Termination of Agreement. (a) The Initial Purchaser may terminate this Agreement, by notice to the Company, at any time at or prior to the Closing Time (i) if there has been, since the respective dates as of which information is given in the Offering Memorandum, any material adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business affairs or business prospects of the Company, the Guarantor and the Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise, whether or not arising in the ordinary course of business, or (ii) if there has occurred any material adverse change in the financial markets in the United States or any outbreak of hostilities or escalation thereof or other calamity or crisis the effect of which on the financial markets of the United States is such as to make it, in the Initial Purchaser's judgment, impracticable to market the Securities or enforce contracts for the sale of the Securities or (iii) if trading in any securities of the Company or the Guarantor has been suspended by the Commission or the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., or if trading generally on either the American Stock Exchange or the New York Stock Exchange or in the over-the-counter market has been suspended, or minimum or maximum prices for trading have been fixed, or maximum ranges for prices for securities have been required, by such exchange or by order of the Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or any other governmental authority or (iv) if a banking moratorium has been declared by either federal, New York or Illinois authorities.

(b) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section, such termination shall be without liability of any party to any other party, except to the extent provided in Section 4. Notwithstanding any such termination, the provisions of Sections 6, 7 and 8 shall remain in effect.

Section 10. Notices. 2. Registration Under the 1933 Act. (a) Exchange Offer Registration. To the extent not prohibited by any applicable law or applicable interpretation of the Staff of the SEC, the Company shall use its best efforts (i) to file within 30 days after the Closing Date an Exchange Offer Registration Statement covering the offer by the Company to the Holders to exchange all of the Registrable Securities for Exchange Securities, (ii) to cause such Exchange Offer Registration Statement to be declared effective by the SEC within 120 days after the Closing Date, (iii) to cause such Registration Statement to remain effective until the closing of the Exchange Offer and (iv) to consummate the Exchange Offer within 150 days following the Closing Date. The Exchange Securities will be issued under the Indenture. Upon the effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, the Company shall promptly commence the Exchange Offer, it being the objective of such Exchange Offer to enable each Holder (other than Participating Broker-Dealers (as defined in Section 3(f) hereof) eligible and electing to exchange Registrable Securities for Exchange Securities (assuming that such Holder is not an affiliate of the Company within the meaning of Rule 405 under the 1933 Act, acquires the Exchange Securities in the ordinary course of such Holder's business and has no arrangements or understandings with any person to participate in the Exchange Offer for the purpose of distributing the Exchange Securities) to trade such Exchange Securities from and after their receipt without any limitations or restrictions under the 1933 Act.

In connection with the Exchange Offer, the Company shall:

(i) mail to each Holder, at its address reflected on the security register, a copy of the Prospectus forming part of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, together with an appropriate letter of transmittal (a "Letter of Transmittal") and related documents;

(ii) keep the Exchange Offer open for not less than 30 calendar days after the date notice thereof is mailed to the Holders (or longer if required by applicable law);

(iii) permit Holders to withdraw tendered Registrable Securities at any time prior to the close of business, New York City time, on the last business day on which the Exchange Offer shall remain open, by sending to the institution specified in the notice, a telegram, telex, facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of such Holder, the principal amount of Registrable Securities delivered for exchange, and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing his election to have such Securities exchanged; and

(iv) otherwise comply in all respects with all applicable laws relating to the Exchange Offer.

As soon as practicable after the close of the Exchange Offer, the Company shall:

(i) accept for exchange Registrable Securities duly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to the Exchange Offer in accordance with the terms of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement and the Letter of Transmittal;

(ii) deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Trustee for cancellation all Registrable Securities so accepted for exchange by the

Company; and

(iii) cause the Trustee promptly to authenticate and deliver Exchange Securities to, or upon the instructions of, each Holder of Registrable Securities equal in principal amount to the Registrable Securities of such Holder so accepted for exchange.

Interest on each Exchange Security will accrue from the last date on which interest was paid on the Registrable Securities surrendered in exchange therefor or, if no interest has been paid on the Registrable Securities, from the date of its original issue. The Exchange Offer shall not be subject to any conditions, other than that the Exchange Offer, or the making of any exchange by a Holder, does not violate applicable law or any applicable interpretation of the Staff of the SEC. Each Holder of Registrable Securities (other than Participating Broker-Dealers) who wishes to exchange such Registrable Securities for Exchange Securities in the Exchange Offer will be required to represent that (i) it is not an affiliate of United or the Company, (ii) any Exchange Securities to be received by it were acquired in the ordinary course of its business and (iii) at the time of the commencement of the Exchange Offer, it has no arrangement with any person to participate in the distribution (within the meaning of the 1933 Act) of the Exchange Securities. The Company shall inform the Initial Purchaser of the names and addresses of the Holders to whom the Exchange Offer is made, and the Initial Purchaser shall have the right to contact such Holders and otherwise facilitate the tender of Registrable Securities in the Exchange Offer.

(b) Shelf Registration. (i) If, because of any change in law or applicable interpretations thereof by the Staff of the SEC, the Company is not permitted to effect the Exchange Offer as contemplated by Section 2(a) hereof, (ii) upon the request of the Initial Purchaser (with respect to any Registrable Securities which it acquired directly from the Company) within 30 calendar days after the Closing Date if the Initial Purchaser shall hold Registrable Securities which it acquired directly from the Company and if the Initial Purchaser is not permitted, in the opinion of counsel to the Initial Purchaser addressed to the Company (which counsel shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company), pursuant to applicable law or applicable interpretation of the Staff of the SEC to participate in the Exchange Offer, or (iii) if any Holder other than the Initial Purchaser is not eligible to participate in the exchange offer due to a change in law or the applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission and such holder so notifies the Company, the Company shall, at its cost,

(A) as promptly as practicable, file with the SEC a Shelf Registration Statement relating to the offer and sale of the Registrable Securities (limited solely to the Initial Purchaser if clause (ii) alone applies) by the Holders from time to time in accordance with the methods of distribution elected by the Majority Holders of such Registrable Securities and set forth in such Shelf Registration Statement, and use its best efforts to cause such Shelf Registration Statement to be declared effective by the SEC by the later of (1) 120 days after the Closing Date and (2) 45 days after publication of the change in law or interpretation. In the event that the Company is required to file a Shelf Registration Statement upon the request of the Initial Purchaser pursuant to clause (ii) above, the Company shall file and have declared effective by the SEC both an Exchange Offer Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2(a) hereof with respect to all Registrable Securities and a Shelf Registration Statement (which may be a combined Registration Statement with the Exchange Offer Registration Statement) with respect to offers and sales of Registrable Securities held by the Initial Purchaser after completion of the Exchange Offer;

(B) use its best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement continuously effective in order to permit the Prospectus forming part thereof to be usable by Holders for a period of (i), in the case of clause 2(b)(i) above, three years from the date the Shelf Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, or (ii) in the case of clauses 2(b)(ii) and 2(b)(iii) above, three years after the closing date, or in any case such shorter period which will terminate when all of the Registrable Securities covered by the Shelf Registration Statement have been sold pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement or cease to be outstanding; and

(C) notwithstanding any other provisions hereof, use its best efforts to ensure that (i) any Shelf Registration Statement complies in all material respects with the 1933 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, (ii) any Shelf Registration Statement does not, when it becomes effective, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (iii) any Prospectus forming part of any Shelf Registration Statement, and any supplement to such Prospectus (as amended or supplemented from time to time), does not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

The Company further agrees, if necessary, to supplement or amend the Shelf Registration Statement if reasonably requested by the Majority Holders with respect to information relating to the Holders and otherwise as required by Section 3(b) below, to use all reasonable efforts to cause any such amendment to become effective and such Shelf

Registration to become usable as soon as thereafter practicable and to furnish to the Holders of Registrable Securities copies of any such supplement or amendment promptly after its being used or filed with the SEC.

(c) Expenses. The Company shall pay all Registration Expenses in connection with the registration pursuant to Section 2(a) or 2(b).

(d) Effective Registration Statement. An Exchange Offer Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2(a) hereof or a Shelf Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2(b) hereof will not be deemed to have become effective unless it has been declared effective by the SEC; provided, however, that if, after it has been declared effective, the offering of Registrable Securities pursuant to a Registration Statement is interfered with by any stop order, injunction or other order or requirement of the SEC or any other governmental agency or court, such Registration Statement will be deemed not to have been effective during the period of such interference, until the offering of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Registration Statement may legally resume.

(e) Increase in Interest Rate. In the event that (i) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not filed with the SEC on or prior to the 30th calendar day after the Closing Date (unless changes in law or the applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission do not permit the Company to effect the Exchange Offer, in which case clause (iv) shall apply), (ii) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not initially declared effective on or prior to the 120th calendar day after the Closing Date (unless changes in law or the applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission do not permit the Company to effect the Exchange Offer, in which case clause (iv) shall apply) or (iii) the Exchange Offer is not consummated on or prior to the 150th day after the Closing Date (unless changes in law or the applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission do not permit the Company to effect the Exchange Offer, in which case clause (iv) shall apply) or (iv) a Shelf Registration Statement required under Section 2(b)(i) hereof with respect to the Registrable Securities is not initially declared effective on or prior to the later of 120th calendar day after the Closing Date or the 45th calendar day after the publication of the change in law or interpretation, the interest rate borne by the Securities shall be increased by one-half of one percent per annum following such 30-day period in the case of clause (i) above, such 120-day period in the case of clause (ii) above, such 150-day period in the case of clause (iii) above or such 120-day or 45-day period in the case of clause (iv) above (as applicable); provided that the aggregate increase in such interest rate will in no event exceed one-half of one percent per annum. Immediately upon (A) the filing of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement after the 30-day period described in clause (i) above, (B) the effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement after the 120-day period described in clause (ii) above, (C) the consummation of the Exchange Offer after the 150-day period described in clause (iii) above or (D) the effectiveness of a Shelf Registration Statement after such 120-day or 45-day period described in clause (iv) above (as applicable), the interest rate borne by the Securities from the date of such filing, effectiveness or consummation, as the case may be, will be reduced to the original interest rate.

(f) Specific Enforcement. Without limiting the remedies available to the Initial Purchaser and the Holders, the Company acknowledges that any failure by the Company to comply with its obligations under Section 2(a) and Sections 2(b) hereof may result in material irreparable injury to the Initial Purchaser or the Holders for which there is no adequate remedy at law, that it will not be possible to measure damages for such injuries precisely and that, in the event of any such failure, the Initial Purchaser or any Holder may obtain such relief as may be required to specifically enforce the Company's obligations under Section 2(a) and Section 2(b) hereof.

(g) Acknowledgment of Holders. Each Holder shall be deemed to have agreed that any broker-dealer and any such Holder using the Exchange Offer to participate in a distribution of the securities to be acquired in the Exchange Offer must comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the 1933 Act in connection with secondary resale transactions and that such secondary resale transactions should be covered by an effective registration statement.

3. Registration Procedures. In connection with the obligations of the Company with respect to the Registration Statements pursuant to Sections 2(a) and 2(b) hereof, the Company shall:

(a) prepare and file with the SEC a Registration Statement, within the time period specified in Section 2 hereof, on the appropriate form under the 1933 Act, which form (i) shall be selected by the Company, (ii) shall, in the case of a Shelf Registration, be available for the sale of the Registrable Securities by the selling Holders thereof and (iii) shall comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the applicable form and include or incorporate by reference all financial statements required by the SEC to be filed therewith, and use its best efforts to cause such Registration Statement to become effective and remain effective in accordance with Section 2 hereof;

(b) prepare and file with the SEC such amendments and post-effective amendments to each Registration Statement as may be necessary under applicable law to keep such Registration Statement effective for the applicable period; cause each Prospectus to be supplemented by any required prospectus supplement, and as so supplemented to be filed if required pursuant to Rule 424 under the 1933 Act; comply with the provisions of the 1933 Act with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by each Registration Statement during the applicable period in accordance with the intended method or methods of distribution by the selling Holders thereof; and keep each Prospectus current during the period described under Section 4(3) and Rule 174 under the 1933 Act that is applicable to transactions by brokers or dealers with respect to Exchange Securities or Registrable Securities;

(c) in the case of a Shelf Registration, (i) notify each Holder of Registrable Securities, at least five days prior to filing, that a Shelf Registration Statement with respect to the Registrable Securities is being filed and advising such Holders that the distribution of Registrable Securities will be made in accordance with the method elected by the Majority Holders; and (ii) furnish to each Holder of Registrable Securities, to counsel for the Initial Purchaser, to counsel for the Holders and to each underwriter of an underwritten offering of Registrable Securities, if any, without charge, as many copies of each Prospectus, including each preliminary Prospectus, and any amendment or supplement thereto and such other documents as such Holder or underwriter may reasonably request, including financial statements and schedules and, if the Holder so requests, all exhibits (including those incorporated by reference) in order to facilitate the public sale or other disposition of the Registrable Securities; and (iii) subject to the last paragraph of Section 3 hereof, hereby consent to the use of the Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto by each of the selling Holders of Registrable Securities in connection with the offering and sale in accordance with applicable law of the Registrable Securities covered by the Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto;

(d) use its best efforts to register or qualify the Registrable Securities under all applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws of such jurisdictions as any Holder of Registrable Securities covered by a Registration Statement and each underwriter of an underwritten offering of Registrable Securities shall reasonably request in writing by the time the applicable Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, to cooperate with the Holders in connection with any filings required to be made with the NASD, and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable such Holder to consummate the disposition in each such jurisdiction of such Registrable Securities owned by such Holder; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to (i) qualify as a foreign corporation or as a dealer in securities in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to qualify but for this Section 3(d) or (ii) take any action which would subject it to general service of process or taxation in any such jurisdiction if it is not then so subject;

(e) in the case of a Shelf Registration, notify each Holder of Registrable Securities and counsel for the Initial Purchaser promptly and, if requested by such Holder or counsel, confirm such advice in writing promptly (i) when a Registration Statement has become effective and when any post-effective amendments and supplements thereto become effective, (ii) of any request by the SEC or any state securities authority for post-effective amendments and supplements to a Registration Statement and Prospectus or for additional information after the Registration Statement has become effective, (iii) of the issuance by the SEC or any state securities authority of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of a Registration Statement or the initiation of any proceedings for that purpose, (iv) if, between the effective date of a

Registration Statement and the closing of any sale of Registrable Securities covered thereby, the representations and warranties of the Company contained in any underwriting agreement, securities sales agreement or other similar agreement, if any, relating to such offering cease to be true and correct in all material respects, (v) of the receipt by the Company of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the Registrable Securities for sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose, (vi) of the happening of any event or the discovery of any facts during the period a Shelf Registration Statement is effective which makes any statement made in such Registration Statement or the related Prospectus untrue in any material respect or which requires the making of any changes in such Registration Statement or Prospectus in order to make the statements therein not misleading and (vii) of any determination by the Company that a post-effective amendment to a Registration Statement would be appropriate;

(f) a reasonable time prior to the filing of any Registration Statement, any Prospectus, any amendment to a Registration Statement or amendment or supplement to a

Prospectus or any document which is to be incorporated by reference into a Registration Statement or a Prospectus after initial filing of a Registration Statement, provide copies of such document to the Initial Purchaser and its counsel (and, in the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Holders and their counsel) and make representatives of the Company as shall be reasonably requested by the Initial Purchaser and their counsel (and, in the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Holders or their counsel) available for discussion of such document and shall not at any time file or make any amendment to the Registration Statement, any Prospectus or any amendment of or supplement to a Registration Statement or a Prospectus or any document which is to be incorporated by reference into a Registration Statement or a Prospectus, of which the Initial Purchaser and its counsel (and, in the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Holders and their counsel) shall not have previously been advised and furnished a copy or to which the Initial Purchaser or its counsel (and, in the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Holders or their counsel) shall reasonably object unless counsel for the Company advises the Company that such filing by the Company is required under applicable law;

(g) (i) in the case of an Exchange Offer, furnish counsel for the Initial Purchaser and (ii) in the case of a Shelf Registration, furnish counsel for the Holders of Registrable Securities copies of any request by the SEC or any state securities authority for amendments or supplements to a Registration Statement and Prospectus or for additional information;

(h) make every reasonable effort to obtain the withdrawal of any order suspending the effectiveness of a Registration Statement as soon as practicable and provide immediate notice to each Holder of the withdrawal of any such order;

Registration Statement and any post-effective amendment thereto (without documents incorporated therein by reference or exhibits thereto, unless requested);

(j) in the case of a Shelf Registration, cooperate with the selling Holders of Registrable Securities to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing Registrable Securities to be sold and not bearing any restrictive legends; and cause such Registrable Securities to be in such denominations (consistent with the provisions of the Indenture) and registered in such names as the selling Holders or the underwriters, if any, may reasonably request at least two business days prior to the closing of any sale of Registrable Securities;

(k) in the case of a Shelf Registration, upon the occurrence of any event or the discovery of any facts, each as contemplated by Section 3(e)(vi) hereof, use its best efforts to prepare a supplement or post-effective amendment to a Registration Statement or the related Prospectus or any document incorporated therein by reference or file any other required document so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of the Registrable Securities, such Prospectus will not contain at the time of such delivery any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Company agrees to notify each Holder to suspend use of the Prospectus as promptly as practicable after the occurrence of such an event, and each Holder hereby agrees to suspend use of the Prospectus until the Company has amended or supplemented the Prospectus to correct such misstatement or omission. At such time as such public disclosure is otherwise made or the Company determines that such disclosure is not necessary, in each case to correct any misstatement of a material fact or to include any omitted material fact, the Company agrees promptly to notify each Holder of such determination and to furnish each Holder such numbers of copies of the Prospectus, as amended or supplemented, as such Holder may reasonably request;

(l) obtain a CUSIP number for all Exchange Securities, or Registrable Securities, as the case may be, not later than the effective date of a Registration Statement, and provide the Trustee with printed certificates for the Exchange Securities or the Registrable Securities, as the case may be, in a form eligible for deposit with the Depositary;

(m) (i) cause the Indenture to be qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended (the "TIA"), in connection with the registration of the Exchange Securities, or Registrable Securities, as the case may be, (ii) cooperate with the Trustee and the Holders to effect such changes to the Indenture as may be required for the Indenture to be so qualified in accordance with the terms of the TIA and (iii) execute, and use its best efforts to cause the Trustee to execute, all documents as may be required to effect such changes, and all other forms and documents required to be filed with the SEC to enable the Indenture to be so qualified in a timely manner;

(n) in the case of a Shelf Registration, enter into agreements (including customary underwriting agreements) and take all other customary and appropriate actions (including those reasonably requested by the Majority Holders) in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of such Registrable Securities and in such connection whether or not an underwriting agreement is entered into and whether or not the registration is an underwritten registration:

(i) to the extent possible, make such representations and warranties to the Holders of such Registrable Securities and the underwriters, if any, in form, substance and scope as are customarily made by issuers to underwriters in similar underwritten offerings as may be reasonably requested by them;

(ii) obtain opinions of counsel to the Company and, subject to the proviso in the first sentence of the last paragraph of this clause (n), updates thereof (which counsel and opinions (in form, scope and substance) shall be reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriters, if any, and the Majority Holders of the Registrable Securities being sold) addressed to each selling Holder and the underwriters, if any, covering the matters customarily covered in opinions requested in sales of securities or underwritten offerings and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by such Holders and underwriters;

(iii) obtain "cold comfort" letters and, subject to the proviso in the first sentence of the last paragraph of this clause (n), updates thereof from the Company's independent certified public accountants addressed to the underwriters, if any, and use reasonable best efforts to have such letter addressed to the selling Holders of Registrable Securities, such letters to be in customary form and covering matters of the type customarily covered in "cold comfort" letters to underwriters in connection with similar underwritten offerings;

(iv) enter into a securities sales agreement with the Holders and an agent of the Holders providing for, among other things, the appointment of such agent for the selling Holders for the purpose of soliciting purchases of Registrable Securities, which agreement shall be in form, substance and scope customary for similar offerings;

(v) if an underwriting agreement is entered into, cause the same to set forth indemnification provisions and procedures substantially equivalent to the indemnification provisions and procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof with respect to the underwriters and all other parties to be indemnified pursuant to said Section; and

(vi) deliver such other documents and certificates as may be reasonably requested and as are customarily delivered in similar offerings.

The above shall be done at (i) the effectiveness of such Registration Statement (and, if appropriate, each post-effective amendment thereto) and (ii) each closing under any underwriting or similar agreement as and to the extent required thereunder; provided that the updates referred to in clauses (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph (n) shall only be required in the case of (A) any closing with respect to sales under such Shelf Registration Statement of Securities having a principal amount of $7.5 million or more or, if the Initial Purchaser shall waive such updates under clause (A), then (B) in the case of up to three such closings. In the case of any underwritten offering, the Company shall provide written notice to the Holders of all Registrable Securities of such underwritten offering at least 30 days prior to the filing of a prospectus supplement for such underwritten offering. Such notice shall (x) offer each such Holder the right to participate in such underwritten offering, (y) specify a date, which shall be no earlier than 10 days following the date of such notice, by which such Holder must inform the Company of its intent to participate in such underwritten offering and (z) include the instructions such Holder must follow in order to participate in such underwritten offering;

(o) in the case of a Shelf Registration, make available for inspection by one representative appointed by the Majority Holders of the Registrable Securities and any underwriters participating in any disposition pursuant to a Shelf Registration Statement and one counsel or accountant retained by such Holders or underwriters, all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Company reasonably requested by any such persons, and cause the respective officers, directors, employees, and any other agents of the Company to supply all information reasonably requested by any such representative, underwriter, special counsel or accountant in connection with a Registration Statement; provided, however, that any records, information or documents that are designated by the Company as confidential at the time of delivery of such records, information or documents shall be kept confidential by such persons, unless (i) such records, information or documents are in the public domain or otherwise publicly available;

(ii) disclosure of such records, information or documents is required by court or administrative order, provided that such person will, promptly upon learning that disclosure of such information is sought in a court of competent jurisdiction, give notice to the Company so that the Company may at its expense undertake appropriate action to prevent disclosure of the information deemed to be confidential, (iii) disclosure of such records, information or documents, in the opinion of counsel to such person, is otherwise required by law (including, without limitation, pursuant to the requirements of the 1933 Act) or (iv) upon the advice of counsel, disclosure of such records, information or documents is necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission in the Registration Statement;

(p) in the case of a Shelf Registration, use its best efforts to cause all Registrable Securities to be listed on any securities exchange on which similar debt securities issued by the Company are then listed if requested in writing by the Majority Holders or by the underwriter or underwriters of an underwritten offering of Registrable Securities, if any;

(q) in the case of a Shelf Registration, use its best efforts to cause the Registrable Securities to be rated with the appropriate rating agencies, if so requested by the Majority Holders or by the underwriter or underwriters of an underwritten offering of Registrable Securities, if any, unless the Registrable Securities are already so rated;

(r) otherwise use its best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the SEC and make available to its security holders, as soon as reasonably practicable, an earnings statement covering at least 12 months which shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the 1933 Act and Rule 158 thereunder; and

(s) cooperate and assist in any filings required to be made with the NASD and in the performance of any due diligence investigation by any underwriter and its counsel.

In the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, the Company may (as a condition to such Holder's participation in the Shelf Registration) require each Holder of Registrable Securities to furnish to the Company such information regarding such Holder and the proposed distribution by such Holder of such Registrable Securities as the Company may from time to time reasonably request in writing.

In the case of a Shelf Registration Statement, each Holder agrees that, upon receipt of any notice from the Company of the happening of any event or the discovery of any facts, each of the kind described in Section 3(e)(ii)-(vi) hereof, such Holder will forthwith discontinue disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to a Registration Statement until such Holder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus contemplated by Section 3(k) hereof, and, if so directed by the Company, such Holder will deliver to the Company (at its expense) all copies in its possession or certify in writing that such copies have been destroyed, in each case other than permanent file copies then in such Holder's possession, of the Prospectus covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice. If the Company shall give any such notice to suspend the disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to a Shelf Registration Statement as a result of the happening of any event or the discovery of any facts, each of the kind described in Section 3(e)(vi) hereof, the Company shall be deemed to have used its best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement effective during such period of suspension provided that the Company shall use its best efforts to file and have declared effective (if an amendment) as soon as practicable an amendment or supplement to the Shelf Registration Statement and shall extend the period during which the Registration Statement shall be maintained effective pursuant to this Agreement by the number of days during the period from and including the date of the giving of such notice to and including the date when the Holders shall have received copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus necessary to resume such dispositions.

4. Underwritten Registrations. If any of the Registrable Securities covered by any Shelf Registration are to be sold in an underwritten offering as contemplated by Section 3 hereof, the investment banker or investment bankers and manager or managers (and their counsel) that will manage the offering will be agreed to by the Company and the Majority Holders of such Registrable Securities included in such offering.

No Holder of Registrable Securities may participate in any underwritten registration hereunder unless such Holder (a) agrees to sell such Holder's Registrable Securities on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements approved by the persons entitled hereunder to approve such arrangements and (b) completes, executes and delivers all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents required of such Holder under the terms of such underwriting arrangements.

5. Participation of Broker-Dealers in Exchange Offer

(a) The Staff of the SEC has taken the position that any broker-dealer that receives Exchange Securities for its own account in the Exchange Offer in exchange for Registrable Securities that were acquired by such broker-dealer as a result of market-making or other trading activities (a "Participating Broker-Dealer") may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the 1933 Act in connection with any resale of such Exchange Notes.

The Company understands that it is the Staff's position that if the Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement includes a plan of distribution containing a statement to the above effect and the means by which Participating Broker-Dealers may resell the Exchange Securities owned by them, such Prospectus may be delivered by Participating Broker-Dealers to satisfy their prospectus delivery obligations under the 1933 Act in connection with resales of Exchange Securities for their own accounts, so long as the Prospectus otherwise meets the requirements of the 1933 Act.

(b) In light of the above, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company agrees (x) that the provisions of this Agreement as they relate to a Shelf Registration shall also apply to an Exchange Offer Registration to the extent, and with such modifications thereto as may be, reasonably requested by the Initial Purchaser or one or more Participating Broker-Dealers, in each case as provided in clause (ii) below, in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of any Exchange Securities by Participating Broker-Dealers consistent with the positions of the Staff recited in Section 5(a) above and (y) without limiting the preceding clause (x), to maintain the effectiveness of the Registration Statement for such purposes for the earlier of one year or until such Participating Broker Dealers have sold all Exchange Securities (as determined in accordance with FIFO accounting), but in any event only if applicable interpretations of the Staff continue to require Prospectus delivery; provided that:

(i) the Company shall not be required to amend or supplement the Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, as would otherwise be contemplated by Section 3(k), for a period exceeding 180 days after the last Exchange Date (as such period may be extended pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 3 of this Agreement) and Participating Broker-Dealers shall not be authorized by the Company to deliver and shall not deliver such Prospectus after such period in connection with the resales contemplated by this Section 5; and

(ii) the application of the Shelf Registration procedures set forth in Section 3 of this Agreement to an Exchange Offer Registration, to the extent not required by the positions of the Staff of the SEC or the 1933 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, will be in conformity with the reasonable request to the Company by the Initial Purchaser or with the reasonable request in writing to the Company by one or more broker-dealers who certify to the Initial Purchaser and the Company in writing that they anticipate that they will be Participating Broker-Dealers; and provided further that, in connection with such application of the Shelf Registration procedures set forth in Section 3 to an Exchange Offer Registration, the Company shall be obligated (x) to deal only with one entity representing the Participating Broker-Dealers, which shall be the Initial Purchaser unless it elects not to act as such representative, (y) to pay the fees and expenses of only one counsel representing the Participating Broker-Dealers, which shall be counsel to the Initial Purchaser unless such counsel elects not to so act and (z) to cause to be delivered only one, if any, "cold comfort" letter with respect to the Prospectus in the form existing on the last Exchange Date and with respect to each subsequent amendment or supplement, if any, effected during the period specified in clause (i) above.

(c) The Initial Purchaser shall have no liability to the Company or any Holder with respect to any request that it may make pursuant to this Section 5.

Section 6. Indemnification. (a) The Company and United each agree jointly and severally to indemnify and hold harmless the Initial Purchaser, each Holder, including Participating Broker Dealers, each underwriter who participated in an offering of the Registrable Securities and each person, if any, who controls such parties within the meaning of Section 15 of the 1933 Act as follows:

(i) against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever, as incurred, arising out of an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or the omission or alleged omission therefrom of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading or arising out of an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact included in any preliminary prospectus or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto)

or the omission or alleged omission therefrom of a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(ii) against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever, as incurred, to the extent of the aggregate amount paid in settlement of any litigation, or investigation or proceeding by any governmental agency or body, commenced or threatened, or of any claim whatsoever based upon any such untrue statement or omission, or any such alleged untrue statement or omission, if such settlement is effected with the written consent of the Company; and

provided, however, that this indemnity agreement does not apply to any loss, liability, claim, damage or expense to the extent arising out of an untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company or United by the Initial Purchaser expressly for use in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or any preliminary prospectus or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto); and provided, further, that the Company will not be liable to the Initial Purchaser or any person controlling the Initial Purchaser with respect to any such untrue statement or omission made in any preliminary prospectus that is corrected in the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) if the person asserting any such loss, claim, damage or liability purchased Securities from the Initial Purchaser in reliance upon a preliminary prospectus but was not sent or given a copy of the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented) at or prior to the written confirmation of the sale of such Securities to such person in any case where such delivery of the Prospectus (as so amended or supplemented) is required by the 1933 Act, unless such failure to deliver the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented) was a result of noncompliance by the Company with Section 3 of this Agreement.

(b) The Initial Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each of the Company, United and each person, if any, who controls the Company or United within the meaning of Section 15 of the 1933 Act, against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense described in the indemnity agreement in Section (a), as incurred, but only with respect to untrue statements or omissions, or alleged untrue statements or omissions, made in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto), or any preliminary prospectus or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company or United by the Initial Purchaser expressly for use in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto), or such preliminary prospectus or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto).

(c) In the case of a Shelf Registration, each Holder agrees, severally and not jointly, to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, United, the Initial Purchaser, each underwriter who participates in an offering of Registrable Securities and the other selling Holders and each person, if any, who controls such persons within the meaning of Section 15 of the 1933 Act, against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses described in the indemnity contained in (a) hereof, as incurred, but only with respect to untrue statements or omissions, or alleged untrue statements or omissions, made in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company or United by such Holder, expressly for use in the Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto), or the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto); provided, however, that no such Holder shall be liable for any claims hereunder in excess of the amount of net proceeds received by such Holder from the sale of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Shelf Registration Statement.

(d) Each indemnified party shall give prompt notice to each indemnifying party of any action commenced against it in respect of which indemnity may be sought hereunder, but failure to so notify an indemnifying party shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have otherwise than on account of this indemnity agreement. An indemnifying party may participate at its own expense in the defense of such action. In no event shall the indemnifying party or parties be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for all indemnified parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances.

(e) In order to provide for just and equitable contribution in circumstances under which the indemnity provided for in this Section 6 is for any reason held to be unenforceable by the indemnified parties although applicable in accordance with its terms, the Company, United and the Initial

Purchaser shall contribute to the aggregate losses, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses of the nature contemplated by such indemnity incurred by the Company, United and the Initial Purchaser, as incurred, in such proportions that the Initial Purchaser is responsible for that portion represented by the percentage that the initial purchaser's discount appearing on the cover page of the Prospectus bears to the price to investors appearing thereon, and the Company and United are responsible for the balance; provided, however, that no person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 1(f) of the 1933 Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. For purposes of this Section, each person, if any, who controls the Initial Purchaser within the meaning of Section 5 of the 1933 Act shall have the same rights to contribution as the Initial Purchaser, and each director of the Company or United, each officer of the Company or United who signed the Registration Statement, and each person, if any, who controls the Company or United within the meaning of Section 5 of the 1933 Act shall have the same rights to contribution as the Company or United.

7. Miscellaneous. (a) Rule 144 and Rule 144A. Regardless of whether the Company is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15 of the 1934 Act, the Company covenants that it will file the reports that would be required to be filed by it under Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the 1934 Act and the rules and regulations adopted by the SEC thereunder if such Sections were applicable to it, and that if it ceases to be permitted to file such reports, it will upon the request of any Holder of Registrable Securities (i) make publicly available such information as is necessary to permit sales pursuant to Rule 144 under the 1933 Act and (ii) deliver such information to a prospective purchaser as is reasonably necessary to permit sales pursuant to Rule 144A under the 1933 Act, in each case, to the extent required from time to time to enable such Holder to sell its Registrable Securities without registration under the 1933 Act within the limitation of the exemptions provided by (x) Rule 144 under the 1933 Act, as such Rule may be amended from time to time, (y) Rule 144A under the 1993 Act, as such Rule may be amended from time to time, or (z) any similar rules or regulations hereafter adopted by the SEC. Upon the request of any Holder of Registrable Securities, the Company will deliver to such Holder a written statement as to whether it has complied with such requirements.

(b) No Inconsistent Agreements. Neither the Company or United has entered into nor will the Company or United on or after the date of this Agreement enter into, any agreement which is inconsistent with the rights granted to the Holders of Registrable Securities in this Agreement or otherwise conflicts with the provisions hereof. The Company and United represent and warrant that the rights granted to the Holders hereunder do not conflict with and are not inconsistent with the rights granted to the holders of the Company's other issued and outstanding securities under any such agreements.

(c) Amendments and Waivers. The provisions of this Agreement, including the provisions of this sentence, may not be amended, modified or supplemented, and waivers or consents to departures from the provisions hereof may not be given unless the Company has obtained the written consent of Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Registrable Securities affected by such amendment, modification, supplement, waiver or departure; provided, however, that no amendment, modification, supplement or waiver or consent to any departure from the provisions of Section 6 hereof shall be effective as against any Holder of Registrable Securities unless consented to in writing by such Holder.

(d) Notices. All notices and other communications provided for or permitted hereunder shall be made in writing by hand-delivery, registered first-class mail, telex, telecopier, or any courier guaranteeing overnight delivery (i) if to a Holder, at the most current address given by such Holder to the Company by means of a notice given in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7(d), which address initially is, with respect to the Initial Purchaser, the address set forth in the Purchase Agreement and (ii) if to the Company, initially at the Company's address set forth in the Purchase Agreement and thereafter at such other address, notice of which is given in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7(d).

All such notices and communications shall be deemed to have been duly given at the time delivered by hand, if personally delivered; three business days after being deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, if mailed; when answered back, if telexed; when receipt is acknowledged, if telecopied; and on the next business day if timely delivered to an air courier guaranteeing overnight delivery.

Copies of all such notices, demands, or other communications shall be concurrently delivered by the person giving the same to the Trustee, at the address specified in the Indenture.

(e) Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the successors, assigns and transferees of each of the parties, including, without limitation and without the need for an express assignment, subsequent Holders; provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to permit any assignment, transfer or other disposition of Registrable Securities in violation of the terms hereof or of the Purchase Agreement or the Indenture. If any transferee of any Holder shall acquire Registrable Securities, in any manner, whether by operation of law or otherwise, such Registrable Securities shall be held subject to all of the terms of this Agreement, and by taking and holding such Registrable Securities, such Person shall be conclusively deemed to have agreed to be bound by and to perform all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, including the restrictions on resale set forth in this Agreement and, if applicable, the Purchase Agreement, and such Person shall be entitled to receive the benefits hereof.

(f) Third Party Beneficiary. The Initial Purchaser shall be third party beneficiary to the agreements made hereunder between the Company, on the one hand, and the Holders, on the other hand, and shall have the right to enforce such agreements directly to the extent it deems such enforcement necessary or advisable to protect its rights or the rights of Holders hereunder.

(g) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

(h) Headings. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not limit or otherwise affect the meaning hereof.

(i) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTS PERFORMED ENTIRELY IN THAT STATE.

(j) Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein, or the application thereof in any circumstance, is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such provision in every other respect and of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not be affected or impaired thereby.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 dated as of March 30, 1995, between CHASE MANHATTAN HOLDINGS, INC., certain other holders of Registrable Securities under the Registration Rights Agreement referred to below and ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Issuer").

The parties are parties to a Registration Rights Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 (as heretofore modified and supplemented and in effect on the date hereof, the "Registration Rights Agreement"), providing, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, for the registration of certain securities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The parties wish to expand the definition of Registrable Securities under the Agreement and to amend the Registration Rights Agreement in certain other respects, and accordingly, hereby agree as follows:

Section 1. Definitions. Except as otherwise defined in this Amendment No. 1, terms defined in the Registration Rights Agreement are used herein as defined therein.

Section 2. Amendments. The Registration Rights Agreement shall be amended as follows:

2.01. Section 1 shall be amended by adding the following paragraph at the end thereof:

> "(f) Anything in this Agreement (including Section 1(b)) to the contrary notwithstanding, the Issuer will use its best efforts to effect a "shelf" registration of all Registrable Securities on Form S-3 pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable following the 60th day after the merger of the Issuer into United Stationers Inc. (upon which merger United Stationers Inc. will become the Issuer under this Agreement). The registration statement shall permit resale by the holders thereof in any manner including in an underwritten offering."

2.02. Section 3(b) shall be amended by adding at the end thereof the words "or in the case of the registration statement referred to in Section 1(f), three years from the effective date of the merger referred to therein".

2.03. The definition of "Registrable Securities" in Section 9 is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

"Registrable Securities" means (i) shares of Common Stock or Other Securities issued or issuable upon exercise of the Warrants or conversion of non-voting stock of Issuer issued pursuant to certain Subscription Agreements or issued in consideration of the arrangement of certain loans pursuant to the letter agreement dated March 30, 1995 between the Issuer and the Investor and (ii) any securities issued or issuable with respect to any securities referred to in clause (i) by way of stock dividend, stock split or in connection with a combination of shares, recapitalization, merger, consolidation or other reorganization or otherwise. As to any particular Registrable Securities, once issued such securities shall cease to be Registrable Securities when (x) a registration statement with respect to the sale of such securities shall have become effective under the Securities Act and such securities shall have been disposed of in accordance with such registration statement, (y) they shall have been distributed to the public pursuant to Rule 144, or (z) they shall have eased to be outstanding. Securities beneficially owned by Issuer or any Affiliate (other than an institutional investor) shall not be deemed Registrable Securities.

Section 2.04. The definition of Requesting Holders in Section 9 is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the words "or included in the shelf registration referred to in Section 1(f)".

Section 3. Miscellaneous. Except as herein provided, the Registration Rights Agreement shall remain unchanged and in full force and effect. This Amendment No. 1 may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same amendatory instrument and any of the parties hereto may execute this Amendment No. 1 by signing any such counterpart. This Amendment No. 1 shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York.

EXHIBIT 10.13

UNITED STATIONERS INC.

AMENDED AND RESTATED
REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

This AMENDED AND RESTATED REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of March __, 1995 is made and entered into by and among UNITED STATIONERS INC., a Delaware corporation and successor-in-interest to Associated (as hereinafter defined) (the "Issuer"), each party hereto whose name appears on the signature pages hereto (each an "Initial Holder" and collectively the "Initial Holders"), and each other person or entity who may execute this Agreement in the future or who may execute a separate agreement to be bound by the terms hereof (each Initial Holder and each such other person or entity a "Holder", and collectively the "Holders"). This Agreement amends and restates in its entirety that certain Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of January 31, 1992 (the "Existing Registration Rights Agreement"), among the Holders and Associated Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation that has merged (the "Merger") with and into the Issuer as of the date hereof. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set forth in Section 8.

WHEREAS, in connection with the Merger, the parties to the Existing Registration Rights Agreement deem it desirable to amend and restate the Existing Registration Rights Agreement, effective as of the effective time of the Merger, pursuant to Section 9(c) thereof as set forth herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Requested Registrations.

(a) Registration Requests. From and after the date hereof, upon the written request of a Holder of at least 20% of the Registrable Securities requesting that Issuer effect a registration under the Securities Act of all or part of such Holder's Registrable Securities and specifying the number of Registrable Securities to be registered and the intended method of disposition thereof (a "Registration Request"), Issuer will promptly, and in no event more than ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such Registration Request, give written notice (a "Notice of Requested Registration") of such request to all other Holders of Registrable Securities, and thereupon will use all commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of:

(A) the Registrable Securities which Issuer has been so requested to register by such Requesting Holder, and

(B) all other Registrable Securities the Holders of which have made written requests to Issuer for registration thereof within twenty (20) days after the giving of the Notice of Requested Registration (which requests shall specify the intended method of disposition thereof), all to the extent requisite to permit the disposition (in accordance with the intended methods thereof) of the Registrable Securities so to be registered. If requested by the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities requested to be included in any Requested Registration, the method of disposition of all Registrable Securities included in such registration shall be an underwritten offering effected in accordance with Section 4(a). Subject to subsection (e) below, Issuer may include in such registration other securities for sale for its own account or for the account of any other Person.

(b) Limitations on Requested Registrations. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Issuer shall not be required to honor a request for a Requested Registration if:

(i) such request is received by Issuer less than three hundred sixty-five (365) days after the date hereof;

(ii) in the case of a Long-Form Registration, Issuer has previously effected two (2) Effective Long-Form Registrations;

(iii) in the case of a Short-Form Registration, Issuer has previously effected three (3) Effective Short-Form Registrations;

(iv) in the case of either a Long-Form Registration or a Short-Form Registration, Issuer has previously effected three (3) Effective Short-Form Registrations and/or Long-Form Registrations; or

(v) such request is received by Issuer less than three hundred (300) days following the effective date of any previous registration statement filed in connection with a

Requested Registration, regardless of whether any Holder of Registrable Securities exercised its rights under this Agreement with respect to such registration, unless such previous registration constituted a Cutback Registration.

(c) Registration Statement Form. Requested Registrations shall be on such appropriate registration form promulgated by the Commission as shall be selected by Issuer, and shall be reasonably acceptable to the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to which such registration relates, and shall permit the disposition of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended method or methods specified in their request for such registration, provided, that such registration form is available under the terms of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the forgoing, if Issuer selects a Form S-3 and the use of such form is available under the terms of this Agreement and is permitted by law, the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to which such registration relates may notify Issuer in writing that, in the judgment of such holders (or, if applicable, the Managing Underwriter), the inclusion of some or all of the information required in a more detailed form specified in such notice is of material importance to the success of the Public Offering of such Registrable Securities, in which case Issuer shall supplement or amend the Form S-3 to include such information.

(d) Registration Expenses. Issuer will pay all Registration Expenses incurred in connection with any Requested Registration.

(e) Priority in Cutback Registrations. If a Requested Registration becomes a Cutback Registration, Issuer will include in any such registration, to the extent of the number which the Managing Underwriter advises Issuer can be sold in such offering, (i) first, the securities of Issuer proposed to be included in such registration in accordance with the priorities then existing among Issuer and the holders of such securities pursuant to any agreement between such holders and Issuer, including the Other Registration Rights Agreement, and (ii) second, any other securities of Issuer, including Registrable Securities, proposed to be included in such registration pro rata among the holders thereof, including the Holders. Any securities excluded from such registration shall be withdrawn from and shall not be included in such Requested Registration.

2. Piggyback Registrations.

(a) Right to Include Registrable Securities. Notwithstanding any limitation contained in Section 1, if Issuer at any time proposes after the date hereof to effect a Piggyback Registration, it will each such time give prompt written notice (a "Notice of Piggyback Registration") to all Holders of Registrable Securities of its intention to do so and of such Holders' rights under this Section 2, which Notice of Piggyback Registration shall include a description of the intended method of disposition of such securities. Upon the written request of any such Holder made within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a Notice of Piggyback Registration (which request shall specify the Registrable Securities intended to be disposed of by such holder and the intended method of disposition thereof), Issuer will use all commercially reasonable efforts to include in the registration statement relating to such Piggyback Registration all Registrable Securities which Issuer has been so requested to register. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, at any time after giving a Notice of Piggyback Registration and prior to the effective date of the registration statement filed in connection with such registration, Issuer shall determine for any reason not to register or to delay registration of such securities, Issuer may, at its election, give written notice of such determination to each holder of Registrable Securities and, thereupon, (i) in the case of a determination not to register, shall be relieved of its obligation to register any Registrable Securities in connection with such registration (but not from its obligation to pay the Registration Expenses in connection therewith), without prejudice, however, to the rights of any Requesting Holder entitled to do so to request that such registration be effected as a Requested Registration under Section 1, and (ii) in the case of a determination to delay registering, shall be permitted to delay registering any Registrable Securities for the same period as the delay in registering such other securities. No registration effected under this Section 2 shall relieve Issuer of its obligations to effect a Requested Registration under Section 1.

(b) Registration Expenses. Issuer will pay all Registration Expenses incurred in connection with each Piggyback Registration.

(c) Priority in Cutback Registrations. If a Piggyback Registration becomes a Cutback Registration, Issuer will include in such registration to the extent of the amount of the securities which the Managing Underwriter advises Issuer can be sold in such offering:

(i) if such registration involves a primary offering of Issuer's securities, (x) first, the securities proposed by Issuer to be sold for its own account, and (y) second any other securities of Issuer, including Registrable Securities, proposed to be included in such registration pro rata among the holders thereof, including the Holders; and

(ii) if such registration does not involve a primary offering, (X) first, any securities of Issuer proposed to be included in such

-----
registration in accordance with the priorities then existing among Issuer and such holders thereof pursuant to any agreement between such holders and Issuer, including securities under the Other Registration Rights Agreement, and (y) second, any other securities of Issuer to be included in such
------
registration shall be allocated among the holders thereof pro rata on the basis of the number of securities, including Registrable Securities, requested to be included by such holders, including the Holders.
--- ----

Any securities excluded from such registration shall be withdrawn from and shall not be included in such Piggyback Registration.

3. Registration Procedures. If and whenever Issuer is required to use all commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration of any Registrable Securities under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 1 or Section
----
--------- -------
2, Issuer will use all commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration and sale of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended methods of disposition thereof specified by the Requesting Holders. Without limiting the foregoing, Issuer in each such case will, as expeditiously as possible:

(a) prepare and file with the Commission the requisite registration statement to effect such registration and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective as soon as practicable, provided that as far in advance as practical before filing such registration statement or any amendment or supplement thereto, Issuer will furnish to the Requesting Holders copies of reasonably complete drafts of all such documents proposed to be filed (including exhibits);

(b) prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and any prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement, in accordance with the intended methods of disposition thereof, until the earlier of (i) such time as all of such securities have been disposed of in accordance with the intended methods of disposition by the seller or sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement and (ii) two hundred and seventy (270) days after such registration statement becomes effective;

(c) promptly notify each Requesting Holder and the underwriter or underwriters, if any:

(i) when such registration statement or any prospectus used in connection therewith, or any amendment or supplement thereto, has been filed and, with respect to such registration statement or any post effective amendment thereto, when the same has become effective;

(ii) of any written request by the Commission for amendments or supplements to such registration statement or prospectus;

(iii) of the notification to Issuer by the Commission of its initiation of any proceeding with respect to the issuance by the Commission of, or of the issuance by the Commission of, any stop order suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement; and

(iv) of the receipt by Issuer of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of any Registrable Securities for sale under the applicable securities or blue sky laws of any jurisdiction;

(d) furnish to each seller of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement such number of conformed copies of such registration statement and of each amendment and supplement thereto (in each case including all exhibits and documents incorporated by reference), such number of copies of the prospectus contained in such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus and any summary prospectus) and any other prospectus filed under Rule 424 promulgated under the Securities Act relating to such holder's Registrable Securities, and such other documents, as such seller may reasonably request to facilitate the disposition of its Registrable Securities;

(e) use all commercially reasonable efforts to register or qualify all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as each holder thereof shall reasonably request, to keep such registration or qualification in effect for so long as such registration statement remains in effect, and take any other action which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable such Holder to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions of the Registrable Securities owned by such Holder, except that Issuer shall not for any such purpose be required (i) to qualify generally to do business as a foreign corporation in any jurisdiction wherein it would not but for the requirements of this paragraph (e) be obligated to be so qualified, (ii) to subject itself to taxation in any such jurisdiction or (iii) to consent to general service of process in any jurisdiction;

(f) use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement to be registered with or approved by such other governmental agencies or authorities as may be necessary to enable each Holder thereof to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Securities;

(g) upon the request of (a) the Managing Underwriter, or (b) those Requesting Holders who hold at least a majority of the Registrable Securities to be included in a Requested Registration, effect a stock split in respect of the Common Stock by means of a stock dividend on the Common Stock or a subdivision of the Common Stock, or a combination of the Common Stock, such stock split or combination to be in form, scope and substance satisfactory to the Managing Underwriter or such Requesting Holders, as the case may be;

(h) use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a comfort letter or comfort letters from the Issuer's independent public accountants in customary form and covering such matters of the type customarily covered by comfort letters as the Requesting Holders who hold at least a majority of the Registrable Securities to be included in a Requesting Registration or the Managing Underwriter reasonably request;

(i) notify each holder of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement, at any time when a prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event as a result of which any prospectus included in such registration statement, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and at the request of any such holder promptly prepare and furnish to such holder a reasonable number of copies of a supplement to or an amendment of such prospectus as may be necessary so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such securities, such prospectus shall not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(j) otherwise use all commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission, and make available to its securityholders, as soon as reasonably practicable, an earnings statement covering the period of at least twelve (12) months, but not more than eighteen (18) months, beginning with the first full calendar month after the effective date of such registration statement, which earnings statement shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 promulgated thereunder;

(k) make available for inspection by any Requesting Holder, any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to such registration statement and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such seller or underwriter (collectively, the "Inspectors"), all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of Issuer (collectively, the "Records") as shall be reasonably necessary to enable them to exercise any due diligence responsibility, and cause Issuer's officers, directors and employees to supply all information reasonably requested by any such Inspector in connection with such registration statement, and permit the Inspectors to participate in the preparation of such registration statement and any prospectus contained therein and any amendment or supplement thereto.

(l) provide a transfer agent and registrar for all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement not later than the effective date of such registration statement; and

(m) use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement to be listed, upon official notice of issuance, on any securities exchange on which any of the securities of the same class as the Registrable Securities are then listed.

Issuer may require each Holder of Registrable Securities as to which any registration is being effected to, and each such Holder, as a condition to including Registrable Securities in such registration, shall, furnish Issuer with such information and affidavits regarding such Holder and the distribution of such securities as Issuer may from time to time reasonably request in writing in connection with such registration; provided, however, that Issuer will not file any registration statement under the Securities Act which refers to any Holder of any Registrable Securities by name or otherwise as the Holder of any securities of Issuer, unless it shall first have given to such Holder the right to require (a) the insertion therein of language, in form and substance satisfactory to such Holder, to the effect that the holding by such Holder of such securities does not make such holder a "controlling person" of Issuer within the meaning of the Securities Act and is not to be construed as a recommendation by such holder of the investment quality of the Issuer's debt or equity securities covered thereby and that such holding does not imply that such Holder will assist in meeting any future financial requirements of Issuer, or

(b) in the event that such reference to such Holder by name or otherwise is not required by the Securities Act or any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the deletion of the reference to such Holder; provided that such Holder shall furnish to Issuer an opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to Issuer to such effect.

Each Holder of Registrable Securities agrees by acquisition of such Registrable Securities that upon receipt of any notice from Issuer of the happening of any event of the kind described in paragraph (b), such Holder will forthwith discontinue such Holder's disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to the registration statement relating to such Registrable Securities until such Holder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by paragraph (b) and, if so directed by Issuer, will deliver to Issuer (at Issuer's expense) all copies, other than permanent file copies, then in such Holder's possession of the prospectus relating to such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice. In the event Issuer shall give any such notice, the period referred to in paragraph (b) shall be extended by a number of days equal to the number of days during the period from and including the giving of notice pursuant to paragraph (c) and to and including the date when each Holder of any Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement shall receive the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by paragraph (b).

4. Underwritten Offerings.

(a) Underwritten Requested Offerings. In the case of any underwritten Public Offering being effected pursuant to a Requested Registration, the Managing Underwriter and any other underwriter or underwriters with respect to such offering shall be selected, after consultation with Issuer, by the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to be included in such underwritten offering with the consent of Issuer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Issuer shall enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form with such underwriter or underwriters, which shall include, among other provisions, indemnities to the effect and to the extent provided in Section 6. The Holders of Registrable Securities to be distributed by such underwriters shall be parties to such underwriting agreement and may, at their option (if permitted by the underwriters), require that any or all of the representations and warranties by, and the other agreements on the part of, Issuer to and for the benefit of such underwriters also be made to and for their benefit and that any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such underwriters under such underwriting agreement also be conditions precedent to their obligations. No Holder of Registrable Securities shall be required to make any representations or warranties to or agreements with Issuer or the underwriters other than representations, warranties or agreements regarding such Holder and its ownership of the securities being registered on its behalf and such Holder's intended method of distribution and any other representation required by law. No Requesting Holder may participate in such underwritten offering unless such Holder agrees to sell its Registrable Securities on the basis provided in such underwriting agreement and completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting agreement. If any Requesting Holder disapproves of the terms of an underwriting, such Holder may elect to withdraw therefrom and from such registration by notice to Issuer and the Managing Underwriter, and each of the remaining Requesting Holders shall be entitled to increase the number of Registrable Securities being registered to the extent of the Registrable Securities so withdrawn in the proportion which the number of Registrable Securities being registered by such remaining Requesting Holder bears to the total number of Registrable Securities being registered by all such remaining Requesting Holders.

(b) Underwritten Piggyback Offerings. If Issuer at any time proposes to register any of its securities in a Piggyback Registration and such securities are to be distributed by or through one or more underwriters, Issuer will, subject to the provisions of Section 2(c), use its all commercially reasonable efforts to arrange for such underwriters to include the Registrable Securities to be offered and sold by Requesting Holders among the securities to be distributed by such underwriters, and such Holders shall be obligated to sell their Registrable Securities in such Piggyback Registration through such underwriters on the same terms and conditions as apply to the other Issuer securities to be sold by such underwriters in connection with such Piggyback Registration. The holders of Registrable Securities to be distributed by such underwriters shall be parties to the underwriting agreement between Issuer and such underwriter or underwriters and may, at their option (if permitted by the underwriters), require that any or all of the representations and warranties by, and the other agreements on the part of, Issuer to and for the benefit of such underwriters also be made to and for their benefit and that any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such underwriters under such underwriting agreement also be conditions precedent to their obligations. No Requesting Holder may participate in such underwritten offering unless such Holder agrees to sell its Registrable Securities on the basis provided in such underwriting agreement and completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting agreement. If any Requesting Holder disapproves of the terms of an underwriting, such Holder may elect to withdraw therefrom and from such registration by notice to Issuer and the Managing Underwriter, and each of the remaining Requesting Holders shall be entitled to increase the number of Registrable Securities being registered to the extent of the Registrable Securities so withdrawn in the proportion which the number of Registrable Securities being registered by such remaining Requesting Holder bears to the total number of Registrable Securities being registered by all such remaining Requesting Holders.

5. Holdback Agreements By Issuer and Other Securityholders and Right to Defer Filing.

- ---------------

(a) Holdbacks. Unless the Managing Underwriter otherwise agrees,
----
Issuer and each Holder of Registrable Securities agrees not to effect any public sale or distribution of its equity securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities, during the fourteen (14) days prior to and the one hundred and eighty (180) days after the effective date of the registration statement filed in connection with an underwritten offering made pursuant to a Requested Registration (or for such shorter period of time as is sufficient and appropriate, in the opinion of the Managing Underwriter, in order to complete the sale and distribution of the securities included in such registration), except as part of such underwritten registration and except pursuant to registrations on Form S-4 or Form S-8 promulgated by the Commission or any successor or similar forms thereto.

(b) Deferral of Filing. The Issuer may defer the filing of a
registration statement required by Section 1 hereunder for a period of 180 days if (i) at the time the Issuer receives a Registration Request, the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries are engaged in confidential negotiations or other confidential business activities, disclosure of which would be required in such registration statement (but would not be required if such registration statement were not filed), and the Board of Directors of the Issuer determines in good faith that such disclosure would be materially detrimental to the Issuer and its stockholders, or (ii) Issuer had received, prior to receiving the Registration Request, a request to register securities of the Issuer from a different holder thereof having priority as to registration over the Holders of Registrable Securities (a "preferred request") and is proceeding with reasonable diligence to comply with the preferred request, or (iii) prior to receiving the Registration Request, the Board of Directors had determined to effect a registered underwritten public offering of the Issuer's equity securities for the Issuer's account and the Issuer had taken substantial steps (including, without limitation, selecting and entering into a letter of intent with the managing underwriter for such offering) and is proceeding with reasonable diligence to effect such offering. A deferral of the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 5(b) shall be lifted, and the requested registration statement shall be filed forthwith, if, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (i) of the preceding sentence, the negotiations or other activities are disclosed or terminated, or, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence, the preferred request is withdrawn, or in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (iii) of the preceding sentence, the proposed registration for the Issuer's account is abandoned. In order to defer the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 5(b), the Issuer shall promptly, upon determining to seek such deferral, deliver to each Requesting Holder a certificate signed by the President of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is deferring such filing pursuant to this Section 5(b) and the basis therefor in reasonable detail. Within 20 days after receiving such certificate the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities held by the Requesting Holders and for which registration was previously requested may withdraw such request by giving notice to the Issuer. If withdrawn, the Registration Request shall be deemed not to have been made for all purposes of this Agreement.

(a) Indemnification by Issuer. Issuer shall, to the full extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless each seller of Registrable Securities included in any registration statement filed in connection with a Requested Registration or a

Piggyback Registration, its directors and officers, and each other Person, if any, who controls any such seller within the meaning of the Securities Act, against any losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities, joint or several (together, "Losses"), to which such seller or any such director or officer or controlling Person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such Losses (or actions or proceedings, whether commenced or threatened, in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in any such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus, final prospectus or summary prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, and Issuer will reimburse such seller and each such director, officer and controlling Person for any legal or any other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with investigating or defending any such Loss (or action or proceeding in respect thereof); provided that Issuer shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such Loss (or action or proceeding in respect thereof) arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in any such registration statement, preliminary prospectus, final prospectus, summary prospectus, amendment or supplement in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to Issuer through an instrument duly executed by such seller specifically stating that it is for use in the preparation thereof. Such indemnity shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of such seller or any such director, officer or controlling Person, and shall survive the transfer of such securities by such seller. Issuer shall also indemnify each other Person who participates (including as an underwriter) in the offering or sale of Registrable Securities, their officers and directors and each other Person, if any, who controls any such participating Person within the meaning of the Securities Act to the same extent as provided above with respect to sellers of Registrable Securities.

(b) Indemnification by the Sellers. Each Holder of Registrable Securities which are included or are to be included in any registration statement filed in connection with a Requested Registration or a Piggyback Registration, as a condition to including Registrable Securities in such registration statement, shall, to the full extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless Issuer, its directors and officers, and each other Person, if any, who controls Issuer within the meaning of the

Securities Act, against any Losses to which Issuer or any such director or officer or controlling Person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such Losses (or actions or proceedings, whether commenced or threatened, in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in any such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus, final prospectus or summary prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, if such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to Issuer through an instrument duly executed by such seller specifically stating that it is for use in the preparation of such registration statement, preliminary prospectus, final prospectus, summary prospectus, amendment or supplement; provided, however, that the obligation to provide indemnification pursuant to this Section 6(b) shall be several, and not joint and several, among such Indemnifying Parties and the aggregate amount which may be recovered from any holder of Registrable Securities pursuant to the indemnification provided for in this Section 6(b) in connection with any registration and sale of Registrable Securities shall be limited to the total proceeds received by such holder from the sale of such Registrable Securities. Such indemnity shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of Issuer or any such director, officer or controlling Person and shall survive the transfer of such securities by such seller. Such holders shall also indemnify each other Person who participates (including as an underwriter) in the offering or sale of Registrable Securities, their officers and directors and each other Person, if any, who controls any such participating Person within the meaning of the Securities Act to the same extent as provided above with respect to Issuer.

(c) Notices of Claims, etc. Promptly after receipt by an Indemnified Party of notice of the commencement of any action or proceeding involving a claim referred to in the preceding paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section 6, such

Indemnified Party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against an Indemnifying Party pursuant to such paragraphs, give written notice to the latter of the commencement of such action, provided that the failure of any
Indemnified Party to give notice as provided herein shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under the preceding paragraphs of this Section 6, except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced by such failure to give notice. In case any such action is brought against an Indemnified Party, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to participate in and, unless, in the reasonable judgment of any Indemnified Party, a conflict of interest between such Indemnified Party and any Indemnifying Party exists with respect to such claim, to assume the defense thereof, jointly with any other Indemnifying Party similarly notified to the extent that it may wish, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party, and after notice from the Indemnifying Party to such Indemnified Party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Party for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the latter in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation; provided that the Indemnified Party may participate in such

- ---------

----
defense at the Indemnified Party's expense; and provided further that the
-------- -------
Indemnified Party or Indemnified Parties shall have the right to employ one counsel to represent it or them if, in the reasonable judgment of the Indemnified Party or Indemnified Parties, it is advisable for it or them to be represented by separate counsel by reason of having legal defenses which are different from or in addition to those available to the Indemnifying Party, and in that event the reasonable fees and expenses of such one counsel shall be paid by the Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifying Party is not entitled to, or elects not to, assume the defense of a claim, it will not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for the Indemnified Parties with respect to such claim, unless in the reasonable judgment of any Indemnified Party a conflict of interest may exist between such Indemnified Party and any other Indemnified Parties with respect to such claim, in which event the Indemnifying Party shall be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of such additional counsel for the Indemnified Parties or counsels. No Indemnifying Party shall consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement without the consent of the Indemnified Party which does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such Indemnified Party of a release from all liability in respect to such claim or litigation. No Indemnifying Party shall be subject to any liability for any settlement made without its consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(d) Contribution. If the indemnity and reimbursement obligation

provided for in any paragraph of this Section 6 is unavailable or insufficient to hold harmless an Indemnified Party in respect of any Losses (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to therein, then the Indemnifying Party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by the Indemnified Party as a result of such Losses (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Indemnifying Party on the one hand and the Indemnified Party on the other hand in connection with statements or omissions which resulted in such Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Indemnifying Party or the Indemnified Party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such untrue statement or omission. The parties hereto agree that it would not be just and equitable if contributions pursuant to this paragraph were to be determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph. The amount paid by an Indemnified Party as a result of the Losses referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph shall be deemed to include any legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating or defending any Loss which is the subject of this paragraph.

No Indemnified Party guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from the Indemnifying Party if the Indemnifying Party was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(e) Other Indemnification. Indemnification similar to that specified in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 6 (with appropriate modifications) shall be given by Issuer and each seller of Registrable Securities with respect to any required registration or other qualification of securities under any federal or state law or regulation of any governmental authority other than the Securities Act. The provisions of this Section 6 shall be in addition to any other rights to indemnification or contribution which an Indemnified Party may have pursuant to law, equity, contract or otherwise.

(f) Indemnification Payments. The indemnification required by this Section 6 shall be made by periodic payments of the amount thereof during the course of the investigation or defense, as and when bills are received or Losses

7. Covenants Relating to Rule 144 and 144A. If at any time Issuer is required to file reports in compliance with either Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, Issuer will file reports in compliance with the Exchange Act, will comply with all rules and regulations of the Commission applicable in connection with the use of Rule 144 and take such other actions and furnish such holder with such other information as such Holder may request in order to avail itself of such rule or any other rule or regulation of the Commission allowing such holder to sell any Registrable Securities without registration, and will, at its expense, forthwith upon the request of any Holder of Registrable Securities, deliver to such holder a certificate, signed by Issuer's principal financial officer, stating (a) Issuer's name, address and telephone number (including area code), (b) Issuer's Internal Revenue Service identification number, (c) Issuer's Commission file number, (d) the number of shares of each class of Stock outstanding as shown by the most recent report or statement published by Issuer, and (e) whether Issuer has filed the reports required to be filed under the Exchange Act for a period of at least ninety (90) days prior to the date of such certificate and in addition has filed the most recent annual report required to be filed thereunder. If at any time Issuer is not required to file reports in compliance with either Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, Issuer at its expense will, forthwith upon the written request of the holder of any Registrable Securities, make available adequate current public information with respect to Issuer within the meaning of paragraph (c)(2) of Rule 144.

With a view to making available to each Holder of Registrable Securities the benefits of certain rules and regulations of the Commission which may permit the sale of the Registrable Securities to the public without registration, Issuer agrees that so long as a Holder owns any Registrable Securities, each Holder of Registrable Securities and each prospective Holder of Registrable Securities who may consider acquiring Registrable Securities in reliance upon Rule 144A shall have the right to request from Issuer, and Issuer will provide upon request, such information regarding Issuer and its business, assets and properties, if any, as is at the time required to be made available by Issuer under Rule 144A so as to enable such Holder to transfer Registrable Securities to such prospective Holder in reliance upon Rule 144A.

8. Definitions.

(a) In addition to other terms defined elsewhere in this Agreement, except as otherwise specifically indicated, the following terms will have the following meanings for all purposes of this Agreement:

"Agreement" means this Registration Rights Agreement, as the same shall be amended from time to time.

"Business Day" means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in Chicago, Illinois are authorized and required by law to close.

"Common Stock" means the Common Stock, par value $0.10 per share, of the Issuer and any voting trust certificates representing shares of Common Stock issued pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement.

"Commission" means the Securities and Exchange Commission or any successor governmental agency.

"Cutback Registration" means any Requested Registration or Piggyback Registration to be effected as an underwritten Public Offering in which the Managing Underwriter with respect thereto advises Issuer and the Requesting Holders in writing that, in its opinion, the number of securities requested to be included in such registration (including securities of Issuer which are not Registrable Securities) exceed the number which can be sold in such offering without a reduction in the selling price anticipated to be received for the securities to be sold in such Public Offering.

(d) In the event that any Tranche B Term Loan Lender declines to accept its proportionate share of the Tranche B Warrants, based upon the ratio of the dollar amount of such Tranche B Term Loan Lender's Tranche B Term Loan Commitment to the total dollar amount of the Tranche B Term Loans

("Proportionate Share"), Issuer shall have the right ("Tranche B Warrant Repurchase Right") to repurchase such Tranche B Term Loan Lender's Proportionate Share of the Tranche B Warrants from the Investor (the "Undistributed Warrants"). Within 30 days after the first anniversary of the Closing Date, the Investor shall give Issuer a written notice identifying each Tranche B Loan Lender which has declined to accept its Proportionate Share of the Tranche B Warrants ("Notice of Non-Acceptance"). Issuer may exercise the Tranche B Warrant Repurchase Right by delivering a written notice to the Investor within 30 days after receipt of the Notice of Non-Acceptance indicating that Issuer wishes to repurchase the Undistributed Warrants ("Undistributed Warrant Repurchase Notice"). The purchase and sale of the Undistributed Warrants shall be consummated on a date selected by Issuer by giving the Investor at least 10 days' prior written notice thereof, which date shall be not later than 30 days after receipt of the Undistributed Warrant Repurchase Notice by the Investor. Issuer shall purchase from the Investor, and Investor shall sell to Issuer, the Undistributed Warrants at a purchase price equal to $.0000865 per Stock Unit covered thereby. Payment of the purchase price for the Undistributed Warrants so purchased by Issuer shall be made in immediately available funds.

2.04 Purchase for the Investor's Account. The Investor represents and warrants to Issuer as follows:

(a) The Investor is purchasing and shall purchase the Warrants for its own account, without a view to the distribution thereof, all without prejudice, however, to the right of the Investor at any time, in accordance with this Agreement or the Registration Rights Agreement, lawfully to sell or otherwise to dispose of all or any part of the Warrants or the Warrant Stock held by it.

(b) The Investor is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Regulation D under the Securities Act.

the Securities Act or the availability of an exemption therefrom, all as more fully provided in Section 4.

3.10 Brokers. All negotiations relative to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby have been carried out by Issuer directly with Investor without the intervention of any Person on behalf of Issuer in such manner as to give rise to any valid claim by any Person against Investor or any Holder for a finder's fee, brokerage commission or similar payment.

SECTION 4. Restrictions on Transferability.

4.01 Transfers Generally. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5, the Restricted Securities shall be transferable only upon the conditions specified in this Section 4 and in the Registration Rights Agreement, which conditions are intended to insure compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws in respect of the transfer of any Restricted Securities.

4.02 Transfers of Restricted Securities Pursuant to Registration Statements, Rule 144 and Rule 144A. The Restricted Securities may be offered or sold by the Holder thereof pursuant to (a) an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, or (b) to the extent applicable, Rule 144 or Rule 144A.

4.03 Notice of Certain Private Transfers. If any Holder of any Restricted Security desires to transfer such Restricted Security other than pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 144A, then such Holder shall deliver, at such Holder's expense, to Issuer a notice with respect to the proposed transfer, together with an opinion of Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy, or other counsel reasonably satisfactory to Issuer, to the effect that an exemption from registration under the Securities Act is available.

4.04 Restrictive Legends. Until otherwise permitted by Section 4.05, each certificate for Warrants issued under this Agreement, each certificate for any Warrants issued to any subsequent transferee of any such certificate, each certificate for any Warrant Stock issued upon exercise of any Warrant and each certificate for any Warrant Stock issued to any subsequent transferee of any such certificate, shall be stamped or otherwise imprinted with a legend in substantially the following form:

"THE TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE IS SUBJECT TO THE CONDITIONS SPECIFIED IN THAT CERTAIN WARRANT AGREEMENT DATED AS OF JANUARY 31, 1992 (THE

"WARRANT AGREEMENT"), BETWEEN ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC., A DELAWARE CORPORATION ("ISSUER"), AND CHASE MANHATTAN INVESTMENT HOLDINGS, INC., A DELAWARE CORPORATION, AS THE WARRANT AGREEMENT MAY BE MODIFIED AND SUPPLEMENTED AND IN EFFECT FROM TIME TO TIME, AND NO TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE SHALL BE VALID OR EFFECTIVE UNTIL SUCH CONDITIONS HAVE BEEN FULFILLED. A COPY OF THE FORM OF THE WARRANT AGREEMENT IS ON FILE AND MAY BE INSPECTED AT THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF ISSUER. THE HOLDER OF THIS CERTIFICATE, BY ACCEPTANCE OF THIS CERTIFICATE, AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THE PROVISIONS OF THE WARRANT AGREEMENT."

4.05 Termination of Restrictions. All the restrictions imposed by this Section 4 upon the transferability of the Restricted Securities shall cease and terminate as to any particular Restricted Security when such Restricted Security shall have been effectively registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws and sold by the Holder thereof in accordance with such registration or sold under and pursuant to Rule 144 or is eligible to be sold under and pursuant to paragraph (k) of Rule 144. Whenever the restrictions imposed by this Section 4 shall terminate as to any Restricted Security as hereinabove provided, the Holder thereof shall be entitled to receive from Issuer, without expense, a new certificate evidencing such Restricted Security not bearing the restrictive legend otherwise required to be borne by a certificate evidencing such Restricted Security.

SECTION 5. Certain Dispositions of Securities; Regulation Y Matters.

5.01 Certain Dispositions of Securities.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Warrants to the contrary, but subject to compliance with the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws and the requirement as to placement of a legend on certificates for Restricted Securities specified in Section 4.04, any Holder shall have the right to transfer any or all of its Restricted Securities:

(i) to any Person who at the time owns (directly or indirectly) at least a majority of the Voting Capital Stock of such Holder;

(ii) to any Person at least a majority of whose Voting Capital Stock shall at the time be owned (directly or indirectly) by such Holder or by any Person who owns (directly or indirectly) at least a majority of the Voting Capital Stock of such Holder;

(iii) to another Holder; or

(iv) in the case of any Holder which is an insurance company, pension fund, bank, bank holding company or a subsidiary of an insurance company, pension fund, bank or bank holding company, to a third party, if, in the reasonable judgment of such Holder, such transfer is required to be effected by such Holder because (A) its investment in Warrants or shares of Warrant Stock may exceed any limitation to which it is subject, or is otherwise not permitted, under any law, rule or regulation of any Governmental Authority, or (B) restrictions are imposed on such Holder under any law, rule or regulation which, in the reasonable judgment of such Holder, make it illegal or unduly burdensome to continue to hold such Warrants or shares of Warrant Stock or a portion thereof.

The party to which Restricted Securities are transferred pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence shall be deemed to be a Holder of such Restricted Securities and bound by the provisions of this Agreement applicable to Holders so long as he, she or it continues to own any of the Restricted Securities so transferred to such transferee.

(b) If the circumstances described in clause (iv) of Section 5.01(a) arise, Issuer shall assist such Holder in disposing of its Warrants and Warrant Stock in a prompt and orderly manner.

(c) In the event of any underwritten public offering of Restricted Securities in which a Holder which is subject to the provisions of Regulation Y is participating pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement or otherwise, Issuer shall use its best efforts to assist the underwriter in ensuring that any Warrants or Warrant Stock sold by such Holder are widely disseminated.

5.02 Regulation Y Restrictions. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Warrants to the contrary, no Holder subject to the provisions of Regulation Y shall, and no such Holder shall permit any of its Bank Holding Company Affiliates to, transfer any Warrants or shares of Warrant Stock held by it, if, by virtue of such transfer or the right to effect such transfer, such Holder, together with its Bank Holding Company Affiliates, would Control Issuer (and, for purposes of this restriction, a reasoned opinion of counsel to such Holder based on facts and circumstances deemed appropriate by such counsel to the effect that such Holder does not so Control Issuer shall be conclusive).

5.03 Cancellation and Issuance. If any Holder or any of its Affiliates assigns or otherwise transfers all or any of its Loans and/or Commitments (including by selling participation therein), or assigns or otherwise transfers any of its rights or obligations under the Credit Agreement or the Notes, to any Person, such Holder may request (upon 10 days' prior notice to Issuer) that a number of Warrants held by such Holder be canceled on the date of such assignment and transfer and that a like number of Warrants be issued by Issuer to the Person to whom such Loans and/or Commitments, or such rights or obligations, are being assigned or otherwise transferred. Upon the date specified in such request:

(a) Issuer shall issue, and the Holder shall surrender for cancellation, such number of Warrants as aforesaid, provided that such issuance shall not violate the Securities Act or any applicable state securities laws;

(b) Issuer will deliver to each Person that receives a certificate for Warrants a favorable legal opinion from D'Ancona & Pflaum or Weil, Gotshal & Manges or other counsel to Issuer acceptable to such Person, covering the matters set forth in the opinion of counsel to Issuer attached hereto as Annex 3;

(c) Each Person that receives a certificate for Warrants will deliver a certificate to Issuer affirming the representations and warranties contained in Section 2.04 as of such date; and

(d) Issuer will deliver a certificate to each Person that receives a certificate for Warrants affirming the representations and warranties contained in Section 3 as of such date.

SECTION 6. Issuer's Right of Repurchase.

6.01 Repurchase Right.

(a) At the time of a Company Permitted Financing, Issuer shall have the right to repurchase on a pro rata basis from each holder of Tranche B Warrants and Tranche B Warrant Stock up to one-half (the "Buy-back Amount") of the Tranche B

Warrants and Tranche B Warrant Stock held by such holder, based on the ratio of the number of shares of Tranche B Warrant Stock (including Tranche B Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Tranche B Warrants) owned by each such Holder to the number of shares of Tranche B Warrant Stock (including Tranche B Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Tranche B Warrants) owned by all of the Holders (the "Repurchase Right"), provided, however, that in the event that the Tranche B Term Loans are not repaid in full at the time of a Company Permitted Financing, the Buy-back Amount shall be reduced to an amount equal to the product of (i) one minus the quotient resulting from dividing the amount of the Tranche B Term Loan which remains unpaid immediately after the Company Permitted Financing by $10,000,000, and (ii) the Buy-back Amount.

(b) Issuer may exercise the Repurchase Right by delivering an irrevocable notice to the Holders indicating that Issuer will purchase the Tranche B Warrants and/or the Tranche B Warrant Stock specified in such notice and stating that a Company Permitted Financing will occur (a "Repurchase Notice").

6.02 Procedures. The purchase and sale of the Tranche B Warrants and/or the Tranche B Warrant Stock pursuant to the Repurchase Right shall be consummated on a date selected by Issuer by giving the Holders at least 10 days' prior written notice thereof, which date shall be set forth in the Repurchase Notice and which in no event shall be earlier than the date of the closing for the Company Permitted Financing nor later than three Business Days thereafter. Issuer shall purchase from the Holders, and each Holder shall sell to Issuer, Tranche B Warrants and/or Tranche B Warrant Stock: (i) in the case of each share of Tranche B Warrant Stock so purchased, at a price equal to the Repurchase Price on such date; and (ii) in the case of a Tranche B Warrant, at a purchase price equal to (A) the product of (1) the Repurchase Price and (2) the number of shares of Tranche B Warrant Stock for which such Tranche B Warrant is exercisable as of the Repurchase Notice Date, minus (B) an amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price as of the Repurchase Notice Date for such number of Shares of Tranche B Warrant Stock. Payment of the purchase price for the Tranche B Warrants and/or the Tranche B Warrant Stock so purchased by Issuer shall be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds.

SECTION 7. Put Rights.

7.01 Put Rights.

(a) At any time on or after the occurrence of the Triggering Event, but prior to the earlier to occur of (i) the Expiration Date and (ii) the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering, each Holder will have the right to require Issuer to purchase all of the Warrants and the Warrant Stock owned by such Holder.

(b) A Holder may exercise a Put Right by delivering a notice to Issuer stating that such Holder will require Issuer to purchase the Warrants or Warrant Stock specified in such notice (a "Put Notice"). Within five days after receipt of a Put Notice by Issuer, Issuer shall give a notice to the Holders (other than the Holder who gave such Put Notice) advising them of the receipt by Issuer of such Put Notice, together with a copy of such Put Notice. The date upon which Issuer shall so advise the other Holders is herein called the "Company Notice Date". Within 15 days after the Company Notice Date, each other Holder also may give a Put Notice to Issuer and each such Put Notice shall be deemed given as of the date of the Put Notice given by the Holder initially exercising the Put Right. The failure so to give a Put Notice by a Holder within such 15-day period shall be without prejudice to the right of such Holder to give thereafter a Put Notice pursuant to this Section 7.

7.02 Procedures.

(a) The purchase and sale of the Warrants and the Warrant Stock pursuant to a Put Right shall be consummated on a date selected by Issuer upon at least five days' prior written notice to such Holders, which date in no event shall be earlier than the date five days, nor later than the date 10 days, after the determination of Fair Market Value (the "Put Closing Date"). On the Put Closing Date, Issuer shall purchase from the Holder which has given such Put Notice, and such Holder shall sell to Issuer, the Warrants and/or the Warrant Stock specified in such Put Notice: (i) in the case of each share of Warrant Stock so purchased, at a purchase price equal to the Put Price Per Share as of the Put Notice Date; and (ii) in the case of each Warrant, at a purchase price equal to (A) the product of (1) the Put Price Per Share as of the Put Notice Date and (2) the number of shares of Warrant Stock for which such Warrant is exercisable as of the Put Notice Date, minus (B) an amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price as of the Put Notice Date for such number of shares of Warrant Stock. Payment of the purchase price for the Warrants and/or the Warrant Stock so purchased by Issuer shall be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds.

(b) If Issuer is prohibited from purchasing all Warrants and Warrant Stock put to it pursuant to a Put Notice because (i) a default is then existing under the provisions of the Credit Agreement in respect of the Term Loans or the Revolving Credit Loans, or (ii) such purchase would result in any default under the Credit Agreement in respect of the Term Loans or the Revolving Credit Loans (the defaults described in clauses (i) and (ii) being herein referred to as "Defaults"), or (iii) Issuer does not have sufficient funds legally available therefor under Delaware corporate law, then Issuer shall give notice (a "Put Response Notice") to each Holder which has delivered such Put Notice of (x) the reason that it is unable to purchase all Warrants and Warrant Stock put to it pursuant to a Put Notice, including (1) if due to a deficiency, the computation thereof, and/or (2) if due to a Default, the nature of the covenants which have been or would be breached and if such provisions are financial covenants, a computation of the amounts or ratios setting forth the deficiencies with respect to such covenants, and (y) the aggregate amount of such Warrants and Warrant Stock, if any, which it will be able to purchase, which Put Response Notice shall be delivered within five days of the determination of Fair Market Value and shall be given together with the notice of the Put Closing Date, if any, given by Issuer pursuant to the first sentence of Section 7.02(a). Each such Holder shall have the right to withdraw its Put Notice by delivering a notice (a "Put Withdrawal Notice") to Issuer at any time prior to the Put Closing Date or if none is set in the Put Response Notice, prior to the last day on which a Put Closing could occur pursuant to the first sentence of Section 7.02(a). If any such Holders have not timely delivered Put Withdrawal Notices, unless prohibited by a Default which has not been waived by the Lenders, Issuer thereupon shall purchase from such Holders the aggregate amount of Warrants and Warrant Stock, if any, it may purchase on such date with funds legally available under Delaware corporate law for such purpose. Such purchase shall be allocated among the Holders which have not timely delivered Put Withdrawal Notices pro rata, based on the ratio of the number of shares of Warrant Stock put to Issuer (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants put to Issuer) by each such Holder to the number of shares of Warrant Stock put to Issuer (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants put to Issuer) by all such Holders.

for any of the reasons described in the first sentence of this Section 7.02(b), then Issuer shall use its best efforts to increase its legally available funds under Delaware law to an amount sufficient to enable it to purchase legally all Warrants and Warrant Stock put to it pursuant to a Put Notice and to obtain relief from the Defaults in order to enable it to make the required payments, including through effecting a Financing, obtaining the requisite consent of the Lenders and/or the Agent under the Credit Agreement or otherwise, in each case, as soon as possible.

(c) If Issuer is prohibited from purchasing some of or all Warrants and/or Warrant Stock upon the exercise by a Holder of a Put Right for any of the reasons described in the first sentence of Section 7.02(b) and such Holder shall not have timely delivered a Put Withdrawal Notice, then: (i) the Put Price Per Share for such Holder with respect to such unpurchased Warrants and/or Warrant Stock shall become an accruing liability of Issuer with interest thereon commencing on the date of exercise of such Put Right through the date on which the related Warrants and/or Warrant Stock are purchased by Issuer at a rate per annum equal to the Base Rate in effect from time to time plus 6%, compounded quarterly (such liability and interest being herein called the "Accruing Liability"); and (ii) such obligation of Issuer to purchase shall otherwise be deemed suspended for so long as and only to the extent that Issuer is unable to repurchase such Warrants and/or Warrant Stock after taking all the action described in the last paragraph of Section 7.02(b) (a "Put Postponement"). On any Put Reactivation Date, the Put Price Per Share for such Warrants and Warrant Stock shall be deemed to be the Accruing Liability. As used herein, "Put Reactivation Date" shall mean a date when the Put Postponement lapses in whole or in part and the obligation of Issuer to purchase Warrants and Warrant Stock shall no longer be deemed suspended to the same extent pursuant to clause (ii) of this Section 7.02(c).

(d) If on the Expiration Date any Holder is prevented from exercising its rights under this Section 7 for any of the reasons described in the first sentence of Section 7.02(b), Issuer's obligation to purchase Warrants and/or Warrant Stock shall be extended until 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the last day of the calendar month next following by at least 120 days the date upon which Issuer shall notify the Holders that such reason or reasons no long exist.

(e) Each Holder agrees, for the benefit of the Lenders, that any Accruing Liability shall be subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all the Loans and that no payment shall be made in respect of the principal of or interest on the Accruing Liability until the earliest to occur of: (i) the date on which the Loans have been fully paid; (ii) the date on which the requisite consent of the Lenders and/or the Agent under the Credit Agreement to such payment has been given; and (iii) the first date on which such payment is permitted under this Agreement.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Put Closing Date, the Majority Warrant Stockholders shall have the right to countermand the Put Notices of all Holders. Issuer shall give notice as soon as practicable to all Holders whose Put Notices were countermanded pursuant hereto.

(g) The calculations of the Put Price Per Share and Equity Value under this Section 7, other than with respect to the determination of Fair Market
Value, shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the applicable Majority Put Holders.

7.03 Guarantee of the Operating Company.

(a) The Operating Company irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to the Holders and their successors and permitted assigns, the full and punctual payment, performance, satisfaction and discharge in full when due of all of the obligations and liabilities of Issuer under and in accordance with Sections 7 and 8, including without limitation all amounts payable hereunder or in connection herewith. The Operating Company agrees that its obligations hereunder shall be unconditional, absolute and independent, irrespective of the value, genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of this Agreement, the Warrants or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein, and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, irrespective of any other circumstance whatsoever which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or guarantor, it being the intent of this Section 7.03 that the obligations of the Operating Company hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional under any and all circumstances, and that this guaranty may be enforced against it without first pursuing of exhausting any remedies or claims against Issuer or any other Person.
----
- -----

(b) The Operating Company waives promptness, diligence, notice of acceptance, presentment, protest and dishonor with respect to obligations and liabilities of Issuer under and in accordance with Sections 7 and 8 and notice thereof and any other notice with respect to this guaranty and the obligations guaranteed hereby.

(c) The guarantees set forth herein are continuing guarantees and shall remain in full force and effect until all obligations of Issuer guaranteed hereby have been paid, performed, satisfied, and discharged in full and shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Holders or their respective successors and permitted assigns. No failure to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right hereunder, shall operate as a waiver thereof. The remedies herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any remedies provided by law.

(d) The obligations of the Operating Company under this Section 7.03 shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of Issuer in respect of the guaranteed obligations is rescinded or must be otherwise restored by any Holder, whether as a result of any proceedings in bankruptcy or reorganization or otherwise, and the Operating Company agrees that it will indemnify each Holder on demand for all reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, fees of counsel) incurred by such Holder in connection with such rescission or restoration.

(e) The Operating Company hereby agrees that until the payment and satisfaction in full of all guaranteed obligations hereunder of the Holders it shall not exercise any right or remedy arising by reason of any performance by it of its guarantee in Section 7.03 hereof, whether by subrogation or otherwise, against Issuer.

SECTION 8. Call Rights; Look Back.

8.01 Call Rights.

(a) At any time or from time to time after the seventh anniversary of the Closing Date, but prior to the earlier to occur of (i) the Expiration Date and (ii) a Qualified Public Offering, Issuer shall have the right to purchase all or any part of the Warrants and Warrant Stock owned by the Holders.

(b) Issuer may exercise a Call Right by delivering an irrevocable notice to the Holders indicating that Issuer wishes to purchase the Warrants and/or the Warrant Stock specified in such notice (a "Call Notice").

(c) The purchase and sale of the Warrants and/or the Warrant Stock pursuant to a Call Right shall be consummated on a date selected by Issuer by giving the Holders at least 10 days' prior written notice thereof, which date in no event shall be earlier than the date five days, nor later than the date 10 days, after the determination of the Fair Market Value pursuant to the procedure described in the definition of such term in Section 1. Issuer shall purchase from the Holders, and each Holder shall sell to Issuer, Warrants and Warrant Stock: (i) in the case of each share of Warrant Stock so purchased, at a price equal to the Put Price Per Share; and (ii) in the case of a Warrant, at a purchase price equal to (A) the product of (1) the Put Price Per Share and (2) the number of shares of Warrant Stock for which such Warrant is exercisable as of the Call Notice Date, minus (B) an amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price as of the Call Notice Date for such number of shares of Warrant Stock. Payment of the purchase price for the Warrants and the Warrant Stock so purchased by Issuer shall be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds.

(d) In connection with an exercise of a Call Right, if Issuer elects to purchase less than all of the Warrants and Warrant Stock then outstanding, Issuer shall purchase Warrants and Warrant Stock from the Holders on a pro rata basis, based on the ratio of the number of shares of Warrant Stock (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants) owned by each such Holder to the number of shares of Warrant Stock (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants) owned by all of the Holders.

(e) The calculations of the Put Price Per Share and Equity Value under this Section 8.01, other than with respect to the determination of Fair Market Value, shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the Majority Warrant Stockholders.

8.02 Look Back Events.

(a) If, within the 12-month period (a "Look Back Period") following each date on which the Holders (each, a "Look Back Holder") shall have sold Warrants or Warrant Stock to Issuer pursuant to Section 8.01 (the "Prior Sale"), Issuer, the Subsidiaries, or any holder of Common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities with respect to such Common Stock shall have entered into any contract, arrangement or understanding relating to a Look Back Event, then upon occurrence of such Look Back Event Issuer shall forthwith pay to each Look Back Holder, by wire transfer in immediately available funds:

(i) in the case of a Subsequent Asset Sale, an amount equal to the excess (if any) of (A) the product of (1) the Subsequent Share Value on the date of such Subsequent Asset Sale and (2) the number of shares of Warrant Stock sold in the Prior Sale (assuming that all Warrants sold in the Prior Sale by such Look Back Holder had been exercised immediately before the Prior Sale and were sold in the Prior Sale as Warrant Stock), over (B) the sum of (1) the aggregate amount received by such Look Back Holder in the Prior Sale ("Prior Amount") and (2) the product of (I) the Prior Amount (II) the Base Rate and (III) the quotient determined by dividing the number of days lapsed from the Prior Sale through and including the date of the Look Back Event by 360; or

(ii) in the case of a Subsequent Stock Sale, an amount equal to the excess (if any) if (A) the highest aggregate amount that such Look Back Holder would have been entitled to receive in the Subsequent Stock Sale had the Warrants or Warrant Stock sold in the Prior Sale been held by such Look Back Holder at the time of the Subsequent Stock Sale and sold in the Subsequent Stock Sale (assuming that all Warrants sold in the Prior Sale by such Look Back Holder had been exercised immediately before the Prior Sale and were sold in the Prior Sale as Warrant Stock) plus, all other consideration to which such Look Back Holder would have been entitled in connection with the Subsequent Stock Sale, over (B) the sum of (1) the aggregate amount received by such Look Back Holder in the Prior Sale and (2) the product of (I) the Prior Amount, (II) the Base Rate and (III) the quotient determined by dividing the number of days lapsed from the Prior Sale through and including the date of the Look Back Event by 360; and

(iii) an amount equal to all dividends and distributions paid on any date after the Prior Sale and to and including the date of the Look Back Event to which such Look Back Holder would have been entitled pursuant to Section 5.02 of the Warrant or otherwise if such Look Back Holder had been a Holder of Warrants and/or Warrant Stock (the "Interim Dividends"), plus, an amount equal to the product of (A) the Interim Dividends, (B) the Base Rate and (C) the quotient determined by dividing the number of days lapsed from the date each such dividend or distribution would have been received through and including the date of the Look Back Event by 360.

For purposes of this Section 8.02, it shall be assumed that (x) all adjustments required by the provisions of Section 4 and Section 5 of the form of Warrant attached as Annex 1 to this Agreement will have been made in respect of Warrants (whether or not outstanding) through and including the date of the relevant Look Back Event, (y) appropriate adjustments will have been made in respect of the number of shares of Warrant Stock (and their character and terms) through and including the date of the relevant Look Back Event by reason of any stock dividend, subdivision, combination, consolidation, merger, sale, lease, transfer or recapitalization, any amendment to the certificate of incorporation of Issuer or any similar event effected on or after the Call Notice Date; and (z) Issuer was in compliance through the Look Back Event with the covenants set forth in Section 12. If the Issuer would have been in default of any such covenants in such a way as to adversely affect the rights of the Look Back Holders then, in each such case, the computations and adjustments provided for in this Section 8.02(c) shall be made as nearly as possible in the manner so provided except that any additional adjustments required to protect the Holders against such adverse effects in accordance with the intent and principles of this Agreement shall be made.

(b) As used herein, the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

(i) "Look Back Event" shall mean the occurrence (whether in one transaction or in a series of related transactions) of any Subsequent Asset Sale or Subsequent Stock Sale.

(ii) "Subsequent Asset Sale" shall mean: (A) any merger, consolidation or share exchange of Issuer with any other Person (whether or not Issuer is the surviving entity), and any reclassification or material change in Issuer's capitalization, in which any Stockholder receives any distribution in respect of his, her or its Common Stock; (B) any sale, lease or other disposition of all or a majority of the assets of Issuer (including by or through the issuance, sale, lease or other disposition of the capital stock or assets of, or a merger or consolidation involving, any Subsidiary of Issuer but excluding a sale/leaseback approved in good faith by the Board so long as there is no distribution to the Stockholders of the proceeds thereof) or any liquidation.

(iii) "Subsequent Share Value" shall mean, with respect to each share of Common Stock on any Subsequent Asset Sale Date, an amount equal to the result obtained by dividing (A) the sum of (1) the aggregate fair market value of all consideration received by Issuer and the Subsidiaries and Stockholders in connection with the related Subsequent Asset Sale and all other consideration received by Wingate, Cumberland, their respective Affiliates or any limited partners of Cumberland in connection with such Subsequent Asset Sale which is properly attributable to their ownership interests in Issuer, net of ordinary and customary transaction expenses (including taxes) for a transaction of such size and nature (the "Net Consideration"), plus (2) the greater of Fair Market Value or Equity Value as at such Subsequent Asset Sale Date (after giving effect to the related Subsequent Asset Sale and excluding the Net Consideration) by (B) the total number of shares (determined on a fully diluted basis) of all Common Stock outstanding on such Subsequent Asset Sale Date (after giving effect to the related Subsequent Asset Sale).

(iv) "Subsequent Stock Sale" shall mean: (A) any repurchase, redemption or other direct or indirect acquisition by Issuer of any Common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities exercisable for or convertible or exchangeable into Common Stock which equals or exceeds 25% of the Common Stock (on a fully diluted basis), (B) any sale, disposition or other transfer of any equity securities of Issuer or any Subsidiary of any class through a public offering involving the Issuer, (C) any sale, disposition or other transfer of any outstanding Common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities exercisable for or convertible or exchangeable into Common Stock which equals or exceeds 25% of the Common Stock (on a fully diluted basis).

(c) Promptly following its execution (or the execution by one of its Affiliates or a Subsidiary) of an agreement pursuant to which, if the transaction contemplated thereby is consummated, a Look Back Event would occur, and, if different, the date of occurrence of a Look Back Event, Issuer shall deliver a notice to the Look Back Holders of the execution of such agreement (describing in reasonable detail the contents thereof and the contemplated schedule for its consummation) and of the occurrence of such Look Back Event.

(d) The calculations of Subsequent Share Value under this Section 8.02 shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the Majority Warrant Stockholders.

SECTION 9. Right to Join in Sale.

9.01 Tag-Along Rights.

(a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, but subject to the provisions of Section 9.01(b), if Wingate, Cumberland, Boise Cascade, Good Capital or any controlling stockholder of Issuer who purchases shares directly from Issuer or any of their respective transferees (other than pursuant to an underwritten public offering or in an ordinary brokerage transaction under Rule 144) proposes, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, to sell, dispose of or otherwise transfer, directly or indirectly, any shares of Common Stock then outstanding in any manner, other than (i) the Employee Shares, (ii) pursuant to a registration statement filed pursuant to the Securities Act in which the Holders may participate pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, or (iii) in an ordinary brokerage transaction pursuant to Rule 144 (each, a "Tag-Along Sale"), then Issuer shall cause such Stockholder (the "Selling Stockholder") to refrain from effecting such transaction unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the Holders shall have been afforded the opportunity to join in such transfer as provided in Section 9.02 (it being understood that such Holders shall pay their own expenses in connection therewith).

(b) The provisions of Section 9.01(a) shall not apply in connection with any sale, disposition or other transfer of (i) up to 25% of the shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by Cumberland as of the date hereof to Wingate and its majority-owned subsidiaries, (ii) any shares of Common Stock beneficially owned (on a fully diluted basis) by Boise Cascade to Wingate and its majority-owned subsidiaries, (iii) any shares of Common Stock beneficially owned (on a fully diluted basis) by Good Capital to Wingate and its majority-owned subsidiaries and (iv) any shares of Common Stock beneficially owned (on a fully diluted basis) by Wingate to any of the Persons listed on Schedule II; provided, however, that any further sale, disposition or transfer by such transferee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 9.

(c) On the date hereof, Issuer shall deliver to Investor a Joinder Agreement in the form of Annex 5, executed by Wingate, Boise Cascade, Good Capital, Cumberland and Issuer.

(d) As a condition to the validity of any sale, disposition or other transfer of any Common Stock (i) by any of the Persons who have executed and delivered Joinder Agreements pursuant to Section 9.01(c) or this Section 9.01(d) to any other Person, or (ii) by Issuer to any Person in a transaction in which such Person would become a controlling stockholder of Issuer, other than pursuant to an underwritten public offering or in an ordinary brokerage transaction under Rule 144, the transferee thereof shall execute and deliver to Issuer and each Holder a Joinder Agreement.

9.02 Procedures. Prior to the consummation of any transaction subject to Section 9.01, the Person or group of Persons that proposes to acquire shares of Common Stock in a Tag-Along Sale (the "Proposed Purchaser") shall make a written offer to the Holders (the "Tag-Along Purchase Offer") which offer shall describe in reasonable detail the Common Stock and Warrants proposed to be purchased, the price to be paid and all other terms of the Tag-Along Sale. The Holders shall have 15 days after the making of the Tag-Along Purchase Offer in which to accept the Tag-Along Purchase Offer. If any Holder accepts the Tag Along Purchase Offer ("Participating Holder"), such Participating Holder shall be entitled to sell in the Tag-Along Sale a number of shares of Warrant Stock (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants) equal to the product of (i) the quotient determined by dividing (x) the number of shares of Warrant Stock owned by such Participating Holder (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants) by (y) the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock (on a fully diluted basis) owned by the Selling Stockholder and all Participating Holders, and (ii) the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock and Warrants proposed to be purchased by the Proposed Purchaser in the Tag-Along Sale; provided, however, that if the Tag-Along Sale would cause a Change of Control or would cause any controlling stockholder and their respective Affiliates other than Wingate to own less than a majority of the outstanding Common Stock or less than a majority of the Voting Capital Stock of Issuer, then the Participating Holders shall be entitled to sell 100% of their respective Warrants and Warrant Stock (but not exceeding the aggregate amount of shares of Common Stock proposed to be acquired in the Tag-Along Sale). The Tag-Along Purchase Offer shall be at the same price and on the same terms and conditions as the offer by the Proposed Purchaser to the Selling Stockholder, except that no Participating Holders shall be required to make representations and warranties to or agreements with the Proposed Purchaser other than representations, warranties and agreements regarding such Participating Holder and its ownership of the Warrants and/or Warrant Stock to be sold in the Tag-Along Sale.

9.03 Issuer's Covenants. Issuer will not, on or after the date hereof, either (a) deliver to the persons specified in Section 9.01(a) a certificate evidencing any shares of Common Stock being sold in a transaction requiring that a Tag-Along Purchase Offer be made unless the Proposed Purchaser shall have in fact made a Tag-Along Purchase Offer in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.02, or (b) deliver to the persons specified in Section 9.01(a) a certificate evidencing any shares of Common Stock in connection with any other transaction without including on the reverse side of such certificate a legend in substantially the following form:

> THE SALE, DISPOSITION OR OTHER TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE IS SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF SECTIONS 9 AND 10 OF THAT CERTAIN WARRANT AGREEMENT DATED AS OF JANUARY 31, 1992, BETWEEN ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC., A DELAWARE CORPORATION ("ISSUER"), AND CHASE MANHATTAN INVESTMENT HOLDINGS, INC., A DELAWARE CORPORATION, AS SUCH WARRANT AGREEMENT MAY BE MODIFIED AND SUPPLEMENTED AND IN EFFECT FROM TIME TO TIME. A COPY OF THE FORM OF SUCH WARRANT AGREEMENT IS ON FILE AND MAY BE INSPECTED AT THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF ISSUER. THE HOLDER OF THIS CERTIFICATE, BY ACCEPTANCE OF THIS CERTIFICATE, AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THE PROVISIONS OF SECTIONS 9 AND 10 OF SUCH WARRANT AGREEMENT.

SECTION 10. Obligation to Join in Sale.

10.01 Go-Along Obligations. In the event of a Go-Along Sale prior to the earliest of a Change in Control, a Qualified Public Offering and the Expiration Date, each Holder shall be obligated to, and shall, if so requested by Wingate, (a) sell, transfer and deliver, or cause to be sold, transferred and delivered to the Third Party Purchaser, all (but not less than all) Warrants and Warrant Stock owned by it at the same price per share and on the same terms and conditions (except as expressly permitted below) as are applicable to Wingate except that no Holders shall be required to make representations and warranties to or agreements with the Third Party Purchaser other than representations, warranties and agreements regarding such Holder and its ownership of the Warrants and/or Warrant Stock to be sold in the Go-Along Sale; and (b) if stockholder approval of the transaction is required, vote its shares of Warrant Stock entitled to vote thereon in favor thereof (or abstain from voting, unless such abstention would defeat the approval of such transaction) at any meeting of Issuer's stockholders called for the purpose of voting on such transaction (it being understood that such Holders shall not be obligated to pay their pro rata portion of the transaction costs associated with the sale, transfer or delivery), provided, that if the Majority Warrant Stockholders so request, such Go-Along Sale shall be at a Fair Price.

10.02 Procedures.

(a) Wingate shall deliver a written notice ("Go-Along Notice") to each of the Holders setting forth the consideration per share to be paid by the Third Party Purchaser and the other terms and conditions of the Go-Along Sale. Not later than the later of 20 days following the Go-Along Notice Date or five days following the determination of Fair Price and the cash equivalent of non-cash consideration, if any, each of the Holders shall deliver to Wingate Warrant certificates and certificates representing Warrant Stock, accompanied by duly executed stock powers. At the closing for the Go-Along Sale, Wingate shall remit to each of the Holders the consideration to which they are entitled.

(b) If any Holder should fail to deliver its Warrants or certificates representing Warrant Stock, Issuer shall cause the books and records of Issuer to show that such Warrants and/or Warrant Stock are bound by the provisions of this Section 10 and that such Warrants and/or Warrant Stock shall be transferred only to the Third Party Purchaser upon surrender for transfer by the Holder thereof.

(c) If, within 120 days after Wingate delivers a Go-Along Notice, the Go-Along Sale is not completed, Wingate shall return to each Holder all Warrants and certificates representing Warrant Stock that such Holder delivered for sale pursuant hereto.

10.03 Issuer's Covenants. Issuer will not, on or after the date hereof, deliver a certificate evidencing any shares of Common Stock in connection with any other transaction (other than shares of Common Stock which are being sold, or which have previously been sold, in a Tag-Along Sale, Go-Along Sale, a registered public offering or a sale to the public pursuant to Rule 144) without including on the reverse side of such certificate a legend in substantially the form set forth in Section 9.03.

10.04 Definition of Go-Along Sale. As used herein the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

"Go-Along Sale" shall mean (i) the sale for cash by Wingate and its Affiliates of 100% of the equity interests in Issuer beneficially owned by them in a private offering, (ii) the sale for cash of all or substantially all of the assets of Issuer followed immediately by the distribution to the holders of the Common Stock of the net proceeds available for distribution, or (iii) a merger or consolidation involving Issuer, wherein the holders of the Common Stock will receive cash for their Common Stock, in each case in a bona fide arm's length transaction to or with a Third Party (the "Third Party Purchaser"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, "Go-Along Sale" shall also include transactions of the type described above where the consideration is other than cash, provided, that each Holder shall have the option to receive such consideration in an amount of cash equal to the Fair Price of their respective interests in Issuer, but in any event not less than the cash equivalent of the greatest amount of consideration paid to Wingate or any Affiliate in respect of its shares in Issuer, as determined by the Investment Banking Firms in the manner set forth below.

"Fair Price" shall mean that the consideration or net proceeds to be received by Issuer, if applicable, and by the holders of the Common Stock in or immediately following a Go-Along Sale, is fair from a financial point of view, and shall be determined as follows:

Within five days after the Go-Along Notice Date, Issuer and the Majority Warrant Stockholders shall each designate a representative and such representatives will meet and use their best efforts to reach an agreement on a Fair Price. If the representatives designated by Issuer and the Majority Warrant Stockholders are unable to reach such agreement within 15 days after the date on which the later of the two representatives are designated, then (A) the Majority Stockholders shall immediately designate one Investment Banking Firm; (B) Issuer shall immediately designate one Investment Banking Firm; (C) the two Investment Banking Firms so selected shall, within 20 days after the date on which the later of the two Investment Banking Firms are appointed, determine independently a Fair Price; (D) if the lesser of the two prices exceeds or is equal to 90% of the other price, then the Fair Price will be the average of the two, which average amount shall be conclusive and binding upon all the applicable parties; (E) if the lesser of the two prices is less than 90% of the other price, then the two Investment Banking Firms shall, within 20 days of the date of determination of the later of the two prices appoint a third Investment Banking Firm; and (F) the third Investment Banking Firm so selected shall, within 15 days of its appointment, determine independently a Fair Price, which determination shall be conclusive and binding upon all the applicable parties.

Issuer will provide each Investment Banking Firm with all information about Issuer and the Subsidiaries which such Investment Banking Firm reasonably deems necessary for determining a Fair Price. The fees and expenses of the determination of Fair Price and the cash equivalent of non-cash consideration as provided herein (including those of the Investment Banking Firms) will be paid by Issuer. Issuer may require that the Investment Banking Firms keep confidential any non-public information received as a result of this paragraph pursuant to reasonable confidentiality arrangements.

In the event that the consideration to be paid by the Third Party Purchaser consists of anything other than cash, the cash equivalent of such non-cash consideration shall be determined by the Investment Banking Firm pursuant to the same procedure and at the same time as a Fair Price is determined.

"Third Party" shall mean a Person or entity not otherwise an Affiliate of Issuer or a Subsidiary or any of Issuer's stockholders.

SECTION 11. Earn Back.

11.01 Calculation of Earn Back. Following the Calculation DAte for a Subject Holder, such Subject Holder shall surrender or pay to Issuer at the option of the Subject Holder (i) Tranche B Warrants to purchase a number of Stock Units equal to the product of the Applicable Earn Back Percentage and P, (ii) outstanding Stock Units equal to the product of the Applicable Earn Back Percentage and P, or (iii) an amount in cash equal to the product of the Applicable Earn Back Percentage and the Warrant Income (an "Earn Back"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Issuer will not be entitled to any Earn Back in the event that a Company Permitted Financing has occurred.

11.02 Payment of Earn Back. If an Earn Back payment is due on the Calculation Date, not later than 30 days following such Calculation Date, the Subject Holder shall deliver such Earn Back to Issuer in Warrants, certificates representing outstanding Warrant Stock, or cash, as the case may be, accompanied by a certificate setting forth the calculation of the Earn Back in reasonable detail, including calculation of the Applicable Earn Back Percentage, IRR, Warrant Income and Y. If necessary in connection therewith, Issuer shall simultaneously execute and deliver to such Subject Holder a new Warrant and/or certificate evidencing outstanding Warrant Stock covering the number of shares owed by or issuable to (as the case may be) such Subject Holder immediately after payment of such Earn Back.

11.03 Applicability of Earn Back Provision. (a) To the extent that the provisions of this Section 11 are applied to any transferee of Tranche B Warrants and/or Tranche B Warrant Stock, Warrant Income with respect to such transferee and the transferred securities will be computed taking into account all Warrant Income received by prior Holders in respect of such transferred securities plus proceeds received on such Calculation Date, and IRR with respect to such transferee will be computed as if such transferee had made a Tranche B Loan at Closing in an amount proportional to the ratio of such Holder's Warrants and Warrant Stock to all such Warrants and Warrant Stock originally issued.

(b) This Section 11 shall become inapplicable to Warrants and/or Warrant Stock immediately after the purchase of such Warrants and/or Warrant Stock by any Person pursuant to a registered public offering, a sale pursuant to Rule 144 or a Go-Along Sale. The purchaser of any Warrant or Warrant Stock purchased from a Holder in the manner indicated in the preceding sentence shall not be deemed a Subject Holder with respect thereto.

11.04 Special Definitions. For purposes of this Section 11:

"Calculation Date," with respect to each Subject Holder means the first day on or before the seventh anniversary of the Closing Date which is the date on which any of such Holder's Warrants or Warrant Stock are purchased by Issuer pursuant to Sections 7 or 8, or sold pursuant to Sections 9 or 10, in another sale of the entire equity interest in the Company or in an IPO in which any of such Holder's Warrant Stock is sold or could have been sold, provided such first day is after the repayment in full of each Tranche B Loan.

"Subject Holder" means a Holder of Tranche B Warrants and/or Tranche B Warrant Stock which receives Warrant Income.

"Applicable Earn Back Percentage" as of any Calculation Date is the lower of the Earn Back Percentages in the table below corresponding to the applicable IRR and Warrant Income achieved by the Subject Holder as of such Calculation Date. If application of an Earn Back Percentage would reduce the Subject Holder's IRR or Warrant Income to a level below the minimum for the Earn Back Percentage being applied, the next lower Earn Back Percentage will be applied unless it too would result in reduction below the minimum for such lower Earn Back Percentage, in which case the next lower Earn Back Percentage shall be applied, and so forth. If the application of an Earn Back Percentage would result in an IRR or Warrant Income below the lowest number in the table, the Earn Back Percentage shall be zero.

EARN BACK TABLE

	Earn Back

IRR	Warrant Income	Percentage
<S>	<C>	<C>
25%	Y x $5,000,000	10%
30%	Y x $6,000,000	20%
35%	Y x $7,000,000	30%
40%	Y x $9,000,000	40%

"Y" = P/Q

in which

"P" = the number of Stock Units the Subject Holder and its Affiliates are entitled to purchase.

"Q" = equals the total number of Stock Units which all Holders were entitled to purchase on the Date of Issuance.

"Warrant Income" means all cash and Marketable Securities received by the Subject Holder and its Affiliates in respect of the Tranche B Warrants and Tranche B Warrant Stock or any securities or Property received in exchange therefor, including but not limited to dividends, distributions, interest or principal (but not interest or principal on the Loans or proceeds from sale or transfer thereof). To the extent any Subject Holder chooses to include fewer shares of Warrant Stock in an IPO or Tag-Along Sale than could be accommodated therein (assuming participation in such event by all Holders) without diminution in price, such Subject Holder shall be deemed to have received Warrant Income equal to the amount it would have received had it included the greatest number of shares possible. The value of Marketable Securities shall be computed as the average market price per unit during the 20-day period beginning 10 days before and ending 10 days after the applicable Calculation Date.

"IRR" means internal rate of return with respect to the Tranche B Term Loans for the Subject Holder and its Affiliates, with investment deemed to be pro rata for deemed portion of Tranche B Loans and taking into account Warrant Income, principal and interest on the Tranche B Loans received by the Subject Holder and its Affiliates, computed in accordance with accepted financial practice.

SECTION 12. Holders' Rights.

12.01 Delivery Expenses. If any Holder surrenders any certificate for Warrants or Warrant Stock to Issuer or a transfer agent of Issuer for exchange for instruments of other denominations or registered in another name or names, Issuer shall cause such new instruments to be issued and shall pay the cost of delivering to or from the office of such Holder from or to Issuer or its transfer agent, duly insured, the surrendered instrument and any new instruments issued in substitution or replacement for the surrendered instrument.

12.02 Taxes. Issuer shall pay all taxes (other than Federal, state or local income taxes) which may be payable in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Registration Rights Agreement or the issuance of the Warrants and Warrant Stock hereunder or in connection with any modification of this Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement or the Warrants and shall hold each Holder harmless without limitation as to time against any and all liabilities with respect to all such taxes. The obligations of Issuer under this Section 12.02 shall survive any redemption, repurchase or acquisition of Warrants or Warrant Stock by Issuer, any termination of this Agreement or the Registration Rights Agreement, and any cancellation or termination of the Warrants.

12.03 Replacement of Instruments. Upon receipt by Issuer of evidence reasonably satisfactory to it of the ownership of and the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any certificate or instrument evidencing any Warrants or Warrant Stock, and

(a) in the case of loss, theft or destruction, of indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it (provided that, if the owner of the same is the Investor or an institutional lender or investor, its own agreement of indemnity shall be deemed to be satisfactory), or

(b) in the case of mutilation, upon surrender or cancellation thereof,

Issuer, at its expense, shall execute, register and deliver, in lieu thereof, a new certificate or instrument for (or covering the purchase of) an equal number of Warrants or Warrant Stock.

12.04 Certain Restrictions. Issuer shall not at any time enter into an agreement or other instrument limiting in any manner its ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement or the Warrants, or making such performance or the issuance of shares of Common Stock upon the exercise of any Warrant a default under any such agreement or instrument other than the Credit Agreement.

12.05 Transactions with Affiliates. Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, Issuer shall not, nor shall it permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly: (a) make any Investment in an Affiliate; (b) transfer, sell, lease, assign or otherwise dispose of any assets to an Affiliate; (c) merge into or consolidate with or purchase or acquire Property from an Affiliate; (d) enter into any other transaction directly or indirectly with or for the benefit of an Affiliate (including guarantees and assumptions of obligations of an Affiliate); provided, however, that (i) any Affiliate who is an individual may serve as an officer or employee of Issuer or its Subsidiaries and receive reasonable compensation for his or her services in such capacity, and (ii) Issuer and its Subsidiaries may enter into transactions providing for the leasing of Property, the rendering or receipt of services or the purchase or sale of inventory and other assets in the ordinary course of business if the monetary or business consideration arising therefrom would be substantially as advantageous to Issuer and its Subsidiaries as the monetary or business consideration which would obtain in a comparable transaction with a Third Party; or (e) at any time before February 1, 1999, pay to Wingate, Cumberland or any of their respective Affiliates any management, consultant, financial advisor, director or similar fees ("Sponsor Management Fees"), except (i) Sponsor Management Fees of not more than $25,000 in any month (the "Monthly Management Fees") plus (ii) up to an additional $200,000 of Sponsor Management Fees for any fiscal year (the "Annual Management Fees") if, giving effect to the payment of all Monthly Management Fees and to the payment of such Annual Management Fee (solely for which purpose such Annual Management Fee shall be deemed to have been paid in such fiscal year), EBITDA for such fiscal year is not less than the EBITDA set forth opposite such fiscal year in Schedule V of the Credit Agreement; provided that no Annual Management Fees for any fiscal year shall be paid until each Holder has received the financial statements of Issuer for such fiscal year required to be delivered to such Holder pursuant to Section 12.10(b) hereof; and provided, further, that, in any event, no Annual Management Fee shall be paid if, at the time of such payment and after giving effect thereto, any Default (as such term is defined in the Credit Agreement) or similar event under other agreements relating to indebtedness shall have occurred and be continuing; and provided, further, that any Annual Management Fees that shall not be paid because of the occurrence and continuance of any Default (as such term is defined in the Credit Agreement) shall continue to accrue.

(a) Issuer shall, at all times prior to the Expiration Date, retain a nationally recognized independent accounting firm as its auditors.

(b) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, Issuer shall not effect any repurchase, recapitalization, reorganization, reclassification, merger, consolidation, share exchange, liquidation, spin-off, stock split, dividend, distribution or stock consolidation, subdivision or combination that would not afford to each Stockholder and Holder the same type and amount of consideration.

(c) At any time prior to a Qualified Public Offering, Issuer shall afford, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to afford, any Holder of Warrants and/or Warrant Stock or its authorized agents or any prospective purchasers of Warrants and/or Warrant Stock, access, at reasonable times, upon reasonable prior notice, (i) to inspect the books and records of Issuer and its Subsidiaries, (ii) to discuss with management of Issuer and its Subsidiaries the business and affairs of Issuer and its Subsidiaries, and (iii) to inspect the properties of Issuer and its Subsidiaries.

(d) So long as any Warrants or Warrant Stock shall remain outstanding, neither Issuer nor any of its Subsidiaries shall (i) issue any Participating Security, Options for or Convertible Securities convertible into a Participating Security, (ii) issue any class of equity other than Common Stock as presently constituted and Preferred Stock outstanding on the date hereof, (iii) make or agree to make payments to any Person, such as any "phantom" stock payments, where the amount thereof is calculated with reference to fair market or equity value of Issuer or any of the Subsidiaries, or (iv) issue any Common Stock for less than the Exercise Price.

(e) [Intentionally omitted].

(f) Issuer shall afford each Holder and its authorized agents the right to attend all meetings of shareholders of Issuer and the Subsidiaries.

(g) Issuer will, and will cause each of the Subsidiaries to take such action as will be necessary from time to time to ensure that Issuer or a Subsidiary owns at least 80% of each class of capital stock of each Subsidiary.

(h) Issuer shall hold an annual meeting of shareholders in Texas, Illinois or New York.

(i) To enable the ready and consistent determination of the Put Per Share and compliance with the covenants set forth herein, neither Issuer nor any of its Subsidiaries will change the last day of its fiscal year from December 31 of each year, or the last days of the first three fiscal quarters in each of its fiscal years from March 31, June 30 and September 30 of each year, respectively.

(j) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, Issuer shall not effect any repurchase or redemption of Common Stock and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to effect any repurchase or redemption of Common Stock from any stockholder, other than (a) on a pro rata basis from all stockholders and
Warrant Holders participating in such repurchase or redemption at the same type and amount of consideration, or (b) from former employees of the Operating Company for an aggregate purchase price of no more than $200,000 in any 12-month period. Any repurchase or redemption of Common Stock shall include Warrant Stock.

(k) Issuer shall provide each Holder with notice of the occurrence of the Triggering Event as soon as possible, but in no event later than the third Business Day following such Triggering Event, together with a brief description of the event.

(l) Issuer shall not amend or consent to any modification, supplement or waiver of any provision of any Other Equity Documents in any manner which would have an adverse effect on the Warrant Stockholders without the prior written consent of the Majority Warrant Stockholders. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Issuer shall not amend, or consent to any modification, supplement or waiver of any provision of any Other Equity Documents in a way which would materially increase the benefits of the parties thereto, increase the number of securities which may be issued or sold thereunder, or materially modify the requirements as to eligibility for participation therein.

12.07 Indemnification. Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the Investor and the Holders and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, stockholders, Affiliates and agents (each, an "indemnified person") on demand from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities (or actions or other proceedings commenced or threatened in respect thereof) and expenses that arise out of, result from, or in any way relate to, this Agreement, the Warrants or the Registration Rights Agreement, or in connection with the other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby (other than the mere diminution of the Investment by Holders in the Warrants unaccompanied by any other violation of this Agreement), and to reimburse each indemnified person, upon its demand, for any legal or other expenses incurred in connection with investigating, defending or participating in the defense of any such loss, claim, damage, liability, action or other proceeding (whether or not such indemnified person is a party to any action or proceeding out of which any such expenses arise), other than any of the foregoing claimed by any indemnified person to the extent incurred by reason of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such indemnified person. No indemnified person shall be responsible or liable to either Issuer or any other Person for any damages which may be alleged as a result of or relating to this Agreement, the Warrants or the Registration Rights Agreement, or in connection with the other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

12.08 Preemptive Rights. If, at any time on or after the date hereof and prior to a Qualified Public Offering, Issuer shall propose to sell or issue any New Securities to any Person (other than in connection with business combinations and certain employee stock and stock option plans which in each case have been approved by the Majority Warrant Stockholders) (a "Proposed Sale"), then Issuer shall, at least 30 days prior to the Proposed Sale, give each Holder (an "Offeree") a notice (the "Offer Notice") of the Proposed Sale (it being understood that the Offer Notice also shall contain full particulars of the Proposed Sale, including the identity of the proposed beneficial and record owners of the New Securities and the purchase price per unit of the New Security).

In the Offer Notice, Issuer shall offer to each Offeree, subject to consummation of the Proposed Sale, for 20 Business Days (the "Offer Period") commencing on the date of receipt by such Offeree of the Offer Notice, the purchase from Issuer: (a) up to that number of units of the New Securities, at the same purchase price per unit (and on the same terms and conditions as offered to the proposed purchaser, under the Proposed Sale), equal to the product of (i) the quotient determined by dividing (A) the number of shares of Warrant Stock held by such Offeree (assuming the exercise by such Offeree of all Warrants held by it) by (B) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on a fully diluted basis, and (ii) the number of New Securities to be sold or issued in the Proposed Sale; provided, that if the New Securities shall consist of voting Common Stock, each Offeree shall have the option to purchase, in lieu of such voting Common Stock, up to an equal number of shares of non-voting Common Stock otherwise identical to and convertible at Offerees option into such voting Common Stock. In the event that an Offeree does not purchase New Securities from Issuer in accordance with this paragraph, each Offeree which has elected to purchase New Securities hereunder (a "Purchasing Offeree") shall be entitled to purchase out of such unpurchased New Securities the same proportion of the unpurchased units of such New Securities as the total number of shares of Warrant Stock owned by such Purchasing Offeree bears to the total number of shares of Warrant Stock owned by all Purchasing Offerees.

An Offeree may elect to accept the offer to purchase any New Securities pursuant to this Section 12.08 by delivering a notice to Issuer (an "Election Notice") within the Offer Period indicating the number of the New Securities which such Offeree elects to purchase. On the date of the Proposed Sale, each Offeree which has delivered an Election Notice shall deliver the purchase price for its New Securities to Issuer in immediately available funds.

If (a) the number of New Securities proposed to be sold or issued in the Proposed Sale is increased, (b) or any of the price, terms or conditions is changed in a manner more favorable to the proposed purchaser under the Proposed Sale after each Offeree has received the Offer Notice, or (c) the Proposed Sale has not been consummated within 120 days of the giving of the Offer Notice, then, whether or not such Offeree previously has accepted the offer to purchase contained in the Offer Notice, Issuer shall notify such Offeree of any such change. Such Offeree thereupon shall have until the later of (1) 10 Business Days after receipt of such notice of change and (2) 20 Business Days after receipt of the original Offer Notice within which to accept the initial offer as so changed.

12.09 Board Observers. Issuer shall afford the Holders the opportunity to have two representatives (each, an "Observer") attend as an observer at (but not participate in or vote at) each meeting of the Board and each meeting of the board of directors of each Subsidiary of Issuer. Issuer shall give each Observer notice of all such meetings at the same time and in the same manner as notice is given to members of the Board and of the board of directors of each Subsidiary of Issuer. Each Observer shall be entitled to receive all written materials and other information given to the directors of Issuer and the directors of each Subsidiary of Issuer in connection with such meetings at the same time and in the same manner and form such materials and information are given to the directors, and copies of all minutes and all resolutions adopted by the Board and by the board of directors of each Subsidiary of Issuer (whether at meetings, by written consent or otherwise) promptly after such adoption and (if applicable) approval thereof (it being understood that such copies shall be certified by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of Issuer or the relevant Subsidiary of Issuer, as the case may be). The Observers shall be appointed by the affirmative vote of the Majority Warrant Stockholders. Issuer shall reimburse each Holder for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by such Holder in connection with the exercise of their rights under this Section 12.09.

12.10 Financial Statements, Etc. Issuer shall deliver the information specified below to each Holder of a Warrant or Warrant Stock:

(a) as soon as available and in any event within 45 days after the end of each quarterly fiscal period of each fiscal year of Issuer, consolidated and consolidating statements of income, retained earnings and cash flows of Issuer and the Subsidiaries for such period and for the period from the beginning of the respective fiscal year to the end of such period, and the related consolidated and consolidating balance sheets as at the end of each such period, setting forth in each case in comparative form the corresponding consolidated and consolidating figures for the corresponding period in the preceding fiscal year (if any), accompanied by a certificate of a senior financial officer of Issuer, which certificate shall state that such financial statements fairly present the financial condition and results of operations of Issuer and the Subsidiaries, and said consolidating financial statements fairly present the respective individual unconsolidated financial condition and results of operations of Issuer and of the Subsidiaries, respectively, in each case in accordance with GAAP, as at the end of, and for, such period (subject to normal year-end audit adjustments);

(b) as soon as available and in any event within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year of Issuer, consolidated and consolidating statements of income, retained earnings and cash flow of Issuer and the Subsidiaries, for such fiscal year and the related consolidated and consolidating balance sheets as at the end of such fiscal year, setting forth in each case in comparative form the corresponding consolidated and consolidating figures for the preceding fiscal year, and accompanied (i) in the case of said consolidated statements and balance sheet, by an opinion thereon of independent certified public accountants of recognized national standing, which opinion shall state that said consolidated financial statements fairly present the consolidated financial condition and results of operations of Issuer and the Subsidiaries as at the end of, and for, such fiscal year in accordance with GAAP, and a certificate of such accountants stating that, in making the examination necessary for their opinion, they obtained no knowledge, except as specifically stated, of any default under any credit agreement to which Issuer and/or any of the Subsidiaries is a party, and (ii) in the case of said consolidating statements and balance sheets, by a certificate of a senior financial officer of Issuer, which certificate shall state that said consolidating financial statements fairly present the respective individual unconsolidated financial condition and results of operations of Issuer and of each of the Subsidiaries, in each case in accordance with GAAP, as at the end of, and for, such fiscal year;

(c) as soon as available, and in any event within 30 days after the end of each monthly accounting period in each fiscal year of Issuer, a statement of EBITD for the 12 months ended at the end of such monthly accounting period;

(d) promptly upon their becoming available, copies of all registration statements and regular periodic reports, if any, which Issuer or any of the Subsidiaries shall have filed with the Commission (or any Governmental Authority substituted therefor) or any national securities exchange; and

(e) promptly upon the mailing thereof to the shareholders of Issuer or any holder of Indebtedness of Issuer and/or the Subsidiaries generally, copies of all financial statements, reports and proxy statements so mailed.

12.11 Holders' Rights in Case of Other Securities. If the Holders at any time shall have received or shall be entitled to receive Other Securities, appropriate provision shall be made so that the Holders receive with respect to such Other Securities as nearly as possible the intended benefits of this Agreement with respect thereto.

SECTION 13. Miscellaneous.

13.01 Home Office Payment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Warrants, so long as the Investor or any nominee designated by the Investor shall be a Holder, Issuer shall punctually pay all amounts which become due and payable with respect to any Warrant or Warrant Stock to the Investor at the address registered on the books of Issuer maintained for such purpose, or at such other place and in such manner as the Investor may designate by notice to Issuer, without presentation or surrender of such Warrant or the making of any notation thereon. The Investor agrees that prior to the sale, transfer or other disposition of a part of any Warrant, it will make notation thereon of the number of Stock Units covered by the part of the Warrant sold, transferred or disposed, or surrender the same in exchange for a Warrant covering the number of Stock Units remaining on the Warrant so surrendered. The existence of this right will not preclude the Holders or Issuer from pursuing any other rights and remedies at law or in equity which the Holders or Issuer may have.

(b) As used in this Warrant, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Additional Shares of Common Stock" shall mean all shares (including treasury shares) of Common Stock issued or sold by Issuer on or after the date hereof, other than (i) the Warrant Stock and Common Stock issuable pursuant to any warrants in an amount equal to the Tranche B Warrants and Tranche B Warrant Stock repurchased by Issuer pursuant to Section 6 of the Warrant Agreement, (ii) the shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to the Other Equity Securities (whether issuable immediately or upon the arrival of a specified date or the occurrence of a specified event) on the date hereof, (iii) shares purchased by Holder pursuant to the exercise of preemptive rights pursuant to Section 12.08 of the Warrant Agreement, and (iv) the shares of Common Stock described as being issued and outstanding in Section 3.07 of the Warrant Agreement.

Warrants and the Tranche B Warrants shall at all times be dated as of their respective dates of original issuance.

SECTION 2. Exercise of Warrant. On and after the date hereof and until 5:00 p.m., New York time, on the Expiration Date, Holder may exercise this Warrant, on one or more occasions, on any Business Day, in whole or in part, by delivering to Issuer, at its office maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 11.01, (a) a written notice of Holder's election to exercise this Warrant, which notice shall specify the number of Stock Units to be purchased (the "Exercise Notice"), (b) a certified or bank check or checks payable to Issuer in an aggregate amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price for the number of Stock Units as to which this Warrant is being exercised, and (c) this Warrant. All shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of this Warrant shall, upon payment therefor in accordance herewith, be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free and clear of any Liens.

Issuer shall not be required to issue a fractional share of Common Stock upon exercise of this Warrant. As to any fraction of a share which Holder would otherwise be entitled to purchase upon such exercise, Issuer shall pay a cash adjustment in respect of such final fraction in an amount equal to the same fraction of the Current Market Price per share of Common Stock on the date of exercise.

SECTION 3. Transfer, Division and Combination. Subject to Section
11.03, transfer of this Warrant and all rights hereunder, in whole or in part,
- -----

Warrant, substantially in the form of Annex B hereto, duly executed by Holder or its agent or attorney and payment of funds sufficient to pay any transfer taxes payable upon the making of such transfer. Upon such surrender and, if required, such payment, Issuer shall, subject to Section 11.03 and the immediately following sentence, (a) execute and deliver a new Warrant or Warrants in the name of the assignee or assignees and in the denominations specified in such instrument of assignment, (b) issue to the assignor a new Warrant evidencing the portion of this Warrant not so assigned and (c) promptly cancel this Warrant. If and when this Warrant is assigned in blank (in case the restrictions on transferability referred to in Section 11.03 shall have been terminated), Issuer may (but shall not be obliged to) treat the bearer hereof as the absolute owner of this Warrant for all purposes and Issuer shall not be affected by any notice to the contrary. This Warrant, if properly assigned in compliance with this Section 3 and Section 11.03, may be exercised by an assignee for the purchase of shares of Common Stock without having a new Warrant or Warrants issued. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, Issuer shall not be required to register the transfer of Warrants or Warrant Stock in the name of any Person who acquired this Warrant (or part hereof) or any Warrant Stock otherwise than in accordance with this Warrant and the Warrant Agreement.

Issuer shall maintain at its aforesaid office books for the registration and transfer of the Warrants.

SECTION 4. Adjustment of Stock Unit. The number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as set forth in this Section 4. Issuer shall not take any action with respect to its Common Stock of any class requiring an adjustment pursuant to any of Sections 4.01, 4.07 or 5 without at the same time taking like action with respect to its Common Stock of each other class, and Issuer shall not create any class of Common Stock which carries any rights to dividends or assets differing in any respect from the rights of the Common Stock on the date hereof.

4.01 Stock Dividends, Subdivisions and Combinations. If at any time Issuer shall:

(a) take a record of the holders of its Common Stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive a dividend payable in, or other distribution of, Additional Shares of Common Stock, or

(b) subdivide its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a larger number of shares of Common Stock, or

(c) combine its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares of Common Stock, then the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit immediately after the occurrence of any such event shall be adjusted to equal the number of shares of Common Stock which a record holder of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit immediately prior to the happening of such event would own or be entitled to receive after the happening of such event.

4.02 Issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock. If at any time

Issuer shall (except as hereinafter provided) issue or sell any Additional Shares of Common Stock in exchange for consideration in an amount per Additional Share of Common Stock less than the Current Market Price at the time the Additional Shares of Common Stock are issued, then the number of shares of Common Stock thereafter comprising a Stock Unit shall be adjusted to that number determined by multiplying the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction (a) the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the issuance of such Additional Shares of Common Stock plus the number of such Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued, and (b) the denominator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the issuance of such Additional Shares of Common Stock plus the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate consideration for the total number of such Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued would purchase at the Current Market Price. For purposes of this Section 4.02, the date as of which the Current Market Price shall be computed shall be the earlier of (i) the date on which Issuer shall enter into a firm contract for the issuance of such Additional Shares of Common Stock and (ii) the date of actual issuance of such Additional Shares of Common Stock. Subject to Section 4.05, no further adjustment of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit shall be made under this Section 4.02 upon the issuance of any Additional Shares of
----

----

----

----

Common Stock:

Warrant

(a) for which an adjustment is provided under Section 4.01;

(b) which are issued pursuant to the exercise of any Options or the conversion, exchange or exercise of any Convertible Securities, if any such adjustment shall previously have been made upon the issuance of such Options or Convertible Securities (or upon the issuance of any Option therefor) pursuant to Section 4.03 or 4.04; or

(c) as a distribution or a dividend which is distributed or declared and paid in accordance with Section 5.02.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any shares are issued pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement, the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit shall be increased by a number which is equal to the quotient resulting from dividing (i) the product of the number of shares of Common Stock issued pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement and .149, by (ii) 150,340.

4.03 Issuance of Options. If at any time Issuer shall issue or sell, or shall fix a record date for the determination of holders of any class of securities entitled to receive, any Options for any Additional Shares of Common Stock or any Convertible Securities, whether or not the rights to purchase thereunder are immediately exercisable, then the number of shares of Common Stock thereafter comprising a Stock Unit shall be adjusted as provided in Section 4.02 on the basis that (a) the maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to all such Options or necessary to effect the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued as of (and, accordingly, the date as of which the Current Market Price shall be computed shall be) the computation date specified in the penultimate sentence of this Section 4.03, and (b) the aggregate consideration for such maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock shall be zero. For purposes of this Section 4.03, the computation date for clause (a) above shall be the earlier of (i) the date on which Issuer shall take a record of the holders of its Common Stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive any such Options and (ii) the date on which Issuer shall enter into a firm contract for the issuance of such Options. No further adjustment of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit shall be made under this Section 4.03 upon the issuance of any Options to subscribe for or purchase any Additional Shares of Common Stock or any Convertible Securities as a distribution or a dividend which is distributed or declared and paid in accordance with Section 5.02. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any issuance of an Option which is issued together with a debt security of Issuer, as a Unit, shall be treated for the purpose of this Section 4 as the issuance of a Convertible Security.

4.04 Issuance of Convertible Securities. If at any time Issuer shall issue or sell any Convertible Securities, whether or not the rights to exchange or convert thereunder are immediately exercisable, and the cash received by Issuer in payment for such Convertible Securities shall be less than the Convertible Security Value thereof, then the number of shares of Common Stock thereafter comprising a Stock Unit shall be increased to a number of shares of Common Stock having a value immediately following the computation date (as established below) equal to the value of the number of shares comprising such Stock Unit immediately before such increase. For this purpose, the value before the increase will be the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as reasonably determined by the Board on the basis set forth in the first paragraph of the definition thereof (without reference to the appraisal procedure referred to therein) divided by the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on a fully diluted basis as determined under the Warrant Agreement, and the value immediately following the computation date shall be the foregoing value, except that the numerator shall be the Fair Market Value plus the cash amount paid to the Company for such Convertible Securities less the Convertible Security Value of such Convertible Securities on issuance and the denominator shall be increased by the number of Additional Shares of Common Stock issuable on exercise of such Convertible Securities. For purposes of this Section 4.04, the computation date for clause (a) above shall be the earliest of (i) the date on which Issuer shall take a record of the holders of its Common Stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive any such Convertible Securities, (ii) the date on which Issuer shall enter into a firm contract for the issuance of such Convertible Securties,and (iii) the date of actual issuance of such Convertable Securities. No further adjustment of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit shall be made under this Section 4.04 upon of any Convertible Securities:

(a) which are issued pursuant to the exercise of any Option therefor, if any such adjustment shall previously have been made upon the issuance of such Option pursuant to Section 4.03; or

(b) as a distribution or a dividend which is distributed or declared and paid in accordance with Section 5.02.

4.05 Superseding Adjustment of Stock Unit. If, at any time after any adjustment of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit shall have been made pursuant to Section 4.03 or 4.04 as a result of the issuance of Options or Convertible Securities, or after any new adjustment of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit shall have been made pursuant to this Section 4.05, (a) such Options or the right of conversion, exchange or exercise of such Convertible Securities shall expire, and all or a portion of such Options or the right of conversion, exchange or exercise with respect to all or a portion of such Convertible Securities, as the case may be, shall not have been exercised or treated as having been exercised or otherwise canceled or acquired by the Company in connection with any settlement including, without limitation, any cash settlement, of such Options or the rights of conversion, or exchange or exercise of such Convertible Securities, or (b) there has been any change in the number of shares issuable upon exercise, conversion or exchange of such Options or Convertible Securities (including as a result of the operation of anti-dilution provisions applicable thereto), or a (c) the consideration per share, for which Additional Shares of Common Stock are issuable pursuant to such Options or the terms of any Convertible Securities, or the maturity of any such Convertible Security, shall be changed, then such previous adjustment shall be rescinded and annulled and the Additional Shares of Common Stock which were deemed to have been issued by virtue of the computation made in connection with the adjustment so rescinded and annulled shall no longer be deemed to have been issued by virtue of such computation. Thereupon, a recomputation shall be made of the effect of such Options or Convertible Securities on the basis of

(i) treating the number of Additional Shares of Common Stock, if any, theretofore actually issued or issuable pursuant to the previous exercise of such Options or such right of conversion or exchange, as having been issued on the date or dates of such issuance as determined for purposes of such previous adjustment and for the consideration actually received and receivable therefor,

(ii) treating the maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock (A) issuable pursuant to all Options which then remain outstanding and (B) necessary to effect the conversion or exchange of all Convertible Securities which then remain outstanding, as having been issued, and

and, if and to the extent called for by the foregoing provisions of this Section 4 on the basis aforesaid, a new adjustment of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit shall be made, such new adjustment shall supersede the previous adjustment so rescinded and annulled.

4.06 Other Provisions Applicable to Adjustments Under this Section 4.

The following provisions shall be applicable to the making of adjustments of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit hereinbefore provided for in this Section 4:

(a) Computation of Consideration. To the extent that any Additional Shares of Common Stock or any Convertible Securities shall be issued for a cash consideration, the consideration received by Issuer therefor shall be deemed to be the amount of cash received by Issuer therefor, or, if such Additional Shares of Common Stock or Convertible Securities are offered by Issuer for subscription, the subscription price, or, if such Additional Shares of Common Stock or Convertible Securities are sold to underwriters or dealers for public offering without a subscription offering, the initial public offering price, in any such case excluding any amounts paid or receivable for accrued interest or accrued dividends and without deduction of any reasonable compensation, discounts or expenses paid or incurred by Issuer for and in the underwriting of, or otherwise in connection with, the issue thereof. To the extent that such issuance shall be for a consideration other than cash, then, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the amount of such consideration shall be deemed to be the fair market value of such consideration at the time of such issuance, as reasonably determined by the Board. The consideration for any Additional Shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to any Options to subscribe for or purchase the same shall be zero. The consideration for any Additional Shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to the terms of any Convertible Securities shall be the cash consideration paid or payable to Issuer in respect of the subscription for or purchase of such Convertible Securities. In case of the issuance at any time of any Additional Shares of Common Stock in payment or satisfaction of any dividend upon any class of stock other than Common Stock, Issuer shall be deemed to have received for such Additional Shares of Common Stock a consideration equal to the amount of such dividend so paid or satisfied.

(b) When Adjustments to be Made. The adjustments required by this Section 4 shall be made whenever and as often as any specified event requiring an adjustment shall occur, except that any adjustment of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit that would otherwise be required may be postponed (except in the case of a subdivision or combination of shares of the Common Stock, as provided for in Section 4.01) up to but not beyond the date of exercise if such adjustment either by itself or with other adjustments not previously made adds or subtracts less than both (i) 1/20th of a share to or from the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit immediately prior to the making of such adjustment and (ii) 5% of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit. Any adjustment representing a change of less than such minimum amount (except as aforesaid) shall be carried forward and made as soon as such adjustment, together with other adjustments required by this Section 4 and not previously made, would result in a minimum adjustment on the date of exercise. For the purpose of any adjustment, any specified event shall be deemed to have occurred at the close of business on the date of its occurrence.

(c) Fractional Interests. In computing adjustments under this Section 4, fractional interests in Common Stock shall be taken into account to the nearest one-thousandth of a share.

(d) When Adjustment Not Required. If Issuer shall take a record of the holders of its Common Stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive a dividend or distribution or subscription or purchase rights and shall, thereafter and before the distribution thereof to stockholders, legally abandon its plan to pay or deliver such dividend, distribution, subscription or purchase rights, then thereafter no adjustment shall be required by reason of the taking of such record and any such adjustment previously made in respect thereof shall be rescinded and annulled.

4.07 Other Dilutive Events. In case any event shall occur, affecting Issuer, the Subsidiaries or any Person in which Issuer or any Subsidiary has a direct or indirect Investment, as to which the provisions of Section 4 or Section 5 are not strictly applicable but the failure to make any adjustment would not fairly protect the purchase rights represented by this Warrant in accordance with the essential intent and principles of such sections then, in each such case, Issuer shall appoint a firm of independent public accountants of recognized national standing (which may be the regular auditors of Issuer), which shall give their opinion upon the adjustment, if any, on a basis consistent with the essential intent and principles established in Section 4 and 5, necessary to preserve, without dilution, the purchase rights represented by this Warrant. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Issuer acknowledges that issuance of any equity security by any Subsidiary or Person in which Issuer has a direct or indirect Investment to any Person other than Issuer or a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary or sale of existing equity securities of Subsidiaries or investees by Issuer or any Subsidiary for a price less than the fair value thereof, and acquisition of less than 100% of the equity interest in a Person for a price greater than the fair market value thereof, would be such events. Upon receipt of such opinion, Issuer will promptly mail a copy thereof to Holder and shall make the adjustments described therein.

SECTION 5. Consolidation, Merger, Share Exchange, ect.; Distributions.

5.01 Consolidation, Merger, Share Exchange, ect. In case a consolidation, merger or share exchange of Issuer shall be effected with another Person on or after the date hereof, or the sale, lease or transfer of all or a majority of its assets to another Person shall be effected on or after the date hereof, then, as a condition of such consolidation, merger, share exchange, sale, lease or transfer, lawful and adequate provision shall be made whereby Holder shall thereafter have the right to purchase and receive upon the basis and upon the terms and conditions specified herein and in lieu of each Stock Unit immediately theretofore purchasable and receivable upon the exercise of each of the Warrants, such shares of stock, securities, cash or other property receivable upon such consolidation, merger, share exchange, sale, lease or transfer by the holder of the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit immediately prior to such event. In any such case, appropriate and equitable provision also shall be made with respect to the rights and interests of Holder to the end that the provisions hereof (including Section 4) and of the Warrant Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as may be, in relation to any shares of stock, securities, cash or other property thereafter deliverable upon the exercise of any Warrants. Issuer shall not effect any such consolidation, merger, share exchange, sale, lease or transfer unless prior to or simultaneously with the consummation thereof the successor Person (if other than Issuer) resulting from such consolidation, merger or share exchange or the Person purchasing, leasing or otherwise acquiring such assets shall assume, by written instrument mailed to Holder at its last address appearing on the books of Issuer, the obligation to deliver to Holder such shares of stock, securities, cash or other property as, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, Holder may be entitled to purchase. The above provisions of this Section 5.01 shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, share exchanges, sales, leases or transfers.

5.02 Distributions upon Declaration of Dividend or Other Distribution. So long as any Warrants remain outstanding, Issuer shall pay,

- ------------
upon the declaration and payment of any dividend or distribution (whether such dividend or distribution is in form of cash, debt securities, equity securities or other property) on any class of Common Stock, to Holder the dividend or distribution that such Holder would be otherwise entitled to receive had Holder exercised this Warrant in full immediately prior to the taking of record of those holders of Common Stock entitled to any such dividend or distribution. If such dividend or distribution is in the form of a voting equity security, Holder will be entitled to receive, at its option, in its stead non-voting equity securities otherwise identical to and convertible at Holder's option into the equity securities to which Holder is otherwise entitled thereunder and continuing benefiting from antidilution provisions similar to those herein. This provision shall not apply to stock dividends of Additional Shares of Common stock, provided, that Issuer adjusts the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit pursuant to Section 4.01.
----

Warrant

A reclassification or recapitalization of the Common Stock shall be deemed a distribution by Issuer to the holders of its Common Stock of such shares of such other class of stock within the meaning of this Section 5.02 and, if the outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be changed into a larger or smaller number of shares of Common Stock as a part of such reclassification, shall be deemed a subdivision or combination, as the case may be, of the outstanding shares of Common Stock within the meaning of Section 4.01.

5.03 Dilution in Case of Other Securities. In case any other Securities shall be issued or sold or shall become subject to issue or sale upon the conversion or exchange of any stock (or Other Securities) of Issuer (or any issuer of Other Securities or any other Person referred to in Section 5.01) or to subscription, purchase or other acquisition pursuant to any rights, options, warrants to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire either Additional Shares of Common Stock or securities directly or indirectly convertible into or exchangeable for Additional Shares of Common Stock, issued or granted by the Company (or any such other issuer or Person) for a consideration such as to dilute, on a basis consistent with the standards established in the other provisions of Section 4, the purchase rights granted by this Warrant, then, and in each such case, the computations, adjustments and readjustments provided for in Section 4 with respect to the Stock Units shall be made as nearly as possible in the manner so provided and applied to determine the amount of Other Securities from time to time receivable upon the exercise of the Warrants, so as to protect the Warrant Holders against the effect of such dilution.

SECTION 6. Notice to Warrant Holders.

6.01 Notice of Adjustment of Stock Unit or Exercise Price. Whenever the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit shall be adjusted pursuant to Section 4, Issuer shall forthwith obtain a certificate signed by the chief financial officer of Issuer and reasonably acceptable to the Holders of a majority of the Warrants, setting forth, in reasonable detail, the event requiring the adjustment and the method by which such adjustment was calculated (including a description of the basis on which the Board determined the fair market value of Additional Shares of Common Stock issued or sold and, if the consideration therefor was other than cash, a description of how such consideration was valued), specifying the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit and (if such adjustment was made pursuant to Section 4.07 or Section 5) describing the number and kind of any other securities comprising a Stock Unit, and any change in the purchase price or prices thereof, after giving effect to such adjustment or change. Issuer shall promptly, and in any case within 10 days after the making of such adjustment, cause a signed copy of such certificate to be delivered to each Warrant Holder in accordance with Section

11.02. Issuer shall keep at its office or agency, maintained for the purpose pursuant to Section 11.01, copies of all such certificates and cause the same to be available for inspection at said office during normal business hours by any Warrant Holder or any prospective permitted purchaser or a Warrant designated by a holder thereof. All adjustments set forth in such certificates shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the Majority Warrant Stockholders.

6.02 Notice of Certain Corporate Action. In case Issuer shall propose (a) to pay any dividend to the holders of its Common Stock or to make any other distribution to the holders of its Common Stock, or (b) to offer to the holders of its Common Stock rights to subscribe for or to purchase any Additional Shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class or any other securities, rights or options, or (c) to effect any reclassification of its Common Stock (other than a reclassification involving only the subdivision, or combination, of outstanding shares of Common Stock), or (d) to effect any capital reorganization, or (e) to effect any consolidation, merger, share exchange or sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of all or a majority of its property, assets or business (other than the creation of a Lien pursuant to a Company Permitted Financing), or (f) to effect the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Issuer, then, in each such case, Issuer shall give to each Warrant Holder, in accordance with Section 11.02, a notice of such proposed action, which shall specify the date on which a record is to be taken for the purposes of such stock dividend, distribution or rights, or the date on which such reclassification, reorganization, consolidation, merger, share exchange, sale, lease, transfer, disposition, liquidation, dissolution or winding up is to take place and the date of participation therein by the holders of Common Stock, if any such date is to be fixed, and shall also set forth such facts with respect thereto as shall be reasonably necessary to indicate the effect of such action on the Common Stock, if any, and the number and kind of any other shares of stock which will comprise a Stock Unit, and the purchase price or prices thereof, after giving effect to any adjustment, if any, which will be required as a result of such action. Such notice shall be so given in the case of any action covered by clause (a) or (b) above at least 20 days prior to the record date for determining holders of the Common Stock for purposes of such action, and in the case of any other such action, at least 20 days prior to the date of the taking of such proposed action or the date of participation therein by the holders of Common Stock, whichever shall be the earlier.

6.03 Notice of Expiration Date. Issuer shall give to each Warrant Holder notice of the Expiration Date. Such notice may be given by Issuer not less than 30 days but not more than 60 days prior to the Expiration Date; provided, however, that if Issuer fails to give timely notice, the Expiration Date will be extended to the date which is 30 days after the day on which such notice is given.

SECTION 7. Reservation and Authorization of Common Stock. Issuer shall at all times reserve and keep available for issue upon the exercise or conversion of Warrants such number of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock of both classes as will be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of all outstanding Warrants. Issuer shall not amend its certificate of incorporation in any respect relating to the Common Stock other than to increase or decrease the number of shares of authorized capital stock (subject to the provisions of the preceding sentence) or to decrease the par value of any shares of Common Stock. All shares of Common Stock which shall be so issuable, when issued upon exercise of any Warrant and payment of the applicable Exercise Price therefor in accordance with the terms of this Warrant, shall be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free and clear of any Liens.

Before taking any action which would result in an adjustment in the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit or which would cause an adjustment reducing the Current Warrant Price per share of Common Stock below the then par value, if any, of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants, Issuer shall take any corporate action which is necessary in order that Issuer may validly and legally issue fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock free and clear of any Liens upon the exercise of all the Warrants immediately after the taking of such action.

Before taking any action which would result in an adjustment in the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit or in the Current Warrant Price per share of Common Stock, Issuer shall obtain all such authorizations or exemptions thereof, or consents thereto, as may be necessary from any public regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction thereof.

Issuer will list on each national securities exchange on which any Common Stock may at any time be listed, subject to official notice of issuance upon exercise of the Warrants, and will maintain such listing of, all shares of Common Stock from time to time issuable upon the exercise of the Warrants. Issuer will also so list on each national securities exchange, and will maintain such listing of, any Other Securities if at the time any securities of the same class shall be listed on such national securities exchange by Issuer.

SECTION 8. Taking of Record; Stock and Warrant Transfer Books. (a) In the case of all dividends or other distributions by Issuer to the holders of its Common Stock with respect to which any provision of Section 4 and Section 5.02 refers to the taking of a record of such holders, Issuer shall in each such case take such a record as of the close of business on a Business Day.

(b) Issuer shall not at any time, except upon complete dissolution, liquidation or winding up, close its stock transfer books or Warrant transfer books so as to result in preventing or delaying the exercise, conversion or transfer of any Warrant, unless otherwise required by any applicable federal, state or local law.

SECTION 9. Expenses, Transfer Taxes and Other Charges. Issuer shall pay any and all expenses, transfer taxes and other charges, including all costs associated with the preparation, issue and delivery of stock or warrant certificates, that are incurred in respect of the issuance or delivery of shares of Common Stock upon exercise or conversion of this Warrant pursuant to Section 2, or in connection with any transfer, division or combination of Warrants pursuant to Section 3. Issuer shall not, however, be required to pay any tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue and delivery of shares of Common Stock in a name other than that in which this Warrant is registered, and no such issue or delivery shall be made unless and until the Person requesting such issue has paid to Issuer the amount of any such tax, or has established, to the satisfaction of Issuer, that such tax has been paid.

SECTION 10. No Voting Rights. This Warrant shall not entitle Holder to any voting or other rights as a stockholder of Issuer.

SECTION 11. Miscellaneous.

11.01 Office of Issuer. So long as any of the Warrants remains outstanding, Issuer shall maintain an office in the continental United States of America where the Warrants may be presented for exercise, transfer, division or combination as in this Warrant provided. Such office shall be at Associated Holdings, Inc., 1075 Hawthorne Drive, Itasca, IL 60143, unless and until Issuer shall designate and maintain some other office for such purposes and give notice thereof to all Warrant Holders.

11.02 Notices Generally. Any notices and other communications pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be sent in accordance with Section 13.03 of the Warrant Agreement.

11.03 Restrictions on Transferability. The Warrants and the Warrant Stock shall be transferable only upon compliance with the conditions specified in Section 4 of the Warrant Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement therein referred to, which conditions are intended to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act in respect of the transfer of any Warrant or any Warrant Stock, and any Holder shall be bound by the provisions of (and entitled to the benefits of) said Section 4 and said Registration Rights Agreement.

11.04 Governing Law. This Warrant shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York without giving effect to conflicts of law principles thereof, except to the extent that New York conflicts of laws principles would apply the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware to matters relating to corporations incorporated thereunder.

11.05 Limitation of Liability. No provision hereof, in the absence of affirmative action by Holder to purchase shares of Common Stock, and no mere enumeration herein of the rights or privileges of Holder, shall give rise to any liability of Holder for the Exercise Price or as a stockholder of Issuer, whether such liability is asserted by Issuer, by any creditor of Issuer or any other Person.

11.06 Fair Market Value Determinations by the Board, Etc. Whenever the Board determines fair market value, Convertible Security Value or the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock pursuant to this Warrant, or a firm of independent public accountants opines as to an adjustment pursuant to Section 4.07, any such determination or opinion shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the Majority Warrant Stockholders.

SECTION 12. Conversion of Warrants. On and after the date hereof and prior to the Expiration Date, this Warrant may be converted, in whole or in part, at the option of Holder, into the number of shares of Common Stock, for each Stock Unit evidenced by this Warrant which is being so converted, equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Common Stock comprising a Stock Unit at the time of such conversion, and (b) the Current Market Price per share of Common Stock at the time of such conversion minus the Exercise Price of the Warrant at the time of such conversion, divided by (c) the Current Market Price per share of Common Stock at the time of such conversion.

SECTION 13. Certain Legal Requirements. If Holder is subject to the provisions of Regulation Y, Holder shall not, and shall not permit any of its Bank Holding Company Affiliates to, permit any of its Bank Holding Company Affiliates to convert this Warrant into shares of Common Stock pursuant to Section 12, or exercise this Warrant, if after giving effect to such conversion or exercise, (i) Holder and its Bank Holding Company Affiliates would own more than 5% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock or (ii) Holder would Control Issuer (and for purposes of this clause (ii), a reasoned opinion of counsel to Holder (which is based on facts and circumstances deemed appropriate by such counsel) to the effect that Holder does not control Issuer shall be conclusive).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Issuer has duly executed this Warrant.

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC.

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

This REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT dated as of January 31, 1992 is made and entered into by and between CHASE MANHATTAN INVESTMENT HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Investor"), and ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Issuer"). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set forth in Section 9.

WHEREAS, Issuer and the Investor are parties to a Warrant Agreement of even date herewith (as modified and supplemented and in effect from time to time, the "Warrant Agreement"), providing for the issuance by Issuer of Underwriting Warrants and Tranche B Warrants (each as defined in the Warrant Agreement) which entitle the Investor to purchase, from and after the dates of their respective issuance, from Issuer at any time on or prior to the date that is ten years from the date of their respective issuance, Stock Units (as therein defined) representing, initially, an aggregate amount equal to 13% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock of Issuer (on a fully diluted basis); and

WHEREAS, in order to induce the Investor to purchase the Warrants, and as a condition precedent to such purchase, the Investor requires that Issuer enter into this Agreement simultaneously with the Investor's execution of the Warrant Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Requested Registrations. (a) Registration Requests. At any time after the earlier of (i) the date upon which Issuer shall have effected a Public Offering and (ii) in the event that a Put Postponement occurs, the date on which the corresponding Put Response Notice is delivered (the "Trigger Date"), upon the written request of the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities requesting that Issuer effect the registration under the Securities Act of all or part of such holders' Registrable Securities and specifying the number of Registrable Securities to be registered and the intended method of disposition thereof (a "Registration Request"), Issuer will promptly, and in no event more than ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such Registration Request, give written notice (a "Notice of Requested Registration") of such request to all other holders of Registrable Securities, and thereupon will use its best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of

(A) the Registrable Securities which Issuer has been so requested to register by such Majority Warrant Stockholders, and

(B) all other Registrable Securities the holders of which have made written requests to Issuer for registration thereof within twenty (20) days after the giving of the Notice of Requested Registration (which requests shall specify the intended method of distribution thereof),

all to the extent requisite to permit the disposition (in accordance with the intended methods thereof) of the Registrable Securities so to be registered. If requested by the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities requested to be included in any Requested Registration, the method of disposition of all Registrable Securities included in such registration shall be an underwritten offering effected in accordance with Section 4 (a). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Issuer may postpone taking action with respect to a Requested Registration for a reasonable period of time after receipt of the original request (not exceeding one hundred twenty (120) days) if, in the reasonable opinion of Issuer's Board of Directors, effecting the registration would adversely affect a material financing, acquisition, disposition of assets or stock, merger or other comparable transaction or would require Issuer to make public disclosure of information the public disclosure of which would have a material adverse effect upon Issuer, provided that Issuer shall not delay such action pursuant to this sentence more than once in any twelve (12) month period. Subject to paragraph (e), Issuer may include in such registration other securities for sale for its own account or for the account of any other Person. If any securityholders of Issuer (other than the holders of Registrable Securities in such capacity) register securities of Issuer in a Requested Registration in accordance with this Section, such holders shall pay the fees and expenses of their counsel and their pro rata share, on the basis of the respective amounts of the securities included in such registration on behalf of each such holder, of the Registration Expenses if the Registration Expenses for such registration are not paid by Issuer for any reason.

----
--- ----

(b) Limitations on Requested Registrations.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Issuer shall not be required to honor a request for a Requested Registration if:

(i) the Trigger Date shall not yet have occurred;

(ii) in the case of a Long-Form Registration, (A) Issuer has previously effected two (2) Effective Long-Form Registrations, or (B) in the event that there has been a Put Postponement and the corresponding Put Reactivation Date has not occurred, Issuer has previously effected three (3) Effective Long-Form Registrations;

(iii) in the case of a Short-Form Registration, Issuer has previously effected three (3) Effective Short-Form Registrations;

(iv) such request is received by Issuer less than three hundred (300) days following the effective date of any previous registration statement filed in connection with a Requested Registration, regardless of whether any holder of Registrable Securities exercised its rights under this Agreement with respect to such registration, unless such previous registration constituted a Cutback Registration.

(c) Registration Statement Form. Requested Registrations shall be on such appropriate registration form promulgated by the Commission as shall be selected by Issuer, and shall be reasonably acceptable to the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to which such registration relates, and shall permit the disposition of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended method or methods specified in their request for such registration, provided, that such registration form is available under the terms of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the forgoing, if Issuer selects a Form S-3 and the use of such form is available under the terms of this Agreement and is permitted by law, the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to which such registration relates may notify Issuer in writing that, in the judgment of such holders (or, if applicable, the Managing Underwriter), the inclusion of some or all of the information required in a more detailed form specified in such notice is of material importance to the success of the Public Offering of such Registrable Securities, in which case Issuer shall supplement or amend the Form S-3 to include such information.

(d) Registration Expenses. Issuer will pay all Registration Expenses incurred in connection with any Requested Registration.

(e) Priority in Cutback Registrations. If a Requested Registration becomes a Cutback Registration, Issuer will include in any such registration to the extent of the number which the Managing Underwriter advises Issuer can be sold in such offering (i) first, Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by the Requesting Holders, pro rata on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities requested to be included by such holders and (ii) second, other securities of Issuer proposed to be included in such registration, allocated among the holders thereof in accordance with the priorities then existing among Issuer and the holders of such other securities; and any securities so excluded shall be withdrawn from and shall not be included in such Requested Registration.

2. Piggyback Registrations. (a) Right to Include Registrable Securities. Notwithstanding any limitation contained in Section 1, if Issuer at any time proposes after the date hereof to effect a Piggyback Registration, it will each such time give prompt written notice (a "Notice of Piggyback Registration") to all holders of Registrable Securities of its intention to do so and of such holders' rights under this Section 2, which Notice of Piggyback Registration shall include a description of the intended method of disposition of such securities. Upon the written request of any such holder made within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a Notice of Piggyback Registration (which request shall specify the Registrable Securities intended to be disposed of by such holder and the intended method of disposition thereof), Issuer will use its best efforts to include in the registration statement relating to such Piggyback Registration all Registrable Securities which Issuer has been so requested to register. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, at any time after giving a Notice of Piggyback Registration and prior to the effective date of the registration statement filed in connection with such registration, Issuer shall determine for any reason not to register or to delay registration of such securities, Issuer may, at its election, give written notice of such determination to each holder of Registrable Securities and, thereupon, (i) in the case of a determination not to register, shall be relieved of its obligation to register any Registrable Securities in connection with such registration (but not from its obligation to pay the Registration Expenses in connection therewith), without prejudice, however, to the rights of any Requesting Holder entitled to do so to request that such registration be effected as a Requested Registration under Section 1, and (ii) in the case of a determination to delay registering, shall be permitted to delay registering any Registrable Securities for the same period as the delay in registering such other securities. No registration effected under this Section 2 shall relieve Issuer of its obligations to effect a Requested Registration under Section 1.

(b) Registration Expenses. Issuer will pay all Registration Expenses incurred in connection with each Piggyback Registration.

(c) Priority in Cutback Registrations. If a Piggyback Registration becomes a Cutback Registration, Issuer will include in such registration to the extent of the amount of the securities which the Managing Underwriter advises Issuer can be sold in such offering:

(i) if such registration involves a primary offering of Issuer's securities, (x) first, the securities proposed by Issuer to be sold for its own account, and (y) second, other securities of Issuer proposed to be included in such registration by any Person who is a party to a registration rights agreement (including this Agreement) referred to in

Section 8(a), allocated among the holders thereof, pro rata on the basis of the number of units of such securities requested to be included by such holders; and

(ii) if such registration does not involve a primary offering, all securities requested to be included in such registration by any Person who is a party to a registration rights agreement (including this Agreement) referred to in Section 8(a), pro rata on the basis of the number of securities requested to be included by such holders;

(iii) if there has been a Put Postponement and the corresponding Put Reactivation Date has not occurred, and the Majority Warrant Stockholders have requested that their respective Registrable Securities be included in a Piggyback Registration, the priority of the Registrable Securities requested to be included in such Piggyback Registration in the event that it becomes a Cutback Registration shall be as set forth in Section 1(e); and and any securities so excluded shall be withdrawn from and shall not be included in such Piggyback Registration.

3. Registration Procedures. If and whenever Issuer is required to use its best efforts to effect the registration of any Registrable Securities under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 1 or Section 2, Issuer will use its best efforts to effect the registration and sale of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended methods of disposition thereof specified by the Requesting Holders. Without limiting the foregoing, Issuer in each such case will, as expeditiously as possible:

(a) prepare and file with the Commission the requisite registration statement to effect such registration and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective as soon as practicable, provided that as far in advance as practical before filing such registration statement or any amendment or supplement thereto, Issuer will furnish to the Requesting Holders copies of reasonably complete drafts of all such documents proposed to be filed (including exhibits), and any such holder shall have the opportunity to object to any information pertaining solely to such holder and its plan of distribution that is contained therein and Issuer will make the corrections reasonably requested by such holder with respect to such information prior to filing any such registration statement or amendment;

(b) prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and any prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to maintain the effectiveness of respect to the disposition of all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement, in accordance with the intended methods of disposition thereof, until the earlier of (i) such time as all of such securities have been disposed of in accordance with the intended methods of disposition by the seller or sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement and (ii) two hundred and seventy (270) days after such registration statement becomes effective;

(c) promptly notify each Requesting Holder and the underwriter or underwriters, if any:

(i) when such registration statement or any prospectus used in connection therewith, or any amendment or supplement thereto, has been filed and, with respect to such registration statement or any post-effective amendment thereto, when the same has become effective;

(ii) of any written request by the Commission for amendments or supplements to such registration statement or prospectus;

(iii) of the notification to Issuer by the Commission of its initiation of any proceeding with respect to the issuance by the Commission of, or of the issuance by the Commission of, any stop order suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement (and Issuer shall promptly attempt to have such order withdrawn);

(iv) of the receipt by Issuer of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of any Registrable Securities for sale under the applicable securities or blue sky laws of any jurisdiction;

(d) furnish to each seller of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement such number of conformed copies of such registration statement and of each amendment and supplement thereto (in each case including all exhibits and documents incorporated by reference), such number of copies of the prospectus contained in such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus and any summary prospectus) and any other prospectus filed under Rule 424 promulgated under the Securities Act relating to such holder's Registrable Securities, and such other documents, as such seller may reasonably request to facilitate the disposition of its Registrable Securities;

(e) use its best efforts to register or qualify all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as each holder thereof shall reasonably request, to keep such registration or qualification in effect for so long as such registration statement remains in effect, and take any other action which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable such holder to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions of the Registrable Securities owned by such holder, except that Issuer shall not for any such purpose be required (i) to qualify generally to do business as a foreign corporation in any jurisdiction wherein it would not but for the requirements of this paragraph (e) be obligated to be so qualified, (ii) to subject itself to taxation in any such jurisdiction or (iii) to consent to general service of process in any jurisdiction;

(f) use its best efforts to cause all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement to be registered with or approved by such other governmental agencies or authorities as may be necessary to enable each holder thereof to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Securities;

(g) upon the request of (a) the Managing Underwriter, or (b) those Requesting Holders who hold at least a majority of the Registrable Securities to be included in a Requested Registration, effect a stock split in respect of the Common Stock by means of a stock dividend on the Common Stock or a subdivision of the Common Stock, or a combination of the Common Stock, such stock split or combination to be in form, scope and substance satisfactory to the Managing Underwriter or such Requesting Holders, as the case may be.

(h) furnish to each Requesting Holder a signed counterpart, addressed to such holder (and the underwriters, if any), of

(i) an opinion of counsel for Issuer, dated the effective date of such registration statement (or, if such registration includes an underwritten Public Offering, dated the date of any closing under the underwriting agreement), reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such holder, and

(ii) a "comfort" letter, dated the effective date of such registration statement (and, if such registration includes an underwritten Public Offering, dated the date of any closing under the underwriting agreement), signed by the independent public accountants who have certified Issuer's financial statements included in such registration statement, in each case covering substantially the same matters with respect to such included therein) and, in the case of the accountants' letter, with respect to events subsequent to the date of such financial statements, as are customarily covered in opinions of issuer's counsel and in accountants' letters delivered to the underwriters in the underwritten Public Offerings of securities and, in the case of the accountants' letter, such other financial matters, as such holder (or the underwriters, if any) may reasonably request;

(i) notify each holder of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement, at any time when a prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event as a result of which any prospectus included in such registration statement, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and at the request of any such holder promptly prepare and furnish to such holder a reasonable number of copies of a supplement to or an amendment of such prospectus as may be necessary so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such securities, such prospectus shall not include an untrue statement of a material fact to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(j) otherwise use its best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission, and make available to its securityholders, as soon as reasonably practicable, an earnings statement covering the period of at least twelve (12) months, but not more than eighteen (18) months, beginning with the first full calendar month after the effective date of such registration statement, which earnings statement shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 promulgated thereunder;

(k) make available for inspection by any Requesting Holder, any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to such registration statement and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such seller or underwriter (collectively, the "Inspectors"), all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of Issuer (collectively, the "Records") as shall be reasonably necessary to enable them to exercise any due diligence responsibility, and cause Issuer's officers, directors and employees to supply all information reasonably participate in the preparation of such registration statement and any prospectus contained therein and any amendment or supplement thereto.

(l) provide a transfer agent and registrar for all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement not later than the effective date of such registration statement; and

(m) use its best efforts to cause all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement to be listed, upon official notice of issuance, on any securities exchange on which any of the securities of the same class as the Registrable Securities are then listed.

Issuer may require each holder of Registrable Securities as to which any registration is being effected to, and each such holder, as a condition to including Registrable Securities in such registration, shall, furnish Issuer with such information regarding such holder and the distribution of such securities as Issuer may from time to time reasonably request in writing in connection with such registration; provided, however, that Issuer will not file any registration statement under the Securities Act which refers to any holder of any Registrable Securities by name or otherwise as the holder of any securities of Issuer, unless it shall first have given to such holder the right to require (a) the insertion therein of language, in form and substance satisfactory to such holder, to the effect that the holding by such holder of such securities does not make such holder a "controlling person" of Issuer within the meaning of the Securities Act and is not to be construed as a recommendation by such holder of the investment quality of the Issuer's debt or equity securities covered thereby and that such holding does not imply that such holder will assist in meeting any future financial requirements of Issuer, or (b) in the event that such reference to such holder by name or otherwise is not required by the Securities Act or any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the deletion of the reference to such holder.

Each holder of Registrable Securities agrees by acquisition of such Registrable Securities that upon receipt of any notice from Issuer of the happening of any event of the kind described in paragraph (i), such holder will forthwith discontinue such holder's disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to the registration statement relating to such Registrable Securities until such holder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by paragraph (i) and, if so directed by Issuer, will deliver to Issuer (at Issuer's expense) all copies, other than permanent file copies, then in such holder's possession of the prospectus relating to such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice. In the event Issuer shall give any such notice, the period referred to in paragraph (b) shall be extended by a number of days equal to the number of days during the period from and including the giving of notice pursuant to paragraph (i) and to and including the date when each holder of any Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement shall receive the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by paragraph (i).

4. Underwritten Offerings.

(a) Underwritten Requested Offerings. In the case of any underwritten Public Offering being effected pursuant to a Requested Registration, the Managing Underwriter and any other underwriter or underwriters with respect to such offering shall be selected, after consultation with Issuer, by the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to be included in such underwritten offering with the consent of Issuer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Issuer shall enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form with such underwriter or underwriters, which shall include, among other provisions, indemnities to the effect and to the extent provided in Section 6 and shall take all such other actions as are reasonably requested by the Managing Underwriter in order to expedite or facilitate the registration and disposition of the Registrable Securities. The holders of Registrable Securities to be distributed by such underwriters shall be parties to such underwriting agreement and may, at their option, require that any or all of the representations and warranties by, and the other agreements on the part of, Issuer to and for the benefit of such underwriters also be made to and for their benefit and that any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such underwriters under such underwriting agreement also be conditions precedent to their obligations. No holder of Registrable Securities shall be required to make any representations or warranties to or agreements with Issuer or the underwriters other than representations, warranties or agreements regarding such holder and its ownership of the securities being registered on its behalf and such holder's intended method of distribution and any other representation required by law. No Requesting Holder may participate in such underwritten offering unless such holder agrees to sell its Registrable Securities on the basis provided in such underwriting agreement and completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting agreement. If any Requesting Holder disapproves of the terms of an underwriting, such holder may elect to withdraw therefrom and from such registration by notice to Issuer and the Managing Underwriter, and each of the remaining Requesting Holders shall be entitled to increase the number of Registrable Securities being registered to the extent of the Registrable Securities so withdrawn in the proportion which the number of Registrable Securities being registered by such remaining Requesting Holder bears to the total number of Registrable Securities being registered by all such remaining Requesting Holders.

(b) Underwritten Piggyback Offerings. If Issuer at any time proposes to register any of its securities in a Piggyback Registration and such securities are to be distributed by or through one or more underwriters, Issuer will, subject to the provisions of Section 2(c), use its best efforts to arrange for such underwriters to include the Registrable Securities to be offered and sold by Requesting Holders among the securities to be distributed by such underwriters, and such holders shall be obligated to sell their Registrable Securities in such Piggyback Registration through such underwriters on the same terms and conditions as apply to the other Issuer securities to be sold by such underwriters in connection with such Piggyback Registration. The holders of Registrable Securities to be distributed by such underwriters shall be parties to the underwriting agreement between Issuer and such underwriter or underwriters and may, at their option, require that any or all of the representations and warranties by, and the other agreements on the part of, Issuer to and for the benefit of such underwriters also be made to and for their benefit and that any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such underwriters under such underwriting agreement also be conditions precedent to their obligations. No holder of Registrable Securities shall be required to make any representations or warranties to or agreements with Issuer or the underwriters other than representations, warranties or agreements regarding such holder and its ownership of the securities being registered on its behalf and such holder's intended method of distribution and any other representation required by law. No Requesting Holder may participate in such underwritten offering unless such holder agrees to sell its Registrable Securities on the basis provided in such underwriting agreement and completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting agreement. If any Requesting Holder disapproves of the terms of an underwriting, such holder may elect to withdraw therefrom and from such registration by notice to Issuer and the Managing Underwriter, and each of the remaining Requesting Holders shall be entitled to increase the number of Registrable Securities being registered to the extent of the Registrable Securities so withdrawn in the proportion which the number of Registrable Securities being registered by such remaining Requesting Holder bears to the total number of Registrable Securities being registered by all such remaining Requesting Holders.

5. Holdback Agreements By Issuer and Other Securityholders. Unless the Managing Underwriter otherwise agrees, Issuer and each holder of Registrable Securities agrees not to effect any public sale or distribution of its equity securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities, during the fourteen (14) days prior to and the one hundred and eighty (180) days after the effective date of the registration statement filed in connection with an underwritten offering made pursuant to a Requested Registration (or for such shorter period of time as is sufficient and appropriate, in the opinion of the Managing Underwriter, in order to complete the sale and distribution of the securities included in such registration), except as part of such underwritten registration and except pursuant to registrations on Form S-4 or Form S-8 promulgated by the Commission or any successor or similar forms thereto. Issuer also agrees, unless the Managing Underwriter otherwise agrees, to cause each holder of its equity securities which is a party to a registration rights agreement with Issuer entered into on or after the date hereof, and each holder of its equity securities, or of any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities, in each case purchased from Issuer, and Wingate, Cumberland or their respective Affiliates, at any time after the date of this Agreement (other than in a Public Offering), to agree, to the extent permitted by law, not to effect any such public sale or distribution of such securities (including a sale under Rule 144), during such period, except as part of such underwritten registration.

6. Indemnification. (a) Indemnification by Issuer. Issuer shall, to the full extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless each seller of Registrable Securities included in any registration statement filed in connection with a Requested Registration or a Piggyback Registration, its directors and officers, and each other Person, if any, who controls any such seller within the meaning of the Securities Act, against any losses, claims, damages expenses or liabilities, joint or several (together, "Losses"), to which such seller or any such director or officer or controlling Person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such Losses (or actions or proceedings, whether commenced or threatened, in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in any such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus, final prospectus or summary prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, and Issuer will reimburse such seller and each such director, officer and controlling Person for any legal or any other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with investigating or defending any such Loss (or action or proceeding in respect thereof); provided that Issuer shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such Loss (or action or proceeding in respect thereof) arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in any such registration statement, preliminary prospectus, final prospectus, summary prospectus, amendment or supplement in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to Issuer through an instrument duly executed by such seller specifically stating that it is for use in the preparation thereof. Such indemnity shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of such seller or any such director, officer or controlling Person, and shall survive the transfer of such securities by such seller. Issuer shall also indemnify each other Person who participates (including as an underwriter) in the offering or sale of Registrable Securities, their officers and directors and each other Person, if any, who controls any such participating Person within the meaning of the Securities Act to the same extent as provided above with respect to sellers of Registrable Securities.

(b) Indemnification by the Sellers. Each holder of Registrable Securities which are included or are to be included in any registration statement filed in connection with a Requested Registration or a Piggyback Registration, as a condition to including Registrable Securities in such registration statement, shall, to the full extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless Issuer, its directors and officers, and each other Person, if any, who controls Issuer within the meaning of the Securities Act, against any Losses to which Issuer or any such director or officer or controlling Person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such Losses (or actions or proceedings, whether commenced or threatened, in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in any such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus, final prospectus or summary prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, if such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to Issuer through an instrument duly executed by such seller specifically stating that it is for use in the preparation of such registration statement, preliminary prospectus, final prospectus, summary prospectus, amendment or supplement; provided, however, that the obligation to provide indemnification pursuant to this Section 6(b) shall be several, and not joint and several, among such Indemnifying Parties and the aggregate amount which may be recovered from any holder of Registrable Securities pursuant to the indemnification provided for in this Section 6(b) in connection with any registration and sale of Registrable Securities shall be limited to the total proceeds received by such holder from the sale of such Registrable Securities. Such indemnity shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of Issuer or any such director, officer or controlling Person and shall survive the transfer of such securities by such seller. Such holders shall also indemnify each other Person who participates (including as an underwriter) in the offering or sale of Registrable Securities, their officers and directors and each other Person, if any, who controls any such participating Person within the meaning of the Securities Act to the same extent as provided above with respect to Issuer.

(c) Notices of Claims, etc. Promptly after receipt by an Indemnified Party of notice of the commencement of any action or proceeding involving a claim referred to in the preceding paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section 6, such Indemnified Party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against an Indemnifying Party pursuant to such paragraphs, give written notice to latter of the commencement of such action, provided that the failure of any Indemnified Party to give notice as provided herein shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under the preceding paragraphs of this Section 6, except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced by such failure to give notice. In case any such action is brought against an Indemnified Party, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to participate in and, unless, in the reasonable judgment of any Indemnified Party, a conflict of interest between such Indemnified Party and any Indemnifying Party exists or such Indemnified Party has additional defenses available to it with respect to such claim, to assume the defense thereof, jointly with any other Indemnifying Party similarly notified to the extent that it may wish, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party, and after notice from the Indemnifying Party to such Indemnified Party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Party for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the latter in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation; provided that the

Indemnified Party may participate in such defense at the Indemnified Party's expense; and provided further that the Indemnified Party or Indemnified Parties
-------- -------
shall have the right to employ one counsel to represent it or them if, in the reasonable judgment of the Indemnified Party or Indemnified Parties, it is advisable for it or them to be represented by separate counsel by reason of having legal defenses which are different from or in addition to those available to the Indemnifying Party, and in that event the reasonable fees and expenses of such one counsel shall be paid by the Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifing Party is not entitled to, or elects not to, assume the defense of a claim, it will not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel (plus appropriate local counsel) for the Indemnified Parties with respect to such claim, unless in the reasonable judgment of any Indemnified Party a conflict of interest may exist between such Indemnified Party and any other Indemnified Parties with respect to such claim, in which event the Indemnifying Party shall be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of such additional counsel for the Indemnified Parties or counsels. No Indemnifying Party shall consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement without the consent of the Indemnified Party which does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such Indemnified Party of a release from all liability in respect to such claim or litigation. No Indemnifying Party shall be subject to any liability for any settlement made without its consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

provided for in any paragraph of this Section 6 is unavailable or insufficient to hold harmless an Indemnified Party in respect of any Losses (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to therein, then the Indemnifying Party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by the Indemnified Party as a result of such Losses (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Indemnifying Party on the one hand and the Indemnified Party on the other hand in connection with statements or omissions which resulted in such Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Indemnifying Party or the Indemnified Party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such untrue statement or omission. The parties hereto agree that it would not be just and equitable if contributions pursuant to this paragraph were to be determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph. The amount paid by an Indemnified Party as a result of the Losses referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph shall be deemed to include any legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating or defending any Loss which is the subject of this paragraph.

All such notices, requests and other communications will (i) if delivered personally to the address as provided in this Section, be deemed given upon delivery, (ii) if delivered by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number as provided in this Section, be deemed given upon receipt, and (iii) if delivered by mail in the manner described above to the address as provided in this Section, be deemed given upon receipt (in each case regardless of whether such notice, request or other communication is received by any other Person to whom a copy of such notice is to be delivered pursuant to this Section). Any party from time to time may change its address, facsimile number or other information for the purpose of notices to that party by giving notice specifying such change to the other parties hereto.

(b) Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all prior discussions and agreements between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and together with the Warrant and the Warrant Agreement contains the sole and entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(c) Amendment. This Agreement may be amended, supplemented or modified only by a written instrument (which may be executed in any number of counterparts) duly executed by or on behalf of each of Issuer and Persons owning two-thirds or more of the Registrable Securities; provided, however, that any amendment or modification of this Section 10 (c) shall be duly executed by or on behalf of each of the Issuer and each holder of Registrable Securities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a waiver or consent to depart from the provisions hereof with respect to a matter that relates exclusively to the rights of holders of Registrable Securities whose securities are being sold pursuant to a Registration Statement and that does not directly or indirectly affect the rights of other holders of Registrable Securities may be given by holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Securities being sold by such holders pursuant to such Registration Statement.

(d) Waiver. Subject to paragraph (e) of this Section, any term or condition of this Agreement may be waived at any time by the party that is entitled to the benefit thereof, but no such waiver shall be effective unless set forth in a written instrument duly executed by or on behalf of the party waiving such term or condition. No waiver by any party of any term or condition of this Agreement, in any one or more instances, shall be deemed to be or construed as a waiver of the same term or condition of this Agreement on any future occasion.

(e) Consents and Waivers by Holders of Registrable Securities. Any consent of the holders of Registrable Securities pursuant to this Agreement, and any waiver by such holders of any provision of this Agreement, shall be in writing (which may be executed in any number of counterparts) and may be given or taken by Persons owning two-thirds or more of the Registrable Securities, and any such consent or waiver so given or taken will be binding on all the holders of Registrable Securities.

(f) No Third Party Beneficiary. The terms and provisions of this Agreement are intended solely for the benefit of each party hereto, their respective successors or permitted assigns and any other holder of Registrable Securities, and it is not the intention of the parties to confer third-party beneficiary rights upon any other Person other than any Person entitled to indemnity under Section 6.

(g) Successors and Assigns. This Agreement is binding upon, inures to the benefit of and is enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

(h) Headings. The headings used in this Agreement have been inserted for convenience of reference only and do not define or limit the provisions hereof.

(i) Invalid Provisions. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable under any present or future law, and if the rights or obligations of any party hereto under this Agreement will not be materially and adversely affected thereby, (i) such provision will be fully severable, (ii) this Agreement will be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof, (iii) the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect and will not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom and (iv) in lieu of such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision, there will be added automatically as a part of this Agreement a legal, valid and enforceable provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision as may be possible.

addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise. The election of any one or more remedies by any party hereto shall not constitute a waiver by any such party of the right to pursue any other available remedies. As between the parties to this Agreement, in any action or proceeding brought to enforce any provision of this Agreement, or where any provision hereof is validly asserted as a defense, the successful party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees in addition to its costs and expenses and any other available remedy.

Damages in the event of breach of this Agreement by a party hereto or any other holder of Registrable Securities would be difficult, if not impossible, to ascertain, and it is therefore agreed that each such Person, in addition to and without limiting any other remedy or right it may have, will have the right to an injunction or other equitable relief in any court of competent jurisdiction, enjoining any such breach, and enforcing specifically the terms and provisions hereof and Issuer and each holder of Registrable

Securities, by its acquisition of such Registrable Securities, hereby waives any and all defenses it may have on the ground of lack of jurisdiction or competence of the court to grant such an injunction or other equitable relief. The existence of this right will not preclude any such Person from pursuing any other rights and remedies at law or in equity which such Person may have.

(k) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to a contract executed and performed in such State, without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

(l) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the duly authorized officer of each party hereto as of the date first above written

Annex 3 - First Legal Opinion

January 31, 1992

Chase Manhattan Investment
Holdings, Inc.
1 Chase Manhattan Plaza
New York, NY 10081

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel to Associated Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Issuer"), in connection with the preparation, authorization, execution and delivery of, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by, (i) the Warrant Agreement, dated as of January 31, 1992 (the "Warrant Agreement"), among the Issuer, Chase Manhattan Investment Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Investor") and, for certain purposes, Associated Stationers, Inc. (the "Operating Company"), (ii) the warrant certificate registered in the name of the Investor, dated as of January 31, 1992 (the "Underwriting Warrant Certificate"), representing the Underwriting Warrants (as defined in the Warrant Agreement), (iii) the form of warrant certificate representing the Tranche B Warrants (as defined in the Warrant Agreement), to be issued within 12 months of the date hereof ("Tranche B Warrant Certificates"; the Tranche B Warrant Certificates and the Underwriting Warrant Certificates herein being collectively referred to as the "Warrant Certificates") and (iv) the Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of January 31, 1992 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), between the Issuer and the Investor. We also have acted as counsel to the Operating Company in connection with preparation, authorization, execution and delivery of the Warrant Agreement. This opinion is being furnished to you pursuant to Section 2.02(a) of the Warrant Agreement for purposes of Section 7 thereof. Terms defined in the Warrant Agreement, in the Warrant Certificates or in the Registration Rights Agreement and not otherwise defined herein are used herein with the meanings as so defined.

In so acting, we have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Certificates, the Registration Rights Agreement, the Joinder Agreement between the Issuer and Wingate Partners, L.P. ("Wingate"), dated as of January 31, 1992 (the "Joinder Agreement") and such corporate records, agreements, documents and other instruments, and such certificates or comparable documents of public officials and of officers and representatives of the Issuer and the Operating Company, and have made such inquiries of such officers and representatives as we have deemed relevant and necessary as a basis for the opinions hereinafter set forth.

In such examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of documents submitted to us as certified or photostatic copies and the authenticity of the originals of such latter documents. As to all questions of fact material to this opinion that have not been independently established, we have relied upon certificates or comparable documents of officers and representatives of the Issuer and the Operating Company and upon the representations and warranties of the Issuer contained in the Warrant Agreement and in the Warrant Certificates.

Based on the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications stated herein, we are of the opinion that:

1. Each of the Issuer and the Operating Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has all requisite corporate power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as now being conducted.

2. The Issuer has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Certificates and the Registration Rights Agreement and to perform its obligations thereunder. The execution, delivery and performance of the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Certificates and the Registration Rights Agreement by the Issuer and the consummation by the Issuer of the transactions contemplated thereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Issuer. Each of the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Certificates and the Registration Rights Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Issuer and (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by the other parties thereto and receipt of consideration for issuance of the Warrrants in accordance with the terms of the Warrant Agreement) constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with the terms thereof, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity) and except to the extent that rights to indemnification and contribution thereunder may be limited by federal or state securities laws or public policy relating thereto.

3. The Operating Company has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the Warrant Agreement (for purposes of Section 7 thereof) and to perform its obligations thereunder. The execution, delivery and performance of the Warrant Agreement (for purposes of Section 7 thereof) by the Operating Company and the consummation by the Operating Company of the transactions contemplated thereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Operating Company. The Warrant Agreement (for purposes of Section 7 thereof) has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Operating Company and (assuming the due authorization, execution an delivery thereof by the other parties thereto and receipt of consideration for issuance of the Warrants in accordance with the terms of the Warrant Agreement) constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Operating Company, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity) and except to the extent that rights to indemnification and contribution thereunder may be limited by federal or state securities laws or public policy relating thereto.

4. The execution and delivery of the Warrant Agreement (with respect to the Issuer as to the whole Warrant

Agreement and with respect to the Operating Company for purposes of Section 7 thereof), the Warrant Certificates (with respect to the Issuer) and the Registration Rights Agreement (with respect to the Issuer), the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby and compliance by each of the Issuer and the Operating Company with any of the provisions thereof applicable to such entity will not conflict with, constitute a default under or violate (i) any of the terms, conditions or provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of either the Issuer or the Operating Company, (ii) any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any document, agreement or other instrument to which the Issuer or the Operating Company is a party or by which either of them is bound of which we are aware, (iii) any New York, Delaware corporate or federal law or regulation (other than federal and state securities or blue sky laws, as to which we express no opinion), or (iv) any judgment, writ, injunction, decree, order or ruling of any court or governmental authority binding on the Issuer or the Operating Company of which we are aware.

5. No consent, approval, waiver, license or authorization or other action by or filing with any New York, Delaware corporate or federal governmental authority is required in connection with the execution and delivery by each of the Issuer and the Operating Company, as the case may be, of the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Certificates and the Registration Rights Agreement or the consummation by the Issuer and the Operating Company of the transactions contemplated thereby, except for filings and other actions required pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations thereunder and federal and state securities or blue sky laws, as to which we express no opinion, and those already obtained.

6. Except as set forth in Schedule IV to the Credit Agreement, to our knowledge, there is no litigation, proceeding or governmental investigation pending or overtly threatened against the Issuer or the Operating Company that relates to any of the transactions contemplated by the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Certificates and the Registration Rights Agreement.

All of such outstanding shares of capital stock of the Issuer are duly authorized, validly issued, and, other than with respect to 46,258 shares of Class A Common Stock which at closing will be partly paid shares which are assessable, under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, fully paid and nonassessable, and all shares of Warrant Stock will be, when issued upon exercise of Warrants and upon receipt of consideration therefor in accordance with the terms of the Warrant Agreement, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable. To our knowledge, there are no outstanding securities of the Issuer convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase or subscribe for any shares of capital stock of the Issuer, there are no outstanding or authorized options, warrants, calls, subscriptions, rights, commitments or any other agreements of any character obligating the Issuer to issue any shares of its capital stock or any securities convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase or subscribe for any shares of such capital stock other than (i) in accordance with the certificate of incorporation of the Issuer; (ii) management stock option arrangements pursuant to the Issuer's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan; (iii) Warrants issued pursuant to the Warrant Agreement; and (iv) warrants issued pursuant to that certain warrant agreement, dated as of the date hereof, between the Issuer and Boise Cascade Corporation. CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC.

THE UNDERSIGNED, in order to form a corporation for the purposes hereinafter stated, under and pursuant to the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, does hereby certify as following:

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the Corporation is Associated Holdings, Inc.

ARTICLE TWO

The registered office of the Corporation is to be located at 1209 Orange Street in the City of Wilmington in the County of New Castle, in the State of Delaware. The name of its registered agent at that address is the Corporation Trust Company.

ARTICLE THREE

The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a corporation may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

ARTICLE FOUR

The total number of shares of all classes of stock which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is 10,245,000 shares, consisting of (a) 15,000 shares of a class designated as Class A Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Class A Preferred Stock"); (b) 15,000 shares of a class designated as Class B Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Class B Preferred Stock"); (c) 15,000 shares of a class designated as Class C Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Class C Preferred Stock"); (d) 200,000 shares of a class of preferred stock, par value of $0.01 per share, as to which the Board of Directors shall have the authority set forth in Article Five (the "Additional Preferred Stock"); (e) 5,000,000 shares of a class designated as Class A Common Stock, par value of $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"); and (f) 5,000,000 shares of a class designated as Class B Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Nonvoting Common Stock").

The following is a statement of the designations and the powers, preferences, and rights and the qualifications, limitations, and restrictions of the Class A Preferred Stock, Class B Preferred Stock, Class C Preferred Stock, Common Stock, and Nonvoting Common Stock:

I. Terms Applicable to the Class A Preferred Stock.

1.1 Dividends. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 1.1(b), 1.2(f), and 1.2(h) the holders of Class A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation out of funds legally available for such purpose, dividends on the outstanding shares of Class A Preferred Stock at the Class A Preferred Dividend Rate, payable on each Preferred Dividend Payment Date to holders of record as they appear on the stock transfer books of the Corporation on such record dates, not more than 60 days nor less than 10 days preceding the payment dates for such dividends, as are fixed by the Board of Directors (or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, a duly authorized committee thereof). Such dividends shall be cumulative and shall accrue with respect to each share of Class A Preferred Stock, whether or not declared, whether or not restricted by the terms of the Debt Agreements or otherwise pursuant to the provisions hereof, and whether or not there are funds legally available for the payment thereof until paid. The dividends on the Class A Preferred Stock may be declared payable in cash or in additional shares of Class A Preferred Stock valued at $1,000 per share, in the discretion of the Board of Directors. No other dividends may be declared or paid to the holders of Class A Preferred Stock. All dividends declared by the Board of Directors upon shares of Class A Preferred Stock in accordance with this Section 1.1(a) shall be declared and paid pro rata with respect to all shares of Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding.

(b) If at any time the Corporation shall have failed to pay any accumulated dividends on any shares of Class A Preferred Stock on any Preferred Dividend Payment Date as provided above, or if at time the Corporation shall have failed to redeem shares of Class A Preferred Stock as required by Section 1.2(a) for any reason, the Corporation shall not

(i) declare or pay any dividend on any Junior Shares or make any payment on account of, or set apart money for, a sinking or other analogous fund for the purchase, redemption or other retirement of any Junior Shares or make any distribution with respect thereto, either directly or indirectly and whether in cash or property or in obligations or shares (other than in Junior Shares) of the Corporation or any Subsidiary,

(ii) purchase any shares of Class A Preferred Stock (except for a consideration payable in Junior Shares) or redeem fewer than all of the shares of Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding, or unless, at the time of any such dividend, payment, distribution, purchase or redemption, all accrued and unpaid dividends on shares of Class A Preferred Stock are contemporaneously paid in full in cash or additional shares of Class A Preferred Stock and all shares of Class A Preferred Stock which the Corporation shall have so failed to redeem are contemporaneously redeemed.

(iii) permit any Subsidiary to purchase any Junior Shares or permit any Subsidiary to purchase fewer than all of the shares of Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding,

1.2 Redemption.

(a) Scheduled Redemption. Subject to any limitations contained
elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, the Corporation shall redeem all, but not less than all, shares of Class A Preferred Stock on July 31, 1999, out of funds legally available for such purpose, at a price per share equal to the Redemption

Price.

(b) Mandatory Redemption. Subject to any limitations contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, in the event of the occurrence of a Cash-Out Event, the Corporation agrees, at the election of any holder of then outstanding shares of Class A Preferred Stock made as set forth in Section 1.2(i) below, to redeem all, but not less than all, of such holder's shares of Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding, out of funds legally available for such purpose, at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price therefor. If pursuant to such Cash-Out Event the holders of Common Stock of the Corporation receive cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, then, at the option of the Corporation, the Corporation may, in lieu of the cash redemption contemplated in the immediately preceding sentence, redeem such Class A Preferred Stock by converting each such share into such cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, in the same proportions as the holders of Common Stock of the Corporation so receive, the value of which shall equal the Redemption Price.

(c) Redemptions at Option of Corporation. At any time, and from time to time, the Corporation may, at its election, redeem, out of funds legally available for such purpose, any portion or all of the Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price. Any redemption of shares pursuant to this Section 1.2(c) will be made ratably (as nearly as practicable) among the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock based upon the number of shares held by each such holder.

(d) Optional Redemption through Note Exchange.

(i) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (iv) of this Section 1.2(d), at the option of the Corporation, the Corporation may, at any time out of funds legally available for such purpose, redeem all, but not less than all, shares of the Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding in exchange for, and through the issue by the Corporation in the manner provided in this subdivision of, Class A Exchange Notes to be issued under the Class A Indenture. Such exchange, if any, shall be a redemption of the Class A Preferred Stock in exchange for the Class A Exchange Notes. The Class A Exchange Notes issued to each holder shall be in an aggregate principal amount equal to the Liquidation Value of the shares of Class A Preferred Stock redeemed by the Corporation in exchange therefor.

(ii) Not more than 60 nor less than 30 days prior to the exchange date, the Corporation shall mail irrevocable written notice, by registered mail, postage prepaid and return or certified receipt requested, to each record holder (and, to the extent such holder is a corporation, to the attention of its Chief Executive Officer and its Corporate Secretary), specifying the exchange date and the time and place where certificates representing shares of Class A Preferred Stock are to be surrendered for Class A Exchange Notes. Upon mailing such notice, the Corporation will be obliged to redeem all shares of Class A Preferred Stock in exchange for the Class A Exchange Notes on the exchange date specified in such notice. Upon surrender in accordance with such notice of the certificates evidencing any shares of Class A Preferred Stock so exchanged (properly endorsed or signed for transfer, if the Corporation shall require and the notice shall so state), the Corporation will cause the Class A Exchange Notes to be authenticated and issued in exchange for such shares of Class A Preferred Stock and to be mailed to the holder of the shares of Class A Preferred Stock at such holder's address of record or such other address as the holder shall specify upon such surrender of such certificates.

(iii) On the exchange date, (A) the shares of Class A Preferred Stock subject to such exchange and redemption shall cease to be entitled to any dividends accruing after the exchange date, (B) all rights of the respective holders of such shares, as stockholders of the Corporation by reason of the ownership of such shares, except the right to receive the Class A Exchange Notes upon surrender (and endorsement, if required by the Corporation) of the respective certificates representing such shares, shall cease, (C) such shares shall cease to be outstanding, and (D) the person or persons entitled to receive the Class A Exchange Notes issuable upon such exchange shall be treated for all purposes as the registered holder or holders of Class A Exchange Notes; provided, however, that interest shall not begin to accrue on any such Class A
- -------- -------

to a holder of Class A Preferred Stock until such time as such holder surrenders the certificate or certificates evidencing such shares of Class A Preferred Stock.

(iv) The Corporation may redeem shares of Class A Preferred Stock in exchange for Class A Exchange Notes only if, on the Exchange Date, (x) the Corporation has paid all accrued dividends on all outstanding shares of Class A Preferred Stock and (y) the Class A Indenture shall be executed and delivered by the Corporation and the trustee thereunder.

(e) Redemption Price. For each share of Class A Preferred Stock which is to be redeemed for cash the Corporation will be obligated on the Redemption Date to pay to the holder thereof (upon surrender of the certificate representing such share to the Corporation's stock transfer agent, or if none, to the Corporation at its principal office) an amount in cash equal to the Redemption Price. If the funds of the Corporation legally available for redemption of shares of Class A Preferred Stock on any Redemption Date are insufficient to redeem the total number of shares to be redeemed on such date, those funds which are legally available shall be used to redeem the maximum possible number of shares ratably (as nearly as practicable) among the holders of the shares to be redeemed based upon the aggregate Redemption Price of such shares held by each such holder. As and when additional funds of the Corporation are legally available for the redemption of shares, such funds shall as soon as practicable be used to redeem the balance of the shares which the Corporation has become obligated to redeem on any Redemption Date.

(f) Dividends after Redemption Date. Subject to any limitations contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, no share of Class A Preferred Stock is entitled to any dividends accruing after the redemption of such share. Subject to any limitations contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, on the date of such redemption dividends will cease to accrue, all rights of the holder of such share as such holder will cease, and such shares will be deemed not to be outstanding.

(g) Redeemed or Otherwise Acquired Shares. Any shares of Class A Preferred Stock which are redeemed or otherwise acquired by the Corporation will be retired and cancelled and may not be reissued.

(h) Restrictions on Dividends and Redemptions. Notwithstanding anything in this ARTICLE FOUR to the contrary, no dividend payment or other distribution or redemption may be made with respect to Class A Preferred Stock if such payment or other distribution or redemption will be in contravention of the restrictions or limitations on such payments or other distributions or redemptions contained in (i) this ARTICLE FOUR, (ii) the Debt Agreements, (iii) the Subordinated Note, or (iv) any and all applicable state or federal laws, rules, and regulations or in any and all orders of any state or federal governmental authority.

(i) Redemption Methods.

(i) In order to effect a redemption under either Section 1.2(a) or

1.2(c) above, the Corporation shall deliver written notice, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, to the holders of record (and, to the extent any such holder is a corporation, to the attention of its Chief Executive Officer and its Corporate Secretary) of the shares to be redeemed, addressed to such holders at their last addresses as shown on the stock transfer books of the Corporation. Each such notice of redemption shall specify the date fixed for redemption (to be a date not less than 30 days from the date of such notice), the Redemption Price, places of payment, that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing shares to be redeemed and that on and after the date of such redemption (or such earlier date as permitted hereunder) dividends will cease to accumulate on such shares. Any notice which is mailed as herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given when mailed, and failure to give such notice by mail, or any defect in such notice, to the holders of any shares designated for redemption shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other shares to be redeemed on or after the date fixed for redemption as stated in such notice. Each holder of the shares called for redemption shall surrender its certificate or certificates evidencing such shares to the Corporation at the place designated in such notice and shall thereupon be entitled to receive payment of the Redemption Price in cash, with respect to any redemption under Sections 1.2(a) or 1.2(c). If less than all shares evidenced by any such surrendered certificate are redeemed, a new certificate shall be issued evidencing the unredeemed shares.

(ii) In order to effect a redemption under Section 1.2(b) above, within 30 days after the date of the occurrence of a Cash-Out Event the Corporation shall deliver notice by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, to the holders of record (and, to the extent such holder is a corporation, to the attention of its Chief Executive Officer and its Corporate Secretary) of the shares to be redeemed, addressed to such holders at their last addresses as shown on the stock transfer books of the Corporation. Each such notice of redemption shall specify the date fixed for redemption (to be a date not less than 30 days from the date of such notice), the Redemption Price, places of payment, that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing shares to be redeemed, a description in reasonable detail of the applicable Cash-Out Event giving rise to the redemption, and a description in reasonable detail of any Marketable Securities to be included, and that on or after the date of such redemption (or such earlier date as permitted hereunder) dividends will cease to accumulate on such shares. Any notice which is mailed as herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given when mailed, and failure to give such notice by mail, or any defect in such notice, to the holders of any shares designated for redemption shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other shares to be redeemed on or after the date fixed for redemption as stated in such notice. Each holder of the shares called for redemption who elects to exercise the right of redemption under Section 1.2(b) above must surrender its certificate or certificates evidencing all such shares to the Corporation on or before the date set for redemption and at the place designated in the Corporation's notice and shall thereupon be entitled to receive payment of the Redemption Price in cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, as applicable. Any failure on the part of any holder notified as provided above to surrender such certificate or certificates on or before the date set for redemption at the place designated for redemption as provided above, shall be conclusively deemed to have not elected to redeem such holder's shares under and pursuant to Section 1.2(b) above and shall not be entitled to receive the Redemption Price as provided above.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this ARTICLE FOUR, if on or after the date on which any notice of redemption is first sent to the holders of shares to be redeemed, funds necessary for the redemption shall be available therefor and shall have been irrevocably deposited or set aside, then, notwithstanding that the certificates evidencing any shares so called for redemption shall not have been surrendered, the dividends with respect to the shares so called shall cease to accrue after the date fixed for redemption, the shares shall no longer be deemed outstanding, holders thereof shall cease to be stockholders, and all rights whatsoever with respect to the shares so called for redemption (except the right of the holders to receive the Redemption Price without interest upon surrender of their certificates therefor) shall terminate.

1.3 Voting Rights. Except as set forth below and as otherwise required by law, holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock shall have no voting rights. In connection with any right to vote, each holder of Class A Preferred Stock will have one vote for each share held. Any shares of Class A Preferred Stock held by the Corporation or its subsidiaries shall not have voting rights hereunder and shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum. So long as the Class A Preferred Stock is outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of at least 51% of all outstanding Class A Preferred Stock voting separately as a class:

(a) amend, alter, modify or repeal any provision of this Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation in any manner which affects materially and adversely the relative rights, preferences, qualifications, powers, limitations or restrictions of the Class A Preferred Stock;

(b) increase the authorized number of shares of Preferred Stock of the Corporation, authorize, issue or otherwise create securities convertible into any shares of capital stock of the Corporation other than Junior Shares.

(c) voluntarily effect any reclassification of the Class A Preferred Stock.

Whenever dividends on the Class A Preferred Stock shall be in arrears in an amount equal to at least six quarterly dividends (whether or not consecutive), (i) the number of members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be increased by one, effective as of the election of such directors as hereinafter provided and (ii) the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock (voting separately as a class) will have the exclusive right to vote for and elect such one additional director of the Corporation at any meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation at which directors are to be elected held during the period such dividends remain in arrears. The right of the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director shall terminate when all accrued and unpaid dividends on the Class A Preferred Stock have been declared and paid in cash or in additional shares of Class A Preferred Stock or set apart for payment. The term of office of any director so elected shall terminate immediately upon the termination of the right of the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director.

The foregoing right of the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock with respect to the election of one director may be exercised at any annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or at any special meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation held for such purpose. If the right to elect an additional director shall have accrued to the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock more than 90 days preceding the date established for the next annual meeting of stockholders, the President of the Corporation shall, within 20 days after the delivery to the Corporation at its principal office of a written request for a special meeting signed by the holders of at least 10% of the Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding, call a special meeting of the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock to be held within 60 days after the delivery of such request for the purpose of electing such additional directors.

have the right to remove without cause at any time and replace any director such holders shall have elected pursuant to this Section.

1.4 Liquidation. (a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive the Class A Preferred Liquidation Value of such shares held by them in preference to and in priority over any distributions upon Junior Shares. Upon payment in full to the holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock of the Class A Preferred Liquidation Value of such shares, the holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock shall not be entitled, as such holders, to any further participation in any distribution of assets of the Corporation. If the assets of the Corporation are not sufficient to pay in full the Class A Preferred Liquidation Value payable to the holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock, the holders of all such shares shall share ratably (to the exclusion of any other holders of capital stock) in such distribution of assets.

(b) Neither a consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other corporation, nor a sale or transfer of all or part of the Corporation's assets for cash, securities or other property, nor a merger of any other corporation with or into the Corporation shall be considered a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation within the meaning of this Section 1.4.

II. Terms Applicable to Class B and Class C Preferred Stock.

2.1 Identical Rights. Except as otherwise provided in this ARTICLE FOUR, all shares of Class B Preferred Stock and Class C Preferred Stock shall be identical and shall entitle the holders thereof to the same rights and privileges.

2.2 Dividends. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2(b), 2.3(f), and 2.3(h), the holders of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation out of funds legally available for such purpose, dividends on the outstanding shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock at the Class B and Class C Preferred Dividend Rates, payable on each

Preferred Dividend Payment Date to holders of record as they appear on the stock transfer books of the Corporation on such record dates, not more than 60 days nor less than 10 days preceding the payment dates for such dividends, as are fixed by the Board of Directors (or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, a duly authorized committee thereof). Such dividends shall be cumulative and shall accrue with respect to each share of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock, Whether or not declared, whether or not restricted by the terms of the Debt Agreements or otherwise pursuant to the provisions hereof, and whether or not there are funds legally available for the payment thereof until paid. The dividends on the Class B and Class C Preferred Stock may be declared payable in cash or in additional shares of the same series of Preferred Stock, in the discretion of the Board of Directors; provided that dividends on Class C Preferred Stock may be payable in additional shares of Class C Preferred Stock only for Dividend Payment Dates occurring on or prior to January 31, 1999. No other dividends may be declared or paid to the holders of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock. All dividends declared by the Board of Directors upon shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock in accordance with this Section 2.2(a) shall be declared and paid pro rata with respect to all shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock then outstanding.

(b) If at any time the Corporation shall have failed to pay any accumulated dividends on any shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock on Preferred Dividend Payment Date as provided above, or if at any time the Corporation shall have filed to redeem shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock as required by Section 2.3(a) for any reason, the Corporation shall not:

(i) declare or pay any dividend on any Junior Shares or make any payment on account of, or set apart money for, a sinking or other analogous fund for the purchase, redemption or other retirement of any Junior Shares or make any distribution with respect thereto, either directly or indirectly and whether in cash or property or in obligations or shares (other than in Junior Shares) of the Corporation or any Subsidiary,

(ii) purchase any shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock (except for a consideration payable in Junior Shares) or redeem fewer than all of the shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock then outstanding (except in a manner consistent with the last sentence of Section 2.3(c)), or

unless, at the time of any such dividend payment, distribution, purchase or redemption, all accrued and unpaid dividends on shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock are contemporaneously paid in full in cash or additional shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, and all shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock which the Corporation shall have so failed to redeem are contemporaneously redeemed.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision in this ARTICLE FOUR, the Corporation shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, take any of the actions specified in subsection 2.2(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above in excess of $1 million in the aggregate for all such actions, unless at the time such action is taken:

(i) the Corporation has redeemed for cash all shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock, if any, which have been issued to the holders of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock, respectively, as in-kind dividends on the Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, respectively, pursuant to Section 2.2(a) above;

(ii) the Corporation and its wholly-owned Subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, have a common equity computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, after giving effect to any purchases, redemptions, payments, distributions of disbursements under subsection 2.2.(b)(i), (ii), or (iii) above, of at least $26 million;

(iii) if any such purchases, redemptions, payments, distributions or disbursements specified in subsection 2.2(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above are to be made on or after July 31, 1999, then all shares of Class B Preferred Stock shall have been redeemed or otherwise retired; and

(iv) if any such purchases, redemptions, payments, distributions or disbursements specified in subsection 2.2(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above are to be made on or after the dates required for redemptions of shares of Class C Preferred Stock pursuant to Section 2.3(c) below, then that portion of such Class C Preferred Stock so required to be redeemed as of such dates shall have been redeemed or otherwise retired;

- -----------------
Corporation's obligation to make payments or disbursements for any amount it is obligated to pay under or pursuant to the Warrant Agreement dated January 31, 1992 between the Corporation and Chase Manhattan Investment Holdings, Inc.; and further provided, nothing in this subsection 2.2(c) shall limit the Corporation
- ----------------
or its Subsidiaries from re-purchasing

Common Stock or options to purchase Common Stock of the Corporation held by any employee of the Corporation or its Subsidiaries in connection with the termination of such employee's employment.

2.3 Redemption.

(a) Scheduled Redemption. Subject to any limitations contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, the Corporation shall redeem all shares of Class B Preferred Stock on July 31, 1999. The Corporation shall redeem all shares of Class C Preferred Stock by January 31, 2002, such redemption to be made in four equal (as nearly as practicable) quarterly installments of principal on April 30, 2001, July 31, 2001, October 31, 2001, and January 31, 2002. Scheduled redemptions shall be made out of funds legally available for such purpose, at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price.

(b) Mandatory Redemption. Subject to any limitations contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, in the event of the occurrence of a Cash-Out Event, the Corporation agrees, at the election of any holder of then outstanding shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, made as set forth in Section 2.3(i) below, to redeem all, but not less than all, of such holder's shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, then outstanding, out of funds legally available for such purpose, at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price therefor. If pursuant to such Cash-Out Event the holders of Common Stock of the Corporation received cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, then, at the option of the Corporation, the Corporation may, in lieu of the cash redemption contemplated in the immediately preceding sentence, redeem such Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, by converting each such share into such cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, in the same proportions received by the holders of Common Stock of the Corporation, the value of which shall equal the Redemption Price.

(c) Redemption at Option of Corporation. At any time, and from time to time, the Corporation may, at its election, redeem, out of funds legally available for such purpose, any portion or all of the Class B and Class C Preferred Stock then outstanding at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price. Any redemption of shares pursuant to this Section 2.3(c) will be made ratably (as nearly as practicable) among the holders of the Class B and Class C Preferred Stock based upon the number of shares held by each such holder without distinction between classes.

(d) Optional Redemption through Note Exchange.

(i) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (iv) of this Section 2.3(d), at the option of the Corporation, the Corporation may, at any time out of funds legally available for such purpose, redeem all, but not less than all shares of the Class B and Class C Preferred Stock then outstanding in exchange for, and through the issue by the Corporation in the manner provided in this subdivision of, Class B Exchange Notes (with respect to exchanges of Class B Preferred Stock) and Class C Exchange Notes (with respect to exchanges of Class C Preferred Stock). The Class B Exchange Notes shall be issued under the Class B Indenture and the Class C Exchange Notes shall be issued under the Class C Indenture. The Class B Exchange Notes or Class C Exchange Notes issued to each holder shall be in an aggregate principal amount equal to the Liquidation Value of the shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock redeemed by the Corporation in exchange thereof.

(ii) Not more than 60 nor less than 30 days prior to the exchange date, the Corporation shall mail irrevocable written notice, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, to each record holder (and, to the extent such holder is a corporation, to the attention of its Chief Executive Officer and its Corporate Secretary), specifying the exchange date and the time and place where certificates representing shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock are to be surrendered for Class B and Class C Exchange Notes. Upon mailing such notice, the Corporation will be obliged to redeem all shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock in exchange for the Exchange Notes on the exchange date specified in such notice. Upon surrender in accordance with such notice of the certificates evidencing the shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock so exchanged (properly endorsed or signed for transfer, if the Corporation shall require and the notice shall so state), the Corporation will cause the Class B or Class C Exchange Notes, as applicable, to be authenticated and issued in exchange for such shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock and to be mailed to the holders of the shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock at such holder's address of record or such other address as the holder shall specify on such surrender of such certificates.

(iii) On the exchange date, (A) the shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock subject to such exchange and redemption shall cease to be entitled to any dividends accruing after that date, (B) all rights of the respective holders of such shares, as stockholders of the Corporation by reason of the ownership of such shares, except the right to receive the Class B and Class C Exchange Notes upon

As and when additional funds of the Corporation are legally available for the redemption of shares, such funds shall as soon as practicable be used to redeem the balance of the shares which the Corporation has become obligated to redeem on any Redemption Date.

(h) Restrictions on Dividends and Redemptions. Notwithstanding anything in this ARTICLE FOUR to the contrary, no dividend payment or other distribution or redemption may be made with respect to Class B or Class C Preferred Stock if such payment or other distribution or redemption will be in contravention of the restrictions or limitations on such payments or other distributions or redemption contained in (i) this ARTICLE FOUR, (ii) the Debt Agreements, (iii) the Subordinated Note or (iv) any and all applicable state or federal laws, rules, and regulations or in any and all orders of any state or federal governmental authority.

2.4 Voting Rights. Except as otherwise set forth below and as otherwise required by law, holders of shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock shall have no voting rights. In connection with the right to vote, each holder of Class B Preferred Stock will have one vote for each share held and each holder of Class C Preferred Stock shall have one vote for each share held. Any shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock held by the Corporation or its subsidiary shall not have voting rights hereunder and shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum. So long as the Class B Preferred Stock or

(b) increase the authorized number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation, or authorize, issue or otherwise create securities convertible into any shares of capital stock of the Corporation other than shares of Class A (only for purposes of paying dividends in-kind on Class A Preferred Stock), Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, Common Stock and/or Junior Shares; or

(c) voluntarily effect any reclassification of the Class B or Class C Preferred Stock.

Whenever dividends on Class B Preferred Stock shall be in arrears in an amount equal to at least six quarterly dividends (whether or not consecutive), (i) the number of members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be increased by one, effective as of the time of the election of such directors as hereinafter provided and (ii) the holders of Class B Preferred Stock (voting separately as a class) will have the exclusive right to vote for and elect one additional director of the Corporation at any meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation at which directors are to be elected held during the period such dividends remain in arrears. The right of the holders of Class B Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director shall terminate when all accrued and unpaid dividends on the Class B Preferred Stock have been declared and paid in cash or in-kind or set apart for payment. The term of office of any director so elected shall terminate immediately upon the termination of the right of the holders of the Class B Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director.

office of any director so elected shall terminate immediately upon the termination of the right of the holders of the Class C Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director.

The foregoing right of the holders of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock with respect to the election of one director per class may be exercised at any annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or at any special meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation held for such purpose. If the right to elect an additional director shall have accrued to the holders of Class B Preferred Stock or Class C Preferred Stock more than 90 days preceding the date established for the next annual meeting of stockholders, the President of the Corporation shall, within 20 days after the delivery to the Corporation at its principal office of a written request for a special meeting signed by the holders of at least 10% of the Class B Preferred Stock or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, then outstanding, call a special meeting of the holders of the Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, to be held within 60 days after the delivery of such request for the purpose of electing such additional directors. The holders of the Class B Preferred Stock voting as a class shall have the right to remove without cause at any time and replace any director such holder shall have elected pursuant to this section. The holders of the Class C Preferred Stock voting as a class shall have the right to remove without cause at any time and replace any director such holder shall have elected pursuant to this section.

2.5 Liquidation. (a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive the Class B or Class C Preferred Liquidation Value of such shares held by them in preference to and in priority over any distributions upon Junior shares. Upon payment in full to the holders of shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock of the Class B and Class C Preferred Liquidation Values of such shares, the holders of shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock shall not be entitled, as such holders, to any further participation in any distribution of assets of the Corporation. (b) Neither a consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other corporation, nor a sale or transfer of all or part of the Corporation's assets for cash, securities or other property, nor a merger of any other corporation with or into the Corporation, shall be considered a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation within the meaning of this Section 2.5.

All holders of shares of Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock shall share ratably, in accordance with the numbers of shares held by each such holder, in all dividends or distributions on shares of Common Stock payable in cash, in property or in securities of the Corporation (other than shares of Common Stock). All dividends or distributions declared on shares of Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock which are payable in shares of Common Stock or Nonvoting Common Stock shall be declared on both classes of shares at the same rate, provided that any such dividend or distribution shall be payable in shares of the class of Common Stock or Nonvoting Common Stock held by the stockholder to whom the dividend or distribution is payable.

3.3 Stock Splits, Etc. No reclassification or any other adjustment or modification of the rights or preferences shall be effected (including without limitation pursuant to a merger, consolidation or liquidation involving the Corporation) with respect to either the Common Stock or the Nonvoting Common Stock unless both the Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock are reclassified or the rights or preferences are adjusted or modified in exactly the same manner and at the same time. In this regard, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the case of any consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other entity (other than a merger which does not result in any reclassification, conversion, exchange or cancellation of the Common Stock), or in case of any sale or transfer of all or substantially all the assets of the

Corporation, or the reclassification of the Common Stock into any other form of capital stock of the Corporation, whether in whole or in part, the holder of each share of Nonvoting Common Stock shall, after such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer or reclassification, have the right to convert such share of Nonvoting Common Stock into the kind and amount of shares of stock and other securities and property which such holder would have been entitled to receive upon such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer or reclassification if such holder had held such Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of such share of Nonvoting Common Stock immediately prior to such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer or reclassification.

3.4 Liquidation. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock shall be entitled to share ratably, in accordance with the number of shares held by each such holder, in all of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to the holders of shares of Common Stock.

3.5 Voting Rights. Except as otherwise provided herein or by law, the entire voting power of the Corporation shall be vested in the holders of shares of Common Stock and each holder of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held of record by such holder; provided that, without the consent of the holders of record of at least 51% of Nonvoting Common Stock at the time outstanding (assuming, for the purpose of this provision, that the holders of rights to acquire shares of Nonvoting Common Stock shall be deemed to be the holders of the shares of Nonvoting Common Stock which are at the time issuable upon the full exercise thereof whether or not such holders are then entitled to exercise such rights pursuant to the terms thereof), given in writing or by the vote at any regular or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, the Corporation shall not:

(c) voluntarily effect an exchange or reclassification of shares of Nonvoting Common Stock into shares of another class of capital stock of the Corporation; or

of such surviving corporation into which the shares of Nonvoting Stock hereunder shall be converted shall have the identical rights and privileges as the shares of capital stock of such surviving corporation into which the shares of Common Stock hereunder shall be converted, other than the voting rights in this Section 3.5 and the conversion and other rights in Section 3.6 below which shall not be adversely affected by such merger or consolidation.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation is hereby expressly authorized to the full extent now or hereafter permitted by the laws of the State of Delaware, at any time and from time to time to provide for the issuance of some or all of the Additional Preferred Stock in one or more classes or series of a class, with such voting powers, full or limited, or without voting powers, and with such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, and qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, as shall be stated and expressed in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue thereof adopted by the Board of Directors. Before the Corporation shall issue any Additional Preferred Stock of any classes or series of a class, the Board of Directors shall adopt a resolution or resolutions fixing the voting powers, designations, preferences and rights of such series, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, and the number of shares of Additional Preferred Stock of such series, and appropriate documents shall be executed and filed as required by law.

ARTICLE SIX

The name and address of the Incorporator are as follows:

ARTICLE SEVEN

while a director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer , partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee (including voting trustee), employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust (including voting trust), employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, to the fullest extent permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. Such right shall be a contract right and as such shall run to the benefit of any director or officer who is elected and accepts the position of director or officer of the Corporation or elects to continue to serve as a director or officer of the Corporation while this ARTICLE SEVEN is in effect. Any repeal or amendment of this ARTICLE SEVEN shall be prospective only and shall not limit the rights of any such director or officer or the obligations of the Corporation with respect to any claim arising from or related to the services of such director or officer in any of the foregoing capacities prior to any such repeal or amendment to this ARTICLE SEVEN. Such right shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition to the maximum extent permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. If a claim for indemnification or advancement of expenses hereunder is not paid in full by the Corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim, and if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall also be entitled to be paid the expenses of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action that such indemnification or advancement of costs of defense are not permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its board of directors or any committee thereof, independent legal counsel, or stockholders) to have made its determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of, or advancement of costs of defense to, the claimant is permissible in the circumstances nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its board of directors or any committee thereof, independent legal counsel, or stockholders) that such indemnification or advancement is not permissible shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that such indemnification or advancement is not permissible. In the event of the death of any person having a right of indemnification under the foregoing provisions, such right shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors, administrators, and personal representatives. The rights conferred above shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any stature, by-law, resolution of stockholders or directors, agreement, or otherwise,

The Corporation may additionally indemnify any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by law.

As used herein, the term "proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, any appeal in such an action, suit, or proceeding, and any inquiry or investigation that could lead to such an action, suit or proceeding.

ARTICLE EIGHT

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Any repeal or amendment of this ARTICLE EIGHT by the stockholders of the Corporation shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the Corporation arising from an act of omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or amendment. In addition to the circumstances in which a director of the Corporation is not personally liable as set forth in the foregoing provisions of this ARTICLE EIGHT, a director shall not be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders to such further extent as permitted by any law applicable to the Corporation hereafter enacted, including without limitation any subsequent amendment to the Delaware General Corporation Law.

ARTICLE NINE

The following provisions are inserted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation, and for further definition, limitation and regulation of the powers of the Corporation and of its directors and stockholders.

(1) The number of directors of the Corporation shall be such as from time to time shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the bylaws. Election of directors need not be by ballot unless the bylaws so provide.

(2) The Board of Directors shall have power, subject to the other provisions of this Certificate, without the assent or vote of the stockholders to make, alter, amend, change, add to or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation; to fix and vary the amount to be reserved for any proper purpose; to authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens and all or any part of the property of the Corporation; to determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits; and to fix the times for the declaration and payment of dividends.

(3) No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors, officers, or stockholders or between the Corporation and any person (as used herein "person" means other corporation, partnership, association, firm, trust, joint venture, political subdivision, or instrumentality) or other organization in which one or more of its directors, officers, or stockholders are directors, officers, or stockholders, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the board or committee which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his, her, or their votes are counted for such purpose, if: (i) the material facts as to his or her relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of directors or the committee, and the board of directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or her relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified by the board of directors, a committee thereof, or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the board of directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

(4) In addition to the powers and authorities hereinbefore or by statute expressly conferred upon them, the directors are hereby empowered to exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Corporation; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the statutes of Delaware, of this Certificate, and to any bylaws from time to time made by the stockholders; provided, however, that no bylaws so made shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such bylaw had not been made.

ARTICLE TEN

The Corporation expressly elects not to be governed by Section 203 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, and all rights and powers conferred herein on stockholders, directors and officers are subject to this reserved power.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 29th day of January, 1992.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. Definitions. As used herein, "Amendment Date" shall mean the first date on which each of the conditions to effectiveness set forth in Section 7 hereof shall have been satisfied. Terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in the Warrant Agreement as amended hereby.

Section 2. Amendments. Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions to effectiveness specified in Section 7 hereof, the Warrant Agreement shall be amended as follows:

(a) Section 1.01 of the Warrant Agreement shall be amended by adding the following definition in their appropriate alphabetic locations:

"'Additional Tranche B Warrants' shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Section 2.06.

'Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock' shall mean (i) the shares of Common Stock purchased or purchasable by the Holders of the Additional Tranche B Warrants upon the exercise thereof, including any Common Stock into which such Common Stock may thereafter be changed or converted, and (ii) any additional shares of Common Stock issued or distributed by way of a dividend, stock split, or other distribution in respect of the Common Stock referred to in clause (i) above, or acquired by way of any rights offering or similar offering made in respect of the Common Stock referred to in clause (i) above. Any Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock purchased by the Issuer shall cease to be Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock and shall cease to be outstanding, and the Issuer, upon such purchase, shall not be deemed a Holder.

'Amendment Date' shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Amendment No. 1.

'Amendment No. 1' shall mean Amendment No. 1 to Warrant Agreement dated as of October 27, 1992 among the Issuer, the Holders, and the Operating Company.

(b) The definition of "Warrants" in Section 1.01 of the Warrant Agreement shall be amended by adding the following clause directly after "Section 2.01":

", including the Additional Tranche B Warrants described in Section 2.06".

Amendment No. 1

(c) The definition of "Tranche B Warrants" in Section 1.01 of the Warrant Agreement shall be amended by adding the following clause directly after "Section 2.03(a)":

", including the Additional Tranche B Warrants described in Section 2.06".

(d) The following subsection shall be added at the end of Section 2 of the Warrant Agreement:

"2.06 Authorization and Issuance of Additional Tranche B Shares and Warrants. The Issuer has authorized: (a) the issuance of additional warrant certificates, substantially in the form of Annex 1 to this Agreement, covering the purchase of Stock Units representing shares of Common Stock equal, on the Amendment Date, to 3.3% of the shares of Common Stock (such certificates, together with the rights to purchase Common Stock provided thereby and all warrant certificates covering such stock issued upon transfer, division, or combination of, or in substitution for, any thereof, sometimes called the "Additional Tranche B Warrants") for issuance to the Holders or their affiliates pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, provided, however, that said warrant certificates shall be dated as of the Amendment Date; and (b) the issuance of such number of shares of Class A and Class B Common Stock as shall be necessary to permit the Issuer to comply with its obligations to issue Common Stock pursuant to the Additional Tranche B Warrant and Class A Common Stock upon conversion of the Class B Common Stock. The Issuer shall deliver to the Holders or their affiliates certificates for the Additional Tranche B Warrants issued in the denominations and registered in the names specified in Schedule 1 to Amendment No. 1."

(e) The Earn Back Table in Section 11.04 of the Warrant Agreement shall be amended by replacing "$5,000,000" with "$6,500,000", "$6,000,000" with "$7,000,000", "$7,000,000" with "$9,100,000", and "$9,000,000" with "$11,700,000".

(f) Section 11.04 of the Warrant Agreement shall be amended by deleting the definition of "IRR" and inserting the following therefor:

Section 3. Representations and Warranties of Holders. Each of the Holders represents and warrants to the Issuer as follows:

(a) Each of the Holders is purchasing the Additional Tranche B Warrants for its own account, without a view to the distribution thereof, all without prejudice, however, to the right of the Holders at any time, in accordance with the Warrant Agreement or the Registration Rights Agreement, both as amended hereby, lawfully to sell or otherwise to dispose of all or any part of the Additional Tranche B Warrants or the Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock held by it.

(b) Each of the Holders is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Regulation D under the Securities Act.

(c) Each of the Holders understands that the Issuer has not registered the Additional Tranche B Warrants or the Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock under the Securities Act, and each of the Holders agrees that neither the Additional Tranche B Warrants nor the Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock shall be sold or transferred or offered for sale or transfer without registration under the Securities Act, or the availability of an exemption therefrom, all as more fully provided in Section 4 of the Warrant Agreement.

Section 4. Representation and Warranties of Issuer. The Issuer represents and warrants as follows:

(a) No Branch. The execution, delivery and performance of this Amendment by the Issuer and the Operating Company and the consummation by the Issuer and the Operating Company of the transactions contemplated hereby will not (a) violate the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the Issuer or the Operating Company, (b) violate any loan or credit agreement to which the Issuer or the Operating Company is a party or is bound, or result in a breach of or default under any other instrument or agreement to which the Issuer or the Operating Company is a party or is bound in a way which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on (i) the property, business, operations, financial condition, prospects, liabilities, or capitalization of the Issuer and the Subsidiaries taken as a whole, (ii) the ability of either the Issuer or the Operating Company to perform its obligations under this Amendment, the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant, or the Registration Rights Agreement, or (iii) the validity or enforceability of this Amendment, the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant, or the Registration Rights Agreement, or (iv) the rights and remedies of the Holders under the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant, or the Registration Rights Agreement, (c) violate any judgment, order, injunction, decree, or award against or binding upon the Issuer or the Operating Company, (d) result in the creation of any material lien upon any of the properties or assets of the Issuer or the Operating Company, or (e) violate any law, rule or regulation relating to the Issuer or the Operating Company.

(b) Corporate Action. Each of the Issuer and the Operating Company has all necessary corporate power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform its respective obligations under this Amendment; the execution, delivery and performance by the Issuer and the Operating Company of this Amendment have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action (including all stockholder action) on the part of the Issuer and the Operating Company, respectively; this Amendment has been duly executed and delivered by the Issuer and the Operating Company and constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the Issuer and the Operating Company, enforceable against the Issuer and the Operating Company in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, and similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally as applicable to the Issuer, or in the case of the Operating Company, as applicable to it, and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law); the Additional Tranche B Warrants when executed, issued, and delivered pursuant to this Amendment will constitute the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with their terms, except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, and similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally as applicable to the Issuer or in the case of the Operating Company, as applicable to it, and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law); the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock constituting the Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock covered by the Additional Tranche B Warrants have been duly and validly authorized and reserved for issuance and shall be issued and delivered in accordance with the Additional Tranche B Warrants and, upon issuance and payment therefor in accordance with the provisions of the Additional Tranche B Warrants, shall be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free and clear of any Liens, and the Class A Common Stock when issued on conversion of Class B Common Stock shall be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free and clear of any Liens; and none of the Warrant Stock issued pursuant to the terms hereof will be in violation of any preemptive rights of any Stockholder.

(c) Capitalization. The representations in Section 8.14 of the Second Amended Credit Agreement are complete and correct.

(d) Prior Representations and Warranties. After giving effect to this Amendment, (i) each of the Issuer and the Operating Company is in compliance with its respective obligations under the Warrant Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement and (ii) except for the representations made by the Issuer in Section 3.07 of the Warrant Agreement, all representations and warranties made by the Issuer in Section 3 of the Warrant Agreement will be true and correct on and as of the Amendment Date with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (or, if any such representation or warranty is expressly stated to have been made as of a specific date, as of such specific date).

(e) Preemptive Rights. Schedule 2 contains a true and complete list of all parties that have or may have preemptive or similar rights with respect to the issuance of the Additional Tranche B Warrants and the Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock.

Section 5. No Adjustments. The Issuer represents and warrants that, except as may be provided in the Warrant Agreement, the Boise Warrants, the Transition Services Agreement or the Issuer's 1992 Stock Option Plan (including stock options thereunder), no anti-dilution adjustments with respect to any securities issued by the Issuer are required or will be made as a result of the issuance of the Additional Tranche B Warrants or the Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock.

Section 6. Agreement of Operating Company. The Operating Company hereby ratifies and confirms all of its obligations under, and remakes as of the Amendment Date all guaranties and waivers contained in, Section 7.03 of the Warrant Agreement.

Section 7. Conditions To Effectiveness. The amendments to the Warrant Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement set forth in Section 2 hereof shall become effective upon the satisfaction of all conditions to the effectiveness of the Second Amended Credit Agreement, as set forth therein, and each of the following conditions to effectiveness (including, without limitation, that each document to be received by the Holders shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the Holders):

(a) Amendment No. 1. The Holders shall have received this Amendment, duly executed and delivered by the Issuer and the Operating Company.

Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement, both as amended hereby, and the Second Amended Credit Agreement shall be a reference to the Warrant Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement, both as amended hereby, and as the same may be further amended, supplemented, and otherwise modified and in effect from time to time.

(collectively, the "Holders"), and, for certain purposes, Associated Stationers, Inc. (the "Operating Company"). We also have acted as counsel to the Operating Company in connection with preparation, authorization, execution and delivery of Amendment No. 1. This opinion is being furnished to you pursuant to paragraph (f) of Section 7 of Amendment No. 1. As used herein, the "Warrant Agreement" shall mean (i) the Warrant Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Issuer, the Holders, and the Operating Company, as amended by Amendment No. 1, and (ii) Amendment No. 1. Terms defined in the Warrant Agreement and not otherwise defined herein are used herein with the meanings as so defined.

In so acting, we have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of the Warrant Agreement and such corporate records, agreements, documents and other instruments, and such certificates or comparable documents of public officials and of officers and representatives of the Issuer and the Operating Company, and have made such inquiries of such officers and representatives as we have deemed relevant and necessary as a basis for the opinions hereinafter set forth.

Based on the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications stated herein, we are of the opinion that:

The Warrant Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Issuer.

2. The Operating Company has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the Warrant Agreement and to perform its obligations thereunder. The execution, delivery and performance of the Warrant Agreement by the Operating Company and the consummation by the Operating Company of the transactions contemplated thereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Operating Company. The Warrant Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Operating Company.

3. The Additional Tranche B Warrants have been duly executed, issued, and delivered by the Issuer. The Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Additional Tranche B Warrants have been duly and validly authorized and reserved for issuance and, upon issuance and payment therefore in accordance with the provisions of the Additional Tranche B Warrants, shall be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free and clear of any Liens, and the Class A Common Stock when issued on conversion of Class B Common Stock shall be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free and clear of any Liens. None of the Warrant Stock issued pursuant to the terms of the Additional Tranche B Warrants will be in violation of any preemptive rights of any Stockholder.

4. On the date hereof the authorized capital stock of the Issuer consists of an aggregate of 10,245,000 shares consisting of (i) 5,000,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 5,000,000 shares of Class B Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share and (ii) 15,000 shares of

Class A Preferred Stock, 15,000 shares of Class B Preferred Stock and 15,000 shares of Class C Preferred Stock. Schedule VII to the Second Amended Credit Agreement correctly sets forth a list derived from the Issuer's stock records of the capital stock and equity securities of the Issuer owned of record and the names of the owners of record, in each case as of the date hereof. All of the issued and outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock on the date hereof are duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable, other than with respect to 46,258 shares of Class A Common Stock (23,129 of which have been issued to Cumberland Capital Corporation and 23,129 of which have been issued to Good Capital Co., Inc.) which on the date hereof are partly-paid shares which are assessable under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. To our knowledge, on the date hereof, (x) except for (1) the Warrants (including the Additional Tranche B Warrants) and rights under the Warrant Documents, (2) the Warrants issued to Boise pursuant to the Warrant Agreement among the Operating Company, the Issuer and Boise, (3) options for 21,684 shares of Class A Common Stock issued to the Management Shareholders, (4) options for 86,735 shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to the Issuer's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan, and (5) the rights under the Registration Rights Agreement, there are no outstanding Equity Rights with respect to the Issuer and (y) except for the Warrants and redemption and exchange rights in respect of the Class A Preferred Stock, Class B Preferred Stock and Class C Preferred Stock, there are no outstanding obligations of the Operating Company or the Issuer or any of their Subsidiaries to repurchase, redeem, or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of the Issuer nor are there any outstanding obligations of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries (including, without limitation, the Operating Company) to make payments to any Person, such as "phantom stock" payments, where the amount thereof is calculated with reference to the fair market value or equity value of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries (including, without limitation, the Operating Company).

5. The execution and delivery of the Warrant Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby and compliance by each of the Issuer and the Operating Company with any of the provisions thereof applicable to such entity will not conflict with, constitute a default under or violate (i) any of the terms, conditions or provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of either the Issuer or the Operating Company, (ii) any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any document, agreement or other instrument to which the Issuer or the Operating Company is a party or by which either of them is bound of which we are aware, (iii) any Delaware corporate or Federal law or regulation (other than Federal and state securities or blue sky laws, as to which we express no opinion), or (iv) any judgment, writ, injunction, decree, order or ruling of any court or governmental authority binding on the Issuer or the Operating Company of which we are aware.

6. To our knowledge, Schedule 2 to Amendment No. 1 contains a true and complete list of all parties that have or may have preemptive rights with respect to the issuance of the Additional Tranche B Warrants and the Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock.

7. No anti-dilution adjustments with respect to any securities issued by the Issuers are required as a result of the issuance of the Additional Tranche B Warrants or the Additional Tranche B Warrant Stock, except as may be provided in the Warrant Agreement, the Boise Warrants, the Transition Services Agreement or the Issuer's 1992 Stock Option Plan (including stock options thereunder).

8. Based, as to factual matters, on the representations, warranties and agreements contained in the Warrant Agreement and in the Additional Tranche B Warrants, it is not necessary in connection with the issue and sale of the Additional Tranche B Warrants under the Warrant Agreement to register or qualify such Additional Tranche B Warrants or the Warrant Stock issuable thereunder under the Securities Act.

The opinions herein are limited to the General Corporate Laws of the State of Delaware and the Federal laws of the United States of America, and we express no opinion on the effect on the matters covered by this opinion of the laws of any other jurisdiction.

This opinion is rendered solely for your benefit in connection with the transactions described above. This opinion may not be used or relied upon by any other person and may not be disclosed, quoted, filed with a governmental agency or otherwise referred to without our prior written consent.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as your counsel in connection with the preparation, authorization, execution and delivery of, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by Amendment No. 1 to Warrant Agreement ("Amendment No. 1"), dated as of October 27, 1992, among Associated Holdings, Inc. (the "Issuer"), Chase Manhattan Investment Holdings, Inc., Whirlpool Financial Corporation, The Long-Term Credit Bank of Japan, Ltd., Chicago Branch, The Provident Bank, and Arab Banking Corporation (B.S.C.) (collectively, the "Holders"), and Associated Stationers, Inc. (the "Operating Company"). This opinion is being furnished to you pursuant to paragraph (g) of section 7 of Amendment No. 1. As used herein, the "Warrant Agreement" shall mean (i) the Warrant Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Issuer, the Holders, and the Operating Company, as amended by Amendment No. 1, and (ii) Amendment No. 1. Terms defined in the Warrant Agreement and not otherwise defined herein are used herein with the meanings as so defined.

In so acting, we have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of the Warrant Agreement and such corporate records, agreements, documents and other instruments, and such certificates or comparable documents of public officials and of officers and representatives of the Issuer and the Operating Company, and have made such inquiries of such officers and representatives as we have deemed relevant and necessary as a basis for the opinions hereinafter set forth.

In such examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of documents submitted to us as certified or photostatic copies and the authenticity of the originals of such latter documents. As to all questions of fact material to this opinion that have not been independently established, we have relied upon certificates or comparable documents of officers and representatives of the Issuer and the Operating Company and upon the representations and warranties of the Issuer contained in Amendment No. 1.

In rendering the opinions expressed below, we have assumed, with respect to all of the documents referred to in this opinion letter, that:

(i) such documents have been duly authorized by, have been duly executed and delivered by, and (except, to the extent set forth in the opinions expressed below, as to the Issuer and the Operating Company) constitute legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligations of, all of the parties to such documents;

(ii) all signatories to such documents have been duly authorized; and

(iii) all of the parties to such documents are duly organized and validly existing and have the power and authority (corporate or other) to execute, deliver and perform such documents.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing and subject also to the comments and qualifications set forth below, and having considered such questions of law as we have deemed necessary as a basis for the opinions expressed below, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Warrant Agreement and the Additional Tranche B Warrants constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with the terms thereof, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to the application of general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity), including without limitation (a) the possible unavailability of specific performance, injunctive relief or any other equitable remedy and (b) concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing.

2. The Warrant Agreement (for purposes of Section 6 thereof) constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Operating Company, enforceable against it in accordance with the terms thereof, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to the application of general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity), including without limitation (a) the possible unavailability of specific performance, injunctive relief or any other equitable remedy and (b) concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing.

The foregoing opinions are subject to the following comments and qualifications:

(a) The foregoing opinions are limited to matters involving the laws of the State of New York and we express no opinion as to the laws of any other jurisdiction.

(b) The enforceability of provisions in the Warrant Agreement and the Additional Tranche B Warrants to the effect that terms may not be waived or modified except in writing may be limited under certain circumstances.

This opinion is provided to you by us pursuant to Section 7(g) of Amendment No. 1 and may not be used or relied upon by any other person and may not be disclosed, quoted, filed with a governmental agency or otherwise referred to without our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

MLW/CDP

The phrase "under the definition of 'Subsidiary'" is deleted from the fifth and sixth lines of the definition of "Subsidiary".

2.02. Section 7.02(b) of the Warrant Agreement is amended to read in its entirety as follows:

"(b) If Issuer is prohibited from purchasing all Warrants and Warrant Stock put to it pursuant to a Put Notice because (i) a default is then existing under the provisions of the Credit Agreement or the Senior Subordinated Credit Agreement, or (ii) such purchase would result in any default under the Credit Agreement or the Senior Subordinated Credit Agreement (the defaults described in clauses (i) and (ii) being herein referred to as "Defaults"), or (iii) neither the Operating Company nor Issuer has sufficient funds legally available therefor under Delaware corporate law, then Issuer shall give notice (a "Put Response Notice") to each Holder which has delivered such Put Notice of (x) the reason that it is unable to purchase all Warrants and Warrant Stock put to it pursuant to a Put Notice, including (1) if due to a deficiency, the computation thereof, and/or (2) if due to a Default, the nature of the covenants which have been or would be breached and if such provisions are financial covenants, a computation of the amounts or ratios setting forth the deficiencies with respect to such covenants, and (y) the aggregate amount of such Warrants and Warrant Stock, if any, which it will be able to purchase, which Put Response Notice shall be delivered within five days of the determination of Fair Market Value and shall be given together with the notice of the Put Closing Date, if any, given by Issuer pursuant to the first sentence of Section 7.02(a). Each such Holder shall have the right to withdraw its Put Notice by delivering a notice (a "Put Withdrawal Notice") to Issuer at any time prior to the Put Closing Date or if none is set in the Put Response Notice, prior to the last day on which a Put Closing could occur pursuant to the first sentence of Section 7.02(a). If any such Holders have not timely delivered Put Withdrawal Notices, unless prohibited by a Default which has not been waived, Issuer thereupon shall purchase from such Holders the aggregate amount of Warrants and Warrant Stock, if any, it may purchase on such date with funds legally available under Delaware corporate law for such purpose. Such purchase shall be allocated among the Holders which have not timely delivered Put Withdrawal Notices pro rata, based on the ratio of the number of shares of Warrant Stock put to Issuer (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants put to Issuer) by each such Holder to the number of shares of Warrant Stock put to Issuer (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants put to Issuer) by all such Holders.

If Issuer is prohibited from purchasing any Warrants and/or Warrant Stock upon the exercise by a Holder of a Put Right for any of the reasons described in the first sentence of this Section 7.02(b), then Issuer shall use its best efforts to increase its legally available funds under Delaware law to an amount sufficient to enable it to purchase legally all Warrants and Warrant Stock put to it pursuant to a Put Notice and to obtain relief from the Defaults in order to enable it to make the required payments, including through effecting a Financing, obtaining the requisite consent under the Credit Agreement or the Senior Subordinated Credit Agreement or otherwise, in each case, as soon as possible."

2.03. Section 7.02(e) of the Warrant Agreement is amended to read in its entirety as follows:

"(e) Each Holder agrees, for the benefit of the Lenders and the Senior Subordinated Lenders, that any Accruing Liability shall be subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all the Loans and the Subordinated Loans (as defined in the Credit Agreement) and that no payment shall be made in respect of the principal of or interest on the Accruing Liability until the earliest to occur of: (i) the date on which the Loans and the Subordinated Loans have been fully paid; (ii) the date on which the requisite consent of the Lenders and the Senior Subordinated Lenders and/or the respective Agents under the Credit Agreement and the Senior Subordinated Credit Agreement to such payment has been given; and (iii) the first date on which such payment is permitted under this Agreement."

2.04. Paragraph (a) of Section 8.02 of the Warrant Agreement is amended to read in its entirety as follows:

"8.02 Look Back Events.

(a) If, within the 12-month period (a "Look-Back Period") following each date on which the Holders (each, a "Look-Back Holder") shall have sold

Warrants or Warrant Stock to Issuer pursuant to Section 8.01 (the "Prior Sale"), Issuer, the Subsidiaries, or Wingate, Cumberland or Good or their Subsidiaries, Affiliates (but excluding any limited partners of Wingate as such) or associates (as defined in the Exchange Act) shall have entered into any contract, arrangement or understanding relating to a Look Back Event, then upon occurrence of such Look Back Event Issuer shall forthwith pay to each Look Back Holder, by wire transfer in immediately available funds:"

2.05. Clause (i) of paragraph (a) of Section 8.02 of the Warrant Agreement is amended by adding the words "by such Look Back Holder" after the word "Sale" in the fifth line thereof.

2.06. Clause (iii) of paragraph (b) of Section 8.02 of the Warrant Agreement is amended by adding the words "without duplication" after the "sum" in the fourth line thereof.

2.07. Clause (iv) of paragraph (b) of Section 8.02 of the Warrant Agreement is amended by adding the words "but not the expiration or termination of options or warrants in accordance with their respective terms" at the end of subclause (A) and by adding the words "other than as a result of the exercise of registration rights" at the end of subclause (B) thereof.

2.08. Sections 9.01(a) and 9.01(d) of the Warrant Agreement are amended to read in their entirety as follows:

"(a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, but subject to the provisions of Section 9.01(b), if Wingate, Cumberland, Boise Cascade, Good Capital or any of their subsidiaries, Affiliates (but excluding any limited partners of Wingate as such) or associates (as defined under the Exchange Act) (other than pursuant to an underwritten public offering or in an ordinary brokerage transaction under Rule 144) proposes, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, to sell, dispose of or otherwise transfer, directly or indirectly, any shares of Common Stock then outstanding in any manner, other than (i) the Employee Shares, (ii) pursuant to a registration statement filed pursuant to the Securities Act in which the Holders may participate pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, or (iii) in an ordinary brokerage transaction pursuant to Rule 144 (each, a "Tag-Along Sale"), then Issuer shall cause such Stockholder (the "Selling Stockholder") to refrain from effecting such transaction unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the Holders shall have been afforded the opportunity to join in such transfer as provided in Section 9.02 (it being understood that such Holders shall pay their own expenses in connection therewith)."

"(d) As a condition to the validity of any sale, disposition or other transfer of any Common Stock by any of the Persons who have executed and delivered Joinder Agreements pursuant to Section 9.01(c) or this Section 9.01(d) to any subsidiary, Affiliate or associate other than pursuant to an underwritten public offering or in an ordinary brokerage transaction under Rule 144, the transferee thereof shall execute and deliver to Issuer and each Holder a Joinder Agreement."

2.10. Section 12.04 is amended by adding at the end thereof the words "and the Senior Subordinated Credit Agreement".

2.11. Section 12.05 is amended to read in its entirety as follows:

"12.05 Transactions with Affiliates. Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, Issuer shall not, nor shall it permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly: (a) make any Investment in an Affiliate; (b) transfer, sell, lease, assign or otherwise dispose of any assets to an Affiliate; (c) merge into or consolidate with or purchase or acquire Property from an Affiliate; (d) enter into any other transaction directly or indirectly with or for the benefit of an Affiliate (including guarantees and assumptions of obligations of an Affiliate); provided, however, that (i) any Affiliate who is an individual may serve as an officer or employee of Issuer or its Subsidiaries and receive reasonable compensation for his or her services in such capacity, and (ii) Issuer and its Subsidiaries may enter into transaction providing for the leasing of Property, the rendering or receipt of services or the purchase or sale of inventory and other assets in the ordinary course of business if the monetary or business consideration arising therefrom would be substantially as advantageous to Issuer and its Subsidiaries as the monetary or business consideration which would obtain in a comparable transaction with a Third Party; or (e) pay to Wingate, Cumberland or any of their respective Affiliates any management, consultant, financial advisor, director or similar fees ("Sponsor Management Fees"), except as permitted under the Credit Agreement as in effect on the date hereof without giving effect to any modifications or supplements thereto, or termination thereof, after the date hereof."

2.12. Section 12.06(b) is amended by deleting the word "repurchase" in the second line thereof.

2.13. Section 12.06(g) is amended by adding the words "except that Issuer and each Subsidiary may own a percentage of the stock of any Subsidiary not lower than the percentage owned at the effective time of the Merger" at the end thereof.

2.14. Section 12.06(i) is amended by adding the words "it being recognized that the last day of the fiscal year of United following the Merger need not be changed to December 31 before December 31, 1995".

2.15. Section 12.08 is amended by adding at the end of the first paragraph the sentence "This Section shall not apply at the time when the Issuer has securities registered under Section 12(b) or 12(g), or is required to file reports under Section 15(d), of the Exchange Act."

2.16. Section 12.09 is amended by adding at the end thereof the sentence "This Section shall not apply at any time when the Issuer has securities registered under Section 12(b) or 12(g), or is required to file reports under Section 15(d), of the Exchange Act."

Section 3. Representation and Warranties of Issuer. The Issuer
represents and warrants as follows:

(a) No Breach. The execution, delivery and performance of this
---
Amendment by the Issuer and the Operating Company and the consummation by the Issuer and the Operating Company of the transactions contemplated hereby will not (a) violate the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the Issuer or the Operating Company, (b) violate any loan or credit agreement to which the Issuer

or the Operating Company is a party or is bound, or result in a breach of or default under any other instrument or agreement to which the Issuer or the Operating Company is a party or is bound in a way which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on (i) the property, business, operations, financial condition, prospects, liabilities, or capitalization of the Issuer and the Subsidiaries taken as a whole, (ii) the ability of either the Issuer or the Operating Company to perform its obligations under this Amendment, the Warrant Agreement, the Warrants, or the Registration Rights Agreement, or (iii) the validity or enforceability of this Amendment, the Warrant Agreement, the Warrants, or the Registration Rights Agreement, or (iv) the rights and remedies of the Holders under the Warrant Agreement, the Warrants, or the Registration Rights Agreement, (c) violate any judgment, order, injunction, decree, or award against or binding upon the Issuer or the Operating Company, (d) result in the creation of any material lien upon any of the properties or assets of the Issuer or the Operating Company, or (e) violate any law, rule or regulation relating to the Issuer or the Operating Company.

(b) Corporate Action. Each of the Issuer and the Operating Company has all necessary corporate power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform its respective obligations under this Amendment; the execution, delivery and performance by the Issuer and the Operating Company of this Amendment have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action (including all stockholder action) on the part of the Issuer and the Operating Company, respectively; and this Amendment has been duly executed and delivered by the Issuer and the Operating Company and constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the Issuer and the Operating Company, enforceable against the Issuer and the Operating Company in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, and similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally as applicable to the Issuer, or in the case of the Operating Company, as applicable to it, and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(c) Capitalization. The representations in Section 8.14 of the Credit Agreement are complete and correct.

(d) Prior Representations and Warranties. After giving effect to this Amendment, (i) each of the Issuer and the Operating Company is in compliance with its respective obligations under the Warrant Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement and (ii) except for the representations made by the Issuer in Section 3.07 of the Warrant Agreement, all representations and warranties made by the Issuer in Section 3 of the Warrant Agreement are true and correct on and as of the date hereof with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (or, if any such representation or warranty is expressly stated to have been made as of a specific date, as of such specific date).

Section 4. Agreement of Operating Company. The Operating Company hereby ratifies and confirms all of its obligations under, and remakes as of the date hereof all guaranties and waivers contained in, Section 7.03 of the Warrant Agreement.

Section 5. Documents Otherwise Unchanged. Except as herein provided, the Warrant Agreement shall remain unchanged and in full force and effect, and each reference to the "Warrant Agreement" and words of similar import in the Warrant Agreement, both as amended hereby, shall be a reference to the Warrant Agreement, as amended hereby, and as the same may be further amended, supplemented, and otherwise modified and in effect from time to time.

Section 6. Counterparts. This Amendment may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be identical and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same instrument, and any of the parties hereto may execute this Amendment by signing any such counterpart.

Section 7. Expenses. Without limiting its obligations under Section 13.04 of the Warrant Agreement, the Issuer agrees to pay, on demand, all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Holders (including the reasonable fees and disbursements of Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy, special New York counsel to the Investor) incurred in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution and delivery of this Amendment.

Section 8. Binding Effect. This Amendment shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 9. Governing Law. This Amendment shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Amendment to be duly executed as of the day and year first above written.

The exercise of "Call Right" as all or part of the Investor Warrants shall be at the following price, and upon the following terms and conditions:

(i) The price (the "Call Price") payable for the purchase and redemption of the Warrants shall be in an amount which provides the holder of the Class B Preferred Stock with a yield equal to 15% per annum on the aggregate amount of its investment in the Class B Preferred Stock, taking into account any dividends received on the Class B Preferred Stock and any interest received on any Class B Exchange Notes.

SECTION 7. Right to Join in Sale.

7.01 Tag-Along Rights.

(a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, but subject to the provisions of Section 7.01(b), if Wingate, Cumberland, Good, or any controlling stockholder of Issuer who purchases shares directly from Issuer or any of their respective Affiliates or transferees (other than pursuant to an underwritten public offering or in an ordinary broker's transaction under Rule 144), proposes, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, to sell, dispose of or otherwise transfer, directly or indirectly, any shares of Common Stock then outstanding in any manner, other than (i) the Employee Shares, (ii) pursuant to a registration statement filed pursuant to the Securities Act in which the Holders may participate pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, or (iii) in an ordinary brokerage transaction pursuant to Rule 144 (each, a "Tag-Along Sale"), then Issuer shall cause such Stockholder (the "Selling Stockholder") to refrain from effecting such transaction unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the Holder shall have been afforded the opportunity to join in such transfer as provided in Section 7.02 (it being understood that such Holder shall pay their own expenses in connection therewith.

The Holder shall have 15 days after the making of the Tag-Along Purchase Offer in which to accept the Tag-Along Purchase Offer. If any Holder accepts the Tag Along Purchase Offer ("Participating Holder"), such Participating Holder shall be entitled to sell in the Tag-Along Sale a number of shares of Warrant Stock (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants) equal to the product of (i) the quotient determined by dividing (x) the number of shares of Warrant Stock owned by such Participating Holder (including Warrant Stock issuable upon the exercise of Warrants) by (y) the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock (on a fully dilute basis) owned by the Selling Stockholder and all Participating Holders, and (ii) the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock and Warrants proposed to be purchased by the Proposed Purchaser in the Tag-Along Sale; provided, however, that if the Tag-Along Sale would cause a Change of Control or would cause any controlling stockholder and their respective Affiliates other than Wingate to own less than a majority of the outstanding Common Stock or less than a majority of the Voting Capital Stock of Issuer, then the Participating Holders shall be entitled to sell 100% of their respective Warrants and Warrant Stock (but not exceeding the aggregate amount of shares of Common Stock proposed to be acquired in the Tag-Along Sale). The Tag-Along Purchase Offer shall be at the same price and on the same terms and conditions as the offer by the Proposed Purchaser to the Selling Stockholder, except that no Participating Holders shall be required to make representations and warranties to or agreements with the Proposed Purchaser other than representations, warranties and agreements regarding such Participating Holder and its ownership of the Warrants and/or Warrant Stock to be sold in the Tag-Along Sale.

7.03 Issuer's Covenants. Issuer will not, on or after the date hereof, either (a) deliver to the Persons specified in Section 7.01(a) a certificate evidencing any shares of Common Stock being sold in a transaction requiring that a Tag-Along Purchase Offer be made unless the Proposed Purchaser shall have in fact made a Tag-Along Purchase Offer in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.02, or (b) deliver to the Persons specified in Section 7.01(a) a certificate evidencing any shares of Common Stock in connection with any other transaction (other than shares of Common Stock which are being sold, or which have previously been sold, in a Tag-Along Sale, Go-Along Sale, a registered public offering or a sale in an ordinary brokerage transaction pursuant to Rule 144) without including on the reverse side of such certificate a legend in substantially the following form:

At the closing for the Go-Along Sale, Wingate shall remit to each of the Holders the consideration to which they are entitled.

(b) If any Holder should fail to deliver its Warrants or certificates representing Warrant Stock, Issuer shall cause the books and records of Issuer to show that such Warrants and/or Warrant Stock are bound by the provisions of this Section 8 and that such Warrants and/or Warrant Stock shall be transferred only to the Third Party Purchaser upon surrender for transfer by the Holder thereof.

(c) If, within 120 days after Wingate delivers a Go-Along Notice, the Go-Along Sale is not completed, Wingate shall return to each Holder all Warrants and certificates representing Warrant Stock that such Holder delivered for sale pursuant hereto.

The fees and expenses of the determination of Fair Price and the cash equivalent of non-cash consideration as provided herein (including those of the Investment Banking Firms) will be paid by Issuer. Issuer may require that the Investment Banking Firms keep confidential any non-public information received as a result of this paragraph pursuant to reasonable confidentiality arrangements.

In the event that the consideration to be paid by the Third Party Purchaser consists or anything other than cash, the cash equivalent of such non-cash consideration shall be determined by the Investment Banking Firm pursuant to the same procedure and at the same time as a Fair Price is determined.

Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Investor and the Holder and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, Stockholders, Affiliates and agents (each, an "indemnified person") on demand from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities (or actions or other proceedings commenced or threatened in respect thereof) and expenses that arise out of, result from, or in any way relate to, this Agreement, the Investor Warrants or the Investor Registrations Rights Agreement, or in connection with the other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby (other than the mere diminution of the Investment by Holders in the Warrants unaccompanied by any other violation of this Agreement), and to reimburse each indemnified person, upon its demand, for any legal or other expenses incurred in connection with investigating, defending or participating in the defense of any such loss, claim, damage, liability, action or other proceeding (whether or not such indemnified person is a party to any action or proceeding out of which any such expenses arise), other than any of the foregoing claimed by any indemnified person to the extent incurred by reason of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such indemnified person. No indemnified person shall be responsible or liable to either Issuer or any other Person for any damages which may be alleged as a result of or relating to this Agreement, the Investor Warrants or the Investor Registration Rights Agreement, or in connection with the other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

9.08 Preemptive Rights. If, at any time on or after the date hereof and prior to a Qualified Public Offering, Issuer shall propose to sell or issue any New Securities to any Person (other than in connection with business combinations and certain employee stock and stock option plans which in each case have been approved by the Holder) (a "Proposed Sale"), then Issuer shall, at least 30 days prior to the Proposed Sale, give each Holder (an "Offeree") a notice (the "Offer Notice") of the Proposed Sale (it being understood that the Offer Notice also shall contain full particulars of the Proposed Sale, including the identity of the proposed beneficial and record owners of the New Securities and the purchase price per unit of the New Security).

In the Offer Notice, Issuer shall offer to each Offeree, subject to consummation of the Proposed Sale, for 20 Business Days (the "Offer Period") commencing on the date of receipt by such Offeree of the Offer Notice, the opportunity to purchase from Issuer: (a) up to that number of units of the New Securities, at the same purchase price per unit (and on the same terms and conditions as offered to the Proposed Purchaser under the Proposed Sale), equal to the product of (i) the quotient determined by dividing (A) the number of shares of Warrant Stock held by such Offeree (assuming the exercise by such Offeree of all Warrants held by it) by (B) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on a fully diluted basis, and (ii) the number of New Securities to be sold or issued in the Proposed Sale; provided, that if the New Securities shall consist of voting Common Stock, each Offeree shall have the option to purchase, in lieu of such voting Common Stock, up to an equal number of shares of non-voting Common Stock otherwise identical to such voting Common Stock. In the event that an Offeree does not purchase New Securities from Issuer in accordance with this paragraph, each Offeree which has elected to purchase New Securities hereunder (a "Purchasing Offeree") shall be entitled to purchase out of such unpurchased New Securities the same proportion of the unpurchased units of such New Securities as the total number of shares of Warrant Stock owned by such Purchasing Offeree bears to the total number of shares of Warrant Stock owned by all Purchasing Offerees.

An Offeree may elect to accept the offer to purchase any New Securities pursuant to this Section 9.08 by delivering a notice to Issuer (an "Election Notice") within the Offer Period indicating the number of the New Securities which such Offeree elects to purchase. On the date of the Proposed Sale, each Offeree which has delivered an Election Notice shall deliver the purchase price for its New Securities to Issuer in immediately available funds.

If (a) the number of New Securities proposed to be sold or issued in the Proposed Sale is increased, (b) or any of the price, terms or conditions is changed in a manner more favorable to the Proposed Purchaser under the Proposed Sale after each Offeree has received the Offer Notice, or (c) the Proposed Sale has not been consummated within 120 days of the giving of the Offer Notice, then, whether or not such Offeree previously has accepted the offer to purchase contained in the Offer Notice, Issuer shall notify such Offeree or any such change. Such Offeree thereupon shall have until the later or (1) 10 Business Days after receipt of such notice of change and (2) 20 Business Days after receipt of the original Offer Notice within which to accept the initial offer as so changed.

9.09 Board Observers. Issuer shall afford the Investor the opportunity to appoint by notice to Issuer a representative (an "Observer") to attend as an observer (but not participate in or vote at) each meeting of the Board and each meeting of the board of directors of each Subsidiary of Issuer. Issuer shall give such Observer notice of all such meetings at the same time and in the same manner as notice is given to members of the Board and of the board of directors of each Subsidiary of Issuer. The Observer shall be entitled to receive all written materials and other information given to the directors of Issuer and the directors of each Subsidiary of Issuer in connection with such meetings at the same time and in the same manner and form such materials and information are given to the directors, and copies of all minutes and all resolutions adopted by the Board and by the board of directors of each Subsidiary of Issuer (whether at meetings, by written consent or otherwise) promptly after such adoption and (if applicable) approval thereof (it being understood that such copies shall be certified by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of Issuer or the relevant Subsidiary of Issuer, as the case may be). Issuer shall reimburse each Holder for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by such Holder in connection with the exercise of their rights under this Section 9.09.

9.10 Financial Statements, Etc. Issuer shall deliver the information specified below to each Holder of an Investor Warrant or Warrant Stock:

A COPY OF THE WARRANT AGREEMENT IS ON FILE AND MAY BE INSPECTED AT THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF ISSUER. THE HOLDER OF THIS CERTIFICATE, BY ACCEPTANCE OF THIS CERTIFICATE, AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THE PROVISIONS OF THE WARRANT AGREEMENT.

For the Purchase of 23,129 shares of Class A Common Stock. Warrant No. 3 to Purchase Class A Common Stock of

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC.

Expiring 10 years from the date hereof

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT BOISE CASCADE CORPORATION, or its registered assigns, is entitled to purchase in whole or in part from time to time from Associated Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Issuer"), at any time on and after January 31, 1992, but not later than 5:00 p.m., Chicago time, on January 31, 2002 (or such later date to which this Warrant may be extended pursuant to Section 6.03, the "Expiration Date"), 23,129 shares of Class A Common Stock (subject to adjustment as provided herein) at a purchase price of $1.00 per share of Common Stock, provided that such price shall not be less than the aggregate par value of the Class A Common Stock and other shares purchased or being purchased (the "Exercise Price"), subject to the terms and conditions hereinbelow provided. Each exercise made hereunder must be of a minimum of the lesser of 100 shares of Class A Common Stock and all of the remaining Stock covered by this Warrant.

This Warrant is one of the Warrants originally issued pursuant to the Warrant Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992, between Issuer and Boise Cascade Corporation.

SECTION 1. Certain Definitions. (a) Each capitalized term used herein without definition shall have the meaning ascribed thereto (or incorporated by reference) in the Warrant Agreement (as hereinafter defined).

(b) As used in this Warrant, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Additional Shares of Common Stock" shall mean all shares (including treasury shares) of Common Stock issued or sold by Issuer on or after the date hereof, other than (i) the Warrant Stock and Common Stock issuable pursuant to any warrants repurchased by Issuer pursuant to Section 6 of the Warrant Agreement, (ii) the shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to the Other Equity Securities (whether issuable immediately or upon the arrival of a specified date or the occurrence of a specified event), (iii) shares purchased by Holder pursuant to the exercise of preemptive rights pursuant to Section 9.08 of the Warrant Agreement, (iv) shares purchased by Holder upon the exercise of preemptive rights pursuant to Section 9.08 of the Warrant Agreement, and (v) the shares of Common stock described as being issued and outstanding in Section 3.07 of the Warrant Agreement.

"Current Market Price", per share of Common Stock, for the purposes of any provision of this Warrant at the date herein specified, shall be deemed to be the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock, as reasonably determined by the Board, or if there shall be a public market for the Common Stock, the average of the daily market prices for each day during the 30 consecutive trading days commencing 45 trading days before such date as of which such a price can be established in the manner set forth below. The market price for each such trading day shall be the last sale price on such day as reported in the Consolidated Last Sale Reporting System or as quoted in the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System, or if such last sale price is not available, the average of the closing bid and asked prices as reported in either such system, or in any other case the higher bid price quoted for such day as reported by The Wall Street Journal and the National Quotation Bureau pink sheets.

"Current Warrant Price", for the purpose of any provision of this Warrant, shall mean the amount payable per share of Common Stock equal to the quotient resulting from dividing the total Exercise Price in effect on such date required to be paid upon exercise of the Warrant in full by the total number of shares (including any fractional share) of Common Stock on such date.

"Exercise Notice" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.

"Exercise Price" shall have the meaning set forth at the head of this Warrant.

"Expiration Date" shall have the meaning set forth at the head of this Warrant, as extended under Section 6.03.

"Holder" shall mean the registered holder of this Warrant.

"include" and "including" shall be construed as if followed by the phrase ", without being limited to,".

"Issuer" shall have the meaning set forth at the head of this Warrant.

"Warrant Agreement" shall mean the Warrant Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992, between Issuer and Boise Cascade Corporation, as such Warrant Agreement shall be modified and supplemented and in effect from time to time.

"Warrants" shall mean the Warrants originally issued by Issuer pursuant to the Warrant Agreement, evidencing rights to purchase up to an aggregate of 23,129 shares of Class A Common Stock, and all Warrants issued upon transfer, division or combination of, or in substitution for, any thereof. All Warrants shall at all times be identical as to terms and conditions, except as to the number of shares of Common Stock for which they may be exercised. The Warrants shall at all times be dated as of their respective dates of original issuance.

"Warrant Holder" shall mean any Person who acquires Warrants or Warrant Stock pursuant to the provisions of the Warrant Agreement, including any transferees of Warrants or Warrant Stock.

SECTION 2. Exercise of Warrant. On and after January 31, 1993, and until 5:00 p.m., Chicago time, on the Expiration Date, Holder may exercise this Warrant, on one or more occasions, on any Business Day, in whole or in part, by delivering to Issuer, at its office maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 11.01, (a) a written notice of Holder's election to exercise this Warrant, which notice shall specify the number of shares of Common Stock to be purchased (the "Exercise Notice"), (b) this Warrant, and (c) a certified or bank check or checks payable to Issuer in an aggregate amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price for the number of shares of Common Stock as to which this Warrant is being exercised (or a wire transfer of funds in that amount into a bank account designated by Issuer). Such Exercise Notice may be substantially in the form of Annex A hereto. Upon receipt thereof, Issuer shall, as promptly as practicable and in any event within 10 Business Days thereafter, execute or cause to be executed and deliver or cause to be delivered to Holder a stock certificate or certificates representing the aggregate number of shares of Warrant Stock and other securities issuable upon such exercise and any other property to which such Holder is entitled. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an exercise of this Warrant may be deferred for such period of time as may be needed to effect a redemption by Issuer of any outstanding Class B Preferred Stock of Issuer and a redemption of said Warrant in accordance with Section 6 of this Warrant. To defer a Warrant exercise, Issuer shall notify Holder in writing, within 10 Business Days after receipt of the Exercise Notice, of the Issuer's election to effect said redemption of outstanding Class B Preferred Stock and the redemption of said Warrant shall be completed within 20 days after receipt of said Exercise Notice.

The stock certificate or certificates for Warrant Stock delivered upon exercise of this Warrant shall be in such denominations as may be specified in the Exercise Notice and shall be registered in the name of Holder or such other name or names as shall be designated in such Exercise Notice. Such stock certificate or certificates shall be deemed to have been issued and Holder or any other Person so designated to be named therein shall be deemed to have become a holder of record of such shares, including, to the extent permitted by law, the right to vote such shares or to consent or to receive notice as a Stockholder, as of the date on which the last to occur of the delivery of the Exercise Notice, payment of the Exercise Price and surrender of this Warrant and all taxes required to be paid by Holder, if any, pursuant to Section 9 hereof, prior to the issuance of such shares have been paid; providing that the Warrant is not redeemed as provided for in this Section 2. If this Warrant shall have been exercised only in part, Issuer shall, at the time of delivery of the certificate or certificates representing Warrant Stock and other securities, execute and deliver to Holder a new Warrant evidencing the rights of Holder to purchase the unpurchased Common Stock called for by this Warrant, which new Warrant shall in all other respects be identical with this Warrant, or, at the request of Holder, appropriate notation may be made on this Warrant and the same returned to Holder.

All shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercises of this Warrant shall, upon payment therefore in accordance herewith, be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free and clear of any Liens.

Issuer shall not be required to issue a fractional share of Common Stock upon exercise of this Warrant. As to any fraction of a share which Holder would otherwise be entitled to purchase upon such exercise, Issuer shall pay a cash adjustment in respect of such final fraction in an amount equal to the same fraction of the Current Market Price per share of Common Stock on the date of exercise.

SECTION 3. Transfer, Division and Combination. Subject to Section 11.03, transfer of this Warrant and all rights hereunder, in whole or in part, shall be registered on the books of Issuer to be maintained for such purpose, upon surrender of this Warrant at the office of Issuer maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 11.01, together with a written assignment of this Warrant, substantially in the form of Annex B hereto, duly executed by Holder or its agent or attorney and payment of funds sufficient to pay any transfer taxes payable upon the making of such transfer. Upon such surrender and, if required, such payment, Issuer shall, subject to Section 11.03 and the immediately following sentence, (a) execute and deliver a new Warrant or Warrants in the name of the assignee or assignees and in the denominations specified in such instrument of assignment, (b) issue to the assignor a new Warrant evidencing the portion of this Warrant not so assigned and (c) promptly cancel this Warrant. If and when this Warrant is assigned in blank (in case the restrictions on transferability referred to in Section 11.03 shall have been terminated), Issuer may (but shall not be obliged to) treat the bearer hereof as the absolute owner of this Warrant for all purposes and Issuer shall not be affected by any notice to the contrary. This Warrant, if properly assigned in compliance with this Section 3 and Section 11.03, may be exercised by an assignee for the purchase of shares of Common Stock without having a new Warrant or Warrants issued. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, Issuer shall not be required to register the transfer of Warrants or Warrant Stock in the name of any Person who acquired this Warrant (or part hereof) or any Warrant Stock otherwise than in accordance with this Warrant and the Warrant Agreement.

Issuer shall maintain at its aforesaid office books for the registration and transfer of the Warrants.

SECTION 4. Adjustment of Stock. The number of shares of Common Stock which may be purchased upon exercise of this Warrant shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as set forth in this Section 4. Issuer shall not take any action with respect to its Common Stock of any class requiring an adjustment pursuant to any of Sections 4.01, 4.07 or 5 without at the same time taking like action with respect to its Common Stock of each other class, and Issuer shall not create any class of Common Stock which carries any rights to dividends or assets differing in any respect from the rights of the Common Stock on the date hereof. Any adjustment required hereunder shall be made simultaneously with adjustments required under the Chase Warrant. The total price payable for the purchase of the increased or decreased number of shares purchasable shall remain the same, and the per share price shall be proportionately decreased or increased.

4.01 Stock Dividends, Subdivisions and Combinations. If at any time Issuer shall:

(a) take a record of the holders of its Common stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive a dividend payable in, or other distribution of, Additional Shares of Common Stock, or

(b) subdivide its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a larger number of shares of Common Stock, or

(c) combine its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares of Common Stock, then the shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder immediately after the occurrence of any such event shall be adjusted to equal the number of shares of Common Stock which a record holder of the number of shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder immediately prior to the happening of such even would own or be entitled to receive after the happening of such event.

4.02 Issuance of Additional Shares of Common stock. If at any time Issuer shall (except as hereinafter provided) issue or sell any Additional Shares of Common Stock in exchange for consideration in an amount per Additional Share of Common Stock less than the Current Market Price at the time the Additional Shares of Common Stock are issued, then the number of shares of Common Stock thereafter shall be adjusted to that number determined by multiplying the number of shares of Common Stock immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction (a) the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the issuance of such Additional Shares of Common Stock plus the number of such Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued, and (b) the denominator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the issuance of such Additional Shares of Common Stock plus the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate consideration for the total number of such Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued would purchase at the Current Market Price. For purposes of this Section 4.02, the date as of which the Current Market Price shall be computed shall be the earlier of (i) the date on which Issuer shall enter into a firm contract for the issuance of such Additional Shares of Common Stock and (ii) the date of actual issuance of such Additional Shares of Common Stock. Subject to Section 4.05, no further adjustment of the number of shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder shall be made under this Section 4.02 upon the issuance of any Additional Shares of Common Stock:

(a) for which an adjustment is provided under Section 4.01;

(b) which are issued pursuant to the exercise of any Options or the conversion, exchange or exercise of any Convertible Securities, if any such adjustment shall previously have been made upon the issuance of such Options or Convertible Securities (or upon the issuance of any Option therefor) pursuant to Section 4.03 or 4.04; or

(c) as a distribution or a dividend which is distributed or declared and paid in accordance with Section 5.02.

(d) pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 among Boise Cascade Corporation ("Boise Cascade"), Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation ("BCOP"), Associated Stationers, Inc. ("Stationers") and Issuer, providing among other things for the possible issuance of Common Stock of Issuer to Boise Cascade in consideration of the deferment of liabilities and making of cash flow support payments to Stationers under the Transition Services Agreement; or

(e) which are deemed to be issued as the result of an anti-dilution adjustment with respect to any Option or Convertible Security or the adjustment made to the Chase Warrants pursuant to the last sentence of Section 4.02 of the Chase Warrant.

4.03 Issuance of Options. If at any time Issuer shall issue or sell, or shall fix a record date for the determination of holders of any class of securities entitled to receive, any Options for any Additional Shares of Common Stock or any Convertible Securities, whether or not the rights to purchase thereunder are immediately exercisable, then the number of shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder shall be adjusted as provided in Section 4.01 on the basis that (a) the maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to all such Options or necessary to effect the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued as of (and, accordingly, the date as of which the Current Market Price shall be computed shall be) the computation date specified in the penultimate sentence of this Section 4.03, and (b) the aggregate consideration for such maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock shall be zero. For purposes of this Section 4.03, the computation date of for clause (a) above shall be the earlier of (i) the date on which issuer shall take a record of the holders of its Common Stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive any such Options and (ii) the date on which Issuer shall enter into a firm contract for the issuance of such Options. No further adjustment of the share of Common Stock purchasable hereunder shall be made under this Section 4.03 upon the issuance of any Options to subscribe for or purchase any Additional Shares of Common Stock or any Convertible Securities as a distribution or a dividend which is distributed or declared and paid in accordance with Section 5.02. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any issuance of an Option which is issued together with a debt security of Issuer, as a Unit, shall be treated for the purpose of this Section 4 as the issuance of a Convertible Security.

4.04 Issuance of Convertible Securities. If at any time Issuer shall issue or sell any Convertible Securities, whether or not the rights to exchange or convert thereunder are immediately exercisable, and the cash received by Issuer in payment for such Convertible Securities shall be less than the Convertible Security Value thereof, then the shares of Common Stock thereafter purchasable hereunder shall be increased to a number of shares of Common Stock having a value immediately following the computation date (as established below) equal to the value of the shares purchasable hereunder immediately before such increase. For this purpose, the value before the increase will be the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as reasonably determined by the Board on the basis set forth in the first paragraph of the definition thereof (without reference to the appraisal procedure referred to therein) divided by the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on a fully diluted basis as determined under the Warrant Agreement, and the value immediately following the computation date shall be the foregoing value, except that the numerator shall be the Fair Market Value plus the cash amount paid to the Issuer for such Convertible Securities, less the Convertible Security Value of such Convertible Securities on issuance. For purposes of this Section 4.04, the computation date for clause (a) above shall be the earliest of (i) the date on which Issuer shall take a record of the holders of its Common Stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive any such Convertible Securities, (ii) the date on which Issuer shall enter into a firm contract for the issuance of such Convertible Securities, and (iii) the date of actual issuance of such Convertible Securities. No further adjustment of the shares of Common stock purchasable hereunder shall be made under this Section 4.04 upon the issuance of any Convertible Securities:

(a) which are issued pursuant to the exercise of any Option therefor, if any such adjustment shall previously have been made upon the issuance of such Option pursuant to Section 4.03; or

(b) as a distribution or a dividend which is distributed or declared and paid in accordance with Section 5.02.

4.05 Superseding Adjustment. If, at any time after any adjustment of the shares of Common Stock shall have been made pursuant to Section 4.03 or 4.04 as a result of the issuance of Options or Convertible Securities, or after any new adjustment of the shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder shall have been made pursuant to this Section 4.05, (a) such Options or the right of conversion, exchange or exercise of such Convertible Securities shall expire, and all or a portion of such Options or the right of conversion, exchange or exercise with respect to all or a portion of such Convertible Securities, as the case may be, shall not have been exercised or treated as having been exercised or otherwise cancelled or acquired by the Issuer in connection with any settlement including, without limitation, any cash settlement, of such Options or the rights of conversion, or exchange or exercise of such Convertible Securities, or (b) there has been any change in the number of shares issuable upon exercise, conversion or exchange of such Options or Convertible Securities (including as a result of the operation of anti-dilution provisions applicable thereto), or a (c) the consideration per share, for which Additional Shares of Common Stock are issuable pursuant to such Options or the terms of any Convertible Securities, or the maturity of any such Convertible Security, shall be changed, then such previous adjustment shall be rescinded and annulled and the Additional Shares of Common Stock which were deemed to have been issued by virtue of the computation made in connection with the adjustment so rescinded and annulled shall no longer be deemed to have been issued by virtue of such computation. Thereupon, a recomputation shall be made of the effect of such Options or Convertible Securities on the basis of

(i) treating the number of Additional Shares of Common Stock, if any, theretofore actually issued or issuable pursuant to the previous exercise of such Options or such right of conversion or exchange, as having been issued on the date or dates of such issuance as determined for the purposes of such previous adjustment and for the consideration actually received and receivable therefor,

(ii) treating the maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock (A) issuable pursuant to all Options which then remain outstanding and (B) necessary to effect the conversion or exchange of all Convertible Securities which then remain outstanding, as having been issued, and

and, if and to the extent called for by the foregoing provisions of this Section 4 on the basis aforesaid, a new adjustment of the number of shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder shall be made, and such new adjustment shall supersede the previous adjustment so rescinded and annulled.

4.06 Other Provisions Applicable to Adjustments Under this Section 4. The following provisions shall be applicable to the making of adjustments of Common Stock purchasable hereunder hereinbefore provided for in this Section 4:

(a) Computation of Consideration. To the extent that any Additional Shares of Common Stock or any Convertible Securities shall be issued for a cash consideration, the consideration received by Issuer therefor shall be deemed to be the amount of cash received by Issuer therefor, or, if such Additional Shares of Common Stock or Convertible Securities are offered by issuer for subscription, the subscription price, or, if such Additional Shares of Common Stock or Convertible Securities are sold to underwriters or dealers for public offering without a subscription offering, the initial public offering price, in any such case excluding any amounts paid or receivable for accrued interest or accrued dividends and without deduction of any reasonable compensation, discounts or expenses paid for incurred by Issuer for and in the underwriting of, or other-incurred by Issuer for and in the underwriting of, or otherwise in connection with, the issue thereof. To the extent that such issuance shall be forma consideration other than cash, then, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the amount of such consideration at the time of such issuance, as reasonably determined by the Board. The consideration for any Additional Shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to any Options to subscribe for or purchase the same shall be zero. The consideration for any Additional Shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to the terms of any Convertible Securities shall be the cash consideration paid or payable to Issuer in respect of the subscription for or purchase of such Convertible Securities.

In case of the issuance at any time of any Additional Shares of Common Stock in payment or satisfaction of any dividend upon any class of stock other than Common Stock, Issuer shall be deemed to have received for such Additional Shares of Common Stock a consideration equal to the amount of such dividend so paid or satisfied.

(b) When Adjustments to be Made. The adjustments required by this Section 4 shall be made whenever and as often as any specified event requiring an adjustment shall occur, except that any adjustment of the shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder that would otherwise be required may be postponed (except in the case of a subdivision or combination of shares of the Common Stock, as provided for in Section 4.01) up to but not beyond the date of exercise if such adjustment either by itself or with other adjustments not previously made adds or subtracts less than both (i) 1/20th of a share to or from the shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder immediately prior to the making of such adjustment and (ii) 5% of the number of shares of Common Stock. Any adjustment representing a change of less than such minimum amount (except as aforesaid) shall be carried forward and made as soon as such adjustment, together with other adjustments required by this Section 4 and not previously made, would result in a minimum adjustment on the date of exercise. For the purpose of any adjustment, any specified event shall be deemed to have occurred at the close of business on the date of its occurrence.

(c) Fractional Interests. In computing adjustments under this Section 4, fractional interests in Common Stock shall be taken into account to the nearest one-thousandth of a share.

(d) When Adjustment Not Required. If Issuer shall take a record of the holders of its Common Stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive a dividend or distribution or subscription or purchase rights and shall, thereafter and before the distribution thereof to stockholders, legally abandon its plan to pay or deliver such dividend, distribution, subscription or purchase rights, then thereafter no adjustment shall be required by reason of the taking of such record and any such adjustment previously made in respect thereof shall be rescinded and annulled.

4.07 Other Dilutive Events. In case any event shall occur, affecting Section the Subsidiaries or any Person in which Issuer or any Subsidiary has a direct or indirect Investment, as to which the provisions of Section 4 or Section 5 are not strictly applicable but the failure to make any adjustment would not fairly protect the purchase rights represented by this Warrant in accordance with the essential intent and principles of such sections then, in each such case, Issuer shall appoint a firm of independent public accountants of recognized national standing (which may be the regular auditors of Issuer), which shall give their opinion upon the adjustment, if any, on a basis consistent with the essential intent and principles established in Section 4 and 5, necessary to preserve, without dilution, the purchase rights represented by this Warrant. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Issuer acknowledges that issuance of any equity security by any Subsidiary or Person in which Issuer has a direct or indirect Investment to any Person other than Issuer or a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary or sale of existing equity securities or Subsidiaries or investees by Issuer or any Subsidiary for a price less than the fair value thereof, and acquisition of less than 100% of the equity interest in a Person for a price greater than the Fair Market Value thereof, would be such events. Upon receipt of such opinion, Issuer will promptly mail a copy thereof to Holder and shall make the adjustments described therein.

SECTION 5. Consolidation, Merger, Share Exchange, etc.; Distributions.

5.01 Consolidation, Merger, Share Exchange, etc. In case a consolidation, merger or share exchange of Issuer shall be effected with another Person on or after the date hereof, or the sale, lease or transfer of all or a majority of its assets to another Person shall be effected on or after the date hereof, then, as a condition of such consolidation, merger, share exchange, sale, lease or transfer, lawful and adequate provision shall be made whereby Holder shall thereafter have the right to purchase and receive upon the basis and upon the terms and conditions specified herein and in lieu of the shares of Common Stock immediately theretofore purchasable and receivable upon the exercise of each of the Warrants, such shares of stock, securities, cash or other property receivable upon the exercise of each of the Warrants, such shares of stock, securities, cash or other property receivable upon such consolidation, merger, share exchange, sale, lease or transfer by the holder of the shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder immediately prior to such event. In any such case, appropriate and equitable provision also shall be made with respect to the rights and interests of Holder to the end that the provisions hereof (including Section 4) and of the warrant Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as may be, in relation to any shares of stock, securities, cash or other property thereafter deliverable upon the exercise of any Warrants. Issuer shall not effect any such consolidation, merger, shares exchange, sale, lease or transfer unless prior to or simultaneously with the consummation thereof the successor Person (if other than Issuer) resulting from such consolidation, merger or share exchange or the Person purchasing, leasing or otherwise acquiring such assets shall assume, by written instrument mailed to Holder at its last address appearing on the books of Issuer, the obligation to deliver to Holder such shares of stock, securities, cash or other property as, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, Holder may be entitled to purchase. The above provisions of this Section 5.01 shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, share exchanges, sales, leases, leases or transfers.

5.02 Distributions upon Declaration of Dividend or Other Distribution. So long as any Warrants remain outstanding, Issuer shall pay, upon the declaration and payment of any dividend or distribution (whether such dividend or distribution is in the form of cash, debt securities, equity securities or other property) on any class of Common Stock, to Holder the dividend or distribution that such Holder would be otherwise entitled to receive had Holder exercised this Warrant in full immediately prior to the taking of record of those holders of Common Stock entitled to any such dividend or distribution. If such dividend or distribution is in the form of an equity security, Holder will be entitled to receive, at its option, in its stead non-voting equity securities otherwise identical to the equity securities to which Holder is otherwise entitled thereunder. This provision shall not apply to stock dividends of Additional Shares of Common Stock provided, that Issuer adjusts the number of shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder pursuant to Section 4.01.

A reclassification or recapitalization of the Common Stock shall be deemed a distribution by Issuer to the holders of its Common Stock of such shares of such other class of stock within the meaning of this Section 5.02 and, if the outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be changed into a larger or smaller number of shares of Common Stock as a part of such reclassification, shall be deemed a subdivision or combination, as the case may be, of the outstanding shares of Common Stock within the meaning of Section 4.01.

5.03 Dilution in Case of Other Securities. In case any Other Securities shall be issued or sold or shall become subject to issue or sale upon the conversion or exchange of any stock (or Other Securities) of Issuer (or any issuer of Other Securities or any other Person referred to in Section 5.01) or to subscription purchase or other acquisition pursuant to any rights, options, warrants to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire either Additional Shares of Common Stock or securities directly or indirectly convertible into or exchangeable for Additional Shares of Common Stock, issued or granted by the Company (or any such other issuer or Person) for a consideration such as to dilute, on a basis consistent with the standards established in the other provisions of Section 4, the purchase rights granted by this Warrant, then, and in each such case, the computations, adjustments and readjustments provided for in Section 4 with respect to the Stock purchasable hereunder shall be made as nearly as possible in the manner so provided and applied to determine the amount of Other Securities from time to time receivable upon the exercise of the Warrants, so as to protect the Warrant Holders against the effect of such dilution.

SECTION 6. Notice to Warrant Holders.

6.01 Notice of Adjustment of Stock or Exercise Price. Whenever the shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder shall be adjusted pursuant to Section 4, Issuer shall forthwith obtain a certificate signed by the chief financial officer of Issuer and reasonably acceptable to the Holders of a majority of the Warrants, setting forth, in reasonable detail, the event requiring the adjustment and the method by which such adjustment was calculated (including a description of the basis on which the Board determined the Fair Market Value of Additional Shares of Common Stock issued or sold and, if the consideration therefor was other than cash, a description of how such consideration was valued), specifying the number of shares of Common Stock thereafter purchasable hereunder and (if such adjustment was made pursuant to Section 4.07 or Section 5) describing the number and kind of any other securities purchasable hereunder, and any change in the purchase price or prices thereof, after giving effect to such adjustment or change. Issuer shall promptly, and in any case within 10 days after the making of such adjustment, cause a signed copy of such certificate to be delivered to each Warrant Holder in accordance with Section 11.02. Issuer shall keep at its office or agency, maintained for the purpose pursuant to Section 11.01, copies of all such certificates and cause the same to be available for inspection at said office during normal business hours by any Warrant Holder or any prospective permitted purchaser of a Warrant designated by a Holder thereof. All adjustments set forth in such certificates shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the Majority Warrant Holders.

6.02 Notice of Certain Corporate Action. In case Issuer shall propose (a) to pay any dividend to the holders of its Common Stock or to make any other distribution to the holders of its

Common Stock, or (b) to offer to the holders of its Common Stock rights to subscribe for or to purchase any Additional Shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class or any other securities, rights or options, or (c) to effect any reclassification of its Common Stock (other than a reclassification involving only the subdivision, or combination, of outstanding shares of Common stock), or (d) to effect any capital reorganization, or (e) to effect any consolidation, merger, share exchange or sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of all or a major part of its property, assets or business (other than the creation of a Lien pursuant to a Company Permitted Financing), or (f) to effect the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Issuer, then, in each such case, Issuer shall give to each Warrant Holder, in accordance with Section 11.02, a notice of such proposed action, which shall specify the date on which a record is to be taken for the purposes of such stock dividend, distribution or rights, or the date on which such reclassification, reorganization, consolidation, merger, share exchange, sale, lease, transfer, disposition, liquidation, dissolution or winding up is to take place and the date of participation therein by the holders of Common Stock, if any such date is to be fixed, and shall also set forth such facts with respect thereto as shall be reasonably necessary to indicate the effect of such action on the Common Stock, if any, and the number and kind of any other shares of stock which will thereafter be purchasable hereunder, and the purchase price or prices thereof, after giving effect to the adjustment, if any, which will be required as a result of such action. Such notice shall be so given in the case of any action covered by clause (a) or (b) above at least 20 days prior to the record date for determining holders of the Common Stock for purposes of such action, and in the case of any other such action, at least 20 days prior to the date of the taking of such proposed action or the date of participation therein by the holders of Common Stock, whichever shall be the earlier.

6.03 Notice of Expiration Date. Issuer shall give to each Warrant Holder notice of the Expiration Date. Such notice may be given by Issuer not less than 30 days but not more than 60 days prior to the Expiration Date; provided, however, that if Issuer fails to give timely notice, the Expiration Date will be extended to the date which is 30 days after the day on which such notice is given.

SECTION 7. Reservation and Authorization of Common Stock. Issuer shall at all times reserve and keep available for issue upon the exercise or conversion of Warrants such number of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock of both classes as will be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of all outstanding Warrants. Issuer shall not amend its certificate of incorporation in any respect relating to the Common Stock other than to increase or decrease the number of shares of authorized capital stock (subject to the provisions of the preceding sentence) or to decrease the par value of any shares of Common Stock. All shares of Common Stock which shall be so issuable, when issued upon exercise of any Warrant and payment of the applicable Exercise Price therefor in accordance with the terms of this Warrant, shall be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free and clear of any Liens.

Before taking any action which would result in an adjustment in the shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder or which would cause an adjustment reducing the Current Warrant Price per share of Common Stock below the then par value, if any, of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants, Issuer shall take any corporate action which is necessary in order that Issuer may validly and legally issue fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock free and clear of any Liens upon the exercise of all the Warrants immediately after the taking of such action.

Before taking any action which would result in an adjustment in the shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder or in the Current Warrant Price per share of Common Stock, Issuer shall obtain all such authorizations or exemptions thereof, or consents thereto, as may be necessary from any public regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction thereof.

Issuer will list on each national securities exchange on which any Common Stock may at any time be listed, subject to official notice of issuance upon exercise of the Warrants, and will maintain such listing of, all shares of Common Stock from time to time issuable upon the exercise of the Warrants.

Issuer will also so list on each national securities exchange, and will maintain such listing of, any Other Securities if at the time any securities of the same class shall be listed on such national securities exchange by Issuer.

SECTION 8. Taking of Record; Stock and Warrant Transfer Books. (a) In the case of all dividends or other distributions by Issuer to the holders of its Common Stock with respect to which any provision of Section 4 and Section 5.02 refers to the taking of a record of such holders, Issuer shall in each such case take such a record as of the close of business on a Business Day.

(b) Issuer shall not at any time, except upon complete dissolution, liquidation or winding up, close its stock transfer books or Warrant transfer books so as to result in preventing or delaying the exercise, conversion or transfer of any Warrant, unless otherwise required by any applicable federal, state or local law.

SECTION 9. Expenses, Transfer Taxes and Other Charges. Issuer shall pay any and all expenses, transfer taxes and other charges, including all costs associated with the preparation, issue and delivery of stock or warrant certificates, that are incurred in respect of the issuance or delivery of shares of Common Stock upon exercise or conversion of this Warrant pursuant to Section 2, or in connection with any transfer, division or combination of Warrants pursuant to Section 3. Issuer shall not, however, be required to pay any tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue and delivery of shares of Common Stock in a name other than that in which this Warrant is registered, and no such issue or delivery shall be made unless and until the Person requesting such issue has paid to Issuer the amount of any such tax, or has established, to the satisfaction of Issuer, that such tax has been paid.

SECTION 10. No Voting Rights. This Warrant shall not entitle Holder to any voting or other rights as a stockholder of Issuer.

SECTION 11. Miscellaneous.

11.01 Office of Issuer. So long as any of the Warrants remains outstanding, Issuer shall maintain an office in the continental United States of America where the Warrants may be presented for exercise, transfer, division or combination as in this Warrant provided. Such office shall be at Associated Holdings, Inc., 1075 Hawthorne Drive, Itasca, IL 60143, unless and until Issuer shall designate and maintain some other office for such purposes and give notice thereof to all Warrant Holders.

11.02 Notices Generally. Any notices and other communications pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be sent in accordance with Section 10.02 of the Warrant Agreement.

11.03 Restrictions on Transferability. The Warrants and the Warrant Stock shall be transferable only upon compliance with the conditions specified in Section 4 of the Warrant Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement therein referred to, which conditions are intended to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act in respect of the transfer of any Warrant or any Warrant Stock, and any Holder shall be bound by the provisions of

(and entitled to the benefits of) said Section 4 and said Registration Rights Agreement.

11.04 Governing Law. This Warrant shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of Illinois without giving effect to conflicts of law principles thereof, except to the extent that Illinois conflicts of laws principles would apply the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware to matters relating to corporations incorporated thereunder.

11.05 Limitation of Liability. No provision hereof, in the absence of affirmative action by Holder to purchase shares of Common Stock, and no mere enumeration herein of the rights or privileges of Holder, shall give rise to any liability of Holder for the Exercise Price or as a stockholder of Issuer, whether such liability is asserted by Issuer, by any creditor of Issuer or any other Person.

11.06 Fair Market Value Determinations by the Board. Whenever the Board determines fair market value or Convertible Security Value, or a firm of independent public accounts opines as to an adjustment pursuant to Section 4.07, any such determination or opinion shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the Majority Warrant Holders.

SECTION 12. Conversion of Warrants. On and after the date hereof and prior to the Expiration Date, this Warrant may be converted, in whole or in part, at the option of the Hoder, into the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Common Stock purchasable hereunder at the time of such conversion, times (b) the Current Market Price per share of Common Stock at the time of such conversion minus the Exercise Price of the Warrant at the time of such conversion, divided by (c) the Current Market Price per share of Common Stock at the time of such conversion.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Issuer has duly executed this Warrant.

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

This REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of January 31, 1992 is made and entered into by and among ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Issuer"), each party hereto whose name appears on the signature pages hereto (each an "Initial Holder" and collectively the "Initial Holders"), and each other person or entity who may execute this Agreement in the future or who may execute a separate agreement to be bound by the terms hereof (each Initial Holder and each such other person or entity a "Holder", and collectively the "Holders"). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set forth in Section 8.

WHEREAS, this Agreement is being executed and delivered by the parties hereto in connection with their purchase of Registrable Securities; and

WHEREAS, in order to induce each such party to purchase Registrable Securities, and as a condition precedent to such purchase, Issuer has agreed to provide the registration rights with respect thereto as set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Requested Registrations.

(a) Registration Requests. From and after the date upon which Issuer
shall have effected its initial Public Offering, upon the written request of a Holder of at least 20% of the Registrable Securities requesting that Issuer effect a registration under the Securities Act of all or part of such Holder's Registrable Securities and specifying the number of Registrable Securities to be registered and the intended method of disposition thereof (a "Registration Request"), Issuer will promptly, and in no event more than ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such Registration Request, give written notice (a "Notice of Requested Registration") of such request to all other Holders of Registrable Securities, and thereupon will use all commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of:

(A) the Registrable Securities which Issuer has been so requested to register by such Requesting Holder, and

(B) all other Registrable Securities the Holders of which have made written requests to Issuer for registration thereof within twenty (20) days after the giving of the Notice of Requested Registration (which requests shall specify the intended method of disposition thereof),

all to the extent requisite to permit the disposition (in accordance with the intended methods thereof) of the Registrable Securities so to be registered. If requested by the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities requested to be included in any Requested Registration, the method of disposition of all Registrable Securities included in such registration shall be an underwritten offering effected in accordance with Section 4(a). Subject to subsection (e) below, Issuer may include in such registration other securities for sale for its own account or for the account of any other Person.

(b) Limitations on Requested Registrations.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Issuer shall not be required to honor a request for a Requested Registration if:

(i) the consummation of an initial Qualified Public Offering by the Issuer has not yet occurred;

(ii) in the case of a Long-Form Registration, Issuer has previously effected two (2) Effective Long-Form Registrations;

(iii) in the case of a Short-Form Registration, Issuer has previously effected three (3) Effective Short-Form Registrations;

(iv) such request is received by Issuer less than three hundred (300) days following the effective date of any previous registration statement filed in connection with a Requested Registration, regardless of whether any Holder of Registrable Securities exercised its rights under this Agreement with respect to such registration, unless such previous registration constituted a Cutback Registration.

(c) Registration Statement Form. Requested Registrations shall be on such appropriate registration form promulgated by the Commission as shall be selected by Issuer, and shall be reasonably acceptable to the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to which such registration relates, and shall permit the disposition of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended method or methods specified in their request for such registration, provided, that such registration form is available under the terms of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Issuer selects a Form S-3 and the use of such form is available under the terms of this Agreement and is permitted by law, the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to which such registration relates may notify Issuer in writing that, in the judgment of such holders

(or, if applicable, the Managing Underwriter), the inclusion of some or all of the information required in a more detailed form specified in such notice is of material importance to the success of the Public Offering of such Registrable Securities, in which case Issuer shall supplement or amend the Form S-3 to include such information.

(d) Registration Expenses. Issuer will pay all Registration Expenses incurred in connection with any Requested Registration.

(e) Priority in Cutback Registrations. If a Requested Registration becomes a Cutback Registration, Issuer will include in any such registration, to the extent of the number which the Managing Underwriter advises Issuer can be sold in such offering, (i) first, the securities of Issuer proposed to be included in such registration in accordance with the priorities then existing among Issuer and the holders of such securities pursuant to any agreement between such holders and Issuer, including the Other Registration Rights Agreement, (ii) second, any other securities of Issuer, including Registrable Securities, proposed to be included in such registration pro rata among the holders thereof, including the Holders. Any securities excluded from such registration shall be withdrawn from and shall not be included in such Requested Registration.

2. Piggyback Registrations.

(a) Right to Include Registrable Securities. Notwithstanding any limitation contained in Section 1, if Issuer at any time proposes after the date hereof to effect a Piggyback Registration, it will each such time give prompt written notice (a "Notice of Piggyback Registration") to all Holders of Registrable Securities of its intention to do so and of such Holders' rights under this Section 2, which Notice of Piggyback Registration shall include a description of the intended method of disposition of such securities. Upon the written request of any such Holder made within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a Notice of Piggyback Registration (which request shall specify the Registrable Securities intended to be disposed of by such holder and the intended method of disposition thereof), Issuer will use all commercially reasonable efforts to include in the registration statement relating to such Piggyback Registration all Registrable Securities which Issuer has been so requested to register. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, at any time after giving a Notice of Piggyback Registration and prior to the effective date of the registration statement filed in connection with such registration, Issuer shall determine for any reason not to register or to delay registration of such securities, Issuer may, at its election, give written notice of such determination to each holder of Registrable Securities and, thereupon, (i) in the case of a determination not to register, shall be relieved of its obligation to register any Registrable Securities in connection with such registration (but not from its obligation to pay the Registration Expenses in connection therewith), without prejudice, however, to the rights of any Requesting Holder entitled to do so to request that such registration be effected as a Requested Registration under Section 1, and (ii) in the case of a determination to delay registering, shall be permitted to delay registering any Registrable Securities for the same period as the delay in registering such other securities. No registration effected under this Section 2 shall relieve Issuer of its obligations to effect a Requested Registration under Section 1.

(b) Registration Expenses. Issuer will pay all Registration Expenses incurred in connection with each Piggyback Registration.

(c) Priority in Cutback Registrations. If a Piggyback Registration becomes a Cutback Registration, Issuer will include in such registration to the extent of the amount of the securities which the Managing Underwriter advises Issuer can be sold in such offering:

(i) if such registration involves a primary offering of Issuer's securities, (x) first, the securities proposed by Issuer to be sold for its own account, and (y) second any other securities of Issuer, including Registrable Securities, proposed to be included in such registration pro rata among the holders thereof, including the Holders; and

(ii) if such registration does not involve a primary offering, (X) first, any securities of Issuer proposed to be included in such registration in accordance with the priorities then existing among Issuer and such holders thereof pursuant to any agreement between such holders and Issuer, including securities under the Other Registration Rights Agreement, and (y) second, any other securities of Issuer to be included in such registration shall be allocated among the holders thereof pro rata on the basis of the number of securities, including Registrable Securities, requested to be included by such holders, including the Holders.

Any securities excluded from such registration shall be withdrawn from and shall not be included in such Piggyback Registration.

3. Registration Procedures. If and whenever Issuer is required to use all commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration of any Registrable Securities under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 1 or Section 2, Issuer will use all commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration and sale of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended methods of disposition thereof specified by the Requesting Holders. Without limiting the foregoing, Issuer in each such case will, as expeditiously as possible:

(a) prepare and file with the Commission the requisite registration statement to effect such registration and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective as soon as practicable, provided that as far in advance as practical before filing such registration statement or any amendment or supplement thereto, Issuer will furnish to the Requesting Holders copies of reasonably complete drafts of all such documents proposed to be filed (including exhibits);

(b) prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and any prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement, in accordance with the intended methods of disposition thereof, until the earlier of (i) such time as all of such securities have been disposed of in accordance with the intended methods of disposition by the seller or sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement and (ii) two hundred and seventy (270) days after such registration statement becomes effective;

(c) promptly notify each Requesting Holder and the underwriter or underwriters, if any:

(i) when such registration statement or any prospectus used in connection therewith, or any amendment or supplement thereto, has been filed and, with respect to such registration statement or any post effective amendment thereto, when the same has become effective;

(ii) of any written request by the Commission for amendments or supplements to such registration statement or prospectus;

(iii) of the notification to Issuer by the Commission of its initiation of any proceeding with respect to the issuance by the Commission of, or of the issuance by the Commission of, any stop order suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement; and

(iv) of the receipt by Issuer of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of any Registrable Securities for sale under the applicable securities or blue sky laws of any jurisdiction;

(d) furnish to each seller of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement such number of conformed copies of such registration statement and of each amendment and supplement thereto (in each case including all exhibits and documents incorporated by reference), such number of copies of the prospectus contained in such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus and any summary prospectus) and any other prospectus filed under Rule 424 promulgated under the

Securities Act relating to such holder's Registrable Securities, and such other documents, as such seller may reasonably request to facilitate the disposition of its Registrable Securities;

(e) use all commercially reasonable efforts to register or qualify all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as each holder thereof shall reasonably request, to keep such registration or qualification in effect for so long as such registration statement remains in effect, and take any other action which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable such Holder to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions, of the Registrable Securities owned by such Holder, except that Issuer shall not for any such purpose be required (i) to qualify generally to do business as a foreign corporation in any jurisdiction wherein it would not but for the requirements of this paragraph (e)
be obligated to be so qualified, (ii) to subject itself to taxation in any such jurisdiction or (iii) to consent to general service of process in any jurisdiction;

(f) use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement to be registered with or approved by such other governmental agencies or authorities as may be necessary to enable each Holder thereof to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Securities;

(g) upon the request of (a) the Managing Underwriter, or (b) those Requesting Holders who hold at least a majority of the Registrable Securities to be included in a Requested Registration, effect a stock split in respect of the Common Stock by means of a stock dividend on the Common Stock or a subdivision of the Common Stock, or a combination of the Common Stock, such stock split or combination to be in form, scope and substance satisfactory to the Managing Underwriter or such Requesting Holders, as the case may be;

(h) use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a comfort letter or comfort letters from the Issuer's independent public accountants in customary form and covering such maters of the type customarily covered by comfort letters as the Requesting Holders who hold at least a majority of the Registrable Securities to be included in a Requesting Registration or the Managing Underwriter reasonably request;

(i) notify each holder of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement, at any time when a prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event as a result of which any prospectus included in such registration statement, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and at the request of any such holder promptly prepare and furnish to such holder a reasonable number of copies of a supplement to or an amendment of such prospectus as may be necessary so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such securities, such prospectus shall not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading:

(j) otherwise use all commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission, and make available to its securityholders, as soon as reasonably practicable, an earnings statement covering the period of at least twelve (12) months, but not more than eighteen (18) months, beginning with the first full calendar month after the effective date of such registration statement, which earnings statement shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 promulgated thereunder;

(k) make available for inspection by any Requesting Holder, any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to such registration statement and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such seller or underwriter (collectively, the "Inspectors"), all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of Issuer (collectively, the "Records") as shall be reasonably necessary to enable them to exercise any due diligence responsibility, and cause Issuer's officers, directors and employees to supply all information reasonably requested by any such Inspector in connection with such registration statement, and permit the Inspectors to participate in the preparation of such registration statement and any prospectus contained herein and any amendment or supplement thereto.

(l) provide a transfer agent and registrar for all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement not later than the effective date of such registration statement; and

(m) use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement to be listed, upon official notice of issuance, on any securities exchange on which any of the securities of the same class as the Registrable Securities are then listed.

Issuer may require each Holder of Registrable Securities as to which any registration is being effected to, and each such Holder, as a condition to including Registrable Securities in such registration, shall, furnish Issuer with such information and affidavits regarding such Holder and the distribution of such securities as Issuer may from time to time reasonably request in writing in connection with such registration; provided, however, that Issuer will not file any registration statement under the Securities Act which refers to any Holder of any Registrable Securities by name or otherwise as the Holder of any securities of Issuer, unless it shall first have given to such Holder the right to require (a

---
the insertion therein of language, in form and substance satisfactory to such Holder, to the effect that the holding by such Holder of such securities does not make such holder a "controlling person" of Issuer within the meaning of the Securities Act and is not to be construed as a recommendation by such holder of the investment quality of the Issuer's debt or equity securities covered thereby and that such holding does not imply that such Holder will assist in meeting any future financial requirements of Issuer, or (b) in the event that such reference to such Holder by name or otherwise is not required by the Securities Act or any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the deletion of the reference to such Holder; provided that such Holder shall furnish to Issuer an opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to Issuer to such effect.
---

Each Holder of Registrable Securities agrees by acquisition of such Registrable Securities that upon receipt of any notice from Issuer of the happening of any event of the kind described in paragraph (b), such Holder will
forthwith discontinue such Holder's disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to the registration statement relating to such Registrable Securities until such Holder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by paragraph (b) and, if so directed by Issuer, will deliver to Issuer (at Issuer's expense) all copies, other than permanent file copies, then in such Holder's possession of the prospectus relating to such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice. and including the date when each Holder of any Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement shall receive the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by paragraph (b).

4. Underwritten Offerings.

(a) Underwritten Requested Offerings. In the case of any underwritten Public Offering being effected pursuant to a Requested Registration, the Managing Underwriter and any other underwriter or underwriters with respect to such offering shall be selected, after consultation with Issuer, by the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to be included in such underwritten offering with the consent of Issuer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Issuer shall enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form with such underwriter or underwriters, which shall include, among other provisions, indemnities to the effect and to the extent provided in Section 6. The Holders of Registrable Securities to be distributed by such
---
- ---------
underwriters shall be parties to such underwriting agreement and may, at their option (if permitted by the underwriters), require that any or all of the representations and warranties by, and the other agreements on the part of, Issuer to and for the benefit of such underwriters also be made to and for their benefit and that any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such underwriters under such underwriting agreement also be conditions precedent to their obligations. No Holder of Registrable Securities shall be required to make any representations or warranties to or agreements with Issuer or the underwriters other than representations, warranties or agreements regarding such Holder and its ownership of the securities being registered on its behalf and such Holder's intended method of distribution and any other representation required by law. No Requesting Holder may participate in such underwritten offering unless such Holder agrees to sell its Registrable Securities on the basis provided in such underwriting agreement and completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting agreement. If any Requesting Holder disapproves of the terms of an underwriting, such Holder may elect to withdraw therefrom and from such registration by notice to Issuer and the Managing Underwriter, and each of the remaining Requesting Holders shall be entitled to increase the number of Registrable Securities being registered to the extent of the Registrable Securities so withdrawn in the proportion which the number of Registrable Securities being registered by such remaining Requesting Holder bears to the total number of Registrable Securities being registered by all such remaining Requesting Holders.

(b) Underwritten Piggyback Offerings. If Issuer at any time proposes to register any of its securities in a Piggyback Registration and such securities are to be distributed by or through one or more underwriters, Issuer will, subject to the provisions of Section 2(c), use its all commercially reasonable efforts to arrange for such underwriters to include the Registrable Securities to be offered and sold by Requesting Holders among the securities to be distributed by such underwriters, and such Holders shall be obligated to sell their Registrable Securities in such Piggyback Registration through such underwriters on the same terms and conditions as apply to the other Issuer securities to be sold by such underwriters in connection with such Piggyback Registration. The holders of Registrable Securities to be distributed by such underwriters shall be parties to the underwriting agreement between Issuer and such underwriter or underwriters and may, at their option (if permitted by the underwriters), require that any or all of the representations and warranties by, and the other agreements on the part of, Issuer to and for the benefit of such underwriters also be made to and for their benefit and that any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such underwriters under such underwriting agreement also be conditions precedent to their obligations. No Requesting Holder may participate in such underwritten offering unless such Holder agrees to sell its Registrable Securities on the basis provided in such underwriting agreement and completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting agreement. If any Requesting Holder disapproves of the terms of an underwriting, such Holder may elect to withdraw therefrom and from such registration by notice to Issuer and the Managing Underwriter, and each of the remaining Requesting Holders shall be entitled to increase the number of Registrable Securities being registered to the extent of the Registrable Securities so withdrawn in the proportion which the number of Registrable Securities being registered by such remaining Requesting Holder bears to the total number of Registrable Securities being registered by all such remaining Requesting Holders.

5. Holdback Agreements By Issuer and Other Securityholders and Right to Defer Filing.

(a) Holdbacks. Unless the Managing Underwriter otherwise agrees, Issuer and each Holder of Registrable Securities agrees not to effect any public sale or distribution of its equity securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities, during the fourteen (14) days prior to and the one hundred and eighty (180) days after the effective date of the registration statement filed in connection with an underwritten offering made pursuant to a Requested Registration (or for such shorter period of time as is sufficient and appropriate, in the opinion of the Managing Underwriter, in order to complete the sale and distribution of the securities included in such registration), except as part of such underwritten registration and except pursuant to registrations on Form S-4 or Form S-8 promulgated by the Commission or any successor or similar forms thereto.

(b) Deferral of Filing. The Issuer may defer the filing of a registration statement required by Section 1 hereunder for a period of 180 days if (i) at the time the Issuer receives a Registration Request, the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries are engaged in confidential negotiations or other confidential business activities, disclosure of which would be required in such registration statement (but would not be required if such registration statement were not filed), and the Board of Directors of the Issuer determines in good faith that such disclosure would be materially detrimental to the Issuer and its stockholders, or (ii) Issuer had received, prior to receiving the Registration Request, a request to register securities of the Issuer from a different holder thereof having priority as to registration over the Holders of Registrable Securities (a "preferred request") and is proceeding with reasonable diligence to comply with the preferred request, or (iii) prior to receiving the Registration Request, the Board of Directors had determined to effect a registered underwritten public offering of the Issuer's equity securities for the Issuer's account and the Issuer had taken substantial steps (including, without limitation, selecting and entering into a letter of intent with the managing underwriter for such offering) and is proceeding with reasonable diligence to effect such offering. A deferral of the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 5(b) shall be lifted, and the requested registration statement shall be filed forthwith, if, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (i) of the preceding sentence, the negotiations or other activities are disclosed or terminated, or, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence, the preferred request is withdrawn, or in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (iii) of the preceding sentence, the proposed registration for the Issuer's account is abandoned. In order to defer the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 5(b), the Issuer shall promptly, upon determining to seek such deferral, deliver to each Requesting Holder a certificate signed by the President of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is deferring such filing pursuant to this Section 5(b) and the basis therefor in reasonable detail. Within 20 days after receiving such certificate the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities held by the Requesting Holders and for which registration was previously requested may withdraw such request by giving notice to the Issuer. If withdrawn, the Registration Request shall be deemed not to have been made for all purposes of this Agreement.

6. Indemnification.

(a) Indemnification by Issuer. Issuer shall, to the full extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless each seller of Registrable Securities included in any registration statement filed in connection with a Requested Registration or a Piggyback Registration, its directors and officers, and each other Person, if any, who controls any such seller within the meaning of the Securities Act, against any losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities, joint or several (together, "Losses"), to which such seller or any such director or officer or controlling Person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such Losses (or actions or proceedings, whether commenced or threatened, in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in any such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus, final prospectus or summary prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, and Issuer will reimburse such seller and each such director, officer and controlling Person for any legal or any other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with investigating or defending any such Loss (or action or proceeding in respect thereof); provided that Issuer shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such Loss (or action or proceeding in respect thereof) arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in any such registration statement, preliminary prospectus, final prospectus, summary prospectus, amendment or supplement in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to Issuer through an instrument duly executed by such seller specifically stating that it is for use in the preparation thereof. Such indemnity shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of such seller or any such director, officer or controlling Person, and shall survive the transfer of such securities by such seller. Issuer shall also indemnify each other Person who participates (including as an underwriter) in the offering or sale of Registrable Securities, their officers and directors and each other Person, if any, who controls any such participating Person within the meaning of the Securities Act to the same extent as provided above with respect to sellers of Registrable Securities.
---

(b) Indemnification by the Sellers. Each Holder of Registrable

Securities which are included or are to be included in any registration statement filed in connection with a Requested Registration or a Piggyback Registration, as a condition to including Registrable Securities in such registration statement, shall, to the full extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless Issuer, its directors and officers, and each other Person, if any, who controls Issuer within the meaning of the Securities Act, against any

Losses to which Issuer or any such director or officer or controlling Person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such Losses (or actions or proceedings, whether commenced or threatened, in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in any such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus, final prospectus or summary prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, if such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to Issuer through an instrument duly executed by such seller specifically stating that it is for use in the preparation of such registration statement, preliminary prospectus, final prospectus, summary prospectus, amendment or supplement; provided however, that the obligation to provide indemnification pursuant to this Section 6(b) shall be several, and not joint and several, among such Indemnifying Parties and the aggregate amount which may be recovered from any holder of Registrable Securities pursuant to the indemnification provided for in this Section 6(b) in connection with any registration and sale of Registrable Securities shall be limited to the total proceeds received by such holder from the sale of such Registrable Securities. Such indemnity shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of Issuer or any such director, officer or controlling Person and shall survive the transfer of such securities by such seller. Such holders shall also indemnify each other Person who participates (including as an underwriter) in the offering or sale of Registrable Securities, their officers and directors and each other Person, if any, who controls any such participating Person within the meaning of the Securities Act to the same extent as provided above with respect to Issuer.

(c) Notices of Claims, etc. Promptly after receipt by an Indemnified Party of notice of the commencement of any action or proceeding involving a claim referred to in the preceding paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section 6, such Indemnified Party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against an Indemnifying Party pursuant to such paragraphs, give written notice to the latter of the commencement of such action, provided that the failure of any Indemnified Party to give notice as provided herein shall not relieve the Indemnifying of its obligations under the preceding paragraphs of this Section 6, except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced by such failure to give notice. In case any such action is brought against an Indemnified Party, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to participate in and, unless, in the reasonable judgment of any Indemnified Party, a conflict of interest between such Indemnified Party and any Indemnifying Party exists with respect to such claim, to assume the defense thereof, jointly with any other Indemnifying Party similarly notified to the extent that it may wish, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party, and after notice from the Indemnifying Party to such Indemnified Party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Party for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the latter in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation; provided that the Indemnified Party may participate in such defense at the Indemnified Party's expense; and provided further that the Indemnified Party or Indemnified Parties shall have the right to employ one counsel to represent it or them if, in the reasonable judgment of the Indemnified Party or Indemnified Parties, it is advisable for it or them to be represented by separate counsel by reason of having legal defenses which are different from or in addition to those available to the Indemnifying Party, and in that event the reasonable fees and expenses of such one counsel shall be paid by the indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifying Party is not entitled to, or elects not to, assume the defense of a claim, it will not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for the Indemnified Parties with respect to such claim, unless in the reasonable judgment of any Indemnified Party a conflict of interest may exist between such Indemnified Party and any other Indemnified Parties with respect to such claim, in which event the Indemnifying Party shall be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of such additional counsel for the Indemnified Parties or counsels. No Indemnifying Party shall consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement without the consent of the Indemnified Party which does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such Indemnified Party of a release from all liability in respect to such claim or litigation. No Indemnifying Party shall be subject to any liability for any settlement made without its consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(d) Contribution. If the indemnity and reimbursement obligation provided for in any paragraph of this Section 6 is unavailable or insufficient to hold harmless an Indemnified Party in respect of any Losses (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to therein, then the Indemnifying Party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by the Indemnified Party as a result of such Losses (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Indemnifying Party on the one hand and the Indemnified Party on the other hand in connection with statements or omissions which resulted in such Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Indemnifying Party or the Indemnified Party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such untrue statement or omission. The parties hereto agree that it would not be just and equitable if contributions pursuant to this paragraph were to be determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph. The amount paid by an Indemnified Party as a result of the Losses referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph shall be deemed to include any legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating or defending any Loss which is the subject of this paragraph.

No Indemnified Party guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from the Indemnifying Party if the Indemnifying Party was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(e) Other Indemnification. Indemnification similar to that specified in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 6 (with appropriate modifications) shall be given by Issuer and each seller of Registrable Securities with respect to any required registration or other qualification of securities under any federal or state law or regulation of any governmental authority other than the Securities Act. The provisions of this Section 6 shall be in addition to any other rights to indemnification or contribution which an Indemnified Party may have pursuant to law, equity, contract or otherwise.

(f) Indemnification Payments. The indemnification required by this Section 6 shall be made by periodic payments of the amount thereof during the course of the investigation or defense, as and when bills are received or Losses are incurred.

7. Covenants Relating to Rule 144 and 144A. If at any time Issuer is required to file reports in compliance with either

Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, Issuer will file reports in compliance with the Exchange Act, will comply with all rules and regulations of the Commission applicable in connection with the use of Rule 144 and take such other actions and furnish such holder with such other information as such Holder may request in order to avail itself of such rule or any other rule or regulation of the Commission allowing such holder to sell any Registrable Securities without registration, and will, at its expense, forthwith upon the request of any Holder of Registrable Securities, deliver to such holder a certificate, signed by Issuer's principal financial officer, stating (a) Issuer's name, address and telephone number (including area code), (b) Issuer's Internal Revenue Service identification number, (c) Issuer's Commission file number, (d) the number of shares of each class of Stock outstanding as shown by the most recent report or statement published by Issuer, and (e) whether Issuer has filed the reports required to be filed under the Exchange Act for a period of at least ninety (90) days prior to the date of such certificate and in addition has filed the most recent annual report required to be filed thereunder. If at any time Issuer is not required to file reports in compliance with either Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, Issuer at its expense will, forthwith upon the written request of the holder of any Registrable Securities, make available adequate current public information with respect to Issuer within the meaning of paragraph (c)(2) of Rule 144.

With a view to making available to each Holder of Registrable Securities the benefits of certain rules and regulations of the Commission which may permit the sale of the Registrable Securities to the public without registration, Issuer agrees that so long as a Holder owns any Registrable Securities, each Holder of Registrable Securities and each prospective Holder of Registrable Securities who may consider acquiring Registrable Securities in reliance upon Rule 144A shall have the right to request from Issuer, and Issuer will provide upon request, such information regarding Issuer and its business, assets and properties, if any, as is at the time required to be made available by Issuer under Rule 144A so as to enable such Holder to transfer Registrable Securities to such prospective Holder in reliance upon Rule 144A.

(k) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois applicable to a contract executed and performed in such State, without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

(l) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Agreement as of the date first above written.

January 31, 1992

The Parties to the Investor Warrant Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992.

Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel to Associated Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Holdings"), in connection with the authorization, execution and delivery of the Investor Warrant Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 (the "Warrant Agreement") between Holdings and Boise Cascade Corporation ("Boise Cascade") and the other parties named therein. All capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the respective meanings given to such terms in the Warrant Agreement.

In so acting, we have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of the Warrant Agreement and such corporate records, agreements, documents, and other instruments, and such certificates or comparable documents of public officials and of officers and representatives of Holdings, and have made such inquiries of such officers and representatives as we have deemed relevant and necessary as a basis for the opinion hereinafter set forth.

In such examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of documents submitted to us as certified or photostatic copies and the authenticity of the originals of such latter documents. As to all questions of fact material to this opinion that have not been independently established, we have relied upon certificates or comparable documents of officers and representatives of Holdings, and upon the representations and warranties of Holdings contained in the Agreement.

Based on the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications stated herein, we are of the opinion that:

1. Holdings is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware.

2. Holdings has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the Warrant Agreement, the Investor Warrants for 23,129 shares of Class A Common Stock of Holdings (the "Warrant") issued to Boise Cascade (the "Warrants") and the Investor Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of January 31, 1992 between Holdings and Boise Cascade (the "Registration Agreement"), and to perform its obligations thereunder. The execution, delivery and performance by Holdings of the Warrant Agreement, the Warrants and the Registration Agreement, and the consummation by Holdings of the transactions contemplated thereby, have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Holdings. The Warrant Agreement, the Warrants and the Registration Agreement have been duly and validly executed and delivered by Holdings and (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by the other parties thereto) constitute legal, valid, and binding obligations of Holding, enforceable against it in accordance with their respective terms subject to (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws generally affecting creditors' rights and remedies; (ii) general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith, and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity); (iii) the availability or efficacy of specific performance, injunctive relief or any other equitable remedies; and (iv) except to the extent that rights to indemnification thereunder may be limited by federal or state securities laws or public policy relating thereto.

3. The authorized capital stock of Holdings consists of 5,000,000 share of Class A Common Stock, $0.01 par value per share, 5,000,000 of Class B Common Stock, $0.01 par value per share, 15,000 shares of Class A Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value per share, 15,000 shares of Class B Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value per share, 15,000 shares of Class C Preferred Stock $0.01 par value per share, and 200,000 shares of Additional Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value per share. As of the date hereof, Holdings has outstanding (i) 896,258 shares of Class A Common Stock; (ii) 5,000 shares of Class A Preferred Stock; (iii) 5,000 shares of Class B Preferred Stock; and (iv) 7,500 shares of Class C Preferred Stock. All such shares of capital stock of Holdings outstanding as of the Closing are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable, provided that we do not express any opinion as to whether the 46,258 shares of
- --------
Common Stock issued to Good Capital Co., Inc. and Cumberland Capital Corporation, collectively, pursuant to Investment Banking Fee and Management

Agreements with such parties are validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

Our opinions expressed above are limited to the laws of the State of Illinois, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the Federal laws of the United States of America. Partner of this Firm are members of the Bar of the State of Illinois, and we do not hold ourselves out as being conversant with, and do not express any opinion as to, laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the United States of America, the State of Illinois and the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. Our opinions are rendered only with respect to the laws, and the rules, regulations and orders thereunder, which currently are in effect.

January 31, 1992

This opinion is provided to you and rendered solely for your benefit in connection with entering into the Agreement. This opinion may not be used or relied upon by any other person or for any other purpose and may not be disclosed, quoted, filed with a governmental agency or otherwise referred to without our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION
ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC.

THE UNDERSIGNED, in order to form a corporation for the purposes hereinafter stated, under and pursuant to the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, does hereby certify as following:

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the Corporation is Associated Holdings, Inc.

ARTICLE TWO

The registered office of the Corporation is to be located at 1209 Orange Street in the City of Wilmington in the County of New Castle, in the State of Delaware. The name of its registered agent at that address is the Corporation Trust Company.

ARTICLE THREE

The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a corporation may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

ARTICLE FOUR

The total number of shares of all classes of stock which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is 10,245,000 shares, consisting of (a) 15,000 shares of a class designated as Class A Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Class A Preferred Stock"); (b) 15,000 shares of a class designated as Class B Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Class B Preferred Stock"); (c) 15,000 shares of a class designated as Class C Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 (the "Class C Preferred Stock"); (d) 200,000 shares of a class of preferred stock, par value of $0.01 per share, as to which the Board of Directors shall have the authority set forth in Article Five (the "Additional Preferred Stock"); (e) 5,000,000 shares of a class designated as Class A Common Stock, par value of $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"); and (f) 5,000,000 shares of a class designated as Class B Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Nonvoting Common Stock").

The following is a statement of the designations and the powers, preferences, and rights and the qualifications, limitations, and restrictions of the Class A Preferred Stock, Class B Preferred Stock, Class C Preferred Stock, Common Stock, and Nonvoting Common Stock:

I. Terms Applicable to the Class A Preferred Stock.

1.1 Dividends. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 1.1(b), 1.2(f), and 1.2(h) the holders of Class A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation out of funds legally available for such purpose, dividends on the outstanding shares of Class A Preferred Stock at the Class A Preferred Dividend Rate, payable on each Preferred Dividend Payment Date to holders of record as they appear on the stock transfer books of the Corporation on such record dates, not more than 60 days nor less than 10 days preceding the payment dates for such dividends, as are fixed by the Board of Directors (or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, a duly authorized committee thereof). Such dividends shall be cumulative and shall accrue with respect to each share of Class A Preferred Stock, whether or not declared, whether or not restricted by the terms of the Debt Agreements or otherwise pursuant to the provisions hereof, and whether or not there are funds legally available for the payment thereof until paid. The dividends on the Class A Preferred Stock may be declared payable in cash or in additional shares of Class A Preferred Stock valued at $1,000 per share, in the discretion of the Board of Directors. No other dividends may be declared or paid to the holders of Class A Preferred Stock. All dividends declared by the Board of Directors upon shares of Class A Preferred Stock in accordance with this Section 1.1(a) shall be declared and paid pro rata with respect to all shares of Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding.

(b) If at any time the Corporation shall have failed to pay any accumulated dividends on any shares of Class A Preferred Stock on any Preferred Dividend Payment Date as provided above, or if at any time the Corporation shall have failed to redeem shares of Class A Preferred Stock as required by Section 1.2(a) for any reason, the Corporation shall not

(i) declare or pay any dividend on any Junior Shares or make any payment on account of, or set apart money for, a sinking or other analogous fund for the purchase, redemption or other retirement of any Junior Shares or make any distribution with respect thereto, either directly or indirectly and whether in cash or property or in obligations or shares (other than in Junior Shares) of the Corporation or any Subsidiary,

(ii) purchase any shares of Class A Preferred Stock (except for a consideration payable in Junior Shares) or redeem fewer than all of the shares of Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding, or unless, at the time of any such dividend, payment, distribution, purchase or redemption, all accrued and unpaid dividends on shares of Class A Preferred Stock are contemporaneously paid in full in cash or additional shares of Class A Preferred Stock and all shares of Class A Preferred Stock which the Corporation shall have so failed to redeem are contemporaneously redeemed.

(iii) permit any Subsidiary to purchase any Junior Shares or permit any Subsidiary to purchase fewer than all of the shares of Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding,

1.2 Redemption.

(a) Scheduled Redemption. Subject to any limitations contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, the Corporation shall redeem all, but not less than all, shares of Class A Preferred Stock on July 31, 1999, out of funds legally available for such purpose, at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price.

(b) Mandatory Redemption. Subject to any limitations contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, in the event of the occurrence of a Cash-Out Event, the Corporation agrees, at the election of any holder of then outstanding shares of Class A Preferred Stock made as set forth in Section 1.2(i) below, to redeem all, but not less than all, of such holder's shares of Class A Preferred

Stock then outstanding, out of funds legally available for such purpose, at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price therefor. If pursuant to such Cash-Out Event the holders of Common Stock of the Corporation receive cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, then, at the option of the Corporation, the Corporation may, in lieu of the cash redemption contemplated in the immediately preceding sentence, redeem such Class A Preferred Stock by converting each such share into such cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, in the same proportions as the holders of Common Stock of the Corporation so receive, the value of which shall equal the Redemption Price.

(c) Redemptions at Option of Corporation. At any time, and from time to time, the Corporation may, at its election, redeem, out of funds legally available for such purpose, any portion or all of the Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price. Any redemption of shares pursuant to this Section 1.2(c) will be made ratably (as nearly as practicable) among the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock based upon the number of shares held by each such holder.

(d) Optional Redemption through Note Exchange.

(i) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (iv) of this Section 1.2(d), at the option of the Corporation, the Corporation may, at any time out of funds legally available for such purpose, redeem all, but not less than all, shares of the Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding in exchange for, and through the issue by the Corporation in the manner provided in this subdivision of, Class A Exchange Notes to be issued under the Class A Indenture. Such exchange, if any, shall be a redemption of the Class A Preferred Stock in exchange for the Class A Exchange Notes. The Class A Exchange Notes issued to each holder shall be in an aggregate principal amount equal to the Liquidation Value of the shares of Class A Preferred Stock redeemed by the Corporation in exchange therefor.

(ii) Not more than 60 nor less than 30 days prior to the exchange date, the Corporation shall mail irrevocable written notice, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, to each record holder (and, to the extent such holder is a corporation, to the attention of its Chief Executive Officer and its Corporate Secretary), specifying the exchange date and the time and place where certificates representing shares of Class A Preferred Stock are to be surrendered for Class A Exchange Notes. Upon mailing such notice, the Corporation will be obliged to redeem all shares of Class A Preferred Stock in exchange for the Class A Exchange Notes on the exchange date specified in such notice. Upon surrender in accordance with such notice of the certificates evidencing any shares of Class A Preferred Stock so exchanged (properly endorsed or signed for transfer, if the Corporation shall require and the notice shall so state), the Corporation will cause the Class A Exchange Notes to be authenticated and issued in exchange for such shares of Class A Preferred Stock and to be mailed to the holder of the shares of Class A Preferred Stock at such holder's address of record or such other address as the holder shall specify upon such surrender of such certificates.

(iii) On the exchange date, (A) the shares of Class A Preferred Stock subject to such exchange and redemption shall cease to be entitled to any dividends accruing after the exchange date, (B) all rights of the respective holders of such shares, as stockholders of the Corporation by reason of the ownership of such shares, except the right to receive the Class A Exchange Notes upon surrender (and endorsement, if required by the Corporation) of the respective certificates representing such shares, shall cease, (C) such shares shall cease to be outstanding, and (D) the person or persons entitled to receive the Class A Exchange Notes issuable upon such exchange shall be treated for all purposes as the registered holder or holders of Class A Exchange Notes: provided, however, that interest shall not begin to accrue on any such Class A Exchange Note issuable to a holder of Class A Preferred Stock until such time as such holder surrenders the certificate or certificates evidencing such shares of Class A Preferred Stock.

(iv) The Corporation may redeem shares of Class A Preferred Stock in exchange for Class A Exchange Notes only if, on the Exchange Date, (x) the Corporation has paid all accrued dividends on all outstanding shares of Class A Preferred Stock and (y) the Class A Indenture shall be executed and delivered by the Corporation and the trustee thereunder.

(e) Redemption Price. For each share of Class A Preferred Stock which is to be redeemed for cash the Corporation will be obligated on the Redemption Date to pay to the holder thereof (upon surrender of the certificate representing such share to the Corporation's stock transfer agent, or if none, to the Corporation at its principal office) an amount in cash equal to the Redemption Price. If the funds of the Corporation legally available for redemption of shares of Class A Preferred Stock on any Redemption Date are insufficient to redeem the total number of shares to be redeemed on such date, those funds which are legally available shall be used to redeem the maximum possible number of shares ratably (as nearly as practicable) among the holders of the shares to be redeemed based upon the aggregate Redemption Price of such shares held by each such holder. As and when additional funds of the Corporation are legally available for the redemption of shares, such funds shall as soon as practicable be used to redeem the balance of the shares which the Corporation has become obligated to redeem on any Redemption Date.

(f) Dividends after Redemption Date. Subject to any limitations contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, no share of Class A Preferred Stock is entitled to any dividends accruing after the redemption of such share. Subject to any limitations contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, on the date of such redemption dividends will cease to accrue, all rights of the holder of such share as such holder will cease, and such shares will be deemed not to be outstanding.

(g) Redeemed or Otherwise Acquired Shares. Any shares of Class A Preferred Stock which are redeemed or otherwise acquired by the Corporation will be retired and cancelled and may not be reissued.

(h) Restrictions on Dividends and Redemptions. Notwithstanding anything in this ARTICLE FOUR to the contrary, no dividend payment or other distribution or redemption may be made with respect to Class A Preferred Stock if such payment or other distribution or redemption will be in contravention of the restrictions or limitations on such payments or other distributions or redemptions contained in (i) this ARTICLE FOUR, (ii) the Debt Agreements, (iii) the Subordinated Note, or (iv) any and all applicable state or federal laws, rules, and regulations or in any and all orders of any state or federal governmental authority.

(i) Redemption Methods.

(i) In order to effect a redemption under either Section 1.2(a) or 1.2(c) above, the Corporation shall deliver written notice, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, to the holders of record (and, to the extent any such holder is a corporation, to the attention of its Chief Executive Officer and its Corporate Secretary) of the shares to be redeemed, addressed to such holders at their last addresses as shown on the stock transfer books of the Corporation. Each such notice of redemption shall specify the date fixed for redemption (to be a date not less than 30 days from the date of such notice), the Redemption Price, places of payment, that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing shares to be redeemed and that on and after the date of such redemption (or such earlier date as permitted hereunder) dividends will cease to accumulate on such shares. Any notice which is mailed as herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given when mailed, and failure to give such notice by mail, or any defect in such notice, to the holders of any shares designated for redemption shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other shares to be redeemed on or after the date fixed for redemption as stated in such notice. Each holder of the shares called for redemption shall surrender its certificate or certificates evidencing such shares to the Corporation at the place designated in such notice and shall thereupon be entitled to receive payment of the Redemption Price in cash, with respect to any redemption under Sections 1.2(a) or 1.2(c). If less than all shares evidenced by any such surrendered certificate are redeemed, a new certificate shall be issued evidencing the unredeemed shares.

(ii) In order to effect a redemption under Section 1.2(b) above, within 30 days after the date of the occurrence of a Cash-Out Event the Corporation shall deliver notice by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, to the holders of record (and, to the extent such holder is a corporation, to the attention of its Chief Executive Officer and its Corporate Secretary) of the shares to be redeemed, addressed to such holders at their last addresses as shown on the stock transfer books of the Corporation. Each such notice of redemption shall specify the date fixed for redemption (to be a date not less than 30 days from the date of such notice), the Redemption Price, places of payment, that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing shares to be redeemed, a description in reasonable detail of the applicable Cash-Out Event giving rise to the redemption, and a description in reasonable detail of any Marketable Securities to be included, and that on or after the date of such redemption (or such earlier date as permitted hereunder) dividends will cease to accumulate on such shares. Any notice which is mailed as herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given when mailed, and failure to give such notice by mail, or any defect in such notice, to the holders of any shares designated for redemption shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other shares to be redeemed on or after the date fixed for redemption as stated in such notice. Each holder of the shares called for redemption who elects to exercise the right of redemption under Section 1.2(b) above must surrender its certificate or certificates evidencing all such shares to the Corporation on or before the date set for redemption and at the place designated in the Corporation's notice and shall thereupon be entitled to receive payment of the Redemption Price in cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, as applicable. Any failure on the part of any holder notified as provided above to surrender such certificate or certificates on or before the date set for redemption at the place designated for redemption as provided above, shall be conclusively deemed to have not elected to redeem such holder's shares under and pursuant to Section 1.2(b) above and shall not be entitled to receive the Redemption Price as provided above.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this ARTICLE FOUR, if on or after the date on which any notice of redemption is first sent to the holders of shares to be redeemed, funds necessary for the redemption shall be available therefor and shall have been irrevocably deposited or set aside, then, notwithstanding that the certificates evidencing any shares so called for redemption shall not have been surrendered, the dividends with respect to the shares so called shall cease to accrue after the date fixed for redemption, the shares shall no longer be deemed outstanding, holders thereof shall cease to be stockholders, and all rights whatsoever with respect to the shares so called for redemption (except the right of the holders to receive the Redemption Price without interest upon surrender of their certificates therefor) shall terminate.

1.3 Voting Rights. Except as set forth below and as otherwise required by law, holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock shall have no voting rights. In connection with any right to vote, each holder of Class A Preferred Stock will have one vote for each share held. Any shares of Class A Preferred Stock held by the Corporation or its subsidiaries shall not have voting rights hereunder and shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum. So long as the Class A Preferred Stock is outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of at least 51% of all outstanding Class A Preferred Stock voting separately as a class:

(a) amend, alter, modify or repeal any provision of this Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation in any manner which affects materially and adversely the relative rights, preferences, qualifications, powers, limitations or restrictions of the Class A Preferred Stock;

(b) increase the authorized number of shares of Preferred Stock of the Corporation, authorize, issue or otherwise create securities convertible into any shares of capital stock of the Corporation other than Junior Shares.

(c) voluntarily effect any reclassification of the Class A Preferred Stock.

Whenever dividends on the Class A Preferred Stock shall be in arrears in an amount equal to at least six quarterly dividends (whether or not consecutive), (i) the number of members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be increased by one, effective as of the time of election of such directors as hereinafter provided and (ii) the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock (voting separately as a class) will have the exclusive right to vote for and elect such one additional director of the Corporation at any meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation at which directors are to be elected held during the period such dividends remain in arrears. The right of the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director shall terminate when all accrued and unpaid dividends on the Class A Preferred Stock have been declared and paid in cash or in additional shares of Class A Preferred Stock or set apart for payment. The term of office of any director so elected shall terminate immediately upon the termination of the right of the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director.

The foregoing right of the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock with respect to the election of one director may be exercised at any annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or at any special meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation held for such purpose. If the right to elect an additional director shall have accrued to the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock more than 90 days preceding the date established for the next annual meeting of stockholders, the President of the Corporation shall, within 20 days after the delivery to the Corporation at its principal office of a written request for a special meeting signed by the holders of at least 10% of the Class A Preferred Stock then outstanding, call a special meeting of the holders of the Class A Preferred Stock to be held within 60 days after the delivery of such request for the purpose of electing such additional directors.

The holders of the Class A Preferred Stock voting as a class shall have the right to remove without cause at any time and replace any director such holders shall have elected pursuant to this Section.

1.4 Liquidation. (a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive the Class A Preferred Liquidation Value of such shares held by them in preference to and in priority over any distributions upon Junior Shares. Upon payment in full to the holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock of the Class A Preferred Liquidation Value of such shares, the holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock shall not be entitled, as such holders, to any further participation in any distribution of assets of the Corporation. If the assets of the Corporation are not sufficient to pay in full the Class A Preferred Liquidation Value payable to the holders of shares of Class A Preferred Stock, the holders of all such shares shall share ratably (to the exclusion of any other holders of capital stock) in such distribution of assets.

(b) Neither a consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other corporation, nor a sale or transfer of all or part of the Corporation's assets for cash, securities or other property, nor a merger of any other corporation with or into the Corporation shall be considered a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation within the meaning of this Section 1.4.

II. Terms Applicable to Class B and Class C Preferred Stock.

2.1 Identical Rights. Except as otherwise provided in this ARTICLE

FOUR, all shares of Class B Preferred Stock and Class C Preferred Stock shall be identical and shall entitle the holders thereof to the same rights and privileges.

2.2 Dividends. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2(b),
---
2.3(f), and 2.3(h), the holders of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation out of funds legally available for such purpose, dividends on the outstanding shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock at the Class B and Class C Preferred Dividend Rates, payable on each nor less than 10 days preceding the payment dates for such dividends, as are fixed by the Board of Directors (or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, a duly authorized committee thereof). Such dividends shall be cumulative and shall accrue with respect to each share of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock, whether or not declared, whether or not restricted by the terms of the Debt Agreements or otherwise pursuant to the provisions hereof, and whether or not there are funds legally available for the payment thereof until paid. The dividends on the Class B and Class C Preferred Stock may be declared payable in cash or in additional shares of the same series of Preferred Stock, in the discretion of the Board of Directors; provided that dividends on Class C Preferred Stock may be payable in additional shares of Class C Preferred Stock only for Dividend Payment Dates occurring on or prior to January 31, 1999. No other dividends may be declared or paid to the holders of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock. All dividends declared by the Board of Directors upon shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock in accordance with this Section 2.2(a) shall be declared and paid pro rata with respect to all shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock then outstanding.

(b) If at any time the Corporation shall have failed to pay any accumulated dividends on any shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock on any Preferred Dividend Payment Date as provided above, or if at any time the Corporation shall have failed to redeem shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock as required by Section 2.3(a) for any reason, the Corporation shall not:

(i) declare or pay any dividend on any Junior Shares or make any payment on account of, or set apart money for, a sinking or other analogous fund for the purchase, redemption or other retirement of any Junior Shares or make any distribution with respect thereto, either directly or indirectly and whether in cash or property or in obligations or shares (other than in Junior Shares) of the Corporation or any Subsidiary,

(ii) purchase any shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock (except for a consideration payable in Junior Shares) or redeem fewer than all of the shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock then outstanding (except in a manner consistent with the last sentence of Section 2.3(c)), or

(iii) permit any Subsidiary to purchase any Junior Shares or permit any Subsidiary to purchase fewer than all of the shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock then outstanding,

unless, at the time of any such dividend payment, distribution, purchase or redemption, all accrued and unpaid dividends on shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock are contemporaneously paid in full in cash or additional shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, and all shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock which the Corporation shall have so failed to redeem are contemporaneously redeemed.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision in this ARTICLE FOUR, the Corporation shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, take any of the actions specified in subsection 2.2(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above in excess of $1 million in the aggregate for all such actions, unless at the time such action is taken:

(i) the Corporation has redeemed for cash all shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock, if any, which have been issued to the holders of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock, respectively, as in-kind dividends on the Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, respectively, pursuant to Section 2.2(a) above;

(ii) the Corporation and its wholly-owned Subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, have common equity computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, after giving effect to any purchases, redemptions, payments, distributions or disbursements under subsection 2.2(b)(i), (ii), or (iii) above, of at least $26 million;

(iii) if any such purchases, redemptions, payments, distributions or disbursements specified in subsection 2.2(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above are to be made on or after July 31, 1999, then all shares of Class B Preferred Stock shall have been redeemed or otherwise retired; and

(iv) if any such purchases, redemptions, payments, distributions or disbursements specified in subsection 2.2(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above are to be made on or after the dates required for redemptions of shares of Class C Preferred Stock pursuant to Section 2.3(c) below, then that portion of such Class C Preferred Stock so required to be redeemed as of such dates shall have been redeemed or otherwise retired;

- ----------
Corporation's obligation to make payments or disbursements for any amount it is obligated to pay under or pursuant to the Warrant Agreement dated January 31, 1992 between the Corporation and Chase Manhattan Investment Holdings, Inc.; and further provided, nothing in this subsection 2.2(c) shall limit the
    ----
Corporation or its Subsidiaries from re-purchasing

Common Stock or options to purchase Common Stock of the Corporation held by any employee of the Corporation or its Subsidiaries in connection with the termination of such employee's employment.

2.3 Redemption.

(a) Scheduled Redemption. Subject to any limitations contained
    ----
elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, the Corporation shall redeem all shares of Class B Preferred Stock on July 31, 1999. The Corporation shall redeem all shares of Class C Preferred Stock by January 31, 2002, such redemption to be made in four equal (as nearly as practicable) quarterly installments of principal on April 30, 2001, July 31, 2001, October 31, 2001, and January 31, 2002. Scheduled redemptions shall be made out of funds legally available for such purpose, at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price.

(b) Mandatory Redemption. Subject to any limitations contained
elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, in the event of the occurrence of a Cash-Out Event, the Corporation agrees, at the election of any holder of then outstanding shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, made as set forth in Section 2.3(i) below, to redeem all, but not less than all, of such holder's shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, then outstanding, out of funds legally available for such purpose, at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price therefor. If pursuant to such Cash-Out Event the holders of Common Stock of the Corporation received cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, then, at the option of the Corporation, the Corporation may, in lieu of the cash redemption contemplated in the immediately preceding sentence, redeem such Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, by converting each such share into such cash, Marketable Securities or a combination thereof, in the same proportions received by the holders of Common Stock of the Corporation, the value of which shall equal the Redemption Price.

(c) Redemptions at Option of Corporation. At any time, and from time to time, the Corporation may, at its election, redeem, out of funds legally available for such purpose, any portion or all of the Class B and Class C Preferred Stock then outstanding at a price per share equal to the Redemption Price. Any redemption of shares pursuant to this Section 2.3(c) will be made ratably (as nearly as practicable) among the holders of the Class B and Class C Preferred Stock based upon the number of shares held by each such holder without distinction between classes.

(d) Optional Redemption through Note Exchange.

(i) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (iv) of this Section 2.3(d), at the option of the Corporation, the Corporation may, at any time out of funds legally available for such purpose, redeem all, but not less than all shares of the Class B and Class C Preferred Stock then outstanding in exchange for, and through the issue by the Corporation in the manner provided in this subdivision of, Class B Exchange Notes (with respect to exchanges of Class B Preferred Stock) and Class C Exchange Notes (with respect to exchanges of Class C Preferred Stock). The Class B Exchange Notes shall be issued under the Class B Indenture and the Class C Exchange Notes shall be issued under the Class C Indenture. The Class B Exchange Notes or Class C Exchange Notes issued to each holder shall be in an aggregate principal amount equal to the Liquidation Value of the shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock redeemed by the Corporation in exchange thereof.

(ii) Not more than 60 nor less than 30 days prior to the exchange date, the Corporation shall mail irrevocable written notice, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, to each record holder (and, to the extent such holder is a corporation, to the attention of its Chief Executive Officer and its Corporate Secretary), specifying the exchange date and the time and place where certificates representing shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock are to be surrendered for Class B and Class C Exchange Notes. Upon mailing such notice, the Corporation will be obliged to redeem all shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock in exchange for the Exchange Notes on the exchange date specified in such notice. Upon surrender in accordance with such notice of the certificates evidencing the shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock so exchanged (properly endorsed or signed for transfer, if the Corporation shall require and the notice shall so state), the Corporation will cause the Class B or Class C Exchange Notes, as applicable, to be authenticated and issued in exchange for such shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock and to be mailed to the holders of the shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock at such holder's address of record or such other address as the holder shall specify on such surrender of such certificates.

(iii) On the exchange date, (A) the shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock subject to such exchange and redemption shall cease to be entitled to any dividends accruing after that date, (B) all rights of the respective holders of such shares, as stockholders of the Corporation by reason of the ownership of such shares, except the right to receive the Class B and Class C Exchange Notes upon surrender (and endorsement, if required by the Corporation) or the respective certificates representing such shares, shall cease, (C) such shares shall cease to be outstanding, and (D) the person or persons entitled to receive the Class B or Class C Exchange Notes, as applicable, issuable upon such exchange shall be treated for all purposes as the registered holder or holders of Class B or Class C Exchange Notes, as applicable; provided, however, that interest shall not begin to accrue on any such Class B or Class C Exchange Notes issuable to a holder of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, until such time as such holder surrenders the certificate or certificates evidencing such shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable.

(iv) The Corporation may redeem shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock in exchange for Class B and Class C Exchange Notes only if, on the Exchange Date, (x) the Corporation has redeemed any outstanding shares of Class A Preferred Stock and, if such redemption of Class A Preferred Stock is effected by the issuance of a Class A Exchange Note, such Class A Exchange Notes shall be senior to any Class B or Class C Exchange Note issued in exchange for Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, (y) the Corporation has paid all accrued dividends on all outstanding shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, and (z) the Class B indenture or the Class C Indenture, as applicable, shall be executed and delivered by the Corporation and the applicable trustee thereunder.

Stock which is to be redeemed for cash, the Corporation will be obligated on the Redemption Date to pay to the holder thereof (upon surrender of the certificate representing such share to the Corporation's stock transfer agent, or if none, to the Corporation at its principal office) an amount in cash equal to the Redemption Price. If the funds of the Corporation legally available for redemption of shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock on any Redemption Date are insufficient to redeem the total number of shares to be redeemed on such date, those funds which are legally available shall be used to redeem the maximum possible number of shares ratably (as nearly as practicable) among the holders of the shares to be redeemed based upon the aggregate Redemption Price of such shares held by each such holder. As and when additional funds of the Corporation are legally available for the redemption of shares, such funds shall as soon as practicable be used to redeem the balance of the shares which the Corporation has become obligated to redeem on any Redemption Date.

(f) Dividends after Redemption Date. Subject to any limitations
contained elsewhere in this ARTICLE FOUR, no share of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock is entitled to any dividends accruing after the redemption of such share. On the date of such redemption dividends will cease to accrue, all rights of the holder of such share as such holder will cease, and such shares will not be deemed to be outstanding.

(g) Redeemed or Otherwise Acquired Shares. Any shares of Class B or

Class C Preferred Stock which are redeemed or otherwise acquired by the Corporation will be retired and cancelled and may not be reissued.

(h) Restrictions on Dividends and Redemptions. Notwithstanding anything in this ARTICLE FOUR to the contrary, no dividend payment or other distribution or redemption may be made with respect to Class B or Class C Preferred Stock if such payment or other distribution or redemption will be in contravention of the restrictions or limitations on such payments or other distributions or redemption contained in (i) this ARTICLE FOUR, (ii) the Debt Agreements, (iii) the Subordinated Note or (iv) any and all applicable state or federal laws, rules, and regulations or in any and all orders of any state or federal governmental authority.

(i) Redemption Methods. Any redemption of shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock under and pursuant to Sections 2.3(a), 2.3(b), or 2.3(c) shall be conducted in the same applicable manner as described with respect to the Class A Preferred Stock in Section 1.2(i) above. Notwithstanding any other provision of this ARTICLE FOUR, if on or after the date on which any notice of redemption is first sent to the holders of shares to be redeemed, funds necessary for the redemption shall be available therefor and shall have been irrevocably deposited or set aside, then, notwithstanding that the certificates evidencing the shares so called for redemption shall not have been surrendered, the dividends with respect to the shares so called shall cease to accrue after the date fixed for redemption, shares shall no longer be deemed outstanding, owners thereof shall cease to be stockholders, and all rights whatsoever with respect to the shares so called for redemption (except the right of the holders to receive the Redemption Price without interest thereon upon surrender of their certificates therefor) shall terminate.

2.4 Voting Rights. Except as otherwise set forth below and as otherwise required by law, holders of shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock shall have no voting rights. In connection with the right to vote, each holder of Class B Preferred Stock will have one vote for each share held and each holder of Class C Preferred Stock shall have one vote for each share held. Any shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock held by the Corporation or its subsidiary shall not have voting rights hereunder and shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum. So long as the Class B Preferred Stock or

Class C Preferred Stock is outstanding, the Corporation shall not without the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of all outstanding Class B and Class C Preferred Stock, each voting as a separate class:

(a) amend, alter, modify or repeal any provision of this Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation in any manner which affects adversely the relative rights, preferences, qualifications, powers, limitations or restrictions of that series of Preferred Stock;

(b) increase the authorized number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation, or authorize, issue or otherwise create securities convertible into any shares of capital stock of the Corporation other than shares of Class A (only for purposes of paying dividends in-kind on Class A Preferred Stock), Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, Common Stock and/or Junior Shares; or

(c) voluntarily effect any reclassification of the Class B or Class C Preferred Stock.

Whenever dividends on Class B Preferred Stock shall be in arrears in an amount equal to at least six quarterly dividends (whether or not consecutive), (i) the number of members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be increased by one, effective as of the time of the election of such directors as hereinafter provided and (ii) the holders of Class B Preferred Stock (voting separately as a class) will have the exclusive right to vote for and elect one additional director of the Corporation at any meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation at which directors are to be elected held during the period such dividends remain in arrears. The right of the holders of Class B Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director shall terminate when all accrued and unpaid dividends on the Class B Preferred Stock have been declared and paid in cash or in-kind or set apart for payment. The term of office of any director so elected shall terminate immediately upon the termination of the right of the holders of the Class B Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director.

Whenever dividends on Class C Preferred Stock shall be in arrears in an amount equal to at least six quarterly dividends (whether or not consecutive), (i) the number of members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be increased by one, effective as of the time of the election of such directors as hereinafter provided and (ii) the holders of Class C Preferred Stock (voting separately as a class) will have the exclusive right to vote for and elect one additional director of the Corporation at any meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation at which directors are to be elected held during the period such dividends remain in arrears. The right of the holders of Class C

Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director shall terminate when all accrued and unpaid dividends on the Class B Preferred Stock have been declared and paid in cash or in-kind or set apart for payment. The term of office of any director so elected shall terminate immediately upon the termination of the right of the holders of the Class C Preferred Stock to vote for such one additional director.

The foregoing right of the holders of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock with respect to the election of one director per class may be exercised at any annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or at any special meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation held for such purpose. If the right to elect an additional director shall have accrued to the holders of Class B Preferred Stock or Class C Preferred Stock more than 90 days preceding the date established for the next annual meeting of stockholders, the President of the Corporation shall, within 20 days after the delivery to the Corporation at its principal office of a written request for a special meeting signed by the holders of at least 10% of the Class B Preferred Stock or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, then outstanding, call a special meeting of the holders of the Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, as applicable, to be held within 60 days after the delivery of such request for the purpose of electing such additional directors. The holders of the Class B Preferred Stock voting as a class shall have the right to remove without cause at any time and replace any director such holder shall have elected pursuant to this section. The holders of the Class C Preferred Stock voting as a class shall have the right to remove without cause at any time and replace any director such holder shall have elected pursuant to this section.

2.5 Liquidation. (a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive the Class B or Class C Preferred Liquidation Value of such shares held by them in preference to and in priority over any distributions upon Junior Shares. Upon payment in full to the holders of shares of Class B and Class C Preferred Stock of the Class B and Class C Preferred Liquidation Values of such shares, the holders of shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock shall not be entitled, as such holders, to any further participation in any distribution of assets of the Corporation. If the assets of the Corporation are not sufficient to pay in full the Class B and Class C Preferred Liquidation Value payable to the holders of shares of Class B or Class C Preferred Stock, the holders of all such shares shall share ratably (the exclusion of any other holders of capital stock) in such distribution of assets.

(b) Neither a consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other corporation, nor a sale or transfer of all or part of the Corporation's assets for cash, securities or other property, nor a merger of any other corporation with or into the Corporation, shall be considered a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation within the meaning of this Section 2.5.

III. Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock

3.1 Identical Rights. Except as otherwise provided in this ARTICLE FOUR, all shares of Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock shall be identical and shall entitle the holder thereof to the same rights and privileges.

3.2 Dividends. From and after the date of issuance, the holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends on the shares of Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock when, as, and if declared by the Board of Directors, out of funds legally available for such purpose. All holders of shares of Common Stock and Nonvoting

Common Stock shall share ratably, in accordance with the numbers of shares held by each such holder, in all dividends or distributions on shares of Common Stock payable in cash, in property or in securities of the Corporation (other than shares of Common Stock). All dividends or distributions declared on shares of Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock which are payable in shares of Common Stock or Nonvoting Common Stock shall be declared on both classes of shares at the same rate, provided that any such dividend or distribution shall be payable in shares of the class of Common Stock or Nonvoting Common Stock held by the stockholder to whom the dividend or distribution is payable.

3.3. Stock Splits, Etc. The Corporation shall not in any manner subdivide (by stock split, stock dividend or otherwise), or combine (by reverse stock split, or otherwise) the outstanding shares of Common Stock or Nonvoting Common Stock unless the outstanding shares of the other class shall be proportionately subdivided or combined. No reclassification or any other adjustment or modification of the rights or preferences shall be effected (including without limitation pursuant to a merger, consolidation or liquidation involving the Corporation) with respect to either the Common Stock or the Nonvoting Common Stock unless both the Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock are reclassified or the rights or preferences are adjusted or modified in exactly the same manner and at the same time. In this regard, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the case of any consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other entity (other than a merger which does not result in any reclassification, conversion, exchange or cancellation of the Common Stock), or in case of any sale or transfer of all or substantially all the assets of the Corporation, or the reclassification of the Common Stock into any other form of capital stock of the Corporation, whether in whole or in part, the holder of each share of Nonvoting Common Stock shall, after such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer or reclassification, have the right to convert such share of Nonvoting Common Stock into the kind and amount of shares of stock and other securities and property which such holder would have been entitled to receive upon such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer or reclassification if such holder had held such Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of such share of Nonvoting Common Stock immediately prior to such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer or reclassification.

3.4 Liquidation. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Common Stock and Nonvoting Common Stock shall be entitled to share ratably, in accordance with the number of shares held by each such holder, in all of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to the holders of shares of Common Stock.

3.5 Voting Rights. Except as otherwise provided herein or by law, the entire voting power of the Corporation shall be vested in the holders of shares of Common stock and each holder of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held of record by such holder; provided that, without the consent of the holders of record of at least 51% of Nonvoting Common Stock at the time outstanding (assuming, for the purposes of this provision, that the holders of rights to acquire shares of Nonvoting Common Stock shall be deemed to be the holders of the shares of Nonvoting Common Stock which are at the time issuable upon the full exercise thereof whether or not such holders are then entitled to exercise such rights pursuant to the terms thereof), given in writing or by the vote at any regular or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, the Corporation shall not:

(a) amend, alter, modify or repeal any provision of this Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation in any manner which adversely affects the relative rights, preferences, qualifications, powers, limitations or restrictions of the Nonvoting Common Stock, or amend, alter, modify or repeal this Section 3.5;

(b) increase or decrease the authorized number of shares of any class of capital stock of the Corporation or authorize, issue or otherwise create securities convertible into or exercisable for any shares of capital stock of the Corporation other than the shares of Class A, Class B, and Class C Preferred Stock and the Common Stock, and the Nonvoting Common Stock authorized hereunder;

(c) voluntarily effect an exchange or reclassification of shares of Nonvoting Common Stock into shares of another class of capital stock of the Corporation; or

(d) effect a merger or consolidation of the Corporation with another corporation, unless the certificate or articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall provide that the shares of the capital stock of such surviving corporation into which the shares of Nonvoting Stock hereunder shall be converted shall have the identical rights and privileges as the shares of capital stock of such surviving corporation into which the shares of Common Stock hereunder shall be converted, other than the voting rights in this Section 3.5 and the conversion and other rights in Section 3.6 below which shall not be adversely affected by such merger or consolidation.

3.6 Conversion.

(a) Right to Conversion. Subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of this Section 6, any holder of shares of Nonvoting Common Stock shall be entitled at any time and from time to time to convert each share of Nonvoting Common Stock held by such holder into a share of Common Stock at the conversion rate of one share of Common Stock for one share of Nonvoting Common Stock.

(b) Procedure. The conversion of any shares of Nonvoting Common Stock into shares of Common Stock, shall be effected by the holder of the shares of Nonvoting Common Stock to be converted surrendering the certificate therefor, duly endorsed, at the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent for the shares of Common Stock or at such other place as the Corporation is willing to accept such surrender accompanied by written notice to the Corporation at such office or other place that it elects to so convert and stating the number of shares of Nonvoting Common Stock being converted. Thereupon the Corporation shall promptly issue and deliver at such office or other place to such holder a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder is entitled, registered in the name of such holder or a designee of such holder as specified in such notice. Such conversion shall be deemed to have been made at the close of business on the date of such surrender of the shares to be converted in accordance with the procedure set forth in the first sentence of this Section 3(b), and the Person entitled to receive the shares issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as having become the record holder of such shares at such time. In the event of the conversion of less than all of the shares of Nonvoting Common Stock into shares of Common Stock evidenced by the certificate so surrendered, the Corporation shall execute and deliver to or upon the written order of such holder, without charge to such holder, a new certificate evidencing the shares of Nonvoting Common Stock not converted.

(c) Reservation. The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, or any shares of Common Stock held in its treasury, solely for the purpose of issue upon conversion of the shares of Nonvoting Common Stock as provided herein, such number of shares of Common Stock as shall then be issuable upon the conversion of all outstanding shares of Nonvoting Common Stock. The shares of Common Stock so issuable shall when so issued be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

(d) Certain Legal Requirements. No person subject to the provisions of Regulation Y shall, and no such Person shall permit any of its Bank Holding Company Affiliates to, convert any shares of Nonvoting Common Stock held by it into shares of Common Stock, if after giving effect to such conversion, (i) such Person and its Bank Holding Company Affiliates would own more than 5% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock or (ii) such Person would Control the Corporation (and, for purposes of this clause (ii), a reasoned opinion of counsel to such Person (which is based on facts and circumstances deemed appropriate by such counsel) to the effect that such Person does not control the Corporation shall be conclusive).

ARTICLE SIX

ARTICLE SEVEN

The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to a proceeding (as hereinafter defined) by reason of the fact that he or she (i) is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or (ii) while a director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee (including voting trustee), employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust (including voting trust), employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, to the fullest extent permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. Such right shall be a contract right and as such shall run to the benefit of any director or officer who is elected and accepts the position of director or officer of the Corporation or elects to continue to serve as a director or officer of the Corporation while this ARTICLE SEVEN is in effect. Any repeal or amendment of this ARTICLE SEVEN shall be prospective only and shall not limit the rights of any such director or officer or the obligations of the Corporation with respect to any claim arising from or related to the services of such director or officer in any of the foregoing capacities prior to any such repeal or amendment to this ARTICLE SEVEN. Such right shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition to the maximum extent permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. If a claim for indemnification or advancement of expenses hereunder is not paid in full by the Corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim, and if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall also be entitled to be paid the expenses of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action that such indemnification or advancement of costs of defense are not permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its board of directors or any committee thereof, independent legal counsel, or stockholders) to have made its determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of, or advancement of costs of defense to, the claimant is permissible in the circumstances nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its board of directors or any committee thereof, independent legal counsel, or stockholders) that such indemnification or advancement is not permissible shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that such indemnification or advancement is not permissible. In the event of the death of any person having a right of indemnification under the foregoing provisions, such right shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors, administrators, and personal representatives. The rights conferred above shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, by-law, resolution of stockholders or directors, agreement, or otherwise.

The Corporation may additionally indemnify any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by law.

As used herein, the term "proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, any appeal in such an action, suit, or proceeding, and any inquiry or investigation that could lead to such an action, suit, or proceeding.

ARTICLE EIGHT

Any repeal or amendment of this ARTICLE EIGHT by the stockholders of the Corporation shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the Corporation arising from an act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or amendment. In addition to the circumstances in which a director of the Corporation is not personally liable as set forth in the foregoing provisions of this ARTICLE EIGHT, a director shall not be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders to such further extent as permitted by any law applicable to the Corporation hereafter enacted, including without limitation any subsequent amendment to the Delaware General Corporation Law.

ARTICLE NINE

The following provisions are inserted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation, and for further definition, limitation and regulation of the powers of the Corporation and of its directors and stockholders.

(1) The number of directors of the Corporation shall be such as from time to time shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the bylaws. Election of directors need not be by ballot unless the bylaws so provide.

(2) The Board of Directors shall have power, subject to the other provisions of this Certificate, without the assent or vote of the stockholders to make, alter, amend, change, add to or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation; to fix and vary the amount to be reserved for any proper purpose; to authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens and all or any part of the property of the Corporation; to determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits; and to fix the times for the declaration and payment of dividends.

(3) No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors, officers, or stockholders or between the Corporation and any person (as used herein "person" means other corporation, partnership, association, firm, trust, joint venture, political subdivision, or instrumentality) or other organization in which one or more of its directors, officers, or stockholders are directors, officers, or stockholders, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the board or committee which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his, her, or their votes are counted for such purpose, if: (i) the material facts as to his or her relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of directors or the committee, and the board of directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or her relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified by the board of directors, a committee thereof, or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the board of directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

(4) In addition to the powers and authorities hereinbefore or by statute expressly conferred upon them, the directors are hereby empowered to exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Corporation; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the statutes of Delaware, of this Certificate, and to any bylaws from time to time made by the stockholders; provided, however, that no bylaws so made shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such bylaw had not been made.

ARTICLE TEN

The Corporation expressly elects not to be governed by Section 203 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, and all rights and powers conferred herein on stockholders, directors and officers are subject to this reserved power.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 29th day of January, 1992.

6. Indemnification. Stationers hereby agrees to indemnify Cumberland and its affiliates as provided in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein. The indemnity provisions contained in Exhibit A shall remain operative and in full force and effect notwithstanding termination of this Agreement.

7. Confidential Information. 11. Other Understandings. All discussions, understandings, and agreements theretofore made among any of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof are merged in this Agreement, which alone fully and completely expresses the Agreement of the parties hereto.

12. Time Devoted to Stationers; Conflicts. Stationers and Holdings acknowledge that Cumberland has other business activities and no principal or employee of Cumberland shall be required or expected to devote his or her full time and attention to the services to be performed under this Agreement. Stationers and Holdings further acknowledge that possibilities for a conflict of interest may arise due to Cumberland, its principals, employees or agents pursuing business activities similar to the business of Stationers. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude any of Cumberland's directors, officers, principals, representatives, agents or employees from becoming employees of Stationers or Holdings on a full-time basis and being compensated as employees by Stationers and/or Holdings over and above the fees paid to Cumberland pursuant hereto.

13. Independent Contractor. Cumberland shall perform services hereunder as an independent contractor, retaining control over and responsibility for its own operations and personnel. EXHIBIT A Stationers, Holdings and each of their successors (collectively, the "Indemnitor") hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless Cumberland, its principals, general partners, limited partners and affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, agents, employees and affiliates (collectively, the "Cumberland Group") from and against any claims, actions, proceedings, demands, liabilities, damages, judgments, assessments, losses and costs, including fees and expenses, arising out of or in connection with the services rendered by Cumberland or any member of the Cumberland Group under the attached Agreement, and will reimburse the Cumberland Group for all such fees and expenses including the reasonable fees of counsel as they are incurred by the Cumberland Group in connection with investigating, preparing or defending any such claims, actions, proceedings, demands, or assessments, whether or not in connection with any pending or threatened investigation, litigation or other proceeding to which the Cumberland Group, or any member thereof, is a party. The Indemnitor will not, however, be responsible for any claims, liabilities, losses, damages or expenses that are determined by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, from which no further appear may be taken, to result primarily from the Cumberland Group's gross negligence, bad faith or willful breach of its obligations under the Agreement. The Indemnitor also agrees that the Cumberland Group shall have no liability for claims, liabilities, damages, losses or expenses, including legal fees, incurred by the Indemnitor unless they are determined by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, from which no further appeal may be taken, to result primarily from the Cumberland Group's gross negligence, bad faith or willful breach of its obligations under the Agreement.

In case any action shall be brought against the Cumberland Group with respect to which indemnity may be sought against the Indemnitor under the Agreement, the Cumberland Group shall promptly notify the Indemnitor in writing and the Indemnitor shall, if requested by Cumberland, assume the defense thereof, including the employment of counsel and payment of all fees and expenses. The Cumberland Group shall have the right to employ separate counsel in such action and participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such separate counsel shall be at the expense of the Cumberland Group, unless (i) the Indemnitor has failed to assume the defense and employ counsel or (ii) the named parties to any such action (including any impleaded parties) include the Cumberland Group and the Indemnitor, and the Cumberland Group shall have been advised by such separate counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to it which are different from or additional to those available to the Indemnitor; provided, however, that the Indemnitor shall not in such event be responsible hereunder for the fees and expenses of more than one such firm of separate counsel, in addition to any local counsel. The Indemnitor shall not be liable for any settlement of any such action effected without the written consent of the Indemnitor (which shall not be unreasonably withheld) and, except as provided above, the Indemnitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Cumberland Group from and against any loss or liability by reason of settlement of any action effected with the consent of the Indemnitor.

of ten years from the date hereof (the "Primary Term"), and shall continue on a year-to-year basis thereafter unless terminated by either Holdings and Stationers, on the one hand, or Good, on the other hand, by written notice delivered to the other party(ies) on or before the 180th day prior to the expiration of the Primary Term or prior to the expiration of any subsequent yearly term.

however, be responsible for any claims, liabilities, losses, damages or expenses that are determined by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, from which no further appear may be taken, to result primarily from the Wingate Group's gross negligence, bad faith or willful breach of its obligations under the Agreement. The Indemnitor also agrees that the Wingate Group shall have no liability for claims, liabilities, damages, losses or expenses, including legal fees, incurred by the Indemnitor unless they are determined by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, from which no further appeal may be taken, to result primarily from the Wingate Group's gross negligence, bad faith or willful breach of its obligations under the Agreement.

In case any action shall be brought against the Wingate Group with respect to which indemnity may be sought against the Indemnitor under the Agreement, the Wingate Group shall promptly notify the Indemnitor in writing and the Indemnitor shall, if requested by Wingate, assume the defense thereof, including the employment of counsel and payment of all fees and expenses. The Wingate Group shall have the right to employ separate counsel in such action and participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such separate counsel shall be at the expense of the Wingate Group, unless (i) the Indemnitor has failed to assume the defense and employ counsel or (ii) the named parties to any such action (including any impleaded parties) include the Wingate Group and the Indemnitor, and the Wingate Group shall have been advised by such separate counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to it which are different from or additional to those available to the Indemnitor; provided, however, that the Indemnitor shall not in such event be responsible hereunder for the fees and expenses of more than one such firm of separate counsel, in addition to any local counsel. The Indemnitor shall not be liable for any settlement of any such action effected without the written consent of the Indemnitor (which shall not be unreasonably withheld) and, except as provided above, the Indemnitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Wingate Group from and against any loss or liability by reason of settlement of any action effected with the consent of the Indemnitor.

DANIEL J. SCHLEPPE
EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") made and entered into as of January 31, 1992 by and between Associated Stationers, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Daniel J. Schleppe ("Schleppe"). Certain capitalized terms used herein are defined in paragraph 10 of this Agreement.

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment. The Company hereby employs Schleppe and Schleppe hereby accepts employment with the Company on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

2. Positions and Duties.

a. Executive Vice President. For the term set forth in paragraph 3 of this Agreement, Schleppe shall act as Executive Vice President of the Company and shall render such administrative, sales, marketing and other services to the Company as the Company's board of directors (the "Board") and its President and Chief Executive Officer may from time to time direct and shall be available at any reasonable time for consultation with the Board on matters being considered by the Board or otherwise relating to the Company's or its Subsidiaries' business.

b. Subsidiaries and Affiliates. Schleppe shall serve in one or more executive offices of any of the Company's Subsidiaries or other affiliates, including Associated Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation and the parent corporation of the Company, if elected or otherwise appointed thereto by the board of directors of any of such Subsidiaries or other affiliates.

c. Time Required. During the term of his employment hereunder, Schleppe shall devote his best efforts and his full and exclusive business time and attention (except for reasonable periods of illness or other incapacity) to the business and affairs of the Company, its Subsidiaries and its other affiliates, if any.

d. Location. As Executive Vice President, Schleppe shall be employed at the executive office of the Company in the Atlanta metropolitan area. Schleppe shall not be required to move his residence or principal business base of operations from the Atlanta metropolitan area without his prior written consent.

3. Term. Unless earlier terminated pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph or paragraph 6 of this Agreement, the term of Schleppe's employment as Executive Vice President shall commence as of the date of this Agreement, and shall continue until January 31, 1995 and shall continue automatically from year to year thereafter, unless written notice is given by either party to the other at least sixty (60) days prior to the end of such term, or before the end of any additional one-year term.

4. Compensation.

a. Base Salary. Schleppe's compensation for his services hereunder shall be as follows:

(1) Initial Salary. Schleppe shall receive a base salary of no less than $175,000 per year, payable in accordance with the Company's normal payment schedule for its senior management employees (the "Base Salary").

(2) Adjustment. The Base Salary shall be reviewed annually by the Board and may be, in the Board's discretion, increased when deemed appropriate to reflect adequately the scope and success of the Company's operations and Schleppe's contribution to such success.

b. Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, the Company shall pay to Schleppe, as bonus compensation based upon the performance of the Company and his performance (the "Bonus"), such amount as is determined in good faith by the Board.

c. Withholdings. The Company shall have the right to deduct from any compensation paid to Schleppe hereunder all taxes and other amounts which may be required to be deducted or withheld by law (including, without limitation, income tax withholding and Social Security payments), whether such laws are now in effect or become effective after the date of this Agreement.

5. Benefits. In addition to the Base Salary and any Bonus, Schleppe shall be entitled to health insurance, and disability insurance, and to participate in other employee benefit programs as shall be approved by the Board ("Benefits"), with such coverage and in such amounts as shall be not less than those provided to other key executives of the Company.

6. Early Termination. The Employment Period may be terminated by either party during the base three-year term of this Agreement or during any renewal period by either party; provided, however, that if such termination is by the Company for Cause or due to Schleppe's resignation without Board approval, then Schleppe shall not be entitled to receive any Base Salary, Bonus or other compensation after the date of such termination.

If the Employment Period is terminated for any reason (including, without limitation, Schleppe's death or Disability (as defined below)) other than by the Company for Cause or Schleppe's resignation without Board approval, then Schleppe shall be entitled to receive his Base Salary (exclusive of Bonus) and the continuation of Benefits for a period of one year from and after the date of termination. Such severance benefits shall be exclusive and in lieu of any other severance benefit programs of the Company and its Subsidiaries and affiliates in effect at the time of such termination.

7. Confidential Information. Schleppe acknowledges that the information, observations and data obtained by him during the course of his performance of his duties under this Agreement concerning the business or affairs of the Company and its affiliates are and will be the property of the Company. Therefore, Schleppe agrees that he will not disclose to any unauthorized persons or use for his own account or for the benefit of any third party (other than the Company or its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, if any) any of such information, observations or data without the Board's written consent, unless and to the extent that the aforementioned matters become generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of Schleppe's acts or omissions to act. Schleppe agrees to deliver to the Company at the termination of his employment hereunder or at any other time the Company may request, all memoranda, notes, plans, records, reports and other documentation (and copies thereof) relating to the business of the Company and its affiliates which he may then possess or have under his control.

8. Inventions and Patents.

a. Schleppe agrees that all inventions, innovations, improvements, developments, methods, designs, analyses, drawings, reports, and all similar or related information which relates to the Company's or any of its Subsidiaries' actual or anticipated business, research and development of existing or future products or services (including new contributions, improvements, ideas and discoveries, whether patentable or not) and which are conceived, developed or made by Schleppe while employed by the Company or its predecessor ("Work Product") belong to the Company or such Subsidiary. Schleppe will promptly disclose such Work Product to the Board and perform all actions reasonably requested by the Board to establish and confirm such ownership.

b. In accordance with Section 2 of the Illinois Employee Patent Act, Ill. Rev. Stat. Chap. 140, (S)301 et seq. (1983), Schleppe is hereby advised that paragraph 8.a. of this Agreement does not apply to any invention for which no equipment, supplies, facilities or trade secret information of the Company was used and which was developed entirely on Schleppe's own time, unless (i) the invention relates to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development or (ii) the invention results from any work performed by Schleppe for the Company.

9. Non-Compete and Related Agreements.

a. In further consideration of the compensation to be paid to Schleppe hereunder, Schleppe agrees that during the period commencing as of the date hereof and ending on the first anniversary of the date of termination of his employment hereunder (the "Noncompetition Period"), he will not directly or indirectly engage in, represent, furnish consultant services to, be employed by, grant permission for his name or likeness to be used by, or have any interest in (whether as owner, principal, director, officer, stockholder, agent, consultant, partner or otherwise) the Business (as defined below), within the United States; provided, however, that nothing herein will prevent Schleppe from owning 1% or less of the outstanding stock of any class of a corporation which is publicly traded, so long as Schleppe does not have any participation in the conduct of business of such corporation; and provided, further, however, that this paragraph shall not apply if Schleppe's employment has been terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined herein).

b. For purposes of this paragraph 9, the term "Business" shall mean marketing and distributing of office products for resale through the wholesale channel and any other business that the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates is engaged in or has proposed to be conducted (as defined below) at the time of the termination of his employment hereunder. For purposes of this paragraph 9, a business shall be considered as "proposed to be conducted" if the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates has made reasonably substantial expenditures in connection with such proposed business.

c. During the Noncompetition Period, Schleppe shall not (i) induce or attempt to induce any employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates to leave the employ of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, or in any way interfere with the relationship between the Company and any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates and any employee of the Company, or (ii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, distributor, broker or other business relation of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates to cease, diminish or alter, to the detriment of the Company and any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, doing business with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any customer, supplier, distributor, broker or other business relation and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates.

d. Schleppe agrees that the covenants made in this paragraph 9 shall be construed as an agreement independent of any other provision of this Agreement, and shall survive the termination of this Agreement. Moreover, the existence of any claim or cause of action of Schleppe against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, whether or not predicated upon the terms of this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of this covenant.

e. In the event of the breach by Schleppe of any of the provisions of this paragraph 9, the Company, in addition and supplementary to other rights and remedies existing in its favor, including specific performance as described in paragraph 11, shall be empowered to terminate any Base Salary, Bonus and other benefits due to Schleppe under this Agreement.

f. If, at the time of enforcement of any of the provisions of this paragraph 9, a court finds that any restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under the circumstances then existing, the parties hereto agree that the maximum period, scope or geographical area reasonable under such circumstances will be substituted for the stated period, scope or area.

10. Definitions.

"Cause" shall mean (i) Schleppe's theft or embezzlement, or attempted theft or embezzlement, of money or tangible or intangible assets or property of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, (ii) any act or acts of moral turpitude by Schleppe, (iii) other than as a result of a Disability, Schleppe's failure to devote adequate time to the Company's and its Subsidiaries or other affiliates' business, as determined in the reasonable judgment of the Board, after having given Schleppe not less than ten (10) days' advance written notice of the asserted problem and a reasonable opportunity to cure, (iv) any intentional acts by Schleppe which establish Schleppe's loyalty to a business entity or person other than the Company, (v) gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of Schleppe's duties, (vi) conviction of a felony, (vii) conviction of a crime, the conviction of which results in a material injury to the Company, or (viii) a willful material breach of this Agreement.

"Disability" means Schleppe's inability, due to illness, accident, injury, physical or mental incapacity or other disability, effectively to carry out his duties and obligations hereunder or to participate effectively and actively in the management of the Company for 90 consecutive days or shorter periods aggregating at least 180 days (whether or not consecutive) during any twelve-month period.

"Subsidiaries" means any corporation or other entity, if any, of which the securities or other interests having a majority of the voting power in electing directors or similar persons are, at the time of determination, owned by the Company, directly or through one of more subsidiaries.

11. Specific Performance. The parties hereto shall be entitled to enforce their rights under this Agreement specifically, to recover damages by reason of any breach of any provision of this Agreement and to exercise all other rights existing in their favor. The parties hereto agree and acknowledge that money damages may not be an adequate remedy for any breach of the provisions of this Agreement and that any party hereto may, at such party's sole discretion, apply to any court of law or equity of competent jurisdiction for specific performance and/or injunctive relief (without posting a bond or other security) in order to enforce or prevent any violation of the provisions of this Agreement.

12. Waiver. The failure of either party to insist, in any one or more instances, upon performance of the terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment of any right granted hereunder or of the future performance of any such term or condition.

13. Notices. Any notice provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be either personally delivered, or mailed registered or certified mail (postage and registration or certification fees prepaid) or sent by facsimile or reputable overnight courier service (charges prepaid) to the recipient at the following addresses (or at such address as the recipient party has specified by prior written notice to the sending party):

MICHAEL D. ROWSEY
EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") made and entered into as of January 31, 1992 by and between Associated Stationers, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Michael D. Rowsey ("Rowsey"). Certain capitalized terms used herein are defined in paragraph 10 of this Agreement.

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment. The Company hereby employs Rowsey and Rowsey hereby accepts employment with the Company on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

2. Positions and Duties.

a. President and Chief Operating Officer. For the term set forth in paragraph 3 of this Agreement, Rowsey shall act as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company and shall render such administrative, sales, marketing and other services to the Company as the Company's board of directors (the "Board") may from time to time direct and shall be available at any reasonable time for consultation with the Board on matters being considered by the Board or otherwise relating to the Company's or its Subsidiaries' business.

b. Board Membership. Rowsey agrees that, in accordance with a separate agreement executed on this date, he shall serve as a member of the Board, the board of directors of Associated Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation and the parent corporation of the Company ("Holdings"), and any committees of the Board.

c. Subsidiaries and Affiliates. Rowsey shall serve in one or more executive offices of any of the Company's Subsidiaries or other affiliates, including Holdings, if elected or otherwise appointed thereto by the board of directors of any of such Subsidiaries or other affiliates.

d. Time Required. During the term of his employment hereunder, Rowsey shall devote his best efforts and his full and exclusive business time and attention (except for reasonable periods of illness or other incapacity) to the business and affairs of the Company, its Subsidiaries and its other affiliates, if any.

e. Location. As President and Chief Operating Officer Rowsey shall be employed at the principal executive office of the Company in the Chicago metropolitan area. Rowsey shall not be required to move his residence or principal business base of operations from the Chicago metropolitan area without his prior written consent.

3. Term. Unless earlier terminated pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph or paragraph 6 of this Agreement, the term of Rowsey's employment as President and Chief Operating Officer shall commence as of the date of this Agreement, and shall continue until January 31, 1995 and shall continue automatically from year to year thereafter, unless written notice is given by either party to the other at least sixty (60) days prior to the end of such term, or before the end of any additional one-year term.

4. Compensation.

a. Base Salary. Rowsey's compensation for his services hereunder shall be as follows:

(1) Initial Salary. Rowsey shall receive a base salary of no less than $200,000 per year, payable in accordance with the Company's normal payment schedule for its senior management employees (the "Base Salary").

(2) Adjustment. The Base Salary shall be reviewed annually by the Board and may be, in the Board's discretion, increased when deemed appropriate to reflect adequately the scope and success of the Company's operations and Rowsey's contribution to such success.

b. Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, the Company shall pay to Rowsey, as bonus compensation based upon the performance of the Company and his performance (the "Bonus"), such amount as is determined in good faith by the Board.

c. Withholdings. The Company shall have the right to deduct from any compensation paid to Rowsey hereunder all taxes and other amounts which may be required to be deducted or withheld by law (including, without limitation, income tax withholding and Social Security payments), whether such laws are now in effect or become effective after the date of this Agreement.

5. Benefits. In addition to the Base Salary and any Bonus, Rowsey shall be entitled to health insurance, and disability insurance, and to participate in other employee benefit programs as shall be approved by the Board ("Benefits"), with such coverage and in such amounts as shall be not less than those provided to other key executives of the Company.

6. Early Termination. The Employment Period may be terminated by either party during the base three-year term of this Agreement or during any renewal period by either party; provided, however, that if such termination is by the Company for Cause or due to Rowsey's resignation without Board approval, then Rowsey shall not be entitled to receive any Base Salary, Bonus or other compensation after the date of such termination. If the Employment Period is terminated for any reason (including, without limitation, Rowsey's death or Disability (as defined below)) other than by the Company for Cause or Rowsey's resignation without Board approval, then Rowsey shall be entitled to receive his Base Salary (exclusive of Bonus) and the continuation of Benefits for a period of one year from and after the date of termination. Such severance benefits shall be exclusive and in lieu of any other severance benefit programs of the Company and its Subsidiaries and affiliates in effect at the time of such termination.

7. Confidential Information. Rowsey acknowledges that the information, observations and data obtained by him during the course of his performance of his duties under this Agreement concerning the business or affairs of the Company and its affiliates are and will be the property of the Company. Therefore, Rowsey agrees that he will not disclose to any unauthorized persons or use for his own account or for the benefit of any third party (other than the Company or its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, if any) any of such information, observations or data without the Board's written consent, unless and to the extent that the aforementioned matters become generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of Rowsey's acts or omissions to act. Rowsey agrees to deliver to the Company at the termination of his employment hereunder or at any other time the Company may request, all memoranda, notes, plans, records, reports and other documentation (and copies thereof) relating to the business of the Company and its affiliates which he may then possess or have under his control.

8. Inventions and Patents.

a. Rowsey agrees that all inventions, innovations, improvements, developments, methods, designs, analyses, drawings, reports, and all similar or related information which relates to the Company's or any of its Subsidiaries' actual or anticipated business, research and development of existing or future products or services (including new contributions, improvements, ideas and discoveries, whether patentable or not) and which are conceived, developed or made by Rowsey while employed by the Company or its predecessor ("Work Product") belong to the Company or such Subsidiary. Rowsey will promptly disclose such Work Product to the Board and perform all actions reasonably requested by the Board to establish and confirm such ownership.

b. In accordance with Section 2 of the Illinois Employee Patent Act, Ill. Rev. Stat. Chap. 140, (S)301 et seq.

(1983), Rowsey is hereby advised that paragraph 8.a. of this Agreement does not apply to any invention for which no equipment, supplies, facilities or trade secret information of the Company was used and which was developed entirely on Rowsey's own time, unless (i) the invention relates to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development or (ii) the invention results from any work performed by Rowsey for the Company.

9. Non-Compete and Related Agreements.

a. In further consideration of the compensation to be paid to Rowsey hereunder, Rowsey agrees that during the period commencing as of the date hereof and ending on the first anniversary of the date of termination of his employment hereunder (the "Noncompetition Period"), he will not directly or indirectly engage in, represent, furnish consultant services to, be employed by, grant permission for his name or likeness to be used by, or have any interest in (whether as owner, principal, director, officer, stockholder, agent, consultant, partner or otherwise) the Business (as defined below), within the United States; provided, however, that nothing herein will prevent Rowsey from owning 1% or less of the outstanding stock of any class of a corporation which is publicly traded, so long as Rowsey does not have any participation in the conduct of business of such corporation; and provided, further, however, that this paragraph shall not apply if Rowsey's employment has been terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined herein).

b. For purposes of this paragraph 9, the term "Business" shall mean marketing and distributing of office products for resale through the wholesale channel and any other business that the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates is engaged in or has proposed to be conducted (as defined below) at the time of the termination of his employment hereunder. For purposes of this paragraph 9, a business shall be considered as "proposed to be conducted" if the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates has made reasonably substantial expenditures in connection with such proposed business.

c. During the Noncompetition Period, Rowsey shall not (i) induce or attempt to induce any employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates to leave the employ of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, or in any way interfere with the relationship between the Company and any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates and any employee of the Company, or (ii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, distributor, broker or other business relation of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates to cease, diminish or alter, to the detriment of the Company and any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, doing business with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any customer, supplier, distributor, broker or other business relation and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates.

d. Rowsey agrees that the covenants made in this paragraph 9 shall be construed as an agreement independent of any other provision of this Agreement, and shall survive the termination of this Agreement. Moreover, the existence of any claim or cause of action of Rowsey against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, whether or not predicated upon the terms of this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of this covenant.

e. In the event of the breach by Rowsey of any of the provisions of this paragraph 9, the Company, in addition and supplementary to other rights and remedies existing in its favor, including specific performance as described in paragraph 11, shall be empowered to terminate any Base Salary, Bonus and other benefits due to Rowsey under this Agreement.

f. If, at the time of enforcement of any of the provisions of this paragraph 9, a court finds that any restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under the circumstances then existing, the parties hereto agree that the maximum period, scope or geographical area reasonable under such circumstances will be substituted for the stated period, scope or area.

10. Definitions.

"Cause" shall mean (i) Rowsey's theft or embezzlement, or attempted theft or embezzlement, of money or tangible or intangible assets or property of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, (ii) any act or acts of moral turpitude by Rowsey, (iii) other than as a result of a Disability, Rowsey's failure to devote adequate time to the Company's and its Subsidiaries or other affiliates' business, as determined in the reasonable judgment of the Board, after having given Rowsey not less than ten (10) days' advance written notice of the asserted problem and a reasonable opportunity to cure, (iv) any intentional acts by Rowsey which establish Rowsey's loyalty to a business entity or person other than the Company, (v) gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of Rowsey's duties, (vi) conviction of a felony, (vii) conviction of a crime, the conviction of which results in a material injury to the Company, or (viii) a willful material breach of this Agreement.

"Disability" means Rowsey's inability, due to illness, accident, injury, physical or mental incapacity or other disability, effectively to carry out his duties and obligations hereunder or to participate effectively and actively in the management of the Company for 90 consecutive days or shorter periods aggregating at least 180 days (whether or not consecutive) during any twelve-month period.

"Subsidiaries" means any corporation or other entity, if any, of which the securities or other interests having a majority of the voting power in electing directors or similar persons are, at the time of determination, owned by the Company, directly or through one of more subsidiaries.

11. Specific Performance. The parties hereto shall be entitled to enforce their rights under this Agreement specifically, to recover damages by reason of any breach of any provision of this Agreement and to exercise all other rights existing in their favor. The parties hereto agree and acknowledge that money damages may not be an adequate remedy for any breach of the provisions of this Agreement and that any party hereto may, at such party's sole discretion, apply to any court of law or equity of competent jurisdiction for specific performance and/or injunctive relief (without posting a bond or other security) in order to enforce or prevent any violation of the provisions of this Agreement.

12. Waiver. The failure of either party to insist, in any one or more instances, upon performance of the terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment of any right granted hereunder or of the future performance of any such term or condition.

13. Notices. Any notice provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be either personally delivered, or mailed registered or certified mail (postage and registration or certification fees prepaid) or sent by facsimile or reputable overnight courier service (charges prepaid) to the recipient at the following addresses (or at such address as the recipient party has specified by prior written notice to the sending party):

c. Time Required. During the term of his employment hereunder,
Eberspacher shall devote his best efforts and his full and exclusive business time and attention (except for reasonable periods of illness or other incapacity) to the business and affairs of the Company, its Subsidiaries and its other affiliates, if any.

d. Location. As Vice President - Northern Operations, Eberspacher
shall be employed at the principal executive office of the Company in the Chicago metropolitan area. Eberspacher shall not be required to move his residence or principal business base of operations from the Chicago metropolitan area without his prior written consent.

3. Term. Unless earlier terminated pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph or paragraph 6 of this Agreement, the term of Eberspacher's employment as Vice President - Northern Operations shall commence as of the date of this Agreement, and shall continue until January 31, 1995 and shall continue automatically from year to year thereafter, unless written notice is given by either party to the other at least sixty (60) days prior to the end of such term, or before the end of any additional one-year term.

4. Compensation.

a. Base Salary. Eberspacher's compensation for his services hereunder
---
shall be as follows:

(1) Initial Salary. Eberspacher shall receive a base salary of no less than $155,000 per year, payable in accordance with the Company's normal payment schedule for its senior management employees (the "Base Salary").

(2) Adjustment. The Base Salary shall be reviewed annually by the Board and may be, in the Board's discretion, increased when deemed appropriate to reflect adequately the scope and success of the Company's operations and Eberspacher's contribution to such success.

b. Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, the Company shall pay to Eberspacher, as bonus compensation based upon the performance of the Company and his performance (the "Bonus"), such amount as is determined in good faith by the Board.

c. Withholdings. The Company shall have the right to deduct from any compensation paid to Eberspacher hereunder all taxes and other amounts which may be required to be deducted or withheld by law (including, without limitation, income tax withholding and Social Security payments), whether such laws are now in effect or become effective after the date of this Agreement.

5. Benefits. In addition to the Base Salary and any Bonus, Eberspacher shall be entitled to health insurance, and disability insurance, and to participate in other employee benefit programs as shall be approved by the Board ("Benefits"), with such coverage and in such amounts as shall be not less than those provided to other key executives of the Company.

6. Early Termination. The Employment Period may be terminated by either party during the base three-year term of this Agreement or during any renewal period by either party; provided, however, that if such termination is by the Company for Cause or due to Eberspacher's resignation without Board approval, then Eberspacher shall not be entitled to receive any Base Salary, Bonus or other compensation after the date of such termination. If the Employment Period is terminated for any reason (including, without limitation, Eberspacher's death or Disability (as defined below)) other than by the Company for Cause or Eberspacher's resignation without Board approval, then Eberspacher shall be entitled to receive his Base Salary (exclusive of Bonus) and the continuation of Benefits for a period of one year from and after the date of termination. Such severance benefits shall be exclusive and in lieu of any other severance benefit programs of the Company and its Subsidiaries and affiliates in effect at the time of such termination.

7. Confidential Information. Eberspacher acknowledges that the information, observations and data obtained by him during the course of his performance of his duties under this Agreement concerning the business or affairs of the Company and its affiliates are and will be the property of the Company. Therefore, Eberspacher agrees that he will not disclose to any unauthorized persons or use for his own account or for the benefit of any third party (other than the Company or its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, if any) any of such information, observations or data without the Board's written consent, unless and to the extent that the aforementioned matters become generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of Eberspacher's acts or omissions to act. Eberspacher agrees to deliver to the Company at the termination of his employment hereunder or at any other time the Company may request, all memoranda, notes, plans, records, reports and other documentation (and copies thereof) relating to the business of the Company and its affiliates which he may then possess or have under his control.

8. Inventions and Patents.

a. Eberspacher agrees that all inventions, innovations, improvements, developments, methods, designs, analyses, drawings, reports, and all similar or related information which relates to the Company's or any of its Subsidiaries' actual or anticipated business, research and development of existing or future products or services (including new contributions, improvements, ideas and discoveries, whether patentable or not) and which are conceived, developed or made by Eberspacher while employed by the Company or its predecessor ("Work Product") belong to the Company or such Subsidiary. Eberspacher will promptly disclose such Work Product to the Board and perform all actions reasonably requested by the Board to establish and confirm such ownership.

b. In accordance with Section 2 of the Illinois Employee Patent Act, Ill. Rev. Stat. Chap. 140, (S)301 et seq. (1983), Eberspacher is hereby advised that paragraph 8.a. of this Agreement does not apply to any invention for which no equipment, supplies, facilities or trade secret information of the Company was used and which was developed entirely on Eberspacher's own time, unless (i) the invention relates to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development or (ii) the invention results from any work performed by Eberspacher for the Company.

9. Non-Compete and Related Agreements.

a. In further consideration of the compensation to be paid to Eberspacher hereunder, Eberspacher agrees that during the period commencing as of the date hereof and ending on the first anniversary of the date of termination of his employment hereunder (the "Noncompetition Period"), he will not directly or indirectly engage in, represent, furnish consultant services to, be employed by, grant permission for his name or likeness to be used by, or have any interest in (whether as owner, principal, director, officer, stockholder, agent, consultant, partner or otherwise) the Business (as defined below), within the United States; provided, however, that nothing herein will prevent Eberspacher from owning 1% or less of the outstanding stock of any class of a corporation which is publicly traded, so long as Eberspacher does not have any participation in the conduct of business of such corporation; and provided, further, however, that this paragraph shall not apply if Eberspacher's employment has been terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined herein).

b. For purposes of this paragraph 9, the term "Business" shall mean marketing and distributing of office products for resale through the wholesale channel and any other business that the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates is engaged in or has proposed to be conducted (as defined below) at the time of the termination of his employment hereunder. For purposes of this paragraph 9, a business shall be considered as "proposed to be conducted" if the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates has made reasonably substantial expenditures in connection with such proposed business.

c. During the Noncompetition Period, Eberspacher shall not (i) induce or attempt to induce any employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates to leave the employ of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, or in any way interfere with the relationship between the Company and any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates and any employee of the Company, or (ii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, distributor, broker or other business relation of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates to cease, diminish or alter, to the detriment of the Company and any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, doing business with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any customer, supplier, distributor, broker or other business relation and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates.

d. Eberspacher agrees that the covenants made in this paragraph 9 shall be construed as an agreement independent of any other provision of this Agreement, and shall survive the termination of this Agreement. Moreover, the existence of any claim or cause of action of Eberspacher against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, whether or not predicated upon the terms of this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of this covenant.

e. In the event of the breach by Eberspacher of any of the provisions of this paragraph 9, the Company, in addition and supplementary to other rights and remedies existing in its favor, including specific performance as described in paragraph 11, shall be empowered to terminate any Base Salary, Bonus and other benefits due to Eberspacher under this Agreement.

f. If, at the time of enforcement of any of the provisions of this paragraph 9, a court finds that any restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under the circumstances then existing, the parties hereto agree that the maximum period, scope or geographical area reasonable under such circumstances will be substituted for the stated period, scope or area.

10. Definitions.

"Cause" shall mean (i) Eberspacher's theft or embezzlement, or attempted
-----
theft or embezzlement, of money or tangible or intangible assets or property of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other affiliates, (ii) any act or acts of moral turpitude by Eberspacher, (iii) other than as a result of a Disability, Eberspacher's failure to devote adequate time to the Company's and its Subsidiaries or other affiliates' business, as determined in the reasonable judgment of the Board, after having given Eberspacher not less than ten (10) days' advance written notice of the asserted problem and a reasonable opportunity to cure, (iv) any intentional acts by Eberspacher which establish Eberspacher's loyalty to a business entity or person other than the Company, (v) gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of Eberspacher's duties, (vi) conviction of a felony, (vii) conviction of a crime, the conviction of which results in a material injury to the Company, or (viii) a willful material breach of this Agreement.

"Disability" means Eberspacher's inability, due to illness, accident,
injury, physical or mental incapacity or other disability, effectively to carry out his duties and obligations hereunder or to participate effectively and actively in the management of the Company for 90 consecutive days or shorter periods aggregating at least 180 days (whether or not consecutive) during any twelve-month period.

"Subsidiaries" means any corporation or other entity, if any, of which the securities or other interests having a majority of the voting power in electing directors or similar persons are, at the time of determination, owned by the Company, directly or through one of more subsidiaries.

11. Specific Performance. The parties hereto shall be entitled to enforce their rights under this Agreement specifically, to recover damages by reason of any breach of any provision of this Agreement and to exercise all other rights existing in their favor. The parties hereto agree and acknowledge that money damages may not be an adequate remedy for any breach of the provisions of this Agreement and that any party hereto may, at such party's sole discretion, apply to any court of law or equity of competent jurisdiction for specific performance and/or injunctive relief (without posting a bond or other security) in order to enforce or prevent any violation of the provisions of this Agreement.

12. Waiver. The failure of either party to insist, in any one or more instances, upon performance of the terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment of any right granted hereunder or of the future performance of any such term or condition.

13. Notices. Any notice provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be either personally delivered, or mailed registered or certified mail (postage and registration or certification fees prepaid) or sent by facsimile or reputable overnight courier service (charges prepaid) to the recipient at the following addresses (or at such address as the recipient party has specified by prior written notice to the sending party):

In the event of a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's capital stock or all or substantially all of the Company's assets, or consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another corporation or entity or individual, the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to its successor-in-interest, and such successor-in-interest shall be deemed to have acquired all rights and assumed all obligations of the Company hereunder; provided, however, that if the Company does not make such assignment, the Employment Period shall continue until terminated in accordance with paragraph 6 of this Agreement.

EXHIBIT 10.22

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC.
1992 Management Stock Option Plan

1. Purpose

Associated Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), by means of this 1992 Management Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"), desires to afford certain of its directors, key employees and the key employees of any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof now existing or hereafter formed or acquired who are responsible for the continued growth of the Company an opportunity to acquire a proprietary interest in the Company, and thus to create in such persons an increased interest in and a greater concern for the welfare of the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof. As used in the Plan, the terms "parent corporation" and "subsidiary corporation" shall mean, respectively, a corporation within the definition of such terms contained in Sections 424(e) and 424(f), respectively, of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

The stock options described in Section 6 (the "Options"), and the shares of common stock of the Company acquired pursuant to the exercise of such Options are a matter of separate inducement and are not in lieu of any salary or other compensation for services.

2. Administration

The Plan shall be administered by the Option Committee, or any successor thereto, of the Board of Directors of the Company or by such other committee, as determined by the Board (the "Committee"). The Committee shall consist of not less than two members of the Board of Directors of the Company, each of whom shall qualify as a "disinterested person" to administer the Plan within the meaning of Rule 16b-3, as amended, or other applicable rules under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). The Committee shall administer the Plan so as to comply at all times with the Exchange Act. A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum, and subject to the provisions of Section 5, the acts of a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present, or acts approved in writing by a majority of the Committee, shall be the acts of the Committee.

3. Shares Available

Subject to the adjustments provided in Section 7, the maximum aggregate number of shares of common stock of the Company which may be granted for all purposes under the Plan shall be 86,735 shares. If, for any reason, any shares as to which Options have been granted cease to be subject to purchase thereunder, including, without limitation, the expiration of such Option, the termination of such Option prior to exercise or the forfeiture of such Option, such shares shall thereafter be available for grants to such individual or other individuals under the Plan. Options granted under the Plan may be fulfilled in accordance with the terms of the Plan with either authorized and unissued shares of the common stock of the Company or issued shares of such common stock held in the Company's treasury.

4. Eligibility and Bases of Participation

Grants under the Plan (i) may be made, pursuant to Section 6, to key employees, officers and directors (but not to any officer and director who is not also an employee) of the Company, or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, who are regularly employed on a salaried basis and who are so employed on the date of such grant (the "Officer and Key Employee Participants").

5. Authority of Committee

Subject to and not inconsistent with the express provisions of the Plan and the Code, the Committee shall have plenary authority, in its sole discretion, to:

a. determine the persons to whom Options shall be granted, the time when such Options shall be granted, the number of Options, the purchase price or exercise price of each Option, the period(s) during which such Option shall be exercisable (whether in whole or in part), the restrictions to be applicable to Options and the other terms and provisions thereof (which need not be identical);

b. require, as a condition to the granting of any Option, that the person receiving such Option agree not to sell or otherwise dispose of such Option, any common stock acquired pursuant to such Option or any other "derivative security" (as defined by Rule 16a-1(c) under the Exchange Act) for a period of six (6) months following the later of (i) the date of the grant of such Option or (ii) the date when the exercise price of such Option is fixed if such exercise price is not fixed at the date of grant of such Option;

c. provide an arrangement through registered broker-dealers whereby temporary financing may be made available to an optionee by the broker-dealer, under the rules and regulations of the Federal Reserve Board, for the purpose of assisting the optionee in the exercise of an Option, such authority to include the payment by the Company of the commissions of the broker-dealer;

d. provide the establishment of procedures for an optionee (1) to have withheld from the total number of shares to be acquired upon the exercise of an Option that number of shares having a Fair Market Value (as defined in Section 9) which, together with such cash as shall be paid in respect of fractional shares, shall equal the Option exercise price, and (2) to exercise a portion of an Option by delivering that number of shares already owned by such optionee having a Fair Market Value which shall equal the partial Option exercise price and to deliver the shares thus acquired by such optionee in payment of shares to be received pursuant to the exercise of additional portions of such Option, the effect of which shall be that such optionee can in sequence utilize such newly acquired shares in payment of the exercise price of the entire Option, together with such cash as shall be paid in respect of fractional shares;

e. provide the establishment of a procedure whereby a number of shares of common stock or other securities may be withheld from the total number of shares of common stock or other securities to be issued upon exercise of an Option to meet the obligation of withholding for taxes incurred by an optionee upon such exercise;

f. prescribe, amend, modify and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan;

g. make all determinations specified in or permitted by the Plan or deemed necessary or desirable for its administration or for the conduct of the Committee's business; and

h. establish any procedures determined to be appropriate in discharging its responsibilities under the Plan.

The Committee may delegate to one or more of its members, or to one or more agents, such administrative duties as it may deem advisable, and the Committee or any person to whom it has delegated duties as aforesaid may employ one or more persons to render advice with respect to any responsibility the Committee or such person may have under the Plan; provided, however, that the Committee
-------- -------
may not delegate any duties to a member of the Board of Directors of the Company who, if elected to serve on the Committee, would not qualify as a "disinterested person" to administer the Plan as contemplated by Rule 16b-3, as amended, or other applicable rules under the Exchange Act. The Committee may employ attorneys, consultants, accountants, or other persons and the Committee, the Company, and its officers and directors shall be entitled to rely upon the advice, opinions or valuations of any such persons. All actions taken and all interpretations and determinations made by the Committee in good faith shall be final and binding upon all persons who have received grants under the Plan, the Company and all other interested persons. No member or agent of the Committee shall be personally liable for any action, determination or interpretation made in good faith with respect to the Plan and all members and agents of the Committee shall be fully protected by the Company in respect of any such action, determination or interpretation.

6. Stock Options for Officers and Key Employee Participants

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to grant incentive stock options ("Incentive Options") pursuant to Section 422 of the Code, or to grant non-qualified stock options ("Non-Qualified Options") (options which do not qualify under Section 422 of the Code) or to grant both types of Options. No Option shall be granted for a term of more than ten (10) years. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, an Incentive Option may be granted only to Officer and Key Employee Participants. The terms and conditions of the Options shall be determined from time to time by the Committee; provided, however, that the Options granted under the Plan shall be subject to the following:

a. Option Price. The Committee shall establish the option price at the time any Option is granted at such amount as the Committee shall determine. The option price for each share purchasable under any Incentive Option granted hereunder shall be such amount as the Committee shall, in its best judgment, determine to be not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the Fair Market Value per share at the date the Option is granted; provided, however, that in the case of an Incentive Option granted to a person who, at the time such Incentive Option is granted, owns shares of the Company, or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, which possess more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of shares of the Company or of any subsidiary corporation or parent corporation of the Company, the purchase price for each share shall be such amount as the Committee, in its best judgment, shall determine to be not less than one hundred ten percent (110%) of the Fair Market Value per share at the date the Option is granted. The Option price will be subject to adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Section 7 of the Plan.

b. Payment. The price per share of common stock of the Company with respect to each Option shall be payable at the time the Option is exercised. Such price shall be payable in cash, which may be paid by wire transfer in immediately available funds, by check or by any other instrument acceptable to the Company or, in the discretion of the Committee, by delivery to the Company of shares of common stock of the Company owned by the optionee or by the Company withholding from the total number of shares to be acquired pursuant to the Option a portion of such shares. Shares delivered to or withheld by the Company in payment of the option price shall be valued at the Fair Market Value of the common stock of the Company on the day preceding the date of the exercise of the Option.

c. Continuation of Employment. Notwithstanding anything else contained herein, each Option by its terms shall require the optionee to remain in the continuous employ of the Company, or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, for at least six (6) months (or three (3) months in the case of an Incentive Option) from the date of grant of the Option before the right to exercise any part of the Option will accrue.

d. Exercisability of Stock Option. Each Option shall be exercisable in such installments as may be determined by the Committee at the time of the grant. The right to purchase shares shall be cumulative so that when the right to purchase any shares has accrued such shares or any part thereof may be purchased at any time thereafter until the expiration or termination of the Option. No Option by its terms shall be exercisable after the expiration of ten (10) years from the date of grant of the Option; provided, however, in the case of an Incentive Option granted to a person who, at the time such Option is granted, owns stock of the Company, or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, possessing more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company, or any corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, such Option shall not be exercisable after the expiration of five (5) years from the date such Option is granted.

e. Death. In the event of the death of any optionee, the estate of such optionee shall have the right, within six (6) months after the date of death (but not after the expiration date of the Option), to exercise such optionee's Option with respect to all or any part of the shares of stock which such optionee was entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of his death.

f. Disability. If the employment of any optionee is terminated because of Disability (as defined in Section 9), such optionee shall have the right within six (6) months after the date of termination (or within one (1) year after the date of such termination in the case of an Incentive Option) (but in no case after the expiration of the Option), to exercise the Option with respect to all or any part of the shares of stock which such optionee was entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of such termination.

g. Other Termination or For Cause. If the employment of an optionee is terminated for any reason other than those specified in subsections 6(e) and (f) above, such optionee shall have the right, within thirty (30) days (or three (3) months in the case of an Incentive Option) after the date of such termination (but not after the expiration date of the Option), to exercise his Option with respect to all or any part of the shares of stock which such optionee was entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of such termination, except that, if such optionee's employment was terminated by the Company, or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, for good cause, or if the optionee voluntarily terminates employment without the consent of the Company, or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof (of which fact the Committee shall be the sole judge), such optionee shall immediately forfeit all rights under his Option except as to the shares of stock already purchased. Termination for "good cause" shall mean (unless another definition is agreed to in writing by the Company and the optionee) termination by action of the Board of Directors because of: (A) the optionee's theft or embezzlement, or attempted theft or embezzlement, of money or tangible or intangible assets or property of the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, (B) any act or acts of moral turpitude by optionee, (C) other than as a result of a Disability, optionee's failure to devote adequate time to the Company's or such parent corporation's or such subsidiary corporation's business as determined in the reasonable judgment of the Board of Directors, after having given optionee not less than 10 days advance written notice of the asserted problem and a reasonable opportunity to cure, (D) any intentional acts by optionee which establish optionee's loyalty to a business entity or person other than the Company, (E) gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of optionee's duties, (F) conviction of a felony, (G) conviction of a crime, the conviction of which results in a material injury to the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, or (H) a willful material breach of any employment agreement entered into between optionee and the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof. The determination that there exists "good cause" for termination shall be made by the Option Committee (unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Company and the optionee) and such determination shall be conclusive.

h. Maximum Exercise. The aggregate Fair Market Value of stock

(determined at the time of the grant of the Option) with respect to which Incentive Options are exercisable for the first time by an optionee during any calendar year under all plans of the Company, or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, shall not exceed $100,000.

7. Adjustment of Shares

In the event there is any change in the common stock of the Company by reason of any consolidation, combination, liquidation, reorganization, recapitalization, stock dividend, stock split, split-up, split-off, spin-off, combination of shares, exchange of shares or other like change in capital structure of the Company, the number or kind of shares or interests subject to an Option and the per share price or value thereof shall be appropriately adjusted by the Committee at the time of such event, provided that each optionee's position with respect to the Option and the per share price or value thereof shall not, as a result of such adjustment, be worse than it had been immediately prior to such event. Any fractional shares or interests resulting from such adjustment shall be eliminated. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) each such adjustment with respect to an Incentive Option shall comply with the rules of Section 424(a) of the Code, and (ii) in no event shall any adjustment be made which would render any Incentive Option granted hereunder other than an "incentive stock option" for purposes of Section 422 of the Code.

In the event of a Change of Control or a merger between the Company and another corporation in which the Company is not the surviving entity and where any optionee holds Options issued pursuant to this Plan which have not been exercised, such Options shall be cancelled and replacement Options shall be issued by the surviving entity in accordance with Rule 16b-3(f)(1) under the Exchange Act.

8. Miscellaneous Provisions

a. Assignment or Transfer. No grant of any "derivative security" (as defined by Rule 16a-1(c) under the Exchange Act) made under the Plan or any rights or interests therein shall be assignable or transferable by an optionee except by will or the laws of descent and distribution. During the lifetime of an optionee, Options granted hereunder shall be exercisable only by the optionee.

b. Investment Representation. If a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), with respect to the common stock issuable upon exercise of an Option, is not in effect at the time such Option is exercised, the Company may require, for the sole purpose of complying with the Securities Act, that prior to delivering such common stock to the exercising optionee, such optionee must deliver to the Secretary of the Company a written statement (i) representing and warranting that such common stock is being acquired for investment only and not with a view to the resale or distribution thereof, (ii) acknowledging and confirming that such common stock may not be sold unless registered for sale under the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption from such registration and (iii) agreeing that the certificates representing such common stock shall bear a legend to the effect of the foregoing.

If, subsequent to the delivery by an optionee of the written statement described in the preceding paragraph, the common stock issuable upon exercise of an Option is registered under the Securities

Act, the Company may release such optionee from such written statement without effecting a "modification" of the Plan within the meaning of Section 424(h)(3) of the Code.

c. Withholding Taxes. In the case of distributions of common stock or other securities hereunder, the Company, as a condition of such distribution, may require the payment (through withholding from the optionee's salary, reduction of the number of shares of common stock or other securities to be issued, or otherwise) of any federal, state, local or foreign taxes required by law to be withheld with respect to such distribution.

d. Costs and Expenses. The costs and expenses of administering the Plan shall be borne by the Company and shall not be charged against any Option nor to any employee receiving an Option.

e. Funding of Plan. The Plan shall be unfunded. The Company shall not be required to make any segregation of assets to assure the payment of any Option under the Plan.

f. Other Incentive Plans. The adoption of the Plan does not preclude the adoption by appropriate means of any other incentive plan for employees.

g. Effect on Employment. Nothing contained in the Plan or any agreement related hereto or referred to herein shall affect, or be construed as affecting, the terms of employment of any Officer and Key Employee Participants except to the extent specifically provided herein or therein. Nothing contained in the Plan or any agreement related hereto or referred to herein shall impose, or be construed as imposing, an obligation on (i) the Company, or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof, to continue the employment of any Officer and Key Employee Participant, and (ii) any Officer and Key Employee Participant to remain in the employ of the Company, or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof.

9. Definitions

a. "Fair Market Value" shall, as it relates to the common stock of the Company, mean the average of the high and low prices of such common stock as reported on a national stock exchange or as listed for quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System on the date specified herein, or if there were no sales on such date, on the next preceding day on which there were sales, or if such common stock is not listed on a national stock exchange or is not listed for quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System, the value of such common stock on such date as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company in good faith.

b. 10. Amendment of Plan

The Board of Directors of the Company shall have the right to amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Plan at any time, provided that no amendment shall be made which shall increase the total number of shares of the common stock of the Company which may be issued and sold pursuant to Options granted under the Plan or decrease the minimum option price in the case of an Incentive Option, or modify the provisions of the Plan relating to eligibility with respect to Incentive Options unless such amendment is made by or with the approval of the stockholders. Re: Grant of Non-Qualified Stock Option

Dear Mr. Schleppe:

On January 31, 1992, the Board of Directors of Associated Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") adopted, and the stockholders of the Company approved, the Company's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") for certain directors, officers and employees of the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company. A copy of the Plan is annexed to this Option Agreement as Exhibit A hereto and shall be deemed a part of this Option Agreement as if fully set forth herein. Unless the context otherwise requires, all terms defined in the Plan shall have the same meaning when used herein.

1. The Grant

The Company hereby grants to you, effective as of January 31, 1992 (the "Grant Date"), as a matter of separate inducement and not in lieu of any salary or other compensation for your services, the right and option to purchase (the "Option"), in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan and this agreement, an aggregate of 5,681 shares of Class A Common Stock ("common stock") of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (the "Option Shares"), at a price of $10.00 per share (the "Exercise Price") subject to the limitations set forth herein and in the Plan. The Option is not intended to be an incentive stock option within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

2. Vesting and Exercise

Subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 6 of the Plan and other relevant provisions thereof and this Option Agreement you may exercise the Option to purchase some or all of the Option Shares which are Vested Shares (as hereinafter defined) as follows:

(a) For purposes of this agreement, the Option Shares shall be deemed "Nonvested Shares" unless they have become

"Vested Shares" pursuant to the following provisions. The Option Shares shall become Vested Shares as follows:

(i) On January 31, 1993, one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(ii) On January 31, 1994, an additional one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(iii) On January 31, 1995, an additional one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(iv) On January 31, 1996, the remaining one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(b) In addition, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, accelerate the vesting schedule set forth in paragraph (a) above.

(c) Subject to the relevant provisions and limitations contained herein, you may exercise the Option to purchase some or all of the Vested Shares at any time after the vesting thereof. In no event shall you be entitled to exercise the Option for Nonvested Shares or for a fraction of a Vested Share.

(d) The unexercised portion of the Option, if any, will automatically and without notice terminate and become null and void at 5:00 p.m., Central Time on the date three years after the full vesting of all Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option (the "Option Term"). If, however, your employment with the Company or any subsidiary or parent corporation of the Company terminates before such termination date, this Option will terminate on the applicable date as described in paragraph 3 below.

(e) Any exercise by you of the Option shall be in writing addressed to the Corporate Secretary of the Company at its principal place of business and shall be accompanied by the full amount of the Exercise Price of the shares so purchased. Upon proper exercise and payment of the full Exercise Price therefor (either in cash or, at your option, in shares of common stock pursuant to and in the manner provided in Section 5a of the

by you pursuant to such exercise shall be delivered by the Company to you, which certificate shall be registered in your name. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any voting trust agreement is then in effect pursuant to which such shares are required to be deposited in trust, then the Company may, at its option, deliver to the applicable voting trustee or trustees thereunder such certificate for deposit in such voting trust and you shall receive such voting trust certificate or certificates as are contemplated under the terms and provisions of such voting trust agreement.

(f) Upon the occurrence of a Major Transaction (as hereinafter defined) all outstanding Option Shares, whether such Option Shares are Vested Shares or Unvested Shares, shall be treated solely for the purposes of this paragraph (f) as if they had been exercised in full immediately prior to such Major Transaction. Accordingly, you shall receive your pro rata share of any distribution of cash or property distributed to the holders of common stock. As used herein the term "Major Transaction" shall be deemed to have occurred if:

(i) the Company shall consummate any recapitalization or refinancing that results in a distribution of cash or property to the holders of common stock of the Company;

(ii) the Company shall consummate any sale or exchange in a transaction or series of transactions by the Company of all or substantially all of its assets; or

(iii) the Company shall consummate a merger, consolidation or like business combination or reorganization, which results in an occurrence or has the effect of any event described in clause (i) or clause (ii) above.

3. Termination of Employment

Upon the termination of your employment with the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, the Option shall, to the extent not previously exercised, automatically terminate and become null and void, provided that:

(1) if you shall die while in the employ of the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, your estate may, until the earlier of (x) six (6) months after the date of death or (y) the expiration of the

Option Term, exercise the Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of your death;

(2) in the case of termination of your employment due to Disability, you may, until the earlier of (x) six (6) months after the date your employment terminates or (y) the expiration of the Option Term, exercise the Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of such termination; and

(3) in the case of termination for any reason other than those specified in (1) or (2) above, you may, until the earlier of (x) thirty (30) days after the date of such termination or (y) the expiration of the Option Term, exercise your Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to such termination, except that, if you are terminated for good cause (as defined in the Plan and as determined by the Committee) or if you voluntarily terminate your employment with the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company without the consent of the Company or any such parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, then you shall forfeit your rights under the Option except as to those Option Shares already purchased.

4. Transferability

The Option is not transferable by you otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution and is exercisable, during your lifetime, only by you. The Option may not be assigned, transferred (except by will or the laws of descent and distribution), pledged or hypothecated in any way (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar proceeding. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of this Option contrary to the provisions hereof or of the Plan, and the levy of any attachment or similar proceeding upon the Option, shall be null and void and without effect.

By your acceptance of this Option Agreement, you agree that you will not sell or otherwise dispose of the Option, any common stock acquired pursuant to the Option or any other "derivative security" (as defined by Rule 16a-1(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) during the period ending six months from the date hereof, and you further agree that any such common stock or any other derivative security shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations on transfer contained in any stockholders agreement or similar agreement to which you may be a party at the time you acquire such common stock or such derivative security pursuant to the exercise of the Option.

5. Reduction in Option Shares Based on IRR Achieved

(a) The number of Option Shares purchasable or purchased by you upon the exercise of the Option granted hereunder shall be reduced automatically to the extent that the IRR (as defined below) achieved by the Sponsor Holders (as defined below) is less than 60%. Such reduction in Option Shares shall be based on the table set forth on Exhibit B hereto. No reduction in the number of such
Option Shares shall occur if the IRR so achieved by the Sponsor Holders is 60% or greater. If the IRR so achieved is less than 35%, the Option granted hereunder shall terminate and any and all Option Shares previously purchased pursuant to any exercise of the Option shall automatically be cancelled and the certificates representing such Option Shares returned to the Company. You hereby grant to the Company your power of attorney to effect any and all reductions and cancellations permitted hereunder and to execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all documents and instruments on your behalf deemed necessary by the Company to effect such reductions and cancellations. In the event of a reduction of the number of Option Shares, the reduction will be applied first to any Unvested Shares, second to any unexercised portion of Vested Shares subject to the Option in the inverse order of exerciseability until the unissued Option Shares are exhausted, and then to any issued Option Shares.

(b) Upon each date Liquid Proceeds (as defined below) are received or first held by the Sponsor Holders, the IRR to that date shall be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company taking account of the dates and amounts used in prior calculations and the properties that have become Liquid Proceeds on such date. The reduction, if any, under this Section 5 shall be computed by using the highest IRR computed on any such date or the final calculation date under paragraph (d) below.

(c) If Option Shares have been purchased under the Option and are thereafter cancelled, the Company shall return the amount of the Exercise Price paid with respect thereto, together with interest from the date of exercise to the date of return at the applicable federal long-term rate plus 100 basis points.

(d) As used herein, the term "IRR" shall mean the annual rate of return to the Sponsor Holders on their Common Stock Investment (as defined below), compounded annually, from January 31, 1992 to the date of calculation. A final calculation shall be made on the earliest of (i) January 31, 2000; (ii) the date the Sponsor Holders collectively have disposed of all of their shares of common stock and hold no other property received with respect to such shares of common stock that is not Liquid Proceeds; and (iii) the first date that the Sponsor Holders own only Liquid Proceeds with respect to their shares of common stock. For purposes of computing IRR at any time (i) only Liquid Proceeds received or held by the Sponsor Holders in respect of their Common Stock

Investment shall be included as a payment or distribution in respect thereof and (ii) all fee income and warrants or other rights to acquire common stock or other capital stock of the Company shall be disregarded.

(e) As used herein, the term "Sponsor Holders" shall mean, collectively, Wingate Partners, L.P. and its affiliates.

(f) As used herein, the term "Common Stock Investment" shall mean the purchase price for the shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company purchased by the Sponsor Holders at the closing of the acquisition of the wholesale division of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation by Associated Stationers, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, but excluding any shares of common stock sold or otherwise transferred by any Sponsor Holder to any officer, director or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

(g) As used herein, the term "Liquid Proceeds" shall mean (i) shares of stock or other securities that (A) are registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), (B) are traded on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or one approved for quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System at the time of calculation of the IRR, and (C) can be sold on such market by the holder without incurring a significant discount from the average of the bid and asked prices for such shares of stock or other securities at such time; (ii) currency of the United States of America; (iii) negotiable instruments drawn on a bank with at least $10 billion in assets and payable in currency of the United States of America; (iv) obligations issued or assumed by the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof; and (v) on January 31, 2000 any shares of common stock of the Company or any other property received upon or with respect to shares of common stock of the Company then held by the Sponsor Holders, which was not previously treated as Liquid Proceeds shall be deemed to have been sold for an amount of cash equal to its then fair market value as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and treated as Liquid Proceeds.

(h) any certificate or certificates (including without limitation, any voting trust certificates) representing any Option Shares purchased by you hereunder shall bear such legends as the Company deems reasonably necessary to protect the parties hereto including, without limitation, a legend evidencing the reduction and cancellation rights of the Company pursuant to this Section 5.

6. Registration

Unless there is in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act with respect to the issuance of the Option Shares (and, if required, there is available for delivery a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act), you will, upon the exercise of the Option (i) represent and warrant in writing to the Corporate Secretary of the Company that the Option Shares then being purchased by you pursuant to the Option are being acquired for investment only and not with a view to the resale or distribution thereof, (ii) acknowledge and confirm that the Option Shares purchased may not be sold unless registered for sale under the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption from such registration and (iii) agree that the certificates evidencing such Option Shares shall bear a legend to the effect of the foregoing.

7. Withholding Taxes

By your acceptance hereof, and in accordance with Section 8(c) of the Plan, you agree that (i) in the case of issuance of common stock or other securities hereunder, the Company, as a condition of such issuance may require the payment (through withholding from any payment otherwise due you from the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company or, at your option, a reduction in the number of shares of common stock of the Company to be received, determined by the fair market value of such shares) of any federal, state, local or foreign taxes required by law to be withheld with respect to such issuance, and (ii) the Company shall have the right to establish such other procedures as it may determine in its sole discretion with respect to such issuances.

8. Miscellaneous

(a) This Option Agreement is subject to all the terms, conditions, limitations and restrictions contained in the Plan. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms hereof and the terms of the Plan, the terms of the Plan shall be controlling.

(b) This Option Agreement is not a contract of employment and the terms of your employment shall not be affected hereby or by any agreement referred to herein except to the extent specifically so provided herein or therein. Nothing herein shall be construed to impose any obligation on the Company or on any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company to continue your employment, and it shall not impose any obligation on your part to remain in the employ of the Company or of any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company.

Please indicate your acceptance of all the terms and conditions of the Option and the Plan by signing and returning a copy of this Option Agreement.

Very truly yours,

Re: Grant of Non-Qualified Stock Option

Dear Mr. Rowsey:

On January 31, 1992, the Board of Directors of Associated Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") adopted, and the stockholders of the Company approved, the Company's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") for certain directors, officers and employees of the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company. A copy of the Plan is annexed to this Option Agreement as Exhibit A hereto and shall be deemed a part of this Option Agreement as if fully set forth herein. Unless the context otherwise requires, all terms defined in the Plan shall have the same meaning when used herein.

1. The Grant

The Company hereby grants to you, effective as of January 31, 1992 (the "Grant Date"), as a matter of separate inducement and not in lieu of any salary or other compensation for your services, the right and option to purchase (the "Option"), in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan and this agreement, an aggregate of 6,679 shares of Class A Common Stock ("common stock") of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (the "Option Shares"), at a price of $10.00 per share (the "Exercise Price") subject to the limitations set forth herein and in the Plan. The Option is not intended to be an incentive stock option within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

2. Vesting and Exercise

Subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 6 of the Plan and other relevant provisions thereof and this Option Agreement you may exercise the Option to purchase some or all of the Option Shares which are Vested Shares (as hereinafter defined) as follows:

(a) For purposes of this agreement, the Option Shares shall be deemed "Nonvested Shares" unless they have become

"Vested Shares" pursuant to the following provisions. The Option Shares shall become Vested Shares as follows:

(i) On January 31, 1993, one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(ii) On January 31, 1994, an additional one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(iii) On January 31, 1995, an additional one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(iv) On January 31, 1996, the remaining one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(b) In addition, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, accelerate the vesting schedule set forth in paragraph (a) above.

(c) Subject to the relevant provisions and limitations contained herein, you may exercise the Option to purchase some or all of the Vested Shares at any time after the vesting thereof. In no event shall you be entitled to exercise the Option for Nonvested Shares or for a fraction of a Vested Share.

(d) The unexercised portion of the Option, if any, will automatically and without notice terminate and become null and void at 5:00 p.m., Central Time on the date three years after the full vesting of all Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option (the "Option Term"). If, however, your employment with the Company or any subsidiary or parent corporation of the Company terminates before such termination date, this Option will terminate on the applicable date as described in paragraph 3 below.

(e) Any exercise by you of the Option shall be in writing addressed to the Corporate Secretary of the Company at its principal place of business and shall be accompanied by the full amount of the Exercise Price of the shares so purchased. Upon proper exercise and payment of the full Exercise Price therefor (either in cash or, at your option, in shares of common stock pursuant to and in the manner provided in Section 5a of the Plan), a certificate evidencing the number of shares of common stock purchased by you pursuant to such exercise shall be delivered by the Company to you, which certificate shall be registered in your name. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any voting trust agreement is then in effect pursuant to which such shares are required to be deposited in trust, then the Company may, at its option, deliver to the applicable voting trustee or trustees thereunder such certificate for deposit in such voting trust and you shall receive such voting trust certificate or certificates as are contemplated under the terms and provisions of such voting trust agreement.

(f) Upon the occurrence of a Major Transaction (as hereinafter defined) all outstanding Option Shares, whether such Option Shares are Vested Shares or Unvested Shares, shall be treated solely for the purposes of this paragraph (f) as if they had been exercised in full immediately prior to such Major Transaction. Accordingly, you shall receive your pro rata share of any distribution of cash or property distributed to the holders of common stock. As used herein the term "Major Transaction" shall be deemed to have occurred if:

(i) the Company shall consummate any recapitalization or refinancing that results in a distribution of cash or property to the holders of common stock of the Company;

(ii) the Company shall consummate any sale or exchange in a transaction or series of transactions by the Company of all or substantially all of its assets; or

(iii) the Company shall consummate a merger, consolidation or like business combination or reorganization, which results in an occurrence or has the effect of any event described in clause (i) or clause (ii) above.

3. Termination of Employment

Upon the termination of your employment with the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, the Option shall, to the extent not previously exercised, automatically terminate and become null and void, provided that:

(1) if you shall die while in the employ of the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, your estate may, until the earlier of (x) six (6) months after the date of death or (y) the expiration of the

Option Term, exercise the Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of your death;

(2) in the case of termination of your employment due to Disability, you may, until the earlier of (x) six (6) months after the date your employment terminates or (y) the expiration of the Option Term, exercise the Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of such termination; and

(3) in the case of termination for any reason other than those specified in (1) or (2) above, you may, until the earlier of (x) thirty (30) days after the date of such termination or (y) the expiration of the Option Term, exercise your Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to such termination, except that, if you are terminated for good cause (as defined in the Plan and as determined by the Committee) or if you voluntarily terminate your employment with the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company without the consent of the Company or any such parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, then you shall forfeit your rights under the Option except as to those Option Shares already purchased.

4. Transferability

The Option is not transferable by you otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution and is exercisable, during your lifetime, only by you. The Option may not be assigned, transferred (except by will or the laws of descent and distribution), pledged or hypothecated in any way (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar proceeding. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of this Option contrary to the provisions hereof or of the Plan, and the levy of any attachment or similar proceeding upon the Option, shall be null and void and without effect.

By your acceptance of this Option Agreement, you agree that you will not sell or otherwise dispose of the Option, any common stock acquired pursuant to the Option or any other "derivative security" (as defined by Rule 16a-1(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) during the period ending six months from the date hereof, and you further agree that any such common stock or any other derivative security shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations on transfer contained in any stockholders agreement or similar agreement to which you may be a party at the time you acquire such common stock or such derivative security pursuant to the exercise of the Option.

5. Reduction in Option Shares Based on IRR Achieved

(a) The number of Option Shares purchasable or purchased by you upon the exercise of the Option granted hereunder shall be reduced automatically to the extent that the IRR (as defined below) achieved by the Sponsor Holders (as defined below) is less than 60%. Such reduction in Option Shares shall be based on the table set forth on Exhibit B hereto. No reduction in the number of such Option Shares shall occur if the IRR so achieved by the Sponsor Holders is 60% or greater. If the IRR so achieved is less than 35%, the Option granted hereunder shall terminate and any and all Option Shares previously purchased pursuant to any exercise of the Option shall automatically be cancelled and the certificates representing such Option Shares returned to the Company. You hereby grant to the Company your power of attorney to effect any and all reductions and cancellations permitted hereunder and to execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all documents and instruments on your behalf deemed necessary by the Company to effect such reductions and cancellations. In the event of a reduction of the number of Option Shares, the reduction will be applied first to any Unvested Shares, second to any unexercised portion of Vested Shares subject to the Option in the inverse order of exerciseability until the unissued Option Shares are exhausted, and then to any issued Option Shares.

(b) Upon each date Liquid Proceeds (as defined below) are received or first held by the Sponsor Holders, the IRR to that date shall be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company taking account of the dates and amounts used in prior calculations and the properties that have become Liquid Proceeds on such date. The reduction, if any, under this Section 5 shall be computed by using the highest IRR computed on any such date or the final calculation date under paragraph (d) below.

(c) If Option Shares have been purchased under the Option and are thereafter cancelled, the Company shall return the amount of the Exercise Price paid with respect thereto, together with interest from the date of exercise to the date of return at the applicable federal long-term rate plus 100 basis points.

(d) As used herein, the term "IRR" shall mean the annual rate of return to the Sponsor Holders on their Common Stock Investment (as defined below), compounded annually, from January 31, 1992 to the date of calculation. A final calculation shall be made on the earliest of (i) January 31, 2000; (ii) the date the Sponsor Holders collectively have disposed of all of their shares of common stock and hold no other property received with respect to such shares of common stock that is not Liquid Proceeds; and (iii) the first date that the Sponsor Holders own only Liquid Proceeds with respect to their shares of common stock. For purposes of computing IRR at any time (i) only Liquid Proceeds received or held by the Sponsor Holders in respect of their Common Stock Investment shall be included as a payment or distribution in respect thereof and (ii) all fee income and warrants or other rights to acquire common stock or other capital stock of the Company shall be disregarded.

(f) As used herein, the term "Common Stock Investment" shall mean the purchase price for the shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company purchased by the Sponsor Holders at the closing of the acquisition of the wholesale division of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation by Associated Stationers, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, but excluding any shares of common stock sold or otherwise transferred by any Sponsor Holder to any officer, director or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.
