thereof; and (v) on January 31, 2000 any shares of common stock of the Company or any other property received upon or with respect to shares of common stock of the Company then held by the Sponsor Holders, which was not previously treated as Liquid Proceeds shall be deemed to have been sold for an amount of cash equal to its then fair market value as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and treated as Liquid Proceeds.

(h) any certificate or certificates (including without limitation, any voting trust certificates) representing any Option Shares purchased by you hereunder shall bear such legends

as the Company deems reasonably necessary to protect the parties hereto including, without limitation, a legend evidencing the reduction and cancellation rights of the Company pursuant to this Section 5.

6. Registration

Unless there is in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act with respect to the issuance of the Option Shares (and, if required, there is available for delivery a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act), you will, upon the exercise of the Option (i) represent and warrant in writing to the Corporate Secretary of the Company that the Option Shares then being purchased by you pursuant to the Option are being acquired for investment only and not with a view to the resale or distribution thereof, (ii) acknowledge and confirm that the Option Shares purchased may not be sold unless registered for sale under the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption from such registration and (iii) agree that the certificates evidencing such Option Shares shall bear a legend to the effect of the foregoing.

7. Withholding Taxes

By your acceptance hereof, and in accordance with Section 8(c) of the Plan, you agree that (i) in the case of issuance of common stock or other securities hereunder, the Company, as a condition of such issuance may require the payment (through withholding from any payment otherwise due you from the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company or, at your option, a reduction in the number of shares of common stock of the Company to be received, determined by the fair market value of such shares) of any federal, state, local or foreign taxes required by law to be withheld with respect to such issuance, and (ii) the Company shall have the right to establish such other procedures as it may determine in its sole discretion with respect to such issuances.

8. Miscellaneous

(a) This Option Agreement is subject to all the terms, conditions, limitations and restrictions contained in the Plan. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms hereof and the terms of the Plan, the terms of the Plan shall be controlling.

(b) This Option Agreement is not a contract of employment and the terms of your employment shall not be affected hereby or by any agreement referred to herein except to the extent specifically so provided herein or therein. Nothing herein shall be construed to impose any obligation on the Company or on any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company to continue your employment, and it shall not impose any obligation on your part to remain in the employ of the Company or of any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company.

Please indicate your acceptance of all the terms and conditions of the Option and the Plan by signing and returning a copy of this Option Agreement.

Very truly yours,

Re: Grant of Non-Qualified Stock Option

Dear Mr. Miller:

On January 31, 1992, the Board of Directors of Associated Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") adopted, and the stockholders of the Company approved, the Company's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") for certain directors, officers and employees of the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company. A copy of the Plan is annexed to this Option Agreement as Exhibit A hereto and shall be deemed a part of this Option Agreement as if fully set forth herein. Unless the context otherwise requires, all terms defined in the Plan shall have the same meaning when used herein.

1. The Grant

The Company hereby grants to you, effective as of January 31, 1992 (the "Grant Date"), as a matter of separate inducement and not in lieu of any salary or other compensation for your services, the right and option to purchase (the "Option"), in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan and this agreement, an aggregate of 4,163 shares of Class A Common Stock ("common stock") of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (the "Option Shares"), at a price of $10.00 per share (the "Exercise Price") subject to the limitations set forth herein and in the Plan. The Option is not intended to be an incentive stock option within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

2. Vesting and Exercise

Subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 6 of the Plan and other relevant provisions thereof and this Option Agreement you may exercise the Option to purchase some or all of the Option Shares which are Vested Shares (as hereinafter defined) as follows:

(a) For purposes of this agreement, the Option Shares shall be deemed "Nonvested Shares" unless they have become "Vested Shares" pursuant to the following provisions. The Option Shares shall become Vested Shares as follows:

(i) On January 31, 1993, one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(ii) On January 31, 1994, an additional one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(iii) On January 31, 1995, an additional one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(iv) On January 31, 1996, the remaining one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(b) In addition, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, accelerate the vesting schedule set forth in paragraph (a) above.

(c) Subject to the relevant provisions and limitations contained herein, you may exercise the Option to purchase some or all of the Vested Shares at any time after the vesting thereof. In no event shall you be entitled to exercise the Option for Nonvested Shares or for a fraction of a Vested Share.

(d) The unexercised portion of the Option, if any, will automatically and without notice terminate and become null and void at 5:00 p.m., Central Time on the date three years after the full vesting of all Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option (the "Option Term"). If, however, your employment with the Company or any subsidiary or parent corporation of the Company terminates before such termination date, this Option will terminate on the applicable date as described in paragraph 3 below.

(e) Any exercise by you of the Option shall be in writing addressed to the Corporate Secretary of the Company at its principal place of business and shall be accompanied by the full amount of the Exercise Price of the shares so purchased. Upon proper exercise and payment of the full Exercise Price therefor (either in cash or, at your option, in shares of common stock pursuant to and in the manner provided in Section 5a of the Plan), a certificate evidencing the number of shares of common stock purchased by you pursuant to such exercise shall be delivered by the Company to you, which certificate shall be registered in your name. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any voting trust agreement is then in effect pursuant to which such shares are required to be deposited in trust, then the Company may, at its option, deliver to the applicable voting trustee or trustees thereunder such certificate for deposit in such voting trust and you shall receive such voting trust certificate or certificates as are contemplated under the terms and provisions of such voting trust agreement.

(f) Upon the occurrence of a Major Transaction (as hereinafter defined) all outstanding Option Shares, whether such Option Shares are Vested Shares or Unvested Shares, shall be treated solely for the purposes of this paragraph (f) as if they had been exercised in full immediately prior to such Major Transaction. Accordingly, you shall receive your pro rata share of any distribution of cash or property distributed to the holders of common stock. As used herein the term "Major Transaction" shall be deemed to have occurred if:

(i) the Company shall consummate any recapitalization or refinancing that results in a distribution of cash or property to the holders of common stock of the Company;

(ii) the Company shall consummate any sale or exchange in a transaction or series of transactions by the Company of all or substantially all of its assets; or

(iii) the Company shall consummate a merger, consolidation or like business combination or reorganization, which results in an occurrence or has the effect of any event described in clause (i) or clause (ii) above.

3. Termination of Employment

Upon the termination of your employment with the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, the Option shall, to the extent not previously exercised, automatically terminate and become null and void, provided that:

(1) if you shall die while in the employ of the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, your estate may, until the earlier of (x) six (6) months after the date of death or (y) the expiration of the

Option Term, exercise the Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of your death;

(2) in the case of termination of your employment due to Disability, you may, until the earlier of (x) six (6) months after the date your employment terminates or (y) the expiration of the Option Term, exercise the Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of such termination; and

(3) in the case of termination for any reason other than those specified in (1) or (2) above, you may, until the earlier of (x) thirty (30) days after the date of such termination or (y) the expiration of the Option Term, exercise your Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to such termination, except that, if you are terminated for good cause (as defined in the Plan and as determined by the Committee) or if you voluntarily terminate your employment with the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company without the consent of the Company or any such parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, then you shall forfeit your rights under the Option except as to those Option Shares already purchased.

4. Transferability

The Option is not transferable by you otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution and is exercisable, during your lifetime, only by you. The Option may not be assigned, transferred (except by will or the laws of descent and distribution), pledged or hypothecated in any way (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar proceeding. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of this Option contrary to the provisions hereof or of the Plan, and the levy of any attachment or similar proceeding upon the Option, shall be null and void and without effect.

By your acceptance of this Option Agreement, you agree that you will not sell or otherwise dispose of the Option, any common stock acquired pursuant to the Option or any other "derivative security" (as defined by Rule 16a-1(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) during the period ending six months from the date hereof, and you further agree that any such common stock or any other derivative security shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations on transfer contained in any stockholders agreement or similar agreement to which you may be a party at the time you acquire such common stock or such derivative security pursuant to the exercise of the Option.

5. Reduction in Option Shares Based on IRR Achieved

(a) The number of Option Shares purchasable or purchased by you upon the exercise of the Option granted hereunder shall be reduced automatically to the extent that the IRR (as defined below) achieved by the Sponsor Holders (as defined below) is less than 60%. Such reduction in Option Shares shall be based on the table set forth on Exhibit B hereto. No reduction in the number of such Option Shares shall occur if the IRR so achieved by the Sponsor Holders is 60% or greater. If the IRR so achieved is less than 35%, the Option granted hereunder shall terminate and any and all Option Shares previously purchased pursuant to any exercise of the Option shall automatically be cancelled and the certificates representing such Option Shares returned to the Company. You hereby grant to the Company your power of attorney to effect any and all reductions and cancellations permitted hereunder and to execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all documents and instruments on your behalf deemed necessary by the Company to effect such reductions and cancellations. In the event of a reduction of the number of Option Shares, the reduction will be applied first to any Unvested Shares, second to any unexercised portion of Vested Shares subject to the Option in the inverse order of exerciseability until the unissued Option Shares are exhausted, and then to any issued Option Shares.

(b) Upon each date Liquid Proceeds (as defined below) are received or first held by the Sponsor Holders, the IRR to that date shall be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company taking account of the dates and amounts used in prior calculations and the properties that have become Liquid Proceeds on such date. The reduction, if any, under this Section 5 shall be computed by using the highest IRR computed on any such date or the final calculation date under paragraph (d) below.

(c) If Option Shares have been purchased under the Option and are thereafter cancelled, the Company shall return the amount of the Exercise Price paid with respect thereto, together with interest from the date of exercise to the date of return at the applicable federal long-term rate plus 100 basis points.

(d) As used herein, the term "IRR" shall mean the annual rate of return to the Sponsor Holders on their Common Stock Investment (as defined below), compounded annually, from January 31, 1992 to the date of calculation. A final calculation shall be made on the earliest of (i) January 31, 2000; (ii) the date the Sponsor Holders collectively have disposed of all of their shares of common stock and hold no other property received with respect to such shares of common stock that is not Liquid Proceeds; and (iii) the first date that the Sponsor Holders own only Liquid Proceeds with respect to their shares of common stock. For purposes of computing IRR at any time (i) only Liquid Proceeds received or held by the Sponsor Holders in respect of their Common Stock Investment shall be included as a payment or distribution in respect thereof and

(ii) all fee income and warrants or other rights to acquire common stock or other capital stock of the Company shall be disregarded.

(e) As used herein, the term "Sponsor Holders" shall mean, collectively, Wingate Partners, L.P. and its affiliates.

(f) As used herein, the term "Common Stock Investment" shall mean the purchase price for the shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company purchased by the Sponsor Holders at the closing of the acquisition of the wholesale division of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation by Associated Stationers, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, but excluding any shares of common stock sold or otherwise transferred by any Sponsor Holder to any officer, director or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

(g) As used herein, the term "Liquid Proceeds" shall mean (i) shares of stock or other securities that (A) are registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), (B) are traded on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or one approved for quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System at the time of calculation of the IRR, and (C) can be sold on such market by the holder without incurring a significant discount from the average of the bid and asked prices for such shares of stock or other securities at such time; (ii) currency of the United States of America; (iii) negotiable instruments drawn on a bank with at least $10 billion in assets and payable in currency of the United States of America; (iv) obligations issued or assumed by the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof; and (v) on January 31, 2000 any shares of common stock of the Company or any other property received upon or with respect to shares of common stock of the Company then held by the Sponsor Holders, which was not previously treated as Liquid Proceeds shall be deemed to have been sold for an amount of cash equal to its then fair market value as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and treated as Liquid Proceeds.

(h) any certificate or certificates (including without limitation, any voting trust certificates) representing any Option Shares purchased by you hereunder shall bear such legends

as the Company deems reasonably necessary to protect the parties hereto including, without limitation, a legend evidencing the reduction and cancellation rights of the Company pursuant to this Section 5.

6. Registration

Unless there is in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act with respect to the issuance of the Option Shares (and, if required, there is available for delivery a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act), you will, upon the exercise of the Option (i) represent and warrant in writing to the Corporate Secretary of the Company that the Option Shares then being purchased by you pursuant to the Option are being acquired for investment only and not with a view to the resale or distribution thereof, (ii) acknowledge and confirm that the Option Shares purchased may not be sold unless registered for sale under the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption from such registration and (iii) agree that the certificates evidencing such Option Shares shall bear a legend to the effect of the foregoing.

7. Withholding Taxes

By your acceptance hereof, and in accordance with Section 8(c) of the Plan, you agree that (i) in the case of issuance of common stock or other securities hereunder, the Company, as a condition of such issuance may require the payment (through withholding from any payment otherwise due you from the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company or, at your option, a reduction in the number of shares of common stock of the Company to be received, determined by the fair market value of such shares) of any federal, state, local or foreign taxes required by law to be withheld with respect to such issuance, and (ii) the Company shall have the right to establish such other procedures as it may determine in its sole discretion with respect to such issuances.

8. Miscellaneous

(a) This Option Agreement is subject to all the terms, conditions, limitations and restrictions contained in the Plan. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms hereof and the terms of the Plan, the terms of the Plan shall be controlling.

(b) This Option Agreement is not a contract of employment and the terms of your employment shall not be affected hereby or by any agreement referred to herein except to the extent specifically so provided herein or therein. Nothing herein shall be construed to impose any obligation on the Company or on any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company to continue your employment, and it shall not impose any obligation on your part to remain in the employ of the Company or of any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company.

Please indicate your acceptance of all the terms and conditions of the Option and the Plan by signing and returning a copy of this Option Agreement.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Eberspacher:

On January 31, 1992, the Board of Directors of Associated Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") adopted, and the stockholders of the Company approved, the Company's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") for certain directors, officers and employees of the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company. A copy of the Plan is annexed to this Option Agreement as Exhibit A hereto and shall be deemed a part of this Option Agreement as if fully set forth herein. Unless the context otherwise requires, all terms defined in the Plan shall have the same meaning when used herein.

1. The Grant

The Company hereby grants to you, effective as of January 31, 1992 (the "Grant Date"), as a matter of separate inducement and not in lieu of any salary or other compensation for your services, the right and option to purchase

(the "Option"), in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan and this agreement, an aggregate of 5,161 shares of Class A Common Stock ("common stock") of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (the "Option Shares"), at a price of $10.00 per share (the "Exercise Price") subject to the limitations set forth herein and in the Plan. 2. Vesting and Exercise

Subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 6 of the Plan and other relevant provisions thereof and this Option Agreement you may exercise the Option to purchase some or all of the Option Shares which are Vested Shares (as hereinafter defined) as follows:

(a) For purposes of this agreement, the Option Shares shall be deemed "Nonvested Shares" unless they have become

"Vested Shares" pursuant to the following provisions. The Option Shares shall become Vested Shares as follows:

(i) On January 31, 1993, one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(ii) On January 31, 1994, an additional one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(iv) On January 31, 1996, the remaining one-fourth of the Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option shall become Vested Shares without further action by the Board of Directors.

(b) In addition, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, accelerate the vesting schedule set forth in paragraph (a) above.

(c) Subject to the relevant provisions and limitations contained herein, you may exercise the Option to purchase some or all of the Vested Shares at any time after the vesting thereof. In no event shall you be entitled to exercise the Option for Nonvested Shares or for a fraction of a Vested Share.

(d) The unexercised portion of the Option, if any, will automatically and without notice terminate and become null and void at 5:00 p.m., Central Time on the date three years after the full vesting of all Option Shares reserved for issuance under the Option (the "Option Term"). If, however, your employment with the Company or any subsidiary or parent corporation of the Company terminates before such termination date, this Option will terminate on the applicable date as described in paragraph 3 below.

(e) Any exercise by you of the Option shall be in writing addressed to the Corporate Secretary of the Company at its principal place of business and shall be accompanied by the full amount of the Exercise Price of the shares so purchased. Upon proper exercise and payment of the full Exercise Price therefor (either in cash or, at your option, in shares of common stock pursuant to and in the manner provided in Section 5a of the Plan), a certificate evidencing the number of shares of common stock purchased by you pursuant to such exercise shall be delivered by the Company to you, which certificate shall be registered in your name. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any voting trust agreement is then in effect pursuant to which such shares are required to be deposited in trust, then the Company may, at its option, deliver to the applicable voting trustee or trustees thereunder such certificate for deposit in such voting trust and you shall receive such voting trust certificate or certificates as are contemplated under the terms and provisions of such voting trust agreement.

(f) Upon the occurrence of a Major Transaction (as hereinafter defined) all outstanding Option Shares, whether such Option Shares are Vested Shares or Unvested Shares, shall be treated solely for the purposes of this paragraph (f) as if they had been exercised in full immediately prior to such Major Transaction. (ii) the Company shall consummate any sale or exchange in a transaction or series of transactions by the Company of all or substantially all of its assets; or

(iii) the Company shall consummate a merger, consolidation or like business combination or reorganization, which results in an occurrence or has the effect of any event described in clause (i) or clause (ii) above.

3. Termination of Employment

Upon the termination of your employment with the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, the Option shall, to the extent not previously exercised, automatically terminate and become null and void, provided that:

(1) if you shall die while in the employ of the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, your estate may, until the earlier of (x) six (6) months after the date of death or (y) the expiration of the

Option Term, exercise the Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of your death;

(2) in the case of termination of your employment due to Disability, you may, until the earlier of (x) six (6) months after the date your employment terminates or (y) the expiration of the Option Term, exercise the Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to the time of such termination; and

(3) in the case of termination for any reason other than those specified in (1) or (2) above, you may, until the earlier of (x) thirty (30) days after the date of such termination or (y) the expiration of the Option Term, exercise your Option with respect to all or any part of the Option Shares which you were entitled to purchase immediately prior to such termination, except that, if you are terminated for good cause (as defined in the Plan and as determined by the Committee) or if you voluntarily terminate your employment with the Company or any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company without the consent of the Company or any such parent corporation or subsidiary corporation of the Company, then you shall forfeit your rights under the Option except as to those Option Shares already purchased.

4. Transferability

Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of this Option contrary to the provisions hereof or of the Plan, and the levy of any attachment or similar proceeding upon the Option, shall be null and void and without effect.

By your acceptance of this Option Agreement, you agree that you will not sell or otherwise dispose of the Option, any common stock acquired pursuant to the Option or any other "derivative security" (as defined by Rule 16a-1(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) during the period ending six months from the date hereof, and you further agree that any such common stock or any other derivative security shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations on transfer contained in any stockholders agreement or similar agreement to which you may be a party at the time you acquire such common stock or such derivative security pursuant to the exercise of the Option.

5. Reduction in Option Shares Based on IRR Achieved

(a) The number of Option Shares purchasable or purchased by you upon the exercise of the Option granted hereunder shall be reduced automatically to the extent that the IRR (as defined below) achieved by the Sponsor Holders (as defined below) is less than 60%. Such reduction in Option Shares shall be based on the table set forth on Exhibit B hereto. No reduction in the number of such Option Shares shall occur if the IRR so achieved by the Sponsor Holders is 60% or greater. If the IRR so achieved is less than 35%, the Option granted hereunder shall terminate and any and all Option Shares previously purchased pursuant to any exercise of the Option shall automatically be cancelled and the certificates representing such Option Shares returned to the Company. You hereby grant to the Company your power of attorney to effect any and all reductions and cancellations permitted hereunder and to execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all documents and instruments on your behalf deemed necessary by the Company to effect such reductions and cancellations. The reduction, if any, under this Section 5 shall be computed by using the highest IRR computed on any such date or the final calculation date under paragraph (d) below.

(c) If Option Shares have been purchased under the Option and are thereafter cancelled, the Company shall return the amount of the Exercise Price paid with respect thereto, together with interest from the date of exercise to the date of return at the applicable federal long-term rate plus 100 basis points.

(d) As used herein, the term "IRR" shall mean the annual rate of return to the Sponsor Holders on their Common Stock Investment (as defined below), compounded annually, from January 31, 1992 to the date of calculation. A final calculation shall be made on the earliest of (i) January 31, 2000; (ii) the

EXHIBIT 10.26

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC.
EXECUTIVE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT

This EXECUTIVE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of January 31, 1992, and is by and among WINGATE PARTNERS, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Wingate"), ASI PARTNERS, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("ASI"), ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Daniel J. Schleppe ("Executive").

Executive desires to purchase, and Wingate and ASI desire to sell, shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Common Stock"), and Class A Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Preferred Stock"), of the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained herein.

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Purchase and Sale. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, each of Wingate and ASI severally agrees to sell, and the Executive agrees to purchase, the number of shares of Common Stock and the number of shares of Preferred Stock set forth below the Executive's name on the signature page hereto for the respective purchase prices also set forth below the Executive's name on the signature page hereto. The number of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be sold by Wingate is herein called the "Wingate Portion" and the number of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be sold by ASI is herein called the "ASI Portion." Executive acknowledges and understands that each of Wingate and ASI have borrowed funds (the "Loans") in order to purchase the Wingate Portion and ASI Portion at the closing of the acquisition by the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Associated Stationers, Inc. ("Stationers"), of the business and assets of the wholesale division of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation (the "Acquisition Closing"). Accordingly, at the Closing (as defined below), in addition to the payment of the purchase price paid by Executive for the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion, the Executive shall reimburse each of Wingate and ASI for the interest costs of the Loans incurred by them from the date of the Loans until the Closing (the "Borrowing Costs"). Additionally, the Executive may allocate all or a portion of the Common Stock and/or Preferred Stock to be purchased hereunder to one or more individual retirement account or accounts of the Executive (collectively, the "IRA"). For purposes of this Agreement, all references to Executive herein shall include reference to his IRA to the extent appropriate.

2. Closing.

(a) The purchase and sale of the shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock contemplated above will take place at a closing (the "Closing") at a place or places mutually acceptable to the Executive, Wingate, and ASI and shall occur on a date not later than June 1, 1992; provided the Executive shall have the right to extend the Closing two times for a period of not greater than 30 days each time by giving written notice of such requested extension to each of Wingate and ASI at their respective addresses set forth on the signature pages hereto at least two days prior to the then scheduled date for Closing, but in no event shall the Closing take place later than July 31, 1992. If any and all conditions to the Executive's obligation to purchase, and Wingate's and ASI's obligation to sell, hereunder have been satisfied or waived as of the date set for Closing, if and as extended as provided above, then any rights of the Executive to purchase all or any amount of the Wingate Portion and/or the ASI Portion shall terminate and be of no further force or effect if the Executive fails to purchase the Wingate Portion and the ASI portion on the date set for Closing, if and as extended as provided above.

(b) The Executive shall, at the Closing, deliver by wire transfer to an account or accounts designated by Wingate and ASI same day federal funds in an amount equal to the purchase price of the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion, respectively, purchased by the Executive pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) Upon such purchase, Wingate and ASI shall cause the Company to deliver to the Executive, against payment of the purchase price therefor, a certificate representing the shares of Common Stock and a certificate representing the shares of Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder. Such certificates shall be registered in the name of the Executive. The Executive shall deposit the certificate or certificates representing such shares of Common Stock in trust pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement (as hereinafter defined) and voting trust certificates shall be issued in respect thereof in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Voting Trust Agreement.

(d) Any tax imposed on the issuance of the shares of Common Stock or the shares of Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder will be paid by the Company at Closing.

3. Representations, Warranties, and Certain Agreements of the
---------- ---------- ---------- ---------- ---------- ----------
Executive. The Executive understands and agrees with the Company, Wingate, and
- ---------
ASI that the offering and sale of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to the Executive hereunder is intended to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Securities Act") by virtue of the provisions of Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Rule 506 of Regulation D thereunder, and that there is no existing public or other market for the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock and there can be no assurance that the Executive will be able to sell or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock. In that regard, the Executive hereby represents and warrants to, and agrees with, the Company, Wingate, and ASI that:

(a) Executive is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act.

(b) Executive has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that Executive is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has all information deemed by Executive to be necessary or appropriate to evaluate the risks and merits of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from representatives of the Company concerning the Company and the terms and conditions of the sale of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has a financial condition such that Executive is under no present need to dispose of any portion of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to satisfy any existing or contemplated undertaking or indebtedness; and is able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the risk of losing part or all of Executive's investment and the possible inability to sell or transfer the Common Stock and Preferred Stock for an indefinite period of time.

(c) Executive is acquiring the Common Stock and Preferred Stock for Executive's own account for investment, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act.

(d) Executive understands that the Common Stock and Preferred Stock have not been registered under the Securities Act or any blue sky or other state securities law or regulation (hereinafter collectively referred to as "blue sky laws") in reliance, in part, upon the representations, warranties, and covenants contained herein. Executive also understands that Executive cannot offer for sale, sell, or transfer any of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock unless such offer, sale, or transfer has been registered under the Securities Act and under any applicable blue sky laws or unless an exemption from such registration is available with respect to any such proposed offer, sale, or transfer. Executive further understands that the Company is under no obligation to register the Common Stock and Preferred Stock in the future.

(e) Executive agrees and acknowledges that a restrictive legend may be placed on certificates representing any or all of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock and that transfer of any or all of such Common Stock and Preferred Stock may be refused by the Company or its transfer agent, if any, unless such Common Stock and Preferred Stock for which transfer is sought is registered under the Securities Act and all other applicable federal securities or blue sky laws and such laws are complied with or unless Executive provides information satisfactory to the Company that such registration is not required.

(f) Executive agrees to indemnify and hold the Company, Wingate, and ASI harmless from and against all losses, costs, liabilities, and expenses suffered or incurred by the Company, Wingate, or ASI and arising out of or related to the resale or distribution by the Executive of any Common Stock and Preferred Stock in violation of the Securities Act or any other applicable federal securities laws or blue sky laws.

4. Securities Subject to Agreement. (a) In addition to any Common Stock and Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder, the Company has granted and may hereafter grant to the Executive, options under the Company's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Plan") entitling the Executive to purchase additional shares of Common Stock at the price of $10.00 per share (the "Options") and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Option Agreement"). This Agreement, and the restrictions and limitations contained herein, applies to all Common Stock and Preferred Stock now owned or hereafter acquired by the Executive (through purchase hereunder or exercise of all or any portion of the Options), any voting trust certificates issued or issuable to Executive pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement (the "Voting Trust Agreement") dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Company, the Voting Trustees named therein, and certain beneficial owners of Common Stock of the Company identified therein and who may become parties thereto, and any shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock otherwise acquired by Executive, including any Common Stock issued with respect to Common Stock owned by Executive by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or otherwise. All such Common Stock, Preferred Stock, and voting trust certificates to which this Agreement applies are herein collectively called the "Executive Securities." Executive Securities will continue to be Executive Securities in the hands of any other holder (except for the Company, any subsidiary of the Company, any Sponsor Holder [as defined below] or transferees in a public sale) and each such other holder of Executive Securities will succeed to all of the rights and obligations of the Executive pursuant to Section 5 hereof. As used herein, the term "Sponsor Holder" shall mean each of Wingate and its affiliates and ASI and its affiliates.

(b) As of the date hereof the Company shall, pursuant to Option Agreements, grant to the Key Executives (as defined below) Options to purchase an aggregate number of shares of Common Stock equal to 21,684 and allocated as set forth on Exhibit C hereto (the "First Options"). The Company agrees that within four years from the date hereof it shall grant to the Key Executives or any successor officers to the Key Executives an Option or Options to purchase an additional aggregate number of shares of Common Stock equal to 21,684 (subject to the anti-dilution adjustments set forth in the Plan) as allocated by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Second Options"). The exercise price for the Common Stock subject to the Second Options shall be $10.00 per share for each Key Executive, but, unless otherwise determined by the Board, shall be the fair market value of each such share for any successor officer to a Key Executive. As used herein, the term "Key Executives" shall collectively mean Michael D. Rowsey, Daniel J. Schleppe, Robert W. Eberspacher, and Lawrence E. Miller.

(c) The Second Options shall be granted under the same form of option agreement as the Option Agreement, except for the number of shares and except that vesting shall be in increments of 25% on the four succeeding anniversaries of the date of grant. If the Second Options have not been granted in full at the time of a Major Transaction (as defined in the Option Agreements), any ungranted Second Options shall be treated as having been granted to the Key Executives in proportion to the number of shares originally covered by the First Options and the Key Executives shall receive the special distributions contemplated by Section 2 of the Option Agreement.

5. Repurchase Right of the Company.

(a) In the event the Executive dies, retires, becomes Disabled (as defined below) or ceases to be employed or retained by the Company or one of its subsidiaries or other affiliates, for any reason (a "Termination"), the Executive Securities (whether held by Executive or one or more of Executive's transferees) will be subject to repurchase by the Company, and, if applicable, one or more of the Sponsor Holders (as determined by subparagraph (f), below) pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 5 (the "Repurchase Right"). As used herein, the term "Disabled" shall mean the Executive's inability, due to illness, accident, injury, physical or mental incapacity or other disability, effectively to carry out his duties and obligations to the Company as an employee thereof or to participate effectively and actively in the management of the Company for 90 consecutive days or shorter periods aggregating at least 180 days (whether or not consecutive) during any twelve-month period.

(b) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Executive Securities will be the net book value thereof at the date of such Termination; provided, however, that if the Repurchase Right is triggered by a Termination constituting a Special Termination Event (as defined below) then the purchase price for each such share of Common Stock will be the fair market value thereof (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) as of the date of such Special Termination Event. As used herein, the term "Special Termination Event" shall mean (i) the death of the Executive, (ii) the retirement by the Executive at or after age 59, (iii) a termination by Stationers of the Executive's employment under the Employment Agreement dated as of the date hereof between Stationers and the Executive without Cause (as such term is defined in such Employment Agreement), (iv) a termination of employment due to the Executive becoming Disabled, or (v) a termination of employment (other than for Cause) at a time that there is a public market for shares of Common Stock of the Company.

(c) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Repurchase Right in connection with any Termination shall be the redemption value of $1,000 per share plus any accrued but unpaid dividends thereon, subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of a stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction (the "Preferred Stock Price").

(d) The purchase price for any vested share of Common Stock covered by an Option ("Option Share") included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Repurchase Right shall be equal to the product of (i) the price which would apply to a share of Common Stock (determined by the method set forth in subparagraph (b) above) minus the exercise price therefor and (ii) the number of Option Shares which may be acquired at the time of such purchase, according to the vesting and exercise schedule in the Option Agreement or other option agreement entered into by the Executive (the "Option Share Price").

(e) The Company shall have a first option to acquire the Executive Securities pursuant to the Repurchase Right and may elect to purchase all or any portion of the Executive Securities included therein by delivering written notice (the "Repurchase Notice") to the holder or holders of the Executive Securities within 30 days after the Termination or, in case of the death of the Executive, within 30 days after the Company first becomes aware of the Executive's death. The Repurchase Notice shall set forth the amount and price of the Executive Securities to be acquired from such holder or holders, the aggregate consideration to be paid for such Executive Securities and the time and place for the closing of the transaction. The Executive Securities to be repurchased by the Company first shall be satisfied to the extent possible from the Executive Securities held by the Executive (or the Executive's estate) at the time of delivery of the Repurchase Notice. If the Executive Securities then held by the Executive (or the Executive's estate) are less than the Executive Securities the Company has elected to purchase, the Company shall purchase the remaining Executive Securities from the transferee holder(s) of the Executive Securities pro rata according to the amount held by such transferee holder(s) at the time of delivery of such Repurchase Notice (determined as nearly as practicable to the nearest full share).

(f) If for any reason the Company does not elect to purchase all of the Executive Securities pursuant to the Repurchase Right, the Sponsor Holders who qualify as "accredited investors" under Regulation D of the Securities Act (the "Accredited Holders") may exercise the Repurchase Right for the Executive Securities the Company has not elected to purchase (the "Available Securities").

As soon as practicable after the Company has determined that there will be Available Securities, the Company shall give written notice (the "Company Notice") to the Accredited Holders, setting forth the amount and nature of Available Securities and the purchase price for the Available Securities. Each of the Accredited Holders may select the amount and type of the Available Securities (if any) that such Accredited Holder elects to purchase by giving written notice thereof to the Company within 20 days after the Company Notice has been given to such Accredited Holder by the Company. If the Accredited Holders collectively select a number of shares of Available Securities greater than the amount of Available Securities available, then all Available Securities shall be allocated pro rata among the Accredited Holders electing to participate, based upon the number of shares of each type of Executive Securities subscribed for by each such Accredited Holder. As soon as practicable, and in any event within 5 days after the expiration of the 20-day period set forth above, the Company shall notify each proposed transferor of Executive Securities as to the number of shares of Executive Securities being purchased from such transferor by the Company and each Accredited Holder (the "Supplemental Repurchase Notice"). At the time the Company delivers the Supplemental Repurchase Notice, the Company also shall deliver written notice to the Accredited Holders electing to participate, setting forth the type and number of shares of Executive Securities the Accredited Holders electing to participate are entitled to purchase, the aggregate purchase price and the time and place of the closing of the transaction.

(g) The closing of the purchase of the Executive Securities pursuant to any exercise of the Repurchase Right shall take place on the latest date designated by the Company in the Repurchase Notice or Supplemental Repurchase notice, which date shall not be more than 30 days nor less than 10 days after the delivery of the later of either such notice to be delivered. The Company and/or the Accredited Holders electing to participate shall pay for the Executive Securities to be purchased pursuant to the Repurchase Right in cash by a bank cashier's check, certified check or by wire transfer. If at the time of consummation of any exercise of a Repurchase Right by the Company, the terms and provisions of the credit facilities of the Company or of its subsidiary, Associated Stationers, Inc. ("Stationers"), effectively prevent the Company from paying the purchase price for the Executive Securities to be purchased in cash, then the portion of such purchase price in excess of the amount the Company is so permitted to pay in cash, if any (the "Excess Amount"), may be paid by the Company by delivery of the Company's subordinated promissory note or notes, which note or notes in the aggregate shall (i) be payable in seven equal annual installments of principal payable on each of the first seven anniversaries of such purchase, (ii) be prepayable at any time in the inverse order of maturity without any penalty, (iii) bear interest at the applicable long-term federal rate in effect at the time of the issuance of the note or notes (plus 100 basis points), and (iv) be subordinated in right of payment and upon liquidation to any senior indebtedness of the Company and/or Stationers. Accrued interest on the note or notes will be payable on the dates that the installments of principal are payable.

Notwithstanding anything in this subsection to the contrary, any payments under the subordinated notes described above shall be subject to any restrictions or limitations on such payments contained in (i) the Debt Agreements (as defined below) and (ii) any and all applicable state and federal laws, rules, and regulations or in any and all orders of any state or federal governmental authority. As used herein the term "Debt Agreements" shall mean the Credit Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Company, Associated Stationers, Inc., The Chase Manhattan Bank (National Association), as agent, and the lenders which become parties thereto and the notes and other documents and instruments executed and delivered in connection therewith, as such Credit Agreement and notes and other documents and instruments may from time to time be amended or supplemented, and any agreements evidencing any renewal, extension, refinancing, refunding or replacement thereof.

(h) In the event of the termination of a marital relationship of the Executive and his spouse by divorce or annulment and the Executive does not acquire all Executive Securities or interests therein ("Divorce Securities") awarded to his spouse (the "Divorced Spouse") within 30 days from the date such Divorce Securities are so awarded (the "Divorce Securities Determination Date"), then the Executive shall give the Company written notice of such Divorce Securities Determination Date within 20 days thereof (the "Divorce Notice"), which notice shall describe the Divorce Securities passing to the Divorced Spouse in connection therewith. Upon receipt of the Divorce Notice, the Company shall have the option to purchase any and all Divorce Securities awarded to the Divorced Spouse (the "Divorce Call Right").

(i) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Divorce Securities to be repurchased by the Company pursuant to any exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be the net book value thereof at the date of the exercise of the Divorce Call Right by the Company.

(ii) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Divorce Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be equal to the Preferred Stock Price.

(iii) The purchase price for any vested Option Share included in the Divorce Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be equal to the Option Share Price.

(iv) Within 30 days after the date the Company receives the Divorce Notice, the Company shall notify the Divorced Spouse in writing (the "Company Divorce Election Notice") of the number of Divorce Securities that the Company desires to purchase and the date for the closing of such purchase which shall not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days after the date the Divorced Spouse receives the Company Divorce Election Notice.

(v) At the closing of the purchase by the Company of any Divorce Securities hereunder, the Company shall pay the applicable purchase price therefor in the same manner and on the same terms and conditions as set forth in Section 5(a) hereof.

6. Executive Put Rights.

(a) In the event the Executive dies, retires at or after age 59, or becomes Disabled (each a "Put Termination Event"), the Executive or his estate, as applicable (for purposes of this Section 6 all references to the "Executive" shall include reference to his estate if applicable), may require the Company to repurchase any or all of the Executive Securities then held by the Executive (the "Executive Put Right").

(b) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Executive Securities to be put to the Company pursuant to any exercise of the Executive Put Right at any time will be the fair market value thereof (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) as of date of such Put Termination Event.

(c) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Executive's exercise of the Executive Put Right in connection with any Put Termination Event shall be equal to the Preferred Stock Price.

(d) The purchase price for any vested Option Share included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Executive's exercise of the Executive Put Right at any time shall be equal to the Option Share Price.

(e) To effectively exercise an Executive Put Right hereunder, the Executive shall give the Company written notice (the "Executive Put Notice") to the Company within 90 days after a Put Termination Event. The Executive Put Notice shall set forth the amount and price of the Executive Securities to be put to the Company. Within 60 days after the receipt by the Company of the Executive Put Notice, the Company shall notify the Executive of the determination by the Board of Directors of the Company of the fair market value of any Common Stock included in the Executive Securities (the "Company Put Response"). Within 20 days after the receipt by the Executive of the Company Put Response, the Executive shall notify the Company in writing (the "Supplemental Executive Put Notice") of his election to either (i) consummate the proposed Executive Put Right based on the fair market value of the Common Stock included in the proposed Executive Securities as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company; (ii) withdraw the Common Stock included in the Executive Securities from the exercise of the proposed Executive Put Right and continue to put Executive Securities, other than Common Stock, to the Company pursuant to the proposed exercise of the Executive Put Right; or (iii) withdraw all Executive Securities proposed to put to the Company pursuant to the proposed exercise of the Executive Put Right. The Supplemental Executive Put Notice shall also set forth the closing date for the consummation of any such exercise of the Executive Put Right. The closing of the purchase of the Executive Securities pursuant to an exercise of the Executive Put Right shall take place on the date designated in the Supplemental Executive Put Notice, which date shall not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days after the delivery thereof to the Company. The Company shall be obligated to pay for the Executive Securities described in the Supplemental Executive Put Notice on the same terms and conditions as set forth in Section 5(g) hereof.

(f) The Executive Put Right described in this Section 6 shall be considered personal to the Executive and shall not be transferrable to any purchaser or other holder of any Executive Securities other than the Executive's estate and the personal representative or administrator thereof.

7. Ancillary Agreements. At Closing, the Executive agrees to execute and deliver to and for the benefit of the Company, Stationers, and/or the other parties thereto, the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B, the Registration Rights Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit D, the Voting Trust Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit E, and the Stockholders Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit F (such agreements being collectively referred to herein as the "Ancillary Agreements" and individually as an "Ancillary Agreement").

8. Additional Covenants of the Company. In addition to the other covenants and agreements of the Company contained herein the Company agrees, and agrees to cause Stationers, if applicable, to comply with the following agreements.

(a) The Company understands that the Key Executives as a group have engaged the law firm of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue as legal counsel to the Key Executives. The Company has been advised that Boise Cascade Corporation or one or more of its affiliates (collectively, "Boise") has agreed to reimburse the Key Executives, as a group, for the first $15,000 of the legal fees and the costs and expenses associated therewith incurred by the Key Executives in connection with the Key Executives' participation in the acquisition by the Company and Stationers of the properties, assets, and business of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation associated with or otherwise relating to its wholesale division and the equity and debt financing transactions associated therewith (collectively, the "Acquisition"). The Company hereby agrees to reimburse, or cause Stationers to reimburse, the Key Executives, as a group, for all legal fees, costs, and expenses of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue incurred by the Key Executives, as a group, in connection with their participation in the Acquisition which are in excess of the first $15,000 so incurred and up to an additional $15,000 in the aggregate, subject to verification and approval by the Company. Any portion of such legal fees, costs, and expenses in excess of $30,000 or for which the Key Executives do not receive reimbursement from Boise as contemplated shall not be the responsibility of the Company or Stationers.

(b) The initial chief financial officer of Stationers hired by the board of directors of Stationers shall be given the opportunity to purchase shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock of the Company in the same ratio as the Executive and for the purchase price of not less than the fair market value of such shares at the time of purchase, as determined in good faith by the board of directors of the Company. The maximum dollar amount of the shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be reserved for purchase by such initial chief financial officer shall be no more than $147,500. Any purchase of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock of the Company by such initial chief financial officer shall dilute all holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock on a ratable basis.

(c) The Company and/or Stationers shall pay all closing fees payable to the senior lenders to Stationers and the Company and shall pay closing fees aggregating not more than $1,500,000 to the Sponsor Holders and Good Capital Co., Inc. After the Closing, the total amount of all management, directors, and other recurrent fees payable by the Company or Stationers to the Sponsor Holders and Good Capital Co., Inc. will not exceed $350,000 to Wingate Partners, L.P. and a total of $150,000 to Cumberland Capital Corporation and Good Capital Co., Inc., unless escalated in good faith by the board of directors of the Company. If there is an extraordinary transaction affecting the Company, such as a recapitalization, refinancing or sale, the board of directors of the Company may retain the services of one or more of such parties in connection therewith if it determines that the services and fee structure therefor will be fair to the Company.

(d) The Company will, at Closing, provide to Michael D. Rowsey, as the representative of each Key Executive, complete information and documentation concerning the following matters and all other matters material to the Key Executives' investment in the Company and employment with Stationers:

(i) the various classes of Common Stock and Preferred Stock and warrants to be issued in respect thereof, including the purchase price for such Common Stock and Preferred Stock and the exercise prices in respect of the warrants;

(ii) all fees and expenses arising in respect of the Acquisition and any subsequent management or other fees including those to be paid to the Sponsor Holders or their affiliates;

(iii) loan agreements and other financing documents;

(iv) any other material agreements to be executed or commitments made as a part of the transaction; and

(v) available business plans and projections.

9. Conditions Precedent to Obligation of the Executive. The obligation of the Executive to purchase the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be purchased by the Executive hereunder is subject, at the Closing, to the satisfaction or waiver by Executive of the following conditions:

(a) The Company shall have performed and complied with the covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement required to be performed with and complied with by the Company prior to or at the Closing.

(b) The Executive shall have received a counterpart of this Agreement and each Ancillary Agreement, duly executed and delivered by Holdings and/or Stationers, as applicable.

10. Conditions Precedent to Obligation of Wingate and ASI. The obligations of Wingate and ASI, to sell the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion to be sold to the Executive hereunder is subject, at the Closing, to the satisfaction or waiver by the Company of the following conditions:

(a) All representations and warranties made by the Executive herein shall be true and correct as of the Closing with the same effect as if such representations and warranties had been made as of the Closing.

(b) The Executive shall have performed and complied with the covenants and agreements contained herein required to be performed with and complied with by the Executive prior to or at the Closing.

(c) The Acquisition and all transactions contemplated thereby shall have been consummated as of the Acquisition Closing.

(d) The Company, Wingate, and ASI shall have received the opinion of counsel described in Section 8(a) above in form and substance satisfactory to the Company, Wingate, and ASI to the effect that any IRA purchaser hereunder is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act and covering such other matters as are reasonably requested by the Company.

11. Termination. The rights and obligations of the Company, the Sponsor Holders, and/or the Executive relating to repurchases of Executive Securities pursuant to the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 hereof shall terminate (i) upon the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering (as defined below); (ii) upon the written consent of the Company and the holders of 66-2/3% or more of the Executive Securities; or (iii) in any event, the earlier of 10 years from the date hereof or the dissolution of the Company. As used herein, the term "Qualified Public Offering" shall mean the sale in an underwritten public offering or a series of public offerings, registered under the Securities Act, of Common Stock which results in the public ownership of not less than 20% of the Common Stock of the Company on a fully-diluted basis, which shares of Common Stock are listed upon the New York Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or are approved for quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System and which offering shall have resulted in the receipt by the Company and any selling stockholders of aggregate cash proceeds (after deduction of underwriter discounts and the costs associated with the offerings) of at least $37.5 million.

12. Specific Performance. In the event of any controversy concerning the rights or obligations under this Agreement, such rights or obligations shall be enforceable in a court of equity by a decree of specific performance. Such remedy, however, shall be cumulative and nonexclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedy to which the parties may be entitled.

13. Waiver. The failure of either party to insist, in any one or more instances, upon performance of the terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment of any right granted hereunder or of the future performance of any such term, covenant or condition.

14. Notices. Any notice provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be either personally delivered, or mailed by registered or certified mail (postage and registration or certification fees prepaid) or sent by facsimile or reputable overnight courier service (charges prepaid) to the recipient at the address indicated by the stock records of the Company, or at such other address or to the attention of such other person as the recipient party has specified by prior written notice to the sending party. Notices will be deemed to have been given hereunder when delivered personally, three days after deposit in the U.S. mail, on the date of delivery by facsimile, and one day after deposit with a reputable overnight courier service.

15. Severability. In the event that any provision shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, it is agreed such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement and the remaining covenants, restrictions and provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and any court of competent jurisdiction may so modify the objectionable provision as to make it valid, reasonable, and enforceable.

16. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended only by an agreement in writing signed by the parties hereto.

17. Governing Law. The corporate law of the State of Delaware shall govern all issues concerning the relative rights of the Company, Executive, and the Sponsor Holders related to the Executive Securities. All other questions concerning the construction, validity and interpretation of this Agreement will be governed by the internal law, and not the law of conflicts, of the State of Illinois.

18. Complete Agreement. This Agreement, those documents expressly referred to herein and other documents of even date herewith embody the complete agreement and understanding among the parties and supersede and preempt any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties, written or oral, which may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

19. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which is deemed to be an original and all of which taken together constitute one and the same agreement.

20. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and shall be enforceable by and against Executive's heirs, beneficiaries, and legal representatives. It is agreed that the rights and obligations of Executive may not be delegated or assigned except as specifically set forth in this Agreement. In the event of a sale of all or substantially all the Company's stock or assets, or consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another corporation or entity or individual, the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to its successor-in-interest and such successor-in-interest shall be deemed to have acquired all rights and assumed all obligations of the Company hereunder.

21. Limitation as to Partial Purchase. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 hereof, if less than all of the Executive Securities will be purchased under Sections 5 or 6, at the request of either the purchaser or purchasers or the Executive, the aggregate consideration to be paid shall be applied as follows: 63% of the consideration shall be used to purchase shares of Common Stock and 37% shall be used to purchase shares of Preferred Stock.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Agreement as of the date set forth above.

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC.
EXECUTIVE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT

This EXECUTIVE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of January 31, 1992, and is by and among WINGATE PARTNERS, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Wingate"), ASI PARTNERS, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("ASI"), ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Michael D. Rowsey ("Executive").

Executive desires to purchase, and Wingate and ASI desire to sell, shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Common Stock"), and Class A Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Preferred Stock"), of the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained herein.

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Purchase and Sale. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, each of Wingate and ASI severally agrees to sell, and the Executive agrees to purchase, the number of shares of Common Stock and the number of shares of Preferred Stock set forth below the Executive's name on the signature page hereto for the respective purchase prices also set forth below the Executive's name on the signature page hereto. The number of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be sold by Wingate is herein called the "Wingate Portion" and the number of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be sold by ASI is herein called the "ASI Portion." Executive acknowledges and understands that each of Wingate and ASI have borrowed funds (the "Loans") in order to purchase the Wingate Portion and ASI Portion at the closing of the acquisition by the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Associated Stationers, Inc. ("Stationers"), of the business and assets of the wholesale division of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation (the "Acquisition Closing"). Accordingly, at the Closing (as defined below), in addition to the payment of the purchase price paid by Executive for the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion, the Executive shall reimburse each of Wingate and ASI for the interest costs of the Loans incurred by them from the date of the Loans until the Closing (the "Borrowing Costs"). Additionally, the Executive may allocate all or a portion of the Common Stock and/or Preferred Stock to be purchased hereunder to one or more individual retirement account or accounts of the Executive (collectively, the "IRA"). For purposes of this Agreement, all references to Executive herein shall include reference to his IRA to the extent appropriate.

2. Closing.

(a) The purchase and sale of the shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock contemplated above will take place at a closing (the "Closing") at a place or places mutually acceptable to the Executive, Wingate, and ASI and shall occur on a date not later than June 1, 1992; provided the Executive shall have the right to extend the Closing two times for a period of not greater than 30 days each time by giving written notice of such requested extension to each of Wingate and ASI at their respective addresses set forth on the signature pages hereto at least two days prior to the then scheduled date for Closing, but in no event shall the Closing take place later than July 31, 1992. If any and all conditions to the Executive's obligation to purchase, and Wingate's and ASI's obligation to sell, hereunder have been satisfied or waived as of the date set for Closing, if and as extended as provided above, then any rights of the Executive to purchase all or any amount of the Wingate Portion and/or the ASI Portion shall terminate and be of no further force or effect if the Executive fails to purchase the Wingate Portion and the ASI portion on the date set for Closing, if and as extended as provided above.

(b) The Executive shall, at the Closing, deliver by wire transfer to an account or accounts designated by Wingate and ASI same day federal funds in an amount equal to the purchase price of the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion, respectively, purchased by the Executive pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) Upon such purchase, Wingate and ASI shall cause the Company to deliver to the Executive, against payment of the purchase price therefor, a certificate representing the shares of Common Stock and a certificate representing the shares of Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder. Such certificates shall be registered in the name of the Executive. The Executive shall deposit the certificate or certificates representing such shares of Common Stock in trust pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement (as hereinafter defined) and voting trust certificates shall be issued in respect thereof in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Voting Trust Agreement.

(d) Any tax imposed on the issuance of the shares of Common Stock or the shares of Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder will be paid by the Company at Closing.

3. Representations, Warranties, and Certain Agreements of the Executive. The Executive understands and agrees with the Company, Wingate, and ASI that the offering and sale of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to the Executive hereunder is intended to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Securities Act") by virtue of the provisions of Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Rule 506 of Regulation D thereunder, and that there is no existing public or other market for the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock and there can be no assurance that the Executive will be able to sell or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock. In that regard, the Executive hereby represents and warrants to, and agrees with, the Company, Wingate, and ASI that:

(a) Executive is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act.

(b) Executive has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that Executive is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has all information deemed by Executive to be necessary or appropriate to evaluate the risks and merits of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from representatives of the Company concerning the Company and the terms and conditions of the sale of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has a financial condition such that Executive is under no present need to dispose of any portion of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to satisfy any existing or contemplated undertaking or indebtedness; and is able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the risk of losing part or all of Executive's investment and the possible inability to sell or transfer the Common Stock and Preferred Stock for an indefinite period of time.

(c) Executive is acquiring the Common Stock and Preferred Stock for Executive's own account for investment, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act.

(d) Executive understands that the Common Stock and Preferred Stock have not been registered under the Securities Act or any blue sky or other state securities law or regulation (hereinafter collectively referred to as "blue sky laws") in reliance, in part, upon the representations, warranties, and covenants contained herein. Executive also understands that Executive cannot offer for sale, sell, or transfer any of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock unless such offer, sale, or transfer has been registered under the Securities Act and under any applicable blue sky laws or unless an exemption from such registration is available with respect to any such proposed offer, sale, or transfer. Executive further understands that the Company is under no obligation to register the Common Stock and Preferred Stock in the future .

(e) Executive agrees and acknowledges that a restrictive legend may be placed on certificates representing any or all of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock and that transfer of any or all of such Common Stock and Preferred Stock may be refused by the Company or its transfer agent, if any, unless such Common Stock and Preferred Stock for which transfer is sought is registered under the Securities Act and all other applicable federal securities or blue sky laws and such laws are complied with or unless Executive provides information satisfactory to the Company that such registration is not required.

(f) Executive agrees to indemnify and hold the Company, Wingate, and ASI harmless from and against all losses, costs, liabilities, and expenses suffered or incurred by the Company, Wingate, or ASI and arising out of or related to the resale or distribution by the Executive of any Common Stock and Preferred Stock in violation of the Securities Act or any other applicable federal securities laws or blue sky laws.

4. Securities Subject to Agreement. (a) In addition to any Common Stock and Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder, the Company has granted and may hereafter grant to the Executive, options under the Company's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Plan") entitling the Executive to purchase additional shares of Common Stock at the price of $10.00 per share (the "Options") and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Option Agreement"). This Agreement, and the restrictions and limitations contained herein, applies to all Common Stock and Preferred Stock now owned or hereafter acquired by the Executive (through purchase hereunder or exercise of all or any portion of the Options), any voting trust certificates issued or issuable to Executive pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement (the "Voting Trust Agreement") dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Company, the Voting Trustees named therein, and certain beneficial owners of Common Stock of the Company identified therein and who may become parties thereto, and any shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock otherwise acquired by Executive, including any Common Stock issued with respect to Common Stock owned by Executive by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or otherwise. All such Common Stock, Preferred Stock, and voting trust certificates to which this Agreement applies are herein collectively called the "Executive Securities." Executive Securities will continue to be Executive Securities in the hands of any other holder (except for the Company, any subsidiary of the Company, any Sponsor Holder [as defined below] or transferees in a public sale) and each such other holder of Executive Securities will succeed to all of the rights and obligations of the Executive pursuant to Section 5 hereof. As used herein, the term "Sponsor Holder" shall mean each of Wingate and its affiliates and ASI and its affiliates.

(b) As of the date hereof the Company shall, pursuant to Option Agreements, grant to the Key Executives (as defined below) Options to purchase an aggregate number of shares of Common Stock equal to 21,684 and allocated as set forth on Exhibit C hereto (the "First Options"). The Company agrees that within four years from the date hereof it shall grant to the Key Executives or any successor officers to the Key Executives an Option or Options to purchase an additional aggregate number of shares of Common Stock equal to 21,684 (subject to the anti-dilution adjustments set forth in the Plan) as allocated by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Second Options"). The exercise price for the Common Stock subject to the Second Options shall be $10.00 per share for each Key Executive, but, unless otherwise determined by the Board, shall be the fair market value of each such share for any successor officer to a Key Executive. As used herein, the term "Key Executives" shall collectively mean Michael D. Rowsey, Daniel J. Schleppe, Robert W. Eberspacher, and Lawrence E. Miller.

(c) The Second Options shall be granted under the same form of option agreement as the Option Agreement, except for the number of shares and except that vesting shall be in increments of 25% on the four succeeding anniversaries of the date of grant. If the Second Options have not been granted in full at the time of a Major Transaction (as defined in the Option Agreements), any ungranted Second Options shall be treated as having been granted to the Key Executives in proportion to the number of shares originally covered by the First Options and the Key Executives shall receive the special distributions contemplated by Section 2 of the Option Agreement.

5. Repurchase Right of the Company.

(a) In the event the Executive dies, retires, becomes Disabled (as defined below) or ceases to be employed or retained by the Company or one of its subsidiaries or other affiliates, for any reason (a "Termination"), the Executive Securities (whether held by Executive or one or more of Executive's transferees) will be subject to repurchase by the Company, and, if applicable, one or more of the Sponsor Holders (as determined by subparagraph (f), below) pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 5 (the "Repurchase Right"). As used herein, the term "Disabled" shall mean the Executive's inability, due to illness, accident, injury, physical or mental incapacity or other disability, effectively to carry out his duties and obligations to the Company as an employee thereof or to participate effectively and actively in the management of the Company for 90 consecutive days or shorter periods aggregating at least 180 days (whether or not consecutive) during any twelve-month period.

(b) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Executive Securities will be the net book value thereof at the date of such Termination; provided, however, that if the Repurchase Right is triggered by a Termination constituting a Special Termination Event (as defined below) then the purchase price for each such share of Common Stock will be the fair market value thereof (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) as of the date of such Special Termination Event. As used herein, the term "Special Termination Event" shall mean (i) the death of the Executive, (ii) the retirement by the Executive at or after age 59, (iii) a termination by Stationers of the Executive's employment under the Employment Agreement dated as of the date hereof between Stationers and the Executive without Cause (as such term is defined in such Employment Agreement), (iv) a termination of employment due to the Executive becoming Disabled, or (v) a termination of employment (other than for Cause) at a time that there is a public market for shares of Common Stock of the Company.

(c) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Repurchase Right in connection with any Termination shall be the redemption value of $1,000 per share plus any accrued but unpaid dividends thereon, subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of a stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction (the "Preferred Stock Price").

(d) The purchase price for any vested share of Common Stock covered by an Option ("Option Share") included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Repurchase Right shall be equal to the product of (i) the price which would apply to a share of Common Stock (determined by the method set forth in subparagraph (b) above) minus the exercise price therefor and (ii) the number of Option Shares which may be acquired at the time of such purchase, according to the vesting and exercise schedule in the Option Agreement or other option agreement entered into by the Executive (the "Option Share Price").

(e) The Company shall have a first option to acquire the Executive Securities pursuant to the Repurchase Right and may elect to purchase all or any portion of the Executive Securities included therein by delivering written notice (the "Repurchase Notice") to the holder or holders of the Executive Securities within 30 days after the Termination or, in case of the death of the Executive, within 30 days after the Company first becomes aware of the Executive's death. The Repurchase Notice shall set forth the amount and price of the Executive Securities to be acquired from such holder or holders, the aggregate consideration to be paid for such Executive Securities and the time and place for the closing of the transaction. The Executive Securities to be repurchased by the Company first shall be satisfied to the extent possible from the Executive Securities held by the Executive (or the Executive's estate) at the time of delivery of the Repurchase Notice. If the Executive Securities then held by the Executive (or the Executive's estate) are less than the Executive Securities the Company has elected to purchase, the Company shall purchase the remaining Executive Securities from the transferee holder(s) of the Executive Securities pro rata according to the amount held by such transferee holder(s) at the time of delivery of such Repurchase Notice (determined as nearly as practicable to the nearest full share).

(f) If for any reason the Company does not elect to purchase all of the Executive Securities pursuant to the Repurchase Right, the Sponsor Holders who qualify as "accredited investors" under Regulation D of the Securities Act (the "Accredited Holders") may exercise the Repurchase Right for the Executive Securities the Company has not elected to purchase (the "Available Securities"). As soon as practicable after the Company has determined that there will be Available Securities, the Company shall give written notice (the "Company Notice") to the Accredited Holders, setting forth the amount and nature of Available Securities and the purchase price for the Available Securities. Each of the Accredited Holders may select the amount and type of the Available Securities (if any) that such Accredited Holder elects to purchase by giving written notice thereof to the Company within 20 days after the Company Notice has been given to such Accredited Holder by the Company. If the Accredited Holders collectively select a number of shares of Available Securities greater than the amount of Available Securities available, then all Available Securities shall be allocated pro rata among the Accredited Holders electing to participate, based upon the number of shares of each type of Executive Securities subscribed for by each such Accredited Holder. As soon as practicable, and in any event within 5 days after the expiration of the 20-day period set forth above, the Company shall notify each proposed transferor of Executive Securities as to the number of shares of Executive Securities being purchased from such transferor by the Company and each Accredited Holder (the "Supplemental Repurchase Notice"). At the time the Company delivers the Supplemental Repurchase Notice, the Company also shall deliver written notice to the Accredited Holders electing to participate, setting forth the type and number of shares of Executive Securities the Accredited Holders electing to participate are entitled to purchase, the aggregate purchase price and the time and place of the closing of the transaction.

(g) The closing of the purchase of the Executive Securities pursuant to any exercise of the Repurchase Right shall take place on the latest date designated by the Company in the

Repurchase Notice or Supplemental Repurchase notice, which date shall not be more than 30 days nor less than 10 days after the delivery of the later of either such notice to be delivered. The Company and/or the Accredited Holders electing to participate shall pay for the Executive Securities to be purchased pursuant to the Repurchase Right in cash by a bank cashier's check, certified check or by wire transfer. If at the time of consummation of any exercise of a Repurchase Right by the Company, the terms and provisions of the credit facilities of the Company or of its subsidiary, Associated Stationers, Inc. ("Stationers"), effectively prevent the Company from paying the purchase price for the Executive Securities to be purchased in cash, then the portion of such purchase price in excess of the amount the Company is so permitted to pay in cash, if any (the "Excess Amount"), may be paid by the Company by delivery of the Company's subordinated promissory note or notes, which note or notes in the aggregate shall (i) be payable in seven equal annual installments of principal payable on each of the first seven anniversaries of such purchase, (ii) be prepayable at any time in the inverse order of maturity without any penalty, (iii) bear interest at the applicable long-term federal rate in effect at the time of the issuance of the note or notes (plus 100 basis points), and (iv) be subordinated in right of payment and upon liquidation to any senior indebtedness of the Company and/or Stationers. Accrued interest on the note or notes will be payable on the dates that the installments of principal are payable. Notwithstanding anything in this subsection to the contrary, any payments under the subordinated notes described above shall be subject to any restrictions or limitations on such payments contained in (i) the Debt Agreements (as defined below) and (ii) any and all applicable state and federal laws, rules, and regulations or in any and all orders of any state or federal governmental authority. As used herein the term "Debt Agreements" shall mean the Credit Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Company, Associated Stationers, Inc., The Chase Manhattan Bank (National Association), as agent, and the lenders which become parties thereto and the notes and other documents and instruments executed and delivered in connection therewith, as such Credit Agreement and notes and other documents and instruments may from time to time be amended or supplemented, and any agreements evidencing any renewal, extension, refinancing, refunding or replacement thereof.

(h) In the event of the termination of a marital relationship of the Executive and his spouse by divorce or annulment and the Executive does not acquire all Executive Securities or interests therein ("Divorce Securities") awarded to his spouse (the "Divorced Spouse") within 30 days from the date such Divorce Securities are so awarded (the "Divorce Securities Determination Date"), then the Executive shall give the Company written notice of such Divorce

Securities Determination Date within 20 days thereof (the "Divorce Notice"), which notice shall

describe the Divorce Securities passing to the Divorced Spouse in connection therewith. Upon receipt of the Divorce Notice, the Company shall have the option to purchase any and all Divorce Securities awarded to the Divorced Spouse (the "Divorce Call Right").

(i) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Divorce Securities to be repurchased by the Company pursuant to any exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be the net book value thereof at the date of the exercise of the Divorce Call Right by the Company.

(ii) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Divorce Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be equal to the Preferred Stock Price.

(iii) The purchase price for any vested Option Share included in the Divorce Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be equal to the Option Share Price.

(iv) Within 30 days after the date the Company receives the Divorce Notice, the Company shall notify the Divorced Spouse in writing (the "Company Divorce Election Notice") of the number of Divorce Securities that the Company desires to purchase and the date for the closing of such purchase which shall not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days after the date the Divorced Spouse receives the Company Divorce Election Notice.

(v) At the closing of the purchase by the Company of any Divorce Securities hereunder, the Company shall pay the applicable purchase price therefor in the same manner and on the same terms and conditions as set forth in Section 5(a) hereof.

6. Executive Put Rights.

(a) In the event the Executive dies, retires at or after age 59, or becomes Disabled (each a "Put Termination Event"), the Executive or his estate, as applicable (for purposes of this Section 6 all references to the "Executive" shall include reference to his estate if applicable), may require the Company to repurchase any or all of the Executive Securities then held by the Executive (the "Executive Put Right").

(b) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Executive Securities to be put to the Company pursuant to any exercise of the Executive Put Right at any time will be the fair market value thereof (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) as of date of such Put Termination Event.

(c) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Executive's exercise of the Executive Put Right in connection with any Put Termination Event shall be equal to the Preferred Stock Price.

(d) The purchase price for any vested Option Share included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Executive's exercise of the Executive Put Right at any time shall be equal to the Option Share Price.

(e) To effectively exercise an Executive Put Right hereunder, the Executive shall give the Company written notice (the "Executive Put Notice") to the Company within 90 days after a Put Termination Event. The Executive Put Notice shall set forth the amount and price of the Executive Securities to be put to the Company. Within 60 days after the receipt by the Company of the Executive Put Notice, the Company shall notify the Executive of the determination by the Board of Directors of the Company of the fair market value of any Common Stock included in the Executive Securities (the "Company Put Response"). Within 20 days after the receipt by the Executive of the Company Put Response, the Executive shall notify the Company in writing (the "Supplemental Executive Put Notice") of his election to either (i) consummate the proposed Executive Put Right based on the fair market value of the Common Stock included in the proposed Executive Securities as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company; (ii) withdraw the Common Stock included in the Executive Securities from the exercise of the proposed Executive Put Right and continue to put Executive Securities, other than Common Stock, to the Company pursuant to the proposed exercise of the Executive Put Right; or (iii) withdraw all Executive Securities proposed to put to the Company pursuant to the proposed exercise of the Executive Put Right. The Supplemental Executive Put Notice shall also set forth the closing date for the consummation of any such exercise of the Executive Put Right. The closing of the purchase of the Executive Securities pursuant to an exercise of the Executive Put Right shall take place on the date designated in the Supplemental Executive Put Notice, which date shall not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days after the delivery thereof to the Company. The Company shall be obligated to pay for the Executive Securities described in the Supplemental Executive Put Notice on the same terms and conditions as set forth in Section 5(g) hereof.

(f) The Executive Put Right described in this Section 6 shall be considered personal to the Executive and shall not be transferrable to any purchaser or other holder of any representative or administrator thereof.

7. Ancillary Agreements. At Closing, the Executive agrees to execute and deliver to and for the benefit of the Company, Stationers, and/or the other parties thereto, the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B, the Registration Rights Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit D, the Voting Trust Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit E, and the Stockholders Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit F (such agreements being collectively referred to herein as the "Ancillary Agreements" and individually as an "Ancillary Agreement").

8. Additional Covenants of the Company. In addition to the other covenants and agreements of the Company contained herein the Company agrees, and agrees to cause Stationers, if applicable, to comply with the following agreements.

(a) The Company understands that the Key Executives as a group have engaged the law firm of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue as legal counsel to the Key Executives. The Company has been advised that Boise Cascade Corporation or one or more of its affiliates (collectively, "Boise") has agreed to reimburse the Key Executives, as a group, for the first $15,000 of the legal fees and the costs and expenses associated therewith incurred by the Key Executives in connection with the Key Executives' participation in the acquisition by the Company and Stationers of the properties, assets, and business of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation associated with or otherwise relating to its wholesale division and the equity and debt financing transactions associated therewith (collectively, the "Acquisition"). The Company hereby agrees to reimburse, or cause Stationers to reimburse, the Key Executives, as a group, for all legal fees, costs, and expenses of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue incurred by the Key Executives, as a group, in connection with their participation in the Acquisition which are in excess of the first $15,000 so incurred and up to an additional $15,000 in the aggregate, subject to verification and approval by the Company. Any portion of such legal fees, costs, and expenses in excess of $30,000 or for which the Key Executives do not receive reimbursement from Boise as contemplated shall not be the responsibility of the Company or Stationers.

(b) The initial chief financial officer of Stationers hired by the board of directors of Stationers shall be given the opportunity to purchase shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock of the Company in the same ratio as the Executive and for the purchase price of not less than the fair market value of such shares at the time of purchase, as determined in good faith by the board of directors of the Company. The maximum dollar amount of the shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be reserved for purchase by such initial chief financial officer shall be no more than $147,500. Any purchase of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock of the Company by such initial chief financial officer shall dilute all holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock on a ratable basis.

(c) The Company and/or Stationers shall pay all closing fees payable to the senior lenders to Stationers and the Company and shall pay closing fees aggregating not more than $1,500,000 to the Sponsor Holders and Good Capital Co., Inc. After the Closing, the total amount of all management, directors, and other recurrent fees payable by the Company or Stationers to the Sponsor Holders and Good Capital Co., Inc. will not exceed $350,000 to Wingate Partners, L.P. and a total of $150,000 to Cumberland Capital Corporation and Good Capital Co., Inc., unless escalated in good faith by the board of directors of the Company. If there is an extraordinary transaction affecting the Company, such as a recapitalization, refinancing or sale, the board of directors of the Company may retain the services of one or more of such parties in connection therewith if it determines that the services and fee structure therefor will be fair to the Company.

(d) The Company will, at Closing, provide to Michael D. Rowsey, as the representative of each Key Executive, complete information and documentation concerning the following matters and all other matters material to the Key Executives' investment in the Company and employment with Stationers:

(i) the various classes of Common Stock and Preferred Stock and warrants to be issued in respect thereof, including the purchase price for such Common Stock and Preferred Stock and the exercise prices in respect of the warrants;

(ii) all fees and expenses arising in respect of the Acquisition and any subsequent management or other fees including those to be paid to the Sponsor Holders or their affiliates;

(iii) loan agreements and other financing documents;

(iv) any other material agreements to be executed or commitments made as a part of the transaction; and

(v) available business plans and projections.

9. Conditions Precedent to Obligation of the Executive. The obligation of the Executive to purchase the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be purchased by the Executive hereunder is subject, at the Closing, to the satisfaction or waiver by Executive of the following conditions:

(a) The Company shall have performed and complied with the covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement required to be performed with and complied with by the Company prior to or at the Closing.

(b) The Executive shall have received a counterpart of this Agreement and each Ancillary Agreement, duly executed and delivered by Holdings and/or Stationers, as applicable.

10. Conditions Precedent to Obligation of Wingate and ASI. The obligations of Wingate and ASI, to sell the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion to be sold to the Executive hereunder is subject, at the Closing, to the satisfaction or waiver by the Company of the following conditions:

(a) All representations and warranties made by the Executive herein shall be true and correct as of the Closing with the same effect as if such representations and warranties had been made as of the Closing.

(b) The Executive shall have performed and complied with the covenants and agreements contained herein required to be performed with and complied with by the Executive prior to or at the Closing.

(c) The Acquisition and all transactions contemplated thereby shall have been consummated as of the Acquisition Closing.

(d) The Company, Wingate, and ASI shall have received the opinion of counsel described in Section 8(a) above in form and substance satisfactory to the Company, Wingate, and ASI to the effect that any IRA purchaser hereunder is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act and covering such other matters as are reasonably requested by the Company.

11. Termination. The rights and obligations of the Company, the Sponsor Holders, and/or the Executive relating to repurchases of Executive Securities pursuant to the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 hereof shall terminate (i) upon the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering (as defined below); (ii) upon the written consent of the Company and the holders of 66-2/3% or more of the Executive Securities; or (iii) in any event, the earlier of 10 years from the date hereof or the dissolution of the Company. As used herein, the term "Qualified Public Offering" shall mean the sale in an underwritten public offering or a series of public offerings, registered under the Securities Act, of Common Stock which results in the public ownership of not less than 20% of the Common Stock of the Company on a fully-diluted basis, which shares of Common Stock are listed upon the New York Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or are approved for quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System and which offering shall have resulted in the receipt by the Company and any selling stockholders of aggregate cash proceeds (after deduction of underwriter discounts and the costs associated with the offerings) of at least $37.5 million.

12. Specific Performance. In the event of any controversy concerning the rights or obligations under this Agreement, such rights or obligations shall be enforceable in a court of equity by a decree of specific performance. Such remedy, however, shall be cumulative and nonexclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedy to which the parties may be entitled.

13. Waiver. The failure of either party to insist, in any one or more instances, upon performance of the terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment of any right granted hereunder or of the future performance of any such term, covenant or condition.

14. Notices. Any notice provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be either personally delivered, or mailed by registered or certified mail (postage and registration or certification fees prepaid) or sent by facsimile or reputable overnight courier service (charges prepaid) to the recipient at the address indicated by the stock records of the Company, or at such other address or to the attention of such other person as the recipient party has specified by prior written notice to the sending party. Notices will be deemed to have been given hereunder when delivered personally, three days after deposit in the U.S. mail, on the date of delivery by facsimile, and one day after deposit with a reputable overnight courier service.

15. Severability. In the event that any provision shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, it is agreed such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement and the remaining covenants, restrictions and provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and any court of competent jurisdiction may so modify the objectionable provision as to make it valid, reasonable, and enforceable.

16. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended only by an agreement in writing signed by the parties hereto.

17. Governing Law. The corporate law of the State of Delaware shall govern all issues concerning the relative rights of the Company, Executive, and the Sponsor Holders related to the Executive Securities. All other questions concerning the construction, validity and interpretation of this Agreement will be governed by the internal law, and not the law of conflicts, of the State of Illinois.

18. Complete Agreement. This Agreement, those documents expressly referred to herein and other documents of even date herewith embody the complete agreement and understanding among the parties and supersede and preempt any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties, written or oral, which may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

19. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which is deemed to be an original and all of which taken together constitute one and the same agreement.

20. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and shall be enforceable by and against Executive's heirs, beneficiaries, and legal representatives. It is agreed that the rights and obligations of Executive may not be delegated or assigned except as specifically set forth in this Agreement. In the event of a sale of all or substantially all the Company's stock or assets, or consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another corporation or entity or individual, the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to its successor-in-interest and such successor-in-interest shall be deemed to have acquired all rights and assumed all obligations of the Company hereunder.

21. Limitation as to Partial Purchase. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 hereof, if less than all of the Executive Securities will be purchased under Sections 5 or 6, at the request of either the purchaser or purchasers or the Executive, the aggregate consideration to be paid shall be applied as follows: 63% of the consideration shall be used to purchase shares of Common Stock and 37% shall be used to purchase shares of Preferred Stock.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Agreement as of the date set forth above.

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC.
EXECUTIVE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT

This EXECUTIVE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of January 31, 1992, and is by and among WINGATE PARTNERS, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Wingate"), ASI PARTNERS, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("ASI"), ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Lawrence E. Miller ("Executive").

Executive desires to purchase, and Wingate and ASI desire to sell, shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Common Stock"), and Class A Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Preferred Stock"), of the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained herein.

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Purchase and Sale. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, each of Wingate and ASI severally agrees to sell, and the Executive agrees to purchase, the number of shares of Common Stock and the number of shares of Preferred Stock set forth below the Executive's name on the signature page hereto for the respective purchase prices also set forth below the Executive's name on the signature page hereto. The number of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be sold by Wingate is herein called the "Wingate Portion" and the number of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be sold by ASI is herein called the "ASI Portion." Executive acknowledges and understands that each of Wingate and ASI have borrowed funds (the "Loans") in order to purchase the Wingate Portion and ASI Portion at the closing of the acquisition by the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Associated Stationers, Inc. ("Stationers"), of the business and assets of the wholesale division of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation (the "Acquisition Closing"). Accordingly, at the Closing (as defined below), in addition to the payment of the purchase price paid by Executive for the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion, the Executive shall reimburse each of Wingate and ASI for the interest costs of the Loans incurred by them from the date of the Loans until the Closing (the "Borrowing Costs"). Additionally, the Executive may allocate all or a portion of the Common Stock and/or Preferred Stock to be purchased hereunder to one or more individual retirement account or accounts of the Executive (collectively, the "IRA"). For purposes of this Agreement, all references to Executive herein shall include reference to his IRA to the extent appropriate.

2. Closing.

(a) The purchase and sale of the shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock contemplated above will take place at a closing (the "Closing") at a place or places mutually acceptable to the Executive, Wingate, and ASI and shall occur on a date not later than June 1, 1992; provided the Executive shall have the right to extend the Closing two times for a period of not greater than 30 days each time by giving written notice of such requested extension to each of Wingate and ASI at their respective addresses set forth on the signature pages hereto at least two days prior to the then scheduled date for Closing, but in no event shall the Closing take place later than July 31, 1992. If any and all conditions to the Executive's obligation to purchase, and Wingate's and ASI's obligation to sell, hereunder have been satisfied or waived as of the date set for Closing, if and as extended as provided above, then any rights of the Executive to purchase all or any amount of the Wingate Portion and/or the ASI Portion shall terminate and be of no further force or effect if the Executive fails to purchase the Wingate Portion and the ASI portion on the date set for Closing, if and as extended as provided above.

(b) The Executive shall, at the Closing, deliver by wire transfer to an account or accounts designated by Wingate and ASI same day federal funds in an amount equal to the purchase price of the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion, respectively, purchased by the Executive pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) Upon such purchase, Wingate and ASI shall cause the Company to deliver to the Executive, against payment of the purchase price therefor, a certificate representing the shares of Common Stock and a certificate representing the shares of Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder. Such certificates shall be registered in the name of the Executive. The Executive shall deposit the certificate or certificates representing such shares of Common Stock in trust pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement (as hereinafter defined) and voting trust certificates shall be issued in respect thereof in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Voting Trust Agreement.

(d) Any tax imposed on the issuance of the shares of Common Stock or the shares of Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder will be paid by the Company at Closing.

3. Representations, Warranties, and Certain Agreements of the Executive. The Executive understands and agrees with the Company, Wingate, and ASI that the offering and sale of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to the Executive hereunder is intended to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Securities Act") by virtue of the provisions of Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Rule 506 of Regulation D thereunder, and that there is no existing public or other market for the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock and there can be no assurance that the Executive will be able to sell or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock. In that regard, the Executive hereby represents and warrants to, and agrees with, the Company, Wingate, and ASI that:

(a) Executive is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act.

(b) Executive has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that Executive is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has all information deemed by Executive to be necessary or appropriate to evaluate the risks and merits of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from representatives of the Company concerning the Company and the terms and conditions of the sale of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has a financial condition such that Executive is under no present need to dispose of any portion of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to satisfy any existing or contemplated undertaking or indebtedness; and is able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the risk of losing part or all of Executive's investment and the possible inability to sell or transfer the Common Stock and Preferred Stock for an indefinite period of time.

(c) Executive is acquiring the Common Stock and Preferred Stock for Executive's own account for investment, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act.

(d) Executive understands that the Common Stock and Preferred Stock have not been registered under the Securities Act or any blue sky or other state securities law or regulation (hereinafter collectively referred to as "blue sky laws") in reliance, in part, upon the representations, warranties, and covenants contained herein. Executive also understands that Executive cannot offer for sale, sell, or transfer any of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock unless such offer, sale, or transfer has been registered under the Securities Act and under any applicable blue sky laws or unless an exemption from such registration is available with respect to any such proposed offer, sale, or transfer. Executive further understands that the Company is under no obligation to register the Common Stock and Preferred Stock in the future.

(e) Executive agrees and acknowledges that a restrictive legend may be placed on certificates representing any or all of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock and that transfer of any or all of such Common Stock and Preferred Stock may be refused by the Company or its transfer agent, if any, unless such Common Stock and Preferred Stock for which transfer is sought is registered under the Securities Act and all other applicable federal securities or blue sky laws and such laws are complied with or unless Executive provides information satisfactory to the Company that such registration is not required.

(f) Executive agrees to indemnify and hold the Company, Wingate, and ASI harmless from and against all losses, costs, liabilities, and expenses suffered or incurred by the Company, Wingate, or ASI and arising out of or related to the resale or distribution by the Executive of any Common Stock and Preferred Stock in violation of the Securities Act or any other applicable federal securities laws or blue sky laws.

4. Securities Subject to Agreement. (a) In addition to any Common Stock and Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder, the Company has granted and may hereafter grant to the Executive, options under the Company's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Plan") entitling the Executive to purchase additional shares of Common Stock at the price of $10.00 per share (the "Options") and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Option Agreement"). This Agreement, and the restrictions and limitations contained herein, applies to all Common Stock and Preferred Stock now owned or hereafter acquired by the Executive (through purchase hereunder or exercise of all or any portion of the Options), any voting trust certificates issued or issuable to Executive pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement (the "Voting Trust Agreement") dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Company, the Voting Trustees named therein, and certain beneficial owners of Common Stock of the Company identified therein and who may become parties thereto, and any shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock otherwise acquired by Executive, including any Common Stock issued with respect to Common Stock owned by Executive by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or otherwise. All such Common Stock, Preferred Stock, and voting trust certificates to which this Agreement applies are herein collectively called the "Executive Securities." Executive Securities will continue to be Executive Securities in the hands of any other holder (except for the Company, any subsidiary of the Company, any Sponsor Holder [as defined below] or transferees in a public sale) and each such other holder of Executive Securities will succeed to all of the rights and obligations of the Executive pursuant to Section 5 hereof. As used herein, the term "Sponsor Holder" shall mean each of Wingate and its affiliates and ASI and its affiliates.

within four years from the date hereof it shall grant to the Key Executives or any successor officers to the Key Executives an Option or Options to purchase an additional aggregate number of shares of Common Stock equal to 21,684 (subject to the anti-dilution adjustments set forth in the Plan) as allocated by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Second Options"). The exercise price for the Common Stock subject to the Second Options shall be $10.00 per share for each Key Executive, but, unless otherwise determined by the Board, shall be the fair market value of each such share for any successor officer to a Key Executive. As used herein, the term "Key Executives" shall collectively mean Michael D. Rowsey, Daniel J. Schleppe, Robert W. Eberspacher, and Lawrence E. Miller.

(c) The Second Options shall be granted under the same form of option agreement as the Option Agreement, except for the number of shares and except that vesting shall be in increments of 25% on the four succeeding anniversaries of the date of grant. If the Second Options have not been granted in full at the time of a Major Transaction (as defined in the Option Agreements), any ungranted Second Options shall be treated as having been granted to the Key Executives in proportion to the number of shares originally covered by the First Options and the Key Executives shall receive the special distributions contemplated by Section 2 of the Option Agreement.

5. Repurchase Right of the Company.

(a) In the event the Executive dies, retires, becomes Disabled (as defined below) or ceases to be employed or retained by the Company or one of its subsidiaries or other affiliates, for any reason (a "Termination"), the Executive Securities (whether held by Executive or one or more of Executive's transferees) will be subject to repurchase by the Company, and, if applicable, one or more of the Sponsor Holders (as determined by subparagraph (f), below) pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 5 (the "Repurchase Right"). As used herein, the term "Disabled" shall mean the Executive's inability, due to illness, accident, injury, physical or mental incapacity or other disability, effectively to carry out his duties and obligations to the Company as an employee thereof or to participate effectively and actively in the management of the Company for 90 consecutive days or shorter periods aggregating at least 180 days (whether or not consecutive) during any twelve-month period.

(b) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Executive Securities will be the net book value thereof at the date of such Termination; provided, however, that if the Repurchase Right is triggered by a Termination constituting a Special Termination Event (as defined below) then the purchase price for each such share of Common Stock will be the fair market value thereof (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) as of the date of such Special Termination Event. As used herein, the term "Special Termination Event" shall mean (i) the death of the Executive, (ii) the retirement by the Executive at or after age 59, (iii) a termination by Stationers of the Executive's employment under the Employment Agreement dated as of the date hereof between Stationers and the Executive without Cause (as such term is defined in such Employment Agreement), (iv) a termination of employment due to the Executive becoming Disabled, or (v) a termination of employment (other than for Cause) at a time that there is a public market for shares of Common Stock of the Company.

(c) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Repurchase Right in connection with any Termination shall be the redemption value of $1,000 per share plus any accrued but unpaid dividends thereon, subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of a stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction (the "Preferred Stock Price").

(d) The purchase price for any vested share of Common Stock covered by an Option ("Option Share") included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Repurchase Right shall be equal to the product of (i) the price which would apply to a share of Common Stock (determined by the method set forth in subparagraph (b) above) minus the exercise price therefor and (ii) the number of Option Shares which may be acquired at the time of such purchase, according to the vesting and exercise schedule in the Option Agreement or other option agreement entered into by the Executive (the "Option Share Price").

(e) The Company shall have a first option to acquire the Executive Securities pursuant to the Repurchase Right and may elect to purchase all or any portion of the Executive Securities included therein by delivering written notice (the "Repurchase Notice") to the holder or holders of the Executive Securities within 30 days after the Termination or, in case of the death of the Executive, within 30 days after the Company first becomes aware of the Executive's death. The Repurchase Notice shall set forth the amount and price of the Executive Securities to be acquired from such holder or holders, the aggregate consideration to be paid for such Executive Securities and the time and place for the closing of the transaction. The Executive Securities to be repurchased by the Company first shall be satisfied to the extent possible from the Executive Securities held by the Executive (or the Executive's estate) at the time of delivery of the Repurchase Notice. If the Executive Securities then held by the Executive (or the Executive's estate) are less than the Executive Securities the Company has elected to purchase, the Company shall purchase the remaining Executive Securities from the transferee holder(s) of the Executive Securities pro rata according to the amount held by such transferee holder(s) at the time of delivery of such Repurchase Notice (determined as nearly as practicable to the nearest full share).

(f) If for any reason the Company does not elect to purchase all of the Executive Securities pursuant to the Repurchase Right, the Sponsor Holders who qualify as "accredited investors" under Regulation D of the Securities Act (the "Accredited Holders") may exercise the Repurchase Right for the Executive Securities the Company has not elected to purchase (the "Available Securities"). As soon as practicable after the Company has determined that there will be Available Securities, the Company shall give written notice (the "Company Notice") to the Accredited Holders, setting forth the amount and nature of Available Securities and the purchase price for the Available Securities. Each of the Accredited Holders may select the amount and type of the Available Securities (if any) that such Accredited Holder elects to purchase by giving written notice thereof to the Company within 20 days after the Company Notice has been given to such Accredited Holder by the Company. If the Accredited Holders collectively select a number of shares of Available Securities greater than the amount of Available Securities available, then all Available Securities shall be allocated pro rata among the Accredited Holders electing to participate, based upon the number of shares of each type of Executive Securities subscribed for by each such Accredited Holder. As soon as practicable, and in any event within 5 days after the expiration of the 20-day period set forth above, the Company shall notify each proposed transferor of Executive Securities as to the number of shares of Executive Securities being purchased from such transferor by the Company and each Accredited Holder (the "Supplemental Repurchase Notice"). At the time the Company delivers the Supplemental Repurchase Notice, the Company also shall deliver written notice to the Accredited Holders electing to participate, setting forth the type and number of shares of Executive Securities the Accredited Holders electing to participate are entitled to purchase, the aggregate purchase price and the time and place of the closing of the transaction.

(g) The closing of the purchase of the Executive Securities pursuant to any exercise of the Repurchase Right shall take place on the latest date designated by the Company in the

either such notice to be delivered. The Company and/or the Accredited Holders electing to participate shall pay for the Executive Securities to be purchased pursuant to the Repurchase Right in cash by a bank cashier's check, certified check or by wire transfer. If at the time of consummation of any exercise of a Repurchase Right by the Company, the terms and provisions of the credit facilities of the Company or of its subsidiary, Associated Stationers, Inc. ("Stationers"), effectively prevent the Company from paying the purchase price for the Executive Securities to be purchased in cash, then the portion of such purchase price in excess of the amount the Company is so permitted to pay in cash, if any (the "Excess Amount"), may be paid by the Company by delivery of the Company's subordinated promissory note or notes, which note or notes in the aggregate shall (i) be payable in seven equal annual installments of principal payable on each of the first seven anniversaries of such purchase, (ii) be prepayable at any time in the inverse order of maturity without any penalty, (iii) bear interest at the applicable long-term federal rate in effect at the time of the issuance of the note or notes (plus 100 basis points), and (iv) be subordinated in right of payment and upon liquidation to any senior indebtedness of the Company and/or Stationers. Accrued interest on the note or notes will be payable on the dates that the installments of principal are payable. Notwithstanding anything in this subsection to the contrary, any payments under the subordinated notes described above shall be subject to any restrictions or limitations on such payments contained in (i) the Debt Agreements (as defined below) and (ii) any and all applicable state and federal laws, rules, and regulations or in any and all orders of any state or federal governmental authority. As used herein the term "Debt Agreements" shall mean the Credit Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Company, Associated Stationers, Inc., The Chase Manhattan Bank (National Association), as agent, and the lenders which become parties thereto and the notes and other documents and instruments executed and delivered in connection therewith, as such Credit Agreement and notes and other documents and instruments may from time to time be amended or supplemented, and any agreements evidencing any renewal, extension, refinancing, refunding or replacement thereof.

(h) In the event of the termination of a marital relationship of the Executive and his spouse by divorce or annulment and the Executive does not acquire all Executive Securities or interests therein ("Divorce Securities") awarded to his spouse (the "Divorced Spouse") within 30 days from the date such Divorce Securities are so awarded (the "Divorce Securities Determination Date"), then the Executive shall give the Company written notice of such Divorce Securities Determination Date within 20 days thereof (the "Divorce Notice"), which notice shall describe the Divorce Securities passing to the Divorced Spouse in connection therewith. Upon receipt of the Divorce Notice, the Company shall have the option to purchase any and all Divorce Securities awarded to the Divorced Spouse (the "Divorce Call Right").

(i) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Divorce Securities to be repurchased by the Company pursuant to any exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be the net book value thereof at the date of the exercise of the Divorce Call Right by the Company.

(ii) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Divorce Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be equal to the Preferred Stock Price.

(iii) The purchase price for any vested Option Share included in the Divorce Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be equal to the Option Share Price.

(iv) Within 30 days after the date the Company receives the Divorce Notice, the Company shall notify the Divorced Spouse in writing (the "Company Divorce Election Notice") of the number of Divorce Securities that the Company desires to purchase and the date for the closing of such purchase which shall not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days after the date the Divorced Spouse receives the Company Divorce Election Notice.

(v) At the closing of the purchase by the Company of any Divorce Securities hereunder, the Company shall pay the applicable purchase price therefor in the same manner and on the same terms and conditions as set forth in Section 5(a) hereof.

6. Executive Put Rights.

(a) In the event the Executive dies, retires at or after age 59, or becomes Disabled (each a "Put Termination Event"), the Executive or his estate, as applicable (for purposes of this Section 6 all references to the "Executive" shall include reference to his estate if applicable), may require the Company to repurchase any or all of the Executive Securities then held by the Executive (the "Executive Put Right").

(b) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Executive Securities to be put to the Company pursuant to any exercise of the Executive Put Right at any time will be the fair market value thereof (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) as of date of such Put Termination Event.

(c) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Executive's exercise of the Executive Put Right in connection with any Put Termination Event shall be equal to the Preferred Stock Price.

(d) The purchase price for any vested Option Share included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Executive's exercise of the Executive Put Right at any time shall be equal to the Option Share Price.

(e) To effectively exercise an Executive Put Right hereunder, the Executive shall give the Company written notice (the "Executive Put Notice") to the Company within 90 days after a Put Termination Event. The Executive Put Notice shall set forth the amount and price of the Executive Securities to be put to the Company. Within 60 days after the receipt by the Company of the Executive Put Notice, the Company shall notify the Executive of the determination by the Board of Directors of the Company of the fair market value of any Common Stock included in the Executive Securities (the "Company Put Response"). Within 20 days after the receipt by the Executive of the Company Put Response, the Executive shall notify the Company in writing (the "Supplemental Executive Put Notice") of his election to either (i) consummate the proposed Executive Put Right based on the fair market value of the Common Stock included in the proposed Executive Securities as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company; (ii) withdraw the Common Stock included in the Executive Securities from the exercise of the proposed Executive Put Right and continue to put Executive Securities, other than Common Stock, to the Company pursuant to the proposed exercise of the Executive Put Right; or (iii) withdraw all Executive Securities proposed to put to the Company pursuant to the proposed exercise of the Executive Put Right. The Supplemental Executive Put Notice shall also set forth the closing date for the consummation of any such exercise of the Executive Put Right. The closing of the purchase of the Executive Securities pursuant to an exercise of the Executive Put Right shall take place on the date designated in the Supplemental Executive Put Notice, which date shall not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days after the delivery thereof to the Company. The Company shall be obligated to pay for the Executive Securities described in the Supplemental Executive Put Notice on the same terms and conditions as set forth in Section 5(g) hereof.

(f) The Executive Put Right described in this Section 6 shall be considered personal to the Executive and shall not be transferrable to any purchaser or other holder of any Executive Securities other than the Executive's estate and the personal representative or administrator thereof.

7. Ancillary Agreements. At Closing, the Executive agrees to execute and deliver to and for the benefit of the Company, Stationers, and/or the other parties thereto, the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B, the Registration Rights Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit D, the Voting Trust Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit E, and the Stockholders Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit F (such agreements being collectively referred to herein as the "Ancillary Agreements" and individually as an "Ancillary Agreement").

8. Additional Covenants of the Company. In addition to the other covenants and agreements of the Company contained herein the Company agrees, and agrees to cause Stationers, if applicable, to comply with the following agreements.

(a) The Company understands that the Key Executives as a group have engaged the law firm of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue as legal counsel to the Key Executives. The Company has been advised that Boise Cascade Corporation or one or more of its affiliates (collectively, "Boise") has agreed to reimburse the Key Executives, as a group, for the first $15,000 of the legal fees and the costs and expenses associated therewith incurred by the Key Executives in connection with the Key Executives' participation in the acquisition by the Company and Stationers of the properties, assets, and business of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation associated with or otherwise relating to its wholesale division and the equity and debt financing transactions associated therewith (collectively, the "Acquisition"). The Company hereby agrees to reimburse, or cause Stationers to reimburse, the Key Executives, as a group, for all legal fees, costs, and expenses of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue incurred by the Key Executives, as a group, in connection with their participation in the Acquisition which are in excess of the first $15,000 so incurred and up to an additional $15,000 in the aggregate, subject to verification and approval by the Company. Any portion of such legal fees, costs, and expenses in excess of $30,000 or for which the Key Executives do not receive reimbursement from Boise as contemplated shall not be the responsibility of the Company or Stationers.

(b) The initial chief financial officer of Stationers hired by the board of directors of Stationers shall be given the opportunity to purchase shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock of the Company in the same ratio as the Executive and for the purchase price of not less than the fair market value of such shares at the time of purchase, as determined in good faith by the board of directors of the Company. The maximum dollar amount of the shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be reserved for purchase by such initial chief financial officer shall be no more than $147,500. Any purchase of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock of the Company by such initial chief financial officer shall dilute all holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock on a ratable basis.

(c) The Company and/or Stationers shall pay all closing fees payable to the senior lenders to Stationers and the Company and shall pay closing fees aggregating not more than $1,500,000 to the Sponsor Holders and Good Capital Co., Inc. After the Closing, the total amount of all management, directors, and other recurrent fees payable by the Company or Stationers to the Sponsor Holders and Good Capital Co., Inc. will not exceed $350,000 to Wingate Partners, L.P. and a total of $150,000 to Cumberland Capital Corporation and Good Capital Co., Inc., unless escalated in good faith by the board of directors of the Company. If there is an extraordinary transaction affecting the Company, such as a recapitalization, refinancing or sale, the board of directors of the Company may retain the services of one or more of such parties in connection therewith if it determines that the services and fee structure therefor will be fair to the Company.

(d) The Company will, at Closing, provide to Michael D. Rowsey, as the representative of each Key Executive, complete information and documentation concerning the following matters and all other matters material to the Key Executives' investment in the Company and employment with Stationers:

(i) the various classes of Common Stock and Preferred Stock and warrants to be issued in respect thereof, including the purchase price for such Common Stock and Preferred Stock and the exercise prices in respect of the warrants;

(ii) all fees and expenses arising in respect of the Acquisition and any subsequent management or other fees including those to be paid to the Sponsor Holders or their affiliates;

(iii) loan agreements and other financing documents;

(iv) any other material agreements to be executed or commitments made as a part of the transaction; and

(v) available business plans and projections.

9. Conditions Precedent to Obligation of the Executive. The obligation of the Executive to purchase the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be purchased by the Executive hereunder is subject, at the Closing, to the satisfaction or waiver by Executive of the following conditions:

(a) The Company shall have performed and complied with the covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement required to be performed with and complied with by the Company prior to or at the Closing.

(b) The Executive shall have received a counterpart of this Agreement and each Ancillary Agreement, duly executed and delivered by Holdings and/or Stationers, as applicable.

10. Conditions Precedent to Obligation of Wingate and ASI. The obligations of Wingate and ASI, to sell the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion to be sold to the Executive hereunder is subject, at the Closing, to the satisfaction or waiver by the Company of the following conditions:

(a) All representations and warranties made by the Executive herein shall be true and correct as of the Closing with the same effect as if such representations and warranties had been made as of the Closing.

(b) The Executive shall have performed and complied with the covenants and agreements contained herein required to be performed with and complied with by the Executive prior to or at the Closing.

(c) The Acquisition and all transactions contemplated thereby shall have been consummated as of the Acquisition Closing.

(d) The Company, Wingate, and ASI shall have received the opinion of counsel described in Section 8(a) above in form and substance satisfactory to the Company, Wingate, and ASI to the effect that any IRA purchaser hereunder is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act and covering such other matters as are reasonably requested by the Company.

11. Termination. The rights and obligations of the Company, the Sponsor Holders, and/or the Executive relating to repurchases of Executive Securities pursuant to the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 hereof shall terminate (i) upon the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering (as defined below); (ii) upon the written consent of the Company and the holders of 66-2/3% or more of the Executive Securities; or (iii) in any event, the earlier of 10 years from the date hereof or the dissolution of the Company. As used herein, the term "Qualified Public Offering" shall mean the sale in an underwritten public offering or a series of public offerings, registered under the Securities Act, of Common Stock which results in the public ownership of not less than 20% of the Common Stock of the Company on a fully-diluted basis, which shares of Common Stock are listed upon the New York Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or are approved for quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System and which offering shall have resulted in the receipt by the Company and any selling stockholders of aggregate cash proceeds (after deduction of underwriter discounts and the costs associated with the offerings) of at least $37.5 million.

12. Specific Performance. In the event of any controversy concerning the rights or obligations under this Agreement, such rights or obligations shall be enforceable in a court of equity by a decree of specific performance. Such remedy, however, shall be cumulative and nonexclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedy to which the parties may be entitled.

13. Waiver. The failure of either party to insist, in any one or more instances, upon performance of the terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment of any right granted hereunder or of the future performance of any such term, covenant or condition.

14. Notices. Any notice provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be either personally delivered, or mailed by registered or certified mail (postage and registration or certification fees prepaid) or sent by facsimile or reputable overnight courier service (charges prepaid) to the recipient at the address indicated by the stock records of the Company, or at such other address or to the attention of such other person as the recipient party has specified by prior written notice to the sending party. Notices will be deemed to have been given hereunder when delivered personally, three days after deposit in the U.S. mail, on the date of delivery by facsimile, and one day after deposit with a reputable overnight courier service.

15. Severability. In the event that any provision shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, it is agreed such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement and the remaining covenants, restrictions and provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and any court of competent jurisdiction may so modify the objectionable provision as to make it valid, reasonable, and enforceable.

16. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended only by an agreement in writing signed by the parties hereto.

17. Governing Law. The corporate law of the State of Delaware shall govern all issues concerning the relative rights of the Company, Executive, and the Sponsor Holders related to the Executive Securities. All other questions concerning the construction, validity and interpretation of this Agreement will be governed by the internal law, and not the law of conflicts, of the State of Illinois.

18. Complete Agreement. This Agreement, those documents expressly referred to herein and other documents of even date herewith embody the complete agreement and understanding among the parties and supersede and preempt any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties, written or oral, which may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

19. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which is deemed to be an original and all of which taken together constitute one and the same agreement.

20. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and shall be enforceable by and against Executive's heirs, beneficiaries, and legal representatives. It is agreed that the rights and obligations of Executive may not be delegated or assigned except as specifically set forth in this Agreement. In the event of a sale of all or substantially all the Company's stock or assets, or consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another corporation or entity or individual, the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to its successor-in-interest and such successor-in-interest shall be deemed to have acquired all rights and assumed all obligations of the Company hereunder.

21. Limitation as to Partial Purchase. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 hereof, if less than all of the Executive Securities will be purchased under Sections 5 or 6, at the request of either the purchaser or purchasers or the Executive, the aggregate consideration to be paid shall be applied as follows: 63% of the consideration shall be used to purchase shares of Common Stock and 37% shall be used to purchase shares of Preferred Stock.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Agreement as of the date set forth above.

ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC.
EXECUTIVE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT

This EXECUTIVE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of January 31, 1992, and is by and among WINGATE PARTNERS, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Wingate"), ASI PARTNERS, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("ASI"), ASSOCIATED HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Robert W. Eberspacher ("Executive").

Executive desires to purchase, and Wingate and ASI desire to sell, shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Common Stock"), and Class A Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Preferred Stock"), of the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained herein.

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Purchase and Sale. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, each of Wingate and ASI severally agrees to sell, and the Executive agrees to purchase, the number of shares of Common Stock and the number of shares of Preferred Stock set forth below the Executive's name on the signature page hereto for the respective purchase prices also set forth below the Executive's name on the signature page hereto. The number of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be sold by Wingate is herein called the "Wingate Portion" and the number of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be sold by ASI is herein called the "ASI Portion." Executive acknowledges and understands that each of Wingate and ASI have borrowed funds (the "Loans") in order to purchase the Wingate Portion and ASI Portion at the closing of the acquisition by the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Associated Stationers, Inc. ("Stationers"), of the business and assets of the wholesale division of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation (the "Acquisition Closing"). Accordingly, at the Closing (as defined below), in addition to the payment of the purchase price paid by Executive for the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion, the Executive shall reimburse each of Wingate and ASI for the interest costs of the Loans incurred by them from the date of the Loans until the Closing (the "Borrowing Costs"). Additionally, the Executive may allocate all or a portion of the Common Stock and/or Preferred Stock to be purchased hereunder to one or more individual retirement account or accounts of the Executive (collectively, the "IRA"). For purposes of this Agreement, all references to Executive herein shall include reference to his IRA to the extent appropriate.

2. Closing.

(a) The purchase and sale of the shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock contemplated above will take place at a closing (the "Closing") at a place or places mutually acceptable to the Executive, Wingate, and ASI and shall occur on a date not later than June 1, 1992; provided the Executive shall have the right to extend the Closing two times for a period of not greater than 30 days each time by giving written notice of such requested extension to each of Wingate and ASI at their respective addresses set forth on the signature pages hereto at least two days prior to the then scheduled date for Closing, but in no event shall the Closing take place later than July 31, 1992. If any and all conditions to the Executive's obligation to purchase, and Wingate's and ASI's obligation to sell, hereunder have been satisfied or waived as of the date set for Closing, if and as extended as provided above, then any rights of the Executive to purchase all or any amount of the Wingate Portion and/or the ASI Portion shall terminate and be of no further force or effect if the Executive fails to purchase the Wingate Portion and the ASI portion on the date set for Closing, if and as extended as provided above.

(b) The Executive shall, at the Closing, deliver by wire transfer to an account or accounts designated by Wingate and ASI same day federal funds in an amount equal to the purchase price of the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion, respectively, purchased by the Executive pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) Upon such purchase, Wingate and ASI shall cause the Company to deliver to the Executive, against payment of the purchase price therefor, a certificate representing the shares of Common Stock and a certificate representing the shares of Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder. Such certificates shall be registered in the name of the Executive. The Executive shall deposit the certificate or certificates representing such shares of Common Stock in trust pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement (as hereinafter defined) and voting trust certificates shall be issued in respect thereof in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Voting Trust Agreement.

(d) Any tax imposed on the issuance of the shares of Common Stock or the shares of Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder will be paid by the Company at Closing.

3. Representations, Warranties, and Certain Agreements of the Executive. The Executive understands and agrees with the Company, Wingate, and

- ---------
ASI that the offering and sale of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to the Executive hereunder is intended to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Securities Act") by virtue of the provisions of Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Rule 506 of Regulation D thereunder, and that there is no existing public or other market for the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock and there can be no assurance that the Executive will be able to sell or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock. In that regard, the Executive hereby represents and warrants to, and agrees with, the Company, Wingate, and ASI that:

(a) Executive is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act.

(b) Executive has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that Executive is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has all information deemed by Executive to be necessary or appropriate to evaluate the risks and merits of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from representatives of the Company concerning the Company and the terms and conditions of the sale of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock; has a financial condition such that Executive is under no present need to dispose of any portion of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to satisfy any existing or contemplated undertaking or indebtedness; and is able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the risk of losing part or all of Executive's investment and the possible inability to sell or transfer the Common Stock and Preferred Stock for an indefinite period of time.

(c) Executive is acquiring the Common Stock and Preferred Stock for Executive's own account for investment, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act.

(d) Executive understands that the Common Stock and Preferred Stock have not been registered under the Securities Act or any blue sky or other state securities law or regulation (hereinafter collectively referred to as "blue sky laws") in reliance, in part, upon the representations, warranties, and covenants contained herein. Executive also understands that Executive cannot offer for sale, sell, or transfer any of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock unless such offer, sale, or transfer has been registered under the Securities Act and under any applicable blue sky laws or unless an exemption from such registration is available with respect to any such proposed offer, sale, or transfer. Executive further understands that the Company is under no obligation to register the Common Stock and Preferred Stock in the future.

(e) Executive agrees and acknowledges that a restrictive legend may be placed on certificates representing any or all of the Common Stock and Preferred Stock and that transfer of any or all of such Common Stock and Preferred Stock may be refused by the Company or its transfer agent, if any, unless such Common Stock and Preferred Stock for which transfer is sought is registered under the Securities Act and all other applicable federal securities or blue sky laws and such laws are complied with or unless Executive provides information satisfactory to the Company that such registration is not required.

(f) Executive agrees to indemnify and hold the Company, Wingate, and ASI harmless from and against all losses, costs, liabilities, and expenses suffered or incurred by the Company, Wingate, or ASI and arising out of or related to the resale or distribution by the Executive of any Common Stock and Preferred Stock in violation of the Securities Act or any other applicable federal securities laws or blue sky laws.

4. Securities Subject to Agreement. (a) In addition to any Common Stock and Preferred Stock purchased by the Executive hereunder, the Company has granted and may hereafter grant to the Executive, options under the Company's 1992 Management Stock Option Plan, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Plan") entitling the Executive to purchase additional shares of Common Stock at the price of $10.00 per share (the "Options") and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Option Agreement"). This Agreement, and the restrictions and limitations contained herein, applies to all Common Stock and Preferred Stock now owned or hereafter acquired by the Executive (through purchase hereunder or exercise of all or any portion of the Options), any voting trust certificates issued or issuable to Executive pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement (the "Voting Trust Agreement") dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Company, the Voting Trustees named therein, and certain beneficial owners of Common Stock of the Company identified therein and who may become parties thereto, and any shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock otherwise acquired by Executive, including any Common Stock issued with respect to Common Stock owned by Executive by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or otherwise. All such Common Stock, Preferred Stock, and voting trust certificates to which this Agreement applies are herein collectively called the "Executive Securities." Executive Securities will continue to be Executive Securities in the hands of any other holder (except for the Company, any subsidiary of the Company, any Sponsor Holder [as defined below] or transferees in a public sale) and each such other holder of Executive Securities will succeed to all of the rights and obligations of the Executive pursuant to Section 5 hereof. As used herein, the term "Sponsor Holder" shall mean each of Wingate and its affiliates and ASI and its affiliates.

(b) As of the date hereof the Company shall, pursuant to Option Agreements, grant to the Key Executives (as defined below) Options to purchase an aggregate number of shares of Common Stock equal to 21,684 and allocated as set forth on Exhibit C hereto (the "First Options"). The Company agrees that within four years from the date hereof it shall grant to the Key Executives or any successor officers to the Key Executives an Option or Options to purchase an additional aggregate number of shares of Common Stock equal to 21,684 (subject to the anti-dilution adjustments set forth in the Plan) as allocated by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Second Options"). The exercise price for the Common Stock subject to the Second Options shall be $10.00 per share for each Key Executive, but, unless otherwise determined by the Board, shall be the fair market value of each such share for any successor officer to a Key Executive. As used herein, the term "Key Executives" shall collectively mean Michael D. Rowsey, Daniel J. Schleppe, Robert W. Eberspacher, and Lawrence E. Miller.

(c) The Second Options shall be granted under the same form of option agreement as the Option Agreement, except for the number of shares and except that vesting shall be in increments of 25% on the four succeeding anniversaries of the date of grant. If the Second Options have not been granted in full at the time of a Major Transaction (as defined in the Option Agreements), any ungranted Second Options shall be treated as having been granted to the Key Executives in proportion to the number of shares originally covered by the First Options and the Key Executives shall receive the special distributions contemplated by Section 2 of the Option Agreement.

5. Repurchase Right of the Company.

(a) In the event the Executive dies, retires, becomes Disabled (as defined below) or ceases to be employed or retained by the Company or one of its subsidiaries or other affiliates, for any reason (a "Termination"), the Executive Securities (whether held by Executive or one or more of Executive's transferees) will be subject to repurchase by the Company, and, if applicable, one or more of the Sponsor Holders (as determined by subparagraph (f), below) pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 5 (the "Repurchase Right"). As used herein, the term "Disabled" shall mean the Executive's inability, due to illness, accident, injury, physical or mental incapacity or other disability, effectively to carry out his duties and obligations to the Company as an employee thereof or to participate effectively and actively in the management of the Company for 90 consecutive days or shorter periods aggregating at least 180 days (whether or not consecutive) during any twelve-month period.

(b) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Executive Securities will be the net book value thereof at the date of such Termination; provided, however, that if the Repurchase Right is triggered by a Termination constituting a Special Termination Event (as defined below) then the purchase price for each such share of Common Stock will be the fair market value thereof (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) as of the date of such Special Termination Event. As used herein, the term "Special Termination Event" shall mean (i) the death of the Executive, (ii) the retirement by the Executive at or after age 59, (iii) a termination by Stationers of the Executive's employment under the Employment Agreement dated as of the date hereof between Stationers and the Executive without Cause (as such term is defined in such Employment Agreement), (iv) a termination of employment due to the Executive becoming Disabled, or (v) a termination of employment (other than for Cause) at a time that there is a public market for shares of Common Stock of the Company.

(c) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Repurchase Right in connection with any Termination shall be the redemption value of $1,000 per share plus any accrued but unpaid dividends thereon, subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of a stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction (the "Preferred Stock Price").

(d) The purchase price for any vested share of Common Stock covered by an Option ("Option Share") included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Repurchase Right shall be equal to the product of (i) the price which would apply to a share of Common Stock (determined by the method set forth in subparagraph (b) above) minus the exercise price therefor and (ii) the number of Option Shares which may be acquired at the time of such purchase, according to the vesting and exercise schedule in the Option Agreement or other option agreement entered into by the Executive (the "Option Share Price").

(e) The Company shall have a first option to acquire the Executive Securities pursuant to the Repurchase Right and may elect to purchase all or any portion of the Executive Securities included therein by delivering written notice (the "Repurchase Notice") to the holder or holders of the Executive Securities within 30 days after the Termination or, in case of the death of the Executive, within 30 days after the Company first becomes aware of the Executive's death. The Repurchase Notice shall set forth the amount and price of the Executive Securities to be acquired from such holder or holders, the aggregate consideration to be paid for such Executive Securities and the time and place for the closing of the transaction. The are less than the Executive Securities the Company has elected to purchase, the Company shall purchase the remaining Executive Securities from the transferee holder(s) of the Executive Securities pro rata according to the amount held by such transferee holder(s) at the time of delivery of such Repurchase Notice (determined as nearly as practicable to the nearest full share).

(f) If for any reason the Company does not elect to purchase all of the Executive Securities pursuant to the Repurchase Right, the Sponsor Holders who qualify as "accredited investors" under Regulation D of the Securities Act (the "Accredited Holders") may exercise the Repurchase Right for the Executive Securities the Company has not elected to purchase (the "Available Securities"). As soon as practicable after the Company has determined that there will be Available Securities, the Company shall give written notice (the "Company Notice") to the Accredited Holders, setting forth the amount and nature of Available Securities and the purchase price for the Available Securities. Each of the Accredited Holders may select the amount and type of the Available Securities (if any) that such Accredited Holder elects to purchase by giving written notice thereof to the Company within 20 days after the Company Notice has been given to such Accredited Holder by the Company. If the Accredited Holders collectively select a number of shares of Available Securities greater than the amount of Available Securities available, then all Available Securities shall be allocated pro rata among the Accredited Holders electing to participate, based upon the number of shares of each type of Executive Securities subscribed for by each such Accredited Holder. As soon as practicable, and in any event within 5 days after the expiration of the 20-day period set forth above, the Company shall notify each proposed transferor of Executive Securities as to the number of shares of Executive Securities being purchased from such transferor by the Company and each Accredited Holder (the "Supplemental Repurchase Notice"). At the time the Company delivers the Supplemental Repurchase Notice, the Company also shall deliver written notice to the Accredited Holders electing to participate, setting forth the type and number of shares of Executive Securities the Accredited Holders electing to participate are entitled to purchase, the aggregate purchase price and the time and place of the closing of the transaction.

(g) The closing of the purchase of the Executive Securities pursuant to any exercise of the Repurchase Right shall take place on the latest date designated by the Company in the purchase price in excess of the amount the Company is so permitted to pay in cash, if any (the "Excess Amount"), may be paid by the Company by delivery of the Company's subordinated promissory note or notes, which note or notes in the aggregate shall (i) be payable in seven equal annual installments of principal payable on each of the first seven anniversaries of such purchase, (ii) be prepayable at any time in the inverse order of maturity without any penalty, (iii) bear interest at the applicable long-term federal rate in effect at the time of the issuance of the note or notes (plus 100 basis points), and (iv) be subordinated in right of payment and upon liquidation to any senior indebtedness of the Company and/or Stationers. Accrued interest on the note or notes will be payable on the dates that the installments of principal are payable. Notwithstanding anything in this subsection to the contrary, any payments under the subordinated notes described above shall be subject to any restrictions or limitations on such payments contained in (i) the Debt Agreements (as defined below) and (ii) any and all applicable state and federal laws, rules, and regulations or in any and all orders of any state or federal governmental authority. As used herein the term "Debt Agreements" shall mean the Credit Agreement dated as of January 31, 1992 among the Company, Associated Stationers, Inc., The Chase Manhattan Bank (National Association), as agent, and the lenders which become parties thereto and the notes and other documents and instruments executed and delivered in connection therewith, as such Credit Agreement and notes and other documents and instruments may from time to time be amended or supplemented, and any agreements evidencing any renewal, extension, refinancing, refunding or replacement thereof.

Repurchase Notice or Supplemental Repurchase notice, which date shall not be more than 30 days nor less than 10 days after the delivery of the later of either such notice to be delivered. The Company and/or the Accredited Holders electing to participate shall pay for the Executive Securities to be purchased pursuant to the Repurchase Right in cash by a bank cashier's check, certified check or by wire transfer. If at the time of consummation of any exercise of a Repurchase Right by the Company, the terms and provisions of the credit facilities of the Company or of its subsidiary, Associated Stationers, Inc. ("Stationers"), effectively prevent the Company from paying the purchase price for the Executive Securities to be purchased in cash, then the portion of such

(h) In the event of the termination of a marital relationship of the Executive and his spouse by divorce or annulment and the Executive does not acquire all Executive Securities or interests therein ("Divorce Securities") awarded to his spouse (the "Divorced Spouse") within 30 days from the date such Divorce Securities are so awarded (the "Divorce Securities Determination Date"), then the Executive shall give the Company written notice of such Divorce Securities Determination Date within 20 days thereof (the "Divorce Notice"), which notice shall describe the Divorce Securities passing to the Divorced Spouse in connection therewith. Upon receipt of the Divorce Notice, the Company shall have the option to purchase any and all Divorce Securities awarded to the Divorced Spouse (the "Divorce Call Right").

(i) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Divorce Securities to be repurchased by the Company pursuant to any exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be the net book value thereof at the date of the exercise of the Divorce Call Right by the Company.

(ii) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Divorce Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be equal to the Preferred Stock Price.

(iii) The purchase price for any vested Option Share included in the Divorce Securities with respect to the Company's exercise of the Divorce Call Right at any time shall be equal to the Option Share Price.

(iv) Within 30 days after the date the Company receives the Divorce Notice, the Company shall notify the Divorced Spouse in writing (the "Company Divorce Election Notice") of the number of Divorce Securities that the Company desires to purchase and the date for the closing of such purchase which shall not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days after the date the Divorced Spouse receives the Company Divorce Election Notice.

(v) At the closing of the purchase by the Company of any Divorce Securities hereunder, the Company shall pay the applicable purchase price therefor in the same manner and on the same terms and conditions as set forth in Section 5(a) hereof.

6. Executive Put Rights.

(a) In the event the Executive dies, retires at or after age 59, or becomes Disabled (each a "Put Termination Event"), the Executive or his estate, as applicable (for purposes of this Section 6 all references to the "Executive" shall include reference to his estate if applicable), may require the Company to repurchase any or all of the Executive Securities then held by the Executive (the "Executive Put Right").

(b) The purchase price for each share of Common Stock included in the Executive Securities to be put to the Company pursuant to any exercise of the Executive Put Right at any time will be the fair market value thereof (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) as of date of such Put Termination Event.

(c) The purchase price for each share of Preferred Stock included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Executive's exercise of the Executive Put Right in connection with any Put Termination Event shall be equal to the Preferred Stock Price.

(d) The purchase price for any vested Option Share included in the Executive Securities with respect to the Executive's exercise of the Executive Put Right at any time shall be equal to the Option Share Price.

(e) To effectively exercise an Executive Put Right hereunder, the Executive shall give the Company written notice (the "Executive Put Notice") to the Company within 90 days after a Put Termination Event. The Executive Put Notice shall set forth the amount and price of the Executive Securities to be put to the Company. Within 60 days after the receipt by the Company of the Executive Put Notice, the Company shall notify the Executive of the determination by the Board of Directors of the Company of the fair market value of any Common Stock included in the Executive Securities (the "Company Put Response"). Within 20 days after the receipt by the Executive of the Company Put Response, the Executive shall notify the Company in writing (the "Supplemental Executive Put Notice") of his election to either (i) consummate the proposed Executive Put Right based on the fair market value of the Common Stock included in the proposed Executive Securities as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company; (ii) withdraw the Common Stock included in the Executive Securities from the exercise of the proposed Executive Put Right and continue to put Executive Securities, other than Common Stock, to the Company pursuant to the proposed exercise of the Executive Put Right; or (iii) withdraw all Executive Securities proposed to put to the Company pursuant to the proposed exercise of the Executive Put Right. The Supplemental Executive Put Notice shall also set forth the closing date for the consummation of any such exercise of the Executive Put Right. The closing of the purchase of the Executive Securities pursuant to an exercise of the Executive Put Right shall take place on the date designated in the Supplemental Executive Put Notice, which date shall not be more than 60 days nor less than 10 days after the delivery thereof to the Company. The Company shall be obligated to pay for the Executive Securities described in the Supplemental Executive Put Notice on the same terms and conditions as set forth in Section 5(g) hereof.

(f) The Executive Put Right described in this Section 6 shall be considered personal to the Executive and shall not be transferrable to any purchaser or other holder of any Executive Securities other than the Executive's estate and the personal representative or administrator thereof.

7. Ancillary Agreements. At Closing, the Executive agrees to execute and deliver to and for the benefit of the Company, Stationers, and/or the other parties thereto, the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B, the Registration Rights Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit D, the Voting Trust Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit E, and the Stockholders Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit F (such agreements being collectively referred to herein as the "Ancillary Agreements" and individually as an "Ancillary Agreement").

8. Additional Covenants of the Company. In addition to the other covenants and agreements of the Company contained herein the Company agrees, and agrees to cause Stationers, if applicable, to comply with the following agreements.

(a) The Company understands that the Key Executives as a group have engaged the law firm of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue as legal counsel to the Key Executives. The Company has been advised that Boise Cascade Corporation or one or more of its affiliates (collectively, "Boise") has agreed to reimburse the Key Executives, as a group, for the first $15,000 of the legal fees and the costs and expenses associated therewith incurred by the Key Executives in connection with the Key Executives' participation in the acquisition by the Company and Stationers of the properties, assets, and business of Boise Cascade Office Products Corporation associated with or otherwise relating to its wholesale division and the equity and debt financing transactions associated therewith (collectively, the "Acquisition"). The Company hereby agrees to reimburse, or cause Stationers to reimburse, the Key Executives, as a group, for all legal fees, costs, and expenses of Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue incurred by the Key Executives, as a group, in connection with their participation in the Acquisition which are in excess of the first $15,000 so incurred and up to an additional $15,000 in the aggregate, subject to verification and approval by the Company. Any portion of such legal fees, costs, and expenses in excess of $30,000 or for which the Key Executives do not receive reimbursement from Boise as contemplated shall not be the responsibility of the Company or Stationers.

(b) The initial chief financial officer of Stationers hired by the board of directors of Stationers shall be given the opportunity to purchase shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock of the Company in the same ratio as the Executive and for the purchase price of not less than the fair market value of such shares at the time of purchase, as determined in good faith by the board of directors of the Company. The maximum dollar amount of the shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be reserved for purchase by such initial chief financial officer shall be no more than $147,500. Any purchase of shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock of the Company by such initial chief financial officer shall dilute all holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock on a ratable basis.

(c) The Company and/or Stationers shall pay all closing fees payable to the senior lenders to Stationers and the Company and shall pay closing fees aggregating not more than $1,500,000 to the Sponsor Holders and Good Capital Co., Inc. After the Closing, the total amount of all management, directors, and other recurrent fees payable by the Company or Stationers to the Sponsor Holders and Good Capital Co., Inc. will not exceed $350,000 to Wingate Partners, L.P. and a total of $150,000 to Cumberland Capital Corporation and Good Capital Co., Inc., unless escalated in good faith by the board of directors of the Company. If there is an extraordinary transaction affecting the Company, such as a recapitalization, refinancing or sale, the board of directors of the Company may retain the services of one or more of such parties in connection therewith if it determines that the services and fee structure therefor will be fair to the Company.

(d) The Company will, at Closing, provide to Michael D. Rowsey, as the representative of each Key Executive, complete information and documentation concerning the following matters and all other matters material to the Key Executives' investment in the Company and employment with Stationers:

(i) the various classes of Common Stock and Preferred Stock and warrants to be issued in respect thereof, including the purchase price for such Common Stock and Preferred Stock and the exercise prices in respect of the warrants;

(ii) all fees and expenses arising in respect of the Acquisition and any subsequent management or other fees including those to be paid to the Sponsor Holders or their affiliates;

(iii) loan agreements and other financing documents;

(iv) any other material agreements to be executed or commitments made as a part of the transaction; and

(v) available business plans and projections.

9. Conditions Precedent to Obligation of the Executive. The obligation of the Executive to purchase the Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be purchased by the Executive hereunder is subject, at the Closing, to the satisfaction or waiver by Executive of the following conditions:

(a) The Company shall have performed and complied with the covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement required to be performed with and complied with by the Company prior to or at the Closing.

(b) The Executive shall have received a counterpart of this Agreement and each Ancillary Agreement, duly executed and delivered by Holdings and/or Stationers, as applicable.

10. Conditions Precedent to Obligation of Wingate and ASI. The obligations of Wingate and ASI, to sell the Wingate Portion and the ASI Portion to be sold to the Executive hereunder is subject, at the Closing, to the satisfaction or waiver by the Company of the following conditions:

(a) All representations and warranties made by the Executive herein shall be true and correct as of the Closing with the same effect as if such representations and warranties had been made as of the Closing.

(b) The Executive shall have performed and complied with the covenants and agreements contained herein required to be performed with and complied with by the Executive prior to or at the Closing.

(c) The Acquisition and all transactions contemplated thereby shall have been consummated as of the Acquisition Closing.

(d) The Company, Wingate, and ASI shall have received the opinion of counsel described in Section 8(a) above in form and substance satisfactory to the Company, Wingate, and ASI to the effect that any IRA purchaser hereunder is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act and covering such other matters as are reasonably requested by the Company.

11. Termination. The rights and obligations of the Company, the Sponsor Holders, and/or the Executive relating to repurchases of Executive Securities pursuant to the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 hereof shall terminate (i) upon the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering (as defined below); (ii) upon the written consent of the Company and the holders of 66-2/3% or more of the Executive Securities; or (iii) in any event, the earlier of 10 years from the date hereof or the dissolution of the Company. As used herein, the term "Qualified Public Offering" shall mean the sale in an underwritten public offering or a series of public offerings, registered under the Securities Act, of Common Stock which results in the public ownership of not less than 20% of the Common Stock of the Company on a fully-diluted basis, which shares of Common Stock are listed upon the New York Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or are approved for quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System and which offering shall have resulted in the receipt by the Company and any selling stockholders of aggregate cash proceeds (after deduction of underwriter discounts and the costs associated with the offerings) of at least $37.5 million.

12. Specific Performance. In the event of any controversy concerning the rights or obligations under this Agreement, such rights or obligations shall be enforceable in a court of equity by a decree of specific performance. Such remedy, however, shall be cumulative and nonexclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedy to which the parties may be entitled.

13. Waiver. The failure of either party to insist, in any one or more instances, upon performance of the terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment of any right granted hereunder or of the future performance of any such term, covenant or condition.

14. Notices. Any notice provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be either personally delivered, or mailed by registered or certified mail (postage and registration or certification fees prepaid) or sent by facsimile or reputable overnight courier service (charges prepaid) to the recipient at the address indicated by the stock records of the Company, or at such other address or to the attention of such other person as the recipient party has specified by prior written notice to the sending party. Notices will be deemed to have been given hereunder when delivered personally, three days after deposit in the U.S. mail, on the date of delivery by facsimile, and one day after deposit with a reputable overnight courier service.

15. Severability. In the event that any provision shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, it is agreed such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement and the remaining covenants, restrictions and provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and any court of competent jurisdiction may so modify the objectionable provision as to make it valid, reasonable, and enforceable.

16. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended only by an agreement in writing signed by the parties hereto.

17. Governing Law. The corporate law of the State of Delaware shall govern all issues concerning the relative rights of the Company, Executive, and the Sponsor Holders related to the Executive Securities. All other questions concerning the construction, validity and interpretation of this Agreement will be governed by the internal law, and not the law of conflicts, of the State of Illinois.

18. Complete Agreement. This Agreement, those documents expressly referred to herein and other documents of even date herewith embody the complete agreement and understanding among the parties and supersede and preempt any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties, written or oral, which may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

19. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which is deemed to be an original and all of which taken together constitute one and the same agreement.

20. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and shall be enforceable by and against Executive's heirs, beneficiaries, and legal representatives. It is agreed that the rights and obligations of Executive may not be delegated or assigned except as specifically set forth in this Agreement. In the event of a sale of all or substantially all the Company's stock or assets, or consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another corporation or entity or individual, the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to its successor-in-interest and such successor-in-interest shall be deemed to have acquired all rights and assumed all obligations of the Company hereunder.

21. Limitation as to Partial Purchase. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 hereof, if less than all of the Executive Securities will be purchased under Sections 5 or 6, at the request of either the purchaser or purchasers or the Executive, the aggregate consideration to be paid shall be applied as follows: 63% of the consideration shall be used to purchase shares of Common Stock and 37% shall be used to purchase shares of Preferred Stock.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Agreement as of the date set forth above.

LEASE AGREEMENT 79 — Alameda Distribution Center

March 4, 1988

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT, made and entered into by and between Crow-Alameda Limited Partnership, hereinafter referred to as ``Landlord'' and Stationers Distributing Company, Inc., hereinafter referred to as ``Tenant'';

WITNESSETH:

1. Premises and Term. In consideration of the obligation of Tenant to pay rent herein provided, and in consideration of the other terms, provisions and convenants hereof, Landlord hereby demises and leases to Tenant, and Tenant hereby takes from Landlord certain premises situated within the County of Maricopa, State of Arizona, more particularly described on Exhibit "A" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, together with all rights, privileges, easements, appurtenances, and immunities belonging to or in any way pertaining to the premises and together with the buildings and other improvements situated or to be situated upon said premises, said real property, buildings and improvements being hereinafter referred to as the "premises").

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the names for a term commencing on the "commencement date", as hereinafter defined, and ending 60 month thereafter, provided, however, that, in the event the "commencement date" is a date other than the first day of a calendar month, said term shall extend for said number of months in addition to the remainder of the calendar month following the "commencement date."

A. The "commencement date" shall be April 1, 1988, Tenant acknowledges that it has inspected and accepts the premises, and specifically the buildings and improvements comprising the same, in their present condition as suitable for the purpose for which the premises are leased. Taking of possession by Tenant shall be deemed conclusively to establish that said buildings and other improvements are in, good and satisfactory condition as of when possession was taken. Tenant further acknowledges that no representations as to the repair of the premises, nor promises to alter, remodel or improve the premises have been made by Landlord, unless such are expressly set forth in this lease. If this lease is executed before the premises become vacant or otherwise available and ready for occupancy, or if any present tenant or occupant of the premises holds over, and Landlord cannot acquire possession of the premises prior to said "commencement date," Landlord shall not be deemed to be in default hereunder, and Tenant agrees to accept possession of the premises at such time as Landlord is able to tender the same, which date shall thenceforth be deemed the "commencement date"; and Landlord hereby waives payment of rent covering any period prior to the tendering of possession to Tenant hereunder. After the commencement date Tenant shall, upon demand, execute and deliver to Landlord a letter of acceptance of delivery of the premises.

B. In the event this lease pertains to a building to be constructed, the provisions of this subparagraph B shall apply in lieu of the provisions of subparagraph A above and the "commencement date" shall be the date upon which the buildings and other improvements erected and to be erected upon the premises shall have been substantially completed in accordance with the plans and specifications described on Exhibit "B" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing as soon as Landlord deems said buildings and other improvements to be completed and ready for occupancy as aforesaid. In the event that said buildings and other improvements have not in fact been substantially completed as aforesaid, Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing of its objections. Landlord shall have a reasonable time after delivery of such notice in which to take such corrective action as may be necessary, and shall notify Tenant in writing as soon as it deems such corrective action has been completed so that said buildings and other improvements are completed and ready for occupancy. Taking of possession by Tenant shall be deemed conclusively to establish that said buildings and other improvements have been completed in accordance with the plans and specifications and that the premises are in good and satisfactory condition, as of when possession was so taken. Tenant acknowledges that no representations as to the repair of the premises have been made by Landlord, unless such are expressly set forth in this lease. After such "commencement date" Tenant shall, upon demand, execute and deliver to Landlord a letter of acceptance of delivery of the premises. In the event of any dispute as to substantial completion or work performed or required to be performed by Landlord, the certificate of Landlord's architect or general contractor shall be conclusive.

2. BASE RENT AND SECURITY DEPOSIT.

A. Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord rent for the premises in advance, without demand, deduction or set off, for the entire term hereof at the rate of _____ See Addendum Paragraph 28 Dollars ($_____), per month. One such monthly installment shall be due and payable on the date hereof and a like monthly installment shall be due and payable, without demand, on or before the first day of each calendar month succeeding the "commencement date" during the hereby demised term, except that the rental payment for any fractional calendar month at the commencement of the lease term shall be prorated.

B. In addition, Tenant agrees to deposit with Landlord on the date hereof the sum of _____ Dollars ($ _____), which sum shall be held by Landlord, without obligation for interest, as security for the performance of Tenant's convenants and obligations under this lease, it being expressly understood and agreed that such deposit is not an advance rental deposit or a measure of Landlord's damages in case of Tenants default. Upon the occurrence of any event of default by Tenant, Landlord may, from time to time, without prejudice to any other remedy provided herein or provided by law, use such fund to the extent necessary to make good any arrears of rent or other payments due Landlord hereunder, and any other damage, injury, expense or liability caused by such event of default; and Tenant shall pay to Landlord, on demand, the amount so applied in order to restore the security deposit to its original amount. Although the security deposit shall be deemed the property of Landlord, any remaining balance of such deposit shall be returned by Landlord to Tenant at such time after termination of this lease that all of the Tenant's obligations under this lease have been fulfilled.

3. Use. The premises shall be used only for the purpose of receiving storing, shipping and selling (other than retail) products, materials and merchandise made and/or distributed by Tenant, and for such other lawful purposes as may be incidental thereto. Outside storage is prohibited, without Landlord's prior written consent. Tenant shall, at is own cost and expense, obtain any and all licenses and permits necessary for any such use. Tenant shall comply with all governmental laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the use of the premises, and shall promptly comply with all governmental orders and directives for the correction, prevention and abatement of nuisances in or upon, or connected with, the premises, all at Tenant's sole expense. Tenant shall not permit any objectionable or unpleasant odors, smoke, dust, gas, noise or vibrations to emanate from the premises, nor take any other action which would constitute a nuisance or would disturb or endanger any other tenants of the building in which the premises are situated or unreasonably interfere with their use of their respective premises. Without Landlord's prior written consent, Tenant shall not receive, store or otherwise handle any product, material or merchandise which is explosive or highly inflammable. Tenant will not permit the premises to be used for any purpose or in any manner (including without limitation any method at storage) which would render the insurance, thereon void or the insurance risk more hazardous or cause the State limit of Insurance or other insurance authority to disallow any sprinkler credits. Nothing herein shall require Tenant to make improvements to the leasehold premises unless the requirement for such improvements is caused by a particular use of the premises by Tenant not common to normal warehouse operations.

A. Tenant agrees to pay its proportionate share of all taxes assessments, and governmental charges of any kind and nature whatsoever (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "taxes") lawfully levied or assessed against the building and the grounds, parking areas driveways and alleys around the building. Tenant shall furnish to Landlord, not later than twenty (20) days before the date any such taxes become delinquent, official receipts of the appropriate taxing authority or other evidence satisfactory to Landlord evidencing payment thereof. If Tenant should fail to pay any taxes, assessments, or governmental charges required to be paid by Tenant hereunder, in addition to any other remedies provided herein, Landlord may, if it so elects, pay such taxes, assessments and governmental charges. Any sums so paid by Landlord shall be deemed to be so much additional rental owing by Tenant to Landlord and due and payable, on demand, by Landlord together with interest thereon, at the rate of ten per cent (10%) per annum from date paid by Landlord to date of repayment by Tenant.

B. The premises constitute a portion of a multiple company building Landlord agrees to pay, before they become delinquent, all "taxes" lawfully levied or assessed against such building and the grounds, parking areas, driveways and alleys around the building, and Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord, as additional rental, upon demand, the amount of Tenant's "proportionate share " of all such "taxes" paid by Landlord. Tenant's "proportionate share" as used in this lease, shall mean a fraction, the numerator of which is the space contained in the premises and the denominator of which is the entire space contained in the building.

C. If, at any time during the term of this lease, the present method of taxation shall be changed so that in lieu of the whole or any part of any taxes, assessments or governmental charges levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and the improvements thereon, there shall be levied, assessed or imposed on Landlord a capital levy or other tax directly on the rents received therefrom and/or a franchise tax, assessment, levy or charge measured by or based, in whole or in part, upon such rents for the present or any future building or buildings on the premises, then all such taxes, assessments, levies or charges, or the part thereof so measured or based, shall be deemed to be included within the term "taxes" for the purposes hereof.

D. Tenant may, alone or along with any other tenants of said building, at its or their sole cost and expense, in its or their own name(s) and/or in the name of Landlord, dispute and contest any "taxes" by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted in good faith, but only after Tenant and all other tenants, if any, joining with Tenant in such contest, have deposited with Landlord the amount so contested and unpaid, or their proportionate shares thereof, as the case may be, which shall be held by Landlord without obligation for interest until the termination of the proceedings, at which time the amount(s) deposited shall be applied by Landlord toward the payment of the items held valid (plus any court costs, interest, penalties, and other liabilities associated with the proceedings), and Tenant's share of any excess shall be returned to Tenant. Tenant further agrees to pay to Landlord, upon demand, Tenant's share (as among all tenants who participated in the contest) of all court costs, interest, penalties, and other liabilities relating to such proceedings. Tenant hereby indemnities and agrees to hold harmless the Landlord from and against any cost, damage, or expense (including attorneys' fees) in connection with any such proceedings.

E. Any payment to be made pursuant to this Paragraph 4, with respect to the real estate tax year in which this lease commences or terminates shall be prorated.

The cost of maintenance and repair of any common party wall (any wall, divider, partition or any other structure separating the premises from any adjacent premises occupied by other tenants) shall be shared equally by Tenant and the tenant occupying adjacent premises. Tenant shall not damage any party wall or disturb the integrity and support provided by any party wall and shall, at its sole cost and expense, promptly repair any damage or injury to any party wall caused by Tenant or its employees, agents or invitees.

C. In the event the premises constitute a portion of a multiple occupancy building, Tenant and its employees, customers and licensees shall have the exclusive right to use the parking areas, if any, as may be designated by Landlord in writing, subject to such reasonable rules and regulations as Landlord may from time to time prescribe. Further, in multiple occupancy buildings. Landlord reserves the right to perform the rent????, paving and landscape maintenance, exterior painting and common sewage line plumbing which are otherwise Tenant's obligations under subparagraph A above, and Tenant shall, in lieu of the obligations set forth under subparagraph A above with respect to such items, he liable for its proportionate share (as defined in subparagraph 4 (B) above) of the cost and expense of the care for the ground around the building, including but not limited to, the mowing of grass, care of shrubs, general landscaping, maintenance of parking areas, driveways and alleys, exterior repainting and common sewage line plumbing; provided, however, that Landlord shall have the right to require Tenant to pay such other reasonable proportion of said mowing, shrub care and general landscaping costs as may be determined by Landlord in its sole discretion: and further provided that if Tenant or any other particular tenant of the building can be clearly identified as being responsible for obstruction or stoppage of the common sanitary sewage lien then Tenant, if Tenant is responsible, or such other responsible tenant, shall pay the entire cost thereof, upon demand, as additional rent. Tenant shall pay when due its share, determined as aforesaid, of such costs and expenses along with the other tenants of the building to Landlord upon demand, as additional rent, for the amount of its share as aforesaid of such costs and expenses in the event Landlord elects to perform or cause to be performed such work. Landlord shall perform all maintenance and repair on roof, exterior wall, and foundation without cost to Tenant.

D. In the event the premises constitute a portion of a multiple occupancy building, Landlord shall be responsible for coordinating any repairs and other maintenance of any rail tracks serving or to serve the building, and if Tenant uses such rail tracks. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord from time to time upon demand, as additional rent, for a share of the costs of such repairs and maintenance and any other sums specified in any agreement to which Landlord is a party respecting such tracks, such share to be a fraction, the numerator of which is the space contained on the premises, and the denominator of which is the entire space occupied by rail users in the building.

E. Tenants shall, at its own cost and expense, enter into a regularly scheduled preventive maintenance/service contract with a maintenance contractor for servicing all heating and air conditioning systems and equipment within the premises. The maintenance contractor and the contract must be approved by Landlord. The service contract must include all services suggested by the equipment manufacturer within the operation/maintenance manual and must become effective (and a copy thereof delivered to Landlord) within thirty (30) days of the date Tenant takes possession of the premises.

Tenant may, without the consent of Landlord, but at its own cost and expense and in a good workmanlike manner make such minor alterations, additions or improvements or erect, remove or alter such partitions, or erect such shelves, bins, machinery and trade fixtures as it may deem advisable, without altering the basic character of the building or improvements and without overloading or damaging such building or improvements, and in each case complying with all applicable governmental laws, ordinances, regulations and other requirements. All alterations, additions, improvements and partitions erected by Tenant shall be and remain the property of Tenant during the term of this lease and Tenant shall unless Landlord otherwise elects as hereinafter provided, remove all alterations, additions, improvements and partitions erected by Tenant and restore the premises to their original condition by the date of termination of this lease; provided, however, that if Landlord so elects prior to termination of this lease, such alterations, additions, improvements and partitions shall become the property of Landlord as of the date of termination of this lease and shall be delivered up to the Landlord with the premises. All shelves, bins, machinery and trade fixtures installed by Tenant may be removed by Tenant prior to the termination of this lease if Tenant so elects, and shall be removed if returned by Landlord: upon any such removal Tenant shall restore the premises to their condition at commencement of the lease. All such removals and restoration shall be accomplished in a good workmanlike manner so as not to damage the primary structure or structures qualities of the buildings and other improvements situated on the premises.

7. Signs. Tenant shall have the right to install signs upon the premises only when first approved in writing by Landlord and subject to any applicable governmental laws, ordinances, regulations and other requirements. Tenant shall remove all such signs by the termination of this lease. Such installations and removals shall be made in such manner as to avoid injury to or defacement of the building and other improvements, and Tenant shall repair any injury or defacement including without limitation discoloration, caused by such installation or removal.

8. Inspection. Landlord and Landlord's agents and representatives shall have the right to enter and inspect the premises at any reasonable time during business hours, for the purpose of ascertaining the condition of the premises or in order to make such repairs as may be required or permitted to be made by Landlord under the terms of this lease. During the period that is six (6) months prior to the end of the term hereof, Landlord and Landlord's agents and representatives shall have the right to enter the premises at any reasonable time during business hours for the purpose of showing the premises, and shall have the right to erect on the premises a suitable sign indicating that the premises are available. Tenant shall give written notice to Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior to vacating the premises and shall arrange to meet with Landlord for a joint inspection of the premises at the time of vacating. In the event of Tenant's failure to give such notice or arrange such joint inspection, Landlord's inspection at or after Tenant's vacating the premises shall be conclusively deemed correct for purposes of determining Tenant's responsibility for repairs and restoration.

9. Utilities. Landlord agrees to provide, at its cost, water, electricity and telephone service connections and meters to the premises: but Tenant shall pay for all water, gas, heat, light, power, telephone, sewer, sprinkler charges and other utilities and services used on or from the premises, together with any taxes, penalties, surcharges or the like pertaining thereto, and maintenance charges for utilities, and shall furnish all electric light bulbs and tubes. If any such services are not separately metered in Tenant, Tenant shall pay a reasonable proportion, as determined by Landlord, of all charges jointly metered with other premises. Landlord shall in no event be liable for any interruption or failure of utility services on the premises.

10. Assignment and Subletting. Tenant shall not have the right to assign this lease or to sublet the whole or any part of the premises without the prior written consent of Landlord which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding any permitted assignment or subletting, Tenant shall at all times remain directly, primarily and fully responsible and liable for the payment of the rent herein specified and for compliance with all of Tenant's other obligations under the terms, provisions and covenants of this lease. Upon the occurrence of an "event of default" as hereinafter deemed, if the premises or any part thereof are then assigned or sublet. Landlord, in addition to any other remedies herein provided or provided by law, may at its option collect directly from such assignee or subtenant all rents becoming due to Tenant under such assignment or sublease and apply such rent against any sums due to Landlord from Tenant hereunder, and no such collection shall be construed to constitute a novation or a release of Tenant from the further performance of Tenant's obligations hereunder.

11. INSURANCE, FIRE AND CASUALTY DAMAGE.

A. Landlord agrees to maintain insurance covering the building of which the premises are a part in an amount not less than eighty per cent (80%) (or such greater percentage as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of any co-insurance clauses of the policy) of the "replacement cost" thereof as such term is defined in the Replacement Cost Endorsement to be attached therein, insuring against the perils of Fire, Lightning, Extended Coverage, Vandalism and Malicious Mischief, extended by Special Extended Coverage Endorsement to insure against all other Risks of Direct Physical Loss, such coverages and endorsements to be as defined, provided and limited in the standard bureau forms prescribed by the insurance regulatory authority for the State in which the premises are situated for use by insurance companies admitted in such state for the writing of such insurance on risks located within such state. Subject to the provisions of subparagraphs 11B and 11D below, such insurance shall be for the sole benefit of Landlord and under its sole control. Tenant agrees to pay, to Landlord, as additional rental, Landlord's cost of maintaining such insurance on said building (or, in the event the premises constitute a portion of a multiple occupancy building, Tenant's full proportionate share (as defined in subparagraph 4(B) above) of such cost). Said payments shall be made to Landlord within ten (10) days after presentation to Tenant of Landlord's statement setting forth the amount due. Any payment to be made pursuant to this subparagraph A. with respect to the year in which this lease commences or terminates shall bear the same ratio to the payment which would be required to be made for the full year as that part of such year covered by the term of this lease bears to a full year.

B. If the buildings situated upon the premises should be damaged or destroyed by any peril covered by the insurance to be provided by Landlord under subparagraph 11A above, Tenant shall give immediate notice thereof to Landlord, and in Lessor's estimation, rebuilding or repairs can be substantially completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, this lease shall not terminate. Notice of renewal???? to rebuild or repair must be given to Tenant?????? Landlord shall at its sole cost and expense thereupon proceed with reasonable diligence to rebuild and repair such buildings to substantially the condition in which they existed prior to such damage or destruction, except the Landlord shall not be required to rebuild, repair or replace any part of the partitions, fixtures, additions and other improvements which may have been placed in, on or about the premises by Tenant. If such repairs and rebuilding have not been substantially completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, Lessee, as Lessees's exclusive remedy, may terminate this lease by delivering written notice of termination to Lessor in which event the rights and obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate.

D. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event the holder of any indebtedness secured by a mortgage or deed of trust covering the premises requires that the insurance proceeds be applied to such indebtedness, then Landlord or Tenant, shall have the right to terminate this lease by delivering written notice of termination to Tenant within fifteen (15) days after such requirement is made by any such holder, whereupon all rights and obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate.

E. Each of Landlord and Tenant hereby releases the other from any and all liability or responsibility to the other or any claiming through or under them by way of subrogation or otherwise for any loss or damage to property caused by fire or any other perils insured in policies of insurance covering such property, even if such loss or damage shall have been caused by the fault or negligence of the other party, or anyone for whom such party may be responsible, provided, however, that this release shall be applicable and in force and effect only with respect to loss or damage occurring during such times as the releasor's policies shall contain a clause or endorsement to the effect that any such release shall not adversely affect or impair said policies or prejudice the right of the releasor to recover thereunder and then only to the extend of the insurance proceeds payable under such policies. Each of Landlord and Tenant agrees that it will request its insurance carriers to include in its policies such a clause or endorsement. If extra cost shall be charged therefore, each party shall advise the other thereof and of the amount of the extra cost, and the other party, at its election, may pay the same, but shall not be obligated to do so.

1. Liability. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant or Tenant's employees to the exer ???ents. patrons or visitors, or to any other person whomsoever, for any injury to person or damage to property on or about the premises, resulting from and/or caused in part or whole by the negligence or misconduct of Tenant, its agents, servants or employees, or of any other person entering upon the premises, or caused by the buildings and improvements located on the premises becoming out of repair, or caused by leakage of gas, oil, water or steam, or by electricity emanating from the premises, or due to any cause whatsoever, and Tenant hereby covenants and agrees that it will at all times indemnity and hold safe and harmless the property, the Landlord (including without limitation the trustee and beneficiaries if Landlord is a trust), Landlord's agents and employees from any loss, liability, claims, suits, costs, expenses, including without limitation attorneys less and damages, both real and alleged, arising out of any such damage or injury; except injury to persons or damage to property the cause of which is the negligence of Landlord. Tenant shall procure and maintain throughout the term of this lease a policy or policies of insurance, at its sole cost and expense, insuring both Landlord and Tenant against all claims, demands, or actions arising out of or in connection with: twenty (20) days, then Tenant shall not be in default ???? so long as Tenant acts promptly to effect such cure. (iii) Tenant's operations in and maintenance and use of the premises: and (iv) Tenant's liability assumed under this lease, the limits of such policy or policies to be in the amount of not less than $300,000 per occurrence in respect of injury in persons (including death), and in the amount of not less than $50,000 per occurrence in respect of property damage or destruction, including loss of use thereof. All such policies shall be procured by Tenant from responsible insurance companies satisfactory to Landlord. Certified copies of such policies, together with receipt evidencing payment of premiums therefor, shall be delivered to Landlord prior to the commencement date of this lease. Not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration date of any such policies, certified copies of the renewals thereof (bearing notations evidencing the payment of renewal premiums) shall be delivered to Landlord. Such policies shall further provide that not less than thirty (30) days written notice shall be given to Landlord before such policy may be cancelled or changed to reduce insurance provided thereby.

13. CONDEMNATION.

A. If the whole or any substantial part of the premises shall be taken for any public or quasi-public use under governmental law, ordinance or regulation, or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof, and the taking would prevent or materially interfere with the use of the premises for the purpose for which they are then being used, this lease shall terminate and the rent shall be abated during the unespired portion of this lease, effective when the physical taking of said premises shall occur.

B. If part of the premises shall be taken for any public or quasi-public use under any governmental law, ordinance, or regulation, or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof, and this lease is not terminated as, provided in the subparagraph above, this lease shall not terminate, but the rent payable hereunder during the unespired portion of the lease shall be reduced to such extent as may be fair and reasonable under all of the circumstances.

C. In the event of any such taking or private purchase in lieu thereof, Landlord and Tenant shall each be entitled to receive and retain such separate awards and/or portion of lump sum awards as may be allocated to their respective interests in any condemnation proceedings.

14. Holding Over. Tenant will, at the termination of this lease by lapse of time or otherwise, yield up immediate possession to Landlord. In the event of any holding over by Tenant or any of its successors in interest after the expiration or termination of this lease, unless the parties hereto otherwise agree in writing, the hold over tenancy shall be subject to termination by Landlord at any time upon not less than five (5) days advance written notice, or by Tenant at any time upon not less than thirty (30) days advance written notice, and all of the other terms and provisions of this lease shall be applicable during that period, except that Tenant shall pay Landlord from time to time upon demand, as rental for the period of any hold over, an amount equal to one and one-half (1 1/2) the rent in effect on the termination date, computed on a daily basis for each day of the holdover period. No holding over by Tenant, whether with or without consent of Landlord, shall operate to extend this lease except as otherwise expressly provided.

15. Quiet Enjoyment. Landlord covenants that it now has, or will acquire before Tenant takes possession of the premises, good title to the premises, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, excepting only the lien for current taxes not yet due, such mortgage or mortgages as are permitted by the terms of this lease, zoning ordinances, and other building and fire ordinances and governmental regulations relating to the use of such property, and easements, restrictions, and other conditions of record. In the event this lease is a sublease, then Tenant agrees to take the premises subject in the provisions of the prior leases. Landlord represents and warrants that it has full right and authority to enter into this lease and that Tenant, upon paying the rental herein set forth and performing its other covenants and agreements herein set forth, shall peaceably and quietly have, hold, and enjoy the premises for the term hereof without hindrance or molestation from Landlord, subject to the terms and provisions of this lease.

16. Events of Default. The following events shall be deemed to be events of default by Tenant under this lease:

(a) Tenant shall fail to pay any installment of the rent hereby reserved when due, or any payment with respect to taxes hereunder when due, or any other payment or reimbursement to Landlord required herein when due, and such failure shall continue for a period of five (5) days after written notice from Landlord to Tenant.

(b) Tenant shall become insolvent, or shall make a transfer in fraud of creditors, or shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(c) Tenant shall file a petition under any section or chapter of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, or under any similar law or statute of the United States or any State thereof; or Tenant shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent in proceedings filed against Tenant thereunder.

(d) A receiver or trustee shall be appointed for all or substantially all of the assets of Tenant.

(e) Tenant shall desert or vacate any substantial portion of the premises.

(f) Tenant shall fail to comply with any term, provision, or covenant of this lease (other than the foregoing in this Paragraph 16), and shall not cure such failure within twenty (20) days after written notice thereof to Tenant.*?????

17. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of any of such events of default described in Paragraph 16 hereof, Landlord shall have the option to pursue any one or more of the following remedies without any notice or demand whatsoever:

(a) Terminate this lease, in which event Tenant shall immediately surrender the premises to Landlord, and if Tenant fails so to do, Landlord may, without prejudice to any other remedy which it may have for possession or arrearages in rent, enter upon and take possession of the premises and expel or remove Tenant and any other person who may be occupying such premises or any part thereof, by force if necessary, without being liable for prosecution or any claim or damages therefor; and Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord on demand the amount of any loss and damage which Landlord may suier by reason of such termination, whether through inability to relet the premises on satisfactory terms or otherwise.

(b) Enter upon and take possession of the premises and expel or remove Tenant and any other person who may be occupying such premises or any part thereof, by force if necessary, without being liable for prosecution or any claim for damages therefor, and relet the premises and receive the rent therefor; and Tenant agrees to pay to the Landlord on demand any deficiency that may arise by reason of such reletting. In the event Landlord is successful in reletting the premises at a rental in excess of that agreed to be paid by Tenant pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Landlord and Tenant each mutually agree that Tenant shall not be entitled, under any circumstances, to such excess rental, and Tenant does hereby specifically waive any claim to such excess rental.

(c) Enter upon the premises, by force if necessary, without being liable for prosecution or any claim for damages therefor, and do whatever Tenant is obligated to do under the terms of this lease; and Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord, on demand, for any expenses which Landlord may incur in thus effecting compliance with Tenant's obligations under this lease, and Tenant further agrees that Landlord shall not be liable for any damages resulting to the Tenant from such action, whether caused by the negligence of the Landlord or otherwise.

In the event Tenant fails to pay any installment of rent hereunder as and when such installment is due, to help defray the additional cost in Landlord for processing such late payments Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand a late charge in an amount equal to one hundred ($100) dollars at a maximum occurance of four (4) times during the term of the lease, after which the late charge will increase to five percent (5%) of such installment; and the failure to pay such amount within ten (10) days after demand therefor shall be an event of default hereunder. The provision for such late charge shall be in addition to all of Landlord's other rights and remedies hereunder or at law and shall not be construed as liquidated damages or as limiting Landlord's remedies in any manner.

Pursuit of any of the foregoing remedies shall not preclude pursuit of any of the other remedies herein provided or any other remedies provided by law, nor shall pursuit of any remedy herein provided constitute a forfeiture or waiver of any rent due to Landlord hereunder or of any damages accruing to Landlord by reason of the violation of any of the terms, provisions and covenants herein contained. No act or thing doing by the Landlord or its agents during the term hereby granted shall be deemed a termination of this lease or an acceptance of the surrender of the premises, and no agreement to terminate this lease or to accept a surrender of said premises shall be valid unless in writing signed by Landlord. No waiver by Landlord or any violation or breach of any of the terms, provisions and covenants herein contained shall be deemed or construed to constitute a waiver of any other violation or breach of any of the terms, provisions and covenants herein contained. Landlord's acceptance of the payment of rental or other payments hereunder after the occurrence of an event of default shall not be construed as a waiver of such default, unless Landlord so notifies Tenant in writing. Forbearance by Landlord to enforce one or more of the remedies herein provided upon an event of default shall not be deemed or construed to constitute a waiver of such default or of Landlord's right to enforce any such remedies with respect to such default or any subsequent default. If, on account of any breach or default by Tenant in Tenant's obligations under the terms and conditions of this lease, it shall become necessary or appropriate for Landlord to employ or consult with an attorney concerning or to enforce or defend any of Landlord's rights or remedies hereunder, Tenant agrees to pay any reasonable attorneys' fees so incurred.

B. The terms, provisions, covenants, and conditions contained in this lease shall apply to, inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the parties hereto and upon their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns except as otherwise herein expressly provided. Each party agrees to furnish the other, promptly upon demand, a corporate resolution, proof of due authorization by partners, or other appropriate documentation evidencing the due authorization of such party to enter into this lease.

C. The captions inserted in this lease are for convenience only and in no way define, limit or otherwise describe the scope or intent of this lease, or any provision hereof, or in any way affect the interpretation of this lease.

D. Tenant agrees from time to time within ten (10) days after request of Landlord, to deliver to Landlord, or Landlord's designee, an estoppel certificate stating that this lease is in full force and effect, the date to which rent has been paid, the unexpired term of this lease and such other matters pertaining to this lease as may be reasonably requested by Landlord. E. This lease may not be altered, changed or amended except by an instrument in writing signed by both parties hereto.

F. Tenant shall also, prior to vacating the premises, pay to Landlord the amount, as estimated by Landlord, of Tenant's obligation hereunder for real estate taxes and insurance premiums for the year in which the lease expires or terminates. All such amounts shall be used and held by Landlord for payment of such obligations of Tenant hereunder, with Tenant being liable for any additional costs therefor upon demand by Landlord, or with any excess to be returned to Tenant after all such obligations have been determined and satisfied, as the case may be. Any security deposit held by Landlord shall be credited against the amount payable by Tenant under this Paragraph 23(F).

G. If any clause or provision of this lease is illegal, invalid or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this lease, then and in that event, it is the intention of the parties hereto that the remainder of this lease shall not be affected thereby, and it is also the intention of the parties of this lease that in lieu of each clause or provision of this lease that is illegal, invalid or unenforceable, there be added as a part of this lease contract a clause or provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable clause or provision as may be possible and be legal, valid and enforceable.

H. Because the premises are on the open market and are presently being shown, this lease shall be treated as an offer with the premises being subject to prior lease and offer subject to withdrawal or non-acceptance by Landlord or to other use of the premises without notice, and this lease shall not be valid or binding unless and until accepted by Landlord in writing and a fully executed copy delivered to both parties hereto.

I. All references in this lease to "the date hereof" or similar references shall be deemed to refer to the last date, in point of time, on which all parties hereto have executed this lease.

RE: Addendum to Lease Agreement Number 801014-01-0012 dated March 4, 1988, for approximately 81,400 square feet at the Alameda Distribution Center, 1009-1019 W. Alameda Drive, Tempe, AZ 85282.

Dear Rob:

The parties hereto agree that the provisions of this Addendum to Lease Agreement shall constitute an integral part of the Lease Agreement, between Crow-Alameda Limited Partnership as Landlord, and Stationers Distributing Company, Inc. as Tenant, and in the event of a conflict between the terms and provisions contained in this Addendum to Lease Agreement and the terms and provisions set forth in the Lease Agreement, the terms and provisions contained in this Addendum to Lease Agreement shall govern and prevail.

Paragraph 31. A new Paragraph 31 is hereby added to the Lease Agreement as follows :

"31. Option to Renew.

Tenant shall have the right and option to renew this Lease for two (2) additional terms of five (5) years each by delivering written notice of the exercise thereof to Landlord at least 180 days prior to the expiration of the primary lease term or any extension thereof pursuant to this paragraph, provided that at the time of any such notice and at the commencement of any such extended lease term Tenant is not in default hereunder. Upon the delivery of said notice and subject to the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence, and upon the execution by Landlord and Tenant of an extension agreement containing such terms and provisions which are consistent with the provisions of this paragraph, this Lease shall be extended upon the same terms, covenants and conditions as provided in this Lease except as follows:

A. The Base Monthly Rent shall be established between Landlord and Tenant at the market rate in effect at that time. If both parties are unable to agree to a market rate and both parties consent to be bound, then the method described in the following subparagraph B may be used to determine the market rate.

B. In the event this Lease provides for the payment of rental at "the prevailing rental rate" or at "the market rate" (the "Market Rate") during the primary term hereof or during any extension or renewal thereof or in connection with any expansion of the premises, and during the primary term hereof or during any extension or renewal thereof or in connection with any expansion of the premises, and Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree upon the Market Rate, Landlord and Tenant shall each promptly appoint a real estate appraiser who is a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers (or its equivalent) to assist in the determination of the Market Rate, and the two appraisers shall appoint a third appraiser who is also a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers (or its equivalent). The determination of the Market Rate by the agreement of any two of such three appraisers shall be accepted by and binding upon Landlord and Tenant as the Market Rate, which rate shall thereafter be payable until further adjustment as provided hereunder. Landlord and Tenant will use all reasonable diligence to cause their appointed appraisers to perform in good faith and in a timely manner in order to make the determination of the Market Rate on or before the date on which the Market Rate is to become effective. In the event such appraisers shall not make such determination prior to the date on which the Market Rate is to become effective, this Lease shall nevertheless continue in full force and effect until such determination is made, and the rental for such period shall be payable at the rate otherwise payable hereunder. Upon the determination by such appraisers of the Market Rate, the payment of the Market Rate shall commence on the first day of the month following the date of such determination, and in addition to such monthly installment of rental, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the increase in the rental payable hereunder, if any, applicable to the period from the date on which the Market Rate was scheduled to become effective to the payment of the first installment at the Market Rate. Landlord and Tenant shall each bear the costs and fees of their respective appraisers and shall share equally the cost of the third appraiser."

Paragraph 32. A new Paragraph 32 is hereby added to the Lease Agreement as follows:

"32. Expansion Option.

Tenant is hereby granted the option to expand into Premises C (as shown on the attached exhibit). Premises C is comprised of approximately 28,600 square feet, and the right hereby granted gives Tenant the right to expand into the entire 28,600 square feet or the southern-most 10,560 square feet of Premises C. This option is subject to the following conditions:

Premises A. If Tenant so chooses, Tenant will be responsible for returning the 18,040 square foot premises to the Landlord in good condition, normal wear and tear excepted. Tenant shall pay to Landlord as additional rent, the difference between the rental amount that would have been owed on the 18,040 square feet and the rent that is due on the 10,560 square feet. At such time as Landlord commences to receive, from another tenant, rent on such 18,040 square feet, Tenant's obligation to pay the difference in rent between the 18,040 square feet and the 10,560 square feet (as noted above) is terminated."

All other terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, and apply to any expansions exercised hereunder.

Sincerely,

/s/William D. Petsas

Re: Addendum to Lease No. 801014-01-0012
Alameda

Dear Mr. Halleen:

Please find enclosed a fully executed Addendum and an Agreement Clarification Letter to be signed by you.

Our client, Security Capital Industrial Investors Incorporated (formerly Industrial Property Investors, Inc.), wanted to make sure that their exposure on item 5(e) would be limited to $3,100.00 or less based on a low bid to replace an outdated Sylvania Breaker Panel in the warehouse area of United Stationers Supply Co.'s main facility.

They also felt that the additional month's free rent specified in the Addendum was satisfactory; however, they felt that in exchange for this, the Addendum would have to start December 1, 1992 as drawn.

The Tenant Improvements have been started and, with the exception of the warehouse lighting, should be completed by Friday, December 11, 1992. The lighting has to be special ordered. Meanwhile, your people can have full access to the additional space.

I hope this meets with your satisfaction and your continued interest in this property is greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,

Subject to Paragraph 4.02(c) and Section 4.08 below, such payment shall be made at least ten (10) days prior to the delinquency date of the taxes. Within such ten (10) -day period. Tenant shall furnish Landlord with satisfactory evidence that the real property taxes have

If Tenant fails to pay the real property taxes when due, landlord may pay the taxes and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the amount of such tax payment as Additional Rent. Alternatively, Landlord may elect to bill Tenant in advance for such taxes and Tenant shall pay Landlord the amount of such taxes, as Additional Rent, at least ten (10) days prior to delinquency. Landlord shall pay such taxes prior to delinquency provided Tenant has timely made such payments to Landlord. Any penalty caused by Tenant's failure to timely make such payments shall also be Additional Rent owed by Tenant immediately upon demand.

"Real property tax" does not, however, include Landlord's federal or state income, franchise, inheritance or estate taxes.

(c) JOINT ASSESSMENT. As used herein, "real property taxes" for the Property shall be Tenant's pro-rata share as defined in Section 1.12(b) (iv) of the real property taxes for the Project.

(d) PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES.

(i) Tenant shall pay all taxes charged against trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment or any other personal property belonging to Tenant. Tenant shall try to have personal property taxed separately from the property.

(ii) If any of Tenant's personal property is taxed with the Property, Tenant shall pay Landlord the taxes for the personal property within fifteen (15) days after Tenant receives a written statement from Landlord for such personal property taxes.

Section 4.03. UTILITIES. Tenant shall pay, directly to the appropriate supplier, the cost of all natural gas, heat, light, power, sewer service, telephone, water, refuse disposal and other utilities and services supplied to the Property. However, if any services or utilities are jointly metered with other property, Landlord shall make a reasonable determination of Tenant's proportionate share of the cost of such utilities and services and Tenant shall pay such share to Landlord within fifteen (15) days after receipt of Landlord's written statement.

Section 4.04. INSURANCE POLICIES.

(a) LIABILITY INSURANCE. During the Lease Term, Tenant shall maintain a policy of commercial general liability insurance (sometimes known as broad form comprehensive general liability insurance) insuring Tenant against liability for bodily injury, property damage (including loss of use of property) and personal injury arising out of the operation, use or occupancy of the Property. Tenant shall name Landlord as an additional insured under such policy. The initial amount of such insurance shall be Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) per occurrence. The liability insurance obtained by Tenant under this Paragraph 4.04(a) shall (i) be primary and non-contributing; (ii) contain cross-liability endorsements; and (iii) insure Landlord against Tenant's performance under Section 5.05, if the matters giving rise to the indemnity under Section 5.05 result from the negligence of Tenant. The amount and coverage of such insurance shall not limit Tenant's liability nor relieve Tenant of any other obligation under this Lease. Landlord may also obtain comprehensive public liability insurance in an amount and with coverage determined by Landlord insuring Landlord against liability arising out of ownership, operation, use or occupancy of the Property. The policy obtained by Landlord shall not be contributory and shall not provide primary insurance.

(b) PROPERTY AND RENTAL INCOME INSURANCE. During the Lease Term, Landlord shall maintain policies of insurance covering loss of or damage to the Property in the full amount of its replacement value. Such policy shall contain an Inflation Guard Endorsement and shall provide protection against all perils included within the classification of fire, extended coverage, vandalism, malicious mischief, special extended perils (all risk), sprinkler leakage and any other perils which Landlord deems reasonably necessary. Landlord shall have the right to obtain flood and earthquake insurance if required by any lender holding a security interest in the Property. Landlord shall not obtain insurance for Tenant's fixtures or equipment or building improvements installed by Tenant on the Property. During the Lease Term, Landlord shall also maintain a rental income insurance policy, with loss payable to Landlord, in an amount equal to one year's Base Rent, plus estimated real property taxes and insurance premiums. Tenant shall be liable for the payment of any deductible amount under Landlord's or Tenant's insurance policies maintained pursuant to this Section 4.04 (other than Landlord's liability insurance) in an amount not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000). Tenant shall not do or permit anything to be done which invalidates any such insurance policies.

(c) PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS. Subject to Section 4.08, Tenant shall pay all premiums for the insurance policies described in Paragraphs 4.04(a) and (b) (whether obtained by Landlord or Tenant) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's receipt of a copy of the premium statement or other evidence of the amount due, except Landlord shall pay all premiums for non-primary comprehensive public liability insurance which Landlord elects to obtain as provided in Paragraph 4.04(a). For insurance policies maintained by Landlord which cover improvements on the entire Project. Tenant shall pay Tenant's prorated share of the premiums, in accordance with the formula in Paragraph 4.05(e) for determining Tenant's share of Common Area costs. If insurance policies maintained by Landlord cover improvements on real property other than the Project, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement of the premium applicable to the Property showing in reasonable detail how Tenant's share of the premium was computed. If the Lease Term expires before the expiration of an insurance policy maintained by Landlord, Tenant shall be liable for Tenant's prorated share of the insurance premiums. Before the Commencement Date, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a copy of any policy of insurance which Tenant is required to maintain under this Section 4.04. At least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of any such policy, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a renewal of such policy. As an alternative to providing a policy of insurance, Tenant shall have the right to provide Landlord a certificate of insurance, executed by an authorized officer of the insurance company, showing that the insurance which Tenant is required to maintain under this Section 4.04 is in full force and effect and containing such other information which Landlord reasonably requires.

(d) GENERAL INSURANCE PROVISIONS.

(i) Any insurance which Tenant is required to maintain under this Lease shall include a provision which requires the insurance carrier to give Landlord not less than thirty (30) days' written notice prior to any cancellation or modification of such coverage.

(ii) If Tenant fails to deliver any policy, certificate or renewal to Landlord required under this Lease within the prescribed time period or if any such policy is cancelled or modified during the Lease Term without Landlord's consent, Landlord may obtain such insurance, in which case Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the cost of such insurance within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a statement that indicates the cost of such insurance.

(iii) Tenant shall maintain all insurance required under this Lease with companies holding a "General Policy Rating" of A-12 or better, as set forth in the most current issue of "Best Key Rating Guide". Landlord and Tenant acknowledge the insurance markets are rapidly changing and that insurance in the form and amounts described in this Section 4.04 may not be available in the future. Tenant acknowledges that the insurance described in this Section 4.04 is for the primary benefit of Landlord. If at any time during the Lease Term, Tenant is unable to maintain the insurance required under the Lease, Tenant shall nevertheless maintain insurance coverage which is customary and commercially reasonable in the insurance industry for Tenant's type of business, as that coverage may change from time to time. Landlord makes no representation as to the adequacy of such insurance to protect Landlord's or Tenant's interests. Therefore, Tenant shall obtain any such additional property or liability insurance which Tenant deems necessary to protect Landlord and Tenant.

(iv) Unless prohibited under applicable insurance policies maintained, Landlord and Tenant each hereby waive any and all rights of recovery against the other, or against the officers, employees, agents or representatives of the other, for loss of or damage to its property or the property of others under its control, if such loss or damage is covered by any insurance policy in force (whether or not described in this Lease) at the time of such loss or damage. Upon obtaining the required policies of insurance, Landlord and Tenant shall give notice to the insurance carriers of this mutual waiver of subrogation.

Section 4.05. COMMON AREAS; USE, MAINTENANCE AND COSTS.

(a) COMMON AREAS. As used in this Lease, "Common Areas" shall mean all areas within the Project which are available for the common use of tenants of the Project and which are not leased or held for the exclusive use of Tenant or other tenants, including, but not limited to, parking areas, driveways, sidewalks, loading areas, access roads, corridors, landscaping and planted areas. Landlord, from time to time, may change the size, location, nature and use of any of the Common Areas, convert Common Areas into leaseable areas, construct additional parking facilities (including parking structures) in the Common Areas, and increase or decrease Common Area land and/or facilities. Tenant acknowledges that such activities may result in inconvenience to Tenant. Such activities and changes are permitted if they do not materially affect Tenant's use of the Property.

(b) USE OF COMMON AREAS. Tenant shall have the nonexclusive right (in common with other tenants and all others to whom Landlord has granted or may grant such rights) to use the Common Areas for the purposes intended, subject to such reasonable rules and regulations as Landlord may establish from time to time. Tenant shall abide by such rules and regulations and shall use its best effort to cause others who use the Common Areas with Tenant's express or implied permission to abide by Landlord's rules and regulations. At any time, Landlord may close any Common Areas to perform any acts in the Common Areas as, in Landlord's judgment, are desirable to improve the Project provided such closure shall not unreasonably interfere with Tenant's use of or access to the Property. Tenant shall not interfere with the rights of Landlord, other tenants or any other person entitled to use the Common Areas.

(c) SPECIFIC PROVISION RE: VEHICLE PARKING. Tenant shall be entitled to use the number of vehicle parking spaces in the Project allocated to Tenant in Section 1.11 of the Lease without paying any additional rent. Tenant's parking shall not be reserved and shall be limited to vehicles no larger than standard size automobiles or pickup utility vehicles. Tenant shall not cause large trucks or other large vehicles to be parked within the Project or on the adjacent public streets. Temporary parking of large delivery vehicles in the Project may be permitted by the rules and regulations established by Landlord. Vehicles shall be parked only in striped parking spaces and not in driveways, loading areas or other locations not specifically designated for parking. Handicapped spaces shall only be used by those legally permitted to use them. If Tenant parks more vehicles in the parking area than the number set forth in Section 1.11 of this Lease, such conduct shall be a material breach of this Lease. In addition to Landlord's other remedies under the Lease, Tenant shall pay a daily charge determined by Landlord for each such additional vehicle.

(d) MAINTENANCE OF COMMON AREAS. Landlord shall maintain the Common Areas in good order, condition and repair and shall operate the Project, in Landlord's sole discretion, as a first-class industrial/commercial real property development. Tenant shall pay Tenant's pro rata share (as determined below) of all costs incurred by Landlord for the operation and maintenance of the Common Areas. Common Area costs include, but are not limited to, costs and expenses for the following: gardening and landscaping; utilities, water and sewage charges; maintenance of signs (other than tenants' signs): premiums for liability, property damage, fire and other types of casualty insurance on the Common Areas and worker's compensation insurance; all property taxes and assessments levied on or attributable to the Common Areas and all Common Area improvements; all personal property taxes levied on or attributable to personal property used in connection with the Common Areas; straight-line depreciation on personal property owned by Landlord which is consumed in the operation or maintenance of the Common Areas; rental or lease payments paid by Landlord for rented or leased personal property used in the operation or maintenance of the Common Areas; fees for required licenses and permits; repairing, resurfacing, repaving, maintaining, painting, lighting, cleaning, refuse removal, security and similar items; and a reasonable allowance to Landlord for Landlord's supervision of the Common Areas (not to exceed five percent (5%) of the gross rents of the Project for the calendar year). Landlord may cause any or all of such services to be provided by third parties and the cost of such services shall be included in Common Area costs. Common Area costs shall not include depreciation of real property which forms part of the Common Areas.

(e) TENANT'S SHARE AND PAYMENT. Tenant shall pay Tenant's annual pro rata share of all Common Area costs (prorated for any fractional month) upon written notice from Landlord that such costs are due and payable, and in any event prior to delinquency. Tenant's pro rata share shall be calculated by dividing the square foot area of the Property, as set forth in Section 1.04 of the Lease, by the aggregate square foot area of the Project which is leased or held for lease by tenants, as of the date on which the computation is made. Tenant's initial pro rata share is set out in Paragraph 1.12(b). Any changes in the Common Area costs and/or the aggregate area of the Project leased or held for lease during the Lease Term shall be effective on the first day of the month after such change occurs. Landlord may, at Landlord's election, estimate in advance and charge to Tenant as Common Area costs, all maintenance and repair costs for which Tenant is liable under Section 6.04 of the Lease, and all other Common Area costs payable by Tenant hereunder. At Landlord's election, such statements of estimated Common Area costs shall be delivered monthly, quarterly or at any other periodic intervals to be designated by Landlord. Landlord may adjust such estimates at any time based upon Landlord's experience and reasonable anticipation of costs. Such adjustments shall be effective as of the next rent payment date after notice to Tenant. Within sixty (60) days after the end of each calendar year of the Lease Term, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles setting forth, in reasonable detail, the Common Area costs paid or incurred by Landlord during the preceding calendar year and Tenant's pro rata share. Upon receipt of such statement, there shall be an adjustment between Landlord and Tenant, with payment to or credit given by Landlord (as the case may be) so that Landlord shall receive the entire amount of Tenant's share of such costs and expenses for such period.

Section 4.06. LATE CHARGES. Tenant's failure to pay rent promptly may cause Landlord to incur unanticipated costs. The exact amount of such costs are impractical or extremely difficult to ascertain. Such costs may include, but are not limited to, processing and accounting charges and late charges which may be imposed on Landlord by any ground lease, mortgage or trust deed encumbering the Property. Therefore, if Landlord does not receive any rent payment within ten (10) days after it becomes due, Tenant shall pay Landlord a late charge equal to ten percent (10%) of the overdue amount. The parties agree that such late charge represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs Landlord will incur by reason of such late payment.

Section 4.07. INTEREST ON PAST DUE OBLIGATIONS. Any amount owed by Tenant to Landlord which is not paid when due shall bear interest at the rate of fifteen percent (15%) per annum from the due date of such amount. However, interest shall not be payable on late charges to be paid by Tenant under this Lease. The payment of interest on such amounts shall not excuse or cure any default by Tenant under this Lease. If the interest rate specified in this Lease is higher than the rate permitted by law, the interest rate is hereby decreased to the maximum legal interest rate permitted by law.

Section 4.08. IMPOUNDS FOR INSURANCE PREMIUMS AND REAL PROPERTY TAXES. If requested by any ground lessor or lender to whom Landlord has granted a security interest in the Property, or if Tenant is more than ten (10) days late in the payment of rent more than once in any consecutive twelve (12) -month period. Tenant shall pay Landlord a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of the annual real property taxes and insurance premiums payable by Tenant under this Lease, together with each payment of Base Rent. Landlord shall hold such payments in a non-interest bearing impound account. If unknown, Landlord shall reasonably estimate the amount of real property taxes and insurance premiums when due. Tenant shall pay any deficiency of funds in the impound account to Landlord upon written request. If Tenant defaults under this Lease, Landlord may apply any funds in the impound account to any obligation then due under this Lease.

ARTICLE FIVE: USE OF PROPERTY

Section 5.01. PERMITTED USES. Tenant may use the Property only for the Permitted Uses set forth in Section 1.06 above.

Section 5.02. MANNER OF USE. Tenant shall not cause or permit the Property to be used in any way which constitutes a violation of any law, ordinance, or governmental regulation or order, which annoys or interferes with the rights of tenants of the Project, or which constitutes a nuisance or waste. Tenant shall obtain and pay for all permits, including a Certificate of Occupancy, required for Tenant's occupancy of the Property and shall promptly take all actions necessary to comply with all applicable statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, orders and requirements regulating the use by Tenant of the Property, including the Occupational Safety and Health Act. See Rider Section 5.03

Section 5.04. SIGNS AND AUCTIONS. Tenant shall not place any signs on the Property without Landlord's prior written consent. Tenant shall not conduct or permit any auctions or sheriff's sales at the Property.

Section 5.05. INDEMNITY. Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against and hold Landlord harmless from any and all costs, claims or liability arising from: (a) Tenant's use of the Property; (b) the conduct of Tenant's business or anything else done or permitted by Tenant to be done in or about the Property, including any contamination of the Property or any other property resulting from the presence or use of Hazardous Material caused or permitted by Tenant; (c) any breach or default in the performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease; (d) any misrepresentation or breach of warranty by Tenant under this Lease; or (e) other acts or omissions of Tenant. Tenant shall defend Landlord against any such cost, claim or liability at Tenant's expense with counsel reasonably acceptable to Landlord. As a material part of the consideration to Landlord, Tenant assumes all risk of damage to property or injury to persons in or about the Property arising from any cause, and Tenant hereby waives all claims in respect thereof against Landlord, except for any claim arising out of Landlord's gross negligence or willful misconduct. As used in this Section, the term "Tenant" shall include Tenant's employees, agents, contractors and invitees, if applicable.

Section 5.06. LANDLORD'S ACCESS. Landlord or its agents may enter the Property at all reasonable times to show the Property to potential buyers, investors or tenants or other parties; to do any other act or to inspect and conduct tests in order to monitor Tenant's compliance with all applicable environmental laws and all laws governing the presence and use of Hazardous Material; or for any other purpose Landlord deems necessary. Landlord shall give Tenant prior notice of such entry, except in the case of an emergency. Landlord may place customary "For Sale" or "For Lease" signs on the Property.

Section 5.07. QUIET POSSESSION. If Tenant pays the rent and complies with all other terms of this Lease, Tenant may occupy and enjoy the Property for the full Lease Term, subject to the provisions of this Lease.

ARTICLE SIX: CONDITION OF PROPERTY; MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS

Section 6.01. EXISTING CONDITIONS.* Tenant accepts the Property in its condition as of the execution of the Lease, subject to all recorded matters, laws, ordinances, and governmental regulations and orders. Except as provided herein, Tenant acknowledges that neither Landlord nor any agent of Landlord has made any representation as to the condition of the Property or the suitability of the Property for Tenant's intended use. Tenant represents and warrants that Tenant has made its own inspection of and inquiry regarding the condition of the Property and is not relying on any representations of Landlord or any Broker with respect thereto.

Section 6.02. EXEMPTION OF LANDLORD FROM LIABILITY. Landlord shall not be liable for any damage or injury to the person, business (or any loss of income therefrom), goods, wares, merchandise or other property of Tenant. Tenant's employees, invitees, customers or any other person in or about the Property, whether such damage or injury is caused by or results from: (a) fire, steam, electricity, water, gas or rain; (b) the breakage, leakage, obstruction or other defects of pipes, sprinklers, wires, appliances, plumbing, air conditioning or lighting fixtures or any other cause; (c) conditions arising in or about the Property or upon other portions of the Project, or from other sources or places; or (d) any act or omission of any other tenant of the Project. Landlord shall not be liable for any such damage or injury even though the cause of or the means of repairing such damage or injury are not accessible to Tenant. The provisions of this Section 6.02 shall not, however, exempt Landlord from liability for Landlord's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 6.03. LANDLORD'S OBLIGATIONS.

(a) Except as provided in Article Seven (Damage or Destruction) and Article Eight (Condemnation). Landlord shall keep the following in good order, condition and repair: the foundations, exterior walls and roof of the Property (including painting the exterior surface of the exterior walls of the Property not more often than once every five (5) years, if necessary) and all components of electrical, mechanical, plumbing, heating and air conditioning systems and facilities located in the Property which are concealed or used in common by tenants of the Project. However, Landlord shall not be obligated to maintain or repair windows, doors, plate glass or the interior surfaces of exterior walls. Landlord shall make repairs under this Section 6.03 within a reasonable time after receipt of written notice from Tenant of the need for such repairs.

(b) Tenant shall pay or reimburse Landlord for all costs Landlord incurs under Paragraph 6.03(a) above as Common Area costs as provided for in Section 4.05 of the Lease. Tenant waives the benefit of any statute in effect now or in the future which might give Tenant the right to make repairs at Landlord's expense or to terminate this Lease due to Landlord's failure to keep the Property in good order, condition and repair.

*Landlord shall deliver the Property to Tenant in compliance with all applicable laws including, but not limited to, the Americans with Disabilities Act, as applied to a "non-public" facility. Furthermore, Landlord and Tenant shall meet within fourteen days (14) of Tenant's occupancy to agree upon a "punchlist" of non-working items in the Property as of the Commencement Date, which items Landlord shall promptly repair. Except as set forth above, and except for completion of Tenant Improvements, provided, however, in no event shall Tenant's share of Common Area Expenses attributable to roof, foundation and structural repairs exceed ONE THOUSAND AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($1,000.00) per calendar year.

Section 6.04. TENANT'S OBLIGATIONS.

(a) Except as provided in Section 6.03, Article Seven (Damage or Destruction) and Article Eight (Condemnation), Tenant shall keep all portions of the Property (including structural, nonstructural, interior, systems and equipment) in good order, condition and repair (including interior repainting and refinishing, as needed). If any portion of the Property or any system or equipment in the Property which Tenant is obligated to repair cannot be fully repaired or restored, Tenant shall promptly replace such portion of the Property or system or equipment in the Property, regardless of whether the benefit of such replacement extends beyond the Lease Term; but if the benefit or useful life of such replacement extends beyond the Lease Term (as such term may be extended by exercise of any options), the useful life of such replacement shall be prorated over the remaining portion of the Lease Term (as extended), and Tenant shall be liable only for that portion of the cost which is applicable to the Lease Term (as extended). Tenant shall maintain a preventive maintenance contract providing for the regular inspection and maintenance of the heating and air conditioning system by a licensed heating and air conditioning contractor, unless Landlord maintains such equipment under Section 6.03 above. If any part of the Property or the Project is damaged by any act or omission of Tenant, Tenant shall pay Landlord the cost of repairing or replacing such damaged property, whether or not Landlord would otherwise be obligated to pay the cost of maintaining or repairing such property. It is the intention of Landlord and Tenant that at all times Tenant shall maintain the portions of the Property which Tenant is obligated to maintain in an attractive, first-class and fully operative condition.

(b) Tenant shall fulfil all of Tenant's obligations under this Section 6.04 Tenant's sole expense. If Tenant fails to maintain, repair or replace the Property as required by this Section 6.04, Landlord may, upon ten (10) days' prior notice to Tenant except that no notice shall be required in the case of an emergency), enter the Property and perform such maintenance or repair (including replacement, as needed) on behalf of Tenant. In such case, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all costs incurred in performing such maintenance or repair immediately upon demand.

Section 6.05. ALTERATIONS, ADDITIONS, AND IMPROVEMENTS.

(a) Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions, or improvements to the Property without Landlord's prior written consent, except for non-structural alterations which do not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) in cost cumulatively over the Lease Term and which are not visible from the outside of any building of which the Property is part. Landlord may require Tenant to provide demolition and/or lien and completion bonds in form and amount satisfactory to Landlord. Tenant shall promptly remove any alterations, additions, or improvements constructed in violation of this Paragraph 6.05(a) upon Landlord's written request. All alterations, additions, and improvements shall be done in a good and workmanlike manner, in conformity with all applicable laws and regulations, and by a contractor approved by Landlord. Upon completion of any such work, Tenant shall provide Landlord with "as built" plans, copies of all construction contracts, and proof of payment for all labor and materials.

(b) Tenant shall pay when due all claims for labor and material furnished to the Property. Tenant shall give Landlord at least twenty (20) days' prior written notice of the commencement of any work on the Property, regardless of whether Landlord's consent to such work is required. Landlord may elect to record and post notices of non-responsibility on the Property.

Section 6.06. CONDITION UPON TERMINATION. Upon the termination of the Lease, Tenant shall surrender the Property to Landlord, broom clean and in the same condition as received except for ordinary wear and tear which Tenant was not otherwise obligated to remedy under any provision of this Lease. However, Tenant shall not be obligated to repair any damage which Landlord is required to repair under Article Seven (Damage or Destruction). In addition, Landlord may require Tenant to remove any alterations, additions or improvements other than the Tenant Improvements described herein (whether or not made with Landlord's consent) prior to the expiration of the Lease and to restore the Property to its prior condition, all at Tenant's expense. All alterations, additions and improvements which Landlord has not required Tenant to remove shall become Landlord's property and shall be surrendered to Landlord upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease, except that Tenant may remove any of Tenant's machinery or equipment which can be removed without material damage to the Property. Tenant shall repair, at Tenant's expense, any damage to the Property caused by the removal of any such machinery or equipment. In no event, however, shall Tenant remove any of the following materials or equipment (which shall be deemed Landlord's property) without Landlord's prior written consent: any power wiring or power panels; lighting or lighting fixtures; wall coverings; drapes, blinds or other window coverings; carpets or other floor coverings; heaters, air conditioners or any other heating or air conditioning equipment; fencing or security gates; or other similar building operating equipment and decorations.

ARTICLE SEVEN: DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

Section 7.01. PARTIAL DAMAGE TO PROPERTY

(a) Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing immediately upon occurrence of any damage to the Property. If the Property is only partially damaged (i.e., less than twenty five percent (25%) of the Property is untenantable as a result of such damage or less than twenty five percent (25%) of Tenant's operations are materially impaired) and if the proceeds received by Landlord from the insurance policies described in Paragraph 4.04(b) are sufficient to pay for the necessary repairs, this Lease shall remain in effect and Landlord shall repair the damage as soon as reasonably possible. Landlord may elect (but is not required) to repair any damage to Tenant's fixtures, equipment, or improvements.

(b) If the insurance proceeds received by Landlord are not sufficient to pay the entire cost of repair, or if the cause of the damage is not covered by the insurance policies which Landlord maintains under Paragraph 4.04(b), Landlord may elect either to (i) repair the damage as soon as reasonably possible, in which case this Lease shall remain in full force and effect, or (ii) terminate this Lease as of the date the damage occurred. Landlord shall notify Tenant within thirty (30) days after the occurrence of the damage whether Landlord elects to repair the damage or terminate the Lease. If Landlord elects to repair the damage, Tenant shall pay Landlord the "deductible amount" (if any) under Landlord's insurance policies and, if the damage was due to an act or omission of Tenant, or Tenant's employees, agents, contractors or invitees, the difference between the actual cost of repair and any insurance proceeds received by Landlord. If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease, Tenant may elect to continue this Lease in full force and effect, in which case Tenant shall repair any damage to the Property and any building in which the Property is located. Tenant shall pay the cost of such repairs, except that upon satisfactory completion of such repairs, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant any insurance proceeds received by Landlord for the damage repaired by Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord written notice of such election within ten (10) days after receiving Landlord's termination notice.

(c) If the damage to the Property occurs during the last six (6) months of the Lease Term and such damage will require more than thirty (30) days to repair, either Landlord or Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease as of the date the damage occurred, regardless of the sufficiency of any insurance proceeds. The party electing to terminate this Lease shall give written notification to the other party of such election within thirty (30) days after Tenant's notice to Landlord of the occurrence of the damage.

Section 7.02. SUBSTANTIAL OR TOTAL DESTRUCTION. If the Property is substantially or totally destroyed by any cause whatsoever (i.e., the damage to the Property is greater than partial damage as described in Section 7.01), and regardless of whether Landlord receives any insurance proceeds, this Lease shall terminate as of the date the destruction occurred at the election of either party.

Section 7.03. TEMPORARY REDUCTION OF RENT. If the Property is destroyed or damaged and Landlord or Tenant repairs or restores the Property pursuant to the provisions of this Article Seven, any rent payable during the period of such damage, repair and/or restoration shall be reduced according to the degree, if any, to which Tenant's use of the Property is impaired. However, the reduction shall not exceed the sum of one year's payment of Base Rent, insurance premiums and real property taxes. Except for such possible reduction in Base Rent, insurance premiums and real property taxes, Tenant shall not be entitled to any compensation, reduction, or reimbursement from Landlord as a result of any damage, destruction, repair, or restoration of or to the Property.

Section 7.04. WAIVER. Tenant waives the protection of any statute, code or judicial decision which grants a tenant the right to terminate a lease in the event of the substantial or total destruction of the leased property. Tenant agrees that the provisions of Section 7.02 above shall govern the rights and obligations of Landlord and Tenant in the event of any substantial or total destruction to the Property.

ARTICLE EIGHT: CONDEMNATION

If all or any portion of the Property is taken under the power of eminent domain or sold under the threat of that power (all of which are called "Condemnation"), this Lease shall terminate as to the part taken or sold on the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first. If more than twenty percent (20%) of the floor area of the building in which the Property is located, or which is located on the Property, is taken, either Landlord or Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes title or possession). If neither Landlord nor Tenant terminates this Lease, this Lease shall remain in effect as to the portion of the Property not taken, except that the Base Rent and Additional Rent shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction in the floor area of the Property. Any Condemnation award or payment shall be distributed in the following order: (a) first, to any ground lessor, mortgagee or beneficiary under a deed of trust encumbering the Property, the amount of its interest in the Property; (b) second, to Tenant, only the amount of any award specifically designated for loss of or damage to Tenant's trade fixtures or removable personal property; and (c) third, to Landlord, the remainder of such award, whether as compensation for reduction in the value of the leasehold, the taking of the fee, or otherwise. If this Lease is not terminated, Landlord shall repair any damage to the Property caused by the Condemnation, except that Landlord shall not be obligated to repair any damage for which Tenant has been reimbursed by the condemning authority. If the severance damages received by Landlord are not sufficient to pay for such repair, Landlord shall have the right to either terminate this Lease or make such repair at Landlord's expense.

ARTICLE NINE: ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

Section 9.01. LANDLORD'S CONSENT REQUIRED. No portion of the Property or of Tenant's interest in this Lease may be acquired by any other person or entity, whether by sale, assignment, mortgage, sublease, transfer, operation of law, or act of Tenant, without Landlord's prior written consent, except as provided in Section 9.02 below, Landlord has the right to grant or withhold its consent as provided in Section 9.05 below. Any attempted transfer without consent shall be void and shall constitute a non-curable breach of this Lease. If Tenant is a partnership, any cumulative transfer of more than twenty percent (20%) of the partnership interests shall require Landlord's consent. Tenant is a corporation, any change in the ownership of a controlling interest of the voting stock of the corporation shall require Landlord's consent.

Section 9.02. TENANT AFFILIATE. Tenant may assign this Lease or sublease the Property, without Landlord's consent, to any corporation which controls, is controlled by or is under common control with Tenant, or to any corporation resulting from the merger of or consolidation with Tenant ("Tenant's Affiliate"). In such case, any Tenant's Affiliate shall assume in writing all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease.

Section 9.03. NO RELEASE OF TENANT. No transfer permitted by this Article Nine, whether with or without Landlord's consent, shall release Tenant or change Tenant's primary liability to pay the rent and to perform all other obligations of Tenant under this Lease. Landlord's acceptance of rent from any other person is not a waiver of any provision of this Article Nine. Consent to one transfer is not a consent to any subsequent transfer. If Tenant's transferee defaults under this Lease, Landlord may proceed directly against Tenant without pursuing remedies against the transferee. Landlord may consent to subsequent assignments or modifications of this Lease by Tenant's transferee, without notifying Tenant or obtaining its consent. Such action shall not relieve Tenant's liability under this Lease.

Section 9.05. LANDLORD'S CONSENT.

(a) Tenant's request for consent to any transfer described in Section 9.01 shall set forth in writing the details of the proposed transfer, including the name, business and financial condition of the prospective transferee, financial details of the proposed transfer (e.g., the term of and the rent and security deposit payable under any proposed assignment or sublease), and any other information Landlord deems relevant. Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease or to withhold consent, if reasonable, or to grant consent, based on the following factors: (i) the business of the proposed assignee or subtenant and the proposed use of the Property; (ii) the net worth and financial reputation of the proposed assignee or subtenant; (iii) Tenant's compliance with all of its obligations under the Lease; and (iv) such other factors as Landlord may reasonably deem relevant. If Landlord objects to a proposed assignment solely because of the net worth and/or financial reputation of the proposed assignee, Tenant may nonetheless sublease (but not assign), all or a portion of the Property to the proposed transferee, but only on the other terms of the proposed transfer.

(b) If Tenant assigns or subleases, the following shall apply:

(i) Tenant shall pay to Landlord as Additional Rent under the Lease the Landlord's Share (stated in Section 1.13) of the Profit (defined below) on such transaction as and when received by Tenant, unless Landlord gives written notice to Tenant and the assignee or subtenant that Landlord's Share shall be paid by the assignee or subtenant to Landlord directly. The "Profit" means (A) all amounts paid to Tenant for such assignment or sublease, including "key" money, monthly rent in excess of the monthly rent payable under the Lease, and all fees and other consideration paid for the assignment or sublease, including fees under any collateral agreements, less (B) costs and expenses directly incurred by Tenant in connection with the execution and performance of such assignment or sublease for real estate broker's commissions and costs of renovation or construction of tenant improvements required under such assignment or sublease. Tenant is entitled to recover such costs and expenses before Tenant is obligated to pay the Landlord's Share to Landlord. The Profit in the case of a sublease of less than all the Property is the rent allocable to the subleased space as a percentage on a square footage basis.

(ii) Tenant shall provide Landlord a written statement certifying all amounts to be paid from any assignment or sublease of the Property within thirty (30) days after the transaction documentation is signed, and Landlord may inspect Tenant's books and records to verify the accuracy of such statement. On written request, Tenant shall promptly furnish to Landlord copies of all the transaction documentation, all of which shall be certified by Tenant to be complete, true and correct. Landlord's receipt of Landlord's Share shall not be a consent to any further assignment or subletting. The breach of Tenant's obligation under this Paragraph 9.05(b) shall be a material default of the Lease.

(c) See Rider Section 9.05 (c)

Section 9.06. NO MERGER. No merger shall result from Tenant's sublease of the Property under this Article Nine, Tenant's surrender of this Lease or the termination of this Lease in any other manner. In any such event, Landlord may terminate any or all subtenancies or succeed to the interest of Tenant as sublandlord under any or all subtenancies.

ARTICLE TEN: DEFAULTS; REMEDIES

Section 10.01. Covenants and Conditions. Tenant's performance of each of Tenant's obligations under this Lease is a condition as well as a covenant. Tenant's right to continue in possession of the Property is conditioned on such performance. Time is of the essence in the performance of all covenants and conditions.

Section 10.02. DEFAULTS. Tenant shall be in material default under this Lease:

(a) If Tenant abandons the Property or if Tenant's vacation of the Property results in the cancellation of any insurance described in Section 4.04;

(b) If Tenant fails to pay rent or any other charge when due;

(c) If Tenant fails to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice from Landlord; provided that if more than thirty (30) days are required to complete such performance, Tenant shall not be in default if Tenant commences such performance within the thirty (30) -day period and thereafter diligently pursues its completion. However, Landlord shall not be required to give such notice if Tenant's failure to perform constitutes a non-curable breach of this Lease. The notice required by this Paragraph is tended to satisfy any and all notice requirements imposed by law on Landlord and is not in addition to any such requirement.

(d) (i) If Tenant makes a general assignment or general arrangement for the benefit of creditors; (ii) if a petition or adjudication of bankruptcy or for reorganization or rearrangement is filed by or against Tenant and is not dismissed within thirty (30) days; (iii) if a trustee or receiver is appointed to take possession of substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Property or of Tenant's interest in this Lease and possession is not restored to Tenant within thirty (30) days; or (iv) if substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Property or of Tenant's interest in this Lease is subjected to attachment, execution or other judicial seizure which is not discharged within thirty (30) days. If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any of the acts described in this subparagraph (d) is not a default under this Lease, and a trustee is appointed to take possession (or if Tenant remains a debtor in possession) and such trustee or Tenant transfers Tenant's interest hereunder, then Landlord shall receive, as Additional Rent, the excess, if any, of the rent (or any other consideration) paid in connection with such assignment or sublease over the rent payable by Tenant under this Lease.

Section 10.03. REMEDIES. On the occurrence of any material default by Tenant. Landlord may, at any time thereafter, with three (3) days prior written notice (which notice may be in the form of a three (3) day notice to pay rent or quit) or demand and without limiting Landlord in the exercise of any right or remedy which Landlord may have:

(a) Terminate Tenant's right to possession of the Property by any lawful means, in which case this Lease shall terminate and Tenant shall immediately surrender possession of the Property to Landlord. In such event, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant all damages incurred by Landlord by reason of Tenant's default, including (i) the worth at the time of the award of the unpaid Base Rent. Additional Rent and other charges which Landlord had earned at the time of the termination; (ii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid Base Rent, Additional Rent and other charges which Landlord would have earned after termination until the time of the award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves Landlord could have reasonably avoided; (iii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid Base Rent, Additional Rent and other charges which Tenant would have paid for the balance of the Lease term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves Landlord could have reasonably avoided; and (iv) any other amount necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under the Lease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom, including, but not limited to, any costs or expenses Landlord incurs in maintaining or preserving the Property after such default, the cost of recovering possession of the Property, expenses of reletting, including necessary renovation or alteration of the Property, Landlord's reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in connection therewith, and any real estate commission paid or payable. As used in subparts (i) and (ii) above, the "worth at the time of the award" is computed by allowing interest on unpaid amounts at the rate of fifteen percent (15%) per annum, or such lesser amount as may then be the maximum lawful rate. As used in subpart (iii) above, the "worth at the time of the award" is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent

(1%). If Tenant has abandoned the Property, Landlord shall have the option of (i) retaking possession of the Property and recovering from Tenant the amount specified in this Paragraph 10.03(a), or (ii) proceeding under Paragraph 10.03(b);

(b) Maintain Tenant's right to possession, in which case this Lease shall continue in effect whether or not Tenant has abandoned the Property. In such event, Landlord shall be entitled to enforce all of Landlord's rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover the rent as it becomes due:

(c) Pursue any other remedy now or hereafter available to Landlord under the laws or judicial decisions of the state in which the Property is located.

Section 10.04. REPAYMENT OF "FREE" RENT. If this Lease provides for a postponement of any monthly rental payments, a period of "free" rent or other rent concession, such postponed rent or "free" rent is called the "Abated Rent". Tenant shall be credited with having paid all of the Abated Rent on the expiration of the Lease Term only if Tenant has fully, faithfully, and punctually performed all of Tenant's obligations hereunder, including the payment of all rent (other than the Abated Rent) and all other monetary obligations and the surrender of the Property in the physical condition required by this Lease. Tenant acknowledges that its right to receive credit for the Abated Rent is absolutely conditioned upon Tenant's full, faithful and punctual performance of its obligations under this Lease. If Tenant defaults and does not cure within any applicable grace period, the Abated Rent shall immediately become due and payable in full and this Lease shall be enforced as if there were no such rent abatement or other rent concession. In such case Abated Rent shall be calculated based on the full initial rent payable under this Lease.

Section 10.05. AUTOMATIC TERMINATION. Notwithstanding any other term or provision hereof to the contrary, the Lease shall terminate on the occurrence of any act which affirms the Landlord's intention to terminate the Lease is provided in Section 10.03 hereof, including the filing of an unlawful detainer action against Tenant. On such termination. Landlord's damages for default shall include all costs and fees, including reasonable attorneys' fees that Landlord incurs in connection with the successful filing, commencement, pursuing and/or defending of any action in any bankruptcy court or other court with respect to the Lease; the obtaining of relief from any stay in bankruptcy restraining any action to evict Tenant; or the pursuing of any action with respect to Landlord's right to possession of the Property. All such damages suffered (apart from Base Rent and other rent payable hereunder) shall constitute pecuniary damages which must be reimbursed to Landlord prior to assumption of the Lease by Tenant or any successor to Tenant in any bankruptcy or other proceeding.

Section 10.06. CUMULATIVE REMEDIES. Landlord's exercise of any right or remedy shall not prevent it from exercising any other right or remedy.

ARTICLE ELEVEN: PROTECTION OF LENDERS

Section 11.01. SUBORDINATION. Landlord shall have the right to subordinate this Lease to any ground lease, deed of trust or mortgage encumbering the Property, any advances made on the security thereof and any renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements or extensions thereof, whenever made or recorded. Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord and any lender which is acquiring a security interest in the Property or the Lease. Tenant shall execute such further documents and assurances as such lender may require, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "B" or such other form as is then required by Landlord's lender, provided that Tenant's obligations under this Lease shall not be increased in any material way (the performance of ministerial acts shall not be deemed material), and Tenant shall not be deprived of its rights under this Lease. Tenant's right to quiet possession of the Property during the Lease Term shall not be disturbed if Tenant pays the rent and performs all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and is not otherwise in default. If any ground lessor, beneficiary or mortgagee elects to have this Lease prior to the lien of its ground lease, deed of trust or mortgage and gives written notice thereof to Tenant, this Lease shall be deemed prior to such ground lease, deed of trust or mortgage whether this Lease is dated prior or subsequent to the date of said ground lease, deed of trust or mortgage or the date of recording thereof.

Section 11.02. ATTORNMENT. If Landlord's interest in the Property is acquired by any ground lessor, beneficiary under a deed of trust, mortgagee, or purchaser at a foreclosure sale. Tenant shall attorn to the transferee of or successor to Landlord's interest in the Property and recognize such transferee or successor as Landlord under this Lease. Tenant waives the protection of any statute or rule of law which gives or purports to give Tenant any right to terminate this Lease or surrender possession of the Property upon the transfer of Landlord's interest.

Section 11.03. SIGNING OF DOCUMENTS. Tenant shall sign and deliver any instrument or documents necessary or appropriate to evidence any such attornment or subordination or agreement to do so. If Tenant fails to do so within ten (10) days after receipt of written request. Tenant hereby makes, constitutes and irrevocably appoints Landlord, or any transferee or successor of Landlord, the attorney-in-fact of Tenant to execute and deliver any such instrument or document.

Section 11.04. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES.

(a) Upon Landlord's written request, Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a written statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "C" or such other form as is then required by Landlord's lender, certifying: (i) that none of the terms or provisions of this Lease have been changed (or if they have been changed, stating how they have been changed); (ii) that this Lease has not been cancelled or terminated; (iii) the last date of payment of the Base Rent and other charges and the time period covered by such payment; (iv) that Landlord is not in default under this Lease (or, if Landlord is claimed to be in default, stating why); and (v) such other representations or information with respect to Tenant or the Lease as Landlord may reasonably request or which any prospective purchaser or encumbrancer of the Property may require. Tenant shall deliver such statement to Landlord within ten (10) days after receipt of Landlord's request. Landlord may give any such statement by Tenant to any prospective purchaser or encumbrancer of the Property. Such purchaser or encumbrancer may rely conclusively upon such statement as true and correct.

(b) If Tenant does not deliver such statement to Landlord within such ten (10) -day period, Landlord, and any prospective purchaser or encumbrancer, may conclusively presume and rely upon the following facts: (i) that the terms and provisions of this Lease have not been changed except as otherwise represented by Landlord; (ii) that this Lease has not been cancelled or terminated except as otherwise represented by Landlord; (iii) that not more than one month's Base Rent or other charges have been paid in advance; and (iv) that Landlord is not in default under the Lease. In such event, Tenant shall be estopped from denying the truth of such facts.

Section 11.05. TENANT'S FINANCIAL CONDITION. Within ten (10) days after written request from Landlord, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord such financial statements as Landlord reasonably requires to verify the net worth of Tenant or any assignee, subtenant, or guarantor of Tenant. In addition, Tenant shall deliver to any lender designated by Landlord any financial statements required by such lender to facilitate the financing or refinancing of the Property, Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that each such financial statement is a true and accurate statement as of the date of such statement. All financial statements shall be confidential and shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this Lease.

ARTICLE TWELVE: LEGAL COSTS

Section 12.01 LEGAL PROCEEDINGS. If Tenant or Landlord shall be in breach or default under this Lease, such party (the "Defaulting Party") shall reimburse the other party (the "Nondefaulting Party") upon demand for any costs or expenses that the Nondefaulting Party incurs in connection with any breach or default of the Defaulting Party under this Lease, whether or not suit is commenced or judgment entered. Such costs shall include legal fees and costs incurred for the negotiation of a settlement, enforcement of rights or otherwise. Furthermore, if any action for breach of or to enforce the provisions of this Lease is commenced, the court in such action shall award to the party in whose favor a judgment is entered, a reasonable sum as attorneys' fees and costs. The losing party in such action shall pay such attorneys' fees and costs. Tenant shall also indemnify Landlord against and hold Landlord harmless from all costs, expenses, demands and liability Landlord may incur if Landlord becomes or is made a party to any claim or action (a) instituted by Tenant against any third party, or by any third party against Tenant, or by or against any person holding any interest under or using the Property by license of or agreement with Tenant; (b) for foreclosure of any lien for labor or material furnished to or for Tenant or such other person; (c) otherwise arising out of or resulting from any act or transaction of Tenant or such other person; or (d) necessary to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease in a bankruptcy proceeding, or other proceeding under Title 11 of the United States Code, as amended. Tenant shall defend Landlord against any such claim or action at Tenant's expense with counsel reasonably acceptable to Landlord or, at Landlord's election. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for any legal fees or costs Landlord incurs in any such claim or action.

Section 12.02. LANDLORD'S CONSENT. Tenant shall pay Landlord's reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in connection with Tenant's request for Landlord's consent under Article Nine (Assignment and Subletting), or in connection with any other act which Tenant proposes to do and which requires Landlord's consent.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 13.01. NON-DISCRIMINATION. Tenant promises, and it is a condition to the continuance of this Lease, that there will be no discrimination against, or segregation of, any person or group of persons on the basis of race, color, sex, creed, national origin or ancestry in the leasing, subleasing, transferring, occupancy, tenure or use of the Property or any portion thereof.

Section 13.02. LANDLORD'S LIABILITY; CERTAIN DUTIES.

(a) As used in this Lease, the term "Landlord" means only the current owner or owners of the fee title to the Property or Project or the leasehold estate under a ground lease of the Property or Project at the time in question. Each Landlord is obligated to perform the obligations of Landlord under this Lease only during the time such Landlord owns such interest or title. Any Landlord who transfers its title or interest is relieved of all liability with respect to the obligations of Landlord under this Lease to be performed on or after the date of transfer. However, each Landlord shall deliver to its transferee all funds that Tenant previously paid if such funds have not yet been applied under the terms of this Lease.

(b) Tenant shall give written notice of any failure by Landlord to perform any of its obligations under this Lease to Landlord and to any ground lessor, mortgagee or beneficiary under any deed of trust encumbering the Property whose name and address have been furnished to Tenant in writing. Landlord shall not be in default under this Lease unless Landlord (or such ground lessor, mortgagee or beneficiary) fails to cure such non-performance within thirty (30) days after receipt of Tenant's notice. However, if such non-performance reasonably requires more than thirty (30) days to cure, Landlord shall not be in default if such cure is commenced within such thirty (30) -day period and thereafter diligently pursued to completion.

(c) Notwithstanding any term or provision herein to the contrary, the liability of Landlord for the performance of its duties and obligations under this Lease is limited to Landlord's interest in the Property and the Project, and neither the Landlord nor its partners, shareholders, officers or other principals shall have any personal liability under this Lease.

Section 13.03. SEVERABILITY. A determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that any provision of this Lease or any part thereof is illegal or unenforceable shall not cancel or invalidate the remainder of such provision or this Lease, which shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 13.04. INTERPRETATION. The captions of the Articles or Sections of this Lease are to assist the parties in reading this Lease and are not a part of the terms or provisions of this Lease. Whenever required by the context of this Lease, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular. The masculine, feminine and neuter genders shall each include the other. In any provision relating to the conduct, acts or omissions of Tenant, the term "Tenant" shall include Tenant's agents, employees, contractors, invitees, successors or others using the Property with Tenant's expressed or implied permiss ion.

Section 13.05. INCORPORATION OF PRIOR AGREEMENTS: MODIFICATIONS. This Lease is the only agreement between the parties pertaining to the lease of the Property and no other agreements are effective. All amendments to this Lease shall be in writing and signed by all parties. Any other attempted amendment shall be void.

Section 13.06. NOTICES. All notices required or permitted under this Lease shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered sent by legible telecopy with hard copy to follow by mail, sent by authorized prepaid overnight delivery or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid. Notices to Tenant shall be delivered to the address specified in Section 1.03 above. Notices to Landlord shall be delivered to the address specified in Section 1.02 above. All notices shall be effective upon delivery. Either party may change its notice address upon written notice to the other party.

Section 13.07. WAIVERS. All waivers must be in writing and signed by the waiving party. Landlord's failure to enforce any provision of this Lease or its acceptance of rent shall not be a waiver and shall not prevent Landlord from enforcing that provision or any other provision of this Lease in the future. No statement on a payment check from Tenant or in a letter accompanying a payment check shall be binding on Landlord. Landlord may, with or without notice to Tenant, negotiate such check without being bound to the conditions of such statement.

Section 13.08. NO RECORDATION. Tenant shall not record this Lease without prior written consent from Landlord. However, either Landlord or Tenant may require that a "Short Form" memorandum of this Lease executed by both parties be recorded. The party requiring such recording shall pay all transfer taxes and recording fees.

Section 13.09. BINDING EFFECT; CHOICE OF LAW. This Lease binds any party who legally acquires any rights or interest in this Lease from Landlord or Tenant. However, Landlord shall have no obligation to Tenant's successor unless the rights or interests of Tenant's successor are acquired in accordance with the terms of this Lease. The laws of the state in which the Property is located shall govern this Lease.

Section 13.10. CORPORATE AUTHORITY; PARTNERSHIP AUTHORITY. If Tenant is a corporation, each person signing this Lease on behalf of Tenant represents and warrants that he has full authority to do so and that this Lease binds the corporation. Within thirty (30) days after this Lease is signed, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a certified copy of a resolution of Tenant's Board of Directors authorizing the execution of this Lease or other evidence of such authority reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

Section 13.11. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY. All parties signing this Lease as Tenant shall be jointly and severally liable for all obligations of Tenant.

Section 13.12. FORCE MAJEURE. If either party cannot perform any of its obligations due to events beyond its control, the time provided for performing such obligations shall be extended by a period of time equal to the duration of such events. Events beyond control include, but are not limited to, acts of God, war, civil commotion, labor disputes, strikes, fire, flood or other casualty, shortages of labor or material, government regulation or restriction and weather conditions.

Section 13.13. EXECUTION OF LEASE. This Lease may be executed in counterparts and, when all counterpart documents are executed, the counterparts shall constitute a single binding instrument. Landlord's delivery of this Lease to Tenant shall not be deemed to be an offer to lease and shall not be binding upon either party until executed and delivered by both parties.

Section 13.14. SURVIVAL. All representations and warranties of Landlord and Tenant shall survive the termination of this Lease.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN: BROKERS

Section 14.01. BROKER'S FEE. When this Lease is signed by and delivered to both Landlord and Tenant, Landlord shall pay a real estate commission to Landlord's Broker named in Section 1.08 above, if any, as provided in the written agreement between Landlord and Landlord's Broker, or the sum stated in Section 1.09 above for services rendered to Landlord by Landlord's Broker in this transaction. Landlord shall pay Landlord's Broker a commission if Tenant exercises any option to extend the Lease Term or to buy the Property, or any similar option or right which Landlord may grant to Tenant, or if Landlord's Broker is the procuring cause of any other lease or sale entered into between Landlord and Tenant covering the Property. Such commission shall be the amount set forth in Landlord's Broker's commission schedule in effect as of the execution of this Lease. If a Tenant's Broker is named in Section 1.08 above, Landlord's Broker shall pay an appropriate portion of its commission to Tenant's Broker if so provided in any agreement between Landlord's Broker and Tenant's Broker. Nothing contained in this Lease shall impose any obligation on Landlord to pay a commission or fee to any party other than Landlord's Broker.

Section 14.02. PROTECTION OF BROKERS. If Landlord sells the Property, or assigns Landlord's interest in this Lease, the buyer or assignee shall, by accepting such conveyance of the Property or assignment of the Lease, be conclusively deemed to have agreed to make all payments to Landlord's Broker thereafter required of Landlord under this Article Fourteen. Landlord's Broker shall have the right to bring a legal action to enforce or declare rights under this provision. The prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees to be paid by the losing party. Such attorneys' fees shall be fixed by the court in such action. This Paragraph is included in this Lease for the benefit of Landlord's Broker.

Section 14.03. BROKER'S DISCLOSURE OF AGENCY. Landlord's Broker hereby discloses to Landlord and Tenant and Landlord and Tenant hereby consent to Landlord's Broker acting in this transaction as the agent of (check one):

ADDITIONAL TERMS, REVISIONS, AND PROVISIONS:

5.03.5 RIGHT TO INSPECT.

Landlord shall have the right in its sole and absolute discretion, but not the duty, to enter and conduct an inspection of the Property, including invasive tests, at any reasonable time to determine whether Tenant is complying with the terms of the Lease, including but not limited to the compliance of the Property and the activities thereon with Environmental Requirements and the existence of Environmental Damages as a result of the condition of the Property or surrounding properties and activities thereon. Landlord shall have the right, but not the duty, to retain any independent professional consultant (the "Consultant") to enter the Property to conduct such an inspection or to review any report prepared by or for Tenant concerning such compliance. The cost of the Consultant shall be paid by Landlord unless such investigation discloses a violation of any Environmental Requirement by The Tenant Group or the existence of a Hazardous Material on the Property or any other property caused by the activities or negligence of The Tenant Group (other than Hazardous Materials used in compliance with all Environmental Requirements and previously approved by Landlord), in which case Tenant shall pay the cost of the Consultant. Tenant hereby grants to Landlord, and the agents, employees, consultants and contractors of Landlord the right to enter the Property and to perform such tests on the Property as are reasonably necessary to conduct such reviews and investigations. Landlord shall use its best efforts to minimize interference with the business of Tenant.

5.03.6 NOTIFICATION.

If Tenant shall become aware of or receive notice or other communication concerning any actual, alleged, suspected or threatened violation of Environmental Requirements, or liability of Tenant for Environmental Damages in connection with the Property or past or present activities of any person thereon, including but not any actual or threatened investigation, inquiry, lawsuit, claim, citation, directive, summons, proceeding, complaint, notice, order, writ, or injunction, relating to same, then Tenant shall deliver to Landlord within ten (10) days of the receipt of such notice or communication by Tenant, a written description of said violation, liability, or actual or threatened event or condition, together with copies of any documents evidencing same. Receipt of such notice shall not be deemed to create any obligation on the part of Landlord to defend or otherwise respond to any such notification.

Prior to the Commencement Date of this Lease, and on January 1 of each year thereafter (each such date being hereafter referred to as a "Disclosure Date"), Tenant shall disclose to Landlord the names and amounts of all Hazardous Materials other than general office supplies referred to in Section 5.03.2 of this Rider, which were used, generated, treated, handled, stored or disposed of on the Property or which Tenant intends to use, generate, treat, handle, store or dispose of on the Property, for the year prior to and after such Disclosure Date. The foregoing in no way shall limit the necessity for Tenant obtaining Landlord's consent pursuant to Section 5.03.2 of this Rider.

5.03.7 SURRENDER OF PREMISES.

In the ninety (90) days prior to the expiration or termination of the Lease Term, and for up to ninety (90) days after Tenant fully surrenders possession of the Property, Landlord may have an environmental assessment of the Property performed in accordance with Section 5.03.5 of this Rider. Tenant shall perform, at its sole cost and expense, any clean-up or remedial work recommended by the Consultant which is necessary to remove, mitigate or remediate any Hazardous Materials and/or contamination of the Property caused by the activities or negligence of The Tenant Group.

5.03.8 ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING.

In the event the Lease provides that Tenant may assign the Lease or sublet the Property subject to Landlord's consent and/or certain other conditions, and if the proposed assignee's or sublessee's activities in or about the Property involve the use, handling, storage or disposal of any Hazardous Materials other than those used by Tenant and in quantities and processes similar to Tenant's uses in compliance with the Rider, (i) it shall be reasonable for Landlord to withhold its consent to such assignment or sublease in light of the risk of contamination posed by such activities and/or (ii) Landlord may impose an additional condition to such assignment or sublease which requires Tenant to reasonably establish that such assignee's or sublessee's activities pose no materially greater risk of contamination to the Property than do Tenant's permitted activities in view of the (a) quantities, toxicity and other properties of the Hazardous Materials to be used by such assignee or sublessee, (b) the precautions against a release of Hazardous Materials such assignee or sublessee agrees to implement, (c) such assignee's or sublessee's financial condition as it relates to its ability to fund a major clean-up and (d) such assignee's or sublessee's policy and historical record respecting its willingness to respond to the clean up of a release of Hazardous Materials.

5.03.9 SURVIVAL OF HAZARDOUS MATERIALS OBLIGATION.

A party's breach of any of its covenants or obligations under this Rider shall constitute a material default under the Lease. The obligations of the parties under this Rider shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease without any limitation, and shall constitute obligations that are independent and severable from Tenant's covenants and obligations to pay rent under the Lease.

5.03.10 ENVIRONMENTAL AUDIT:

Landlord has ordered an environmental assessment of the Property and shall provide Tenant a copy upon receipt.

SECTION 9.05 LANDLORD'S CONSENT:

(c) If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 9.05 (a), Landlord may, if it elects, enter into a new lease covering the Property with the intended assignee or sublessee on such terms as Landlord and such person may agree or enter into a new lease covering the Property with any other person; in such event, Tenant shall not be entitled to any portion of the profit, if any, which Landlord may realize on account of such termination and reletting. From and after the date of such termination of this Lease, Tenant shall have no further obligation to Landlord hereunder, except for matters occurring or obligations arising hereunder prior to the date of such termination.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN: REVENUE AND EXPENSE ACCOUNTING:

Landlord and Tenant agree that, for all purposes (including any determination under Section 467 of the Internal Revenue Code), rental income will accrue to the Landlord and rental expenses will accrue to the Tenant in the amounts and as of the dates rent is payable under the Lease.

ARTICLE SIXTEEN: LANDSCAPE MAINTENANCE:

Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 6.03 and 6.04, Landlord shall maintain, at Tenant's expense, the landscaping of the Premises and, if applicable, the common areas. Such maintenance shall include gardening, tree trimming, replacement or repair of landscaping, landscape irrigation systems and similar items. Such maintenance shall also include sweeping and cleaning of asphalt, concrete or other surfaces on the driveway, parking areas, yard areas, loading areas or other paved or covered surfaces. In connection with Landlord's obligations under this Article, Landlord may enter into a contract with a landscape contractor of Landlord's choice to provide some (but not necessarily all) of the maintenance services listed above. Tenant's pro-rata share of the monthly cost of such contract, hereinafter referred to as the "Landscape Fee" is currently SIX HUNDRED AND SIXTY AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($660.00). Landlord shall use its best efforts to maintain competitive contracts and shall promptly notify Tenant of any increase in the Landscape Fee. Tenant agrees to pay monthly to Landlord, as additional rent, the Landscape Fee. Tenant shall make such payment together with Tenant's monthly rental payment, without the necessity of notice from Landlord. It is the understanding of the parties that the Landscape Fee only pertains to routine landscape maintenance on the Premises and that Landlord may incur expenses in addition to the Landscape Fee in meeting its obligations set forth above. Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as additional rent, within ten (10) days after demand therefore, the cost of such additional expenses.

ARTICLE SEVENTEEN: TENANT IMPROVEMENTS

Landlord shall space plan, design, engineer, and construct certain tenant improvements consisting of: (a) remodeling existing offices and locker rooms, a lunchroom, a computer room and two (2) small offices, all as shown on the space plan attached hereto as Exhibit "E" ("Space Plan"); and (b) the relocation of warehouse lighting as mutually agreed upon by Landlord and Tenant (the "Tenant Improvements").

RIDER TO INDUSTRIAL REAL ESTATE LEASE DATED MAY 17, 1993 BY AND BETWEEN MAJESTIC REALTY CO. AND PATRICIAN ASSOCIATES, INC., BOTH CALIFORNIA CORPORATION, LANDLORD AND UNITED STATIONERS SUPPLY CO., AN ILLINOIS CORPORATION, TENANT

ADDITIONAL TERMS, REVISIONS, AND PROVISIONS:

Landlord shall prepare final working drawings and specifications consistent with the Space Plan and submit such plans and specifications to Tenant within thirty (30) days of execution by Tenant of this Lease. Tenant shall approve or disapprove such plans and specifications within seven (7) days after receipt from Landlord. Tenant shall have the right to disapprove such drawings and specifications only if they materially differ from the Space Plan. Final working drawings and specifications prepared in accordance with this ARTICLE SEVENTEEN and approved by Landlord and Tenant, together with the Cost Estimate, are hereafter referred to as the "Final Plans".

Landlord will be responsible for all costs of the Tenant Improvements (including any engineering or design costs) in the maximum amount of EIGHTY THOUSAND AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($80,000.00) ("Allowance"). If the cost of constructing the Tenant Improvements exceeds the Allowance, Tenant will be solely responsible for all costs of the Tenant Improvements in excess of the Allowance. Tenant shall pay or reimburse Landlord for such excess costs within fifteen (15) days after billing.

Landlord shall diligently pursue completion of the Tenant Improvements and shall use its best efforts to substantially complete the Tenant Improvements described in the Final Plans by August 1, 1993. Tenant shall not interfere with Landlord's construction of the Tenant Improvements. For the purposes of this Lease, the Tenant Improvements shall be conclusively deemed to be substantially completed when all Tenant Improvements described in the Final Plans are completed, except for minor items of work (e.g., "pick-up work") which can be completed with only minor interference with Tenant's conduct of business on the Property. Tenant shall execute an Estoppel Certificate in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "C" immediately following substantial completion of the Tenant Improvements.

Landlord's obligation to prepare the Property for Tenant's occupancy is limited to the completion of the Tenant Improvements set forth in the Final Plans. Landlord shall not be required to furnish, construct or install any items not shown thereon or on the Final Plans. If Tenant requests any change, addition or alteration ("Changes") in the Final Plans or in the construction of the Tenant Improvements, Landlord shall promptly give Tenant an estimate of the additional cost, or cost reduction, if any, of such Changes and the resulting delay in the delivery of the Property to Tenant. Within three (3) Business Days after receipt of such estimate, Tenant shall give Landlord written notice whether Tenant elects to proceed with such Changes. If Tenant notifies Landlord in writing the Tenant elects to proceed with such Changes and if Landlord approves such Changes, Landlord shall promptly make such Changes. If Tenant fails to notify Landlord of its election with the three (3) Business Day period, Landlord shall complete the Tenant Improvements without making such Changes. Tenant shall pay or reimburse Landlord for the net additional costs of such Changes in excess of the Allowance within fifteen (15) days after billing. The Tenant Improvements shall be the property of Landlord and shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Property upon the expiration of the Lease Term.

Landlord shall allow Tenant, pursuant to the terms of this Lease and subject to Landlord's review and approval of Tenant's specifications, to install a wire guidance system in the warehouse floor and a satellite/microwave dish on the roof of the Property.

Tenant shall have seven (7) business days after receipt of such notice in which to accept Landlord's offer to lease such space at the monthly rental and upon the other terms set forth in Landlord's notice. The parties agree to negotiate in good faith the proposed rent and other terms of such Lease. If Tenant fails to accept Landlord's offer, or if the parties fail to otherwise agree, within the seven (7) business day period, or if Tenant gives Landlord notice that Tenant does not intend to lease such space on the terms set forth in Landlord's notice, the Tenant's right under this Article Eighteen shall terminate and Landlord shall thereafter be free to lease such space to other tenants upon such terms as Landlord desires.

alterations, improvements, additions, or Utility installations in, on or about the Premises, except for nonstructural alterations not exceeding $2,500 in cumulative costs during the term of this Lease. In any event, whether or not in excess of $2,500 in cumulative cost, Lessee shall make no change or alteration to the exterior of the Premises nor the exterior of the building(s) on the Premises without Lessor's prior written consent. As used in this Paragraph 7.5 the term "Utility Installation" shall mean carpeting, window coverings, air lines, power panels, electrical distribution systems, lighting fixtures, space heaters, air conditioning, plumbing and fencing. Lessor may require that Lessee remove any or all of said alterations, improvements, additions or Utility installations at the expiration of the term, and restore the Premises to their prior condition. Lessor may require Lessee to provide Lessor, at Lessee's sole cost and expense, a lien and completion bond in an amount equal to one and one-half times the estimated cost of such improvements, to insure Lessor against any liability for mechanic's and materialmon's liens and to insure completion of the work. Should Lessee make any alterations, improvements, additions of Utility installations without the prior approval of Lessor, Lessor may require that Lessee remove any or all of the same.

(b) Any in, or about the consent of the Lessor shall be presented to Lessor in written form, with proposed detailed plans. If Lessor shall give its consent, the consent shall be deemed conditioned upon Lessee acquiring a permit to do so from appropriate governmental agencies, the furnishing of a copy thereof to Lessor prior to the commencement of the work and the compliance by Lessee of all conditions of said permit in a prompt and expeditious manner.

(c) Lessee shall pay, when due, all claims for labor or materials furnished or alleged to have been furnished to or for Lessee at or for use in the Premises, which claims are or may be secured by any mechanics' or materialmen's lien against the Premises or any interest therein. Lessee shall give Lessor not less than ten (10) days' notice prior to the commencement of any work in the Premises, and Lessor shall have the right to post notices of non-responsibility in or on the Premises as provided by law. If Lessee shall, in good faith, contest the validity of any such lien, claim or demand, then Lessee shall, at its sole expense defend itself and Lessor against the same and shall pay and satisfy any such adverse judgment that may be rendered thereon before the enforcement thereof against the Lessor or the Premises, upon the condition that if Lessor shall require, Lessee shall furnish to Lessor a surety bond satisfactory to Lessor in an amount equal to such contested lien claim or demand indemnifying Lessor against liability for the same and holding the Premises free from the effect of such lien or claim. In addition, Lessor may require Lessee to pay Lessor's attorneys fees and costs in participating in such action if Lessor shall decide it is to its best interest to do so.

(d) Unless Lessor requires their removal, as set forth in Paragraph 7.5(a), all alterations, improvements, additions and Utility installations (whether or not such Utility Installations constitute trade fixtures of Lessee), which may be made on the Premises, shall become the property of Lessor and remain upon and be surrendered with the Premises at the expiration of the term. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Paragraph 7.5(d), Lessee's machinery and equipment, other than that which is affixed to the Premises so that it cannot be removed without material damage to the Premises, shall remain the property of Lessee and may be removed by Lessee subject to the provisions of Paragraph 7.2.

8. INSURANCE INDEMNITY.

8.1 INSURING PARTY. As used in this Paragraph 8, the term "Insuring party" shall mean the party who has the obligation to obtain the Property Insurance required hereunder. The insuring party shall be designated in Paragraph 46 hereof. In the event Lessor is the insuring party, Lessor shall also maintain the liability insurance described in paragraph 8.2 hereof, in addition to, and not in lieu of, the insurance required to be maintained by Lessee under said paragraph 8.2, but Lessor shall not be required to name Lessee as an additional insured on such policy. Whether the insuring party is the Lessor or the Lessee, Lessee shall, as additional rent for the Premises, pay the cost of all insurance required hereunder, except for that portion of the cost attributable to Lessor's liability insurance coverage in excess of $1,000,000 per occurrence. If Lessor is the insuring party Lessee shall, within ten (10) days following demand by Lessor, reimburse Lessor for the cost of the insurance so obtained.

8.2 LIABILITY INSURANCE. Lessee shall, at Lessee's expense obtain and keep in force during the term of this Lease a policy of Combined Single Limit, Bodily Injury and Property Damage Insurance insuring Lessor and Lessee against any liability arising out of the ownership, use, occupancy or maintenance of the Premises and all areas appurtenant thereto. Such insurance shall be a combined single limit policy in an amount not less than $500,000 per occurrence. The policy shall insure performance by Lessee of the Indemnity provisions of this Paragraph 8. The limits of said insurance shall not, however, limit the liability of Lessee hereunder.

8.3 PROPERTY INSURANCE.

(a) The insuring party shall obtain and keep in force during the term of this Lease a policy or policies of insurance covering loss or damage to the Premises, in the amount of the full replacement value thereof, as the same may exist from time to time, which replacement value is now $ _____, but in no event less than the total amount required by lenders having liens on the Premises, against all perils included within the classification of lire, extended coverage, vandalism, malicious mischief, flood (in the event same is required by a lender having a lien on the Premises), and special extended perils ("all risk" as such term is used in the insurance industry). Said insurance shall provide for payment of loss thereunder to Lessor or to the holders of mortgages or deeds of trust on the Premises. The insuring party shall, in addition, obtain and keep in force during the term of this Lease a policy of rental value insurance covering a period of one year, with loss payable to Lessor, which insurance shall also cover all real estate taxes and insurance costs for said period. A stipulated value or agreed amount endorsement deleting the coinsurance provision of the policy shall be procured with said insurance as well as an automatic increase in insurance endorsement causing the increase in annual property insurance coverage by 2% per quarter. If the insuring party shall fail to procure and maintain said insurance the other party may, but shall not be required to, procure and maintain the same, but at the expense of Lessee. If such insurance coverage has a deductible clause, the deductible amount shall not exceed $1,000 per occurrence, and Lessee shall be liable for such deductible amount.

(b) If the Premises are part of a larger building, or if the Premises are part of a group of buildings owned by Lessor which are adjacent to the Premises, then Lessee shall pay for any increase in the property insurance of such other building or buildings if said increase is caused by Lessee's acts, omissions, use or occupancy of the Premises.

(c) If the Lessor is the insuring party the Lessor will not insure Lessee's fixtures, equipment or tenant improvements unless the tenant improvements have become a part of the Premises under paragraph 7, hereof. But if Lessee is the insuring party the Lessee shall insure its fixtures, equipment and tenant improvements.

8.4 INSURANCE POLICIES. Insurance required hereunder shall be in companies holding a "General Policyholders Rating" of at least B plus or such other rating as may be required by a lender having a lien on the Premises, as set forth in the most current issue of "Best's insurance Guide". The insuring party shall deliver to the other party copies of policies of such insurance or certificates evidencing the existence and amounts of such insurance with loss payable clauses as required by this paragraph 8. No such policy shall be cancelable or subject to reduction of coverage or other modification except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Lessor. If Lessee is the insuring party Lessee shall, at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of such policies, furnish Lessor with renewals of "binders" thereof, or Lessor may order such insurance and charge the cost thereof to Lessee, which amount shall be payable by Lessee upon demand. Lessee shall not do or permit to be done anything which shall invalidate the insurance policies referred to in Paragraph 8.3. If Lessee does or permits to be done anything which shall increase the cost of the insurance policies referred to in Paragraph 8.3, then Lessee shall forthwith upon Lessor's demand reimburse Lessor for any additional premiums attributable to any act or omission or operation of Lessee causing such increase in the cost of insurance. If Lessor is the insuring party, and if the insurance policies maintained hereunder cover other improvements in addition to the Premises, Lessor shall deliver to Lessee a written statement setting forth the amount of any such insurance cost increase and showing in reasonable detail the manner in which it has been computed.

8.5 WAIVER OF SUBROGATION. Lessee and Lessor each hereby release and relieve the other, and waive their entire right of recovery against the character loss or damage arising out of or incident to the perils insured against under Paragraph 8.3, which perils occur in, on or about the Premises, whether due to the negligence of Lessor or Lessee or their agents, employees, contractors and/or invitees. Lessee and Lessor shall, upon obtaining the policies of Insurance required hereunder, give notice to the insurance carrier or carriers that the foregoing mutual waiver of subrogation is contained in this Lease.

8.6 INDEMNITY. Lessee shall indemnify and hold harmless Lessor from and against any and all claims arising from Lessee's use of the Premises, or from the conduct of Lessee's business or from any activity, work or things done, permitted or suffered by Lessee in or about the Premises or elsewhere and shall further indemnity and hold harmless Lessor from and against any and all claims arising from any breach of default in the performance of any obligation on Lessee's part to be performed under the terms of this Lease, or arising from any negligence of the Lessee, or any of Lessee's agents, contractors, or employees, and from and against all costs, attorney's fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in the defense of any such claim or any action or proceeding brought thereon: and in case any action or proceeding be brought against Lessor by reason of any such claim. Lessee upon notice from Lessor shall defend the same at Lessee's expense by counsel satisfactory to Lessor. Lessee, as a material part of the consideration to Lessor, hereby assumes all risk of damage to property or injury to persons, in, upon or about the Premises arising from any cause and Lessee hereby waives all claims in respect thereof against Lessor.

8.7 EXEMPTION OF LESSOR FROM LIABILITY. Lessee hereby agrees that Lessor shall not be liable for injury to Lessee's business or any loss of income therefrom or for damage to the goods, wares, merchandise or other property of Lessee. Lessee's employees, invitees, customers, or any other person in or about the Premises, nor shall Lessor be liable for injury to the person of Lessee, Lessee's employees, agents or contractors, whether such damage or injury is caused by or results from fire, steam, electricity, gas, water or rain, or from the breakage, leakage, obstruction or other defects of pipes, sprinklers, wires, appliances, plumbing, air conditioning or lighting fixtures, or from any other cause, whether the said damage or injury results from conditions arising upon the Premises or upon other portions of the building of which the Premises are a part, or from other sources of places and regardless of whether the cause of such damage or injury or the means of repairing the same is inaccessible to Lessee. Lessor shall not be liable for any damages arising from any act of neglect of any other tenant. If any, of the building in which the Premises are located.

9. DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION.

9.1 DEFINITIONS.

(a) "Premises Partial Damage" shall herein mean damage or destruction to the Premises to the extent that the cost of repair is less than 50% of the then replacement cost of the Premises. "Premises Building Partial Damage" shall herein mean damage or destruction to the building of which the Premises are a part to the extent that the cost of repair is less than 50% of the then replacement cost of such building as a whole.

(b) "Premises Total Destruction" shall herein mean damage or destruction to the Premises to the extent that the cost of repair is 50% or more of the then replacement cost of the Premises. "Premises Building Total Destruction" shall herein mean damage or destruction to the Building of which the Premises are a part to the extent that the cost of repair is 50% or more of the then replacement cost of such building as a whole.

(c) "Insured Loss" shall herein mean damage or destruction which was caused by an event required to be covered by the insurance described in paragraph 8.

9.2 PARTLY DAMAGE-INSURED LOSS. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 9.4, 9.5 and 9.6, if at any time during the term of this Lease there is damage which is an Insured Loss and which falls into the classification of Premises Partial Damage or Premises Building Partial Damage, then Lessor shall, at Lessor's expense, repair such damage, but not Lessee's fixtures, equipment or tenant improvements unless the same have become a part of the Premises pursuant to Paragraph 7.5 hereof as soon as reasonably possible and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect. Notwithstanding the above, if the Lessee is the Insuring party, and if the insurance proceeds received by Lessor are not sufficient to effect such repair, Lessor shall give notice to Lessee of the amount required in addition to the insurance proceeds to effect such repair. Lessee shall contribute the required amount to Lessor within ten days after Lessee has received notice from Lessor of the shortage in the insurance. When Lessee shall contribute such amount to Lessor, Lessor shall make such repairs as soon as reasonably possible and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect. Lessee shall in no event have any right to reimbursement for any such amounts so contributed.

9.3 PARTIAL DAMAGE-UNINSURED LOSS. Subject to the provisions of Paragraphs 9.4, 9.5 and 9.6, if at any time during the term of this Lease there is damage which is not an insured Loss and which falls within the classification of Premises Partial Damage or Premises Building Partial Damage, unless caused by a negligent or willful act of Lessee (in which event Lessee shall make the repairs at Lessee's expense). Lessor may at Lessor's option either (i) repair such damage as soon as reasonably possible at Lessor's expense, in which event this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, or (ii) give written notice to Lessee within thirty (30) days after the date of the occurrence of such damage of Lessor's intention to cancel and terminate this Lease, as of the date of the occurrence of such damage. In the event Lessor elects to give such notice of Lessor's intention to cancel and terminate this Lease, Lessee shall have the right within ten (10) days after the receipt of such notice to give written notice to Lessor of Lessee's intention to repair such damage at Lessee's expense, without reimbursement from Lessor, in which event this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, and Lessee shall proceed to make such repairs as soon as reasonably possible. If Lessee does not give such notice within such 10-day period this Lease shall be cancelled and terminated as of the date of the occurrence of such damage.

9.4 TOTAL DESTRUCTION. If at any time during the term of this Lease there is damage, whether or not an Insured Loss, (including destruction required by any authorized public authority), which falls into the classification of Premises Total Destruction or Premises Building Total Destruction, this Lease shall automatically terminate as of the date of such total destruction.

9.5 DAMAGE NEAR END OF TERM.

(a) If at any time during the last six months of the term of this Lease there is damage, whether or not an insured Loss, which fails within the classification of Premises Partial Damage, Lessor may at Lessor's option cancel and terminate this Lease as of the date of occurrence of such damage by giving written notice to Lessee of Lessor's election to do so within 30 days after the date of occurrence of such damage.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph 9.5(a), in the event that Lessee has an option to extend or renew this Lease, and the time within which said option may be exercised has not yet expired, Lessee shall exercise such option, if it is to be exercised at all, no later than 20 days after the occurrence of an insured Loss falling within the classification of Premises Partial Damage during the last six months of the term of this Lease. If Lessee duly exercises such option during said 20 day period, Lessor shall, at Lessor's expense, repair such damage as soon as reasonably possible and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect. If Lessee fails to exercise such option during said 20 day period, then Lessor may at Lessor's option terminate and cancel this Lease as of the expiration of said 20 day period by giving written notice to Lessee of Lessor's election to do so within 10 days after the expiration of said 20 day period, notwithstanding any term or provision in the grant of option to the contrary.

9.6 ABATEMENT OF RENT; LESSEE'S REMEDIES.

(a) In the event of damage described in paragraphs 9.2 or 9.3, and Lessor or Lessee repairs or restores the Premises pursuant to the provisions of this Paragraph 9, the rent payable hereunder for the period during which such damage, repair or restoration continues shall be abated in proportion to the degree to which Lessee's use of the Premises is impaired. Except for abatement of rent, if any, Lessee shall have no claim against Lessor for any damage suffered by reason of any such damage, destruction, repair or restoration.

(b) If Lessor shall be obligated to repair or restore the Premises under the provisions of this Paragraph 9 and shall not commence such repair or restoration within 90 days after such obligations shall accure, Lessee may at Lessee's option cancel and terminate this Lease by giving Lessor written notice of Lessee's election to do so at any time prior to the commencement of such repair or restoration. In such event this Lease shall terminate as of the date of such notice.

9.7 TERMINATION-ADVANCE PAYMENTS. Upon termination of this Lease pursuant to this Paragraph 9, an equitable adjustment shall be made concerning advance rent and any advance payments made by Lessee to Lessor. Lessor shall, in addition, return to Lessee so much of Lessee's security deposit as has not theretofore been applied by Lessor.

9.8 WAIVER. Lessor and Lessee waive the provisions of any statutes which relate to termination of leases when leased property is destroyed and agree that such event shall be governed by the terms of this Lease.

10. REAL PROPERTY TAXES.

10.1 PAYMENT OF TAXES. Lessee shall pay the real property tax, as defined in paragraph 10.2, applicable to the Premises during the term of this Lease. All such payments shall be made at least ten (10) days prior to the delinquency date of such payment. Lessee shall promptly furnish Lessor with satisfactory evidence that such taxes have been paid. If any such taxes paid by Lessee shall cover any period of time prior to or after the expiration of the term hereof. Lessee's share of such taxes shall be equitably prorated to cover only the period of time within the tax fiscal year during which this Lease shall be in effect, and Lessor shall reimburse Lessee to the extent required. If Lessee shall fail to pay any such taxes. Lessor shall have the right to pay the same, in which case Lessee shall repay such amount to Lessor with Lessee's next rent installment together with interest at the maximum rate then allowable by law.

10.2 DEFINITION OF "REAL PROPERTY TAX". As used herein, the term "real property tax" shall include any form of real estate tax or assessment, general, special, ordinary or extraordinary, and any license fee, commercial rental tax, improvement bond or bonds, levy or tax (other than inheritance, personal income or estate taxes) imposed on the Premises by any authority having the direct or indirect power to tax, including any city, state or federal government, or any school, agricultural, sanitary, fire, street, drainage or other improvement district thereof, as against any legal or equitable interest of Lessor in the Premises or in the real property of which the Premises are a part, as against Lessor's right to rent or other income therefrom, and as against Lessor's business of leasing the Premises. The term "real property tax" shall also include any tax, fee, levy, assessment or charge (i) in substitution of, partially or totally, any tax, fee, levy, assessment or charge herein above included within the definition of "real property tax," or (ii) the nature of which was hereinbefore included within the definition of "real property tax," or (iii) which is imposed for a service or right not charged prior to June 1, 1978, or, if previously charged, has been increased since June 1, 1978, or (iv) which is imposed as a result of a transfer, either partial or total, of Lessor's interest in the Premises or which is added to a tax or charge hereinbefore included within the definition of real property tax by reason of such transfer, or (v) which is imposed by reason of this transaction, any modifications or changes hereto, or any transfers hereof.

10.3 JOINT ASSESSMENT. If the Premises are not separately assessed, Lessee's liability shall be an equitable proportion of the real property taxes for all of the land and improvements included within the tax parcel assessed, such proportion to be determined by Lessor from the respective valuations assigned in the assessor's work sheets or such other information as may be reasonably available. Lessor's reasonable determination thereof, in good faith, shall be conclusive.

10.4 PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES.

(a) Lessee shall pay prior to delinquency all taxes assessed against and leveled upon trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment and all other personal property of Lessee contained in the Premises or elsewhere. When possible, Lessee shall cause said trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment and all other personal property to be assessed and billed separately from the real property of Lessor.

(b) If any of Lessee's said personal property shall be assessed with Lessor's real property, Lessee shall pay Lessor the taxes attributable to Lessee within 10 days after receipt of a written statement setting forth the taxes applicable to Lessee's property.

11. UTILITIES. Lessee shall pay for all water, gas, heat, light, power, telephone and other utilities and services supplied to the Premises together with any taxes thereon. If any such services are not separately metered to Lessee, Lessee shall pay a reasonable proportion to be determined by Lessor of all charges jointly metered with other premises.

12. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING.

12.1 LESSOR'S CONSENT REQUIRED. Lessee shall not voluntarily or by operation of law assign, transfer, mortgage, sublet, or otherwise transfer or encumber all or any part of Lessee's Interest in this Lease or in the Premises, without Lessor's prior written consent, which Lessor shall not unreasonably withhold. Lessor shall respond to Lessee's request for consent hereunder in a timely manner and any attempted assignment, transfer, mortgage, encumbrance or subletting without such consent shall be void, and shall constitute a breach of this Lease.

12.2 LESSEE AFFILIATE. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 12.1 hereof, Lessee may assign or sublet the Premises, or any portion thereof, without Lessor's consent, to any corporation which controls, is controlled by or is under common control with Lessee, or to any corporation resulting from the merger or consolidation with Lessee, or to any person or entity which acquires all the assets of Lessee as a going concern of the business that is being conducted on the Premises, provided that said assignee assumes, in full, the obligations of Lessee under this Lease. Any such assignment shall not, in any way, affect or limit the liability of Lessee under the terms of this Lease even if after such assignment or subletting the terms of this Lease are materially changed or altered without the consent of Lessee, the consent of whom shall not be necessary.

12.3 NO RELEASE OF LESSEE. Regardless of Lessor's consent, no subletting or assignment shall release Lessee of Lessee of Lessee's obligation or alter the primary liability of Lessee to pay the rent and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Lessee hereunder. The acceptance of rent by Lessor from any other person shall not be deemed to be a walver by Lessor of any provision hereof. Consent to one assignment or subletting shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. In the event of default by any assignee of Lessee or any successor of Lessee, in the performance of any of the terms hereof, Lessor may proceed directly against Lessee without the necessity of exhausting remedies against said assignee. Lessor may consent to subsequent assignments or subletting of this Lease or amendments or modifications to this Lease with assignees.

of Lessee, without notifying Lessee, or any successor of Lessee, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto and such action shall not relieve Lessee of liability under this Lease.

12.4 ATTORNEY'S FEES. In the event Lessee shall assign or sublet the Premises or request the consent of Lessor to any assignment or subletting or if Lessee shall request the consent of Lessor for any act Lessee proposes to do then Lessee shall pay Lessor's reasonable attorneys fees incurred in connection therewith, such attorneys fees not to exceed $350.00 for each such request.

13. DEFAULTS; REMEDIES.

13.1 DEFAULTS. The occurrence of any one or more of the following events shall constitute a material default and breach of this Lease by Lessee:

(a) The vacating or abandonment of the Premises by Lessee.

(b) The failure by Lessee to make any payment of rent or any other payment required to be made by Lessee hereunder, as and when due, where such failure shall continue for a period of three days after written notice thereof from Lessor to Lessee. In the event that Lessor served Lessee with a Notice to Pay Rent or Quit pursuant to applicable Unlawful Detainer statutes such Notice to Pay Rent or Quit shall also constitute the notice required by this subparagraph.

(c) The failure by Lessee to observe or perform any of the covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease to be observed or performed by Lessee, other than described in paragraph (b) above, where such failure shall continue for a period of 30 days after written notice thereof from Lessor to Lessee; provided, however, that if the nature of Lessee's default is such that more than 30 days are reasonably required for its cure, then Lessee shall not be deemed to be in default if Lessee commenced such cure within said 30-day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes such cure to completion.

(d) (i) The making by Lessee of any general arrangement or assignment for the benefit of creditors; (ii) Lessee becomes a "debtor" as defined in 11 U.S.C. (S)101 or any successor statute thereto (unless, in the case of a petition filed against Lessee, the same is dismissed within 60 days); (iii) the appointment of a trustee or receiver to take possession of substantially all of Lessee's assets located at the Premises or of Lessee's interest in this Lease, where possession is not restored to Lessee within 30 days; or (iv) the attachment, execution or other judicial seizure of substantially all of Lessee's assets located at the Premises or of Lessee's interest in this Lease, where such seizure is not discharged within 30 days. Provided, however, in the event that any provision of this paragraph 13.1(d) is contrary to any applicable law, such provision shall be of no force or effect.

(e) The discovery by Lessor that any financial statement given to Lessor by Lessee, any assignee of Lessee, any subtenant of Lessee, any successor in interest of Lessee or any guarantor of Lessee's obligation hereunder, and any of them, was materially false.

13.2 REMEDIES. In the event of any such material default or breach by Lessee, Lessor may at any time thereafter, with or without notice or demand and without limiting Lessor in the exercise of any right or remedy which Lessor may have by reason of such default or breach:

(a) Terminate Lessee's right to possession of the Premises by any lawful means, in which case this Lease shall terminate and Lessee shall immediately surrender possession of the Premises to Lessor. In such event Lessor shall be entitled to recover from Lessee all damages incurred by Lessor by reason of Lessee's default including, but not limited to, the cost of recovering possession of the Premises; expenses of reletting, including necessary renovation and alteration of the Premises, reasonable attorney's fees, and any real estate commission actually paid; the worth at the time of award by the court having jurisdiction thereof of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of such award exceeds the amount of such rental loss for the same period that Lessee proves could be reasonably avoided; that portion of the leasing commission paid by Lessor pursuant to Paragraph 15 applicable to the unexpired term of this Lease.

(b) Maintain Lessee's right to possession in which case this Lease shall continue in effect whether or not Lessee shall have abandoned the Premises. In such event Lessor shall be entitled to enforce all of Lessor's rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover the rent as it becomes due hereunder.

(c) Pursue any other remedy now or hereafter available to Lessor under the laws or judicial decisions of the state wherein the Premises are located. Unpaid installments of rent and other unpaid monetary obligations of Lessee under the terms of this Lease shall bear interest from the date due at the maximum rate then allowable by law.

13.3 DEFAULT BY LESSOR. Lessor shall not be in default unless Lessor fails to perform obligations required of Lessor within a reasonable time, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after written notice by Lessee to Lessor and to the holder of any first mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises whose name and address shall have theretofore been furnished to Lessee in writing, specifying wherein Lessor has failed to perform such obligation; provided, however, that if the nature of Lessor's obligation is such that more than thirty (30) days are required for performance then Lessor shall not be in default if Lessor commences performance within such 30-day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes the same to completion.

13.4 LATE CHARGES. Lessee hereby acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of rent and other sums due hereunder will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of which will be extremely difficult to ascertain. Such costs include, but are not limited to, processing and accounting charges, and late charges which may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any mortgage or trust deed covering the Premises. Accordingly, if any installment of rent or any other sum due from Lessee shall not be received by Lessor or Lessor's designee within ten (10) days after such amount shall be due, then, without any requirement for notice to Lessee, Lessee shall pay to Lessor a late charge equal to 6% of such overdue amount. The parties hereby agree that such late charge represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessee. Acceptance of such late charge by Lessor shall in no event constitute a waiver of Lessee's default with respect to such overdue amount, nor prevent Lessor from exercising any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder. In the event that a late charge is payable hereunder, whether or not collected, for three (3) consecutive installments of rent, then rent shall automatically become due and payable quarterly in advance, rather than monthly, notwithstanding paragraph 4 or any other provision of this Lease to the contrary.

13.5 IMPOUNDS. In the event that a late charge is payable hereunder, whether or not collected, for three (3) installments of rent or any other monetary obligation of Lessee under the terms of this Lease, Lessee shall pay to Lessor, if Lessor shall so required under this Lease, a time as the monthly rent, as estimated by Lessor, for real property tax and insurance expenses on the Premises which are payable by Lessee under the terms of this Lease. Such fund shall be established to insure payment when due, before delinquency, of any or all such real property taxes and insurance premiums. If the amounts paid to Lessor by Lessee under the provisions of this paragraph are insufficient to discharge the obligations of Lessee to pay such real property taxes and insurance premiums as the same become due, Lessee shall pay to Lessor, upon Lessor's demand, such additional sums necessary to pay such obligations. All moneys paid to Lessor under this paragraph may be intermingled with other moneys of Lessor and shall not bear interest. In the event of a default in the obligations of Lessee to perform under this Lease, then any balance remaining from funds paid to Lessor under the provisions of this paragraph may, at the option of Lessor, be applied to the payment of any monetary default of Lessee in lieu of being applied to the payment of real property tax and insurance premiums.

14. CONDEMNATION. If the Premises or any portion thereof are taken under the power of eminent domain, or sold under the threat of the exercise of said power (all terminate as to the part so taken as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever first occurs. If more than 10% of the floor area Premises which is not occupied by any building, is taken by condemnation. Lessee may, at Lessee's option, to be exercised in writing only within ten (10) days after Lessor shall have given Lessee written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority shall have taken possession) terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes such possession. If Lessee does not terminate this Lease in accordance with the foregoing, this Lease shall remain in full force and effect as to the portion of the Premises remaining, except that the rent shall be reduced in the proportion that the floor area of the building taken bears to the total floor area of the building situated on the Premises. No reduction of rent shall occur if the only area taken is that which does not have a building located thereon. Any award for the taking of all or any part of the Premises under the power of eminent domain or any payment made under threat of the exercise of such power shall be the property of Lessor, whether such award shall be made as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold or for the taking of the fee, or as severance damages; provided, however, that Lessee shall be entitled to any award for loss of or damage to Lessee's trade fixtures and removable personal property. In the event that this Lease is not terminated by reason of such condemnation, Lessor shall to the extent of severance damages received by Lessor in connection with such condemnation, repair any damage to the Premises caused by such condemnation except to the extent that Lessee has been reimbursed therefor by the condemning authority. Lessee shall pay any amount in excess of such severance damages required to complete such repair.

15. BROKER'S FEE.

(a) Upon execution of this Lease by both parties, Lessor shall pay to _____ Licensed real estate broker(s), between Lessor and said broker(s), or in the event there is no separate agreement between Lessor and said broker(s), the sum of $ _____, for brokerage services rendered by said broker(s) to Lessor in this transaction.

(b) Lessor further agrees that if Lessee exercises any Option as defined in paragraph 39.1 of this Lease, which is granted to Lessee under this Lease, or any subsequently granted option which is substantially similar to an Option granted to Lessee under this Lease, or if Lessee acquires any rights to the Premises or other premises described in this Lease which are substantially similar to what Lessee would have acquired had an Option herein granted to Lessee been exercised, or if Lessee remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the term of this Lease after having failed to exercise an Option, or if said broker(s) are the procuring cause of any other lease or sale entered into between the parties pertaining to the Premises and/or any adjacent property in which Lessor has an interest, then as to any of said transactions, Lessor shall pay said broker(s) a fee in accordance with the schedule of said broker(s) in effect at the time of execution of this Lease.

(c) Lessor agrees to pay said fee not only on behalf of Lessor but also on behalf of any person, corporation, association, or other entity having an ownership interest in said real property or any part thereof, when such fee is due hereunder. Any transferee of Lessor's interest in this Lease, whether such transfer is by agreement or by operation of law, shall be deemed to have assumed Lessor's obligation under this Paragraph 15. Said broker shall be a third party beneficiary of the provisions of this Paragraph 15.

16. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE.

(a) Lessee shall at any time upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written notice from Lessor execute, acknowledge and deliver to Lessor a statement in writing (i) certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if modified, stating the nature of such modification and certifying that this Lease, as so modified, is in full force and effect) and the date to which the rent and other charges are paid in advance, if any, and (ii) acknowledging that there are not, to Lessee's knowledge, any uncured defaults on the part of Lessor hereunder, or specifying such defaults if any are claimed. Any such statement may be conclusively relied upon by any prospective purchaser or encumbrancer of the Premises.

(b) At Lessor's option, Lessee's failure to deliver such statement within such time shall be a material breach of this Lease or shall be conclusive upon Lessee (i) that this Lease is in full force and effect, without modification except as may be represented by Lessor, (ii) that there are no uncured defaults in Lessor's performance, and (iii) that not more than one month's rent has been paid in advance or such failure may be considered by Lessor as a default by Lessee under this Lease.

(c) If Lessor desires to finance, refinance, or sell the Premises, or any part thereof, Lessee hereby agrees to deliver to any lender or purchaser designated by Lessor such financial statements of Lessee as may be reasonably required by such lender or purchaser. Such statements include the past three years' financial statements of Lessee. All such financial statements shall be received by Lessor and such lender or purchaser in confidence and shall be used only for the purposes herein set forth.

17. LESSOR'S LIABILITY. The term "Lessor" as used herein shall mean only the owner or owners at the time in question of the fee title or a lessee's interest in a ground lease of the Premises, and except as expressly provided in Paragraph 15, in the event of any transfer of such title or interest. Lessor herein named (and in case of any subsequent transfers then the grantor) shall be relieved from and after the date of such transfer of all liability as respects Lessor's obligations thereafter to be performed, provided that any funds in the hands of Lessor or the then grantor at the time of such transfer, in which Lessee has an interest, shall be delivered to the grantee. The obligations contained in this Lease to be performed by Lessor shall, subject as aforesaid, be binding on Lessor's successors and assigns, only during their respective periods of ownership.

18. SEVERABILITY. The invalidity of any provision of this Lease as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall in no way affect the validity of any other provision hereof.

19. INTEREST ON PAST-DUE OBLIGATIONS. Except as expressly herein provided, any amount due to Lessor not paid when due shall bear interest at the maximum rate then allowable by law from the date due. Payment of such interest shall not excuse or cure any default by Lessee under this Lease, provided, however, that interest shall not be payable on late charges incurred by Lessee nor on any amounts upon which late charges are paid by Lessee.

20. TIME OF ESSENCE. Time is of the essence.

21. ADDITIONAL RENT. Any monetary obligations of Lessee to Lessor under the terms of this Lease shall be deemed to be rent.

22. INCORPORATION OF PRIOR AGREEMENTS; AMENDMENTS. This Lease contains all agreements of the parties with respect to any matter mentioned herein. No prior agreement or understanding pertaining to any such matter shall be effective. This Lease may be modified in writing only, signed by the parties in interest at the time of the modification. Except as otherwise stated in this Lease, Lessee hereby acknowledges that neither the real estate broker listed in Paragraph 15 hereof nor any cooperating broker on this transaction nor the Lessor or any employees or agents of any of said persons has made any oral or written warranties or representations to Lessee relative to the condition or use by Lessee of said Premises and Lessee acknowledges that Lessee assumes all responsibility regarding the Occupational Safety Health Act, the legal use and adaptability of the Premises and the compliance thereof with all applicable laws and regulations in effect during the term of this Lease except as otherwise specifically stated in this Lease.

23. NOTICES. Any notice required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and may be given by personal delivery or by certified mail, and if given personally or by mail, shall be deemed sufficiently given if addressed to Lessee or to Lessor at the address noted below the signature of the respective parties, as the case may be. Either party may by notice to the other specify a different address for notice purposes except that upon Lessee's taking possession of the Premises, the Premises shall constitute Lessee's address for notice purposes. A copy of all notices required or permitted to be given to Lessor hereunder shall be concurrently transmitted to such party or parties at such addresses as Lessor may from time to time hereafter designate by notice to Lessee.

24. WAIVERS. No waiver by Lessor or any provision hereof shall be deemed a waiver of any other provision hereof or of any subsequent breach by Lessee of the same or any other provision. Lessor's consent to, or approval of, any act shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of Lessor's consent to or approval of any subsequent act by Lessee. The acceptance of rent hereunder by Lessor shall not be a waiver of any preceding breach by Lessee of any provision hereof, other than the failure of Lessee to pay the particular rent so accepted, regardless of Lessor's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such rent.

25. RECORDING. Either Lessor or Lessee shall, upon request of the other, execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other a "short form" memorandum of this Lease for recording purposes.

26. HOLDING OVER. If Lessee, with Lessor's consent, remains in possession of the Premises or any part thereof after the expiration of the term hereof, such occupancy shall be a tenancy from month to month upon all the provisions of this Lease pertaining to the obligations of Lessee, but all options and rights of first refusal, if any, granted under the terms of this Lease shall be deemed terminated and be of no further effect during said month to month tenancy.

27. CUMULATIVE REMEDIES. No remedy or election hereunder shall be deemed exclusive but shall, wherever possible, be cumulative with all other remedies at law or in equity.

28. COVENANTS AND CONDITIONS. Each provision of this Lease performable by Lessee shall be deemed both a covenant and a condition.

29. BINDING EFFECT; CHOICE OF LAW. Subject to any provisions hereof restricting assignment or subletting by Lessee and subject to the provisions of Paragraph 17, this Lease shall bind the parties, their personal representatives, successors and assigns. This Lease shall be governed by the laws of the State wherein the Premises are located.

30. SUBORDINATION.

(a) This Lease, at Lessor's option, shall be subordinate to any ground lease, mortgage, deed of trust, or any other hypothecation or security now or hereafter placed upon the real property of which the Premises are a part and to any and all advances made on the security thereof and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. Notwithstanding such subordination, Lessee's right to quiet possession of the Premises shall not be disturbed if Lessee is not in default and so long as Lessee shall pay the rent and observe and perform all of the provisions of this Lease, unless this Lease is otherwise terminated pursuant to its terms. If any mortgagee, trustee or ground lessor shall elect to have this Lease prior to the lien of its mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease, and shall give written notice thereof to Lessee, this Lease shall be deemed prior to such mortgage, deed of trust, or ground lease, whether this Lease is dated prior or subsequent to the date of said mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease or the date of recording thereof.

(b) Lessee agrees to execute any documents required to effectuate an attornment, a subordination or to make this Lease prior to the lien of any mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease, as the case may be. Lessee's failure to execute such documents within 10 days after written demand shall constitute a material default by Lessee hereunder, or, at Lessor's option, Lessor shall execute such documents on behalf of Lessee as Lessee's attorney-in-fact. Lessee does hereby make, constitute and irrevocably appoint Lessor as Lessee's attorney-in-fact and in Lessee's name, place and stead, to execute such documents in accordance with this paragraph 30(b).

31. ATTORNEY'S FEES. If either party or the broker named herein brings an action to enforce the terms hereof or declare rights hereunder, the prevailing party in any such action, on trial or appeal, shall be entitled to his reasonable attorney's fees to be paid by the losing party as fixed by the court. The provisions of this paragraph shall inure to the benefit of the broker named herein who seeks to enforce a right hereunder.

32. LESSOR'S ACCESS. Lessor and Lessor's agents shall have the right to enter the Premises at reasonable times for the purpose of inspecting the same, showing the same to prospective purchasers, lenders, or lessees, and making such alterations, repairs, improvements or additions to the Premises or to the building of which they are a part as Lessor may deem necessary or desirable. Lessor may at any time place or about the Premises any ordinary "For Sale" signs and Lessor may at any time during the last 120 days of the term hereof place on or about the Premises any ordinary "For Lease" signs, all without rebate or rent or liability to Lessee.

33. AUCTIONS. Lessee shall not conduct, nor permit to be conducted, either voluntarily or involuntarily, any auction upon the Premises without first having obtained Lessor's prior written consent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, Lessor shall not be obligated to exercise any standard of reasonableness in determining whether to grant such consent.

34. SIGNS. Lessee shall not place any sign upon the Premises without Lessor's prior written consent except that Lessee shall have the right, without the prior permission of Lessor to place ordinary and usual for rent or sublet signs thereon.

35. MERGER. The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Lessee, or a mutual cancellation thereof, or a termination by Lessor, shall not work a merger, and shall, at the option of Lessor, terminate all or any existing subtenancies or may, at the option of Lessor, operate as an assignment to Lessor of any or all of such subtenancies.

36. CONSENTS. Except for paragraph 33 hereof, wherever in this Lease the consent of one party is required to an act of the other party such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

37. GUARANTOR. In the event that there is a guarantor of this Lease, said guarantor shall have the same obligations as Lessee under this Lease.

38. QUIET POSSESSION. Upon Lessee paying the rent for the Premises and observing and performing all of the covenants, conditions and provisions on Lessee's part to be observed and performed hereunder, Lessee shall have quiet possession of the Premises for the entire term hereof subject to all of the provisions of this Lease. The individuals executing this Lease on behalf of Lessor represent and warrant to Lessee that they are fully authorized and legally capable of executing this Lease on behalf of Lessor and that such execution is binding upon all parties holding an ownership interest in the Premises.

39.1 DEFINITION. As used in this paragraph the word "Options" has the following meaning: (1) the right or option to extend the term of this Lease or to renew this Lease or to extend or renew any lease that Lessee has on other property of Lessor; (2) the option or right of first refusal to lease the Premises or the right of first offer to lease the Premises or the right of first refusal to lease other property of Lessor or the right of first offer to lease other property of Lessor; (3) the right or option to purchase the Premises, or the right of first refusal to purchase the Premises, or the right of first offer to purchase the Premises or the right or option to purchase other property of Lessor, or the right of first refusal to purchase other property of Lessor or the right of first offer to purchase other property of Lessor.

39.2 OPTIONS PERSONAL. Each Option granted to Lessee in this Lease are personal to Lessee and may not be exercised or be assigned voluntarily or involuntarily by or to any person or entity other than Lessee, provided however, the Option may be exercised by or assigned to any Lessee Affiliate as defined in paragraph 12.2 of this Lease. The Options herein granted to Lessee are not assignable separate and apart from this Lease.

39.3 MULTIPLE OPTIONS. In the event that Lessee has any multiple options to extend or renew this Lease a later option cannot be exercised unless the prior option to extend or renew this Lease has been so exercised.

39.4 EFFECT OF DEFAULT ON OPTIONS.

(a) Lessee shall have no right to exercise an Option, notwithstanding any provision in the grant of Option to the contrary. (i) during the time commencing from the date Lessor gives to Lessee a notice of default pursuant to paragraph 13.1(b) or 13.1(c) and continuing until the default alleged in said notice of default is cured, or (ii) during the period of time commencing on the day after a monetary obligation to Lessor is due from Lessee and unpaid (without any necessity for notice thereof to Lessee) continuing until the obligation is paid, or (iii) at any time after an event of default described in paragraphs 13.1(a), 13.1(d), or 13.1(e) (without any necessity of Lessor to give notice of such default to Lessee), or (iv) in the event that Lessor has given to Lessee three or more notices of default under paragraph 13.1(b), where a late charge has become payable under paragraph 13.4 for each of such defaults, or paragraph 13.1(c), whether or not the defaults are cured, during the 12 month period prior to the time that Lessee intends to exercise the subject Option.

(b) The period of time within which an Option may be exercised shall not be extended or enlarged by reason of Lessee's inability to exercise an Option because of the provisions of paragraph 39.4(a).

(c) All rights of Lessee under the provisions of an Option shall terminate and be of no further force or effect, notwithstanding Lessee's due and timely exercise of the Option, if, after such exercise and during the term of this Lease, (i) Lessee fails to pay to Lessor a monetary obligation of Lessee for a period of 30 days after such obligation becomes due (without any necessity of Lessor to give notice thereof to Lessee), or (ii) Lessee fails to commence to cure a default specified in paragraph 13.1(c) within 30 days after the date that Lessor gives notice to Lessee of such default and/or Lessee fails thereafter to diligently prosecute said cure to completion, or (iii) Lessee commits a default described in paragraph 13.1(a), 13.1(d) or 13.1(e) (without any necessity of Lessor to give notice of such default to Lessee), or (iv) Lessor gives to Lessee three or more notices of default under paragraph 13.1(b), where a late charge becomes payable under paragraph 13.4 for each such default, or paragraph 13.1(c), whether or not the defaults are cured.

40. MULTIPLE TENANT BUILDING. In the event that the Premises are part of a larger building or group of buildings then Lessee agrees that it will abide by, keep and observe all reasonable rules and regulations which Lessor may make from time to time for the management, safety, care, and cleanliness of the building and grounds, the parking of vehicles and the preservation of good order therein as well as for the convenience of other occupants and tenants of the building. The violations of any such rules and regulations shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease by Lessee.

41. SECURITY MEASURES. Lessee hereby acknowledges that the rental payable to Lessor hereunder does not include the cost of guard service or other security measures, and that Lessor shall have no obligation whatsoever to provide same. Lessee assumes all responsibility for the protection of Lessee, its agents and invitees from acts of third parties.

42. EASEMENTS. Lessor reserves to itself the right, from time to time, to grant such easements, rights and dedications that Lessor deems necessary or desirable, and to cause the recordation of Parcel Maps and restrictions, so long as such easements, rights, dedications. Maps and restrictions do not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Premises by Lessee. Lessee shall sign any of the aforementioned documents upon request of Lessor and failure to do so shall constitute a material breach of this Lease.

43. PERFORMANCE UNDER PROTEST. If at any time a dispute shall arise as to any amount or sum of money to be paid by one party to the other under the provisions hereof, the party against whom the obligation to pay the money is asserted shall have the right to make payment "under protest" and such payment shall not be regarded as a voluntary payment, and there shall survive the right on the part of said party to institute suit for recovery of such sum. If it shall be adjudged that there was no legal obligation on the part of said party to pay such sum or any part thereof, said party shall be entitled to recover such sum or so much thereof as it was not legally required to pay under the provisions of this Lease.

44. AUTHORITY. If Lessee is a corporation, trust, or general or limited partnership, each individual executing this Lease on behalf of such entity represents and warrants that he or she is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Lease on behalf of said entity. If Lessee is a corporation, trust or partnership, Lessee shall, within thirty (30) days after execution of this Lease, deliver to Lessor evidence of such authority satisfactory to Lessor.

45. CONFLICT. Any conflict between the printed provisions of this Lease and the typewritten or handwritten provisions shall be controlled by the typewritten or handwritten provisions.

48. Option Clause: Tenant, at Tenant's option, by giving Landlord 180 days written notice before the expiration of this lease, may extend the term of the lease for three (3) three (3) separate additional period of five (5) years, provided Tenant is not in default hereunto at time option is exercised and at the time of option period.

All terms remain the same excepting rental agreed to by lessor and lessee. If rental is not agreed to by lessors or lessee then the Landlord and Tenant shall thereupon determine the appraised rent as set forth in section A below. However, in no event shall the rent be less than the ending rental of the lease.

A. Appraised Rent. Appraised Rent shall mean the triple net fair market rent a willing tenant would pay a willing landlord in an arm's-length transaction exclusive of a brokerage commission. The value of improvements to the Premises made or paid for by Tenant shall not be included in the determination of Appraised Rent. Further, the value to the Premises of the leasehold created by this Lease shall not be included in the determination of Appraised Rent. The parties shall attempt to mutually determine the Appraised Rent for the Premises. If the parties are unable to agree on the Appraised Rent within thirty (30) days following delivery of Tenant's notice of intent to exercise its option to extend, each party shall appoint an independent appraiser who shall be a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers with at least five (5) years experience in appraising commercial properties in the Sacramento, California area, to appraise and determine the Appraised Rent for the Premises. If a party does not appoint an appraiser within ten (10) days after the other party has given written notice of the name of its appraiser, the single appraiser appointed shall be the sole appraiser and shall set the Appraised Rent for the Premises. The two (2) appraisers shall attempt to determine the Appraised Rent for the Premises. If the appraisers are unable to agree within thirty (30) days after the second appraiser has been appointed, the appraisers shall elect a third independent appraiser meeting the qualifications stated above. If the two (2) appraisers are unable to agree upon a third appraiser within a ten (10) day period, then either appraiser within five (5) day period, on behalf of both, may petition the presiding judge of the Superior Court of the County in which the Premises is located to appoint the third appraiser. Within thirty (30) days after the appointment of the third appraiser, the third appraiser shall determine the Appraised Rent for the Premises. This third appraisal shall then be averaged with the closer of the two (2) previous appraisals for a determination of the Appraised Rent for the Premises which will be binding to both parties and become effective for the option period. Each party shall pay the costs of the appraiser appointed by such party and one-half of the cost of the third appraiser. The appraisers shall have no power to modify the provisions of this Lease and the jurisdiction of the appraisers is limited accordingly.

49. Tenant shall do all future tenant improvements at tenant's expense during the lease terms and any options.

50. Tenant will execute estoppel and subordination certificates on forms required by lender. Any such requirements may include, but not be limited to tenant notifying lender of any breach by lessor with lender having an opportunity to cure same. Failure to timely sign such documents or those pursuant to lease paragraph 1.8 will result in a material breach of this lease.

51. Tenant's Quitclaim: At the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord, within ten (10) days after written demand from landlord to Tenant, any quitclaim deed or other document required by any reputable title company, licensed to operate in the State of California, to remove the cloud or encumbrance created by this Lease from the real property of which Tenant's Premises are a part. This obligation shall survive said expiration or termination.

52. The rent as set forth in paragraph 4 of this lease agreement shall be increased if Consumer Price Index - for all urban consumers - San Francisco-Oakland - all items (Index) as published by the United States Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics increases over the base period index. The base period index shall be the Index for the calendar month which is four months prior to the month in which the rentals commence (the month and each yearly anniversary thereof in which the rent hereunder commences shall be known as the rental commencement month). The base period index shall be compared with the Index for the same calendar month for each subsequent year (comparison month). If the Index for any comparison month is higher than the base period index, then the rental for the next year shall be increased by the identical percentage commencing with the next rental commencement month. In no event shall the rental be less than the preceding year of this lease agreement. (By the way of illustration only, if Tenant commenced paying rent in August 1977, then the base period index is that of April 1977 (assume 130) and the Index shall be compared with the Index for April 1978 (assume 136), and because the Index for April 1987 is 4.61% higher, the rental commencing August 1978 shall be 4.61% higher; likewise the Index for April 1979 shall be compared with the Index for April 1977). Lease escalations to be based on the above annual cumulative CPI increases adjusted every 24 months.

Should the Bureau discontinue the publication of the above Index, or publish same less frequently, or alter same in some other manner, then Landlord shall adopt a substitute Index or substitute procedure which reasonably reflects and monitors consumer prices.

53. Lessee's Covenants Regarding Hazardous Materials.

(A) Compliance with Environmental Laws. Lessee shall at all times and in all respects comply with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations ("Hazardous Materials Laws") relating to industrial hygiene, environmental protection or the use, analysis, generation, manufacture, storage, disposal or transportation of any oil, flammable explosives, asbestos, urea formaldehyde, radioactive materials or waste, or other hazardous, toxic, contaminated or polluting materials, substances or wastes, including, without limitation, any "hazardous substances," "hazardous wastes," "hazardous materials" or "toxic substances" under any such laws, ordinances or regulations (collectively, "Hazardous Materials").

(B) Hazardous Materials Handling. Lessee shall at its own expense procure, maintain in effect and comply with all conditions of any and all permits, licenses and other governmental and regulatory approvals required for Lessee's use of the Premises, including, without limitation, discharge of (appropriately treated) materials or wastes into or through any sanitary sewer serving the Premises. Except as discharged into the sanitary sewer in strict accordance and conformity with all applicable Hazardous Materials Laws, Lessee shall cause any and all Hazardous Materials removed from the Premises to be removed and transported solely by duly licensed haulers to duly licensed facilities for final disposal of such materials and wastes. Lessee shall in all respects handle, treat, deal with and manage any and all Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises in total conformity with all applicable Hazardous Materials Laws and prudent industry practices regarding management of such Hazardous Materials. Upon expiration or earlier termination of the term of the Lease, Lessee shall cause all Hazardous Materials to be removed from the Premises and transported for use, storage or disposal in accordance and compliance with all applicable Hazardous Materials Laws. Lessee shall not take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in any way connected with the Premises, without first notifying Lessor of Lessee's intention to do so and affording Lessor ample opportunity to appear, intervene or otherwise appropriately assert and protect Lessor's interest with respect thereto.

(C) Notices relating to hazardous materials or property violations. Lessee shall immediately notify Lessor in writing of: (i) any enforcement, cleanup, removal or other governmental or regulatory action instituted, completed or threatened pursuant to any Hazardous Materials Laws; (ii) any claim made or threatened by any person against Lessee, the Premises relating to damage, contribution, cost recovery compensation, loss or injury resulting from or claimed to result from any Hazardous Materials; and (iii) any reports made to any environmental agency arising out of or in connection with any Hazardous Materials in or removed from the Premises, including any complaints, notices, warnings or asserted violations in connection therewith. Lessee shall also supply to Lessor as promptly as possible, and in any event within five (5) business days after Lessee first receives or sends the same, with copies of all claims, reports, complaints, notices, warnings or asserted violations relating in any way to the Premises or Lessee's use thereof. Lessee shall promptly deliver to Lessor copies of hazardous waste manifests reflecting the legal and proper disposal of all Hazardous Materials removed from the Premises.

54. Indemnification of Lessor. Lessee shall indemnify, defend (by counsel reasonably acceptable to Lessor), protect, and hold Lessor, and each of Lessor's partners, employees, agents, attorneys, successors and assigns, free and harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities, penalties, forfeitures, losses or expenses (including attorney's fees) or death of or injury to any person or damage to any property whatsoever, arising from or caused in whole or in part, directly to indirectly, by (i) the presence in, on, under or about the Premises or discharge in or from the Premises of any Hazardous materials of Lessee's use, analysis, storage, transportation, disposal, release, threatened release, discharge or generation of Hazardous materials to, in, on, under, about or from the Premises, or (ii) Lessee's failure to comply with any Hazardous Materials Law. Lessee's obligations hereunder shall include, without limitation, and whether foreseeable or unforeseeable, all costs of any required or necessary repair, cleanup or detoxification or decontamination of the Premises, and the preparation and implementation of any closure, remedial action or other required plans in connection therewith, and shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the term of the Lease. For purposes of the release and indemnity provisions hereof, any acts or omissions of Lessee, or by employees, agents, assignees, contractors or subcontractors of Lessee (whether or not they are negligent, intentional, willful or unlawful) shall be strictly attributable to Lessee.

55. Lessee or lessor shall have the benefit of all construction and equipment warranties affecting the real property and all of its improvements.

56. Assignment and Subletting. Lessee shall be entitled to receive all rents and profits paid to Lessee by reason of any assignment or subletting.

On the Commencement Date of the Lease, the Prior Lease shall terminate and be removed as an Exhibit and Exhibit "A-1" shall be physically removed as an Exhibit to this Lease.

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW IMPROVEMENTS

1.1 General. Landlord and Tenant agree that Landlord shall construct an additional approximate 72,000 square feet as more fully described and as set forth in Exhibit "B" (which shall include a Tenant Building Specification Sheet, Tenant approved drawings, plans and specifications, attached hereto and made a part hereof by reference. Upon completion of the new construction and upon the issuance of a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy therefor, or a Temporary Certificate to be followed by a Permanent Certificate, the premises described in Exhibit "A" and the premises shown on Exhibit "B" shall be deemed one premises and shall thereafter be subject to performance of the terms, covenants and conditions set forth in this Lease beginning with Section 1 through Section 26. Tenant recognizes and acknowledges that Landlord will expend substantial amounts of money, time and effort in the construction of new improvements as contemplated hereunder, and both Landlord and Tenant hereby affirm the binding effect of this Lease upon the mutual execution hereof, and limited only by any rights of termination as may be set forth herein. Upon execution hereof, Landlord will commence the following improvements at Landlord's sole cost and expense, all of which shall be completed as soon as practicable but in no event, later than August 15, 1993. Preliminary drawings, plans and specifications have been initialed and approved by both Landlord and Tenant. The legal description of the Parcel upon which the Premises is located is depicted on Exhibit "C", attached hereto and made a part hereof by reference.

1.2 Plans and Specifications; Binding Effect of Prior Lease. Landlord agrees that it will, after execution of this Lease Agreement in accordance with plans and specifications for the 72,000 square feet addition in accordance with Exhibit "B", initialed by the parties contemporaneously with the execution of this Lease Agreement, prepare and provide, within thirty (30) days of the date hereof and at its sole cost and expense, final plans and specifications which must be approved in writing by Tenant before Tenant becomes obligated under the terms and provisions of this Lease. If Tenant does not approve the final plans and specifications, or if Landlord fails to provide Tenant with such final plans and specifications, Tenant may terminate this Lease. Any termination of this Lease by Tenant prior to the Commencement Date shall not affect its duties and obligations under the Prior Lease which Tenant has assumed. Once the final plans and specifications have been approved by the Tenant, the Landlord shall commence any demolition and removal, if any is required, and diligently proceed (but in no event later than sixty [60] days after such approval of the final plans and specifications, provided however that if a delay beyond sixty [60] days is caused by a delay in the issuance of any necessary permit or license required for demolition or construction, Landlord shall have one hundred twenty [120] days to proceed) at its expense with the construction of the improvements as required in the approved plans and specifications and diligently prosecute the work to completion. The work required by the final plans and specifications shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Improvements". True and correct copies of the initially approved plans and specifications are attached hereto, marked Exhibit "B", and are incorporated herein by reference. In the event that the drawings, plans and specifications so approved are so voluminous as to make it impracticable to attach copies to the Lease, the Landlord and Tenant may agree to attach, in place of such drawings, plans and specifications, a statement signed by both indicating the location and custody of the original drawings, plans and specifications and an agreement that such will remain as Exhibits to the Lease even though not attached hereto.

1.3 Construction. Landlord shall cause the construction work for which it is responsible hereunder to be performed in a good and workmanlike manner without unreasonably interfering with Tenant's occupancy and use of the Premises covered by the Prior Lease. Landlord represents the improvements will be substantially complete on or before June 15, 1993, unless delays are caused by events or occurrences beyond the control of Landlord, as more particularly described in Section 20.

1.4 Completion. The work shall be deemed completed when all work specified on the plans and specifications has been completed, except for "punch-list" items and such other items as will not substantially interfere with Tenant's beneficial use and occupancy thereof and a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy has been issued for the building or the portion thereof to be occupied by Tenant. If, however, the issuance of such Certificate of Occupancy is delayed by reason of Tenant's work, installation of Tenant's equipment, or Tenant's application for use permits or licenses or other governmental inspections or requirements occasioned by Tenant's use of the Premises, the term of this Lease shall coincide with the completion of Landlord's work, as aforesaid, and the Certificate of Occupancy shall be obtained thereafter upon completion of Tenant's work.

1.5 Tenant's Work. Tenant, at it's own cost and subject to all the terms of this Lease, may perform work in the building concurrently with Landlord's work, to fit the building for Tenant's occupancy, provided such work does not interfere with Landlord's contractor or, if no labor discord would be caused thereby, through Tenant's own contractor and/or employees.

1.6 Possession. If Landlord shall fail to substantially complete the construction of the Improvements by June 15, 1993, Landlord shall be in default hereunder unless the Improvements shall not have been substantially complete on or before such date because of any delay due to the enumerated contingencies in Section 20. If Landlord shall fail to substantially complete the construction of the Improvements by such date plus any additional time due to an enumerated contingency, or in any event by August 15, 1993, Tenant may terminate this Lease by giving Landlord written notice of its intention to do so, and Landlord and Tenant shall thereupon be relieved of all liability hereunder.

1.7 Modifications. If in connection with obtaining construction and/or permanent financing for this project, a bank, insurance company, pension trust or other institutional lender shall request reasonable modifications in this Lease Agreement as a condition of such financing, Landlord and Tenant will not unreasonably withhold, delay or condition their consent thereto, provided that such modifications do not increase the obligations of either party hereunder or materially adversely affect the respective interests of either party.

1.8 Warranties. Landlord shall obtain and assign to Tenant warranties from Landlord's general contractor respecting the construction of the Improvements on the 72,000 square feet addition which shall warrant such improvements to be free of defects in material and workmanship for a one (1) year period from the Commencement Date.

1.9 Objections. Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing as soon as Landlord deems said Improvements to be substantially completed. In the event that said Improvements have not in fact been substantially completed as aforesaid, Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing of its objections. Landlord shall have a reasonable time (but not less than ten (10) days) after delivery of such notice in which to commence corrective action as may be necessary, and shall notify Tenant in writing as soon as it deems such corrective action has been completed so that said Improvements are substantially completed. Landlord shall diligently pursue such corrective action to completion.

PREMISES

2.1 Leasehold. Landlord hereby leases unto Tenant and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord, subject to the terms of this Lease, the real property located at the corner of Roseville Road and B Way, Sacramento County, California, more particularly described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof together with all improvements, easements, rights and appurtenances in connection therewith and all improvements now or hereafter located thereon. Notwithstanding the above, Landlord makes no representations or warranties concerning the nature of Tenant's business activities or Tenant's uses of the building and whether said business or use conforms to existing law. As to Tenant's business and uses, Tenant shall bear the sole responsibility for determining compliance with existing law, except that Landlord represents and warrants that the Tenant's proposed use as an office and warehouse is permitted use under the Applicable Laws relating to the Property.

(c) Except for violations caused by the Tenant, or Tenant's predecessor in interest under the Prior Lease, the Premises, at Tenant's occupancy date, shall not be in violation of any Applicable Laws pertaining to health or the environment (hereinafter sometimes collectively called "Applicable Environmental Laws"), including without limitation the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 ("CERCLA"), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976 ("RCRA"), any California laws and regulations regulating water and the maintenance or disposal of solid waste, and this representation and warranty would continue to be true and correct following disclosure to the applicable governmental authorities of all relevant facts, conditions and circumstances, if any, pertaining to the Premises;

(f) There are no unpaid charges, costs, or expenses for improvements in, on, or upon the Premises which might form the basis for affixation of any type of mechanic's, materialman's, laborer's, artisan's, or other statutory lien; and

(g) Except as hereinafter provided, there are no actions, suits, or proceedings pending, or to the knowledge of Landlord, threatened against or affecting the Premises or any portion thereof or relating to the ownership thereof, before any court or before or by any federal, state, county, or municipal department, commission, board, bureau, agency, or other governmental instrumentality.

(h) The Premises and Building will be built and constructed in a good and workmanlike manner, free from defects. Landlord specifically warrants the structural soundness of the Premises and Building to be free from defects. The Landlord further warrants and represents that all plumbing and electrical improvements will be constructed in a good and workmanlike manner free from defects in accordance with the plans and specifications described in Section 1.1. Landlord makes this warranty which shall endure for a period of one (1) year from the Commencement Date and shall only apply to the construction of the 72,000 square feet addition.

(i) However, recognizing that Tenant, and Tenant's predecessor in interest, have had exclusive possession of the Premises since November 19, 1990, the representations and warranties of Landlord set forth herein do not extend to any matter, event or occurrence caused by Tenant, or Tenant's predecessor in interest.

(j) Landlord has taken all steps necessary to determine and has determined that no Hazardous Materials or solid wastes have been disposed of or otherwise released on, in or to the Premises, as of the Commencement Date of the Prior Lease, but makes no representation or warranty with reference to Hazardous Materials after the Commencement Date of the Prior Lease.

2.3 Tenant's Environmental Compliance.

(a) Tenant shall bear any liability and be required to process at its own cost, any use license, permit, toxic waste management plan or other governmental permission or review required by any rule, regulation or law relative to Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises. The effective date for performance of this Lease by Tenant shall not be changed, extended or delayed for failure of Tenant to obtain said license or permit.

(b) Reporting Requirements. Tenant or any occupant, sublessee or assignee (collectively "User"), shall be required to report to the City or County Division of Environmental Health or other applicable governmental agency, all hazardous and extremely hazardous materials handled, stored, used, generated or manufactured on the Premises as required by the California Health and Safety Code, and all other Federal, State and local statutes and regulations. Any such User shall be required to clean up and abate any environmental pollution and/or contamination resulting from the User's use, generation, storage, manufacture, handling, spillage, of hazardous and/or extremely hazardous materials upon the Premises. Tenant shall be required to adhere to all Federal and State statutes, laws, rules, regulations and orders regulating the presence, use, storage and disposal of toxic or hazardous materials.

(c) Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Material to be brought upon, kept or used in or about the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, without the prior written consent of Landlord (which Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold as long as Tenant demonstrates to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction that such Hazardous Material is necessary or useful to Tenant's business and will be used, kept and stored in a manner that complies with all laws relating to any such Hazardous Material so brought upon or used or kept in or about the Premises). Landlord hereby consents to Tenant bringing upon, storing and/or using in or about the Premises, all products carried from time to time in its catalog and/or offered generally for sale to its customers, however Tenant shall be solely responsible for product compliance with all Applicable Laws. If Tenant breaches the obligations stated in this paragraph, then Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold Landlord Harmless from any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities or losses (including, without limitation, diminution in value of the Premises, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable or useable space or of any amenity of the Premises, damages arising from any adverse impact on marketing of the Premises, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorneys' fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise during or after the lease term as a result of such contamination. The indemnification set forth herein shall run to the benefit of any bank or other lender to which Landlord or Landlord's successors and assigns may grant a security interest in the Premises and/or the Premises. This indemnification of Landlord by Tenant includes, without limitation, costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any cleanup, remedial, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local government agency or political subdivision because of Hazardous Material present in the soil or ground water on or under the Premises caused or permitted by Tenant. Without limiting the foregoing, if the presence of any Hazardous Material on the Premises caused or permitted by Tenant results in contamination of the Premises, Tenant shall promptly take all actions at its sole expense as are necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior its introduction of any such Hazardous Material to the Premises; provided that Landlord's approval of such actions shall first be obtained, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld as long as such actions would not potentially have any material adverse long-term or short-term effect on the Premises.

As used herein, the term "Hazardous Material" means any hazardous or toxic substance, material or waste which is or becomes regulated by any local governmental authority, the State of California or the United States Government. The term "Hazardous Material" includes, without limitation, any material or substance which is (i) defined as a "hazardous waste," "extremely hazardous waste" or "restricted hazardous waste" under Sections 25115, 25117 or 25122.7, or listed pursuant to Section 25140 of the California Health and Safety Code, Division 20, Chapter 6.5 (Hazardous Waste Control Law); (ii) defined as a "hazardous substance" under Section 25316 of the California Health and Safety Code, Division 20, Chapter 6.8 (Carpenter-Presley-Tanner Hazardous Substance Account Act); (iii) defined as a "hazardous material," "hazardous substance" or "hazardous waste" under Section 25501 of the California Health and Safety Code, Division 20, Chapter 6.95 (Hazardous Materials Release Response Plans and Inventory); (iv) defined as a "hazardous substance" under Section 25281 of the California Health and Safety Code, Division 20, Chapter 6.7 (Underground Storage of Hazardous Substances); (v) petroleum; (vi) asbestos; (vii) listed under Article 9 or deemed as hazardous or extremely hazardous pursuant to Article II or Title 22 of the California Administrative Code, Division 4, Chapter 20; (viii) designated as a "hazardous substance" pursuant to Section 1004 of the Federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6901 et. seq. (42 U.S.C. Section 6903); (ix) defined as "hazardous substance" pursuant to Section 101 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9601 et. seq. (42 U.S.C. Section 9601); or (x) any substance requiring remediation under any federal, state, municipal or other governmental statute, ordinance, rule, regulation or policy.

2.4 Parties' Rights and Obligations. Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event any environmental hazard is discovered on or about the Premises that relates to any violation or obligation under any Applicable Environmental Laws, and it is the direct result of Landlord's activities on the Premises, or preexisted the Commencement Date (unless caused or permitted by Tenant or Tenant's predecessor-in-interest), then Landlord shall, within twenty (20) days of written request from Tenant, undertake to remedy said violation of Applicable Environmental Law, provided, however, such violation or obligation is not a direct result of the Tenant's release or storage of a Hazardous Material in or about the Premises. The obligation of Tenant to pay rent shall not abate during the remedy period unless Tenant is unable to use the Premises as intended or if the use thereof may constitute a health risk or hazard to Tenant or Tenant's agents, employees and invitees. It is the Parties' intent that any violation or obligation so imposed that is a result of the construction of the Building, the construction of any improvements on or about the Premises by Landlord, its predecessors in interest or by other tenants or other parties in possession, or the use of the Building and/or Premises by parties other than the Tenant or Tenant's predecessor-in-interest, shall not be deemed to be a direct result of Tenant's release or storage of any Hazardous Material. The term Tenant, for the purpose of this paragraph, shall include Tenant's invitees, licensees, permitted users, subtenants or predecessors having a leasehold interest in all or part of the Premises. Should Landlord decline in writing to remedy said violation, or should said violation not be remedied within 120 days of said notice to Landlord, the Tenant may, upon twenty (20) days written notice, terminate this Lease.

TERM

3.1 Commencement. The term of this Lease shall commence on the Commencement Date as defined in paragraph 2.1. In no event, shall the obligation of Tenant to begin paying rent accrue prior to the Commencement Date, unless Tenant takes full possession of the Premises under a legal occupancy permit prior to such Commencement Date, in which case Tenant shall pay rent from the actual occupancy date according to the schedule contained in Section 4.1 (Monthly Rent), 4.2 (Additional Rent), 4.3 (Partial Month) and 4.4 (Interest on Late Payments).

3.2 Term. The term of this Lease shall continue for One Hundred Eighty (180) full months from the Commencement Date, as specified in Section 3.1.

4.1 Monthly Rent. The consideration for the one hundred eighty (180) full months of this Lease (exclusive of Additional Rent, as herein set forth, and exclusive of Base Monthly Rent for the first partial calendar month, if any, following the Commencement Date) shall be based on the following Rent formulas and computation:

The Base Monthly Rent herein is calculated by adding two separate rent rates described as follows: (a) the first rate encompasses 195,284 square feet (the square footage constructed pursuant to the Prior Lease or March 6, 1990) (Exhibit A) and described in Section 4.1(a), and (b) the second rate encompasses approximately 72,000 square feet as more fully described in Section 1 of this Lease (construction of new improvements) and Exhibit "B" and described in Section 4.1(b).

MONTHS	NUMBER OF SQ. FEET	BASE MONTHLY RENT
4.1(a): 1-30	195,284	$65,329.44

</TABLE>

The Base Monthly Rent set forth above shall be adjusted at the end of each thirty (30) month period by adding to said Base Monthly Rent an amount equal to ninety-five percent (95%) of the increases over the prior thirty (30) month period in an average of the Consumer Price Index for (1) all Urban Consumers, All Items (San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose Metropolitan Area), and (2) the National United States City Average, 1982-84=100, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics ("CPI"). Any increase in Monthly Base Rent caused by increases in CPI shall not result in a Base Monthly Rent greater than one hundred twelve percent (112%) of $65,329.44; plus

4.1(b): 1-30 72,000 $15,480.00

In the event that the new improvements described in Section 1 of this Lease result in square footage greater than or less than 72,000 square feet, the Lease shall be amended to reflect the change in square footage and the resulting change in Monthly Base Rent. The Monthly Base Rent for the 72,000 square feet is calculated on twenty-one and one-half cents (.215) per square foot per month.

Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord on the Commencement Date and thereafter on the first (1st) day of every calendar month thereafter for the first full one hundred eighty (180) months of the term of this Lease, in lawful money of the United States of America, without notice or demand, the amounts described and calculated immediately above in this Section 4.1.

The Base Monthly Rent for the entire Premises shall be the sum of the two Base Monthly Rent figures above set forth. The Base Monthly Rent for months 31 through 180 shall be adjusted every thirty (30) months from the Commencement Date, based on 95% of the increases in an average of the Consumer Price Index for (1) all Urban Consumers, All Items (San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose Metropolitan Area), and (2) the National United States City average, 1982-81=100, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding sentence, the rent after adjustment shall not be greater than 112.0 percent (112.0%) of the rent for the preceding thirty (30) month period.

4.2 Additional Rent. Tenant shall also be obligated to pay directly as "Additional Rent" hereunder all "Property Taxes" and "All-risk Insurance" (as such terms are hereinafter defined) with respect to each calendar year of the Lease Term:

(i) Property Taxes:

(a) The term "Property Taxes" for the purposes of this Lease means all general and special ad valorem real estate taxes, all special assessments for local improvements, and all other similar general and special ordinary and extraordinary, governmental charges assessed, levied, charged, or imposed upon the Premises or Building during the term of the Lease, or any holdover or renewal period, by any political or governmental body, or subdivision thereof, having jurisdiction over the Premises or Building; excluding, however, franchise, estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, transfer, income, employment, head or excess profits tax imposed upon Landlord. In the event that any political body, or sub-division thereof, or any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Premises or Building imposes a tax, assessment, or charge that is calculated by a method that values the rents payable by Tenant to Landlord, by way of substitution for the taxes and assessments levied against the Premises or Building, such tax, assessment, or charge may be deemed to constitute a Property Tax for purposes of this Lease. Landlord shall not initiate any procedure for placement of improvement bonds upon the Premises.

(b) Tenant shall pay directly to the appropriate taxing authority, before the same become delinquent, all Property Taxes levied or assessed against the Premises or Building during the Lease term.

(ii) All Risk Insurance. Tenant shall maintain standard "all-risk" insurance, acceptable in the State of California, insuring the full value of the Building, excluding cost of land, foundation, and footings (the "All-risk Insurance"), as set forth in Section 8.5

With reference to the 72,000 square feet addition referred to in Section 1 above, Landlord and Tenant shall cause an inspection of the Premises to be made simultaneously with the Commencement Date at a mutually agreeable time by their respective representatives to determine and record the condition of the Premises. These representatives shall prepare and sign a statement indicating any defects, damage or deterioration existing at the time of the inspections. Tenant shall not be responsible to return any item on said statement to Landlord in a condition better than its condition on the date of the inspection indicated on said statement. However, Landlord specifically agrees to promptly undertake appropriate repairs to the Building heating, ventilation, air conditioning system (HVAC), the electrical system and wiring (including computer requirements), roof, doors, docks doors, floor, security system (including security lighting), interior lighting and sprinklers upon execution of this Lease Agreement.

4.3 Partial Month. If the term shall commence upon a day other than the first (1st) day of a calendar month, or shall end upon a day other than the last day of the calendar month, then Tenant shall pay upon such Commencement Date and on the first (1st) day of the last calendar month, one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the Base Monthly Rent as set forth in Section 4.1 hereof, if any, for each day of such fractional calendar month.

4.4 Interest on Late Payments. In the event that Tenant fails to pay any installment of Base Monthly Rent or Additional Rent when such installment is due, the total amount then due shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum until paid after Landlord has given Tenant twenty (20) days written notice of its obligation and/or delinquency, provided however, that if Landlord has given such notice twice during any consecutive twelve (12) month period, then Tenant shall pay such interest hereunder agreed to without the requirement of written notice.

USE

5.1 Prescribed Use. Tenant shall use the Premises for offices and warehouse and reasonably related activities.

5.2 Nuisance. Neither Landlord nor Tenant shall commit, or suffer to be committed, upon the Premises, any nuisance or thing which may disturb the quiet enjoyment of Tenant or any other lessee or any person or business within a reasonable distance from the Premises.

5.3 Compliance with Laws. Landlord and Tenant shall comply with all laws ordinances, orders, rules and regulations promulgated by all federal, state, county, municipal bodies and agencies having jurisdiction, which laws, ordinances, orders, rules and regulations relate to the business of Landlord and Tenant.

5.4 Dangerous Goods and Activities. Tenant hereby agrees not to engage in any activity or store upon the Premises such goods or equipment which would render the insurance described in Section 4.2 (ii) hereof void.

UTILITIES

Tenant shall be responsible for and promptly pay all charges incurred for all utility services to the Premises, including, but not limited to water, natural gas, sanitary sewer, electricity and telephone. Tenant shall also provide all replacement light bulbs and tubes after the Commencement Date of this Lease.

MAINTENANCE

7.1 Landlord's Obligations. Landlord shall, at its sole expense, maintain the structural soundness of the roof, roof trusses and structure of the exterior walls and of the foundation, downspouts and roof gutters attached to exterior Premises (other than for damages caused by Tenant's operation), concealed plumbing, electrical and other repairs due to defective construction, installation or design, reasonable wear and tear and events covered by the destruction provisions hereof excepted. The phrase "exterior walls" shall not include windows or glass or plate glass, doors, window mullions or gaskets or signs. Landlord shall also remedy or remove any inherent safety problems or risks that may arise or exist because of hazardous or toxic materials used in Building or construction of the Building or improvements. Provided, however, that Landlord shall not be responsible for the following: (a) damage to the roof, exterior walls, and/or foundation resulting from the negligent act or acts, or omissions of Tenant, or Tenant's employees, contractors, agents, vendors, materialmen, suppliers, customers, invitees or concessionaires; and (b) the upkeep or repair of any air conditioning, heating, ventilation or refrigeration systems used or required for the Premises except as otherwise provided herein.

7.2 Tenant's Obligations.

Provided, however, Tenant shall incur no liability or expenses relative to reasonably required repair or removal of hazardous substances, if any, in or about the Building except as set forth hereinabove. Tenant shall also be responsible for the cleaning and sweeping of Tenant's parking spaces as designated by Landlord pursuant to the terms of Section 21. Tenant shall be responsible for the disposal of its trash and will maintain adequate receptacles for such disposal. Replacement and repair parts, materials, and equipment shall be of quality equivalent to those initially installed within the Premises; repair and maintenance work shall be done in accordance with the then existing federal, state and local

Upon any termination of this Lease, Tenant shall surrender the Premises in a condition and repair similar to their original condition, reasonable wear and tear, events of destruction, and modifications, alterations and improvements for office facilities, storage, lighting and sprinklers excepted.

The term "Original Condition" shall refer to the condition of the 195,284 square feet referred to in Section 3.1 above and Exhibit "A" to this Lease as it existed on November 19, 1990; and shall refer to the condition of the 72,000 square feet addition set forth in Exhibit "B" on the Commencement Date.

It is understood that the provisions of this Section 8.2 shall not be applicable to any such claims, actions, liabilities, or expenses, arising out of any negligent act or omission, or intentional misconduct, of Tenant, its agents, materialmen, vendors or suppliers.

8.3 Waiver of Subrogation. Anything in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, Landlord and Tenant each hereby waives any and all right to recovery, claim, action or cause of action, against the other, its agents, directors, officers or employees, for any loss or damage that may occur to the Premises, or any improvements thereto, or the Building, or any improvements thereto, or any personal property of such party therein, by reason of fire, the elements, or any other cause which could be insured against under the terms of insurance policies referred to in Section 4.2 (ii) hereof, regardless of cause or origin, including negligence of the other party hereto, its agents, directors, officers or employees, and covenants that no insurer shall hold any right of subrogation against such other party.

8.4 Public Liability and Property Damage. Bodily injury liability insurance and property damage liability insurance will be carried and maintained by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, after the date of delivery of the Premises from Landlord to Tenant in the following amounts:

Bodily Injury or Death, per occurrence:	$3,000,000
Property Damage:	Full Replacement Value
Landlord's Rent Loss Coverage:	$1,000,000 (to be increased each thirty (30) months by the same percentage as the Base Monthly Rent by reference to CPI pursuant to Section 4.1 hereinabove.)

All such bodily injury liability insurance and property damage liability insurance shall specifically make reference to the indemnity agreement in Section 8.1 hereof, and Tenant shall add Landlord as an additional insured on each of the policies herein mentioned.

8.5 Policy Form. All policies of insurance provided for herein to be carried by Tenant shall be issued by insurance companies certified to do business in the State of California and its insurance regulatory bodies and shall be issued in the names of both Landlord and Tenant. Executed copies of such policies of insurance or certificates thereof shall be delivered to the Landlord within ten (10) days after delivery of possession of the Premises and thereafter within thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of such policy. As often as any such policy shall expire or terminate, renewal or additional policies shall be procured and maintained by the Tenant in like manner and to like extent. All policies of insurance delivered to Landlord must contain a provision that the company writing said policy will give to the Landlord at least twenty (20) days notice in writing in advance of any cancellation or lapse or the effective date or any reduction in amounts of insurance. All public liability and property damage policies shall be written as primary policies, not contributing with and not in excess of coverage which Landlord may carry, if any. Tenant shall pay all premiums for the insurance policies described in Section 8.4 within fifteen (15) days after receipt by Tenant of a copy of the premium statement or other evidence of the amount due. All insurance shall be maintained with companies holding a "General Policyholder's Rating of B+ or better, as set forth in the most current issue of "Best's Insurance Guide." Tenant shall be liable for the payment of any deductible amount under Landlord's insurance policies required hereunder; said deductible shall in no event be greater than $100,000.00. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any insurance coverage required to be carried by Tenant hereunder may be carried in whole or in part (i) under any plan of self-insurance which Tenant may from time-to-time have in force and effect and approved by the Insurance Commissioner and other governmental authorities of the State of California whose approval is legally necessary to operate as a self-insured in said state, so long as Tenant or any assignee of this Lease who is liable hereunder shall have a net worth of $25,000,000.000 or more, subject to Landlord's prior consent which shall not be unreasonably withheld (Landlord shall be a named insured for the purposes of this Lease under any approved program of self-insurance), or (ii) under a "blanket" policy or policies covering other properties of Tenant and its assignee of this Lease. The scope and extent of the insurance protection afforded Landlord pursuant to this article shall not be diminished as a result of any rights of self-insurance as hereinabove provided.

ALTERATIONS AND FIXTURES

9.1 Prior Consent. Tenant shall not make any alterations improvements, modifications, or additions to the Premises costing more than $20,000.00, without first having obtained the written consent of Landlord which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, planned modifications and improvements, including minor modification or improvements to the office facilities, the sprinkler and lighting systems and the installation of normal trade fixtures, shelves, machinery, racks, conveyors and apparatus are hereby specifically approved. Tenant shall notify Landlord upon completion of any other alterations, improvements, modifications, or additions and Landlord may inspect same for workmanship and compliance with the approved plans and specifications. Any alterations, improvements, modifications, or fixture which is installed by either Landlord or Tenant on the Premises and which is in any manner attached to the floors, walls, or ceilings shall remain upon the Premises when the Premises are surrendered by Tenant except as described hereinbelow.

9.2 Trade Fixtures. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 9 to the contrary, all normal trade fixtures, equipment, shelves, machinery, racks, conveyors, apparatus, signs and furniture installed in the Premises at the cost of Tenant, may be removed by Tenant on or before the termination date of this Lease. Tenant must repair any damage caused by such removal.

9.3 Mechanics' Lien. Neither Landlord nor Tenant will create or permit to be created or to remain any lien (including but not limited to, the liens of mechanics, laborers, artisans, or materialmen for work or materials alleged to be done or furnished in connection with the Premises), encumbrance or other charge upon the Premises or any part thereof, upon Landlord's interest therein, or upon Tenant's leasehold interest; provided that Tenant shall not be required to discharge any such liens, encumbrances or charges as may be placed upon the Premises by the act of Landlord.

GRAPHICS AND ARCHITECTURAL CONTROL

10.1 Consistent with existing rules, requirements and regulations, Tenant may place reasonable signage on the Building all at Tenant's own cost and expense and Tenant shall remain liable for the upkeep and maintenance thereof.

10.2 Landlord agrees it will not alter or change the name of the Building, Premises or street address thereof without first obtaining the prior written consent of Tenant or in the alternative, by paying directly all costs, expenses, fees and charges incurred by Tenant due to such change in name or address.

ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

In the event Tenant should desire to assign this Lease or sublet the Premises or any part thereof, Tenant shall give Landlord written notice of such desire and Landlord shall then have a period of twenty (20) days following receipt of such notice within which to notify Tenant in writing that Landlord approves of such assignment or subletting. If Landlord should fail to notify Tenant in writing of such approval within the twenty (20) day period, Landlord shall be deemed to have elected not to permit such assignment or subletting. Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to any such assignment or subletting. No assignment or subletting by Tenant shall relieve Tenant of any obligations under this Lease. In the event that the Landlord approves any such assignment or subletting, such approval is conditional upon the assignee or subtenant assuming in writing all of the terms, covenants, conditions and obligations of Tenant under this Lease.

RIGHT OF ACCESS

Landlord shall have the right to enter the Premises under ordinary circumstances during normal business hours upon twenty-four (24) hours prior written notice to Tenant, to examine the same and to make such repairs, alterations, improvements, or additions as Landlord may deem necessary or desirable to comply with this Lease. Landlord shall be allowed to take all materials into and upon the Premises that may be required therefore without the same constituting an eviction of Tenant, actual or constructive, and the rent shall in no way abate while such repairs, alterations, improvements or additions are being made, by reason of loss or interruption of business of Tenant unless such repairs, alterations, improvements or additions restrict or interfere with Tenant's use of a portion of the Building. In that event, the rent shall abate as to that portion of the Building wherein the use thereof is restricted. Landlord shall make reasonable efforts not to interfere with the normal business operations of Tenant. In the event of any emergency, no prior written notice on the part of the Landlord will be required to enter the Building and Premises. During the three (3) months prior to the expiration of the term of this Lease, Landlord may exhibit with twenty-four (24) hour notice the Premises to prospective lessees or purchasers during normal business hours and place upon the Premises the usual notices "For Sale" or "For Rent", and Tenant shall permit the same to remain.

HOLDING OVER

Should Tenant remain in possession of the Premises, or any part thereof, after termination of this Lease (whether by the expiration of the term of this Lease or otherwise) without the execution of a new lease by Landlord and Tenant, Tenant, at the option of Landlord, shall become a tenant from month-to-month of the Premises, or part thereof occupied, at one and one-quarter the Base Monthly Rent, under all other terms, conditions, provisions and obligations of this Lease insofar as the same are applicable to a tenancy from month-to-month.

DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

14.1 Events of Default by Tenant. The occurrence of one or more of the following events shall constitute a default pursuant to the terms of this Lease: (i) the failure of Tenant to comply with or to observe any terms, provisions, or conditions of this Lease performable by and obligatory upon Tenant, within thirty (30) days after written notice by Landlord; (ii) the assignment of this Lease or subleasing of the Premises by Tenant without the prior written approval of Landlord; (iii) the taking of Tenant's leasehold estate by execution or other process of law; (iv) the judicial declaration of Tenant as bankrupt or insolvent according to law or an assignment of a substantial part of Tenant's property for the benefit of creditors; (v) the appointment of a receiver, guardian, conservator, trustee in involuntary bankruptcy or similar officer by a court of competent jurisdiction to take charge of a substantial part of Tenant's property; (vi) the filing of a petition for involuntary or voluntary reorganization or arrangement or bankruptcy of Tenant pursuant to any provision of the Bankruptcy Code without subsequent dismissal thereof within sixty (60) days.

14.2 Landlord's Remedies. Upon the occurrence of any event of default enumerated in Section 14.1 hereof, Landlord shall have the option of (i) terminating this Lease by written notice thereof to Tenant, or (ii) continuing this Lease in full force and effect, or (iii) curing the default of Tenant, or (iv) pursuing any other remedy to which it may be entitled by law.

(i) In the event Landlord shall elect to terminate this Lease, upon written notice to Tenant, this Lease shall be ended as to Tenant and all persons holding under Tenant, and all of Tenant's rights shall be forfeited and lapsed, as fully as if this Lease had expired by lapse of time. In such event, Tenant shall be required immediately to vacate the Premises and there shall immediately become due and payable the amount by which (a) the present value (determined using the then current Prime Rate per annum as charged by Irving Bank of New York, New York) of the total rent and other benefits which would have accrued to Landlord under this Lease for the remainder of the Lease term if the terms and provisions of this Lease had been fully complied with by Tenant exceeds (b) the total fair market rent value (determined using the then current Prime Rate per annum as charged by the Irving Bank of New York, New York) of the Premises for the balance of the Lease term (it being the intention of both parties hereto that Landlord shall receive the benefit of its bargain); and the Landlord shall at once have all the rights of re-entry upon the Premises, without becoming liable for damages, or guilty of trespass. In addition to the sum immediately due from Tenant under the foregoing provision, there shall be recoverable from Tenant: (a) cost of restoring the Premises to good condition, normal wear and tear excepted, (b) all accrued, unpaid sums, plus interest at the maximum rate then permitted by law and late charges, if in arrears, under the terms of this Lease up to the date of termination, (c) Landlord's cost of recovering possession of the Premises, and (d) rent and sums accruing subsequent to the date of termination pursuant to the holdover provisions of Section 13.

(ii) In the event that Landlord shall elect to continue this Lease in full force and effect, Tenant shall continue to be liable for all rents. Landlord shall nevertheless have all the rights of re-entry upon the Premises without becoming liable for damages, or guilty of a trespass and Landlord may relet the Premises, or any part thereof, to a substitute tenant or tenant, for a period of time equal to or lesser or greater than the remainder of the Lease term on whatever terms and conditions Landlord reasonably deems advisable. Against the rents and sums due from Tenant to Landlord during the remainder of the term, credit shall be give Tenant in the net amount of rent received from the new tenant after deduction by Landlord for: (a) the costs incurred by Landlord in reletting the Premises (including, without limitation, remodeling costs, brokerage fees, legal fees, and the like), (b) the accrued sums, plus interest and late charges if in arrears, under the terms of this Lease, (c) Landlord's cost of recovering possession of the Premises, and (d) the cost of restoring any of Tenant's property left on the Premises after re-entry. Notwithstanding any provision in this Section 14.2 (ii) to the contrary, upon the default of any substitute tenant or upon the expiration of the Lease term hereof, Landlord may, at Landlord's election, either relet to still another substitute tenant, or terminate this Lease and exercise its rights under Section 14.2(i) hereof.

14.3 Attorneys' Fees. In the event either party hereto defaults in the performance of any of the terms, covenants, agreements or conditions contained in this Lease and the other party hereto places the enforcement of this Lease, or any part thereof, or the collection of any rent or charge due, or to become due, or the recovery or the possession of the Premises, in the hands of attorneys, or files suit upon the same, the non-prevailing party agrees to pay the reasonable attorneys' fees of the prevailing party.

14.4 Waiver. Failure on the part of Landlord or Tenant to complain of any action or non-action on the part of Landlord or Tenant, no matter how long the same may continue, shall never be deemed to be a waiver by either party of any of his rights hereunder. Further, it is covenanted and agreed that no waiver at any time of any of the provisions hereof by either party shall be construed as a waiver of any of the other provisions hereof and that a waiver at any time of the provisions hereof shall not be construed as a waiver at any subsequent time of the same provisions.

SUBORDINATION

15.1 Subordination. This Lease shall be subject and subordinate to any mortgages or deeds of trust that may have been placed or may be hereafter placed upon the Premises by Landlord and to any advances to be made thereunder, and to any interest thereon, and all renewals, replacements and extensions thereof, provided no such mortgage or deed of trust shall impair or disturb Tenant's right to quiet enjoyment of the Premises under this Lease so long as Tenant is not in default. Any mortgages or trustee may elect by written notification to give the rights and interests of Tenant under this Lease priority over the lien of its mortgage or deed of trust. In the event of foreclosure or trustee's sale thereunder, the purchaser of Landlord's interest shall become Landlord hereunder subject to all the terms, provisions and obligations created hereby. Tenant shall, in the event any proceedings are brought for foreclosure of the Premises, or the power of sale under any mortgage made by Landlord covering the Premises is exercised, attorn to the purchaser (at the option of said purchaser, and not otherwise) upon any such foreclosure or sale and recognize such purchaser as the Landlord under this Lease.

15.2 Necessary Instruments. Although Section 15.1 hereof is self-executing, Tenant shall execute and deliver instruments that may be reasonably required by Landlord's mortgagees for the purpose of evidencing the subordination of this Lease within ten (10) days of written notice by Landlord or such mortgagee or its trustee, the language thereof to be agreed upon by the parties hereto.

SALE BY LANDLORD

Landlord shall have the right to sell, transfer, or assign its interest hereunder or any part thereof without the prior consent of Tenant. However, Landlord shall give Tenant thirty (30) days written notice of the proposed transfer and the transferee and assignee must assume all of the obligations of Landlord hereunder in writing. After such sale, transfer or assignment, Tenant shall attorn to such purchaser, transferee or assignee, and Landlord shall be released of all obligation hereunder after the effective date of such sale, transfer, or assignment, but only if the requirements created hereby have been met by Landlord.

ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES

Each party agrees within ten (10) days following request by the other party (i) to execute and deliver to requesting party reasonably required documents (including an estoppel certificate) (a) certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or, if modified, stating the nature of such modification and certifying that this Lease, as so modified, is in full force and effect and the date to which the rent and other charges are paid in advance, if any, and (b) acknowledging that there are not, to such party's knowledge, any uncured defaults hereunder, or so specifying such defaults, if any, (as are claimed), evidencing the status of the Lease.

DESTRUCTION

18.1 Landlord's Obligations. (i) In the event the Premises shall be damaged by fire, act of God, or other casualty, but shall not be rendered untenantable in whole or in part, regardless of the time remaining in the term of this Lease, Landlord shall, at its own expense, cause such damage to be repaired, and the rent shall not be abated. (ii) If the Premises shall be rendered partially untenantable, unless the damage occurs within the last one (1) year of the term of this Lease, Landlord shall, at its own expense, cause the damage to be repaired, and the Base Monthly Rent and Additional Rent shall be abated proportionately as to the portion of the Premises rendered untenantable. If, however, the damage occurs within the last one (1) year of the term of this Lease, Landlord may, at its option, cause such damage to be repaired or either party may terminate this Lease by giving the other party written notice of termination within thirty (30) days from the date of such occurrence, and in the event of such termination, rent shall be adjusted as of the date of such occurrence. (iii) If the Premises shall be rendered wholly untenantable by reason of such occurrence, regardless of the time remaining in the term of this Lease, Landlord may at it own cost and expense cause such damage to be repaired, and the Base Monthly Rent and the Additional Rent shall abate until the Premises have been restored and rendered tenantable, or either party may elect to terminate this Lease by giving the other party written notice of termination within thirty (30) days from the date of said occurrence, and in the event of such termination, rent shall be adjusted as of the date of such occurrence. (iv) If the Building shall be damaged to such an extent that Landlord shall determine that the repairs shall not be made or that demolition of the Building is appropriate, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above, and whether or not the Premises have been damaged, Landlord or Tenant may terminate this Lease by giving the other party written notice of termination, in which event rent shall be adjusted as of the date of termination. (v) If Landlord has not initiated repair or restoration within thirty (30) days of the event of the casualty, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord at any time within thirty (30) days after said thirty (30) days.

18.2 Scope of Landlord's Obligations. In the event Landlord elects or shall be obligated to repair or to restore any damage or destruction aforesaid, the scope of the work shall be limited to the original basic Building and Standard Leasehold Improvements, and time of completion shall be subject to the provisions of Section 20, ("Force Majeure"). If Landlord notifies Tenant within thirty (30) days after the casualty that the insurance proceeds are inadequate to restore the Building and the standard leasehold improvements as aforesaid, Tenant shall have right to terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days after Landlord's notice to Tenant.

19.2 Partial Taking. In the event of a Taking of less than 58,000 square feet, a "Partial Taking" of the Premises, which does not constitute a "Total Taking" during the Lease term (i) the rights of Tenant under the Lease and the leasehold estate of Tenant in and to the portion of the Premises taken shall cease and terminate as of the Date of Taking, (ii) from and after the Date of Taking the Total Monthly Rent shall be the product obtained by multiplying (a) the Total Monthly Rent by (b) the quotient obtained by the total square feet of the Premises after the Taking by the total square feet of the Premises prior to the Taking, (iii) Tenant shall receive from the Award those portions of the Award

In the event Landlord is delayed or prevented from accessing the Property due to adverse weather at any time prior to completion of construction of the walls, roof and slab and such weather creates an inability for Landlord to safely perform the work, the time for performance shall be excused for the period of the delay and the period for the performance shall be extended for a like period. Delays incurred because of adverse weather apply only until walls, roof and slab are complete.

G. EXTENSION OPTIONS.

(1) FIRST EXTENSION OPTION. Subject to the terms of this Section G, Lessee shall have the right ("FIRST EXTENSION OPTION") to extend the term of this Lease for the period ("FIRST EXTENSION TERM") beginning on and including the 10th anniversary of the Commencement Date and ending on and including the date next preceding the 15th anniversary of the Commencement Date. All of the terms of this Lease shall be applicable during the First Extension Term, except as follows:

(a) The Annual Base Rent during the period beginning on and including the 10th anniversary of the Commencement Date and ending on the date next preceding the 12th anniversary of the Commencement Date shall be the Annual Base Rent applicable immediately before the first day of the First Extension Term; and

(b) the Annual Base Rent during the period beginning on and including the 12th anniversary of the Commencement Date and ending on the date next preceding the 15th anniversary of the Commencement Date shall be 110% of the Annual Base Rent applicable immediately before the 12th anniversary of the Commencement Date.

(2) SECOND EXTENSION OPTION. Subject to the terms of this Section G, and provided that Lessee exercised the First Extension Option in accordance with the terms of Section G(1) hereof, Lessee shall have the right ("SECOND EXTENSION OPTION") to extend the term of this Lease for the period ("SECOND EXTENSION TERM") beginning on and including the 15th anniversary of the Commencement Date and ending on and including the date next preceding the 20th anniversary of the Commencement Date. All of the terms of this Lease shall be applicable during the Second Extension Term, except that the Annual Base Rent during the Second Extension Term shall be the Final Market Rent determined for the Second Extension Option pursuant to Section G(5) hereof.

(3) DEFINITIONS. Each of the First Extension Option and the Second Extension Option is referred to individually and respectively as an "EXTENSION OPTION". "EXTENSION TERM" means the First Extension Term with respect to the First Extension Option, and the Second Extension Term with respect to the Second Extension Option.

(4) EXERCISE. Lessee shall exercise each Extension Option by delivering written notice of such exercise (with respect to a particular Extension Option, the "EXTENSION OPTION NOTICE") on or before the 210th day before the first day of the Extension Term with respect to such Extension Option (with respect to a particular Extension Option, the "EXTENSION EXERCISE DATE"). The right of Lessee to exercise each respective Extension Option is hereby expressly made conditioned upon this Lease being in full force and effect and Lessee not being in material default under any terms and conditions thereunder, both as of the Extension Exercise Date with respect to such Extension Option, and as of the first day of the Extension Term with respect to such Extension Option. If Lessee fails to deliver to Lessor an Extension Option Notice with respect to a particular Extension Option on or before the Extension Exercise Date with respect to such Extension Option, then Lessee shall be deemed to have forever waived any and all rights to extend the term of this Lease pursuant to this Section G.

(5) DETERMINATION OF FINAL MARKET RENT. The term "FINAL MARKET RENT" means the Final Market Rent determined in accordance with this Section G(5). Lessor shall deliver to Lessee, within 10 days after date on which Lessee delivers to Lessor the Extension Option Notice with respect to the Second Extension Option, a written notice ("PROPOSED RENT NOTICE") which sets forth the amount of Annual Base Rent ("PROPOSED RENT") for which Lessor is willing to lease the Premises to a third party during the Second Extension Term. If Lessee approves the Proposed Rent, then Lessee shall, within the 10 day period after the delivery of the Proposed Rent Notice from Lessor to Lessee ("APPROVAL PERIOD"), deliver to Lessor a written notice which approves the Proposed Rent ("APPROVAL NOTICE"). If Lessee delivers an Approval Notice to Lessor within the Approval Period, then the Final Market Rent shall be the Proposed Rent. If Lessee fails to deliver an Approval Notice to Lessor within the Approval Period, then Lessor and Lessee shall negotiate in good faith to agree in writing on the amount of Annual Base Rent during the Second Extension Term ("AGREED RENT"). If Lessor and Lessee execute and deliver to each other, within 20 days after expiration of the Approval Period, a written agreement which sets forth an Agreed Rent, then the Final Market Rent shall be the Agreed Rent. If Lessor and Lessee fail to execute and deliver to each other, within 20 days after expiration of the Approval, a written agreement which sets forth an Agreed Rent, then the Extension Option Notice shall be deemed withdrawn, the Second Extension Option shall be deemed terminated and of no further force and effect, and Lessee shall be deemed to have waived any and all right to extent the term of this Lease for the Second Extension Term pursuant to Section G(2) hereof.

H. PURCHASE OPTION. Provided that this Lease is in full force and effect, that Lessee is not in default hereunder, and that Lessee has not exercised the First Extension Option, Lessee shall have the option ("PURCHASE OPTION") to purchase the Premises for $6,850,000.00 ("PURCHASE PRICE") on the date ("CLOSING DATE") next preceding the 10th anniversary of the Commencement Date, all in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section H. If Lessee desires to exercise the Purchase Option, then, on or before the 210th day before 10th anniversary of the Commencement Date, Lessee shall (A) execute and deliver to Lessor a written purchase agreement in substantially the form and substance of Exhibit D attached hereto and made a part hereof ("PURCHASE AGREEMENT"), and (B) deliver to Lessor an earnest money deposit equal to 5% of the Purchase Price ("EARNEST MONEY DEPOSIT") pursuant to Section 2(A) of the Purchase Agreement. If Lessee executes and delivers the Purchase Agreement, and delivers the Earnest Money Deposit, to Lessor on or before the 210th day before the 10th anniversary of the Commencement Date, then Lessor shall execute and deliver the Purchase Agreement to Lessee within 10 days after the execution and delivery of the Purchase Agreement, and the delivery of the Earnest Money Deposit, by Lessee to Lessor. If, on or before the 210th day before the 10th anniversary of the Commencement Date, Lessee fails to execute and deliver the Purchase Agreement, or fails to deliver the Earnest Money Deposit, to Lessor, then the Purchase Option and all rights of Lessee under this Section H shall be deemed terminated.

(1) MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) If Lessee waives or fails to exercise the Purchase Option, Lessor may, at any time, request Lessee to acknowledge in writing such waiver or failure to exercise the Option. Lessee shall deliver to Lessor such written acknowledgment no later than 15 days after Lessor's request for such acknowledgment. The failure by Lessee to deliver such acknowledgement within such period shall be deemed a default under this Lease without the benefit of any grace or cure periods.

(b) The rights of Lessee under this Section H are for the sole benefit of United Stationers Supply Co., an Illinois corporation ("USSCO"), and all entities ("USSCO AFFILIATES") which own and control USSCO, are owned and controlled by USSCO, or are under common ownership and control with USSCO, and shall automatically terminate upon any assignment of this Lease, sublease of the Premises, or other transfer of this Lease or any rights of Lessee hereunder, except to a USSCO Affiliate.

I. INCORPORATION. All of the terms and conditions contained in the General Terms and Conditions attached hereto are hereby incorporated and made a part hereof as though all of such terms and conditions had been fully set forth herein.

Payment of such interest shall not excuse or cure any default by Lessee under this Lease.

5. HOLDOVER RENT. In the event Lessee remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the term of this Lease, or any extension hereof, without the written consent of Lessor, Lessee shall then be obligated to pay 150% the rate of the Monthly Base Rent applicable on the last day of the Lease Term as set forth herein, in equal monthly installments on the first day of each calendar month, and all amounts of Taxes, Operating Expenses and other amounts payable under this Lease, for so long as Lessor is willfully kept out of possession of the Premises. No such payment, nor the acceptance thereof, shall in any way constitute a waiver of the rights of Lessor to dispossess Lessee and recover possession of the Premises and the just and former estate of Lessor and to bring any action for damages suffered by Lessor on account of Lessee's failure to vacate the Premises.

6. PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES. Lessee agrees to pay or cause to be paid, before delinquency, any and all taxes levied or assessed and which become payable during the term hereof upon all equipment, furniture, trade or other fixtures and other personal property located in the Premises.

7. INSURANCE.

A. Lessee, at Lessee's expense, and for mutual benefit of Lessor and Lessee, shall maintain in force during the term of the Lease: (1) Comprehensive Public Liability Insurance, covering the Premises in an amount not less than ONE MILLION DOLLARS ($1,000,000), including the following coverages:

premises/operations, independent contractors, personal injury, broad form property damage and contractual liability; (2) All-Risk property insurance with extended coverage and vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, in an amount adequate to cover the full replacement value of the Building, all leasehold improvements paid for by Lessee, and all trade fixtures and contents of Lessee in the Premises.

B. The policy referred to in 7. A.(1) shall name Lessor, any manager designated by Lessor, from time to time, and their respective agents and employees, as additional insureds, and shall not provide for deductible amounts. The policy referred to in 7.A.(2) shall not provide for deductible amounts in excess of $100,000. Each policy referred to in 7.A. shall be issued by one or more responsible insurance companies reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and shall contain the following provisions and endorsements: (i) that such insurance may not be canceled or amended without Thirty (30) days prior notice to Lessor and the manager, if any; (ii) an express waiver of any right of subrogation by the insurance company against Lessor, the manager, if any, and their respective agents and employees; and (iii) that the policy shall not be invalidated should the insured waive, in writing, prior to a loss, any and all rights of recovery against any other party for losses covered by such policies. Lessee agrees to pay to Lessor all amounts which would have been paid under any of such insurance policies had there been no deductibles thereunder.

C. Lessee shall deliver to Lessor, certificates of insurance of all policies and renewals thereof to be maintained by Lessee hereunder, not less than Ten (10) days prior to the commencement of the term of this Lease and not less than Ten (10) days prior to the expiration date of each policy. Provided that the insurance policies of Lessee will not be invalidated nor will the right of the insured to collect the proceeds payable under such policies be adversely affected by the waiver contained in the following portion of this sentence, Lessee hereby expressly waives all rights of recovery which it otherwise might have against Lessor, its manager, if any, their respective agents and employees, for loss or damage to person, property or business to the extent that such loss is covered by valid and collectible insurance policies, notwithstanding that such loss or damage may result from the negligence of Lessor, its manager, their respective agents or employees. Lessee shall use its best efforts to obtain from its insurer the right to waive claims as set forth in the preceding sentence without thereby invalidating its insurance or affecting its right to proceeds payable thereunder.

D. Lessor shall under no circumstances, be liable for any loss or destruction of, damage to or shortage of equipment, inventory, merchandise or any other type of personal property that may be placed or suffered to be placed on or about the Premises, the Building or the Site by Lessee, its agents, business invitees or the successors or assigns of any of them, it being the intention of the parties that all risk of any such destruction, loss, damage or shortage be borne by Lessee.

8. SERVICES AND UTILITIES. All utilities shall be separately metered for the Premises and paid for by Lessee directly to the billing party. Lessor shall not be liable for, and Lessee shall not be entitled to any abatement or reduction of rental by reason of, the lack of availability of any of the foregoing when such failure is caused by accidents, breakage, repairs, strikes, lockouts or other labor disturbances or labor disputes of any character, or by any other cause, similar or dissimilar, beyond the reasonable control of Lessor. Lessor shall not be liable under any circumstances for loss of or injury to property, however, occurring through or in connection with or incidental to failure to furnish, or failure or the refusal of a public utility to furnish, any of the foregoing service facilities.

Lessee will not, in any way overload the electrical system of the Building, nor without the written consent of Lessor connect with electric current, telephone or water except through existing electrical outlets and water pipes in the Premises. If Lessee shall require water, telephone service, or electric current in excess of that capable of being transmitted by the facilities existing in the Building and/or Premises, at the commencement of this Lease Term, Lessee shall first produce the written consent of Lessor, which Lessor may refuse in its sole discretion. The cost of any Lessor approved additional equipment, its installation, maintenance and repair shall be paid for by Lessee promptly on demand. Lessee shall also pay for all such electric current consumed as shown on the utility meters pertaining to the Premises, such payment to be made directly to the utility in a timely manner.

9. USES PROHIBITED. Lessee will not breach or suffer the breach of any of the covenants, conditions, or restrictions of record affecting the Site, the Building and/or the Premises including, without limitation the CCR's, and shall use and occupy the Premises Building and Site in strict compliance therewith. Lessee shall do or permit anything to be done in or about the premises nor bring or keep anything therein which will in any way increase the existing premium rate or otherwise affect any fire or other insurance upon the Building or any of its contents, or cause a cancellation of any insurance policy covering said Building or any part thereof or any of its contents including the property of other tenants. Lessee shall not use or allow the Premises to be used for any improper, immoral, unlawful or objectionable purpose, nor shall Lessee cause, maintain or permit any nuisance in, on or about the Premises.

10. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW. Lessee shall not use the Premises nor permit anything to be done in or about the Premises which will in any way conflict with any law, statute, ordinance or governmental rule or regulation now in force or which may hereafter be enacted or promulgated. Lessee shall at its sole cost and expense promptly comply with all laws, statutes, governmental rules, regulations or requirements now in force or which may hereafter be in force and with requirements of any board of fire underwriters or other similar body now or hereafter constituted relating to or affecting the condition, use or occupancy of the Premises, excluding structural changes not related to or affected by Lessee's improvements or acts. The judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction or the admission of Lessee in any action against Lessee, whether Lessor be a party thereto or not, that Lessee has violated any law, statute, ordinance or governmental rule, regulation or requirements, shall be conclusive of that fact as between Lessor and Lessee.

Lessee has investigated the zoning classification and other rules, ordinances, laws and regulations promulgated by Public Authority, the CCR's and has satisfied itself that its intended use of the Premises is not in violation thereof.

11. ALTERATIONS. Lessee shall not make or suffer to be made any alterations, additions or improvements to or of the Premises or any part thereof without the written consent of Lessor first had and obtained and any alterations, additions or improvements to or of said Premises, except movable furniture and trade fixtures, shall at once become a part of the realty and belong to Lessor. All alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises by Lessee shall be made by Lessee at Lessee's sole cost and expense and any contractor or person selected by Lessee to make the same must first be approved in writing by Lessor. All such alterations, additions and improvements and the removal, restoration and repairs hereafter described shall be completed in a good workmanlike manner with materials and labor in kind and quality similar to that originally in the Premises and free and clear of all liens for labor, taxes or material. Upon demand, Lessee shall provide Lessor with such waivers of lien and other documents as Lessor reasonably requires to ascertain that the provisions of this Section 11 have been complied with. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of the Term, Lessee shall, upon demand by Lessor, at Lessee's sole cost and expense, forthwith and with all due diligence, remove any alterations, additions or improvements made by Lessee and designated by Lessor to be removed, and Lessee shall, forthwith and with all due diligence at its sole cost and expense, repair any damage to the Premises, the Building, or the Site caused by such removal, restoring the Premises, the Building, and the Site to the same condition as existed at the commencement of the Lease Term, reasonable wear and tear excepted. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 11 to the contrary, Lessee may make alterations, additions or improvements to or of the Premises or any part thereof without the prior written consent of Lessor ("PERMITTED ALTERATIONS") provided that (a) prior to the commencement of any particular Permitted Alterations, Lessee delivers to Lessor plans and specifications therefor prepared by an architect licensed by the State of Florida, and all other information with respect thereto reasonably requested by Lessor (collectively, "ALTERATIONS DOCUMENTS"), (b) the Permitted Alterations are completely within the interior of the Building, not visible from the exterior of the Building, and do not affect the structure or materially impair the electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilation, air conditioning or other systems of the Building, (c) the cost of any particular Permitted Alterations does not exceed $25,000, and (d) the cost of any particular Permitted Alterations, together with the cost of all other Permitted Alterations which either were made or for which Lessee has delivered Alteration Documents within the 12 month period prior to the date on which Lessee delivers Alteration Documents to Lessor for such Permitted Alterations, does not exceed $100,000.

12. MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR. Lessee shall maintain, repair and preserve the Premises and improvements therein, including without limitation all plumbing, mechanical and electrical systems, the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning system servicing the Premises, all windows and doors in the Premises, toilets and sinks; shall perform all necessary cleaning of the Premises, including walls, windows, doors and floors; and shall replace all inoperative light bulbs and ballasts and broken glass.

In the event Lessee fails to commence such repairs as are necessary to maintain the Premises in good condition, within Fifteen (15) days after notice from Lessor, or fails to diligently prosecute the same to completion, Lessor at its option and without any obligation so to do, may make restorations as are necessary to such maintenance, and amounts expended for such work by Lessor shall be reimbursed by Lessee as additional rent hereunder promptly on demand, together with Default Interest from the date of expenditure.

Lessee shall, upon the expiration or sooner termination of the term hereof, surrender the Premises to Lessor in the same condition as when received, ordinary wear and tear and damage by fire, earthquake, act of God or the elements excepted. Notwithstanding the ordinary wear and tear exception to Lessee's obligation to restore, Lessee shall keep and maintain the Premises in a neat, clean and orderly appearance and shall suffer no abuse of the Premises, nor waste thereof to be committed. It is specifically understood and agreed that Lessor has no obligation and has made no promises to alter, improve, repair, decorate or paint the Premises or any part thereof and that no representations respecting the condition of the Premises or the Building of which the Premises are a part have been made by Lessor to Lessee except as specifically herein set forth.

13. LIENS. Lessee shall keep the Premises and the Building and Site in which the Premises are situated free from any liens arising out of any taxes or judgments levied against Lessee or arising out of any labor or materials furnished or claimed to be furnished in connection with any construction, or alteration or repair, performed or claimed to have been performed, on the Premises, the Building or the Site at the direction or sufferance of Lessee whether such labor or materials were furnished or claimed to have been furnished prior or subsequent to the commencement of the Lease Term. Lessor shall keep the Premises and the Building and Site in which the Premises are situated free from any liens arising out of any judgments levied against Lessor (except to the extent such judgments are caused by the failure of Lessee to perform any of its obligations under this Lease) or arising out of any labor or materials furnished or claimed to be furnished in connection with any construction, or alteration or repair, performed or claimed to have been performed, on the Premises, the Building or the Site at the direction or sufferance of Lessor whether such labor or materials were furnished or claimed to have been furnished prior or subsequent to the commencement of the Lease Term.

14. ABANDONMENT. Lessee shall not abandon the Premises at any time during the Term.

15. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING. Lessee shall not assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or encumber this Lease, or any interest therein, and shall not sublet said Premises or any part thereof, or any right or privilege appurtenant thereto, or suffer any other person (the agents and servants of Lessee, and USSCO Affiliates, excepted) to occupy or use said Premises, or any portion thereof, without the written consent of Lessor first had and obtained, and a consent to one assignment, subletting, occupation or use by any other person shall not be deemed to be a consent to a subsequent assignment, subletting, occupation or use by that same or another person. Any such assignment or subletting without such consent shall be void, and shall, at the option of Lessor, terminate this Lease. This Lease shall not, nor shall any interest therein, be assignable as to the interest of Lessee by operation of law, without the written consent of Lessor. A transfer of a controlling interest in Lessee (except to a USSCO Affiliate) shall be deemed a transfer which is prohibited under this Section 15 without the prior written consent of Lessor. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 15 to the contrary, Lessor shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to any assignment by Lessee of all of its interests under this Lease or sublease of all of the Premises. Lessor shall not be deemed to have unreasonably withheld such consent if such consent is withheld for any one or more of the following reasons: (a) Lessee is in default hereunder, (b) there is less than 12 months remaining in the Lease Term, (c) the net worth of the proposed assignee or subtenant is less than the net worth of Lessee as of the date hereof, (d) the proposed use of the Premises is other than that permitted hereunder, (e) Lessor or its affiliates have had previous unsatisfactory experience with proposed assignee or subtenant, or (f) any other reasonable basis. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, Lessor agrees that Lessee may, without the prior written consent of Lessor, assign all of its interests under this Lease, or sublease all of the Premises, to a USSCO Affiliate, provided that (A) Lessee delivers to Lessor within 10 days after the effective date of such assignment or sublease a true and correct copy of such assignment or sublease, and (B) no such assignment or sublease shall in any way relieve the assignor or sublessor from any liability under this Lease.

As a condition precedent to the approval of any sublease, assignment or any other type of transfer by Lessee to any third party (other than a USSCO Affiliate) of all or any portion of any interest of Lessee in and to the Premises, Lessee agrees that it will pay to Lessor in cash, contemporaneously with the rental payments due hereunder, Fifty Percent (50%) of the value of increased economic benefit received by Lessee, including without limitation rent in excess of the rent reserved herein and in the event less than all of the Premises are so transferred, Lessee shall pay to Lessor monthly, Fifty Percent (50%) of any increase in the square foot rate of rent or other economic benefit received by Lessee to Lessor.

The additional rent that Lessee pays to Lessor for the purpose of this Section 15 shall be calculated by dividing such additional monthly rent payments required to be made by Lessee by the square foot area of the Premises as set forth hereinabove.

16. SURRENDER OF PREMISES. The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Lessee, or a mutual cancellation thereof, shall not work a merger, and may, at the option of Lessor, terminate all or any existing subleases or subtenancies, or may, at the option of Lessor, operate as an assignment to it, any or all such subleases or subtenancies.

17. INDEMNIFICATION OF LESSOR. To the extent permitted by law Lessee shall defend, completely indemnify and hold forever harmless Lessor from and against any and all liabilities, fines, suits, claims, demands actions, causes of action, losses, costs, damages, judgments and expenses of any kind or character name or nature due to or arising out of:

(a) any breach, violation or non performance of any covenant, obligation, condition or agreement set forth in this Lease on the part of Lessee to be fulfilled, kept, observed or performed; and/or

(b) any damage to, loss or destruction of any property arising directly or indirectly out of Lessee's use or occupancy of the Premises; and/or

(c) any injury to any person, including death resulting at any time therefrom occurring in or about the Premises.

In the event Lessor is made a party of any action or proceedings which Lessee is required to defend pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, Lessor shall have the right to appear and to take part in any such action or proceeding by legal counsel of Lessor's choice.

Lessee shall pay to Lessor all costs and expenses incurred by Lessor in connection with the enforcement of the terms, provisions, conditions or covenants of this Lease, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees, provided that Lessor prevails in such enforcement. Lessor shall pay to Lessee all costs and expenses incurred by Lessee in connection with the enforcement of the terms, provisions, conditions or covenants of this Lease, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees, provided that Lessee prevails in such enforcement.

Nothing herein shall be construed as obligating Lessee to indemnify or hold harmless any party from and against the consequences of negligent or willful acts or omissions of the party to be indemnified.

18. ENTRY BY LESSOR. Lessor reserves and shall at any and all reasonable times, after reasonable prior notice to Lessee, have the right to enter the Premises to inspect the same, alone or accompanied by representatives of utilities and/or public authorities, to supply any service to be provided by Lessor to Lessee hereunder, to submit said Premises to prospective purchasers or tenants, to post notices of nonresponsibility, and to alter, improve or repair the Premises and any portion of the Building of which the Premises are a part, without abatement of rent, and may for that purpose erect scaffolding and other necessary structures where reasonably required by the character of the work to be performed, always providing that the business of Lessee shall not be interfered with unreasonably. For each of the aforesaid purposes, Lessor shall at all times have and retain a key with which to unlock all of the doors in, upon and about the Premises, excluding Lessee's vaults and safes, and Lessor shall have the right to enter the Premises in an emergency and to use any and all means which Lessor may deem proper to open said doors in such emergency, and any entry to the Premises obtained by Lessor by any of said means shall not under any circumstances be construed or deemed to be a forcible or unlawful entry into, or a detainer of, the Premises, or an eviction of Lessee from the Premises or any portion thereof.

19. DEFAULT. If default shall be made in the payment of the rent, or any installment thereof, or in the payment of any other charge or lien required to be paid by Lessee under this Lease, or any other agreement between Lessor and Lessee, and such default shall continue for Ten (10) days after written notice thereof to Lessee, or if default shall be made in the performance of any of the other covenants or conditions which Lessee is required to observe and perform hereunder and such default shall continue for Thirty (30) days after written notice thereof to Lessee, or if the interest of Lessee in this Lease shall be levied on under execution or other legal process, or if any petition shall be filed by or against Lessee to declare Lessee a bankrupt or to delay, reduce or modify Lessee's debts or obligations, or if any petition shall be filed or other action taken to reorganize or modify Lessee's capital structure, or if Lessee be declared insolvent according to law, or if any assignment of Lessee's property shall be made for the benefit of creditors, or if a receiver or trustee is appointed for Lessee or its property, or if Lessee shall abandon the Premises during the term of this Lease, then Lessor may treat the occurrence of any one or more of the foregoing events as a breach of this Lease, and thereupon at its option may, without notice or demand of any kind to Lessee or other person, have any one or more of the following described remedies in addition to all other rights and remedies now or hereafter provided at law or in equity:

(a) Lessor may re-enter the Premises with or without process of law and take possession of the same and expel or remove Lessee and all other parties occupying the Premises, using such force as so, without being liable to any prosecution for such re-entry or for the use of such force and without terminating this Lease, at any time and from time to time relet the Premises or any part thereof for the account of Lessee, for such term, upon such conditions and at such rental as Lessor may deem proper. In such event, Lessor shall use reasonable efforts to receive and collect the rent from such reletting and shall apply all rents actually collected against any amounts due from Lessee hereunder (including without limitation such expenses as Lessor may have incurred in recovering possession of the Premises, placing the same in good order and condition, altering or repairing the same for reletting, and all other expenses, commissions and charges, including attorneys' fees, which Lessor may have paid or incurred in connection with repossession and reletting). Lessor may execute any Lease made pursuant hereto in Lessor's name as Lessor may see fit, and Lessee thereunder shall be under no obligation to see to the application by Lessor of any rent collected by Lessor nor shall Lessee have any right to collect any rent thereunder. Whether or not the Premises are relet, Lessee shall pay Lessor all amounts required to be paid by Lessee up to the date of Lessor's re-entry and thereafter Lessee shall pay Lessor, until the end of the term hereof, the amount of all rent and other charges required to be paid by Lessee hereunder, less the proceeds of such reletting during the term hereof, if any, after payment of Lessor's expenses as provided above. Such payments by Lessee shall be due at such times as are provided elsewhere in this Lease, and Lessor need not wait until termination of this Lease to recover them by legal action or otherwise. Lessor shall not, by any re-entry or other act, be deemed to have terminated this Lease or the liability of Lessee for the total rent hereunder unless Lessor shall give Lessee written notice to Lessor's election to terminate this Lease, or;

(b) Lessor may give written notice to Lessee of Lessor's election to terminate this Lease, reenter the Premises with or without process of law and take possession of the same, and expel or remove Lessee and all other parties occupying the Premises, using such force as may be reasonably necessary to do, without being liable to any prosecution for such re-entry or for the use of such force. In such event, Lessor shall thereupon be entitled to recover from Lessee the worth, at the time of such termination, of the excess, if any, of the rent and other charges required to be paid by Lessee hereunder for the balance of the term hereof (if this Lease had not been so terminated) over the then reasonable rental value of the Premises for the same period.

20. WAIVER. The waiver by Lessor of any term, covenant or condition herein contained, or any default of Lessee pertaining thereto shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition herein contained, nor shall any forbearance by Lessor to seek a remedy for any default by Lessee be a waiver by Lessor of any of the rights and remedies of Lessor hereunder or by law granted or permitted, with respect to such, or subsequent default. The subsequent acceptance of rent hereunder by Lessor shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by Lessee of any term, covenant or condition of this Lease, other than the failure of Lessee to pay the particular rental so accepted, regardless of Lessor's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such rent. The waiver by Lessee of any term, covenant or condition herein contained, or any default of Lessor pertaining thereto shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition herein contained, nor shall any forbearance by Lessee to seek a remedy for any default by Lessor be a waiver by Lessee of any of the rights and remedies of Lessee hereunder or by law granted or permitted, with respect to such, or subsequent default.

21. DEFAULT BY LESSOR. In the event of any default by Lessor, Lessee, before exercising any rights that it may have at law to cancel this Lease, must first send notice by certified or registered mail to Lessor at such place as Lessor has designated for the sending of notices, and Lessor shall have a reasonable opportunity to correct and cure the default.

22. RECONSTRUCTION. In the event the Building of which the Premises are a part are damaged, then Lessor shall forthwith repair the same, provided the extent of the destruction be less than Thirty-three Percent (33%) of the then full replacement value of the Building. In the event the destruction is greater than Thirty-three Percent (33%) of said full replacement value, then Lessor shall have the option either: (1) to repair or restore such damage, this Lease continuing in full force and effect, but the rent shall be proportionately reduced while such repairs are being made, such proportionate reduction to be based upon the extent to which the damage to the Premises, or the repair thereof reduces the usable area of the Premises; or (2) give notice to Lessee at any time within Thirty (30) days after such damage, terminating this Lease as of the date specified in such notice, which date shall be no less than Thirty (30) days nor more than Sixty (60) days after the giving of such notice. In the event of giving of such notice, this Lease shall expire and all interest of Lessee in the Premises, the Building, and the Site shall terminate as of the date of the destruction, and the rent, reduced by any proportionate reduction, based upon the extent, if any, to which such damage reduced the usable area of the Premises shall be paid up to date of such termination.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 22, Lessor shall not have any obligation whatsoever to repair, reconstruct or restore the Premises when the damage resulting from any casualty covered under this Paragraph occurs during the last Twelve (12) months of the term of the Lease Term or any extension thereof.

Lessor shall not be required to make any repairs or replacements of any leasehold improvements or any other property installed or suffered to be installed in the Premises by Lessee.

23. EMINENT DOMAIN. If all or any part of the Premises shall be taken or appropriated by any public or quasi-public authority under the power of eminent domain, either party hereto shall have the right, at its option, to terminate this Lease, by written notice to the other party within Thirty (30) days of such taking, and Lessor shall be entitled to any and all income, rent, award or any interest therein whatsoever which may-be paid or made in connection with such public or quasi-public use or purpose, and Lessee shall have no claim against Lessor for the value of any unexpired term of this Lease. Nothing in this Section 23 shall prohibit Lessee from filing a separate claim with the condemning authority for the value of its leasehold interest, its relocation costs or moving expenses. If a part of the Premises shall be so taken or appropriated and neither party hereto shall elect to terminate this Lease within the time period provided, the rental thereafter to be paid shall be equitably reduced. Lessee may terminate this Lease by reason of taking or appropriation as above provided, only in the event such taking or appropriation shall be of an extent and nature as to substantially handicap, impede or impair Lessee's use of the Premises. If any part of the Building other than the Premises shall be so taken or appropriated, Lessor shall have the right, at its option, to terminate this Lease and shall be entitled to the entire award, as above provided.

24. TRANSFER BY LESSOR. Lessor shall have the right to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or in any other manner, transfer, or assign the interest of Lessor in the Site, the Building, the Premises and/or in the Lease. The term "Lessor" as used in this Lease, means only the owner for the time being of the Premises, or the interest of a lessor in the Premises or this Lease, and in the event of any sale, conveyance or other transfer of the Premises whether separately or as a part of the Site and/or the Building or the interest of Lessor in this Lease, Lessor shall be and hereby is entirely freed of all covenants and obligations of Lessor hereunder arising after the date of such sale, transfer, assignment or conveyance. This Lease shall not be affected by any such transfer and Lessee agrees to attorn to the purchaser or assignee.

25. SUBORDINATION AND ATTORNMENT. This Lease and all of the rights of Lessee hereunder are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage or mortgages hereinafter placed on the Premises or any part thereof, except Lessee's property or trade fixtures, and to any and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements, extensions or substitutions of any such mortgages.

Such subordination shall be automatic, without the execution of any further subordination agreement by Lessee. If, however, a written subordination agreement consistent with this provision, is required by a mortgagee, Lessee agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver the same, provided that the holder of the interest to which this Lease is made subordinate agrees not to disturb the rights of Lessee to possession of the Premises as long as Lessee is not in default under the terms of this Lease. Lessee shall deliver to Lessor such written subordination agreement no later than 15 days after Lessor's request for such agreement. The failure by Lessee to deliver such agreement within such period shall be deemed a default under this Lease without the benefit of any grace or cure periods.

In the event of any foreclosure of any mortgage placed at any time on the Site, Building or Premises by Lessor, by a voluntary agreement or otherwise, or the commencement of any judicial action seeking such foreclosure, Lessee, at the request of the then first mortgagee or purchaser in foreclosure as Lessee's Lessor under this Lease, agrees to attorn to such first mortgagee or purchaser in foreclosure and to execute and deliver at any time upon request of such first mortgagee, purchaser, or their successors, any instrument reasonably necessary to further evidence such attornment. Lessee hereby waives its right, if any, to elect to terminate this Lease or to surrender possession of the Premises in the event of any such mortgage foreclosure.

26. LESSEE'S ESTOPPEL LETTER. Lessee agrees at any time, from time to time, upon not less than Ten (10) days prior written request by Lessor to execute, acknowledge and deliver to Lessor a statement in writing certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modification), and the dates to which the basic rent and other charges have been paid in advance, if any, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant to this Section may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser of the fee or mortgage or assignee of any mortgage upon the fee of the Premises and/or the Building and/or Site.

In the event, the interest of Lessee in and to the Premises and this Lease is terminated whether by lapse of time or otherwise, Lessee shall execute and deliver to Lessor, promptly on demand, all documents reasonably requested by Lessor to evidence such termination; including without limitation a recordable release and cancellation of this Lease. The failure of Lessee to so execute and deliver such documents shall in no way affect the termination of this Lease and the interest of Lessee in and to the Premises.

27. SEVERABILITY. The legal invalidity or unenforceability of any one or more of the provisions of this Lease shall in no way affect the validity of any other provisions hereof or of the Lease as a whole.

28. DEFINED TERMS AND MARGINAL HEADINGS. The words, "Lessor" and "Lessee", as used herein shall include the plural, as well as singular. Words used in masculine gender include the feminine and neuter. If there be more than one Lessee, the obligations hereunder imposed upon Lessee shall be joint and several. The marginal headings and titles to the paragraphs of this Lease are not a part of this Lease and shall have no effect upon the construction or interpretation of any part hereof.

29. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each and all of its provisions.

30. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Lease and the covenants, terms, conditions and provisions hereof, shall be binding upon the respective parties hereto and to their respective successors, assigns and personal representatives and shall inure to the benefit of said respective parties hereto and their said respective successors, assigns and personal representatives. Wherever in this Lease a reference to any of the parties hereto is made, such reference shall be deemed to include, wherever applicable and even though not expressly stated, also a reference to the successors, assigns and personal representatives of such party, as the case may be, the same if in every case expressly stated. The phrase "successors and assigns" is used in this Lease in its broadest possible meaning and includes, in addition to administrators, trustees, conservators, every person, firm, corporation or other entity succeeding to the interest in or to this Lease, or any party thereof described or referred to herein or any part hereto, or of any of the successors or assigns of any such party, whether such succession results from the act of a party in interest, occurs by operation of law or is the effect of the operation of law together with any act(s) of any such party or parties.

31. ATTORNEY'S FEES. In the event of any action or proceeding brought by either party against the other under this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover for the fees of its attorneys in such action or proceeding such amount as the Court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees.

32. NOTICE. All notices and demands which may or are required to be given by either party to the other hereunder shall be in writing. All notices and demands shall be effective and deemed delivered upon actual receipt. All notices and demands shall be sent by (a) United States certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, (b) messenger or courier service, or (c) facsimile, in all cases addressed (i) if to Lessor at 3265 Meridian Parkway, Suite 100, Ft. GENERAL CONSTRUCTION WARRANTY

4.5 WARRANTY

4.5.1 The Contractor warrants to the Owner that all materials and equipment furnished under this Contract will be new unless otherwise specified, and that all Work will be of good quality, free from faults and defects and in conformance with the Contract Documents. All Work not conforming to these requirements, including substitutions not properly approved and authorized, may be considered defective. If required by the Owner, the Contractor shall furnish satisfactory evidence as to the kind and quality of materials and equipment. This warranty is not limited by the provisions of Paragraph 13.2.

13.2 CORRECTION OF WORK

13.2.1 The Contractor shall promptly correct all Work rejected by the Owner as defective or as failing to conform to the Contract Documents whether observed before or after Substantial Completion and whether or not fabricated, installed or completed. The Contractor shall bear all costs of correcting such rejected Work, including compensation for the Architect's additional services made necessary thereby.

13.2.2 If, within one year after the Date of Substantial Completion of the Work or designated portion thereof or within one year after acceptance by the Owner of designated equipment or within such longer period of time as may be prescribed by law or by the terms of any applicable special warranty required by the Contract Documents, any of the Work is found to be defective or not in accordance with the Contract Documents, the Contractor shall correct it promptly after receipt of a written notice from the Owner to do so unless the Owner and Lessee have previously given the Contractor a written acceptance of such condition. This obligation shall survive termination of the Contract. The Owner shall give such notice promptly after discovery of the condition.

13.2.3 The Contractor shall remove from the site all portions of the Work which are defective or non-conforming and which have not been corrected under Subparagraphs 4.5.1, 13.2.1 and 13.2.2, unless removal is waived by the Owner.

13.2.4 If the Contractor fails to correct defective or non-conforming Work as provided in Subparagraphs 4.5.1, 13.2.1 and 13.2.2, the Owner may correct it in accordance with Paragraph 3.4.

13.2.5 If the Contractor does not proceed with the correction of such defective or non-conforming Work within a reasonable time fixed by written notice from the Owner, the Owner may remove it and may store the materials or equipment at the expense of the Contractor. If the Contractor does not pay the cost of such removal and storage within ten days thereafter, the Owner may upon ten additional days' written notice sell such Work at auction or at private sale and shall account for the net proceeds thereof, after deducting all the costs that should have been borne by the Contractor, including compensation for the Architect's additional services made necessary thereby. If such proceeds of sale do not cover all costs which the Contractor should have borne, the difference shall be charged to the Contractor and an appropriate Change Order shall be issued. If the payments then or thereafter due the Contractor are not sufficient to cover such amount, the Contractor shall pay the difference to the Owner.

13.2.6 The Contractor shall bear the cost of making good all work of the Owner or separate contractors destroyed or damaged by such correction or removal.

13.2.7 Nothing contained in this Paragraph 13.2 shall be construed to establish a period of limitation with respect to any other obligation which the Contractor might have under the Contract Documents, including Paragraph 4.5 hereof. The establishment of the time period of one year after the Date of Substantial Completion or such longer period of time as may be prescribed by law or by the terms of any warranty required by the Contract Documents relates only to the specific obligation of the Contractor to correct the Work, and has no relationship to the time within which his obligation to comply with the Contract Documents may be sought to be enforced, nor to the time within which proceedings may be commenced to establish the Contractor's liability with respect to his obligations other than specifically to correct the Work.

3.4 OWNER'S RIGHT TO CARRY OUT THE WORK

3.4.1 If the Contractor defaults or neglects to carry out the Work in accordance with the Contract Documents and fails within seven days after receipt of written notice from the Owner to commence and continue correction of such default or neglect with diligence and promptness, the Owner may, after seven days following receipt by the Contractor of an additional written notice and without prejudice to any other remedy he may have, make good such deficiencies. In such case an appropriate Change Order shall be issued deducting from the payments then or thereafter due the Contractor the cost of correcting such deficiencies, including compensation for the Architect's additional services made necessary by such default, neglect or failure. If the payments then or thereafter due the Contractor are not sufficient to cover such amount, the Contractor shall pay the difference to the Owner.

(b) any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge allocable to or measured by the area of the Demised Premises or the rent payable hereunder, including, without limitation, any gross income tax or excise tax levied by the State, city or federal government, or any political subdivision thereof, with respect to the receipt of such rent, or upon or with respect to the possession, leasing, operation, management, maintenance, alteration, repair, use or occupancy by Tenant or the Demised Premises, or any portion thereof; and

(c) any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge, upon this transaction or any document to which Tenant is a party which creates or transfers an interest or an estate in the Demised Premises.

Further, in regard to this Section E-1, Landlord shall provide Tenant with a copy of any notice of any "Tax" with respect to the Demised Premises which Landlord receive together with an instruction as to whether to pay such Tax to Landlord or to the governmental agency imposing the Tax. Such payment shall be made by Tenant not later than ten (10) days after receipt by Tenant of such notice from Landlord. Tenant shall not be obligated to pay for any Taxes of which it has not received a notice either from Landlord or directly from the governmental agency imposing the Tax. See Rider No. 1.

E-2. INSTALLMENT ELECTION. In the case of any Taxes which may be evidenced by improvement or other bonds, or which may be paid in annual or other periodic installments, so long as Tenant is not in default hereunder, Tenant may elect to cause such bonds to be issued or cause such assessment to be paid in installments over the maximum period permitted by law, subject, however, to Tenant's obligation during the Term hereof to pay each and every installment of principal, interest and charges on said deferred obligation from time to time, prior to the date of delinquency thereof.

E-3. LIMITATION. Nothing contained in this Lease shall require Tenant to pay any federal or state income, franchise, corporate, estate, inheritance, succession or transfer tax of Landlord.

E-4. LANDLORD'S RIGHT. If any Tax is not paid as required by this Article E, then, at its sole option, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, pay the same and shall be entitled to repayment by Tenant as Additional Rent.

E-5. PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES. Tenant shall pay or cause to be paid, prior to delinquency, any and all taxes and assessments levied upon all trade fixtures, inventories and other personal property placed in and upon the Demised Premises by Tenant.

ARTICLE F

INSURANCE AND INDEMNITY

F-1. COVERAGE. The following insurance shall be carried protecting Landlord and any mortgagee of the Demised Premises and first payable in case of loss to such holders or mortgages of the Demised Premises as Landlord may from time to time require:

(a) Insurance providing for payment of replacement costs against damage by fire, extended coverage perils, vandalism and malicious mischief perils and boiler and machinery accident, if applicable (including, without limitation, cost of debris removal and demolition), in an amount not less than ninety percent (90%) of the replacement cost of the Demised Premises. Said costs shall be determined by agreement or appraisal made at the expense of Tenant by an accredited insurance appraiser approved by Landlord. Said agreement or appraisal may be required from time to time by either party whenever alterations or additions increasing value have been made, or three (3) years have elapsed since the last such agreement or appraisal;

(b) Insurance against damage by such other perils as Landlord, or any mortgage lending institution holding a mortgage on the Demised Premises (or mortgage lending institutions generally) may, from time to time, require in case of similar properties and in such amounts;

(c) Insurance against abatement or loss of rent in case of fire or other casualty required to be insured against pursuant to Subsections F-1 (a) and F-1(b) hereof in an amount at least equal to the Fixed Rent, Additional Rent and maintenance expenses to be made by Tenant during one (1) year next ensuring as reasonably determined by Landlord; and

(d) Landlord's comprehensive general liability insurance with limits at least as high as the limits set forth in Subsection A-1 of this Lease, or such higher limits as Landlord may reasonably require in case of increase in risk.

F-2. INSURANCE POLICIES. Landlord shall obtain all insurance required pursuant to Section F-1 hereof, and Tenant shall pay the cost thereof, upon demand, as Additional Rent. All insurance required by the provisions of Section F-1 hereof shall be written with companies reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and in the forms customarily in use from time to time in the locality of the Demised Premises. Landlord shall deposit with holders of mortgages encumbering the Parcel insurance policies, duplicates or certificates as such holders may require and shall provide Tenant with a copy of all such certificates of insurance Said policies or certificates shall provide that such policies shall not be cancelable or subject to reduction of coverage or otherwise be subject to modification except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Landlord and such mortgagees. Unless Landlord advises Tenant to the contrary in writing, such policies carried by Landlord shall have a $1,000 deductible clause and Tenant shall self-insure to the extent of said $1,000.

F-3. TENANT'S GENERAL LIABILITY INSURANCE. Tenant shall, at its own cost and expense, keep and maintain in full force during the Term a policy or policies of comprehensive general liability insurance, written by an insurance company approved by Landlord, in form customary to the locality, insuring Tenant's activities with respect to the Demised Premises against loss, damage or liability for personal injury or death of any person or loss or damage to property occurring in, upon or about the Demised Premises, with limits of not less than those set forth in Subsection A-1 hereinabove including coverage of the liability of Tenant under the provisions of Section F-8 hereinbelow. Each such policy shall name Landlord and Landlord's mortgagees as additional insured and shall contain the following provision: "Such insurance as afforded by this policy for the benefit of Landlord shall be primary as respects any claims, losses or liabilities arising out of the use of the Demised Premises by Tenant or by Tenant's operation and any insurance carried by Landlord shall be excess and non-contributing." If at any time during the Term, Tenant shall have in full force and effect a blanket policy of general liability insurance with the same coverage for the Demised Premises with coverage to include personal injury, bodily injury, broad form property damage, premises/operations, owner's protective coverage, blanket contractual liability, products and completed operations liability, and owned/non-owned auto liability and provisions for cross liability as described above, as well as coverage of other premises and properties of Tenant, or in which Tenant has some interest, such blanket insurance shall satisfy the requirement hereof.

F-4. TENANT'S PROPERTY INSURANCE. Tenant shall assume the risk of damage to any fixtures, goods, inventory, merchandise, equipment, furniture and Tenant's leasehold improvements, and Landlord shall not be liable for injury to Tenant's business or any loss of income therefrom relative to such damage unless due to Landlord's gross negligence or willful misconduct Tenant shall maintain the following coverage with respect to such items during the Term of this Lease, the proceeds of which shall be used by Tenant for repair and replacement of the property so incurred:

(a) Against fire, extended coverage, vandalism, malicious mischief and all risks, upon property of every description and kind owned by Tenant and located within the Demised Premises or for which Tenant is legally liable, or except for real property improvements installed by Landlord prior to the commencement of the Term, installed by or on behalf of Tenant, including, without limitation, furniture, fittings, installations, including Tenant improvements and betterments, fixtures and any other personal property, in an amount not less than ninety percent (90%) of the full replacement cost thereof;

(b) Broad form boiler and machinery insurance on a blanket repair and replacement basis with limits per accident not less than the replacement cost of all Tenant's leasehold improvements and of all boilers, pressure vessels, air conditioning equipment, miscellaneous electrical apparatus and all other insurable objects owned or operated by the Tenant or by others (other than Landlord) on behalf of Tenant in the Demised Premises, or relating to or serving the Demised Premises;

(c) Loss of income and extra expense insurance in such amounts as will reimburse Tenant for direct or indirect loss of earnings attributable to all perils commonly insured against by prudent tenants or attributable to prevention of access to the Demised Premises as a result of such perils; and

(d) Worker's compensation insurance covering all Tenant's employees working in the Demised Premises.

F-5. TENANT'S INSURANCE CERTIFICATES. Tenant shall furnish to Landlord, upon the date of commencement of the Term of this Lease and thereafter within thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of each such policy, a certificate of insurance issued by the insurance carrier of each policy of insurance carried by Tenant pursuant hereto. Said certificates shall expressly provide that such policies shall not be cancelable or subject to reduction of coverage or otherwise be subject to modification except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice by registered mail to the parties named as insureds in this Section F-5. Landlord, its successors and assigns, and any entities holding any interest in the Demised Premises, including, without limitation, any ground lessor and the holder of any fee or leasehold mortgage, shall be named as insureds under each such policy of insurance except worker's compensation insurance, which insurance shall be maintained by Tenant pursuant to this Lease.

F-6. TENANT'S FAILURE. If Tenant fails to maintain any insurance required in this Lease, Tenant shall be liable for any loss or cost resulting from said failure. This Section F-6 shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any of Landlord's rights and remedies under any other provision of this Lease. Nothing in this Article F shall require Tenant to obtain insurance for leasehold improvements installed by Landlord.

F-7. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION. All insurance as required by Section F-1(a)(b)(c) and F-4 carried by either party, shall include provisions denying to the insurer acquisition by subrogation of rights of recovery against the other party to the extent the rights have been waived by the insured prior to occurrence of loss or injury. The other party shall be entitled to have certificates of the policies containing such provisions. Tenant shall not acquire as an insured under any insurance on the Building, or as a payee of any such insurance proceeds, any right to participate in the adjustment of loss or to receive the proceeds except as specifically provided in Section K-1. Each party, notwithstanding any provisions of this Lease to the contrary, waives any rights of recovery against the other for loss or injury against which the waiving party is protected by insurance containing provisions denying to the insurer acquisition of rights by subrogation.

F-8. INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD. Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord and the Demised Premises harmless from and against (a) any and all liability, penalties, losses, damages, costs and expenses, demands, causes of action, claims or judgments arising from or growing out of any injury to any person or persons or any damage to any property as a result of any accident or other occurrence during the Term of this Lease occasioned by any act or omission of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, servants, subtenants, concessionaires, licensees, contractors, invitees or permittees, or arising from or growing out of the use, maintenance, occupation or operation of the Demised

Premises during the Term of this Lease, and (b) all legal costs and charges, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, incurred with respect to any of such matters and the defense of any action out of the same or in discharging the Demised Premises or any part thereof from any and all liens, charges or judgments which may accrue or be placed thereon by reason of any act or omission of the Tenant; provided, however, that Tenants shall not be required to indemnify Landlord for any damage or injury of any kind arising as the result of Landlord's grossly negligent or willful acts or those of its agents or employees.

F-9. DISTRIBUTION OF AWARD. In the event of damage to or destruction of the Demised Premises entitling Landlord to terminate this Lease pursuant to Article K hereinbelow, and if Landlord terminates this Lease, Tenant will immediately pay to Landlord all of Tenant's insurance proceeds, if any, relating to the unamortized portion, if any Tenant's leasehold improvements and alterations (but not to Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment, furniture or other personal property of Tenant) installed at Landlord's expense in the Demised Premises.

ARTICLE G

REPAIRS, MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS

G-1. TENANT REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE. In addition to the payments to be made by Tenant pursuant to Section D-3 hereof, Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, keep and maintain the Demised Premises, including, without limitation, all floors except latent construction defects, subfloors, floor coverings, windows, ceilings, skylights, interior walls, fixtures, doors, electrical and lighting equipment, plumbing, heating, ventilating, air conditioning (Tenant shall procure and maintain, at Tenant's expense, an HVAC maintenance contract, a copy of which shall be delivered to Landlord), loading areas, signs, and all other portions of the Demised Premises not maintained by Landlord pursuant to Section G-3 below, in all respects in good repair and in a clean and safe condition, and if impractical to repair, then the foregoing items shall be replaced. Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, immediately upon breakage, replace all glass in the Demised Premises that may be broken during the Term with glass at least equal to the specification and quality of the glass so replaced. Notwithstanding the foregoing. If Tenant is not properly performing any such maintenance or repair responsibilities, Landlord shall have the option to assume any or all of the foregoing maintenance and repair responsibilities and to require Tenant to reimburse Landlord, as Additional Rent, for the cost of all such services, together with an accounting and management services fee of ten percent (10%) of the cost of such services.

G-2. LANDLORD'S RIGHTS. If Tenant fails to perform Tenant's obligations under Section G-1, or under any other provision of this Lease, or if Landlord otherwise deems it reasonably necessary to do so, Landlord shall have the option to enter upon the Demised Premises after ten (10) days' prior written notice to Tenant, or in the case of any emergency immediately with such notice, if any, as is possible under the circumstances, in order to perform such obligations on Tenant's behalf and put the Demised Premises in good order, condition, and repair. The cost of such performance by Landlord together with interest thereon at the Default Rate then allowable by law shall become due and payable as Additional Rent to Landlord.

G-3. LANDLORD REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE. Except as may be attributable to the Tenant's negligence or willful misconduct or breach of its obligations hereunder, Landlord shall keep and maintain in good condition and repair the foundation, exterior walls, structural elements and the roof structure and roof skin of the Building. In addition, Landlord will maintain the driveways, sidewalks, walkways, parking lots, fences, lawns and landscaping on the Parcel. "Costs of Operation and Maintenance" (as defined in Section D-3 hereof) shall include all expenses incurred by Landlord pursuant to this Section G-3. (except the structural responsibilities of Landlord described above). Except for the obligations of Landlord hereunder and under Article K (Damage or Destruction) and Article L (Eminent Domain), it is intended by the parties to this Lease that Landlord have no additional obligations to repair and maintain the Demised Premises or the equipment therein, all of which other obligations are intended to be those of the Tenant under Section G-1. Tenant expressly waives the benefit of any statute or regulation which would otherwise afford Tenant the right to make repairs at Landlord's expense or to terminate this Lease because of Landlord's failure to keep the Demised Premises in good order, condition and repair. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for injury or damage that may result from any defect in the construction or condition of the Demised Premises except due to Landlord's gross negligence or willful misconduct; provided, however, that Landlord shall be responsible for latent defects of construction in the building floor slab. Tenant waives any right to make repairs at the expense of Landlord under any law, statute or ordinance now or hereafter in effect.

G-4. ALTERATIONS.

(a) INSTALLATION AND REMOVAL. Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, make any alterations, improvements or additions, including, without limitation, the installation of lighting fixtures, space heaters, air conditioning, electrical equipment, power panels, plumbing, carpeting, window coverings, air lines and fencing or changes to the exterior paint or type of exterior materials (collectively "Alterations"), in, on or about the Demised Premises, except for interior non-structural alterations not exceeding $10,000 in cost. In no event shall Tenant be entitled to penetrate the exterior or roof of the Building with respect to any alteration without Landlord's prior written approval. As a condition to any approval by Landlord of any such alterations or improvements, Landlord may at the time of the request require that Tenant remove any or all of said Alterations at the expiration of the Term and restore the Demised Premises to their condition prior to Tenant's installing Alterations. Should Tenant make any Alterations without the prior approval of Landlord, Landlord may require that Tenant remove any or all of the same.

(b) PLANS AND PERMITS. Any Alterations in or about the Demised Premises that Tenant shall desire to make and which require the consent of the Landlord shall be presented to the Landlord in written form, with proposed detailed plans. If Landlord shall give its consent, the consent shall be deemed conditioned upon Tenant's acquiring a permit to perform such Alterations from appropriate governmental agencies, the furnishing of a copy thereof to Landlord prior to the commencement of the work and the compliance by Tenant with all conditions of said permit in a prompt and expeditious manner. In considering whether or not to issue Landlord's prior written consent to any Alterations, Landlord shall have the right to require Tenant to take all reasonable necessary steps to avoid potential mechanics' or materialmen's liens, which rights shall include, but not be limited to, requiring Tenant to obtain a payment or performance bond (only with respect to improvements costing in excess of $100,000) requiring that Tenant use only creditworthy subcontractors, requiring that Tenant obtain lien releases during the progress of construction and requiring that Tenant hold back a percentage of the cost of construction until lien free completion has occurred. Tenant shall reimburse to Landlord, on demand, Landlord's reasonable costs of review and approval of such plans and permits, including any out-of-pocket costs incurred by Landlord for any third party services contracted by Landlord to assist Landlord in connection with its work of review and approval.

(c) EXPIRATION OF TERM. Unless Landlord requires their removal, as set forth in Subsection G-4(a), all Alterations which may be made on the Demised Premises shall become the property of surrendered with the Demised Premises at the expiration of the Term. Notwithstanding the provision of this Subsection G-4(c), Tenant's machinery and equipment (including the bin mezzanine) other than that which is affixed to the Demised Premises so that it cannot be removed without material damage to the Demised Premises, shall remain the property of the Tenant and shall be removed by Tenant. Subject to the foregoing, on the last day of the Term hereof, or on any sooner termination, Tenant shall surrender the Demised Premises, including but not limited to all buildings, equipment, landscaping, driveways, walkways and parking lots, to Landlord to the extent provided by Landlord in the same condition as when received, broom clean, ordinary wear and tear and casualty excepted. Tenant shall repair any damage to the Demised Premises occasioned by the removal of Tenant's trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment pursuant to this Subsection G-4(c), which repair shall include the patching and filling of holes and repair of structural damage. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated or implied elsewhere in this Lease, Tenant shall leave all power panels, electrical systems, lighting fixtures, plumbing, space heaters, air conditioning, air lines, and fencing on the Demised Premises in good operating condition.

G-5. INSPECTION OF LEASED PREMISES. Landlord, at reasonable times, with prior notice may go upon and into the Demised Premises for the purpose of inspecting the same for the purpose of inspecting the performance by Tenant of the terms and conditions hereof, and/or for the purpose of affixing reasonable signs and displays and showing the Demised Premises to prospective purchasers, tenants and lenders.

G-6. WORKMANLIKE QUALITY. All repairs, alterations, additions, and restoration by Landlord or Tenant hereinafter required or permitted shall be done in a good and workmanlike manner and in compliance with all applicable laws and lawful ordinances, by-laws, regulations and order of applicable governmental authority and of the insurers of the Building.

G-7. LIENS. Tenant shall promptly pay and discharge all claims for services, supplies, labor or materials furnished or alleged to have been furnished to or for Tenant at or for use in the Demised Premises excluding original improvements installed by Landlord pursuant to Exhibit C which claims are or may be secured by any mechanics' or materialmen's lien against the Demised Premises or any interest therein. Tenant shall give Landlord not less than ten (10) days' written notice prior to the commencement of any work in the Demised Premises, and Landlord shall have the right to post notices of non-responsibility in or on the Demised Premises as provided by law. If Tenant shall, in good faith, contest the validity of any such lien claim or demand then Tenant shall at its sole expense defend itself and Landlord against the same and shall pay and satisfy any adverse judgment that may be rendered thereon before the enforcement thereof against the Landlord or the Demised Premises, upon the condition that if Landlord shall require, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord a surety bond or other security satisfactory to Landlord in an amount equal to such contested lien claim or demand indemnifying Landlord against liability for the same and holding the Demised Premises free from the effect of such lien or claim. If any such lien is filed and Tenant has not provided security as described above Landlord may, but shall not be required to, take such action or pay such amount as may be necessary to remove such lien and Tenant shall pay Landlord as Additional Rent any such amounts expended by Landlord together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date of expenditure and other remedies of Landlord not waived.

G-8. SURRENDER. On the last day of the termination, Tenant shall surrender the Demised same condition as when received, broom clean, ordinary wear and tear and casualty excepted. Tenant shall repair any damage to the Demised Premises occasioned by the removal of Tenant's trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment as more particularly provided in Article H hereinbelow, which repair shall include but not be limited to the patching and filling of holes within the Demised Premises, repair of structural damage, and resurfacing of the parking areas if the parking areas require the filling of holes or the patching of broken-up material. All penetrations of the roof made by or at the request of Tenant shall be resealed and water-tight. In no event may Tenant remove from the Demised Premises any mechanical or electrical systems, including heating or ventilating, air lines, power panels, electrical distribution system, lighting fixtures, space heaters, air conditioning, plumbing and fencing, unless Landlord specifically permits such removal in writing.

ARTICLE H

TENANT'S FIXTURES AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

Except as may be otherwise provided in Section G-4 above, Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, may install any necessary trade fixtures, equipment and furniture in the improvements, provided that such items are installed and are removable without damage to the structure of the Building. Landlord reserves the right to approve or disapprove curtains, draperies, shades, paint, or other interior improvements visible from outside the Building on wholly aesthetic grounds. Such improvements must be submitted for Landlord's written approval prior to installation, or Landlord may remove or replace such items at Tenant's sole expense. Said trade fixtures, equipment and furniture shall remain Tenant's property and shall be removed by Tenant upon expiration of the Term, or earlier termination of this Lease. Upon Landlord's prior written approval, Tenant may install temporary improvements in the Demised Premises, provided that such temporary improvements are installed and are removable without damage to the structure of the Building. Such temporary improvements shall remain the property of Tenant and shall be removed by Tenant upon expiration of the Term, or earlier termination of this Lease. Tenant shall repair, at its sole cost and expense, all damage caused by the installation or removal of trade fixtures, equipment, furniture or temporary improvements. If Tenant fails to remove the foregoing items on termination of this Lease, Landlord may keep and use them or remove any or all of them and cause them to be stored or sold in accordance with applicable law.

ARTICLE I

UTILITIES AND EASEMENTS

I-1. UTILITIES. Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall promptly pay all charges for heat, water, gas, electricity and any other utilities used or consumed on the Demised Premises. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for interruption in or curtailment of any utility service unless due to Landlord's gross negligence or willful misconduct nor shall any such interruption or curtailment constitute a constructive eviction or grounds for rental abatement in whole or in part hereunder. In the event that any utility provided to the Demised Premises is not currently metered separately to the Demised Premises, Landlord shall allocate on a equitable basis the charges for such utility as a "Cost of Operation and Maintenance" pursuant to Section D-3 of this Lease. In the event that, in Landlord's reasonable determination, Landlord shall elect to cause any utility to be separately metered to the Demised Premises, the costs thereof shall be paid by Tenant as Additional Rent. Tenant shall have the right to install a submeter at its own cost and expense.

I-2. EASEMENTS. Landlord reserves the right to grant easements on the Parcel, make boundary adjustments to the Parcel, and to dedicate for public use portions of the Parcel, without Tenant's consent, provided that no such grant or dedication shall interfere with Tenant's use of the Demised Premises, the Tenant's exclusive parking or access to the Premises or otherwise cause Tenant to incur cost or expense. From time to time upon Landlord's demand, Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord in accordance with Landlord's instructions any and all documents or instruments necessary to effect Tenant's covenants herein.

ARTICLE J

USE OF PREMISES

J-1. GENERAL. The Demised Premises shall be used for the uses consistent with the Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions and any supplement thereto. Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, comply with all of the requirements of the Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions as described in Exhibit D to this Lease, the Rules and regulations attached as Exhibit E to the Lease, and all requirements of municipal, county state, federal and other applicable governmental authorities, now in force, or which may hereafter be in force, pertaining to the Demised Premises, including without limitation, any certificate of occupancy, shall not permit outside storage or dumping of waste or refuse nor permit any harmful materials to be placed in any drainage system or sanitary system, shall secure all necessary permits for the use of the Demised Premises and shall faithfully observe, in the use of the Demised Premises, all municipal and county ordinances and state and federal statutes now in force, or which may hereafter be in force. Tenant in its use and occupancy of the Demised Premises shall not commit waste, nor overload the walls, ceilings, roof, floors or structure, nor subject the Demised Premises to any use which would tend to damage any portion thereof, nor permit any nuisance therein or thereupon such as offensive sound, light or odor.

J-2. SIGNS. Any sign placed or erected by Tenant on the Demised Premises, except those not visible from the exterior of the Demised Premises, shall be in full compliance with the sign program for the development in which the Building is located, and shall contain only Tenant's name or the name of any affiliate of Tenant actually occupying the Demised Premises, and shall not contain any advertising matter. No such sign shall be erected until Tenant has obtained Landlord's written approval of the location, materials, size, design and content thereof and any necessary permit therefor. Tenant shall remove any such sign upon termination of this Lease and shall return the Demised Premises to their condition prior to the placement or erection of said sign.

J-3. PARKING AND USE OF COMMON AREAS AND FACILITIES.

(a) Landlord hereby grants to Tenant and its successors and assigns, a non-exclusive license and right for Tenant and its permitted subtenants, in common with Landlord and all persons, firms and corporations conducting business in the Demised Premises and their respective customers, guests, licensees, invitees, subtenants, employees and agents to use the Common Areas for vehicular parking, for pedestrian and vehicular ingress, egress and travel, and for such other purposes as may be provided for, authorized and/or permitted by the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, such non-exclusive license and right to be appurtenant to Tenant's leasehold estate in and to the Demised Premises created by this Lease. The non-exclusive license and right granted pursuant to the provisions of this Paragraph shall be subject to the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions and the provisions of this Lease.

(b) USE OF COMMON AREAS. Nothing to the contrary herein, Tenant agrees for itself and for its successors, assigns, employees, and agents that it and they shall use the Common Areas only for the purposes permitted hereby. It is understood that all uses permitted within the Common Areas shall be undertaken with reason and judgment so as not to interfere with the primary use of said Common Areas which is to provide parking and vehicular and pedestrian access throughout the Common Areas and to adjacent public streets for the Landlord, its tenants, subtenants and all persons, firms and corporations conducting business within the Demised Premises and their respective customers, guests, and licensees. In no event shall Tenant erect or cause to be erected any structure, building, trailer, fence, wall, signs or other obstructions on the Common Areas, nor shall Tenant store or sell any merchandise, equipment and/or materials on the Common Areas.

(c) CONTROL AND MAINTENANCE OF COMMON AREAS.

(i) Subject to provisions of the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, and except as provided below, it is understood and agreed that all Common Areas and all improvements located from time to time within such Common Areas are for the general use, in common, of the Landlord and its tenants and subtenants and all persons, firms and corporations conducting business in the Demised Premises and their respective customers, guests, licensees, invitees, employees and agents, and shall at all times be subject to the exclusive control and management of the Landlord.

(ii) Landlord shall have the right to construct, maintain and operate lighting facilities within the Common Areas; to police the Common Areas from time to time; to change the area, level, location and arrangement of the parking areas and other improvements within the Common Areas other than in the exclusive parking area without Tenant's prior consent to restrict parking by tenants, their officers, agents and employees to employee parking areas; to reserve certain portions of the Common Areas (including parking spaces) for a particular manner of use or for use by specific tenants of the Building; to enforce parking charges by operation of meters or otherwise if required to do so by any governmental entity; to close all or any portion of the Common Areas or improvements therein to such extent as may, in the opinion of counsel for Landlord, be legally sufficient to prevent a dedication thereof or the accrual of any rights to any person or to the public therein; to close temporarily all or any portion of the Common Areas and/or the improvements thereon; to discourage non-customer parking; and to do and perform such other acts in and to said Common Areas and improvements thereon as, in the use of good business judgment, Landlord shall determine to be advisable.

(iii) Subject to the provisions of the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, Landlord shall have the full right and authority (but not the obligation) to employ or cause to be employed all personnel and to make or cause to be made all rules and regulations pertaining to or necessary for the proper operation and maintenance of the Common Areas and the improvements located thereon. The current rules and regulations pertaining to the Building and the Parcel ("Rules and Regulations") are attached hereto as Exhibit E. Such Rules and Regulations are subject to addition, deletion and modification by Landlord from time to time provided that such changes are nondiscriminatory as to Tenant and further provided that copies of such revisions are delivered to Tenant and not enforced in a discriminatory manner.

(iv) Any use of the Common Areas in violation of the restrictions set forth hereinabove shall constitute a material default under this Lease.

(d) PARKING ACCESS. In addition to the general obligation of Tenant to comply with laws, and without limitation thereof, Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant nor shall this Lease be affected if any parking privileges appurtenant to the Demised Premises are impaired by reason of any moratorium, initiative, referendum, statute, regulation, or other governmental decree or action, or by any flooding of the parking areas, which could in any manner prevent or limit the parking rights of Tenant hereunder. Any governmental charges or surcharges or other monetary obligations imposed relative to parking rights with respect to the Demised Premises shall be considered as Taxes and shall be payable by Tenant under the provisions of Article E hereinabove.

ARTICLE K

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

K-1. RECONSTRUCTION. If the improvements are damaged or destroyed during the Term, Landlord shall, except as hereinafter provided, diligently repair or rebuild them to substantially the condition in which they existed immediately prior to such damage or destruction; provided that any damage which is estimated in good faith by Landlord to be under $5,000 shall be repaired by Tenant, and Landlord shall reimburse Tenant upon demand for expenses incurred in such repair work to the extent of any proceeds received by Landlord from extended coverage insurance described in Section F-1.

K-2. RENT ABATEMENT. Rent due and payable hereunder shall be abated proportionately, during any period in which, by reason of any such damage or destruction, Tenant reasonably determines that there is substantial interference with the operation of Tenant's business in the Demised Premises, having regard to the extent to which Tenant may be required to discontinue its business in the Demised Premises. Such abatement shall continue for the period commencing with such damage or destruction and ending with the substantial completion by Landlord of the work or repair or reconstruction which Landlord is obligated or undertakes to do. If it be determined that continuation of business is not practical pending reconstruction, all Rent due and payable hereunder shall abate to the extent the Premises is not in use until reconstruction is substantially completed or until business is totally or partially resumed, whichever is the earlier.

K-3. EXCESSIVE DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION. If the Improvements are damaged or destroyed to the extent the Landlord determines that they cannot, with reasonable diligence, be fully repaired or restored by Landlord within one hundred eighty (180) days after commencement of restoration work with respect to the damage or destruction, the sole right of both Landlord and Tenant shall be the option to terminate this Lease. Landlord shall determine whether the improvements can be fully repaired or restored within the one hundred eighty (180) day period, and Landlord's determination shall be conclusive on Tenant. Landlord shall notify Tenant of its determination, in writing, within thirty (30) days after the date of the damage or destruction. If Landlord determines that the improvements can be fully repaired or restored within the one hundred eight (180) day period, or if it is determined that such repair or restoration cannot be made within said period but neither party elects to terminate this Lease within thirty (30) days from the date of said determination, this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and Landlord shall diligently repair and restore the damage as soon as reasonably possible.

K-4. UNINSURED CASUALTY. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, in the event of damage to or destruction of all or any portion of the improvements which damage or destruction is not fully covered by the insurance proceeds received by Landlord or which has not been insured under the insurance policies required under Section F-1 above, Landlord may terminate this Lease by written notice to Tenant, given within thirty (30) days after the date of notice to Landlord that said damage or destruction is not so covered. If Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and the Improvements shall be repaired and rebuilt in accordance with the provision for repair set forth in Section K-1 hereinabove. See Rider No. 1.

K-5. WAIVER. With respect to any destruction which Landlord is obligated to repair or may elect to repair under the terms of this Article K, Tenant hereby waives all right to terminate this Lease pursuant to rights otherwise presently or hereafter accorded by law to tenants, except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

K-6. DAMAGE NEAR END OF TERM. If the Improvements are destroyed or materially damaged during the last twenty-four (24) months of the term of this Lease, Landlord may at Landlord's option, cancel and terminate this Lease as of the date of occurrence of such damage by giving written notice to Tenant of Landlord's election to do so within thirty (30) days after the date of occurrence of such damage.

ARTICLE L

EMINENT DOMAIN

L-1. TOTAL CONDEMNATION OF DEMISED PREMISES. If the whole of the Demised Premises or access thereto is acquired or condemned by eminent domain, inversely condemned or sold in lieu of condemnation, for any public or quasi-public use or purpose ("Condemned"), then the Term shall terminate as of the date of title vesting in such proceeding, and Rent shall be adjusted to the date of termination. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of any such occurrence.

L-2. PARTIAL CONDEMNATION. If any part of the Demised Premises is partially Condemned, and such partial condemnation renders the Demised Premises unusable for the business of the Tenant, then the Term of the Lease shall terminate as of the date of title vesting in such proceeding and Rent shall be adjusted to the date of termination. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of any such occurrence. If such condemnation is not extensive enough to render the Demised Premises unusable for the business of Tenant, then Landlord shall promptly restore the Demised Premises to a condition comparable to its condition immediately prior to such condemnation to the extent of any condemnation proceeds recovered by Landlord less the portion thereof lost in such condemnation, and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect except that after the date of such title vesting the Rent shall be reduced as reasonably determined by Landlord. If any parking areas are Condemned, Landlord has the option, but not the obligation, to supply Tenant with alternate parking or Tenant may terminate by not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord.

L-3. LANDLORD'S AWARD. If the Demised Premises are wholly or partially Condemned, then, subject to the provision of Section L-4, Landlord shall be entitled to the entire award paid for such condemnation, and Tenant waives any right or claim in any part thereof from Landlord or the condemning authority.

L-4. TENANT'S AWARD. Tenant shall have the right to claim and recover from the condemning authority, but not from Landlord, such compensations as may be separately awarded or recoverable by Tenant in Tenant's own right on account of any and all costs or loss (including loss of business) to which Tenant might be put in removing Tenant's merchandise, furniture, fixtures, leasehold improvements and equipment to a new location.

L-5. TEMPORARY CONDEMNATION. If the whole or any part of the Demised Premises shall be Condemned for any temporary public or quasi-public use or purpose, this Lease shall remain in effect and Tenant shall be entitled to receive for itself such portion or portions of any award made for such use with respect to the period of the taking which is within the Term. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of any such occurrence. If a temporary condemnation remains in force at the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a sum equal to the reasonable cost of performing any obligations required of Tenant by this Lease with respect to the surrender of the Demised Premises, including, without limitation, repairs and maintenance required, and upon such payment Tenant shall be excused from any such obligations. If a temporary condemnation is for an established period which extends beyond the Term, this Lease shall terminate as of the date of occupancy by the condemning authority, and the damages shall be as provided in Section L-3 and L-4 and Rent shall be adjusted to the date of such condemnation.

L-6. NOTICE AND EXECUTION. Landlord shall, immediately upon service of process in connection with any condemnation or potential condemnation, give Tenant's notice in writing thereof. Tenant shall immediately execute and deliver to Landlord all instruments that may be required to effect the provision of this Article L.

ARTICLE M

DEFAULT

M-1. EVENTS OF DEFAULT. The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an "Event of Default" on the part of Tenant with or without notice from Landlord:

(b) PAYMENT. Failure to pay an installment of Rent or other monies due and payable hereunder upon the date when said payment is due, the failure continuing for a period of ten (10) days after written notice is delivered to Tenant that said payment is due delinquent agreements or obligations hereunder, except default in the payment of Rent or other monies, the default continuing for thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Landlord; provided, that if the default can not be cured in thirty (30) days, Tenant shall have such time as is reasonably required to complete such cure, but in no event to exceed sixty (60) days.

(c) PERFORMANCE. Default in the performance of any of Tenant's covenants,

(d) ASSIGNMENT. A general assignment by Tenant for the benefit of creditors; event to exceed sixty (60) days.

(e) BANKRUPTCY. The filing of a voluntary petition in bankruptcy by Tenant, a voluntary petition for an arrangement, a voluntary or involuntary petition for reorganization, or the filling of an involuntary petition by Tenant's creditors, immediately unless involuntarily, in which case when the petition remains undischarged for a period of ninety (90) days;

(f) RECEIVER. The appointment of a receiver to take possession of substantially all of Tenant's assets or of this leasehold, the receivership remaining undissolved for a period of ninety (90) days; or

(g) ATTACHMENT. Attachment, execution or other judicial seizure of all or substantially all of Tenant's assets or this leasehold, the attachment, execution or other seizure remaining undismissed or undischarged for a period of ninety (90) days after the levy thereof.

M-2. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES.

(a) ABANDONMENT. If Tenant vacates or abandons the Demised Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect. Landlord shall not be deemed to have terminated this Lease other than by written notice of termination from Landlord, and Landlord shall have all of the remedies of a landlord provided by the laws of the State in which the Demised Premises are located. At any time subsequent to vacation or abandonment of the Demised Premises by Tenant, Landlord may give notice of termination and shall thereafter have all of the rights hereinafter set forth.

(b) TERMINATION. Following the occurrence of any Event of Default, Landlord shall have the right, so long as the default continues, to terminate this Lease by written notice to Tenant setting forth: (i) the default, (ii) the requirements to cure it, and (iii) a demand for possession, which shall be effective three (3) days after it is given or upon expiration of the time required by applicable law, whichever is later.

(c) POSSESSION. Following termination under Subsection M-2(b), without prejudice to any other remedies Landlord may have by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination, Landlord may then or at any time thereafter (i) peaceably reenter the Demised Premises, or any part thereof, upon voluntary surrender by Tenant, or expel or remove Tenant therefrom together with any other persons occupying them, using such legal proceedings as are then available; (ii) again repossess and enjoy the Demised Premises, or relet the Demised Premises, or any part thereof, for such term or terms (which may be for a term extending beyond the Term) at such rental or rentals and upon such other terms and conditions as Landlord in its sole discretion shall determine, with the right to make reasonable alterations and repairs to the Demised Premises; and (iii) remove all property therefrom at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and all fixtures and Tenant's temporary improvements within the Demised Premises shall become the property of Landlord.

(d) RECOVERY. Following termination under Subsection M-2(b), Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by the laws of the State in which the Demised Premises are located. The amount of damages which Landlord may recover following termination under Subsection M-2(b) shall include: (i) the worth at the time of award of any unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination of Tenant's right to possession; (ii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after the date of termination of Tenant's right to possession until the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; (iii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term, after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided; and (iv) any and all other amounts, including court, attorney and collection costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment approximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom. The "worth" as used for clauses (i) and (ii) in this subparagraph (d) is to be computed by allowing interest at the Default Rate as defined in Section Q-17 hereof. The "worth" as used for clause (iii) in this subparagraph (d) is to be computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank located nearest the Demised Premises at the time of the award plus one percent (1%).

(e) ADDITIONAL REMEDIES. In addition to the foregoing remedies, Landlord, shall, so long as this Lease is not terminated, have the right to remedy any default of Tenant, to maintain or improve the Demised Premises without terminating this Lease, to incur expenses on behalf of Tenant in seeking a new subtenant, or to cause a receiver to be appointed to administer the Demised Premises and new or existing subleases, and to add to the Rent payable hereunder all of Landlord's reasonable costs in so doing, with interest at the Default Rate from the date of such expenditure until the same is repaid.

(f) OTHER. If Tenant causes or threatens to cause a breach of any of the covenants, agreements, terms or conditions contained in this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to repossess the Premises by forcible entry or unlawful detainer suit, otherwise, to enjoin such breach or threatened breach, and to invoke any right and remedy allowed at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise as though reentry, summary proceedings and other remedies were not provided for in this Lease.

(g) CUMULATIVE. Each right and remedy of Landlord provided for in this Lease shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise. The exercise or beginning of the exercise by Landlord of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in this Lease, or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise, shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by Landlord of any or all other rights or remedies provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise.

(h) NO WAIVER. No failure by Landlord to insist upon the strict performance of any term hereof or to exercise any right or remedy consequent upon a breach thereof, and no acceptance of full or partial payment of Rent during the continuance of any such breach, shall constitute a waiver of any such breach or of any such term. Efforts by Landlord to mitigate the damages caused by Tenant's breach of this Lease shall not be construed to be a waiver of Landlord's right to recover damages under this Article M. Nothing in this Article M affects the right of Landlord to indemnification by Tenant in accordance with Section F-8 hereinabove for liability arising prior to the termination of this Lease for personal injuries or property damage.

ARTICLE N

ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

N-1. PROHIBITION. Tenant shall not assign, mortgage, pledge or otherwise transfer this Lease, in whole or in part, nor sublet or permit occupancy by any party other than Tenant of all or any part of the Demised Premises, without the prior written consent of Landlord in each instance. Any purported Assignment or subletting contrary to the provisions hereof without consent shall be void. The consent by Landlord to any assignment or subletting shall not constitute a waiver of the necessity for such consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. As Additional Rent hereunder, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for reasonable legal and other expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with any request by Tenant for consent to assignment or subletting.

N-2. LANDLORD'S OPTION.

(a) SUBLESSEE OR ASSIGNEE DATA. In connection with any proposed assignment or sublease, Tenant shall submit to Landlord in writing (i) the name of the proposed assignee or sublessee, (ii) such information as to such sublessee's or assignee's financial responsibility and standing as Landlord may reasonably require, and (iii) all of the terms and conditions upon which the proposed assignment or subletting is to be made. Landlord shall have an option to cancel and terminate this Lease, if the request is to assign the Lease or to sublet all of the Demised Premises; or, if the request is to sublet in excess of one half (1/2) of the Demised Premises, to cancel and terminate this Lease with respect to such portion. Landlord may exercise said option in writing within thirty (30) days after its receipt from Tenant of such request, and in each case such cancellation or termination shall occur as of the date set forth in Landlord's notice of exercise of such option, which shall be not less than sixty (60) days nor more than one hundred-twenty (120) days following the giving of such notice. See Rider No. 1

(b) CANCELLATION. If Landlord shall exercise its option, Tenant shall surrender possession of the entire Demised Premises, or the portion thereof which is subject of the option, as the case may be, on the date set forth in such notice in accordance with the provisions of this Lease relating to surrender of the Demised Premises at the expiration of the Term. If this Lease is canceled as to a portion of the Demised Premises only, the Fixed Rent after the date of cancellation shall be reduced ratably based upon the portion of the Demised Premises recaptured by Landlord.

(c) NONCANCELLATION. If Landlord does not exercise its option to cancel this Lease pursuant to the foregoing provision, Landlord may withhold its consent to such assignment or subletting, as long as the withholding is not done unreasonably, and such consent shall be deemed reasonably withheld if the sublease/assignment and Tenant's sublessee/assignee do not comply with the provisions of Article N.

(d) ASSUMPTION. No assignment shall be binding upon Landlord, any ground lessor or any mortgagee, unless Tenant shall deliver to Landlord an assignment in recordable form which contains an assumption by the assignee, but the failure or refusal of the assignee to execute such instrument or assumption shall not release or discharge assignee from liability as Tenant hereunder, provided that the terms and provisions of the assignment or subletting specifically make applicable to the assignee or sublessee all of the provisions of this Lease.

(e) INDUCEMENT. Tenant understands and acknowledges that the option to terminate this Lease rather than approve the assignment thereof, or the subletting of all or a portion of the Demised Premises, as provided in this Section N-2, is a material inducement for Landlord's agreeing to lease the Demised Premises to Tenant upon the terms and conditions herein set forth.

N-3. EXCESS SUBLEASE RENTAL OR ASSIGNMENT CONSIDERATION. If for any sublease or assignment, Tenant receives rent or other consideration, either initially or over the term of the sublease or assignment, in excess of the Rent called for hereunder, or in case of the sublease of a portion of the Demised Premises, in excess of such Rent fairly allocable to such portion, after appropriate adjustments to assure that all other payments called for hereunder are appropriately taken into account, and less reasonable costs of subleasing, such as broker commissions and tenant improvements. Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent hereunder, one-half (1/2) of the excess of such payment of rent or other consideration received by Tenant promptly after Tenant's receipt.

N-4. SCOPE. The prohibition against assigning or subletting contained in this Article N shall be construed to include a prohibition against any assignment or subletting by operation of law. If this Lease is assigned, or if the underlying beneficial interest of Tenant has transferred, or if the Demised Premises or any part thereof is sublet or occupied by anybody other than Tenant, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee, subtenant or occupancy and apply the net amount collected to the Rent herein reserved and apportion any excess rent so collected in accordance with the terms of Section N-3 hereof, but no such assignment, subletting, occupancy or collection shall be deemed a waiver of this covenant, or the acceptance of the assignee, subtenant or occupant as tenant, or a release of Tenant from the further performance by Tenant of covenants on the part of Tenant herein contained. No assignment or subletting shall affect the continuing primary liability of Tenant (which, following assignment and subletting, shall be joint and several with the assignee or sublessee), and Tenant shall not be released from performing any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease.

N-5. WAIVER. Notwithstanding any assignment or sublease, or any indulgences, waivers or extensions of time granted by landlord to any assignee or sublessee, or the failure by landlord to take action against any assignee or sublessee, Tenant hereby waives notice of any default of any assignee or sublessee and agrees that Landlord may, at its option, proceed against Tenant without having taken action against or joined such assignee or sublessee, except that Tenant shall have the benefit of any indulgences, waivers and extensions of time granted to any such assignee or sublessee.

N-6. RELEASE. Whenever Landlord conveys its interest in the Parcel, Landlord shall be automatically released from the further performance of covenants on the part of Landlord herein contained, and from any and all further liability, obligations, costs and expenses, demands, causes of action, claims or judgments arising from or growing out of, or connected with this Lease after the effective date of said release. The effective date of said release shall be the date the assignee executes an assumption of such an assignment whereby the assignee expressly agrees to assume all of Landlord's obligations, duties, responsibilities and liabilities with respect to this Lease. If requested, Tenant shall execute a form of release and such other documentation as may be required to further effect the provisions of this Section N-6.

ARTICLE O

ESTOPPEL STATEMENT, ATTORNMENT AND SUBORDINATION

O-1. ESTOPPEL STATEMENT. Within ten (10) days after request therefor by Landlord, or, if on any sale, ground lease, assignment or hypothecation by Landlord of its interest in the Parcel or the Building, an estoppel statement shall be required from Tenant, Tenant shall deliver, in form satisfactory to Landlord and the requesting party, a certificate to any proposed mortgagee, beneficiary, ground lessor or purchaser, and/or if so requested to Landlord, certifying (if such be the case) that this Lease is in full force and effect (without modification except as disclosed therein), the Commencement Date hereof, that except as disclosed on such certificate, there are no material changes in the information disclosed to Landlord in the Hazardous Materials Questionnaire described in Section Q-21 (a) hereof, the date of Tenant's most recent payment of Rent, that there are no defenses or offsets outstanding, or stating those claimed by Tenant, and as to any other matters affecting the Lease and/or Tenant's occupancy of the Demised Premises as the requesting party has a legitimate interest in knowing. Tenant's failure to deliver said statement within the allotted time shall be conclusive upon Tenant that: (a) this Lease is in full force and effect, without modification except as may be represented by Landlord, (b) there are no uncured defaults in Landlord's performance and Tenant has no right of offset, counterclaim or deduction against Rent hereunder, and (c) no more than one calendar month's Fixed Rent has been paid in advance, and shall further constitute an Event of Default under this Lease.

O-2. ATTORNMENT. In the event any proceedings are brought for the foreclosure of, or in the event of exercise of the power of sale under, any mortgage or deed of trust made by the encumbering the Demised Premises, or any part thereof, or in the event of termination of the ground lease, if any, and if so requested, Tenant shall attorn to the purchaser upon such foreclosure or sale or upon any grant of a deed in lieu of foreclosure and shall recognize such purchaser as the Landlord under this Lease.

O-3. SUBORDINATION. The rights of Tenant hereunder are, and shall be, at the election of any mortgagee encumbering the Demised Premises, subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage or mortgages, or the lien resulting from any other method of financing or refinancing now or hereafter in force against the Parcel, and to all advances made or hereafter to be made upon the security thereof; provided, however, that notwithstanding such subordination, so long as the Tenant herein is not in default under any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, and upon Tenant's covenanting that Tenant is not in default hereunder, neither this Lease nor any of the rights of Tenant hereunder shall be terminated or subject to termination by any trustee's sale by any action to enforce the security, or by any proceeding or action in foreclosure. If requested, Tenant agrees to execute whatever documentation may be required to further effect the provisions of this Section O-3. Landlord shall assist Tenant in obtaining Landlord's lender's form of and consent to a subordination and non-disturbance agreement.

ARTICLE P

NOTICES

All notices required to be given hereunder shall be in writing and mailed postage prepaid by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by personal delivery, to the addresses for Landlord and Tenant indicated in Section A-1 hereof, or at such other place or places as either Landlord or Tenant may, from time to time, respectively designated in a written notice given to the other. Notices shall be deemed sufficiently served upon delivery if personally delivered, or four (4) days after the date of mailing thereof, if mailed.

ARTICLE Q

MISCELLANEOUS

Q-1. WAIVER. No waiver of any default or breach of any covenant by either party hereunder shall be implied from any omission by either party to take action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated, and no express waiver shall affect any default other than the default specified in the waiver, and in such event said waiver shall be operative only for the time and to the extent therein stated. Waivers of any covenant, term or condition contained herein by either party shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term or condition. The consent or approval by either party to or of any act by either party requiring further consent or approval to or of any subsequent similar acts.

Q-2. ACCORD AND SATISFACTION. No payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than the Rent payment herein stipulated shall be deemed to be other than on account of the Rent, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as Rent be deemed in accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such Rent or pursue any other remedy provided in this Lease.

Q-3. INDIVIDUAL LIABILITY. The obligations of Landlord under this Lease do not constitute personal obligations of the individual partners, joint venturers, directors, officers, shareholders or beneficial owners of Landlord, and Tenant shall look solely to the real estate that is the subject of this Lease and to no other assets of the Landlord for satisfaction of any liability in respect to this Lease and will not seek recourse against the individual partners, joint venturers, directors, officers, shareholders or beneficial owners of Landlord or any of their personal assets for such satisfaction.

Q-4. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Lease sets forth all the covenants, promises, agreements, conditions and understandings between Landlord and Tenant concerning the Demised Premises, and there are no covenants, promises, agreements, conditions or understandings, either oral or written, between them other than as are herein set forth. Except as otherwise provided herein, no subsequent alteration, amendment, change or addition to this Lease shall be binding upon Landlord or Tenant unless reduced to writing and signed by them.

Q-5. TIME. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE FOR EACH AND EVERY PROVISION HEREOF.

Q-6. RECORDATION. Neither Landlord nor Tenant shall record this Lease nor permit the same to be recorded (including any short form hereof) without the written consent of the other.

Q-7. PROFESSIONAL FEES. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord, upon demand, for any costs or expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with any breach or default of Tenant under this Lease, whether or not suit is commenced or judgment entered. Such costs shall include, but not be limited to, actual professional fees such as accountants' fees, appraisers' fees and attorneys' fees and costs incurred for the negotiation of a settlement, enforcement of rights or otherwise. Furthermore, if any action for breach of or to enforce the provisions of this Lease is commenced, the court in such action shall award to the party in whose favor a judgment is entered, the prevailing party's actual professional fees such as accountants' fees, appraisers' fees and attorneys' fees and costs. Such professional fees and costs shall be paid by the losing party in such action. Tenant shall also indemnify Landlord against and hold Landlord harmless from all costs, expenses, demands and liability incurred by Landlord if Landlord becomes or is made a party to any claim or action: (a) instituted by Tenant against third party or by any third party against Tenant, or by or against any person holding any interest under or using the Demised Premises by license of or agreement with Tenant; (b) for foreclosure of any lien for labor or material furnished to or for Tenant or such other person; (c) otherwise arising out of or resulting from any act or transaction of Tenant or such other person; and (d) necessary to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease in a bankruptcy proceeding, or other proceeding under Title 11 of the United States Code, as amended. Tenant shall defend Landlord against any such claim or action at Tenant's expense with counsel reasonably acceptable to Landlord or, at Landlord's election, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Landlord's actual professional fees such as accountants' fees, appraisers' fees and attorneys' fees or costs incurred by Landlord in any such claim or action.

Q-8. CAPTIONS AND SECTION NUMBERS. The captions, section numbers, article numbers and table of contents appearing in this Lease are inserted only as a matter of convenience and in no way define, limit, construe or describe the scope or intent of such sections or articles of this Lease nor in any way affect this Lease.

Q-9. SEVERABILITY. If any term, covenant, condition or provision of this Lease, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, shall to any extent be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, covenants, conditions or provision of this Lease, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated thereby.

Q-10. APPLICABLE LAW. This Lease, and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto, shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the state in which the Demised Premises are located.

Q-11. EXAMINATION OF LEASE. Submission of this instrument for examination or signature by Tenant does not constitute a reservation of or option to Lease, and it is not effective as a Lease or otherwise until execution and delivery by both Landlord and Tenant.

Q-12. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS. At any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, upon ten (10) days prior written notice from Landlord, provide Landlord, Landlord's lenders or any prospective purchaser of the Building or Parcel with a current financial statement and financial statements for each of the two years prior to the current financial statement year. Such statement shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and, if such is the normal practice of Tenant, shall be audited by an independent certified public accountant. See Rider No. 1.

Q-13. SECURITY MEASURES. Tenant acknowledges that Rent payable to Landlord does not include the cost of guard service or other security measurers, and that Landlord has no obligation to provide such services or measures. Tenant assumes all responsibility, including costs, for the security of the Demised Premises and of Tenant, its agents or invitees.

Q-15. SECURITY DEPOSIT. Tenant has deposited with Landlord the Security Deposit set forth in Section A-1 above as security for Tenant's faithful performance of Tenant's obligations hereunder. If Tenant fails to pay Rent or other charges due hereunder, or otherwise defaults with respect to any provision of this Lease, Landlord may use, apply or retain all or any portion of said Security Deposit for the payment of any Rent or other charge in default or for the payment of any other sum for which Landlord may become obligated by reason of Tenant's default or to compensate Landlord for any loss or damage which Landlord may suffer thereby. If Landlord so uses or applies all or any portion of said Security Deposit, Tenant shall, within ten (10) days after written demand therefor, deposit cash with Landlord in an amount sufficient to restore said Security Deposit to the full amount stated in Section A-1 hereinabove, and Tenant's failure to do so shall be a material breach of this Lease. Landlord shall not be required to keep said Security Deposit separate from its general accounts. If Tenant performs all of Tenant's obligations hereunder, said Security Deposit, or so much thereof as has not therefore been applied by Landlord, shall be returned, without payment of interest or other increment for its use, to Tenant (or at Landlord's option to the last assignee of any of Tenant's interest hereunder) at the expiration of the Term hereof, and after Tenant has vacated the Demised Premises. If the Fixed Rent shall increase, for any reason, and at any time during the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall thereupon deposit with Landlord an addition to the Security Deposit so that the total Security Deposit held by Landlord shall at all times bear the same proportion to the current Fixed Rent as the original Security Deposit bears to the original Fixed Rent.

Q-16. ADMINISTRATIVE CHARGES. As Additional Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an overall administrative charge of five percent (5%) of any charge which Tenant is obligated to pay under this Lease and exclusive of taxes and insurance which Landlord pays on behalf of Tenant and for which Landlord subsequently bills Tenant. Also, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an administrative overhead charge for the supervision of the construction and installation of any additional improvements or alterations made to the Demised Premises during the term of this Lease.

Q-17. LATE PAYMENTS. Tenant hereby acknowledges that late payment by Tenant to Landlord of Rent will cause Landlord to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of which will be extremely difficult to ascertain. Such costs include but are not limited to, processing and accounting charges and late charges which may be imposed on Landlord by the terms of any mortgage or deed of trust affecting the Demised Premises. Accordingly, if any installment of Rent due from Tenant shall not be received by Landlord within ten (10) days after such amount shall be due, then Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to six percent (6%) of such overdue amount. In addition, if Tenant shall fail to remit said late payment and late charges to Landlord on or before thirty (30) days following the date such payment becomes due, said past due amounts shall thereafter accrue interest at the rate ("Default Rate") which is the lesser rate of the maximum rate permitted by law or three percent (3%) in excess of the prime rate (reference rate) announced from time to time by Bank of America, N.T. & S.A. from the date due. The parties hereby agree that such late charge and interest represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs Landlord will incur by reason of late payment by Tenant. Acceptance of such late charge by Landlord shall in no event constitute a waiver of Tenant's default with respect to such overdue amount, nor prevent Landlord from exercising any of the other rights and remedies granted in this Lease with respect to events of default.

Q-18. HOLDING OVER. If Tenant holds over after the expiration or earlier termination of the Term hereof without the express written consent of Landlord, Tenant shall become a tenant at sufferance only, at a rental rate equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of Landlord's then scheduled rental rate which would be applicable to the Demised Premises upon the date of such expiration, prorated on a daily basis, and otherwise subject to the terms, covenants and conditions herein specified so far as applicable. Acceptance by Landlord of Rent after such expiration or earlier termination shall not constitute a holdover hereunder or result in a renewal. The foregoing provisions of this Section Q-18 are in addition to and shall not affect Landlord's right to reentry or any rights of Landlord hereunder or as otherwise provided by law. If Tenant fails to surrender the Demised Premises upon the expiration of this Lease despite a written request to do so by Landlord, Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from all loss or liability, including without limitation any claim made by any succeeding tenant founded upon or resulting from such failure to surrender.

Q-19. AUTHORITY. If Tenant is a corporation, trust or general or limited partnership, Tenant shall, prior to the commencement of the Term of the Lease but in no event later than thirty (30) days after execution of this Lease, deliver to Landlord satisfactory evidence of the signing authority of each individual executing this Lease on behalf of such entity.

Q-20. LANDLORD'S ACCESS. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right to enter the Demised Premises with reasonable notice at reasonable times for the purpose of inspecting the same, showing the same to prospective purchasers or lenders and making such alterations, repairs, improvements or additions to the Demised Premises as Landlord may deem reasonably necessary or desirable. Landlord may at any time during the last one hundred twenty (120) days of the Term of this Lease place on or about the Demised Premises any ordinary "For Sale" or "For Lease" signs all without rebate of rent or liability to Tenant.

Q-21. HAZARDOUS MATERIALS.

(a) USE, STORAGE, HANDLING AND DISPOSAL OF HAZARDOUS MATERIALS. Except as provided herein, Tenant shall neither cause nor permit any Hazardous Materials as such term is defined in subparagraph (h) of this Section Q-21 to be used, generated, stored, transported, handled or disposed of in or about the Demised Premises at any time during the Lease Term (such activities are hereinafter referred to as "Environmental Activities"). This prohibition shall extend to Tenant's employees, agents, contractors, sublessees, assignees, licensees, concessionaires and invitees (collectively referred to herein as "Tenant's Agents") and Tenant shall be responsible for assuring compliance by such persons with the foregoing prohibition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and subject to Tenant's covenant to strictly comply with all "Hazardous Materials Laws" (as such term is defined in subparagraph (b) below) and all other terms and conditions of this Section Q-21, Tenant and Tenant's Agents may bring upon, keep and use in or about the Demised Premises (i) general office supplies typically used in an office area in the ordinary course of business, such as copier toner, liquid paper, glue, ink, and cleaning solvents, for use in the manner for which they were designed, in such amounts as may be normal for any office business operations conducted by Tenant on the Demised Premises, and (ii) only those Hazardous Materials described on the Hazardous Materials Questionnaire (as defined below) provided Tenant has delivered to Landlord (1) a description of handling, storage, use and disposal procedures and (2) all "community right to know" plans or disclosures and/or emergency response plans which Tenant is required to supply to local governmental agencies pursuant to any Hazardous Materials Laws and Landlord has approved the same. Any consent or approval by Landlord of Tenant's use or handling of Hazardous Materials shall not constitute an assumption of risk respecting the same nor a warranty or certification by Landlord that Tenant's proposed use and handling of Hazardous Materials is safe or reasonable or in compliance with Hazardous Materials Laws. Prior to the execution of this Lease, Tenant will complete, execute and deliver to Landlord a Hazardous Materials Questionnaire ("Hazardous Materials Questionnaire") in the form attached hereto as Exhibit F, which completed questionnaire will be deemed incorporated in this Lease, and Landlord shall be certified to rely fully on the information provided therein.

Tenant may also use other Hazardous Materials in connection with its use of the Demised Premises if Tenant has received Landlord's prior written consent to the same. Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its consent provided (i) Tenant demonstrates to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction that such Hazardous Materials (A) are necessary or useful to Tenant's business; (B) will be monitored, used, stored, handled and disposed of in compliance with all laws, ordinances and regulations regulating such Hazardous Materials; (C) will not endanger any persons or property; and (D) will not invalidate or limit the coverage or increase the premiums of any insurance policy effecting or covering the Demised Premises, (ii) Tenant provides Landlord with such security deposit as may be reasonably required by Landlord to help secure Tenant's performance of its obligations under this Section Q-21, and (iii) Tenant satisfies any other requirements Landlord may reasonably impose with respect to the Tenant's use of the subject Hazardous Materials. In no event shall Tenant install any underground storage tank on the Demised Premises, and Tenant's installation of an underground storage tank shall be deemed an immediate incurrable default under the Lease. The Environmental Activities and Hazardous Materials which Landlord has consented to are described in the Hazardous Materials Questionnaire attached to this Lease. The absence of any Environmental Activities and Hazardous Materials from such questionnaire shall be conclusive evidence that such consent has not been given. No other form of consent, whether or not written, express or implied, shall be valid and enforceable as against Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not install, operate or maintain any above or below grade tank, sump, pit, pond, lagoon or other storage or treatment vessel or device on the Demised Premises.

(b) COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND RIDER. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall comply and shall cause Tenant's Agents to comply, with federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations and all rules, licenses, permits, orders, decrees and judgments relating to Environmental Activities (collectively referred to as "Hazardous Materials Laws") conducted on the Demised Premises. Tenant's breach of any of its covenants or obligations under this Section Q-21 shall constitute a material default under the Lease. The obligations of Tenant under this Section Q-21 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease, and shall constitute obligations that are independent and severable from Tenant's covenants and obligations to pay Rent under the Lease.

(c) DISCLOSURE AND NOTIFICATION. Except as may have been disclosed in writing by Landlord or any report Landlord may make available to Tenant respecting the results of any environmental assessment of the Demised Premises, Landlord has no actual knowledge nor reasonable cause to believe that any release of Hazardous Materials has occurred on the Demised Premises or parcel. Tenant shall immediately advise Landlord in writing of, and provide Landlord with a copy of: (i) any notices of violation or potential or alleged violation of any Hazardous Materials Laws which are received by Tenant from any governmental agency concerned with Tenant's or Tenant's Agent's Environmental Activities or otherwise; (ii) any and all inquiry, investigation, enforcement, clean-up, removal or other governmental or regulatory actions instituted or threatened relating to Tenant or the Demised Premises; (iii) all claims made or threatened by any third party against Tenant or the Demised Premises relating to any Hazardous Materials; (iv) any release of Hazardous Materials on or about the Demised Premises which Tenant knows of or reasonably believes may have occurred and (v) any material change in the information disclosed in the Hazardous Material Questionnaire.

(d) INSPECTION OF DEMISED PREMISES. From time to time, but in no event more often than once every two years during the Lease Term (except in the event of a release or suspected release of Hazardous Materials), as it may be extended, Landlord may retain a registered environmental consultant (the "Consultant") acceptable to Landlord to conduct an investigation of the Demised Premises ("Environmental Assessment") (i) for Hazardous Materials contamination in, about or beneath the Demised Premises and (ii) to assess all Environmental Activities on the Demised Premises for compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations and for the use of procedures intended to reasonably reduce the risk of a release of Hazardous Materials. The Environmental Assessment shall be performed in a manner reasonably calculated to discover the presence of Hazardous Materials contamination and shall be of a scope and intensity reflective of the general standards of professional environmental consultants who regularly provide environmental assessment services in connection with the transfer or leasing of real property. Additionally, the Environmental Assessment shall take into full consideration the past and present uses of the Demised Premises and other factors unique to the Demised Premises. The Consultant shall concurrently deliver the written results of its investigation in writing directly to Landlord and Tenant. If Landlord so requires, Tenant shall comply, at its sole cost and expense, with all recommendations contained in the Environmental Assessment, including any recommendation with respect to the precautions which should be taken with respect to Environmental Activities on the Demised Premises or any recommendations for additional testing and studies to detect the presence of Hazardous Materials. Tenant covenants to reasonably cooperate with the Consultant and to allow entry and reasonable access to all portions of the Demised Premises for the purpose of Consultant's investigation.

(e) INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD. Tenant shall indemnify, defend (with counsel satisfactory to Landlord) and hold Landlord, its directors, officers, employees, agents, assigns and any successors to Landlord's interest in the Demised Premises, harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees), claim, cause of action, judgment, penalty, fine or liability directly or indirectly relating to or arising from any Tenant Environmental Activity on the Demised Premises during the Term of the Lease or any remedial or clean-up work undertaken by or for Tenant in connection with its Environmental Activities or its compliance with Hazardous Materials Laws. This indemnification shall include without limitation (i) personal injury claims, (ii) the payment of liens, (iii) diminution in the value of the Demised Premises, (iv) damages for the loss or restriction on use of the Demised Premises, (v) sums paid in settlement of claims, (vi) reasonable attorneys' fees, consulting fees and expert fees, (vii) the cost of any investigation of site conditions, and (vii) the cost of any repair, clean-up, remedial, removal or restoration work or detoxification if required by any governmental or quasi-governmental agency or body or deemed necessary in Landlord's reasonable judgment. Landlord shall have the right but not the obligation to join and participate in, and control, if it so elects, any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with Tenant's Environmental Activities. Landlord may also negotiate, defend, approve and appeal any action taken or issued by any applicable governmental authority with regard to contamination of the Demised Premises by a Hazardous Material. Any costs or expenses incurred by Landlord for which Tenant is responsible under this Section Q-21 or for which Tenant has indemnified Landlord shall be reimbursed by Tenant on demand as Additional Rent. Tenant's obligations pursuant to the foregoing indemnity shall survive the expiration or termination of the Lease and shall bind Tenant's successors and assignees and inure to the benefit of Landlord's successors and assignees. See Rider No. 1.

(f) REMEDIATION. If any Environmental Activities undertaken by Tenant or Tenant's Agents result in contamination of the Demised Premises or any portion to Landlord's prior written approval and any conditions imposed by Landlord, Tenant shall promptly take all actions, at its sole expense and without abatement of rent, as are necessary to return the affected portion of the Demised Premises and the soil and ground water to the condition existing prior to the introduction of the contaminating Hazardous Material. Landlord's approval of such remedial work shall not be unreasonably withheld so long as such actions will not cause a material adverse effect on the Demised Premises whether during or after expiration of the Lease Term and provided such actions will actually return the affected portion of the Demised Premises and/or soil or ground water to its prior condition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord's prior consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials contamination on, under or about the Demised Premises either poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any persons or is of such a nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action, provided that in such event Tenant shall notify Landlord as soon as possible of any action so taken. Landlord shall also have the right to approve any and all contractors hired by Tenant to perform such remedial work. All such remedial work shall be performed in compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations and in such a manner as to minimize any interference with the use and enjoyment of the Demised Premises. Appearance of a Hazardous Material in or about the Demised Premises shall not be deemed an occurrence of damage or destruction subject to the terms of Article K of this Lease respecting damage or destruction.

(g) SURRENDER OF DEMISED PREMISES. Just prior to expriation or other termination of the Lease Term, as it may be extended, Landlord may have an Environmental Assessment of the Demised Premises performed in accordance with subparagraph (d) above. Tenant shall perform, at its sole cost and expense, any clean-up or remedial work recommended by the Consultant which is necessary to remove, mitigate or remediate any Hazardous Materials contamination of the Demised Premises in connection with Tenant's or Tenant's Agent's Environmental Activities Prior to surrendering possession of the Demised Premises, Tenant shall also remove any personal property, equipment, fixture (except for any fixtures installed by Landlord) and/or storage device or vessel on or about the Demised Premises which is contaminated by or which contains Hazardous Materials. If any clean-up or monitoring procedure is required by any applicable governmental authorities in or about the Demised Premises during the Lease Term as a consequence of any Hazardous Materials contamination directly or indirectly arising out of Tenant's Environmental Activities on the Demised Premises during the Lease Term and the procedure for clean-up is not completed (to the satisfaction of the governmental authorities) prior to the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease, then at Landlord's election, (i) this Lease shall be deemed renewed for a term commencing on the expiration or termination date of this Lease and ending on the date the clean-up procedure is anticipated to be completed; or (ii) Tenant shall have deemed to have impermissibly held over, and Landlord shall be entitled to all damages directly or indirectly incurred, including, without limitation, damages occasioned by the inability to redevelop or relet the Demised Premises or a reduction of the fair market or rental value of the Demised Premises.

(h) DEFINITION OF HAZARDOUS MATERIALS. In addition to those materials described in the Hazardous Materials Questionnaire, "Hazardous Material" shall mean any hazardous or toxic substance, material or waste which is or becomes regulated by any local governmental authority, the State in which the Demised Premises are located or the United States Government. The term "Hazardous Material" includes, without limitation, any material or substance which is (i) defined as a "hazardous waste," "extremely hazardous waste" or "restricted hazardous waste" under applicable State or federal laws; (ii) petroleum; (iii) asbestos; (iv) polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs); (v) urea formaldehyde foam insulation; (vi) freon and other chlorofluorocarbons; (vii) designated as a "toxic pollutant or "hazardous substance" pursuant to Sections 311 or 307 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. 1317); (viii) defined as a "hazardous waste" pursuant to Section 1004 of the Federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. 6901 et seq. (42 U.S.C. 6903); (ix) defined as a

RIDER NUMBER ONE TO STANDARD FORM INDUSTRIAL LEASE

This Rider No. One is made and entered into by and between Carol Point Builders I General Partnership, a General Partnership ("Landlord"), and Associated Stationers, Inc., a Delaware corporation, ("Tenant"), and is dated as of the date set forth on the cover page of the Lease between Landlord and Tenant to which this Rider No. One is attached (the "Lease").

The promises, covenants, agreements and declarations made and set forth herein are intended to and shall have the same force and effect as if set forth at length in the body of the Lease. To the extent that the provisions of this Rider No. One are inconsistent with the terms and conditions of the Lease, the terms hereof shall control.

1. LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS.

In the event that, for any reason other than delays attributable to Tenant, Landlord shall not have delivered the Demised Premises to Tenant Ready for Occupancy as described in Article B of this Lease on or before the date which is forty-five (45) days following the Scheduled Term Commencement Date, then for each additional day beyond the expiration of such forty-five (45) day period as it shall take Landlord to deliver the Demised Premises to Tenant Ready for Occupancy, Tenant shall be entitled to an additional day of rental abatement pursuant to the provision of Paragraph 3 hereinbelow.

2. TAXES; SPECIAL SERVICE AREA

A. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree there is an existing Village of Carol Stream, Illinois Special Service Area No. 1 (Series 1992 Bonds) currently encumbering the property as well as a larger area within Carol Point Business Center, which district was established to pay for infrastructure improvements benefiting the area within the district (including the Property), and that there are assessments against the Property pursuant to such Special Service Area. Tenant agrees to pay Tenant's Proportionate Share of any Special Service Area Taxes assessed against the Property; provided, however, that for purposes of determining Tenant's Proportionate Share of such Taxes, Landlord may not include any portion of such Taxes as exceed the amount which would be assessed against the Property based upon the ratio of the land area of the Property to the land area of all property subject to such Special Service Area. For purposes of this Lease, Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the land area of the property subject to this Special Service Area is 184.93 acres, and that the gross acreage of the Property is 13.33 acres. Accordingly, the maximum percentage of such Special Service Area Taxes which are assessed against the entire area within the district that may be included as Taxes attributable to the Property shall be 7.21%.

B. Upon written request by Tenant, Landlord Tenant evidence of Landlord's payment of Taxes due under this Lease to the appropriate governmental authorities. If Landlord shall ever fail to pay any such Taxes prior to delinquency, and provided Tenant is not then in default under this Lease, then, following not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, Tenant may pay any portion of such Taxes (including penalties and the like) as are attributable to the Demised Premises to the applicable governmental authorities and shall receive credit therefore against Additional Rent owing under this Lease for any amounts properly paid to such governmental authorities. In no event shall Landlord be responsible hereunder for, nor shall Tenant have the right to offset against Additional Rent, the amount of any Taxes or other amounts which remain legally unpaid by Landlord pursuant to a protest filed by Landlord with respect to such Taxes, provided that Landlord advises Tenant of such protest prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day notice described above.

3. RENTAL ABATEMENT

Provided Tenant shall faithfully perform all of the terms and conditions of this Lease, including payment of the Security Deposit and Fixed Rent for the first (1st) month of the Term upon the execution of this Lease, and subject to increase as described in Paragraph 1 above, Landlord hereby agrees to abate Tenant's obligation to pay Fixed Rent from the second (2nd) month of the Lease Term and continuing through and including the tenth (10th) month of the Lease Term. During such abatement period, Tenant shall nevertheless pay all Additional Rent under the Lease as well as any other costs or expenses under the Lease which are the obligation of Tenant, including any amounts which may be owing by Tenant pursuant to Exhibit C to the Lease (Work Letter Agreement) (other than amounts included in Fixed Rent pursuant to said Exhibit C). In the event of a default by Tenant under this Lease which results in a termination prior to the expiration of the Term, then as a part of the recovery set forth in Article M of the Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to the recovery of the Fixed Rent which was abated under the provisions of this Rider No. One (but not to exceed nine (9) months of Fixed Rent); i.e., such Fixed Rent shall not deemed to have been forgiven or abated, but shall become immediately due and payable as unpaid rent which had been earned at the time of termination.

4. OPTION TO EXTEND

With respect to the provisions of Section A-1(e) relative to the Term, Landlord and Tenant hereby agree that the Term of this Lease may be extended for up to two (2) three (3) year periods ("Option Term(s)") at the election of Tenant exercised by delivery to Landlord of a written notice delivered not earlier than 360 days and not later than 180 days prior to the end of the initial term ("Initial Term") or the extended Term, as the case may be, and so long as (i) Tenant is in possession of the Demised Premises and (ii) Tenant is not in default under the Lease. The Fixed Rent payable upon the commencement of the applicable Option Term shall be:

- Month 61 through and including month 96 (First Option Term) -- $59,496.11 per month.

. Month 97 through and including month 132 (Second Option Term) -- $66,584.51 per month.

In addition, and as a material inducement to Landlord's entering into this Lease, Tenant hereby agrees that in the event Tenant does not exercise its right to extend the Term for the First Option Term as set forth above, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on or before the expiration of the Initial Term, the sum of Two Hundred Sixty Three Thousand, Four Hundred Twenty-One Dollars ($263,421) as a cancellation fee to reimburse Landlord for the unamortized value of the "Special Leasehold Improvements" (as defined below) installed by Landlord at the commencement of the Term of this Lease. Similarly, if Tenant exercises its right to extend the Term for the First Option Term, but does not elect to extend for the Second Option Term, then on before the expiration of the First Option Term, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the sum of One Hundred Fifty Three Thousand, One Hundred Fifty-One Dollars ($153,151) to reimburse Landlord for the unamortized portion of the Special Leasehold Improvements installed by Landlord at the commencement of the Term of the Lease. In the event that for any reason other than Landlord's default the Lease is terminated prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, or prior to the expiration of either the First or Second Option Term if Tenant shall have exercised its right to extend for such Option Term(s), then in addition to any other remedies of Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the outstanding unamortized portion of the "Special Leasehold Improvements" installed by Landlord of the Commencement of the Term totalling Three Hundred Eighty Two Thousand Nine Hundred Dollars ($382,900.00

5. TENANT'S REPAIR RIGHTS

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, if Tenant provides written notice to Landlord of the need for repairs and/or maintenance which are Landlord's obligation under the Lease, and Landlord fails to undertake such repairs and/or maintenance within a reasonable period of time, given the circumstances, after the receipt of such written notice, but in no event earlier than thirty (30) days after receipt of such written notice (except with respect to emergency repairs which are necessary for Tenant's occupancy of the Premises -- such emergency repairs must be under taken by Landlord within forty-eight (48) hours after the receipt of such written notice), then Tenant may proceed to undertake such repairs and/or maintenance upon deliver of an additional three (3) business days prior written notice to Landlord specifying that Tenant is taking such action, and if such action was required under the terms of this Lease to be taken by Landlord, then Tenant shall be entitled to a prompt reimbursement by Landlord for Tenant's reasonable costs and expenses in taking such action. In the event Tenant undertakes such repairs and/or maintenance, and such work will affect the Building's life safety system, heating, ventilating and air conditioning systems and elevator systems, Tenant shall use only those contractors used by Landlord in the Building for work on such systems. Further, if Landlord does not deliver a written objection to Tenant within thirty (30) days after receipt of an invoice by Tenant for Tenant's costs of undertaking such repairs taken by Landlord, and if such invoice from Tenant sets forth a reasonably particularized breakdown of its costs and expenses in connection with taking such action on behalf of Landlord, then Tenant shall be entitled to deduct from rental payable by Tenant under this Lease, the amount set forth in such invoice. If, however, Landlord delivers to Tenant within thirty (30) days after receipt of Tenant's invoice, a written objection to the payment of such invoice, setting forth with reasonable particularity Landlord's reasons for its claim that such repairs and/or maintenance was not to have been undertaken by Landlord pursuant to the terms of this Lease, then Tenant shall not be entitled to such deduction from rental but as Tenant's sole remedy, Tenant may proceed to claim a default and sue Landlord.

6. QUIET ENJOYMENT

Landlord represents that (a) it has lawful title to the Leased Premises and the right to make this Lease, (b) it will maintain Tenant in full and exclusive possession of the Demised Premises, (c) if Tenant shall pay the rent and perform all the agreements, covenants and conditions required by this Lease to be performed by it, Tenant may quietly occupy and enjoy the Leased Premises; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall render Landlord liable for any acts or omissions of third parties; and (d) it will deliver the Leased Premises to Tenant with plumbing, heating, air conditioning, electrical, lighting and mechanical systems in good working order.

7. DEMISED PREMISES/PARKING.

The Demised Premises shall include dock area adjacent to the Building as more particularly shown on Exhibit A of the Lease. Landlord shall reserve for use exclusively by Tenant and its employees and invitees the parking spaces located at the north end of the Building designated as "Exclusive Parking for Tenant" on Exhibit A of the Lease.

8. REASONABLE TERMS.

Except for any provisions of this Lease which specifically provide for determinations to be made by Landlord in its "sole" or "absolute" discretion or judgment, and except for matters affecting (a) the Building's HVAC system, plumbing system, electrical system, or life safety systems or the exterior appearance of the Building, or (b) the Landlord's option to cancel the Lease as set forth in Section N-2 of the Lease, at any time the consent of Landlord or Tenant is required pursuant to this Lease, including, without limitation, the provisions of Section Q-21 hereof, such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Whenever the Lease grants Landlord or Tenant the right to take action, exercise discretion, establish rules and regulations or make an allocation or other determination, Landlord and Tenant shall act reasonably and in good faith (including with respect to the incurring of costs and expenses) and take no action which will result in the frustration of the other party's reasonable expectations concerning the benefits to be enjoyed under the Lease.

9. HAZARDOUS MATERIALS. (Supplement to Section Q-21 of the Lease)

Landlord shall indemnify, defend (with counsel satisfactory to Tenant) and hold Tenant, its directors, officers, employees, agents, assigns and any successors to Tenant's interest in the Demised Premises, harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees), claim, cause of action, judgment, penalty, fine or liability directly or indirectly relating to or arising from any Landlord Environmental Activity on the Demised Premises during the Term of the Lease or any remedial or clean-up work undertaken by or for Landlord in connection with its Environmental Activities or its compliance with Hazardous Materials Laws. This indemnification shall include without limitation (i) personal injury claims, (ii) the payment of liens, (iii) diminution in the value of the leasehold interest in the Demised Premises, (iv) damages for the loss or restriction on use of the Demised Premises, (v) sums paid in settlement of claims, (vi) reasonable attorneys' fees, consulting fees and expert fees, (vii) the cost of any investigation of site conditions, and (viii) damage to any personal equipment, inventory or other property of Tenant located on the Demised Premises. Tenant shall have the right but not the obligation to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with Landlord's Environmental Activities. Any costs or expenses incurred by Landlord for which Landlord is responsible under this Section 8 or for which Landlord has indemnified Tenant shall be reimbursed by Landlord on demand. Landlord's obligations pursuant to the foregoing indemnity shall survive the expiration or termination of the Lease and shall bind Landlord's successors and assignees and inure to the benefit of Tenant's successors and assignees.

Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 8 to the contrary, in the event that Landlord makes any claim upon Tenant pursuant to Section 8 hereunder relative to any Tenant Environmental Activity and/or any contamination allegedly resulting from any such Environmental Activity, Tenant shall have the right, exercisable within ten (10) days from receipt by Tenant of notice of such claim by Landlord and the results of any inspection or investigation conducted by Landlord relative to such claim, to object to such claim by Landlord in writing and to independently verify through its own inspections and/or investigations the validity of such claim. Landlord agrees, unless there is an imminent threat of damage to person or property requiring immediate action, to provide Tenant with a period of time not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of receipt by Tenant of such claim by Landlord, to permit Tenant to independently investigate such claim at its sole expense and respond to Landlord in writing regarding Tenant's determination of the validity of such claim. In the event that Tenant timely objects in writing to Landlord in the manner set forth above and indicates its intent to conduct an independent verification of such claim, Landlord agrees not to resort to any of Landlord's remedies pursuant to Section Q-21 (except in the case of emergency as set forth above) unless and until Landlord has either received a written response from Tenant regarding the result of Tenant's independent investigation of the matter or the thirty (30) day period described above has expired. In the event Tenant makes a claim against Landlord pursuant to Landlord's indemnity hereinabove, Landlord shall have the same rights as Tenant set forth in this paragraph.

10. RIGHT TO CONTEST REAL PROPERTY TAXES.

Notwithstanding anything contained in Article E to the contrary, in the event that Landlord elects not to do so, Tenant may contest the amount or validity of any Taxes by appropriate proceedings; provided that Tenant shall promptly pay its applicable portion of such Taxes unless such proceedings shall operate to prevent or stay the collection of the tax so contested. Landlord shall join in any such proceeding if any law shall so require, provided that Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against any liability, loss, cost or expense in connection therewith, including, without limitation, actual attorneys fees and costs .

11. DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

Section K-4 of the Lease, titled "Uninsured Casualty," is hereby amended to provide that Landlord shall have no right to terminate the Lease in the event of an uninsured casualty unless the amount of uninsured casualty exceeds the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and that Landlord shall be responsible for paying the uninsured portion of any such casualty up to the amount of $10,000. In the event that the uninsured portion of any casualty exceeds $10,000, Landlord may elect to terminate the Lease pursuant to Section K-4; provided, however, that Tenant may elect to cancel such termination by Landlord by delivering notice to Landlord within ten (10) business days following receipt by Tenant of Landlord's written notice of termination that Tenant elects to pay for the uninsured portion of such casualty which exceeds $10,000. In the event Tenant delivers such notice, Landlord's termination notice shall be void and of no further force or effect, provided that Tenant shall pay to Landlord prior to commencement of any restoration by Landlord the amount of any uninsured portion of the casualty damage which exceeds $10,000.

12. SUBLEASE OR ASSIGNMENT

Notwithstanding anything contained in Article M to the contrary, Landlord's consent shall not be required with respect to any sublease or assignment by Tenant to any parent or subsidiary corporation of Tenant, or to any entity into whom Tenant is merged or to whom Tenant is sold pursuant to any corporate reorganization of Tenant; provided, however, that Tenant shall provide Landlord with not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice of any such assignment, and further provided such assignment shall not relieve Tenant of any liability under this Lease. In the event that as a result of any merger or other corporate reorganization of Tenant, Tenant shall cease to exist as a viable business entity, or if all or substantially all the assets of Tenant are no longer owned by Tenant, Landlord shall have a right of consent to any assignment to a new entity for the limited purpose of assuring that the entity assuming the Tenant's interest in this Lease shall either have a net worth substantially similar to that of Tenant at the time of such transfer and/or shall possess, in Landlord's reasonable determination, other financial means to adequately perform the Tenant's obligations under the Lease.

In addition, in the event Tenant elects to mortgage or pledge all or any portion of the Tenant's interest in the Lease, Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its approval of such leasehold mortgage or pledge provided that the rights provided to any leasehold mortgagee thereunder do not conflict with any of the provisions of this Lease. Landlord shall have no right of cancellation with respect to any sublease or assignment by Tenant relative to a merger or corporate reorganization and/or a request by Tenant to mortgage or pledge its interest in the Lease.

13. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Landlord agrees to keep any financial statements and/or any other financial information provided to Landlord by Tenant which is not otherwise publicly disclosed by Tenant confidential; provided, however, that Landlord may disclose such financial information to any actual or potential lenders, partners, purchasers and Landlord's accountants and attorneys and/or the accountants and attorneys of any of the foregoing (provided that Landlord shall request that any such disclosures to any third parties be kept confidential). In addition, in the event any such information is required relative to any litigation or proceeding in which Landlord becomes involved, Landlord may disclose such financial information to the extent it is necessary and appropriate (or required by lawful discovery) in such action.

Right of First Notification. Not earlier than nine (9) months prior to the availability of said space, Tenant shall be granted a Right of First Notification with respect to the entirety of the balance of the Building ("Expansion Space") comprising of approximately 135,508 square feet. Tenant shall be given until the expiration of three (3) business days to respond in writing to Landlord's written notification of the availability of the Expansion Space. If Tenant timely responds to Landlord's written notification, Tenant shall have a period of ten (10) business days following the expiration of such three (3) business day period to negotiate on an exclusive basis with Landlord for a lease on the Expansion Space on the terms and conditions acceptable to Landlord and Tenant. In the event that for any reason Landlord and Tenant shall not agree to acceptable terms for the lease of such Expansion Space on or before the expiration of such ten (10) business day period, Tenant's right of exclusive negotiation shall expire and Landlord shall be entitled to market and/or lease the Premises to any third party on such terms and conditions as Landlord shall deem appropriate. In the event that Tenant and Landlord agree on terms for a lease of the Expansion Space, Landlord shall prepare a lease amendment reflecting the foregoing and Tenant and Landlord shall promptly execute the same.

Gentlemen,

You (hereinafter called "Tenant") and we (hereinafter called Landlord) are executing simultaneously with this Work Letter Agreement, a written lease (the "Lease") covering those certain premises more particularly described in Exhibit A to the Lease, (hereinafter referred to as "premises") in the building addressed at 898 Carol Court, Carol Stream, Illinois.

To induce Tenant to enter into the Lease (which is hereby incorporated by reference to the extent that the provisions of this agreement may apply thereto) and in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter contained, Landlord and Tenant mutually agree as follows:

1. TENANT'S PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS

a. Except to the extent otherwise provided in subparagraph b and c of this paragraph, Landlord agrees that, through its architect or space planner, Landlord will furnish all architectural, mechanical and electrical engineering plans required for the performance of the work (hereinafter referred to as "Building Standard Work") hereinbelow described, including complete detailed plans and specifications for Tenant's partition layout, reflected ceiling, heating and air conditioning, electrical outlets and switches, telephone outlets and plumbing.

d. It is understood and agreed that all plans and specifications referred to hereinabove in subparagraphs a and b are subject to Landlord's approval, which Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld.

e. It is understood and agreed by Tenant that in order to permit Landlord to timely commence and complete the improvements, Tenant will furnish complete information respecting Tenant's requirements, including without limitation, material storage and racking layout(s) and information relating to the type of product to be stored and that complete plans and specifications will be approved by Tenant on or before February 24, 1992, and that a budget for the commencement of construction will be approved by Tenant on or before February 24, 1992.

2. BUILDING STANDARD WORK AT LANDLORD'S COST AND EXPENSE

Landlord agrees to furnish and install the following "Building Standard Work". Any requests for improvements in excess of the Building Standard Work (as hereafter defined) will be the responsibility of Tenant. Building Standard specifications are set forth on Exhibits C-1 and C-2 attached hereto. Said work is limited as specified hereinbelow, and as selected and specified by Landlord and as indicated on Tenant's final approved plan:

OFFICE: * Construction of approximately 8000 SF of finished office space as depicted on the preliminary space plan prepared by Boise Cascade dated October 14, 1991.

WAREHOUSE: * Construction of approximately 129,280 SF of warehouse space as depicted on the preliminary space plan prepared by Boise Cascade dated October 8, 1991.

Landlord shall provide Tenant the Building Standard Work on the premises as set forth above. The fees and costs of the Landlord's architect in preparing plans and specifications with respect to the Building Standard Work shall be included in the cost of the Building Standard Work herein. In the event that changes are made and the cost of the work exceeds the Building Standard Work; Tenant shall, as a condition to Landlord's obligation to commence and complete the Building Standard Work, pay to Landlord the difference between the total cost of the work and the Building Standard Work (or the excess over the item allowance, as applicable) upon demand by Landlord. At Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, Landlord may elect to permit all or any portion of excess costs under paragraphs 3, 4 and/or 5 hereof to be amortized over the initial Term of the Lease as Additional Rent at an annual rate of 11%. Tenant may apply any unused cost of Building Standard Work toward the cost of any Building Non-Standard Work which Tenant has request Landlord to construct.

4. BUILDING NONSTANDARD WORK AT TENANT'S COST AND EXPENSE

Provided Tenant's plans and specifications are furnished by the date required hereinabove in paragraph 1e, the Landlord shall cause Tenant's "Building Nonstandard Work" to be installed by Landlord's contractor, but at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Prior to commencing any such work, Landlord, its contractors, or its architects shall submit to Tenant a written estimate of the cost thereof. If Tenant fails to provide to Landlord written notice of its approval of such costs within ten (10) days after submission thereof to Tenant, such failure shall be deemed a disapproval thereof, and Landlord's contractor shall not proceed with such work.

5. SUBSTITUTIONS AND CREDITS

Subject to Landlord's prior written approval, Tenant may select alternative or substitute materials in place of "Building Standard Work" materials as shown on Exhibits C-1 and C-2 which would otherwise be furnished and installed by Landlord for or in the interior of the Premises under the provisions of this Work Letter Agreement, provided such selection is indicated on said Tenant's final plans. If Tenant shall make any such selection and if the cost of such alternative or substitute materials of Tenants selection shall cause the cost of the "Building Standard Work" to exceed the Improvements as described above, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as hereinafter provided, the difference between the cost of such alternative or different materials and the credit given by Landlord for the materials thereby replaced.

No such alternative or substitute materials shall be furnished and installed in replacement for any of Landlord's "Building Standard Work" materials until Landlord, or its contractor and/or its architect or space planer shall have advised Tenant in writing of, and Landlord or its contractor and/or its architect or space planer have agreed in writing on, the cost of such different new materials and the Landlord's cost of such replaced Landlord's "Building Standard Work" materials.

One hundred (100%) of all amounts then estimated by Landlord to be payable by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Work Letter Agreement shall be paid by Tenant upon Tenant's execution of the written estimate for the work.

6. COMPLETION AND RENTAL COMMENCEMENT DATE

It is agreed that Tenant's obligation for the payment of rental under the Lease shall not commence until Landlord has substantially completed all Building Standard Work to be performed by Landlord as hereinabove set forth in paragraph 2; provided, however, that if Landlord shall be delayed in substantially completing said work as a result of:

a. Tenant's failure to furnish complete and accurate information, plans and specifications or approvals in accordance with date specified hereinabove in paragraph 1e; or

b. Tenant's request for materials, finishes, or installations other than Landlord's "Building Standard Work"; or

c. Tenant's changes in said plans and specifications after their submission to Landlord in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1e hereinabove; then the commencement of the Term of the Lease shall be accelerated by the number of days of such delay. If the foregoing correctly sets forth our understanding, kindly sign copies of this Letter Agreement where indicated.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the parties have executed this Work Letter Agreement as of the date set forth on the cover page of the Lease.

WITNESSETH:

PREMISES

Section 101. Lessor, for and in consideration of the rents herein reserved and of the covenants and agreements herein contained on the part of the Lessee to be kept, observed and performed, does by these presents, demise and lease to Lessee and Lessee hereby hires and lets from lessor the real estate located at FOREST PARK INDUSTRIAL CENTER, FOREST PARK, ILLINOIS and described on Exhibit A hereto attached, together with all improvements now located and to be constructed thereon as hereinafter provided.

Section 102. Said real estate and improvements are sometimes herein referred to as "demised premises."

TERM

Section 201. The term of this Lease shall commence on the first day of the calendar month after completion of construction of a new building and other improvements to be constructed by Lessor on the demised premises, as hereinafter provided, and shall end March 31, 1995 unless sooner terminated as herein set forth.

Section 202. Lessor and Lessee shall execute an instrument fixing the date of commencement and termination of the term of this Lease.

Section 203. The term as so fixed is sometimes herein referred to as "original term."

CONSTRUCTION OF IMPROVEMENTS

Section 301. Lessor agrees to construct on the demised premises

Section 302. Lessor shall diligently proceed with such construction and shall complete the same and deliver possession thereof to Lessee on provided, however, if construction is delayed because of changes in construction requested by Lessee, strikes, lockouts, acts of God or the public enemy, governmental restrictions, unavailability of materials or other matters beyond the control of Lessor, then the time of completion of such construction shall be extended for the additional time caused by such delay.

RENTAL

Section 401. In consideration of the leasing, aforesaid Lessee agrees to pay Lessor, in coin or currency which at the time or times of payment is legal tender for public or private debts in the United States of America, at or at such other place as Lessor may from time to time designate in writing, a monthly rent of $10,000.00 payable monthly in advance commencing on the first day of the term and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter for the balance of term. Any installment of rent accruing under the provisions of this Lease which shall not be paid when due, shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum from the date when the same is due hereunder until the same shall be paid.

Section 402. In the event construction is completed and the demised premises are delivered to and are accepted by Lessee, prior to the date of commencement of the term of this Lease, rental shall be paid on a prorata basis from the date of such delivery of such possession to date of the commencement of the term.

TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 501. Lessee further agrees to pay as additional rent for the demised premises, all taxes and assessments, general and special, water rates and all other impositions, ordinary and extraordinary, of every kind and nature whatsoever, which may be levied, assessed or imposed upon the demised premises or any part thereof or upon any building or improvements at any time situated thereon, accruing or becoming due and payable during the term of this Lease and any extension thereof, provided, however, that the general taxes levied against the demised premises shall be prorated between Lessor and Lessee as of the date of commencement of the term hereof for the first year of the term of this Lease, and as of the date of expiration of said term for the last year of the term hereof and any extension thereof, all on the basis of the then last available tax bills. Benefit may be taken by Lessee of the provisions of any statute or ordinance permitting any assessment to be paid over a period of years.

Section 502. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to require Lessee to pay any franchise, inheritance, estate, succession or transfer tax of Lessor or any income or excess profits tax assessed upon or in respect of any income of Lessor or chargeable to or required to be paid by Lessor unless such tax shall be specifically levied against the income of Lessor derived from the rent by this Lease reserved, expressly and as and for a specific substitute for the real estate taxes, in whole or in part, upon the demised premises or the improvements situated thereon in which event said rent shall be considered as the sole income of Lessor.

Section 503. Lessee further agrees to deliver to Lessor, duplicate receipts or photostatic copies thereof showing the payment of all said taxes, assessments, and other impositions, within thirty (30) days after the respective payments evidenced thereby.

Section 504. Section 505. Lessee shall not be required to pay any tax, assessment, tax lien or other imposition or charge upon or against said demised premises or any part thereof or the improvements at any time situated thereon so long as Lessee shall, in good faith and with due diligence, contest the same or the validity thereof by appropriate legal proceedings which shall have the effect of preventing the collection of the tax, assessment, tax lien or other imposition or charge so contested, provided that, pending any such legal proceedings Lessee shall give Lessor such reasonable security as may be demanded by Lessor to insure payment of the amount of the tax, assessment, tax lien or other imposition or charge, and all interest and penalties thereon.

Section 506. In the event that Lessee at any time institutes suit to recover any tax, assessment, tax lien or other imposition or charge paid by Lessee under protest in Lessor's name, Lessee shall have the right, at its own sole expense, to institute and prosecute such suit or suits in Lessor's name, in which event Lessee covenants and agrees to indemnify Lessor and save it harmless from and against all costs, charges or liabilities in connection with any such suit. All funds recovered as a result of any such suit shall belong to Lessee.

USE

Section 601. The demised premises shall be used for warehousing, office, sales and distribution of Lessee's merchandise.

Lessee shall not use or occupy the demised premises or permit the demised premises to be used or occupied contrary to any statute, rule, order, ordinance, requirement or regulation applicable thereto or in any manner which would violate any certificate of occupancy affecting the same, or which would cause structural injury to the improvements or cause the value or usefulness of the demised premises or any part thereof to diminish or which would constitute a public or private nuisance or waste, and Lessee agrees that it will, promptly upon discovery of any such use, take all necessary steps to compel the discontinuance of such use and to oust the sub-tenants or occupants guilty of such use.

MAINTENANCE OF PREMISES

Section 701. The policy or policies evidencing such insurance shall be written by a company or companies satisfactory to Lessor and authorized to do business in the state where the demised premises are located, shall name Lessor and Lessee as insureds thereunder, and shall provide that losses shall be paid to said insureds as their respective interests may appear. The original of such policies shall be deposited with Lessor who may deposit the same with its mortgagee.

Section 902. In case Lessee shall at any time fail, neglect or refuse to insure such buildings and improvements and to keep the same insured as hereinabove provided, then Lessor may, at its election, procure or renew such insurance, and any amounts paid therefor by Lessor shall be so much additional rental due at the next rent day after any such payment, with interest at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum from the date of payment thereof.

Section 903. Section 904. It is further agreed that, in the event of loss under any such policy or policies, the insurance proceeds shall be paid out upon architects' certificates for the expense of repairing or rebuilding the buildings or improvements which have been damaged or destroyed, provided, however, that it shall first appear to the satisfaction of Lessor that the amount of insurance money in its hands shall at all times be sufficient to pay for the completion of said repairs and rebuilding; and upon the completion of said repairs or rebuilding, free from all liens of mechanics and materialmen and others, any surplus of insurance money shall be paid to Lessee.

Section 905. Lessee further agrees that, at Lessor's written request, and provided such insurance is obtainable from an agency of the United States Government, if and when obtainable, it will procure and maintain so-called war risk and war damage insurance on the improvements located upon the demised premises for not less than ninety (90%) per cent of their full insurance value above foundation. Such insurance shall provide for payment of loss thereunder to Lessor and Lessee, as their interests may appear, and shall at Lessor's request, contain a mortgage clause in favor of Lessee's mortgagee, and the policies or certificates evidencing such insurance shall be delivered to Lessor within sixty (60) days after demand, and renewals thereof shall be delivered to Lessor at least ten (10) days' prior to the expiration dates of the respective policies. The provisions of Section 904 of this Lease shall apply with respect to any loss payable under any such policy or policies of insurance.

Section 1001. Lessee further agrees that in case of damage to or destruction of any building or improvements on the demised premises or of the fixtures and equipment therein, by fire or other casualty, it will promptly, at its expense, repair, restore or rebuild the same to the extent that it shall deem necessary or desirable in connection with the requirements of its business, provided that, upon the completion of such repairs, restoration or rebuilding, the value and rental value of the buildings and improvements upon the demised premises shall be substantially equal to the value and rental value of the buildings and improvements thereon immediately prior to the happening of such fire or other casualty. Rent shall not abate during the period of such repair, restoration or rebuilding or if the improvements are not tenantable because of such damage or destruction.

Section 1002. Before commencing such repairing, restoration or rebuilding, involving an estimated cost of more than $2,500.00, (a) plans and specifications therefore, prepared by a reputable licensed architect, shall have been submitted to and approved by Lessor; (b) Lessee shall have furnished to Lessor, an estimate of the cost of the proposed work, certified to by the architect by whom such plans and specifications shall have been prepared; and (c) Lessee shall either have furnished to Lessor a bond on which Lessee shall be principal, and a surety company, authorized to do business in the state where the demised

LIENS

Section 1101. Lessee shall not do any act which shall in any way encumber the title of Lessor in and to said demised premises, nor shall the interest or estate of Lessor in said demised premises be in any way subject to any claim by way of lien or encumbrance, whether by operation of law or by virtue of any express or implied contract by Lessee, and any claim to or lien upon said demised premises arising from any act or omission of Lessee shall accrue only against the leasehold estate of Lessee and shall in all respects be subject and subordinate to the paramount title and rights of Lessor in and to said premises and the buildings and improvements thereon. Lessee will not permit the demised premises to become subject to any mechanics', laborers' or materialmen's lien on account of labor or material furnished to Lessee or claimed to have been furnished to Lessee in connection with work of any character performed or claimed to have been performed on the demised premises by or at the direction or sufferance of Lessee; provided, however, that Lessee shall have the right to contest in good faith and with reasonable diligence, the validity of any such lien or claimed lien if Lessee shall give to Lessor such security as many be demanded by Lessor to insure payment thereof and to prevent any sale, foreclosure or forfeiture of the demised premises by reason of non-payment thereof; provided, on final determination of the lien or claim for lien, Lessee will immediately pay any judgment rendered, with all proper costs and charges, and will, at its own expense, have the lien released and any judgment satisfied.

Section 1102. In case Lessee shall fail to contest the validity of any or having commenced to contest the same and having given such security, shall fail to prosecute such contest with diligence, or shall fail to have the same released and satisfy any judgment rendered thereon, then Lessor may, at its election (but shall not be required so to do,) remove or discharge such lien or claim for lien (with the right, in its discretion, to settle or compromise the same), and any amounts advanced by Lessor for such purposes shall be so much additional rental due from Lessee to Lessor at the next rent day after any such payment, with interest at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum from the date of payment thereof.

CONDEMNATION

Section 1201. In the event the whole of the demised premises, or so much thereof, including however a portion of the building or buildings, shall be taken or condemned for a public or quasi-public use or purpose by any competent authority and as a result thereof the balance of said premises cannot be used for the same purpose as before such taking or condemnation, then and in either of such events, the term of this Lease shall terminate when possession of the demised premises shall be required for such use or purpose, and any award, compensation or damages (here-after sometimes called the "award"), shall be paid to and be the property of Lessor.

Section 1202. In the event only a part of the demised premises shall be taken or condemned for a public or quasi-public use or purpose by any competent authority, and as a result thereof the balance of said premises can be used for the same purpose as before such taking or condemnation, this Lease shall not terminate and Lessee, at its sole costs and expense, shall repair and restore the premises and all improvements thereon. Any award paid as a consequence of such taking or condemnation, shall be paid to Lessee and be applied to the cost of said repairing and restoration. Any sums remaining after such application shall be paid to Lessor. There shall be no reduction in the fixed rental because of such taking.

RENT ABSOLUTE

Section 1301. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, damage to or destruction of any port on or all of the buildings, structures and fixtures upon the demised premises, by fire, the elements or any other cause whatsoever, whether with or without fault on the part of Lessee, shall not terminate this Lease or entitle Lessee to surrender the demised premises or entitle Lessee to any abatement of or reduction in the rent payable, or otherwise affect the respective obligations of the parties hereto, any present or future law to the contrary notwithstanding. If the use of the demised premises for any purpose should, at any time during the term of this Lease, be prohibited by law or ordinance or other governmental regulation, or prevented by injunction, or if there be any eviction by title paramount, this Lease shall not, except as otherwise specifically provided herein, be thereby terminated, nor shall Lessee be entitled by reason thereof to surrender the demised premises or to any abatement or reduction in rent, nor shall the respective obligations of the parties hereto be otherwise affected unless such eviction is due to the act of Lessor or any person or persons claiming any interest in the demised premises by or under Lessor.

ASSIGNMENT BY LESSEE

Section 1401. Lessee shall not assign this Lease without the written consent of Lessor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, and no such assignment shall relieve Lessee of its obligations hereunder and Lessee shall continue to be liable as a principal and not as a guarantor or surety, to the same extent as though no assignment had been made.

Section 1402. Lessee may, without Lessor's consent, assign this Lease to any corporation resulting from a merger or consolidation of the Lessee, provided that the total assets and net worth of such assignee after such consolidation or merger shall be more than that of Lessee immediately prior to such consolidation or merger, and provided that Lessee is not at such time in default hereunder, and provided further that such successor shall execute an instrument in writing fully assuming all of the obligations and liabilities imposed upon Lessee hereunder and deliver the same to Lessor; whereupon Lessee shall be discharged from any further liability hereunder.

Section 1403. Lessee shall not allow or permit any transfer of this Lease, or any interest hereunder, by operation of law, or convey, mortgage, pledge, or encumber this Lease or any interest hereunder.

Section 1501. Lessee further agrees to furnish Lessor annually within seventy-five (75) days of the end of each fiscal year, with a copy of its annual audited statement, and agrees that Lessor may deliver such statements to its mortgagee. and Guarantor's

INDEMNITY FOR LITIGATION

Section 1601. Lessee further agrees to pay all costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, which may be incurred by or imposed on Lessor either in enforcing this Lease or in any litigation to which Lessor, without fault on its part, may be made a party, and if paid by Lessor, shall be so much additional rent due on the next rent date after such payment together with interest at seven percent (7%) per annum from the date of payment.

ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE BY LESSEE

Section 1701. Lessee further agrees at any time and from time to time, upon not less than twenty (20) days' prior written request by Lessor, to execute, acknowledge and deliver to Lessor a statement in writing certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified, and stating the modifications), and the date to which the rental and other charges have been paid in advance, if any, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant to this Section 1701, may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser of the fee, or mortgagee or assignee of any mortgage upon the fee, of the demised premises.

INSPECTION OF PREMISES

Section 1801. Lessee agrees to permit Lessor and the authorized representatives of Lessor, to enter the demised premises at all reasonable times during business hours for the purpose of inspecting the same.

hereafter located upon said land, together with all duct electrical lines, whether or not attached or affixed to said land or any buildings thereon, sometimes herein referred to as "building fixtures," shall be and remain a part of the real estate and shall constitute the property of Lessor.

Section 1902. All of Lessee's trade fixtures and all personal property, fixtures, apparatus, machinery and equipment now or hereafter located upon said land, other than building fixtures as defined in Section 1901 hereof, and owned by Lessee or any other occupants of the demised premises and whether or not the same are affixed thereto, shall be and remain the personal property of Lessee or such other occupants, and the same are herein sometimes referred to as "Lessee's equipment."

Section 1903. Lessee's equipment may be removed from time to time by Lessee or other occupants of the demised premises, provided, however, that if such removal shall injure or damage the premises, Lessee shall reasonably repair the damage and place the premises in the same condition as it would have been if such equipment had not been installed.

RE-ENTRY UPON DEFAULT

Section 2001. Lessee further agrees that any one or more of the following events shall be considered events of default as said term is used herein, that is to say, if

(a) Lessee shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or a decree or order approving, as properly filed, a petition or answer asking reorganization of Lessee under the Federal bankruptcy laws as now or hereafter amended, or under the laws of any State, shall be entered, and any such decree or judgment or order shall not have been vacated or stayed or set aside within sixty (60) days from the date of the entry or granting thereof; or

(b) Lessee shall file or admit the jurisdiction of the court and the material allegations contained in, any petition in bankruptcy, or any petition pursuant or purporting to be pursuant to the Federal bankruptcy laws as now or hereafter amended, or Lessee shall institute any proceedings or shall give its consent to the institution of any proceedings for any relief of Lessee under any bankruptcy or insolvency laws or any laws relating to the relief of debtors, readjustment of indebtedness, reorganization, arrangements, composition or extension; or

Upon the occurrence of any one or more of such events of default, it shall be lawful for Lessor, at its election, to declare the said term ended, and the said demised premises and the buildings and improvements then situated thereon or any part thereof, either with or without process of law, to re-enter and to expel, remove and put out, Lessee and all persons occupying said premises under Lessee, using such force as may be necessary in so doing, and the said premises and the buildings and improvements then situated thereon, again to repossess and enjoy as in their first and former estate, without such re-entry and repossession working a forfeiture of the rents to be paid and the covenants to be performed by Lessee during the full term of this Lease. If default shall be made in any covenant, agreement, condition or undertaking herein contained to be kept, observed and performed by Lessee, other than the payment of rent as herein provided, which cannot with due diligence be cured within a period of sixty (60) days, and if notice thereof in writing shall have been given to Lessee, and if Lessee, prior to the expiration of sixty (60) days from and after the giving of such notice, commences to eliminate the cause of such default and proceeds diligently and with reasonable dispatch to take all steps and do all work required to cure such default and does so cure such default, then Lessor shall not have the right to declare the said term ended by reason of such default; provided, however, that the curing of any default in such manner shall not be construed to limit or restrict the right of Lessor to declare the said term ended and enforce all of its right and remedies hereunder for any other default not so cured.

Section 2002. The foregoing provisions for the termination of this Lease for any default in any of its covenants, shall not operate to exclude or suspend any other remedy of Lessor for breach of any of said covenants or for the recovery of said rent or any advance of Lessor made thereon, and in the event of the termination of this Lease as aforesaid, Lessee agrees to indemnify and save harmless Lessor from any loss arising from such termination and re-entry in pursuance thereof, and to that end Lessee agrees to pay Lessor, after such termination and re-entry and upon demand, all reasonable expenses of re-letting, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the reasonable costs of decorating and restoring the premises, brokers' commissions and Lessor's attorneys' fees, plus, at the end of each month of the demised term, the difference between the net income actually received by Lessor from said demised premises during such month and the rent agreed to be paid by the terms of this Lease during such month.

LESSOR'S PERFORMANCE OF LESSEE'S COVENANTS

Section 2101. Should Lessee at any time fail to do any of the things required to be done by it under the provisions of this Lease, Lessor, at its option and pursuant to the provisions relating to notice contained in Section 2001, may (but shall not be required to) do the same or cause the same to be done, and the amounts paid by Lessor in connection therewith shall be so much additional rent due on the next rent date after such payment together with interest at seven per cent (7%) per annum from the date of payment.

SUBORDINATION TO MORTGAGES

Section 2201. It is further expressly understood and agreed that this Lease shall be subject and subordinate to any mortgage or deed of trust now upon the demised premises and any mortgage or deed of trust hereafter placed upon the demised premises, provided that the mortgage or beneficiary under such deed of trust agrees in writing with Lessee or adequate provision is made in such mortgage or deed of trust, that, regardless of any default or breach under said mortgage or deed of trust or of any possession or sale of the whole or any part of the premises under or through such mortgage or deed of trust, that this Lease and Lessee's possession shall not be disturbed by mortgagee or beneficiary or any other party claiming under or through such mortgage or deed of trust, provided, however, that Lessee shall continue to observe and perform Lessee's obligations under this Lease and pay rent to whosoever may be lawfully entitled to same from time to time. Lessee hereby agrees to execute, if same is required, any and all instruments in writing which may be requested by Lessor to subordinate Lessee's rights acquired by this Lease to the lien of any such mortgage or deed of trust, all as aforesaid. Irrespective of whether or not this Lease is subordinated to any such mortgage or deed of trust, the mortgagee or beneficiary under such mortgage or deed of trust, shall agree in writing that proceeds of insurance, or awards, payable to Lessee in the event of partial condemnation as provided in Section 1202 shall be made available to Lessee for the purpose of repairing, restoring and rebuilding, as provided in this Lease, or adequate provision relative thereto shall be made in such mortgage or deed of trust.

REMEDIES TO BE CUMULATIVE

Section 2301. No remedy herein or otherwise conferred upon or reserved to Lessor, shall be considered exclusive of any other remedy, but the same shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute, and every power and remedy given by this Lease to Lessor may be exercised from time to time and as often as occasion may arise or as may be deemed expedient. No delay or omission of Lessor to exercise any right or power arising from any default, shall impair any such right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver of any such default or an acquiescence therein.

Section 2302. No waiver of any breach of any of the covenants of this Lease shall be construed, taken or held to be a waiver of any other breach or waiver, acquiescence in or consent to any further or succeeding breach of the same covenant.

Section 2303. Neither the rights herein given to receive, collect, sue for or distrain for any rent or rents, moneys or payments, or to enforce the terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease, or to prevent the breach or non-observance thereof, or the exercise of any such right or of any other right or remedy hereunder or otherwise granted or arising, shall in any way affect or impair or toll the right or power of Lessor to declare the term hereby granted ended, and to terminate this Lease as provided for in this Lease, because of any default in or breach of the covenants, provisions or conditions of this Lease.

SURRENDER OF POSSESSION

Section 2401. Whenever the said term herein demised shall be terminated, whether by lapse of time, forfeiture or in any other way, Lessee agrees that it will at once surrender and deliver up said premises, including the buildings and improvements thereon and the fixtures and equipment belonging to Lessor therein contained, peaceably to Lessor and if Lessee shall thereafter remain in possession thereof, it shall be deemed guilty of forcible detainer of the premises under the statute and shall be subject to all the conditions and provisions above named and to ejection and removal, forcibly and otherwise, with or without process of law as above stated.

COVENANT OF QUIET ENJOYMENT

Section 2501. Lessor further agrees that at all times when Lessee is not in default under the terms of and during the term of this Lease, Lessee's quiet and peaceable enjoyment of the demised premises shall not be disturbed or interfered with by Lessor or by any person claiming by, through or under Lessor.

The demised premises shall be deemed ready for occupancy and substantially completed when John A. In the event Lessee desires any changes from the preliminary sketches, "Proposal" or specifications or final drawings or specifications which will increase the cost of the improvements based upon the preliminary sketch, "Proposal and specifications, that Lessee will pay the cost and expenses of such changes and will contract for same directly with J. L. Williams & Co., Inc., the General Contractor, who will erect and construct the improvements and will do so at no cost and/or expense whatsoever to the Lessor, provided, however, that no such changes shall be made without the express written consent of the Lessor.

Section 3302. The selection of J. L. Williams & Co., Inc. as General Contractor by the Lessor has been made with the consent and approval of It is understood that a portion of the improvements to be erected on the demised premises are commonly referred to as an "arcade" or "entrance" leading to the building or improvements, part of which is located on Lot 1 of the resubdivision described on Exhibit A attached to this Lease. Lessee agrees to deliver to Lessor, upon request, written permission from the owner of the fee of said Lot 1 and the Lessee of the improvements on Lot 1 and the party in possession of such improvements to erect part of said "arcade" or "entrance" on said Lot 1. Lessee agrees that upon termination of this lease by lapse of time or otherwise to close off the said "arcade" or "entrance" to the building being erected on the demised premises at its own cost and expense in a good workman like manner to the satisfaction of the Lessor so as to make the improvements or building erected on the demised premises a self-contained and self-standing building as if said "arcade" or "entrance" had not been constructed.

Section 3303. Lessor agrees to cause to be provided in the Construction Contract with J. L. Williams & Co., Inc., General Contractor, for substantial completion of the improvements above described on the demised premises and the delivery of possession thereof to Lessee by September 1, 1973, subject to delays caused by changes in construction requested by Lessee, strikes, lock-outs, acts of God or public enemy, governmental restrictions, unavailability of materials or other matters beyond the control of the General Contractor, J. L. Williams & Co., Inc., and that in any of such events, the time of completion of such construction shall be extended for an additional period of time equal to that caused by such delay. The provisions contained in this Section shall impose no obligation or responsibility on the part of the Lessor to complete said improvements on the demised premises within the time provided for in the Construction Contract with J. L. Williams & Co., Inc., the General Contractor, and Lessee shall have no recourse against Lessor, and does hereby waive and release Lessor from any responsibility for failure of the Contractor to complete said construction of the improvements as agreed to by the General Contractor, J. L. Williams & Co., Inc., and Lessee's only recourse for failure to substantially complete the improvements on the demised premises as in said contract provided for shall be against J. L. Williams & Co., Inc. only. Lessor, if necessary, will assign any and all of its rights against J. L. Williams & Co., Inc. to Lessee so that Lessee may enforce the obligations of J. L. Williams & Co., Inc. as undertaken by it in its Construction Contract with Lessor, but all at the sole cost and expense of Lessee.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 401 OF PRINTED PORTION OF LEASE

Section 3401. Notwithstanding the provisions contained in Section 401 of the printed portion of the lease, the rental therein provided shall be paid to the order of Forest Park Industrial Center, Inc., P.O. Box 111, Forest Park, Illinois, until otherwise notified in writing by Lessor, and such rental when paid to Forest Park Industrial Center, Inc. shall satisfy the obligation contained in said Section 401 of the printed form of this lease.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 402 OF PRINTED PORTION OF LEASE

Section 3501. Section 402 of printed portion of lease is hereby amended by inserting the word "substantially" before the word "completed" in the first line of said Section 402.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 505 OF PRINTED PORTION OF LEASE

Section 3601. Section 505 of printed portion of lease is hereby amended and supplemented as follows: by striking from said Section 505 beginning with the word "give" in the fifth line of said Section to the end of said Section and substituting after the word "shall" in the fifth line of said Section the following: "Upon request of Lessor, deposit with the Lessor cash or government bonds satisfactory to the Lessor Pending the diligent prosecution of any such legal proceedings, and provided Lessee has maintained the deposit above provided for, Lessor shall not have the right to pay, remove or discharge the tax, assessment, tax lien or other imposition or charge so contested. The cash or government bonds so deposited shall be held by the Lessor until said premises shall have been released and discharged from any such tax, assessment, tax lien or other imposition or charge and shall thereupon be returned to the Lessee less the amount of any loss, cost, damage and reasonable expense that Lessor may sustain in connection with the tax, assessment, tax lien or other imposition or charge so contested; provided, however, that if Lessee fails to prosecute such contest with due diligence, or fails to maintain said deposit as above provided, or if Lessee is otherwise in default under the provisions of this Lease, Lessor may use the cash or government bonds so deposited to pay any item for which Lessor would be entitled to make advances, or to cure any other such default of Lessee."

Section 3602. Lessee agrees that if the Mortgage holding a mortgage secured by the demised premises shall at any time require monthly deposits of taxes and insurance premiums, that said Lessee will make such deposits as and when required by said Mortgage.

RATE OF INTEREST TO BE CHARGED

Section 3701. It is agreed that the rate of interest to be charged by Lessor to Lessee for any advances made by Lessor pursuant to the term of this Lease or for monies not paid by Lessee to Lessor when due, shall be at the rate of 11% per annum instead of 7% as provided in the printed portion of this Lease.

AMENDMENTS OR OTHER DOCUMENTS REQUIRED BY THE MORTGAGE

Section 3801. If Mortgagee in the Mortgage to secure an indebtedness of Lessor conveying the demised premises requires an additional or other covenants and agreements than that contained in this lease or any amendments to the lease, Lessee agrees to execute such amendments and changes as may be required by the Mortgagee so long as the term of the lease is not changed and the maximum rental provided by this lease is not increased and the option hereinafter contained is not eliminated or altered. Specifically without limitation, Lessee agrees to execute and deliver in the form required by the Mortgagee acceptance of the premises, the commencement of the term and a receipt of a copy of Lessor's assignment of the lease to the Mortgagee.

OPTION TO PURCHASE

Section 3901. If Lessee shall not be in default under the terms of this lease, and provided that this lease has not theretofore been terminated, then Lessee shall have the option not later than September 1, 1994 or earlier than March 1, 1994 to purchase the demised premises during the month of March 1995 at a price to be determined by an appraisal as of March 31, 1995, which appraisal shall be made as hereinafter set forth. The purchase price determined by such appraisal shall be paid in cash excepting that any balance then remaining unpaid of any encumbrance against said demised premises shall be deducted from the purchase price. Title to the demised premises shall be conveyed to the Lessee or its nominee if it exercises the option herein granter and pays the purchase price by Trustee's Deed or other suitable conveyance. The title to be conveyed shall be subject to the following:

(a) Taxes for the year 1973 and subsequent years;
(b) All utility easements of record and not of record;
(c) Railroad easements, if any;
(d) Other easements or claims of easements not shown by the public record;
(e) Any lien or right to a lien for services, labor or material heretofore or hereafter furnished to Lessee imposed by law whether shown by the public records or not of record;
(f) Taxes or special assessments which are shown or not shown as existing liens by the public records at the time of the exercise of the option;
(g) Any defects of title liens, adverse claims or other matters which result from any act after date hereof of Lessee or its successors and assigns or any one claiming through or under any of them;
(h) Questions of survey, and particularly the fact that part of the improvements are erected on part of Lot 1 of the subdivision described in Exhibit A attached to this lease; and
(i) Standard exceptions contained in Owner's Title Policies as then issued by the Lawyers' Title Insurance Corporation.

Section 3902. Lessee may exercise the foregoing option to purchase within the time above provided by written notice to Lessor given in the manner specified in Section 2801 of this lease with return receipt requested and shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check to the order of Lessor or its successor in the sum of $75,000.00 as earnest money, which earnest money shall be increased to equal 10% of the purchase price when ascertained as hereinafter provided. The sale shall be consummated pursuant to the terms of the Real Estate Contract of like tenor and effect as that attached hereto marked Exhibit B, and by this express reference thereto made a part hereof. The closing shall be made through an escrow as provided in Exhibit B and Lessor shall deposit in the escrow when established the earnest money paid to it and deed or instrument of conveyance as above provided, and Lessee shall deposit the remainder of said purchase price in said escrow. Said deposit shall be made within twenty (20) days after the price is determined by the appraisal as hereinafter provided. Lessee shall pay the rent at the rate provided for by this lease until the entire purchase price is deposited in the escrow. Prepaid rent shall be the only item to be prorated. It is agreed that the purchase price shall be net to the Lessor, and, therefore, Lessee agrees to pay in addition to the purchase price all broker's commission payable by reason of said sale of the demised premises and to keep the Lessor and its beneficiary free and harmless of any claim for such commissions. Lessor shall furnish the Owner's Guaranty Policy for the purchase price at its cost, but the delivery of a commitment for such Owner's Policy shall be sufficient for purpose of consummating the said sale and purchase of the demised premises.

Section 3903. The appraisal provided for above, if the option to purchase is exercised as above provided, shall be made by three (3) real estate appraisers as follows:

Lessor and Lessee shall each appoint one (1) real estate appraiser not later than fifteen (15) days after the giving of notice by Lessee of the exercise of its option to purchase as above provided, and the two (2) appraisers so appointed shall select a third real estate appraiser not later than fifteen (15) days after the expiration of said fifteen (15) days. If the two (2) appraisers appointed by Lessor and Lessee are unable or fail to neglect to appoint a third appraiser within the time above provided, then the senior acting Judge of the United States District Court for the District having jurisdiction of Cook Country, Illinois, at said time or any other court that may then be in existence in lieu of the United States District Court shall appoint the third appraiser. The three (3) appraisers selected as aforesaid shall fix and determine the value of the demised premises, including all improvements thereon and the amount so fixed by them shall be the purchase price to be paid by Lessee to Lessor for the demised premises. The value fixed and determined by said three (3) appraisers shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and not subject to review except for fraud. Each of the parties shall pay the fee of the appraiser appointed by them respectively and one-half of the fee of the third appraiser who may be appointed pursuant to this Section.

Section 3904. It is agreed that the foregoing option given to Lessee to purchase the demised premises shall not be assignable or transferable voluntarily or involuntarily without the written consent of the Lessor first had and obtained, and any assignment or transfer, voluntary or involuntary, or by operation of law, shall be void. If Lessee is at any time permitted by Lessor to make an assignment of this lease, such assignment shall not carry with it the option to purchase, unless the Lessor specifically in writing consents to same, but the option to purchase shall then be deemed to have terminated and become of no force or effect.

CONTINGENCIES UNDER WHICH THIS LEASE WILL NOT BECOME EFFECTIVE

Section 4001. This lease is expressly subject to the approval of the final plans, drawings and specifications by the parties hereto as above provided, and is also expressly subject to Lessor's ability to obtain satisfactory interim and permanent financing. Anything in this lease to the contrary notwithstanding, it is hereby agreed that this lease shall be of no force or effect and there shall be no liability on the part of the parties hereto if the approval is withheld by the parties hereto of the final plans and specifications within the time above provided and/or if Lessor is unable to obtain interim and/or permanent financing to be secured by the demised premises and the improvements to be erected thereon in a sum and upon terms and other conditions satisfactory to Lessor within forty-five (45) days from the date of this lease.

THIS AMENDMENT OF LEASE ("Amendment") is made this 17th day of January, 1995, by and between FIRST BANK, N.A., as successor trustee to National Boulevard Bank of Chicago, not personally or individually, but solely as Trustee under a Trust Agreement dated March 15, 1973 and known as Trust No. 4722 ("Lessor"), and UNITED STATIONERS SUPPLY CO. (formerly, UTILITY SUPPLY CO.), an Illinois corporation ("Lessee").

RECITALS:

A. Lessor and Lessee entered into a lease dated March 22, 1973, as amended by Amendment to Lease of Real Estate dated May 4, 1973 (collectively, the "Lease"), whereby Lessor leased to Lessee certain Premises (the "Premises") commonly known as 7750 West Industrial Drive, Forest Park, Illinois.

B. The parties hereto by negotiation and agreement, desire to modify and amend certain portions of said Lease to the mutual advantage of both parties.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein and in the Lease contained, it is hereby agreed as follows:

1. Commencing on April 1, 1995 the Lease shall be amended in the following respects:

(a) Section 201 of the Lease shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following provision:

"Section 201. Term of Lease. The term of this Lease is hereby extended through and including March 31, 1996, unless otherwise terminated or extended as provided herein."

(b) In Section 401 of the Lease, the clause reading "...a monthly rental of $10,000.00..." shall be deleted and replaced with the following provision:

"... a monthly rental of $19,237.50 ($230,850.00 per annum or $2.85 per square foot) ..."

(c) The following language shall be added to the Lease as Sections 2701 and 2702:

"Lessee's Option to Extend.

Section 2701. Lessee shall have, and is hereby given, an option to extend the term hereof for an additional one (1) year period through and including March 31, 1997, upon the same terms and conditions contained in this Lease, except that, in lieu of the rental provided in Section 401 of the Lease for the term ending March 31, 1996, Lessee shall pay during the extended term a monthly rental of $19,912.50 ($238,950.00 per annum or $2.95 per square foot).

Section 2702. Such option may be exercised only: (i) upon written notice to Lessor given at least one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to March 31, 1996; (ii) if Lessee is not then in default under the Lease; and (iii) if the preceding Lease term has not theretofore been terminated."

(d) Sections 3901 through 3904 of the Lease shall be deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following provisions:

"Option to Purchase

Section 3901. If Lessee shall not be in default under the terms of this Lease, and provided that this Lease has not theretofore been terminated, then Lessee shall have the option not later than September 1, 1995, or September 1, 1996 if Lessee exercises its Option to Extend the term of the Lease as heretofore provided, to purchase the demised premises during the month of April 1996 or April 1997, as the case may be, at a price to be determined by agreement of the parties, or if the parties fail to agree within ten days after notice of exercise as specified in Section 3902, by an appraisal as of March 31, 1996, or March 31, 1997, as the case may be, which appraisal shall be made as hereinafter set forth. The purchase price determined by such appraisal shall be paid in cash excepting that any balance then remaining unpaid of any encumbrance against said demised premises shall be deducted from the purchase price. Title to the demised premises shall be conveyed to the Lessee or its nominee if it exercises the option herein granted and pays the purchase price by Trustee's Deed or other suitable conveyance. The title to be conveyed shall be subject to the following:

(a) Taxes for the year 1995 (if purchased in 1996) or 1996 (if purchased in 1997);

(b) All utility easements of record and not of record;

(c) Railroad easements, if any;

(d) Other easements or claims of easements not shown by the public record;

(e) Any lien or right to a lien for services, labor or material heretofore or hereafter furnished to Lessee imposed by law whether shown by the public records or not of record;

(f) Taxes or special assessments which are shown or not shown as existing liens by the public records at the time of the exercise of the option;

(g) Any defects of title liens, adverse claims or other matters which-result from any act after the date hereof of Lessee or its successors and assigns or any one claiming through or under any of them;

(h) Questions of survey, and particularly the fact that part of the improvements are erected on part of Lot 1 of the subdivision described in Exhibit A attached to the Lease; and

(i) Standard exceptions contained in Owner's Title Insurance Policies as then issued by the Chicago Title Insurance Company.

Section 3902. Lessee may exercise the foregoing option to purchase within the time above provided by written notice to Lessor, given in the manner specified in Section 2801 of the Lease, with return receipt requested, and shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check to the order of Lessor or its successor in the sum of $75,000.00 as earnest money, which earnest money shall be increased to equal 10% of the purchase price when ascertained as hereinafter provided. The sale shall be consummated pursuant to the terms of the Real Estate Contract of like tenor and effect as that attached to the Lease as Exhibit B, with such changes thereto as may be required by law at the time of the exercise of the option to purchase.

The closing shall be made through an escrow as provided in Exhibit B. Lessor shall deposit in the escrow, when established, the earnest money paid to it and the Trustee's deed or instrument of conveyance as above provided, and Lessee shall deposit the remainder of said purchase price in said escrow. Said deposit shall be made within twenty (20) days after the price is determined by the appraisal as hereinafter provided. Lessee shall pay the rent at the rate provided for by this Lease until the entire purchase price is deposited in the escrow. Prepaid rent shall be the only item to be prorated.

It is agreed that the purchase price shall be net to the Lessor, and, therefore, Lessee agrees to pay, in addition to the purchase price, all broker's commissions payable by reason of said sale of the demised premises and to keep the Lessor and its beneficiary free and harmless of any claim for such commissions.

Lessor shall furnish the Owner's Title Insurance Policy for the purchase price at its cost, but the delivery of a commitment for such Owner's Policy shall be sufficient for purpose of consummating the said sale and purchase of the demised premises.

In the event that Lessee exercises its option to purchase, as provided above, Lessor reserves the right to assign all of Lessor's right, title, and interest (but not Lessor's obligations) in and to the Real Estate Contract to a Qualified Intermediary, as provided in IRC Reg. 1.1031(k)-1(g) (4) on or before the closing date, pursuant to an exchange of the demised premises for other property of a like kind and qualifying use within the meaning of Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations thereunder.

Section 3903. The appraisal provided for above, if the option to purchase is exercised as above provided, and the parties fail to agree upon the purchase price, shall be made by three(3) real estate appraisers as follows:

Lessor and Lessee shall each appoint one (1) real estate appraiser not later than fifteen (15) days after the giving of notice by Lessee of the exercise of its option to purchase as above provided, and the two (2) appraisers so appointed shall select a third real estate appraiser not later than fifteen (15) days after the expiration of said fifteen (15) days. If the two (2) appraisers appointed by Lessor and Lessee are unable or fail or neglect to appoint a third appraiser within the time above provided, then the senior acting Judge of the United States District Court for the District having jurisdiction of Cook County, Illinois, at said time or any other court that may then be in existence in lieu of the United States District Court shall appoint the third appraiser. The three (3) appraisers selected as aforesaid shall fix and determine the value of the demised premises, including all improvements thereon and the amount so fixed by them shall be the purchase price to be paid by Lessee to Lessor for the demised premises. The value fixed and determined by said three (3) appraisers shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and not subject to review except for fraud. Each of the parties shall pay the fee of the appraiser appointed by them respectively and one-half of the fee of the third appraiser who may be appointed pursuant to this Section.

Section 3904. It is agreed that the foregoing option given to Lessee to purchase the demised premises shall not be assignable or transferable voluntarily or involuntarily without the written consent of the Lessor first had and obtained, and any assignment or transfer, voluntary or involuntary, or by operation of law, shall be void. If Lessee is at any time permitted by Lessor to make an assignment of this Lease, such assignment shall not carry with it the option to purchase, unless the Lessor specifically in writing consents to same, but the option to purchase shall then be deemed to have terminated and become of no force or effect."

2. Binding Effect. Except as modified herein, the terms, conditions and covenants of the Lease shall remain in full force and effect, and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Lessor, Lessee and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

3. Paragraph Headings. The paragraph headings herein contained are for convenience and shall not be deemed to govern or control the substance hereof.

4. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed under the laws of the State of Illinois.

5. Inconsistency. Except as modified herein, the terms, conditions and covenants of the Lease shall remain unchanged and otherwise in full force and effect, and are hereby ratified and reaffirmed. In the event of an inconsistency between this Amendment and the Lease, the terms herein shall control.

6. Modification. This Amendment may not be modified or amended except by written agreement executed by the parties hereto.

7. Capitalized Terms. All capitalized terms as used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meanings as are ascribed to them in the Lease.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Amendment is executed as of the day and year of the amount of its estimated Proportionate Share. Landlord and Tenant intend to estimate the amount of Operating Expenses for each year and then to reconcile such estimated expenses in the following year based on actual Operating Expenses for such year paid by Landlord. If Tenant's Proportionate Share of the actual Operating Expenses shall be greater than or less than the aggregate of all installments so paid on account to Landlord for such twelve (12) month period, then within twenty (20) days of Tenant's receipt of Landlord's statement of reconciled Operating Expenses, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the amount of such underpayment, or Landlord shall credit Tenant for the amount of such overpayment against the next maturing installment(s) of rent, as the case may be. The obligation of Tenant with respect to the payment of Tenant's Proportionate Share of the Operating Expenses shall survive the termination of this Lease. Any payment, refund, or credit made pursuant to this subparagraph 3(c) shall be made without prejudice to any right of Tenant to dispute the statement as hereinafter provided, or of Landlord to correct any item(s) as billed pursuant to the provisions hereof. Landlord's failure to give such statement shall not constitute a waiver by Landlord of its right to recover rent that is due and payable pursuant to this subparagraph 3(c). Landlord shall furnish to tenant a detailed statement itemizing expenses including but not limited to the following; cleaning, electrical maintenance, plumbing maintenance, heating, ventilation, air conditioning equipment maintenance, elevator maintenance, general building supplies, security, administrative staff and management fees, utility expenses, payroll taxes, benefit/pension costs and insurance expenses (Landlords statement) for such adjustment year.

The detail and results of such audit shall be made available to both Landlord and Tenant (and such audit, it is determined or agreed by the parties that Landlord has overcharged tenant in the notice of reconciled Operating Expenses, by an amount which is greater that 5% of Tenant's proportionate share (as corrected) of all actual Operating Expenses for the particular year, the Landlord will pay for the cost of such audit. If the overcharge, if any, is less than 5%, the Tenant will pay for the cost of such audit.

(e) Adjustments to Operating Expenses. If a clerical error occurs or Landlord or Landlord's accountants discover new facts, which error or discovery causes Operating Expenses for any period to increase or decrease, upon notice by Landlord to Tenant of the adjusted additional Operating Expenses for such calendar year, the adjusted additional Operating Expenses shall apply and any deficiency or overpayment of Tenant's Proportionate Share of the Operating Expenses, as the case may be, shall be paid by Tenant or taken as a credit by Tenant according to the provisions set forth above. This provision shall survive the termination of the Lease.

(f) Other Charges. All costs, expenses and other sums that Tenant assumes or agrees to pay to Landlord pursuant to this Lease ("Other Charges") shall be deemed rental and, in the event of nonpayment thereof, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies herein provided for in case of nonpayment of Base Rental. If a monthly installment of rent is not received on or before the fifth (5th) day of the month in which it is due, other remedies for nonpayment of rent notwithstanding, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, a late charge of five percent (5%) of such installment as rent for the purpose of defraying Landlord's administrative expenses incident to the handling of such overdue payment, and such past due rent shall bear interest at the greater of (i) a rate of interest equal to fifteen percent (15%) per annum; (ii) a rate of interest equal to the prime rate as announced (the "Default Rate"), for each day from the first day of the month through the date such monthly installment of rent is received by Landlord. For purposes of this Lease, "rent" shall mean Base Rental, Additional Rental, and Other Charges.

At the termination of this Lease, by lapse of time or otherwise, Tenant shall remove all Tenant's property, including but not limited to, trade fixtures, from the Premises, and shall return the Premises broom-clean and in as good a condition as when Tenant took possession or as same may thereafter have been put by Landlord, except for ordinary wear, loss by fire or other casualty, and repairs that Landlord is required to make under this Lease. ---

Before commencing any work in connection with the Alterations, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord for its approval the following: (i) detailed plans and specifications therefor, (ii) names and addresses of each of the contractors and subcontractors, (iii) copies of all contracts, subcontracts and necessary permits, (iv) a payment and performance bond, or other indemnification, in form and amount satisfactory to Landlord, protecting Landlord against any and all claims, costs, damages, liabilities and expenses that may arise in connection with the Alterations, (v) such documentation as is necessary to comply fully with the mechanics' lien law of the state in which the Premises is located, and (vi) certificates of insurance, in form and amount satisfactory to Landlord, from all contractors and subcontractors who will perform labor or furnish materials, insuring Landlord against any and all liability for personal injury, including workers' compensation claims and for property damage that may arise out of or be in any manner connected with the Alterations.

(b) Indemnification. In addition to the indemnity set forth in Paragraph 12 of this Lease, Tenant hereby specifically agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from and against any and all liabilities, costs and expenses of every kind and description, including attorneys' fees, that may arise out of or in any manner be connected with any Alterations made by Tenant. Tenant shall pay the cost of all such Alterations and all costs associated with decorating the Premises that may be occasioned thereby. Upon completion of any such Alterations, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with (i) receipted bills covering all labor and materials used, together with such documentation as is necessary to comply fully with the mechanics' lien law of the state in which the Premises are located; (ii) a true and correct copy of the certificate of occupancy, if one is issued; and (iii) a certificate of Tenant's architect or engineer stating that such Alterations were made in accordance with the plans and specifications. (c) Compliance and Supervision of Alterations. All Alterations made by

Tenant hereunder shall be installed in a good and workmanlike manner, using only materials of the same or higher quality as those installed in the Building. All Alterations shall comply with all requirements of Landlord's insurance carriers and with all laws, rules, ordinances and regulations of any lawful authority. Tenant shall permit

Landlord to supervise construction operations in connection with any such Alterations, if Landlord requests the right to do so (but Landlord shall have no obligation to make such requests, or having done so, to supervise construction). If Landlord chooses to supervise there shall be not cost to tenant for such supervision. Landlord's supervision of construction shall be done solely for the benefit of Landlord and shall not alter Tenant's liability and responsibility under this Paragraph 6.

(d) Landlord's Property. All Alterations, whether temporary or permanent, including hardware, non-trade fixtures and wall and floor coverings, whether placed in or upon the Premises by Landlord or Tenant, shall become Landlord's property and shall remain with the Premises at the termination of this Lease, whether by lapse of time or otherwise, without compensation, allowance or credit to Tenant; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord may request that any or all of said Alterations in or upon the Premises made by Tenant be removed by Tenant at the termination of this Lease. If Landlord requests such removal or if Tenant removes its trade fixtures, Tenant shall remove the same prior to the end of the Term and shall repair all damage to the Premises, the Building or the Property caused by such removal. Tenant shall not, however, be required to remove pipes and wires concealed in floors, walls or ceilings, provided that Tenant properly cuts and caps the same, and seals them off in a safe, lawful and workmanlike manner, in accordance with Landlord's reasonable requirements and all applicable building codes. If Tenant does not remove any Alterations when requested by Landlord to do so, Landlord may remove the same and repair all damage caused thereby, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord the cost of such removal and repair immediately upon demand therefor by Landlord, plus fifteen percent (15%) of the cost of such removal to reimburse Landlord for its administrative expense. Tenant's obligation to observe or perform this covenant shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

(e) Wiring. Landlord will direct electricians as to where and how telephone and computer wires are to be introduced. The location of telephones, call boxes and other office equipment affixed to the Premises shall be subject to Landlord's approval. Landlord will provide Tenant with specifications for the telephone and computer installation.

7. Mechanics' Liens.

(a) If, because of any act or omission of Tenant, any mechanic's lien or other lien, charge or order for the payment of money shall be filed against any portion of the Premises (other than for Landlords work), Tenant, at its own cost and expense, shall cause the same to be discharged of record or bonded against within ten (10) days of the filing thereof unless Tenant shall contest the validity of such lien by appropriate legal proceedings diligently conducted in good faith and without expense to Landlord; and Tenant shall indemnify and save harmless Landlord against and from all costs, liabilities, suits, penalties, claims and demands, including attorneys' fees, on account thereof.

(b) If Tenant shall fail to cause such liens to be discharged of record or bonded against within the aforesaid ten (10) day period or shall fail to satisfy such liens within ten (10) days after any judgment in favor of such lien-holders from which no further appeal might be taken, then Landlord shall have the right to cause the same to be discharged. All amounts paid by Landlord to cause such liens to be discharged, plus interest on such amounts at the Default Rate shall constitute Other Charges payable by Tenant to Landlord.

8. Maintenance and Repair.

(a) Tenant's Maintenance. Except as provided in Paragraph 8(b) below, Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall maintain and repair during the Term of this Lease the Premises and every part thereof and any and all appurtenances thereto, including but not limited to, the doors and interior walls of the Premises; special light fixtures; kitchen fixtures; auxiliary heating, ventilation, or air-conditioning equipment; private bathroom fixtures and any other type of special equipment, together with related plumbing or electrical services; and rugs, carpeting, wall coverings, and drapes within the Premises, whether installed by Tenant or by Landlord on behalf of Tenant, and whether or not such items will become Landlord's property upon expiration or termination of this Lease. Notwithstanding the provisions hereof, in the event that repairs required to be made by Tenant become immediately necessary to avoid possible injury or damage to persons or property, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, make repairs to such items at Tenant's expense, which shall constitute Other Charges payable by Tenant to Landlord. Within ten (10) days after Landlord renders a bill for the cost of said repairs, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord.

Subject to Paragraph 8(a) above, Landlord shall keep, repair and maintain the Building (including the roof and structural members, the Common Areas, HVAC, plumbing, sprinklers, mechanical and electrical equipment, the exterior and architectural finish, and all items except those excepted elsewhere in this Lease) of which the Premises are a part, and the lawn, shrubs and other landscaping on the Property, all in good and tenantable Tenant shall notify Landlord immediately when any repair to be made by Landlord is necessary. If any portion of the Building or the Premises is damaged through the fault or negligence of Tenant, its agents, employees, invitees or customers, then Tenant shall promptly and properly repair the same at no cost to Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord may, at its option, make such repairs and Tenant shall, on demand, pay the cost thereof, together with interest at the Default Rate to Landlord as Other Charges. Tenant shall immediately give Landlord written notice of any defect or need for repairs, after which notice Landlord shall have reasonable opportunity to repair same or cure such defect. For the purposes of making any repairs or performing any maintenance, Landlord may block, close or change any entrances, doors, corridors, elevators, or other facilities in the Building or in the Premises, and may close, block or change sidewalks, driveways or parking areas of the Property. The Common Areas are not for the use of the general public and Landlord shall in all cases retain the right to control and prevent access thereto by all persons whose presence, in the judgment of Landlord, shall be prejudicial to the safety, character, reputation and interests of the Building and its tenants, provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent such access to persons with whom Tenant normally deals in the ordinary course of Tenant's business unless such persons are engaged in illegal activities. Neither Tenant nor its employees, customers or invitees shall go upon the roof or mechanical floors or into mechanical areas of the Building.

(c) Right to Change Common Areas. Landlord may do and perform such acts in and to the Common Areas as, Landlord, in its good business judgment, shall determine to be advisable. Landlord hereby reserves the right to make alterations, additions, deletions or changes to the Common Areas, including, but not limited to, changes in its size and configuration.

10. Building Services.

(a) Electric. Landlord shall provide electric power to the Premises as an element of tenant improvements. At Landlords sole cost and expense Tenant will be separately metered. Tenant will be billed directly by Commonwealth Edison for their use of electrical service related to use of lights and outlets.

(b) Water. Landlord shall provide water for drinking, lavatory and toilet purposes from the regular Building supply (at the prevailing temperature) through fixtures installed by Landlord (or by Tenant with Landlord's prior written consent); provided that Tenant shall reimburse Landlord, at rates fixed by Landlord, for water used by Tenant for supplementary air-conditioning or refrigerating installed by or for Tenant and for any other water used by Tenant (except for public drinking water and public lavatory use).

(c) Air-Conditioning and Heat. Landlord shall provide air conditioning and heat to the Premises for comfortable occupancy during Normal Business Hours, subject at all times, however, to restrictions placed upon Landlord by any duly constituted governmental agency and/or by any utility supplier. Tenant shall cooperate fully with Landlord to assure the effective operation of the Building's air-conditioning and heating systems, including the closing of venetian blinds and drapes, and if windows are operable, to keep them closed when the air-conditioning or heating system is in use. Tenant shall not use any apparatus or device in, upon or about the Premises that in any way may increase the amount of such services usually furnished or supplied to tenants in the Building, and Tenant shall not connect any apparatus or device with the conduits or pipes, or other means by which such services are supplied for the purpose of using additional or unusual amounts of such services, without the prior written consent of Landlord. If Tenant uses such services under this provision to excess, Landlord reserves the right to charge Tenant for such services, as rent. If Tenant refuses to make payment upon demand of Landlord, such excess charge shall constitute a breach of the obligation to pay rent under this Lease and shall entitle Landlord to the rights granted in this Lease for such breach.

(d) Janitor Service. Landlord shall provide janitor service in and about the Premises and the Building at the end of each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and at Landlord's option, at the end of either Sunday or Friday, except for Holidays (as hereinafter defined). Tenant shall not provide any janitor service without Landlord's prior written consent. If Landlord consents to janitor service provided by Tenant, the same shall be subject to Landlord's rules and regulations and to Landlord's supervision, but at Tenant's sole cost and expense (without reduction in Base Rent or Additional Rental). Landlord shall further provide carpet cleaning in the Common Areas and window cleaning at such times as Landlord, in its sole opinion, considers that such cleaning is necessary. Each Tenant shall cooperate with any janitor service in keeping the Premises neat and clean. Landlord shall be in no way responsible to Tenant, its agents, employees or invitees, for any loss of property from the Premises or for any damage to property thereon, from any cause.

(e) Elevator Service. If the Building contains elevators, Landlord shall provide passenger elevator during Normal Business Hours. In addition subject to necessary scheduling to coordinate Tenants use with the use by Landlord and the other Tenants of the building, Landlord shall provide Tenant, at no additional cost, weekend use of the elevators for Tenant's initial move to the Premises.

(f) Interruption of Services. Tenant hereby acknowledges that any one or more of the utilities or building services specified in this Paragraph 10 may be interrupted or diminished temporarily by Landlord or other person until certain repairs, alterations or other improvements to the Premises or other parts of the Property can be made or by any event or cause which is beyond Landlord's reasonable control, including, without limitation, any ration or curtailment of utility services; that Landlord does not represent, warrant or guarantee to Tenant the continuous availability of such utilities or building services; and that any such interruption shall not be deemed or construed to be an interference with Tenant's right of possession, occupancy and use of the Premises, shall not render Landlord liable to Tenant for damages or entitle Tenant to any reduction of Base Rental, and shall not relieve Tenant from its obligation to pay Base Rental and to perform its other obligations under this Lease. If any substantial service or facility provided by Ownership is unavailable for longer than ten (10) days, Tenant shall have full rights under remedies contain in the lease hereunder.

(g) Energy Curtailment. Landlord and Tenant specifically acknowledge that energy shortages in the region in which the Property is located may from time to time necessitate reduced or curtailed energy consumption on the Property. Tenant shall comply with all such rules and regulations as may be promulgated from time to time by any governmental authority with respect to energy consumption, and during such period of time as such governmental authority may so require, Tenant shall reduce or curtail operations in the Premises as shall be directed by Landlord or such governmental authority. Compliance with such rules and regulations and/or such reduction or curtailment of operation shall not constitute a breach of Landlord's covenant of quiet enjoyment or otherwise invalidate or affect this Lease, and Tenant shall not be entitled to any diminution or abatement in Base Rental during the periods of reduction or curtailment of operations.

(h) Normal Business Hours. For purposes of this Lease, "Normal Business Hours" shall mean 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday and not including Sundays and Holidays. However, the normal business hours for the fourth floor will be extended to 7:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

(i) Holidays. For purposes of this Lease, Holidays shall mean New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

(j) "Upon request of Tenant, Landlord shall furnish air conditioning and heating at times other than the times specified in the Lease, and if such services are furnished by Landlord at such other times, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for furnishing such services, at Landlord's direct cost. Landlord's cost shall be deemed to mean the minimum reasonable cost required to provide heating and air conditioning to Tenant on an hourly after hours basis or, alternately, shall be shared proportionately between the Tenant and other Tenant, if any, located in the same HVAC zone who are receiving the benefit of such services at the same time as the receiving Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary herein, Landlord shall not charge Tenant unit prices for such additional services in excess of any other similar charge to any other Tenant in the Building."

"In the event Landlord has not billed the Tenant for additional charges within 120 days after the month in which the Landlord claims the charges accrued, the Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have waived such charge(s).

11. Estoppel Certificates. Within ten (10) days after receipt of written request by Landlord, Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord or to Landlord's mortgagee, prospective mortgagee, land lessor or prospective purchaser of the Property or any part thereof, an estoppel certificate, in form and substance substantially similar to that attached as Exhibit E and incorporated herein by reference. Tenant shall make such modifications to such estoppel certificate as may be necessary to make such certificate true and accurate, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant to this Paragraph 11 may be relied upon by any such mortgagee, prospective mortgagee, prospective purchaser, or land lessor of the Property. If Tenant fails to provide such estoppel certificate with ten (10) days after receipt of Landlord's request, Tenant shall be deemed to have approved the contents of any such certificate submitted to Tenant by Landlord and Landlord is hereby authorized to so certify.

12. Indemnification; Waiver of Claims.

(a) Tenant shall protect, indemnify, and hold harmless Landlord, its agents, servants, employees, officers, directors and partners forever against and from (i) any penalty, damages, charges or costs imposed or resulting from any violation of any law, order or ordinance of any governmental agency, by the use and occupancy of the Premises by Tenant, whether occasioned by the neglect of Tenant or those holding under Tenant; (ii) all claims, losses, costs, damages and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising out of or from any accident or other occurrence on or about the Premises or the Property causing injury to any person or property, caused by the negligent or intentional act or omission of Tenant or its servants, agents or employees; (iii) all claims, losses, costs, damages and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising out of any failure of Tenant in any respect to comply with or perform all the requirements and provisions of this Lease or arising out of any use of the Premises or the Property by Tenant or any one claiming by, through or under Tenant.

(b) Landlord shall not be liable for, and Tenant hereby waives all claims against Landlord, (i) for any and all damage or loss to fixtures, equipment or other property of Tenant and its servants, agents, employees, contractors, suppliers, invitees, patrons and guests, in, upon or about the Premises or the Property, or (ii) for injury or death to any person, occurring in, upon or about the Premises or the Property, resulting from any cause whatever (except caused by the negligent or intentional act or omission of Landlord or its servants, agents or employees), including, but not limited to, water, snow, frost, ice, explosion, falling plaster, fire or gas, smoke or other fumes, nor by reason of the leaking, breaking, backing up or other malfunction of any lines, wires, pipes, tanks, boilers, lifts or any other appurtenances, regardless by whom installed or maintained (Tenant hereby expressly assuming all responsibility for the safety and security of the person and property of Tenant, and its servants, agents, employees, contractors, suppliers, invitees, patrons and guests, while in, upon or about the Premises). The occurrence of any event described in this Paragraph 12 shall not constitute a breach of Landlord's covenant of quiet enjoyment set forth in Paragraph 17.

(a) Tenant's Insurance. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall carry during the entire Term of this Lease, the following types of insurance:

(i) Commercial general liability insurance against injuries to persons occurring in, upon or about the Premises, with minimum coverage of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00) per occurrence and Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00) aggregate coverage per one (1) accident or disaster, and One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) for property damage;

(ii) Fire, extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, and sprinkler damage and all-risk insurance coverage on all personal property, trade fixtures, floor coverings, wall coverings, furnishings, furniture, and contents for their full insurable value on a replacement cost basis;

(iii) Business interruption insurance, against loss or damage resulting from the same risks as are covered by the insurance mentioned in subparagraph (i) above in an amount equal to the aggregate of one (1) year's requirement of (A) Base Rental, (B) the amounts payable by Tenant for Additional Rental as provided in subparagraph 3(b), and (C) insurance premiums necessary to comply with this Paragraph 13; and

(iv) Workers' Compensation or similar insurance, if and to the extent required by law and in form and amounts required by law.

(b) Landlord as Additional Insured. All such insurance required to be maintained by Tenant shall name Landlord as an additional insured and shall be written with a company or companies reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, having a policyholder rating of at least "A" and be assigned a financial size category of at least "Class XIV" as rated in the most recent edition of "Best's Key Rating Guide" for insurance companies, and authorized to engage in the business of insurance in the state in which the Premises are located. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord copies of such policies and customary insurance certificates evidencing such paid-up insurance. Such insurance shall further provide that the same may not be canceled, terminated or modified unless the insurer gives Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee(s) at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof.

(c) Landlord's Insurance. Landlord shall maintain in force, at all times during the Term of this Lease, a policy or policies of fire and extended coverage insurance to the extent of at least 100% at the replacement value of the Building.

(d) Increase in Premiums. If insurance premiums payable by Landlord or any other tenant are increased as a result of any breach of Tenant's obligations under this Lease or as a result of Tenant's use and occupancy of the Premises, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any increase in such insurance premiums. Tenant shall have no obligation to pay any portion of insurance premium increases resulting from any other Tenant's use or occupancy.

14. Waiver of Subrogation. Neither Landlord nor Tenant shall be liable to the other for any business interruption or any loss or damage to property or in any manner growing out of or connected with Tenant's use and occupation of the Premises, the Building or the Property or the condition thereof, or of the adjoining property, whether or not caused by the negligence or other fault of Landlord or Tenant or of their respective agents, employees, subtenants, licensees or assignees; provided, however, that this release shall apply only to the extent that such business interruption or loss or damage is covered by insurance, regardless of whether such insurance is payable to or protects Landlord or Tenant or both. Nothing in this Paragraph 14 shall be construed to impose any other or greater liability upon either Landlord or Tenant than would have existed in the absence hereof. Because this Paragraph 14 will preclude the assignment of any claim mentioned in it by way of subrogation (or otherwise) to an insurance company (or any other person), each party to this Lease agrees immediately to give to each insurance company that has issued to it policies of fire and extended coverage insurance, written notice of the terms of the mutual waivers contained in this paragraph, and to have the insurance policies properly endorsed, if necessary, to prevent the invalidation of the insurance coverages because of the mutual waivers contained in this Paragraph 14.

15. Holding Over. If Tenant retains possession of the Premises or any part thereof after the termination of this Lease, Tenant shall, for the next thirty days Tenant shall pay Landlord rent at one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) times the monthly rate in effect immediately to the termination of this Lease. After the initial thirty day period, from that day forward Tenant shall be a Tenant from month to month and Tenant shall pay Landlord rent at one hundred and fifty percent (150%) times the monthly rate in effect prior to the termination of this lease for the time the Tenant remains in possession. No acceptance of rent by, or other act or statement whatsoever on the part of Landlord or its agent or employee, in the absence of a writing signed by Landlord, shall be construed as an extension of or as a consent for further occupancy. Tenant shall indemnify Landlord for all damages, consequential as well as direct, sustained by reason of Tenant's retention of possession. The provisions of this Paragraph 15 do not exclude pursuit of Landlord's right of re-entry or any other right hereunder.

16. Assignment and Sublease.

(a) Prohibition. Tenant shall not assign, convey, mortgage, pledge, encumber or otherwise transfer this Lease or any interest therein, sublet the Premises or any part thereof, or permit the use or occupancy of the Premises or any part thereof by anyone other than Tenant or any successor of Tenant resulting from a merger or consolidation, any entity under common control of any of the partners of Tenant, without receiving Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Tenant may however assign the Premises to an affiliate of Tenant. A transfer by operation of law, merger or consolidation, or a change of any partnership interest in Tenant or in the ownership of the voting stock of Tenant or any direct or indirect parent of Tenant shall be deemed an assignment for purposes of this Paragraph 16. Any purported transfer, encumbrance, pledge, mortgage, assignment or subletting not in compliance herewith shall be void and of no force or effect. In the event of any assignment, subletting, transfer or occupancy by someone other than Tenant, whether or not expressly or impliedly approved by Landlord, Tenant shall, nevertheless, at all times, remain fully responsible and jointly and severally liable for the payment of the rent and for compliance with all other obligations imposed upon Tenant under the terms, provisions and covenants of this Lease. Any assignment or sublease shall contain a provision whereby the assignee or subtenant agrees to comply with and be bound by all of the terms, covenants, conditions, provisions and agreements of this Lease to the extent applicable, and Tenant shall deliver to Landlord, promptly after execution, an executed copy of each assignment or sublease and an agreement of compliance by each assignee or subtenant. Any sublease shall also contain a provision that in the event of default by Tenant hereunder and a termination of this Lease by Landlord, such subtenant shall, at Landlord's option, attorn to Landlord as if Landlord were the lessor under the sublease.

(b) Option to Cancel. Upon receipt of Tenant's written request for Landlord's consent to subletting, assignment, transfer or occupancy by someone other than Tenant, Landlord shall have the option to cancel this Lease as of the date the requested subletting, assignment, transfer or occupancy by someone other than Tenant, Landlord shall have the option to cancel this Lease as of the date the requested subletting, assignment, transfer or occupancy by someone other than Tenant is to be effective. Landlord shall exercise its option to cancel this Lease by written notice to Tenant within thirty (30) days after Landlord receives Tenant's request for Landlord's consent. This option to cancel/recapture Premises shall be a one time right at the time Tenant gives notice of intent to sublease, rather than after Tenant has procured a sub-Tenant. If an affiliate Tenant is in involved, Landlord may not cancel or recapture the Premises.

(c) Right to Collect Rents Directly. Upon the occurrence of an "event of default" as set forth in Paragraph 21 hereof, if all or any part of the Premises is then assigned, sublet, transferred or occupied by someone other than Tenant, then, in addition to any other remedies provided in this Lease or provided by law, Landlord, at its option, may collect directly from the assignee, subtenant, transferee or occupant all rent becoming due to Tenant by reason of the assignment, sublease, transfer or occupancy. Any collection directly by Landlord from the assignee or subtenant shall not be construed to constitute a novation or a release of Tenant from the further performance of its obligations under this Lease.

(d) Excess Rent. If Tenant assigns this Lease or sublets all or a portion of the Premises for an amount in excess of the Base Rental (or the pro rata share of Base Rental in the case of a sublease of a portion of the Premises), then Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as rent, fifty percent (50%) of such excess received by Tenant.

17. Quiet Enjoyment. If Tenant shall pay the rents and other sums due to be paid by Tenant hereunder as and when the same become due and payable, and if Tenant shall keep, observe and perform all of the other terms, covenants and agreements of this Lease on Tenant's part to be kept, observed and performed, Tenant shall, at all times during the Term herein granted, peacefully and quietly have and enjoy possession of the Premises without any encumbrance or hindrance by, from or through Landlord, except for regulations imposed by any governmental or quasi-governmental agency on the occupancy of Tenant or the conduct of Tenant's business operations.

18. Compliance with Laws and with Rules and Regulations.

(a) Laws. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall procure any permits and licenses required for the transaction of Tenant's business in the Premises. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly observe and comply with all present and future laws, ordinances, requirements, orders, directives, rules and regulations of all state, federal, municipal and other agencies or bodies having jurisdiction relating to the use and occupancy of the Premises, the Building and the Property at any time in force, applicable to Tenant's use thereof, except that Tenant shall not be under any obligation to comply with any law, ordinance, rule or regulation requiring any alteration of the Premises, unless such alteration is required because of a condition that has been created by, or at the instance of, Tenant, or is required by reason of a breach of any of Tenant's covenants and agreements under this Lease. Landlord shall not be required to repair any injury or damage by fire or other cause, or to make any repairs or replacements of any panels, decoration, office fixtures, railing, ceiling, floor covering, partitions, or any other property installed in the Premises by Tenant.

(b) Rules and Regulations. Tenant and Landlord shall comply with all rules and regulations for the Building, which current rules and regulations are attached hereto as Exhibit F and with such reasonable modifications thereof and additions thereto as Landlord may make hereafter, from time to time. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, Landlord shall not be responsible nor liable to Tenant, it agents, representatives, employees, invitees or licensees, for the nonobservance by any other tenant of any rules and regulations.

19. Fire and Casualty.

(a) If the Premises or the Building or any substantial part 50% of either is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, cause or condition whatsoever, and such damage or destruction cannot be repaired within one hundred twenty days (120) days, Landlord and Tenant may terminate this Lease, by written notice to Tenant given within thirty (30) days after such damage. If the Premises are damaged or destroyed or access thereto or use thereof is affected by the damage, then Landlord's termination shall be effective as of the date of such damage; otherwise said termination shall be effective thirty (30) days after such notice. Landlord shall give Tenant a written estimate of time required to repair within thirty (30) days after such damage.

(b) If the Common Areas in the Building are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, cause or condition whatsoever, to such an extent as to substantially interfere with Tenant's use of the Premises or if the Premises or a substantial part thereof are made untenantable, and such damage or destruction cannot be repaired within one hundred and ninety (90) days, then Tenant may terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days after such damage, said termination to be effective as of the date of such damage.

(c) Unless this Lease is terminated as herein above provided, Landlord shall proceed with due diligence to restore, repair and replace the Premises and the Building to the same condition as they were in as of the Commencement Date. Provided such damage or destruction was not caused or contributed to by an intentional act or negligence of Tenant, its agents, employees, invitees or those for whom Tenant is responsible, from and after the date of such damage to date of completion of said repairs, replacements and restorations, a just proportion of the rent shall abate according to the extent the full use and enjoyment of the Premises are rendered impossible by reason of such damage. Landlord shall be under no duty to restore any alterations, improvements or additions made by Tenant. In all cases, due allowance shall be given to Landlord for any reasonable delays caused by adjustment of insurance loss, strikes, labor difficulties or any cause beyond Landlord's control.

20. Eminent Domain.

(a) If all the Premises or a fifty (50%) percent or more substantial part thereof shall be taken for any public or quasi-public use under any statute or by rights of eminent domain or by private purchase in lieu thereof, this Lease shall terminate as of the date of vesting of title. Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire award paid for such taking or condemnation, Tenant hereby assigning to Landlord all Tenant's right, title and interest therein, if any. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to give Landlord any interest in or to require Tenant to assign to Landlord any award made to Tenant for the taking of personal property or fixtures belonging to Tenant, for the interruption of or damage to Tenant's business or for Tenant's moving expenses but only if such award shall be in addition to the award for the Property and the Building (or portion thereof) containing the Premises.

(b) If fifty percent (50%) or more of the Building other than the Premises shall be condemned, taken or purchased in lieu thereof, then Landlord may terminate this Lease by notifying Tenant of such termination within sixty (60) days after the date of vesting of title. This Lease shall expire on the date specified in such notice of termination, which date shall be not less than sixty (60) days after the giving of such notice. The rent hereunder shall be apportioned as of such termination date.

(c) If more than twenty five (25%) of the surface parking area of the Property is condemned, taken or purchased in lieu thereof, either party shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon giving written notice to the other party within thirty (30) days of such taking and this Lease shall terminate thirty (30) days after the date of such notice.

(d) Any such taking, condemnation or temporary requisition which does not result in a termination of this Lease, as hereinbefore provided in this Paragraph 20, shall not be cause for any reduction or diminution of the rental payment hereunder.

21. Default.

(a) If (i) Tenant fails to pay when due any rent, or any other sums required to be paid hereunder by Tenant; or (ii) Tenant defaults in the performance or observance of any other agreement or condition on its part to be performed or observed, and Tenant shall fail to cure said default within twenty (20) days after receipt of written notice thereof by Landlord; or such longer period as is reasonably necessary to remedy such failure provided that Tenant shall continuously and diligently pursue such remedy until such failure is cured: or (iii) Tenant files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or files any petition or answer seeking any arrangement, composition, liquidation or dissolution under any present or future federal, state or other statute, law or regulation relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other relief for debtors or seeks or consents to or acquiesces in the appointment of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Tenant or of all or any substantial part of its properties, or of the Premises, or makes any general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or admits in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due; or (iv) a court enters an order, judgment or decree approving a petition filed against Tenant seeking any arrangement, composition, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any present or future federal, state or other statute, law or regulation relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other relief for debtors, and such order, judgment or decree shall remain unvacated or unstayed for an aggregate of sixty (60) days (whether or not consecutive); or (v) Landlord believes in its reasonable judgment that the prospect of payment or performance of any of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Lease to be paid or performed by Tenant are about to be impaired; or or (vii) Tenant abandons the Premises; then in any such event and at any time thereafter, Landlord may, without further notice to Tenant, and in addition to and not in lieu of any other rights or remedies available to Landlord at law or in equity, exercise any one ormore of the following rights:

(x) Landlord may (A) terminate this Lease and the tenancy created hereby by giving notice of such election to Tenant, and (B) reenter the Premises, by summary proceedings or otherwise, remove Tenant and all other persons and property from the Premises and store such property in a public warehouse or elsewhere at the sole cost and expense of and for the account of Tenant without Landlord being deemed guilty of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage occasioned thereby.

(y) Landlord may reenter and take possession of the Premises, without terminating this Lease and without relieving Tenant of its obligations under this Lease, and divide or subdivide the Premises in any manner Landlord may desire and lease or let the Premises or portions thereof, alone or together with other premises, for such term or terms (which may be greater or less than the balance of the remaining portion of the Term of this Lease) and on such terms and conditions (which may include concessions or free rent and alterations of the Premises) as Landlord, in its discretion, may determine.

(b) If this Lease is terminated by Landlord pursuant to this Paragraph 21, Tenant nevertheless shall remain liable for any Base Rental, Additional Rental, Other Charges required to be paid hereunder and damages that may be due or sustained prior to such termination, and for all reasonable costs, fees and expenses incurred by Landlord in pursuit of its remedies hereunder, including attorneys', brokers' and other professional fees (all such rents, damages, costs, fees and expenses being referred to herein collectively as "Termination Damages") plus additional damages (the "Liquidated Damages") which are hereby stipulated to be equal to the present value of Base Rental, Additional Rental and Other Charges required to be paid hereunder that, but for termination of this Lease, would have become due during the remainder of the Term, plus the unamortized portion of tenant improvements and leasing commissions, less the fair market rental rate for the remainder of the Term of this Lease discounted at the current five (5) year treasury bill rate. Termination Damages and Liquidated Damages shall be due and payable immediately upon demand by Landlord following any termination of this Lease pursuant to this Paragraph 21.

(c) If Landlord reenters and takes possession of the Premises pursuant to this Paragraph 21, without terminating this Lease, and relets the Premises or any part thereof (which Landlord shall have no obligation to do), the net rentals from such letting shall be applied first to the costs, fees and expenses incurred by Landlord in pursuit of its remedies hereunder, including attorneys', brokers' and other professional fees, in renting the Premises or part thereof to others from time to time (including the cost and expense of making such improvements to the Premises as may be necessary, in Landlord's sole discretion, to enable Landlord to relet same). The balance, if any, shall be applied by Landlord from time to time on account of the rent and other payments due from Tenant hereunder, with the right reserved to Landlord to bring such actions or proceedings for the recovery of any deficits remaining unpaid as Landlord may deem favorable from time to time without being obligated to await the end of the Term for the final determination of Tenant's account. Any balance remaining, however, after full payment and liquidation of Tenant's account as aforesaid shall be paid to Tenant with the right reserved to Landlord at any time to give notice in writing to Tenant of Landlord's election to cancel and terminate this Lease and the giving of such notice and the simultaneous payment by Landlord to Tenant of any credit balance in Tenant's favor that may at the time be owing to Tenant shall constitute a final and effective cancellation and termination of this Lease and the obligations hereunder on the part of either party to the other. Landlord shall not be liable for, nor shall Tenant's obligations be diminished by reason of, any failure by Landlord to relet the Premises or any failure of Landlord to collect any rent due upon such reletting, providing reasonable efforts to relet or collect have been made by Landlord.

(d) Upon the termination of this Lease or of Tenant's right to possession of the Premises by lapse of time or earlier termination as herein provided, Tenant shall remove its property from the Premises. Any such property of Tenant not removed from the Premises by Tenant within thirty (30) days after the end of the term or of Tenant's right to possession of the Premises, however terminated, whichever occurs earlier, shall be conclusively deemed to have been forever abandoned by Tenant and either may be retained by Landlord as its property or may be disposed of in such manner as Landlord may see fit.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, if Landlord shall have given written notice of three (3) defaults in any twelve (12) month period, no further prior notice by Landlord shall be required for Landlord to declare this Lease to be in default.

(f) If Tenant at any time fails to make any payment or perform any other act on its part to be made or performed under this Lease, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, and after reasonable notice or demand and without waiving or releasing Tenant from any obligation under this Lease, make such payment or perform such other act to the extent Landlord may deem desirable, and in connection therewith to pay expenses and employ counsel. Tenant shall pay upon demand all of Landlord's costs, charges and expenses, including the fees of counsel, agents and others retained by Landlord, incurred in SUCCESSFULLY enforcing Tenant's obligations hereunder or incurred by Landlord in any litigation, negotiations or transactions in which Tenant causes Landlord, without Landlord's fault, to become involved or concerned, which amount shall be deemed to be rent due and payable by Tenant, upon demand by Landlord, and Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies for the nonpayment thereof, as in the case of default in the payment of rent.

(g) All rights and remedies of Landlord herein enumerated shall be cumulative, and none shall exclude any other right or remedy allowed by law. In addition to the other remedies in this Lease provided, Landlord shall be entitled to the restraint by injunction of the violation or attempted violation of any of the covenants, agreements or conditions of this Lease.

22. Waiver of Default or Remedy. No waiver of any covenant or condition or of the breach of any covenant or condition of this Lease shall be taken to constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach of such covenant or condition nor to justify or authorize the nonobservance on any other occasion of the same or of any other covenant or condition hereof, nor shall the acceptance of rent by Landlord at any time when Tenant is in default under any covenant or condition hereof be construed as a waiver or such default or of Landlord's right to terminate this Lease on account of such default, nor shall any waiver or indulgence granted by Landlord to Tenant be taken as an estoppel against Landlord, it being expressly understood that if at any time Tenant shall be in default in any of its covenants or conditions hereunder an acceptance by Landlord of rental during the continuance of such default or the failure on the part of Landlord promptly to avail itself of such rights or remedies as Landlord may have, shall not be construed as a waiver of such default, but Landlord may at any time thereafter, if such default continues, terminate this Lease or assert any other rights or remedies available to it on account of such default in the manner hereinbefore provided.

25. Force Majeure. If Landlord or Tenant shall be delayed, hindered in or
---
prevented from the performance of any act required hereunder (other than the payment of rent and other charges payable by Tenant) by reason of strikes, lockouts, labor troubles, inability to procure materials, failure of power, riots, insurrection, the act, failure to act or default of the other party, war or any other reason beyond the reasonable control of the party who is seeking additional time for the performance of such act, then performance of such act shall be excused for the period of the delay and the period for the performance of any such act shall be extended for a reasonable period, in no event to exceed a period equivalent to the period of such delay. No such interruption of any service to be provided by Landlord shall ever be deemed to be an eviction, actual or constructive, or disturbance of Tenant's use and possession of the Premises, the Building or the Property.

26. Subordination of Lease.

(a) Landlord reserves the right and privilege to subject and subordinate this Lease to any and all mortgages, deeds of trust or land leases now existing upon or that may be hereafter placed upon the Premises and the Property and to all advances made or to be made thereon and all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements or extensions thereof and if such right is exercised, the lien of any such mortgages, deeds of trust or land leases shall be superior to all rights hereby or hereunder vested in Tenant, to the full extent of all sums secured thereby. In confirmation of such subordination, Tenant shall, on request of Landlord or the holder of any such mortgages, deed(s) of trust and land leases, execute and deliver to Landlord within ten (10) days any instrument that Landlord or such holder may reasonably request. Landlord shall use their best efforts to obtain a non-disturbance agreement. "Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, Landlord's right to subordinate this Lease is conditioned upon Landlord providing Tenant with a Non-Disturbance and Attornment Agreement, signed by the Lender, in the form attached as Exhibit 26(a) to this Lease," or in such other form as is acceptable to Lender and Tenant.

"Transfer Purchase Date" shall mean Transfer Purchase Date as defined in Paragraph 17.

3. Title and Condition.

(a) The Leased Premises are demised and let subject to (i) the Mortgage and the Assignment, (ii) the rights of any parties in possession of any of the Leased Premises, (iii) the existing state of title of the Leased Premises, including the Permitted Encumbrances, as of the commencement of the Term, (iv) any state of facts which an accurate survey or physical inspection of the Leased Premises might show, (v) all Legal Requirements, including any existing violation of any thereof, and (vi) the condition of the Leased Premises as of the commencement of the Term, without representation or warranty by Landlord; it being understood and agreed, however, that the recital of the Permitted Encumbrances herein shall not be construed as a revival of any thereof which for any reason may have expired or terminated.

(b) Tenant acknowledges that the Leased Premises are in satisfactory condition and repair at the inception of this Lease. LANDLORD HAS NOT MADE AND WILL NOT MAKE ANY INSPECTION OF ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES. LANDLORD LEASES AND WILL LEASE AND TENANT TAKES AND WILL TAKE THE LEASED PREMISES AS IS. TENANT ACKNOWLEDGES THAT LANDLORD (WHETHER ACTING AS LANDLORD HEREUNDER OR IN ANY OTHER CAPACITY) HAS NOT MADE AND WILL NOT MAKE, NOR SHALL LANDLORD BE DEEMED TO HAVE MADE, ANY WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION AS TO (i) ITS FITNESS, DESIGN OR CONDITION FOR ANY PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE, (ii) THE QUALITY OF THE MATERIAL OR WORKMANSHIP THEREIN, (iii) THE EXISTENCE OF ANY DEFECT, LATENT OR PATENT, (iv) LANDLORD'S TITLE THERETO, (v) VALUE, (vi) COMPLIANCE WITH SPECIFICATIONS, (vii) LOCATION, (viii) USE, (ix) CONDITION, (x) MERCHANTABILITY, (xi) QUALITY, (xii) DESCRIPTION, (xiii) DURABILITY OR (xiv) OPERATION; AND ALL RISKS INCIDENT THERETO ARE TO BE BORNE BY TENANT. TENANT ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE LEASED PREMISES ARE OF ITS SELECTION AND TO ITS SPECIFICATIONS AND THAT THE LEASED PREMISES HAVE BEEN INSPECTED BY TENANT AND ARE SATISFACTORY TO IT. IN THE EVENT OF ANY DEFECT OR DEFICIENCY IN ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES OF ANY NATURE, WHETHER LATENT OR PATENT, LANDLORD SHALL NOT HAVE ANY RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY WITH RESPECT THERETO OR FOR ANY INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING STRICT LIABILITY IN TORT). THE PROVISIONS OF THIS PARAGRAPH 3(b) HAVE BEEN NEGOTIATED; AND THE FOREGOING PROVISIONS ARE INTENDED TO BE A COMPLETE EXCLUSION AND NEGATION OF ANY WARRANTIES BY LANDLORD, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES, ARISING PURSUANT TO THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE OR ANY OTHER LAW NOW OR HEREAFTER IN EFFECT OR ARISING OTHERWISE.

(c) Tenant represents to Landlord that Tenant has examined the title to the Leased Premises prior to the execution and delivery of this Lease and has found the same to be satisfactory for the purposes contemplated hereby, and acknowledges that title is in Landlord and that Tenant has only the right of possession and use of the Leased Premises (and a right of first refusal) as provided in this Lease. Tenant further acknowledges that to its knowledge (i) the Improvements conform to all Legal Requirements and all requirements of the carriers of all insurance on any of the Leased Premises, (ii) all easements necessary or appropriate for the use or operation of the Leased Premises have been obtained, (iii) all contractors and subcontractors who have performed work on or supplied materials to the Leased Premises have been fully paid, and all materials and supplies have been fully paid for, (iv) the Improvements have been fully completed in a workmanlike manner, and (v) all Equipment necessary for the use or operation of the Leased Premises has been installed and all Equipment in the Leased Premises is presently operative.

(d) Landlord hereby assigns to Tenant, without recourse or warranty whatsoever, all warranties, guaranties and indemnities, express or implied, and similar rights which Landlord may have against any manufacturer, seller, engineer, contractor or builder in respect of any of the Leased Premises, including any rights and remedies existing under contract or pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code. Such assignment shall remain in effect until the termination of this Lease, and upon the termination of this Lease, such assignment shall cease and all the said warranties, guaranties, indemnities and other rights shall automatically revert to Landlord unless Tenant shall have acquired the Premises in which event the assignment shall continue in effect.

4. Use of Leased Premises: Quiet Enjoyment.

(a) Tenant may occupy and use the Leased Premises for any lawful purpose, provided that no Alterations may be made and no additional Improvements may be constructed except in accordance with Paragraph 12, no Equipment may be removed from the Leased Premises except in accordance with Paragraphs 11(d), 13(d) and 14(h), and such use will not otherwise violate any provision of this Lease. Tenant shall not permit any unlawful occupation, business or trade to be conducted on any of the Leased Premises or any use to be made thereof contrary to any applicable Legal Requirement then in effect. Tenant shall not use or occupy or permit any of the Leased Premises to be used or occupied, nor do or permit anything to be done in or on any of the Leased Premises, in a manner which would (i) violate any certificate of occupancy affecting any of the Leased Premises, (ii) make void or voidable any insurance then in force with respect to any of the Leased Premises, (iii) make it difficult or impossible to obtain fire or other insurance which Tenant is required to furnish hereunder, (iv) cause structural injury to any of the Improvements, or (v) constitute a public or private nuisance or waste.

(b) Subject to the other provisions of this Lease, so long as no Event of Default exists hereunder, Landlord covenants to do no act to disturb the peaceful and quiet occupation and enjoyment of the Leased Premises by Tenant, provided that Landlord may enter upon and examine any of the Leased Premises at reasonable times and upon five (5) days advance notice to Tenant

(except in the event of an emergency or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default in either of which events no notice shall be required) and may take such action with respect to the Leased Premises as is permitted by any provision hereof.

5. Term. Subject to the provisions hereof, Tenant shall have and hold the Leased Premises for an initial term (such term, as extended or renewed in accordance with the provisions hereof, being called the "Term") commencing on the date hereof and ending on the last day of the one hundred and eightieth (180th) calendar month next following the date hereof. If all Rent and all other sums due hereunder shall not have been fully paid by the end of the Term, Landlord may, at its option, extend the Term until all said sums shall have been fully paid.

Provided this Lease shall not have been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof, the initial Term shall be deemed to be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the initial Term that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the initial Term provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate, this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years. If the initial Term is automatically extended as aforesaid and this Lease has not been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof prior to the expiration of the first extension period, the Term shall be further automatically extended for an additional consecutive period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the first extension period that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the first extension period provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years. If the Term is automatically extended as aforesaid and this Lease has not been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof prior to the expiration of the second extension period, the Term shall be further automatically extended for an additional consecutive period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the second extension period that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the second extension period provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years. If the Term is automatically extended as aforesaid and this Lease has not been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof prior to the expiration of the third extension period, the Term shall be further automatically extended for an additional consecutive period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the third extension period that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the third extension period provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years.

In the absence of such notice of termination by Tenant to Landlord and in the absence of any termination of this Lease pursuant to any other provision hereof, the Term shall be automatically extended for the applicable extension period specified above and no instrument of extension or renewal need be executed. Any such extension of the Term shall be subject to and continue in full force and effect all of the provisions of this Lease except that the Basic Rent payable during each extension period shall be as provided in Exhibit "C" attached hereto and made a part hereof.

In the event that Tenant exercises its option not to extend or not to further extend the Term, as hereinabove provided or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder, then Landlord shall have the right during the remainder of the Term then in effect to (a) advertise the availability of the Leased Premises for sale or for reletting and to erect upon the Leased Premises signs indicating such availability provided that such signs shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Leased Premises by Tenant, and (b) show the Leased Premises to prospective purchasers or tenants at such reasonable times during normal business hours as Landlord may select.

6. Rent.

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as annual rent for the Leased

Premises during the Term the amounts determined in accordance with the schedule set forth in Exhibit "D" attached hereto and made a part hereof ("Basic Rent"), commencing on the first day of the first month next following the date hereof and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter during the Term (the said days being called the "Basic Rent Payment Dates"), and shall pay the same at Landlord's address set forth above, or at such other places or to such other Persons as Landlord from time to time may designate to Tenant in writing. Each rental payment shall be made to Landlord on or before the applicable Basic Rent Payment Date in immediately available funds which at the time of such payment shall be legal tender for the payment of public or private debts in the United States of America. Pro rata Basic Rent for the period from the date hereof through the last day of the month hereof shall be paid on the date hereof. Landlord may, at Landlord's option, by written notice to Tenant, require Tenant to pay installments of Basic Rent directly to one or more Persons in addition to Landlord, in such proportions as Landlord may select; and Tenant agrees to make such "split" payments of Basic Rent in the amounts, to the payees and in the manner specified by Landlord in any such notice, provided, however, that Tenant shall not be required to make more than two (2) "split" payments.

(b) Tenant shall pay and discharge when the same shall become due, as additional rent, all other amounts and obligations which Tenant assumes or agrees to pay or discharge pursuant to this Lease (except that amounts payable as liquidated damages pursuant to Paragraph 19(b) (iv) shall not constitute additional rent), together with every fine, penalty, interest and cost which may be added for non-payment or late payment thereof. If any installment of Basic Rent is not paid on or before the due date therefor, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as additional rent, an amount equal to three percent (3%) of the amount of such installment, provided, however, that with respect to the first three (3) late payments in any twelve (12) month period (the first such period to commence on the first Basic Rent Payment Date following the date of this Lease) such late payment charge shall not be payable until two (2) business days following receipt of notice by Tenant that such payment has not been received. From the date of occurrence of any Event of Default until all Events of Default are fully cured, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand, as additional rent, a sum equal to any additional sums which might be payable by Landlord to any lender under any note occasioned by the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Lease. The requirements of Paragraph 19(g) regarding notice and grace periods need not be satisfied prior to the imposition of Additional Rent (as hereinafter defined) under foregoing provisions of this Paragraph 6(b). In addition, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand, as additional rent, interest at the rate (the "Default Rate") of three percent (3%) per annum over the Prime Rate on the following sums until paid in full: (i) all overdue installments of Basic Rent in excess of the payments due under any note for the same period from the respective due dates thereof, (ii) all overdue amounts of additional rent relating to obligations which Landlord shall have paid on behalf of Tenant, from the date of payment thereof by Landlord, and (iii) on all other overdue amounts of additional rent from the date Landlord demands payment. All the foregoing additional rent is herein sometimes called "Additional Rent". In the event of any failure by Tenant to pay or discharge any Additional Rent, Landlord shall have all rights, powers and remedies provided herein, by law or otherwise, in the event of non-payment of Basic Rent.

7. Net Lease: Non-Terminability.

(a) This is a net lease and all Rent and all other sums payable hereunder by Tenant shall be paid without notice or demand, and without set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, abatement, suspension, deferment, diminution, deduction, reduction or defense (collectively, a "Set-Off").

(b) This Lease shall not terminate, Tenant shall not have any right to terminate this Lease during the Term (except as otherwise expressly provided herein), Tenant shall not be entitled to any Set-Off of or to any Rent or any other sums payable under this Lease (except as otherwise expressly provided herein), and the obligations of Tenant under this Lease shall not be affected by any interference with Tenant's use of any of the Leased Premises for any reason, including the following: (i) any damage to or destruction of any of the Leased Premises by any cause whatsoever, (ii) any Condemnation, (iii) the prohibition, limitation or restriction of Tenant's use of any of the Leased Premises, (iv) any eviction by paramount title or otherwise as long as the same does not constitute a breach of Paragraph 4(b) hereof, (v) Tenant's acquisition of ownership of any of the Leased Premises other than pursuant to an express provision of this Lease, (vi) any default on the part of Landlord hereunder or under any other agreement as long as the same does not constitute a breach of Paragraph 4(b) hereof, (vii) any latent or other defect in, or any theft or loss of, any of the Leased Premises, (viii) the breach of any warranty of any seller or manufacturer of any of the Equipment, or (ix) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, any present or future Law to the contrary notwithstanding. It is the intention of the parties hereto that the obligations of Tenant hereunder shall be separate and independent covenants and agreements, that all Rent and all other sums payable by Tenant hereunder shall continue to be payable in all events (or, in lieu thereof, Tenant shall pay amounts equal thereto), and that the obligations of Tenant hereunder shall continue unaffected, unless the requirement to pay or perform the same shall have been terminated pursuant to an express provision of this Lease. The obligation to pay Rent or amounts equal thereto shall not be affected by any collection of rents by any governmental body pursuant to a tax lien or otherwise, even though such obligation results in a double payment of Rent.

(c) Tenant agrees that it shall remain obligated under this Lease in accordance with its provisions and that, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, it shall not take any action to terminate, rescind or avoid this Lease, notwithstanding (i) the bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, winding-up or other proceeding affecting Landlord, (ii) the exercise of any remedy, including foreclosure, under the Mortgage or the Assignment, or (iii) any action with respect to this Lease (including the disaffirmance hereof) which may be taken by Landlord, any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Landlord or any court under the Federal Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

(d) Tenant waives all rights which may now or hereafter be conferred by law (i) to quit, terminate or surrender this Lease or any of the Leased Premises, or (ii) to any Set-Off of or to any Rent or any other sums payable under this Lease, except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

8. Payment of Impositions: Compliance with Law.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 18 hereof (relating to contests) and the exclusions specified in the following paragraph of this Paragraph 8(a), Tenant shall, before interest or penalties are due thereon, pay and discharge all taxes of every kind and nature (including real and Personal property, franchise, withholding, profits and gross receipts taxes), all charges for any easement or agreement maintained for the benefit of any of the Leased Premises, all general and special assessments, levies, permits, inspection and license fees, all water and sewer rents and charges, all charges for utility and communication services relating to any of the Leased Premises, all ground rents, and all other public charges whether of a like or different nature, even if unforeseen or extraordinary, imposed upon or assessed against (i) Tenant, (ii) any of the Leased Premises, (iii) Landlord as a result of or arising in respect of the acquisition, ownership, occupancy, leasing, use, possession or sale of any of the Leased Premises, any activity conducted on the Leased Premises, or Rent (including without limitation, any gross income tax or excise tax levied by any governmental body on or with respect to such Rent), or (iv) Lender by reason of the Note or Mortgage and which (as to this clause (iv)) Landlord has agreed to pay (collectively, the "Impositions").

Nothing in this Lease shall obligate Tenant to pay (A) Federal, State or local income, excess profits, or other taxes, if any, of Landlord or Lender, determined on the basis of their net income, (B) any estate, inheritance, succession, gift or similar tax, or (C) any capital gains tax imposed on Landlord by the State or municipality in which the Leased Premises are located in connection with the sale of any of the Leased Premises or any Federal capital gains tax, unless the taxes referred to in clause (A) above are in lieu of or a substitute for any other tax, assessment or other charge upon or with respect to any of the Leased Premises which, if such other tax, assessment or other charge were in effect, would be payable by Tenant. In the event that any assessment against any of the Leased Premises may be paid in installments, Tenant shall have the option to pay such assessment in installments; and, in such event, Tenant shall be liable only for those installments which become due and payable during the Term. Tenant shall prepare and file all tax reports required by governmental authorities which relate to the Impositions. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord, within ten (10) days of receipt thereof, copies of all settlements and notices pertaining to the Impositions which may be issued by any governmental authority and, within ninety (90) days after the end of each calendar year of the Term, receipts for payments of all Impositions made during such year.

(b) Tenant shall promptly comply with and conform to all of the Legal Requirements, subject to the provisions of Paragraph 18 hereof.

(c) If Tenant fails to comply with any requirement of any Environmental Law in connection with any spill of any Hazardous Substance affecting the Leased Premises or in connection with the deposit, storage, placement or use of any Hazardous Substance at, upon, under or within the Leased Premises or any real estate contiguous thereto, Landlord may, at its sole option, upon prior written notice to Tenant, take any and all actions as Landlord shall deem reasonably necessary or advisable in order to cure such noncompliance. Any amounts so paid, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date of payment by Landlord, shall be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord. Nothing contained herein shall obligate Landlord to cure such noncompliance or release Tenant from any of its obligations hereunder.

(d) Tenant shall notify Landlord immediately after becoming aware thereof of any violation of or noncompliance with any of the covenants contained in this Paragraph hereof and shall forward to Landlord immediately upon receipt thereof copies of all orders, reports, notices, permits, applications or other communications relating to any such violation or noncompliance or any other matter relating in any fashion to any Environmental Law as it may affect or relate to the Leased Premises.

(e) All future leases, subleases or concession agreements relating to the Leased Premises entered into by Tenant shall contain covenants of the other party thereto which are identical to the covenants contained in Paragraphs 8(c) and 8(d).

9. Liens; Recording and Title.

(a) Tenant shall not, directly or indirectly, create or permit to be created or to remain, and shall promptly discharge or remove, any lien on any of the Leased Premises or on any Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant under this Lease, other than the Mortgage, the Assignment, the Permitted Encumbrances and any mortgage, lien, encumbrance or other charge created by or resulting solely from any act or omission of Landlord. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT LANDLORD SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY LABOR, SERVICES OR MATERIALS FURNISHED OR TO BE FURNISHED TO TENANT OR TO ANYONE HOLDING ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES

THROUGH OR UNDER TENANT, AND THAT NO MECHANICS' OR OTHER LIENS FOR ANY SUCH LABOR, SERVICES OR MATERIALS SHALL ATTACH TO OR AFFECT THE INTEREST OF LANDLORD IN AND TO ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES.

(b) Tenant shall execute, deliver and record, file or register from time to time all such instruments as may be required by any present or future Law in order to evidence the respective interests of Landlord and Tenant in any of the Leased Premises, and shall cause this Lease, or a memorandum of this Lease, and any supplement hereto or to such other instrument, if any, as may be appropriate, to be recorded, filed or registered and re-recorded, refiled or re-registered in such manner and in such places as may be required by any present or future Law in order to publish notice and protect the validity or priority of this Lease.

(c) Nothing in this Lease and no action or inaction by Landlord shall be deemed or construed to mean that Landlord has granted to Tenant any right, power or permission to do any act or to make any agreement which may create, give rise to, or be the foundation for, any right, title, interest or lien in or upon the estate of Landlord in any of the Leased Premises.

10. Indemnification. Tenant agrees to pay, protect, indemnify, save and hold harmless Landlord and all other Persons described in Paragraph 29 from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, penalties, costs, expenses (including all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), causes of action, suits, claims, demands or judgments of any nature whatsoever, howsoever caused from any of the following (except for an affirmative act or omission of Landlord unless such act or omission is otherwise the obligation of Tenant under this Lease or unless arising from an internal conflict among the partners of Landlord or Persons described in Paragraph 29 that is not related to Tenant's performance under this Lease): (a) any matter pertaining to any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or the ownership, use, non-use, occupancy, operation, condition, design, construction, maintenance, repair or rebuilding of any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property, (b) any injury to or death of any Person or any loss of or damage to any property in any manner arising from the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or from any matter described in clause (a) above, or connected therewith or occurring thereon, whether or not Landlord has or should have knowledge or notice of the defect or condition, if any, causing or contributing to said injury, death, loss, damage or other claim, (c) any violation by Tenant of any provision of this Lease, any contract or agreement to which Tenant is a party, any Legal Requirement or any Permitted Encumbrance, (d) any other cause pertaining to this Lease or any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or the transaction of which this Lease forms a part, or (e) the alleged deposit, storage, disposal, burial, dumping, injecting, spilling, leaking or other use, placement or release in, on, or affecting the Leased Premises of a Hazardous Substance or otherwise arising from any other alleged violation of any of the Environmental Laws including (i) liability for costs of removal or remedial action incurred by the United States Government or the State, or response costs incurred by any other Person or entity, or damages from injury to or destruction or loss of natural resources, including the reasonable costs of assessing such injury, destruction or loss, incurred pursuant to Section 107 of CERCLA, or any successor Section or Act; (ii) liability for costs and expenses of abatement, correction or clean-up, fines, damages, response costs or penalties which arise from the provisions of any of the other Environmental Laws; and (iii) liability for personal injury or property damage arising under any statutory or common-law tort theory, including damages assessed for the maintenance of a public or private nuisance or for carrying on of an abnormally dangerous activity. In case any action or proceeding is brought against Landlord or any other Person described in Paragraph 29 by reason of any such claim, Tenant covenants upon notice from Landlord to resist and defend such action or proceeding by counsel reasonable satisfactory to Landlord, and Landlord or such other Person will cooperate and assist in the defense of such action or proceeding if requested to do so by Tenant.

The obligations of Tenant under this Paragraph 10 shall survive any termination of this Lease.

11. Maintenance and Repair.

(a) Tenant shall at all times, including any Requisition period, maintain the Leased Premises and the Adjoining Property in good repair and condition and, in the case of the Equipment, in ordinary wear and tear, and shall promptly make all repairs (substantially equivalent in quality and workmanship to the original work) of every kind and nature, whether foreseen or unforeseen, which may be required to be made upon or in connection with any of the Leased Premises in order to keep and maintain the Land and

Improvements in as good repair and condition as they were on the date hereof, and the Equipment in as good mechanical condition as it was on the later of the date hereof or the date of its installation, except for ordinary wear and tear, in accordance with the better of the practices generally recognized as then acceptable within the Tenant's industry and in conformity with all legal requirements and insurance requirements. Tenant shall do or cause others to do all shoring of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or of foundations and walls of the Improvements and every other act necessary or appropriate for the preservation and safety thereof, by reason of or in connection with any excavation or other building operation upon any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property, whether or not Landlord shall, by any Legal Requirement, be required to take such action or be liable for failure to do so. Landlord shall not be required to make any Alteration, whether foreseen or unforeseen, or to maintain any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property in any way, and Tenant hereby expressly waives any right which may be provided for in any Law now or hereafter in effect to make Alterations at the expense of Landlord. Any Alteration made by Tenant pursuant to this subparagraph (a) or pursuant to subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph 11 shall be made in conformity with the provisions of Paragraph 12.

(b) Except for the Permitted Encumbrances, in the event that any Improvement, now or hereafter constructed, shall encroach upon any property, street or right-of-way (including the Adjoining Property) adjoining any of the Leased Premises, shall violate the provisions of any restrictive covenant affecting any of the Leased Premises, shall hinder or obstruct any easement or right-of-way to which any of the Leased Premises is subject, or shall impair the rights of others in, to or under any of the foregoing, Tenant shall, promptly after receiving notice or otherwise acquiring knowledge thereof, either (i) obtain valid and effective waivers or settlements of all claims, liabilities and damages resulting from each such encroachment, violation, hindrance, obstruction or impairment, whether the same shall affect Landlord, Tenant or both, or (ii) take such reasonable action as shall be necessary to remove all such encroachments, hindrances or obstructions and to end all such violations or impairments, including, if necessary, making Alterations.

(c) Landlord shall have the right (but no obligation), upon at least five (5) days prior notice to Tenant (or without notice in case of emergency), to enter upon any of the Leased Premises for the purpose of making any Alterations which may be necessary by reason of Tenant's failure to comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this Paragraph 11. Except in case of emergency, the right of entry shall be exercised at reasonable times and at reasonable hours and upon at least five (5) days prior notice. The cost of any such entry, together with the reasonable and actual cost of all such Alterations, shall be Additional Rent; and Tenant shall pay the same to Landlord, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the time of payment by Landlord until paid by Tenant, immediately upon written demand therefor and upon submission of evidence of Landlord's payment of such costs.

(d) Tenant shall, from time to time, to the extent necessary or commercially reasonable, replace with other operational equipment or parts (the "Replacement Equipment") any of the Equipment (the "Replaced Equipment") which shall have (i) become worn out, obsolete or unusable for the purpose for which it is intended, (ii) been taken by a Condemnation as provided in Paragraph 13(d), or (iii) been lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed as provided in Paragraph 14(h); provided, however, that the Replacement Equipment shall (A) be in good operating condition, (B) have a value and useful life at least equal to the value and estimated useful life of the Replaced Equipment immediately prior to the time that the Replaced Equipment had become so worn out, or unusable, so taken, or so lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, and (C) be suitable for a use which is the same or similar to that of the Replaced Equipment. Tenant shall repair at its sole cost and expense all damage to the Leased Premises caused by the removal of Replaced Equipment or other Personal property of Tenant or the installation of Replacement Equipment. All Replacement Equipment shall become the property of Landlord, shall be free and clear of all liens and rights of others and shall become a part of the Equipment to the same extent as the Replaced Equipment had been. If so requested by Landlord in writing, Tenant shall promptly cause to be executed and delivered to Landlord an invoice, bill of sale or other appropriate instrument evidencing the transfer or assignment to Landlord of all estate, right, title and interest (other than the leasehold estate created hereby) of Tenant or any other Person in and to the Replacement Equipment, free from all liens and other exceptions to title; and Tenant shall pay all taxes, fees, costs and other expenses that may become payable as a result thereof. At the expiration of the Term or the sooner termination of this Lease, all Equipment shall be in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

12. Alterations and Improvements. Except with respect to the maintenance and repair required to be performed by Tenant pursuant to in Paragraph 11 and otherwise as provided in this Paragraph 12, Tenant shall not with respect to any of Memphis Premises, the New Orleans Premises Antonio Premises (a) make any Alterations the cost of which exceeds $250,000 for any single alteration or $500,000 in the aggregate over the Term, (b) construct upon the Land any additional Improvements or (c) install equipment in the Improvements or accessions to the Equipment, without the prior written approval of Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In addition, Tenant shall not do any other act which, in the sole opinion of Landlord, would tend to impair the value of the Leased Premises. Tenant agrees that (i) the market value of the Leased Premises shall not be lessened by any such Alteration, construction or installation, or its usefulness impaired, (ii) all such Alterations, construction and installations shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner, (iii) all such Alterations, construction and installations shall be expeditiously completed in compliance with all Legal Requirements, (iv) all work done in connection with any such Alteration, construction or installation shall comply with the requirements of all insurance policies required to be maintained by Tenant hereunder, (v) Tenant shall promptly pay all costs and expenses of any such Alteration, construction or installation and shall discharge or remove all liens filed against any of the Leased Premises arising out of the same, (vi) Tenant shall procure and pay for all permits and licenses required in connection with any such Alteration, construction or installation, (vii) all such Alterations, construction and installations shall be the property of Landlord and shall be subject to this Lease, and (viii) Tenant shall comply, to the extent requested by Landlord, with the provisions of clauses (i) through (iv) of Paragraph 15(a).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall be permitted to construct additional Improvements upon the Land in order to expand the existing facilities so long as (a) Landlord receives prior written notice of Tenant's intention to construct such Improvements and (b) Tenant complies fully with all of the provisions of this Paragraph 12, including, but not limited to, subparagraphs (i) through (viii) herein.

13. Condemnation.

(a) Tenant, immediately upon receiving a Condemnation Notice, shall notify Landlord thereof and, so long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing, Tenant shall have the right on behalf of Tenant, Landlord and Lender to negotiate the settlement in any Condemnation proceeding and/or threat thereof and to contest the Condemnation and/or the amount of the Net Award therefor, all at Tenant's expense; provided, however, that if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing Tenant shall have no right to participate in any such proceedings, negotiation or contest. Lender shall be entitled to participate with Tenant in any such proceeding, negotiation and/or contest, all at Tenant's expense, provided, however, that so long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing counsel selected by Tenant shall represent Tenant, Landlord and Lender in any such proceeding, negotiation and/or contest. Subject to the provisions of this Paragraph 13, Tenant hereby irrevocably assigns to Landlord any award or payment to which Tenant is or may be entitled by reason of any Condemnation, whether the same shall be paid or payable for Tenant's leasehold interest hereunder or otherwise; but nothing in this Lease shall impair Tenant's right to any award or payment on account of Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment or other tangible property which is not part of the Equipment, moving expenses or loss of business, if available, to the extent that and so long as (i) Tenant shall have the right to make, and does make, a separate claim therefor against the condemnor and (ii) such claim does not in any way reduce either the amount of the award otherwise payable to Landlord for the Condemnation of Landlord's fee interest in the Leased Premises or the amount of the award (if any) otherwise payable for the Condemnation of Tenant's leasehold interest hereunder.

(b) If (i) the entire "New Orleans Premises", the entire "Memphis Premises" or the entire "San Antonio Premises" or (ii) any substantial portion of the "New Orleans Premises", the Memphis Premises" or the "San Antonio Premises", which portion Tenant determines, in good faith, to be sufficient to render the remaining portion thereof uneconomic for the use of Tenant or any other tenant to which such premises might reasonably be leased, shall be taken by a Taking or under threat thereof, (any one or all of which is affected by a taking described in (i) or (ii) being hereinafter referred to as the "Affected Premises") then Tenant shall, not later than thirty (30) days after Landlord gives Tenant notice that Landlord has received a Condemnation Notice or Tenant otherwise receives a Condemnation Notice, give notice to Landlord of its intention to terminate this Lease as to the Affected Premises on the first Basic Rent Payment Date (the "Termination Date") occuring after the date on which the Landlord rejects Tenant's offer to purchase the Affected Premises.

Such notice of intention to terminate shall contain (A) an irrevocable offer of Tenant to purchase the remaining portion of the Affected Premises, if any, on the Termination Date for the purchase price (the "Termination Offer Amount") specified in the next sentence and (B) in the event that less than the entire Affected Premises shall have been taken or be under threat thereof, a certificate of Tenant, signed by the president or a vice president thereof, stating that, in Tenant's good faith judgment, the portion of the Affected Premises so taken or under threat thereof is sufficient to fulfill the conditions set forth in clause (ii) of the first subparagraph of this Paragraph 13(b) and certifying that Tenant will forever abandon operations on the remainder of the Affected Premises. The Termination Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Affected Premises as of the date immediately prior to the Condemnation Notice or (2) the sum of that portion of the Acquisition Cost applicable to the Affected Premises, as set forth in Exhibit "E" attached hereto and made a part hereof, and one-half of any prepayment penalty or premium up to a maximum payment by Tenant of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) which may be payable under a Note or Mortgage. Promptly upon the delivery to Landlord of such notice of intention to terminate, Landlord and Tenant shall commence to determine such Fair Market Value in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 27.

Tenant agrees that no rejection of an offer hereunder shall be effective for any purpose unless consented to by Lender. If Landlord shall reject such offer by notice to Tenant, containing the written consent of Lender to such rejection, not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, then upon (x) payment of all Rent and any other charges due and unpaid under this Lease as of the Termination Date and (y) compliance by Tenant with all other obligations and liabilities under this Lease which have arisen on or prior to the Termination Date, this Lease shall terminate on the Termination Date as to the Affected Premises and Tenant shall promptly vacate and have no further right, title or interest in or to any of the Affected Premises.

Unless Landlord shall have rejected such offer by the foregoing notice to Tenant not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted such offer. If such offer is accepted by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Termination Offer Amount on the Termination Date and, provided all Rent and other sums due and unpaid hereunder are paid in full, Landlord shall convey to Tenant the remaining portion of the Affected Premises, if any, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16 and Landlord shall assign to Tenant its entire interest in and to the Net Award including any part thereof that has not been received by Landlord and/or deliver to Tenant or credit against the Termination Offer Amount such Net Award including any part thereof which shall have been received by Landlord.

(c) In the event of any Taking of any of the Land or Improvements which does not result in a termination of this Lease as to any or all of the "New Orleans Premises", the "Memphis Premises", or the "San Antonio Premises", the Term shall, notwithstanding the Taking, continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder, except as expressly provided in Paragraph 15(b). Promptly after such Taking, Tenant, as required in Paragraph 11(a), shall commence and diligently continue to restore the Improvements as nearly as possible to their value, condition and character immediately prior to such Taking, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 12. Landlord shall make the Net Award available to Tenant as and when received by Landlord for restoration in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Paragraph 15(a).

In the event of a Requisition of any of the Land or Improvements, if Landlord is required to pay the Net Award of such Requisition to Lender in accordance with the provisions of the Note and the Mortgage and the debt service payments due under the Note are thereafter reduced by virtue of such payment of the Net Award to Lender, then each installment of Basic Rent payable on or after the effective date of such reduction in debt service shall be reduced in the same amount and for the same period as payments are reduced under the Note. In the event that the Net Award of a Requisition of any of the Land or Improvements is retained by Landlord, Landlord shall apply such Net Award, to the extent received, to the installments of Basic Rent thereafter payable until such Net Award has been applied in full or until the Term hereof has expired, whichever first occurs. Upon the expiration of the Term, any portion of such Net Award which shall not have been previously credited to Tenant shall be retained by Landlord.

(d) If any of the Equipment shall be taken by a Condemnation other than a Condemnation which falls within the provisions of Paragraph 13(b), the Term shall nevertheless continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder. Tenant shall, whether or not the Net Award is sufficient for the purpose, promptly replace the Equipment so taken, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 11(d), and the Net Award of such a Condemnation made for the loss of the replaced Equipment only shall thereupon be payable to Tenant. The remainder of the Net Award shall be applied as hereinabove provided.

(e) Except as specifically provided in subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph 13, no agreement with any condemnor in settlement of or under threat of any Condemnation shall be made by Tenant without the written consent of Landlord and Lender.

14. Insurance.

(a) Tenant shall maintain at its sole cost and expense the following insurance on or in connection with the Leased Premises:

(i) Insurance against loss or damage to the Improvements and Equipment by fire and other risks from time to time included under standard extended and additional extended coverage policies, including vandalism and malicious mischief, sprinkler, plate glass and flood insurance, to the extent any of the Leased Premises are in a flood zone, in amounts not less than the actual replacement value of the Improvements and Equipment, excluding footings and foundations and other parts of the Improvements which are not insurable (or, in the case of plate glass insurance, the replacement cost of all plate glass in the Leased Premises). Such policies shall contain replacement cost endorsements.

(ii) General public liability insurance against claims for bodily injury, death or property damage occurring on, in or about any of the Leased Premises or the Adjoining Property, in an amount not less than $1,000,000 primary combined single limit for bodily injury or death and/or property damage, each occurrence with a general aggregate limit of $2,000,000, combined single limit; provided, however, that Landlord shall have the right to determine such other limits as may be reasonable and customary for transactions and properties of this size and type. Policies for such insurance shall be for the mutual benefit of Landlord, Tenant and Lender.

(iii) Worker's compensation insurance covering all fulltime employees of Tenant employed in connection with any work done on or about any of the Leased Premises for which claims for death or bodily injury could be asserted against Landlord, Tenant or any of the Leased Premises, or, in lieu of such worker's compensation insurance, a program of self-insurance complying with the rules, regulations and requirements of the appropriate agency of the State.

(iv) To the extent that the Improvements include at any time Equipment or any other equipment on or in the Leased Premises which by reason of its use or existence is capable of bursting, erupting, or exploding, boiler and pressure vessel insurance on any such Equipment, in an amount not less than $5,000,000 for damage to property, bodily injury or death resulting from such perils.

(v) Such other insurance, including business interruption insurance which would provide an amount necessary to pay Rent for at least one (1) year, on or in connection with any of the Leased Premises as Landlord or Lender may reasonably require, which at the time is prudent for Tenant's industry and is commonly obtained in connection with properties similar to the Leased Premises.

(b) The insurance required by Paragraph 14(a) shall be written by companies of recognized financial standing which are approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, and are authorized to do an insurance business in the State. The insurance policies (i) shall be for such terms as Landlord may reasonably approve, (ii) shall be in amounts sufficient at all times to satisfy any coinsurance requirements thereof, and (iii) shall (except for the worker's compensation insurance referred to in Paragraph 14(a)(iii) hereof) name Landlord, Tenant and Lender as insured parties, as their respective interests may appear. If said insurance or any part thereof shall expire, be withdrawn, become void, voidable, unreliable or unsafe for any reason, including a breach of any condition thereof by Tenant or the failure or impairment of the capital of any insurer, or if for any other reason whatsoever said insurance shall become unsatisfactory to Landlord, Tenant shall promptly obtain new or additional insurance reasonably satisfactory to Landlord.

(c) Each insurance policy referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) of Paragraph 14(a) shall contain standard non-contributory mortgagee clauses in favor of and reasonably acceptable to Lender. Each policy required by any provision of Paragraph 14(a), except clause (iii) thereof, shall provide that it may not be cancelled except after thirty (30) days' prior notice to Landlord and Lender except for the non-payment of premiums which shall require at least ten (10) days notice of cancellation. Each such policy shall also provide that any loss otherwise payable thereunder shall be payable notwithstanding (i)

any act or omission of Landlord or Tenant which might, absent such provision, result in a forfeiture of all or a part of such insurance payment, (ii) the occupation or use of any of the Leased Premises for purposes more hazardous than those permitted by the provisions of such policy, (iii) any foreclosure or other action or proceeding taken by Lender pursuant to any provision of the Mortgage upon the happening of an event of default therein, or (iv) any change in title to or ownership of any of the Leased Premises.

(d) Tenant shall pay as they become due in installments or otherwise all premiums for the insurance required by this Paragraph 14, shall renew or replace each policy and deliver to Landlord evidence of the payment of the full premium or next succeeding installment, as the case may be, therefor at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration date of such policy, and shall promptly deliver to Landlord all original policies; and in the event of Tenant's failure to comply with any of the foregoing requirements, Landlord shall be entitled, but not obligated, to procure such insurance. Any sums expended by Landlord in procuring such insurance shall be Additional Rent and shall be repaid by Tenant, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the time of payment by Landlord until fully paid by Tenant, immediately upon written demand therefor by Landlord.

(e) Tenant shall have the replacement cost and insurable value of the Improvements determined from time to time as required by the replacement cost endorsements and shall deliver to Landlord the new replacement cost endorsement or certificate evidencing such endorsement promptly upon Tenant's receipt thereof. If, at any time, a replacement cost endorsement is not available, Tenant shall have the replacement cost and insurable value of the Improvements determined at least once a year by the underwriter of fire insurance on the Leased Premises or, if such underwriter will not act, by a qualified appraiser satisfactory to Landlord, and shall deliver to Landlord such determination promptly upon receipt.

(f) Tenant shall promptly comply with and conform to (i) all provisions of each insurance policy required by this Paragraph 14 and (ii) all requirements of the insurers thereunder, applicable to Landlord, Tenant or any of the Leased Premises or to the use, manner of use, occupancy, possession, operation, maintenance, alteration or repair of any of the Leased Premises, even if such compliance necessitates structural changes or improvements or results in interference with the use or enjoyment of any of the Leased Premises. Tenant shall not use any of the Leased Premises in any manner which would permit the insurer to cancel or increase the premium for any insurance policy.

(g) In the event of any loss, Tenant shall give Landlord and Lender immediate notice thereof. So long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing, Tenant is hereby authorized to adjust and compromise, in its discretion, all claims under any of the insurance policies required by this Paragraph 14 (except public liability insurance claims payable to a person other than Tenant, Landlord or Lender) and to execute and deliver of behalf of Landlord and Lender all necessary proofs of loss, receipts, vouchers and release required by the insurers; and Landlord agrees to sign, upon the request of Tenant, all such proofs of loss, receipts, vouchers and releases. However, if Lender so elects, Lender shall adjust and compromise any and all such claims. Any adjustment, settlement or compromise of any such claim shall be subject to the prior written approval of Lender unless Tenant receives a prior written waiver from Lender, and Lender shall have the right to prosecute or contest, or to require Tenant to prosecute or contest, any such claim, adjustment, settlement or compromise, all at Tenant's expense. All proceeds of any insurance required under clauses (i) (in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), (ii), (except proceeds payable to a person other than Tenant, Landlord or Lender), (iv) and (v) of Paragraph 14(a) shall be payable to Landlord and Lender. Each insurer is hereby authorized and directed to make payment under said policies, including return of unearned premiums, directly to Landlord and Lender instead of to Landlord and Tenant jointly (except for a casualty loss payment of less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) which shall be paid directly to Tenant); and Tenant hereby appoints each of Landlord and Lender as Tenant's attorneys-in-fact to endorse any draft therefor.

In the event of any casualty (whether or not insured against) resulting in damage to any of the Improvements which does not result in a termination of this Lease, the Term shall, notwithstanding such casualty, continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder, except as expressly provided in Paragraph 15(b).

Promptly after such casualty, Tenant, as required in Paragraph 11(a), shall commence and diligently continue to restore the Improvements as nearly as possible to their value, condition and character immediately prior to such damage, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 12. Landlord shall make such Net Proceeds available to Tenant as and when received by Landlord for restoration by Tenant in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Paragraph 15(a).

In the event of any loss of any of the Equipment in a casualty which does not result in a termination of this Lease, the Term shall nevertheless continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder. Tenant shall, whether or not the Net Proceeds are sufficient for the purpose, promptly repair or replace such Equipment, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 11(d), and the Net Proceeds paid for the loss of such Equipment only shall thereupon be payable to Tenant. The remainder of the Net Proceeds shall be applied as hereinabove provided.

(h) If (a) the entire "New Orleans Premises", the entire "Memphis Premises" or the entire "San Antonio Premises" or (b) a substantial portion of the "New Orleans Premises", the "Memphis Premises" and the "San Antonio Premises", shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty and, in Tenant's good faith judgment, it is uneconomical to replace, repair or restore the Affected Premises within one hundred and fifty (150) days of the date of such casualty for continued use and occupancy by Tenant or any other tenant to which the Affected Premises might reasonably be leased (any one or all of which is affected by a fire or casualty described in (a) or (b) being hereinafter referred to as the "Affected Premises"), then Tenant shall, not later than twenty (20) days after such occurrence, give notice to Landlord of its intention to terminate this Lease as to the Affected Premises on the first Basic Rent Payment Date (the "Casualty Termination Date") which occurs after the date on which Landlord rejects Tenant's offer to purchase the Affected Premises.

Such notice shall contain (A) an irrevocable offer of Tenant purchase the Affected Premises on the Casualty Termination Date for the purchase price (the "Casualty Offer Amount") specified in the next sentence and (B) a certificate of Tenant, signed by the president or a vice president of Tenant, stating that, in Tenant's good faith judgment, the portion of the Affected Premises so damaged or destroyed is sufficient to render the Affected Premises uneconomical for restoration for continued use and occupancy by Tenant or any other tenant to which the Affected Premises might be leased and certifying that Tenant will not restore the Affected Premises for the use to which such Premises was devoted prior to such damage or destruction. The Casualty Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Affected Premises as of the date immediately prior to such casualty or (2) the sum of that portion of the Acquisition Cost applicable to the Affected Premises, as set forth in Exhibit "E", and one-half (1/2) of any prepayment penalty or premium up to a maximum payment by Tenant of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) which may be payable under a Note or Mortgage. Promptly upon the delivery of such notice from Tenant to Landlord, Landlord and Tenant shall commence to determine such Fair Market Value in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 27.

No rejection of an offer hereunder shall be effective for any purpose unless consented to by Lender. If Landlord shall reject such offer by notice to Tenant, containing the written consent of Lender to such rejection, not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, then upon (x) payment of all Rent and any other charges due and unpaid under this Lease as of the Casualty Termination Date and (y) compliance by Tenant with all other obligations and liabilities under this Lease which have arisen on or prior to the Casualty Termination Date, this Lease shall terminate on the Casualty Termination Date as to the Affected Premises and Tenant shall promptly vacate and have no further right, title or interest in or to any of the Affected Premises.

Unless Landlord shall have rejected such offer by the foregoing notice to Tenant not later than the twentieth (20th) day prior to the Casualty termination Date, Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted such offer. If such offer is accepted by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Casualty Offer Amount on the Casualty Termination Date and, provided an Event of Default does not then exist, Landlord shall convey to Tenant the Affected Premises in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16 and, provided all Rent and other sums due and unpaid under this Lease are paid in full, Landlord shall assign to Tenant its entire interest in and to the Net Proceeds including any part thereof that has not been received by Landlord and/or deliver to Tenant or credit against the Casualty Offer Amount such Net Proceeds including any part thereof which shall have been received by Landlord.

(i) Tenant shall not carry separate insurance concurrent in form or contributing in the event of loss with that required in this Paragraph 14 unless (i) Landlord and Lender are included therein as named insureds, with loss payable as provided herein, and (ii) such separate insurance complies with the other provisions of this Paragraph 14. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of such separate insurance and shall deliver to Landlord the original policies therefor.

15. Restoration: Reduction of Rent.

(a) If (on the basis of a cost breakdown provided by Tenant) the cost of restoration is reasonably estimated by Landlord to be One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) or less, then, so long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing, such amount shall be disbursed to Tenant from the Net Proceeds or a Net Award, and Tenant shall promptly restore the Affected Premises in accordance with and subject to Paragraph 12 of this Lease. Net Proceeds or a Net Award which are for restoration of the Land or Improvements the cost of which is reasonably estimated of Landlord to be in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) shall be disbursed to Tenant only in accordance with the following conditions:

(i) prior to commencement of restoration, the architects, contracts, contractors, plans and specifications for the restoration shall have been approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; Landlord shall be provided with mechanics' lien insurance (if available) and acceptable performance and payment bonds which insure satisfactory completion of the restoration, are in an amount and form and have a surety acceptable to Landlord, and name Landlord and Lender as additional dual obligees; and appropriate waivers of mechanics' and materialmen's liens shall have been filed;

(ii) at the time of any disbursement, no Event of Default shall exist and no mechanics' or materialmen's liens shall have been filed against any of the Leased Premises and remain undischarged;

(iii) disbursements shall be made from time to time in an amount not exceeding the cost of the work completed since the last disbursement, upon receipt of (A) satisfactory evidence, including architects' certificates, of the stage of completion, of the estimated cost of completion and of performance of the work to date in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with the contracts, plans and specifications, (B) waivers of liens for work covered by the prior disbursement, (C) contractors' and subcontractors' sworn statements as to completed work for which payment is requested, (D) a satisfactory bringdown of title insurance, and (E) other evidence of cost and payment so that Landlord can verify that the amounts disbursed from time to time are represented by work that is completed, in place and free and clear of mechanics' and materialmen's lien claims;

(iv) each request for disbursement shall be accompanied by a certificate of Tenant, signed by the president or a vice president of Tenant, describing the work for which payment is requested, stating the cost incurred in connection therewith, stating that Tenant has not previously received payment for such work and, upon completion of the work, also stating that the work has been fully completed and complies with the applicable requirements of this Lease;

(v) Landlord may retain ten percent (10%) of the restoration fund until the restoration is fifty percent (50%) completed;

(vi) the restoration fund may not be commingled with Landlord's other funds and shall bear interest which shall be added to the restoration fund;

(vii) at all times the undisbursed balance of the restoration fund held by Landlord shall be not less than the cost of completing the restoration work free and clear of all liens; and (viii) such other reasonable conditions as Landlord may impose.

In addition, prior to commencement of restoration and at any time during restoration, if the estimated cost of completing the restoration work free and clear of all liens, as determined by Landlord, exceeds the amount of the Net Proceeds or the Net Award available for such restoration, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand by Landlord, be paid by Tenant to Landlord to be added to the restoration fund. Any sum which remains in the restoration fund upon completion of restoration (the "Remaining Sum") shall be refunded to Tenant, unless such sum is required to be applied by

Landlord to reduce principal outstanding under the Note, in which event it shall be paid by Landlord to Lender to reduce principal outstanding under the Note. For purposes of determining the source of funds with respect to the disposition of funds remaining after the completion of restoration, the Net Proceeds or the Net Award shall be deemed to be disbursed prior to any amount added by Tenant.

(b) In the event that there is a Remaining Sum upon completion of restoration which is paid by Landlord to Lender, as aforesaid, then each installment of Basic Rent payable on or after the effective date of such reduction in debt service shall be reduced in the same amount and for the same period as payments are reduced under the Note.

16. Procedures Upon Purchase.

(a) In the event of the purchase of any of the Leased Premises by Tenant pursuant to any provision of this Lease, Landlord need not transfer and convey to Tenant or its designee any better title thereto than that which was transferred and conveyed to Landlord, and Tenant shall accept such title, subject, however, to all Permitted Exceptions and to all liens, exceptions and restrictions on, against or relating to any of the Leased Premises which were created with the concurrence of Tenant or as a result of a default by Tenant under this Lease and to all applicable Laws, but free of the lien of and security interest created by the Mortgage and the Assignment and liens, exceptions and restrictions on, against or relating to the Leased Premises which have been created by or resulted solely from acts of Landlord without the concurrence of Tenant.

(b) Upon the date fixed for any such purchase of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to any provision of this Lease, Tenant shall pay to Landlord or to any Person to whom Landlord directs payment, at its address set forth above, or at any other place designated by Landlord, the Offer Amount therefore specified herein, in federal or other immediately available funds which at the time of such payment shall be legal tender for the payment of public or private debts in the United States of America, less any credits of the Net Award or Net Proceeds allowed against the Offer Amount pursuant to the provisions of Paragraphs 13(b) or 14(i), and Landlord shall thereupon deliver to Tenant (i) a special warranty deed in form satisfactory to Landlord's counsel which describes any of the Leased Premises then being sold to Tenant and conveys and transfers the title thereto which is described in Paragraph 16(a), (ii) such other instruments as shall be necessary to transfer to Tenant or its designee any other property (or rights to any Net Proceeds or Net Award not yet received by Landlord) then required to be sold by Landlord pursuant to this Lease and (iii) any Net Award or Net Proceeds received by Landlord, not credited to Tenant against the Offer Amount and required to be delivered by Landlord to Tenant pursuant to this Lease. Tenant shall pay all reasonable charges incident to such conveyance and transfer, including Landlord's reasonable counsel fees, escrow fees, recording fees, title insurance or guarantee premiums all applicable federal, state and local taxes which may be incurred or imposed by reason of such conveyance and transfer and/or by reason of the delivery of said deed and other instruments (excluding, however, any capital gains or net income tax payable by Landlord as a result of said transfer). Tenant agrees, upon the request and direction of Landlord, to pay a portion of the Offer Amount as a brokerage commission to Landlord or one of its Affiliates who Tenant acknowledges shall be deemed the broker of record in connection with the transfer of the Leased Premises. Upon the completion of such purchase, but not prior thereto (whether or not any delay in the completion of or any failure to complete such purchase shall be the fault of Landlord), Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease and all obligations hereunder (including the obligations to pay Rent) with respect to any of the Leased Premises conveyed to Tenant, except any obligations and liabilities of Tenant, actual or contingent, under this Lease, which arose on or prior to such date of purchase. In the event that the completion of such purchase shall be delayed for more than ninety (90) days solely as a result of acts or omissions of Tenant, then the Offer Amount payable by Tenant upon the purchase of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to any provisions of this Lease shall, at Landlord's sole option, be determined as of the actual date of such purchase by Tenant, provided that Tenant shall have paid to Landlord all Rent due and payable hereunder to and including such date. Any prepaid Basic Rent or other prepaid sums paid to Landlord shall be prorated as of the date the purchase is completed, and the prorated unapplied balance shall be deducted from the Offer Amount due to Landlord.

No apportionment of any Impositions shall be made upon such purchase, Tenant being liable for payment thereof during the Term as Tenant and being liable thereafter as owner.

17. Assignment and Subletting. Tenant may not assign this Lease at any time to any other party without the prior written consent of Landlord; provided, however, that upon prior notice to Landlord, Tenant shall have the right to assign this Lease to any party which, immediately following such assignment, complies both with the provisions of Paragraph 31 of this Lease and with the provisions of this Paragraph 17. Tenant may sublet any of the Leased Premises at any other time to any other party without the prior written consent of Landlord. Each sublease of any of the Leased Premises shall be subject and subordinate to the provisions of this Lease. If Tenant assigns all its rights and interest under this Lease, the assignee under such assignment shall expressly assume all the obligations of Tenant hereunder, including obligations, actual or contingent, of Tenant which may have arisen on or prior to the date of such assignment, by a written instrument delivered to Landlord at the time of such assignment. No assignment other than as specifically permitted by this Paragraph and Paragraph 31 and no sublease made as permitted by this Paragraph shall affect or reduce any of the obligations of Tenant hereunder; and all such obligations shall continue in full force and effect as obligations of a principal and not as obligations of a guarantor, as if no assignment or sublease had been made. No assignment or sublease shall impose any obligations on Landlord under this Lease. Tenant shall, within ten (10) days after the execution and delivery of any such assignment, deliver a duplicate original copy thereof in recordable form to Landlord, and within ten (10) days after the execution and delivery of any such sublease, Tenant shall deliver a duplicate original copy thereof to Landlord.

In the event Tenant desires to assign its interest in this Lease or effect a Change in Control (as defined in Paragraph 31) and such assignment or Change of Control would cause a breach of Paragraph 31 and such anticipatory breach is not waived in writing by Landlord within (10) days after receipt of notice from Tenant, then Tenant shall, not later than sixty (60) days prior to such occurrence, make an irrevocable offer to purchase the Leased Premises on the first Basic Rent Payment Date (the "Transfer Purchase Date") which occurs after the date on which Landlord accepts Tenant's offer to purchase the Leased Premises for the purchase price (the "Transfer Offer Amount") specified in the next sentence. The Transfer Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises as of the date immediately prior to such assignment or Change in Control or (2) the Acquisition Cost and any prepayment penalty or premium which may be payable under a Note or Mortgage. Promptly upon the deliver of such notice from Tenant to Landlord, Landlord and Tenant shall commence to determine such Fair market Value in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 27.

No rejection of an offer hereunder shall be effective for any purpose unless consented to by Lender. If Landlord shall reject such offer by notice to Tenant, containing the written consent of Lender to such rejection, not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, then the breach of Paragraph 31 shall be deemed waived by Landlord, subject, however, to the terms of this Paragraph 17 and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect.

Unless Landlord shall have rejected such offer by the foregoing notice to Tenant not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted such offer. If such offer is accepted by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Transfer Offer Amount on the Transfer Purchase Date and, provided all Rent and other sums due hereunder are paid in full, Landlord shall convey to Tenant the Leased Premises in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Lease, Landlord shall have the right immediately or at any time thereafter to collect and enjoy all rents and other sums of money payable under any sublease of any of the Leased Premises, and Tenant hereby irrevocably and unconditionally assigns such rents and money to Landlord, which assignment may be exercised upon and after (but not before) the occurrence of an Event of Default. Tenant shall not mortgage or pledge this Lease, and any such mortgage or pledge made in violation of this Paragraph shall be void.

18. Permitted Contests. Tenant shall not be required to (a) pay any imposition, (b) comply with any Legal Requirement, (c) discharge or remove any lien referred to in Paragraph 9 or 12, or (d) take any action with respect to any encroachment, violation, hindrance, obstruction or impairment referred to in Paragraph 11(b), so long as Tenant shall contest, in good faith and at its expense, the existence, the amount or the validity thereof, the amount of the damages caused thereby, or the extent of its or Landlord's liability therefore, by appropriate proceedings which shall operate during the pendency thereof to prevent (i) the collection of, or other realization upon, the Imposition, lien or claim so contested, (ii) the sale, forfeiture or loss of any of the Leased Premises or any Rent to satisfy the same or to pay any damages caused by the violation of any such Legal Requirement or by any such encroachment, violation, hindrance, obstruction or impairment, (iii) any interference with the use or occupancy of any of the Leased Premises, (iv) any interference with the payment of any Rent, and (v) the cancellation of any fire or other insurance policy. If the contested amount is in excess of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00), Tenant shall provide Landlord security which is reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, to assure the payment, compliance, discharge, removal and/or other action, including all costs, attorneys' fees, interest and penalties that may be or become due in connection therewith. While any proceedings which comply with the requirements of this Paragraph 18 are pending and the required security is held by Landlord, Landlord shall not have the right to pay, remove or cause to be discharged the Imposition, lien or claim thereby being contested. Tenant further agrees that each such contest shall be promptly and diligently prosecuted to a final conclusion, except that Tenant shall, so long as the conditions of the first sentence of this Paragraph are at all times complied with, have the right to attempt to settle or compromise such contest through negotiations. Tenant shall pay, and save Landlord harmless against, any and all losses, judgments, decrees and costs (including all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with any such contest and shall, promptly after the final determination of such contest, fully pay and discharge the amounts which shall be levied, assessed, charged or imposed or be determined to be payable therein or in connection therewith, together with all penalties, fines, interest, costs and expenses thereof or in connection therewith, and perform all acts the performance of which shall be ordered or decreed as a result thereof. No such contest shall subject Landlord to the risk of any civil or criminal liability.

19. Conditional Limitations; Default Provision.

(a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events which continue for a period equal to the greater of (i) any grace period specified in this subparagraph 19(a) or in subparagraph 19(g) hereof or (ii) two (2) days less than any applicable grace period, if any, given to Landlord for such default under any Note and Mortgage shall constitute an Event of Default under this Lease: (i) a failure by Tenant to make (regardless of the pendency of any bankruptcy, reorganization, receivership, insolvency or other proceedings, in law, in equity, or before any administrative tribunal, which have or might have the effect of preventing Tenant from complying with the provisions of this Lease) any payment of Rent or other sum herein required to be paid by Tenant; (ii) a failure by Tenant duly to perform and observe, or a violation or breach of, any other provision or covenant hereof not otherwise specifically mentioned in this Paragraph 19(a); (iii) any representation or warranty made by Tenant herein or in the Assignment or in any certificate, demand or request made pursuant hereto or thereto proves to be incorrect, now or hereafter, in any material respect; (iv) Tenant shall (A) voluntarily be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, (B) seek or consent to the appointment of a receiver or trustee for itself or for any of the Leased Premises, (C) file a petition seeking relief under the bankruptcy or other similar laws of the United States, any state or any jurisdiction, or (D) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (v) a court shall enter an order, judgment or decree appointing, without the consent of Tenant, a receiver or trustee for it or for any of the Leased Premises or approving a petition filed against Tenant which seeks relief under the bankruptcy or other similar laws of the United States, any state or any jurisdiction, and such order, judgment or decree shall remain in force, undischarged or unstayed, sixty (60) days after it is entered; (vi) any Improvement is substantially damaged or destroyed by an uninsured casualty and Tenant fails to commence promptly thereafter to restore the Leased Premises to its condition immediately prior to such casualty or fails to proceed actively, diligently and in good faith with such restoration and to continue such restoration until the Leased Premises have been fully restored; (vii) any of the Leased Premises shall have been vacated or abandoned; (viii) Tenant shall be liquidated or dissolved or shall begin proceedings towards its liquidation or dissolution; (ix) the estate or interest of Tenant in any of the Leased Premises shall be levied upon or attached in any proceeding and such estate or interest is about to be sold or transferred or such proceeding shall not be vacated or discharged within sixty (60) days after it is commenced; or (x) a failure by Guarantor duly to perform and observe any provision under the Guaranty, or a violation or breach of any covenant made by Guarantor under the Guaranty.

(b) If an Event of Default shall have occurred, Landlord shall have the right at its option, then or at any time thereafter to do any one more of the following without demand upon or notice to Tenant (except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (g) of this Paragraph 19):

(i) Landlord shall give Tenant ten (10) days written notice of Landlord's intention to terminate this Lease on a date specified in such notice. Upon the date therein specified, the Term, the estate hereby granted and all rights of Tenant hereunder, shall expire and terminate as if such date were the date herein before fixed for the expiration of the Term, but Tenant shall remain liable for all its obligations hereunder, including its liability for Rent, as hereinafter provided.

(ii) Landlord may, whether or not the Term of this Lease shall have been terminated pursuant to clause (i) above, (A) give Tenant notice to surrender any of the Leased Premises to Landlord immediately or on a date specified in such notice, at which time Tenant shall surrender and deliver possession of the Leased Premises or the specified portion thereof to Landlord or (B) re-enter and repossess any of the Leased Premises, with or without legal process, by peaceably entering the Leased Premises and changing locks or by summary proceedings, ejectment or any other lawful means or procedure. Upon or at any time after taking possession of any of the Leased Premises, Landlord may, by peaceable means or legal process, remove any Persons or property therefrom. Landlord shall be under no liability for or by reason of any such entry, repossession or removal. No such entry or repossession shall be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease unless Landlord gives a written notice of such intention to Tenant pursuant to clause (i) above.

(iii) After repossession of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to clause (ii) above, whether or not this Lease shall have been terminated pursuant to clause (i) above, Landlord shall have the right (but shall be under no obligation) to relet any of the Leased Premises to such tenant or tenants, for such term or terms (which may be greater or less than the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the Term), for such rent, on such conditions (which may include concessions or free rent) and for such uses as Landlord, in its absolute discretion, may determine; and Landlord may collect and receive any rents payable by reason of such reletting. Landlord shall have no duty to mitigate damages and shall not be responsible or liable for any failure to relet any of the Leased Premises or for any failure to collect any rent due upon any such reletting. Landlord may make such Alterations as Landlord, in its sole discretion, may deem advisable. Tenant agrees to pay Landlord, as Additional Rent, immediately upon demand, all expenses incurred by Landlord in obtaining possession, in performing Alterations and in reletting any of the Leased Premises, including fees and commissions of attorneys, architects, agents and brokers.

(iv) Unless Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b) (v) (as to the entire Leased Premises) or 19(b) (vi) hereof and shall have received all sums due thereunder, Landlord may, upon written demand to Tenant, recover from Tenant, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as and for liquidated and agreed final damages for Tenant's default and in lieu of all current damages beyond the date of such demand (it being agreed that it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to fix the actual damages), an amount equal to the present value of the excess, if any, of (A) all Rent from the date of such demand to the date on which the then Term is scheduled to expire hereunder in the absence of any earlier termination, re-entry or repossession over (B) the then fair market rental value of the Leased Premises for the same period; provided, however, that in the event Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b) (v) to require the purchase of less than the entire Leased Premises and shall have received all sums due in connection therewith, the Rent referred to in clause (A) above shall be that portion of the Rent which is attributable to that portion of the Leased Premises which is not sold to Tenant pursuant to said Paragraph 19(b) (v) and the fair rental value referred to in clause (B) above shall be the fair rental value of such unsold remainder of the Leased Premises. The present value of such excess shall be determined by discounting the Rent and such fair market rental value at the rate per annum which is the lower of the then Prime Rate or nine percent (9%) per annum. If any Law shall validly limit the amount of such liquidated final damages to less than the amount above agreed upon, Landlord shall be entitled to the maximum amount allowable under such Law.

(v) Unless Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b) (iv) or 19(b) (vi) hereof and shall have received all sums due thereunder, Landlord may, upon notice to Tenant, require Tenant to make an irrevocable offer to purchase, for the purchase price (the "Default Offer Amount") specified in the next two sentences, either (A) the entire Leased Premises or (B) any one or more of the New Orleans Premises, the San Antonio Premises and the Memphis Premises (such entire Leased Premises or any one or more of the New Orleans Premises, the San Antonio Premises and the Memphis Premises, as applicable, being hereinafter referred to as the "Selected Premises"), as Landlord in its sole discretion may select. The Default Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the then Fair Market Value of the Selected Premises, (2) the sum of that portion (determined in accordance with the percentages set forth in Exhibit "F") of the unpaid balance of the Note and Mortgage covering any of the Selected Premises, all interest accrued thereon, and prepayment penalties payable in connection therewith and all other sums due thereunder as of the date of such purchase, or (3) an amount equal to the sum of the Acquisition Cost with respect to the Selected Premises and any prepayment penalty payable under the Loan with respect to the Selected Premises. Upon such notice by Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall be deemed to have made such offer, and the Fair Market Value of the Selected Premises shall be determined in accordance with the procedure set forth in Paragraph 27 hereof. Within thirty (30) days after such determination of the Fair Market Value, Landlord shall accept or reject such offer. If Landlord accepts such offer, then, on the tenth (10th) business day after such acceptance, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Default Offer Amount and purchase the Selected Premises in accordance with Paragraph 16 hereof. Any rejection by Landlord of such offer shall have no effect on any other provision of this Lease.

(vi) Unless Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b) (iv) or 19(b) (v) (as to the entire Leased Premises) hereof and shall have received all sums due thereunder or shall have repossessed and relet the Leased Premises, Landlord may declare by notice to Tenant the entire Basic Rent (in the amount of Basic Rent then in effect) discounted at the rate per annum which is the lower of the then Prime Rate or nine percent (9%) per annum for the remainder of the then current Term, to be immediately due and payable. In that event, Tenant shall immediately pay to Landlord all such Basic Rent, all accrued Rent then due and unpaid, all other sums which are then due or which would have been due hereunder but for the aforesaid Event of Default and all sums which arise or become due by reason of such Event of Default (including any attorneys' fees and costs). Upon receipt of all such accelerated Basic Rent and other sums, this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and Tenant shall have the right to possession of the Leased Premises from the date Landlord receives the accelerated Basic Rent and all the other said sums to the end of the Term then in effect (or that would be in effect but for the Event of Default) pursuant and subject to all the provisions of this Lease, including the obligation to pay all increases in Basic Rent and all Additional Rent and other sums that subsequently become due, except that (A) no Basic Rent which has been prepaid hereunder shall be due thereafter during the said Term, (B) Tenant shall have no option to extend or renew the then current Term and (C) Tenant shall have no further rights, if any, under Paragraph 28. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b) (v) to require the purchase of less than the entire Leased Premises and shall have received all sums due in connection therewith, the Basic Rent to be accelerated pursuant to this Paragraph 19(b) (vi) shall be that portion of the Basic Rent which is attributable to that portion of the Leased Premises which is not sold to Tenant pursuant to said Paragraph 19(b)(v) and Tenant's right to possession pursuant to this Lease shall extend only to such unsold remainder of the Leased Premises.

(vii) Landlord may exercise any other right or remedy now or hereafter existing by Law or in equity.

(c) No expiration or termination of this Lease pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(i) or any other provision of this Lease, by operation of law or otherwise, before the expiration date provided in Paragraph 5 or if applicable the termination date provided in Paragraph 13(b), 14(i) or 28, no repossession of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(ii) or otherwise, nor any reletting of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to Paragraph (19)(b)(iii) shall relieve Tenant of any of its liabilities and obligations hereunder, including the liability for Rent, all of which shall survive such expiration, termination, repossession or reletting.

(d) In the event of any expiration or termination of this Lease or repossession of any of the Leased Premises by reason of the occurrence of an Event of Default, and provided that Landlord has not exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(iv), 19(b)(v) (as to the entire Leased Premises) or 19(b)(vi) or has not received all sums due thereunder, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all Rent and all other sums required to be paid by Tenant to and including the date of such expiration, termination or repossession and, thereafter, Tenant shall, until the end of what would have been the Term in the absence of such expiration, termination or repossession, and whether or not any of the Leased Premises shall have been relet, be liable to Landlord for, and shall pay to Landlord, as liquidated and agreed current damages (i) Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other sums which would be payable under this Lease by Tenant in the absence of such expiration, termination or repossession, less (ii) the net proceeds, if any, of any reletting pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(iii), after deducting from such proceeds all of Landlord's expenses in connection with such reletting (including all repossession costs, brokerage commissions, legal expenses, attorneys' fees, employees' expenses, costs of Alterations and expenses of preparation for reletting) provided, however, that in the event
Landlord has exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(v) to require the purchase of less than the entire Leased Premises and has received all sums due in connection therewith, the Rent hereinabove in this Paragraph 19(d) referred to shall mean that portion of the Rent which is applicable to that portion of the Leased Premises which is not sold to Tenant pursuant to said Paragraph 19(b)(v). Tenant hereby agrees to be and remain liable for all sums aforesaid; and Landlord may recover such damages from Tenant and institute and maintain successive actions or legal proceedings against Tenant for the recovery of such damages. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require Landlord to wait to begin such action or other legal proceedings until the date when the Term would have expired by limitation had there been no such Event of Default.

(e) The words "enter," "re-enter," or "re-entry," as used in this Paragraph 19 are not restricted to their technical meaning.

(f) WITH RESPECT TO ANY REMEDY OR PROCEEDING OF LANDLORD HEREUNDER, TENANT WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY.

(g) Except as otherwise hereinafter in this Paragraph 19(g) provided, before an Event of Default shall exist under this Paragraph 19, Landlord shall have given Tenant notice thereof and Tenant shall have failed to cure the default within the applicable grace period stated below. If the default consists of a failure to pay Rent, the applicable grace period shall be two (2) business days from the date such notice is given. If the default consists of the failure to provide any insurance required pursuant to Paragraph 14, the applicable grace period shall be seven (7) days from the date on which the notice is given, but Landlord shall not be obligated to give notice of, or allow any grace period for, any such default more than twice within any twelve (12) month period. If the default consists of something other than the failure to provide any such insurance, the applicable grace period shall be twenty (20) days from the date on which the notice is given or, if the default cannot be cured within the said twenty-day period and delay in the exercise of a remedy would not (in Landlord's reasonable judgment) cause any material adverse harm to Landlord or any of the Leased Premises, the grace period shall be extended for the period required to cure the default (but such grace period, including any extension, shall not in the aggregate exceed sixty (60) days), provided that Tenant shall commence to cure the default within the said twenty-day period and shall actively, diligently and in good faith proceed with and continue the curing of the default until it shall be fully cured. However, no notice or grace period shall be required in any one or more of the following events: (i) substantial damage to any of the Leased Premises will, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, probably occur unless a remedy is exercised promptly; (ii) the occurrence of a default under clause (iii), (iv), (v), (viii), or (ix) of subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph 19; or (iii) the default is such that any delay in the exercise of a remedy by Landlord could reasonably be expected to cause irreparable harm to Landlord.

20. Additional Rights of Landlord.

(a) No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to Landlord is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and each and every right and remedy shall be cumulative and in addition to any other right or remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing by Law or in equity. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, Landlord shall have the right (but no obligation) to perform any act required of Tenant hereunder, whether as agent for Tenant or otherwise; and the cost thereof shall be Additional Rent hereunder and shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date such cost is incurred until it shall be fully paid by Tenant, immediately upon demand. Tenant agrees that Tenant shall be liable to Landlord for any and all damages suffered or incurred by Landlord in connection with any Event of Default and Tenant further agrees that Landlord shall be entitled to exercise any and all remedies existing at law or in equity for the recovery thereof. Tenant acknowledges that time is of the essence in the performance of its obligations under this Lease. No failure of Landlord (i) to insist at any time upon the strict performance of any provision of this Lease or (ii) to exercise any option, right, power or remedy contained in this Lease shall be constructed as a waiver, modification or relinquishment thereof. A receipt by Landlord of any Rent or other sum due hereunder with knowledge of the breach of any provision contained in this Lease shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach, and no waiver by Landlord of any provision of this Lease shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in a writing signed by Landlord. In addition to the other remedies provided in this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, to injunctive relief in case of the violation, or attempted or threatened violation, of any of the provisions of this Lease, or to specific performance of any of the provisions of this Lease.

(b) Tenant hereby waives and surrenders, for itself and all those claiming under it, including creditors of all kinds, (i) any right and privilege which it or any of them may have under any present or future Law to redeem any of the Leased Premises or to have a continuance of this Lease after termination of this Lease or of Tenant's right of occupancy or possession pursuant to any court order or any provision hereof, and (ii) the benefits of any present or future Law which exempts property from liability for debt or for distress for rent.

(c) Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, all the expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with any Event of Default or the exercise of any remedy by reason of an Event of Default or otherwise in connection with the enforcement of this Lease, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses. If Landlord shall be made a party to any litigation commenced against Tenant or any litigation pertaining to this Lease or any of the Leased Premises (except litigation among the partners of Landlord or other Persons described in Paragraph 29 which does not arise out of any act or omission of Tenant under this Lease), then, at the option of Landlord, Tenant, at its expense, shall provide Landlord with counsel approved by Landlord and, in any event, Tenant shall pay all costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred or paid by Landlord in connection with such litigation; provided, however, that if in a non-appealable decision, a court of competent jurisdiction determines that Landlord was the sole cause of litigation pertaining to this Lease or any of the Leased Premises then all costs and fees incurred by Tenant in connection with such litigation shall be refunded to Tenant.

21. Notices. All notices, demands, requests, consents, approvals, offers, statements and other instruments or communications required or permitted to be given pursuant to the provisions of this Lease shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given for all purposes when delivered in Person or by Federal Express or other 24-hour delivery service or five (5) business days after being deposited in the United States mail, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the other party at its address stated above. A copy of any notice given by Tenant to Landlord shall simultaneously be given by Tenant to Reed Smith Shaw & McClay, 1600 Avenue of the Arts Building, Philadelphia, PA 19107, Attention: Chairman, Real Estate Department. For the purposes of this Paragraph, any party may substitute its address by giving fifteen (15) days' notice to the other party, in the manner provided above.

22. Estoppel Certificate. Tenant shall, at any time and from time to time, but not more than three (3) times in any calendar year, upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written request by Landlord, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a statement in writing, executed by the President or a vice president of Tenant, certifying (a) that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if there have been modifications, that this Lease is in full force and effect as modified, and setting forth such modifications), (b) the dates to which Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other sums payable hereunder have been paid, (c) that, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, no default by either Landlord or Tenant exists hereunder or specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge, and (d) that, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, there are no proceedings pending or threatened against Tenant before or by any court or administrative agency which, if adversely decided, would materially and adversely affect the financial condition and operations of Tenant or, if any such proceedings are pending or threatened to said signer's knowledge, specifying and describing the same. It is intended that any such statements by Tenant may be relied upon by Lender, Landlord or their assignees or by any prospective purchaser or mortgagee of the Leased Premises.

Landlord shall, at any time and from time to time but not more often than twice in any twelve (12) month period upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written request by Tenant, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Tenant a statement in writing, executed by a general partner of landlord certifying (a) that this Lease in unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if there have been modifications, that this Lease is in full force and effect as modified, and setting forth such modifications), (b) the dates to which Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other sums payable hereunder have been paid, (c) that, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, no default by Tenant exists hereunder of specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge. It is intended that nay such statements by Landlord may be relied upon by Tenant, its lenders or its permitted assignees.

23. Surrender. Upon the expiration of earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall peaceably leave and surrender the Leased Premises (except for any portion thereof with respect to which this Lease has previously terminated or with respect to which Tenant has purchased) to Landlord in the same condition in which the Leased Premises were originally received from Landlord at the commencement of this Lease, except as repaired, rebuilt, restored, altered, replaced or added to as permitted or required by any provision of this Lease, and except for ordinary wear and tear. Tenant shall remove from the Leased Premises on or prior to such expiration or earlier termination all property which is owned by Tenant or third parties other than Landlord and Tenant; and Tenant, at its expense, shall, on or prior to such expiration or earlier termination, repair any damage caused by such removal. Property not so removed shall become the property of Landlord; Landlord may thereafter cause such property to be removed from the Leased Premises; and the cost of removing and disposing of such property and repairing any damage to any of the Leased Premises caused by such removal shall be borne by Tenant. Landlord shall not in any manner or to any extent be obligated to reimburse Tenant for any such property which becomes the property of Landlord upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

24. Risk of Loss. The risk of loss or of decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of any of the Leased Premises in consequence of the damage or destruction thereof by fire, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, wars or otherwise, or in consequence of foreclosure, attachments, levies or executions, is assumed by Tenant, and Landlord shall in no event be answerable or accountable therefor. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, none of the events mentioned in this Paragraph shall entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

25. No Merger of Title. There shall be no merger of this Lease nor of the leasehold estate created by this Lease with the fee estate in or ownership of any of the Leased Premises by reason of the fact that the same Person may acquire or hold or own, directly or indirectly, (a) the leasehold estate created by this Lease or any part thereof or interest therein or any interest of Tenant in this Lease, and (b) the fee estate or ownership of any of the Leased Premises or any interest in such fee estate or ownership; and no such merger shall occur unless and until all Persons having any interest in (i) this Lease as Tenant or the leasehold estate created by this Lease and (ii) this Lease as Landlord or the fee estate in or ownership of the Leased Premises or any part thereof sought to be merged shall join in a written instrument effecting such merger and shall duly record the same.

26. Books and Records. Tenant shall permit Landlord and Lender by their respective agents, accountants and attorneys, to visit and inspect the Leased Premises and to discuss the finances and business with the officers of Tenant, at such reasonable times as may be requested by Landlord, and, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, to examine the records and books of account Tenant, at such reasonable times as may be requested by Landlord.

Tenant shall deliver to Landlord and to Lender (i) within thirty (30) days of the end of each calendar month the monthly management reports of Tenant for the prior calendar month and (ii) within ninety (90) days of the close of each fiscal year annual audited financial statements of Tenant prepared by independent certified public accountants satisfactory to Landlord, and such other relevant financial data as Landlord may reasonably require pertaining to Tenant or to the Leased Premises. Tenant shall also furnish to Landlord all filings, if any, of Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and other required filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any other Law. All financial statements of Tenant shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied and the annual statements hereinabove referred to shall be accompanied by an unqualified opinion of said accountants and by the affidavit of the president or a vice president of Tenant dated within five (5) days of the delivery of such statement, (a) stating that the affiant knows of no Event of Default or event which, upon notice or the passage of time or both, would become an Event of Default which has occurred and is continuing hereunder, or, if any such event has occurred and is continuing, specifying the nature and period of existence thereof and what action Tenant has taken or proposes to take with respect thereto and (b) except as otherwise specified, with respect to Tenant stating that Tenant has fulfilled all of its obligations under this Lease which are required to be fulfilled on or prior to the date of such affidavit.

27. Determination of Value.

(a) Whenever a determination of Fair Market Value is required pursuant to any provision of this Lease, such Fair Market Value shall be determined in accordance with the following procedure:

(i) Landlord and Tenant shall endeavor to agree upon such Fair Market Value within fifteen (15) days after the date (the "Applicable Initial Date") on which (A) Tenant provides Landlord with notice of its intention not to extend or to terminate this Lease as to the Affected Premises pursuant to Paragraph 13(b) or Paragraph 14(h) hereof of (B) Landlord provides Tenant with notice of its intention to require Tenant to make an offer to purchase the Selected Premises pursuant to Paragraph 19(b) (v) hereof, as applicable. Upon reaching such agreement, the parties shall execute an agreement setting forth the amount of such Fair Market Value.

(ii) If the parties shall not have signed such agreement setting forth the amount of such agreed Fair Market Value within fifteen (15) days after the Applicable Initial Date, Tenant shall within ten (10) days after the Applicable Initial Date select an appraiser and notify Landlord in writing of the name, address and qualifications of such appraiser. Within ten (10) days thereafter, Landlord shall select an appraiser and notify Tenant of the name, address and qualifications of such appraiser. The appraiser selected by Tenant and the appraiser selected by Landlord shall endeavor to agree upon the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, as of the date specified in the particular provision of this Lease (the "Applicable Provision") pursuant to which the determination of Fair Market Value is being made. If the said two appraisers shall agree upon such Fair Market Value, the amount of such Fair Market Value as agreed to by the said two appraisers shall be binding and conclusive.

(iii) If the appraiser selected by Tenant and the appraiser selected by Landlord shall be unable to agree upon such Fair Market Value within twenty (20) days after the selection of an appraiser by Landlord, then the said two appraisers shall select a third appraiser to make the determination of such Fair Market Value and the determination of such third appraiser shall be binding and conclusive upon Landlord and Tenant.

(iv) In the event the appraiser selected by Tenant and the appraiser selected by Landlord shall be unable to agree upon the designation of a third appraiser within ten (10) days after the expiration of the twenty (20) day period referred to in clause (iii) above or in the event the third appraiser so selected does not make a determination of the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises within twenty (20) days after his selection, then such third appraiser, or a substituted third appraiser, as applicable, shall, at the request of either party hereto, be appointed by the President or Chairman of the American Arbitration Association in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The determination of Fair Market Value made by the third appraiser appointed pursuant hereto shall be made within twenty (20) days after such appointment. Fair Market Value shall be the average of the determination of Fair Market Value made by the third appraiser and the determination of Fair Market Value made by the appraiser whose determination of Fair Market Value is nearest to that of the third appraiser. Such average shall be binding and conclusive upon Landlord and Tenant.

(v) All appraisers selected or appointed pursuant to this Paragraph 27(a) shall be independent qualified appraisers. Such appraisers shall have no right, power or authority to alter or modify the provisions of this Lease and in determining the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Leased Premises or the Leased Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, such appraisers shall utilize the definition of Fair Market Value hereinabove set forth above.

(b) The cost of the appraiser selected by Tenant shall be paid by Tenant and the cost of the appraiser selected by Landlord shall be paid by Landlord; the cost of a third appraisal, if required, will be split equally between Landlord and Tenant.

(c) If, by virtue of any delay in the appointment of a third appraiser pursuant to Paragraph 27(a) (iv) above or of any delay by such appointed third appraiser to determine such Fair Market Value, the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, is not determined by such appointed third appraiser within one hundred forty (140) days after the Applicable Initial Date, then the date (the "Applicable Final Date") on which the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, would otherwise be sold to Tenant or on which this Lease would otherwise terminate, as specified in the Applicable Provision, shall be extended the same number of days (the "Delay Period") by which the total period so required for the binding and conclusive determination of Fair Market Value exceeds one hundred forty (140) days and all relevant defined terms used in the Applicable Provision shall be deemed amended accordingly, anything to the contrary in the Applicable Provision notwithstanding. In addition, any time period which is afforded Landlord under the Applicable Provision within which to accept or reject an offer by Tenant shall likewise be extended by the number of days equal to the Delay Period.

28. Financing.

(a) Tenant shall pay, within three (3) business days of written demand therefore, all out of pocket costs (including but not limited to closing costs, title charges, commitment or application fees, and attorneys' fees), not to exceed $50,000 in the aggregate (other than the principal of the Note and interest thereon at the contract rate of interest specified therein), imposed upon Landlord by Lender pursuant to the initial Loan to Landlord evidenced by a Note and secured by a Mortgage constituting a first lien on the Leased Premises provided that Landlord obtains such Loan no later than the fourth (4th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date.

(b) In the event that Landlord desires to obtain a Loan to be secured any of the Leased Premises, Tenant shall negotiate in good faith with Landlord concerning any request made by the proposed mortgagee for changes or modifications in this Lease. Tenant shall not unreasonably withhold or delay its consent to such financing, and Tenant hereby agrees that Tenant shall provide any other consent or statement and shall execute any and all other documents that any proposed mortgagee requires in connection with such financing, so long as the same do not materially adversely affect any right, benefit or privilege of Tenant under this Lease or increase the Rent or other obligations of Tenant hereunder.

29. Non-Recourse as to Landlord. Anything contained herein to the
contrary notwithstanding, any claim based on or in respect of any liability of Landlord under this Lease shall be enforced only against the Leased Premises and not against any other assets, properties or funds of (a) Landlord, (b) any director, officer, general partner, limited partner, employee or agent of Landlord or any general partner of Landlord (or any legal representative, heir, estate, successor or assign of any thereof), (c) any predecessor or successor partnership or corporation (or other entity) of Landlord or any general partner of Landlord, either directly or through Landlord or its general partners or any predecessor or successor partnership or corporation (or other entity) of Landlord or any general partner of Landlord, or (d) any other Person or entity (including Eighth Carey Corporate Property, Inc., W. P. Carey & Co. Inc., Carey Corporate Property Management, Inc., Clark & Pendleton Realty Corp. or any Person affiliated with any of the foregoing, or any director, officer, employee or agent of any thereof).

30. Substitution and Exchange of Property. If the Board of Directors of Tenant determines, in good faith, that any one or more of the New Orleans Premises, the San Antonio Premises or the Memphis Premises (any one or more of which that is determined to be uneconomically viable as provided hereunder being hereinafter referred to as the "Existing Property") is no longer economically viable for Tenant's continued use and operation for any reason, including, but not limited to, unprofitability, obsolescence or change in zoning regulations; then Tenant shall have the right, during the Term of this Lease or any renewal hereof, to convey to Landlord a substitute property (the "Substitute Property") and lease the Substitute Property back from Landlord on the terms and conditions provided herein in exchange for the conveyance to Tenant of the Existing Property and the termination of the Lease with respect to such Existing Property (the "Exchange"), upon the terms and conditions set forth herein. In the event that Tenant elects to exercise such right, Tenant shall give written notice to Landlord and Lender, which notice shall contain (i) a resolution of Board of Directors of Tenant stating that the Existing Property is no longer economically viable and setting forth in reasonable detail the reasons for such determination; (ii) a description and MAI Appraisal of the Substitute Property; (iii) such relevant data as Landlord may request demonstrating the economic viability of the Substitute Property; (iv) Tenant's offer to convey the Substitute Property to Landlord and Lease back the Substitute Property in exchange for Landlord conveying the Existing Property to Tenant and terminating the Lease with respect to the Existing Property; and (v) notice to Landlord of Tenant's intention to affect the Exchange on the first Basic Rent Payment Date occurring at least ninety (90) days after the date on which Landlord receives such notice (the "Exchange Date").

Landlord (if Landlord obtains the written consent of Lender) shall accept or reject Tenant's offer of the Substitute Property not later than the thirtieth (30th) day prior to the Exchange Date; and Landlord shall accept such offer if Landlord (in its reasonable discretion) receives and approves all items listed in the foregoing paragraph. If Landlord, with the written consent of Lender, has accepted Tenant's offer and if on the Exchange Date all conditions and requirements imposed by Landlord and Lender in connection with the acceptance of Tenant's offer of substitution have been satisfied, including, but not limited to, (i) the approval of Landlord, Lender and their respective counsel of all documents relating to the Exchange; (ii) all installments of annual Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other charges due and unpaid hereunder having been paid in full by Tenant; (iii) Tenant's compliance with all other obligations and liabilities, actual or contingent, under this Lease which have arisen on or prior to the Exchange Date and Tenant not then being in default hereunder; (iv) delivery to Landlord and Lender, respectively, of ALTA "owner" and "mortgagee" title insurance policies insuring Landlord's fee title to the Substitute Property and Lender's first lien thereon; and (v) Tenant's conveyance of the Substitute Property to Landlord, the lease back of the Substitute Property to Tenant, and the mortgaging of the Substitute Property to Lender; then the Existing Property shall be conveyed to Tenant in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16(a) and all obligations hereunder with respect to the Existing Property shall terminate, except for any obligations or liabilities of Tenant, actual or contingent, arising prior to such conveyance.

Tenant shall pay all charges incident to the Exchange, regardless of whether or not the Exchange occurs, including, but not limited to, Landlord's and lender's counsel fees, escrow fees, recording fees, brokerage fees, title insurance and all federal, state and local taxes which may be incurred or imposed by reason of such conveyance and transfer and/or by delivery of any deed or other instrument.

31. Financial Covenant. Tenant shall not sell, assign or transfer its interest in this Lease and shall not permit a Change in Control of Tenant to an entity which, immediately following such sale, transfer, assignment or Change in Control has a Tangible Net Worth of less than $18,996,000 or a secured debt to equity ratio of greater than 4:1.

"Tangible Net Worth" as used herein shall mean as of any date the excess of (A) the aggregate gross book value of all assets of Tenant or any other entity, as the case may be, as of such date (excluding all franchises, licenses, permits, drawings, patents, patent applications, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, goodwill, experimental or organizational expenses and all other assets which, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, are deemed intangible) over (B) the aggregate of all liabilities of Tenant or such other entity as of such date, all computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Change in Control" as used herein shall mean as of any date (i) a sale of all or substantially all of the Tenant's assets to any Person or related group of Persons as an entirety or substantially as an entirety in one transaction or series of transactions, (ii) the merger or consolidation of the Tenant with or into another corporation or the merger of another corporation into the Tenant or the sale of the stock of Tenant with the effect that Guarantor holds less than 51% of the total voting power entitled to vote in the election of directors, managers or trustees of the surviving corporation of such merger or consolidation (any nonvoting common stock now outstanding or issued after the date hereof of the surviving corporation having terms substantially similar to the Tenant's nonvoting common stock shall be considered voting stock for purposes of this provision) or holds less than 51% of the total voting power entitled to vote in the election of directors, managers or trustees of Tenant following such sale or (iii) the liquidation or dissolution of the Tenant.

32. Subordination. Tenant agrees that this Lease and its interest hereunder shall be subordinate to any mortgage, deed of trust, and/or other security instrument hereafter placed upon the Leased Premises by the Landlord, and to any and all advances made or to be made thereunder, to the interest thereon, and all renewals, replacements and extensions thereof provided that any such instrument (or separate instrument in recordable form duly executed by the holder of any such mortgage, deed of trust or security instrument and delivered to Tenant) shall provide for the recognition of this Lease and the non-disturbance of all of Tenant's rights hereunder until such time as Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease pursuant to any applicable provisions of Paragraph 19 hereof.

33. First Refusal Right.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (c) below, if Landlord should desire to sell or shall receive an offer for its interest in any one or more of the Memphis Premises, the New Orleans Premises and/or the San Antonio Premises (any one or more of which Landlord desires to sell or for which Landlord receives an offer being hereinafter referred to as the "Sale Premises") prior to the tenth (10th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date as subject to this Lease, then subject to the limitation set forth in subparagraph (d) below Landlord first shall be required (i) either to obtain a bona fide written offer to purchase the Sale Premises acceptable to Landlord or to enter a contract for sale of the Sale Premises to Landlord or to enter a contract for sale of the Sale Premises conditioned upon Tenant's failure to exercise its right under this subparagraph (a), and (ii) to give written notice to Tenant of the offer (and Landlord's willingness to accept the same) or contract for sale accompanied by a copy of the executed offer or contract together with the name and business address of the prospective purchaser ("Third Party Purchaser"). For a period of fifteen (15) business days following receipt of such notice and provided that Basic Rent shall be current at the time of the exercise of such right of first refusal, Tenant shall have the right and option, exercisable by written notice to landlord given within said fifteen (15) business days period to purchase Landlord's interest in the Sale Premises at the purchase price and upon the terms and conditions set forth in such written offer or agreement, subject in addition, to the provisions of Paragraph 16(a) hereof. The closing date for the purchase shall be the later to occur of (i) ninety (90) days from the date of Tenant's notice to Landlord or (ii) the closing date provided in the applicable contract of sale or offer to purchase. If at the expiration of the aforesaid fifteen (15) day period, Tenant shall have failed to exercise the aforesaid option, Landlord's interest in the Sale Premises may be sold for the consideration, to the Third Party Purchaser, and upon the terms and conditions set forth in the original offer or agreement of sale provided the sale is consummated with a period of one hundred eighty (180) days after the giving of the original notice to Tenant pursuant to subparagraph (a) (ii) above.

(b) If Tenant does not exercise its option to purchase any Sale Premises, then Tenant agrees that (i) the Lease is bifurcated with respect to remaining Leased Premises and the Sale Premises; (ii) Tenant will attorn to any Third Party Purchaser as Landlord with respect to the Sale Premises purchased so long as the third Party Purchaser assumes the obligations of Landlord under the Lease; and (iii) the terms of the Lease will remain in full force and effect with respect to the Sale Premises except that the Basic Rent will be that percentage of the then Basic Rent which is allocated to the Sale Premises as set forth on Exhibit "F" attached hereto and made a part hereof. At the request of Landlord, Tenant will promptly execute such documents confirming (i) that, if the sale occurs after the fifth (5th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date its option to purchase the Sale Premises is null and void, (ii) the agreements referred to above and (iii) such other agreements as Landlord may reasonably request provided that such do not increase the liabilities and obligations of Tenant hereunder.

(c) The provisions of subparagraph (a) shall not apply to or prohibit -(i) any mortgaging, subjection to deed of trust or other hypothecation of Landlord's interest in the leased private power of sale under or judicial foreclosure of any mortgage, deed of trust or other security instrumunent or devise to which Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises is now or hereafter subject, (iii) any transfer or Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises to a mortgage, beneficiary under deed of trust or other holder of a security interest therein by deed in lieu of foreclosure, or (iv) any transfer of the Leased Premises to an Affiliate of Landlord or (v) to any governmental or quasi-governmental agency with power of condemnation.

(d) If Landlord elects to sell any one or more of the Memphis Premises, New Orleans Premises or Tulsa Premises prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date and Tenant does not elect to purchase such Sale Premises, Tenant shall have one (1) additional first refusal right for the initial offer or contract of sale with respect to such Sale Premises which occurs during the period which commences with the fifth (5th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date and terminates on the one hundred twenty-seventh (127th) Basic Rent Payment Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Paragraph 33, the first of first refusal granted by this Paragraph 33 shall terminate and be null and void with respect to the Leased Premises upon the earlier to occur of (i) the one-hundred twenty seventh (127th) Basic Rent Payment Date or (ii) the termination of this Lease.

34. Miscellaneous. As used in this Lease, the singular shall include the plural as the context requires and the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings: (a) "including" shall mean "including but not limited to"; (b) "provisions" shall mean "provisions, terms, agreements, covenants and/or conditions"; (c) "lien" shall mean "lien, charge, encumbrance, title retention agreement, pledge, security interest, mortgage and/or deed of trust"; (d) "obligation" shall mean "obligation, duty, agreement, liability, covenant and/or condition"; (e) "any of the Leased Premises" shall mean "the Leased Premises or any part thereof or interest therein"; (f) "any of the Land" shall mean "the Land or any part thereof or interest therein"; (g) "any of the Improvements" shall mean "the Improvements or any part thereof or interest therein"; (h) "any of the Equipment" shall mean "the Equipment or any part thereof or interest therein"; and (i) "any of the Adjoining Property" shall mean "the Adjoining Property or any part thereof or interest therein". Any act which Landlord is permitted to perform under this Lease may be performed at any time and from time to time by Landlord or any Person or entity designated by Landlord. Any act which Tenant is required to perform under this Lease shall be performed at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Each appointment of Landlord as attorney-in-fact for Tenant under this Lease is irrevocable and coupled with an interest. Landlord shall in no event be construed for any purpose to be a partner, joint venturer or associate of Tenant or of any subtenant, operator, concessionaire or licensee of Tenant with respect to any of the Leased Premises or otherwise in the conduct of their respective businesses. This Lease and any documents which may be executed by Tenant on or about the effective date hereof at Landlord's request constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede all prior understandings and agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties hereto relating to the Leased Premises and the transactions provided for herein. This Lease may be modified, amended, discharged or waived only by an agreement in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of any such modification, amendment, discharge or waiver is sought. The covenants of this Lease shall run with the land and bind Tenant, the heirs, distributees, Personal representatives, successors and assigns of Tenant, and all present and subsequent encumbrancers and subtenants of any of the Leased Premises, and shall inure to the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns. In the event there is more than one Tenant, the obligations of each shall be joint and several. BASIC RENT PAYMENTS

1. Basic Rent. Subject to the adjustments provided for in Paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 below, Basic Rent payable in respect of the Term shall be $523,600 per annum, payable monthly in advance on each Basic Rent Payment Date, in equal monthly installments of $43,633.33 each.

2. CPI Adjustments to Basic Rent. Basic Rent shall be subject to adjustment, in the manner hereinafter set forth, for increases in the index known as United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Consumer Price Index, All Urban Consumers, United States City Average, All Items, (1982-84-100) ("CPI") or the successor index that most closely approximates the CPI. If the CPI shall be discontinued with no successor or comparable successor index, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to agree upon a substitute index or formula, but if they are unable to so agree, then the matter shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then prevailing in New York City. Any decision or award resulting from such arbitration shall be final and binding upon Landlord and Tenant and judgment thereon may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. In no event will the Basic Rent as adjusted from the CPI adjustment be less than the Basic Rent in effect for the five (5) year period immediately preceding such adjustment.

3. Effective Dates of CPI Adjustments. Basic Rent shall not be adjusted to reflect changes in the CPI until the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Basic Rent Payment Date on which the first monthly installment of Basic Rent shall be due and payable (the "First Full Basic Rent Payment Date"). 4. Method of Adjustment for CPI Adjustment.

(a) As of each Basic Rent Adjustment Date when the average CPI determined in clause (i) below exceeds the Beginning CPI (as defined in this Paragraph 4(a)), the Basic Rent in effect immediately prior to the applicable Basic Rent Adjustment Date (subject to adjustment as provided in the following subparagraph 4(b)) shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the difference between (i) the average CPI for the three

(3) most recent calendar months (the "Prior Months") ending prior to such Basic Rent Adjustment Date for which the CPI has been published on or before the forty-fifth (45th) day preceding such Basic Rent Adjustment Date and (ii) the Beginning CPI, and the denominator of which shall be the Beginning CPI. The product of such multiplication shall be added to the Basic Rent in effect immediately prior to such Basic Rent Adjustment Date. The Beginning CPI shall mean the average CPI for the three (3) calendar months corresponding to the Prior Months, but occurring five (5) years earlier. If the average CPI determined in clause (i) is the same or less than the Beginning CPI, the Basic Rent will remain the same for the ensuing five (5) year period.

EXHIBIT "D"
BASIC RENT PAYMENTS

1. Basic Rent. Basic Rent payable for the period from December 20, 1988 to and including December 31, 1993 was $523,600 per annum, payable monthly in advance on each Basic Rent Payment Date, in equal monthly installments of $43,633.33 each. Following the first adjustment provided for in Paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 below, Basic Rent for the period from January 1, 1994 to and including March 28, 1995 was $635,283 per annum payable in monthly installments of $52,940.25. Subject to the adjustments provided for in Paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 below, Basic Rent from March 29, 1995 through the balance of the Term shall be $812,500 per annum, payable monthly in advance on each Basic Rent Payment Date, in equal monthly installments of $67,708.33.

2. CPI Adjustments to Basic Rent. Basic Rent shall be subject to adjustment, in the manner hereinafter set forth, for increases in the index known as United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Consumer Price Index, All Urban Consumers, United States City Average, All Items, (1982-84=100) ("CPI") or the successor index that most closely approximates the CPI. If the CPI shall be discontinued with no successor or comparable successor index, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to agree upon a substitute index or formula, but if they are unable to so agree, then the matter shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then prevailing in New York City. Any decision or award resulting from such arbitration shall be final and binding upon Landlord and Tenant and judgment thereon may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. In no event will the Basic Rent as adjusted from the CPI adjustment be less than the Basic Rent in effect for the five (5) year immediately preceding such adjustment.

3. Effective Dates of CPI Adjustments. As of January 1, 1999, January 1, 2004, January 1, 2009, and if the Term is extended, January 1, 2014, January 1, 2019 and January 1, 2024, Basic Rent shall be adjusted to reflect increases in the CPI during the most recent five (5) year period immediately preceding each of the foregoing dates (each such date being hereinafter referred to as the "Basic Rent Adjustment Date").

4. Method of Adjustment for CPI Adjustment.

(a) As of each Basic Rent Adjustment Date when the average CPI determined in clause (i) below exceeds the Beginning CPI (as defined in this Paragraph 4 (a)), the Basic Rent in effect immediately prior to the applicable Basic Rent Adjustment Date (subject to adjustment as provided in the following subparagraph 4(b)) shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the difference between (i) the average CPI for the three

(3) most recent calendar months (the "Prior Months") ending prior to such Basic Rent Adjustment Date for which the CPI has been published on or before the forty-fifth (45th) day preceding such Basic Rent Adjustment Date and (ii) the Beginning CPI, and the denominator of which shall be the Beginning CPI. The product of such multiplication shall be added to the Basic Rent in effect immediately prior to such Basic Rent Adjustment Date. The Beginning CPI shall mean the average CPI for the three (3) calendar months corresponding to the Prior Months, but occurring five (5) years earlier. If the average CPI determined in clause (i) is the same or less than the Beginning CPI, the Basic Rent will remain the same for the ensuing five (5) year period.

By way of example:

Second Basic Rent Adjustment Date: January 1, 1999
Basic Rent in Effect: $812,500
Assume Average CPI for Prior Months - 145.20
Assume Beginning CPI - 119.67

$$812.500 \times \frac{145.20-119.67}{119.67}$$

812.500 x .2133=$173,336.05

Basic Rent as of January 1, 1999=$985,836.05

(b) Effective as of a given Basic Rent Adjustment Date, Basic Rent payable under this Lease until the next succeeding Basic Rent Adjustment Date shall be the Basic Rent in effect after the adjustment provided for as of such Basic Rent Adjustment Date.

(c) Notice of the new annual Basic Rent shall be delivered to Tenant on or before the thirtieth (30th) day preceding each Basic Rent

THIS INDENTURE, made and entered into this 22nd day of February , 1988 .

W I T N E S S E T H:

NORTHTOWN DEVCO, a Missouri General Partnership of Kansas City, Missouri, "Landlord", hereby leases unto STATIONER'S DISTRIBUTING COMPANY 4055 International Plaza, Fort Worth, Texas 76109 "Tenant", and the Tenant accepts the premises known as:

1606 Linn Street, the leased premises located in that certain warehouse on Linn Street consisting of 77,244 square feet, as outlined in red on the attached floor plan marked Exhibit "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof in North Kansas City, Clay County, Missouri, for the TERM of Seven (7) Years and Three (3) Months , commencing March 1 , 1988 , and ending May 31 , 1995 , unless sooner terminated as provided herein, to be occupied and used by Tenant for the sole purpose of: General offices, warehousing and distribution of office furniture, supplies and related items of Tenant's products.

IN CONSIDERATION THEREOF, THE PARTIES COVENANT AND AGREE:

1. RENT. Tenant shall pay to Landlord at the offices of Leo Eisenberg Co., 1101 Walnut, Suite 800, Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri 64106, or elsewhere as designated from time to time by Landlord's notice, the sum of One Million Three Hundred Twelve Thousand One Hundred Eighty and 77/100 ---------- DOLLARS ($ 1,312,180.77) in installments as follows:

Commencing March 1, 1988, and ending May 31, 1989, (15 months) the monthly rental shall be Thirteen Thousand Three Hundred Twenty Four and 59/100 Dollars ($13,324.59).

Commencing June 1, 1989, and ending May 31, 1991, (24 months) the monthly rental shall be Fourteen Thousand One Hundred Sixty One and 33/100 Dollars ($14,161.33).

Commencing June 1, 1991, and ending May 31, 1993, (24 months) the monthly rental shall be Fifteen Thousand Four Hundred Forty Eight and 80/100 Dollars (15,448.80).

Commencing June 1, 1993, and ending May 31, 1995, (24 months) the monthly rental shall be Sixteen Thousand Seven Hundred Thirty Six and 20/100 Dollars ($16,736.20).

The annual rent shall be payable in equal monthly installments, without deduction or set off, each such monthly installment due and payable to Landlord on the first day of each and every month of the term hereof in advance. Any rentals or other payments (hereinafter sometimes referred to as "additional rent") required by this Lease not received by Landlord within ten (10) days after the due date set forth herein shall be subject to a late charge of five percent (5%) of the amount thereof for each month or portion of a month during which said rental remains unpaid plus interest on the past due amount from the due date thereof to the date of payment at a rate (the "Default Rate") equal to the lesser of (i) 2% in excess of the prime rate from time to time announced by The Mercantile Bank of Kansas City (or its successor) or (ii) the highest lawful rate that may be charged to Tenant under the laws of the state in which the premises are located. Failure by Tenant to pay said late charge within ten (10) days after receipt of notice from Landlord that it is due shall constitute a default of this Lease by Tenant.

TT:_____

2. SECURITY DEPOSIT. Tenant agrees to deposit on the date hereof the sum of ---------- N/A ---------- Dollars ($ N/A), which sum - ---------- ---------- shall be held by Landlord, without obligation for interest, as security for the performance of Tenant's covenants and obligations under this Lease; it being expressly understood that such deposit is not an advance rental deposit or a measure of Landlord's damages in case of Tenant's default. Upon the occurrence of any event of default by Tenant, Landlord may, from time to time, without prejudice to any other remedy provided herein or provided by law, use such fund to the extent necessary to make good any such default, or any damage, expense, or liability caused by such default, and Tenant shall promptly pay to Landlord on demand the amount as applied in order to restore the security deposit to its original amount. Failure of Tenant to restore the security deposit, as set forth above, within ten (10) days from demand by Landlord shall constitute an act of default under this Lease. Should Tenant comply with all the covenants and conditions under the Lease, the security deposit or any balance thereof shall be returned to the Tenant at the expiration of the term provided Tenant shall have made all such payments and performed all covenants and agreements. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the amount of any claim, demand or cause of action of Landlord against Tenant under the provisions of this Lease.

3. SERVICE. All utility services used in or assessed against the premises shall be paid for and contracted for in the name of Tenant.

4. REAL ESTATE TAXES. In the event the general real estate taxes, assessments and other similar charges, levies, fees or excises (whether general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, or foreseen or unforeseen) (the "Real Estate Taxes") on the premises hereinbefore described for the calendar year 1981 , or any thereafter, exceeds the Real Estate Taxes for the calendar year 1980 , the
----
Tenant agrees to pay to the Landlord the full amount of such increase as additional rent within thirty (30) days after notice that the same is due. Should Tenant occupy less than the whole of the property against which such taxes are assessed, the Tenant agrees to pay, as additional rental, a percentage of the said increase based on the ratio of square footage of floor area in the demised premises to the total square footage of the floor area of the building or buildings included in the tax bill, during the calendar year to which the increased tax bill applies. Tenant shall have the right to inspect any real estate tax bill involved in Landlord's request for such additional rental. The Real Estate Taxes payable by Tenant for the years in which this lease commences and terminates shall be prorated.

5. INSURANCE. Tenant shall cause Landlord, as well as any entity named by Landlord and in privity with Landlord, to be named as "Additional Insured" in a comprehensive public liability insurance policy to be carried by the Tenant covering the premises during the term of the lease or any extension thereof with limits not less than One Million and no/100 Dollars ($1,000,000.00) (combined single limit bodily injury and property damage). Such policy shall also include a contractual endorsement insuring Tenant's indemnity obligations set forth in paragraphs 8 and 10 of this lease. Tenant shall furnish the Landlord with a certificate of said insurance coverage. Said certificate shall affirmatively agree that Tenant's policy shall not be cancelled, materially amended or allowed to lapse without ten (10) days prior written notice to Landlord. Tenant shall comply with all insurance regulations so the lowest insurance rates consistent with the use of the premises permitted by this Lease may be obtained, and shall not permit anything on or about the leased premises which would make void or voidable any insurance now or hereafter maintained on the premises by Landlord or Tenant. If, during the term of this lease, the hazard insurance rates of Landlord are increased, or the amount of insurance coverage Landlord is required to maintain is increased by reason of Tenant's use of the premises, Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord for the amount of such increased insurance premium in any year of the lease term in excess of the insurance premium covering the premises for the calendar year 1986 . Proration shall be made for partial

6. MULTIPLE TENANCY BUILDING. Tenant's responsibility for reimbursements, as called for this Paragraph of this lease, shall be for payment of Tenant's percentage share of such reimbursements based upon the percentage of floor space as calculated by Landlord from time to time, that Tenant occupies in the building or buildings included within the area subject to the reimbursement charge of this paragraph.

Following execution of this Lease, and prior to the commencement of each calendar year during the term of this lease, Landlord shall notify Tenant of the estimated annual amount of Tenant's percentage of the reimbursements called for in this Paragraph, and Tenant shall pay one-twelfth (1/12th) of said estimated amount as additional rent with each monthly installment of base rent due under this lease. Tenant shall pay the balance due, if any, upon receipt of statement therefor, or shall receive credit for any excess paid by Tenant during the previous year.

Tenant agrees to conduct its business in a manner that will not be objectionable to other tenants in the building of which the premises are a part, including noise, vibration, odor, or fumes. In the event Landlord receives complaints from other tenants in the building and determines, in its sole reasonable judgment, that Tenant is conducting its operations in a manner so as to be objectionable to other tenants, Tenant agrees, upon notice from Landlord thereof, to promptly modify the conduct of its operations to eliminate such objectionable operations.

7. POSSESSION AND CONDITION AT BEGINNING OF TERM. Landlord shall use due diligence to give possession as nearly as possible at the beginning of the term of this Lease, and rent shall abate pro rata for the period of any delay in so doing. Tenant shall make no other claims against Landlord for such delay. Tenant has inspected and knows the condition of the premises and accepts the same in their present "as is" condition. Tenant acknowledges that neither Landlord, nor Landlord's agent, has made any representations or warranties concerning the premises or their suitability for Tenant's use, except as is set forth in this Lease.

8. PUBLIC REQUIREMENTS. Tenant shall comply with all laws, ordinances, governmental orders and regulations and other requirements now and hereafter affecting the premises or the use thereof, including but not limited to all recorded covenants and restrictions, if any, and all rules and regulations of Landlord's hazard and liability insurance carrier, and all governmental requirements requiring replacements, additions, repairs and alterations to those portions of the premises constructed by Tenant and to those portions of the premises which Tenant is required to maintain under Section 13 of this lease, and shall save and hold Landlord harmless from expense or damage resulting from failure to do so.

9. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING. (a) Tenant shall not sell, assign, mortgage, pledge, encumber, or in any manner transfer the lease, or any interest therein, or agree to do so; permit any transfer of or lien upon this lease or any interest therein by operation of law; sublet the premises, or any part thereof, or permit the occupancy of the leased premises, or any part thereof, by anyone other than Tenant without the prior written consent of Landlord. With respect to any permitted assignment or subletting, such assignee or sublessee shall be bound by and shall perform all of the terms, conditions and covenants by which the Tenant hereunder is bound. Consent by Landlord to one assignment or subletting of the leased premises, or any part thereof, shall not constitute a waiver of Landlord's rights hereunder, including but not limited to consent to any future assignment or subletting. Any assignment or subletting, notwithstanding the consent of Landlord, shall not in any manner release the Tenant herein from its continued liability for the performance of the provisions of this lease and any amendments or modifications. The acceptance of any rental payments by Landlord from any alleged assignee shall not constitute approval of the assignment of this lease by the Landlord. (b) If at any time during the term a cumulative total of more than 49% of the voting stock of Tenant (if Tenant shall be a corporation) shall be transferred, directly or indirectly, by sale, assignment, gift or in any other manner, any such transfer shall, unless made with Landlord's prior consent, be deemed an unauthorized assignment of this lease and a default by Tenant under this lease. (c) Landlord shall have the right to sell, convey or transfer all or any part of its interest in this lease, and all covenants and obligations of Landlord under this lease accruing thereafter shall cease, but such covenants and obligations shall run with the land and shall be binding upon the subsequent owners or assignees thereof.

10. LIABILITY. Tenant hereby relinquishes all claims, releases, assumes all risks and agrees to hold Landlord harmless from any liability for any damage done or occasioned by Tenant's use of the premises or by or from any plumbing, wiring, gas, water, steam, sprinkler system, equipment or other pipes, or the bursting, leaking or running of any tank, washstand, water closet, waste pipe or other articles in, above, upon or about the building or premises, or for damage occasioned from or by water, snow or ice being upon, above or about the premises unless caused by the intentional act of Landlord.

Landlord and Tenant hereby expressly waive any cause of action or right of recovery which either may have hereafter against the other for any loss or damage to the leased premises, or to the contents thereof, from all claims and liabilities arising from or caused by any hazard that could be covered by a standard fire insurance policy with extended coverage and "all risk" endorsement on the premises, or on the contents thereof, (whether or not such insurance is, in fact, so maintained) and each party hereto shall, to the extent reasonably obtainable, obtain a waiver from any insurance carrier with which it carries insurance covering the leased premises, or the contents thereof, releasing its subrogation rights as against the other party, and upon request by either party evidence of said waiver shall be furnished by each party hereto to the other party.

Tenant agrees to save, defend and hold Landlord harmless from any claim, damage, liability or expense arising from any injury (including death) to persons or damage to property occurring in, on or about the premises, occurring from any use of the premises or any part thereof, or occurring from the failure of Tenant to comply with the terms of this lease, including, without limitation, those set forth in Section 34.

All merchandise and property in or about the premises shall be at Tenant's sole duty and risk and Tenant does hereby now and forever relinquish all claims, release and agree to hold Landlord harmless from any claims or damages thereto or any of same, howsoever caused.

11. UNTENANTABILITY. In the event the leased premises shall be destroyed or so damaged by fire, explosion, windstorm or other casualty as to be wholly or partially untenantable, Landlord may restore the leased premises within a reasonable time after such destruction or damage, or may terminate this lease and the term demised as of the date of the destruction or damage, in either case by giving Tenant notice within thirty (30) days after the date of the destruction or damage, and the rent shall abate on a per diem thirty-day month basis during the period of restoration.

In the event the leased premises shall be damaged as aforesaid but are not thereby rendered untenantable, Landlord shall (but only to the extent of the insurance proceeds actually received by Landlord on account thereof) restore the leased premises with reasonable dispatch, and while such damage is being repaired, Tenant shall be entitled to an equitable abatement of the rent as determined by Landlord provided that if the leased premises must be restored and repaired by Landlord within ninety (90) days following such damage, Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease. Landlord shall not be liable or responsible for any delays in rebuilding or repairing due to labor controversies, riots, acts of God, national emergency, acts of a public enemy, governmental laws or regulations, inability to procure materials or labor, or both, or any other cause beyond its control.

12. MAINTENANCE BY LANDLORD. Landlord shall keep in repair, ordinary wear and tear excepted, only the roof, foundations, exterior walls (exclusive of inside surfaces, glass, dock bumpers, levelers or doors therein), gutters and downspouts, but Tenant shall be responsible for any of the foregoing repairs resulting from Tenant's negligence or abuse. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the cost of repairing any damage to exterior walls, canopies, gutters or downspouts damaged by Tenant or Tenant's invitees (e.g., delivery trucks, etc.). Before any obligation on Landlord to make repairs, Landlord shall first be given written notice of any defects and shall have a reasonable time thereafter to make such repair. Landlord shall not be liable, beyond the actual cost of any repairs Landlord fails to make within a reasonable time after such written notice, for any failure to make such repairs.

LL:_____

TT:_____

13. MAINTENANCE BY TENANT. Subject to the foregoing obligation of Landlord, Tenant agrees to take good care of the premises and the equipment and fixtures therein (including replacement of parts and components of heating and air conditioning equipment) and shall keep the same in good working order and condition, including, without limitation, the water pipes, electrical heating and air conditioning equipment, plumbing, windows, doors, frames, glass, and dock bumpers, dividing walls, all interior and office decoration, entrance and exit doors and locks, overhead doors, fixtures, appliances, unit heaters and sprinkler system, and shall keep the premises and approaches, sidewalks and the alleys adjacent thereto, if any, clean and sightly and free from ice and snow (including policing the grounds if they are included in the premises). In addition, Tenant shall repair any damage to the parking area in front of or immediately adjacent to the demised premises which is due to Tenant's negligence. At the expiration of the term, Tenant shall (i) surrender the premises broom clean and in good condition and repair, subject to ordinary wear and tear; and (ii) at its expense, remove all of "Tenant's Property" from the leased premises, such removal to be in accordance with all applicable governmental laws and codes. All damage or injury to the premises not caused by fire or other casualty and all damage to glass, windows and doors shall be promptly repaired by Tenant.

14. ALTERATIONS AND INSTALLATIONS. Tenant shall not make any alterations in or additions to the leased premises nor make any contract therefor, without first procuring Landlord's written consent and delivering to Landlord the plans, specifications, names and addresses of contractors, copies of proposed contracts and the necessary permits, all in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord, and furnishing indemnification against liens, costs, damages and expenses as may be required by Landlord. All alterations, additions, improvements and fixtures, (other than Tenant's trade fixtures, signs and moveable furniture installed by Tenant at its sole cost and expense [collectively "Tenant's Property]), which may be made or installed by either Landlord or Tenant upon the leased premises shall be the property of Landlord and shall remain upon and be surrendered with the leased premises as a part thereof, without disturbance, molestation or injury at the termination of the term of this lease, whether by lapse of time or otherwise, all without compensation or credit to Tenant, provided, however, if prior to said termination or within fifteen (15) days thereafter, Landlord so directs by written notice to Tenant, Tenant shall promptly remove the additions, improvements, fixtures and installations which were placed in the leased premises by Tenant and which are designated in said notice, and repair any damage occasioned by such removals, and in default, thereof, Landlord may effect said removals and repairs, and Tenant will pay to Landlord, on demand, the reasonable cost thereof. Any linoleum or other floor covering that is cemented or otherwise adhesively affixed to the floor of the leased premises shall be deemed a non-trade fixture and become the property of the Landlord. All of Tenant's Property not removed by Tenant prior to the expiration of the lease shall, at Landlord's option, become the property of Landlord.

15. ACCESS TO PREMISES. Landlord reserves the right to enter upon the leased premises at all reasonable hours for the purpose of inspecting the same, or of making repairs, additions or alterations to the building in which the leased premises are located, to exhibit the leased premises to prospective tenants, purchasers, or others, to display during the last ninety (90) days of the term, without hindrance or molestation by Tenant, "For Rent" or similar signs on windows or doors in the leased premises. The exercise by Landlord of any of its rights under this section shall not be deemed an eviction or disturbance of Tenant's use and possession of the leased premises. Landlord agrees that, in making any such repairs, additions or alterations, it shall use reasonable efforts not to interfere with the conduct of Tenant's business operations.

16. SIGNS. Tenant shall not place on any exterior door, wall or window of the premises any sign or advertising matter without first obtaining Landlord's reasonable written approval and consent. Tenant agrees to maintain such sign or advertising matter as approved by Landlord in good condition and repair. All signs shall comply with applicable ordinances or other governmental restrictions and the determination of such requirements and the prompt compliance therewith shall be the responsibility of the Tenant.

17. DEFAULT AND REMEDIES. In the event (a) Tenant fails to comply with any term, provision, condition, or covenant of this lease including, without limitation, the payment of any rent or additional rent; (b) Tenant deserts or vacates the premises; (c) any petition is filed by or against Tenant under any section or chapter of the Federal Bankruptcy Act, as amended, or under any similar law or statute of the United States or any state thereof; (d) Tenant becomes insolvent or makes a transfer in fraud of creditors; (e) Tenant makes an assignment for benefit of creditors; or (f) a receiver is appointed for Tenant or any of the assets of Tenant, then in any of such events, Tenant shall be in default and the Landlord shall have the option, in addition to any other rights or remedies Landlord may have at law or in equity, to do any one or more of the following: upon ten (10) days prior written notice, except in the payment of rent or additional rent for which no demand or notice shall be necessary, in addition to and not in limitation of any other remedy permitted by law; to enter upon the demised premises or any part thereof either with or without process of law, and to expel, remove and put out Tenant or any other persons who might be thereon, together with all personal property found therein; and, Landlord may terminate this Lease, or it may from time to time, without terminating this Lease, relet said demised premises or any part thereof for such term or terms (which may be for a term extending beyond the term of this Lease) and at such rental or rentals and upon such other terms and conditions as Landlord in its sole discretion may deem advisable, with the right to repair, renovate, remodel, redecorate, alter and change said premises. At the option of Landlord, rents received by Landlord from such reletting shall be applied first to the payment of any indebtedness from Tenant to Landlord other than rent and additional rent due hereunder; second, to payment of any costs and expenses of such reletting, including but not limited to attorney's fees, advertising fees and brokerage fees, and to the payment of any repairs, renovation, remodeling, redecorations, alterations and changes in the premises; third, to the payment of rent and additional rent due and payable hereunder and interest thereon, and, if after applying said rentals there is any deficiency in the rent and additional rent and interest to be paid by Tenant under this Lease, Tenant shall pay any such deficiency to Landlord and such deficiency shall be calculated and collected by Landlord monthly. No such re-entry or taking possession of said premises shall be construed as an election on Landlord's part to terminate this Lease unless a written notice of such intention be given to Tenant. Notwithstanding any such reletting without termination, Landlord may at any time thereafter elect to terminate this Lease for such previous breach and default. Should Landlord at any time terminate this Lease by reason of any default, in addition to any other remedy it may have, it may recover from Tenant the worth, at the time of such termination, of the excess of the amount of rent and additional rent reserved in this Lease for the balance of the term hereof over the then reasonable rental value of the premises for the same period. Landlord shall have the right and remedy to seek redress in the courts at any time to correct or remedy any default of Tenant by injunction or otherwise, without such resulting or being deemed a termination of this Lease, and Landlord, whether this Lease has been or is terminated or not, shall have the absolute right, by court action or otherwise, to collect any and all amounts of unpaid rent or unpaid additional rent or any other sums due from Tenant to Landlord under this Lease which were or are unpaid at the date of termination. In case it should be necessary for Landlord to bring any action under this lease, to consult or place said lease or any amount payable by Tenant hereunder with an attorney concerning or for the enforcement of any of Landlord's rights hereunder, then Tenant agrees in each and any such case to pay to Landlord, Landlord's reasonable attorney's fees.

LL:_____

18. EMINENT DOMAIN. If the premises or any substantial part thereof shall be taken by any competent authority under the power of eminent domain or be acquired for any public or quasi-public use or purpose, the term of this lease shall cease and terminate upon the date when the possession of said premises or the part thereof so taken shall be required for such use or purpose and without apportionment of the award, and Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord for the value of any unexpired term of this lease. If any condemnation proceedings shall be instituted in which it is sought to take or damage any part of Landlord's building or the land under it, or if the grade of any street or alley adjacent to the building is changed by any competent authority and such change of grade makes it necessary or desirable to remodel the building to conform to the changes of grade, Landlord shall have the right to cancel this lease after having given written notice of cancellation to Tenant not less than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the date of cancellation designated in the notice. In either of said events, rent at the then current rate shall be apportioned as of the date of the termination. No money or other consideration shall be payable by the Landlord to the Tenant for the right of cancellation, and the Tenant shall have no right to share in the condemnation award or in any judgment for damages caused by the taking or the change of grade. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude an award being made to Tenant for loss of business or depreciation to and cost of removal of equipment or fixtures.

19. MECHANIC'S LIENS. Tenant will not permit any mechanic's liens, or other liens, to be placed upon the premises or any building or improvement thereon during the term hereof, and in case of the filing of any such lien, Tenant will promptly pay same; provided, however, that Tenant shall have the right to contest the validity or amount of any such lien upon posting security with Landlord which in Landlord's sole reasonable judgment is adequate to pay and discharge any such lien in full if held valid. If default in payment thereof shall continue for thirty (30) days after notice thereof from Landlord to Tenant, Landlord shall have the right and privilege at Landlord's option, of paying the same or any portion thereof without inquiry as to the validity thereof, and any amounts so paid, including expenses and interest, shall be immediately due by Tenant to Landlord and shall be paid promptly upon presentation of bill therefor.

LL:_____

TT:_____

20. MORTGAGES AND ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES. This lease shall be subject and subordinate to any mortgage or deed of trust now or at any time hereafter constituting a lien or charge upon the premises or the improvements situated thereon. Tenant shall, at any time hereafter, on demand, execute any instruments, releases or other documents which may be required by any such mortgagee for the purpose of subjecting and subordinating this lease to the lien of any such mortgage.

Tenant shall, at any time, and from time to time, upon not less than ten (10) days' prior request by Landlord, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord, a statement in writing certifying that (i) this lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications that the same is in full force and effect as modified and identifying the modifications), (ii) the dates to which the base rent and other charges have been paid, and (iii) Landlord is not in default under any provisions of this lease (or if there are defaults, specifying the defaults). It is intended that any such statements may be relied upon by any person proposing to acquire Landlord's interest in this lease or the premises, or any prospective mortgagee of, or assignee of any mortgage upon such interest in the premises.

21. GENERAL. No waiver of any default of Tenant hereunder shall be implied from any omission by Landlord to take any action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated, and no express waiver shall affect any default other than the default specified in the express waiver and that only for the time and to the extent therein stated. One or more waivers of any covenant, term or condition of this lease by Landlord shall not be construed as a waiver of a subsequent breach of the same covenant, term or condition. The consent or approval by Landlord to or of any act by Tenant requiring Landlord's consent or approval shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary Landlord's consent or approval to or of any subsequent similar act by Tenant. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision hereof shall not affect or impair any other provisions. If the Tenant shall occupy the premises prior to the beginning of the term of this lease with the Landlord's consent, all the provisions of this lease shall be in full force and effect as soon as the Tenant occupies the premises. The laws of the State of Missouri shall govern the validity, performance and enforcement of this lease. Submission of this instrument for examination does not constitute a reservation of or option for the premises. The instrument becomes effective as a lease upon execution and delivery by both Landlord and Tenant.

22. NOTICES. Any notice required or permitted under this lease shall be deemed sufficiently given or served if sent by registered or certified mail to Tenant at the address of the leased premises and to Landlord at the address then fixed for the payment of rent, and either party may be like notice at any time and from time to time designate a different address to which notices shall be sent. Notices given in accordance with these provisions shall be deemed received when mailed.

23. SUCCESSORS. All of the terms, covenants and conditions of this lease shall apply and inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon the parties hereto, and upon their respective successors in interest and legal representatives, except as otherwise provided herein.

24. QUIET POSSESSION. Landlord covenants with Tenant that said Tenant, on paying the rent herein required to be paid and performing the covenants herein contained, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the premises during the term of this lease without hindrance or interruption by Landlord or any other person or persons lawfully or equitably claiming by, through or under Landlord.

25. HOLDING OVER. If Tenant retains possession of the premises or any part thereof after the termination of the term by lapse of time or otherwise, Tenant shall pay Landlord at double the rate specified in Section 1, for the time Tenant thus remains in possession, and in addition thereto, shall pay Landlord all damages sustained by reason of Tenant's retention of possession. If Tenant remains in possession of the premises or any part thereof after termination of the term by lapse of time or otherwise, such holding over shall constitute a month-to-month tenancy. Landlord may terminate Tenant's month-to-month tenancy at any time with thirty (30) days written notice. Landlord's acceptance of any rent after holding over does not renew the lease. The provisions of this section do not waive Landlord's right of re-entry or any other right hereunder.

26. FLOOR LOADING. Tenant shall not overload the floors of the premises. In no event shall machinery be positioned so as to exert a floor load in excess of 1,000 pounds on any square foot. Landlord shall have the election either to repair any damage caused by overloading the floors or to require Tenant to repair such damage immediately after written demand to that effect is made to Tenant. If Tenant elects to repair the damage or if Tenant fails to do so immediately after demand by Landlord, the cost of all such repairs shall be paid to Landlord by Tenant upon demand.

27. USE OF PREMISES. (a) Tenant shall occupy and use the premises for the purpose above specified and none other. (b) Tenant shall not exhibit, sell or offer for sale, use, rent or exchange on the premises or in the building any article, thing or service except those ordinarily embraced within the stated use of the premises; and will not make or permit any use of the premises which directly or indirectly is forbidden by Public Law, ordinance or governmental or municipal regulation or order, or which may be dangerous to life, limb or property. (c) All vehicles stored or parked on premises must be operational and properly licensed. (d) Tenant will comply with all requirements for state, municipal and other governmental inspections, licenses and permits, and will promptly pay all proper fees and charges in connection therewith, failing which Landlord may, but need not, pay any and all such fees and charges for the account of Tenant and Tenant shall pay the amount thereof to Landlord upon demand. (e) Tenant shall not take or permit to be taken any supplies, merchandise, fixtures, equipment or appliances in or out of the premises or the building except through proper exit doors. (f) Tenant shall not cause any of the area outside of the building to be used for storage of any goods or materials. (g) Tenant shall have the right to use the driveway parking and sidewalk space in the immediate front of the premises except that Landlord reserves the right to make parkway or sidewalk spaces which adjoin similar spaces in the immediate front of adjoining spaces, if any, available for joint use of the demised and adjoining premises. (h) At the expiration of this lease, whether by lapse of time or otherwise, Tenant shall surrender all keys for the leased premises to the Landlord at the place then fixed for the payment of rent and shall inform Landlord of the explanation of all combinations on locks, safes and vaults, if any, in the leased premises. 28. ATTORNMENT AND PRIORITY AND LANDLORD'S MORTGAGEE. (a) Tenant shall, in the event any proceedings are brought for the foreclosure of, or in the event of the exercise of the power of sale under, any mortgage covering any part of the premises, attorn to the purchase upon any such foreclosure or sale and recognize such purchaser as Landlord under this lease, and upon the request of any interested party, Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver an instrument, in form and substance satisfactory to such party, evidencing such attornment. (b) In the event the holder of any mortgage elects to have this lease superior to its mortgage, then upon Tenant being notified to that effect by such encumbrance holder, this lease shall be deemed prior to the lien of said mortgage, whether this lease is dated prior or subsequent to the date of said mortgage, and Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver an instrument in the form customarily used by such encumbrance holder, effecting such priority. (c) Upon written demand by the holder of any mortgage covering any part of the premises, Tenant shall forthwith execute, acknowledge and deliver an agreement in favor of and in the form customarily used by such encumbrance holder, by the terms of which Tenant will agree to give prompt written notice to such encumbrance holder in the event of any casualty damage to the premises or in the event of any default on the part of Landlord under this lease, and will agree to allow such encumbrance holder a reasonable length of time (taking into consideration for the purpose of determining such permitted length of time any delays encountered by reason of any causes beyond the reasonable control of such holder) after notice to cure or cause the curing of such default before exercising Tenant's rights of self-help under this lease, if any, or terminating or declaring a default under this lease.

29. LANDLORD'S RIGHT TO CURE DEFAULTS. If Tenant fails to perform any of the agreements or obligations on its part to be performed under this lease, Landlord shall have the right (i) if no emergency exists, to perform the same after giving ten (10) days' notice to Tenant, and (ii) in any emergency situation, to perform the same immediately without notice or delay. For the purpose of rectifying Tenant's defaults as aforesaid, Landlord shall have the right to enter the premises. Tenant shall on demand reimburse Landlord for the costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in rectifying Tenant's defaults as aforesaid, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

30. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. Anything contained in this lease to the contrary notwithstanding, Tenant agrees that Tenant shall look solely to the estate of Landlord in the premises for the collection of any judgment (or other judicial process) requiring the payment of money by Landlord in the event of any default or breach by Landlord with respect to any of the terms and provisions of this lease to be observed or performed by Landlord, subject, however, to the prior rights of the holder of any mortgage covering the premises, and no other assets of Landlord shall be subject to levy, execution or other judicial process for the satisfaction of Tenant's claim and Landlord shall not be liable for any such default or breach except to the extent of Landlord's estate in the premises.

31. LEGAL EXPENSES. In case suit shall be brought because of the breach of any covenant herein contained on the part of Tenant or Landlord to be kept or performed, and a breach shall be established, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all expenses incurred therefor, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

32. BROKER'S COMMISSION. Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that it has not incurred or caused to be incurred any liability for real estate brokerage commissions or finder's fees in connection with the execution of this lease for which Landlord may be liable, other than a commission payable by Landlord to Leo Eisenberg Co. Tenant agrees to indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in connection with its breach of the foregoing representation.

33. TRIAL BY JURY WAIVER. THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY AGAINST THE OTHER ON ANY MATTER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THIS LEASE, THE RELATIONSHIP OF LANDLORD AND TENANT, OR TENANT'S USE AND OCCUPANCY OF THE PREMISES.

34. HAZARDOUS MATERIAL. Tenant shall not store or permit or suffer the storage of any hazardous or dangerous waste, chemicals or other materials, including, without limitation, those defined in the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act, as amended, as "Hazardous Substances" (the foregoing are hereinafter collectively called "Hazardous Materials") within the premises without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent Landlord may withhold arbitrarily. If Tenant shall store or permit or suffer the storage of any Hazardous Materials without the prior written consent of Landlord, then (i) Tenant shall immediately, upon notice from Landlord, remove the same from the premises and perform such other clean-up work and procedures necessary to cause the premises to comply with all applicable governmental laws, codes, statues and regulations, and (ii) Landlord shall have the right to immediately, without further notice, terminate this lease, provided, however, such termination shall not release Tenant from the foregoing clean-up obligations. If Landlord shall not so elect to terminate this lease, then Tenant shall pay Landlord, in addition to the rent and other charges payable hereunder, (a) an amount equal to 1/15th of the monthly base rent then payable by Tenant for each day Tenant shall store or permit or suffer the storage of such Hazardous Materials in violation of this Section, plus (b) all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with the clean-up and/or removal of all such Hazardous Materials in accordance with all applicable governmental laws, codes, statutes and regulations.

35. SURVIVAL OF TENANT'S OBLIGATIONS. All obligations of Tenant which by their nature involve performance, in any particular, after the end of the term, or which cannot be ascertained to have been fully performed until after the end of the term, shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of the term hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Landlord and Tenant have executed this lease agreement or have caused it to be executed by their respective authorized representatives the day and year first above written. Each of the persons executing this lease represent that they are authorized to execute the same on behalf of the party for whom they have executed hereafter.

COMMON AREA MAINTENANCE. Landlord shall maintain the parking lot and loading areas including the lighting, striping, snow removal, surface repair and landscaping. Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord, as and when statements are rendered therefore, for its prorated share of the cost of such maintenance, which prorated share shall be computed on the ratio of the area of the premises to the total rentable space in the property of which the premises are a part.

Landlord further represents and warrants to Tenant that in no event shall such costs to Tenant exceed the sum of five cents ($.05) per square foot per month, and Tenant shall have no obligation for any costs in excess of five cents ($.05) per square foot per month during the term of this lease or any extension hereof. Further, if the useful life of any improvement or repair made to the common area extends beyond the term life of this lease or any extension thereof, then Tenant shall have no obligation to pay any amount with respect thereto in excess of that portion of the cost of such improvement which is equitably and fairly attributable or allocable to the remaining term of this lease or any extension thereof. In addition, Landlord agrees that Landlord shall give no other tenant in the project (which project consists of the building in which Tenant occupies space and the building located at 1602 Linn) terms relating to the payment or determination of common area costs more favorable than the terms given to Tenant under this lease, if said tenant enters into a lease in which the tenant is obligated to pay common area costs, unless the same more favorable terms are offered to Tenant hereunder retroactive to the date this Tenant's lease commences. Landlord shall give Tenant immediate written notice of any lease in which it has agreed to any such favorable terms. Copies of all invoices for services will be presented to Tenant for verification.

LEASE OBLIGATION. By letter agreement dated February 18, 1988, Stationer's Distributing Company agreed to purchase certain assets of McKesson Corporation and assign the dated January 27, 1986, to McKesson Corporation. McKesson has agreed to be bound by and to perform all obligations of the lease on space a 1621 Jasper Street in accordance with its terms.

(a) TERM. The term of this Lease is three (3) years plus the fractional month, if any, referred to in this section. (Term). If the Commencement Date is the first day of a calendar month, the Term of this Lease shall terminate at 5:00 P.M. (prevailing time) on the day before the third anniversary of the Commencement Date. If the Commencement Date is not the first day of a calendar month (the period between the latter Commencement Date and the end of the month in which it falls being herein called Fractional Month) this Lease shall terminate on the last day of the month in which shall fall the third anniversary of the Commencement Date.

(b) COMMENCEMENT OF TERM. The Term shall commence on the first business day (hereinafter designated as Commencement Date) following the date on which the last of all of the following shall have occurred or been performed:

(i) After or simultaneously with substantial compliance with the conditions in (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of this paragraph (b) Tenant shall have received written notice from Landlord authorizing Tenant to enter upon the premises to do such work as Tenant may decide, the Commencement Date shall be the next business day following the receipt by Tenant of said notice. By sending such notice to Tenant, Landlord covenants, represents and warrants that it has theretofore performed, or that it will thereafter complete the performance of the covenants and conditions set forth in (ii), (iii), (iv), and (v) of this paragraph (b), which obligation to perform shall survive the commencement of the Term;

(ii) Landlord shall have certified to Tenant, in writing, that the construction work as defined in Article III hereof has been substantially completed in accordance with the Final Plans (as defined in said Article III), and that the Building is ready for Tenant's occupancy and use except for any installations Tenant may make;

(d) RIGHT OF TERMINATION. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, in the event that Landlord enters into a contract with Tenant to build for Tenant an expansion of the existing facility owned by Tenant and located at 77 Executive Avenue, Edison, New Jersey; Landlord and Tenant hereby agree that Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by serving written notice to Landlord of such desire to terminate within 30 days of execution of the aforesaid contract. In such event, this Lease would terminate simultaneously with Tenant taking occupancy of the expanded facility.

SECTION 2.02. OCCUPANCY PRIOR TO COMMENCEMENT. During the period it occupies a Portion of the premises, Tenant shall, at its cost and expense as a condition precedent to such prior occupancy, obtain and keep in force during the period in which Landlord is completing the balance of the Construction Work, insurance coverage in amounts as required in Section 7.01(i) of this Lease in respect of the entire Demised Premises, including the portion being completed by Landlord. However, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for that portion of the cost of such insurance in proportion to the part of the building not occupied by Tenant and being completed by Landlord for the period ending with delivery of possession thereof to Tenant.

SECTION 2.04. RIGHT OF RENEWAL. Provided this Lease is not in default, the Tenant is granted a right of renewal of this Lease as follows: At the option of the Tenant, the Term of this Lease may be extended for three renewal period(s) of 2 years, 3 years, 2 years respectively each by written notice to the Landlord at least six (6) months prior to the expiration of the Term, or any renewal term thereof, as the case may be.

The term Substantial Completion as used in this Lease is intended to constitute that stage of completion which will permit the Tenant to occupy the Demised Premises and to use the same for intended purpose of such occupancy without any substantial interference by reason of any failure of Landlord to finish punch list items.

(b) INSPECTION BY TENANT. Tenant may inspect the progress of the Construction Work as frequently as it may desire provided Tenant does not interfere with the Construction Work or with the workmen.

ARTICLE IV - LANDLORD'S COVENANTS

SECTION 4.01. NO WAIVER BY TENANT. No act of Tenant, including the taking possession of the Demised Premises, shall constitute a waiver by Tenant of any of Landlord's obligations respecting the Construction Work or to correct any defects in materials or workmanship as provided in this Lease.

(i) The Building will be structurally safe and sound and that all parts thereof and all mechanical equipment therein (except such as may be installed by Tenant) will be in good working order;

(iii) All utilities serving the Demised Premises will have been installed and paid for.

(iv) To the best of Landlord's knowledge and belief there are no "Hazardous Substances" or "Wastes" (as defined in ECRA and/or Spill Compensation and Control Act) presently upon the Demised Premises.

ARTICLE V - RENT AND PAYMENT

SECTION 5.01. RENT DURING TERM. Landlord reserves and Tenant covenants to pay to Landlord during the Term of this Lease without demand or notice, and without any setoff or deduction, a net basic rental (herein called Basic Rent) as follows:

First Year	-	$519,390.30 per year ($43,282.53 per month)
Second Year	-	$532,708.00 per year ($44,392.33 per month)
Third Year	-	$546,025.70 per year ($45,502.14 per month)

Such annual Basic Rent shall be paid monthly in installments in the amounts set forth above, in advance, on the first day of each and every month.

SECTION 5.02. PAYMENT OF RENT. The Basic Rent and all additional rents and moneys payable to Landlord under this Lease shall be paid at the above address of Landlord or at such other address as may be specified by Landlord from time to time by notice given to Tenant.

SECTION 5.03. RENT DURING RENEWAL TERM(S). In the event the Tenant shall exercise the option(s) to renew this Lease for any of the renewal period provided for in Section 2.04, the annual Basic Rent during each renewal period shall be adjusted for the applicable year term thereof by multiplying $532,708.00 by the "Index Change" herein after defined, provided, however, that the Basic Rent during the renewal period(s) shall not be less than the Basic Rent paid for the immediately preceding period.

SECTION 5.04. The first monthly installment of Basic Rent shall be due and payable by Tenant on the Commencement Date. Subsequent monthly installments of Basic Rent shall be due and payable by Tenant on or before the first day of each month following the Commencement Date and continuing thereafter until the expiration of the Term. Basic Rent for the Fractional Month, if any, shall be prorated and shall be due and payable by Tenant on the first day of the month following the month in which the Commencement Date occurs.

Upon the execution of this Lease, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a deposit in the amount of the first monthly installment of Basic Rent which deposit shall be held by Landlord as additional security for Tenant's performance of this Lease and applied by Landlord against the first monthly installment of Basic Rent on the Commencement Date.

ARTICLE VI - TAXES AND IMPOSITIONS

SECTION 6.01. REAL ESTATE TAXES. As additional rental hereunder Tenant shall, throughout the term, pay to the Landlord pro rata taxes and assessments levied or assessed against the Demised Premises or any part thereof, including those presently in effect, as well as those which may be enacted in the future. Such payment as to all real estate taxes levied or assessed against the Demised Premises or any part thereof, shall be made by Tenant to Landlord at the time of the next Basic Rent payment due after Tenant's receipt of an invoice or statement from Landlord setting forth the amount of such taxes or assessments and Tenant's pro rata share thereof.

The real estate taxes and assessments aforesaid shall be apportioned by Landlord among tenants or users of Landlord's Property including Landlord, to arrive at Tenant's pro rata share of real estate taxes and assessments. Landlord's Property shall mean the two (2) buildings totalling 336,464 sq. ft. located on Lot 15, Block 366-A. The computation of Tenant's pro rata share of taxes and assessments on land and building shall be made by multiplying the real estate taxes or assessments levied against the Landlord on Landlord's Property by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of square feet of building premises demised to Tenant and the denominator of which is the total number of square feet in Landlord's Property assessed by the taxing authorities.

In the calculation of the total number of square feet of building premises demised to Tenant, finished space, i.e. offices, including toilet areas, shall be weighted in determination of the numerator in the fraction described in this subsection by doubling the square footage devoted to such finished space. Tenant's pro rata share will be 40.08%. In the event that subsequent to the date hereof the total square footage of either building changes, the percentage set forth herein shall be recalculated accordingly.

Notwithstanding the above, Landlord hereby agrees that he will attempt to obtain a statement from the Edison Township Tax Assessor's office allocating the taxes applicable to each of the buildings located on Landlord's Property. In such event, Tenant's pro rata share of taxes shall be determined based on the statement received from the Tax Assessor's office.

To the extent that Tenant shall be liable for the payment of other taxes under this Article VI which may be assessed against Landlord or for which Landlord may become liable by reason of its estate or interest in the Demised Premises, Tenant shall pay its pro rata share thereof in accordance with the above.

SECTION 6.02. OTHER TAXES AND PAYMENT THEREOF. In addition to the pro rata taxes and assessments described in Section 6.01, Tenant shall pay pro rata in accordance with Section 6.01 for each and every item of expense in the nature of a tax or charge or assessment for which Landlord is or shall become liable by reason of its estate or interest in the Demised Premises, or any part thereof, including, without limiting the generality thereof, all personal property taxes, gross receipts taxes, use and occupancy taxes, and excise taxes levied or assessed against Landlord or Tenant by reason of the use, occupancy or any other activity by the Tenant in connection with the Demised Premises or any part thereof, or which may be levied or assessed or imposed upon any rents or rental income, as such, payable to Landlord or payable to Tenant from any subtenant in connection with the Demised Premises or any part thereof. There is expressly included among Tenant's obligations with respect to taxes and assessments as set forth in this Article any tax which may be levied against Landlord enacted as part of tax reform legislation in lieu of taxes presently levied against real estate or any portion thereof.

SECTION 6.03. CERTAIN TAXES NOT PAYABLE BY TENANT. Tenant shall not be required to pay any of the following taxes or governmental impositions which shall be levied or imposed against Landlord by any governmental authority:

(i) Any estate, inheritance, devolution, succession, transfer, legacy or gift tax which may be imposed upon or with respect to any transfer of Landlord's interest in the Demised Premises;

(ii) Any capital stock tax or other tax imposed against Landlord for the privilege of doing business;

(iii) Any income tax levied upon or against the profits of the Landlord from all sources.

SECTION 6.04. APPORTIONMENT DURING FIRST AND LAST YEAR OF TERM. All taxes which shall become payable during the tax fiscal year in which this lease commences or ends shall be apportioned between Landlord and Tenant in accordance with the portion of the tax year within the term.

SECTION 6.05. ASSESSMENTS PAYABLE IN INSTALLMENTS. With respect to any assessment levied by any governmental or municipal agency or authority which is or may be payable, at the option of the taxpayer, in installments, Tenant agrees to pay Landlord, as additional rent, annually, from the date of payment of the assessment, the installment due therefor, at least five (5) days before the last day on which each such installment may be paid without penalty or interest. Tenant shall not be required to pay any installment which shall fall due after the expiration of this Lease.

ARTICLE VII - INSURANCE

SECTION 7.01. COVERAGE AND AMOUNT. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, and as additional rent, during the term of this Lease:

(i) Keep and maintain the Building and the building equipment, fixtures and appurtenances insured with 100% co-insurance against all loss and damage including, but not limited to, coverage by an all risk form of insurance policy issued by a "Best A Rated Co." or better with agreed amount endorsement and replacement cost endorsement, in an amount no less than One Hundred percent (100%) of the full replacement value thereof (exclusive of cost of foundation, excavation and land) from time to time.

(ii) Rent insurance covering the risks described in (i) above in an amount equal to the Basic Rent and additional rent payable; and

(iii) Provide, keep and maintain in force, if and when obtainable and generally carried on building of the type to be leased hereunder, war risks and nuclear damage, as well as flood and earthquake insurance for the full replacement value of the Demised Premises if such insurance is required by any institutional first mortgagee of the Premises; and

(v) Provide, keep and maintain in force, comprehensive general public liability insurance against claims arising out of the ownership, operation and control of the Demised Premises, including but not limited to contractual liability in connection with the Tenant's indemnification of Landlord herein as to the liability of Landlord to Tenant's employees, agents, invitees and licensees in limits of not less than Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) combined single limit arising out of one occurrence. The Landlord may insure his Liability under his Blanket Comprehensive General Liability Policy, Umbrella Liability Policy, and Environmental Impairment Liability Policy, and the Tenant will reimburse the Landlord for the Tenant's pro rata share of the premium.

(vi) PROVIDE INSURANCE COVERAGE OF ANY AND ALL TRADE FIXTURES AND PERSONAL PROPERTY (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY FURNITURE, MACHINERY, GOODS OR SUPPLIES) OF TENANT, WHICH TENANT MAY HAVE UPON OR WITHIN THE DEMISED PREMISES WHICH TENANT DEEMS NECESSARY.

SECTION 7.02. FORMS AND CERTIFICATES. The coverage above required in Section 7.01 and its subsections shall be:

(i) As to 7.01 (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv), by policies in form and reasonably acceptable to Landlord showing loss payable to Landlord and to the first mortagee by standard mortgage clause, as their respective interests may appear. Tenant shall furnish a certificate thereof to the first mortgagee and to the Landlord showing continuous coverage for the risks stated; and

(ii) As to 7.01 (v) and (vi) by policies in form reasonably acceptable to Landlord. Tenant shall provide Landlord with certificates of such policies showing continuous coverage for the risks stated. As to 7.01 (v), Landlord shall be named as an additional named insured on any such policy.

SECTION 7.03. BLANKET POLICIES, RENEWALS, RECOGNIZED INSURANCE COMPANIES, CANCELLATION. Tenant may carry any or all of such insurance under blanket policies. In any case, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord at or prior to the Commencement Date, policies or certificates of the insurance required above, and shall procure and deliver to Landlord, policies or certificates of renewals thereof from time to time at least thirty (30) days before the expiration thereof, together with evidence of payment as is required by the first mortgagee. If Tenant shall default in such delivery or renewal, Landlord may, at its option, without waiving or releasing Tenant from any obligation hereunder, procure any such insurance and Tenant shall, on demand, pay to Landlord as additional rent, the cost of the premium thereof, plus a 15% handling charge, together with interest at the Lease Interest Rate (as hereinafter defined). All such insurance shall be taken in companies of recognized responsibility licensed to do business in the state in which the Premises are located and be reasonably acceptable to Landlord and to each mortgagee. Every policy shall provide that it may not be cancelled by the carrier without at least (30) days prior written notice to each insured.

SECTION 7.04. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION. Landlord shall not be liable for any damage by fire or other peril in the coverage afforded by the Standard All Risk Policy (whether or not such coverage is in effect), no matter how caused, it being understood that the Tenant will look solely to its insurer for reimbursement. Tenant shall not be liable for any damage by fire or other peril includable in the coverage afforded by the Standard All Risk Policy (whether or not such coverage is in effect), no matter how caused, it being understood that the Landlord will look solely to its insurer for reimbursement. Each party, as applicable, shall obtain a Waiver of Subrogation Endorsement if necessary to permit the Waiver of Subrogation and mutual release as set forth herein in connection with any applicable Insurance Policy carried by it. Any Waiver of Landlord's rights against Tenant as contained in this Section shall be ineffective if such Waiver of Subrogation Endorsement shall not be obtained.

(vi) The party doing or having the work done shall carry or cause its contractors, if any, to carry workman's compensation insurance as required by law in connection with such work, and evidence thereof shall be delivered to the other party prior to commencement of such work;

SECTION 9.01. MECHANIC'S LIENS PROHIBITED. Tenant shall not suffer any mechanic's lien to be filed against the Demised Premises by reason of work, labor, services or materials performed or furnished to Tenant or to anyone holding the Demised Premises, or any part thereof, through or under Tenant. If any mechanic's lien or any notice of intention to file a mechanic's lien shall at any time be filed against the Demised Premises, (unless the labor or materials were actually performed for or furnished to Landlord in connection with its obligations under this Lease) Tenant shall at Tenant's cost, within fourteen (14) days after knowledge or notice of the filing of any mechanic's lien cause the same to be removed or discharged of record by payment, bond, order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or otherwise.

SECTION 9.02. LANDLORD'S REMEDY FOR TENANT'S BREACH. If Tenant shall fail to remove or discharge any mechanic's lien or any notice of intention to file a mechanic's lien within the prescribed time, then in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord. Any amount paid by Landlord for such purpose, together with all legal and other expenses of Landlord in procuring the removal or discharge of such lien or notice of intention and together with interest thereon at the Lease Interest Rate (as hereinafter defined), shall be and become due and payable by Tenant to Landlord as additional rent, and in the event of Tenant's failure to pay therefor within fifteen (15) days after demand, the same shall be added to and be due and payable with the next month's rent.

SECTION 9.03. NON-CONSENT OF LANDLORD TO FILING OF LIENS. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed as a consent on the part of Landlord to subject Landlord's estate in the Demised Premises to any lien or liability arising out of Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises.

ARTICLE X - REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE

SECTION 10.01 (a) LANDLORD'S COVENANTS. Landlord at its sole cost and expense shall remedy all defects in workmanship and materials in the Construction Work, evidence of which shall appear or be discovered within twelve (12) months after the Commencement Date. Landlord shall not be liable under this Section however unless Tenant shall give Landlord notice specifying such defects or of the need for remedying them on or before the last day of the twelfth month of the Term.

In addition, Landlord agrees to procure a five (5) year guarantee of the roof installation from the roofer in the form attached hereto as Exhibit D,

For the purpose of this paragraph, this term Structural Components, shall be limited to the structural steel framing including roof framing, the foundations, and the masonry perimeter walls (excluding all windows, plate glass, and doors). Landlord shall not be liable under this Section however unless Tenant shall give Landlord notice specifying such defects or the need for remedying them on or before the last day of the thirty-sixth month of the Term.

(c) ALTERATIONS BY TENANT. Notwithstanding any of the above, if Tenant shall make any changes or alterations, structural or otherwise, to any portion of the building, Landlord's obligations under this Section 10.01 shall not thereafter extend to any portion of the building affected by such change or alteration.

(d) LIMITED LIABILITY OF LANDLORD. Landlord's liability under the provisions of this Article X is limited to repair or correction of the defect or condition to be rectified, and Landlord shall not be liable for any consequential loss or damage. Landlord shall not be required to make any repairs caused by Tenant's abuse or misuse, or lack of routine maintenance, of the Demised Premises.

Section 10.02. TENANT'S OBLIGATIONS. Except for items which are the obligation of Landlord under Section 10.01 hereof, Tenant, for and during the Term of this Lease, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, assumes all responsibility and obligation for the physical condition of the Demised Premises and shall:

SECTION 10.03 LANDLORD'S REMEDY FOR TENANT'S BREACH. In the event Tenant shall fail or neglect to comply with the aforesaid statutes, ordinances, rules, orders, regulations and requirements referred to in this Article X, or any of them, or in the event Tenant shall fail or neglect to make any repairs required of it, then Landlord or Landlord's agents may, after compliance with the notice requirements set forth in Section 13.01 hereof, enter in and upon the Demised Premises to make an inspection and make said repairs and comply with any and all the said statutes, ordinances, rules, orders, regulations or requirements, at the cost and expense of Tenant, and in the event of Tenant's failure to pay therefor within 15 days after demand the said cost and expense shall be added to the next month's rent and be due and payable as additional rent. This provision is in addition to the right of the Landlord to terminate this Lease by reason of any default on the part of Tenant, and Landlord's remedies provided in Article XXI.

ARTICLE XI - FIRE, DAMAGE AND DESTRUCTION

SECTION 11.01. NOTICE OF CASUALTY, CONTINUATION OF LEASE, RESTORATION. In the event of the total destruction of the Building by fire or otherwise during the term created hereby, or in the event of such partial destruction thereof:

(a) Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord in writing thereof;

(b) Upon receipt of said notice Landlord shall have its Architect make a full and comprehensive report on the damage of the building, and ascertain the number of days to complete the repair of the building. Unless such damage can, in the opinion of Landlord's Architect, be repaired within ninety (90) days after it occurrence, this Lease and the term hereby created shall cease and become null and void from the date of such damage or destruction, and Tenant shall upon written notice from Landlord, then immediately surrender the Demised Premises and all interest therein to Landlord, and Tenant shall pay rent within said term only to the time of such damage or destruction.

If, however, in such Architect's opinion, the damage aforesaid can be repaired within ninety (90) days from the occurrence thereof, Landlord shall repair or rebuild the Demised Premises with all reasonable speed, and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, but there shall be an abatement of rent to the extent of insurance payments received from rent insurance.

SECTION 11.02. INSURANCE PROCEEDS UP TO $7,500. The net insurance proceeds amounting to Seventy-Five Hundred ($7,500.00) Dollars or less payable to Tenant shall be held in trust by Tenant for the purpose of promptly repairing, restoring or rebuilding that portion of the Demised Premises so that the Demised Premises will be as nearly as practicable in the condition they were immediately prior to the occurrence of such damage or destruction.

SECTION 11.03. INSURANCE PROCEEDS ABOVE $7,500.00. The net insurance proceeds amounting to more than Seventy-Five Hundred ($7,500.00) Dollars payable to Landlord, first mortgagee and Tenant jointly shall be held in trust by a trustee satisfactory to the first mortgagee for application to the repair, restoration and rebuilding of the Demised Premises. Any proceeds remaining after such repair, restoration and rebuilding shall have been paid for, shall be the property of and belong solely to Tenant. If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to cover the cost of restoration, repair, and rebuilding, Tenant agrees to pay whatever additional sums are necessary to complete such restoration, repair and rebuilding.

SECTION 11.04. STATUTORY CONDITIONS. Tenant hereby expressly waives the benefit of New Jersey Revised Statutes, Title 46, Chapter 8, Sections 6 and 7. Tenant agrees that it will not be relieved of the obligation to pay basic net rent or any additional rent in case of damage to or destruction of the Demised Premises except as specifically provided in this Lease.

ARTICLE XII - EMINENT DOMAIN

SECTION 12.01. TOTAL TAKING. In the event that any public authority or agency holding the power of eminent domain under applicable law shall at any time during the term of this Lease condemn or acquire title in lieu of condemnation of substantially all of the Demised Premises, this Lease and the Term hereby created shall terminate and expire as of the date upon which title shall vest in such authority, and Tenant shall pay rent only to the time of such vesting of title.

SECTION 12.02. PARTIAL TAKING. If there shall be only a partial taking or condemnation as aforesaid which shall not substantially prevent Tenant's use of the Demised Premises for purposes of its business, this Lease shall thereafter continue as to the untaken part and Tenant shall be entitled to a reduction in the basic rent in such proportion and in such manner as shall be fair and equitable, and if the parties hereto cannot agree thereto the dispute shall be settled by arbitration as set forth in this Lease.

SECTION 12.03. RESTORATION BY LANDLORD. If there shall be a partial taking and this Lease shall continue as to the remaining balance of the Demised Premises, Landlord, at its own expense and as promptly as practicable, shall restore the remaining building and land as nearly as may be practicable to their former condition.

SECTION 12.04. AWARD TO LANDLORD. Landlord reserves the exclusive right to negotiate with the condemning authority with respect to any proposed award, and all damages and compensation paid for the taking under the power of eminent domain, whether for the whole or a part of the Demised Premises shall belong to and be the property of Landlord, except that Landlord consents to efforts by Tenant separately to seek additional compensation from the condemning authority for the loss of depreciated value of leasehold improvements installed by Tenant resulting from the taking, provided always, that Tenant hereby releases and disclaims any interest or right whatsoever in the award or compensation offered or paid by the condemning authority to the Landlord for the loss of the fee. There is expressly excluded from any right of compensation to the Tenant and the Tenant expressly waives, any claim against the condemning authority for dimunition in the value of the leasehold.

SECTION 12.05. Notwithstanding any of the paragraphs above pertaining to eminent domain, there is expressly reserved to the Tenant the right to recover against the condemning authority for its actual reasonable expenses in moving its business from the Demised Premises and its actual direct losses in tangible personal property by virtue of the taking, all as contemplated in the the Relocation Assistance Act (R. S. 20:4-1 et seq), and rules and regulations adopted by the Department of Community Affairs of the State of New Jersey pursuant to the legislation aforesaid, and applicable regulations of the State Department of Transportation contemplated in the said Relocation Assistance Act.

ARTICLE XIII - NOTICES

SECTION 13.01. NOTICES. Every notice required or permitted under this Lease shall, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, be given in writing and shall be sent by United States certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed by the party giving, making or sending the same to the Landlord at the address first above given, and to the Tenant at the Demised Premises or to such other address as either party may designate from time to time by a notice given to the other party. Notice shall be deemed to be given upon receipt, provided, however, that in the event a party shall refuse to accept delivery of said Certified Mail, the notice shall nevertheless be deemed to be given upon the date of refusal to accept delivery and further provided that if the postal service is unable to deliver said Certified Mail the notice shall nevertheless be deemed to be given as of the date of the Postal Service's second notice of attempted delivery. Notwithstanding the above, a notice of change of address shall not be effective until received.

Landlord may, at its option, substitute for service by United States First Class Certified Mail, service by Federal Express or similar overnight courier, provided that such courier obtains and makes available to its customers evidence of delivery. Notice given via such courier shall be deemed to be given upon receipt.

ARTICLE XIV - MEMORANDUM OF LEASE

SECTION 14.01. MEMORANDUM OF LEASE. Tenant shall not record this lease, but if either party should desire to record a short form Memorandum of Lease setting forth only the parties, the Demised Premises and the Term, such Memorandum of Lease shall be executed, acknowledged and delivered by both parties upon notice from either party.

ARTICLE XV - USE

SECTION 15.01. USE. The Demised Premises shall be used and occupied by Tenant as a warehouse and office for the distribution of office products and other similar uses.

ARTICLE XVI - ASSIGNMENT, SUBLETTING, ETC.

SECTION 16.01. ASSIGNMENT, SUBLETTING, ETC. Tenant shall not sell, assign, mortgage, pledge, or, in any manner, transfer or encumber this Lease or any estate of interest hereunder (hereinafter designated as Assignment), or sublet the Demised Premises or any part thereof without the previous written consent of the Landlord which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, with respect to a corporation into which Tenant shall have been merged or consolidated or which shall have purchased all or substantially all of the assets of Tenant, such previous written consent by Landlord shall not be necessary. In any of the events aforesaid, Tenant, nevertheless, shall remain primarily liable for the payment of the basic net rent and all additional rents, and the performance of Tenant's other covenants and obligations hereunder. No consent to any Assignment of this Lease or subletting of any or all of the Demised Premises shall be deemed or be construed as a consent by Landlord to any further or additional Assignment or subletting. In the event of an Assignment of this Lease, the assignee shall assume, by written recordable instrument reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, the due performance of all Tenant's obligations under this Lease. No Assignment shall be valid or effective in the absence of such assumption. A true copy of such Assignment and the original assumption agreement or the sublease, as the case may be, shall be delivered to Landlord within 10 days of the effective date thereof. Notwithstanding anything hereinabove contained to the contrary, Landlord may refuse to permit Tenant to assign this Lease or sublet to a third party any portion of the Demised Premises if Landlord agrees to sublet back the Demised Premises from Tenant under the same terms and conditions as set forth in this Lease and for the remaining term of this Lease.

ARTICLE XVII - WARRANTY OF TITLE

SECTION 17.01. WARRANTY OF TITLE. Landlord covenants, represents and warrants that Landlord on the Commencement Date will be the sole and absolute owner of the fee title to the Demised Premises and has the right to execute this Lease, and that on the Commencement Date there will be no liens affecting the Demised Premises, or any covenants, easements or restrictions adversely affecting Tenant's use of the Demised Premises except as set forth in Exhibit B. Such exceptions are herein referred to as Permitted Encumbrances.

ARTICLE XVIII - SUBORDINATION

SECTION 18.01. SUBORDINATION TO MORTGAGES. At the option of Landlord, this Lease shall either be:

(a) Subject and subordinate to all mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the Demised Premises, and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements or extensions thereof, PROVIDED HOWEVER THAT THE HOLDER OF ANY SUCH MORTGAGE SHALL EXECUTE A "NON-DISTURBANCE" AGREEMENT SUBSTANTIALLY IN THE FORM ATTACHED HERETO AS EXHIBIT E.

OR

(b) This Lease shall be paramount in priority as an encumbrance against the Demised Premises with respect to the lien of any mortgage which may now or hereafter affect the Demised Premises and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof.

SECTION 18.02. TENANT'S CERTIFICATE. Tenant further agrees, upon request of Landlord, to certify by written instrument duly executed and acknowledged to any mortgagee or purchaser, or any proposed mortgage lender, or purchaser, that this Lease is in full force and effect or, if not, in what respect it is not; that this Lease has not been modified, or to the extent to which it has been modified: that there are no existing defaults hereunder to the best of the knowledge of the party so certifying, or specifying the defaults, if any; and any additional statements of fact that may be requested or required from time to time by any mortgagee or purchaser, or any proposed mortgage lender or purchaser; that any such certification shall be without prejudice as between the Landlord and Tenant, it being agreed that any document required hereunder shall not be used in any litigation between Landlord and Tenant.

ARTICLE XIX - QUIET ENJOYMENT

SECTION 19.01. QUIET ENJOYMENT. Tenant, upon payment of the Basic Rent and all additional rents and all sums herein reserved and due upon the due performance of all the Terms, covenants and conditions herein contained on the Tenant's part to be kept and performed, shall and may at all times during the Term hereby granted peaceably and quietly enjoy the Demised Premises, subject, however, to the Terms of this Lease.

ARTICLE XX - INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 20.01. INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD. Tenant agrees to indemnify and save Landlord harmless from and against all liability, and all loss, cost and expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of the operation, maintenance, management and control of the Premises or in connection with (a) any loss, injury or damage whatsoever caused to or by any person, including but not limited to Tenant, its employees or agents, licensees or invitees, or property including Tenant's property arising out of any occurrence on the Premises, (b) any breach of this Lease by Tenant, (c) any act or omission of Tenant or of any person on the Premises, occuring in, on, or about the Premises or on the sidewalks adjoining the same, or (d) any contest or proceeding brought by Tenant as provided for herein. However, notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, Tenant shall not be obligated or required hereunder, to hold harmless or indemnify Landlord from or against any liability, loss, cost, expense, or claim arising from any act, omission or negligence of Landlord or its agents, servants, employees or contractors. The provisions hereof are not intended to abrogate the provisions regarding waiver of subrogation by the parties to this Lease.

ARTICLE XXI - DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

SECTION 21.01. TENANT'S DEFAULTS. If Tenant defaults (a) in the payment of Basic Rent or any additional rent and fails to cure the default within 10 days after receipt of notice specifying the default, or (b) in compliance with or in the performance of any of the other covenants or conditions of this lease, and fails to cure the same within 30 days after the receipt of notice specifying the default, or within such additional period of time beyond said 30 days as shall be required by reason of strikes, lockouts, acts of God, governmental restrictions or prohibitions, or other causes beyond Tenant's Control, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing (each of which notices specifying a default is referred to in this lease as "FIRST NOTICE"), then at the expiration of said 10 days in the case of a default described in (a), at the expiration of said 30 days (or longer period as aforesaid in the case of a default described in (b), Landlord may (x) cancel and terminate this lease on not less than five days' notice (hereinafter called "SECOND NOTICE") to Tenant, and on the date specified in the Second Notice the term of this lease shall terminate and expire, and Tenant shall then quit and surrender the Premises to Landlord, but Tenant shall remain liable as hereinafter provided and/or (y) at any time thereafter re-enter and resume possession of the Premises by summary proceedings, an action in ejectment or by force or otherwise and dispossess or remove Tenant and other occupants and their effects and hold the Premises as if this lease had not been made; and Tenant waives the service of any additional notice of intention to re-enter or to institute legal proceedings to that end.

SECTION 21.02. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES. If this lease shall be terminated or if Landlord shall be entitled to re-enter the Demised Premises and dispossess or remove Tenant under the provisions of Section 21.01, the Landlord, or Landlord's agents or servants, may immediately or at any time thereafter re-enter the Demised Premises and remove therefrom the Tenant, its agents, employees, servants, licensees, and any subtenants and other persons, firms or corporations, and all or any of its or their property therefrom, either by summary dispossess proceedings or by any suitable action or proceeding at law without being liable to indictment, prosecution or damages therefor, and repossess and enjoy said premises together with all additions, alterations and improvements thereto.

SECTION 21.03. LANDLORD'S DAMAGES. In case of such termination, re-entry, or dispossess or removal by summary proceedings or otherwise, the annual rent and all other charges required to be paid by the Tenant hereunder shall thereupon become due and be paid up to the time of such termination, re-entry, or dispossess or removal; and the Tenant shall also pay to the Landlord all reasonable expenses which the Landlord may then or thereafter incur for necessary legal expenses, attorneys' fees, brokerage commissions, and all other necessary costs paid or incurred by the Landlord for restoring the Demised Premises to good order and condition and for altering and otherwise preparing the same for re-letting. The Landlord may, at any time and from time to time, re-let the Demised Premises, in whole or in part, either in its own name or as agent of the Tenant, for a term or terms which, at the Landlord's option, may be for the remainder of the then current Term of this Lease, or for any longer or shorter period, and (unless the statute or rule of law which governs the proceedings in which such damages are to be proved, limits or shall limit the amount of such claim capable of being so provided and allowed, in which case the Landlord shall be entitled to prove as and for liquidated damages and have allowed an amount equal to the maximum allowed by or under any such statute or rule of law) the Tenant shall be obligated to, and shall pay to the Landlord as damages, upon demand, and the Landlord shall be entitled to recover of and from the Tenant, at the election of the Landlord, either

(a) liquidated damages, in an amount which, at the time of such termination, re-entry or dispossess or removal by the Landlord, as the case may be, is equal to the excess, if any, of the then present value of the installments of annual rent reserved hereunder, otherwise have constituted the unexpired portion of the then current Term of this Lease, over the then present value of the market rental value of the Demised Premises for such unexpired portion of the then current Term of this Lease, discounted at the rate of six (6%) percent per annum; or

(b) damages (payable in monthly installments, in advance, on the first day of each calendar month following such termination re-entry or dispossess, and continuing until the date originally fixed herein for the expiration of the then current Term of this Lease) in any amount or amounts equal to the excess, if any, of the sums of the aggregate expenses paid by the Landlord during the month immediately preceding such calendar month for all such items as, by the terms of this Lease, are required to be paid by the Tenant, plus an amount equal to the amount of the installment of annual rent which would have been payable by the Tenant hereunder in respect to such calendar month, has this Lease and the Demised Term not been so terminated, and had the Landlord not so re-entered, over the sum of rents, if any, collected by or accruing to the Landlord in respect to such calendar month pursuant to such re-letting or any holding over by any subtenants of the Tenant, plus the amount of the rental value of any portion of the Demised Premises occupied by the Landlord or any agent of the Landlord. Any suit for any month shall not prejudice in any way the rights of the Landlord to collect the deficiency for any subsequent month by a similar proceeding. The Landlord, at its option and at its expense, may make such alterations, repairs and/or decorations in the Demised Premises as in its reasonable judgment the Landlord considers advisable and necessary, and the making of such alterations, repairs and/or decorations shall not operate or be construed to release the Tenant from liability hereunder.* Landlord will use reasonable efforts to re-let Demised Premises, however Landlord shall in no event be liable in any way whatsoever for failure to re-let the Demised Premises, or in the event that the Demised Premises are re-let, for failure to collect rent thereof under such re-letting; and in no event shall the Tenant be entitled to receive any excess of such annual rents over the sums payable by the Tenant to the Landlord hereunder but such excess shall be credited to the unpaid rentals due hereunder, and to the expenses of re-letting and preparing for re-letting as provided in this Section 21.03. Suit or suits for the recovery of such damages, or any installments thereof, may be brought by the Landlord from time to time at its election, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require the Landlord to postpone suit until the date when the Term of this Lease would have expired if it has not been terminated under the provisions of this Lease, or under any provision of law, or had the Landlord not re-entered into or upon the Demised Premises.

SECTION 21.04. WAIVER OF REDEMPTION. Tenant hereby waives all rights of redemption to which Tenant or any person claiming under Tenant might be entitled, after an abandonment of the Premises, or after a surrender and acceptance of the Premises and the Tenant's leasehold estate, or after a dispossession of Tenant from the Demised Premises, or after a termination of this lease, or after a judgment against Tenant in an action in ejectment, or after the issuance of a final order or warrant of dispossess in a summary proceeding, or any other proceeding or action authorized by any rule of law or statute now or hereafter in force or effect.

ARTICLE XXII - BANKRUPTCY

SECTION 22.01. BANKRUPTCY, INSOLVENCY, ETC. If the Tenant shall have applied or consented to the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee or liquidator, or other court appointed fiduciary of all or a substantial part of its property; or a custodian shall have been appointed with or without the consent of the Tenant; or Tenant is generally not paying its debts as they become due by means of available assets and the fair use of credit; or has made a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or has committed an act of bankruptcy, or has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or a petition or an answer seeking reorganization or an arrangement with creditors or seeking to take advantage of any insolvency law, or an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition in any bankruptcy, reorganization or insolvency proceeding; or has taken corporate action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, or if within thirty (30) days after the commencement of any proceeding against the Tenant seeking any reorganization, rehabilitation, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under the present or any future federal bankruptcy code or any present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law, such proceeding shall not have been dismissed; or if, within thirty (30) days after entry of an Order for Relief under the present Bankruptcy Code, or similar order under future similar legislation, or the appointment of any trustee, receiver, custodian, liquidator, or other court appointed fiduciary of the Tenant (without the consent or acquiescence of such party), or of all or any substantial part of its property or any of the leased Premises, such order or appointment shall not have been vacated or stayed on appeal or otherwise or if, within thirty (30) days after the expiration of any such stay, such order or appointment shall not have been vacated, the occurrence of any one of such contingencies shall be deemed to constitute and shall be construed as a repudiation by Tenant of Tenant's obligations hereunder and shall cause this lease IPSO FACTO to be cancelled and terminated, without thereby releasing Tenant; and upon such termination Landlord shall have the immediate right to re-enter the Demised Premises and to remove all persons and property therefrom and this lease shall not be treated as an asset of the Tenant's estate and neither the Tenant nor anyone claiming by, through or under Tenant by virtue of any law or any order of any Court shall be entitled to the possession of the Demised Premises or to remain in the possession thereof. Upon the termination of this lease, as aforesaid, Landlord shall have the right to retain as partial damages, and not as a penalty, any prepaid rents and any security deposited by Tenant hereunder and Landlord shall also be entitled to exercise such rights and remedies to recover from Tenant as damages such amounts as are specified in Article XXI hereof, unless any statute or rule of law governing the proceedings in which such damages are to be proved shall lawfully limit the amount of such claims capable of being so proved, in which case Landlord shall be entitled to recover, as and for liquidated damages, the maximum amount which may be allowed under any such statute or rule of law. As used in this Article XXII, the term "Tenant" shall be deemed to include Tenant and its successors and assigns and the guarantor of the Tenant's obligations under this lease, if any.

ARTICLE XXIII - CHANGES, ALTERATIONS

SECTION 23.01. CHANGES AND ALTERATIONS. If Landlord shall have first consented thereto in writing, Tenant may make structural and nonstructural changes, alterations, additions and improvements to the Demised Premises. Landlord's reasonable consent shall be granted if the proposed work does not:

(a) Impair the structural soundness of the building;

(b) Lessen the present and future value of the building or improvement;

(c) Change the type of use from a general warehouse to a specialty type of building with a limited resale or re-letting market; or

(d) Increase risk or endanger the building or occupants of the building.

Furthermore, Landlord reserves the right to require Tenant to restore the premises to the original condition as nearly as may be practical, upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease. If Landlord requests, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord assurance, reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, of Tenant's financial ability to complete and pay for such changes, alterations, additions or improvements, and restorations thereof. In any event, however, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent, make nonstructural changes, alterations, additions and improvements costing in each case less than $10,000.00 (hereinafter called Minor Alterations). Tenant shall give written notice to Landlord of each change, alteration, addition and improvement to the Demised Premises costing more than $10,000.00 and obtain Landlord's consent as provided herein. In the event, however, that as the result of any changes, alterations, additions and improvements made by Tenant with or without Landlord's consent, the Building or any other part of the Demised Premises is damaged thereby, Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost, shall be obligated and responsible to repair said damage forthwith and restore the Building or Demised Premises to the condition they were in just prior to the damage. Landlord shall have no obligation to make any repairs with respect to any changes, alterations, additions, and improvements made by Tenant. Tenant need not obtain or furnish Landlord any certificate of completion or otherwise (unless required by law) with respect to Minor Alterations.

ARTICLE XXIV - END OF TERM

SECTION 24.01. END OF TERM.

(a) CONDITION OF THE DEMISED PREMISES. Tenant shall on the last day of the Term, or upon its earlier termination, peaceably and quietly surrender and deliver up to Landlord the Demised Premises broom clean including all buildings, alterations, rebuildings, replacements, changes or additions placed by Tenant thereon (except as expressly provided to the contrary in Section 23.01), with all equipment in or appurtenant thereto, in as good condition and repair as when delivered to Tenant; subject, however, to reasonable wear and tear, and to damage or destruction by any of the risks covered by insurance required under Section 7.01 of this Lease, or a taking by eminent domain, if this Lease is terminated by reason of such damage or destruction, or such taking.

(b) REMOVAL OF TRADE FIXTURES. Not withstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other Article of this Lease but subject to subsection 24.01 (c) below and provided Tenant is not in default hereunder beyond any grace period to cure the same, Tenant may remove all trade fixtures installed or paid for by it, however affixed to the realty. If any trade fixtures or personal property are not removed by the end or earlier termination of the Term, they shall be deemed abandoned if Landlord shall so elect, and if Landlord shall not so elect, it may cause the removal and storage of same at Tenant's risk and expense, but if the Term ends by reason of condemnation or destruction of all or part of the Premises. Tenant shall have a reasonable time to effect such removal without being deemed to abandon said property. Tenant, at Tenant's cost, shall repair any damage caused to the Premises by reason of such removal. All obligations of Tenant under this paragraph shall survive the termination of this lease.

(c) COMPLETION OF REPAIRS. Any repair or restoration required to be performed by Tenant in order for Tenant to comply with its obligations under this Section 24.01 shall be completed on or before thirty (30) days prior to the end of the term or earlier termination of this Lease ("End of Term"). On or about thirty (30) days prior to this End of Term representatives of Landlord and Tenant shall inspect the Demised Premises to determine what repair or restoration remains to be completed, if any. If Tenant has not completed said repair or restoration within the time set forth above Landlord shall promptly advise Tenant of such fact and shall specify the work which has not been completed. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease, Tenant's failure to complete such repair or restoration by no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the End of Term shall, without further notice, constitute an uncured event of default hereunder. Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Demised Premises to determine whether Tenant has completed such work within the time periods provided herein. During the last thirty (30) days prior to the End of Term Landlord shall be permitted access to the Demised Premises for the purpose of performing such work as Landlord may desire in which event Landlord shall use reasonable efforts not to interfere with Tenant's activities at the Demised Premises.

SECTION 24.02. LANDLORD'S RIGHT TO INSPECT AND EXHIBIT SIGNS. Tenant shall permit Landlord or its agents to enter the Demised Premises during business hours on not less than 48 hours prior notice for the purpose of inspecting or showing the Demised Premises to persons wishing to purchase the same and, at any time within one year prior to the expiration of the term, to persons wishing to rent same; and Tenant shall, within one year prior to the expiration of the term, permit the usual notice of "To Let", "For Rent" and "For Sale" to be placed at reasonable locations on the Demised Premises and to remain thereon without hindrance and molestation.

ARTICLE XXV - DISPUTES

SECTION 25.01. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES. All disagreements, controversies and disputes (other than with regard to the payment of the Basic Rent and additional rent) between the parties arising out of or related to interpretation, performance, validity or enforcement of any of the provisions of this Lease shall be resolved by a final judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction.

SECTION 25.02. NO ABATEMENT IN RENT PENDING FINAL JUDGMENT; LIMITED RIGHT OF OFFSET AFTER AWARD. The parties expressly agree that during the pendency of any litigation and until such dispute shall have been resolved thereby, Tenant shall continue to pay the Basic Rent and any additional Rent stipulated herein without any abatement or deduction. If the dispute as resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction results in an award to Tenant, and Landlord does not promptly satisfy the said award in accordance with the Terms thereof, the Tenant shall have the right to offset said award against the Basic Rent to become due hereunder; provided, however, that the right of offset is expressly limited to exclude from any right of offset that portion of the Basic Rent necessary to satisfy (i) the mortgage obligations of the Landlord as Mortgagor, to the extent such obligations are set forth in the provisions of the Note and Mortgage; and (ii) in addition to the amounts required under (i) above, such amounts as then may be required to satisfy the obligations of the Landlord in the operation of the Demised Premises under the provisions of this Lease.

ARTICLE XXVI - GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 26.01. NO WASTE. The Tenant covenants not to do or suffer any waste or damage, or injury to any building or improvement now or hereafter on the Demised Premises, or the fixtures and equipment thereof, or permit or suffer any overloading of the floors thereof.

SECTION 26.02. LANDLORD'S LIABILITY. If Landlord shall breach any of the provisions hereof, Landlord shall only be liable to Tenant for monetary damages and Landlord's liability shall in no event exceed the Landlord's interest in Landlord's Property as of the date of Landlord's breach; and Tenant expressly agrees that any judgment or award which it may obtain against Landlord shall be recoverable and satisfied solely out of the right, title and interest of Landlord in the Demised Premises and Tenant shall have no rights of lien or levy against any other property of Landlord, nor shall any other property or assets of the Landlord be subject to levy, execution or other enforcement proceedings for the collection of any such sums or satisfaction of any such judgment or award.

Landlord hereby agrees that the aggregate principal outstanding under any mortgage or mortgages placed upon Landlord's Property during the Initial Term of this Lease shall not exceed $10,000,000.00; and thereafter the maximum mortgage amount shall be increased by multiplying $10,000,000.00 by the Index Change as defined in Section 26.22(e). For purposes of this Section, in the definition of "Index Change" the words "mortgage is signed" shall be substituted for the words "relevant Renewal Term commences" in the fifth line.

SECTION 26.03. PARTIAL INVALIDITY. If any Term or provision of this Lease or the application thereof to any party or circumstances shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term or provision to parties or circumstances other than those to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each Term and provision of this Lease shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

SECTION 26.04. NO WAIVER. One or more waivers by either party of the obligation of the other to perform any covenant or condition shall not be construed as a waiver of a subsequent breach of the same or any other covenant or condition.

The receipt of rent by the Landlord, with knowledge of any breach of this Lease by the Tenant or of any default on the part of the Tenant in the observance or performance of any of the conditions or covenants of this Lease, shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any provision of this Lease. Neither the acceptance of the keys nor any other act or thing done by the Landlord or any agent or employee during the Term herein demised shall be deemed to be an acceptance of a surrender of said premises, excepting only an agreement, in writing, signed by the Landlord accepting or agreeing to accept such a surrender.

SECTION 26.05. NUMBER AND GENDER. Wherever herein the singular number is used, the same shall include the plural and the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter genders.

SECTION 26.06. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. The Terms, covenants and conditions herein contained shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective parties and their successors and assigns.

SECTION 26.07. ARTICLE AND MARGINAL HEADINGS. The article and marginal headings herein are intended for convenience in finding the subject matters, are not to be used in determining the intent of the parties to this Lease.

SECTION 26.08. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This instrument contains the entire and only agreement between the parties, and no oral statements or representations or prior written matter not contained in this instrument shall have any force or effect. This Lease shall not be modified in any way or terminated except by a writing executed by both parties.

SECTION 26.09. OBLIGATIONS ALSO COVENANTS. Whenever in this Lease any words of obligation or duty are used, such words or expressions shall have the same force and effect as though made in the form of covenants.

SECTION 26.10. COST OF PERFORMING OBLIGATIONS. The respective obligations of the parties to keep, perform and observe any Terms, covenants or conditions of this Lease shall be at the sole cost and expense of the party so obligated.

SECTION 26.11. REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. The specified remedies to which the Landlord or Tenant may resort under the Terms of this Lease are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other remedies or means of redress to which the Landlord or Tenant may be lawfully entitled in case of any breach or threatened breach of any provision of this Lease.

SECTION 26.12. HOLDING OVER. If Tenant holds over after the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, and if Tenant is not otherwise in default hereunder, such holding over shall not be deemed to create an extension of the Term, but such occupancy shall be deemed to create a month-to-month tenancy at a rental rate of 150% of the then current Basic Rent, and on the same terms and conditions (except as the same may be then inapplicable) as are in effect on the date of said expiration or earlier termination.

SECTION 26.13. UTILITIES.

(a) UTILITY LINES. Landlord shall be responsible for bringing all utilities and utility services to the Building and connecting them to the interior lines installed in the Demised Premises.

(b) UTILITY CHARGES. Tenant shall undertake and be responsible for having all utilities metered in its name in the Demised Premises and agrees to pay all charges for same directly to the respective utility companies. Such utilities include gas, water, sewer, electricity, heat, power, telephone or other communication service or other utility or service used, rendered or supplied to Tenant at the Demised Premises throughout the demised Term.

(c) SPRINKLER AND SECURITY MONITORING SERVICE. Tenant shall install a Sprinkler Monitoring Service and a Security Monitoring Service with respect to the Demised Premises, all at Tenant's own cost and expense, and subject to all provisions of this Lease pertaining to construction and alterations in Articles VIII and XXIII and in Section 26.21 of this Article.

(d) WATER LINE AND SEWER. Tenant acknowledges that the water line and the sanitary sewer pump station and force main shown on Exhibit A, serve both buildings on Landlord's Property. The costs of operation, maintenance and repair of the water line, pump station and force main shall be performed by Landlord and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for its pro rata share of the costs, such share to be calculated in accordance with the formula in Section 6.01.

SECTION 26.14. SIGNS.

(a) ERECTION OF SIGNS. Tenant shall have the right and privilege of erecting signs for identification purposes at the Demised Premises provided, however, that no sign shall be erected on the roof and that all signs comply with the applicable rules and regulations of the applicable governmental boards and bureaus having jurisdiction thereof, and Tenant shall remove same at the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have the right to order removal of such signs if in its reasonable judgment the content or design of said signs are not in harmony with the character of the building or the surrounding locale. In such case Tenant shall promptly remove same.

(b) REPAIR OF DAMAGE. Tenant shall be responsible for any damage caused by said signs and any damage so caused shall be repaired forthwith at Tenant's sole cost and expense. In the event any sign erected by Tenant is removed during the term of this Lease or at the expiration or earlier termination thereof, Tenant shall repair any damage whatsoever caused by the removal at Tenant's sole cost and expense.

SECTION 26.15. FORCE MAJEURE. The period of time during which the Landlord is prevented from performing any act required to be performed under this Lease by reason of fire, catastrophe, labor difficulties, strikes, lock-outs, civil commotion, acts of God or of the public enemy, governmental prohibitions or preemptions, embargoes, inability to obtain materials or labor by reason of governmental regulations or prohibitions, or other events beyond the reasonable control of Landlord, as the case may be, shall be added to the time for performance of such act, and Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant or in default under this Lease as the result thereof.

SECTION 26.16. VACANCY OR ABANDONMENT. In the event that the Demised Premises shall become vacant as the result of being vacated or abandoned by Tenant during the Term and such vacancy or abandonment shall exist for a period of two months, Landlord may re-enter the same, either by force or otherwise, without being liable to prosecution therefor and re-let said Demised Premises as agent of Tenant and receive the rent therefor and apply the same first to payment of such expenses as Landlord may be put to in reentering and then to payment of rent due under this Lease. In addition, such vacancy or abandonment shall constitute a default under paragraph (b) of Section 21.01. In any event, Tenant shall remain liable for any deficiency.

SECTION 26.17. GOVERNING LAW. The interpretation and validity of this Lease shall be governed by the laws of the state in which the Demised Premises are located.

SECTION 26.18. BROKERAGE. Tenant warrants and represents to the Landlord that it has not sought or engaged the services of any real estate broker with respect to leasing the Demised Premises.

SECTION 26.19. ADDITIONAL RENT. If Tenant shall be in default under any term, covenant, provision or condition hereof, Landlord, after 30 days notice that Landlord intends to cure such default, or without notice if in Landlord's reasonable judgment an emergency shall exist, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to cure such default, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand as additional rent the reasonable cost thereof with interest at the Lease Interest Rate (as hereinafter defined).

SECTION 26.20. NOTICE BY TENANT TO MORTGAGEE. If required by the holder of a mortgage lien on the Premises (provided Tenant is furnished with written notice of such requirement), Tenant agrees (a) to notify such mortgagee of any alleged default by Landlord in any of the provisions of this Lease; and (b) to allow to the said mortgagee a reasonable period of time to cure such alleged default.

SECTION 26.21. CONDUCT OF TENANT'S WORK.

(a) The parties mutually acknowledge that Tenant may determine to effect installation on the premises which are the subject of this Lease certain leasehold improvements (Tenant's Work) in the nature of fixtures, equipment and personalty. Such Tenant's Work is contemplated to be effected subsequent to the execution hereof and prior to the Commencement Date as herein defined. Landlord agrees to permit Tenant and its agents and contractors to enter upon the premises for such purposes with the understanding by the parties that it is of the essence that the progress of Landlord's construction of the improvements required hereunder (Landlord's Work) on the lands described in Exhibit "B" shall not be delayed, interrupted, or impeded; nor shall Landlord's Work be affected in any manner whatsoever which, will result in an increase in the Landlord's cost in completion of Landlord's Work prior to the Commencement Date.

(b) Subject to all of the provisions hereof, if Tenant shall determine to perform Tenant's Work, Landlord agrees to permit Tenant and its contractors and agents to enter upon the Demised Premises for such purposes.

(c) Labor used in the performance of Tenant's Work (Tenant's Labor) shall be such as is compatible with the Labor used in the performance of Landlord's Work (Landlord's Labor); and use of Tenant's Labor shall not result in any stoppage, delay or interruption whatsoever in Landlord's Work.

(d) In the event of any stoppage, delay or interruption in Landlord's Work while Tenant's Labor is engaged on the premises, Tenant shall forthwith cease and desist use of Tenant's Labor on the premises upon receipt of written notice from Landlord demanding cessation of Tenant's Work. Thereafter, Tenant shall not engage Tenant's Labor on the premises until Landlord shall have given written approval therefor.

(e) The parties acknowledge that the performance of Tenant's Work on the premises may effect additional costs to Landlord above those costs contemplated by Landlord in the performance of Landlord's Work by virtue of (i) delay in the progress of Landlord's Work, or (ii) additional work made necessary to complete Landlord's Work because of required changes in work procedures to accommodate Tenant's Work.

(f) If Landlord determines during the progress of Tenant's Work that the cost of Landlord's Work is being increased or will be increased by virtue of the factors described in (e) (i) and (ii) above, Landlord shall have the right to order Tenant to cease and desist in the performance of Tenant's Work; and Tenant agrees to comply with such order or orders. Tenant shall not recommence Tenant's Work unless and until Landlord and Tenant shall have mutually agreed upon compensation to Landlord for such increase in costs to Landlord. Any such agreement between Landlord and Tenant to compensate Landlord for increased costs shall, among other things, provide for monthly invoices and monthly payment.

SECTION 26.22. DEFINITIONS.

If the index is no longer published, the index of consumer prices in such city or region most closely comparable to said index, after making such adjustments as may be prescribed by the agency publishing same or as otherwise may be required to compensate for changes subsequent to the Commencement Date, in items included or method of compilation or computation thereof, shall be substituted therefor.

Said "late payment service charge" shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord promptly upon proper notice and demand therefor.

SECTION 26.24. CONSENTS. With respect to any provision of this Lease which provides, or is held to provide that Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold or unreasonably delay any consent or any approval. Tenant, in no event, shall be entitled to make, nor shall Tenant make, any claim for, and Tenant hereby waives any claim for money damages; nor shall Tenant claim any money damages by way of setoff, counterclaim or defense, based upon any claim or assertion by Tenant that Landlord has unreasonably withheld or unreasonably delayed any consent or approval; but Tenant's sole remedy shall be to seek specific performance of the Consent or approval in question through arbitration proceedings as set forth in Article XXV.

All requirements promulgated by any Federal, State or local governmental authority, including without limitation, under the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA), the Spill Compensation and Control Act and the Environmental Clean Up Responsibility Act (ECRA), with respect to Tenant's use of the Premises shall be the sole responsibility of the Tenant, except that Landlord warrants that the Premises are in compliance with governing requirements, if any, which are of general application at the Commencement Date of the Lease Term for light industrial type buildings, without regard to any specific use thereof (notwithstanding that such use may be for the purposes herein permitted or may have been consented to by Landlord).

SECTION 26.26. INFORMATION FOR MORTGAGEE. SECTION 26.27. INSPECTION BY LANDLORD. The Tenant agrees that Landlord, its agents and other representatives, shall have the right to enter into and upon said Premises, or any part thereof, at all reasonable hours, for the purpose of examining the same upon reasonable advance notice not less than 24 hours, except in the event of emergency, or making such repairs or alterations therein as may be necessary for the safety and preservation thereof, without unduly disturbing the operations of Tenant.

SECTION 26.28. SUBMISSION. Submission of this Lease for examination or signature of Tenant does not constitute an offer, reservation of, or option to lease; and this Lease will not be effective or binding upon the parties as a Lease or otherwise, until execution and delivery by both Landlord and Tenant.

SECTION 26.29. ENVIRONMENTAL COVENANTS.

(a) Tenant covenants not to discharge any "Hazardous Substances" or "Wastes" (as said terms are defined in ECRA and/or Spill Compensation and Control Act) upon the Premises or any adjacent lands. In the event of any such discharge, Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord, and shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, immediately take any and all actions required by law.

(b) Tenant agrees to conduct any and all environmental testing and sampling required by ECRA not more than six months, or less than two months, before the earlier of (i) the anticipated termination date of this Lease, or (ii) the date on which Tenant intends to "close, terminate or transfer operations" at the Premises (as those terms are defined in ECRA), or (iii) the commencement of an assignment or sublease of all or a portion of the Premises, or (iv) the termination of any such assignment or sublease. Tenant shall notify Landlord at least seven days in advance of any such testing or sampling and permit Landlord or its representatives to observe all testing and sampling activities. Tenant shall provide to the Landlord, within seven days from Landlord's request the following:

(1) the name, address and telephone number and primary contact name of Tenant's environmental testing or sampling consultants or contractors; and

In the event that the clean-up is not completed prior to the termination date of this Lease, Tenant shall be deemed to be a Hold Over in accordance with Section 26.12 and all the obligations of Tenant under the Lease shall continue until such completion, including, but not limited to, the Tenant's obligation to pay rent; provided, however, that Tenant's rights under the Lease shall be limited to a right of access for the sole and limited purpose of completing the required clean-up.

Landlord's right to conduct Inspection shall include, without limitation, a right of access to all portions of the Premises for testing and a right to inspect all of Tenant's raw materials, processes, work in process, finished products, machinery, waste disposal procedures, waste disposal equipment and waste

(1) the Inspection occurs within six months prior to, or within a reasonable time after, (i) the termination date of the Lease or the closure, termination or transfer of operations at the Premises and Tenant has failed to provide such testing as required in subsection (b) above; (ii) the assignment or sublease of all or a portion of the Premises by Tenant and Tenant has failed to provide such testing as required in subsection (b) above; or (iii) the termination of any such assignment or sublease and Tenant or Subtenant has failed to provide such testing as required in subsection (b) above; or

(2) the Inspection is required by any governmental authority having jurisdiction ("Environmental Regulator") and is related to Tenant's use of or operations at the Premises; or

(3) the Inspection reveals any unlawful environmental contamination of or discharge on the Premises; or

(4) the Inspection is the result of or in response to any discharge, spill or contamination of the Premises, or any clean-up of any of the foregoing.

As used herein, the costs and expenses of Inspection includes all costs directly or indirectly related to such Inspection, or as may be required by any Environmental Regulator in the formulation of a clean-up plan or otherwise.

(e) Landlord shall have the right of injunctive relief to enforce any and all of Tenant's obligations under this Section.

(f) Landlord shall have the right to remedy, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, which shall be due from Tenant upon demand as additional rent, any environmental contamination revealed by any Inspection or clean-up required by any Environmental Regulator.

(g) All rights and remedies of the Landlord under this Section are cumulative and in addition to any other rights or remedies provided to Landlord elsewhere in this Lease or pursuant to applicable law. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Section and the other provisions of this Lease, the provision which gives the greater protection to the Landlord shall control.

(h) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant and its employees harmless from any loss, liability, suits, expenses, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys fees and expenses, and costs, including but not limited to any clean-up costs and related remedial investigations and feasibility studies, arising out of or related to Hazardous Substances or Waste existing on the Demised Premises prior to the Commencement date hereof.

SECTION 26.30. TESTS PRIOR TO COMMENCEMENT. Prior to the Commencement Date, the Landlord, at its own cost and expense, shall cause the Demised Premises to be inspected by an environmental testing consultant who shall make such tests as he shall deem reasonable so that he may issue to Landlord and Tenant a report confirming that as of the Commencement Date of this Lease the Demised Premises are in compliance with applicable governmental regulations.

SECTION 26.31. FIT AND FINISH. The parties herein acknowledge that they have inspected several buildings constructed and leased by the Landlord to others. The parties agree that the fit and finish of the Demised Premises shall be substantially equal to the quality of those which they have inspected.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Landlord and Tenant have executed this Lease as of the day and year first above written.

No pumping of underground water shall be permitted.

(x) Upon any breach by the Tenant of any of the foregoing covenants or conditions, Landlord shall have a remedy of injunctive relief in addition to all other remedies available to Landlord under applicable law. It is understood, however, that the breach of any of the foregoing covenants, conditions and restrictions shall not defeat or render invalid the lien of any mortgage on the Premises made in good faith and for value; provided, however, that any breach or continuance thereof may be enjoined, abated or remedied by the proper arbitration proceedings as aforesaid and provided further, that each and all of the foregoing covenants, conditions and restrictions shall at all times remain in full force and effect against said Premises or any part thereof, title to which is obtained by foreclosure of any such mortgage.

(xi) Reference in these restrictions and conditions to Landlord or Tenant shall include their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

(c) Such facts as an accurate survey may disclose provided there is nothing revealed thereby which would prohibit the use and occupancy by Tenant in accordance with the provisions of the Lease.

The rent payable under this Lease during the unexpired portion of the term shall be adjusted to such an extent as may be fair and reasonable under the circumstances. See Addendum item L.

14. FIRE AND CASUALTY: (a) If the leased premises should be totally destroyed by fire, tornado or other casualty, or if the leased premises should be so damaged so that rebuilding or repairs cannot reasonably be completed within one hundred and twenty (120) working days after the date of written notification by Lessee to Lessor of the destruction, this Lease shall terminate and the rent shall be abated for the unexpired portion of the Lease, effective as of the date of the written notification.

(b) If the leased premises should be partially damaged by fire, tornado or other casualty, and rebuilding or repairs can reasonably be completed within one hundred and twenty (120) working days from the date of written notification by Lessee to Lessor of the destruction, this Lease shall not terminate, but Lessor may at its sole risk and expense proceed with reasonable diligence to rebuild or repair the building or other improvements to substantially the condition in which they existed prior to the damage. If the leased premises are to be rebuilt or repaired and are untenantable in whole or in part following the damage, and the damage or destruction was not caused or contributed to by act or negligence of Lessee, its agents, employees, invitees or those for whom Lessee is responsible, the rent payable under this Lease during the period for which the leased premises are untenantable shall be adjusted to such an extent as may be fair and reasonable under the circumstances. In the event that Lessor fails to complete the necessary repairs or rebuilding within one hundred and twenty (120) working days from the date of written notification by Lessee to Lessor of the destruction, Lessee may at its option terminate this Lease by delivering written notice of termination to Lessor, whereupon all rights and obligations under the Lease shall cease to exist; See Addendum item M

Lease, at its expense, maintain a policy or policies of insurance with the premiums paid in advance, issued by and binding upon some solvent insurance company, insuring the building against loss or damage by fire, explosion or other hazards and contingencies for the full insurable value; provided, that Lessor shall not be obligated in any way or manner to insure any personal property (including, but not limited to, any furniture, machinery, goods or supplies) of Lessee or which Lessee may have upon or within the leased premises or any fixtures installed by or paid for by Lessee upon or within the leased premises or any additional improvements which Lessee may construct on the leased premises.

16. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION: Anything in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, Lessor and Lessee hereby waive and release each other of and from any and all rights of recovery, claim, action or cause of action, against each other, their agents, officers and employees, for any loss or damage that may occur to the leased premises, improvements to the building of which the leased premises are a part, or personal property (building contents) within the building, by reason of fire or the elements, or other peril regardless of cause or origin, including negligence of Lessor or Lessee and their agents, officers and employees. Because this paragraph will preclude the assignment of any claim mentioned in it by way of subrogation (or otherwise) to an insurance company (or any other person), each party to this Lease agrees immediately to give to each insurance company which has issued to it policies of fire and extended coverage insurance, written notice of the terms of the mutual waivers contained in this paragraph, and to have the insurance policies properly endorsed, if necessary, to prevent the invalidation of the insurance coverages by reason of the mutual waivers contained in this paragraph.

17. HOLD HARMLESS. Unless caused by the sole negligence or misconduct by Lessor. Lessor shall not be liable to Lessee's employees, agents, invitees, licensees or visitors, or to any other person, for any injury to person or damage to property on or about the leased premises caused by the negligence or misconduct of Lessee, its agents, servants or employees, or of any other person entering upon the leased premises under express or implied invitation by Lessee, or caused by the buildings and improvements located on the leased premises becoming out of repair, or caused by leakage of gas, oil, water or steam or by electricity emanating from the leased premises, or due to any other cause. Lessee agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Lessor of and from any loss, attorney's fees, expenses or claims arising out of any such damage or injury not caused by the sole negligence of the Lessor. Any liability insurance which may be carried by Lessor or Lessee with respect to the leased premises shall be for the sole benefit of the party carrying the insurance and under its sole control.

18. QUIET ENJOYMENT. Lessor warrants that it has full right to execute and to perform this Lease and to grant the estate demised, and, that Lessee, upon payment of the required rents and performing the terms, conditions, covenants and agreements contained in this Lease, shall peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the leased premises during the full term of this Lease as well as any extension or renewal; thereof.

19. LESSOR'S RIGHT OF ENTRY: Lessor shall have the right, at all reasonable hours after providing Lessee with 24 hour notice, to enter the leased premises for the following: inspection; cleaning or making repairs; alterations or additions as Lessor may deem necessary or desirable for the uniform and efficient operation of the leased premises; determining Lessee's use of the leased premises, or determining if an act of default under this Lease has occurred, provided however, Lessor may enter the leased premises without notice to Lessee in the event of an emergency.

20. ASSIGNMENT OR SUBLEASE: Lessor shall have the right to transfer and assign, in whole or in part, its rights and obligations in the building and property that are the subject of this Lease. Lessee shall not assign this Lease or sublet all or any part of the leased premises without the prior written consent of Lessor. Lessor shall have the option, upon receipt from Lessee of written request for Lessor's consent to subletting or assignment, to cancel this Lease or the part of the Lease which pertains to the part of the leased premises to be subleased as of the date the requested subletting or assignment is to be effective. The option shall be exercised, if at all, within fifteen (15) days following Lessor's receipt of written notice by delivery to Lessee or written notice of Lessor's intention to exercise the option See Addendum item X. In the event of any assignment or subletting. Lessee shall nevertheless at all times, remain fully responsible and liable for the payment of the rent and for compliance with all of its other obligations under the terms, provisions and covenants of this Lease. Upon the occurrence of an "event of default" as defined below, if all or any part of the leased premises are then assigned or sublet, Lessor, in addition to any other remedies provided by this Lease or provided by law, may, at its option, collect directly from the assignee or subtenant all rents becoming due to Lessee by reason of the assignment or sublease. Any collection directly by Lessor from the assignee or subtenant shall not be construed to constitute a notation or release of Lessee from the further performance of its obligations under this Lease.

21. HOLDING OVER: In the event of holding over by Lessee after the expiration or termination of this Lease, the hold over shall be as a tenant at will and all of the terms and provisions of this Lease shall be applicable during that period, except that Lessee shall pay Lessor as rental for the period of such hold over an amount equal to 125% the rent which would have been payable by Lessee had the hold over period been a part of the prior term of this Lease. Lessee agrees to vacate and deliver the leased premises to Lessor upon Lessee's receipt of notice from Lessor to vacate. The rental payable during the hold over period shall be payable to Lessor on demand. No holding over by Lessee without consent of Lessor, shall operate to extend this Lease except as otherwise expressly provided.

22. DEFAULT BY LESSEE. The following shall be deemed to be events of default by Lessee under this Lease:

(a) Lessee shall fail to pay any installment of the rent required to be paid under this Lease, and the failure continues for a period of ten (10) days:

(b) Lessee shall abandon any substantial portion of the leased premises:

(c) Lessee shall fail to comply with any term, provision or covenant of this

Lease, other than the payment of rent, and the failure is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice to lessee; See Addendum item N

(d) Lessee shall file a petition or be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent under the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended or any similar law or statute of the United States or any state; or that a receiver or trustee shall be appointed for all or substantially all of the assets of Lessee; or that Lessee shall make a transfer in fraud of creditors or shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

23. REMEDIES FOR LESSEE'S DEFAULT: Upon the occurrence of any event of default set forth in this Lease Agreement, Lessor shall have the option to pursue any one or more of the following remedies after providing Lessee with 15 days prior written notice.

(a) Terminate this Lease, in which event Lessee shall immediately surrender the leased premises to Lessor, and if Lessee fails to surrender the leased premises, Lessor may, without prejudice to any other remedy which it may have for possession or arrearages in rent, enter upon and take possession of the leased premises Lessee agrees to pay on demand the amount of all loss and damage which Lessor may suffer by reason of the termination of the Lease under this subparagraph, whether through inability to relet the leased premises on satisfactory terms or otherwise.

(b) Enter upon and take possession of the leased premises and relet the leased premises on behalf of Lessee and receive directly the rent by reason of the reletting. Lessee agrees to pay Lessor on demand any deficiency that may arise by reason of any reletting of the leased premises.

(c) Enter upon the leased premises and do whatever Lessee is obligated to do under the terms of this Lease. Lessee agrees to reimburse Lessor on demand for any expenses which Lessor may incur in effecting compliance with Lessee's obligations under this Lease; further, Lessee agrees that Lessor shall not be liable for any damages resulting to Lessee from effecting compliance with Lessee's obligations under this subparagraph not caused by the negligence of Lessor.

24. WAIVER OF DEFAULT OR REMEDY: Failure of Lessor to declare an event of default immediately upon its occurrence, or delay in taking any action in connection with an event of default, shall not constitute a waiver of the default, but Lessor shall have the right after providing Lessee with 15 days' prior written notice to declare the default while the default remains incurred, and take such action as is lawful or authorized under this Lease. Pursuit of any one or more of the remedies set forth in paragraph 23 above shall not preclude pursuit of any one or more of the other remedies provided in paragraph 23, provided elsewhere in this Lease or provided by law, nor shall pursuit of any remedy provided constitute a forfeiture or waiver of any rent or damages accruing to Lessor by reason of the violation of any of the terms, provisions or covenants of this Lease. Failure by Lessor to enforce one or more of the remedies provided upon an event of default shall not be deemed or construed to constitute a waiver of the default or of any other violation or breach of any of the terms, provisions and covenants contained in this Lease.

25. ACTS OF GOD: Lessor and Lessee shall not be required to perform any covenant or obligation in this Lease (except for the payment of rent by Lessee), or be liable in damages to the other, so long as the performance or non-performance of the covenant or obligation is delayed, caused by or prevented by an act of God or force majeure.

26. ATTORNEY'S FEES. In the event Lessee defaults in the performance of any of the terms, covenants, agreements or conditions contained in this Lease and Lessor places the enforcement of all or any part of this Lease, the collection of any rent due or to become due, or recovery of the possession of the leased premises in the hands of an attorney, Lessee agrees to pay Lessor reasonable attorney's fees for the services of the attorney, whether suit is actually filed or not. See Addendum item P

27. RIGHTS OF MORTGAGEE: Lessee accepts this Lease subject and subordinate to any recorded mortgage, deed of trust presently existing upon the leased premises. Lessor is hereby irrevocably vested with full power and authority to subordinate Lessee's interest under this Lease to any reasonable mortgage, deed of trust hereafter placed on the leased premises, and Lessee agrees upon demand to execute additional instruments subordinating this Lease as Lessor may require. If the interests of Lessor under this Lease shall be transferred by reason of foreclosure or other proceedings for enforcement of any mortgage on the leased premises. Lessee shall be bound to the transferee (sometimes called the "Purchaser") under the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease for the balance of the term remaining, and any extensions or renewals, with the same force and effect as if the Purchaser were Lessor under this Lease, and Lessee agrees to attorn to the Purchaser, including the mortgagee under any such mortgage if it be the Purchaser, as its lessor, the attornment to be effective and self-operative without the execution of any further instruments upon the Purchaser succeeding to the interest of Lessor under this Lease. The respective rights and obligations of Lessee and the Purchaser upon the attornment, to the extent of the then remaining balance of the term of this Lease, and any extensions and renewals, shall be and are the same as those set forth in this Lease. See Addendum item O.

28. DEFINITIONS: These definitions apply to the terms defined as those terms are used throughout this Lease.

(a) "Abandon" means the vacating of all or a substantial portion of the leased premises by Lessee, whether or not Lessee is in default of the rental payments due under this Lease.

(b) An "act of God" or "force majeure" is defined for purpose of this Lease Agreement as strikes, lockouts, sitdowns, material or labor restrictions by any governmental authority, riots, floods, washouts, explosions, earthquakes, fire, storms, acts of the public enemy, wars, insurrections and any other cause not reasonably within the control of Lessor or Lessee and which by the exercise of due diligence Lessor is Lessee is unable, wholly or in part, to prevent or overcome.

It is likewise agreed that this Lease may not be altered, waived, amended or extended except by an instrument in writing, signed by both Lessor and Lessee.

ADDENDUM TO THAT CERTAIN LEASE AGREEMENT

BETWEEN WESTBELT BUSINESS PARK JOINT VENTURE

AND BOISE CASCADE CORPORATION

EXECUTED May 10, 1984

A. Shall include operating expenses attributable to the building under generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied from year to year with respect to buildings similar to the building subject to this Lease and

B. The signs shall be approximately 4 feet by 8 feet, basically the same in appearance as those pictured in Exhibit B, attached hereto and incorporated by this reference.

C. Lessee shall have the right to erect other signs on the building approximately 1 foot by 2 feet, to indicate loading, shipping, receiving and other appropriate instructions.

D. And receiving, storing, shipping and selling products, materials and merchandise made and/or distributed by Lessee, and for such other lawful purposes as may be incidental thereto.

E. Such expenses shall be excluded from the term "operating expenses."

F. Provided, however, that if Lessor fails to complete any repairs, alterations or additions within 60 days after the date of Lessee's notice (or such longer period of time in the event that such repairs, alterations or additions cannot be completed within such 60-day period, provided that Lessor has commenced such repairs, alterations or additions and is diligently pursuing the same) and, in Lessee's reasonable opinion, such failure substantially interferes with Lessee's operations under this Lease, the Lessee may, at Lessee's option, cause such repairs, alterations or additions to be completed and deduct the cost therefore from the rent payments to be made under this Lease or be entitled to a proportionate abatement or reduction of rent for the loss of the use of the leased premises.

G. In the event the leased premises constitute a portion of a multiple occupancy building, Lessor shall be responsible for coordinating any repairs and other maintenance of any rail tracks serving or to serve the building, and if Lessee uses such rail tracks, Lessee shall reimburse Lessor, from time to time, upon demand, as additional rent, its proportionate share of the cost of such repairs and maintenance and of any other sum specified in any agreement to which Lessor is a party respecting such tracks.

H. Agrees to separately meter all utilities.

I. Lessor shall commence and complete the construction of the improvements on the leased premises. Should the cost of completing the improvements exceed $370,000, Lessor shall complete the construction, and Lessee shall pay for any excess cost over $370,000, so long as Lessor causes the improvements to be made in accordance with the floor plans and specifications in an efficient and timely manner. Lessee shall provide Lessor with specifications and floor plans for the improvements upon the execution of this Lease, and such specifications and floor plans shall be agreed to by the parties and made a part of this Lease. Lessor shall use its best efforts to complete the construction of the improvements to the warehouse portion of the leased premises by June 1, 1984, and to the office portion of the leased premises by July 1, 1984. Upon Lessor's completion of the improvements, Lessor and Lessee shall inspect the premises and shall prepare a punch list of items, if any, not completed in accordance with the specifications and floor plans. All items listed shall be completed by Lessor as soon thereafter as possible. The "completion date" shall be the date upon which all the improvements have been constructed and shall have been substantially completed in accordance with the floor plans and specifications and accepted by Lessee by a written letter of acceptance to Lessor. Lessee shall deliver the letter of acceptance to Lessor when the improvements are substantially completed in accordance with the floor plans and specifications. Should the improvements not be substantially completed by Lessor and accepted by Lessee within 60 days after June 1, 1984, with reference to the warehouse portion of the leased premises, or within 90 days after July 1, 1984, with reference to the office portion of the leased premises, Lessee, at its option, shall have the right to terminate this Lease and shall not be obligated to make payment for any improvements. The improvements shall be deemed to be substantially completed when all essential facilities and improvements have been constructed or installed by Lessor and the leased premises are ready for use by Lessee for its intended purposes. If any dispute arises between Lessor and Lessee as to the time of substantial completion or the written acceptance of the improvements by Lessee, Lessor and Lessee shall appoint a mutually acceptable, independent architect who shall certify whether the improvements have been substantially completed in accordance with the floor plans and specifications. The fees for such architect's services shall be divided equally between Lessor and Lessee.

J. Lessee may, without the consent of Lessor, but at Lessee's own cost and expense and in a good workmanlike manner, make such minor alterations or erect, remove or alter partitions, lighting fixtures and dock levelers, or erect such shelves, bins, machinery and trade fixtures as Lessee may deem advisable without altering the basic character of the building or improvements. All shelves, bins, machinery, trade fixtures and light fixtures in the bin areas of the leased premises installed by Lessee may be removed by Lessee prior to the termination of this Lease if Lessee so elects, provided that Lessee is not in default under the terms of this Lease and further provided that Lessee shall repair any damage done to the leased premises as a result of such removal.

K. In the event of any such taking, Lessor and Lessee shall each be entitled to receive and retain such separate awards and/or a portion of lump sum awards as may be allocated to their respective interests by the condemning authority or any court of competent jurisdiction in any condemnation proceedings.

L. In the event of any such taking, Lessor and Lessee shall each be entitled to receive and retain such separate awards and/or a portion of lump sum awards as may be allocated to their respective interests by the condemning authority or any court of competent jurisdiction in any condemnation proceeding. Further, should Lessor's restoration and reconstruction of the building and other improvements continue for longer than 90 days after the date physical possession is taken by the condemning authority, and in Lessee's reasonable opinion substantially interferes with Lessee's operations under this Lease, Lessee may, at its option, terminate this Lease.

M. And rent shall be abated for the unexpired portion of the Lease, effective as of the date Lessee notified Lessor of the destruction.

N. Or if the cure cannot be completed within 30 days, the cure has been commenced within 30 days and Lessee diligently thereafter completes the cure.

O. Provided, however, that Lessor shall procure from any mortgagee a nondisturbance agreement providing, in substance, that so long as Lessee shall faithfully discharge the obligations on its part to be kept and performed under the terms of this Lease, Lessee's tenancy will not be disturbed nor this Lease affected by any default under such mortgage, and Lessee agrees that this Lease shall remain in full force and effect even though default in the mortgage may occur.

P. In the event Lessor defaults in the performance of any of the terms, covenants, agreements or conditions contained in this Lease, and Lessee places the enforcement of all or any part of this Lease in the hands of an attorney, Lessor agrees to pay Lessee reasonable attorneys' fees for the services of an attorney, whether suit is actually filed or not.

R. Or if there have been modifications, that the Lease is in full force and effect as modified and identifying such modifications.

S. Or if Lessee has knowledge of any default, a statement of the nature thereof.

T. Wherever the consent of either party is required under the terms of this Lease, such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

U. Provided that Lessee is not in default, Lessee shall have the option to renew this Lease for an additional term of 60 months at the same terms and conditions upon providing Lessor with 120 days' prior written notice to the expiration of this Lease. In the event Lessee exercises this option to renew, the rent shall be as follows: Lessee shall pay no rent for the first three months of the renewal term, and rent thereafter shall be $36,944 per month. In the event Lessee does not exercise its option to renew, Lessee agrees to pay Lessor $158,894, as the unamortized portion of the leasehold improvements remaining at the termination of this Lease, and such payment shall be made within 30 days after the termination of this Lease. In the event Lessee exercises the renewal option, at the end of the renewal term, Lessee may exercise a second option to renew provided that Lessee is not in default, at the same terms and conditions for a period of 60 months upon providing Lessor with written notice 120 days prior to the expiration of the renewal term; however, the rent during the second option shall be the fair market rental based on the then prevailing rental rates for properties of equivalent quality, size, utility and location as the leased premises with the length of the lease term and credit-standing of Lessee to be taken into account, and the $.38 per square foot for operating expenses under paragraph 3(e) of this Lease shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect the actual expenses incurred by Lessor during the year prior to commencement of such renewal option. In the event Lessee exercises its second renewal option in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph, but Lessor and Lessee cannot in good faith agree to the fair market rental for the second option period at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the first renewal term, the second renewal option contained herein shall become null and void.

V. Pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, Lessor hereby grants to Lessee the right to lease approximately 46,060 square feet in the building (the "Adjacent Space" as outlined in yellow in Exhibit A), provided Lessee is not in default of the Lease and the Lease is in full force and effect. Lessor agrees to offer the Adjacent Space to Lessee for lease at least one time during the period commencing 42 months and ending 78 months following the completion date of this Lease.

Lessor shall deliver to Lessee, in writing, notice that Lessor is offering Lessee the Adjacent Space. Lessee shall have 30 days from the receipt of such notice to notify Lessor in writing of its intent to lease all of the Adjacent Space. In the event Lessor has received no notice from Lessee by the end of the 30-day period, Lessee shall be deemed to have refused the offer. In the event Lessee does elect to lease all of the Adjacent Space and so notifies Lessor, then Lessor and Lessee shall execute an amendment to this Lease pertaining to the Adjacent Space containing substantially the same terms and conditions then existing under this Lease, with the term for the Adjacent Space to coincide with the remaining term of this Lease, including any renewal terms. Provided, however, that the rental for the Adjacent Space shall be as agreed upon by Lessor and Lessee.

W. In addition to the rights granted in paragraph V, Lessor does hereby grant to Lessee the right of first offer to lease additional space in the building for a term coincident with the then remaining term of the Lease and renewal options consistent with the Lease, provided Lessee is not in default under this Lease and the Lease is in full force and effect. At any time during the term of this Lease, or any renewal term, should additional space in the building become available, Lessor shall notify Lessee in writing of the availability of such additional space. Lessee shall have 15 days from the receipt of any such notice to notify Lessor in writing of Lessee's desire to negotiate with Lessor regarding such space and Lessor shall not, during such 15-day period, enter into any lease with a third party for such space. A Lessee does not notify Lessor of Lessee's desire to negotiate with Lessor regarding such space within the 15 day period, Lessor may thereafter enter into a lease for such space with a third party. If Lessee notifies Lessor of Lessee's desire to negotiate and Lessor and Lessee do not reach an agreement regarding such space within 30 days after Lessee notifies Lessor, then Lessor may thereafter enter into a lease for such space with a third party. In the event that Lessor enters into a lease with Lessee for such space, such lease shall contain substantially the same terms and conditions as contained in this Lease, except for those terms dealing with rental and other financial items. It is specifically understood by both parties that nothing contained in this paragraph shall relieve Lessor of its obligation to offer the Adjacent Space to Lessee under paragraph V hereof.

X. Lessor must either cancel this Lease, or the part of the Lease which pertains to the part of the leased premises to be subleased, as of the date the requested subletting or assignment is to be effective, or consent to Lessee's assignment or subletting.

Y. The rental reserved hereunder for the primary term and first renewal term of this Lease includes the amortization of $230,668.50 in leasehold improvements over a ten-year period at 16% interest per annum. In the event that this Lease is terminated during the primary term or first renewal term on account of a default by Lessee, Lessee shall pay to Lessor the unamortized principal portion of the leasehold improvements remaining at the termination of this Lease, and such payment shall be made within 30 days after the termination of this Lease.

THIRD AMENDMENT TO LEASE

THIS THIRD AMENDMENT TO LEASE (this "Amendment") is made as of this _____ day of August, 1994 by and between MLH INCOME REALTY PARTNERSHIP V, a New York limited partnership having an address at World Financial Center, South Tower, New York, New York 10080-6112 ("Landlord") and ASSOCIATED STATIONERS, INC., a Delaware corporation having an address at 1075 Hawthorn Drive, Itasca, Illinois 60143 ("Tenant").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Westbelt Business Park Joint Venture, as predecessor-in-interest to Landlord, and Boise Cascade Corporation, as predecessor-in-interest to Tenant entered into that certain Lease Agreement dated May 10, 1984, as amended by Addendum dated May 10, 1984, Amendment to Lease dated September, 1985, Second Amendment to Lease dated March 19, 1986, Renewal of Lease dated May 23, 1989 and Consent Letter dated December 9, 1991 (collectively, the "Lease") with respect to premises consisting of approximately 126,665 rentable square feet in the building (the "Building") located at 1634 Westbelt Drive, Columbus, Ohio, as more particularly described in the Lease; and

WHEREAS, Landlord and Tenant desire to amend the Lease with respect to an extension of the term of the Lease and as otherwise provided in this Amendment; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Landlord and Tenant agree as follows:

1. The provisions of this Amendment shall supersede any inconsistent provisions contained in the Lease, whether such inconsistent provisions are contained in the printed portion of the Lease or any addendum, rider or exhibit annexed thereto. All capitalized items not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in Lease.

2. Termination Date. The term of the Lease is hereby extended and shall end on August 31, 1999, unless sooner terminated as provided in the Lease or by applicable law.

3. Base Rent. Effective from and after July 1, 1994 (the "Effective Date"), Paragraph 3 of the Lease shall be amended so that base rent shall be $348,328.80 per annum ($29,027.40 per month). Landlord acknowledges that Tenant has paid rent in the amount of $36,944 for each of the months of July and August, 1994, and therefore has overpaid rent in the amount of $15,833.20, which amount shall be credited against Tenant's rent obligations for the month of November, 1994. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, provided that Tenant shall not be in default under the terms of the Lease as amended hereby, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay base rent in the amount of $29,027.40 per month for the months of September and October, 1994. The foregoing rental concession shall be null and void "ab initio" if Landlord at any time terminates the Lease or re-enters or repossesses the Premises on account of any default of Tenant under the Lease, and Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant, in addition to all other amounts Landlord is entitled to recover, the amount of all rental concessions.

4. Operating Expenses. Paragraph 3(e) of the Lease is hereby amended by deleting the $0.38 expense stop set forth therein and substituting $0.00 in lieu thereof, it being the intent of Landlord and Tenant that Tenant pay its pro rata share of all operating expense for the Building.

5. Use. The Premises shall be used for the warehousing and distribution of paper and office and related products and incidental lawful uses.

6. Landlord's Work

A. Landlord shall perform or cause to be performed certain improvements to be mutually agreed upon by Landlord and Tenant (the "Improvements") to the Premises in a building standard manner using building standard materials as more particularly set fourth on Exhibit "D" attached hereto and made a part hereof. Landlord agrees to perform any portion of the Improvement work which materially interferes with Tenant's conduct of business in the Premises on weekends or after normal business hours.

B. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it is presently in possession of the Premises, that it has made a full and complete inspection of the Premises, and is familiar with the condition thereof and, except for the Improvements, shall and does accept possession of the Premises in its present "as-is" condition as suitable for Tenant's intended use and occupancy thereof. Upon Tenant's continued occupancy of the Premises, it shall be conclusively presumed that same has been so accepted by Tenant, is in satisfactory condition, and complies fully with Landlord's covenants and obligations. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord shall have no obligation to perform any tenant improvement work of any kind in connection with Tenant's occupancy of the Premises and Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall perform all necessary or desirable work in connection with preparing the Premises for its occupancy in accordance with the Lease and any and all costs of same shall be paid by Tenant in full and Tenant shall provide Landlord with reasonable evidence of such payment within five (5) days after Landlord's request therefor.

C. In the event Landlord fails to substantially complete the Improvements on or before September 30, 1994 (unless such failure is due to an act or omission of Tenant, its agents or employees or force majeure), then Tenant shall have the right to send a notice to Landlord specifying the portion(s) of the Improvements (the "Incomplete Items") which have not been substantially completed. If Landlord fails to substantially complete the Incomplete Items within twenty (20) days after the giving of such notice, Tenant shall have the right to perform the Incomplete Items and thereafter send Landlord a statement of costs incurred for the Incomplete Items, together with evidence thereof. Landlord shall promptly reimburse Tenant for the reasonable cost of performing the Incomplete Items, and in the event fails to do so within thirty (30) days after rendition of Tenant's statement. Tenant may deduct the reasonable cost of performing the Incomplete Items from the next installment of rent coming due under the Lease.

7. Extension Option

A. Provided that the Lease is in full force and effect, without the occurrence of an event of default thereunder or any defaults or breaches under any of the terms, covenants or conditions in the Lease on Tenant's part to observe or perform on the date that Tenant exercises the option granted herein or on the expiration date of the Lease, Tenant shall have the option (the "Extension Option"), to extend the term of the Lease for an extension term (the "Extension Term") of five (5) year(s) commencing on the day next succeeding the expiration date of the Lease and ending on the day which shall be the fifth (5th) anniversary of said expiration date, both dates inclusive, in accordance with and subject to the terms, covenants and conditions hereinafter set forth. Tenant shall exercise the Extension Option by sending a written notice thereof (the "Extension Notice") to the Landlord by certified mail, return receipt requested or nationally recognized overnight courier service on or before the date which is 180 days prior to the expiration date, time being of the essence. If Tenant shall send the Extension Notice within the time and in the manner hereinabove provided, the term of the Lease shall be deemed extended for the Extension Term upon the terms, covenants and conditions hereinafter contained. If Tenant shall fail to send the Extension Notice within the time and in the manner hereinabove provided, the Extension Option shall cease and terminate, and Tenant shall have no further option to extend the term of this Lease.

B. The Extension Term shall be upon, and subject to, all of the terms, covenants and conditions provided in the Lease for the initial term hereof, without any further right of extension, except that:

(a) any terms, covenants, or conditions in the Lease that are expressly or by their nature inapplicable to the Extension Term (including, without limitation, paragraph 6 of this Amendment) shall not apply during the Extension Term; and

(b) the basic annual rental payable by Tenant during the Extension Term (the "Extension Rent"), subject to adjustment as otherwise in the Lease provided, shall be an amount equal to the fair market rental value of the leased premises to be prevailing as of the commencement of the Extension Term on the basis of a new five (5) year letting of the leased premises determined in accordance with paragraph C below.

C. (i) Within thirty (30) days after receipt by Landlord of Tenant's Extension Notice, Landlord shall submit to Tenant Landlord's determination of the fair market rental value of the Premises. If Tenant does not notify Landlord in writing within ten (10) days of Tenant's receipt of Landlord's determination that Tenant objects to such determination of the fair market rental value, Tenant shall be deemed to have accepted such determination of the fair market value and such determination shall be deemed to be fair market value for the purpose of determining Extension Rent for the Extension Term. If Tenant so notifies Landlord that Tenant objects to Landlord's determination, Landlord and Tenant shall endeavor to reach an agreement as to the fair market rental value of the Premises for the Extension Term. If Tenant and Landlord are unable to reach agreement within sixty (60) days after Tenant gives the Extension Notice, then Landlord and Tenant shall each, within twenty (20) days after the expiration of such sixty (60) day period, select an MAI appraiser (the "Appraisers"). The two appraisers so selected shall, within forty-five (45) days of such selection, jointly attempt to determine and agree on the fair market rental value of the Premises for the Extension Term. If the Appraisers cannot agree on such fair market rental value, within said forty-five (45) day period, each Appraiser within such period shall make an independent appraisal of such rental value and deliver the same to Landlord and Tenant. If either Appraiser fails to deliver its appraisal within such forty-five (45) day period then the appraisal of the single Appraiser shall be deemed to be such fair market rental value for purposes of determining the Extension Rent for the Extension Term. Within ten (10) days of Landlord's and Tenant's receipt of the last appraisal, the two Appraisers shall select (by written notice to Landlord and Tenant) another MAI appraiser (the "Third Appraiser") whose sole responsibility shall be to select, within ten (10) days, which of the two original appraisals more closely approximates such fair market rental value, which appraisal shall be deemed to be the fair market value for purpose of determining Extension Rent. The determinations of the Appraisers or Third Appraiser, as the case may be, shall be in writing and shall be binding on both Landlord and Tenant. In determining such fair market rental value, each of such appraisers shall take into consideration the rental rate per square foot in comparable buildings in Columbus, Ohio the size, term, and location of the Building, the existence age and condition of the tenant improvements then in the Premises, and the terms and conditions of this Lease.

(ii) The Appraisers and the Third Appraiser shall have at least ten (10) years experience in appraising the value of leasehold interests in real estate and shall be familiar with then current rental values in comparable buildings located in Columbus, Ohio. Duplicate original counterparts of the determinations of each of the Appraisers and the Third Appraiser, as the case may be, shall be sent promptly to both Landlord and Tenant by certified mail, return receipt requested or nationally recognized overnight carrier. The cost and expense of the Third Appraiser (including fees) or determination shall be borne equally by Landlord and Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall each bear the cost of its respective Appraiser.

D. If the Lease is extended as hereinbefore expressly provided, then Landlord shall have no obligations or duties to paint or otherwise prepare or repair the leased premises, or perform any work or make any installations, in connection with the Extension Term. When used in subparagraph A above, the term "Tenant" shall mean only the named tenant in the Lease, or, to the extent permitted under the Lease, a successor by merger, consolidation or sale of substantially all of the assets of Tenant, and no other assignee, subtenant or successor thereof.

E. Tenant acknowledges that it shall have no further rights under Paragraph U of the Addendum dated May 10, 1984.

8. Right of First Refusal

A. Provided that the Lease is then in full force and effect, and provided further that Tenant is not then in breach or default under any of the terms, covenants or conditions in the Lease as amended hereby on Tenant's part to observe or perform, if Landlord intends to lease the space consisting of approximately 79,325 rentable square feet as indicated on Exhibit "A" (the "Refusal Space") to a third-party tenant, Landlord shall give Tenant written notice (the "Refusal Space Notice") of such intention. During the five (5) business day period commencing on the date Landlord gives the Refusal Space Notice to Tenant, Tenant shall have the option (the "Refusal Space Option") to lease the Refusal Space from Landlord, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Refusal Space Notice by giving to Landlord written notice by U.S. certified mail, return receipt requested or nationally recognized overnight courier service (the "Exercise Notice"), of Tenant's exercise of the Refusal Space Option.

B. If Tenant fails to give the Exercise Notice to Landlord within said five (5) business day period, time being of the essence, or if Tenant fails for any reason to duly execute and deliver to Landlord a lease agreement (or lease amendment) with respect to the Refusal Space in form and content satisfactory to Landlord, within fifteen (15) days after Tenant gives the Exercise Notice to Landlord, time being of the essence, the Refusal Space Option shall be deemed revoked and of no further force and effect and Landlord may thereafter proceed with the leasing of the Refusal Space to any third-party tenant upon terms and conditions satisfactory to said Tenant and Landlord.

C. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, if on the date Landlord gives the Refusal Space Notice to Tenant or on the date Tenant gives the Exercise Notice to Landlord, the Lease is not in full force and effect or Tenant is in breach or default under any of the terms, covenants and conditions in the Lease on Tenant's part to observe or perform then, in addition to all of Landlord's rights and remedies, the Refusal Space Option shall be deemed revoked and of no further force and effect, and Landlord may thereafter proceed with the leasing of the Refusal Space to any tenant and upon any terms and conditions.

D. The Refusal Space Option shall apply only to the first (1st) actual leasing of the Refusal Space immediately succeeding the initial letting of the Refusal Space (or, if the Refusal Space is currently leased, the existing letting). If the Refusal Space is initially leased to more than one (1) tenant, then each portion thereof so leased shall constitute a "Refusal Space" and the Refusal Space Option shall apply only to the first (1st) actual leasing of each such Refusal Spaces (or, if the Refusal Space is currently leased, the existing letting). Tenant expressly agrees that the Refusal Space Option is subject to the then existing occupancies of, and any rights of first refusal or expansion of any tenant with respect, to the Refusal Space.

E. Tenant acknowledges that it shall have no further rights under Paragraph V or W of the Addendum dated May 10, 1984.

9. Insurance. The Insurance Rider attached hereto as Exhibit "B" is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Lease. Tenant agrees to comply with all of the terms, conditions, and provisions of the Insurance Rider.

10. Hazardous Materials. The Hazardous Materials Rider attached hereto as Exhibit "C" is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Lease. Tenant agrees to comply with all of the terms, conditions and provisions of the Hazardous Materials Rider.

11. Broker. Tenant represents and warrants that is has had no dealings, communications or negotiations with any broker or agent in connection with this Amendment except Grubb & Ellis and Carey Leggett Realty (collectively, "Leasing Broker") and National Realty (the "Former Broker"). Tenant hereby agrees to indemnify Landlord from any and against all loss, claim, expense, damage, liability or cost and expenses (including without limitation attorneys' fees) resulting from a breach of the foregoing representation and warranty. Landlord shall pay Leasing Broker a commission pursuant to a separate written agreement. Landlord represents that the Former Broker is not entitled to receive a commission in connection with this Amendment, and shall indemnify Tenant from and against any claim for a commission by the Former Broker.

12. Tax Status. Tenant represents that it is not a tax-exempt organization as defined in Section 401 or Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code or a foreign entity not subject to the U.S. taxation.

13. Notices.

14. Exculpation. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Lease to the contrary, Tenant agrees that it shall look solely to the estate and property of the Landlord in the land and building comprising the Property of which the Premises are a part for the collection of any judgment (or any other judicial process) requiring the payment of money by Landlord in the event of any default or breach by Landlord with respect to any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease to be observed and performed by Landlord and no other property or estates of Landlord or any of its agents, employees, partners, (general or limited), affiliates, shareholders or joint venturers shall be subject to levy, execution or other enforcement procedures for the satisfaction of Tenant's remedies. In the event of any sale of this Lease or the Property or a lease thereof by Landlord, Landlord shall be entirely freed, relieved and released of all covenants and obligations of Landlord hereunder.

15. This Amendment shall not constitute an agreement by Landlord and shall not be binding upon Landlord unless and until this Amendment shall be executed by Landlord and Tenant, and shall be delivered by Landlord to Tenant.

16. This Amendment shall not be changed orally, and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Landlord and Tenant, their respective heirs, successors and, as permitted their assigns. Tenant hereby confirms that it has assumed the performance of all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease and agrees to perform all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease with the same effect as though Tenant had executed the Lease as the tenant originally named therein.

17. Except as herein expressly amended or modified the terms and conditions of the Lease are hereby ratified and confirmed and shall remain in full force and effect.

INSURANCE RIDER

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Lease. Tenant covenants and agrees that during the term of this Lease (and any renewal or extension thereof), Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall obtain, maintain and keep in full force and effect:

(a) Comprehensive General Liability Insurance including Blanket Contractual, Personal Injury, Broad Form Property Damage, Products Liability, Completed Operations, Fire Legal Liability, Host Liquor Law Liability (and if Tenant shall be operating a restaurant, tavern or other establishment which sells or dispenses any drink or beverage containing alcohol, Dram Shop Liability) and Owned, Non-owned and Hired automobile coverages, naming Landlord and Tenant, any mortgagee of the Building and any landlord under a ground lease of the property on which the Building is located, and any other designee of Landlord, as insureds, with minimum limits of $1,000,000 combined single limit for property damage and bodily injury per occurrence for any and all claims for injury or damage to persons or property or for the loss of life or of property occurring upon, in or about the Premises and the public portions of the Building arising out of or in connection with any act or omission of Tenant, its employees, agents, contractors, customers, and invitees.

(b) All Risk insurance including without limitation sprinkler leakage and flood and earthquake (if flood and earthquake exposure exists) and vandalism and malicious mischief on a 100% replacement cost basis covering all contents, merchandise, inventory, equipment, floor coverings, fixtures and improvements and such other portions of the Premises which Landlord is not responsible for restoring. Tenant shall apply all insurance proceeds attributable to any of the foregoing items to the repair and restoration thereof unless this Lease shall be terminated due to the occurrence of the casualty. In addition, Tenant shall obtain and keep in full force and effect during the term of this Lease business interruption insurance with all risk perils and such other insurance in such amounts as Landlord shall reasonably require.

(c) Workers' Compensation insurance as required by law and Employers' Liability coverage for a minimum of $100,000 per occurrence.

2. Tenant covenants to comply with any and all rules and regulations applicable to the Premises issued by the Board of Fire Underwriters or by any other body hereinafter constituted exercising similar functions and insurance companies writing policies covering the Premises. Tenant shall pay all costs, expenses, claims, fines, penalties and damages imposed because of failure of Tenant to comply with this Section (2) and agrees to indemnify Landlord from all liability (including without limitation attorney's fees) with reference thereto. Tenant shall, at its own cost and expense, procure and maintain each and every permit, license, certificate or other authorization and any renewals, extensions or continuances of the same required in connection with lawful and proper use of the Premises for Tenant's business. Tenant agrees to pay upon demand as additional rent under this Lease any increase in the amount of insurance premiums payable by Landlord for its insurance on the Building and/or the underlying property ("Landlord's Insurance") over and above the rate now in force that may be caused by Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises or any act or omission of Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. If as result of any such act or omission, all or any part of Landlord's Insurance shall be cancelled or suspended, then Tenant shall indemnity Landlord against any liability, cost or expense which would have been covered thereunder. All insurance obtained by Tenant hereunder shall be under primary policies and Landlord's Insurance shall be excess and noncontributory.

3. Tenant shall deposit a policy or policies of all such insurance, or an approved certificate evidencing such insurance issued by duly authorized agents of the carriers in question, with Landlord at least ten (10) days before the Commencement Date and renewals of such policies and at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of any existing policies. All such policies shall provide that such insurance shall not be modified, cancelled, reduced or allowed to lapse except upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord and all other additional insureds.

4. All such policies shall (a) be written in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord by an insurance company licensed and authorized to do business in the state in which the Building is located and otherwise satisfactory to Landlord in all respects, (b) contain a provision or endorsement that (i) no act or omission of Tenant shall affect or limit the obligation of the insurer to pay the amount of the loss sustained, (ii) all of Tenant's indemnity obligations under this Lease are insured and (iii) Tenant shall be solely responsible for the payment of all premiums and that Landlord shall have no obligation to pay same notwithstanding that Landlord is or may be named as an insured. Tenant's failure to provide and keep in force the aforementioned insurance shall be regarded as a material default hereunder, entitling Landlord to exercise any or all of the remedies in the event of a default under this Lease. Carrying the prescribed insurance shall in no way be construed as either a limitation or satisfaction of the hold harmless or indemnity agreements contained in this Lease. In the event Tenant shall not obtain any of the insurance required to be obtained hereunder, Landlord shall have the right to obtain such insurance on Tenant's behalf and Tenant shall pay to Landlord the cost thereof upon demand as additional rent. Landlord shall have the further right to review annually the form, substance and limits of all of Tenant's insurance required hereunder and Tenant shall adjust its insurance and/or increase the limits thereof as Landlord shall deem reasonably necessary provided such adjustment or increase is consistent with the standards of landlords of comparable buildings in Columbus, Ohio.

5. Landlord and Tenant shall obtain in all policies of insurance respectively maintained by them with respect to the Building and/or the Premises a waiver by the insurer of all right of subrogation against the other in connection with property insurance. So long as both Landlord's and Tenant's policies then in force include such mutual waiver of subrogation, Landlord and Tenant, to the fullest extent permitted by law, each waive all right of recovery against the other for and agree to release the other from liability from loss or damage to the extent such loss or damage is covered by valid and collectible insurance in effect at the time of such loss or damage. If such waiver of subrogation shall not be obtainable or shall be obtainable only at a premium over that chargeable without such waiver, the party undertaking to obtain such waiver shall notify the other thereof in writing, and the latter shall have ten (10) days in which either to (i) procure on behalf of the notifying party insurance with such waiver from a company or companies reasonably satisfactory to the notifying party or (ii) agree to pay such additional premium (in Tenant's case in the proportion which the rentable area of the Premises bears to the area covered by the insurance policy of Landlord in question).

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS RIDER - INDUSTRIAL

(1) Tenant's Covenants Regarding Hazardous Materials.

(A) Compliance with Environmental Laws. Tenant shall at all times and in all respects comply with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations, including, but not limited to, the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. (S)1251, et seq.), Resource Conservation & Recovery Act (42 U.S.C. (S)6901, et seq.), Safe Drinking Water Act (42 U.S.C. (S)3000f, et seq.), Toxic Substances Control Act (15 U.S.C. (S)2601, et seq.), the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. (S)7401, et seq.), Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act (42 U.S.C. (S)9601, et seq.) and other comparable local, state and federal laws, currently in force or enacted in the future (collectively, "Hazardous Materials Laws") relating to industrial hygiene, environmental protection or the use, analysis, generation, manufacture, storage, presence, disposal or transportation of any oil, petroleum products, flammable explosives, asbestos, urea formaldehyde, radioactive materials or waste, or other hazardous, toxic, contaminated or polluting materials, substances or wastes, including, without limitations, any "hazardous substances," "hazardous wastes," "hazardous materials" or "toxic substances" under any such laws, ordinances or regulations (collectively, "Hazardous Materials").

(B) Hazardous Materials Handling. Tenant shall at its own expense procure, maintain in effect and comply with all conditions of any and all permits, licenses and other governmental and regulatory approvals required for Tenant's use of the Premises, including, without limitation, discharge of (appropriately treated) materials or wastes into or through any sanitary sewer serving the Premises. Except as discharged into the sanitary sewer in strict accordance and conformity with all applicable Hazardous Materials Laws, Tenant shall cause any and all Hazardous Materials removed from the Premises to be removed and transported solely by duly licensed haulers to duly licensed facilities for final disposal of such materials and wastes. Tenant shall in all respects handle, treat, deal with and manage any and all Hazardous Materials in, or under or about the Premises in total conformity with all applicable Hazardous Materials Laws and prudent industry practices regarding management of such Hazardous Materials. All reporting obligations imposed by Hazardous Materials Laws are strictly the responsibility of Tenant. Upon expiration or earlier termination of the term of the Lease, Tenant shall cause all Hazardous Materials to be removed from the Premises and transported for use, storage or disposal in accordance and compliance with all applicable Hazardous Materials Laws. Tenant shall not take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in or about the Premises or any Building, nor enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise in respect to any claims relating to any Hazardous Materials in any way connected with the Premises or Building, without first notifying Landlord of Tenant's intention to do so and affording Landlord ample opportunity to appear, intervene or otherwise appropriately assert and protect Landlord's interest with respect thereto. In addition, at Landlord's request, Tenant shall remove any tanks or fixtures which contain or contained, or are contaminated with Hazardous Materials.

(C) Notices. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord in writing of:

(i) any enforcement, cleanup, removal or other governmental or regulatory action of which Tenant or its agents or employees has knowledge, instituted, completed or threatened pursuant to any Hazardous Materials Laws in connection with the Premises or Tenant's use thereof; (ii) any claim made or threatened by any person against Tenant, the Premises or Building relating to damage, contribution, cost recovery compensation, loss or injury resulting from or claimed to result from any Hazardous Materials in connection with the Premises or Tenant's use thereof; and (iii) any reports made to any environmental agency of which Tenant or its agents or employees has knowledge, arising out of or in connection with any Hazardous Materials in, on or removed from the Premises or Building, including any complaints, notices, warnings, reports or asserted violations in connection therewith. Tenant shall also supply to Landlord as promptly as possible, and in any event within five (5) business days after Tenant first receives or sends the same, with copies of all claims, reports, complaints, notices, warnings or asserted violations relating in any way to the Premises, Building or Tenant's use thereof. Tenant shall promptly deliver to Landlord copies of hazardous waste manifests reflecting the legal and proper disposal of all Hazardous Materials removed from the Premises.

THIS AGREEMENT AND LEASE was made and entered into by and between the "Lessor" identified at Paragraph A. above and the "Lessee" identified at Paragraph B. above on the date set forth at Paragraph C. above.

Lessor does hereby lease, demise and let unto Lessee the premises located and described in Paragraphs D. and E. above for a term commencing at 12:01 a.m. on the date set forth at Paragraph F. above and expiring at midnight on the date set forth at Paragraph G. above.

1. TENANT'S ACCEPTANCE OF PROPERTY. The Lessee accepts the building, improvements, and personalty on the leased premises (all of which are hereinafter referred to as "the Leased Property",) in their present state and without any representation or warranty by the Lessor as to the condition of such property or as to the use which may be made thereof except that Lessor warrants that the premises upon delivery shall comply with all statute codes & regulations of the Federal, State or local government units. The Lessee acknowledges that the Leased Property, the title thereto, the streets, sidewalks, driveways, parking areas, curbs, utilities, and structures adjoining the same, any subsurface conditions thereof, and the present use and non-uses thereof have been examined by the Tenant. The Lessor shall not be responsible for any latent defect or change of condition in the Leased Property, and the rent hereunder shall in no case be withheld or diminished on account of any defect in the Leased Property, any change in the condition thereof, any damage occurring thereto, or the existence with respect thereto of any violations of the laws or regulations of any governmental authority except as may be otherwise specifically provided herein. The obligation of the Lessee to pay the full rent herein reserved shall not be affected by any future act or omission on the part of the Lessor with respect to the tenantability of the Leased Property, or the building of which it is a part, except as otherwise specifically provided herein. The taking of possession of the Leased Property by the Lessee shall be conclusive evidence that the Lessee accepts the same "as is" and that the Leased Property and the building and land of which the same form a part were in good condition at the time possession was taken.

2. RENTAL. The initial rental to be paid by the Lessee to the Lessor is the sum set forth at Paragraph H. above, said sum to be due and payable monthly commencing on the commencement date set forth at Paragraph F. above and paid monthly thereafter on the first day of each month during the term hereof.

3. LEASE DEPOSIT. Concurrently with the execution of this Lease, the Lessee has deposited with the Lessor the sum set forth at Paragraph J. above as security for the performance by the Lessee of all the conditions required to be performed by the Lessee under this Lease.

4. RENT REVISION. At the time or times, and in accordance with the terms set forth in Paragraph K. above, the rental set forth in Paragraph H. above shall be adjusted for the remaining term of the Lease.

5. USE OF PREMISES.

(i) The Lessee shall use the Leased Property for the conduct of the business described at Paragraph L. above and for no other purposes whatsoever without the Lessor's prior written consent.

(ii) The Lessee will not make any unlawful, improper or offensive use of the Leased Property; he will not suffer any strip or waste thereof; he will not permit any objectionable noise or odor to escape or to be emitted from the Leased Property or do anything or permit anything to be done upon or about the Leased Property in any way tending to create a nuisance.

(iii) The Lessee will not allow the Leased Property at any time to fall into such a state of repair or disorder as to increase the fire hazard thereon; he shall not install any power machinery on the Leased Property except under the supervision and with written consent of the Lessor; he shall not store gasoline or other highly combustible materials on the Leased Property in such a way or for such a purpose that the fire insurance rate on the building in which the Leased Property is located is thereby increased or that would prevent the Lessor from taking advantage of any rulings of the Insurance Rating Bureau of the state in which the Leased Property is situated which would allow the Lessor to obtain reduced premium rates for long term fire insurance policies.

(iv) The Lessee shall comply at the Lessee's own expense with all laws and regulations of any municipal, county, state, federal or other public authority respecting the use of the Leased Property except Lessor shall repair all pre-existing violations.

(v) The Lessee will not overload the floors of the Leased Property in such a way as to cause any undue or serious stress or strain upon the building in which the Leased Property is located, or any part thereof, and the Lessor shall have the right, at any time, to call upon any competent engineer or architect whom the Lessor may choose, to decide whether or not the floors of the Leased Property, or any part thereof, are being overloaded so as to cause any undue or serious stress or strain on said building, or any part thereof, and the decision of said engineer or architect shall be final and binding upon the Lessee; and in the event that the engineer or architect so called upon shall decide that in his opinion the stress or strain is such as to endanger or injure said building, or any part thereof, then and in that event the Lessee agrees immediately to relieve said stress or strain either by reinforcing the building or by lightening the load which causes such stress or strain in a manner satisfactory to the Lessor.

6. UTILITIES. The Lessee shall pay for all heat, light, water, power, garbage and other services or utilities used in the Leased Property during the term of this Lease.

7. REPAIRS AND IMPROVEMENTS.

(i) The Lessor shall not be required to make any repairs, alterations, additions or improvements to or upon the Leased Property during the term of this Lease, except only those hereinafter specifically provided for; the Lessee hereby agrees to maintain and keep the Leased Property including, but not limited to, all interior and exterior doors, heating, ventilating and cooling systems, interior wiring, plumbing and drain pipes to sewers or septic tank, in good order and repair during the entire term of this Lease at the Lessee's own cost and expense, and to replace all glass which may be broken or damaged during the term hereof in the windows and doors of the Leased Property with glass of as good or better quality as that now in use; the Lessee hereby agrees to keep and maintain the sidewalks, driveways and parking areas immediately adjoining the Leased Property in a safe and orderly condition.

(ii) Except as otherwise provided in Paragraph M. above, the Lessor agrees to maintain in good order and repair during the term of this Lease the exterior walls, roof, gutters, downspouts and foundations of the building in which the Leased Property is situated. It is understood and agreed that the Lessor reserves and at any and all times shall have the right to alter, repair or improve the building of which the Leased Property is a part, or to add thereto, and for that purpose at any time may erect scaffolding and all other necessary structures upon the Leased Property, and the Lessor and Lessor's representatives, contractors and workman for the aforedescribed purposes may, upon reasonable advance notice, enter in or about the Leased Property with such materials and equipment as Lessor may deem necessary therefor, and Lessee waives any claim to damages, including loss of business resulting therefrom.

8. RIGHT OF ENTRY. It shall be lawful for the Lessor, his agents and representatives, at any reasonable time to enter into or upon the Leased Property for the purpose of examining into the condition thereof, or any other lawful purpose. If during the last month of the term the Lessee shall have removed all, or substantially all, of the Lessee's property from the Leased Property, the Lessor may immediately enter and alter, renovate, and redecorate the Leased Property, without elimination or abatement of rent and without liability to the Lessee for any compensation, and such acts shall have no effect upon this Lease.

9. RIGHTS OF ASSIGNMENT. The Lessee will not assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, surrender or dispose of this Lease, or any interest herein, or permit any other person or persons whomsoever to occupy the Leased Property without the written consent of the Lessor being first obtained in writing provided that such consent will not be unreasonably withheld. This Lease is personal to the Lessee. Lessee's interest, in whole or in part, cannot be sold, assigned, transferred, seized or taken by operation at law, or under or by virtue of any execution or legal process, attachment or proceedings instituted against the Lessee, or under or by virtue of any bankruptcy of insolvency proceedings had in regard to the Lease or in any other manner, except as above mentioned. Subject to the foregoing, all rights, remedies and liabilities herein given to or imposed upon either of the parties hereto, shall extend to, inure to the benefit of, and bind, as the circumstances may require, the heirs, personal representatives, successors and, so far as this Lease is assignable by the terms hereof, the assigns of such parties.

10. LIENS. The Lessee will not permit any lien of any kind, type or description to be placed or imposed upon the Leased Property or any part thereof.

11. ICE, SNOW, AND DEBRIS. If the Leased Property is located at street level, then at all times Lessee shall keep the sidewalks, curbs, driveways, and parking areas immediately adjoining the building (whether or not they are included herein as Leased Property), in front thereof free and clear of ice, snow, rubbish, debris and obstruction; and if the Lessee occupies the entire building, he will not permit rubbish, debris, ice or snow to accumulate on the roof of said building so as to stop up or obstruct gutters or downspouts or cause damage to said roof.

12. ADVERTISING SIGNS. The Lessee will not use the outside walls of the Leased Property, or allow signs or devices of any kind to be attached thereto or suspended therefrom, for advertising or displaying the name or business of the Lessee or for any purpose whatsoever without the written consent of the Lessor.

13. INSURANCE COVERAGES. The Lessee shall, at all times during the term hereof, at his own expense, maintain, keep in effect, furnish and deliver to the Lessor insurance policies (or certificates evidencing same,) in form and with an insurer satisfactory to the Lessor insuring:

(i) Both the Lessor and the Lessee against all liability for damage to personal property in or about said Leased Property. The amount of said liability insurance shall be not less than the amount set forth in Paragraph N. above.

(ii) The Lessor against the damage or destruction of the Leased Property by fire or other casualty under a standard fire insurance policy with standard special or extended form coverage endorsement to 90% of the full, current replacement value.

(iii) The renewal forms of each such policy or certificate shall be delivered to the Lessor no less than 30 days prior to the expiration of the current policy. Each such policy shall provide that it cannot be cancelled as to the Lessor with less than 15 days notice to it.

14. INDEMNIFICATION. The Lessee agrees to and shall indemnify and hold the Lessor harmless against any and all claims and demands arising from, (i) the negligence of the Lessee his officers, agents, invitees and/or employees; (ii) a failure by the Lessee to perform any covenant required to be performed by the Lessee ??? ? hereunder; (iii) any accident, injury, or damage ???? shall happen in or about the Leased Property or appurtenances, or on or under the adjoining streets, sidewalks, driveways, parking ???? or curbs, or resulting from the condition, maintenance, or operation of the Leased Property or of the adjoining streets, sidewalks, driveways, parking areas, or curbs; (iv) the Lessee's failure to comply with any requirements of any governmental authority; and (v) any mechanic's lien, or security agreement, filed against the Leased Property as a result of the acts of the Lessee. The Lessee shall at his own expense defend the Lessor against any and all suits or actions arising out of the aforedescribed acts or claimed acts, and all appeals therefrom and shall satisfy and discharge any judgment which may be awarded against Lessor, including but not limited to, the Lessor's attorney's fees, in any such suit or action.

15. TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS. The Lessee shall pay all real property taxes, assessments (general and special) and other public charges levied, assessed or otherwise imposed upon the Leased Property, all promptly before the same or any part thereof become past due; provided, however, that any municipal, county or state assessments over $2,000.00 total which become or may become a lien on the premises, may be bonded by the Lessee as provided by law, and the Lessee shall pay all installments of principal and interest on such bonds during his tenancy, but shall be released from all obligation for payment of installments becoming due after the end of the lease term herein reserved without proration. The Lessee shall also pay promptly, when due, all taxes levied against his own personal property and all taxes, assessments and other public charges whatsoever arising in respect to, and because of, the Lessee's occupancy, use or possession of the Leased Property. Such real property taxes for years in which the commencement and expiration of the term of this Lease shall fall shall be appropriately pro-rated and adjusted between the Lessor and the Lessee. The Lessee shall furnish to the Lessor, within 30 days after the date any amount is payable by the Lessee, as provided in this Paragraph, copies of official receipts of the appropriate taxing authority or other proof satisfactory to the Lessor evidencing payment.

16. LESSEE'S ALTERATIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS. No alteration, addition, or improvement to the Leased Property shall be made by the Lessee without the written consent of the Lessor. Any alteration, addition, or improvement made by the Lessee after such consent shall have been given, and any fixtures installed as part thereof, (except Lessee's movable trade fixtures), shall, at the Lessor's option, become the property of the Lessor upon the expiration or other sooner termination of this Lease; provided, however, that the Lessor shall have the right to require the Lessee to remove such fixtures at the Lessee's cost upon such termination of this Lease.

17. DAMAGE BY CASUALTY OR FIRE AND DUTY TO REPAIR. If all or any part of the Leased Property is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty subject to coverage under the standard fire insurance policy with standard special or extended form coverage endorsement applicable to the Leased Property, the Lessor shall, except as otherwise provided herein, repair and rebuild the Leased Property with reasonable diligence. If there is a substantial interference with the operation of the Lessee's business in the Leased Property, the then applicable rental shall be equitably apportioned for the duration of such repairs. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, if at any time within eighteen months prior to the end of the initial or any renewal term, and provided the Lessee shall not have served upon the Lessor notice of renewal or extension as herein provided, the Leased Property is completely destroyed or so damaged by fire or other casualty covered by insurance as to render it unfit for the use as set forth at Paragraph L. above, the Lessor may terminate this Lease on 30 days' written notice to the Lessee. If all or any substantial part of the Leased Property is damaged or destroyed by casualty which is not subject to coverage under the standard fire insurance policy with standard special or extended form coverage endorsement applicable to the Leased Property, or if subject to such coverage, the loss is, in fact, not covered to within 90% of replacement, the Lessor may terminate this Lease upon 30 days' written notice to the Lessee. If the Lessor shall terminate this Lease as provided herein, all rent shall be apportioned to the date of termination and all insurance proceeds shall belong to the Lessor. Except to the extent provided for in this Paragraph, neither the rent payable by the Lessee nor any of the Lessee's other obligations under any provision of this Lease shall be affected by any damage to or destruction of the Leased Property by any cause whatsoever, and the Lessee hereby expressly waives any and all additional rights it might otherwise have under any law or statute.

18. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION RIGHTS. Neither the Lessor nor the Lessee shall be liable to the other for loss arising out of damage to, or destruction of, the Leased Property or the contents thereof, when such loss is caused by any of the perils which are or could be included within or insured against by a standard fire insurance policy with standard extended or special form coverage endorsement, including sprinkler leakage insurance and business interruption insurance, if any. All such claims for any and all loss, however caused, hereby are waived. Said absence of liability shall exist whether or not the damage or destruction is caused by the negligence of either Lessor or Lessee or by any of their respective agents, servants or employees. Neither the Lessor nor the Lessee shall have any interest or claim in the other's insurance policy or policies, or the proceeds thereof, unless specifically covered therein as a joint assured and notwithstanding any provision hereof requiring the Lessee to furnish such coverages on behalf of the Lessor. If the Lessee, at any time, is unable to obtain inclusion of any of the matters set forth above and any of its policies, the Lessee shall, at its own expense, have the Lessor named in such policies as one of the insureds.

19. EMINENT DOMAIN.

(i) If the whole of the Leased Property shall be taken for any public or any quasi-public use under any statue or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof, then this Lease shall automatically terminate as of the date that title shall be taken. If any part of the Leased Property shall be so taken as to render the remainder thereof unusable for the purposes for which the Leased Property was leased, as set forth in Paragraph L., then the Lessor and the Lessee shall each have the right to terminate this Lease on 30 days' notice to the other given not later than the date of such taking. In the event that this Lease shall terminate or be terminated, the rental shall, if and as necessary, be equitably adjusted.

(ii) If a part of the Leased Property shall be taken as provided in Subparagraph (i) above, without so rendering the remainder of the Leased Property unusable, then the Lessor shall rebuild and restore the Leased Property with reasonable diligence, and if there is a substantial interference with the operation of the Lessee's business in the Leased Property the then applicable rental shall be equitably apportioned for the duration of such rebuilding and restoration; provided, however, that the cost of such work shall not exceed the proceeds of its condemnation award; and provided, further, that if such taking occurs within 18 months prior to the end of the initial or any renewal term, the Lessor may upon 30 days' notice given to the Lessee on or before the date of such taking elect not to so rebuild or restore the Leased Property.

(iii) All compensation awarded or paid upon such a total or partial taking of the Leased Property shall belong to and be the property of the Lessor without any participation by the Lessee; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude the Lessee from prosecuting any claim directly against the condemning authority in such condemnation proceedings for loss of business, or depreciation to, damage to, or cost of removal of, or for the value of stock, trade fixtures, furniture, and other personal property belonging to the Lessee; provided, further, however, that no such claim shall diminish or otherwise adversely affect the Lessor's award or the award of any fee mortgagee.

20. LESSOR'S SIGNS. During the periods specified in Paragraph Q. above, the Lessor may post on the Leased Property, including the windows thereof, signs of moderate size notifying the public that the premises are "for sale" or "for rent" or "for lease."

21. SURRENDER UPON TERMINATION. At the expiration of this term of the Lease or upon any sooner termination hereof, the Lessee will quit and deliver up said Leased Property and all future erections or additions to or upon the same, broom clean, to the Lessor or those having Lessor's estate in the premises, peaceably, quietly, and in as good order and condition, reasonable use and wear thereof, damage or loss excused pursuant to the terms hereof excepted, as the same are now in or hereafter may be put in by the Lessor and Lessee.

22. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES. In the event that the Lessee shall fail to deliver up the Leased Property as above agreed, he shall become liable for the payment, at the option of the Lessor, of a sum for each and every day which he holds possession and fails to deliver over possession in the amount set forth at Paragraph R. above. The Lessor by availing itself of the rights and privileges granted by this provision and the acceptance of said liquidated rental shall not be deemed to have waived any of the rights and privileges granted in other parts of this Lease, (including, but not limited to, the continuing charge of rental,) but the rights granted under this provision shall be considered, in any event, as in addition to, and not in exclusion of, such rights and privileges.

23. HOLDING OVER. In the event the Lessee for any reason shall hold over after the expiration of this Lease, such holding over shall not be deemed to operate as a renewal or extension of this Lease, but shall only create a tenancy from month-to-month which may be terminated at will at any time by the Lessor.

24. ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COURT COSTS. In case suit, action, or arbitration is instituted to enforce compliance with any of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Lease, or to collect the rental which may become due hereunder, or any portion thereof or to enforce any right of Lessor while Lessee is holding over after expiration hereof, the losing party agrees to pay such sum as the trial court or arbitrators may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees to be allowed the prevailing party in such suit, action, or arbitration and in the event any appeal is taken from any judgment or decree in such suit or action, the losing party agrees to pay such further sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as prevailing party's attorney's fees on such appeal. The Lessee agrees to pay and discharge all Lessor's costs and expenses, including Lessor's reasonable attorney's fees, that shall arise from enforcing any provision or covenants of this Lease even though no suit, action, or arbitration is instituted if this Lease or Lessor's rights arising hereunder are placed in Lessor's attorney's hands for collection or enforcement.

25. WAIVER. Any waiver by the Lessor of any breach of any covenant herein contained to be kept and performed by the Lessee shall not be deemed or considered as a continuing waiver, and shall not operate to bar or prevent the Lessor from declaring a forfeiture for any succeeding breach, either of the same condition or covenant or otherwise.

26. NOTICES. Any notice required by the terms of this Lease to be given by one party to the other or desired so to be given, shall be sufficient if in writing contained in a sealed envelope, deposited in the U.S. Registered or Certified Mails with postage fully prepaid, and if intended for the Lessor, then if addressed to said Lessor at the address set forth in Paragraph A. above and if intended for the Lessee, then if addressed to the Lessee at the address set forth for it in Paragraph B. above.

27. DELAY OF POSSESSION. If the Lessor for any reason cannot deliver possession of the Leased Property to the Lessee at the commencement of the Lease term, this Lease shall not be void or voidable, nor shall the Lessor be liable to the Lessee for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, but there shall be an abatement of rent for the period between the commencement of the Lease term and the time when the Lessor does deliver possession.

28. QUIET ENJOYMENT. The Lessee, upon the payment of the rent herein reserved and upon the performance of, and subject to the provisions of this Lease, shall at all times during the Lease term and during any extension or renewal term peaceably and quietly enjoy the Leased Property without any disturbance from the Lessor or from any other person claiming through the Lessor.

29. PERFORMANCE OF LESSEE'S OBLIGATIONS. If the Lessee shall be in default hereunder, the Lessor may cure such default on behalf of the Lessee, in which event the Lessee shall reimburse the Lessor for all sums paid to effect such cure, together with interest at the highest legal rate. In order to collect such reimbursement the Lessor shall have all the remedies available under this Lease for a default in the payment of rent.

30. ARBITRATION. In the event of any controversy between the parties over the application of Paragraphs 17., 19., or 27. hereof, the same shall be settled by arbitration at Portland, Oregon in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award rendered may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(i) The Lessor may give the Lessee five days' notice of intention to terminate this Lease in any of the following circumstances:

1. If the Lessee shall be in default in the performance of any covenant of the Lease (other than the covenants for the payment of basic rent or additional rent) and if such is not cured within 15 days after written notice thereof given by the Lessor; or, if such default shall be of such nature that it cannot be cured completely within such 15-day period, if the Lessee shall not have promptly commenced the cure within such 15-day period or shall not thereafter proceed with reasonable diligence and in good faith to remedy such default.

2. If the Lessee shall be adjudicated a bankrupt, make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or take the benefit of any insolvency act, or if a permanent receiver or trustee in bankruptcy shall be appointed for the Lessee's property and such appointment is not vacated within 90 days. For these purposes the "Lessee" shall mean the tenant then in possession of the Leased Property.

3. If the Leased Property becomes vacant or deserted for a period of 30 days.

4. If this Lease shall be assigned or the Leased Property sublet other than in accordance with the terms of this Lease and such default is not cured within 15 days after notice.

(ii) The Lessor may give the Lessee 10 days' notice of intention to terminate this Lease if the Lessee shall be in default in the payment of the initial rent or any additional rent.

(iii) If the Lessor shall give the notice of intention to terminate provided above, then at the expiration of such period this Lease shall terminate as completely as if that were the date herein definitely fixed for the expiration of the term of this Lease, and the Lessee shall then surrender the Leased Property to the Lessor. If this Lease shall so terminate, it shall be lawful for the Lessor, at its option, without formal demand or notice of any kind, to re-enter the Leased Property by a forceable entry and detainer action or by any other means, including force, and to remove the Lessee and his possessions therefrom without being liable for any damages therefor. Upon the termination of this Lease, as herein provided, the Lessor shall have the right, at its election, to terminate any sublease then in effect, without the consent of the sublessee concerned.

(iv) The Lessee shall remain liable for all its obligations under this Lease despite the Lessor's re-entry, and the Lessor may re-rent or use the Leased Property as agent for the Lessee, if the Lessor so elects. The Lessor waives any legal requirement for notice of intention to re-enter and any right of redemption.

(v) If this Lease shall terminate as provided in this Paragraph the Lessor shall have the right, at its election at any time, to recover from the Lessee the amount by which the rent and charges equivalent to rent reserved herein for the balance of the term shall exceed the reasonable rental value of the Leased Property for the same period.

32. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

(i) Time is of the essence of this Lease with respect of performance by the Lessee to his obligations hereunder.

(ii) In construing this Lease, masculine or feminine pronouns shall be substituted for those neuter in form and vice versa, and plural terms shall be substituted for singular and singular for plural in any place in which the context requires.

LANDLORD HAS NOT MADE AND WILL NOT MAKE ANY INSPECTION OF ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES. LANDLORD LEASES AND WILL LEASE AND TENANT TAKES AND WILL TAKE THE LEASED PREMISES AS IS. TENANT ACKNOWLEDGES THAT LANDLORD (WHETHER ACTING AS LANDLORD HEREUNDER OR IN ANY OTHER CAPACITY) HAS NOT MADE AND WILL NOT MAKE, NOR SHALL LANDLORD BE DEEMED TO HAVE MADE, ANY WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION AS TO (i) ITS FITNESS, DESIGN OR CONDITION FOR ANY PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE, (ii) THE QUALITY OF THE MATERIAL OR WORKMANSHIP THEREIN, (iii) THE EXISTENCE OF ANY DEFECT, LATENT OR PATENT, (iv) LANDLORD'S TITLE THERETO, (v) VALUE, (vi) COMPLIANCE WITH SPECIFICATIONS, (vii) LOCATION, (viii) USE, (ix) CONDITION, (x) MERCHANTABILITY, (xi) QUALITY, (xii) DESCRIPTION, (xiii) DURABILITY OR (xiv) OPERATION; AND ALL RISKS INCIDENT THERETO ARE TO BE BORNE BY TENANT. TENANT ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE LEASED PREMISES ARE OF ITS SELECTION AND TO ITS SPECIFICATIONS AND THAT THE LEASED PREMISES HAVE BEEN INSPECTED BY TENANT AND ARE SATISFACTORY TO IT. IN THE EVENT OF ANY DEFECT OR DEFICIENCY IN ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES OF ANY NATURE, WHETHER LATENT OR PATENT, LANDLORD SHALL NOT HAVE ANY RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY WITH RESPECT THERETO OR FOR ANY INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING STRICT LIABILITY IN TORT). THE PROVISIONS OF THIS PARAGRAPH 3(b) HAVE BEEN NEGOTIATED; AND THE FOREGOING PROVISIONS ARE INTENDED TO BE A COMPLETE EXCLUSION AND NEGATION OF ANY WARRANTIES BY LANDLORD, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES, ARISING PURSUANT TO THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE OR ANY OTHER LAW NOW OR HEREAFTER IN EFFECT OR ARISING OTHERWISE.

(c) Tenant represents to Landlord that Tenant has examined the title to the Leased Premises prior to the execution and delivery of this Lease and has found the same to be satisfactory for the purposes contemplated hereby, and acknowledges that title is in Landlord and that Tenant has only the right of possession and use of the Leased Premises (and a right of first refusal) as provided in this Lease. Tenant further acknowledges that to its knowledge (i) the Improvements conform to all Legal Requirements and all requirements of the carriers of all insurance on any of the Leased Premises, (ii) all easements necessary or appropriate for the use or operation of the Leased Premises have been obtained, (iii) all contractors and subcontractors who have performed work on or supplied materials to the Leased Premises have been fully paid, and all materials and supplies have been fully paid for, (iv) the Improvements have been fully completed in a workmanlike manner, and (v) all Equipment necessary for the use or operation of the Leased Premises has been installed and all Equipment in the Leased Premises is presently operative.

(d) Landlord hereby assigns to Tenant, without recourse or warranty whatsoever, all warranties, guaranties and indemnities, express or implied, and similar rights which Landlord may have against any manufacturer, seller, engineer, contractor or builder in respect of any of the Leased Premises, including any rights and remedies existing under contract or pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code. Such assignment shall remain in effect until the termination of this Lease, and upon the termination of this Lease, such assignment shall cease and all the said warranties, guaranties, indemnities and other rights shall automatically revert to Landlord unless Tenant shall have acquired the Premises in which event the assignment shall continue in effect.

4. Use of Leased Premises: Quiet Enjoyment.

(a) Tenant may occupy and use the Leased Premises for any lawful purpose, provided that no Alterations may be made and no additional Improvements may be constructed except in accordance with Paragraph 12, no Equipment may be removed from the Leased Premises except in accordance with Paragraphs 11(d), 13(d) and 14(h), and such use will not otherwise violate any provision of this Lease. Tenant shall not permit any unlawful occupation, business or trade to be conducted on any of the Leased Premises or any use to be made thereof contrary to any applicable Legal Requirement then in effect. Tenant shall not use or occupy or permit any of the Leased Premises to be used or occupied, nor do or permit anything to be done in or on any of the Leased Premises, in a manner which would (i) violate any certificate of occupancy affecting any of the Leased Premises, (ii) make void or voidable any insurance then in force with respect to any of the Leased Premises, (iii) make it difficult or impossible to obtain fire or other insurance which Tenant is required to furnish hereunder, (iv) cause structural injury to any of the Improvements, or (v) constitute a public or private nuisance or waste.

(b) Subject to the other provisions of this Lease, so long as no Event of Default exists hereunder, Landlord covenants to do no act to disturb the peaceful and quiet occupation and enjoyment of the Leased Premises by Tenant, provided that Landlord may enter upon and examine any of the Leased Premises at reasonable times and upon five (5) days advance notice to Tenant (except in the event of an emergency or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default in either of which events no notice shall be required) and may take such action with respect to the Leased Premises as is permitted by any provision hereof.

5. Term. Subject to the provisions hereof, Tenant shall have and hold the Leased Premises for an initial term (such term, as extended or renewed in accordance with the provisions hereof, being called the "Term") commencing on the date hereof and ending on the last day of the one hundred and eightieth (180th) calendar month next following the date hereof. If all Rent and all other sums due hereunder shall not have been fully paid by the end of the Term, Landlord may, at its option, extend the Term until all said sums shall have been fully paid.

Provided this Lease shall not have been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof, the initial Term shall be deemed to be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the initial Term that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the initial Term provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate, this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years. If the initial Term is automatically extended as aforesaid and this Lease has not been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof prior to the expiration of the first extension period, the Term shall be further automatically extended for an additional consecutive period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the first extension period that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the first extension period provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years. If the Term is automatically extended as aforesaid and this

Lease has not been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof prior to the expiration of the second extension period, the Term shall be further automatically extended for an additional consecutive period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the second extension period that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the second extension period provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years. If the Term is automatically extended as aforesaid and this Lease has not been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof prior to the expiration of the third extension period, the Term shall be further automatically extended for an additional consecutive period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the third extension period that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the third extension period provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years.

In the absence of such notice of termination by Tenant to Landlord and in the absence of any termination of this Lease pursuant to any other provision hereof, the Term shall be automatically extended for the applicable extension period specified above and no instrument of extension or renewal need be executed. Any such extension of the Term shall be subject to and continue in full force and effect all of the provisions of this Lease except that the Basic Rent payable during each extension period shall be as provided in Exhibit "C" attached hereto and made a part hereof.

In the event that Tenant exercises its option not to extend or not to further extend the Term, as hereinabove provided or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder, then Landlord shall have the right during the remainder of the Term then in effect to (a) advertise the availability of the Leased Premises for sale or for reletting and to erect upon the Leased Premises signs indicating such availability provided that such signs shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Leased Premises by Tenant, and (b) show the Leased Premises to prospective purchasers or tenants at such reasonable times during normal business hours as Landlord may select.

6. Rent.

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as annual rent for the Leased Premises during the Term the amounts determined in accordance with the schedule set forth in Exhibit "D" attached hereto and made a part hereof ("Basic Rent"), commencing on the first day of the first month next following the date hereof and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter during the Term (the said days being called the "Basic Rent Payment Dates"), and shall pay the same at Landlord's address set forth above, or at such other places or to such other Persons as Landlord from time to time may designate to Tenant in writing. Each rental payment shall be made to Landlord on or before the applicable Basic Rent Payment Date in immediately available funds which at the time of such payment shall be legal tender for the payment of public or private debts in the United States of America. Pro rata Basic Rent for the period from the date hereof through the last day of the month hereof shall be paid on the date hereof. Landlord may, at Landlord's option, by written notice to Tenant, require Tenant to pay installments of Basic Rent directly to one or more Persons in addition to Landlord, in such proportions as Landlord may select; and Tenant agrees to make such "split" payments of Basic Rent in the amounts, to the payees and in the manner specified by Landlord in any such notice, provided, however, that Tenant shall not be required to make more than two (2) "split" payments.

(b) Tenant shall pay and discharge when the same shall become due, as additional rent, all other amounts and obligations which Tenant assumes or agrees to pay or discharge pursuant to this Lease (except that amounts payable as liquidated damages pursuant to Paragraph 19(b) (iv) shall not constitute additional rent), together with every fine, penalty, interest and cost which may be added for non-payment or late payment thereof. If any installment of Basic Rent is not paid on or before the due date therefor, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as additional rent, an amount equal to three percent (3%) of the amount of such installment, provided, however, that with respect to the first three (3) late payments in any twelve (12) month period (the first such period to commence on the first Basic Rent Payment Date following the date of this Lease) such late payment charge shall not be payable until two (2) business days following receipt of notice by Tenant that such payment has not been received. From the date of occurrence of any Event of Default until all Events of Default are fully cured, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand, as additional rent, a sum equal to any additional sums which might be payable by Landlord to any lender under any note occasioned by the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Lease. The requirements of Paragraph 19(g) regarding notice and grace periods need not be satisfied prior to the imposition of Additional Rent (as hereinafter defined) under foregoing provisions of this Paragraph 6(b). In addition, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand, as additional rent, interest at the rate (the "Default Rate") of three percent (3%) per annum over the Prime Rate on the following sums until paid in full: (i) all overdue installments of Basic Rent in excess of the payments due under any note for the same period from the respective due dates thereof, (ii) all overdue amounts of additional rent relating to obligations which Landlord shall have paid on behalf of Tenant, from the date of payment thereof by Landlord, and (iii) on all other overdue amounts of additional rent from the date Landlord demands payment. All the foregoing additional rent is herein sometimes called "Additional Rent". In the event of any failure by Tenant to pay or discharge any Additional Rent, Landlord shall have all rights, powers and remedies provided herein, by law or otherwise, in the event of non-payment of Basic Rent.

7. Net Lease: Non-Terminability.

(a) This is a net lease and all Rent and all other sums payable hereunder by Tenant shall be paid without notice or demand, and without set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, abatement, suspension, deferment, diminution, deduction, reduction or defense (collectively, a "Set-Off").

(b) This Lease shall not terminate, Tenant shall not have any right to terminate this Lease during the Term (except as otherwise expressly provided herein), Tenant shall not be entitled to any Set-Off of or to any Rent or any other sums payable under this Lease (except as otherwise expressly provided herein), and the obligations of Tenant under this Lease shall not be affected by any interference with Tenant's use of any of the Leased Premises for any reason, including the following: (i) any damage to or destruction of any of the Leased Premises by any cause whatsoever, (ii) any Condemnation, (iii) the prohibition, limitation or restriction of Tenant's use of any of the Leased Premises, (iv) any eviction by paramount title or otherwise as long as the same does not constitute a breach of Paragraph 4(b) hereof, (v) Tenant's acquisition of ownership of any of the Leased Premises other than pursuant to an express provision of this Lease, (vi) any default on the part of Landlord hereunder or under any other agreement as long as the same does not constitute a breach of Paragraph 4(b) hereof, (vii) any latent or other defect in, or any theft or loss of, any of the Leased Premises, (viii) the breach of any warranty of any seller or manufacturer of any of the Equipment, or (ix) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, any present or future Law to the contrary notwithstanding. It is the intention of the parties hereto that the obligations of Tenant hereunder shall be separate and independent covenants and agreements, that all Rent and all other sums payable by Tenant hereunder shall continue to be payable in all events (or, in lieu thereof, Tenant shall pay amounts equal thereto), and that the obligations of Tenant hereunder shall continue unaffected, unless the requirement to pay or perform the same shall have been terminated pursuant to an express provision of this Lease. The obligation to pay rent or amounts equal thereto shall not be affected by any collection of rents by any governmental body pursuant to a tax lien or otherwise, even though such obligation results in a double payment of Rent.

(c) Tenant agrees that it shall remain obligated under this Lease in accordance with its provisions and that, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, it shall not take any action to terminate, rescind or avoid this Lease, notwithstanding (i) the bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, winding-up or other proceeding affecting Landlord, (ii) the exercise of any remedy, including foreclosure, under the Mortgage or the Assignment, or (iii) any action with respect to this Lease (including the disaffirmance hereof) which may be taken by Landlord, any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Landlord or any court under the Federal Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

(d) Tenant waives all rights which may now or hereafter be conferred by law (i) to quit, terminate or surrender this Lease or any of the Leased Premises, or (ii) to any Set-Off of or to any rent or any other sums payable under this Lease, except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

8. Payment of Impositions: Compliance with Law.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 18 hereof (relating to contests) and the exclusions specified in the following paragraph of this Paragraph 8(a), Tenant shall, before interest or penalties are due thereon, pay and discharge all taxes of every kind and nature (including real and Personal property, franchise, withholding, profits and gross receipts taxes), all charges for any easement or agreement maintained for the benefit of any of the Leased Premises, all general and special assessments, levies, permits, inspection and license fees, all water and sewer rents and charges, all charges for utility and communication services relating to any of the Leased Premises, all ground rents, and all other public charges whether of a like or different nature, even if unforeseen or extraordinary, imposed upon or assessed against (i) Tenant, (ii) any of the Leased Premises, (iii) Landlord as a result of or arising in respect of the acquisition, ownership, occupancy, leasing, use, possession or sale of any of the Leased Premises, any activity conducted on the Leased Premises, or Rent (including without limitation, any gross income tax or excise tax levied by any governmental body on or with respect to such Rent), or (iv) Lender by reason of the Note or Mortgage and which (as to this clause (iv)) Landlord has agreed to pay (collectively, the "Impositions").

Nothing in this Lease shall obligate Tenant to pay (A) Federal, State or local income, excess profits, or other taxes, if any, of Landlord or Lender, determined on the basis of their net income, (B) any estate, inheritance, succession, gift or similar tax, or (C) any capital gains tax imposed on Landlord by the State or municipality in which the Leased Premises are located in connection with the sale of any of the Leased Premises or any Federal capital gains tax, unless the taxes referred to in clause (A) above are in lieu of or a substitute for any other tax, assessment or other charge upon or with respect to any of the Leased Premises which, if such other tax, assessment or other charge were in effect, would be payable by Tenant. In the event that any assessment against any of the Leased Premises may be paid in installments, Tenant shall have the option to pay such assessment in installments; and, in such event, Tenant shall be liable only for those installments which become due and payable during the Term. Tenant shall prepare and file all tax reports required by governmental authorities which relate to the Impositions. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord, within ten (10) days of receipt thereof, copies of all settlements and notices pertaining to the Impositions which may be issued by any governmental authority and, within ninety (90) days after the end of each calendar year of the Term, receipts for payments of all Impositions made during such year.

(b) Tenant shall promptly comply with and conform to all of the Legal Requirements, subject to the provisions of Paragraph 18 hereof.

(c) If Tenant fails to comply with any requirement of any Environmental Law in connection with any spill of any Hazardous Substance affecting the Leased Premises or in connection with the deposit, storage, placement or use of any Hazardous Substance at, upon, under or within the Leased Premises or any real estate contiguous thereto, Landlord may, at its sole option, upon prior written notice to Tenant, take any and all actions as Landlord shall deem reasonably necessary or advisable in order to cure such noncompliance. Any amounts so paid, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date of payment by Landlord, shall be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord. Nothing contained herein shall obligate Landlord to cure such noncompliance or release Tenant from any of its obligations hereunder.

(d) Tenant shall notify Landlord immediately after becoming aware thereof of any violation of or noncompliance with any of the covenants contained in this Paragraph hereof and shall forward to Landlord immediately upon receipt thereof copies of all orders, reports, notices, permits, applications or other communications relating to any such violation or noncompliance or any other matter relating in any fashion to any Environmental Law as it may affect or relate to the Leased Premises.

(e) All future leases, subleases or concession agreements relating to the Leased Premises entered into by Tenant shall contain covenants of the other party thereto which are identical to the covenants contained in Paragraphs 8(c) and 8(d).

9. Liens: Recording and Title.

(a) Tenant shall not, directly or indirectly, create or permit to be created or to remain, and shall promptly discharge or remove, any lien on any of the Leased Premises or on any Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant under this Lease, other than the Mortgage, the Assignment, the Permitted Encumbrances and any mortgage, lien, encumbrance or other charge created by or resulting solely from any act or omission of Landlord. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT LANDLORD SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY LABOR, SERVICES OR MATERIALS FURNISHED OR TO BE FURNISHED TO TENANT OR TO ANYONE HOLDING ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES THROUGH OR UNDER TENANT, AND THAT NO MECHANICS' OR OTHER LIENS FOR ANY SUCH LABOR, SERVICES OR MATERIALS SHALL ATTACH TO OR AFFECT THE INTEREST OF LANDLORD IN AND TO ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES.

(b) Tenant shall execute, deliver and record, file or register from time to time all such instruments as may be required by any present or future Law in order to evidence the respective interests of Landlord and Tenant in any of the Leased Premises, and shall cause this Lease, or a memorandum of this Lease, and any supplement hereto or to such other instrument, if any, as may be appropriate, to be recorded, filed or registered and re-recorded, refiled or re-registered in such manner and in such places as may be required by any present or future Law in order to publish notice and protect the validity or priority of this Lease.

(c) Nothing in this Lease and no action or inaction by Landlord shall be deemed or construed to mean that Landlord has granted to Tenant any right, power or permission to do any act or to make any agreement which may create, give rise to, or be the foundation for, any right, title, interest or lien in or upon the estate of Landlord in any of the Leased Premises.

10. Indemnification. Tenant agrees to pay, protect, indemnify, save and hold harmless Landlord and all other Persons described in Paragraph 29 from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, penalties, costs, expenses (including all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), causes of action, suits, claims, demands or judgments of any nature whatsoever, howsoever caused from any of the following (except for an affirmative act or omission of Landlord unless such act or omission is otherwise the obligation of Tenant under this Lease or unless arising from an internal conflict among the partners of Landlord or Persons described in Paragraph 29 that is not related to Tenant's performance under this Lease): (a) any matter pertaining to any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or any other cause pertaining to this Lease or any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or the transaction of which this Lease forms a part, or (e) the alleged deposit, storage, disposal, burial, dumping, injecting, spilling, leaking or other use, placement or release in, on, or affecting the Leased Premises of a Hazardous Substance or otherwise arising from any other alleged violation of any of the Environmental Laws including (i) liability for costs of removal or remedial action incurred by the United States Government or the State, or response costs incurred by any other Person or entity, or damages from injury to or destruction or loss of natural resources, including the reasonable costs of assessing such injury, destruction or loss, incurred pursuant to Section 107 of CERCLA, or any successor Section or Act; (ii) liability for costs and expenses of abatement, correction or clean-up, fines, damages, response costs or penalties which arise from the provisions of any of the other Environmental Laws; and (iii) liability for personal injury or property damage arising under any statutory or common-law tort theory, including damages assessed for the maintenance of a public or private nuisance or for carrying on of an abnormally dangerous activity. In case any action or proceeding is brought against Landlord or any other Person described in Paragraph 29 by reason of any such claim, Tenant covenants upon notice from Landlord to resist and defend such action or proceeding by counsel reasonable satisfactory to Landlord, and Landlord or such other Person will cooperate and assist in the defense of such action or proceeding if requested to do so by Tenant.

the ownership, use, non-use, occupancy, operation, condition, design, construction, maintenance, repair or rebuilding of any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property, (b) any injury to or death of any Person or any loss of or damage to any property in any manner arising from the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or from any matter described in clause (a) above, or connected therewith or occurring thereon, whether or not Landlord has or should have knowledge or notice of the defect or condition, if any, causing or contributing to said injury, death, loss, damage or other claim, (c) any violation by Tenant of any provision of this Lease, any contract or agreement to which Tenant is a party, any Legal Requirement or any Permitted Encumbrance, (d)

The obligations of Tenant under this Paragraph 10 shall survive any termination of this Lease.

11. Maintenance and Repair.

(a) Tenant shall at all times, including any Requisition period, maintain the Leased Premises and the Adjoining Property in good repair and condition and, in the case of the Equipment, in good mechanical condition, except for ordinary wear and tear, and shall promptly make all repairs (substantially equivalent in quality and workmanship to the original work) of every kind and nature, whether foreseen or unforeseen, which may be required to be made upon or in connection with any of the Leased Premises in order to keep and maintain the Land and

Improvements in as good repair and condition as they were on the date hereof, and the Equipment in as good mechanical condition as it was on the later of the date hereof or the date of its installation, except for ordinary wear and tear, in accordance with the better of the practices generally recognized as then acceptable within the Tenant's industry and in conformity with all legal requirements and insurance requirements. Tenant shall do or cause others to do all shoring of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or of foundations and walls of the Improvements and every other act necessary or appropriate for the preservation and safety thereof, by reason of or in connection with any excavation or other building operation upon any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property, whether or not Landlord shall, by any Legal Requirement, be required to take such action or be liable for failure to do so. Landlord shall not be required to make any Alteration, whether foreseen or unforeseen, or to maintain any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property in any way, and Tenant hereby expressly waives any right which may be provided for in any Law now or hereafter in effect to make Alterations at the expense of Landlord. Any Alteration made by Tenant pursuant to this subparagraph (a) or pursuant to subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph 11 shall be made in conformity with the provisions of Paragraph 12.

(b) Except for the Permitted Encumbrances, in the event that any Improvement, now or hereafter constructed, shall encroach upon any property, street or right-of-way (including the Adjoining Property) adjoining any of the Leased Premises, shall violate the provisions of any restrictive covenant affecting any of the Leased Premises, shall hinder or obstruct any easement or right-of-way to which any of the Leased Premises is subject, or shall impair the rights of others in, to or under any of the foregoing, Tenant shall, promptly after receiving notice or otherwise acquiring knowledge thereof, either (i) obtain valid and effective waivers or settlements of all claims, liabilities and damages resulting from each such encroachment, violation, hindrance, obstruction or impairment, whether the same shall affect Landlord, Tenant or both, or (ii) take such reasonable action as shall be necessary to remove all such encroachments, hindrances or obstructions and to end all such violations or impairments, including, if necessary, making Alterations.

(c) Landlord shall have the right (but no obligation), upon at least five (5) days prior notice to Tenant (or without notice in case of emergency), to enter upon any of the Leased Premises for the purpose of making any Alterations which may be necessary by reason of Tenant's failure to comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this Paragraph 11. Except in case of emergency, the right of entry shall be exercised at reasonable times and at reasonable hours and upon at least five (5) days prior notice. The cost of any such entry, together with the reasonable and actual cost of all such Alterations, shall be Additional Rent; and Tenant shall pay the same to Landlord, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the time of payment by Landlord until paid by Tenant, immediately upon written demand therefor and upon submission of evidence of Landlord's payment of such costs.

(d) Tenant shall, from time to time, to the extent necessary or commercially reasonable, replace with other operational equipment or parts (the "Replacement Equipment") any of the Equipment (the "Replaced Equipment") which shall have (i) become worn out, obsolete or unusable for the purpose for which it is intended, (ii) been taken by a Condemnation as provided in Paragraph 13(d), or (iii) been lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed as provided in Paragraph 14(h); provided, however, that the Replacement Equipment shall (A) be in good operating condition, (B) have a value and useful life at least equal to the value and estimated useful life of the Replaced Equipment immediately prior to the time that the Replaced Equipment had become so worn out, or unusable, so taken, or so lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, and (C) be suitable for a use which is the same or similar to that of the Replaced Equipment. Tenant shall repair at its sole cost and expense all damage to the Leased Premises caused by the removal of Replaced Equipment or other Personal property of Tenant or the installation of Replacement Equipment. All Replacement Equipment shall become the property of Landlord, shall be free and clear of all liens and rights of others and shall become a part of the Equipment to the same extent as the Replaced Equipment had been. If so requested by Landlord in writing, Tenant shall promptly cause to be executed and delivered to Landlord an invoice, bill of sale or other appropriate instrument evidencing the transfer or assignment to Landlord of all estate, right, title and interest (other than the leasehold estate created hereby) of Tenant or any other Person in and to the Replacement Equipment, free from all liens and other exceptions to title; and Tenant shall pay all taxes, fees, costs and other expenses that may become payable as a result thereof. At the expiration of the Term or the sooner termination of this Lease, all Equipment shall be in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

12. Alterations and Improvements. Except with respect to the maintenance and repair required to be performed by Tenant pursuant to in Paragraph 11 and otherwise as provided in this Paragraph 12, Tenant shall not with respect to any of Memphis Premises, the New Orleans Premises or the Antonio Premises (a) make any Alterations the cost of which exceeds $250,000 for any single alteration or $500,000 in the aggregate over the Term, (b) construct upon the Land any additional Improvements or (c) install equipment in the Improvements or accessions to the Equipment, without the prior written approval of Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In addition, Tenant shall not do any other act which, in the sole opinion of Landlord, would tend to impair the value of the Leased Premises. Tenant agrees that (i) the market value of the Leased Premises shall not be lessened by any such Alteration, construction or installation, or its usefulness impaired, (ii) all such Alterations, construction and installations shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner, (iii) all such Alterations, construction and installations shall be expeditiously completed in compliance with all Legal Requirements, (iv) all work done in connection with any such Alteration, construction or installation shall comply with the requirements of all insurance policies required to be maintained by Tenant hereunder, (v) Tenant shall promptly pay all costs and expenses of any such Alteration, construction or installation and shall discharge or remove all liens filed against any of the Leased Premises arising out of the same, (vi) Tenant shall procure and pay for all permits and licenses required in connection with any such Alteration, construction or installation, (vii) all such Alterations, construction and installations shall be the property of Landlord and shall be subject to this Lease, and (viii) Tenant shall comply, to the extent requested by Landlord, with the provisions of clauses (i) through (iv) of Paragraph 15(a).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall be permitted to construct additional Improvements upon the Land in order to expand the existing facilities so long as (a) Landlord receives prior written notice of Tenant's intention to construct such Improvements and (b) Tenant complies fully with all of the provisions of this Paragraph 12, including, but not limited to, subparagraphs (i) through (viii) herein.

13. Condemnation.

(a) Tenant, immediately upon receiving a Condemnation Notice, shall notify Landlord thereof and, so long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing, Tenant shall have the right on behalf of Tenant, Landlord and Lender to negotiate the settlement in any Condemnation proceeding and/or threat thereof and to contest the Condemnation and/or the amount of the Net Award therefor, all at Tenant's expense; provided, however, that if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing Tenant shall have no right to participate in any such proceedings, negotiation or contest. Lender shall be entitled to participate with Tenant in any such proceeding, negotiation and/or contest, all at Tenant's expense, provided, however, that so long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing counsel selected by Tenant shall represent Tenant, Landlord and Lender in any such proceeding, negotiation and/or contest. Subject to the provisions of this Paragraph 13, Tenant hereby irrevocably assigns to Landlord any award or payment to which Tenant is or may be entitled by reason of any Condemnation, whether the same shall be paid or payable for Tenant's leasehold interest hereunder or otherwise; but nothing in this Lease shall impair Tenant's right to any award or payment on account of Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment or other tangible property which is not part of the Equipment, moving expenses or loss of business, if available, to the extent that and so long as (i) Tenant shall have the right to make, and does make, a separate claim therefor against the condemnor and (ii) such claim does not in any way reduce either the amount of the award otherwise payable to Landlord for the Condemnation of Landlord's fee interest in the Leased Premises or the amount of the award (if any) otherwise payable for the Condemnation of Tenant's leasehold interest hereunder.

(b) If (i) the entire "New Orleans Premises", the entire "Memphis Premises" or the entire "San Antonio Premises" or (ii) any substantial portion of the "New Orleans Premises", the Memphis Premises" or the "San Antonio Premises", which portion Tenant determines, in good faith, to be sufficient to render the remaining portion thereof uneconomic for the use of Tenant or any other tenant to which such premises might reasonably be leased, shall be taken by a Taking or under threat thereof, (any one or all of which is affected by a taking described in (i) or (ii) being hereinafter referred to as the "Affected Premises") then Tenant shall, not later than thirty (30) days after Landlord gives Tenant notice that Landlord has received a Condemnation Notice or Tenant otherwise receives a Condemnation Notice, give notice to Landlord of its intention to terminate this Lease as to the Affected Premises on the first Basic Rent Payment Date (the "Termination Date") occurring after the date on which the Landlord rejects Tenant's offer to purchase the Affected Premises.

Such notice of intention to terminate shall contain (A) an irrevocable offer of Tenant to purchase the remaining portion of the Affected Premises, if any, on the Termination Date for the purchase price (the "Termination Offer Amount") specified in the next sentence and (B) in the event that less than the entire Affected Premises shall have been taken or be under threat thereof, a certificate of Tenant, signed by the president or a vice president thereof, stating that, in Tenant's good faith judgment, the portion of the Affected Premises so taken or under threat thereof is sufficient to fulfill the conditions set forth in clause (ii) of the first subparagraph of this Paragraph 13(b) and certifying that Tenant will forever abandon operations on the remainder of the Affected Premises. The Termination Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Affected Premises as of the date immediately prior to the Condemnation Notice or (2) the sum of that portion of the Acquisition Cost applicable to the Affected Premises, as set forth in Exhibit "E" attached hereto and made a part hereof, and one-half of any prepayment penalty or premium up to a maximum payment by Tenant of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) which may be payable under a Note or Mortgage. Promptly upon the delivery to Landlord of such notice of intention to terminate, Landlord and Tenant shall commence to determine such Fair Market Value in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 27.

Tenant agrees that no rejection of an offer hereunder shall be effective for any purpose unless consented to by Lender. If Landlord shall reject such offer by notice to Tenant, containing the written consent of Lender to such rejection, not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, then upon (x) payment of all Rent and any other charges due and unpaid under this Lease as of the Termination Date and (y) compliance by Tenant with all other obligations and liabilities under this Lease which have arisen on or prior to the Termination Date, this Lease shall terminate on the Termination Date as to the Affected Premises and Tenant shall promptly vacate and have no further right, title or interest in or to any of the Affected Premises.

Unless Landlord shall have rejected such offer by the foregoing notice to Tenant not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted such offer. If such offer is accepted by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Termination Offer Amount on the Termination Date and, provided all Rent and other sums due and unpaid hereunder are paid in full, Landlord shall convey to Tenant the remaining portion of the Affected Premises, if any, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16 and Landlord shall assign to Tenant its entire interest in and to the Net Award including any part thereof that has not been received by Landlord and/or deliver to Tenant or credit against the Termination Offer Amount such Net Award including any part thereof which shall have been received by Landlord.

(c) In the event of any Taking of any of the Land or Improvements which does not result in a termination of this Lease as to any or all of the "New Orleans Premises", the "Memphis Premises", or the "San Antonio Premises", the Term shall, notwithstanding the Taking, continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder, except as expressly provided in Paragraph 15(b). Promptly after such Taking, Tenant, as required in Paragraph 11(a), shall commence and diligently continue to restore the Improvements as nearly as possible to their value, condition and character immediately prior to such Taking, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 12. Landlord shall make the Net Award available to Tenant as and when received by Landlord for restoration in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Paragraph 15(a).

In the event of a Requisition of any of the Land or Improvements, if Landlord is required to pay the Net Award of such Requisition to Lender in accordance with the provisions of the Note and the Mortgage and the debt service payments due under the Note are thereafter reduced by virtue of such payment of the Net Award to Lender, then each installment of Basic Rent payable on or after the effective date of such reduction in debt service shall be reduced in the same amount and for the same period as payments are reduced under the Note. In the event that the Net Award of a Requisition of any of the Land or Improvements is retained by Landlord, Landlord shall apply such Net Award, to the extent received, to the installments of Basic Rent thereafter payable until such Net Award has been applied in full or until the Term hereof has expired, whichever first occurs. Upon the expiration of the Term, any portion of such Net Award which shall not have been previously credited to Tenant shall be retained by Landlord.

(d) If any of the Equipment shall be taken by a Condemnation other than a Condemnation which falls within the provisions of Paragraph 13(b), the Term shall nevertheless continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder. Tenant shall, whether or not the Net Award is sufficient for the purpose, promptly replace the Equipment so taken, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 11(d), and the Net Award of such a Condemnation made for the loss of the replaced Equipment only shall thereupon be payable to Tenant. The remainder of the Net Award shall be applied as hereinabove provided.

(e) Except as specifically provided in subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph 13, no agreement with any condemnor in settlement of or under threat of any Condemnation shall be made by Tenant without the written consent of Landlord and Lender.

14. Insurance.

(a) Tenant shall maintain at its sole cost and expense the following insurance on or in connection with the Leased Premises:

(i) Insurance against loss or damage to the Improvements and Equipment by fire and other risks from time to time included under standard extended and additional extended coverage policies, including vandalism and malicious mischief, sprinkler, plate glass and flood insurance, to the extent any of the Leased Premises are in a flood zone, in amounts not less than the actual replacement value of the Improvements and Equipment, excluding footings and foundations and other parts of the Improvements which are not insurable (or, in the case of plate glass insurance, the replacement cost of all plate glass in the Leased Premises). Such policies shall contain replacement cost endorsements.

(ii) General public liability insurance against claims for bodily injury, death or property damage occurring on, in or about any of the Leased Premises or the Adjoining Property, in an amount not less than $1,000,000 primary combined single limit for bodily injury or death and/or property damage, each occurrence with a general aggregate limit of $2,000,000, combined single limit, not less than $20,000,000 umbrella combined single limit; provided, however, that Landlord shall have the right to determine such other limits as may be reasonable and customary for transactions and properties of this size and type. Policies for such insurance shall be for the mutual benefit of Landlord, Tenant and Lender.

(iii) Worker's compensation insurance covering all fulltime employees of Tenant employed in connection with any work done on or about any of the Leased Premises for which claims for death or bodily injury could be asserted against Landlord, Tenant or any of the Leased Premises, or, in lieu of such worker's compensation insurance, a program of self-insurance complying with the rules, regulations and requirements of the appropriate agency of the State.

(iv) To the extent that the Improvements include at any time Equipment or any other equipment on or in the Leased Premises which by reason of its use or existence is capable of bursting, erupting, or exploding, boiler and pressure vessel insurance on any such Equipment, in an amount not less than $5,000,000 for damage to property, bodily injury or death resulting from such perils.

(v) Such other insurance, including business interruption insurance which would provide an amount necessary to pay Rent for at least one (1) year, on or in connection with any of the Leased Premises as Landlord or Lender may reasonably require, which at the time is prudent for Tenant's industry and is commonly obtained in connection with properties similar to the Leased Premises.

(b) The insurance required by Paragraph 14(a) shall be written by companies of recognized financial standing which are approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, and are authorized to do an insurance business in the State. The insurance policies (i) shall be for such terms as Landlord may reasonably approve, (ii) shall be in amounts sufficient at all times to satisfy any coinsurance requirements thereof, and (iii) shall (except for the worker's compensation insurance referred to in Paragraph 14(a)(iii) hereof) name Landlord, Tenant and Lender as insured parties, as their respective interests may appear. If said insurance or any part thereof shall expire, be withdrawn, become void, voidable, unreliable or unsafe for any reason, including a breach of any condition thereof by Tenant or the failure or impairment of the capital of any insurer, or if for any other reason whatsoever said insurance shall become unsatisfactory to Landlord, Tenant shall promptly obtain new or additional insurance reasonably satisfactory to Landlord.

(c) Each insurance policy referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) of Paragraph 14(a) shall contain standard non-contributory mortgagee clauses in favor of and reasonably acceptable to Lender. Each policy required by any provision of Paragraph 14(a), except clause (iii) thereof, shall provide that it may not be cancelled except after thirty (30) days' prior notice to Landlord and Lender except for the non-payment of premiums which shall require at least ten (10) days notice of cancellation. Each such policy shall also provide that any loss otherwise payable thereunder shall be payable notwithstanding (i)

any act or omission of Landlord or Tenant which might, absent such provision, result in a forfeiture of all or a part of such insurance payment, (ii) the occupation or use of any of the Leased Premises for purposes more hazardous than those permitted by the provisions of such policy, (iii) any foreclosure or other action or proceeding taken by Lender pursuant to any provision of the Mortgage upon the happening of an event of default therein, or (iv) any change in title to or ownership of any of the Leased Premises.

(d) Tenant shall pay as they become due in installments or otherwise all premiums for the insurance required by this Paragraph 14, shall renew or replace each policy and deliver to Landlord evidence of the payment of the full premium or next succeeding installment, as the case may be, therefor at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration date of such policy, and shall promptly deliver to Landlord all original policies; and in the event of Tenant's failure to comply with any of the foregoing requirements, Landlord shall be entitled, but not obligated, to procure such insurance. Any sums expended by Landlord in procuring such insurance shall be Additional Rent and shall be repaid by Tenant, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the time of payment by Landlord until fully paid by Tenant, immediately upon written demand therefor by Landlord.

(e) Tenant shall have the replacement cost and insurable value of the Improvements determined from time to time as required by the replacement cost endorsements and shall deliver to Landlord the new replacement cost endorsement or certificate evidencing such endorsement promptly upon Tenant's receipt thereof. If, at any time, a replacement cost endorsement is not available, Tenant shall have the replacement cost and insurable value of the Improvements determined at least once a year by the underwriter of fire insurance on the Leased Premises or, if such underwriter will not act, by a qualified appraiser satisfactory to Landlord, and shall deliver to Landlord such determination promptly upon receipt.

(f) Tenant shall promptly comply with and conform to (i) all provisions of each insurance policy required by this Paragraph 14 and (ii) all requirements of the insurers thereunder, applicable to Landlord, Tenant or any of the Leased Premises or to the use, manner of use, occupancy, possession, operation, maintenance, alteration or repair of any of the Leased Premises, even if such compliance necessitates structural changes or improvements or results in interference with the use or enjoyment of any of the Leased Premises. Tenant shall not use any of the Leased Premises in any manner which would permit the insurer to cancel or increase the premium for any insurance policy.

(g) In the event of any loss, Tenant shall give Landlord and Lender immediate notice thereof. So long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing, Tenant is hereby authorized to adjust and compromise, in its discretion, all claims under any of the insurance policies required by this Paragraph 14 (except public liability insurance claims payable to a person other than Tenant, Landlord or Lender) and to execute and deliver of behalf of Landlord and Lender all necessary proofs of loss, receipts, vouchers and release required by the insurers; and Landlord agrees to sign, upon the request of Tenant, all such proofs of loss, receipt, vouchers and releases. However, if Lender so elects, Lender shall adjust and compromise any and all such claims. Any adjustment, settlement or compromise of any such claim shall be subject to the prior written approval of Lender unless Tenant receives a prior written waiver from Lender, and Lender shall have the right to prosecute or contest, or to require Tenant to prosecute or contest, any such claim, adjustment, settlement or compromise, all at Tenant's expense. All proceeds of any insurance required under clauses (i) (in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), (ii), (except proceeds payable to a person other than Tenant, Landlord or Lender), (iv) and (v) of Paragraph 14(a) shall be payable to Landlord and Lender. Each insurer is hereby authorized and directed to make payment under said policies, including return of unearned premiums, directly to Landlord and Lender instead of to Landlord and Tenant jointly (except for a casualty loss payment of less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) which shall be paid directly to Tenant); and Tenant hereby appoints each of Landlord and Lender as Tenant's attorneys-in-fact to endorse any draft therefor.

In the event of any casualty (whether or not insured against) resulting in damage to any of the Improvements which does not result in a termination of this Lease, the Term shall, notwithstanding such casualty, continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder, except as expressly provided in Paragraph 15(b). Promptly after such casualty, Tenant, as required in Paragraph 11(a), shall commence and diligently continue to restore the Improvements as nearly as possible to their value, condition and character immediately prior to such damage, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 12. Landlord shall make such Net Proceeds available to Tenant as and when received by Landlord for restoration by Tenant in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Paragraph 15(a).

In the event of any loss of any of the Equipment in a casualty which does not result in a termination of this Lease, the Term shall nevertheless continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder. Tenant shall, whether or not the Net Proceeds are sufficient for the purpose, promptly repair or replace such Equipment, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 11(d), and the Net Proceeds paid for the loss of such Equipment only shall thereupon be payable to Tenant. The remainder of the Net Proceeds shall be applied as hereinabove provided.

(h) If (a) the entire "New Orleans Premises", the entire "Memphis Premises" or the entire "San Antonio Premises" or (b) a substantial portion of the "New Orleans Premises", the "Memphis Premises" and the "San Antonio Premises", shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty and, in Tenant's good faith judgment, it is uneconomical to replace, repair or restore the Affected Premises within one hundred and fifty (150) days of the date of such casualty for continued use and occupancy by Tenant or any other tenant to which the Affected Premises might reasonably be leased (any one or all of which is affected by a fire or casualty described in (a) or (b) being hereinafter referred to as the "Affected Premises"), then Tenant shall, not later than twenty (20) days after such occurrence, give notice to Landlord of its intention to terminate this Lease as to the Affected Premises on the first Basic Rent Payment Date (the "Casualty Termination Date") which occurs after the date on which Landlord rejects Tenant's offer to purchase the Affected Premises.

Such notice shall contain (A) an irrevocable offer of Tenant to purchase the Affected Premises on the Casualty Termination Date for the purchase price (the "Casualty Offer Amount") specified in the next sentence and (B) a certificate of Tenant, signed by the president or a vice president of Tenant, stating that, in Tenant's good faith judgment, the portion of the Affected Premises so damaged or destroyed is sufficient to render the Affected Premises uneconomical for restoration for continued use and occupancy by Tenant or any other Tenant to which the Affected Premises might be leased and certifying that Tenant will not restore the Affected Premises for the use to which such Premises was devoted prior to such damage or destruction. The Casualty Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Affected Premises as of the date immediately prior to such casualty or (2) the sum of that portion of the Acquisition Cost applicable to the Affected Premises, as set forth in Exhibit "E", and one-half (1/2) of any prepayment penalty or premium up to a maximum payment by Tenant of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) which may be payable under a Note or Mortgage. Promptly upon the delivery of such notice from Tenant to Landlord, Landlord and Tenant shall commence to determine such Fair Market Value in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 27.

No rejection of an offer hereunder shall be effective for any purpose unless consented to by Lender. If Landlord shall reject such offer by notice to Tenant, containing the written consent of Lender to such rejection, not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, then upon (x) payment of all Rent and any other charges due and unpaid under this Lease as of the Casualty Termination Date and (y) compliance by Tenant with all other obligations and liabilities under this Lease which have arisen on or prior to the Casualty Termination Date, this Lease shall terminate on the Casualty Termination Date as to the Affected Premises and Tenant shall promptly vacate and have no further right, title or interest in or to any of the Affected Premises.

Unless Landlord shall have rejected such offer by the foregoing notice to Tenant not later than the twentieth (20th) day prior to the Casualty Termination Date, Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted such offer. If such offer is accepted by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Casualty Offer Amount on the Casualty Termination Date and, provided an Event of Default does not then exist, Landlord shall convey to Tenant the Affected Premises in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16 and, provided all Rent and other sums due and unpaid under this Lease are paid in full, Landlord shall assign to Tenant its entire interest in and to the Net Proceeds including any part thereof that has not been received by Landlord and/or deliver to Tenant or credit against the Casualty Offer Amount such Net Proceeds including any part thereof which shall have been received by Landlord.

(i) Tenant shall not carry separate insurance concurrent in form or contributing in the event of loss with that required in this Paragraph 14 unless (i) Landlord and Lender are included therein as named insureds, with loss payable as provided herein, and (ii) such separate insurance complies with the other provisions of this Paragraph 14. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of such separate insurance and shall deliver to Landlord the original policies therefor.

15. Restoration: Reduction of Rent.

(a) If (on the basis of a cost breakdown provided by Tenant) the cost of restoration is reasonably estimated by Landlord to be One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) or less, then, so long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing, such amount shall be disbursed to Tenant from the Net Proceeds or a Net Award, and Tenant shall promptly restore the Affected

Premises in accordance with and subject to Paragraph 12 of this Lease. Net Proceeds or a Net Award which are for restoration of the Land or Improvements the cost of which is reasonably estimated of Landlord to be in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) shall be disbursed to Tenant only in accordance with the following conditions:

(i) prior to commencement of restoration, the architects, contracts, contractors, plans and specifications for the restoration shall have been approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; Landlord shall be provided with mechanics' lien insurance (if available) and acceptable performance and payment bonds which insure satisfactory completion of the restoration, are in an amount and form and have a surety acceptable to Landlord, and name Landlord and Lender as additional dual obligees; and appropriate waivers of mechanics' and materialmen's liens shall have been filed;

(ii) at the time of any disbursement, no Event of Default shall exist and no mechanics' or materialmen's liens shall have been filed against any of the Leased Premises and remain undischarged;

(iii) disbursements shall be made from time to time in an amount not exceeding the cost of the work completed since the last disbursement, upon receipt of (A) satisfactory evidence, including architects' certificates, of the stage of completion, of the estimated cost of completion and of performance of the work to date in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with the contracts, plans and specifications, (B) waivers of liens for work covered by the prior disbursement, (C) contractors' and subcontractors' sworn statements as to completed work for which payment is requested, (D) a satisfactory bringdown of title insurance, and (E) other evidence of cost and payment so that Landlord can verify that the amounts disbursed from time to time are represented by work that is completed, in place and free and clear of mechanics' and materialmen's lien claims;

(iv) each request for disbursement shall be accompanied by a certificate of Tenant, signed by the president or a vice president of Tenant, describing the work for which payment is requested, stating the cost incurred in connection therewith, stating that Tenant has not previously received payment for such work and, upon completion of the work, also stating that the work has been fully completed and complies with the applicable requirements of this Lease;

(v) Landlord may retain ten percent (10%) of the restoration fund until the restoration is fifty percent (50%) completed;

(vi) the restoration fund may not be commingled with Landlord's other funds and shall bear interest which shall be added to the restoration fund;

(vii) at all times the undisbursed balance of the restoration fund held by Landlord shall be not less than the cost of completing the restoration work free and clear of all liens; and

(viii) such other reasonable conditions as Landlord may impose.

In addition, prior to commencement of restoration and at any time during restoration, if the estimated cost of completing the restoration work free and clear of all liens, as determined by Landlord, exceeds the amount of the Net Proceeds or the Net Award available for such restoration, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand by Landlord, be paid by Tenant to Landlord to be added to the restoration fund. Any sum which remains in the restoration fund upon completion of restoration (the "Remaining Sum") shall be refunded to Tenant, unless such sum is required to be applied by

Landlord to reduce principal outstanding under the Note, in which event it shall be paid by Landlord to Lender to reduce principal outstanding under the Note. For purposes of determining the source of funds with respect to the disposition of funds remaining after the completion of restoration, the Net Proceeds or the Net Award shall be deemed to be disbursed prior to any amount added by Tenant.

(b) In the event that there is a Remaining Sum upon completion of restoration which is paid by Landlord to Lender, as aforesaid, then each installment of Basic Rent payable on or after the effective date of such reduction in debt service shall be reduced in the same amount and for the same period as payments are reduced under the Note.

16. Procedures Upon Purchase.

(a) In the event of the purchase of any of the Leased Premises by Tenant pursuant to any provision of this Lease, Landlord need not transfer and convey to Tenant or its designee any better title thereto than that which was transferred and conveyed to Landlord, and Tenant shall accept such title, subject, however, to all Permitted Exceptions and to all liens, exceptions and restrictions on, against or relating to any of the Leased Premises which were created with the concurrence of Tenant or as a result of a default by Tenant under this Lease and to all applicable Laws, but free of the lien of and security interest created by the Mortgage and the Assignment and liens, exceptions and restrictions on, against or relating to the Leased Premises which have been created by or resulted solely from acts of Landlord without the concurrence of Tenant.

(b) Upon the date fixed for any such purchase of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to any provision of this Lease, Tenant shall pay to Landlord or to any Person to whom Landlord directs payment, at its address set forth above, or at any other place designated by Landlord, the Offer Amount therefor specified herein, in federal or other immediately available funds which at the time of such payment shall be legal tender for the payment of public or private debts in the United States of America, less any credits of the Net Award or Net Proceeds allowed against the Offer Amount pursuant to the provisions of Paragraphs 13(b) or 14(i), and Landlord shall thereupon deliver to Tenant (i) a special warranty deed in form satisfactory to Landlord's counsel which describes any of the Leased Premises then being sold to Tenant and conveys and transfers the title thereto which is described in Paragraph 16(a), (ii) such other instruments as shall be necessary to transfer to Tenant or its designee any other property (or rights to any Net Proceeds or Net Award not yet received by Landlord) then required to be sold by Landlord pursuant to this Lease and (iii) any Net Award or Net Proceeds received by Landlord, nor credited to Tenant against the Offer Amount and required to be delivered by Landlord to Tenant pursuant to this Lease. Tenant shall pay all reasonable charges incident to such conveyance and transfer, including Landlord's reasonable counsel fees, escrow fees, recording fees, title insurance or guarantee premiums and all applicable federal, state and local taxes which may be incurred or imposed by said deed and other instruments (excluding, however, any capital gains or net income tax payable by Landlord as a result of said transfer). Tenant agrees, upon the request and direction of Landlord, to pay a portion of the Offer Amount as a brokerage commission to Landlord or one of its Affiliates who Tenant acknowledges shall be deemed the broker of record in connection with the transfer of the Leased Premises. Upon the completion of such purchase, but not prior thereto (whether or not any delay in the completion of or any failure to complete such purchase shall be the fault of Landlord), Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease and all obligations hereunder (including the obligations to pay Rent) with respect to any of the Leased Premises conveyed to Tenant, except any obligations and liabilities of Tenant, actual or contingent, under this Lease, which arose on or prior to such date of purchase. In the event that the completion of such purchase shall be delayed for more than ninety (90) days solely as a result of acts or omissions of Tenant, then the Offer Amount payable by Tenant upon the purchase of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to any provisions of this Lease shall, at Landlord's sole option, be determined as of the actual date of such purchase by Tenant, provided that Tenant shall have paid to Landlord all Rent due and payable hereunder to and including such date. Any prepaid Basic Rent or other prepaid sums paid to Landlord shall be prorated as of the date the purchase is completed, and the prorated unapplied balance shall be deducted from the Offer Amount due to Landlord.

No apportionment of any Impositions shall be made upon such purchase, Tenant being liable for payment thereof during the Term as Tenant and being liable thereafter as owner.

17. Assignment and Subletting. Tenant may not assign this Lease at any time to any other party without the prior written consent of Landlord; provided, however, that upon prior notice to Landlord, Tenant shall have the right to assign this Lease to any party which, immediately following such assignment, complies both with the provisions of Paragraph 31 of this Lease and with the provisions of this Paragraph 17. Tenant may sublet any of the Leased Premises at any other time to any other party without the prior written consent of Landlord. Each sublease of any of the Leased Premises shall be subject and subordinate to the provisions of this Lease. If Tenant assigns all its rights and interest under this Lease, the assignee under such assignment shall expressly assume all the obligations of Tenant hereunder, including obligations, actual or contingent, of Tenant which may have arisen on or prior to the date of such assignment, by a written instrument delivered to Landord at the time of such assignment. No assignment other than as specifically permitted by this Paragraph and Paragraph 31 and no sublease made as permitted by this Paragraph shall affect or reduce any of the obligations of Tenant hereunder; and all such obligations shall continue in full force and effect as obligations of a principal and not as obligations of a guarantor, as if no assignment or sublease had been made. No assignment or sublease shall impose any obligations on Landlord under this Lease. Tenant shall, within ten (10) days after the execution and delivery of any such assignment, deliver a duplicate original copy thereof in recordable form to Landlord, and within ten (10) days after the execution and delivery of any such sublease, Tenant shall deliver a duplicate original copy thereof to Landlord.

In the event Tenant desires to assign its interest in this Lease or effect a Change in Control (as defined in Paragraph 31) and such assignment or Change of Control would cause a breach of Paragraph 31 and such anticipatory breach is not waived in writing by Landlord within ten (10) days after receipt of notice from Tenant, then Tenant shall, not later than sixty (60) days prior to such occurrence, make an irrevocable offer to purchase the Leased Premises on the first Basic Rent Payment Date (the "Transfer Purchase Date") which occurs after the date on which Landlord accepts Tenant's offer to purchase the Leased Premises for the purchase price (the "Transfer Offer Amount") specified in the next sentence. The Transfer Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises as of the date immediately prior to such assignment or Change in Control or (2) the Acquisition Cost and any prepayment penalty or premium which may be payable under a Note or Mortgage. Promptly upon the deliver of such notice from Tenant to Landlord, Landlord and Tenant shall commence to determine such Fair market Value in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 27.

No rejection of an offer hereunder shall be effective for any purpose unless consented to by Lender. If Landlord shall reject such offer by notice to Tenant, containing the written consent of Lender to such rejection, not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, then the breach of Paragraph 31 shall be deemed waived by Landlord, subject, however, to the terms of this Paragraph 17 and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect.

Unless Landlord shall have rejected such offer by the foregoing notice to Tenant not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted such offer. If such offer is accepted by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Transfer Offer Amount on the Transfer Purchase Date and, provided all Rent and other sums due hereunder are paid in full, Landlord shall convey to Tenant the Leased Premises in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Lease, Landlord shall have the right immediately or at any time thereafter to collect and enjoy all rents and other sums of money payable under any sublease of any of the Leased Premises, and Tenant hereby irrevocably and unconditionally assigns such rents and money to Landlord, which assignment may be exercised upon and after (but not before) the occurrence of an Event of Default. Tenant shall not mortgage or pledge this Lease, and any such mortgage or pledge made in violation of this Paragraph shall be void.

18. Permitted Contests. Tenant shall not be required to (a) pay any Imposition, (b) comply with any Legal Requirement, (c) discharge or remove any lien referred to in Paragraph 9 or 12, or (d) take any action with respect to any encroachment, violation, hindrance, obstruction or impairment referred to in Paragraph 11(b), so long as Tenant shall contest, in good faith and at its expense, the existence, the amount or the validity thereof, the amount of the damages caused thereby, or the extent of its or Landlord's liability therefor, by appropriate proceedings which shall operate during the pendency thereof to prevent (i) the collection of, or other realization upon, the Imposition, lien or claim so contested, (ii) the sale, forfeiture or loss of any of the Leased Premises or any rent to satisfy the same or to pay any damages caused by the violation of any such Legal Requirement or by any such encroachment, violation, hindrance, obstruction or impairment, (iii) any interference with the use or occupancy of any of the Leased Premises, (iv) any interference with the payment of any Rent, and (v) the cancellation of any fire or other insurance policy. If the contested amount is in excess of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00), Tenant shall provide Landlord security which is reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, to assure the payment, compliance, discharge, removal and/or other action, including all costs, attorneys' fees, interest and penalties that may be or become due in connection therewith. While any proceedings which comply with the requirements of this Paragraph 18 are pending and the required security is held by Landlord, Landlord shall not have the right to pay, remove or cause to be discharged the Imposition, lien or claim thereby being contested. Tenant further agrees that each such contest shall be promptly and diligently prosecuted to a final conclusion, except that Tenant shall, so long as the conditions of the first sentence of this Paragraph are at all times complied with, have the right to attempt to settle or compromise such contest through negotiations. Tenant shall pay, and save Landlord harmless against, any and all losses, judgments, decrees and costs (including all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with any such contest and shall, promptly after the final determination of such contest, fully pay and discharge the amounts which shall be levied, assessed, charged or imposed or be determined to be payable therein or in connection therewith, together with all penalties, fines, interest, costs and expenses thereof or in connection therewith, and perform all acts the performance of which shall be ordered or decreed as a result thereof. No such contest shall subject Landlord to the risk of any civil or criminal liability.

19. Conditional Limitations; Default Provision.

(a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events which continue for a period equal to the greater of (i) any grace period specified in this subparagraph 19(a) or in subparagraph 19(g) hereof or (ii) two (2) days less than (any applicable grace period, if any, given to Landlord for such) default under any Note and Mortgage shall constitute an Event of Default under this Lease: (i) a failure by Tenant to make (regardless of the pendency of any bankruptcy, reorganization, receivership, insolvency or other proceedings, in law, in equity, or before any administrative tribunal, which have or might have the effect of preventing Tenant from complying with the provisions of this Lease) any payment of Rent or other sum herein required to be paid by Tenant; (ii) a failure by Tenant duly to perform and observe, or a violation or breach of, any other provision or covenant hereof not otherwise specifically mentioned in this Paragraph 19(a); (iii) any representation or warranty made by Tenant herein or in the Assignment or in any certificate, demand or request made pursuant hereto or thereto proves to be incorrect, now or hereafter, in any material respect; (iv) Tenant shall (A) voluntarily be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, (B) seek or consent to the appointment of a receiver or trustee for itself or for any of the Leased Premises, (C) file a petition seeking relief under the bankruptcy or other similar laws of the United States, any state or any jurisdiction, or (D) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (v) a court shall enter an order, judgment or decree appointing, without the consent of Tenant, a receiver or trustee for it or for any of the Leased Premises or approving a petition filed against Tenant which seeks relief under the bankruptcy or other similar laws of the United States, any state or any jurisdiction, and such order, judgment or decree shall remain in force, undischarged or unstayed, sixty (60) days after it is entered; (vi) any Improvement is substantially damaged or destroyed by an uninsured casualty and Tenant fails to commence promptly thereafter to restore the Leased Premises to its condition immediately prior to such casualty or fails to proceed actively, diligently and in good faith with such restoration and to continue such restoration until the Leased Premises have been fully restored; (vii) any of the Leased Premises shall have been vacated or abandoned; (viii) Tenant shall be liquidated or dissolved or shall begin proceedings towards its liquidation or dissolution; (ix) the estate or interest of Tenant in any of the Leased Premises shall be levied upon or attached in any proceeding and such estate or interest is about to be sold or transferred or such proceeding shall not be vacated or discharged within sixty (60) days after it is commenced; or (x) a failure by

Guarantor duly to perform and observe any provision under the Guaranty, or a violation or breach of any covenant made by Guarantor under the Guaranty.

(b) If an Event of Default shall have occurred, Landlord shall have the right at its option, then or at any time thereafter to do any one or more of the following without demand upon or notice to Tenant (except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (g) of this Paragraph 19):

(i) Landlord shall give Tenant ten (10) days written notice of Landlord's intention to terminate this Lease on a date specified in such notice. Upon the date therein specified, the Term, the estate hereby granted and all rights of Tenant hereunder, shall expire and terminate as if such date were the date herein before fixed for the expiration of the Term, but Tenant shall remain liable for all its obligations hereunder, including its liability for Rent, as hereinafter provided.

(ii) Landlord may, whether or not the Term of this Lease shall have been terminated pursuant to clause (i) above, (A) give Tenant notice to surrender any of the Leased Premises to Landlord immediately or on a date specified in such notice, at which time Tenant shall surrender and deliver possession of the Leased Premises or the specified portion thereof to Landlord or (B) re-enter and repossess any of the Leased Premises, with or without legal process, by peaceably entering the Leased Premises and changing locks or by summary proceedings, ejectment or any other lawful means or procedure. Upon or at any time after taking possession of any of the Leased Premises, Landlord may, by peaceable means or legal process, remove any Persons or property therefrom. Landlord shall be under no liability for or by reason of any such entry, repossession or removal. No such entry or repossession shall be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease unless Landlord gives a written notice of such intention to Tenant pursuant to clause (i) above.

(iii) After repossession of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to clause (ii) above, whether or not this Lease shall have been terminated pursuant to clause (i) above, Landlord shall have the right (but shall be under no obligation) to relet any of the Leased Premises to such tenant or tenants, for such term or terms (which may be greater or less than the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the Term), for such rent, on such conditions (which may include concessions or free rent) and for such uses as Landlord, in its absolute discretion, may determine; and Landlord may collect and receive any rents payable by reason of such releting. Landlord shall have no duty to mitigate damages and shall not be responsible or liable for any failure to relet any of the Leased Premises or for any failure to collect any rent due upon any such releting. Landlord may make such Alterations as Landlord, in its sole discretion, may deem advisable. Tenant agrees to pay Landlord, as Additional Rent, immediately upon demand, all expenses incurred by Landlord in obtaining possession, in performing Alterations and in releting any of the Leased Premises, including fees and commissions of attorneys, architects, agents and brokers.

(iv) Unless Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b) (v) (as to the entire Leased Premises) or 19(b)(vi) hereof and shall have received all sums due thereunder, Landlord may, upon written demand to Tenant, recover from Tenant, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as and for liquidated and agreed final damages for Tenant's default and in lieu of all current damages beyond the date of such demand (it being agreed that it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to fix the actual damages), an amount equal to the present value of the excess, if any, of (A) all Rent from the date of such demand to the date on which the then Term is scheduled to expire hereunder in the absence of any earlier termination, re-entry or repossession over (B) the then fair market rental value of the Leased Premises for the same period; provided, however, that in the event Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(6) (v) to require the purchase of less than the entire Leased Premises and shall have received all sums due in connection therewith, the Rent referred to in clause (A) above shall be that portion of the Rent which is attributable to that portion of the Leased Premises which is not sold to Tenant pursuant to said Paragraph 19(b) (v) and the fair rental value referred to in clause (B) above shall be the fair rental value of such unsold remainder of the Leased Premises. The present value of such excess shall be determined by discounting the Rent and such fair market rental value at the rate per annum which is the lower of the then Prime Rate or nine percent (9%) per annum. If any Law shall validly limit the amount of such liquidated final damages to less than the amount above agreed upon, Landlord shall be entitled to the maximum amount allowable under such Law.

(v) Unless Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b) (iv) or 19(b)(vi) hereof and shall have received all sums due thereunder, Landlord may, upon notice to Tenant, require Tenant to make an irrevocable offer to purchase, for the purchase price (the "Default Offer Amount") specified in the next two sentences, either (A) the entire Leased Premises or (B) any one or more of the New Orleans Premises, the San Antonio Premises and the Memphis Premises (such entire Leased Premises or any one or more of the New Orleans Premises, the San Antonio Premises and the Memphis Premises, as applicable, being hereinafter referred to as the "Selected Premises"), as Landlord in its sole discretion may select. The Default Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the then Fair Market Value of the Selected Premises, (2) the sum of that portion (determined in accordance with the percentages set forth in Exhibit "F") of the unpaid balance of the Note and Mortgage covering any of the Selected Premises, all interest accrued thereon, and prepayment penalties payable in connection therewith and all other sums due thereunder as of the date of such purchase, or (3) an amount equal to the sum of the Acquisition Cost with respect to the Selected Premises and any prepayment penalty payable under the Loan with respect to the Selected Premises. Upon such notice by Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall be deemed to have made such offer, and the Fair Market Value of the Selected Premises shall be determined in accordance with the procedure set forth in Paragraph 27 hereof. Within thirty (30) days after such determination of the Fair Market Value, Landlord shall accept or reject such offer. If Landlord accepts such offer, then, on the tenth (10th) business day after such acceptance, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Default Offer Amount and purchase the Selected Premises in accordance with Paragraph 16 hereof. Any rejection by Landlord of such offer shall have no effect on any other provision of this Lease.

(vi) Unless Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(iv) or 19(b)(v) (as to the entire Leased Premises) hereof and shall have received all sums due thereunder or shall have repossessed and relet the Leased Premises, Landlord may declare by notice to Tenant the entire Basic Rent (in the amount of Basic Rent then in effect) discounted at the rate per annum which is the lower of the then Prime Rate or nine percent (9%) per annum for the remainder of the then current Term, to be immediately due and payable. In that event, Tenant shall immediately pay to Landlord all such Basic Rent, all accrued Rent then due and unpaid, all other sums which are then due or which would have been due hereunder but for the aforesaid Event of Default and all sums which arise or become due by reason of such Event of Default (including any attorneys' fees and costs). Upon receipt of all such accelerated Basic Rent and other sums, this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and Tenant shall have the right to possession of the Leased Premises from the date Landlord receives the accelerated Basic Rent and all the other said sums to the end of the Term then in effect (or that would be in effect but for the Event of Default) pursuant and subject to all the provisions of this Lease, including the obligation to pay all increases in Basic Rent and all Additional Rent and other sums that subsequently become due, except that (A) no Basic Rent which has been prepaid hereunder shall be due thereafter during the said Term, (B) Tenant shall have no option to extend or renew the then current Term and (C) Tenant shall have no further rights, if any, under Paragraph 28. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(v) to require the purchase of less than the entire Leased Premises and shall have received all sums due in connection therewith, the Basic Rent to be accelerated pursuant to this Paragraph 19(b) (vi) shall be that portion of the Basic Rent which is attributable to that portion of the Leased Premises which is not sold to Tenant pursuant to said Paragraph 19(b)(v) and Tenant's right to possession pursuant to this Lease shall extend only to such unsold remainder of the Leased Premises.

(vii) Landlord may exercise any other right or remedy now or hereafter existing by Law or in equity.

(c) No expiration or termination of this Lease pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(i) or any other provision of this Lease, by operation of law or otherwise, before the expiration date provided in Paragraph 5 or if applicable the termination date

provided in Paragraph 13(b), 14(i) or 28, no repossession of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(ii) or otherwise, nor any reletting of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to Paragraph (19)(b)(iii) shall relieve Tenant of any of its liabilities and obligations hereunder, including the liability for Rent, all of which shall survive such expiration, termination, repossession or reletting.

(d) In the event of any expiration or termination of this Lease or repossession of any of the Leased Premises by reason of the occurrence of an Event of Default, and provided that Landlord has not exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(iv), 19(b)(v) (as to the entire Leased Premises) or 19(b)(vi) or has not received all sums due thereunder, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all Rent and all other sums required to be paid by Tenant to and including the date of such expiration, termination or repossession and, thereafter, Tenant shall, until the end of what would have been the Term in the absence of such expiration, termination or repossession, and whether or not any of the Leased Premises shall have been relet, be liable to Landlord for, and shall pay to Landlord, as liquidated and agreed current damages (i) Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other sums which would be payable under this Lease by Tenant in the absence of such expiration, termination or repossession, less (ii) the net proceeds, if any, of any reletting pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(iii), after deducting from such proceeds all of Landlord's expenses in connection with such reletting (including all repossession costs, brokerage commissions, legal expenses, attorneys' fees, employees' expenses, costs of Alterations and expenses of preparation for reletting) provided, however, that in the event
Landlord has exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(v) to require the purchase of less than the entire Leased Premises and has received all sums due in connection therewith, the Rent hereinabove in this Paragraph 19(d) referred to shall mean that portion of the Rent which is applicable to that portion of the Leased Premises which is not sold to Tenant pursuant to said Paragraph 19(b)(v). Tenant hereby agrees to be and remain liable for all sums aforesaid; and Landlord may recover such damages from Tenant and institute and maintain successive actions or legal proceedings against Tenant for the recovery of such damages. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require Landlord to wait to begin such action or other legal proceedings until the date when the Term would have expired by limitation had there been no such Event of Default.

(e) The words "enter," "re-enter," or "re-entry," as used in this Paragraph 19 are not restricted to their technical meaning.

(f) WITH RESPECT TO ANY REMEDY OR PROCEEDING OF LANDLORD HEREUNDER, TENANT WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY.

(g) Except as otherwise hereinafter in this Paragraph 19(g) provided, before an Event of Default shall exist under this Paragraph 19, Landlord shall have given Tenant notice thereof and Tenant shall have failed to cure the default within the applicable grace period stated below. If the default consists of a failure to pay Rent, the applicable grace period shall be two (2) business days from the date such notice is given. If the default consists of the failure to provide any insurance required pursuant to Paragraph 14, the applicable grace period shall be seven (7) days from the date on which the notice is given, but Landlord shall not be obligated to give notice of, or allow any grace period for, any such default more than twice within any twelve (12) month period. If the default consists of something other than the failure to provide any such insurance, the applicable grace period shall be twenty (20) days from the date on which the notice is given or, if the default cannot be cured within the said twenty-day period and delay in the exercise of a remedy would not (in Landlord's reasonable judgment) cause any material adverse harm to Landlord or any of the Leased Premises, the grace period shall be extended for the period required to cure the default (but such grace period, including any extension, shall not in the aggregate exceed sixty (60) days), provided that Tenant shall commence to cure the default within the said twenty-day period and shall actively, diligently and in good faith proceed with and continue the curing of the default until it shall be fully cured. However, no notice or grace period shall be required in any one or more of the following events: (i) substantial damage to any of the Leased Premises will, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, probably occur unless a remedy is exercised promptly; (ii) the occurrence of a default under clause (iii), (iv), (v), (viii), or (ix) of subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph 19; or (iii) the default is such that any delay in the exercise of a remedy by Landlord could reasonably be expected to cause irreparable harm to Landlord.

20. Additional Rights of Landlord.

(a) No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to Landlord is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and each and every right and remedy shall be cumulative and in addition to any other right or remedy given hereunder or now or hereafer existing by Law or in equity. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, Landlord shall have the right (but no obligation) to perform any act required of Tenant hereunder, whether as agent for Tenant or otherwise; and the cost thereof shall be Additional Rent hereunder and shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date such cost is incurred until it shall be fully paid by Tenant, immediately upon demand. Tenant agrees that Tenant shall be liable to Landlord for any and all damages suffered or incurred by Landlord in connection with any Event of Default and Tenant further agrees that Landlord shall be entitled to exercise any and all remedies existing at law or in equity for the recovery thereof. Tenant acknowledges that time is of the essence in the performance of its obligations under this Lease. No failure of Landlord (i) to insist at any time upon the strict performance of any provision of this Lease or (ii) to exercise any option, right, power or remedy contained in this Lease shall be construed as a waiver, modification or relinquishment thereof. A receipt by Landlord of any Rent or other sum due hereunder with knowledge of the breach of any provision contained in this Lease shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach, and no waiver by Landlord of any provision of this Lease shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in a writing signed by Landlord. In addition to the other remedies provided in this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, to injunctive relief in case of the violation, or attempted or threatened violation, of any of the provisions of this Lease, or to specific performance of any of the provisions of this Lease.

(b) Tenant hereby waives and surrenders, for itself and all those claiming under it, including creditors of all kinds, (i) any right and privilege which it or any of them may have under any present or future Law to redeem any of the Leased Premises or to have a continuance of this Lease after termination of this Lease or of Tenant's right of occupancy or possession pursuant to any court order or any provision hereof, and (ii) the benefits of any present or future Law which exempts property from liability for debt or for distress for rent.

(c) Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, all the expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with any Event of Default or the exercise of any remedy by reason of an Event of Default or otherwise in connection with the enforcement of this Lease, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses. If Landlord shall be made a party to any litigation commenced against Tenant or any litigation pertaining to this Lease or any of the Leased Premises (except litigation among the partners of Landlord or other Persons described in Paragraph 29 which does not arise out of any act or omission of Tenant under this Lease), then, at the option of Landlord, Tenant, at its expense, shall provide Landlord with counsel approved by Landlord and, in any event, Tenant shall pay all costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred or paid by Landlord in connection with such litigation; provided, however, that if in a non-appealable decision, a court of competent jurisdiction determines that Landlord was the sole cause of litigation pertaining to this Lease or any of the Leased Premises then all costs and fees incurred by Tenant in connection with such litigation shall be refunded to Tenant.

21. Notices. All notices, demands, requests, consents, approvals, offers, statements and other instruments or communications required or permitted to be given pursuant to the provisions of this Lease shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given for all purposes when delivered in Person or by Federal Express or other 24-hour delivery service or five (5) business days after being deposited in the United States mail, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the other party at its address stated above. A copy of any notice given by Tenant to Landlord shall simultaneously be given by Tenant to Reed Smith Shaw & McClay, 1600 Avenue of the Arts Building, Philadelphia, PA 19107, Attention: Chairman, Real Estate Department. For the purposes of this Paragraph, any party may substitute its address by giving fifteen (15) days' notice to the other party, in the manner provided above.

22. Estoppel Certificate. Tenant shall, at any time and from time to time, but not more than three (3) times in any calendar year, upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written request by Landlord, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a statement in writing, executed by the president or a vice president of Tenant, certifying (a) that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if there have been modifications, that this Lease is in full force and effect as modified, and setting forth such modifications), (b) the dates to which Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other sums payable hereunder have been paid, (c) that, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, no default by either Landlord or Tenant exists hereunder or specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge, and (d) that, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, there are no proceedings pending or threatened against Tenant before or by any court or administrative agency which, if adversely decided, would materially and adversely affect the financial condition and operations of Tenant or, if any such proceedings are pending or threatened to said signer's knowledge, specifying and describing the same. It is intended that any such statements by Tenant may be relied upon by Lender, Landlord or their assignees or by any prospective purchaser or mortgagee of the Leased Premises.

Landlord shall, at any time and from time to time but not more often than twice in any twelve (12) month period upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written request by Tenant, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Tenant a statement in writing, executed by a general partner of landlord certifying (a) that this Lease in unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if there have been modifications, that this Lease is in full force and effect as modified, and setting forth such modifications), (b) the dates to which Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other sums payable hereunder have been paid, (c) that, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, no default by Tenant exists hereunder of specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge. It is intended that nay such statements by Landlord may be relied upon by Tenant, its lenders or its permitted assignees.

23. Surrender. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall peaceably leave and surrender the Leased Premises (except for any portion thereof with respect to which this Lease has previously terminated or with respect to which Tenant has purchased) to Landlord in the same condition in which the Leased Premises were originally received from Landlord at the commencement of this Lease, except as repaired, rebuilt, restored, altered, replaced or added to as permitted or required by any provision of this Lease, and except for ordinary wear and tear. Tenant shall remove from the Leased Premises on or prior to such expiration or earlier termination all property which is owned by Tenant or third parties other than Landlord and Tenant; and Tenant, at its expense, shall, on or prior to such expiration or earlier termination, repair any damage caused by such removal. Property not so removed shall become the property of Landlord; Landlord may thereafter cause such property to be removed from the Leased Premises; and the cost of removing and disposing of such property and repairing any damage to any of the Leased Premises caused by such removal shall be borne by Tenant. Landlord shall not in any manner or to any extent be obligated to reimburse Tenant for any such property which becomes the property of Landlord upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

and beneficial use of any of the Leased Premises in consequence of the damage or destruction thereof by fire, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, wars or otherwise, or in consequence of foreclosure, attachments, levies or executions, is assumed by Tenant, and Landlord shall in no event be answerable or accountable therefor. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, none of the events mentioned in this Paragraph shall entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

the leasehold estate created by this Lease with the fee estate in or ownership of any of the Leased Premises by reason of the fact that the same Person may acquire or hold or own, directly or indirectly, (a) the leasehold estate created by this Lease or any part thereof or interest therein or any interest of Tenant in this Lease, and (b) the fee estate or ownership of any of the Leased Premises or any interest in such fee estate or ownership; and no such merger shall occur unless and until all Persons having any interest in (i) this Lease as Tenant or the leasehold estate created by this Lease and (ii) this Lease as Landlord or the fee estate in or ownership of the Leased Premises or any part thereof sought to be merged shall join in a written instrument effecting such merger and shall duly record the same.

their respective agents, accountants and attorneys, to visit and inspect the Leased Premises and to discuss the finances and business with the officers of Tenant, at such reasonable times as may be requested by Landlord, and, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, to examine the records and books of account Tenant, at such reasonable times as may be requested by Landlord.

Tenant shall deliver to Landlord and to Lender (i) within thirty (30) days of the end of each calendar month the monthly management reports of Tenant for the prior calendar month and (ii) within ninety (90) days of the close of each fiscal year annual audited financial statements of Tenant prepared by independent certified public accountants satisfactory to Landlord, and such other relevant financial data as Landlord may reasonably require pertaining to Tenant or to the Leased Premises. Tenant shall also furnish to Landlord all filings, if any, of Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and other required filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any other Law. All financial statements of Tenant shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied and the annual statements hereinabove referred to shall be accompanied by an unqualified opinion of said accountants and by the affidavit of the president or a vice president of Tenant dated within five (5) days of the delivery of such statement, (a) stating that the affiant knows of no Event of Default or event which, upon notice or the passage of time or both, would become an Event of Default which has occurred and is continuing hereunder, or, if any such event has occurred and is continuing, specifying the nature and period of existence thereof and what action Tenant has taken or proposes to take with respect thereto and (b) except as otherwise specified, with respect to Tenant stating that Tenant has fulfilled all of its obligations under this Lease which are required to be fulfilled on or prior to the date of such affidavit.

27. Determination of Value.

(a) Whenever a determination of Fair Market Value is required pursuant to any provision of this Lease, such Fair Market Value shall be determined in accordance with the following procedure:

(i) Landlord and Tenant shall endeavor to agree upon such Fair Market Value within fifteen (15) days after the date (the "Applicable Initial Date") on which (A) Tenant provides Landlord with notice of its intention not to extend or to terminate this Lease as to the Affected Premises pursuant to Paragraph 13(b) or Paragraph 14(h) hereof or (B) Landlord provides Tenant with notice of its intention to require Tenant to make an offer to purchase the Selected Premises pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(v) hereof, as applicable. Upon reaching such agreement, the parties shall execute an agreement setting forth the amount of such Fair Market Value.

(ii) If the parties shall not have signed such agreement setting forth the amount of such agreed Fair Market Value within fifteen (15) days after the Applicable Initial Date, Tenant shall within ten (10) days after the Applicable Initial Date select an appraiser and notify Landlord in writing of the name, address and qualifications of such appraiser. Within ten (10) days thereafter, Landlord shall select an appraiser and notify Tenant of the name, address and qualifications of such appraiser. The appraiser selected by Tenant and the appraiser selected by Landlord shall endeavor to agree upon the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, as of the date specified in the particular provision of this Lease (the "Applicable Provision") pursuant to which the determination of Fair Market Value is being made. If the said two appraisers shall agree upon such Fair Market Value, the amount of such Fair Market Value as agreed to by the said two appraisers shall be binding and conclusive.

(iii) If the appraiser selected by Tenant and the appraiser selected by Landlord shall be unable to agree upon such Fair Market Value within twenty (20) days after the selection of an appraiser by Landlord, then the said two appraisers shall select a third appraiser to make the determination of such Fair Market Value and the determination of such third appraiser shall be binding and conclusive upon Landlord and Tenant.

(iv) In the event the appraiser selected by Tenant and the appraiser selected by Landlord shall be unable to agree upon the designation of a third appraiser within ten (10) days after the expiration of the twenty (20) day period referred to in clause (iii) above or in the event the third appraiser so selected does not make a determination of the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises within twenty (20) days after his selection, then such third appraiser or a substituted third appraiser, as applicable, shall, at the request of either party hereto, be appointed by the President or Chairman of the American Arbitration Association in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The determination of Fair Market Value made by the third appraiser appointed pursuant hereto shall be made within twenty (20) days after such appointment. Fair Market Value shall be the average of the determination of Fair Market Value made by the third appraiser and the determination of Fair Market Value made by the appraiser whose determination of Fair Market Value is nearest to that of the third appraiser. Such average shall be binding and conclusive upon Landlord and Tenant.

(v) All appraisers selected or appointed pursuant to this Paragraph 27(a) shall be independent qualified appraisers. Such appraisers shall have no right, power or authority to alter or modify the provisions of this Lease and in determining the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Leased Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, such appraisers shall utilize the definition of Fair Market Value hereinabove set forth above.

(b) The cost of the appraiser selected by Tenant shall be paid by Tenant and the cost of the appraiser selected by Landlord shall be paid by Landlord; the cost of a third appraisal, if required, will be split equally between Landlord and Tenant.

(c) If, by virtue of any delay in the appointment of a third appraiser pursuant to Paragraph 27(a)(iv) above or of any delay by such appointed third appraiser to determine such Fair Market Value, the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, is not determined by such appointed third appraiser within one hundred forty (140) days after the Applicable Initial Date, then the date (the "Applicable Final Date") on which the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, would otherwise be sold to Tenant or on which this Lease would otherwise terminate, as specified in the Applicable Provision, shall be extended the same number of days (the "Delay Period") by which the total period so required for the binding and conclusive determination of Fair Market Value exceeds one hundred forty (140) days and all relevant defined terms used in the Applicable Provision shall be deemed amended accordingly, anything to the contrary in the Applicable Provision notwithstanding. In addition, any time period which is afforded Landlord under the Applicable Provision within which to accept or reject an offer by Tenant shall likewise be extended by the number of days equal to the Delay Period.

28. Financing.

(a) Tenant shall pay, within three (3) business days of written demand therefor, all out of pocket costs (including but not limited to closing costs, title charges, commitment or application fees, and attorneys' fees), not to exceed $50,000 in the aggregate (other than the principal of the Note and interest thereon at the contract rate of interest specified therein), imposed upon Landlord by Lender pursuant to the initial Loan to Landlord evidenced by a Note and secured by a Mortgage constituting a first lien on the Leased Premises provided that Landlord obtains such Loan no later than the fourth (4th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date.

(b) In the event that Landlord desires to obtain a Loan to be secured any of the Leased Premises, Tenant shall negotiate in good faith with Landlord concerning any request made by the proposed mortgagee for changes or modifications in this Lease. Tenant shall not unreasonably withhold or delay its consent to such financing, and Tenant hereby agrees that Tenant shall provide any other consent or statement and shall execute any and all other documents that any proposed mortgagee requires in connection with such financing, so long as the same do not materially adversely affect any right, benefit or privilege of Tenant under this Lease or increase the Rent or other obligations of Tenant hereunder.

29. Non-Recourse as to Landlord. Anything contained herein to the
contrary notwithstanding, any claim based on or in respect of any liability of Landlord under this Lease shall be enforced only against the Leased Premises and not against any other assets, properties or funds of (a) Landlord, (b) any director, officer, general partner, limited partner, employee or agent of Landlord or any general partner of Landlord (or any legal representative, heir, estate, successor or assign of any thereof), (c) any predecessor or successor partnership or corporation (or other entity) of Landlord or any general partner of Landlord, either directly or through Landlord or its general partners or any predecessor or successor partnership or corporation (or other entity) of Landlord or any general partner of Landlord, or (d) any other Person or entity (including Eighth Carey Corporate Property, Inc., W. P. Carey & Co. Inc., Carey Corporate Property Management, Inc., Clark & Pendleton Realty Corp. or any Person affiliated with any of the foregoing, or any director, officer, employee or agent of any thereof).

30. Substitution and Exchange of Property. If the Board of Directors of Tenant determines, in good faith, that any one or more of the New Orleans Premises, the San Antonio Premises or the Memphis Premises (any one or more of which that is determined to be uneconomically viable as provided hereunder being hereinafter referred to as the "Existing Property") is no longer economically viable for Tenant's continued use and operation for any reason, including, but not limited to, unprofitability, obsolescence or change in zoning regulations; then Tenant shall have the right, during the Term of this Lease or any renewal hereof, to convey to Landlord a substitute property (the "Substitute Property") and lease the Substitute Property back from Landlord on the terms and conditions provided herein in exchange for the conveyance to Tenant of the Existing Property and the termination of the Lease with respect to such Existing Property (the "Exchange"), upon the terms and conditions set forth herein. In the event that Tenant elects to exercise such right, Tenant shall give written notice to Landlord and Lender, which notice shall contain (i) a resolution of Board of Directors of Tenant stating that the Existing Property is no longer economically viable and setting forth in reasonable detail the reasons for such determination; (ii) a description and MAI Appraisal of the Substitute Property; (iii) such relevant data as Landlord may request demonstrating the economic viability of the Substitute Property; (iv) Tenant's offer to convey the Substitute Property to Landlord and lease back the Substitute property in exchange for Landlord conveying the Existing Property to Tenant and terminating the Lease with respect to the Existing Property; and (v) notice to Landlord of Tenant's intention to affect the Exchange on the first Basic Rent Payment Date occurring at least ninety (90) days after the date on which Landlord receives such notice (the "Exchange Date").

Landlord (if Landlord obtains the written consent of Lender) shall accept or reject Tenant's offer of the Substitute Property not later than the thirtieth (30th) day prior to the Exchange Date; and Landlord shall accept such offer if Landlord (in its reasonable discretion) receives and approves all items listed in the foregoing paragraph. If Landlord, with the written consent of Lender, has accepted Tenant's offer and if on the Exchange Date all conditions and requirements imposed by Landlord and Lender in connection with the acceptance of Tenant's offer of substitution have been satisfied, including, but not limited to, (i) the approval of Landlord, Lender and their respective counsel of all documents relating to the Exchange; (ii) all installments of annual Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other charges due and unpaid hereunder having been paid in full by Tenant; (iii) Tenant's compliance with all other obligations and liabilities, actual or contingent, under this Lease which have arisen on or prior to the Exchange Date and Tenant not then being in default hereunder; (iv) delivery to Landlord and Lender, respectively, of ALTA "owner" and "mortgagee" title insurance policies insuring Landlord's fee title to the Substitute Property and Lender's first lien thereon; and (v) Tenant's conveyance of the Substitute Property to Landlord, the lease back of the Substitute Property to Tenant, and the mortgaging of the Substitute Property to Lender; then the Existing Property shall be conveyed to Tenant in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16(a) and all obligations hereunder with respect to the Existing Property shall terminate, except for any obligations or liabilities of Tenant, actual or contingent, arising prior to such conveyance.

Tenant shall pay all charges incident to the Exchange, regardless of whether or not the Exchange occurs, including, but not limited to, Landlord's and lender's counsel fees, escrow fees, recording fees, brokerage fees, title insurance and all federal, state and local taxes which may be incurred or imposed by reason of such conveyance and transfer and/or by delivery of any deed or other instrument.

31. Financial Covenant. Tenant shall not sell, assign or transfer its interest in this Lease and shall not permit a Change in Control of Tenant to an entity which, immediately following such sale, transfer, assignment or Change in Control has a Tangible Net Worth of less than $18,996,000 or a secured debt to equity ratio of greater than 4:1.

"Tangible Net Worth" as used herein shall mean as of any date the excess of (A) the aggregate gross book value of all assets of Tenant or any other entity, as the case may be, as of such date (excluding all franchises, licenses, permits, drawings, patents, patent applications, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, goodwill, experimental or organizational expenses and all other assets which, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, are deemed intangible) over (B) the aggregate of all liabilities of Tenant or such other entity as of such date, all computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Change in Control" as used herein shall mean as of any date (i) a sale of all or substantially all of the Tenant's assets to any Person or related group of Persons as an entirety or substantially as an entirety in one transaction or series of transactions, (ii) the merger or consolidation of the Tenant with or into another corporation or the merger of another corporation into the Tenant or the sale of the stock of Tenant with the effect that Guarantor holds less than 51% of the total voting power entitled to vote in the election of directors, managers or trustees of the surviving corporation of such merger or consolidation (any nonvoting common stock now outstanding or issued after the date hereof of the surviving corporation having terms substantially similar to the Tenant's nonvoting common stock shall be considered voting stock for purposes of this provision) or holds less than 51% of the total voting power entitled to vote in the election of directors, managers or trustees of Tenant following such sale or (iii) the liquidation or dissolution of the Tenant.

32. Subordination. Tenant agrees that this Lease and its interest hereunder shall be subordinate to any mortgage, deed of trust, and/or other security instrument hereafter placed upon the Leased Premises by the Landlord, and to any and all advances made or to be made thereunder, to the interest thereon, and all renewals, replacements and extensions thereof provided that any such instrument (or separate instrument in recordable form duly executed by the holder of any such mortgage, deed of trust or security instrument and delivered to Tenant) shall provide for the recognition of this Lease and the non-disturbance of all of Tenant's rights hereunder until such time as Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease pursuant to any applicable provisions of Paragraph 19 hereof.

33. First Refusal Right.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (c) below, if Landlord should desire to sell or shall receive an offer for its interest in any one or more of the Memphis Premises, the New Orleans Premises and/or the San Antonio Premises (any one or more of which Landlord desires to sell or for which Landlord receives an offer being hereinafter referred to as the "Sale Premises") prior to the tenth (10th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date as subject to this Lease, then subject to the limitation set forth in subparagraph (d) below Landlord first shall be required (i) either to obtain a bona fide written offer to purchase the Sale Premises acceptable to Landlord or to enter a contract for sale of the Sale Premises to Landlord or to enter a contract for sale of the Sale Premises conditioned upon Tenant's failure to exercise its right under this subparagraph (a), and (ii) to give written notice to Tenant of the offer (and Landlord's willingness to accept the same) or contract for sale accompanied by a copy of the executed offer or contract together with the name and business address of the prospective purchaser ("Third Party Purchaser"). For a period of fifteen (15) business days following receipt of such notice and provided that Basic Rent shall be current at the time of the exercise of such right of first refusal, Tenant shall have the right and option, exercisable by written notice to landlord given within said fifteen (15) business days period to purchase Landlord's interest in the Sale Premises at the purchase price and upon the terms and conditions set forth in such written offer or agreement, subject in addition, to the provisions of Paragraph 16(a) hereof. The closing date for the purchase shall be the later to occur of (i) ninety (90) days from the date of Tenant's notice to Landlord or (ii) the closing date provided in the applicable contract of sale or offer to purchase. If at the expiration (15) day period, Tenant shall have failed to exercise the aforesaid option, Landlord's interest in the Sale Premises may be sold for the consideration, to the Third Party Purchaser, and upon the terms and conditions set forth in the original offer or agreement of sale provided the sale is consummated with a period of one hundred eighty (180) days after the giving of the original notice to Tenant pursuant to subparagraph (a)(ii) above.

(b) If Tenant does not exercise its option to purchase any Sale Premises, then Tenant agrees that (i) the Lease is bifurcated with respect to remaining Leased Premises and the Sale Premises; (ii) Tenant will attorn to any Third Party Purchaser as Landlord with respect to the Sale Premises purchased so long as the third Party Purchaser assumes the obligations of Landlord under the Lease; and (iii) the terms of the Lease will remain in full force and effect with respect to the Sale Premises except that the Basic Rent will be that percentage of the then Basic Rent which is allocated to the Sale Premises as set forth on Exhibit "F" attached hereto and made a part hereof. At the request of Landlord, Tenant will promptly execute such documents confirming (i) that, if the sale occurs after the fifth (5th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date its option to purchase the Sale Premises is null and void, (ii) the agreements referred to above and (iii) such other agreements as Landlord may reasonably request provided that such do not increase the liabilities and obligations of Tenant hereunder.

(c) The provisions of subparagraph (a) shall not apply to or prohibit -(i) any mortgaging, subjection to deed of trust or other hypothecation of Landlord's interest in the leased private power of sale under or judicial foreclosure of nay mortgage, deed of trust or other security instrument or devise to which Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises is now or hereafter subject, (iii) any transfer or Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises to a mortgagee, beneficiary under deed of trust or other holder of a security interest therein by deed in lieu of foreclosure, or (iv) any transfer of the Leased Premises to an Affiliate of Landlord or (v) to any governmental or quasi-governmental agency with power of condemnation.

(d) If Landlord elects to sell any one or more of the Memphis Premises, New Orleans Premises or Tulsa Premises prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date and Tenant does not elect to purchase such Sale Premises, Tenant shall have one (1) additional first refusal right for the initial offer or contract of sale with respect to such Sale Premises which occurs during the period which commences with the fifth (5th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date and terminates on the one hundred twenty-seventh (127th) Basic Rent Payment Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Paragraph 33, the first of first refusal granted by this Paragraph 33 shall terminate and be null and void with respect to the Leased Premises upon the earlier to occur of (i) the one-hundred twenty seventh (127th) Basic Rent Payment Date or (ii) the termination of this Lease.

34. Miscellaneous. As used in this Lease, the singular shall include the plural as the context requires and the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings: (a) "including" shall mean "including but not limited to"; (b) "provisions" shall mean "provisions, terms, agreements, covenants and/or conditions"; (c) "lien" shall mean "lien, charge, encumbrance, title retention agreement, pledge, security interest, mortgage and/or deed of trust"; (d) "obligation" shall mean "obligation, duty, agreement, liability, covenant and/or condition"; (e) "any of the Leased Premises" shall mean "the Leased Premises or any part thereof or interest therein"; (f) "any of the Land" shall mean "the Land or any part thereof or interest therein"; (g) "any of the Improvements" shall mean "the Improvements or any part thereof or interest therein"; (h) "any of the Equipment" shall mean "the Equipment or any part thereof or interest therein"; and (i) "any of the Adjoining Property" shall mean "the Adjoining Property or any part thereof or interest therein". Any act which Landlord is permitted to perform under this Lease may be performed at any time and from time to time by Landlord or any Person or entity designated by Landlord. Any act which Tenant is required to perform under this Lease shall be performed at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Each appointment of Landlord as attorney-in-fact for Tenant under this Lease is irrevocable and coupled with an interest. Landlord shall in no event be construed for any purpose to be a partner, joint venturer or associate of Tenant or of any subtenant, operator, concessionaire or licensee of Tenant with respect to any of the Leased Premises or otherwise in the conduct of their respective businesses. This Lease and any documents which may be executed by Tenant on or about the effective date hereof at Landlord's request constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede all prior understandings and agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties hereto relating to the Leased Premises and the transactions provided for herein. This Lease may be modified, amended, discharged or waived only by an agreement in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of any such modification, amendment, discharge or waiver is sought. The covenants of this Lease shall run with the land and bind Tenant, the heirs, distributees, Personal representatives, successors and assigns of Tenant, and all present and subsequent encumbrancers and subtenants of any of the Leased Premises, and shall inure to the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns. BASIC RENT PAYMENTS

1. Basic Rent. Subject to the adjustments provided for in Paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 below, Basic Rent payable in respect of the Term shall be $523,600 per annum, payable monthly in advance on each Basic Rent Payment Date, in equal monthly installments of $43,633.33 each.

2. CPI Adjustments to Basic Rent. Basic Rent shall be subject to adjustment, in the manner hereinafter set forth, for increases in the index known as United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Consumer Price Index, All Urban Consumers, United States City Average, All Items, (1982-84=100) ("CPI") or the successor index that most closely approximates the CPI. If the CPI shall be discontinued with no successor or comparable successor index, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to agree upon a substitute index or formula, but if they are unable to so agree, then the matter shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then prevailing in New York City. Any decision or award resulting from such arbitration shall be final and binding upon Landlord and Tenant and judgment thereon may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. In no event will the Basic Rent as adjusted from the CPI adjustment be less than the Basic Rent in effect for the five (5) year period immediately preceding such adjustment.

3. Effective Dates of CPI Adjustments. Basic Rent shall not be adjusted to reflect changes in the CPI until the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Basic Rent Payment Date on which the first monthly installment of Basic Rent shall be due and payable (the "First Full Basic Rent Payment Date"). 4. Method of Adjustment for CPI Adjustment.

(a) As of each Basic Rent Adjustment Date when the average CPI determined in clause (i) below exceeds the Beginning CPI (as defined in this Paragraph 4(a)), the Basic Rent in effect immediately prior to the applicable Basic Rent Adjustment Date (subject to adjustment as provided in the following subparagraph 4(b)) shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the difference between (i) the average CPI for the three

(3) most recent calendar months (the "Prior Months") ending prior to such Basic Rent Adjustment Date for which the CPI has been published on or before the forty-fifth (45th) day preceding such Basic Rent Adjustment Date and (ii) the Beginning CPI, and the denominator of which shall be the Beginning CPI. The product of such multiplication shall be added to the Basic Rent in effect immediately prior to such Basic Rent Adjustment Date. The Beginning CPI shall mean the average CPI for the three (3) calendar months corresponding to the Prior Months, but occurring five (5) years earlier. If the average CPI determined in clause (i) is the same or less than the Beginning CPI, the Basic Rent will remain the same for the ensuing five (5) year period.

(b) Effective as of a given Basic Rent Adjustment Date, Basic Rent payable under this Lease until the next succeeding Basic Rent Adjustment Date shall be the Basic Rent in effect after the adjustment provided for as of such Basic Rent Adjustment Date.

2. CPI Adjustments to Basic Rent. Basic Rent shall be subject to adjustment, in the manner hereinafter set forth, for increases in the index known as United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Consumer Price Index, All Urban Consumers, United States City Average, All Items, (1982-84=100) ("CPI") or the successor index that most closely approximates the CPI.

If the CPI shall be discontinued with no successor or comparable successor index, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to agree upon a substitute index or formula, but if they are unable to so agree, then the matter shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then prevailing in New York City. Any decision or award resulting from such arbitration shall be final and binding upon Landlord and Tenant and judgment thereon may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. In no event will the Basic Rent as adjusted from the CPI adjustment be less than the Basic Rent in effect for the five (5) year immediately preceding such adjustment.

3. Effective Dates of CPI Adjustments. As of January 1, 1999, January 1, 2004, January 1, 2009, and if the Term is extended, January 1, 2014, January 1, 2019 and January 1, 2024, Basic Rent shall be adjusted to reflect increases in the CPI during the most recent five (5) year period immediately preceding each of the foregoing dates (each such date being hereinafter referred to as the "Basic Rent Adjustment Date").

4. Method of Adjustment for CPI Adjustment.

(a) As of each Basic Rent Adjustment Date when the average CPI determined in clause (i) below exceeds the Beginning CPI (as defined in this Paragraph 4(a)), the Basic Rent in effect immediately prior to the applicable Basic Rent Adjustment Date (subject to adjustment as provided in the following subparagraph 4(b)) shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the difference between (i) the average CPI for the three (3) most recent calendar months (the "Prior Months") ending prior to such Basic Rent Adjustment Date for which the CPI has been published on or before the forty-fifth (45th) day preceding such Basic Rent Adjustment Date and (ii) the Beginning CPI, and the denominator of which shall be the Beginning CPI. The product of such multiplication shall be added to the Basic Rent in effect immediately prior to such Basic Rent Adjustment Date. The Beginning CPI shall mean the average CPI for the three (3) calendar months corresponding to the Prior Months, but occurring five (5) years earlier. If the average CPI determined in clause (i) is the same or less than the Beginning CPI, the Basic Rent will remain the same for the ensuing five (5) year period.

By way of example:

Second Basic Rent Adjustment Date: January 1, 1999
Basic Rent in Effect: $812,500
Assume Average CPI for Prior Months - 145.20
Assume Beginning CPI - 119.67

812.500 x 145.20-119.67

812.500 x .2133=$173,336.05

Basic Rent as of January 1, 1999=$985,836.05

(b) Effective as of a given Basic Rent Adjustment Date, Basic Rent payable under this Lease until the next succeeding Basic Rent Adjustment Date shall be the Basic Rent in effect after the adjustment provided for as of such Basic Rent Adjustment Date .

(c) Notice of the new annual Basic Rent shall be delivered to Tenant on or before the thirtieth (30th) day preceding each Basic Rent Adjustment Date.

EXHIBIT 10.43

LESSOR: GULF UNITED CORPORATION

LESSEE: CROWN ZELLERBACH CORPORATION

W I T N E S S E T H

1. Premises. Lessor, for and in consideration of the rents, covenants, agreements and conditions herein contained, all of which are to be paid, kept and performed by the Lessee, does hereby lease unto the Lessee, and the Lessee does hereby agree to accept and to take the premises hereunder described upon the terms and conditions herein contained, being certain property located in the City of Nashville, State of Tennessee, together with all improvements thereon, said property being fully described in Exhibit "A" to this Lease Agreement, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD said premises, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, unto the Lessee, upon the covenants, conditions, agreement and ???? hereinafter set out

3. Rent. The Lessee agrees to pay the Lessor, or its designated agents, a monthly rental during the initial term of $6,000.00 Dollars in advance, beginning on the 1st day of Sept., 1981, and payable on the 1st day of the month and on the 1st day of each successive month thereafter thru August, 1986.
- ----------

4. Taxes and Assessments. Lessee will pay all taxes, special assessments, payments in lieu of taxes, etc., which may be levied against the demised premises or which may accrue and constitute a lien against the same during the entire term of this lease. Lessee will make all such payments not less that fifteen (15) days before the same become delinquent, and furnish copies of paid receipts to Lessor upon request, or the Lessor may pay such bills, and submit paid receipts to Lessee and will be re-imbursed within fifteen (15) days of submitting the bill to Lessee. If Lessee disputes the amount or validity of any tax covered by this paragraph it may pay under protest or withhold payment, whichever is proper under local law, and challenge it in a manner consistent with local law. In such event Lessor shall cooperate with Lessee in such a challenge provided that Lessee shall bear the cost of any such challenge and shall hold Lessor harmless from and against any liabilities or expenses resulting from such challenge.

5. Use. Lessee covenants and agrees that it will make no unlawful use of the demised premises or any portion thereof, that it will comply with, at all times, at its own cost and expense, all laws, orders, regulations, rules, ordinances and requirements of any governmental authority or unit having jurisdiction thereof covering the use, operation, maintenance, repair or alteration of the demised premises or any portion thereof, including not only existing laws, ordinances or regulations, but all which may become effective during the term of this lease. Notwithstanding the above, Lessor will be responsible for and agrees to make any repair or alteration of the premises required by any governmental agency which resulted from a condition of the premises which was a violation of any law, order, regulation, rule, ordinance or requirement of any governmental authority at the time the lease commenced.

6. Care of Premises. The Lessee will, at its own expense, keep and maintain the interior and exterior and structural parts of the devised premises in good repair and in tenantable condition during the term of this lease and will make all necessary improvements to said interior and to the exterior maintaining in good repair and order the roof and the structural parts of the premises including that part of the premises designated as a parking area.

Lessee shall not be required to make any changes or alterations in the demised premises, except as herein agreed upon or as may be required as a result of the occupancy of the premises by the Lessee provided that no buildings or additions shall be added to the demised premises without the Lessee obtaining the prior written consent of Lessor.

the event Lessee wishes to contest any such claim, it shall secure Lessor against any loss therefrom by the execution of a surety bond or deliver to Lessor other securities satisfactory to Lessor, which surety bond shall be null and void and which securities shall be returned to Lessee upon the satisfactory disposition of any such claim.

8. Acceptance of Premises. By accepting possession of the premises, Lessee agrees that they are in good repair and condition and constructed according to the agreement between the parties, and the Lessee assumes all risk of damages to its property on the premises occurring by reason of water, bursting of pipes, or from plumbing, electric system, gas, water system, sewerage, or defects occurring from any cause whatever, and to keep the exterior walls and foundation and roof in good repair. Notwithstanding the above, Lessee will not be deemed to have accepted and will not be required to repair any condition which on the date of the lease commencement, constituted a violation of any law, statute, ordinance, code, or any other requirement of law.

9. Liability. Lessee shall save Lessor free and harmless from all liability for injury to any person or persons, firm or corporation, or for the resultant effect of any injury to any person or persons, firm or corporation, occurring on the demised premises, or arising out of any accident or other occurrence on the demised premises, causing injuries to any person or persons whomsoever or damage to the person or property of any person or persons, firm or corporation whatsoever. This indemnity shall not cover liability or injury caused by the negligence of the Lessor, its employees or agents.

10. Insurance. Lessee agrees to purchase and pay the premiums for an insurance policy issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Tennessee and acceptable to Lessor with a minimum limit of fire and extended coverage of $600,000, unless the Lessor advises Lessee that the coverage be increased to cover current insurable value, and public liability of a flat $500,000 covering the use and occupancy of said demised premises and said policy shall include the Lessor as an additional insured with a certificate thereof to be furnished to the Lessor.

party be liable to the insurer thereof. It is the intention of the parties that the right of recovery against the other party to the extent of the insurance coverage and the right of subrogation by the insurer to the extent of the insurance coverage be expressly waived. In the event the premises are damaged by any cause, whether or not covered by any insurance referred to herein, and such damage is repairable within a one hundred and eighty (180) day period, Lessor shall repair such damage and Lessee's rent shall be abated during such period to the extent that such damage lessens the habitability of the premises. In the event any such damage is not repairable within a one hundred and eighty (180) day period, Lessee may at its option cancel this lease or it may require Lessor to repair the premises, in which case the lease shall continue in full force and effect with Lessee's rent being abated during the repair period to the extent that the damage lesses the habitability of the premises.

13. Breach or Default. In the event of a breach by the Lessee of any of the following terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement, Lessor shall have the right, at its option, to either annul and terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days written notice sent by registered mail to Lessee (except the payment of the monthly rent concerning which ten (10) days written notice shall be required) and, thereupon, to re-enter and take possession of the demised premises or parts or parcels thereof from time to time as agent of the Lessee, and such re-entry and/or re-letting shall not discharge Lessee from any liability or obligation hereunder, except that net rents collected as a result of such re-letting shall be a credit on the Lessee's liability for rents payable and other sums due under the terms of this Lease.

(a) If the Lessee should fail to pay any one or more of said monthly installments of rent at and when the same shall become due and such default shall continue for as much as ten (10) days after ten (10) days written notice,

(b) In the event an execution or other legal process is levied upon the interest of the Lessee in this Lease, unless such execution or other levy be discharged of record within thirty (30) days;

(c) In the event a voluntary petition in bankruptcy is filed by the Lessee or the Lessee is adjudged bankrupt;

(d) In the event the Lessee makes an assignment of the demised premises herein and/or the Lessee's property thereon for the benefit of creditors;

(e) In the event of the appointment of a receiver, whether bankruptcy or otherwise, of Lessee's property, provided such appointment be not vacated or set aside within thirty (30) days; and,

(f) In the event any plan for reorganization of Lessee is filed

Nothing in the preceding paragraph shall be construed to require the Lessor to re-enter and re-let in such events, nor shall anything therein be construed to waive or postpone the right of Lessor to sue for rents, whether matured by acceleration or otherwise; but, on the contrary, Lessor is hereby given the right to sue for all rents due and payable or thereafter to become due and payable for the full term of this lease at any time in the event of a breach by Lessee as encumbered in the preceding paragraphs.

Upon the termination of the Lease or re-entry upon the demised premises for any one or more of the causes as set forth in paragraphs (a) through (f) inclusive above, the rents hereunder for the entire rental period herein fixed and any other indebtedness of Lessee to Lessor payable under any of the provisions hereof shall be and become immediately due and payable, without regard to whether or not possession of the premises shall have been surrendered to or taken by Lessor.

14. Ownership. Lessor covenants with Lessee that it has a good title to the demised premises and/or has a valid right to execute this Lease Agreement and warrants peaceable and quiet possession to the Lessee.

15. Surrender. At the expiration of the Lease or any renewal thereof, Lessee will vacate and surrender the premises in as good a state and condition as they were in when entered into, together with all permanent alterations and permanent additions made by Lessee during the term, reasonable wear and tear, damage by fire, casualty, act of war or act of God and acts of abutting owners excepted. Notwithstanding the above, Lessee may remove any additions or alterations it has made to the premises provided that Lessee repairs any damage to the premises caused by such removal.

16. Renting Upon Default. In the event Lessee shall be in default in the performance of any of the conditions of the Lease Agreement and shall have failed to make good said default within thirty (30) days after being called upon so to do by written notice from Lessor, or its agent, (except the payment of the monthly rents stipulated to be paid, concerning which ten (10) days written notice shall be required, it being due and payable without notice on the 1st day of each and every calendar month) Lessor may immediately, or at any time thereafter, perform the same for the account of the Lessee and any amount paid or any expenses or liability incurred by the or option but the same shall continue and remain in full force and effect. The receipt by the Lessor or rent, in whole or in part or any other payment due hereunder, with knowledge of the breach of any such covenant or condition, shall not be deemed as a waiver of such breach and no waiver by the Lessor of any provision hereof shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by Lessor.

18. Notices. All notices required under this Lease shall be deemed to be properly served if delivered in writing personally or sent by registered mail to Lessor, Gulf United Corporation c/o GULFCO Capital Management, Inc., 1301 Gulf Life Drive, Jacksonville, Florida, or to Lessee at the leased premises, or to any other address designated by a party for such purpose. The date of service of notice by mail will be the date of deposit in a United States

Post Office, properly addressed with prepaid postage.

19. Binding Clause. The provisions, covenants and conditions of this Lease shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective legal representatives, successors, and assigns.

20. Surviving Lease. This lease shall be the only surviving lease on subject property. Any other leases, written or verbal, are immediately canceled by execution of this lease.

21. Renewal Option. Lessee shall have the right to extend the term of this lease for two successive five (5) year renewal options. Lessee must notify Lessor, in writing, certified mail, within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the expiration date of the primary term, of his desire to exercise the first renewal option. If Lessee desires to exercise the second successive renewal option, then he must again notify the lessor within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the expiration date of the first renewal option of his desire to exercise the second five (5) year renewal period. Failure by Lessee to appropriately notify Lessor as set forth herein shall terminate any rights Lessee shall have to such renewal options. Furthermore, should Lessee default under any terms and requirement of this lease, such default shall negate Lessee's rights to any options, both renewal and purchase options granted under this lease, at Lessor's sole option. Rental schedule for the at $117,500.00 per year payable monthly at $9,791.66 per month. It is understood that the terms of this lease, both the primary term and the renewal options require that the Lessee maintain the building, pay taxes and insurance, with the intent being that this is to be an absolute net lease to the Lessor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Lessor agrees that should the tenant find that it is incurring roof repairs which exceed $1,500.00, then Lessor agrees to share on a 50/50 basis with the tenant for such repairs, over $1,500.00. However, should major repairs be demanded by Lessee, Lessor shall have the right to have the roof inspected by the necessary roofing companies and engineers and determine, from their written reports and inspections, whether major work is necessary or not. It is Lessor's intent to assist the Lessee in all matters of a reasonable repair nature in connection with the roof, reasonable wear and tear being excluded as a result of replacement or reimbursement.

22. Purchase Option. Lessee is herewith granted the option to purchase the property leased herein at a price of $1,200,000.00. This option to purchase shall commence upon the landlord's final payment under its bond financing and remain in effect for a period of three (3) months thereafter. After Lessee has been notified by Lessor that it has made the final payment under its bond financing, Lessee shall have the right to exercise this option to purchase at any time during said three (3) month period. In the event the option to purchase is exercised, Lessor will provide a general warranty deed and will warrant good and unencumbered title rather than pay for a title insurance policy. Furthermore, inasmuch as this lease and purchase option agreement has been negotiated by Charles W. Hawkins, III, of Charles Hawkins Company, Inc., Lessor agrees to pay a real estate brokerage commission of 21/2 percent of the purchase price to Charles W. Hawkins, III, upon the closing of the $1,200,000.00 sale. Such sale, however, must be all cash and any modifications in the terms of the all cash sale shall then re-open negotiations. There will be no other sales commissions, leasing commissions, or management fees due Charles W. Hawkins, III, or Charles Hawkins Company, Inc., as a result of this sale or lease.

standings or agreements not expressly included herein; and no variation or alteration of the terms hereof shall be binding upon either party unless the same be reduced to writing and executed by the respective authorized officer of the parties.

AMENDMENT TO LEASE 4/ /85

AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into by and between Charles W. Hawkins, III, Trustee, hereinafter referred to as "Lessor", and Crown Zellerbach Corporation, hereinafter referred to as "Lessee."

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Gulf United Corporation as Lessor and Crown Zellerbach Corporation as Lessee entered into a lease agreement dated August 17, 1981;

WHEREAS, Lessor herein purchased the demised premises as described in Exhibit A attached to said lease agreement from Gulf United Corporation and became the successor Lessor to Gulf United Corporation subject to all the terms and provisions of said lease agreement;

WHEREAS, Lessee desires additional space and Lessor agrees to construct and provide same; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to amend said lease agreement regarding the improvements to be made by Lessor and occupied by Lessee.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the mutual benefits to be derived by the parties, it is hereby agreed that the following sections of said lease agreement are hereby amended as indicated:

1. Upon execution of this agreement Lessor shall proceed expeditiously to construct, in a good and workmanlike manner, improvements consisting of approximately 18,000 square feet adjoining the existing improvements located on the demised premises, in accordance with plans and specifications attached hereto, known as Exhibit B. The improvements shall be completed within four (4) months, except that Lessor shall be allowed additional reasonable time for delays caused by acts of God or for other reasons beyond the control of Lessor. In addition, Lessor shall proceed to make repairs to the existing building as shown in Exhibit C.

2. Upon occupancy of the improvements by Lessee or upon completion of the improvements in a condition suitable for occupancy by by Lessee, whichever shall occur first, the terms of section 2 of the lease agreement shall become inoperative, and a new lease term shall commence and shall continue for a period of ten (10) years, and in the event the new lease term commences on other than the first day of a month, plus the number of days remaining the month in which the new lease term commenced;

3. Upon commencement of the initial term, the terms of section 3 of the lease agreement shall become inoperative, and Lessee thereafter agrees to pay to Lessor, or its designated agent, a monthly rental in advance on the first day of each succeeding month in an amount of $9,929.17, with rent during the first month of the new term to be prorated based on the old and new rents in the event that the new term should commence on other than the first day of the month.

On September 1, 1986 the monthly rents shall increase to $11,125.00 and on September 1, 1991 the monthly rent shall increase to $13,883.33 until termination of the lease.

6. Upon the commencement of the new term the provisions of section 6 of the lease shall be deleted and replaced with the following:

> Lessor shall, at its own expense, maintain in good repair the roof, foundations and exterior walls (not including doors, windows and floors); however Lessor shall not be obligated to make any repairs of those portions of the premises that it is obligated to maintain unless it shall be notified in writing by Lessee, and Lessor shall then have a reasonable period of time to make such repairs; provided, however that Lessee and not Lessor shall be responsible for making any such repairs occasioned by the acts of Lessee, its employees, or invitees. Lessor shall not be liable for any damage or loss occasioned by Lessor's failure to repair portions of the premises which it had covenanted to maintain unless it shall have failed to repair the defect within a reasonable time following written demand of Lessee to make the repair.
> Lessee shall at its own expense keep and maintain in good repair the entire leased premises, other than those portions for which Lessor shall be responsible as set out above, including interior walls, floors, ceilings, ducts, utilities, air conditioning, heating, lighting, plate glass, plumbing, sprinkler system, and electric wiring, and also including the loading dock and any parking, landscaped or other area exclusively used by Lessee. Upon receiving notice of any defect that is the responsibility of Lessee to maintain, Lessee agrees to proceed diligently to make repairs.

10. Upon commencement of the new term of the lease the provisions of section 10 of the lease agreement shall be deleted and replaced with the following:

Insurance. Lessee agrees to purchase and pay the premiums for an insurance policy issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Tennessee and acceptable to Lessor with a minimum limit of fire and extended coverage of $900,000, and on each renewal date, but no more than yearly, Lessee shall obtain coverage in an amount of the replacement cost of the improvements located on the demised premises; and in addition agrees to carry public liability insurance of a flat $1,000,000 covering the use and occupancy of said demised premises and said policy shall include the Lessor as an additional insured with a certificate thereof to be furnished to the Lessor.

21. Upon the commencement of the new term all of the provisions of section 21 shall be deleted.

22. As Lessee no longer has a purchase option, section 22 of the lease agreement is hereby deleted.

All other terms and provisions of the lease agreement shall continue to remain in full force and effect after commencement of and during the new lease term.

This lease agreement has been negotiated through Chas. Hawkins Co., Inc. and Lessee shall pay to it on a semi-annual basis in advance a real estate brokerage commission of six percent (6%) of the rents to be paid hereunder.

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, Assignor is the Lessee under that certain Lease dated August 17, 1981, as amended as of April 1985, between Charles W. Hawkins, III, as Landlord, and Crown Zellerbach Corporation, as Lessee, concerning Premises located at 1920 Nolensville Road, Nashville, Tennessee (the "Lease"); and

W I T N E S S E T H:

1. Premises. Lessors do hereby demise unto Lessee, and Lessee hereby

It is understood and agreed that from the date of execution of this Lease until May 1, 1978, Lessee shall have the right to occupy the Premises for the purposes of preparing the Premises for use as an office products warehouse and that Lessee shall not be liable for any rents or proration of taxes and insurance therefor; provided however, if Lessee occupies the Premises during said period for purposes other than preparing the Premises for use as an office products warehouse then Lessee shall be liable to Lessors for rent and proration of taxes and insurance during the period so occupied for said purposes. The amount of said rents and prorations shall be the proportionate amount of rents and proration of taxes and insurance as those due during the Primary Term (hereafter defined) of this Lease.

The term of this Lease shall be for five years, commencing on the 1st day of May, 1978, and ending on the 30th day of April, 1983; said term to be known as the "Primary Term" hereunder.

In the event the Lessee is not in default of this Lease at the termination of the Primary Term, the Lessee shall have the option to renew this Lease for an additional five years beginning on the 1st day of May, 1983, and ending on the 30th day of April, 1988; said term shall be known as the "First Renewal Term." April, 1993; said term shall be known as the "Second Renewal Term." Lessee shall give Lessor written notice of Lessee's intention to renew no later than December 1, 1987.

Lessee shall give Lessor written notice of Lessee's intention to renew no later than December 1, 1992.

In the event the Lessee elects to exercise the options to renew this Lease, such renewal shall be upon the same terms and conditions set forth herein except as to the amount of rental which shall be the amount set forth in Paragraph 5 hereof.

Commencing 90 days prior to the termination of this Lease, the Lessors shall be permitted to label and advertise the Premises for rent.

5. Rental. Lessee covenants and agrees to pay to Lessors as rental for the Premises during the Primary Term of the Lease the sum of Sixty-four Thousand, Eight Hundred and No/100 ($64,800.00) Dollars per annum, payable in monthly installments of Five Thousand, Four Hundred and No/100

($5,400.00) Dollars in advance on the first day of each and every month of the Primary Term.

In the event Lessee exercises its option to extend the term of this Lease for the First Renewal Term, the Lessee covenants and agrees to pay the Lessors as its rental for the Premises during the First Renewal Term the sum of Seventy-seven Thousand, Seven Hundred Sixty and No/100 ($77,760.00) Dollars per annum, payable in monthly installments of Six Thousand, Four Hundred Eighty and No/100 ($6,480.00) Dollars in advance on the first day of each and every month of the First Renewal Term.

In the event Lessee exercises its option to extend the term of this Lease for the Second Renewal Term, the Lessee covenants and agrees to pay the Lessors as its rental for the Premises during the Second Renewal Term the sum of Ninety Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty and No/100 ($90,720.00) Dollars per annum, payable in monthly installments of Seven Thousand, Five Hundred Sixty and No/100 ($7,560.00) Dollars in advance on the first day-of each and every month of the Second Renewal Term.

In the event Lessee exercises its option to extend the term of this Lease for the Third Renewal Term, the Lessee covenants and agrees to pay the Lessors as its rental for the Premises during the Third Renewal Term the sum of One Hundred Three Thousand, Six Hundred Eighty and No/100 ($103,680.00) Dollars per annum, payable in monthly installments of Eight Thousand, Six Hundred Forty and No/100 ($8,640.00) Dollars in advance on the first day of each and every month of the Third Renewal Term.

All said payments shall be made to Lessors c/o Capital City Realty Company, P.O. Box 40156, Nashville, Tennessee 37204, or such other place as Lessor or their assignees may designate in writing.

6. Additional Rental. In addition to the payment of rents as above provided, Lessee covenants and agrees to pay and discharge 47.06% of any increase in taxes assessed against the 102,000 square foot warehouse of which the Premises are a part and the 5.2 acre tract on which said warehouse is located in excess of those paid by Lessor for the year 1977, and 47.06% of any increase in the cost of fire and extended coverage insurance on said warehouse building which Lessor is required to carry by the terms of this Lease over the amount being paid by Lessor on the date of this Lease. Any of said increases shall be paid by Lessee to Lessors on the first day of December of each year during the term of this Lease, beginning December 1, 1978. In the event the term or renewal term of the Lease is less than a calendar year, Lessee shall pay 1/12 of said increase for each calendar month of said term.

In the event that any improvements are made to any part of the warehouse or the land upon which it is located other than the Premises or in the event there shall be any change in the use of any part of the warehouse or the land upon which it is located other than the Premises, which shall cause an increase in taxes or insurance, Lessee shall not be liable for any part of such increase.

In addition thereto, it is understood and agreed that Lessee shall pay all increases in taxes and insurance which occur because of Lessee's use of or improvements to the Premises including any increases resulting from the construction of the improvements described in Exhibit B.

7. Utilities. Lessee shall assume and pay for all utilities used by it in the Premises.

8. Improvements by Lessor. Lessor between the date of this Lease and May 31, 1978, shall construct the improvements on the Premises described in the specifications attached hereto as Exhibit B. In addition, Lessor shall repair the roof and outside walls, all overhead doors, and the electrical and plumbing systems prior to May 15, 1978. Lessor warrants and represents that all improvements and repairs specified herein will be done in a workmanlike manner and shall be free from defects in material and workmanship.

Upon completion of the improvements described in Exhibit B, Lessor and Lessee shall inspect the Premises and shall prepare a punch list of items, if any, not completed to Lessee's reasonable satisfaction. All items listed shall be completed by Lessor as soon thereafter as possible.

Lessee shall pay Lessor for the improvements provided for in Exhibit B, the amount of $122,570.00. Such amount shall not be considered rent and such improvements shall be the property of Lessee until the expiration of this Lease. Payment of the above noted amount shall be made as follows: 1) one half of said amount thirty days after commencement of construction of the improvements and 2) the remainder upon completion of the improvements. Lessee may withhold from the final payment a reasonable amount for any items listed on the punch list which shall be paid to Lessors when such items are finally completed.

In the event Lessors do not complete the repairs and improvements by May 31, 1978, Lessee shall be entitled to a credit against rents due hereunder in the amount of one-thirtieth of monthly rental, plus a prorata portion of the cost of insurance and taxes for each day after May 31, 1978, until such repairs and improvements are completed. Except for abatement of the rent, insurance and taxes as provided in the immediately preceeding sentence, Lessors shall not be liable for any damages resulting from delay in completion of the repairs and improvements caused by governmental regulations, labor disputes, strikes, war, riots, insurrection, civil commotion, mobilization, explosion, fire, flood, accident, storm or any act of God, or other cause beyond Lessors' control. If Lessors claim excuse for nonperformance under this paragraph, they must give notice in writing to Lessee. If such delay resulting from the causes specified herein shall last more than two weeks, Lessee, at its election, may complete the improvements and deduct the cost thereof paid by Lessee shall be deducted from the amount specified in this Paragraph 8, to be paid by Lessee to Lessors for construction of the improvements.

Lessor shall indemnify and hold Lessee harmless from the injury to or death of any person or damage to the property of any person including the parties hereto arising out of or resulting from Lessors making the improvements or repairs required by this Paragraph 8. Any insurance required to be carried by Lessee by this Lease shall not apply to any such loss or damage.

9. Repair. Lessor shall keep and maintain the roof, exterior walls, downspouts and the warehouse (except the parts of the warehouse to be maintained by Lessee), in good condition and repair. Lessee agrees to maintain the interior of the Premises (including all loading docks and doors and other extension doors and windows) and the parking area used by Lessee in as good condition as they are in at the time of Lessor's completion of the improvements and repairs provided for in Paragraph 8 hereof reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire or other casualty excepted. Except for Lessor's warranty provided for in Paragraph 8 hereof, Lessor makes no other representation or warranty concerning the condition of the interior of the Premises. Subject to Lessee's obligations hereunder to maintain the Premises and Lessee's obligations under Paragraph 10 hereof, Lessor shall keep and maintain the warehouse and the land upon which it is located in compliance with all federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations.

10. Nuisance and Compliance with Laws. Lessee shall not use or permit others to use the Premises in any manner which would create a nuisance and shall conduct its business on the Premises in compliance with all federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations.

11. Improvements By Lessee. It is contemplated between the parties that Lessee shall use the Premises in the conduct of its office products business and that, in connection therewith, certain additional modifications, improvements, fixtures and/or temporary installations may be hereafter made by Lessee. Lessee is expressly granted, with prior written notice to Lessors, the right to remodel, alter and change the improvements on the Premises, at its expense, to conform with its requirements. Lessee shall not injure any existing improvements and Lessee shall not, without Lessors' prior written consent, construct any improvements which require significant structural modification to the Premises. All repairs and remodeling shall be done in compliance with the applicable building codes and zoning requirements. Except as may be herein set out, all permanent buildings and other similar permanent improvements, including, but not limited to light fixtures, air conditioning or heating units requiring duct work, electrical wiring and plumbing, erected or placed upon the Premises by Lessee during the term of this Lease, upon its termination for any cause, shall become the property of Lessors. Lessee's machinery, equipment, tools and trade fixtures placed upon the Premises by Lessee shall remain the property of Lessee. Such property may be removed from the Premises by Lessee at the expiration of this Lease, provided that, Lessee has fulfilled its covenant for the payment of rent. Lessee shall not by its acts create any material or workmen's liens against the Premises and shall hold Lessors harmless from any said liens and for Lessors' reasonable cost and expenses in defending any claims or suits arising out of said liens or in discharging same.

Any damage to the Premises resulting from removal of Lessee's property from the Premises shall be repaired by Lessee at its sole expense.

12. Signs. Lessee shall have the right, with Lessors' prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, to erect signs on the Premises to advertise its business, provided that, all such signs comply with all statutes or ordinances.

13. Assignment. Lessee may not assign or sublet any part or the whole of the Premises without the prior written consent of the Lessors, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

14. Destruction of Premises. It is agreed that should the Premises or improvements thereon be wholly or partially destroyed or damaged by fire, storm, explosion, other casualty or act of God during the term of this Lease, or any renewal terms, and the Premises or improvements thereon can reasonably be expected to be repaired and put in substantially the same condition as they were prior to the loss within 90 days after such loss occurs, then Lessors shall rebuild or repair the Premises to the condition as existed immediately prior to such loss. Provided that Lessor's shall not be required to reconstruct any of the improvements described in Exhibit B unless Lessee shall agree to pay the cost thereof. If such improvements are constructed by Lessors they shall be the property of Lessee until termination of this Lease. Lessors agree to complete any such repairs within 120 days of the date of loss and in the event such repairs are so completed this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, except that the rental herein provided for shall be fairly and justly abated until the Premises have been restored, made tenable and put into proper condition for use and occupancy by Lessee. If the damage cannot be reasonably expected to be repaired within 90 days or is not in fact repaired within 120 days of the date of loss, then Lessee may terminate this Lease.

15. Lessors Fire Insurance. During the term of this Lease, the Lessor, at its own cost and expense, shall keep the Premises and building of which the Premises are a part, excluding the improvements described in Exhibit B, insured against loss or damage by fire, lightning, and extended coverage including vandalism, malicious mischief, and sprinkler leakage. Upon the execution of this Lease, Lessor shall provide a certificate of insurance from its insurer to evidence the coverage to the Lessee. Such certificate shall contain a provision for a ten-day notice to Lessee prior to cancellation, reduction of coverage or other material change in the policy.

Lessor agrees to indemnify and hold Lessee harmless from, and to obtain a statement from Lessors' insurer that will protect Lessee from, all demands, claims, causes of action of judgments, and all reasonable expense incurred in investigation or resisting the same including attorney fees, for loss arising out of fire or other casualty or sprinkler leakage damage to the Premises and building of which the Premises are a part or any personal property of Lessor, located therein. Lessee also agrees to indemnify and hold Lessor harmless from all demands, claims, causes of action or judgments, and all reasonable expenses incurred in investigation or resisting the same including attorney fees, for loss arising out of fire or other casualty or sprinkler leakage damage to the improvements described in Exhibit B, and any stock, furniture, fixtures, equipment, or merchandise of Lessee located in the Premises.

16. Lessee's General Liability Insurance. Lessee shall at all times during the term of the Lease, at its own cost and expense, maintain comprehensive general liability insurance with bodily injury limits of not less than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) and property damage insurance in an amount of not less than Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000) per occurrence for damage to property of others from accidents occurring on or about the Premises or arising out of Lessee's use thereof. A certificate of such insurance shall be delivered to Lessor and Lessor shall be named on said policies as an additional insured as respects the Premises. The certificate shall also contain provisions for a ten-day notice to Lessors prior to cancellation, reduction of coverage, or other material change in the policy.

Lessee further covenants with Lessor to protect, indemnify, and hold Lessor harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, and causes of action, including attorney fees, of any nature whatsoever for injury or death of persons or loss of or damage to property occurring on the Premises or in any manner growing out of or connected with Lessee's use and occupancy of the Premises except damage or injury occasioned by the sole negligence of Lessor, its agents, servants, or employees, any damage or injury resulting from Lessors' construction of improvements or making the repairs required by Paragraph 8 hereof, and except damages or injuries covered by the insurance required to be carried by Lessor under this Lease. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to or construed as to require Lessee to indemnify Lessor for any cost, damage, liability, or expense, including any attorney fees, arising from or attributable to any claim for which liability is, or is sought to be, established for any injury or death to any employee of Lessee in excess of any applicable coverage under the workers' compensation laws of any state, proximately or concurrently caused by a negligent act, ommission, or failure to act, on the part of the Lessor.

17. Bankruptcy. In the event any petition in bankruptcy or for reorganization is filed in any federal or state bankruptcy court by or against the Lessee or any sublessee or assignee, or in the event any receiver is appointed for the Lessee or its property or for any sublessee or assignee for its or their properties, which petition in bankruptcy or receivership has not been dismissed, denied, discharged or set aside within 60 days from and after said date of said filing of said petition or said appointment of receiver, then Lessors shall have the right to terminate this Lease, as provided for in Paragraph 21 hereof, and shall have each and all of the rights against the Lessee, as is provided for in said paragraph, as in the case of a failure by Lessee to pay the rent.

18. Abandonment. In the event Lessee abandons the Premises and leaves the same untended, except with the written consent of Lessors, this Lease shall be terminated as provided in Paragraph 21, at the option of Lessors if, in their opinion, the said property is or will be adversely affected thereby. Lessors shall give Lessee 30 days prior written notice of their intention to so terminate.

19. Lessors' Right of Access. Lessors, their agents and representatives, shall have the right to enter upon the Premises at all reasonable times for the purpose of inspecting the same and making repairs required to be made by Lessors.

20. Eminent Domain. If the whole or any part of the Premises shall be taken by any public authority under the power of eminent domain, then the term of this Lease shall cease on the part so taken from the day the possession of that part shall be acquired for any public purpose, and the rent shall be paid up to that day and the rent thereafter shall be reduced in proportion to the amount of the Premises taken. If more than 25% of the Premises are taken or in the event Lessee reasonably determines that it is unable to effectively and fully conduct its business from the remaining part of the Premises, the Lessee shall have the right to cancel this Lease. All damages awarded for such taking shall belong to and be the property of Lessors, whether such damage shall be awarded as compensation for diminution in value to the leasehold or to the fee of the property herein leased; provided, however, that the Lessors shall not be entitled to any portion of the award made to the Lessee for loss of business, moving expenses, or for any trade fixtures or other property of Lessee located thereon.

21. Termination. It is agreed by all of the parties that if Lessee fails to pay any one of the aforesaid rent installments or reimbursements set out herein for taxes and insurance costs within 30 days from and after the due date, or in case the Lessee breaches or fails to perform and comply with any of its undertakings, agreements and covenants contained in this Lease, Lessors may continue the Lease and recover damages for such breach or failure, or at their option may elect to terminate this Lease at any time within 30 days after the discovery by them of any such breach or failure, upon giving 30 days notice to Lessee setting out said breach or failure. If Lessee fails to pay in full all past due rent installments and fails to commence proceedings to remedy any other breaches set out in said notice within said 30 days, then, and only then, shall such termination be effective. Upon termination Lessors may enter and take possession of the Premises and may, with or without entry and repossession rerent the Premises or any portion or portions thereof for such term or terms and to such tenants as in the discretion of Lessors would be suitable and proper and to hold Lessee responsible and liable for any loss and expense including legal expenses that may occur in rerenting or attempting to rerent. Lessee shall also be liable for any damages to the Premises done or suffered to be done by Lessee. Any curing of any such breach or failure within the said 30-day period shall reinstate the Lease in full force and effect.

In the event of a breach or default by Lessee or termination of the Lease by election of Lessors upon default of Lessee, as provided in this Agreement, Lessors shall have the right to demand and receive from Lessee their damages and their loss and expenses, including legal expenses, monthly without awaiting the expiration of the term of the Lease. The damages and each month's loss and expenses shall be and constitute a separate claim and demand and right or cause of action. In case of such termination by election of Lessors, as provided above, the Lessee agrees to pay to Lessors within ten days after the date of notice of termination an amount equal to the rent accrued hereunder to that date and not theretofore paid, and also all damages to the improvements done or suffered to be done by Lessee, and further agrees to pay to Lessors, on or before the tenth day of each month thereafter, the deficit accruing monthly following the date of termination, to wit: The difference, between the amount to be paid as rent, as herein provided, plus any expense incurred by Lessors in rerenting and/or attempting to rerent and the amount of rent which shall be collected and received by Lessors from the Premises for each preceding calendar month during the residue of the term herein provided. The amount, if any, in excess of Lessors' costs plus the rent reserved herein collected by Lessors in rerenting the Premises shall be paid to Lessee at the expiration of the term of this Lease.

22. Holding Over. If upon termination of this Lease, by forfeiture or otherwise, Lessee continues in possession, the continued occupancy of the Premises shall be considered as a rental from month to month, and a continued occupancy after said termination shall not be considered as a renewal of this Lease.

23. Other Improvements. Lessors agree, at their expense, to construct and complete by May 1, 1978, a solid concrete block wall at the north side of the Premises, between the Premises and the remainder of the warehouse building. Said concrete wall shall extend from the front to the rear of the building and shall extend from the wall to the ceiling of said building.

24. Additional Space. It is agreed that if at any time after May 1, 1981, this Lease is then in full force and effect and Lessors have additional space in the warehouse adjacent to the Premises available for lease, then Lessee shall have a right of first refusal to lease said additional space. Said right of first refusal shall be extended by the Lessors and exercised by Lessee as follows: The Lessors shall first give the Lessee written notice that they have said additional space for lease, that they have a prospective tenant to lease the portion or all of said space, setting out the terms and conditions of said prospective lease. Thereafter, within 15 days from said notice, Lessee may by written notice enter into a lease with Lessors for the leasing of said additional space on the same terms and conditions as set forth in Lessors' notice to Lessee. In the event Lessee fails to exercise its right of first refusal within said 15-day period, then Lessors may lease said additional space to the said prospective tenant without the consent of the Lessee.

25. Attorneys' Fees. In the event either party shall institute any action for the breach or default of the other party, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its attorneys' fees and costs.

26. Rail Shipments. Lessee agrees to report to Lessors annually, beginning May 1, 1979, all carload railroad freight deliveries made to the leased Premises during the year prior to said report date. Said reports shall contain the number of carloads delivered to Lessee and date of same. In the event that Lessee is unable to obtain rail services to the Premises, Lessee may terminate this Lease.

27. Notice. Notice, as called for under this Lease, is to be in writing and shall be conclusively presumed effective upon its being placed in the United States Mail registered or certified mail with sufficient postage to carry it to its destination, and addressed:

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT, made and entered into by and between DALWARE II ASSOCIATES hereinafter referred to as "Lessor", and STATIONERS DISTRIBUTING COMPANY, INC. hereinafter referred to as "Lessee";

WITNESSETH:

1. PREMISES AND TERM. In consideration of the mutual obligations of Lessor and Lessee set forth herein, Lessor leases to Lessee, and Lessee hereby takes from Lessor the Premises situated within the County of Dallas, State of Texas, more particularly described on EXHIBIT "A" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, (the "Premises"), together with all rights, privileges, easements, appurtenances, and amenities belonging to or in any way pertaining to the Premises, to have and to hold, subject to the terms, covenants and conditions in this Lease. The term of this Lease shall commence on the commencement date hereinafter set forth and shall end on the last day of the month that is one hundred twenty five (125) months after the commencement date.

A. EXISTING BUILDING. If no improvements are to be constructed to the Premises, the commencement date shall be January 1, 1989. Lessee acknowledges that (i) it has inspected and accepts the Premises, (ii) the buildings and improvements comprising the same are suitable for the purpose for which the Premises are leased, (iii) the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition, and (iv) no representations as to the repair of the Premises, nor promises to alter, remodel or improve the Premises have been made by Lessor (unless otherwise expressly set forth in this Lease).

2. BASE RENT, SECURITY DEPOSIT AND ESCROW PAYMENTS.

A. Lessee agrees to pay to Lessor rent for the Premises, in advance, without demand, deduction or set off, at the rate of (SEE RIDER ONE) Dollars ($_____) per month during the term hereof. One such monthly installment, plus the other monthly charges set forth in Paragraph 2C below shall be due and payable on the date hereof and a like monthly installment shall be due and payable on or before the first day of each calendar month succeeding the commencement date, except that all payments due hereunder for any fractional calendar month shall be prorated.

B. In addition, Lessee agrees to deposit with Lessor on the date hereof the sum of None ---------- Dollars ($_____), which shall be held by Lessor, without obligation for interest, as security for the performance of Lessee's obligations under this lease, it being expressly understood and agreed that this deposit is not an advance rental deposit or a measure of Lessor's damages in case of Lessee's default. Upon each occurrence of an event of default, Lessor may use all or part of the deposit to pay past due rent or other payments due Lessor under this Lease, and the cost of any other damage, injury, expense or liability caused by such event of default without prejudice to any other remedy provided herein or provided by law. On demand, Lessee shall pay Lessor the amount that will restore the security deposit to its original amount. The security deposit shall be deemed the property of Lessor, but any remaining balance of such deposit shall be returned by Lessor to Lessee when Lessee's obligations under this Lease have been fulfilled.

C. Lessee agrees to pay its proportionate share (as defined in Paragraph 22B below) of (i) Taxes (hereinafter defined) payable by Lessor pursuant to Paragraph 3A below, (ii) the cost of utilities payable pursuant to Paragraph 8 below, (iii) the cost of maintaining insurance pursuant to Paragraph 9 below and (iv) the cost of any maintenance performed by Lessor in accordance with Paragraph 4B below. During each month of the term of this Lease, on the same day that rent is due hereunder, Lessee shall escrow with Lessor an amount equal to 1/12 of the estimated annual cost of its proportionate share of such items. Lessee authorizes Lessor to use the funds deposited with Lessor under this Paragraph 2C to pay such costs. The initial monthly escrow payments are based upon the estimated amounts for year in question, and shall be increased or decreased annually to reflect the projected actual cost of all such items. If the Lessee's total escrow payments are less than Lessee's actual proportionate share of all such items, Lessee shall pay the difference to Lessor within thirty (30) days after demand. If the total escrow payments of Lessee are more than Lessee's actual proportionate share of all such items, Lessor shall refund such excess within thirty (30) days. The amount of the monthly rental and the initial monthly escrow payments are as follows:

3. TAXES.

A. Lessor agrees to pay all taxes, assessments and governmental charges of any kind and nature and all assessments due to deed restrictions and/or owner or community associations (collectively referred to herein as "Taxes") that accrue against the Premises, and/or the land and/or improvements of which the Premises are a part. If at any time during the term of this Lease, there shall be levied, assessed or imposed on Lessor a capital levy or other tax directly on the rents received therefrom and/or a franchise tax, assessment, levy or charge measured by or based, in whole or in part, upon such rents from the Premises and/or the land and improvements of which the Premises are a part, then all such taxes, assessments, levies or charges, or the part, thereof so measured or based, shall be deemed to be included within the term "Taxes" for the purposes hereof. The Lessor shall have the right to employ a tax consulting firm to attempt to assure a fair tax burden on the building and grounds within the applicable taxing jurisdiction. Lessee agrees to pay its proportionate share of the cost of such consultant.

B. Lessee shall be liable for all taxes levied or assessed against any personal property or fixtures placed in the Premises. If any such taxes are levied or assessed against Lessor or Lessor's property and (i) Lessor pays the same or (ii) the assessed value of Lessor's property is increased by inclusion of such personal property and fixtures and Lessor pays the increased taxes, then, upon demand Lessee shall pay to Lessor such taxes.

4. LESSOR'S REPAIRS.

A. Lessor, at its own cost and expense, shall maintain the roof, foundation and the structural soundness of the exterior walls of the building of which the Premises are a part in good repair, reasonable wear and tear excluded. The term "walls" as used herein shall not include windows, glass or plate glass, doors, special store fronts or office entries. Lessee shall immediately give Lessor written notice of defect or need for repairs, after which Lessor shall have reasonable opportunity to repair same or cure such defect.

B. Lessor reserves the right to perform the paving, common area and landscape replacement and maintenance, exterior painting, common sewage line plumbing and any other items that are otherwise Lessee's obligations under Paragraph 5A, in which event, Lessee shall be liable for its proportionate share of the cost and expense of such repair, replacement, maintenance and other such items.

5. LESSEE'S REPAIRS.

A. Lessee, at its own cost and expense, shall (i) maintain all parts of the Premises and grounds surrounding the Premises (except those for which Lessor is expressly responsible hereunder) in good condition, (ii) promptly make all necessary repairs and replacements, (iii) keep the parking areas, driveways and alleys surrounding the Premises in a clean and sanitary condition, and (iv) maintain any spur track servicing the Premises. Tenant agrees to sign a joint maintenance agreement with the railroad company servicing the Premises if requested by the railroad company. Lessor shall have the right to coordinate all repairs and maintenance of any rail tracks serving or intended to serve the Premises and, if Lessee uses such rail tracks, Lessee shall reimburse Lessor from time to time, upon demand, for its proportionate share of the costs of such repairs and maintenance and any other sums specified in any agreement respecting such tracks to which Lessor is a party.

B. Lessee and its employees, customers and licensees shall have the exclusive rights to use any parking areas that have been designated for such use by Lessor in writing, subject to rights of ingress and egress of other lessees. Lessor shall not be responsible for enforcing Lessee's parking rights against any third parties. Lessee agrees not to use more spaces than so provided.

6. ALTERATIONS. Lessee shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises without the prior written consent of Lessor. Lessee, at its own cost and expense, may erect such shelves, bins, machinery and trade fixtures as it desires provided that (a) such items do not alter the basic character of the Premises or the building and/or improvements of which the Premises are a part; (b) such items do not overload or damage the same; (c) such items may be removed without material injury to the Premises; and (d) the construction, erection or installation thereof complies with all applicable governmental laws, ordinances, regulations and with Lessor's specifications and requirements. All alterations, additions, improvements and partitions erected by Lessee shall be and remain the property of Lessee during the term of this Lease. All shelves, bins, machinery and trade fixtures installed by Lessee shall be removed on or before the earlier to occur of the date of termination of this Lease or vacating the Premises, at which time Lessee shall restore the Premises to their original condition. All alterations, installations, removals and restoration shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner so as not to damage or alter the primary structure or structural qualities of the buildings and other improvements situated on the Premises or of which the Premises are a part.

7. SIGNS. Any signage Lessee desires for the Premises shall be subject to Lessor's written approval. Lessee shall repair, paint, and/or replace the building facia surface to which its signs are attached upon vacation of the Premises, or the removal or alteration of its signage. Lessee shall not, (i) make any changes to the exterior of the Premises, (ii) install any exterior lights, decorations, balloons, flags, pennants, banners or painting or (iii) erect or install any signs, windows or door lettering, placards, decorations or advertising media of any type which can be viewed from the exterior of the Premises, without Lessor's prior written consent. All signs, decorations, advertising media, blinds, draperies and other window treatment or bars or other security installations visible from outside the Premises shall conform in all respects to the criteria established by Lessor. See Rider One, Para. 31

8. UTILITIES. Lessor agrees to provide water and electricity service to the Premises. Lessee shall pay for all water, gas, heat, light, power, telephone, sewer, sprinkler charges and other utilities and services used on or at the Premises, together with any taxes, penalties, surcharges or the like pertaining to the Lessee's use of the Premises, and any maintenance charges for utilities. Lessor shall have the right to cause any of said services to be separately metered to Lessee, at Lessee's expense. Lessee shall pay its pro rata share, as reasonably determined by Lessor, of all charges for jointly metered utilities. Lessor shall not be liable for any interruption or failure of utility service on the Premises unless due to Lessor's negligence.

9. INSURANCE.

A. Lessor shall maintain insurance covering the buildings situated on the Premises or of which the Premises are a part in an amount not less than eighty percent (80%) of the "replacement cost" thereof insuring against the perils of Fire, Lightning, Extended Coverage, Vandalism and Malicious Mischief. Lessee shall maintain insurance on Lessee's improvements to the Premises and all contents of the Premises.

B. Lessee, at its own expense, shall maintain during the term of this Lease a policy or policies of worker's compensation and comprehensive general liability insurance, including personal injury and property damage, with contractual liability endorsement, in the amount of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000.00) for property damage and One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) per occurrence for personal injuries or deaths of persons occurring in or about the Premises. Said policies shall (i) name Lessor as an additional insured and insure Lessor's contingent liability under this Lease (except for the worker's compensation policy, which instead shall include waiver of subrogation endorsement in favor of Lessor), (ii) be issued by an insurance company which is acceptable to Lessor, and (iii) provide that said insurance shall not be cancelled unless thirty (30) days prior written notice shall have been given to Lessor. Said policy or policies or certificates thereof shall be delivered to Lessor by Lessee upon commencement of the term of the Lease and upon each renewal of said insurance.

C. Lessee will not permit the Premises to be used for any purpose or in any manner that would (i) void the insurance thereon, (ii) increase the insurance risk, or (iii) cause the disallowance of any sprinkler credits, including without limitation, use of the Premises for the receipt, storage or handling of any product, material or merchandise that is explosive or highly inflammable. If any increase in the cost of any insurance on the Premises or the building of which the Premises are a part is caused by Lessee's use of the Premises, or because Lessee vacates the Premises, then Lessee shall pay the amount of such increase to Lessor.

10. FIRE AND CASUALTY DAMAGE.

A. If the Premises or the building of which the Premises are a part should be damaged or destroyed by fire or other peril, Lessee immediately shall give written notice to Lessor. If the buildings situated upon the Premises or of which the Premises are a part should be totally destroyed by any peril covered by the insurance to be provided by Lessor under Paragraph 9A above, or if they should be so damaged thereby that, in Lessor's estimation, rebuilding or repairs cannot be completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, this Lease shall terminate and the rent shall be abated during the unexpired portion of this Lease, effective upon the date of the occurrence of such damage.

B. If the buildings situated upon the Premises or of which the Premises are a part, should be damaged by any peril covered by the insurance to be provided by Lessor under Paragraph 9A above, and in Lessor's estimation, rebuilding or repairs can be substantially completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, this Lease shall not terminate, and Lessor shall restore the Premises to substantially its previous condition, except that Lessor shall not be required to rebuild, repair or replace any part of the partitions, fixtures, additions and other improvements that may have been constructed, erected or installed in, or about the Premises or for the benefit of, or by or for Lessee.* If such repairs and rebuilding have not been substantially completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, Lessee, as Lessee's exclusive remedy, may terminate this Lease by delivering written notice of termination to Lessor in which event the rights and obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate. *See Rider One, Para. 32.

C. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event the holder of any indebtedness secured by a mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises requires that the insurance proceeds be applied to such indebtedness, then Lessor shall have the right to terminate this Lease by delivering written notice of termination to Lessee within fifteen (15) days after such requirement is made known by any such holder, whereupon all rights and obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate.

D. Anything in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, Lessor and Lessee hereby waive and release each other of and from any and all rights of recovery, claim, action or cause of action, against each other, their agents, officers and employees, for any loss or damage that may occur to the Premises, improvements to the building of which the Premises are a part, or personal property (building contents) within the building and/or Premises, for any reason regardless of cause or origin. Each party to this Lease agrees immediately after execution of this Lease to give each insurance company, which has issued to it policies of fire and extended coverage insurance, written notice of the terms of the mutual waivers contained in this subparagraph, and if necessary, to have the insurance policies properly endorsed.

11. LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION. Except for any claims, rights of recovery and causes of action that Lessee has released, Lessor shall hold Lessee harmless and defend Lessee against any and all claims or liability for any injury or damage to any person in, on or about the Premises or any part thereof and/or the building of which the Premises are a part, when such injury or damage shall be caused by the act, neglect, fault of, or omission of any duty with respect to the same by Lessor, its agents, servants and employees. Except for any claims, rights of recovery and causes of action that Lessor has released, Lessee shall hold Lessor harmless from and defend Lessor against any and all claims or liability for any injury or damage (i) to any person or property whatsoever occurring in, on or about the Premises or any part thereof and/or of the building of which the Premises are a part, including without limitation elevators, stairways, passageways or hallways, the use of which Lessee may have in accordance with this Lease, when such injury or damage shall be caused by the act, neglect, fault of, or omission of any duty with respect to the same by Lessee, its agents, servants, employees, or invitees (ii) arising from the conduct of management of any work done by the Lessee in or about the Premises, (iii) arising from transactions of the Lessee, and (iv) all costs, counsel fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in connection with any such claim or action or proceeding brought thereon. The provisions of this Paragraph 11 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease with respect to any claims or liability occurring prior to such expiration or termination.

12. USE. The Premises shall be used only for the purpose of receiving, storing, shipping and selling (other than retail) products, materials and merchandise made and/or distributed by Lessee and for such other lawful purposes as may be incidental thereto. Outside storage, including without limitation, storage of trucks and other vehicles, is prohibited without Lessor's prior written consent. Lessee shall comply with all governmental laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the use of the Premises, and promptly shall comply with all governmental orders and directives for the correction, prevention and abatement of nuisances in or upon, or connected with, the Premises, all at Lessee's sole expense. Lessee shall not permit any objectionable or unpleasant odors, smoke, dust, gas, noise or vibrations to emanate from the Premises, nor take any other action that would constitute a nuisance or would disturb, unreasonably interefere with, or endanger Lessor or any other lessees of the building in which the Premises are a part.

13. INSPECTION. Lessor and Lessor's agents and representatives shall have the right to enter the Premises at any reasonable time during business hours, to inspect the Premises and to make such repairs as may be required or permitted pursuant to this Lease. During the period that is six (6) months prior to the end of the Lease term, upon telephonic notice to Lessee, Lessor and Lessor's representatives may enter the Premises during business hours for the purpose of showing the Premises. In addition, Lessor shall have the right to erect a suitable sign on the Premises stating the Premises are available. Lessee shall notify Lessor in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to vacating the Premises and shall arrange to meet with Lessor for a joint inspection of the Premises prior to vacating. If Lessee fails to give such notice or to arrange for such inspection, then Lessor's inspection of the Premises shall be deemed correct for the purpose of determining Lessee's responsibility for repairs and restoration of the Premises.

14. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING.

A. Lessee shall not have the right to assign, sublet, transfer or encumber this Lease, or any interest therein, without the prior written consent of Lessor which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any attempted assignment, subletting, transfer or encumbrance by Lessee in violation of the terms and covenants of this Paragraph shall be void. Notwithstanding the foregoing.

Lessee shall have the right to assign this Lease to any affiliate (as such term is defined in the Securities Act of 1933) provided that such assignment is in form satisfactory to Lessor. Any assignee, sublessee or transferee of Lessee's interest in this Lease (all such assignees, sublessees and transferees being hereinafter referred to as "Transferees"), by assuming Lessee's obligations hereunder, shall assume liability to Lessor for all amounts paid to persons other than Lessor by such Transferees in contravention of this Paragraph. No assignment, subletting or other transfer, whether consented to by Lessor or not or permitted hereunder shall relieve Lessee of its liability hereunder. If an event of default occurs while the Premises or any part thereof are assigned or sublet, then Lessor, in addition to any other remedies herein provided, or provided by law, may collect directly from such Transferee all rents payable to the Lessee and apply such rent against any sums due Lessor hereunder. No such collection shall be construed to constitute a novation or a release of Lessee from the further performance of Lessee's obligations hereunder.

B. If this Lease is assigned to any person or entity pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. (S) 101 et. seq., (the "Bankruptcy Code"), any and all monies or other consideration payable or otherwise to be delivered in connection with such assignment shall be paid or delivered to Lessor, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Lessor and shall not constitute property of Lessee or of the estate of Lessee within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Any and all monies or other considerations constituting Lessor's property under the preceding sentence not paid or delivered to Lessor shall be held in trust for the benefit of Lessor and be promptly paid or delivered to Lessor.

C. Any person or entity to which this Lease is assigned pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed, without further act or deed, to have assumed all of the obligations arising under this Lease on and after the date of such assignment. Any such assignee shall upon demand execute and deliver to Lessor an instrument confirming such assumption.

15. CONDEMNATION. If more than twenty-five (25%) of the Premises are taken for any public or quasi-public use under governmental law, ordinance or regulation, or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof and the taking prevents or materially interferes with the use of the Premises for the purpose for which they were leased to Lessee, this Lease shall terminate and the rent shall be abated during the unexpired portion of this Lease, effective on the date of such taking. If less than twenty-five (25%) of the Premises are taken for any public or quasi-public use under any governmental law, ordinance or regulation, or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof, this Lease shall not terminate, but the rent payable hereunder during the unexpired portion of this Lease shall be reduced to such extent as may be fair and reasonable under all of the circumstances. All compensation awarded in connection with or as a result of any of the foregoing proceedings shall be the property of Lessor and Lessee hereby assigns any interest in any such award to Lessor; provided, however, Lessor shall have no interest in any award made to Lessee for loss of business or goodwill or for the taking of Lessee's fixtures and improvements, if a separate award for such items is made to Lessee.

16. HOLDING OVER. At the termination of this Lease by its expiration or otherwise, Lessee immediately shall deliver possession to Lessor with all repairs and maintenance required herein to be performed by Lessee completed. If, for any reason, Lessee retains possession of the Premises after the expiration or termination of this Lease, unless the parties hereto otherwise agree in writing, such possession shall be subject to termination by either Lessor or Lessee at any time upon not less than ten (10) days advance written notice, and all of the other terms and provisions of this Lease shall be applicable during such period, except that Lessee shall pay Lessor from time to time, upon demand, as rental for the period of such possession, an amount equal to double the rent in effect on the termination date, computed on a daily basis for each day of such period. No holding over by Lessee, whether with or without consent of Lessor shall operate to extend this Lease except as otherwise expressly provided. The preceding provisions of this Paragraph 16 shall not be construed as consent for Lessee to retain possession of the Premises in the absence of written consent thereto by Lessor.

17. QUIET ENJOYMENT. Lessor covenants that on or before the commencement date it will have good title to the Premises, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, excepting only the lien for current taxes not yet due, such mortgage or mortgages as are permitted by the terms of this Lease, zoning ordinances and other building and fire ordinances and governmental regulations relating to the use of such property, and easements, restrictions and other conditions of record. If this Lease is a sublease, then Lessee agrees to take the Premises subject to the provisions of the prior Leases. Lessor represents that it has the authority to enter into this Lease and that so long as Lessee pays all amounts due hereunder and performs all other covenants and agreements herein set forth, Lessee shall peaceably and quietly have hold and enjoy the Premises for the term hereof without hindrance or molestation from Lessor, subject to the terms and provisions of this Lease.

18. EVENTS OF DEFAULT. The following events (herein individually referred to as "event of default") each shall be deemed to be events of nonperformance by Lessee under this Lease:

A. Lessee shall fail to pay any installment of the rent herein reserved when due, or any other payment or reimbursement to Lessor required herein when due, and such failure shall continue for a period of five (5) days from the date such payment was due.

B. The Lessee or any guarantor of the Lessee's obligations hereunder shall (i) become insolvent; (ii) admit in writing its inability to pay its debts; (iii) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (iv) commence any case, proceeding or other action seeking to have an order for relief entered on its behalf as a debtor or to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or of any substantial part of its property; or (v) take any action to authorize or in contemplation of any of the actions set forth above in this Paragraph.

C. Any case, proceeding or other action against the Lessee or any guarantor of the Lessee's obligations hereunder shall be commenced seeking (i) to have an order for relief entered against it as debtor or to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent; (ii) reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors; (iii) appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its property, and such case, proceeding or other action (a) results in the entry of an order for relief against it which it is not fully stayed within seven (7) business days after the entry thereof or (b) shall remain undismissed for a period of forty-five (45) days.

D. Lessee shall (i) vacate all or a substantial portion of the Premises or (ii) fail to continuously operate its business at the Premises for the permitted use set forth herein, whether or not Lessee is in default of the rental payments due under this Lease.

E. Lessee shall fail to discharge any lien placed upon the Premises in violation of Paragraph 21 hereof within twenty (20) days after any such lien or encumbrance is filed against the Premises.

F. Lessee shall fail to comply with any term, provision or covenant of this Lease (other than those listed in this Paragraph 18), and shall not cure such failure within twenty (20) days after written notice thereof to Lessee.

19. REMEDIES.

A. Upon each occurrence of an event of default, Lessor shall have the option to pursue any one or more of the following remedies without any notice or demand:

(1) Terminate this Lease; and/or

(2) Enter upon and take possession of the Premises without terminating this Lease; and/or

(3) Alter all locks and other security devices at the Premises with or without terminating this Lease;

and in any such event Lessee immediately shall surrender the Premises to Lessor, and if Lessee fails so to do, Lessor, without waiving any other remedy it may have, may enter upon and take possession of the Premises and expel or remove Lessee and any other person who may be occupying such Premises or any part thereof, without being liable for prosecution or any claim of damages therefor.

B. If Lessor terminates this Lease, at Lessor's option, Lessee shall be liable for and shall pay to Lessor, the sum of all rental and other payments owed to Lessor hereunder accrued to the date of such termination, plus, as liquidated damages, an amount equal to (1) the present value of the total rental and other payments owed hereunder for the remaining portion of the Lease term, calculated as if such term expired on the date set forth in Paragraph 1, less (2) the then present fair market rental value of the Premises for such period, which because of the difficulty of ascertaining such value, Lessor and Lessee stipulate and agree, shall in no event be deemed to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the rental amount set forth in Paragraph 2 above.

C. If Lessor repossesses the Premises without terminating the Lease, Lessee, at Lessor's option, shall be liable for and shall pay Lessor on demand all rental and other payments owed to Lessor hereunder, accrued to the date of such repossession, plus all amounts required to be paid by Lessee to Lessor until the date of expiration of the term as stated in Paragraph 1, diminished by all amounts received by Lessor through reletting the Premises during such remaining term (but only to the extent of the rent herein reserved). Actions to collect amounts due by Lessee to Lessor under this subparagraph may be brought from time to time, on one or more occasions, without the necessity of Lessor's waiting until expiration of the Lease term.

D. Upon an event of default, in addition to any sum provided to be paid herein, Lessee also shall be liable for and shall pay to Lessor (i) brokers' fees incurred by Lessor in connection with reletting the whole or any part of the Premises; (ii) the costs of removing and storing Lessee's or other occupant's property; (iii) the costs of repairing, altering, remodeling or otherwise putting the Premises into condition acceptable to a new Lessee or Lessees; and (iv) all reasonable expenses incurred by Lessor in enforcing or defending Lessor's rights and/or remedies. If either party hereto institute any action or proceeding to enforce any provision hereof by reason of any alleged breach of any provision of this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to receive from the losing party all reasonable attorneys' fees and all court costs in connection with such proceeding.

E. In the event Lessee fails to make any payment due hereunder when payment is due, to help defray the additional cost to Lessor for processing such late payments, Lessee shall pay to Lessor on demand a late charge in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of such installment; and the failure to pay such amount within ten (10) days after demand therefor shall be an additional event of default hereunder. The provision for such late charge shall be in addition to all of Lessor's other rights and remedies hereunder or at law and shall not be construed as liquidated damages or as limiting Lessor's remedies in any manner.

F. Exercise by Lessor of any one or more remedies hereunder granted or otherwise available shall not be deemed to be an acceptance of surrender of the Premises by Lessor, whether by agreement or by operation of law, it being understood that such surrender can be effected only by the written agreement of Lessor and Lessee. Lessee and Lessor further agree that forbearance by Lessor to enforce its rights pursuant to the Lease at law or in equity, shall not be a waiver of Lessor's right to enforce one or more of its rights in connection with any subsequent default.

G. In the event of termination and/or repossession of the Premises for an event of default, Lessor shall use reasonable efforts to relet the Premises and to collect rental after reletting; provided, that, Lessee shall not be entitled to credit or reimbursement of any proceeds in excess of the rental owed hereunder. Lessor may relet the whole or any portion of the Premises for any period, to any Lessee and for any use and purpose.

H. If Lessor fails to perform any of its obligations hereunder within thirty (30) days after written notice from Lessee specifying such failure, Lessee's exclusive remedy shall be an action for damages and/or possession. Unless and until Lessor fails to so cure any default after such notice, Lessee shall not have any remedy or cause of action by reason thereof. All obligations of Lessor hereunder will be construed as covenants, not conditions; and all such obligations will be binding upon Lessor only during the period of its possession of the Premises and not thereafter. The term "Lessor" shall mean only the owner, for the time being of the Premises, and in the event of the transfer by such owner of its interest in the Premises, such owner shall thereupon be released and discharged from all covenants and obligations of the Lessor thereafter accruing, but such covenants and obligations shall be binding during the Lease term upon each new owner for the duration of such owner's ownership. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, Lessor shall not have any personal liability hereunder. In the event of any breach or default by Lessor in any term or provision of this Lease, Lessee agrees to look solely to the equity or interest then owned by Lessor in the Premises or of the building of which the Premises are a part; however, in no event, shall any deficiency judgment or any money judgment of any kind be sought or obtained against any party Lessor.

I. If Lessor repossesses the Premises pursuant to the authority herein granted, then Lessor shall have the right to (i) keep in place and use or (ii) remove and store all of the furniture, fixtures and equipment at the Premises, including that which is owned by or leased to Lessee at all times prior to any foreclosure thereon by Lessor or repossession thereof by any Lessor thereof or third party having a lien thereon. Lessor also shall have the right to relinquish possession of all or any portion of such furniture, fixtures, equipment and other property to any person ("Claimant") who presents to Lessor a copy of any instrument represented by Claimant to have been executed by Lessee (or any predecessor of Lessee) granting Claimant the right under various circumstances to take possession of such furniture, fixtures, equipment or other property, without the necessity on the part of Lessor to inquire into the authenticity or legality of said instrument. The rights of Lessor herein stated shall be in addition to any and all other rights that Lessor has or may hereafter have at law or in equity; and Lessee stipulates and agrees that the rights herein granted Lessor are commercially reasonable.

J. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, all amounts payable by Lessee to or on behalf of Lessor under this Lease, whether or not expressly denominated as rent, shall constitute rent for the purposes of Section 502(b) (7) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. (S) 502(b) (7).

K. This is a contract under which applicable law excuses Lessor from accepting performance from (or rendering performance to) any person or entity other than Lessee within the meaning of Sections 365(c) and 365(e) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. (S)(S) 365(c) and 365(e) (2).

20. MORTGAGES. Lessee accepts this Lease subject and subordinate to any mortgages and/or deeds of trust now or at any time hereafter constituting a lien or charge upon the Premises or the improvements situated thereon or the building of which the Premises are a part, provided, however, that if the mortgages, trustee, or holder of any such mortgage or deed of trust elects to have Lessee's interest in this Lease superior to any such instrument, then by notice to Lessee from such mortgagee, trustee or holder, this Lease shall be deemed superior to such lien, whether this Lease was executed before or after said mortgage or deed of trust. Lessee, at any time hereafter on demand, shall execute any instruments, release-or other documents that may be required by any mortgagee for the purpose of subjecting and subordinating this Lease to the lien of any such mortgage.

21. MECHANIC'S LIENS. Lessee has no authority, express or implied, to create or place any lien or encumbrance of any kind or nature whatsoever upon, or in any manner to bind the interest of Lessor or Lessee in the Premises or to charge the rentals payable hereunder for any claim in favor of any person dealing with Lessee, including those who may furnish materials or perform labor for any construction or repairs. Lessee covenants and agrees that it will pay or cause to be paid all sums legally due and payable by it on account of any labor performed or materials furnished in connection with any work performed on the Premises and that it will save and hold Lessor harmless from any and all loss, cost or expense based on or arising out of asserted claims or liens against the leasehold estate or against the right, title and interest of the Lessor in the Premises or under the terms of this Lease. Lessee agrees to give Lessor immediate written notice of the placing of any lien or encumbrance against the Premises.

A. Words of any gender used in this Lease shall be held and construed to include any other gender, and words in the singular number shall be held to include the plural, unless the context otherwise requires. The captions inserted in this Lease are for convenience only and in no way define, limit or otherwise describe the scope or intent of this Lease, or any provision hereof, or in any way affect the interpretation of this Lease.

B. In the event the Premises constitute a portion of a multiple occupancy building, Lessee's "proportionate share", as used in this Lease, shall mean a fraction, the numerator of which is the space contained in the Premises and the denominator of which is the entire space contained in the building.

C. The terms, provisions and covenants and conditions contained in this Lease shall run with the land and shall apply to, inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the parties hereto and upon their respective heirs, executors, personal representatives, legal representatives, successors and assigns, except as otherwise herein expressly provided. Lessor shall have the right to transfer and assign, in whole or in part, its rights and obligations in the building and property that are the subject of this Lease. Each party agrees to furnish to the other, promptly upon demand, a corporate resolution, proof of due authorization by partners, or other appropriate documentation evidencing the due authorization of such party to enter into this Lease.

D. Lessor shall not be held responsible for delays in the performance of its obligations hereunder when caused by material shortages, acts of God or labor disputes.

E. Lessee agrees, from time to time, within ten (10) days after request of Lessor, to deliver to Lessor, or Lessor's designee, a Certificate of Occupancy and an estoppel certificate stating that this Lease is in full force and effect, the date to which rent has been paid, the unexpired term of this Lease and such other factual matters pertaining to this Lease as may be requested by Lessor. It is understood and agreed that Lessee's obligation to furnish such estoppel certificates in a timely fashion is a material inducement for Lessor's execution of this Lease.

F. This Lease constitutes the entire understanding and agreement of the Lessor and Lessee with respect to the subject matter of this Lease, and contains all of the covenants and agreements of Lessor and Lessee with respect thereto. Lessor and Lessee each acknowledge that no representations, inducements, promises or agreements, oral or written, have been made by Lessor or Lessee, or anyone acting on behalf of Lessor or Lessee, which are not contained herein, and any prior agreements, promises, negotiations, or representations not expressly set forth in this Lease are of no force or effect. This Lease may not be altered, changed or amended except by an instrument in writing signed by both parties hereto.

G. All obligations of Lessee hereunder not fully performed as of the expiration or earlier termination of the term of this Lease shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the term hereof, including without limitation, all payment obligations with respect to taxes and insurance and all obligations concerning the condition and repair of the Premises. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of the term hereof, and prior to Lessee vacating the Premises, Lessee shall pay to Lessor any amount reasonably estimated by Lessor as necessary to put the Premises, including without limitation, all heating and air conditioning systems and equipment therein, in good condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear excluded. Lessee shall also, prior to vacating the Premises, pay to Lessor the amount, as estimated by Lessor, of Lessee's obligation hereunder for real estate taxes and insurance premiums for the year in which the Lease expires or terminates. All such amounts shall be used and held by Lessor for payment of such obligations of Lessee hereunder, with Lessee being liable for any additional costs therefor upon demand by Lessor, or with any excess to be returned to Lessee after all such obligations have been determined and satisfied as the case may be. Any security deposit held by Lessor shall be credited against the amount due from Lessee under this Paragraph 22G.

H. If any clause or provision of this Lease is illegal, invalid or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this Lease, then and in that event, it is the intention of the parties hereto that the remainder of this Lease shall not be affected thereby, and it is also the intention of the parties to this Lease that in lieu of each clause or provision of this Lease that is illegal, invalid or unenforceable, there be added, as a part of this Lease, a clause or provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable clause or provision as may be possible and be legal, valid and enforceable.

I. All references in this Lease to "the date hereof" or similar references shall be deemed to refer to the last date, in point of time, on which all parties hereto have executed this Lease.

J. Lessee represents and warrants that it has dealt with no broker, agent or other person in connection with this transaction or that no broker, agent or other person brought about this transaction, other than as may be referenced in a separate written agreement executed by Lessee, and Lessee agrees to indemnify and hold Lessor harmless from and against any claims by any other broker, agent or other person claiming a commission or other form of compensation by virtue of having dealt with Lessee with regard to this leasing transaction.

K. If and when included within the term "Lessor", as used in this instrument, there is more than one person, firm or corporation, all shall jointly arrange among themselves for their joint execution of a notice specifying some individual at some specific address for the receipt of notices and payments to Lessor. If and when included within the term "Lessee", as used in this instrument, there is more than one person, firm or corporation, all shall jointly arrange among themselves for their joint execution of a notice specifying some individual at some specific address within the continental United States for the receipt of notices and payments to Lessee. All parties included within the terms "Lessor" and "Lessee", respectively shall be bound by notices given in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 24 hereof to the same effect as if each had received such notice.

23. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS. See Exhibit attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

24. NOTICES. Each provision of this instrument or of any applicable governmental laws, ordinances, regulations and other requirements with reference to the sending mailing or delivering of notice or the making of any payment by Lessor to Lessee or with reference to the sending, mailing or delivering of any notice or the making of any payment by Lessee, Lessor shall be deemed to be complied ???? and if the following steps are taken:

(a) All rent and other payments required to be made by Lessee to Lessor hereunder shall be payable to Lessor at the address for Lessor set forth below or at such other address as Lessor may specify from time to time by written notice delivered in accordance herewith. Lessee's obligation to pay rent and any other amounts to Lessor under the terms of this Lease shall not be deemed satisfied until such rent and other amounts have been actually received by Lessor. In addition to base rental due hereunder, all sums of money and all payments due Lessor hereunder shall be deemed to be additional rental owed to Lessor.

(b) All payments required to be made by Lessor to Lessee hereunder shall be payable to Lessee at the address set forth below, or at such other address within the continental United States as Lessee may specify from time to time by written notice delivered in accordance herewith.

(c) Any written notice or document required or permitted to be delivered hereunder shall be deemed to be delivered whether actually received or not when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, Certified or Registered Mail, addressed to the parties hereto at the respective addresses set out below, or at such other address as they have theretofore specified by written notice delivered in accordance herewith.

25. LESSOR'S LIEN. In addition to any statutory lien for rent in Lessor's favor, Lessor shall have and Lessee hereby grants to Lessor a continuing security interest for all rentals and other sums of money become due hereunder from Lessee, upon all goods, wares, equipment, fixtures, furniture, inventory, and other personal property of Lessee situated on the Premises subject to this Lease, and such property shall not be removed therefrom without the consent of Lessor until all arrearages in rent as well as any and all other sums of money then due to Lessor hereunder shall first have been paid and discharged. Upon a default hereunder by Lessee in addition to all other rights and remedies, Lessor shall have all rights and remedies under the Uniform Commercial Code, including without limitation, the right to sell the property described in this Paragraph at public or private sale upon five (5) days notice by Lessor. Lessee hereby agrees to execute such other instruments, necessary or desirable under applicable law to perfect the security interest hereby created.

SUBLEASE AGREEMENT

THIS SUBLEASE AGREEMENT, made and entered into by and between UNITED STATIONERS SUPPLY CO., hereinafter referred to as "Sublessor", and REHRIG PACIFIC COMPANY, hereinafter referred to as "Sublessee";

W I T N E S S E T H:

1. PREMISES AND TERM.

A. In consideration of the mutual obligations of Sublessor and Sublessee set forth herein, Sublessor leases to Sublessee, and Sublessee hereby takes from Sublessor the approximately 44,770 square feet more particularly outlined on the floor plan attached as EXHIBIT "A-1" (the "Premises"), which Premises are part of that approximately 127,789 square foot building (the "Building") located on the real property situated within the County of Dallas, State of Texas, which real property is more particularly described on EXHIBIT "A" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference (the "Land"), together with all rights, privileges, easements, appurtenances, and amenities belonging to or in any way pertaining to the Premises, to have and to hold, subject to the terms, covenants and conditions in this Sublease.

B. The term of this Sublease shall commence on JUNE 1, 1993 (the "Commencement Date"). The term of this Sublease shall end on the last day of the calendar month that is 72 full months after the Commencement Date.

2. BASE RENT, SECURITY DEPOSIT AND ESCROW PAYMENTS.

A. Sublessee agrees to pay to Sublessor base rent for the Premises, in advance, without demand, deduction or set off, at the rate of FOUR THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED SIXTY SIX & 54/100 Dollars ($4,566.54*) per month during the term hereof. One such monthly installment, plus the other monthly charges set forth in Paragraph 2.C. below shall be due and payable on the date hereof and a like monthly installment shall be due and payable on or before the first day of each calendar month succeeding the Commencement Date, except that all payments due hereunder for any fractional calendar month shall be prorated. * SEE RIDER ONE, PARAGRAPH 26

B. In addition, Sublessee agrees to deposit with Sublessor on the date hereof the sum of TEN THOUSAND & 00/100 Dollars ($10,000.00), which shall be held by Sublessor as security for the performance of Sublessee's obligations under this Sublease, it being expressly understood and agreed that this deposit is not an advance rental deposit or a measure of Sublessor's damages in case of Sublessee's default. Upon each occurrence of an event of default, Sublessor may use all or part of the deposit to pay past due rent or other payments due Sublessor under this Sublease, and the cost of any other damage, injury, expense or liability caused by such event of default without prejudice to any other remedy provided herein or provided by law. On demand, Sublessee shall pay Sublessor the amount that will restore the security deposit to its original amount.

C. Sublessee agrees to pay as additional rent, its proportionate share (as defined in Paragraph 22.B. below) of (1) Taxes (hereinafter defined) payable by Sublessor pursuant to Paragraph 3.A. below, (2) the cost of any jointly metered utilities payable pursuant to Paragraph 8. below, (3) the cost of maintaining insurance, and (4) the cost of repairs, replacement, replacement reserve for capital items and other operating expenses to the extent required by the Master Lease. During each month of the term of this Sublease, on the same day that base rent is due hereunder, Sublessee shall escrow with Sublessor an amount equal to 1/12 of the estimated annual cost of its proportionate share of such items. Sublessee authorizes Sublessor to use the funds deposited with Sublessor under this Paragraph 2.C. to pay such costs. The initial monthly escrow payments are based upon the estimated amounts for the year in question, and shall be increased or decreased annually to reflect the projected actual cost of all such items. If the Sublessee's total escrow payments are less than Sublessee's actual proportionate share of all such items, Sublessee shall pay the difference to Sublessor within ten (10) days after demand. If the total escrow payments of Sublessee are more than Sublessee's actual proportionate share of all such items, Sublessor shall retain such excess and credit it against Sublessee's next annual escrow payments. Sublessee shall on request be given an accounting for the foregoing payments and allocations within two (2) weeks of the request. The amount of the monthly rental and the initial monthly escrow payments are as follows:

3. TAXES.

A. Sublessor agrees to pay its proportionate share of all taxes, assessments and/or governmental charges of any kind and nature (collectively referred to herein as "Taxes") that accrue against the Premises, the Land and/or the Building which are assessed for and applicable to a period within the lease term. If at any time during the term of this Sublease, there shall be levied, assessed or imposed on Sublessor a capital levy or other tax other than an income tax directly on the rents received therefrom and/or a franchise tax, assessment, levy or charge measured by or based, in whole or in part upon such rents from the Premises, the Land and/or the Building, then all such taxes, assessments, levies or charges, or the part, thereof so measured or based, shall be deemed to be included within the term "Taxes" for the purposes hereof. The Sublessor shall have the right to employ a tax consulting firm to attempt to assure a fair tax burden on the building and grounds within the applicable taxing jurisdiction. Sublessee agrees to pay its proportionate share of the reasonable cost of such consultant.

B. Sublessee shall be liable for all taxes levied or assessed against any personal property or fixtures placed in the Premises by Sublessee. If any such taxes are levied or assessed against Sublessor or Sublessor's property and (1) Sublessor pays the same or (2) the assessed value of Sublessor's property is increased by inclusion of such personal property and fixtures and Sublessor pays the increased taxes, then, upon demand Sublessee shall pay to Sublessor such taxes. In addition, if the Building is a multi tenant Building and the cost of any improvements constructed to the Sublessee's Premises is disproportionately higher than the cost of improvements constructed to the premises of other tenants of the Building, then upon demand Sublessee shall pay the amount of Taxes attributable to such disproportionately more expensive improvements in addition to its proportionate share of Taxes payable in accordance with Paragraph 2.

4. SUBLESSOR'S REPAIRS.

A. Sublessee understands and agrees that this Sublease is intended to be a "net" lease, and as such, Sublessor's maintenance, repair and replacement obligations are limited to those set forth in this Paragraph 4 A. Sublessor, at its own cost and expense, shall be responsible only for roof membrane and replacement and for repair and replacement of only the foundation, and the structural members of the exterior walls of the Building. The terms "roof" and "walls" as used herein shall not include skylights, windows, glass or plate glass, doors, special store fronts or office entries. Sublessee shall immediately give Sublessor written notice of defect or need for repairs, after which Sublessor shall have reasonable opportunity to repair same or cure such defect. Sublessor's liability with respect to any defects, repairs, replacement or maintenance for which Sublessor is responsible hereunder shall be limited to the cost of such repairs or maintenance or the curing of such defect.

B. Sublessor reserves the right to perform the Sublessee's maintenance, repair and replacement obligations and any other items that are otherwise Sublessee's obligations under Paragraph 5.B, in which event, Sublessee shall be liable for the cost and expense of such repair, replacement, maintenance and other such items.

5. SUBLESSEE'S MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OBLIGATIONS.

A. Sublessee, at its own cost and expense, shall maintain all parts of the Premises (except those for which Sublessor is expressly responsible hereunder) in good condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted, and promptly make all necessary repairs and replacements to the Premises.

B. In addition to Sublessee's obligations under the preceding subparagraph A., if Sublessee is the only occupant of the Building, unless Sublessor and Sublessee otherwise agree, Sublessee is responsible for causing the parking areas, driveways, alleys and grounds surrounding the Premises (except those for which Sublessor is expressly responsible hereunder) to be maintained in a good, neat, clean and sanitary condition, consistent with the operation of a first class office/warehouse building, which includes without limitation, prompt maintenance, repairs and replacements 1) of any drill or spur track servicing the Premises, 2) of the parking area associated with the Building, 3) of all grass, shrubbery and other landscape treatments surrounding the Building, 4) of the exterior of the Building (including painting), 5) of sprinkler systems, sewage lines, and 6) of any other maintenance, repair or replacement items normally associated with the foregoing. In addition, Sublessee shall repair and pay for any damage caused by the negligence of Sublessee, or Sublessee's employees, agents or invitees, or caused by Sublessee's default hereunder.

C. In the event that the Sublessee is not the sole occupant of the Building, then subject to payment by Sublessee, Lessor shall perform the maintenance, repair, and replacement obligations set forth in the foregoing Subparagraph B. Sublessee shall be liable for its Proportionate Share of the cost and expense of such repair, replacement, replacement reserve, maintenance and other such items. The amount of Sublessee's rental obligation set forth in Paragraph 2.A. above does not include the cost of such items, and Lessor's performance of repair, replacement, maintenance and other items, is not a condition to payment of such rental obligations.

D. Sublessee agrees to pay its Proportionate Share of the cost of (1) operation, maintenance and/or landscaping of any property or facility that is operated, maintained or landscaped by any property owner or community owner association that is named in any restrictive covenants or deed restrictions to which the Premises are subject, and which are actually billed to the Building, and (2) operating and maintaining any property, facilities or services provided for the common use of Sublessee and other lessees of the Building, which costs shall include, without limitation, maintenance and repair costs, sewer, landscaping, trash and security (if furnished by Sublessor), amounts paid to contractors or subcontractors for work or services performed in connection with the operation and maintenance of the Building, all service, supplies, repairs, replacements or other expenses for maintaining and operating the Building, and any other facilities or services provided for the common use of Sublessee and other lessees of the Building.

E. Sublessee shall enter into a regularly scheduled preventive maintenance/service contract with a maintenance contractor for servicing all hot water, heating and air conditioning systems and equipment within the Premises, with a contractor approved by Sublessor. Sublessee shall be responsible for all costs and expenses required thereunder.

F. Sublessee agrees to sign a joint maintenance agreement with the railroad company servicing the Premises if requested by the railroad company.

Lessor shall have the right to coordinate all repairs and maintenance of any rail tracks serving or intended to serve the Premises and, if Lessee uses such rail tracks, Sublessee shall reimburse Sublessor from time to time, upon demand, for its Proportionate Share of the costs of such repairs and maintenance and any other sums specified in any agreement respecting such tracks to which Sublessor is a party.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Sublease, Sublessee shall not be responsible for any capital improvements or replacements as defined by GAAP (Generally accepted accounting principles), except to the extent capital improvements have been damaged by Sublessee or its agents or invitees.

6. ALTERATIONS. Sublessee shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises without the prior written consent of Sublessor. Sublessee, at its own cost and expense, may erect such shelves, bins, machinery and trade fixtures as it desires provided that (a) such items do not alter the basic character of the Premises or the Building; (b) such items do not overload or damage the same; (c) such items may be removed without injury to the Premises; and (d) the construction, erection or installation thereof complies with all applicable governmental laws, ordinances, regulations and with Sublessor's specifications and requirements. All shelves, bins, machinery and trade fixtures installed by Sublessee shall be removed on or before the earlier to occur of the date of termination of this Sublease or vacating the Premises, at which time Sublessee shall restore the Premises to their original condition. All installations, removals and restoration shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner so as not to damage or alter the primary structure or structural qualities of the Building or the Premises.

7. SIGNS. Any signage, decorations, advertising media, blinds, draperies, window treatments, bars, and security installations Sublessee desires for the Premises shall be subject to Sublessor's prior written approval and shall be submitted to Sublessor prior to the Commencement Date. Sublessee shall repair, paint, and/or replace the building facia surface to which its signs are attached upon vacation of the Premises, or the removal or alteration of its signage, all of which shall be accomplished at Sublessee's sole cost and expense. Sublessee shall not, (i) make any changes to the exterior of the Premises, (ii) install any exterior lights, decorations, balloons, flags, pennants, banners or painting, or (3) erect or install any signs, windows or door lettering, decals, window and storefront stickers, placards, decorations or advertising media of any type that can be viewed from the exterior of the Premises, without Sublessor's prior written consent.

8. UTILITIES. Sublessee shall obtain and pay for all water, gas, heat, light, power, telephone, sewer, sprinkler charges and other utilities and services used on or at the Premises, together with any taxes, penalties, surcharges or the like pertaining to the Sublessee's use of the Premises, and any maintenance charges for utilities. Sublessor shall have the right to cause any of said services to be separately metered to Sublessee, at Sublessee's expense. Sublessee shall pay its pro rata share, as reasonably determined by Sublessor, of all charges for jointly metered utilities. Sublessor shall not be liable for any interruption or failure of utility service on the Premises.

9. INSURANCE.

A. Lessor shall maintain insurance covering the Building and the Premises in an amount not less than eighty percent (80%) of the "replacement cost" thereof insuring against the perils and costs of Fire, Lightning, Extended Coverage, Vandalism and Malicious Mischief, Liability and Rental Interruption and such other insurance as Lessor shall deem necessary.

B. Sublessee, at its own expense, shall maintain during the term of this Sublease (1) a policy or policies of worker's compensation and comprehensive general liability insurance (with contractual liability endorsement), including personal injury and property damage in the amount of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000.00) per occurrence for property damage and One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) per occurrence for personal injuries or deaths of persons occurring in or about the Premises and (2) fire and extended coverage insurance covering the replacement cost of (a) all alterations, additions, partitions and improvements installed or placed on the Premises, (b) all of Sublessee's personal property contained within the Premises and (c) business interruption insurance insuring loss of profits in the event of an insured peril damaging the Premises. Said policies shall (i) name Sublessor, A.C.S.S. Dallas Industrial, Inc., Trammell Crow Company, and Trammell Crow Dallas Industrial, Inc. as additional insureds, (ii) be issued by an insurance company which is acceptable to Sublessor, (iii) provide that said insurance shall not be cancelled unless thirty (30) days prior written notice shall have been given to Sublessor, (iv) shall be delivered to Sublessor by Sublessee upon commencement of the term of the Sublease and upon each renewal of said insurance, and (v) shall provide primary coverage to Sublessor when any policy issued to Sublessor is similar or duplicate in coverage, and Sublessor's policy shall be excess over Sublessee's policies.

C. Sublessee will not permit the Premises to be used for any purpose or in any manner that would (1) void the insurance thereon, (2) increase the insurance risk, or (3) cause the disallowance of any sprinkler credits. Sublessee shall pay any increase in the cost of any insurance on the Premises or the Building, which is caused by Sublessee's use of the Premises, or because Sublessee vacates the Premises.

10. FIRE AND CASUALTY DAMAGE.

A. Sublessee immediately shall give written notice to Sublessor if the Premises or the Building are damaged or destroyed. If the Premises or the Building should be totally destroyed or so damaged by an insured peril and in Sublessor's estimation, rebuilding or repairs cannot be completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of Sublessor's actual knowledge of such damage, this Sublease shall terminate and the rent shall be abated during the unexpired portion of this Sublease, effective upon the date of the occurrence of such damage.

B. If the Building or the Premises should be damaged by any insured peril, and in Lessor's estimation, rebuilding or repairs can be substantially completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of Lessor's actual knowledge of such damage, this Sublease shall not terminate, and Lessor shall restore the Premises to substantially its previous condition, except that Lessor shall not be required to rebuild, repair or replace any part of the partitions, fixtures, additions and other improvements required to be covered by Sublessee's insurance pursuant to Paragraph 9.B. above. Effective upon the date of the occurrence of such damage and ending upon substantial completion (as defined in Paragraph 1.B. above), if the Premises are untenantable in whole or part during such period, the rent shall be reduced to such extent as may be fair and reasonable under all of the circumstances. If such repairs and rebuilding have not been substantially completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, Sublessee, as Sublessee's exclusive remedy, may terminate this Sublease by delivering written notice of termination to Lessor in which event the rights and obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate.

D. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event the holder of any indebtedness secured by a mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises requires that the insurance proceeds be applied to such indebtedness, then Sublessor shall have the right to terminate this Sublease by delivering written notice of termination to Sublessee within fifteen (15) days after such requirement is made known by any such holder, whereupon all rights and obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate.

E. Anything in this Sublease to the contrary notwithstanding except as set forth in Paragraph 10.C. above, to the extent of a recovery of loss proceeds under the policies of insurance described in this Sublease, Sublessor and Sublessee hereby waive and release each other and any related parties and affiliates of and from any and all rights of recovery, claim, action or cause of action, against each other, their agents, officers and employees, for any loss or damage that may occur to the Premises, the Building, or personal property within the Building and/or Premises arising from or caused by fire or other casualty or hazard covered or required to be covered by hazard insurance under this Sublease. Upon execution of this Sublease, Sublessor and Sublessee shall notify their respective insurance companies of the mutual waivers contained herein and, if available, shall cause each policy described in this Sublease to be so endorsed.

11. LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION.

A. Sublessor shall hold Sublessee harmless and defend Sublessee against any and all claims, actions, damages or liability (including without limitation, all costs, attorneys fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith) in connection with any loss, injury or damage to any person or property occurring in, on or about or arising out of all or part of the Premises and/or the Building or the use or occupancy thereof, or the conduct or operation of Sublessor's business, when such injury or damage shall be caused by the act, neglect, fault of, or omission of, any duty with respect to the same by Sublessor, its agents, servants and employees (unless the indemnified loss is caused wholly or in part by Sublessee's breach of this Sublease or its negligence, in which event this indemnity shall not apply to the allocable share of such loss resulting from Sublessee's breach of this Sublease or its negligence).

B. Sublessee shall indemnify, protect, hold harmless and defend Sublessor, its agents, employees, contractors, customers, partners, directors, officers and any affiliates (as defined in the Securities Act of 1933) (collectively, the "Sublessor Affiliates") against any and all obligations, suits, losses, judgments, claims, actions, damages or liability (including without limitation, all costs, attorneys fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith) in connection with any loss, injury or damage to any person or property occurring in, on or about or arising out of all or part of the Premises and/or the Building or the use or occupancy thereof, or the conduct or operation of Sublessee's business, when such injury or damage 1. shall be caused by the act, neglect, fault of, or omission of, any duty with respect to the same by Sublessee, its agents, servants and employees, and/or 2. arises from a breach, violation or non-performance of any term, provision, covenant or agreement of Sublessee hereunder, or a breach or violation by Sublessee of any court order or any law, regulation, or ordinance of any federal, state or local authority (collectively, the "Losses"), except to the extent if the Losses are caused wholly or in part by Sublessor's breach of this Sub-Lease or the negligence of Sublessor and/or Sublessor Affiliates, or contractors. If any claim is made against Sublessor or Sublessor's Affiliates, Sublessee, at its sole cost and expense, shall defend any such claim, suit or proceeding by or through attorneys satisfactory to Sublessor.

C. The provisions of this Paragraph shall survive the expiration or termination of this Sublease with respect to any claims or liability occurring prior to such expiration or termination. The indemnification provided by this Paragraph is subject to Sublessee's and Sublessor's waiver of recovery in the preceding Paragraph 10. to the extent of either Sublessee's or Sublessor's recovery of loss proceeds under policies of insurance described in Paragraph 10.

12. USE.

A. The Premises shall be used only for the purpose of, manufacturing, recycling receiving, storing, shipping and selling (other than retail) products, materials and merchandise made and/or distributed by Sublessee and for such other lawful purposes as may be incidental thereto. Sublessee shall not use the Premises for the receipt, storage or handling of any product, material or merchandise that is explosive or highly inflammable or hazardous. Outside storage, including without limitation, storage of trucks and other vehicles, is prohibited without Sublessor's prior written consent. Sublessee shall comply with all governmental laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the use of the Premises, and promptly shall comply with all governmental orders and directives for the correction, prevention and abatement of nuisances in or upon, or connected with, the Premises, all at Sublessee's sole expense. Sublessee shall not permit any objectionable or unpleasant odors, smoke, dust, gas, noise or vibrations to emanate from the Premises, nor take any other action that would constitute a nuisance or would disturb, unreasonably interfere with, or endanger Sublessor or any other lessees of the Building.

B. Sublessee and its employees, customers and licensees shall have the non-exclusive rights to use any parking areas associated with the Premises that have been designated for such use by Sublessor, subject to (1) all reasonable rules and regulations promulgated by Sublessor and (2) rights of ingress and egress of other lessees. Sublessor shall not be responsible for enforcing Sublessee's parking rights against any third parties.

13. INSPECTION. Sublessor and Sublessor's agents and representatives shall have the right to enter the Premises at any reasonable time during business hours, to inspect the Premises and to make such repairs as may be required or permitted pursuant to this Sublease. During the period that is twelve (12) months prior to the end of the Sublease term, Sublessor and Sublessor's representatives may enter the Premises during business hours for the purpose of showing the Premises. In addition, Sublessor shall have the right to erect a suitable sign on the Premises stating the Premises are available. Sublessee shall notify Sublessor in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to vacating the Premises and shall arrange to meet with Sublessor for a joint inspection of the Premises prior to vacating. If Sublessee fails to give such notice or to arrange for such inspection, then Sublessor's inspection of the Premises shall be deemed correct for the purpose of determining Sublessee's responsibility for repairs and restoration of the Premises.

14. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING.

A. Sublessee shall not have the right to sublet all or part of the Premises or to assign, transfer or encumber this Sublease, or any interest therein, without the prior written consent of Sublessor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Any attempted assignment, subletting, transfer or encumbrance by Sublessee in violation of the terms and covenants of this Paragraph shall be void. No assignment, subletting or other transfer, whether consented to by Sublessor or not, or permitted hereunder, shall relieve Sublessee of its liability hereunder. If an event of default occurs while the Premises or any part thereof are assigned or sublet, then Sublessor, in addition to any other remedies herein provided, or provided by law, may collect directly from such assignee, sublessee or transferee all rents payable to the Sublessee and apply such rent against any sums due Sublessor hereunder. No such collection shall be construed to constitute a novation or a release of Sublessee from the further performance of Sublessee's obligations hereunder.

B. Upon the occurrence of an assignment or subletting, whether consented to by Sublessor, or mandated by judicial intervention, Sublessee hereby assigns, transfers and conveys all rents or other sums received by Sublessee under any such assignment or sublease, which are in excess of the rents and other sums payable by Sublessee under this Sublease, and agrees to pay such amounts within ten (10) days after receipt.

C. If this Sublease is assigned to any person or entity pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. (S) 101 et. seq., (the "Bankruptcy Code"), any and all monies or other consideration payable or otherwise to be delivered in connection with such assignment shall be paid or delivered to Sublessor, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Sublessor and shall not constitute property of Sublessee or of the estate of Sublessee within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Any and all monies or other considerations constituting Sublessor's property under the preceding sentence not paid or delivered to Sublessor shall be held in trust for the benefit of Sublessor and be promptly paid or delivered to Sublessor.

D. Any person or entity to which this Sublease is assigned pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed, without further act or deed, to have assumed all of the obligations arising under this Sublease on and after the date of such assignment. Any such assignee shall upon demand execute and deliver to Sublessor an instrument confirming such assumption.

15. CONDEMNATION. If more than fifty percent (50%) of the Premises are taken for any public or quasi-public use under governmental law, ordinance or regulation, or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof and the taking prevents or materially interferes with the use of the Premises for the purpose for which they were leased to Sublessee, this Sublease shall terminate and the rent shall be abated during the unexpired portion of this Sublease, effective on the date of such taking. If less than fifty percent (50%) of the Premises are taken for any public or quasi-public use under any governmental law, ordinance or regulation, or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof, this Sublease shall not terminate, but the rent payable hereunder during the unexpired portion of this Sublease shall be reduced to such extent as may be fair and reasonable under all of the circumstances. All compensation awarded in connection with or as a result of any of the foregoing proceedings shall be the property of Sublessor and Sublessee hereby assigns any interest in any such award to Sublessor; provided, however, Sublessor shall have no interest in any award made to Sublessee for loss of business or goodwill or for the taking of Sublessee's fixtures and improvements, if a separate award for such items is made to Sublessee.

16. HOLDING OVER. At the termination of this Sublease by its expiration or otherwise, Sublessee immediately shall deliver possession to Sublessor with all repairs and maintenance required herein to be performed by Sublessee completed. If, for any reason, Sublessee retains possession of the Premises after the expiration or termination of this Sublease or fails to complete any repairs required hereby, unless the parties hereto otherwise agree in writing, such possession shall be subject to termination by either Sublessor or Sublessee at any time upon not less than ten (10) days advance written notice, and all of the other terms and provisions of this Sublease shall be applicable during such period, except that Sublessee shall pay Sublessor from time to time, upon demand, as rental for the period of such possession, an amount equal to one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the rent in effect on the termination date, computed on a monthly basis for any day of each calendar month of such period. No holding over by Sublessee, whether with or without consent of Sublessor, shall operate to extend this Sublease except as otherwise expressly provided. The preceding provisions of this Paragraph 16. shall not be construed as consent for Sublessee to retain possession of the Premises in the absence of written consent thereto by Sublessor.

17. QUIET ENJOYMENT. Sublessor covenants that on or before the Commencement Date it will have good title to the Premises, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, excepting only the lien for current taxes not yet due, such mortgage or mortgages as are permitted by the terms of this Sublease, zoning ordinances and other building and fire ordinances and governmental regulations relating to the use of such property, and easements, restrictions and other conditions of record. If this Sublease is a sublease, then Sublessee agrees to take the Premises subject to the provisions of the prior lease. Sublessor represents that it has the authority to enter into this Sublease and that so long as Sublessee pays all amounts due hereunder and performs all other covenants and agreements herein set forth, Sublessee shall peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Premises for the term hereof without hindrance or molestation from Sublessor, subject to the terms and provisions of this Sublease. Sublessor shall maintain in effect the Master Lease and will timely perform the obligations of Lessee thereunder.

18. EVENTS OF DEFAULT. The following events (herein individually referred to as "event of default") each shall be deemed to be events of nonperformance by Sublessee under this Sublease:

A. Sublessee shall fail to pay any installment of the rent herein reserved when due, or any other payment or reimbursement to Sublessor required herein when due or any payment or reimbursement required under any other lease with Sublessor, and such failure shall continue for a period of five (5) days from the date such payment was due.

B. Sublessee shall fail to pay any amounts owed to contractors or subcontractors for work or services performed in connection with the operation, construction, management and maintenance of the Building as provided herein, and such failure shall continue for a period of five (5) days from the date such payment was due.

C. The Sublessee or any guarantor of the Sublessee's obligations hereunder shall (i) become insolvent; (ii) admit in writing its inability to pay its debts; (iii) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (iv) commence any case, proceeding or other action seeking to have an order for relief entered on its behalf as a debtor or to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or of any substantial part of its property; or (v) take any action to authorize or in contemplation of any of the actions set forth above in this Paragraph.

D. Any case, proceeding or other action against the Sublessee or any guarantor of the Sublessee's obligations hereunder shall be commenced seeking

(i) to have an order for relief entered against it as debtor or to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent; (ii) reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors; (iii) appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its property, and such case, proceeding or other action (a) results in the entry of an order for relief against it which it is not fully stayed within seven (7) business days after the entry thereof or (b) shall remain undismissed for a period of forty-five (45) days.

E. Sublessee shall (i) vacate all or a substantial portion of the Premises or (ii) fail to continuously operate its business at the Premises for the permitted use set forth herein, whether or not Sublessee is in default of the rental payments due under this Sublease.

F. Sublessee shall fail to discharge any lien placed upon the Premises in violation of Paragraph 21. hereof within twenty (20) days after any such lien or encumbrance is filed against the Premises.

G. Sublessee shall fail to comply with any term, provision or covenant of this Sublease (other than those listed in this Paragraph 18.), and shall not cure such failure within twenty (20) days after written notice thereof to Sublessee.

19. REMEDIES.

A. Upon each occurrence of an event of default, and after Sublessor has given Sublessee five (5) days notice, Sublessor shall have the option to pursue any one or more of the following remedies without any notice or demand:

(1) Terminate this Sublease; and/or

(2) Enter upon and take possession of the Premises without terminating this Sublease; and/or

(3) Alter all locks and other security devices at the Premises with or without terminating this Sublease, deny access to Sublessee, and pursue, at Sublessor's option, one or more remedies pursuant to this Sublease, Sublessee hereby specifically waiving any state or federal law to the contrary. This provision shall control over any conflicting provisions of the Texas Property Code or any successor statute governing the right of landlords to change the door locks of commercial tenants.

B. Upon the occurrence of any event of default Sublessee immediately shall surrender the Premises to Sublessor, and if Sublessee fails so to do, Sublessor, without waiving any other remedy it may have, may enter upon and take possession of the Premises and expel or remove Sublessee and any other person who may be occupying such Premises or any part thereof, without being liable for prosecution or any claim of damages therefor.

C. If Sublessor repossesses the Premises with or without terminating the Sublease, Sublessee, at Sublessor's option, shall be liable for and shall pay Sublessor on demand all rental and other payments owed to Sublessor hereunder, accrued to the date of such repossession, plus all amounts required to be paid by Sublessee to Sublessor until the date of expiration of the term as stated in Paragraph 1. Actions to collect amounts due by Sublessee to Sublessor under this subparagraph may be brought from time to time, on one or more occasions, without the necessity of Sublessor's waiting until expiration of the Sublease term.

D. Upon an event unamortized portion of default, in addition to any sum provided to be paid herein, Sublessee also shall be liable for and shall pay to Sublessor (1) unamortized portion of any brokerage fees incurred by Sublessor in connection with the execution of this Sublease; (2) brokers' fees incurred by Sublessor in connection with any reletting of the whole or any part of the Premises; for the unexpire term of the Sublease (3) the costs of removing and storing Sublessee's or other occupant's property; (4) the costs of repairing, altering, remodeling or otherwise putting the Premises into condition existing upon Sublessee's occupancy, normal wear & tear excepted (5) all reasonable expenses incurred by Sublessor in enforcing or defending Sublessor's rights and/or remedies. If either party hereto institute any action or proceeding to enforce any provision hereof by reason of any alleged breach of any provision of this Sublease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to receive from the losing party all reasonable attorneys' fees and all court costs in connection with such proceeding.

E. In the event Sublessee fails to make any payment due hereunder when payment is due, to help defray the additional cost to Sublessor for processing such late payments, Sublessee shall pay to Sublessor on demand a late charge in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of such installment; and the failure to pay such amount within ten (10) days after demand therefor shall be an additional event of default hereunder. The provision for such late charge shall be in addition to all of Sublessor's other rights and remedies hereunder or at law and shall not be construed as liquidated damages or as limiting Sublessor's remedies in any manner.

F. Exercise by Sublessor of any one or more remedies hereunder granted or otherwise available, including without limitation, the institution by Sublessor, its agents or attorneys of a forcible detainer or ejectment action to re-enter the Premises shall not be construed to be an election to terminate this Sublease or relieve Sublessee of its obligation to pay rent hereunder and shall not be deemed to be an acceptance of surrender of the Premises by Sublessor, whether by agreement or by operation of law, it being understood that such surrender can be effected only by the written agreement of Sublessor and Sublessee. Sublessee and Sublessor further agree that forbearance by Sublessor to enforce its rights pursuant to the Sublease at law or in equity, shall not be a waiver of Sublessor's right to enforce one or more of its rights in connection with any subsequent default.

G. In the event of or repossession of the Premises for an event of default, Sublessor shall use reasonable efforts to relet the Premises; provided, that, Sublessee shall not be entitled to credit or reimbursement of any proceeds in excess of the rental owed hereunder. Sublessor may relet the whole or any portion of the Premises for any period, to any lessee and for any use and purpose.

H. If Sublessor fails to commence to perform any of its obligations hereunder within thirty (30) days after written notice from Sublessee specifying such failure, Sublessee's exclusive remedy shall be an action for damages. Unless and until Sublessor fails to so cure said default after such notice, Sublessee shall not have any remedy or cause of action by reason thereof. All obligations of Sublessor hereunder will be binding upon Sublessor only during the term of the Master Lease and not thereafter. The term "Sublessor" shall mean only Master Lessee for the time being of the Premises, and in the event of the transfer by such owner of its interest in the Premises, such owner shall thereupon be released and discharged from all covenants and obligations of the Sublessor thereafter accruing, but such covenants and obligations shall be binding during the Sublease term upon each new owner for the duration of such owner's ownership.

I. If Sublessor repossesses the Premises pursuant to the authority herein granted; then Sublessor shall have the right to (i) keep in place or (ii) remove and store all of the furniture, fixtures and equipment at the Premises, including that which is owned by or leased to Sublessee at all times prior to any foreclosure thereon by Sublessor or repossession thereof by any Sublessor thereof or third party having a lien thereon. Sublessor also shall have the right to relinquish possession of all or any portion of such furniture, fixtures, equipment and other property to any person ("Claimant") who presents to Sublessor a copy of any instrument represented by Claimant to have been executed by Sublessee (or any predecessor of Sublessee) granting Claimant the right under various circumstances to take possession of such furniture, fixtures, equipment or other property, with the necessity on the part of Sublessor to reasonably inquire into the authenticity or legality of said instrument. Sublessor may, at its sole option and without prejudice to, or waiver of any rights it may have i) escort Sublessee to the Premises to retrieve any personal belongings of Sublessee and/or its employees not covered by the Sublessor's lien and security interest described in Paragraph 25. hereof, or ii) obtain a list from Sublessee of the personal property of Sublessee and/or its employees that is not covered by the Sublessor's lien and security interest described in Paragraph 25. hereof, and make such property available to Sublessee and or Sublessee's employees; provided, however, Sublessee first shall pay in cash all costs and estimated expenses to be incurred in connection with the removal of such property and making it available. The rights of Sublessor herein stated shall be in addition to any and all other rights that Sublessor has or may hereafter have at law or in equity, and Sublessee stipulates and agrees that the rights herein granted Sublessor are commercially reasonable.

J. Notwithstanding anything in this Sublease to the contrary, all amounts payable by Sublessee to or on behalf of Sublessor under this Sublease, whether or not expressly denominated as rent, shall constitute rent.

K. This is a contract under which applicable law excuses Sublessor from accepting performance from (or rendering performance to) any person or entity other than Sublessee.

20. MORTGAGES. Sublessee accepts this Sublease subject and subordinate to any mortgages and/or deeds of trust now or at any time hereafter constituting a lien or charge upon the Premises or the improvements situated thereon or the building of which the Premises are a part, provided, however, that if the mortgagee, trustee, or holder of any such mortgage or deed of trust elects to have Sublessee's interest in this Sublease superior to any such instrument, then by notice to Sublessee from such mortgagee, trustee or holder, this Sublease shall be deemed superior to such lien, whether this Sublease was executed before or after said mortgage or deed of trust. Sublessee agrees to attorn to any mortgagee, trustee under a deed of trust or purchaser at a foreclosure sale or trustee's sale as Sublessor under this Sublease. Sublessee, at any time hereafter, within ten (10) days after demand, shall execute any reasonable instruments, releases or other documents that may be required by any mortgagee for the purpose of subjecting and subordinating this Sublease to the lien of any such mortgage. If Sublessee fails to execute the same within such ten (10) day period, Sublessor is hereby authorized to execute the same as attorney-in-fact for Sublessee.

21. MECHANIC'S LIENS. Sublessee has no authority, express or implied, to create or place any lien or encumbrance of any kind or nature whatsoever upon, or in any manner to bind the interest of Sublessor or Sublessee in the Premises or to charge the rentals payable hereunder for any claim in favor of any person dealing with Sublessee, including those who may furnish materials or perform labor for any construction or repairs. Sublessee covenants and agrees that it will pay or cause to be paid all sums legally due and payable by it on account of any labor performed or materials furnished in connection with any work performed on the Premises and that it will save and hold Sublessor harmless from any and all loss, cost or expense based on or arising out of asserted claims or liens against the leasehold estate or against the right, title and interest of the Sublessor in the Premises or under the terms of this Sublease. Sublessee agrees to give Sublessor immediate written notice of the placing of any lien or encumbrance against the Premises.

22. MISCELLANEOUS.

A. Words of any gender used in this Sublease shall be held and construed to include any other gender, and words in the singular number shall be held to include the plural, unless the context otherwise requires. The captions inserted in this Sublease are for convenience only and in no way define, limit or otherwise describe the scope or intent of this Sublease, or any provision hereof, or in any way affect the interpretation of this Sublease.

B. In the event the Premises constitute a portion of a multiple occupancy building, Sublessee's "proportionate share", as used in this Sublease, shall mean a fraction, the numerator of which is the space contained in the Premises and the denominator of which is the entire space contained in the Building.

C. The terms, provisions and covenants and conditions contained in this Sublease shall run with the land and shall apply to, inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the parties hereto and upon their respective heirs, executors, personal representatives, legal representatives, successors and assigns, except as otherwise herein expressly provided. Sublessor shall have the right to transfer and assign, in whole or in part, its rights and obligations in the Building and property that are the subject of this Sublease. Each party agrees to furnish to the other, promptly upon demand, a corporate resolution, proof of due authorization by partners, or other appropriate documentation evidencing the due authorization of such party to enter into this Sublease.

D. Sublessor and Sublessee shall not be held responsible for delays in the performance of its obligations hereunder when caused by material shortages, acts of God or labor disputes. With the exception of any rental payment or any payment or reimbursement required herein when due.

E. Sublessee agrees, from time to time, within ten (10) days after request of Sublessor, to deliver to Sublessor, or Sublessor's designee, a Certificate of Occupancy, financial statements and an estoppel certificate stating that this Sublease is in full force and effect, the date to which rent has been paid, the unexpired term of this Sublease and such other factual matters pertaining to this Sublease as may be requested by Sublessor. It is understood and agreed that Sublessee's obligation to furnish such estoppel certificates in a timely fashion is a material inducement for Sublessor's execution of this Sublease. If Sublessee fails to execute the same within such ten (10) day period, Sublessor is hereby authorized to execute the same as attorney-in-fact for Sublessee.

F. This Sublease constitutes the entire understanding and agreement of the Sublessor and Sublessee with respect to the subject matter of this Sublease, and contains all of the covenants and agreements of Sublessor and Sublessee with respect thereto. Sublessor and Sublessee each acknowledge that no representations, inducements, promises or agreements, oral or written, have been made by Sublessor or Sublessee, or anyone acting on behalf of Sublessor or Sublessee, which are not contained herein, and any prior agreements, promises, negotiations, or representations not expressly set forth in this Sublease are of no force or effect. This Sublease may not be altered, changed or amended except by an instrument in writing signed by both parties hereto.

G. All obligations of Sublessee hereunder not fully performed as of the expiration or earlier termination of the term of this Sublease shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the term hereof, including without limitation, all payment obligations with respect to taxes and insurance and all obligations concerning the condition and repair of the Premises. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of the term hereof, and prior to Sublessee vacating the Premises, Sublessee shall pay to Sublessor any amount reasonably estimated by Sublessor as necessary to put the Premises, including without limitation, all heating and air conditioning systems and equipment therein, in good condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear excluded. Sublessee shall also, prior to vacating the Premises, pay to Sublessor the amount, as estimated by Sublessor, of Sublessee's obligation hereunder for real estate taxes and insurance premiums for the year in which the Sublease expires or terminates. All such amounts shall be used and held by Sublessor for payment of such obligations of Sublessee hereunder, with Sublessee being liable for any additional costs therefor upon demand by Sublessor, or with any excess to be returned to Sublessee after all such obligations have been determined and satisfied as the case may be. Any security deposit held by Sublessor shall be credited against the amount due for Sublessee under this Paragraph 22.G.

I. If any clause or provision of this Sublease is illegal, unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this Sublease, then and in that event, it is the intention of the parties hereto that the remainder of this Sublease shall not be affected thereby, and it is also the intention of the parties to this Sublease that in lieu of each clause or provision of this Sublease that is illegal, invalid or unenforceable, there be added, as a part of this Sublease, a clause or provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable clause or provision as may be possible and be legal, valid and enforceable.

J. All references in this Sublease to "the date hereof" or similar references shall be deemed to refer to the last date, in point of time, on which all parties hereto have executed this Sublease.

K. Sublessee represents and warrants that it has dealt with no broker, agent or other person in connection with this transaction other than Cassie Wright of Kelley, Lundeen & Crawford or that no broker, agent or other person brought about this transaction, other than as may be referenced in a separate written agreement executed by Sublessee, and delivered to Sublessor prior to execution of this Sublease, and Sublessee agrees to indemnify and hold Sublessor harmless from and against any claims by any other broker, agent or other persons claiming a commission or other form of compensation by virtue of having dealt with Sublessee with regard to this leasing transaction.

L. If and when included within the term "Sublessor", as used in this instrument, there is more than one person, firm or corporation, all shall jointly arrange among themselves for their joint execution of a notice specifying some individual at some specific address for the receipt of notices and payments to Sublessor. If and when included within the term "Sublessee", as used in this instrument, there is more than one person, firm or corporation, all shall jointly arrange among themselves for their joint execution of a notice specifying some individual at some specific address within the continental United States for the receipt of notices and payments to Sublessee. All parties included within the terms "Sublessor" and "Sublessee", respectively, shall be bound by notices given in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 23. hereof to the same effect as if each had received such notice.

M. SUBLESSEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (1) IT HAS INSPECTED AND ACCEPTS THE PREMISES IN AN "AS IS, WHERE IS" CONDITION, (2) THE BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS COMPRISING THE SAME ARE SUITABLE FOR THE PURPOSE FOR WHICH THE PREMISES ARE SubleaseD AND Sublessor HAS MADE NO WARRANTY, REPRESENTATION, COVENANT, OR AGREEMENT WITH RESPECT TO THE MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OF THE PREMISES, (3) THE PREMISES ARE IN GOOD AND SATISFACTORY CONDITION, (4) NO REPRESENTATIONS AS TO THE REPAIR OF THE PREMISES, NOR PROMISES TO ALTER, REMODEL OR IMPROVE THE PREMISES HAVE BEEN MADE BY Sublessor (UNLESS AND EXCEPT AS MAY BE SET FORTH IN EXHIBIT B ATTACHED TO THIS Sublease, IF ONE SHALL BE ATTACHED, OR AS IS OTHERWISE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS Sublease), AND (5) THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES, EXPRESSED, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, THAT EXTEND BEYOND THE DESCRIPTION OF THE PREMISES.

N. Sublessor and Sublessee agree that the terms and conditions of this Sublease are confidential and the parties hereto agree not to disclose the terms of this Sublease to any third party.

23. NOTICES. Each provision of this instrument or of any applicable governmental laws, ordinances, regulations and other requirements with reference to the sending, mailing or delivering of notice or the making of any payment by Sublessor to Sublessee or with reference to the sending, mailing or delivering of any notice or the making of any payment by Sublessee to Sublessor shall be deemed to be complied with when and if the following steps are taken:

A. All rent and other payments required to be made by Sublessee to Sublessor hereunder shall be payable to Sublessor at the address for Sublessor set forth below or at such other address as Sublessor may specify from time to time by written notice delivered in accordance herewith. Sublessee's obligation to pay rent and any other amounts to Sublessor under the terms of this Sublease shall not be deemed satisfied until such rent and other amounts have been actually received by Sublessor. In addition to base rental due hereunder, all sums of money and all payments due Sublessor hereunder shall be deemed to be additional rental owed to Sublessor.

B. All payments required to be made by Sublessor to Sublessee hereunder shall be payable to Sublessee at the address set forth below, or at such other address within the continental United States as Sublessee may specify from time to time by written notice delivered in accordance herewith.

C. LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT, made and entered into by and between CENTRAL EAST DALLAS DEVELOPMENT LIMITED PARTNERSHIP hereinafter referred to as "Lessor", and STATIONERS DISTRIBUTING COMPANY, INC. hereinafter referred to as "Lessee";

WITNESSETH:

1. PREMISES AND TERM. In consideration of the mutual obligations of Lessor and Lessee set forth herein, Lessor leases to Lessee, and Lessee hereby takes from Lessor the Premises situated within the County of Dallas, State of Texas, more particularly described on EXHIBIT "A" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, (the "Premises"), together with all rights, privileges, easements, appurtenances, and amenities belonging to or in any way pertaining to the Premises, to have and to hold, subject to the terms, covenants and conditions in this Lease. The term of this Lease shall commence on the commencement date hereinafter set forth and shall end on the last day of the month that is one hundred twenty (120) months after the commencement date.

B. BUILDING TO BE CONSTRUCTED OR SHELL SPACE. If the Premises or part thereof are to be constructed, the commencement date shall be deemed to be the date upon which the Premises and other improvements to be erected in accordance with the plans and specifications described on Exhibit "B" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference (the "Plans") have been substantially completed plus fifteen (15) days after notice of substantial completion has been received by Lessee. As used herein, the term "substantially completed" shall mean, that in the opinion of the architect or space planner that prepared the Plans, such improvements have been completed in accordance with the Plans and the Premises are in good and satisfactory condition, subject only to completion of minor punch list items. As soon as such improvements have been substantially completed, Lessor shall notify Lessee in writing that the commencement date will occur. Within ten (10) days thereafter, Lessee shall submit to Lessor in writing a punch list of items needing completion or correction. Lessor shall use its best efforts to complete such items within thirty (30) days after the receipt of such notice. Delays in construction of such improvements caused by Lessee, its employees, agents or contractors shall not cause the commencement date to be extended beyond the date set forth above. Lessee may begin move-in at the time of substantial completion. See Rider One, Para. 30.

2. BASE RENT, SECURITY DEPOSIT AND ESCROW PAYMENTS.

A. Lessee agrees to pay to Lessor rent for the Premises, in advance, without demand, deduction or set off, at the rate of SEE RIDER ONE Dollars ($_____) per month during the term hereof. One such monthly installment, plus the other monthly charges set forth in Paragraph 2C below shall be due and payable on the date hereof and a like monthly installment shall be due and payable on or before the first day of each calendar month succeeding the commencement date, except that all payments due hereunder for any fractional calendar month shall be prorated.

B. In addition, Lessee agrees to deposit with Lessor on the date hereof the sum of None Dollars ($ _____), which shall be held by Lessor, without obligation for interest, as security for the performance of Lessee's obligations under this lease, it being expressly understood and agreed that this deposit is not an advance rental deposit or a measure of Lessor's damages in case of Lessee's default. Upon each occurrence of an event of default, Lessor may use all or part of the deposit to pay past due rent or other payments due Lessor under this Lease, and the cost of any other damage, injury, expense or liability caused by such event of default without prejudice to any other remedy provided herein or provided by law. On demand, Lessee shall pay Lessor the amount that will restore the security deposit to its original amount. The security deposit shall be deemed the property of Lessor, but any remaining balance of such deposit shall be returned by Lessor to Lessee when Lessee's obligations under this Lease have been fulfilled .

C. Lessee agrees to pay its proportionate share (as defined in Paragraph 22B below) of (i) Taxes (hereinafter defined) payable by Lessor pursuant to Paragraph 3A below, (ii) the cost of utilities payable pursuant to Paragraph 8 below, (iii) the cost of maintaining insurance pursuant to Paragraph 9 below and (iv) the cost of any maintenance performed by Lessor in accordance with Paragraph 4B below. During each month of the term of this Lease, on the same day that rent is due hereunder, Lessee shall escrow with Lessor an amount equal to 1/12 of the estimated annual cost of its proportionate share of such items. Lessee authorizes Lessor to use the funds deposited with Lessor under this Paragraph 2C to pay such costs. The initial monthly escrow payments are based upon the estimated amounts for the year in question, and shall be increased or decreased annually to reflect the projected actual cost of all such items. If the Lessee's total escrow payments are less than Lessee's actual proportionate share of all such items, Lessee shall pay the difference to Lessor within thirty (30) days after demand. If the total escrow payments of Lessee are more than Lessee's actual proportionate share of all such items, Lessor shall refund such excess within thirty (30) days. The amount of the monthly rental and the initial monthly escrow payments are as follows:

3. TAXES.

A. Lessor agrees to pay all taxes, assessments and governmental charges of any kind and nature and all assessments due to deed restrictions and/or owner or community associations (collectively referred to herein as "Taxes") that accrue against the Premises, and/or the land and/or improvements of which the Premises are a part. If at any time during the term of this Lease, there shall be levied, assessed or imposed on Lessor a capital levy or other tax directly on the rents received therefrom and/or a franchise tax, assessment, levy or charge measured by or based, in whole or in part, upon such rents from the Premises and/or the land and improvements of which the Premises are a part, then all such taxes, assessments, levies or charges, or the part, thereof so measured or based, shall be deemed to be included within the term "Taxes" for the purposes hereof. The Lessor shall have the right to employ a tax consulting firm to attempt to assure a fair tax burden on the building and grounds within the applicable taxing jurisdiction. Lessee agrees to pay its proportionate share of the cost of such consultant.

B. Lessee shall be liable for all taxes levied or assessed against any personal property or fixtures placed in the Premises. If any such taxes are levied or assessed against Lessor or Lessor's property and (i) Lessor pays the same or (ii) the assessed value of Lessor's property is increased by inclusion of such personal property and fixtures and Lessor pays the increased taxes, then, upon demand Lessee shall pay to Lessor such taxes.

4. LESSOR'S REPAIRS.

A. Lessor, at its own cost and expense, shall maintain the roof, foundation and the structural soundness of the exterior walls of the building of which the Premises are a part in good repair, reasonable wear and tear excluded. The term "walls" as used herein shall not include windows, glass or plate glass, doors, special store fronts or office entries. Lessee shall immediately give Lessor written notice of defect or need for repairs, after which Lessor shall have reasonable opportunity to repair same or cure such defect.

B. Lessor reserves the right to perform the paving, common area and landscape replacement and maintenance, exterior painting, common sewage line plumbing and any other items that are otherwise Lessee's obligations under Paragraph 5A, in which event, Lessee shall be liable for its proportionate share of the cost and expense of such repair, replacement, maintenance and other such items.

5. LESSEE'S REPAIRS.

A. Lessee, at its own cost and expense, shall (i) maintain all parts of the Premises and grounds surrounding the Premises (except those for which Lessor is expressly responsible hereunder) in good condition, (ii) promptly make all necessary repairs and replacements, (iii) keep the parking areas, driveways and alleys surrounding the Premises in a clean and sanitary condition, and (iv) maintain any spur track servicing the Premises. Tenant agrees to sign a joint maintenance agreement with the railroad company servicing the Premises if requested by the railroad company. Lessor shall have the right to coordinate all repairs and maintenance of any rail tracks serving or intended to serve the Premises and, if Lessee uses such rail tracks, Lessee shall reimburse Lessor from time to time, upon demand, for its proportionate share of the costs of such repairs and maintenance and any other sums specified in any agreement respecting such tracks to which Lessor is a party.

B. Lessee and its employees, customers and licensees shall have the exclusive rights to use any parking areas that have been designated for such use by Lessor in writing, subject to rights of ingress and egress of other lessees. Lessor shall not be responsible for enforcing Lessee's parking rights against any third parties. Lessee agrees not to use more spaces than so provided.

C. Lessee, at its own cost and expense, shall enter into a regularly scheduled preventive maintenance/service contract with a maintenance contractor approved by Lessor for servicing all hot water, heating and air conditioning systems and equipment within the Premises. The service contract must include all services suggested by the equipment manufacturer in its operations/maintenance manual and must become effective within thirty (30) days of the date Lessee takes possession of the Premises.

6. ALTERATIONS. Lessee shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises without the prior written consent of Lessor. Lessee, at its own cost and expense, may erect such shelves, bins, machinery and trade fixtures as it desires provided that (a) such items do not alter the basic character of the Premises or the building and/or improvements of which the Premises are a part; (b) such items do not overload or damage the same; (c) such items may be removed without material injury to the Premises; and (d) the construction, erection or installation thereof complies with all applicable governmental laws, ordinances, regulations and with Lessor's specifications and requirements. All alterations, additions, improvements and partitions erected by Lessee shall be and remain the property of Lessee during the term of this Lease. All shelves, bins, machinery and trade fixtures installed by Lessee shall be removed on or before the earlier to occur of the date of termination of this Lease or vacating the Premises, at which time Lessee shall restore the Premises to their original condition. All alterations, installations, removals and restoration shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner so as not to damage or alter the primary structure or structural qualities of the buildings and other improvements situated on the Premises or of which the Premises are a part.

7. SIGNS. Any signage Lessee desires for the Premises shall be subject to Lessor's written approval. Lessee shall repair, paint, and/or replace the building facia surface to which its signs are attached upon vacation of the Premises, or the removal or alteration of its signage. Lessee shall not, (i) make any changes to the exterior of the Premises, (ii) install any exterior lights, decorations, balloons, flags, pennants, banners or painting, or (iii) erect or install any signs, windows or door lettering, placards, decorations or advertising media of any type which can be viewed from the exterior of the Premises, without Lessor's prior written consent. All signs, decorations, advertising media, blinds, draperies and other window treatment or bars or other security installations visible from outside the Premises shall conform in all respects to the criteria established by Lessor. See Rider One, Para 31.

8. UTILITIES. Lessor agrees to provide water and electricity service to the Premises. Lessee shall pay for all water, gas, heat, light, power, telephone, sewer, sprinkler charges and other utilities and services used on or at the Premises, together with any taxes, penalties, surcharges or the like pertaining to the Lessee's use of the Premises, and any maintenance charges for utilities. Lessor shall have the right to cause any of said services to be separately metered to Lessee, at Lessee's expense. Lessee shall pay its pro rata share, as reasonably determined by Lessor, of all charges for jointly metered utilities. Lessor shall not be liable for any interruption or failure of utility service on the Premises, unless due to Lessor's negligence.

9. INSURANCE.

A. Lessor shall maintain insurance covering the buildings situated on the Premises or of which the Premises are a part in an amount not less than eighty percent (80%) of the "replacement cost" thereof insuring against the perils of Fire, Lightning, Extended Coverage, Vandalism and Malicious Mischief. Lessee shall maintain insurance on Lessee's improvements to the Premises and all contents of the Premises.

B. Lessee, at its own expense, shall maintain during the term of this Lease a policy or policies of worker's compensation and comprehensive general liability insurance, including personal injury and property damage, with contractual liability endorsement, in the amount of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000.00) for property damage and One million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) per occurrence for personal injuries or deaths of persons occurring in or about the Premises. Said policies shall (i) name Lessor as an additional insured and insure Lessor contingent liability under this Lease (except for the worker's compensation policy, which instead shall include waiver of subrogation endorsement in favor of Lessor), (ii) be issued by an insurance company which is acceptable to Lessor, and (iii) provide that said insurance shall not be canceled unless thirty (30) days prior written notice shall have been given to Lessor. Said policy or policies or certificates thereof shall be delivered to Lessor by Lessee upon commencement of the term of the Lease and upon each renewal of said insurance.

C. Lessee will not permit the Premises to be used for any purpose or in any manner that would (i) void the insurance thereon, (ii) increase the insurance risk, or (iii) cause the disallowance of any sprinkler credits, including without limitation, use of the Premises for the receipt, storage or handling of any product, material or merchandise that is explosive or highly inflammable. If any increase in the cost of any insurance on the Premises or the building of which the Premises are a part is caused by Lessee's use of the Premises, or because Lessee vacates the Premises, then Lessee shall pay the amount of such increase to Lessor.

10. FIRE AND CASUALTY DAMAGE.

A. If the Premises or the building of which the Premises are a part should be damaged or destroyed by fire or other peril, Lessee immediately shall give written notice to Lessor. If the buildings situated upon the Premises or of which the Premises are a part should be totally destroyed by any peril covered by the insurance to be provided by Lessor under Paragraph 9A above, or if they should be so damaged thereby that, in Lessor's estimation, rebuilding or repairs cannot be completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, this Lease shall terminate and the rent shall be abated during the unexpired portion of this Lease, effective upon the date of the occurrence of such damage.

B. If the buildings situated upon the Premises or of which the Premises are a part, should be damaged by any peril covered by the insurance to be provided by Lessor under Paragraph 9A above, and in Lessor's estimation, rebuilding or repairs can be substantially completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, this Lease shall not terminate, and Lessor shall restore the Premises to substantially its previous condition, except that Lessor shall not be required to rebuild, repair or replace any part of the partitions, fixtures, additions and other improvements that may have been constructed, erected or installed in, or about the Premises or for the benefit of, or by or for Lessee.*If such repairs and rebuilding have not been substantially completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, Lessee, as Lessee's exclusive remedy, may terminate this Lease by delivering written notice of termination to Lessor in which event the rights and obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate. *See Rider One, Para 32.

C. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event the holder of any indebtedness secured by a mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises requires that the insurance proceeds be applied to such indebtedness, then Lessor shall have the right to terminate this Lease by delivering written notice of termination to Lessee within fifteen (15) days after such requirement is made known by any such holder, whereupon all rights and obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate.

D. Anything in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, Lessor and Lessee hereby waive and release each other of and from any and all rights of recovery, claim, action or cause of action, against each other, their agents officers and employees, for any loss or damage that may occur to the Premises, improvements to the building of which the Premises are a part, or personal property (building contents) within the building and/or Premises, for any reason regardless of cause or origin. Each party to this Lease agrees immediately after execution of this Lease to give each insurance company, which has issued to it policies of fire and extended coverage insurance, written notice of the terms of the mutual waivers contained in this subparagraph, and if necessary, to have the insurance policies properly endorsed.

11. LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION. Except for any claims, rights of recovery and causes of action that Lessee has released, Lessor shall hold Lessee harmless and defend Lessee against any and all claims or liability for any injury or damage to any person in, on or about the Premises or any part thereof and/or the building of which the Premises are a part, when such injury or damage shall be caused by the act, neglect, fault of, or omission of any duty with respect to the same by Lessor, its agents, servants and employees. Except for any claims, rights of recovery and causes of action that Lessor has released, Lessee shall hold Lessor harmless from and defend Lessor against any and all claims or liability for any injury or damage (i) to any person or property whatsoever occurring in, on or about the Premises or any part thereof and/or of the building of which the Premises are a part, including without limitation elevators, stairways, passageways or hallways, the use of which Lessee may have in accordance with this Lease, when such injury or damage shall be caused by the act, neglect, fault of, or omission of any duty with respect to the same by Lessee, its agents, servants, employees, or invitees (ii) arising from the conduct of management of any work done by the Lessee in or about the Premises, (iii) arising from transactions of the Lessee, and (iv) all costs, counsel fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in connection with any such claim or action or proceeding brought thereon. The provisions of this Paragraph 11 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease with respect to any claims or liability occurring prior to such expiration or termination.

12. USE. The Premises shall be used only for the purpose of receiving, storing, shipping and selling (other than retail) products, materials and merchandise made and/or distributed by Lessee and for such other lawful purposes as may be incidental thereto. Outside storage, including without limitation, storage of trucks and other vehicles, is prohibited without Lessor's prior written consent. Lessee shall comply with all governmental laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the use of the Premises, and promptly shall comply with all governmental orders and directives for the correction, prevention and abatement of nuisances in or upon, or connected with, the Premises, all at Lessee's sole expense. Lessee shall not permit any objectionable or unpleasant odors, smoke, dust, gas, noise or vibrations to emanate from the Premises, nor take any other action that would constitute a nuisance or would disturb, unreasonably interefere with, or endanger Lessor or any other lessees of the building in which the Premises are a part.

13. INSPECTION. Lessor and Lessor's agents and representatives shall have the right to enter the Premises at any reasonable time during business hours, to inspect the Premises and to make such repairs as may be required or permitted pursuant to this Lease. During the period that is six (6) months prior to the end of the Lease term, upon telephonic notice to Lessee, Lessor and Lessor's representatives may enter the Premises during business hours for the purpose of showing the Premises. In addition, Lessor shall have the right to erect a suitable sign on the Premises stating the Premises are available. Lessee shall notify Lessor in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to vacating the Premises and shall arrange to meet with Lessor for a joint inspection of the Premises prior to vacating. If Lessee fails to give such notice or to arrange for such inspection, then Lessor's inspection of the Premises shall be deemed correct for the purpose of determining Lessee's responsibility for repairs and restoration of the Premises.

14. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING.

A. Lessee shall not have the right to assign, sublet, transfer or encumber this Lease, or any interest therein, without the prior written consent of Lessor which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any attempted assignment, subletting, transfer or encumbrance by Lessee in violation of the terms and covenants of this Paragraph shall be void. Notwithstanding the foregoing,

Lessee shall have the right to assign this Lease to any affiliate (as such term is defined in the Securities Act of 1933) provided that such assignment is in form satisfactory to Lessor. Any assignee, sublessee or transferee of Lessee's interest in this Lease (all such assignees, sublessees and transferees being hereinafter referred to as "Transferees"), by assuming Lessee's obligations hereunder, shall assume liability to Lessor for all amounts paid to persons other than Lessor by such Transferees in contravention of this Paragraph. No assignment, subletting or other transfer, whether consented to by Lessor or not or permitted hereunder shall relieve Lessee of its liability hereunder. If an event of default occurs while the Premises or any part thereof are assigned or sublet, then Lessor, in addition to any other remedies herein provided, or provided by law, may collect directly from such Transferee all rents payable to the Lessee and apply such rent against any sums due Lessor hereunder. No such collection shall be construed to constitute a novation or a release of Lessee from the further performance of Lessee's obligations hereunder.

B. If this Lease is assigned to any person or entity pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. 101 et. seq., (the "Bankruptcy Code"), any and all monies or other consideration payable or otherwise to be delivered in connection with such assignment shall be paid or delivered to Lessor, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Lessor and shall not constitute property of Lessee or of the estate of Lessee within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Any and all monies or other considerations constituting Lessor's property under the preceding sentence not paid or delivered to Lessor shall be held in trust for the benefit of Lessor and be promptly paid or delivered to Lessor.

C. Any person or entity to which this Lease is assigned pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed, without further act or deed, to have assumed all of the obligations arising under this Lease on and after the date of such assignment. Any such assignee shall upon demand execute and deliver to Lessor an instrument confirming such assumption.

15. CONDEMNATION. If more than twenty-five (25%) of the Premises are taken for any public or quasi-public use under governmental law, ordinance or regulation, or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof and the taking prevents or materially interferes with the use of the Premises for the purpose for which they were leased to Lessee, this Lease shall terminate and the rent shall be abated during the unexpired portion of this Lease, effective on the date of such taking. If less than twenty five (25%) of the Premises are taken for any public or quasi-public use under any governmental law, ordinance or regulation, or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof, this Lease shall not terminate, but the rent payable hereunder during the unexpired portion of this Lease shall be reduced to such extent as may be fair and reasonable under all of the circumstances. All compensation awarded in connection with or as a result of any of the foregoing proceedings shall be the property of Lessor and Lessee hereby assigns any interest in any such award to Lessor; provided, however, Lessor shall have no interest in any award made to Lessee for loss of business or goodwill or for the taking of Lessee's fixtures and improvements, if a separate award for such items is made to Lessee.

16. HOLDING OVER. At the termination of this Lesse by its expiration or otherwise, Lessee immediately shall deliver possession to Lessor with all repairs and maintenance required herein to be performed by Lessee completed. If, for any reason, Lessee retains possession of the Premises after the expiration or termination of this Lease, unless the parties hereto otherwise agree in writing, such possession shall be subject to termination by either Lessor or Lessee at any time upon not less than ten (10) days advance written notice, and all of the other terms and provisions of this Lease shall be applicable during such period, except that Lessee shall pay Lessor from time to time, upon demand, as rental for the period of such possession, an amount equal to double the rent in effect on the termination date, computed on a daily basis for each day of such period. No holding over by Lessee, whether with or without consent of Lessor shall operate to extend this Lease except as otherwise expressly provided. The preceding provisions of this Paragraph 16 shall not be construed as consent for Lessee to retain possession of the Premises in the absence of written consent thereto by Lessor.

17. QUIET ENJOYMENT. Lessor covenants that on or before the commencement date it will have good title to the Premises, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, excepting only the lien for current taxes not yet due, such mortgage or mortgages as are permitted by the terms of this Lease, zoning ordinances and other building and fire ordinances and governmental regulations relating to the use of such property, and easements, restrictions and other conditions of record. If this Lease is a sublease, then Lessee agrees to take the Premises subject to the provisions of the prior Leases. Lessor represents that it has the authority to enter into this Lease and that so long as Lessee pays all amounts due hereunder and performs all other covenants and agreements herein set forth, Lessee shall peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Premises for the term hereof without hindrance or molestation from Lessor, subject to the terms and provisions of this Lease.

18. EVENTS OF DEFAULT. The following events (herein individually referred to as "event of default") each shall be deemed to be events of nonperformance by Lessee under this Lease:

A. Lessee shall fail to pay any installment of the rent herein reserved when due, or any other payment or reimbursement to Lessor required herein when due, and such failure shall continue for a period of five (5) days from the date such payment was due.

B. The Lessee or any guarantor of the Lessee's obligations hereunder shall (i) become insolvent; (ii) admit in writing its inability to pay its debts; (iii) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (iv) commence any case, proceeding or other action seeking to have an order for relief entered on its behalf as a debtor or to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or of any substantial part of its property; or (v) take any action to authorize or in contemplation of any of the actions set forth above in this Paragraph.

C. Any case, proceeding or other action against the Lessee or any guarantor of the Lessee's obligations hereunder shall be commenced seeking (i) to have an order for relief entered against it as debtor or to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent; (ii) reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors; (iii) appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its property, and such case, proceeding or other action (a) results in the entry of an order for relief against it which it is not fully stayed within seven (7) business days after the entry thereof or (b) shall remain undismissed for a period of forty-five (45) days.

D. Lessee shall (i) vacate all or a substantial portion of the Premises or (ii) fail to continuously operate its business at the Premises for the permitted use set forth herein, whether or not Lessee is in default of the rental payments due under this Lease.

E. Lessee shall fail to discharge any lien placed upon the Premises in violation of Paragraph 21 hereof within twenty (20) days after any such lien or encumbrance is filed against the Premises.

F. Lessee shall fail to comply with any term, provision or covenant of this Lease (other than those listed in this Paragraph 18), and shall not cure such failure within twenty (20) days after written notice thereof to Lessee.

19. REMEDIES.

A. Upon each occurrence of an event of default, Lessor shall have the option to pursue any one or more of the following remedies without any notice or demand:

(1) Terminate this Lease; and/or

(2) Enter upon and take possession of the Premises without terminating this Lease; and/or

(3) Alter all locks and other security devices at the Premises with or without terminating this Lease;

and in any such event Lessee immediately shall surrender the Premises to Lessor, and if Lessee fails so to do, Lessor, without waiving any other remedy it may have, may enter upon and take possession of the Premises and expel or remove Lessee and any other person who may be occupying such Premises or any part thereof, without being liable for prosecution or any claim of damages therefor.

B. If Lessor terminates this Lease, at Lessor's option, Lessee shall be liable for and shall pay to Lessor, the sum of all rental and other payments owed to Lessor hereunder accrued to the date of such termination, plus, as liquidated damages, an amount equal to (1) the present value of the total rental and other payments owed hereunder for the remaining portion of the Lease term, calculated as if such term expired on the date set forth in Paragraph 1, less (2) the then present fair market rental value of the Premises for such period, which because of the difficulty of ascertaining such value, Lessor and Lessee stipulate and agree, shall in no event be deemed to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the rental amount set forth in Paragraph 2 above.

C. If Lessor repossesses the Premises without terminating the Lease, Lessee, at Lessor's option, shall be liable for and shall pay Lessor on demand all rental and other payments owed to Lessor hereunder, accrued to the date of such repossession, plus all amounts required to be paid by Lessee to Lessor until the date of expiration of the term as stated in Paragraph 1, diminished by all amounts received by Lessor through reletting the Premises during such remaining term (but only to the extent of the rent herein reserved). Actions to collect amounts due by Lessee to Lessor under this subparagraph may be brought from time to time, on one or more occasions, without the necessity of Lessor's waiting until expiration of the Lease term.

D. Upon an event of default, in addition to any sum provided to be paid herein, Lessee also shall be liable for and shall pay to Lessor (i) brokers' fees incurred by Lessor in connection with reletting the whole or any part of the Premises; (ii) the costs of removing and storing Lessee's or other occupant's property; (iii) the costs of repairing, altering, remodeling or otherwise putting the Premises into condition acceptable to a new Lessee or Lessees; and (iv) all reasonable expenses incurred by Lessor in enforcing or defending Lessor's rights and/or remedies. If either party hereto institute any action or proceeding to enforce any provision hereof by reason of any alleged breach of any provision of this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to receive from the losing party all reasonable attorneys' fees and all court costs in connection with such proceeding.

E. In the event Lessee fails to make any payment due hereunder when payment is due, to help defray the additional cost to Lessor for processing such late payments, Lessee shall pay to Lessor on demand a late charge in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of such installment; and the failure to pay such amount within ten (10) days after demand therefor shall be an additional event of default hereunder. The provision for such late charge shall be in addition to all of Lessor's other rights and remedies hereunder or at law and shall not be construed as liquidated damages or as limiting Lessor's remedies in any manner.

F. Exercise by Lessor of any one or more remedies hereunder granted or otherwise available shall not be deemed to be an acceptance of surrender of the Premises by Lessor, whether by agreement or by operation of law, it being understood that such surrender can be effected only by the written agreement of Lessor and Lessee. Lessee and Lessor further agree that forbearance by Lessor to enforce its rights pursuant to the Lease at law or in equity, shall not be a waiver of Lessor's right to enforce one or more of its rights in connection with any subsequent default.

G. In the event of termination and/or repossession of the Premises for an event of default, Lessor shall use reasonable efforts to relet the Premises and to collect rental after reletting; provided, that, Lessee shall not be entitled to credit or reimbursement of any proceeds in excess of the rental owed hereunder. Lessor may relet the whole or any portion of the Premises for any period, to any Lessee and for any use and purpose.

H. If Lessor fails to perform any of its obligations hereunder within thirty (30) days after written notice from Lessee specifying such failure, Lessee's exclusive remedy shall be an action for damages and/or possess. Unless and until Lessor fails to so cure any default after such notice, Lessee shall not have any remedy or cause of action by reason thereof. All obligations of Lessor hereunder will be construed as covenants, not conditions; and all such obligations will be binding upon Lessor only during the period of its possession of the Premises and not thereafter. The term "Lessor" shall mean only the owner, for the time being of the Premises, and in the event of the transfer by such owner of its interest in the Premises, such owner shall thereupon be released and discharged from all covenants and obligations of the Lessor thereafter accruing, but such covenants and obligations shall be binding during the Lease term upon each new owner for the duration of such owner's ownership. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, Lessor shall not have any personal liability hereunder. In the event of any breach or default by Lessor in any term or provision of this Lease, Lessee agrees to look solely to the equity or interest then owned by Lessor in the Premises or of the building of which the Premises are a part; however, in no event, shall any deficiency judgment or any money judgment of any kind be sought or obtained against any party Lessor.

I. If Lessor repossesses the Premises pursuant to the authority herein granted, then Lessor shall have the right to (i) keep in place and use or (ii) remove and store all of the furniture, fixtures and equipment at the Premises, including that which is owned by or leased to Lessee at all times prior to any foreclosure thereon by Lessor or repossession thereof by any Lessor thereof or third party having a lien thereon. Lessor also shall have the right to relinquish possession of all or any portion of such furniture, fixtures, equipment and other property to any person ("Claimant") who presents to Lessor a copy of any instrument represented by Claimant to have been executed by Lessee (or any predecessor of Lessee) granting Claimant the right under various circumstances to take possession of such furniture, fixtures, equipment or other property, without the necessity on the part of Lessor to inquire into the authenticity or legality of said instrument. The rights of Lessor herein stated shall be in addition to any and all other rights that Lessor has or may hereafter have at law or in equity; and Lessee stipulates and agrees that the rights herein granted Lessor are commercially reasonable.

J. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, all amounts payable by Lessee to or on behalf of Lessor under this Lease, whether or not expressly denominated as rent, shall constitute rent for the purposes of Section 502 (b) (7) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. (s) 502 (b) (7).

K. This is a contract under which applicable law excuses Lessor from accepting performance from (or rendering performance to) any person or entity other than Lessee within the meaning of Sections 365 (c) and 365 (e) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. (s) 365 (c) and 365 (e) (2).

20. MORTGAGES. Lessee accepts this Lease subject and subordinate to any mortgages and/or deeds of trust now or at any time hereafter constituting a lien or charge upon the Premises or the improvements situated thereon or the building of which the Premises are a part, provided, however, that if the mortgagee, trustee, or holder of any such mortgage or deed of trust elects to have Lessee's interest in this Lease superior to any such instrument, then by notice to Lessee from such mortgagee, trustee or holder, this Lease shall be deemed superior to such lien, whether this Lease was executed before or after said mortgage or deed of trust. Lessee, at any time hereafter on demand, shall execute any instruments, releases or other documents that may be required by any mortgagee for the purpose of subjecting and subordinating this Lease to the lien of any such mortgage.

21. MECHANIC'S LIENS. Lessee has no authority, express or implied, to create or place any lien or encumbrance of any kind or nature whatsoever upon, or in any manner to bind the interest of Lessor or Lessee in the Premises or to charge the rentals payable hereunder for any claim in favor of any person dealing with Lessee, including those who may furnish materials or perform labor for any construction or repairs. Lessee covenants and agrees that it will pay or cause to be paid all sums legally due and payable by it on account of any labor performed or materials furnished in connection with any work performed on the Premises and that it will save and hold Lessor harmless from any and all loss, cost or expense based on or arising out of asserted claims or liens against the leasehold estate or against the right, title and interest of the Lessor in the Premises or under the terms of this Lease. Lessee agrees to give Lessor immediate written notice of the placing of any lien or encumbrance against the Premises.

A. Words of any gender used in this Lease shall be held and construed to include any other gender, and words in the singular number shall be held to include the plural, unless the context otherwise requires. The captions inserted in this Lease are for convenience only and in no way define, limit or otherwise describe the scope or intent of this Lease, or any provision hereof, or in any way affect the interpretation of this Lease.

B. In the event the Premises constitute a portion of a multiple occupancy building, Lessee's "proportionate share", as used in this Lease, shall mean a fraction, the numerator of which is the space contained in the Premises and the denominator of which is the entire space contained in the building.

C. The terms, provisions and covenants and conditions contained in this Lease shall run with the land and shall apply to, inure to the benefit of and be binding upon, the parties hereto and upon their respective heirs, executors, personal representatives, legal representatives, successors and assigns, except as otherwise herein expressly provided. Lessor shall have the right to transfer and assign, in whole or in part, its rights and obligations in the building and property that are the subject of this Lease. Each party agrees to furnish to the other, promptly upon demand, a corporate resolution, proof of due authorization by partners, or other appropriate documentation evidencing the due authorization of such party to enter into this Lease.

D. Lessor shall not be held responsible for delays in the performance of its obligations hereunder when caused by material shortages, acts of God or labor disputes.

E. Lessee agrees, from time to time, within ten (10) days after request of Lessor, to deliver to Lessor, or Lessor's designee, a Certificate of Occupancy and an estoppel certificate stating that this Lease is in full force and effect, the date to which rent has been paid, the unexpired term of this Lease and such other factual matters pertaining to this Lease as may be requested by Lessor. It is understood and agreed that Lessee's obligation to furnish such estoppel certificates in a timely fashion is a material inducement for Lessor's execution of this Lease.

F. This Lease constitutes the entire understanding and agreement of the Lessor and Lessee with respect to the subject matter of this Lease, and contains all of the covenants and agreements of Lessor and Lessee with respect thereto. Lessor and Lessee each acknowledge that no representations, inducements, promises or agreements, oral or written, have been made by Lessor or Lessee, or anyone acting on behalf of Lessor or Lessee, which are not contained herein, and any prior agreements, promises, negotiations, or representations not expressly set forth in this Lease are of no force or effect. This Lease may not be altered, changed or amended except by an instrument in writing signed by both parties hereto.

G. All obligations of Lessee hereunder not fully performed as of the expiration or earlier termination of the term of this Lease shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the term hereof, including without limitation, all payment obligations with respect to taxes and insurance and all obligations concerning the condition and repair of the Premises. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of the term hereof, and prior to Lessee vacating the Premises, Lessee shall pay to Lessor any amount reasonably estimated by Lessor as necessary to put the Premises, including without limitation, all heating and air conditioning systems and equipment therein, in good condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear excluded. Lessee shall also, prior to vacating the Premises, pay to Lessor the amount, as estimated by Lessor, of Lessee's obligation hereunder for real estate taxes and insurance premiums for the year in which the Lease expires or terminates. All such amounts shall be used and held by Lessor for payment of such obligations of Lessee hereunder, with Lessee being liable for any additional costs therefor upon demand by Lessor, or with any excess to be returned to Lessee after all such obligations have been determined and satisfied as the case may be. Any security deposit held by Lessor shall be credited against the amount due from Lessee under this Paragraph 22G.

H. If any clause or provision of this Lease is illegal, invalid or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this Lease, then and in that event, it is the intention of the parties hereto that the remainder of this Lease shall not be affected thereby, and it is also the intention of the parties to this Lease that in lieu of each clause or provision of this Lease that is illegal, invalid or unenforceable, there be added, as a part of this Lease, a clause or provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable clause or provision as may be possible and be legal, valid and enforceable.

I. All references in this Lease to "the date hereof" or similar references shall be deemed to refer to the last date, in point of time, on which all parties hereto have executed this Lease.

J. Lessee represents and warrants that it has dealt with no broker, agent or other person in connection with this transaction or that no broker, agent or other person brought about this transaction, other than as may be referenced in a separate written agreement executed by Lessee, and Lessee agrees to indemnify and hold Lessor harmless from and against any claims by any other broker, agent or other person claiming a commission or other form of compensation by virtue of having dealt with Lessee with regard to this leasing transaction.

K. If and when included within the term "Lessor", as used in this instrument, there is more than one person, firm or corporation, all shall jointly arrange among themselves for their joint execution of a notice specifying some individual at some specific address for the receipt of notices and payments to Lessor. If and when included within the term "Lessee", as used in this instrument, there is more than one person, firm or corporation, all shall jointly arrange among themselves for their joint execution of a notice specifying some individual at some specific address within the continental United States for the receipt of notices and payments to Lessee. All parties included within the terms "Lessor" and "Lessee", respectively shall be bound by notices given in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 24 hereof to the same effect as if each had received such notice.

23. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS. See Exhibit attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

24. NOTICES. Each provision of this instrument or of any applicable governmental laws, ordinances, regulations and other requirements with reference to the sending, mailing or delivering of any notice or the making of any payment by Jessor to Lessee or with reference to the sending, mailing or delivering of any notice or the making of any payment by Lessee to Lessor shall be deemed to be complied with when and if the following steps are taken:

(a) All rent and other payments required to be made by Lessee to Lessor hereunder shall be payable to Lessor at the address for Lessor set forth below or at such other address as Lessor may specify from time to time by written notice delivered in accordance herewith. Lessee's obligation to pay rent and any other amounts to Lessor under the terms of this Lease shall not be deemed satisfied until such rent and other amounts have been actually received by Lessor. In addition to base rental due hereunder, all sums of money and all payments due Lessor hereunder shall be deemed to be additional rental owed to Lessor.

(b) All payments required to be made by Lessor to Lessee hereunder shall be payable to Lessee at the address set forth below, or at such other address within the continental United States as Lessee may specify from time to time by written notice delivered in accordance herewith.

(c) Any written notice or document required or permitted to be delivered hereunder shall be deemed to be delivered whether actually received or not when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, Certified or Registered Mail, addressed to the parties hereto at the respective addresses set out below, or at such other address as they have theretofore specified by written notice delivered in accordance herewith.

25. LESSOR'S LIEN. In addition to any statutory lien for rent in Lessor's favor, Lessor shall have and Lessee hereby grants to Lessor a continuing security interest for all rentals and other sums of money become due hereunder from Lessee, upon all goods, wares, equipment, fixtures, furniture, inventory, and other personal property of Lessee situated on the Premises subject to this Lease, and such property shall not be removed therefrom without the consent of Lessor until all arrearages in rent as well as any and all other sums of money then due to Lessor hereunder shall first have been paid and discharged. Upon a default hereunder by Lessee in addition to all other rights and remedies, Lessor shall have all rights and remedies under the Uniform Commercial Code, including without limitation, the right to sell the property described in this Paragraph at public or private sale upon five (5) days notice by Lessor. Lessee hereby agrees to execute such other instruments, necessary or desirable under applicable law to perfect the security interest hereby created.

27. This lease is subject to satisfactory purchase and financing of the land for the building and satisfactory financing of the building improvements by January 31, 1989. If Lessor is unable to satisfactorily purchase and finance the land and finance the improvements by January 31, 1989, this lease will be terminated and of no further force and effect and neither the Lessor or Lessee will have any liability to the other party.

28. Provided that Lessee is not in default of the terms of this Lease Agreement, it is hereby agreed and understood that in the event Lessee requires additional warehouse space in Dallas County and Lessor and Lessee executed a new Lease Agreement for a minimum of 200,000 square feet, this Lease shall be cancelled as of the commencement date of the new Lease covering the larger space. It is understood that upon the commencement date of the new Lease, Lessee shall deliver the herein demised premises to the Lessor in the condition required by this Lease Agreement. SECTION 12

Landlord shall have the right to enter the Premises under ordinary circumstances during normal business hours upon twenty-four (24) hours prior written notice to Tenant, to examine the same and to make such repairs, alterations, improvements, or additions as Landlord may deem necessary or desirable to comply with this Lease, Landlord shall be allowed to take all materials into and upon the Premises that may be required therefor without the same constituting an eviction of Tenant, actual or constructive, and the rent shall in no way abate while such repairs, alterations, improvements or additions are being made, by reason of loss or interruption of business of Tenant unless such repairs, alterations, improvements or additions restrict or interfere with Tenant's use of a portion of the Building. In that event, the rent should abate as to that portion of the Building wherein the use thereof is restricted. Landlord shall make reasonable efforts not to interfere with the normal business operations of Tenant. In any event of an emergency, no prior written notice on the part of the Landlord will be required to enter the Building and Premises. During the three (3) months prior to the expiration of the term of this Lease, Landlord may exhibit with twenty-four (24) hour notice the Premises to prospective lessees or purchasers during normal business hours and place upon the Premises the usual notices "For Sale or For Rent", and Tenant shall permit the same to remain.

HOLDING OVER

Should Tenant remain in possession of the Premises, or any part thereof, after termination of this Lease (whether by the expiration of the term of this Lease or otherwise) without the execution of a new lease by Landlord and Tenant, Tenant, at the option of Landlord, shall become a tenant from month-to-month of the Premises, or part thereof occupied, at one and one-half the Total Monthly Rent for the first month and at two times the Total Monthly Rental thereafter, and under all other terms, conditions, provisions and obligations of this Lease insofar as the same are applicable to a tenancy from month-to-month.

14.1 Events of Default by Tenant. The occurrence of one or more of the following events shall constitute a default pursuant to the terms of this Lease: (i) the failure of Tenant to pay the Monthly Rental when due and such failure continues for a period of fifteen (15) days after written notice by Landlord; (ii) the failure of Tenant to comply with or to observe any terms, provisions, or conditions of this Lease performable by and obligatory upon Tenant, within thirty (30) days after written notice by Landlord; (iii) the assignment of this Lease or subleasing of the Premises by Tenant without the prior written approval of Landlord; (iv) the taking of Tenant's leasehold estate by execution or other process of law; (v) the judicial declaration of Tenant as a bankrupt or insolvent according to law or an assignment of a substantial part of Tenant's property for the benefit of creditors; (vi) the appointment of a receiver, guardian, conservator, trustee in involuntary bankruptcy or similar officer by a court of competent jurisdiction to take charge of a substantial part of Tenant's property; (vii) the filing of a petition for involuntary or voluntary reorganization or arrangement or bankruptcy of Tenant pursuant to any provision of the Bankruptcy Code without subsequent dismissal thereof within sixty (60) days.

14.2 LANDLORD'S REMEDIES. Upon the occurrence of any event of default enumerated in Section 14.1 hereof, Landlord shall have the option of (i) terminating this Lease by written notice thereof to Tenant, or (ii) continuing this Lease in full force and effect, or (iii) curing the default of Tenant, or (iv) pursuing any other remedy to which it may be entitled by law.

(i) In the event Landlord shall elect to terminate this Lease, upon written notice to Tenant, this Lease shall be ended as to Tenant and all persons holding under Tenant, and all of Tenant's rights shall be forfeited and lapsed, as fully as if this Lease had expired by lapse of time. In such event, Tenant shall be required immediately to vacate the Premises and there shall immediately become due and payable the amount by which (a) the present value (determined using a discount rate of ten per cent (10%) per annum) of the total rent and other benefits which would have accrued to Landlord under this Lease for the remainder of the Lease term if the terms and provisions of this Lease had been fully complied with by Tenant exceeds (b) the total fair market rental value (determined using a discount rate of ten (10%) percent per annum) of the Premises for the balance of the Lease term (it being the intention of both parties hereto that Landlord shall receive the benefit of its bargain); and the Landlord shall at once have all the rights of re-entry upon the Premises, without becoming liable for damages, or guilty of trespass. In addition to the sum immediately due from Tenant under the foregoing provision, there shall be recoverable from Tenant: (a) the cost of restoring the Premises to good condition, normal wear and tear excepted, (b) all accrued, unpaid sums, plus interest at the maximum rate then permitted by law and late charges, if in arrears, under the terms of this Lease up to the date of termination, (c) Landlord's cost of recovering possession of the Premises, and (d) rent and sums accruing subsequent to the date of termination pursuant to the holdover provisions of Section 13.

(ii) In the event that Landlord shall elect to continue this Lease in full force and effect, Tenant shall continue to be liable for all rents. Landlord shall nevertheless have all the rights of re-entry upon the Premises without becoming liable for damages, or guilty of a trespass and Landlord may relet the Premises, or any part thereof, to a substitute tenant or tenant, for a period of time equal to or lesser or greater than the remainder of the Lease term on whatever terms and conditions Landlord, at Landlord's sole discretion, deems advisable. Against the rents and sums due from Tenant to Landlord during the remainder of the term, credit shall be given Tenant in the net amount of rent received from the new tenant after deduction by Landlord for: (a) the costs incurred by Landlord in reletting the Premises (including, without limitation, remodeling costs, brokerage fees, legal fees, and the like), (b) the accrued sums, plus interest and late charges if in arrears, under the terms of this Lease, (c) Landlord's cost of recovering possession of the Premises, and (d) the cost of storing any of Tenant's property left on the Premises after re-entry. Notwithstanding any provision in this Section 14.2 (ii) to the contrary, upon the default of any substitute tenant or upon the expiration of the Lease term of such substitute tenant before the expiration of the Lease term hereof, Landlord may, at Landlord's election, either relet to still another substitute tenant, or terminate this Lease and exercise its rights under Section 14.2(i) hereof.

14.3 ATTORNEYS' FEES. In the event either party hereto defaults in the performance of any of the terms, covenants, agreements or conditions contained in this Lease and the other party hereto places the enforcement of this Lease, or any part thereof, or the collection of any rent or charge due, or to become due, or the recovery or the possession of the Premises, in the hands of attorneys, or files suit upon the same, the party in default agrees to pay the reasonable attorneys' fees of the nondefaulting party.

14.4 WAIVER. Failure on the part of Landlord or Tenant to complain of any action or non-action on the part of Landlord or Tenant, no matter how long the same may continue, shall never be deemed to be a waiver by either party of any of his rights hereunder. Further, it is covenanted and agreed that no waiver at any time of any of the provisions hereof by either party shall be construed as a waiver of any of the other provisions hereof and that a waiver at any time of any of the provisions hereof shall not be construed as a waiver at any subsequent time of the same provisions.

14.5 LANDLORD'S DEFAULT. The failure of Landlord to comply with or observe any terms, provisions, or conditions of this Lease performable by and obligatory upon Landlord shall constitute a default.

14.6 TENANT'S REMEDIES. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, Tenant shall have the option of (i) curing the default of Landlord and offsetting any and all costs of curing same and any losses or damages related thereto against the Total Monthly Rental or (ii) pursuing any other remedy to which it may be entitled by law. Notwithstanding any provision in this Lease to the contrary, in the event Landlord shall breach or fail to perform any obligation or duty to repair or maintain the building or any mechanical equipment therein, the Tenant shall give the Landlord written notice of any such failure or breach, and in the event Landlord shall fail to begin to cure such failure or breach within two (2) days of written notice thereof, then Tenant may undertake the performance of such obligation, in which event Tenant may thereafter recover such actual costs incurred in performing such obligations as a setoff against its rental obligations. In the event Tenant undertakes the performance of Landlord's duties or obligations as aforesaid, the right of setoff provided for in this paragraph must be asserted, if at all, within 45 days following Tenant's performance, and in no event shall Tenant have the right of offset more than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) against its rental and payment obligations hereunder and any amounts asserted by Tenant in excess of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) must be pursued against Landlord by Tenant's other legal remedies. Landlord shall have thirty (30) days to cure any other type of default.

Section 15

SUBORDINATION

15.1 SUBORDINATION. This Lease shall be subject and subordinate to any mortgages or deeds of trust that may have been placed or may be hereafter placed upon the Premises by Landlord and to any advances to be made thereunder, and to any interest thereon, and all renewals, replacements and extensions thereof. Provided however, that any mortgagee or trustee may elect by written notification to give the rights and interests of Tenant under this Lease priority over the lien of its mortgage or deed of trust. Landlord will use reasonable efforts to obtain any Lender's approval of this Lease. Tenant shall, in the event any proceedings are brought for foreclosure of the Premises, or the power of sale under any mortgage made by Landlord covering the Premises is exercised, attorn to the purchaser by Landlord covering the Premises is exercised, attorn to the purchaser (at the option of said purchaser, and not otherwise) upon any such foreclosure or sale and recognize such purchaser as the Landlord under this Lease.

15.2 NECESSARY INSTRUMENTS. Although Section 15.1 hereof is self-executing, Tenant shall execute and deliver instruments that may be reasonably required by Landlord's mortgagees for the purpose of evidencing the subordination of this Lease within ten (10) days of written notice by Landlord or such mortgagee or its trustee, the language thereof to be agreed upon by the parties hereto.

ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES

Tenant agrees within ten (10) days following request by Landlord to execute and deliver to Landlord reasonably required documents (including an estoppel certificate) (a) certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or, if modified, stating the nature of such modification and certifying that this Lease, as so modified, is in full force and effect and the date to which the rent and other charges are paid in advance, if any, and (b) acknowledging that there are not, to Tenant's knowledge, any uncured defaults on the part of Landlord hereunder, or so specifying such defaults, if any, (as are claimed), evidencing the status of the Lease. Tenant's failure to deliver an estoppel certificate within such time shall be conclusive upon Tenant (i) that this Lease is in full force and effect, without modification except as may be represented by Landlord, (ii) that to the Tenant's knowledge there are no uncured defaults in Landlord's performance; and (iii) that no rent has been paid in advance except as set forth in this Lease.

Section 17

DESTRUCTION

17.1 LANDLORD'S OBLIGATIONS. (i) In the event the Premises shall be damaged by fire or other casualty, but shall not be rendered untenantable in whole or in part, regardless of the time remaining in the term of this Lease. Landlord shall, at its own expense, cause such damage to be repaired, and the rent shall not be abated. (ii) If the Premises shall be rendered partially untenantable, unless the damage occurs within the last one (1) year of the term of this Lease, Landlord shall, at its own expense, cause the damage to be repaired, and the Total Monthly Rental shall be abated proportionately as to the portion of the Premises rendered untenantable. If, however, the damage occurs within the last one (1) year of the term of this Lease, and Landlord elects not to repair same, either party may terminate this Lease by giving the other party written notice of termination within thirty (30) days from the date of such occurrence, and in the event of such termination, rent shall be adjusted as of the date of such occurrence. (iii) If the Premises shall be rendered wholly untenantable by reason of such occurrence, regardless of the time remaining in the term of this Lease, Landlord may at its own cost and expense cause such damage to be repaired, and the Total Monthly Rental shall abate until the Premises have been restored and rendered tenantable, or Landlord may at its election terminate this Lease by giving Tenant written notice of termination within thirty (30) days from the date of said occurrence, and in the event of such termination, rent shall be adjusted as of the date of such occurrence. (iv) If the Building shall be damaged to such an extent that Landlord shall determine that the repairs shall not be made or that demolition of the building is appropriate, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above, and whether or not the Premises have been damaged, Landlord or Tenant may terminate this Lease by giving the other party written notice of termination, in which event rent shall be adjusted as of the date of termination. (v) If Landlord has not initiated repair or restoration within thirty (30) days of the event of the casualty, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord at any time within thirty (30) days after said thirty (30) days.

17.2 SCOPE OF LANDLORD'S OBLIGATIONS. In the event Landlord elects or shall be obligated to repair or to restore any damage or destruction aforesaid, the scope of the work shall be limited to the original basic Building and Standard Leasehold Improvements, and time of completion shall be subject to the provisions of Section 20, ("Force Majeure"). If Landlord notifies Tenant within thirty (30) days after the casualty that the insurance proceeds are inadequate to restore the Building and the standard leasehold improvements as aforesaid, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days after Landlord's notice to Tenant.

EMINENT DOMAIN

18.1 TOTAL TAKING. In the event of a taking of the Premises or damage related to the exercise of the power of eminent domain by any agency, authority, public utility, person, or corporation or entity empowered to condemn property ("Taking") of the entire Premises or so much thereof as to prevent or substantially impair their use by Tenant during the Lease term (i) the rights of Tenant under the Lease and the leasehold estate of Tenant in and to the Premises shall cease and terminate as of the date upon which title to the Premises, or a portion thereof, passes to and vests in the condemnor or the effective date of any order for possession if issued prior to the date title vests in the condemnor ("Date of Taking"), (ii) Landlord shall refund to Tenant any prepaid rent, (iii) Tenant shall pay to Landlord any rent or charges due Landlord under the Lease, each prorated as of the Date of Taking (iv) Tenant shall receive from the Award those portions of the Award attributable to relocation of Tenant, improvements to the Premises made and paid for by Tenant and trade fixtures, equipment, and furniture of Tenant, and (v) the remainder of the Award shall be paid to and be the property of Landlord.

18.2 PARTIAL TAKING. In the event of a Taking of only a part of the Premises which does not constitute a "Total Taking" during the Lease term (i) the rights of Tenant under the Lease and the leasehold estate of Tenant in and to the portion of the Premises taken shall cease and terminate as of the Date of Taking, (ii) from and after the Date of Taking the Total Monthly Rent shall be the product obtained by multiplying (a) the Total Monthly Rent by (b) the quotient obtained by dividing the total square feet of the Premises after the Taking by the total square feet of the Premises prior to the Taking, (iii) Tenant shall receive from the Award those portions of the Award attributable to improvements to the Premises made and paid for by Tenant and trade fixtures, equipment, and furniture of Tenant, and (iv) the remainder of the Award shall be paid to and be the property of Landlord. Landlord, from his portion of the Award, shall restore the remainder of the Premises, as nearly as possible, to one architectural unit, and (v) if Landlord has not initiated repair or restoration within ninety (90) days of the Partial Taking, Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days after said ninety (90) days.

FORCE MAJEURE

In the event Landlord shall be delayed, hindered or prevented from the performance of any act required hereunder by reason of acts of God, strikes, lockouts, labor disputes, labor troubles, inability to procure materials, failure of power, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, riots, insurrection, war or other cause not within the reasonable control of Landlord, then the performance of such act shall be excused for the period of the delay and the period for the performance of any such act shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay.

PARKING

Tenant shall have the use of the parking spaces and loading dock areas located on the Premises and designated on Exhibit "B". Tenant agrees that it will employ its best efforts to prevent the use by Tenant's employees and visitors of parking spaces allocated to other tenants. Landlord represents that it now has access and will retain access to the Building and Premises for the use and benefit of Tenant, its employees, agents, licensees and invitees.

SECTION 21

21.3 ENTIRE CONTRACT; AMENDMENT. It is expressly agreed by Tenant, as a material consideration for the execution of this Lease, that this Lease, including written extrinsic documents referred to herein is the entire agreement of the parties, and that there are, and have been, no verbal representations, understandings, stipulations, agreements or promises pertaining to this Lease or the expressly mentioned written extrinsic documents not incorporated in writing in this Lease. It is likewise agreed that this Lease may not be altered, amended or extended except by an instrument in writing signed by both Landlord and Tenant.

21.4 SEVERABILITY. If any term or provision of this Lease, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such term of provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Lease shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

In no event shall such document set forth the rental or other charges payable by Tenant under this Lease; and any such document shall expressly state that it is executed pursuant to the provisions contained in this Lease, and is not intended to vary the terms and conditions of this Lease.

21.8 LEGAL INTERPRETATION. This Lease and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be interpreted, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas.

21.9 ACCEPTANCE OF PAYMENTS UNDER PROTEST. The acceptance by Landlord of payments by Tenant under protest shall not be deemed an acknowledgement by landlord, or a validation of, any contention or reservation of rights by Tenant.

21.10 RENEWAL OPTION. Tenant shall have the right and option to renew this Lease for one (1) additional five (5) year term by delivering written notice of the exercise thereof to Landlord at least 180 days prior to the expiration of the primary lease term, provided that at the time of the commencement of any such extended lease term Tenant is not in default hereunder. Upon the delivery of said notice and subject to the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence, and upon the execution by Landlord and Tenant of an extension agreement containing such terms and provisions which are consistent with the provisions of this paragraph, this Lease shall be extended upon the same terms, covenants and conditions as provided in this Lease except as follows:

(i) The Total Monthly Rent shall be established between Landlord and Tenant at the market rate in effect at that time. If both parties are unable to agree to a market rate and both parties consent to be bound, then the method described in the following subparagraph may be used to determine the market rate.

(ii) In the event this Lease provides for the payment of rental at "the prevailing rental rate" or at the "the market rate" (the "Market Rate") during any extension or renewal thereof, and Landlord and Tenant are unable

The determination of the Market Rate by the agreement of any two of such three appraisers shall be accepted by and binding upon Landlord and Tenant as the Market Rate, which rate shall thereafter be payable until further adjustment as provided hereunder. Landlord and Tenant will use all reasonable diligence to cause their appointed appraisers to perform in good faith and in a timely manner in order to make the determination of the Market Rate on or before the date on which the Market Rate is to become effective. In the event such appraisers shall not make such determination prior to the date on which the Market Rate is to become effective, this Lease shall nevertheless continue in full force and effect until such determination is made, and the rental for such period shall be payable at the rate otherwise payable hereunder. Upon the determination by such appraisers of the Market Rate, the payment of the Market Rate shall commence on the first day of the month following the date of such determinations, and in addition to such monthly installment of rental, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the increase in the rental payable hereunder, if any, applicable to the period from the date on which the Market Rate was scheduled to become effective to the payment of the first installment at the Market Rate. NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the recitals above and other valuable considerations, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledge by Landlord and Tenant, Landlord and Tenant agree as follows:

1. From and after the date of this First Amendment, Section 14.6 Tenant Remedies; shall be amended to read as follows:

14.6 Tenant's Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, Tenant shall have the option of (i) curing the default of Landlord and offsetting any and all costs of curing same and any losses or damages related thereto against the Total Monthly Rental or (ii) pursuing any other remedy to which it may be entitled by law. Notwithstanding any provision in this Lease to the contrary, in the event Landlord shall breach or fail to perform any obligation or duty to repair or maintain the building or any mechanical equipment therein, and such failure creates an emergency situation that interferes with Tenant's ability to conduct business and/or creates a possibility of danger to Tenant's employees or a possibility of damage to Tenant's inventory, then the Tenant shall give the Landlord and Landlord's first mortgagee written notice of any such failure or breach, and in the event Landlord or Landlord's first mortgagee shall fail to begin to cure such failure or breach within two (2) days of written notice thereof, then Tenant may undertake the performance of such obligation in the same workmanship manner as if Landlord was doing such work, in which event Tenant may thereafter recover such actual cost incurred in performing such obligations as a setoff against its rental obligations. In the event Tenant undertakes the performance of Landlord's duties or obligations as aforesaid, the right to setoff provided for in this paragraph must be asserted, if at all, within 45 days following Tenant's work, and in no event shall Tenant have the right to offset more than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) against its rental and payment obligations hereunder and any amounts asserted by Tenant in excess of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) must be pursued against Landlord, if at all, through presentation to Landlord or, if necessary through an independant cause of action. Landlord and Landlord's first mortgagee shall have thirty (30) days to cure any type of default, other than an emergency. It is understood that Landlord's first mortgagee shall not have the obligation to cure any default by Landlord, but such mortgagee may effect a cure of such default if it elects to do so.

2. Except as modified by letter dated April 24, 1989 regarding the notice provision change of address for Stationers, and as herein expressly modified, the Lease Agreement and all exhibits attached thereto shall remain in full force and effect.

3. This First Amendment and the Lease Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas and is fully performable in Harris County, Texas.

This First Amendment has been fully executed as of the day and year first written above.

ARTICLE 2 - TERM OF SUBLEASE; QUIET ENJOYMENT; USE OF PREMISES.

SECTION 2.01 - TERM; QUIET ENJOYMENT:

(a) The term of this Sublease shall commence on the Commencement Date and shall end at 11:59 p.m., on April 27, 1998, unless such term shall be sooner terminated as herein provided. The term of this Sublease is referred to herein as the "Sublease Term".

Other than as to the due performance of Sublandlord's Work and the ongoing agreements, covenants and maintenance obligations of the Sublandlord under this Lease, Subtenant takes the Demised Premises in strictly "AS IS" condition, as to title, permitted uses and physical condition, there being no representations or warranties by Sublandlord concerning the title to or condition of the Demised Premises, except as expressly provided in this Sublease. Subtenant agrees that Subtenant is the present occupant of the Demised Premises and has been given ample opportunity to make such investigation of the Demised Premises and Legal Requirements applicable to the Demised Premises and business conducted thereat. If for any reason, the Lease of Sublandlord's right to possession of the Demised Premises thereunder is terminated, this Sublease shall likewise terminate. Sublandlord warrants, represents, covenants and agrees with Subtenant that the Sublandlord has the full right and power to enter this Sublease, that the Lease has not been amended (other than by an amendment dated April 24, 1969), that true and correct copies of the Lease and amendment have been provided to Subtenant, and that Sublandlord will not voluntarily terminate the Lease or cause the Lease or its rights thereunder to terminate. Sublandlord is not obligated hereby to elect to extend the Lease for any period past the expiration of the Sublease Term. Sublandlord further warrants, represents, covenants and agrees with Subtenant that the Lease is in full force and effect, that Sublandlord will perform all of its obligations under the Lease to the end that the Lease shall remain in full force and effect throughout the Sublease Term, and that the term of the Lease has been extended through the end of the Sublease Term.

(c) Sublandlord is performing at its cost the improvement of the Demised Premises and the Property, the specifications of which are set forth in Exhibit C hereto ("Sublandlord's Work"). In performing said Sublandlord's Work, Sublandlord agrees that same shall be done in an expeditious, good and workmanlike manner, using new, first quality materials. For purposes hereof, substantial completion of Sublandlord's Work shall occur by the Commencement Date, unless delayed by Force Majeure, in which case Sublandlord's Work shall be substantially completed as soon after the Commencement Date as reasonably possible. All punch-list items will be completed by Sublandlord as soon as reasonably possible after substantial completion.

SECTION 2.02 - USE OF DEMISED PREMISES; SIGNAGE:

(a) Subtenant covenants and agrees that Subtenant will use or permit the use of the Demised Premises only for warehousing and distribution of stationery and office furniture, equipment and supplies, with offices incidental to such use. Subtenant may use the Demised Premises for other lawful, non-retail uses which are no more hazardous than Subtenant's present use nor inconsistent with the designed or intended use of the Property or its present use by other tenants, with the prior written consent of the Sublandlord, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Subtenant will in no event use or occupy the Demised Premises or allow the Demised Premises to be used or occupied (i) for any unlawful or immoral purpose, and will not suffer any unlawful or immoral act to be done or any unlawful or immoral condition to exist on the Demised Premises; (ii) for any business or purpose deemed extra hazardous on account of fire or otherwise; (iii) in violation of any Legal Requirement; (iv) so as to commit or permit to be committed any waste thereon; (v) for the conduct of distress, auction, fire, liquidation, going-out-of-business or bankruptcy sales, or for any retail sales of any nature.

(b) Sublandlord may erect and maintain such suitable signs as it may deem appropriate to advertise and/or identify the Property and other tenants in the Property. Subject to the approval of the appropriate municipal authority, Subtenant, with the Sublandlord's written approval as to location, design, specifications, wording, size and type, which approval Sublandlord agrees not to unreasonably withhold, may erect and maintain signs on the exterior of the Demised Premises so as to identify Subtenant's place of business. All signs shall comply with all Legal Requirements. All of Subtenant's existing signs are hereby approved. Subtenant shall keep insured and shall maintain the signs its installs or has installed in good condition and repair at all times. Subtenant shall remove all its signs at the end of the Sublease Term, repairing any damage caused thereby.

(c) Subtenant covenants and agrees that Subtenant and its successors, assigns, subtenants, licensees, concessionaires and occupants and their agents, employees, contractors, and invitees (other than Sublandlord and its agents, employees, contractors, licensees and invitees), shall not, at any time during the Term, cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought, upon, stored, manufactured, blended, handled, or used in, on, or about the Demised Premises for any purpose.

(d) Subtenant shall have no liability to Sublandlord or Sublandlord's agents, employees, contractors, licensees or invitees, for any Hazardous Materials coming in, on or about the Demised Premises unless caused by an act or omission of Subtenant, its successors, assigns, subtenants, licensees, concessionaires and occupants, and their agents, employees, contractors, and invitees (other than Sublandlord and its agents, employees, contractors, licensees and invitees). Sublandlord covenants and agrees with Subtenant that Sublandlord will not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, blended, handled, or used in, about or on the Property, other than in conformity to all Legal Requirements.

In the event that:

(i) Sublandlord shall breach the terms of the preceding sentence; or

(ii) should there be any violation of Environmental Laws on, emanating from, or pertaining to the Property not caused or contributed to by Subtenant, its successors, assigns, subtenants, licensees, concessionaires and occupants, and their agents, employees, contractors and invitees (other than Sublandlord and its agents, employees, contractors, licensees and invitees);

and should Subtenant thereby be threatened with present or immediately impending action, suit, proceeding or assessment of liability, Subtenant may terminate this Lease on Sixty (60) days notice to Sublandlord, unless such threat is fully abated within the Sixty (60) day period, or if such threat cannot be abated within such Sixty (60) day period, Sublandlord shall have in good faith have commenced such performance within such Sixty (60) day period and diligently proceeds therewith to complete abatement.

ARTICLE 3 - RENT.

SECTION 3.0-1: Subtenant shall pay to Sublandlord or such other party as Sublandlord may from time to time designate by notice to Subtenant, in legal tender of the United States, without deduction, abatement or setoff, except as provided in this Sublease, at the address of Sublandlord specified herein or furnished pursuant to the terms hereof:

(a) Base Rent. For the first four (4) Sublease Years, the Subtenant shall pay net rental ("Base Rent") for the Demised Premises in the amount of $98,658.00 per year, payable in equal monthly installments of $8,221.50. For the fifth (5) Sublease Year through the end of the Term, the annual Base Rent shall be the amount of $105,705.00, payable in equal monthly installments of $8,808.75.

The Base Rent shall commence on the Rent Commencement Date. It shall be paid in equal monthly installments in advance on the first day of each calendar month during the Sublease Term.

(b) Additional Rent. In addition to Base Rent, Subtenant shall pay to Sublandlord as Additional Rent all other sums owing from Subtenant to Sublandlord as provided in this Sublease, commencing with the Commencement Date.

(c) Subtenant Tax Contribution. Subtenant covenants and agrees to pay promptly when due all taxes imposed upon its business operations and its Personalty. In addition, Subtenant shall pay to Sublandlord, as Additional Rent, Subtenant's Pro Rata Share of the amount by which the Real Estate Taxes assessed against the Property in subsequent real estate tax years exceed the Real Estate Taxes in the 1992 real estate tax year. Payments due by Subtenant to Sublandlord hereunder shall be based on Sublandlord's written certification of the amount due for that Sublease Year or tax year. Any payments due by Subtenant to Sublandlord hereunder shall be made within 30 days after Subtenant's receipt of Sublandlord's written certification of the amount due, but in no event shall said Subtenant's payment be due more than 30 days, nor less than 20 days, prior to the last date when said taxes are due to the taxing authority without imposition of interest or penalty.

Sublandlord shall hereafter have the fist right to protest tax assessments of the Property or the Demised Premises, and shall have Ten (10) days after receipt of notice of the new or proposed tax assessment to make its election. If Sublandlord shall not elect to make the protest or review within Ten (10) days of receipt of notice, Sublandlord shall notify Subtenant and any other tenants in writing and provide copies of all tax bills or assessment notices. Thereafter, any tenant may elect in writing to Sublandlord within Ten (10) days to protest the tax assessment. The protest shall be at the tenants' sole cost and expense, and Subtenant agrees to cooperate with the other tenants desirous of prosecuting said protest or review.

(d) Partial Year or Month. In the event that the Rent Commencement Date is on a date other than the first day of a month, the payment owing for Base Rent for such partial month shall be the monthly Base Rent multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such partial month that this Sublease is in effect and the denominator of which is the number of days in such partial month. This payment shall be due on the Rent Commencement Date. In the event the last day of the Sublease Term is on a date other than the last day of a month, a similar proration of Base Rent shall be made for such month.

(e) Lien for Rent. To the fullest and broadest extent permissible under Texas law, the Sublandlord shall have a lien and security interest upon the assets and properties of the Subtenant now or hereafter located at or upon the Demised Premises to secure the payment of any Base Rent, Additional Rent or other sums due hereunder. Subtenant will join with Sublandlord in filing any financing statement necessary or desirable to evidence said lien or security interest. Said lien, as well as any lien provided Sublandlord by law, shall be subordinate to any lien granted by Subtenant to secure financing obtained by it, provided however, that Sublandlord's lien described in this subparagraph shall never be more junior than a second lien position. Sublandlord agrees to execute subordinations or other instruments when necessary to reflect the terms or conditions of this Section 3.01(e) or as necessary to release the lien hereof at the termination of the Sublease.

SECTION 3.02 - LATE AND PARTIAL PAYMENTS: Should Subtenant fail to pay when due or within 5 days after the due date any installment of Rent, then Subtenant shall pay to Sublandlord on demand, in addition to amounts owing and unpaid, interest at the lower of 18% per annum or the highest rate permitted by applicable law from the due date until the required payment(s) are made. Sublandlord may apply any partial payments as Sublandlord deems appropriate. No assessment or acceptance by Sublandlord of any late charge for overdue payments shall be construed or interpreted as a waiver or abandonment of any claim for breach or default by Sublandlord under this Sublease.

ARTICLE 4 - COMMON AREAS.

SECTION 4.01 - COMMON AREA MAINTENANCE: The Common Areas shall be subject to the exclusive, reasonable control and management of Sublandlord. However, Subtenant and its agents, employees, licensees and invitees shall have the non-exclusive right to use the parking areas, driveways and other Common Areas of the Property, subject to exclusive rights in other tenants depicted on the Site Plan. At such time as Sublandlord repairs and resurfaces the Common Areas so that they are in good repair and in clean and serviceable condition for their intended purposes in such manner as Sublandlord, in its reasonable discretion, shall determine, Subtenant shall pay to Sublandlord a Pro Rata Share of Sublandlord's costs of future maintenance, repair, landscaping, plowing and lighting of the Common Areas, all at levels determined by Sublandlord in its reasonable discretion, but in no event shall Subtenant's Pro Rata Share of Common Area Costs exceed $1,000 per Lease Year.

Sublandlord may close temporarily all or part of the Common Areas as reasonably required to make repairs or changes, to prevent the acquisition of public rights in such areas or to discourage non-customer parking, in which event Sublandlord shall not be subject to liability therefor, nor shall any such action be deemed an actual or constructive eviction of Subtenant. For purposes of this subparagraph, "temporary" shall mean not more than forty-five (45) consecutive days. Sublandlord shall not alter the parking areas, loading areas, driveways or other Common Areas of the Property in a manner which would materially impair the use, enjoyment or operation of the Demised Premises by the Subtenant.

Subtenant shall not conduct business or advertise in the Common Areas or impair the enjoyment of any of the Common Areas by other tenants. Sublandlord may adopt and amend reasonable Rules and Regulations governing use of the Common Areas.

SECTION 4.02 - SITE PLAN: The site analysis figures and Common Area detail drawings in the Site Plan do not constitute a representation or warranty by Sublandlord that the figures or Common Area detail drawings are accurate or that the design of the Common Areas will not be modified in minor respects from that shown on the Site Plan. The site analysis figures and Common Area detail drawings are provided only to give a sense of the Property's layout. The parties agree that Subtenant has inspected the Property and satisfied itself of the Property's suitability for Subtenant's intended use.

ARTICLE 5 - INSURANCE.

SECTION 5.01 - INSURANCE REQUIRED:

(a) During the Sublease Term, Subtenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall provide and keep in force:

(i) commercial general liability insurance with the broad form endorsement, including, but not limited to, personal injury and contractual liability coverage of at least $3,000,000.00 combined single limit for both bodily injury and property damage resulting from a single occurrence, occurring in and around the Demised Premises or the Common Areas and any exterior signs maintained by Subtenant, and automobile liability insurance with limits of not less than $3,000,000.00 combined single limit for both bodily injury and property damage resulting from one occurrence, with deductible amounts for each such coverage not to exceed $5,000.00.

(ii) workmen's compensation insurance at legally required levels and employer's liability insurance at limits of not less than $3,000,000.00 per accident for the benefit of all employees entering upon the Demised Premises or the Property or any portion thereof as a result of or in connection with their employment by Subtenant;

(iii) "All Risk" casualty insurance against loss or damage by fire and other perils, vandalism and malicious mischief in an amount equal to 100% of the replacement cost of the trade fixtures, equipment, furnishings, records and other merchandise of Subtenant in the Demised Premises; and

(iv) at all times during which construction is being performed upon the Demised Premises by Subtenant or its contractors, "All Risk" builders risk insurance with limits of coverage not less than 100% of full replacement cost of Subtenant's leasehold improvements, and owner's and contractor's protective insurance and independent contractor's insurance with coverage of at least $3,000,000.00 for a single occurrence, and for property damage.

(b) Sublandlord shall obtain casualty and other appropriate and customary insurance covering loss, injury and damage in, on and to the Demised Premises, the remainder of the building containing the Demised Premises, and the Common Areas but excluding the insurance described in Section 5.01(a) above, foundations and items Subtenant is required to insure. Said casualty insurance against loss or damage by fire and other perils, vandalism and malicious mischief shall be in an amount covering 100% of the replacement cost of the buildings and shall include, but not be limited to, "All Risk" casualty insurance and earthquake coverage, and may be in the form of a general coverage or blanket policy covering the building containing the Demised Premises and other properties;

(c) Sublandlord may obtain insurance protecting the Sublandlord against the loss of rent income hereunder, including (to the extent obtainable) loss of both Base Rent and Additional Rent, for a period of not more than one (1) year.

(d) if the Demised Premises are now or hereafter designated a flood hazard area by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") for which flood hazard insurance is obtainable, Sublandlord shall maintain flood hazard insurance in the maximum amount obtainable, but not more than the replacement cost of the building containing the Demised Premises (less foundations).

(e) Subtenant shall reimburse and pay to Sublandlord as Additional Rent its Pro Rata Share of the increase in the cost and expense of the insurance described above in Sections 5(b), (c) or (d) over the cost for the policy period of said insurance which ends June 30, 1992, such payment to be made within 30 days of the billing of the same by Sublandlord to Subtenant, but nevertheless, need not be paid by Subtenant more than 20 days prior to the date Sublandlord is obligated to pay same to the insurer.

SECTION 5.02 - POLICY TERMS AND BENEFICIARIES: All insurance provided by Subtenant shall name Sublandlord, the owner of the Property and each Mortgagee as additional named insureds, as their respective interests may appear. No policy may contain a deductible amount greater than that which has been approved by Sublandlord in writing, unless otherwise specified herein. No later than the Commencement Date and 20 days prior to the expiration date of any prior insurance policy, Subtenant shall deliver to Sublandlord copies of all policies required hereunder or certificates evidencing the existence and amount of such insurance, issued by an insurer or insurers satisfactory to Sublandlord in its sole discretion, licensed to do business in the State of Texas, and rated A or better as to policy holder rating and X or better as to financial rating in the most current issue of Best's Key Rating Guide. Subtenant shall procure policies for all insurance at least 20 days before the expiration of prior policies. Each insurance policy required to be maintained by Subtenant under Section 5.01(a) shall, to the extent available, contain the following provisions: (i) the agreement of the insurer to give Sublandlord, owner and each Mortgagee at least 20 days notice by registered mail prior to cancellation, change in coverage or any other material change in such policy; (ii) waiver of subrogation rights against Sublandlord and Subtenant; (iii) agreement that such policy is primary and non-contributing with any insurance that may be carried by Sublandlord; (iv) a statement that the insurance shall not be invalidated should any insured waive in writing prior to a loss any or all right of recovery against any party for loss occurring to the property described in the insurance policy; and (v) a statement that no act or omission of Subtenant shall affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained.

Each policy maintained by Sublandlord under this Sections 5.01(b), (c) or (d) shall, to the extent available, contain the following provisions: (i) the agreement of the insurer to give Subtenant, owner and each Mortgagee at least 20 days notice by registered mail prior to cancellation, change in coverage or any other material change in such policy; (ii) waiver of subrogation rights against Sublandlord and Subtenant; (iii) a statement that the insurance shall not be invalidated should any insured waive in writing prior to a loss any or all right of recovery against any party for loss occurring to the property described in the insurance policy; and (iv) a statement that no act or omission of Sublandlord shall affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained. Subtenant's insurance may be in the form of a general coverage or blanket policy covering the Demised Premises and other premises, provided that Sublandlord and each owner and Mortgagee are specifically named therein as additional named insureds.

Subtenant shall pay all of any increase in premiums for the casualty or public liability insurance which is a result of the type of services rendered by Subtenant or its activities in the Demised Premises, whether or not Sublandlord has consented to the same. In the event either party's use or occupancy, or the use or occupancy of their tenants or subtenants, causes any increase of insurance premiums on the Property or any part thereof above previous rates for the Property, Subtenant or Sublandlord, as the case may be, shall pay such additional premium within 30 days of being invoiced therefor.

In the event either party fails at any time during the term of this Sublease to obtain and keep in force required insurance or to provide satisfactory evidence thereof, then, after ten (10) days prior written notice to the party failing to maintain the insurance, the other party shall have the right but not the duty to procure such insurance, and the party failing to obtain said insurance shall pay to the procuring party the costs and expenses thereof upon demand. The amounts of the foregoing insurance shall in no event be less than the amount reasonably required by any Mortgagee of Sublandlord, and the limits of insurance shall not limit either party's liability under this Sublease. Subtenant and Sublandlord hereby waive any right of subrogation against the other party hereto.

ARTICLE 6 - PERSONAL PROPERTY OF SUBTENANT.

SECTION 6.01 - SUBTENANT'S PROPERTY: All Personalty shall remain the property of Subtenant. Sublandlord shall under no circumstances whatsoever be responsible for any loss or damage occurring to any Personalty, unless said loss or damage was not insurable against by Subtenant and was caused by Sublandlord's failure to make repairs hereunder within a reasonable time after receipt of written notice of the need for repairs has been received by Sublandlord.

SECTION 6.02 - REMOVAL: Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Sublease, Subtenant shall remove any and all Personalty and repair any damage to the Demised Premises caused thereby. Subtenant shall not remove any plumbing or electrical fixtures or equipment, heating or air conditioning equipment, floor or wall coverings, paneling, tile or other materials on the walls, floors or ceilings, any fixtures or appurtenances included within the definition of Demised Premises or any fixtures or machinery that were furnished or paid for by Sublandlord, all of which shall be deemed to constitute a part of Sublandlord's estate. However, Subtenant shall be entitled to remove those storage racks installed by it in the 35,100 square foot portion of the Demised Premises depicted on the Site Plan upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Sublease. The Demised Premises and the immediate areas in front of, behind and adjacent to it shall be left in a broom-clean condition. If Subtenant shall fail to so remove its Personalty at the termination of this Sublease, such Personalty not removed by Subtenant shall be deemed abandoned by Subtenant, and, at the option of Sublandlord, (i) shall become the property of Sublandlord or (ii) may be disposed of without accountability in such manner as Sublandlord may see fit, and Subtenant shall pay to Sublandlord the cost and expense of removal and repair of all damage to the Demised Premises which is caused by such removal.

ARTICLE 7 - MAINTENANCE; REPAIR; UTILITIES.

SECTION 7.01 - REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE: Sublandlord shall, at its sole expense and after notice from Subtenant of need for repair or replacement, promptly make all repairs and replacements to the roof, trusses, foundation, structural elements and components of any buildings containing the Demised Premises, to utility lines and auxiliary water mains up to the exterior walls of the Demised Premises and to the Common Areas of the Property. Except as hereinbefore provided, Subtenant shall, at its sole cost, promptly make all repairs and replacements to the Demised Premises necessary to keep the same clean and in good condition and repair, including, but not limited to, all of the building's exterior walls, all exterior and interior lighting facilities, exterior and interior doors and windows, loading docks, the air conditioning, heating, water heating, plumbing and electrical equipment systems and installations, all glass and show windows, moldings and bulkheads, all partitions, floor surfaces and subsurfaces, ceilings, fixtures, equipment and appurtenances thereto. Subtenant shall at its expense maintain and operate all of its interior and exterior signs previously or hereafter installed by or for Subtenant, and shall keep the surfaces of the building outside the Demised Premises, including signs, in good, sightly and clean condition. Any damage caused to the exterior walls to which any sign installed by Subtenant may be attached, including but not limited to rust stains and structural cracking of the facia caused by such signs, shall be repaired by Subtenant at its own cost. Subtenant shall make such other non-structural repairs and replacements in and to the Demised Premises promptly as needed. In addition to the foregoing, Subtenant shall repair and maintain the fire sprinkling system, fire extinguishers and other fire preventive equipment in the Demised Premises in accordance with all present Legal Requirements. Tenant shall not, however, be required to replace or up-grade the fire sprinkling system to comply with future Legal Requirements, unless the replacement or up-grading is required as a result of the type of use of the Demised Premises being made by Subtenant.

Except as expressly provided in this Sublease, Sublandlord shall have no obligation to repair any part of the Demised Premises.

SECTION 7.02 - UTILITIES: Subtenant shall promptly pay the appropriate utility company for all electrical, natural gas and telephone utility services rendered or furnished to the Demised Premises. Subtenant shall pay to Sublandlord, as Additional Rent, Subtenant's Pro Rata Share of other utilities used by the Demised Premises not invoiced to Subtenant by the appropriate utility company or other provider, including, without limitation, fire protection, water and sewer charges from and after the Commencement Date.

SECTION 7.03 - PESTS: Sublandlord agrees that during the continuance of this Sublease, the remainder of the building, if any, not hereby leased to Subtenant, shall not be used in any manner or for any purpose which is harmful or deleterious to the goods or business of the Subtenant, other than in a minor or immaterial way. Should any of Subtenant's merchandise become contaminated or infested by a pest condition originating or emanating from outside the Demised Premises, Subtenant shall give Sublandlord written notice thereof, and Sublandlord shall have Fourteen (14) days following receipt of notice to investigate and correct the contamination or infestation problem. Should Sublandlord fail to correct the contamination or infestation problem as aforesaid, Subtenant may do so, and Sublandlord shall compensate Subtenant all the reasonable costs and expenses directly related to the correction of the problem, but in no event (except as provided in Section 21.01 hereof) shall any sum due to Subtenant be off-set or deducted from Base Rent, Additional Rent or any other sum due Sublandlord under this Sublease.

ARTICLE 8 - CONSTRUCTION OF ALTERATIONS.

SECTION 8.01 - SUBTENANT LEASEHOLD ALTERATIONS:

(a) Except for the due performance of Sublandlord's Work and Sublandlord's ongoing agreements, covenants and maintenance obligations under this Sublease, Subtenant hereby takes possession of the Demised Premises in strictly "AS IS" condition, regardless of whether the Demised Premises are satisfactory for Subtenant's purposes. Subtenant expressly agrees that this Sublease is not conditioned on Subtenant being able to make any Alterations, but the terms of this sentence shall be inapplicable to any future Alterations to which Sublandlord shall have consented.

(b) Subtenant may make Alterations to the Demised Premises only with the prior written consent of Sublandlord, which consent may be withheld by the Sublandlord for any reason or for no reason. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, however, Subtenant shall have the right, at its sole expense and liability, to place or install in or on the Demised Premises any trade fixtures, storage racks, conveyor systems, or other machinery or equipment, to paint or decorate all or any part of the Demised Premises as it may elect, and, upon termination of this Sublease or prior thereto, to remove said fixtures, storage racks, conveyor systems, machinery and equipment without regard to how fastened to the Demised Premises, provided, however, that any damage caused to the Demised Premises by any such installation, use or removal shall be repaired by Subtenant at its own expense, and provided further that, if requested by Sublandlord, Subtenant shall, at its own expense, paint over and obliterate any signs painted on the Demised Premises and remove any trade fixtures of Subtenant attached thereto and repair any damage to the Demised Premises in connection therewith; all provided that no such installation, use or removal shall violate any Legal Requirement, and shall be done and performed in a good and workmanlike manner.

(c) All Alterations which are consented to by the Sublandlord or permitted hereunder are subject to the following requirements:

(i) All Alterations shall be performed so as not to materially interfere with the use by the other tenants of the Property of their premises in the Property and, once commenced, shall proceed in good faith and promptly to completion;

(ii) No Alterations shall be undertaken until Subtenant shall have procured all required permits and authorizations of all municipal departments;

(iii) Any Alterations, when completed, shall be of such a character as not to reduce the value of the Demised Premises below its value immediately before such Improvements or Alterations;

(iv) Any Alterations shall be made in a good and workmanlike manner and in compliance with all applicable permits, authorizations, Legal Requirements and provisions of this Sublease;

(v) At least Thirty (30) days before the commencement of any Alterations, Subtenant shall notify Sublandlord of its intention to commence the same so that Sublandlord may post or record notices of non-responsibility.

SECTION 8.02 - OWNERSHIP AND MAINTENANCE: All Alterations, including, without limitation, all lighting fixtures, intercom systems, installations, fixtures (other than trade fixtures or Personalty), are and shall be deemed to be and immediately become part of the realty and the sole and absolute property of Sublandlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Subtenant shall maintain insurance coverage with respect to same, unless same are insured by Sublandlord's insurance, and shall maintain, repair and replace same, all as more particularly provided for in this Sublease. If Sublandlord's insurance covers Alterations made by Subtenant, Subtenant shall reimburse Sublandlord for the additional cost thereby occasioned. Alternatively, at the time the Sublease Term ends or otherwise terminates for any reason, the Sublandlord may elect to have the Subtenant remove any Alterations and return the Demised Premises to their former condition, which shall be fully completed within Thirty (30) days of the end or other termination of the Sublease Term.

SECTION 8.03 - CONSTRUCTION BY SUBLANDLORD: Sublandlord hereby reserves the right at any time to construct buildings on the Common Areas of the Property, or to enlarge the building of which the Demised Premises are a part, subject to Section 4.01 hereof, and provided that such construction shall not materially interfere with Subtenant's use of, access to, or parking for, the Demised Premises.

SECTION 8.04 - NO LIABILITY: Sublandlord's approval rights as provided for herein are solely for Sublandlord's benefit and shall not give rise to any liability whatsoever on the part of Sublandlord not otherwise arising or created under the Sublease.

ARTICLE 9 - COMPLIANCE WITH LEGAL REQUIREMENTS.

SECTION 9.01: This Sublease is subject to all Legal Requirements now or hereafter applicable to the Property. Subtenant shall promptly and fully comply with all presently existing Legal Requirements. Subtenant shall comply with all future Legal Requirements regulating or governing the use of the Demised Premises or which require Alterations to the Demised Premises because of Subtenant's use of the Demised Premises. Compliance with any other future Legal Requirements which require any Alterations to the Demised Premises shall be the responsibility of Sublandlord, up to the aggregate maximum sum during the Sublease Term of $5,000.00. If at any time, compliance with future Legal Requirements would obligate Sublandlord to expend more than the aggregate total of $5,000.00 for the Sublease Term, then Sublandlord shall instead be entitled to terminate this Sublease upon Sixty (60) days written notice to Subtenant, unless within that period, Subtenant obligates itself to pay for all amounts in excess of the aggregate sum $5,000.00 hereinbefore described.

Notwithstanding any previous portion of this Section 9.01 to the contrary, however, Subtenant shall have no responsibility for any non-compliance of the Demised Premises with any Environmental Laws except as expressly set forth in Section 2.02(c) or Article 20 hereof.

ARTICLE 10 - DISCHARGE OF LIENS.

SECTION 10.01: Subtenant shall not permit any claim of lien resulting from Subtenant's action to be filed by any person under any (i) mechanics' lien statute, (ii) materialmen's lien statute, (iii) lien imposed under any Environmental Law or (iv) other liens against the Demised Premises or the Property. If any such claim of lien shall be filed against the Demised Premises or the Property, Subtenant shall cause the lien to be discharged; provided, however, that Subtenant may contest any such lien, so long as the enforcement thereof is stayed and the lien is removed of record by means of a bond or any other lawful means. If Subtenant shall fail to cause said lien to be released of record within 10 days after notice to Subtenant from Sublandlord, then Sublandlord may, but shall not be obligated to, discharge the same by deposit or bonding. Any amount paid by Sublandlord and all costs and expenses incurred by Sublandlord in connection therewith shall constitute Additional Rent and shall be paid by Subtenant to Sublandlord on demand, along with interest at the lower of 18% per annum or the highest rate then permissible under applicable law.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 10.1 to the contrary, however, Subtenant shall have no responsibility or liability for the non-compliance of the Demised Premises with any Environmental Law, except as expressly set forth under Section 2.02(c) or Article 20 hereof.

Nothing herein shall be deemed to subject Sublandlord's estate in the Demised Premises to any lien or liability under any law relating to liens. Subtenant shall indemnify Sublandlord from and against all liabilities, damages, losses, costs and expenses resulting from any lien filed against the Demised Premises claimed to have resulted from Subtenant's actions.

ARTICLE 11 - DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

SECTION 11.01 - ELECTION TO TERMINATE SUBLEASE: In the event the Demised Premises shall be damaged by fire or other casualty, then:

(a) if the damage exceeds 15% of the replacement cost of the Demised Premises, the Sublandlord shall have the right to terminate this Sublease as herein provided;

(b) if the damage exceeds 35% of the replacement cost of the Demised Premises, the Subtenant shall have the right to terminate this Sublease as herein provided; or

(c) if the damage exceeds 25% of the replacement cost of the Demised Premises and occurs during the final year of the Sublease Term, the Subtenant shall have the right to terminate this Sublease as herein provided.

Upon the occurrence of the damage described above, the Sublandlord or the Subtenant (as the case may be) shall have the option, which shall be exercised within 60 days following such damage, of terminating this Sublease, effective 30 days after the date of giving notice thereof. If Subtenant is in default under this Sublease at the time of making an election to terminate the Sublease under Sections 11.01(b) or (c), then as a condition of making a valid election to terminate, Subtenant must, prior to the effective date of the termination of the Sublease, cure all defaults, except those which are rendered both unnecessary and non-detrimental to Sublandlord because of the occurrence of the damage to the Demised Premises (e.g. minor defacing to the Demised Premises not affecting any insurance recovery relating to the Demised Premises).

If this Sublease is terminated under the preceding paragraph, neither Sublandlord nor Subtenant shall be obligated to repair, restore or reconstruct the Demised Premises and Sublandlord shall be entitled to retain all insurance recovered under policies described in Sections 5.01(a)(iv), 5.01(b), 5.01(c) or 5.01(d) as a result of the damage to the Demised Premises.

SECTION 11.02 - REPAIR: If this Sublease shall not be terminated as provided in Section 11.01 above, this Sublease shall continue in full force and effect, and Sublandlord shall, within Thirty (30) days after satisfaction of the insurance award and solely to the extent thereof (after deducting Sublandlord's costs and attorneys' fees of collecting the award), proceed with the repair or restoration of the Demised Premises and, with all reasonable dispatch, return the Demised Premises to substantially the same condition they were immediately preceding the damage or destruction. If the net proceeds of insurance are inadequate to fully restore the Demised Premises substantially the same condition as preceding the damage or destruction, Sublandlord shall, within Thirty (30) days of receipt of the net insurance proceeds, notify Subtenant of Sublandlord's election to either (a) contribute any sums in excess of the net insurance award which are required to restore the Demised Premises to substantially the same condition as prior to the damage or destruction, or (b) to terminate this Lease after Thirty (30) days from the date of notice, unless within that Thirty (30) day period, Subtenant agrees in writing to contribute any sums in excess of the net insurance award which are required to restore the Demised Premises to substantially the same condition as prior to the damage or destruction.

If any of the Demised Premises shall be rendered unusable on account of such damage, Base Rent shall be abated for the portion of the Demised Premises as rendered unusable until the same is again usable by Subtenant, and Additional Rent shall likewise be abated [but only to the extent Sublandlord is compensated for loss of Additional Rent by the insurance referred to in Section 5.01(c)]. Upon Sublandlord's substantial completion thereof, Subtenant shall promptly repair or replace all of its Personalty damaged or destroyed, including, but not limited to, its trade fixtures and furniture, if (and to the extent) not covered by Landlord's insurance under Section 5.01(b), (c) or (d).

Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, Subtenant, at Sublandlord's option, shall be responsible for all damages resulting from, and shall make all repairs and replacements necessitated by, any uninsured damage caused by the negligent or intentional tortious acts or omissions of Subtenant and its agents, employees, invitees and contractors, which damage is not customarily insured against under policies of the type described in Sections 5.01(a), (b), (c) or (d).

SECTION 11.03 - WAIVER OF SUBROGATION: In the event the Demised Premises, any part or parts of the Property or the fixtures or merchandise therein are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty that is covered by insurance of Subtenant, Sublandlord or the tenants, subtenants, concessionaires or licensees of Subtenant or Sublandlord, regardless of cause or origin, including negligence, then the rights, if any, of any party against the other, or against the employees, agents, subtenants, concessionaires or licensees of any party, with respect to such damage or destruction and with respect to any loss resulting therefrom, including the interruption of the business of any of the parties, are hereby waived to the extent of any recovery under said insurance.

SECTION 11.04 - COMMON AREAS: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the party required to insure the Common Areas pursuant to Article 5 shall be responsible for the repair, restoration and reconstruction thereof pursuant to this Article.

ARTICLE 12 - CONDEMNATION.

SECTION 12.01 - ENTIRE PROPERTY: If the whole of the Demised Premises shall permanently be taken or damaged by any competent authority, this Sublease shall terminate as of the date physical possession of the Demised Premises is taken or damaged or immediate possession is ordered. Base Rent, Additional Rent, and all other charges payable hereunder shall be apportioned and paid up to said date.

SECTION 12.02 - PARTIAL TAKING:

(a) If there is a taking of or damage to less than the entire Demised Premises, this Sublease shall terminate as of the date physical possession of the Demised Premises is taken or damaged or immediate possession is ordered as to the portion of the Demised Premises so taken or damaged, and the Base Rent, Additional Rent and all other charges payable by Subtenant hereunder allocable to the portion taken or damaged shall be prorated to the date of such termination. With respect to that portion of the Demised Premises not taken or damaged, this Sublease shall continue in effect and the Base Rent shall be reduced proportionately.

(b) Sublandlord shall, as promptly as possible after the receipt of the award or compensation for the partial taking and to the extent possible from said award (after deducting Sublandlord's costs and attorneys' fees of collecting the award) restore, repair and replace that portion of the Demised Premises not so taken or damaged to a complete architectural unit or units for the use and occupancy of Subtenant and, as nearly as possible, to the condition existing prior to the taking or damaging.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sublandlord or Subtenant may elect, within 30 days after the taking or damaging, to terminate the Sublease if so much of the ground floor area of the Demised Premises is taken or damaged that Subtenant cannot reasonably operate as contemplated by this Sublease, or if so much of the Common Areas is taken or damaged such that Subtenant cannot reasonably continue to do business at the Demised Premises due to lack of access or available parking and/or loading areas, upon written notice to the other, which notice shall specify a termination date at least 30 days and not more than 90 days from the date thereof, after which Base Rent, Additional Rent and all other charges payable by Subtenant hereunder abate. In such even, Sublandlord shall not be obligated to repair, restore or reconstruct the Demised Premises.

SECTION 12.03 - ALLOCATION OF AWARD: The entire award or compensation, including interest, whether for a total or partial taking or damaging or for a diminution in the value of Subtenant's leasehold or Sublandlord's leasehold or other interest, shall belong to and be the property of Sublandlord, and Subtenant hereby assigns to Sublandlord all of Subtenant's interest in any award. Subtenant shall have the right to prove in separate proceedings (or in the same proceeding, if separate proceedings cannot be brought under Federal or Texas law, as the case may be) and to receive any separate award which may be made for damage to or condemnation of Subtenant's equipment, trade fixtures, furniture and furnishings, and for relocation costs.

SECTION 12.04 - TEMPORARY TAKING: If there is a taking or damaging of the temporary use of the Demised Premises, Subtenant shall give prompt notice thereof to Sublandlord. Unless the temporary taking shall exceed Sixty (60) consecutive days and materially interfere with Subtenant's access to or use of the Demised Premises or Common Areas, the Sublease Term shall not be reduced or affected in any way by such temporary taking or damaging, but the Base Rent shall be abated for such time as such taking renders any of the Demised Premises unusable by Subtenant in proportion to that amount so rendered unusable, and Additional Rent shall likewise be abated (but only to the extent Sublandlord is compensated for loss of Additional Rent by the insurance referred to in Section 5.01(c). If the temporary taking shall exceed Sixty (60) consecutive days and materially interfere with Subtenant's access to or use of the Demised Premises or Common Areas, Subtenant shall be entitled to terminate this Sublease upon Thirty (30) days written notice to Subtenant.

Sublandlord shall be entitled to and shall receive the entire award for such taking or damaging during the Sublease Term (whether paid by way of damages, rent or otherwise). At the termination of any such use or occupation of the Demised Premises during the Sublease Term, Sublandlord shall, as promptly as possible after the receipt of the award or compensation for the partial taking and to the extent possible from said award (after deducting Sublandlord's costs and attorneys' fees of collecting the award), repair and restore the Demised Premises as nearly as reasonably possible to its condition immediately prior to such taking or damaging.

Sublandlord shall be entitled to claim, sue for and recover from the governmental authority all damages and awards arising out of the failure of the governmental authority to repair and restore the Demised Premises at the expiration of such temporary taking or damaging. Any recovery or sum received as an award or compensation for physical damage to the Demised Premises caused by and during the temporary taking or damaging shall be paid to the Sublandlord.

SECTION 12.05 - DEFINITIONS: As used in this Article 12, (i) the term "taking or damaging" shall mean any taking of or damage to all or any part of the Demised Premises or the Property or any interest therein because of the exercise of the power of eminent domain, whether by condemnation proceedings or otherwise, including acts or omissions constituting inverse condemnation, or any transfer of any part of the Demised Premises or the Property or any interest therein made in avoidance of the power of eminent domain; and (ii) the "award" shall include, without limitation, all monies awarded for the taking or damaging of the Demised Premises or the Property and all estates or interests therein occurring before or after the commencement of litigation proceedings.

SECTION 12.06 - WAIVER: Each party waives the provisions of any law or statute which otherwise allows either party to petition a court to terminate this Sublease in the event of a partial taking of the Demised Premises, and elects to be governed by the terms of this Sublease.

ARTICLE 13 - SUBTENANT'S DEFAULT; SUBLANDLORD'S REMEDIES.

SECTION 13.01 - EVENTS OF DEFAULT: Each of the following events shall be a default by Subtenant and breach of this Sublease:

(a) If Subtenant fails to pay Sublandlord any Base Rent, Additional Rent or other charges required to be paid by Subtenant under this Sublease within 5 days after receipt of written notice to Subtenant of such default, which notice shall be in lieu of and not in addition to any notice required by law; provided, however, that notice shall not be required more than twice each Sublease Year for failure to pay any sum.

(b) If Subtenant fails to perform any of the agreements, terms, covenants or conditions of this Sublease to be performed by Subtenant other than the payment of Base Rent or Additional Rent or other charges, and such non-performance continues for a period of 30 days after receipt of written notice by Sublandlord to Subtenant, which notice shall be in lieu of and not in addition to any notice required by law, or if such performance cannot be completed within such 30 day period, Subtenant shall not in good faith have commenced such performance within such 30 day period and diligently proceeded therewith to completion.

(c) If a levy under execution or attachment shall be made against Subtenant of all or substantially all of Subtenant's property in or at the Demised Premises and such execution or attachment shall not be satisfied, stayed, vacated or removed by payment, court order, bonding or otherwise within a period of 30 days after entry of such execution or attachment.

(d) The filing of an involuntary petition against Subtenant under the Bankruptcy Code or any other state or federal law relating to bankruptcy or insolvency that is not dismissed within 90 days after being filed or the making or entry of a decree or order by a court or determination by any regulatory or governmental agency, if any, having jurisdiction over Subtenant (i) that Subtenant is a bankrupt or is insolvent, or (ii) approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization of Subtenant under the Bankruptcy Code or any other state or federal law relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, or (iii) appointing a receiver or liquidator or trustee in bankruptcy or insolvency of Subtenant or of its property or any substantial portion of its property, or (iv) constituting the winding up or liquidation of the affairs of Subtenant.

(e) If Subtenant shall (i) institute proceedings to be adjudged a voluntary bankrupt, or (ii) consent to the filing of a bankruptcy proceeding against it, or (iii) file a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or readjustment under the Bankruptcy Code or any other state or federal law, or otherwise invoke any law for the aid of debtors, or consent to the filing of any such petition, or (iv) consent to the appointment of a receiver or liquidator or trustee in bankruptcy or insolvency of it or of its property, or (v) make an assignment for the benefit of the creditors, or (vi) admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or (vii) take any corporate action in furtherance of any of the aforesaid purposes or (viii) be unable to meet current obligations as they mature, even though its assets may greatly exceed its liabilities.

SECTION 13.02 - REMEDIES: Upon default by Subtenant under this Sublease, Sublandlord may, at its option, take any or all of the following actions:

(a) Elect not to terminate this Sublease or Subtenant's right to possession of the Demised Premises, and enforce all of Sublandlord's rights and remedies under this Sublease, including the right to recover the rent as it becomes due and payable by Subtenant. No acts by Sublandlord to maintain, preserve or re-let the Demised Premises, or to appoint a receiver to protect Sublandlord's interest under this Sublease, or to remove property or store it at a public warehouse or elsewhere at the cost of and for the account of Subtenant, or otherwise, shall constitute an election to terminate this Sublease or Subtenant's right of possession unless written notice of such intention is given by Sublandlord to Subtenant. Sublandlord may elect to terminate this Sublease upon a re-letting of the Demised Premises or at any other time after electing the remedy provided by this Subsection, in which event the rent shall cease to accrue and the damages provided by subsection (b) shall become available to Sublandlord.

During the period Subtenant is in default, Sublandlord may enter the Demised Premises and re-let them, or any part of them, to third parties for Subtenant's account. Re-letting may be for a period shorter or longer than the remaining term of this Sublease. Subtenant shall pay to Sublandlord the rent due under this Sublease on the dates the rent is due, plus the amounts necessary to compensate Sublandlord as specified in subparagraphs (i) through (iii) below, less the rent Sublandlord receives from any re-letting. If Sublandlord re-lets the Demised Premises as provided in this subsection, rent that Sublandlord receives from re-letting shall be applied to the payment of: (i) first, all costs incurred by Sublandlord for re-letting as described in subparagraph (c); (ii) second, rent due and unpaid under this Sublease; and (iii) finally, any indebtedness from Subtenant to Sublandlord other than rent due from Subtenant. After deducting the payments referred to in this subsection, any sum remaining from the rent Sublandlord receives from re-letting shall be held by Sublandlord and applied in payment of future rent as rent becomes due under this Sublease. If, on the date rent is due under this Sublease, the rent received from the re-letting and applied to rent due is less than the rent due on that date, Subtenant shall pay to Sublandlord the remaining rent due.

(b) Terminate this Sublease and all rights of Subtenant and any subtenants, licensees or concessionaires hereunder by giving written notice of such intention to terminate. In the event that Sublandlord shall elect to terminate this Sublease as provided in this subsection, then Sublandlord recover from Subtenant:

(i) The worth at the time of award of any unpaid rent which has been earned at the time of such termination;

(ii) The worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent that would have been earned hereunder after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that the Subtenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(iii) The worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Subtenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(iv) Any other amount necessary to compensate Sublandlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Subtenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Sublease and which, in the ordinary course of events, would be likely to foreseeably result from that failure to perform; and

(v) At Sublandlord's election, such other amounts in addition to or in lieu of the foregoing as may be permitted from time to time by the laws of the State of Texas.

As used in subparts (i) and (ii) of this subsection (b), the "worth at the time of award" is computed by allowing interest at the lower of 18% per annum or the highest rate then permitted by law. As used in subpart (iii) of this subsection (b), the "worth at the time of award" is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston at the time of award plus one percent.

(c) Upon the occurrence of a breach or default occasioning the remedies referred to in Section 13.02(a) or 13.02(b), the Sublandlord shall be entitled to its reasonable expenses incurred in preparing and offering the Demised Premises for re-rent, including (but not limited to) reasonable costs of cleaning, remodeling, painting, resurfacing of parking areas and walks, reasonable broker's commissions and fees, free rent, advertising and marketing costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

(d) Take any and all other action and pursue all other rights and remedies provided at law, in equity (including moving to enjoin a breach or threatened breach) or under this Sublease. Efforts by Sublandlord to mitigate the damages caused by Subtenant's default shall not constitute a waiver of Sublandlord's right to recover damages hereunder.

SECTION 13.03 - BANKRUPTCY: Nothing in this Article 13 shall limit or prejudice the right of Sublandlord to prove or obtain as liquidated damages in any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, reorganization or dissolution proceeding an amount equal to the maximum allowed by a statute or rule of law governing such proceedings and in effect at the time when such damages are to be proved, whether or not such amount is greater, equal to or less than the amount of the damages referred to in any of the preceding sections.

SECTION 13.04: The rights of Sublandlord as contained in this Article 13 shall survive any termination of this Sublease.

ARTICLE 14 - SUBTENANT'S NOTICE TO SUBLANDLORD OF DEFAULTS.

SECTION 14.01: Sublandlord shall not be in default of this Sublease for failure to perform any of the agreements, terms, covenants or conditions of this Sublease to be performed by Sublandlord unless such non-performance continues for a period of 30 days after notice by Subtenant to Sublandlord or, if such performance cannot be completed within such 30 day period, Sublandlord shall not in good faith have commenced such performance within such 30 day period and diligently proceeded therewith to completion.

ARTICLE 15 - ASSIGNMENTS AND SUBLEASES.

SECTION 15.01 - RESTRICTIONS ON ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING: Subtenant shall not assign this Sublease or sublet the Demised Premises by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of Sublandlord, which Sublandlord agrees not to unreasonably withhold, provided (i) the permitted use of the Demised Premises will not change, except as to the type of products or goods being warehoused, (ii) the proposed use shall be no more dangerous or hazardous in nature that Subtenant's use and shall be consistent and compatible with the use then being made of the Property by the remaining tenants; (iii) the proposed assignee or subtenant is creditworthy and has sufficient net worth to perform all of the terms and conditions of the Sublease; (iv) the proposed assignee or subtenant has sufficient business skill and experience to perform the business being conducted at the Demised Premises to the same level of competence and responsibility as Subtenant, and (v) Subtenant shall supply to Sublandlord the information required by Section 15.02(a) regarding the subtenant or assignee, within the time therein provided. No reference in this Lease to assignees, subtenants or licensees of Subtenant shall imply that Tenant has a right to assign or sublease under this Sublease which is not limited by the requirement of Sublandlord's consent. Sublandlord shall not be obligated under any circumstances to consent to an assignment or subletting of less than all or substantially all of the Demised Premises .

SECTION 15.02 - NOTICE OF OFFER; RIGHT TO TERMINATE:

(a) Whenever Subtenant has obtained an offer to assign this Sublease or to sublease the Demised Premises, which Subtenant desires to accept, Subtenant shall provide to Sublandlord written notice thereof (a "Notice of Offer"), containing the name and address of said proposed assignee or sublessee, the rent offered, the proposed use by the proposed assignee or sublessee, the proposed effective date of the assignment or subletting, and any other business terms which are material to the offer and which differ from the provisions of this Sublease ("Notice of Offer"). Subtenant shall also provide to Sublandlord financial statement and business experience resume for the immediately preceding three (3) years of the proposed assignee or sublessee (or such lesser period as the business has been in existence) and such other information concerning such proposed assignee or sublessee as Sublandlord may reasonably request. The Notice of Offer shall be received by Sublandlord no less than Sixty (60) days prior to the effective date of the proposed assignment or sublease.

(b) Within Twenty (20) days after receiving a Notice of Offer for the proposed assignment of this Sublease or the subletting of the Demised Premises (other than to (i) a parent, wholly-owned subsidiary or affiliate of Subtenant, or (ii) a person or entity acquiring Subtenant through a purchase of a majority of its stock or substantially all of its assets and as a going concern) Sublandlord shall be entitled to terminate this Sublease by written notice to Subtenant ("Termination Notice"), and such termination shall be effective as of the proposed effective date of the proposed assignment or sublease, after which Subtenant shall have no further liability under this Sublease, other than for defaults of Subtenant then existing or for liabilities which survive the term of the Sublease according to the provisions of Sections 13.04, 16.02, 20.3, 21.03 and 25.02. If Sublandlord has the right hereunder to terminate this Sublease but does not elect to do so, Sublandlord shall notify Subtenant that Sublandlord either consents or declines to consent to the proposed assignment or subletting, and in such case, Sublandlord's consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. If Sublandlord does not provide a Termination Notice or notice of its refusal to consent to the proposed assignment or subletting within Twenty (20) days after receiving a Notice of Offer, Sublandlord shall be deemed to have consented to the proposed assignment or subletting, on the same terms as disclosed to Sublandlord and for that specific occasion only.

(c) Any consent by Sublandlord to any assignment or sublease, or to the operation of a concessionaire or licensee, shall not constitute a waiver of the necessity for consent to any subsuquent assignment or sublease. Anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, Subtenant shall not enter into any assignment or subletting if same would violate any of the terms of this Sublease or any Legal Requirement.

(d) Upon occasions of a proposed assignment or subletting for which Sublandlord's consent is required hereunder (meaning an assignment or subletting to a person or entity other than one described in Section 15.02(b)(i) or (ii) above, Subtenant (i) shall pay the Sublandlord its reasonable costs and expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in investigating and approving or disapproving the assignment or sublease and (ii) if applicable, shall pay Sublandlord monthly on the date specified in Section 3.01(a) an amount equal to 75% of the excess (after deducting reasonable broker's and legal fees, costs of Alterations and improvements made in conformity to this Sublease, and any transfer taxes or other direct assignment or subletting expenses) of all rentals and other monetary compensation from the assignee or subtenant to the Subtenant over the Base Rent due to the Sublandlord from the Subtenant hereunder.

SECTION 15.03 - LIABILITY CONTINUES: Subtenant shall be responsible for and be liable to Sublandlord for all acts, omissions and breaches or defaults of Sublease on the part of any assignee or subtenant of Subtenant in the Demised Premises. Any violation of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of this Sublease, whether by act or omission, by any assignee or subtenant shall constitute a breach of this Sublease by Subtenant. Permission is hereby granted to Subtenant to bring proceedings to enforce the terms, provisions and conditions of this Sublease against assignees and subtenants in Subtenant's own name or in the name of Sublandlord, provided, however, that Sublandlord incurs no cost or expense thereby or liability or obligation in connection therewith, and Subtenant shall indemnify, defend and hold Sublandlord harmless from any such costs, liabilities and expenses. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Sublease, no assignment or subletting, with or without consent, shall release Subtenant from any of its obligations and liabilities under this Sublease.

ARTICLE 16 - TERMINATION OF SUBLEASE; SURRENDER.

SECTION 16.01:

(a) On the last day of the Sublease Term or upon any earlier termination of this Sublease, or upon any lawful re-entry by Sublandlord upon the Demised Premises pursuant to Article 13, Subtenant shall (i) surrender and deliver the Demised Premises free and clear of all subtenancies, occupancies, liens and encumbrances created by Subtenant to the possession and use of Sublandlord without delay and in good order, condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear and damage by casualty, condemnation or Acts of God excepted, and (ii) promptly surrender all keys for the Demised Premises to Sublandlord at the place then fixed for the payment of rent and inform Sublandlord of all combinations and access codes on locks, safes and vaults, if any and other than those to be removed by Subtenant, in the Demised Premises.

(b) In the event Subtenant remains in possession of the Demised Premises after the expiration of the Sublease Term, whether or not with the consent or acquiescence of Sublandlord, and without the execution of a new Sublease, Subtenant shall be deemed to be occupying the Demised Premises on a month to month tenancy only. Upon notice given by Sublandlord to Subtenant, Rent during this month to month tenancy shall be payable monthly in advance in an amount equal to 150% of the Base Rent and other charges due and payable immediately prior to the expiration of the Sublease Term without prejudice to Sublandlord's right to any damages which Sublandlord may suffer if Subtenant fails to vacate upon the expiration of the Sublease Term or the earlier termination of this Sublease. The terms of such month to month tenancy shall be otherwise the same as the terms, conditions, covenants, provisions and obligations contained in this Sublease.

SECTION 16.02: The provisions of this Article 16 shall survive any termination of this Sublease.

ARTICLE 17 - PARTY'S RIGHT TO PERFORM OTHER'S COVENANTS.

SECTION 17.01: If Subtenant, at any time after the lapse of 30 days from the receipt of written notice from Sublandlord, shall fail to make any payment or perform any other act on its part to be made or performed, then Sublandlord, without waiving Subtenant's default, may (but shall be under no obligation to) make any payment or perform any other act on Subtenant's part to be made or performed as provided in this Sublease. All sums paid by Sublandlord and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Sublandlord in connection with the performance of any such act, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, shall constitute Additional Rent and shall be paid by Subtenant to Sublandlord within Thirty (30) days after receipt of an invoice. Sublandlord in its sole discretion may, without any liability whatsoever to the Subtenant or any person or entity claiming through or under the Subtenant, cease the performance of any act commenced hereunder, at any time. There shall be no warranty, either express or implied, with respect to any such act performed by Sublandlord.

In case of a situation which the Sublandlord reasonably believes to be an emergency, the Sublandlord may avail itself of its rights under this Section 17.01 immediately, giving notice to Subtenant within 48 hours thereafter.

SECTION 17.02: If Sublandlord, at any time after the lapse of Thirty (30) days from the receipt of written notice from Subtenant, shall fail to make any payment or perform any act on its part to be made or performed, then Subtenant, without waiving Sublandlord's default, may (but shall be under no obligation to) make any payment or perform any other act on Sublandlord's part to be made or performed as provided in this Sublease. All sums paid by Subtenant and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Subtenant in connection with the performance of any such act, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, shall be paid by Sublandlord to Subtenant within 30 days after receipt of an invoice, but in no event (except as otherwise permitted in Section 21.01) shall any sums so incurred by Subtenant be offset or deducted from Base Rent, Additional Rent or any other monetary sum due to Subtenant. There shall be no warranty, either express or implied, with respect to any such act performed by Subtenant.

In case of a situation which the Subtenant reasonably believes to be an emergency, the Subtenant may avail itself of its rights under this Section 17.02 immediately, giving notice to Sublandlord within 48 hours thereafter.

ARTICLE 18 - INSPECTION BY SUBLANDLORD.

SECTION 18.01: Subtenant will permit Sublandlord and its authorized representatives to enter the Demised Premises upon reasonable notice at all reasonable times for the purpose of (i) inspecting the same, (ii) making any necessary repairs and performing any work contemplated in this Sublease, including, without limitation, Articles 7 and 17, which entry may be made at any time in the event of an emergency, (iii) showing the same to prospective purchasers or Mortgagees, (iv) showing the same to prospective tenants, and (v) conducting any environmental testing, sampling, borings, and analyses it deems necessary; such testing shall be at Subtenant's expense if Subtenant has breached its Hazardous Materials covenant contained in Section 2.02(c) of this Sublease or if Hazardous Materials are present in the Demised Premises or the soil or surface or ground water in, on, under, about or near the Demised Premises due to acts or omissions of Subtenant or its successors, assigns, subtenants, licensees, concessionaires or occupants of the Demised Premises or their agents, contractors, employees and invitees (other than Sublandlord or its successors, assigns, subtenants, licensees, concessionaires or occupants of the Demised Premises or their agents, contractors, employees and invitees). For purpose of the preceding sentence, an "omission" giving rise to liability thereunder to Subtenant for acts or omissions of Subtenant or its successors, assigns, subtenants, licensees, concessionaires or occupants of the Demised Premises or their agents, contractors, employees and invitees shall mean an "omission" as would give liability under the Texas law of negligence.

ARTICLE 19 - SUBORDINATION; ATTORNMENT.

SECTION 19.01: Upon satisfaction of the provisions of Section 19.03, this Sublease and the rights of Subtenant shall, at Sublandlord's option, be at all times subject and subordinate to any Mortgage (as same may be renewed, replaced, modified, extended or consolidated) hereinafter encumbering the Property or Sublandlord's interest therein. Subtenant agrees to attorn to any Mortgagee, purchaser in a foreclosure sale or grantee of a deed in lieu of foreclosure. Any Mortgagee may at any time elect to cause this Sublease to have priority over its Mortgage by executing unilaterally an instrument subordinating its Mortgage to this Sublease, or accepting a Mortgage containing a clause providing for such subordination. Subtenant shall within 15 days after request, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments customary and reasonably necessary to ratify or confirm the foregoing.

SECTION 19.02: Until it shall enter and take possession of the Demised Premises for the purpose of foreclosure, the holder of a mortgage shall have only such rights of Sublandlord as are necessary to preserve the integrity of this Sublease as security. Upon entry and taking possession of the Demised Premises for the purpose of foreclosure such holder shall have all the rights of Sublandlord, but only for so long as the holder of said mortgage shall be in possession of the Demised Premises. No such holder of a mortgage shall be liable either as mortgagee or as assignee, to perform, or be liable in damages for failure to perform, any of the obligations of Sublandlord unless and until such holder shall enter and take possession of the Premises for the purpose of foreclosure. Upon entry for the purpose of foreclosure, such holder shall be liable to perform all of the obligations of landlord, subject to and with the benefit of the provisions of this Article 19, provided that a discontinuance of any foreclosure proceeding shall be deemed a conveyance under said provisions to the owner of the equity of the Demised Premises. No Base Rent, Additional Rent or any other charge shall be paid more than 30 days prior to the due dates thereof and payments made in violation of this provision shall (except to the extent that such payments are actually received by a mortgagee in possession or in the process of foreclosing its mortgage) be a nullity as against such mortgagee and Subtenant shall be liable for the amount of such payments to such mortgagee. The covenants and agreements contained in this Sublease with respect to the rights, powers and benefits of a mortgagee (particularly, without limitation thereby, the covenants and agreements contained in this Article 19) constitute a continuing offer to any person, corporation or other entity, which by accepting a mortgage subject to this lease assumes the obligations herein set forth with respect to such mortgagee; such mortgagee is hereby constituted a party of this Sublease as an obligee hereunder to the same extent as though its name was written herein as such; and such mortgagee shall be entitled to enforce such provisions in its own name. Subtenant agrees on request of Sublandlord to execute and deliver from time to time any agreement which may be customary and reasonably necessary to implement the provisions of these Sections 19.01 and 19.02.

SECTION 19.03: Unless and until Sublandlord shall obtain from any future Mortgagee of the owner's or Sublandlord's rights in the Property or Demised Premises an agreement which in substance provides that, in return for subordinating and attorning to said Mortgagee, Subtenant shall not be disturbed in its possession of the Demised Premises or in the exercise of any of its rights under this Sublease in the event of a foreclosure under said Mortgage, provided Subtenant complies with the terms and conditions of the Sublease, Subtenant shall not be obligated to subordinate and attorn as provided in Section 19.01.

ARTICLE 20 - INDEMNIFICATION.

SECTION 20.01: Subtenant shall indemnify, defend and hold Sublandlord harmless from and against any and all actions, claims, demands, penalties, liabilities or costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with any loss, damage or injury to persons or property occurring in or on the Demised Premises (and in the event of any claims under Environmental Laws resulting from a breach by Subtenant or anyone claiming under or through Subtenant of Subtenant's covenant in Section 2.02(c) of this Sublease, this shall also include any loss, damage or injury to persons or property under, about or near the Demised Premises), which arises under the operations or activities of Subtenant and its subtenants, concessionaires, licensees or occupants of the Demised Premises or any of their contractors, agents, employees or invitees, or arises out of Subtenant's and their use of the Demised Premises, or caused by the acts or negligence of Subtenant, its subtenants, concessionaires, licensees or occupants and their contractors, agents, employees or invitees.

SECTION 20.02: The obligation of Subtenant to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Sublandlord for claims under Environmental Laws which arise from a breach by Subtenant of its covenants under Section 2.02(c), includes, without limitation, costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any cleanup, remedial, removal, or restoration work reasonably required by Sublandlord or any Mortgagee, or required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of any Hazardous Materials occurring or present in the Demised Premises, the soil or surface or ground water in, on, under, about or near the Demised Premises, diminution in value of the Demised Premises, the Common Areas or the Property, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable or useable space or of any amenity of the Demised Premises or the Common Areas, damages arising from any adverse impact on marketing of space in the Demised Premises or the Property, and sums paid in settlement of claims, penalties, attorneys' fees, court costs, consultant and laboratory fees and expert's fees. Without limiting the foregoing, if any Hazardous Materials are found in the soil or surface or ground water in, on, under, about or near the Demised Premises the introduction of which is caused or contributed to by Subtenant, its employees, successors, assigns, licensees or invitees, Subtenant shall promptly take all actions reasonably required by Sublandlord or Mortgagee or required by governmental agencies, at Subtenant's sole expense, necessary to return the Demised Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of Hazardous Materials in, on, under, about or near the Demised Premises, in accordance with Legal Requirements; any action undertaken by Subtenant shall be subject to Sublandlord's prior approval of such actions, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

SECTION 20.03: The provisions of this Article 20 shall survive any termination of this Sublease as to matters or occurrences which preceded the termination.

ARTICLE 21 - SUBLANDLORD EXCULPATION.

SECTION 21.01 - LIMITATION OF LIABILITY: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Sublease, any judgment obtained by Subtenant against Sublandlord shall be satisfied only out of Sublandlord's interest in the Property and the rents receivable by Sublandlord therefrom, including those receivable from Subtenant. Neither Sublandlord nor any of its general or limited partners, officers, directors, shareholders, trustees, beneficiaries or employees shall have any personal liability for any matter in connection with this Sublease or its obligations as Sublandlord of the Demised Premises, except as provided above. Subtenant shall not seek to enforce any personal or deficiency judgment against Sublandlord or any of its general or limited partners, officers, directors, shareholders, beneficiaries or employees, and none of their property, except the Property and the rents receivable therefrom, shall be available to satisfy any judgment hereunder.

SECTION 21.02 - SALE OF DEMISED PREMISES: In the event of any sale or transfer of Sublandlord's interest in the Demised Premises, the seller, transferor or assignor shall be and hereby is entirely freed and relieved of all agreements, covenants and obligations of Sublandlord thereafter accruing hereunder, and it shall be deemed and construed without further agreement between the parties or their successors in interest or between the parties and the purchaser, transferee or assignee in any such sale, transfer or assignment that such purchaser, transferee or assignee has assumed and agreed to carry out any and all agreements, covenants and obligations of Sublandlord hereunder.

SECTION 21.03: The provisions of this Article 21 shall survive any termination of this Sublease.

ARTICLE 22 - NOTICES.

SECTION 22.01: Whenever it is provided herein that notice, notification, demand, request or approval is required, the same shall be in writing and, any law or statute to the contrary notwithstanding, it shall be effective for any purpose if given or served by intracity messenger service or overnight courier service such as Federal Express or by mailing by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, addressed as follows: (a) If by Sublandlord, to Subtenant at the address set forth on the first page of this Sublease, or to such other address as Subtenant may from time to time designate by notice given to Sublandlord; and (b) If by Subtenant, to Sublandlord at the address set forth in the first page, or at such other address as Sublandlord may from time to time designate by notice given to Subtenant. Every notice, demand, request, approval or other communication hereunder by intracity messenger

ARTICLE 26 - MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

SECTION 26.01 - INVALIDITY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS: If any term or provision of this Sublease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall, to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Sublease, or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and each term and provision of this Sublease shall be valid and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

SECTION 26.16 - NO OFFER: The delivery of an unsigned copy of this Sublease to Subtenant shall not constitute an offer to Sublease the Demised Premises or grant any rights to Subtenant as a result thereof, and this Sublease shall not be binding on Sublandlord or Subtenant until executed by Sublandlord and Subtenant and delivered.

SECTION 26.17 - REASONABLENESS; CONSTRUCTION: This Sublease shall be construed fairly as between both Sublandlord and Subtenant and without regard to which party drafted the same. To the extent that there are certain provisions of this Sublease in which Sublandlord may withhold its consent "for any reason whatsoever" and other provisions which prohibit certain assignments and subleases or allow Sublandlord in certain circumstances to terminate this Sublease in lieu of, or share profit upon, an assignment or subletting of all or any portion of the Demised Premises or a cessation of business therein, such specific provisions, which may be viewed as allowing Sublandlord to deviate from a standard of reasonableness which is imposed on Sublandlord and Subtenant in connection with other provisions of this Sublease, have been lengthily negotiated and bargained for and represent a material part of the consideration to be received by each party. The parties specifically acknowledge and agree:

1. Both Sublandlord and Subtenant are sophisticated parties;

2. Neither party has unequal bargaining power;

3. Subtenant, as of the date of execution of this Sublease, is a corporation, and Sublandlord is a general partnership representing sophisticated business persons, real estate investors and developers;

4. Each party has been represented by counsel of their own choosing who have advised the parties;

5. The parties, bearing in mind the rights, duties and obligations of the parties to honor the implied covenants of good faith and fair dealing, have specifically bargained for and agreed that it is the intent of the parties that Sublandlord, except where provided in this Sublease that it shall not unreasonably withhold its consent, may exercise its consent authority pursuant to a subjective standard of sole discretion, and further that it is the intent of the parties that no person interpreting this Sublease shall have the right to impose any standard on, or restriction of, Sublandlord's rights, except where specifically stated to the contrary, (i) to withhold consent for any reason whatsoever, or (ii) which restrict or condition Sublandlord's consent on payment being made to Sublandlord, or (iii) which provide for Sublandlord to terminate this Sublease, or (iv) which prohibit certain assignments and subleases; and

6. The parties acknowledge that the provisions in favor of Sublandlord may constitute a restraint on alienation; however, the parties agree that if they are restraints, then they are reasonable restraints on alienation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Sublease under seal as of the day and year first above written.

THE PROVISIONS OF THIS PARAGRAPH 3(b) HAVE BEEN NEGOTIATED; AND THE FOREGOING PROVISIONS ARE INTENDED TO BE A COMPLETE EXCLUSION AND NEGATION OF ANY WARRANTIES BY LANDLORD, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES, ARISING PURSUANT TO THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE OR ANY OTHER LAW NOW OR HEREAFTER IN EFFECT OR ARISING OTHERWISE.

Tenant further acknowledges that to its knowledge (i) the Improvements conform to all Legal Requirements and all requirements of the carriers of all insurance on any of the Leased Premises, (ii) all easements necessary or appropriate for the use or operation of the Leased Premises have been obtained, (iii) all contractors and subcontractors who have performed work on or supplied materials to the Leased Premises have been fully paid, and all materials and supplies have been fully paid for, (iv) the Improvements have been fully completed in a workmanlike manner, and (v) all Equipment necessary for the use or operation of the Leased Premises has been installed and all Equipment in the Leased Premises is presently operative.

4. USE OF LEASED PREMISES; QUIET ENJOYMENT.

(a) Tenant may occupy and use the Leased Premises for any lawful purpose, provided that no Alterations may be made and no additional Improvements may be constructed except in accordance with Paragraph 12, no Equipment may be removed from the Leased Premises except in accordance with paragraphs 11(d), 13(d) and 14(h), and such use will not otherwise violate any provision of this Lease. Tenant shall not permit any unlawful occupation, business or trade to be conducted on any of the Leased Premises or any use to be made thereof contrary to any applicable Legal Requirement then in effect. Tenant shall not use or occupy or permit any of the Leased Premises to be used or occupied, nor do or permit anything to be done in or on any of the Leased Premises, in a manner which would (i) violate any certificate of occupancy affecting any of the Leased Premises, (ii) make void or voidable any insurance then in force with respect to any of the Leased Premises, (iii) make it difficult or impossible to obtain fire or other insurance which Tenant is required to furnish hereunder, (iv) cause structural injury to any of the Improvements, or (v) constitute a public or private nuisance or waste.

(b) Subject to the other provisions of this Lease, so long as no Event of Default exists hereunder, Landlord covenants to do no act to disturb the peaceful and quiet occupation and enjoyment of the Leased Premises by Tenant, provided that Landlord may enter upon and examine any of the Leased Premises at reasonable times and upon five (5) days advance notice to Tenant (except in the event of an emergency or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default in either of which events no notice shall be required) and may take such action with respect to the Leased Premises as is permitted by any provision hereof.

5. TERM. Subject to the provisions hereof, Tenant shall have and hold the Leased Premises for an initial term (such term, as extended or renewed in accordance with the provisions hereof, being called the "Term") commencing on the date hereof and ending on the last day of the one hundred and eightieth (180th) calendar month next following the date hereof. If all Rent and all other sums due hereunder shall not have been fully paid by the end of the Term, Landlord may, at its option, extend the Term until all said sums shall have been fully paid.

Provided this Lease shall not have been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof, the initial Term shall be deemed to be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the initial Term that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the initial Term provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate, this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years. If the initial Term is automatically extended as aforesaid and this Lease has not been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof prior to the expiration of the first extension period, the Term shall be further automatically extended for an additional consecutive period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the first extension period that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the first extension period provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years. If the Term is automatically extended as aforesaid and this Lease has not been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof prior to the expiration of the second extension period, the Term shall be further automatically extended for an additional consecutive period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the second extension period that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the second extension period provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years. If the Term is automatically extended as aforesaid and this Lease has not been terminated pursuant to any provision hereof prior to the expiration of the third extension period, the Term shall be further automatically extended for an additional consecutive period of five (5) years unless Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the third extension period that Tenant is terminating this Lease as of the end of the third extension period provided, however, that Tenant shall have a period equal to the shorter of (a) six (6) months following the date of the notice of intention to terminate or (b) sixty (60) days following the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant that it has entered into a letter of intent with a third party to lease any of the Selected Premises to notify Landlord that it is rescinding its notice to terminate this Lease and in the event Tenant so rescinds its notice to terminate this Lease and the Term shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five (5) years.

In the absence of such notice of termination by Tenant to Landlord and in the absence of any termination of this Lease pursuant to any other provision hereof, the Term shall be automatically extended for the applicable extension period specified above and no instrument of extension or renewal need be executed. Any such extension of the Term shall be subject to and continue in full force and effect all of the provisions of this Lease except that the Basic Rent payable during each extension period shall be as provided in Exhibit "C" attached hereto and made a part hereof.

In the event that Tenant exercises its option not to extend or not to further extend the Term, as hereinabove provided or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder, then Landlord shall have the right during the remainder of the Term then in effect to (a) advertise the availability of the Leased

Premises for sale or for reletting and to erect upon the Leased Premises signs indicating such availability provided that such signs shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Leased Premises by Tenant, and (b) show the Leased Premises to prospective purchasers or tenants at such reasonable times during normal business hours as Landlord may select.

6. RENT.

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as annual rent for the Leased Premises during the Term the amounts determined in accordance with the schedule set forth in Exhibit "D" attached hereto and made a part hereof ("Basic Rent"), commencing on the first day of the first month next following the date hereof and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter during the Term (the said days being called the "Basic Rent Payment Dates"), and shall pay the same at Landlord's address set forth above, or at such other places or to such other Persons as Landlord from time to time may designate to Tenant in writing. Each rental payment shall be made to Landlord on or before the applicable Basic Rent Payment Date in immediately available funds which at the time of such payment shall be legal tender for the payment of public or private debts in the United States of America. Pro rata Basic Rent for the period from the date hereof through the last day of the month hereof shall be paid on the date hereof. Landlord may, at Landlord's option, by written notice to Tenant, require Tenant to pay installments of Basic Rent directly to one or more Persons in addition to Landlord, in such proportions as Landlord may select; and Tenant agrees to make such "split" payments of Basic Rent in the amounts, to the payees and in the manner specified by Landlord in any such notice, provided, however, that Tenant shall not be required to make more than two (2) "split" payments.

(b) Tenant shall pay and discharge when the same shall become due, as additional rent, all other amounts and obligations which Tenant assumes or agrees to pay or discharge pursuant to this Lease (except that amounts payable as liquidated damages pursuant to Paragraph 19(b) (iv) shall not constitute additional rent), together with every fine, penalty, interest and cost which may be added for non-payment or late payment thereof. If any installment of Basic Rent is not paid on or before the due date therefor, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as additional rent, an amount equal to three percent (3%) of the amount of such installment, provided, however, that with respect to the first three (3) late payments in any twelve (12) month period (the first such period to commence on the first Basic Rent Payment Date following the date of this Lease) such late payment charge shall not be payable until two (2) business days following receipt of notice by Tenant that such payment has not been received. From the date of occurrence of any Event of Default until all Events of Default are fully cured, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand, as additional rent, a sum equal to any additional sums which might be payable by Landlord to any lender under any note occasioned by the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Lease. The requirements of Paragraph 19(g) regarding notice and grace periods need not be satisfied prior to the imposition of Additional Rent (as hereinafter defined) under foregoing provisions of this Paragraph 6(b). In addition, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand, as additional rent, interest at the rate (the "Default Rate") of three percent (3%) per annum over the Prime Rate on the following sums until paid in full: (i) all overdue installments of Basic Rent in excess of the payments due under any note for the same period from the respective due dates thereof, (ii) all overdue amounts of additional rent relating to obligations which Landlord shall have paid on behalf of Tenant, from the date of payment thereof by Landlord, and (iii) on all other overdue amounts of additional rent from the date Landlord demands payment. All the foregoing additional rent is herein sometimes called "Additional Rent". In the event of any failure by Tenant to pay or discharge any Additional Rent, Landlord shall have all rights, powers and remedies provided herein, by law or otherwise, in the event of non-payment of Basic Rent.

7. NET LEASE: NON-TERMINABILITY.

(a) This is a net lease and all Rent and all other sums payable hereunder by Tenant shall be paid without notice or demand, and without set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, abatement, suspension, deferment, diminution, deduction, reduction or defense (collectively, a "Set-Off").

(b) This Lease shall not terminate, Tenant shall not have any right to terminate this Lease during the Term (except as otherwise expressly provided herein), Tenant shall not be entitled to any Set-Off of or to any Rent or any other sums payable under this Lease (except as otherwise expressly provided herein), and the obligations of Tenant under this Lease shall not be affected by any interference with Tenant's use of any of the Leased Premises for any reason, including the following: (i) any damage to or destruction of any of the Leased Premises by any cause whatsoever, (ii) any Condemnation, (iii) the prohibition, limitation or restriction of Tenant's use of any of the Leased Premises, (iv) any eviction by paramount title or otherwise as long as the same does not constitute a breach of Paragraph 4(b) hereof, (v) Tenant's acquisition of ownership of any of the Leased Premises other than pursuant to an express provision of this Lease, (vi) any default on the part of Landlord hereunder or under any other agreement as long as the same does not constitute a breach of Paragraph 4(b) hereof, (vii) any latent or other defect in, or any theft or loss of, any of the Leased Premises, (viii) the breach of any warranty of any seller or manufacturer of any of the Equipment, or (ix) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, any present or future Law to the contrary notwithstanding. It is the intention of the parties hereto that the obligations of Tenant hereunder shall be separate and independent covenants and agreements, that all Rent and all other sums payable by Tenant hereunder shall continue to be payable in all events (or, in lieu thereof, Tenant shall pay amounts equal thereto), and that the obligations of Tenant hereunder shall continue unaffected, unless the requirement to pay or perform the same shall have been terminated pursuant to an express provision of this Lease. The obligation to pay Rent or amounts equal thereto shall not be affected by any collection of rents by any governmental body pursuant to a tax lien or otherwise, even though such obligation results in a double payment of Rent.

(c) Tenant agrees that it shall remain obligated under this Lease in accordance with its provisions and that, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, it shall not take any action to terminate, rescind or avoid this Lease, notwithstanding (i) the bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, winding-up or other proceeding affecting Landlord, (ii) the exercise of any remedy, including foreclosure, under the Mortgage or the Assignment, or (iii) any action with respect to this Lease (including the disaffirmance hereof) which may be taken by Landlord, any trustee, receiver or liquidator of Landlord or any court under the Federal Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

(d) Tenant waives all rights which may now or hereafter be conferred by law (i) to quit, terminate or surrender this Lease or any of the Leased Premises, or (ii) to any Set-Off of or to any Rent or any other sums payable under this Lease, except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

8. PAYMENT OF IMPOSITIONS; COMPLIANCE WITH LAW.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 18 hereof (relating to contests) and the exclusions specified in the following paragraph of this Paragraph 8(a), Tenant shall, before interest or penalties are due thereon, pay and discharge all taxes of every kind and nature (including real and Personal property, franchise, withholding, profits and gross receipts taxes), all charges for any easement or agreement maintained for the benefit of any of the Leased Premises, all general and special assessments, levies, permits, inspection and license fees, all water and sewer rents and charges, all charges for utility and communication services relating to any of the Leased Premises, all ground rents, and all other public charges whether of a like or different nature, even if unforeseen or extraordinary, imposed upon or assessed against (i) Tenant, (ii) any of the Leased Premises, (iii) Landlord as a result of or arising in respect of the acquisition, ownership, occupancy, leasing, use, possession or sale of any of the Leased Premises, any activity conducted on the Leased Premises, or Rent (including without limitation, any gross income tax or excise tax levied by any governmental body on or with respect to such Rent), or (iv) Lender by reason of the Note or Mortgage and which (as to this clause (iv)) Landlord has agreed to pay (collectively, the "Impositions").

Nothing in this Lease shall obligate Tenant to pay (A) Federal, State or local income, excess profits, or other taxes, if any, of Landlord or Lender, determined on the basis of their net income, (B) any estate, inheritance, succession, gift or similar tax, or (C) any capital gains tax imposed on Landlord by the State or municipality in which the Leased Premises are located in connection with the sale of any of the Leased Premises or any Federal capital gains tax, unless the taxes referred to in clause (A) above are in lieu of or a substitute for any other tax, assessment or other charge upon or with respect to any of the Leased Premises which, if such other tax, assessment or other charge were in effect, would be payable by Tenant. In the event that any assessment against any of the Leased Premises may be paid in installments, Tenant shall have the option to pay such assessment in installments; and, in such event, Tenant shall be liable only for those installments which become due and payable during the Term. Tenant shall prepare and file all tax reports required by governmental authorities which relate to the Impositions. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord, within ten (10) days of receipt thereof, copies of all settlements and notices pertaining to the Impositions which may be issued by any governmental authority and, within ninety (90) days after the end of each calendar year of the Term, receipts for payments of all Impositions made during such year.

(b) Tenant shall promptly comply with and conform to all of the Legal Requirements, subject to the provisions of Paragraph 18 hereof.

(c) If Tenant fails to comply with any requirement of any Environmental Law in connection with any spill of any Hazardous Substance affecting the Leased Premises or in connection with the deposit, storage, placement or use of any Hazardous Substance at, upon, under or within the Leased Premises or any real estate contiguous thereto, Landlord may, at its sole option, upon prior written notice to Tenant, take any and all actions as Landlord shall deem reasonably necessary or advisable in order to cure such noncompliance. Any amounts so paid, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date of payment by Landlord, shall be immediately due and payable by Tenant to Landlord. Nothing contained herein shall obligate Landlord to cure such noncompliance or release Tenant from any of its obligations hereunder.

(d) Tenant shall notify Landlord immediately after becoming aware thereof of any violation of or noncompliance with any of the covenants contained in this Paragraph hereof and shall forward to Landlord immediately upon receipt thereof copies of all orders, reports, notices, permits, applications or other communications relating to any such violation or noncompliance or any other matter relating in any fashion to any Environmental Law as it may affect or relate to the Leased Premises.

(e) All future leases, subleases or concession agreements relating to the Leased Premises entered into by Tenant shall contain covenants of the other party thereto which are identical to the covenants contained in Paragraphs 8(c) and 8(d).

9. LIENS: RECORDING AND TITLE.

(a) Tenant shall not, directly or indirectly, create or permit to be created or to remain, and shall promptly discharge or remove, any lien on any of the Leased Premises or on any Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant under this Lease, other than the Mortgage, the Assignment, the Permitted Encumbrances and any mortgage, lien, encumbrance or other charge created by or resulting solely from any act or omission of Landlord. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT LANDLORD SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY LABOR, SERVICES OR MATERIALS FURNISHED OR TO BE FURNISHED TO TENANT OR TO ANYONE HOLDING ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES THROUGH OR UNDER TENANT, AND THAT NO MECHANICS' OR OTHER LIENS FOR ANY SUCH LABOR, SERVICES OR MATERIALS SHALL ATTACH TO OR AFFECT THE INTEREST OF LANDLORD IN AND TO ANY OF THE LEASED PREMISES.

(b) Tenant shall execute, deliver and record, file or register from time to time all such instruments as may be required by any present or future Law in order to evidence the respective interests of Landlord and Tenant in any of the Leased Premises, and shall cause this Lease, or a memorandum of this Lease, and any supplement hereto or to such other instrument, if any, as may be appropriate, to be recorded, filed or registered and re-recorded, refiled or re-registered in such manner and in such places as may be required by any present or future Law in order to publish notice and protect the validity or priority of this Lease.

(c) Nothing in this Lease and no action or inaction by Landlord shall be deemed or construed to mean that Landlord has granted to Tenant any right, power or permission to do any act or to make any agreement which may create, give rise to, or be the foundation for, any right, title, interest or lien in or upon the estate of Landlord in any of the Leased Premises.

10. INDEMNIFICATION. Tenant agrees to pay, protect, indemnify, save and hold harmless Landlord and all other Persons described in Paragraph 29 from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, penalties, costs, expenses (including all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), causes of action, suits, claims, demands or judgments of any nature whatsoever, howsoever caused from any of the following (except for an affirmative act or omission of Landlord unless such act or omission is otherwise the obligation of Tenant under this Lease or unless arising from an internal conflict among the partners of Landlord or Persons described in Paragraph 29 that is not related to Tenant's performance under this Lease): (a) any matter pertaining to any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or the ownership, use, non-use, occupancy, operation, condition, design, construction, maintenance, repair or rebuilding of any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property, (b) any injury to or death of any Person or any loss of or damage to any property in any manner arising from the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or from any matter described in clause (a) above, or connected therewith or occurring thereon, whether or not Landlord has or should have knowledge or notice of the defect or condition, if any, causing or contributing to said injury, death, loss, damage or other claim, (c) any violation by Tenant of any provision of this Lease, any contract or agreement to which Tenant is a party, any Legal Requirement or any Permitted Encumbrance, (d) any other cause pertaining to this Lease or any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or the transaction of which this Lease forms a part, or (e) the alleged deposit, storage, disposal, burial, dumping, injecting, spilling, leaking or other use, placement or release in, on, or affecting the Leased Premises of a Hazardous Substance or otherwise arising from any other alleged violation of any of the Environmental Laws including (i) liability for costs of removal or remedial action incurred by the United States Government or the State, or response costs incurred by any other Person or entity, or damages from injury to or destruction or loss of natural resources, including the reasonable costs of assessing such injury, destruction or loss, incurred pursuant to Section 107 of CERCLA, or any successor Section or Act; (ii) liability for costs and expenses of abatement, correction or clean-up, fines, damages, response costs or penalties which arise from the provisions of any of the other Environmental Laws; and (iii) liability for personal injury or property damage arising under any statutory or common-law tort theory, including damages assessed for the maintenance of a public or private nuisance or for carrying on of an abnormally dangerous activity. In case any action or proceeding is brought against Landlord or any other Person described in Paragraph 29 by reason of any such claim, Tenant covenants upon notice from Landlord to resist and defend such action or proceeding by counsel reasonable satisfactory to Landlord, and Landlord or such other Person will cooperate and assist in the defense of such action or proceeding if requested to do so by Tenant.

The obligations of Tenant under this Paragraph 10 shall survive any termination of this Lease.

11. MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR.

(a) Tenant shall at all times, including any Requisition period, maintain the Leased Premises and the Adjoining Property in good repair and condition and, in the case of the Equipment, in good mechanical condition, except for ordinary wear and tear, shall promptly make all repairs (substantially equivalent in quality and workmanship to the original work) of every kind and nature, whether foreseen or unforeseen, which may be required to be made upon or in connection with any of the Leased Premises in order to keep and maintain the Land and

Improvements in as good repair and condition as they were on the date hereof, and the Equipment in as good mechanical condition as it was on the later of the date hereof or the date of its installation, except for ordinary wear and tear, in accordance with the better of the practices generally recognized as then acceptable within the Tenant's industry and in conformity with all legal requirements and insurance requirements. Tenant shall do or cause others to do all shoring of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or of foundations and walls of the Improvements and every other act necessary or appropriate for the preservation and safety thereof, by reason of or in connection with any excavation or other building operation upon any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property, whether or not Landlord shall, by any Legal Requirement, be required to take such action or be liable for failure to do so. Landlord shall not be required to make any Alteration, whether foreseen or unforeseen, or to maintain any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property in any way, and Tenant hereby expressly waives any right which may be provided for in any Law now or hereafter in effect to make Alterations at the expense of Landlord. Any Alteration made by Tenant pursuant to this subparagraph (a) or pursuant to subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph 11 shall be made in conformity with the provisions of Paragraph 12.

(b) Except for the Permitted Encumbrances, in the event that any Improvement, now or hereafter constructed, shall encroach upon any property, street or right-of-way (including the Adjoining Property) adjoining any of the Leased Premises, shall violate the provisions of any restrictive covenant affecting any of the Leased Premises, shall hinder or obstruct any easement or right-of-way to which any of the Leased Premises is subject, or shall impair the rights of others in, to or under any of the foregoing, Tenant shall, promptly after receiving notice or otherwise acquiring knowledge thereof, either (i) obtain valid and effective waivers or settlements of all claims, liabilities and damages resulting from each such encroachment, violation, hindrance, obstruction or impairment, whether the same shall affect Landlord, Tenant or both, or (ii) take such reasonable action as shall be necessary to remove all such encroachments, hindrances or obstructions and to end all such violations or impairments, including, if necessary, making Alterations.

(c) Landlord shall have the right (but no obligation), upon at least five (5) days prior notice to Tenant (or without notice in case of emergency), to enter upon any of the Leased Premises for the purpose of making any Alterations which may be necessary by reason of Tenant's failure to comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this Paragraph 11. Except in case of emergency, the right of entry shall be exercised at reasonable times and at reasonable hours and upon at least five (5) days prior notice. The cost of any such entry, together with the reasonable and actual cost of all such Alterations, shall be Additional Rent; and Tenant shall pay the same to Landlord, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the time of payment by Landlord until paid by Tenant, immediately upon written demand therefor and upon submission of evidence of Landlord's payment of such costs.

(d) Tenant shall, from time to time, to the extent necessary or commercially reasonable, replace with other operational equipment or parts (the "Replacement Equipment") any of the Equipment (the "Replaced Equipment") which shall have (i) become worn out, obsolete or unusable for the purpose for which it is intended, (ii) been taken by a Condemnation as provided in Paragraph 13(d), or (iii) been lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed as provided in Paragraph 14(h); provided, however, that the Replacement Equipment shall (A) be in good operating condition, (B) have a value and useful life at least equal to the value and estimated useful life of the Replaced Equipment immediately prior to the time that the Replaced Equipment had become so worn out, or unusable, so taken, or so lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, and (C) be suitable for a use which is the same or similar to that of the Replaced Equipment. Tenant shall repair at its sole cost and expense all damage to the Leased Premises caused by the removal of Replaced Equipment or other Personal property of Tenant or the installation of Replacement Equipment. All Replacement Equipment shall become the property of Landlord, shall be free and clear of all liens and rights of others and shall become a part of the Equipment to the same extent as the Replaced Equipment had been. If so requested by Landlord in writing, Tenant shall promptly cause to be executed and delivered to Landlord an invoice, bill of sale or other appropriate instrument evidencing the transfer or assignment to Landlord of all estate, right, title and interest (other than the leasehold estate created hereby) of Tenant or any other Person in and to the Replacement Equipment, free from all liens and other exceptions to title; and Tenant shall pay all taxes, fees, costs and other expenses that may become payable as a result thereof. At the expiration of the Term or the sooner termination of this Lease, all Equipment shall be in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

12. ALTERATIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS. Except with respect to the maintenance and repair required to be performed by Tenant pursuant to in Paragraph 11 and otherwise as provided in this Paragraph 12, Tenant shall not with respect to any of Memphis Premises, the New Orleans Premises or the San Antonio Premises (a) make any Alterations the cost of which exceeds $250,000 for any single alteration or $500,000 in the aggregate over the Term, (b) construct upon the Land any additional Improvements or (c) install equipment in the Improvements or accessions to the Equipment, without the prior written approval of Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In addition, Tenant shall not do any other act which, in the sole opinion of Landlord, would tend to impair the value of the Leased Premises. Tenant agrees that (i) the market value of the Leased Premises shall not be lessened by any such Alteration, construction or installation, or its usefulness impaired, (ii) all such Alterations, construction and installations shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner, (iii) all such Alterations, construction and installations shall be expeditiously completed in compliance with all Legal Requirements, (iv) all work done in connection with any such Alteration, construction or installation shall comply with the requirements of all insurance policies required to be maintained by Tenant hereunder, (v) Tenant shall promptly pay all costs and expenses of any such Alteration, construction or installation and shall discharge or remove all liens filed against any of the Leased Premises arising out of the same, (vi) Tenant shall procure and pay for all permits and licenses required in connection with any such Alteration, construction or installation shall be the property of Landlord and shall be subject to this Lease, and (viii) Tenant shall comply, to the extent requested by Landlord, with the provisions of clauses (i) through (iv) of Paragraph 15(a).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall be permitted to construct additional Improvements upon the Land in order to expand the existing facilities so long as (a) Landlord receives prior written notice of Tenant's intention to construct such Improvements and (b) Tenant complies fully with all of the provisions of this Paragraph 12, including, but not limited to, subparagraphs (i) through (viii) herein.

13. Condemnation.

(a) Tenant, immediately upon receiving a Condemnation Notice, shall notify Landlord thereof and, so long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing, Tenant shall have the right on behalf of Tenant, Landlord and Lender to negotiate the settlement in any Condemnation proceeding and/or threat thereof and to contest the Condemnation and/or the amount of the Net Award therefor, all at Tenant's expense; provided, however, that if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing Tenant shall have no right to participate in any such proceedings, negotiation or contest. Lender shall be entitled to participate with Tenant in any such proceeding, negotiation and/or contest, all at Tenant's expense, provided, however, that so long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing counsel selected by Tenant shall represent Tenant, Landlord and Lender in any such proceeding, negotiation and/or contest. Subject to the provisions of this Paragraph 13, Tenant hereby irrevocably assigns to Landlord any award or payment to which Tenant is or may be entitled by reason of any Condemnation, whether the same shall be paid or payable for Tenant's leasehold interest hereunder or otherwise; but nothing in this Lease shall impair Tenant's right to any award or payment on account of Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment or other tangible property which is not part of the Equipment, moving expenses or loss of business, if available, to the extent that and so long as (i) Tenant shall have the right to make, and does make, a separate claim therefor against the condemnor and (ii) such claim does not in any way reduce either the amount of the award otherwise payable to Landlord for the Condemnation of Landlord's fee interest in the Leased Premises or the amount of the award (if any) otherwise payable for the Condemnation of Tenant's leasehold interest hereunder.

(b) If (i) the entire "New Orleans Premises", the entire "Memphis Premises" or the entire "San Antonio Premises" or (ii) any substantial portion of the "New Orleans Premises", the Memphis Premises" or the "San Antonio Premises", which portion Tenant determines, in good faith, to be sufficient to render the remaining portion thereof uneconomic for the use of Tenant or any other tenant to which such premises might reasonably be leased, shall be taken by a Taking or under threat thereof, (any one or all of which is affected by a taking described in (i) or (ii) being hereinafter referred to as the "Affected Premises") then Tenant shall, not later than thirty (30) days after Landlord gives Tenant notice that Landlord has received a Condemnation Notice or Tenant otherwise receives a Condemnation Notice, give notice to Landlord of its intention to terminate this Lease as to the Affected Premises on the first Basic Rent Payment Date (the "Termination Date") occuring after the date on which the Landlord rejects Tenant's offer to purchase the Affected Premises.

Such notice of intention to terminate shall contain (A) an irrevocable offer of Tenant to purchase the remaining portion of the Affected Premises, if any, on the Termination Date for the purchase price (the "Termination Offer Amount") specified in the next sentence and (B) in the event that less than the entire Affected Premises shall have been taken or be under threat thereof, a certificate of Tenant, signed by the president or a vice president thereof, stating that, in Tenant's good faith judgment, the portion of the Affected Premises so taken or under threat thereof is sufficient to fulfill the conditions set forth in clause (ii) of the first subparagraph of this Paragraph 13(b) and certifying that Tenant will forever abandon operations on the remainder of the Affected Premises. The Termination Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Affected Premises as of the date immediately prior to the Condemnation Notice or (2) the sum of that portion of the Acquisition Cost applicable to the Affected Premises, as set forth in Exhibit "E" attached hereto and made a part hereof, and one-half of any prepayment penalty or premium up to a maximum payment by Tenant of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) which may be payable under a Note or Mortgage. Promptly upon the delivery to Landlord of such notice of intention to terminate, Landlord and Tenant shall commence to determine such Fair Market Value in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 27.

Tenant agrees that no rejection of an offer hereunder shall be effective for any purpose unless consented to by Lender. If Landlord shall reject such offer by notice to Tenant, containing the written consent of Lender to such rejection, not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, then upon (x) payment of all Rent and any other charges due and unpaid under this Lease as of the Termination Date and (y) compliance by Tenant with all other obligations and liabilities under this Lease which have arisen on or prior to the Termination Date, this Lease shall terminate on the Termination Date as to the Affected Premises and Tenant shall promptly vacate and have no further right, title or interest in or to any of the Affected Premises.

Unless Landlord shall have rejected such offer by the foregoing notice to Tenant not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted such offer. If such offer is accepted by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Termination Offer Amount on the Termination Date and, provided all Rent and other sums due and unpaid hereunder are paid in full, Landlord shall convey to Tenant the remaining portion of the Affected Premises, if any, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16 and Landlord shall assign to Tenant its entire interest in and to the Net Award including any part thereof that has not been received by Landlord and/or deliver to Tenant or credit against the Termination Offer Amount such Net Award including any part thereof which shall have been received by Landlord.

(c) In the event of any Taking of any of the Land or Improvements which does not result in a termination of this Lease as to any or all of the "New Orleans Premises", the "Memphis Premises", or the "San Antonio Premises", the Term shall, notwithstanding the Taking, continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder, except as expressly provided in Paragraph 15(b). Promptly after such Taking, Tenant, as required in Paragraph 11(a), shall commence and diligently continue to restore the Improvements as nearly as possible to their value, condition and character immediately prior to such Taking, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 12. Landlord shall make the Net Award available to Tenant as and when received by Landlord for restoration in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Paragraph 15(a).

In the event of a Requisition of any of the Land or Improvements, if Landlord is required to pay the Net Award of such Requisition to Lender in accordance with the provisions of the Note and the Mortgage and the debt service payments due under the Note are thereafter reduced by virtue of such payment of the Net Award to Lender, then each installment of Basic Rent payable on or after the effective date of such reduction in debt service shall be reduced in the same amount and for the same period as payments are reduced under the Note. In the event that the Net Award of a Requisition of any of the Land or Improvements is retained by Landlord, Landlord shall apply such Net Award, to the extent received, to the installments of Basic Rent thereafter payable until such Net Award has been applied in full or until the Term hereof has expired, whichever first occurs. Upon the expiration of the Term, any portion of such Net Award which shall not have been previously credited to Tenant shall be retained by Landlord.

(d) If any of the Equipment shall be taken by a Condemnation other than a Condemnation which falls within the provisions of Paragraph 13(b), the Term shall nevertheless continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder. Tenant shall, whether or not the Net Award is sufficient for the purpose, promptly replace the Equipment so taken, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 11(d), and the Net Award of such a Condemnation made for the loss of the replaced Equipment only shall thereupon be payable to Tenant. The remainder of the Net Award shall be applied as hereinabove provided.

(e) Except as specifically provided in subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph 13, no agreement with any condemnor in settlement of or under threat of any Condemnation shall be made by Tenant without the written consent of Landlord and Lender.

14. INSURANCE.

(a) Tenant shall maintain at its sole cost and expense the following insurance on or in connection with the Leased Premises:

(i) Insurance against loss or damage to the Improvements and Equipment by fire and other risks from time to time included under standard extended and additional extended coverage policies, including vandalism and malicious mischief, sprinkler, plate glass and flood insurance, to the extent any of the Leased Premises are in a flood zone, in amounts not less than the actual replacement value of the Improvements and Equipment, excluding footings and foundations and other parts of the Improvements which are not insurable (or, in the case of plate glass insurance, the replacement cost of all plate glass in the Leased Premises). Such policies shall contain replacement cost endorsements.

(ii) General public liability insurance against claims for bodily injury, death or property damage occurring on, in or about any of the Leased Premises or the Adjoining Property, in an amount not less than $1,000,000 primary combined single limit for bodily injury or death and/or property damage, each occurrence with a general aggregate limit of $2,000,000, combined single limit, not less than $20,000,000 umbrella combined single limit; provided, however, that Landlord shall have the right to determine such other limits as may be reasonable and customary for transactions and properties of this size and type. Policies for such insurance shall be for the mutual benefit of Landlord, Tenant and Lender.

(iii) Worker's compensation insurance covering all fulltime employees of Tenant employed in connection with any work done on or about any of the Leased Premises for which claims for death or bodily injury could be asserted against Landlord, Tenant or any of the Leased Premises, or, in lieu of such worker's compensation insurance, a program of self-insurance complying with the rules, regulations and requirements of the appropriate agency of the State.

(iv) To the extent that the Improvements include at any time Equipment or any other equipment on or in the Leased Premises which by reason of its use or existence is capable of bursting, erupting, or exploding, boiler and pressure vessel insurance on any such Equipment, in an amount not less than $5,000,000 for damage to property, bodily injury or death resulting from such perils.

(v) Such other insurance, including business interruption insurance which would provide an amount necessary to pay Rent for at least one (1) year, on or in connection with any of the Leased Premises as Landlord or Lender may reasonably require, which at the time is prudent for Tenant's industry and is commonly obtained in connection with properties similar to the Leased Premises.

(b) The insurance required by Paragraph 14(a) shall be written by companies of recognized financial standing which are approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, and are authorized to do an insurance business in the State. The insurance policies (i) shall be for such terms as Landlord may reasonably approve, (ii) shall be in amounts sufficient at all times to satisfy any coinsurance requirements thereof, and (iii) shall (except for the worker's compensation insurance referred to in Paragraph 14(a)(iii) hereof) name Landlord, Tenant and Lender as insured parties, as their respective interests may appear. If said insurance or any part thereof shall expire, be withdrawn, become void, voidable, unreliable or unsafe for any reason, including a breach of any condition thereof by Tenant or the failure or impairment of the capital of any insurer, or if for any other reason whatsoever said insurance shall become unsatisfactory to Landlord, Tenant shall promptly obtain new or additional insurance reasonably satisfactory to Landlord.

(c) Each insurance policy referred to in clauses (i), (iv) and (v) of Paragraph 14(a) shall contain standard non-contributory mortgagee clauses in favor of and reasonably acceptable to Lender. Each policy required by any provision of Paragraph 14(a), except clause (iii) thereof, shall provide that it may not be cancelled except after thirty (30) days' prior notice to Landlord and Lender except for the non-payment of premiums which shall require at least ten (10) days notice of cancellation. Each such policy shall also provide that any loss otherwise payable thereunder shall be payable notwithstanding (i)

any act or omission of Landlord or Tenant which might, absent such provision, result in a forfeiture of all or a part of such insurance payment, (ii) the occupation or use of any of the Leased Premises for purposes more hazardous than those permitted by the provisions of such policy, (iii) any foreclosure or other action or proceeding taken by Lender pursuant to any provision of the Mortgage upon the happening of an event of default therein, or (iv) any change in title to or ownership of any of the Leased Premises.

(d) Tenant shall pay as they become due in installments or otherwise all premiums for the insurance required by this Paragraph 14, shall renew or replace each policy and deliver to Landlord evidence of the payment of the full premium or next succeeding installment, as the case may be, therefor at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration date of such policy, and shall promptly deliver to Landlord all original policies; and in the event of Tenant's failure to comply with any of the foregoing requirements, Landlord shall be entitled, but not obligated, to procure such insurance. Any sums expended by Landlord in procuring such insurance shall be Additional Rent and shall be repaid by Tenant, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the time of payment by Landlord until fully paid by Tenant, immediately upon written demand therefor by Landlord.

(e) Tenant shall have the replacement cost and insurable value of the Improvements determined from time to time as required by the replacement cost endorsements and shall deliver to Landlord the new replacement cost endorsement or certificate evidencing such endorsement promptly upon Tenant's receipt thereof. If, at any time, a replacement cost endorsement is not available, Tenant shall have the replacement cost and insurable value of the Improvements determined at least once a year by the underwriter of fire insurance on the Leased Premises or, if such underwriter will not act, by a qualified appraiser satisfactory to Landlord, and shall deliver to Landlord such determination promptly upon receipt.

(f) Tenant shall promptly comply with and conform to (i) all provisions of each insurance policy required by this Paragraph 14 and (ii) all requirements of the insurers thereunder, applicable to Landlord, Tenant or any of the Leased Premises or to the use, manner of use, occupancy, possession, operation, maintenance, alteration or repair of any of the Leased Premises, even if such compliance necessitates structural changes or improvements or results in interference with the use or enjoyment of any of the Leased Premises. Tenant shall not use any of the Leased Premises in any manner which would permit the insurer to cancel or increase the premium for any insurance policy.

(g) In the event of any loss, Tenant shall give Landlord and Lender immediate notice thereof. So long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing, Tenant is hereby authorized to adjust and compromise, in its discretion, all claims under any of the insurance policies required by this Paragraph 14 (except public liability insurance claims payable to a person other than Tenant, Landlord or Lender) and to execute and deliver of behalf of Landlord and Lender all necessary proofs of loss, receipts, vouchers and release required by the insurers; and Landlord agrees to sign, upon the request of Tenant, all such proofs of loss, receipts, vouchers and releases. However, if Lender so elects, Lender shall adjust and compromise any and all such claims. Any adjustment, settlement or compromise of any such claim shall be subject to the prior written approval of Lender unless Tenant receives a prior written waiver from Lender, and Lender shall have the right to prosecute or contest, or to require Tenant to prosecute or contest, any such claim, adjustment, settlement or compromise, all at Tenant's expense. All proceeds of any insurance required under clauses (i) (in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), (ii), (except proceeds payable to a person other than Tenant, Landlord or Lender), (iv) and (v) of Paragraph 14(a) shall be payable to Landlord and Lender. Each insurer is hereby authorized and directed to make payment under said policies, including return of unearned premiums, directly to Landlord and Lender instead of to Landlord and Tenant jointly (except for a casualty loss payment of less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) which shall be paid directly to Tenant); and Tenant hereby appoints each of Landlord and Lender as Tenant's attorneys-in-fact to endorse any draft therefor.

In the event of any casualty (whether or not insured against) resulting in damage to any of the Improvements which does not result in a termination of this Lease, the Term shall, notwithstanding such casualty, continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder, except as expressly provided in Paragraph 15(b). Promptly after such casualty, Tenant, as required in Paragraph 11(a), shall commence and diligently continue to restore the Improvements as nearly as possible to their value, condition and character immediately prior to such damage, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 12. Landlord shall make such Net Proceeds available to Tenant as and when received by Landlord for restoration by Tenant in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Paragraph 15(a).

In the event of any loss of any of the Equipment in a casualty which does not result in a termination of this Lease, the Term shall nevertheless continue and there shall be no abatement or reduction of Rent or any other sums payable by Tenant hereunder. Tenant shall, whether or not the Net Proceeds are sufficient for the purpose, promptly repair or replace such Equipment, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 11(d), and the Net Proceeds paid for the loss of such Equipment only shall thereupon be payable to Tenant. The remainder of the Net Proceeds shall be applied as hereinabove provided.

(h) If (a) the entire "New Orleans Premises", the entire "Memphis Premises" or the entire "San Antonio Premises" or (b) a substantial portion of the "New Orleans Premises", the "Memphis Premises" and the "San Antonio Premises", shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty and, in Tenant's good faith judgment, it is uneconomical to replace, repair or restore the Affected Premises within one hundred and fifty (150) days of the date of such casualty for continued use and occupancy by Tenant or any other tenant to which the Affected Premises might reasonably be leased (any one or all of which is affected by a fire or casualty described in (a) or (b) being hereinafter referred to as the "Affected Premises"), then Tenant shall, not later than twenty (20) days after such occurrence, give notice to Landlord of its intention to terminate this Lease as to the Affected Premises on the first Basic Rent Payment Date (the "Casualty Termination Date") which occurs after the date on which Landlord rejects Tenant's offer to purchase the Affected Premises.

Such notice shall contain (A) an irrevocable offer of Tenant to purchase the Affected Premises on the Casualty Termination Date for the purchase price (the "Casualty Offer Amount") specified in the next sentence and (B) a certificate of Tenant, signed by the president or a vice president of Tenant, stating that, in Tenant's good faith judgment, the portion of the Affected Premises so damaged or destroyed is sufficient to render the Affected Premises uneconomical for restoration for continued use and occupancy by Tenant or any other tenant to which the Affected Premises might be leased and certifying that Tenant will not restore the Affected Premises for the use to which such Premises was devoted prior to such damage or destruction. The Casualty Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Affected Premises as of the date immediately prior to such casualty or (2) the sum of that portion of the Acquisition Cost applicable to the Affected Premises, as set forth in Exhibit "E", and one-half (1/2) of any prepayment penalty or premium up to a maximum payment by Tenant of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) which may be payable under a Note or Mortgage. Promptly upon the delivery of such notice from Tenant to Landlord, Landlord and Tenant shall commence to determine such Fair Market Value in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 27.

No rejection of an offer hereunder shall be effective for any purpose unless consented to by Lender. If Landlord shall reject such offer by notice to Tenant, containing the written consent of Lender to such rejection, not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, then upon (x) payment of all Rent and any other charges due and unpaid under this Lease as of the Casualty Termination Date and (y) compliance by Tenant with all other obligations and liabilities under this Lease which have arisen on or prior to the Casualty Termination Date, this Lease shall terminate on the Casualty Termination Date as to the Affected Premises and Tenant shall promptly vacate and have no further right, title or interest in or to any of the Affected Premises.

Unless Landlord shall have rejected such offer by the foregoing notice to Tenant not later than the twentieth (20th) day prior to the Casualty Termination Date, Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted such offer. If such offer is accepted by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Casualty Offer Amount on the Casualty Termination Date and, provided an Event of Default does not then exist, Landlord shall convey to Tenant the Affected Premises in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16 and, provided all Rent and other sums due and unpaid under this Lease are paid in full, Landlord shall assign to Tenant its entire interest in and to the Net Proceeds including any part thereof that has not been received by Landlord and/or deliver to Tenant or credit against the Casualty Offer Amount such Net Proceeds including any part thereof which shall have been received by Landlord.

(i) Tenant shall not carry separate insurance concurrent in form or contributing in the event of loss with that required in this Paragraph 14 unless (i) Landlord and Lender are included therein as named insureds, with loss payable as provided herein, and (ii) such separate insurance complies with the other provisions of this Paragraph 14. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of such separate insurance and shall deliver to Landlord the original policies therefor.

15. RESTORATION; REDUCTION OF RENT.

(a) If (on the basis of a cost breakdown provided by Tenant) the cost of restoration is reasonably estimated by Landlord to be One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) or less, then, so long as an Event of Default has not occurred and is continuing, such amount shall be disbursed to Tenant from the Net Proceeds or a Net Award, and Tenant shall promptly restore the Affected Premises in accordance with and subject to Paragraph 12 of this Lease. Net Proceeds or a Net Award which are for restoration of the Land or Improvements the cost of which is reasonably estimated of Landlord to be in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) shall be disbursed to Tenant only in accordance with the following conditions:

(i) prior to commencement of restoration, the architects, contracts, contractors, plans and specifications for the restoration shall have been approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; Landlord shall be provided with mechanics' lien insurance (if available) and acceptable performance and payment bonds which insure satisfactory completion of the restoration, are in an amount and form and have a surety acceptable to Landlord, and name Landlord and Lender as additional dual obligees; and appropriate waivers of mechanics' and materialmen's liens shall have been filed;

(ii) at the time of any disbursement, no Event of Default shall exist and no mechanics' or materialmen's liens shall have been filed against any of the Leased Premises and remain undischarged;

(iii) disbursements shall be made from time to time in an amount not exceeding the cost of the work completed since the last disbursement, upon receipt of (A) satisfactory evidence, including architects' certificates, of the stage of completion, of the estimated cost of completion and of performance of the work to date in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with the contracts, plans and specifications, (B) waivers of liens for work covered by the prior disbursement, (C) contractors' and subcontractors' sworn statements as to completed work for which payment is requested, (D) a satisfactory bringdown of title insurance, and (E) other evidence of cost and payment so that Landlord can verify that the amounts disbursed from time to time are represented by work that is completed, in place and free and clear of mechanics' and materialmen's lien claims;

(iv) each request for disbursement shall be accompanied by a certificate of Tenant, signed by the president or a vice president of Tenant, describing the work for which payment is requested, stating the cost incurred in connection therewith, stating that Tenant has not previously received payment for such work and, upon completion of the work, also stating that the work has been fully completed and complies with the applicable requirements of this Lease;

(v) Landlord may retain ten percent (10%) of the restoration fund until the restoration is fifty percent (50%) completed;

(vi) the restoration fund may not be commingled with Landlord's other funds and shall bear interest which shall be added to the restoration fund;

(vii) at all times the undisbursed balance of the restoration fund held by Landlord shall be not less than the cost of completing the restoration work free and clear of all liens; and

(viii) such other reasonable conditions as Landlord may impose.

In addition, prior to commencement of restoration and at any time during restoration, if the estimated cost of completing the restoration work free and clear of all liens, as determined by Landlord, exceeds the amount of the Net Proceeds or the Net Award available for such restoration, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand by Landlord, be paid by Tenant to Landlord to be added to the restoration fund. Any sum which remains in the restoration fund upon completion of restoration (the "Remaining Sum") shall be refunded to Tenant, unless such sum is required to be applied by

Landlord to reduce principal outstanding under the Note, in which event it shall be paid by Landlord to Lender to reduce principal outstanding under the Note. For purposes of determining the source of funds with respect to the disposition of funds remaining after the completion of restoration, the Net Proceeds or the Net Award shall be deemed to be disbursed prior to any amount added by Tenant.

(b) In the event that there is a Remaining Sum upon completion of restoration which is paid by Landlord to Lender, as aforesaid, then each installment of Basic Rent payable on or after the effective date of such reduction in debt service shall be reduced in the same amount and for the same period as payments are reduced under the Note.

16. PROCEDURES UPON PURCHASE.

(a) In the event of the purchase of any of the Leased Premises by Tenant pursuant to any provision of this Lease, Landlord need not transfer and convey to Tenant or its designee any better title thereto than that which was transferred and conveyed to Landlord, and Tenant shall accept such title, subject, however, to all Permitted Exceptions and to all liens, exceptions and restrictions on, against or relating to any of the Leased Premises which were created with the concurrence of Tenant or as a result of a default by Tenant under this Lease and to all applicable Laws, but free of the lien of and security interest created by the Mortgage and the Assignment and liens, exceptions and restrictions on, against or relating to the Leased Premises which have been created by or resulted solely from acts of Landlord without the concurrence of Tenant.

(b) Upon the date fixed for any such purchase of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to any provision of this Lease, Tenant shall pay to Landlord or to any Person to whom Landlord directs payment, at its address set forth above, or at any other place designated by Landlord, the Offer Amount therefor specified herein, in federal or other immediately available funds which at the time of such payment shall be legal tender for the payment of public or private debts in the United States of America, less any credits of the Net Award or Net Proceeds allowed against the Offer Amount pursuant to the provisions of Paragraphs 13(b) or 14(i), and Landlord shall thereupon deliver to Tenant (i) a special warranty deed in form satisfactory to Landlord's counsel which describes any of the Leased Premises then being sold to Tenant and conveys and transfers the title thereto which is described in Paragraph 16(a), (ii) such other instruments as shall be necessary to transfer to Tenant or its designee any other property (or rights to any Net Proceeds or Net Award not yet received by Landlord) then required to be sold by Landlord pursuant to this Lease and (iii) any Net Award or Net Proceeds received by Landlord, not credited to Tenant against the Offer Amount and required to be delivered by Landlord to Tenant pursuant to this Lease. Tenant shall pay all reasonable charges incident to such conveyance and transfer, including Landlord's reasonable counsel fees, escrow fees, recording fees, title insurance or guarantee premiums and all applicable federal, state and local taxes which may be incurred or imposed by reason of such conveyance and transfer and/or by reason of the delivery of said deed and other instruments (excluding, however, any capital gains or net income tax payable by Landlord as a result of said transfer). Tenant agrees, upon the request and direction of Landlord, to pay a portion of the Offer Amount as a brokerage commission to Landlord or one of its Affiliates who Tenant acknowledges shall be deemed the broker of record in connection with the transfer of the Leased Premises. Upon the completion of such purchase, but not prior thereto (whether or not any delay in the completion of or any failure to complete such purchase shall be the fault of Landlord), Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease and all obligations hereunder (including the obligations to pay Rent) with respect to any of the Leased Premises conveyed to Tenant, except any obligations and liabilities of Tenant, actual or contingent, under this Lease, which arose on or prior to such date of purchase. In the event that the completion of such purchase shall be delayed for more than ninety (90) days solely as a result of acts or omissions of Tenant, then the Offer Amount payable by Tenant upon the purchase of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to any provisions of this Lease shall, at Landlord's sole option, be determined as of the actual date of such purchase by Tenant, provided that Tenant shall have paid to Landlord all Rent due and payable hereunder to and including such date. Any prepaid Basic Rent or other prepaid sums paid to Landlord shall be prorated as of the date the purchase is completed, and the prorated unapplied balance shall be deducted from the Offer Amount due to Landlord.

No apportionment of any Impositions shall be made upon such purchase, Tenant being liable for payment thereof during the Term as Tenant and being liable thereafter as owner.

17. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING. Tenant may not assign this Lease at any time to any other party without the prior written consent of Landlord; provided, however, that upon prior notice to Landlord, Tenant will have the right to assign this Lease to any party which, immediately following such assignment, complies both with the provisions of Paragraph 31 of this Lease and with the provisions of this Paragraph 17. Tenant may sublet any of the Leased Premises at any other time to any other party without the prior written consent of Landlord. Each sublease of any of the Leased Premises shall be subject and subordinate to the provisions of this Lease. If Tenant assigns all its rights and interest under this Lease, the assignee under such assignment shall expressly assume all the obligations of Tenant hereunder, including obligations, actual or contingent, of Tenant which may have arisen on or prior to the date of such assignment, by a written instrument delivered to Landlord at the time of such assignment. No assignment other than as specifically permitted by this Paragraph and Paragraph 31 and no sublease made as permitted by this Paragraph shall affect or reduce any of the obligations of Tenant hereunder; and all such obligations shall continue in full force and effect as obligations of a principal and not as obligations of a guarantor, as if no assignment or sublease had been made. No assignment or sublease shall impose any obligations on Landlord under this Lease. Tenant shall, within ten (10) days after the execution and delivery of any such assignment, deliver a duplicate original copy thereof in recordable form to Landlord, and within ten (10) days after the execution and delivery of any such sublease, Tenant shall deliver a duplicate original copy thereof to Landlord.

In the event Tenant desires to assign its interest in this Lease or effect a Change in Control (as defined in Paragraph 31) and such assignment or Change of Control would cause a breach of Paragraph 31 and such anticipatory breach is not waived in writing by Landlord within ten (10) days after receipt of notice from Tenant, then Tenant shall, not later than sixty (60) days prior to such occurrence, make an irrevocable offer to purchase the Leased Premises on the first Basic Rent Payment Date (the "Transfer Purchase Date") which occurs after the date on which Landlord accepts Tenant's offer to purchase the Leased Premises for the purchase price (the "Transfer Offer Amount") specified in the next sentence. The Transfer Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises as of the date immediately prior to such assignment or Change in Control or (2) the Acquisition Cost and any prepayment penalty or premium which may be payable under a Note or Mortgage. Promptly upon the deliver of such notice from Tenant to Landlord, Landlord and Tenant shall commence to determine such Fair market Value in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 27.

No rejection of an offer hereunder shall be effective for any purpose unless consented to by Lender. If Landlord shall reject such offer by notice to Tenant, containing the written consent of Lender to such rejection, not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, then the breach of Paragraph 31 shall be deemed waived by Landlord, subject, however, to the terms of this Paragraph 17 and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect.

Unless Landlord shall have rejected such offer by the foregoing notice to Tenant not later than the twentieth (20th) day following the determination of Fair Market Value, Landlord shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted such offer. If such offer is accepted by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Transfer Offer Amount on the Transfer Purchase Date and, provided all Rent and other sums due hereunder are paid in full, Landlord shall convey to Tenant the Leased Premises in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Lease, Landlord shall have the right immediately or at any time thereafter to collect and enjoy all rents and other sums of money payable under any sublease of any of the Leased Premises, and Tenant hereby irrevocably and unconditionally assigns such rents and money to Landlord, which assignment may be exercised upon and after (but not before) the occurrence of an Event of Default. Tenant shall not mortgage or pledge this Lease, and any such mortgage or pledge made in violation of this Paragraph shall be void.

18. PERMITTED CONTESTS. Tenant shall not be required to (a) pay any Imposition, (b) comply with any Legal Requirement, (c) discharge or remove any lien referred to in Paragraph 9 or 12, or (d) take any action with respect to any encroachment, violation, hindrance, obstruction or impairment referred to in Paragraph 11(b), so long as Tenant shall contest, in good faith and at its expense, the existence, the amount or the validity thereof, the amount of the damages caused thereby, or the extent of its or Landlord's liability therefor, by appropriate proceedings which shall operate during the pendency thereof to prevent (i) the collection of, or other realization upon, the Imposition, lien or claim so contested, (ii) the sale, forfeiture or loss of any of the Leased Premises or any Rent to satisfy the same or to pay any damages caused by the violation of any such Legal Requirement or by any such encroachment, violation, hindrance, obstruction or impairment, (iii) any interference with the use or occupancy of any of the Leased Premises, (iv) any interference with the payment of any Rent, and (v) the cancellation of any fire or other insurance policy. If the contested amount is in excess of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00), Tenant shall provide Landlord security which is reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, to assure the payment, compliance, discharge, removal and/or other action, including all costs, attorneys' fees, interest and penalties that may be or become due in connection therewith. While any proceedings which comply with the requirements of this Paragraph 18 are pending and the required security is held by Landlord, Landlord shall not have the right to pay, remove or cause to be discharged the Imposition, lien or claim thereby being contested. Tenant further agrees that each such contest shall be promptly and diligently prosecuted to a final conclusion, except that Tenant shall, so long as the conditions of the first sentence of this Paragraph are at all times complied with, have the right to attempt to settle or compromise such contest through negotiations. Tenant shall pay, and save Landlord harmless against, any and all losses, judgments, decrees and costs (including all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with any such contest and shall, promptly after the final determination of such contest, fully pay and discharge the amounts which shall be levied, assessed, charged or imposed or be determined to be payable therein or in connection therewith, together with all penalties, fines, interest, costs and expenses thereof or in connection therewith, and perform all acts the performance of which shall be ordered or decreed as a result thereof. No such contest shall subject Landlord to the risk of any civil or criminal liability.

19. CONDITIONAL LIMITATIONS; DEFAULT PROVISION.

(a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following events which continue for a period equal to the greater of (i) any grace period specified in this subparagraph 19(a) or in subparagraph 19(g) hereof or (ii) two (2) days less than any applicable grace period, if any, given to Landlord for such default under any Note and Mortgage shall constitute an Event of Default under this Lease: (i) a failure by Tenant to make (regardless of the pendency of any bankruptcy, reorganization, receivership, insolvency or other proceedings, in law, in equity, or before any administrative tribunal, which have or might have the effect of preventing Tenant from complying with the provisions of this

Lease) any payment of Rent or other sum herein required to be paid by Tenant; (ii) a failure by Tenant duly to perform and observe, or a violation or breach of, any other provision or covenant hereof not otherwise specifically mentioned in this Paragraph 19(a); (iii) any representation or warranty made by Tenant herein or in the Assignment or in any certificate, demand or request made pursuant hereto or thereto proves to be incorrect, now or hereafter, in any material respect; (iv) Tenant shall (A) voluntarily be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, (B) seek or consent to the appointment of a receiver or trustee for itself or for any of the Leased Premises, (C) file a petition seeking relief under the bankruptcy or other similar laws of the United States, any state or any jurisdiction, or (D) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (v) a court shall enter an order, judgment or decree appointing, without the consent of Tenant, a receiver or trustee for it or for any of the Leased Premises or approving a petition filed against Tenant which seeks relief under the bankruptcy or other similar laws of the United States, any state or any jurisdiction, and such order, judgment or decree shall remain in force, undischarged or unstayed, sixty (60) days after it is entered; (vi) any Improvement is substantially damaged or destroyed by an uninsured casualty and Tenant fails to commence promptly thereafter to restore the Leased Premises to its condition immediately prior to such casualty or fails to proceed actively, diligently and in good faith with such restoration and to continue such restoration until the Leased Premises have been fully restored; (vii) any of the Leased Premises shall have been vacated or abandoned; (viii) Tenant shall be liquidated or dissolved or shall begin proceedings towards its liquidation or dissolution; (ix) the estate or interest of Tenant in any of the Leased Premises shall be levied upon or attached in any proceeding and such estate or interest is about to be sold or transferred or such proceeding shall not be vacated or discharged within sixty (60) days after it is commenced; or (x) a failure by Guarantor duly to perform and observe any provision under the Guaranty, or a violation or breach of any covenant made by Guarantor under the Guaranty.

(b) If an Event of Default shall have occurred, Landlord shall have the right at its option, then or at any time thereafter to do any one or more of the following without demand upon notice to Tenant (except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (g) of this Paragraph 19):

(i) Landlord shall give Tenant ten (10) days written notice of Landlord's intention to terminate this Lease on a date specified in such notice. Upon the date therein specified, the Term, the estate hereby granted and all rights of Tenant hereunder, shall expire and terminate as if such date were the date herein before fixed for the expiration of the Term, but Tenant shall remain liable for all its obligations hereunder, including its liability for Rent, as hereinafter provided.

(ii) Landlord may, whether or not the Term of this Lease shall have been terminated pursuant to clause (i) above, (A) give Tenant notice to surrender any of the Leased Premises to Landlord immediately or on a date specified in such notice, at which time Tenant shall surrender and deliver possession of the Leased Premises or the specified portion thereof to Landlord or (B) re-enter and repossess any of the Leased Premises, with or without legal process, by peaceably entering the Leased Premises and changing locks or by summary proceedings, ejectment or any other lawful means or procedure. Upon or at any time after taking possession of any of the Leased Premises, Landlord may, by peaceable means or legal process, remove any Persons or property therefrom. Landlord shall be under no liability for or by reason of any such entry, repossession or removal. No such entry or repossession shall be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease unless Landlord gives a written notice of such intention to Tenant pursuant to clause (i) above.

(iii) After repossession of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to clause (ii) above, whether or not this Lease shall have been terminated pursuant to clause (i) above, Landlord shall have the right (but shall be under no obligation) to relet any of the Leased Premises to such tenant or tenants, for such term or terms (which may be greater or less than the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the Term), for such rent, on such conditions (which may include concessions or free rent) and for such uses as Landlord, in its absolute discretion, may determine; and Landlord may collect and receive any rents payable by reason of such releting. Landlord shall have no duty to mitigate damages and shall not be responsible or liable for any failure to relet any of the Leased Premises or for any failure to collect any rent due upon any such releting. Landlord may make such Alterations as Landlord, in its sole discretion, may deem advisable. Tenant agrees to pay Landlord, as Additional Rent, immediately upon demand, all expenses incurred by Landlord in obtaining possession, in performing Alterations and in releting any of the Leased Premises, including fees and commissions of attorneys, architects, agents and brokers.

(iv) Unless Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(v) (as to the entire Leased Premises) or 19(b)(vi) hereof and shall have received all sums due thereunder, Landlord may, upon written demand to Tenant, recover from Tenant, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as and for liquidated and agreed final damages for Tenant's default and in lieu of all current damages beyond the date of such demand (it being agreed that it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to fix the actual damages), an amount equal to the present value of the excess, if any, of (A) all Rent from the date of such demand to the date on which the then Term is scheduled to expire hereunder in the absence of any earlier termination, re-entry or repossession over (B) the then fair market rental value of the Leased Premises for the same period; provided, however, that in the event Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(6)(v) to require the purchase of less than the entire Leased Premises and shall have received all sums due in connection therewith, the Rent referred to in clause (A) above shall be that portion of the Rent which is attributable to that portion of the Leased Premises which is not sold to Tenant pursuant to said Paragraph 19(b)(v) and the fair rental value referred to in clause (B) above shall be the fair rental value of such unsold remainder of the Leased Premises. The present value of such excess shall be determined by discounting the Rent and such fair market rental value at the rate per annum which is the lower of the then Prime Rate or nine percent (9%) per annum. If any Law shall validly limit the amount of such liquidated final damages to less than the amount above agreed upon, Landlord shall be entitled to the maximum amount allowable under such Law.

(v) Unless Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(iv) or 19(b)(vi) hereof and shall have received all sums due thereunder, Landlord may, upon notice to Tenant, require Tenant to make an irrevocable offer to purchase, for the purchase price (the "Default Offer Amount") specified in the next two sentences, either (A) the entire Leased Premises or (B) any one or more of the New Orleans Premises, the San Antonio Premises and the Memphis Premises (such entire Leased Premises or any one or more of the New Orleans Premises, the San Antonio Premises and the Memphis Premises, as applicable, being hereinafter referred to as the "Selected Premises"), as Landlord in its sole discretion may select. The Default Offer Amount shall be the greater of (1) the then Fair Market Value of the Selected Premises, (2) the sum of that portion (determined in accordance with the percentages set forth in Exhibit "F") of the unpaid balance of the Note and Mortgage covering any of the Selected Premises, all interest accrued thereon, and prepayment penalties payable in connection therewith and all other sums due thereunder as of the date of such purchase, or (3) an amount equal to the sum of the Acquisition Cost with respect to the Selected Premises and any prepayment penalty payable under the Loan with respect to the Selected Premises. Upon such notice by Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall be deemed to have made such offer, and the Fair Market Value of the Selected Premises shall be determined in accordance with the procedure set forth in Paragraph 27 hereof. Within thirty (30) days after such determination of the Fair Market Value, Landlord shall accept or reject such offer. If Landlord accepts such offer, then, on the tenth (10th) business day after such acceptance, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Default Offer Amount and purchase the Selected Premises in accordance with Paragraph 16 hereof. Any rejection by Landlord of such offer shall have no effect on any other provision of this Lease.

(vi) Unless Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(vi) or 19(b)(v) (as to the entire Leased Premises) hereof and shall have received all sums due thereunder or shall have repossessed and relet the Leased Premises, Landlord may declare by notice to Tenant the entire Basic Rent (in the amount of Basic Rent then in effect) discounted at the rate per annum which is the lower of the then Prime Rate or nine percent (9%) per annum for the remainder of the then current Term, to be immediately due and payable. In that event, Tenant shall immediately pay to Landlord all such Basic Rent, all accrued Rent then due and unpaid, all other sums which are then due or which would have been due hereunder but for the aforesaid Event of Default and all sums which arise or become due by reason of such Event of Default (including any attorneys' fees and costs). Upon receipt of all such accelerated Basic Rent and other sums, this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and Tenant shall have the right to possession of the Leased Premises from the date Landlord receives the accelerated Basic Rent and all the other said sums to the end of the Term then in effect (or that would be in effect but for the Event of Default) pursuant and subject to all the provisions of this Lease, including the obligation to pay all increases in Basic Rent and all Additional Rent and other sums that subsequently become due, except that (A) no Basic Rent which has been prepaid hereunder shall be due thereafter during the said Term, (B) Tenant shall have no option to extend or renew the then current Term and (C) Tenant shall have no further rights, if any, under Paragraph 28. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event Landlord shall have exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(v) to require the purchase of less than the entire Leased Premises and shall have received all sums due in connection therewith, the Basic Rent to be accelerated pursuant to this Paragraph 19(b)(vi) shall be that portion of the Basic Rent which is attributable to that portion of the Leased Premises which is not sold to Tenant pursuant to said Paragraph 19(b)(v) and Tenant's right to possession pursuant to this Lease shall extend only to such unsold remainder of the Leased Premises.

(vii) Landlord may exercise any other right or remedy now or hereafter existing by Law or in equity.

(c) No expiration or termination of this Lease pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(i) or any other provision of this Lease, by operation of law or otherwise, before the expiration date provided in Paragraph 5 or if applicable the termination date

provided in Paragraph 13(b), 14(i) or 28, no repossession of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(ii) or otherwise, nor any reletting of any of the Leased Premises pursuant to Paragraph (19)(b)(iii) shall relieve Tenant of any of its liabilities and obligations hereunder, including the liability for Rent, all of which shall survive such expiration, termination, repossession or reletting.

(d) In the event of any expiration or termination of this Lease or repossession of any of the Leased Premises by reason of the occurrence of an Event of Default, and provided that Landlord has not exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(iv), 19(b)(v) (as to the entire Leased Premises) or 19(b)(vi) or has not received all sums due thereunder, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all Rent and all other sums required to be paid by Tenant to and including the date of such expiration, termination or repossession and, thereafter, Tenant shall, until the end of what would have been the Term in the absence of such expiration, termination or repossession, and whether or not any of the Leased Premises shall have been relet, be liable to Landlord for, and shall pay to Landlord, as liquidated and agreed current damages (i) Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other sums which would be payable under this Lease by Tenant in the absence of such expiration, termination or repossession, less (ii) the net proceeds, if any, of any reletting pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(iii), after deducting from such proceeds all of Landlord's expenses in connection with such reletting (including all repossession costs, brokerage commissions, legal expenses, attorneys' fees, employees' expenses, costs of Alterations and expenses of preparation for reletting) provided, however, that in the event
Landlord has exercised its remedy under Paragraph 19(b)(v) to require the purchase of less than the entire Leased Premises and has received all sums due in connection therewith, the Rent hereinabove in this Paragraph 19(d) referred to shall mean that portion of the Rent which is applicable to that portion of the Leased Premises which is not sold to Tenant pursuant to said Paragraph 19(b)(v). Tenant hereby agrees to be and remain liable for all sums aforesaid; and Landlord may recover such damages from Tenant and institute and maintain successive actions or legal proceedings against Tenant for the recovery of such damages. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require Landlord to wait to begin such action or other legal proceedings until the date when the Term would have expired by limitation had there been no such Event of Default.

(e) The words "enter," "re-enter," or "re-entry," as used in this Paragraph 19 are not restricted to their technical meaning.

(f) WITH RESPECT TO ANY REMEDY OR PROCEEDING OF LANDLORD HEREUNDER, TENANT WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY.

(g) Except as otherwise hereinafter in this Paragraph 19(g) provided, before an Event of Default shall exist under this Paragraph 19, Landlord shall have given Tenant notice thereof and Tenant shall have failed to cure the default within the applicable grace period stated below. If the default consists of a failure to pay Rent, the applicable grace period shall be two (2) business days from the date such notice is given. If the default consists of the failure to provide any insurance required pursuant to Paragraph 14, the applicable grace period shall be seven (7) days from the date on which the notice is given, but Landlord shall not be obligated to give notice of, or allow any grace period for, any such default more than twice within any twelve (12) month period. If the default consists of something other than the failure to provide any such insurance, the applicable grace period shall be twenty (20) days from the date on which the notice is given or, if the default cannot be cured within the said twenty-day period and delay in the exercise of a remedy would not (in Landlord's reasonable judgment) cause any material adverse harm to Landlord or any of the Leased Premises, the grace period shall be extended for the period required to cure the default (but such grace period, including any extension, shall not in the aggregate exceed sixty (60) days), provided that Tenant shall commence to cure the default within the said twenty-day period and shall actively, diligently and in good faith proceed with and continue the curing of the default until it shall be fully cured. However, no notice or grace period shall be required in any one or more of the following events: (i) substantial damage to any of the Leased Premises will, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, probably occur unless a remedy is exercised promptly; (ii) the occurrence of a default under clause (iii), (iv), (v), (viii), or (ix) of subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph 19; or (iii) the default is such that any delay in the exercise of a remedy by Landlord could reasonably be expected to cause irreparable harm to Landlord.

20. Additional Rights of Landlord.

(a) No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to Landlord is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and each and every right and remedy shall be cumulative and in addition to any other right or remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing by Law or in equity. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, Landlord shall have the right (but no obligation) to perform any act required of Tenant hereunder, whether as agent for Tenant or otherwise; and the cost thereof shall be Additional Rent hereunder and shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date such cost is incurred until it shall be fully paid by Tenant, immediately upon demand. Tenant agrees that Tenant shall be liable to Landlord for any and all damages suffered or incurred by Landlord in connection with any Event of Default and Tenant further agrees that Landlord shall be entitled to exercise any and all remedies existing at law or in equity for the recovery thereof. Tenant acknowledges that time is of the essence in the performance of its obligations under this Lease. No failure of Landlord (i) to insist at any time upon the strict performance of any provision of this Lease or (ii) to exercise any option, right, power or remedy contained in this Lease shall be construed as a waiver, modification or relinquishment thereof. A receipt by Landlord of any Rent or other sum due hereunder with knowledge of the breach of any provision contained in this Lease shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach, and no waiver by Landlord of any provision of this Lease shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in a writing signed by Landlord. In addition to the other remedies provided in this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, to injunctive relief in case of the violation, or attempted or threatened violation, of any of the provisions of this Lease, or to specific performance of any of the provisions of this Lease.

(b) Tenant hereby waives and surrenders, for itself and all those claiming under it, including creditors of all kinds, (i) any right and privilege which it or any of them may have under any present or future Law to redeem any of the Leased Premises or to have a continuance of this Lease after termination of this Lease or of Tenant's right of occupancy or possession pursuant to any court order or any provision hereof, and (ii) the benefits of any present or future Law which exempts property from liability for debt or for distress for rent.

(c) Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, all the expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with any Event of Default or the exercise of any remedy by reason of an Event of Default or otherwise in connection with the enforcement of this Lease, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses. If Landlord shall be made a party to any litigation commenced against Tenant or any litigation pertaining to this Lease or any of the Leased Premises (except litigation among the partners of Landlord or other Persons described in Paragraph 29 which does not arise out of any act or omission of Tenant under this Lease), then, at the option of Landlord, Tenant, at its expense, shall provide Landlord with counsel approved by Landlord and, in any event, Tenant shall pay all costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred or paid by Landlord in connection with such litigation; provided, however, that if in a non-appealable decision, a court of competent jurisdiction determines that Landlord was the sole cause of litigation pertaining to this Lease or any of the Leased Premises then all costs and fees incurred by Tenant in connection with such litigation shall be refunded to Tenant.

21. NOTICES. All notices, demands, requests, consents, approvals, offers, statements and other instruments or communications required or permitted to be given pursuant to the provisions of this Lease shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given for all purposes when delivered in Person or by Federal Express or other 24-hour delivery service or five (5) business days after being deposited in the United States mail, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the other party at its address stated above. A copy of any notice given by Tenant to Landlord shall simultaneously be given by Tenant to Reed Smith Shaw & McClay, 1600 Avenue of the Arts Building, Philadelphia, PA 19107, Attention: Chairman, Real Estate Department. For the purposes of this Paragraph, any party may substitute its address by giving fifteen (15) days' notice to the other party, in the manner provided above.

22. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE. Tenant shall, at any time and from time to time, but not more than three (3) times in any calendar year, upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written request by Landlord, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a statement in writing, executed by the president or a vice president of Tenant, certifying (a) that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if there have been modifications, that this Lease is in full force and effect as modified, and setting forth such modifications), (b) the dates to which Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other sums payable hereunder have been paid, (c) that, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, no default by either Landlord or Tenant exists hereunder or specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge, and (d) that, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, there are no proceedings pending or threatened against Tenant before or by any court or administrative agency which, if adversely decided, would materially and adversely affect the financial condition and operations of Tenant or, if any such proceedings are pending or threatened to said signer's knowledge, specifying and describing the same. It is intended that any such statements by Tenant may be relied upon by Lender, Landlord or their assignees or by any prospective purchaser or mortgagee of the Leased Premises.

Landlord shall, at any time and from time to time but not more often than twice in any twelve (12) month period upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written request by Tenant, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Tenant a statement in writing, executed by a general partner of landlord certifying (a) that this Lease in unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if there have been modifications, that this Lease is in full force and effect as modified, and setting forth such modifications), (b) the dates to which Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other sums payable hereunder have been paid, (c) that, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, no default by Tenant exists hereunder of specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge. It is intended that nay such statements by Landlord may be relied upon by Tenant, its lenders or its permitted assignees.

23. SURRENDER. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall peaceably leave and surrender the Leased Premises (except for any portion thereof with respect to which this Lease has previously terminated or with respect to which Tenant has purchased) to Landlord in the same condition in which the Leased Premises were originally received from Landlord at the commencement of this Lease, except as repaired, rebuilt, restored, altered, replaced or added to as permitted or required by any provision of this Lease, and except for ordinary wear and tear. Tenant shall remove from the Leased Premises on or prior to such expiration or earlier termination all property which is owned by Tenant or third parties other than Landlord and Tenant; and Tenant, at its expense, shall, on or prior to such expiration or earlier termination, repair any damage caused by such removal. Property not so removed shall become the property of Landlord; Landlord may thereafter cause such property to be removed from the Leased Premises; and the cost of removing and disposing of such property and repairing any damage to any of the Leased Premises caused by such removal shall be borne by Tenant. Landlord shall not in any manner or to any extent be obligated to reimburse Tenant for any such property which becomes the property of Landlord upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

24. RISK OF LOSS. The risk of loss or of decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of any of the Leased Premises in consequence of the damage or destruction thereof by fire, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, wars or otherwise, or in consequence of foreclosure, attachments, levies or executions, is assumed by Tenant, and Landlord shall in no event be answerable or accountable therefor. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, none of the events mentioned in this Paragraph shall entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

25. No Merger of Title. There shall be no merger of this Lease nor of the leasehold estate created by this Lease with the fee estate in or ownership of any of the Leased Premises by reason of the fact that the same Person may acquire or hold or own, directly or indirectly, (a) the leasehold estate created by this Lease or any part thereof or interest therein or any interest of Tenant in this Lease, and (b) the fee estate or ownership of any of the Leased Premises or any interest in such fee estate or ownership; and no such merger shall occur unless and until all Persons having any interest in (i) this Lease as Tenant or the leasehold estate created by this Lease and (ii) this Lease as Landlord or the fee estate in or ownership of the Leased Premises or any part thereof sought to be merged shall join in a written instrument effecting such merger and shall duly record the same.

26. BOOKS AND RECORDS. Tenant shall permit Landlord and Lender by their respective agents, accountants and attorneys, to visit and inspect the Leased Premises and to discuss the finances and business with the officers of Tenant, at such reasonable times as may be requested by Landlord, and, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, to examine the records and books of account Tenant, at such reasonable times as may be requested by Landlord.

Tenant shall deliver to Landlord and to Lender (i) within thirty (30) days of the end of each calendar month the monthly management reports of Tenant for the prior calendar month and (ii) within ninety (90) days of the close of each fiscal year annual audited financial statements of Tenant prepared by independent certified public accountants satisfactory to Landlord, and such other relevant financial data as Landlord may reasonably require pertaining to Tenant or to the Leased Premises. Tenant shall also furnish to Landlord all filings, if any, of Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and other required filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any other Law. All financial statements of Tenant shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied and the annual statements hereinabove referred to shall be accompanied by an unqualified opinion of said accountants and by the affidavit of the president or a vice president of Tenant dated within five (5) days of the delivery of such statement, (a) stating that the affiant knows of no Event of Default or event which, upon notice or the passage of time or both, would become an Event of Default which has occurred and is continuing hereunder, or, if any such event has occurred and is continuing, specifying the nature and period of existence thereof and what action Tenant has taken or proposes to take with respect thereto and (b) except as otherwise specified, with respect to Tenant stating that Tenant has fulfilled all of its obligations under this Lease which are required to be fulfilled on or prior to the date of such affidavit.

27. DETERMINATION OF VALUE.

(a) Whenever a determination of Fair Market Value is required pursuant to any provision of this Lease, such Fair Market Value shall be determined in accordance with the following procedure:

(i) Landlord and Tenant shall endeavor to agree upon such Fair Market Value within fifteen (15) days after the date (the "Applicable Initial Date") on which (A) Tenant provides Landlord with notice of its intention not to extend or to terminate this Lease as to the Affected Premises pursuant to Paragraph 13(b) or Paragraph 14(h) hereof or (B) Landlord provides Tenant with notice of its intention to require Tenant to make an offer to purchase the Selected Premises pursuant to Paragraph 19(b)(v) hereof, as applicable. Upon reaching such agreement, the parties shall execute an agreement setting forth the amount of such Fair Market Value.

(ii) If the parties shall not have signed such agreement setting forth the amount of such agreed Fair Market Value within fifteen (15) days after the Applicable Initial Date, Tenant shall within ten (10) days after the Applicable Initial Date select an appraiser and notify Landlord in writing of the name, address and qualifications of such appraiser. Within ten (10) days thereafter, Landlord shall select an appraiser and notify Tenant of the name, address and qualifications of such appraiser. The appraiser selected by Tenant and the appraiser selected by Landlord shall endeavor to agree upon the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, as of the date specified in the particular provision of this Lease (the "Applicable Provision") pursuant to which the determination of Fair Market Value is being made. If the said two appraisers shall agree upon such Fair Market Value, the amount of such Fair Market Value as agreed to by the said two appraisers shall be binding and conclusive.

(iii) If the appraiser selected by Tenant and the appraiser selected by Landlord shall be unable to agree upon such Fair Market Value within twenty (20) days after the selection of an appraiser by Landlord, then the said two appraisers shall select a third appraiser to make the determination of such Fair Market Value and the determination of such third appraiser shall be binding and conclusive upon Landlord and Tenant.

(iv) In the event the appraiser selected by Tenant and the appraiser selected by Landlord shall be unable to agree upon the designation of a third appraiser within ten (10) days after the expiration of the twenty (20) day period referred to in clause (iii) above or in the event the third appraiser so selected does not make a determination of the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises within twenty (20) days after his selection, then such third appraiser or a substituted third appraiser, as applicable, shall, at the request of either party hereto, be appointed by the President or Chairman of the American Arbitration Association in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The determination of Fair Market Value made by the third appraiser appointed pursuant hereto shall be made within twenty (20) days after such appointment. Fair Market Value shall be the average of the determination of Fair Market Value made by the third appraiser and the determination of Fair Market Value made by the appraiser whose determination of Fair Market Value is nearest to that of the third appraiser. Such average shall be binding and conclusive upon Landlord and Tenant.

(v) All appraisers selected or appointed pursuant to this Paragraph 27(a) shall be independent qualified appraisers. Such appraisers shall have no right, power or authority to alter or modify the provisions of this Lease and in determining the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Leased Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, such appraisers shall utilize the definition of Fair Market Value hereinabove set forth above.

(b) The cost of the appraiser selected by Tenant shall be paid by Tenant and the cost of the appraiser selected by Landlord shall be paid by Landlord; the cost of a third appraisal, if required, will be split equally between Landlord and Tenant.

(c) If, by virtue of any delay in the appointment of a third appraiser pursuant to Paragraph 27(a)(iv) above or of any delay by such appointed third appraiser to determine such Fair Market Value, the Fair Market Value of the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, is not determined by such appointed third appraiser within one hundred forty (140) days after the Applicable Initial Date, then the date (the "Applicable Final Date") on which the Leased Premises or the Affected Premises or the Selected Premises, as applicable, would otherwise be sold to Tenant or on which this Lease would otherwise terminate, as specified in the Applicable Provision, shall be extended the same number of days (the "Delay Period") by which the total period so required for the binding and conclusive determination of Fair Market Value exceeds one hundred forty (140) days and all relevant defined terms used in the Applicable Provision shall be deemed amended accordingly, anything to the contrary in the Applicable Provision notwithstanding. In addition, any time period which is afforded Landlord under the Applicable Provision within which to accept or reject an offer by Tenant shall likewise be extended by the number of days equal to the Delay Period.

28. FINANCING.

(a) Tenant shall pay, within three (3) business days of written demand therefor, all out of pocket costs (including but not limited to closing costs, title charges, commitment or application fees, and attorneys' fees), not to exceed $50,000 in the aggregate (other than the principal of the Note and interest thereon at the contract rate of interest specified therein), imposed upon Landlord by Lender pursuant to the initial Loan to Landlord evidenced by a Note and secured by a Mortgage constituting a first lien on the Leased Premises provided that Landlord obtains such Loan no later than the fourth (4th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date.

(b) In the event that Landlord desires to obtain a Loan to be secured any of the Leased Premises, Tenant shall negotiate in good faith with Landlord concerning any request made by the proposed mortgagee for changes or modifications in this Lease. Tenant shall not unreasonably withhold or delay its consent to such financing, and Tenant hereby agrees that Tenant shall provide any other consent or statement and shall execute any and all other documents that any proposed mortgagee requires in connection with such financing, so long as the same do not materially adversely affect any right, benefit or privilege of Tenant under this Lease or increase the Rent or other obligations of Tenant hereunder.

contrary notwithstanding, any claim based on or in respect of any liability of Landlord under this Lease shall be enforced only against the Leased Premises and not against any other assets, properties or funds of (a) Landlord, (b) any director, officer, general partner, limited partner, employee or agent of Landlord or any general partner of Landlord (or any legal representative, heir, estate, successor or assign of any thereof), (c) any predecessor or successor partnership or corporation (or other entity) of Landlord or any general partner of Landlord, either directly or through Landlord or its general partners or any predecessor or successor partnership or corporation (or other entity) of Landlord or any general partner of Landlord, or (d) any other Person or entity (including Eighth Carey Corporate Property, Inc., W. P. Carey & Co. Inc., Carey Corporate Property Management, Inc., Clark & Pendleton Realty Corp. or any Person affiliated with any of the foregoing, or any director, officer, employee or agent of any thereof).

30. SUBSTITUTION AND EXCHANGE OF PROPERTY. If the Board of Directors of Tenant determines, in good faith, that any one or more of the New Orleans Premises, the San Antonio Premises or the Memphis Premises (any one or more of which that is determined to be uneconomically viable as provided hereunder being hereinafter referred to as the "Existing Property") is no longer economically viable for Tenant's continued use and operation for any reason, including, but not limited to, unprofitability, obsolescence or change in zoning regulations; then Tenant shall have the right, during the Term of this Lease or any renewal hereof, to convey to Landlord a substitute property (the "Substitute Property") and lease the Substitute Property back from Landlord on the terms and conditions provided herein in exchange for the conveyance to Tenant of the Existing Property and the termination of the Lease with respect to such Existing Property (the "Exchange"), upon the terms and conditions set forth herein. In the event that Tenant elects to exercise such right, Tenant shall give written notice to Landlord and Lender, which notice shall contain (i) a resolution of Board of Directors of Tenant stating that the Existing Property is no longer economically viable and setting forth in reasonable detail the reasons for such determination; (ii) a description and MAI Appraisal of the Substitute Property; (iii) such relevant data as Landlord may request demonstrating the economic viability of the Substitute Property; (iv) Tenant's offer to convey the Substitute Property to Landlord and lease back the Substitute property in exchange for Landlord conveying the Existing Property to Tenant and terminating the Lease with respect to the Existing Property; and (v) notice to Landlord of Tenant's intention to affect the Exchange on the first Basic Rent Payment Date occurring at least ninety (90) days after the date on which Landlord receives such notice (the "Exchange Date").

Landlord (if Landlord obtains the written consent of Lender) shall accept or reject Tenant's offer of the Substitute Property not later than the thirtieth (30th) day prior to the Exchange Date; and Landlord shall accept such offer if Landlord (in its reasonable discretion) receives and approves all items listed in the foregoing paragraph. If Landlord, with the written consent of Lender, has accepted Tenant's offer and if on the Exchange Date all conditions and requirements imposed by Landlord and Lender in connection with the acceptance of Tenant's offer of substitution have been satisfied, including, but not limited to, (i) the approval of Landlord, Lender and their respective counsel of all documents relating to the Exchange; (ii) all installments of annual Basic Rent, Additional Rent and all other charges due and unpaid hereunder having been paid in full by Tenant; (iii) Tenant's compliance with all other obligations and liabilities, actual or contingent, under this Lease which have arisen on or prior to the Exchange Date and Tenant not then being in default hereunder; (iv) delivery to Landlord and Lender, respectively, of ALTA "owner" and "mortgagee" title insurance policies insuring Landlord's fee title to the Substitute Property and Lender's first lien thereon; and (v) Tenant's conveyance of the Substitute Property to Landlord, the lease back of the Substitute Property to Tenant, and the mortgaging of the Substitute Property to Lender; then the Existing Property shall be conveyed to Tenant in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 16(a) and all obligations hereunder with respect to the Existing Property shall terminate, except for any obligations or liabilities of Tenant, actual or contingent, arising prior to such conveyance.

Tenant shall pay all charges incident to the Exchange, regardless of whether or not the Exchange occurs, including, but not limited to, Landlord's and lender's counsel fees, escrow fees, recording fees, brokerage fees, title insurance and all federal, state and local taxes which may be incurred or imposed by reason of such conveyance and transfer and/or by delivery of any deed or other instrument.

31. FINANCIAL COVENANT. Tenant shall not sell, assign or transfer its interest in this Lease and shall not permit a Change in Control of Tenant to an entity which, immediately following such sale, transfer, assignment or Change in Control has a Tangible Net Worth of less than $18,996,000 or a secured debt to equity ratio of greater than 4:1.

"Tangible Net Worth" as used herein shall mean as of any date the excess of (A) the aggregate gross book value of all assets of Tenant or any other entity, as the case may be, as of such date (excluding all franchises, licenses, permits, drawings, patents, patent applications, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, goodwill, experimental or organizational expenses and all other assets which, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, are deemed intangible) over (B) the aggregate of all liabilities of Tenant or such other entity as of such date, all computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Change in Control" as used herein shall mean as of any date (i) a sale of all or substantially all of the Tenant's assets to any Person or related group of Persons as an entirety or substantially as an entirety in one transaction or series of transactions, (ii) the merger or consolidation of the Tenant with or into another corporation or the merger of another corporation into the Tenant or the sale of the stock of Tenant with the effect that Guarantor holds less than 51% of the total voting power entitled to vote in the election of directors, managers or trustees of the surviving corporation of such merger or consolidation (any nonvoting common stock now outstanding or issued after the date hereof of the surviving corporation having terms substantially similar to the Tenant's nonvoting common stock shall be considered voting stock for purposes of this provision) or holds less than 51% of the total voting power entitled to vote in the election of directors, managers or trustees of Tenant following such sale or (iii) the liquidation or dissolution of the Tenant.

32. SUBORDINATION. Tenant agrees that this Lease and its interest hereunder shall be subordinate to any mortgage, deed of trust, and/or other security instrument hereafter placed upon the Leased Premises by the Landlord, and to any and all advances made or to be made thereunder, to the interest thereon, and all renewals, replacements and extensions thereof provided that any such instrument (or separate instrument in recordable form duly executed by the holder of any such mortgage, deed of trust or security instrument and delivered to Tenant) shall provide for the recognition of this Lease and the non-disturbance of all of Tenant's rights hereunder until such time as Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease pursuant to any applicable provisions of Paragraph 19 hereof.

33. FIRST REFUSAL RIGHT.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (c) below, if Landlord should desire to sell or shall receive an offer for its interest in any one or more of the Memphis Premises, the New Orleans Premises and/or the San Antonio Premises (any one or more of which Landlord desires to sell or for which Landlord receives an offer being hereinafter referred to as the "Sale Premises") prior to the tenth (10th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date as subject to this Lease, then subject to the limitation set forth in subparagraph (d) below Landlord first shall be required (i) either to obtain a bona fide written offer to purchase the Sale Premises acceptable to Landlord or to enter a contract for sale of the Sale Premises to Landlord or to enter a contract for sale of the Sale Premises conditioned upon Tenant's failure to exercise its right under this subparagraph (a), and (ii) to give written notice to Tenant of the offer (and Landlord's willingness to accept the same) or contract for sale accompanied by a copy of the executed offer or contract together with the name and business address of the prospective purchaser ("Third Party Purchaser"). For a period of fifteen (15) business days following receipt of such notice and provided that Basic Rent shall be current at the time of the exercise of such right of first refusal, Tenant shall have the right and option, exercisable by written notice to landlord given within said fifteen (15) business days period to purchase Landlord's interest in the Sale Premises at the purchase price and upon the terms and conditions set forth in such written offer or agreement, subject in addition, to the provisions of Paragraph 16(a) hereof. The closing date for the purchase shall be the later to occur of (i) ninety (90) days from the date of Tenant's notice to Landlord or (ii) the closing date provided in the applicable contract of sale or offer to purchase. If at the expiration of the aforesaid fifteen (15) day period, Tenant shall have failed to exercise the aforesaid option, Landlord's interest in the Sale Premises may be sold for the consideration, to the Third Party Purchaser, and upon the terms and conditions set forth in the original offer or agreement of sale provided the sale is consummated with a period of one hundred eighty (180) days after the giving of the original notice to Tenant pursuant to subparagraph (a) (ii) above.

(b) If Tenant does not exercise its option to purchase any Sale Premises, then Tenant agrees that (i) the Lease is bifurcated with respect to remaining Leased Premises and the Sale Premises; (ii) Tenant will attorn to any Third Party Purchaser as Landlord with respect to the Sale Premises purchased so long as the third Party Purchaser assumes the obligations of Landlord under the Lease; and (iii) the terms of the Lease will remain in full force and effect with respect to the Sale Premises except that the Basic Rent will be that percentage of the then Basic Rent which is allocated to the Sale Premises as set forth on Exhibit "E" attached hereto and made a part hereof. At the request of Landlord, Tenant will promptly execute such documents confirming (i) that, if the sale occurs after the fifth (5th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date its option to purchase the Sale Premises is null and void, (ii) the agreements referred to above and (iii) such other agreements as Landlord may reasonably request provided that such do not increase the liabilities and obligations of Tenant hereunder.

(c) The provisions of subparagraph (a) shall not apply to or prohibit -(i) any mortgaging, subjection to deed of trust or other hypothecation of Landlord's interest in the leased private power of sale under or judicial foreclosure of nay mortgage, deed of trust or other security instrument or devise to which Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises is now or hereafter subject, (iii) any transfer or Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises to a mortgagee, beneficiary under deed of trust or other holder of a security interest therein by deed in lieu of foreclosure, or (iv) any transfer of the Leased Premises to an Affiliate of Landlord or (v) to any governmental or quasi-governmental agency with power of condemnation.

(d) If Landlord elects to sell any one or more of the Memphis Premises, New Orleans Premises or Tulsa Premises prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date and Tenant does not elect to purchase such Sale Premises, Tenant shall have one (1) additional first refusal right for the initial offer or contract of sale with respect to such Sale Premises which occurs during the period which commences with the fifth (5th) anniversary of the initial Basic Rent Payment Date and terminates on the one hundred twenty-seventh (127th) Basic Rent Payment Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Paragraph 33, the first of first refusal granted by this Paragraph 33 shall terminate and be null and void with respect to the Leased Premises upon the earlier to occur of (i) the one-hundred twenty seventh (127th) Basic Rent Payment Date or (ii) the termination of this Lease.

Said real property including the land and all improvements therein, is herein called "the Premises" and crosshatched on Exhibit "B" and legally described on Exhibit "C" attached hereto.

3. Term

3.1 Term. The term of this Lease shall be for five (5) years commencing on October 1, 1989 and terminating on September 31, 1994 unless sooner terminated pursuant to any provision hereof.

3.2 Delay in Possession. Notwithstanding said commencement date, if for any reason Lessor cannot deliver possession of the Premises to Lessee on said date, Lessor shall not be subject to any liability therefor, nor shall such failure affect the validity of this Lease or the obligations of Lessee hereunder or extended the term hereof, but in such case, Lessee shall not be obligated to pay rent until possession of the Premises is tendered to Lessee; provided, however, that if Lessor shall not have delivered possession of the Premises within sixty (60) days from said commencement date, Lessee may, at Lessee's option, by notice in writing to Lessor within ten (10) days thereafter, cancel this Lease, in which event the parties shall be discharged from all obligations hereunder; provided further, however, that if such written notice of Lessee is not received by Lessor within said ten (10) day period, Lessee's right to cancel this Lease hereunder shall terminate and be of no further force or effect.

3.3 Early Possession. If Lessee occupies the Premises prior to said commencement date, such occupancy shall be subject to all provisions hereof, such occupancy shall not advance the termination date, and Lessee shall pay rent for such period at the initial monthly rates set forth below.

4. Rent. Lessee shall pay to Lessor an annual rent for the Premises, the sum of One Hundred Twenty-six Thousand Six Hundred (_____) payable in equal monthly payments of Ten Thousand Five Hundred & Fifty Dollars ($10,550.00, in advance, on the first day of each month of the term hereof.

Rent for any period during the term hereof which is for less than one (1) month shall be a pro rata portion of the monthly installment. Rent shall be payable in lawful money of the United States to Lessor at the address stated herein or to such other persons or at such other places as Lessor may designate in writing. If Lessor shall so request, in addition to any other payments required under this Lease, Lessee shall pay a monthly advance installment, payable at the same time as the monthly rent, as estimated by Lessor, for real property taxes, insurance and maintenance expenses on the Premises for each and every calendar year of the term of the lease which are payable by Lessee under the terms of this Lease. Such fund shall be established to insure payment when due, before delinquency, of any or all such real property taxes and insurance premiums. If the amounts paid to Lessor by Lessee under the provisions of this paragraph are insufficient to discharge the obligations of Lessee to pay such real property taxes, insurance premiums and maintenance charges as the same become due, Lessee shall pay to Lessor, upon Lessor's demand, such additional sums necessary to pay such obligations. If amounts paid to Lessor by Lessee under the provisions of this paragraph are in excess of Lessee's obligations then Lessor shall credit the overpayment to Lessee's account. All monies paid to Lessor under this paragraph may be intermingled with other monies of Lessor and shall not bear interest. In the event of a default in the obligations of Lessee to perform under this Lease, then any balance remaining from funds paid to Lessor under the provisions of this paragraph may, at the option of Lessor, be applied to the payment of any monetary default of Lessee in lieu of being applied to the payment of real property tax and insurance premiums.

5. Security Deposit. Lessee shall deposit with Lessor upon execution performance of Lessee's obligations hereunder. If Lessee fails to pay rent or other charges due hereunder, or otherwise defaults with respect to any provision of this Lease, Lessor may use, apply or retain all or any portion of said deposit for the payment of any rent or other charge in default or for which Lessor may suffer thereby. If Lessor so uses or applies all or any portion of said deposit, Lessee shall, within ten (10) days after written demand therefor, deposit cash with Lessor in an amount sufficient to restore said deposit to the full amount hereinabove stated and Lessee's failure to do so shall be a material breach of this Lease. Lessor shall not be required to keep said deposit, or so much thereof as has not theretofore been applied by Lessor, shall be returned, without payment of interest or other increment for its use, to Lessee (or, at Lessor's option, to the last assignee, if any, of Lessee's interest hereunder) at the expiration of the term hereof, and after Lessee has vacated the Premises. No trust relationship is created herein between Lessor and Lessee with respect to said Security Deposit.

6. Use.

6.1 Use. The Premises shall be used and occupied only for
---
office products/warehouse distribution _____ or any other use which is reasonably comparable and for no other purpose. Lessee shall not make any other use of the Premises without Lessor's prior written consent.

6.2 Compliance with Law. Lessee shall, at Lessee's expense, comply promptly with all applicable statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, orders, covenants and restrictions of record, and requirements in effect during the term or any part of the term hereof, regulating the use by Lessee of the Premises. Lessee shall not use or permit the use of the Premises in any manner that will tend to create waste or a nuisance or, if there shall be more than one tenant in the building containing the Premises, which shall tend to disturb such other tenants.
---

6.3 Condition of Premises. Except as otherwise provided in this Lease, Lessee hereby accepts the Premises in their condition existing as of the Lease commencement date or the date that Lessee takes possession of the Premises, whichever is earlier, subject to all applicable restrictive covenants and zoning, municipal, county and state laws, ordinances and regulations governing and regulating the use of the Premises, and accepts this Lease subject thereto and to all matters disclosed thereby and by any exhibits attached hereto. Lessee acknowledges that neither Lessor nor Lessor's agent has made any representation or warranty as to the present or future suitability of the Premises for the conduct of Lessee's business.

7. Maintenance, Repairs and Alterations.

7.1 Lessee's Obligations. Lessee shall keep in good order, condition and repair the Premises and every part thereof which is not required to be maintained by Lessor under paragraph 7.4 including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all plumbing, heating, air conditioning, ventilating, electrical, lighting facilities and equipment within the Premises, interior walls, interior ceilings, floors, windows, doors, plate glass and skylights located within the Premises.

7.2 Surrender. On the last day of the term hereof, or on any sooner termination, Lessee shall surrender the Premises to Lessor in the same condition as when received, ordinary wear and tear excepted, clean and free of debris. Lessee shall repair any damage to the Premises occasioned by the installation or removal of Lessee's trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary otherwise stated in this Lease, Lessee shall leave the air lines, power panels, electrical distribution systems, lighting fixtures, space heaters, air conditioning, plumbing and fencing on the Premises in good operating condition.

7.3 Lessor's Rights. If Lessee fails to perform Lessee's obligations under this paragraph 7, or under any other paragraph of this Lease, Lessor may at its option (but shall not be required to) enter upon the Premises after ten (10) days' prior written notice to Lessee (except in the case of an emergency, in which case no notice shall be required), perform such obligations on Lessee's behalf and put the same in good order, condition and repair, and the cost thereof together with interest thereon at the maximum rate then allowable by law shall become due and payable as additional rental to Lessor together with Lessee's next rental installment.

7.4 Lessor's Obligations. Lessor shall, at its expense, keep in good order, condition and repair the exterior walls and roof and all foundations on the Premises. Lessor shall maintain in good condition and repair and be responsible for all landscaping, drive-ways, parking lots, refuse collection, fences and signs and all other maintenance items relating to the building in which Premises is located, and Lessee shall pay its "pro rata share" of Lessor's expense in connection therewith, including a reasonable management fee, within ten (10) days from Lessor's demand therefor. The term "Lessee's pro rata share," whenever used herein, shall be a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of square feet contained in the Premises and the denominator of which is the number of square feet contained in the building comprising the complex (or portion thereof) to which said expenses relate. Lessor may, at its option, estimate the yearly maintenance cost of Lessee and bill Lessee for the estimated amount as described in Paragraph 4. Lessee expressly waives the benefit of any statute now or hereinafter in effect which would otherwise afford Lessee the right to make repairs at Lessor's expense or to terminate this Lease because of Lessor's failure to keep the premises in good order, condition and repair.

7.5 Alternations and Additions.

(a) Lessee shall not, without Lessor's prior written consent, make any alterations, improvements, additions, or utility installations in, on, or about the Premises. Lessee shall make no change or alteration to the interior of the Premises nor the exterior of the building(s) on the Premises without Lessor's prior written consent. Lessor may require that Lessee remove any or all of said alterations, improvements, and additions at the expiration of the term, and restore Premises to prior condition. Lessor may require Lessee to provide Lessor, at Lessee's sole cost and expense, a lien and completion bond in an amount equal to one and one-half (1-1/2) times the estimated cost of such improvements, to insure Lessor against any liability for mechanic's and materialmen's liens and to insure completion of the work. Should Lessee make any alterations, improvements, additions or Utility Installations without the prior approval of Lessor, Lessor may require that Lessee remove any or all of the same and restore premises to original condition.

(b) Any alterations, improvements, or additions in or about the Premises that Lessee shall desire to make and which require the consent of the Lessor shall be presented to Lessor in written form, with proposed detailed plans. If Lessor shall give its consent, the consent shall be deemed conditioned upon Lessee acquiring a permit to do so from appropriate governmental agencies, the furnishing of a copy thereof to Lessor prior to the commencement of the work, and the compliance by Lessee of all conditions of said permit in a prompt and expeditious manner.

(c) Lessee shall pay, when due, all claims for labor or materials furnished or alleged to have been furnished to or for Lessee at or for use in the Premises, which claims are or may be secured by any mechanic's or materialmen's lien against the Premises or any interest therein. Lessee shall give Lessor not less then ten (10) days' notice prior to the commencement of any work in the Premises, and Lessor shall have the right to post notices of nonresponsibility in or on the Premises as provided by law. If Lessee shall, in good faith, contest the validity of any such lien, claim or demand, the lessee shall, at its sole expense, defend itself and Lessor against the same and shall pay and satisfy any such adverse judgment that may be rendered thereon before the enforcement thereof against the Lessor or the Premises, upon the condition that if to Lessor shall require, Lessee shall furnish to Lessor a surety bond satisfactory to Lessor in an amount equal to such contested lien claim or demand indemnifying Lessor against liability for the same and holding the Premises free from the effect of such lien or claim. In addition, Lessor may require Lessee to pay Lessor's attorneys' fees and costs in participating in such action if Lessor shall decide it is to its best interest to do so.

(d) Unless Lessor requires their removal, all alterations, improvements, and additions which may be made on the Premises, shall become the property of Lessor and remain upon and be surrendered with the Premises at the expiration of the term. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph 7.5(d), Lessee's machinery and equipment, other than that which his affixed to the Premises so that it cannot be removed without material damage to the Premises, shall remain the property of Lessee and may be removed by Lessee subject to the provisions of paragraph 7.2.

8. Insurance Indemnity

8.1 Liability Insurance. Lessee shall, at Lessee's expense, obtain and keep in- force during the term of this Lease a policy of combined single limit, bodily injury and property damage insurance insuring Lessor and Lessee against any liability arising out of the ownership, use, occupancy or maintenance of the Premises and all areas appurtenant thereto. Such insurance shall be a combined single limit policy in an amount not less than One Million Dollars ($500,000.00) per occurrence. The policy shall insure performance by Lessee of the indemnity provisions of this paragraph 8. The limits of said insurance shall not, however, limit the liability of Lessee hereunder.

8.2 Property Insurance.

(a) Lessor shall obtain and keep in force during the term of this Lease a policy or policies of insurance covering loss or damage to the Premises, in the amount of the full replacement value thereof. Said insurance shall provide for payment of loss thereunder to Lessor and/or to the holders of mortgages or deeds of trust on the Premises. Lessee shall, as additional rent for the Premises, pay its pro-rata cost of all insurance required hereunder.

(b) If the premises are part of a larger building, or if the Premises are part of a group of buildings owned by Lessor which are adjacent to the Premises, then Lessee shall pay for any increase in the property insurance of such other building or buildings if said increase is caused by Lessee's acts, omissions, use or occupancy of the Premises.

(c) Lessor will not insure Lessee's fixtures, equipment or tenant improvements unless the tenant improvements have become a part of the Premises under paragraph 7 hereof. Lessee shall insure its fixtures, equipment and tenant improvements.

8.3 Insurance Policies. Lessee shall deliver to the other party copies of policies of such insurance or certificates evidencing the existence and amounts of such insurance with loss payable clauses as required by this paragraph 8. No such policy shall be cancellable or subject to reduction of coverage or other modification except after thirty (30) days prior written notice to Lessor. Lessee shall not do or permit to be done anything which shall invalidate the insurance policies refereed to in paragraph 8.2 If Lessee does or permits to be done anything which shall increase the cost of the insurance policies referred to in paragraph 8.2, then Lessee shall forthwith upon Lessor's demand reimburse Lessor for any additional premiums attributable to any act or omission or operation of Lessee causing such increase in the cost of insurance.

8.4 Waiver of Subrogation. Lessee and Lessor each hereby release and relieve the other, and waive their entire right of recovery against the other for loss or damage arising out of or incident to the perils insured against under paragraph 8.3, which perils occur in, on or about the Premises, whether due to the negligence of Lessor or Lessee or their agents, employees, contractors and/or invitees. Lessee and Lessor shall, upon obtaining the policies of insurance required hereunder, give notice to the insurance carrier or carriers that the foregoing mutual waiver of subrogation is contained in this Lease.

8.5 Indemnity. Lessee shall indemnify and hold harmless Lessor from and against any and all claims arising from Lessee's use of the Premises, or from the conduct of Lessee's business or from any activity, work or other things done, permitted or suffered by Lessee in or about the Premises or elsewhere and shall further indemnify and hod harmless Lessor from and against any and all claims arising from any breach of default in the performance of any obligation on Lessee's part to be performed under the terms of this Lease, or arising from any negligence of the Lessee, or any of Lessee's agents, contractors or employees, and from and against all costs, attorney's fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in the defense of any such claim or any action or proceeding brought thereon; and in case any action or proceeding be brought against Lessor by reason of any such claim, Lessee upon notice from Lessor shall defend the same at Lessee's expense by counsel satisfactory to Lessor. Lessee, as a material part of the consideration to Lessor, hereby assumes all risks of damage to property or injury to persons, in, upon or about the Premises arising from any cause and Lessee hereby waives all claims in respect thereof against Lessor.

8.6 Exemption of Lessor from Liability. Lessee hereby agrees that Lessor shall not be liable for injury to Lessee's business or any loss of income therefrom or for damage to the goods, wares, merchandise or other property of Lessee, Lessee's employees, invitees, customers or any other person in or about the Premises, nor shall Lessor be liable for injury to the person of Lessee, Lessee's employees, agents or contractors, whether such damage or injury is caused by or results from fire, steam, electricity, gas, water or rain, or from the breakage, leakage, obstruction or other defects of pipes, sprinklers, wires, appliances, plumbing, air conditioning, or lighting fixtures, or from any other cause, whether the said damage or injury results from conditions arising upon the Premises or upon other portions of the building of which the Premises are a part, or from other sources or places and regardless of whether the cause of such damage or injury or the means of repairing the same is inaccessible to Lessee. Lessor shall not be liable for any damages arising from any act or neglect of any other tenant, if any, of the building in which the premises are located.

9. Damage or Destruction.

9.1 Definitions.

(a) "Premises Partial Damage" shall herein mean damage or destruction to the Premises to the extent that the cost of repair is less than fifty percent (50%) of the then replacement cost of the Premises. "Premises Building Partial Damage" shall herein mean damage or destruction to the building of which the Premises are a part to the extent that the cost of repair is less than fifty percent (50%) of the then replacement cost of such building as a whole.

(b) "Premises Total Destruction" shall herein mean damage or destruction to the Premises to the extent that the cost of repair is fifty percent (50%) or more of the then replacement cost of the Premises. "Premises Building Total Destruction" shall herein mean damage or destruction to the building of which the Premises are a part to the extent that the cost of repair is fifty percent (50%) or more of the then replacement cost of such building as a whole.

(c) "Insured Loss" shall herein mean damage or destruction which was caused by an event required to be covered by the insurance described in paragraph 8.

9.2 Partial Damage--Insured Loss. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 9.4, 9.5, and 9.6, if at any time during the term of this Lease there is damage which is an Insured Loss and which falls into the classification of Premises Partial Damage or Premises Building Partial Damage, then Lessor shall, at Lessor's expense, repair such damage, but not Lessee's fixtures, equipment or tenant improvements unless the same have become a part of the Premises pursuant to paragraph 7.5 hereof, as soon as reasonably possible and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect.

9.3 Partial Damage--Uninsured Loss. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 9.4, 9.5, and 9.6, if at any time during the term of this Lease there is damage which is not an Insured Loss and which falls within the classification of Premises Partial Damage or Premises Building Partial Damage, unless caused by a negligent or willful act of Lessee (in which event Lessee shall make the repairs at Lessee's expense), Lessor may at Lessor's option either (i) repair such damage as soon as reasonably possible at Lessor's expense, in which event this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, or (ii) give written notice to Lessee within thirty (30) days after the date of the occurrence of such damage of Lessor's intention to cancel and terminate this Lease, as of the date of the occurrence of such damage. In the event Lessor elects to give such notice of Lessor's intention to cancel and terminate this Lease, Lessee shall have the right within ten (10) days after the receipt of such notice to give written notice to Lessor of Lessee's intention to repair such damage at Lessee's expense, without reimbursement from Lessor, in which event this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, and Lessee shall proceed to make such repairs as soon as reasonably possible. If Lessee does not give such notice within such ten (10) day period, this Lease shall be cancelled and terminated as of the date of the occurrence of such damage.

9.4 Total Destruction. If at any time during the term of this Lease there is damage, whether or not an Insured Loss (including destruction required by any authorized public authority), which falls into the classification of Premises Total Destruction or Premises Building Total Destruction, this Lease shall automatically terminate as of the date of such total destruction.

9.5 Damage Near End of Term.

(a) If at any time during the last six (6) months of the term of this Lease there is damage, whether or not an Insured Loss, which falls within the classification of Premises Partial Damage, Lessor may, at Lessor's option, cancel and terminate this Lease as of the date of occurrence of such damage by giving written notice to Lessee of Lessor's election to do so within thirty (30) days after the date of occurrence of such damage.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph 9.5(a), in the event that lessee has an option to extend or renew this Lease, and the time within which said option may be exercised has not yet expired, Lessee shall exercise such option, if it is to be exercised at all, no later than twenty (20) days after the occurrence of an Insured Loss falling within the classification of Premises Partial Damage during the last six (6) months of the term of this Lease. If Lessee duly exercises such option during said twenty (20) day period, Lessor shall, at Lessor's expense, repair such damage as soon as reasonably possible and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect. If Lessee fails to exercise such option during said twenty (20) day period, then Lessor may, at Lessor's option, terminate and cancel this Lease as of the expiration of said twenty (20) day period by giving written notice to Lessee of Lessor's election to do so within ten (10) days after the expiration of said twenty (20) day period, notwithstanding any term or provision in the grant of option to the contrary.

9.6 Abatement of Rent; Lessee's Remedies.

(a) In the event of damage described in paragraphs 9.2 or 9.3, and Lessor or Lessee repairs or restores the Premises pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph 9, the rent payable hereunder for the period during which such damage, repair or restoration continues shall be abated in proportion to the degree to which Lessee's use of the Premises is impaired. Except for abatement of rent, if any, Lessee shall have no claim against Lessor for any damage suffered by reason of any such damage, destruction, repair or restoration.

(b) If Lessor shall be obligated to repair or restore the Premises under the provisions of this paragraph 9 and shall not commence such repair or restoration within ninety (90) days after such obligations shall accrue, Lessee may, at Lessee's option, cancel and terminate this Lease by giving Lessor written notice of Lessee's election to do so at any time prior to the commencement of such repair or restoration. In such event, this Lease shall terminate as of the date of such notice.

9.7 Termination--Advance Payments. Upon termination of this Lease pursuant to this paragraph 9, and equitable adjustment shall be made concerning advance rent and any advance payments made by Lessee to Lessor. Lessor shall, in addition, return to Lessee so much of Lessee's security deposit as has not theretofore been applied by Lessor.

9.8 Waiver. Lessor and Lessee waive the provisions of any statutes which relate to termination of leases when leased property is destroyed and agree that such event shall be governed by the terms of this Lease.

10. Real Property Taxes.

10.1 Payment of Taxes. Lessee shall pay the real property taxes, as defined in paragraph 10.2, applicable to the Premises during the term of this Lease. The tax bills with respect thereto shall be sent to Lessor, and Lessee shall pay the full amount of said tax within ten (10) days from Lessor's demand therefor. If the tax assessment includes the Premises and other real property, the amount paid by Lessee shall be its pro rata share of said taxes. If any such taxes paid by Lessee shall cover any period of time prior to or after the expiration of the term hereof, Lessee's share of such taxes shall be equitably pro rated to cover only the period of time within the tax fiscal year during which this Lease shall be in effect. If Lessee shall fail to pay any such taxes, Lessor shall have the right to pay the same, in which case Lessee shall repay such amount to Lessor with Lessee's next rent installment together with interest at the rate set forth in paragraph 18 hereof.

10.2 Definition of "Real Property Tax". As used herein, the term "real property tax" shall include any form of real estate tax or assessment, general, special, ordinary, or extraordinary, and any license fee, commercial rental tax, improvement bond or bonds, levy or tax (other than inheritance, personal income or estate taxes) imposed on the Premises by any authority having the direct or indirect power to tax, including any city, state or federal government, or any school, agricultural, sanitary, fire, street, drainage or other improvement district thereof, as against any legal or equitable interest of Lessor in the Premises or in the real property of which the Premises are a part, as against Lessor's right to rent or other income therefrom, and as against Lessor's business of leasing the Premises. The term "real property tax" shall also include any tax, fee, levy, assessment or charge (i) in substitution of, partially or totally, any tax, fee, levy, assessment or charge hereinabove included within the definition of "real property tax," or (ii) the nature or which was hereinbefore included within the definition of "real property tax," or (iii) which is imposed as a result of a transfer, either partial or total, or Lessor's interest in the Premises or which is added to a tax or charge hereinbefore included within the definition of real property tax by reason of such transfer, or (iv) which is imposed by reason of this transaction, any modification or changes hereto, or any transfers hereof.

10.3 Joint Assessment. If the Premises are not separately assessed, Lessee's liability shall be an equitable proportion of property taxes for all of the land and improvements included within the tax parcel assessed, such proportion to be determined by Lessor from the respective valuations assigned in the assessor's work sheets or such other information as may be reasonably available. Lessor's reasonable determination thereof, in good faith, shall be conclusive.

10.4 Personal Property Taxes.

(a) Lessee shall pay prior to delinquency all taxes assessed against and levied upon trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment and all other personal property of Lessee contained in the Premises or elsewhere. When possible, Lessee shall cause said trade fixtures, furnishings, equipment and all other personal property to be assessed and billed separately from the real property of Lessor.

(b) If any of Lessee's said personal property shall be assessed with Lessor's real property, Lessee shall pay Lessor the taxes attributable to Lessee within ten (10) days after receipt of a written statement setting forth the taxes applicable to Lessee's property.

11. Utilities. Lessee shall pay for all water, gas, heat, light, power, telephone and other utilities and services supplied to the Premises, together with any taxes thereon. If any such services are not separately metered to Lessee, Lessee shall pay a reasonable proportion to be determined by Lessor of all charges jointly metered with other premises.

12. Assignment and Subletting.

12.1 Lessor's Consent Required. Lessee shall not voluntarily or by operation of law assign, transfer, mortgage, sublet or otherwise transfer or encumber all or any part of Lessee's interest in this Lease or in the Premises, without Lessor's prior written consent, which consent Lessor shall not unreasonably withhold. Lessor shall respond to Lessee's request for consent hereunder in a timely manner and any attempted assignment, transfer, mortgage, encumbrance or subletting without such consent shall be void, and shall constitute a breach of this Lease. Lessor shall be deemed to be reasonable in requiring that it review and approve of the financial statements of any proposed assignee or subtenant prior to consenting to such assignment or subletting. Any such permitted assignment shall not, in any way, affect or limit the liability of Lessee under the term of this Lease.

12.2 No Release of Lessee. Regardless of Lessor's consent, no subletting or assignment shall release Lessee of Lessee's obligation or alter the primary liability of Lessee to pay the rent and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Lessee hereunder. The acceptance of rent by Lessor from any other person shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Lessor of any provision hereof. Consent to one assignment or subletting shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. In the event of default by any assignee of Lessee or any successor of Lessee in the performance of any of the terms hereof, Lessor may proceed directly against Lessee without the necessity of exhausting remedies against said assignee. Lessor may consent to subsequent assignments or subletting of this Lease or amendments or modifications to this Lease with assignees of Lessee, without notifying Lessee, or any successor of Lessee, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto and such actions shall not relieve Lessee of liability under this Lease.

13. Defaults; Remedies.

13.1 Defaults. The occurrence of any one or more of the following events shall constitute a material default and breach of this Lease by Lessee:

(a) The vacating or abandonment of the Premises by Lessee.

(b) The failure by Lessee to make any payment of rent or any other payment required to be made by Lessee hereunder, as and when due, where such failure shall continue for a period of three (3) days after written notice thereof from Lessor to Lessee. In the event that Lessor serves Lessee with Notice to Pay Rent or Quit pursuant to applicable Unlawful Detainer statutes, such Notice to Pay Rent or Quit shall also constitute the notice required by this subparagraph.

(c) The failure by Lessee to observe or perform any of the covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease to be observed or performed by Lessee, other than described in paragraph (b) above, where such failure shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice hereof from Lessor to Lessee; provided, however, that if the nature of Lessee's default is such that more than thirty (30) days are reasonably required for its cure, then Lessee shall not be deemed to be in default, if Lessee commenced such cure within said thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes such cure to completion.

(d) (i) The making by Lessee of any general arrangement or assignment for the benefit of creditors; (ii) Lessee becomes a "debtor" as defined in 11 U.S.C. Sec. 101 or any successor statute thereto (unless, in the case of a petition filed against Lessee, the same is dismissed within sixty (60) days); (iii) the appointment of a trustee or receiver to take possession of substantially all of Lessee's assets located at the Premises or of Lessee's interest in this Lease, where possession is not restored to Lessee within thirty (30) days; or (iv) the attachment, execution or other judicial seizure of substantially all of Lessee's assets located at the Premises or of Lessee's interest in this Lease, where such seizure is not discharged within thirty (30) days. Provided, however, in the event that any provision of this paragraph 13.1(d) is contrary to any applicable law, such provision shall be of no force or effect.

(e) The discovery by Lessor that any financial statement given to Lessor by Lessee, any assignee of Lessee, any subtenant of Lessee, any successor in interest of Lessee or any guarantor of Lessee's obligation hereunder, and any of them, was materially false.

13.2 Remedies. In the event of any such default or breach by Lessee, Lessor may at any time thereafter, with or without notice or demand and without limiting Lessor in the exercise of any right or remedy which Lessor may have by reason of such default or breach:

(a) Terminate Lessee's right to possession of the Premises by any lawful means, in which case this Lease shall terminate and Lessee shall immediately surrender possession of the Premises to Lessor. In such event, Lessor shall be entitled to recover from Lessee all damages incurred by Lessor by reason of Lessee's default including, but not limited to, the cost of recovering possession of the Premises; expenses of reletting, including necessary renovation and alteration of the Premises, reasonable attorneys' fees, and any real estate commission actually paid; and the worth at the time of award by the court having jurisdiction thereof of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of such award exceeds the amount of such rental loss for the same period that Lessee proves could be reasonably avoided.

(b) Maintain Lessee's right to possession in which case this Lease shall continue in effect whether or not Lessee shall have abandoned the Premises. In such event, Lessor shall be entitled to enforce all of Lessor's rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover the rent as it becomes due hereunder.

(c) Pursue any other remedy now or hereafter available to Lessor under the laws or judicial decisions of the state wherein the Premises are located. Unpaid installments of rent and other unpaid monetary obligations of Lessee under the terms of this Lease shall bear interest from the date due at the maximum rate than allowable by law.

13.3 Default by Lessor. Lessor shall not be in default unless Lessor fails to perform obligations required of Lessor within a reasonable time, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after written notice by Lessee to Lessor and to the holder of any first mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises whose name and address shall have theretofore been furnished to Lessee in writing specifying wherein Lessor has failed to perform such obligation; provided, however, that if the nature of Lessor's obligation is such that more than thirty (30) days are required for performance, then Lessor shall not be in default if Lessor commences performance within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently prosecutes the same to completion.

13.4 Late Charges. Lessee hereby acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of rent and other sums due hereunder will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of which will extremely difficult to ascertain. Such costs include, but are not limited to, processing and accounting charges, and late charges which may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any mortgage or trust deed covering the Premises. Accordingly, if any installment of rent or any other sum due from Lessee shall not be received by Lessor or Lessor's designee within ten (10) days after such amount shall be due, then, without any requirement for notice to Lessee, Lessee shall pay to Lessor a late charge equal to six percent (6%) of such overdue amount. The parties hereby agree that such late charge represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessee. Acceptance of such late charge by Lessor shall in no event constitute a waiver of Lessee's default with respect to such overdue amount, nor prevent Lessor from exercising any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder. In the event that a late charge is payable hereunder, whether or not collected, for three (3) consecutive installments of rent, then rent shall automatically become due and payable quarterly in advance, rather than monthly, notwithstanding paragraph 4 or any other provision of this Lease to the contrary.

14. Condemnation. If the Premises or any portion thereof are taken under the power of eminent domain, or sold under the threat of the exercise of said power (all of which are herein called "condemnation"), this Lease shall terminate as to the part so taken as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever first occurs. If more than ten percent (10%) of the floor area of the building on the Premises, or more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the land area of the Premises which is not occupied by any building, is taken by condemnation, Lessee may, at Lessee's option, to be exercised in writing only within ten (10) days after Lessor shall have given Lessee written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority shall have taken possession) terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes such possession. If the Lessee does not terminate this Lease in accordance with the foregoing, this Lease shall remain in full force and affect as to the portion of the Premises remaining, except that the rent shall be reduced in the proportion that the floor area of the building taken bears to the total floor area of the building situated on the Premises. No reduction of rent shall occur if the only area taken is that which does not have building located thereon. Any award for the taking of all or any part of the Premises under the power of eminent domain or any payment under threat of the exercise of such power shall be property of Lessor, whether such award shall be made as compensation for the exercise of such power shall be property of Lessor, whether such award shall be made as compensation for diminution in value of the leasehold or for the taking of the fee, or as severance damages; provided, however, that Lessee may separately petition for an award for loss of or damage to Lessee's leasehold, trade fixtures and removable personal property, as long as such award shall not reduce the amount of the award otherwise payable to Lessor hereunder. In the event hat this Lease is not terminated by reason of such condemnation, Lessor shall to the extent of severance damages received by Lessor in connection with such condemnation, repair any damage to the Premises caused by such condemnation except tho the extent that Lessee has been reimbursed therefor by the condemning authority.

15. Estoppel Certificate.

(a) Lessee shall at any time upon not less than written notice from Lessor execute, acknowledge and deliver to Lessor a statement in writing (i) certifying that this Lease is unmodified force and effect (or, if modified, stating the nature of such modification and certifying that this Lease, as so modified, is in full force and effect) and the date to which the rent and other charges are paid in advance, if any, and (ii) acknowledging that there are not, to Lessee's knowledge, any uncured defaults on the part of Lessor hereunder, or specifying such defaults if any are claimed. Any such statement may be conclusively relied upon by any prospective purchaser or encumbrancer of the Premises.

(b) At Lessor's option, Lessee's failure to deliver such statement within such time shall be a breach of this Lease or shall be conclusive upon Lessee (i) that this Lease is in full force and effect, without modification except as may be represented by Lessor, (ii) that there are no uncured defaults in Lessor's performance, and (iii) that not more than one (1) month's rent has been paid in advance or such failure may be considered by Lessor as a default by Lessee under this Lease.

(c) If Lessor desires to finance, refinance or sell the Premises, or any part thereof, Lessee hereby agrees to deliver to any lender or purchaser designated by Lessor such financial statement of Lessee as may be reasonably required by such lender or purchaser. Such statements shall include the past three (3) years' financial statements of Lessee. All such financial statements shall be received by Lessor and such lender or purchaser in confidence and shall be used only for the purposes herein set forth.

16. Lessor's Liability. The term "Lessor" as used herein shall mean only the owner or owners at the time in question of the fee title or a lessee's interest in a ground lease of the Premises, and in the event of any transfer of such title or interest, Lessor herein named (and in case of any subsequent transfers then the grantor shall be relieved from and after the date of such transfer of all liability as respects Lessor's obligation thereafter to be performed; provided that any funds in the hands of Lessor or the then grantor at the time of such transfer, in which Lessee has an interest, shall be delivered to the grantee. The obligations contained in this Lease to be performed by Lessor shall, subject as aforesaid, be binding on Lessor's successors and assigns, only during their respective periods of ownership.

17. Severability. The invalidity of any provision of this Lease, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall in no way affect the validity of any other provision hereof.

18. Interest on Past Due Obligations. Except as expressly herein provided, any amount due to Lessor not paid when the due shall bear interest at the maximum rate, then at the rate that is five percent (5%) per annum greater than the prime rate of interest quoted from time to time by First Interstate Bank of Utah in Salt Lake City, Utah. Payment of such interest shall not excuse or cure any default by Lessee under this Lease; provided, however, that interest shall not be payable on late charges incurred by Lessee nor on any amounts upon which late charges are paid by Lessee.

19. Time of Essence. Time is of the essence

20. Additional Rent. Any monetary obligations of Lessee to Lessor under the terms of this Lease shall be deemed to be rent.

21. Incorporation of Prior Agreements; Amendments. This Lease contains all agreements of the parties with respect to any matter mentioned herein. No prior agreement or understanding pertaining to any such matter shall be effective. This Lease maybe modified in writing only, signed by the parties in interest at the time of the modification. Except as otherwise stated in this Lease, Lessee hereby acknowledges that neither Lessor or any employees or agents of Lessor has made any oral or written warranties or representations to Lessee relative to the condition or use by Lessee of said Premises and Lessee acknowledges that Lessee assumes all responsibility regarding the Occupational Safety Health Act, the legal use and adaptability of the Premises and the compliance thereof with all applicable laws and regulations in effect during the term of this Lessee except as otherwise specifically stated into his Lease.

22. Notices. Any notice required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and may be given by personal delivery or by certified mail, and if given personally or by mail, shall be deemed sufficiently given if addressed to Lessee or to Lessor at the address noted below the signature of the respective parties, as the case may be. Either party may by notice to the other specify a different address for notice purposes except that upon Lessee's taking possession of the Premises, the Premises shall constitute Lessee's address for notice purposes. A copy of all notices required or permitted to be given to Lessor hereunder shall be concurrently transmitted to such party or parties at such addresses as Lessor may from time to time hereafter designate by notice to Lessee.

23. Waivers. No waiver by Lessor or any provision hereof shall be deemed a waiver of any other provision hereof or of any subsequent breach of Lessee of the same or any other provision. Lessor's consent to, or approval of, any act shall not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of Lessor's consent to or approval of any subsequent act by Lessee. The acceptance of rent hereunder by Lessor shall not be a waiver of any preceding breach by Lessee of any provision hereof, other than the failure of Lessee to pay the particular rent so accepted, regardless of Lessor's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such rent.

24. Holding Over. If Lessee, with Lessor's consent, remains in possession of the Premises or any part thereof after the expiration of the term hereof, such occupancy shall be a tenancy from month to month upon all the provisions of this Lease pertaining to the obligations of Lessee, but all options an rights of first refusal, if any, granted under the terms of this Lease shall be deemed terminated and be of no further effect during said month to month tenancy.

25. Cumulative Remedies. No remedy or election hereunder shall be deemed exclusive but shall, wherever possible, be cumulative with all other remedies at law or in equity.

26. Covenants and Conditions. Each provision of this Lease performable by Lessee shall be deemed both a covenant and a condition.

27. Binding Effect; Choice of Law. Subject to any provisions hereof restricting assignment or subletting by Lessee and subject to the provisions of paragraph 12, this Lease shall bind the parties, their personal representatives, successors and assigns. This Lease shall be governed by the laws of the state wherein the Premises are located.

28. Subordination.

(a) This Lease, at Lessor's options, shall be subordinate to any ground lease, mortgage, deed of trust, or any other hypothecation or security now or hereafter placed upon the real property of which the Premises are a part and to any and all advances made on the security thereof and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. Notwithstanding such subordination, Lessee's right to quiet possession of the Premises shall not be disturbed if Lessee is not in default and so long as Lessee shall pay the rent and observe and perform all of the provisions of the Lease, unless this Lease is otherwise pursuant to its terms. If any mortgagee, trustee, or ground lessor shall elect to have this Lease prior to the lien of its mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease, and shall give written notice thereof to Lessee, this Lease shall be deemed prior to such mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease or the date of recording thereof.

(b) Lessee agrees to execute any documents required to effectuate an attornment, a subordination or to make this Lease prior to the lien of any mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease, as the case may be. Lessee's failure to execute such documents within ten (10) days after written demand shall constitute a material default by Lessee hereunder, or, at Lessor's option, Lessor shall execute such documents on behalf of Lessee as Lessee's attorney-in-fact. Lessee does hereby make, constitute and irrevocably appoint Lessor as Lessee's attorney-in-fact and in Lessee's name, place and stead, to execute such documents in accordance with this paragraph 29(b).

29. Attorney's Fees. If either party or the broker named herein brings an action to enforce the terms hereof or declare rights hereunder, the prevailing party in any such action, on trial or appeal, shall be entitled to this reasonable attorney's fees to be paid by the losing party as fixed by the court.

30. Lessor's Access. Lessor and Lessor's agent shall have the right to enter the Premises at reasonable times for the purpose of inspecting the same, showing the same to prospective purchasers, lenders or lessees, and making such alterations, repairs, improvements, or additions to the Premises or to the building of which they are a part as Lessor may deem necessary or desirable. Lessor may at any time, place on or about the premises any ordinary "For Sale" signs and Lessor may at any time during the last one hundred twenty (120) days of the term hereof place on or about the Premises any ordinary "For Lease" signs, all without rebate or rent of liability to Lessee.

31. Signs. Lessee shall not place any sign upon the Premises without Lessor's prior written consent except that Lessee shall have the right, without the prior permission of Lessor, to place ordinary and usual for rent or sublet signs thereon.

32. Merger. The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Lessee, or a mutual cancellation thereof, or a termination by Lessor, shall not work a merger, and shall, at the option of Lessor, terminate all or any existing subtenancies or may, at the option of Lessor, operate as an assignment to Lessor any or all of such subtenancies.

33. Consents. Except for paragraph 32 hereof, wherever in this Lease the consent of one party is required to an act of the other party, such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

34. Guarantor. In the event that there is a guarantor of this Lease, said guarantor shall have the same obligations as Lessee under this Lease.

35. Quiet Possession. Upon Lessee paying the rent for the Premises and observing and performing all of the covenants, conditions and provisions on Lessee's part to be observed and performed hereunder, Lessee shall have quiet possession of the Premises for the entire term hereof subject to all of the provisions of this Lease. The individuals executing this Lease on behalf of Lessor represent and warrant to Lessee that they are fully authorized and legally capable of executing this Lease on behalf of Lessor and that such executing is binding upon all parties holding an ownership interest in the Premises.

36. Multiple Tenant Building. In the event that the Premises are part of a larger building or group of buildings then Lessee agrees that it will abide by, keep and observe all reasonable rules and regulations which Lessor may make from time to time for the management, safety, care, and cleanliness of the building and grounds, the parking of vehicles and the preservation of good order therein as well as for the convenience of other occupants and tenants of the building. The violations of any such rules and regulations shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease by Lessee.

37. Security Measures. Lessee hereby acknowledges that the rental payable to Lessor hereunder does not include the cost of guard service or other security measures, and that Lessor shall have no obligation whatsoever to provide same. Lessee assumes all responsibility for the protection of Lessee, its agents and invitees from acts of third parties.

38. Easements. Lessor reserves to itself the right, from time to time, to grant such easements, rights and dedications that Lessor deems necessary or desirable, and to cause the recordation of Parcel Maps and restrictions, so long as such easements, rights, dedications, Maps and restrictions do not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Premises by Lessee. Lessee shall sign any of the aforementioned documents upon request of Lessor and failure to do so shall constitute a material breach of this Lease.

39. Performance Under Protest. If at any time a dispute shall arise as to any amount or sum of money to be paid by one party to the other under the provisions hereof, the party against whom the obligation to pay the money is asserted shall have the right to make payment "under protest" and such payment shall not be regarded as a voluntary payment, and there shall survive the right on the part of said party to institute suit for recovery of such sum. If Lessee is a corporation, trust, or general or limited partnership, each individual executing this Lease on behalf of such entity represents and warrants that he or she is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Lease on behalf of said entity. If Lessee is a corporation, trust or partnership, Lessee shall, within thirty (30) days after execution of this Lease, deliver to Lessor evidence of such authority satisfactory to Lessor.

41. Conflict. Any conflict between the printed provisions of this Lease and the typewritten or handwritten provisions shall be controlled by the typewritten or handwritten provisions.

42. Force Maejure. Notwithstanding any provision in this Lease to the contrary, if either party otherwise herein specifically shall be delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any obligations hereunder related to construction or repair of the Premises by reason of strikes, walkouts, labor troubles, inability to procure materials, failure of power, riots, insurrection, war or other reason of a like nature not the fault of the party delayed in performing work or doing acts required under the terms of this Lease, then performance of such act shall be excused for the period of delay and the period for the performance of any such act shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay.

Tenant's agreement to indemnify and hold Landlord harmless pursuant to this Lease and the exclusion from Tenant's indemnity and Landlord's agreement to indemnify and hold Tenant harmless pursuant to this provision are not intended to and shall not relieve any insurance carrier of its obligations under policies required to be carried by Landlord or Tenant, respectively, pursuant to the Lease to the extent that such policies cover the results of such acts, omissions or willful misconduct. If Landlord or Tenant has been or at any time hereafter is granted the right to self insure or if either party breaches this agreement by its failure to carry required insurance, such failure shall automatically be deemed to be a covenant and

In that event, the rent should abate as to that portion of the Building wherein the use thereof is restricted. Landlord shall take reasonable efforts not to interfere with the normal business operations of Tenant. 2.1.1 Landlord shall perform certain work in preparing the Premises for occupancy by Tenant all as set forth in Exhibit C and in this section ("Tenant Improvements"). Landlord's approval of the plans, specifications and working drawings for Tenant Improvements shall create no responsibility or liability on Landlord's part for their completeness, design sufficiency or compliance with Governmental Requirements.

2.1.2 If Tenant desires improvements beyond the Tenant Improvements set forth in Exhibit C, and Landlord and Tenant agree as to further additional work, Tenant shall, within five (5) days after written demand, pay to Landlord as Additional Rent, the agreed upon cost and expense to Landlord of supplying and installing such additional work, materials and installations (including sales tax and design fees), plus ten (10%) percent of such cost and expense for Landlord's overhead, less a credit equal to the cost to Landlord of materials specified in Exhibit C (if any) for which substitutes were installed at Tenant's request.

2.1.3 Landlord shall construct the Tenant Improvements, provided, however, that Landlord shall have the right on an on-going basis to make any changes required by any Governmental Authority. Said work shall be performed by Landlord only once, it being understood that Landlord's obligation to perform the work with respect to Tenant Improvements is a single, non-recurring obligation.

2.1.4 Landlord shall give Tenant ten (10) days' written notice of the anticipated date of substantial completion of the Tenant Improvements, and Tenant shall have the right during said ten-day period to enter into the Premises for the purpose of installing its property and equipment and preparing the Premises for its occupancy, provided that (a) neither Tenant nor its agents or employees shall interfere with any work being done by Landlord and its agents and employees in any part of the Building, (b) Tenant shall comply with any reasonable work schedule, rules and regulations proposed by Landlord, its agents or employees, (c) the labor employed by Tenant shall be harmonious and compatible with the labor employed by Landlord in the Building, it being agreed that if in Landlord's judgment the labor is incompatible Tenant shall forthwith upon Landlord's demand withdraw such labor from the Premises, (d) Tenant shall procure and deliver to Landlord insurance as provided herein, (e) Tenant shall hold Landlord harmless from and against any and all claims arising from or in connection with any act or omission of Tenant or its agents or employees, (f) Tenant, at Tenant's expense, shall comply with all Governmental Requirements, Section 2.2 Commencement Date.

2.2.1 The Commencement Date for all purposes under this Lease shall be the earlier of the fixed Commencement Date set forth in Section 1 or the date that Landlord notifies Tenant in writing that it has substantially completed the Tenant Improvements. Within ten (10) days after the Commencement Date specified in Landlord's notice, Landlord's representative and Tenant's representative shall jointly examine the Premises and shall compile a list of any remaining items of work which Landlord may be obligated to complete (said remaining items being hereinafter referred to as "punch list items"). The taking of possession of the Premises by Tenant shall be deemed an acceptance of the Premises, but Landlord shall thereafter proceed expeditiously to complete the punch list items.

2.2.2 Tenant waives any damages which may result from any delay in the substantial completion of the work described in Section 2.1 or delivery of possession of the Premises. If Tenant takes possession of the Premises prior to the Commencement Date, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent hereunder and to observe and perform all other conditions and agreements hereunder with respect to the Premises shall commence on such earlier date of taking possession of the Premises. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not take possession of the Premises prior to the Commencement Date without Landlord's written permission.

2.2.3 In the event that substantial completion of the Tenant Improvements is delayed by reason of delays caused or occasioned by Tenant, this Lease shall commence on the date that this Lease would have commenced had not the completion of Tenant Improvements been so delayed by the Tenant, as reasonably determined by Landlord.

2.2.4 The Tenant Improvements shall be deemed to have been substantially completed (even though other work in and around the Building or Office Park may not be completed and decorating or other minor details or adjustments may not then have been completed) when a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy has been issued and parking is available. The taking of possession of the Premises by Tenant shall be deemed an acceptance of the Premises and substantial completion by Landlord of the Tenant Improvements. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to release Landlord from its obligations to complete the punchlist items.

2.2.5 Upon substantial completion of the Premises, Tenant and Landlord shall promptly execute an instrument confirming the dates of commencement and expiration of the Lease Term for the Premises.

Section 2.3 Building Under Construction. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that the Building or Tenant Improvements may presently be under or is expected soon to be under construction and in the event the Building or the Tenant Improvements with respect to the Premises are not substantially completed within six (6) months after the fixed Commencement Date set forth in Section 1 ("Final Completion Date"), then Tenant may, as Tenant's sole and exclusive remedy for such failure to substantially complete the Building, or the Tenant Improvements, cancel and terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord. 7.1.3 Except for repairs required to be made by Landlord, Tenant shall take good care of the Premises and, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall make all improvements, repairs and replacements, interior and exterior, structural or nonstructural, foreseen or unforeseen as and when needed to preserve the Premises in good working order and condition. Without affecting or limiting Tenant's obligations set forth in this preceding sentence, Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall provide (a) maintenance and repair of the electrical, heating, plumbing, elevators, sprinkler and air conditioning systems in the Premises; (b) generally keep and maintain the Premises, both interior and exterior, in good repair and condition; (c) repair and maintain all exterior and interior doors, windows, partitions, lighting, glass, floor surfaces and entry ways. Tenant specifically acknowledges that the floor loading limit within the Premises is as set forth in Section 1, and Tenant agrees not to load the floor in excess of such limit. Tenant shall at all times during the term of this Lease, keep and maintain in full force and effect maintenance and repair contracts for the benefit of Landlord and Tenant, providing for the service, maintenance, and repair of the heating, ventilating and air conditioning, elevators and sprinkler systems of the Premises.

7.1.4 To make all repairs, alterations, additions or replacements to the Premises, including appurtenances, equipment, interior and exterior facilities and fixtures related thereto, including any protective bollards located on the Building Parcel, arising out of Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises or necessary to satisfy any Governmental Requirement; to keep the Premises equipped with all safety appliances so required because of such use or occupancy; and otherwise to comply with the orders and regulations of any Governmental Authority except that Tenant shall not be under any obligation to comply with any Governmental Requirement requiring any alteration of or addition to the Premises unless such alteration or addition is required because of a condition created by Tenant. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord may be required or may desire to subdivide or plat the Building Parcel and grant easements thereon, and Tenant agrees to consent to or join in such documents to the extent reasonably required by Landlord.

7.1.5 To pay promptly when due the entire cost of any work to the Premises, including equipment, facilities and fixtures therein, undertaken by Tenant, so that the Premises and the Building shall, at all times, be free of liens for labor and materials; to procure all Necessary Approvals before undertaking such work; to do all such work in a good and workmanlike manner acceptable to Landlord, employing materials of good quality; to perform such work in such manner as to insure proper maintenance of good and harmonious labor relationships; and to comply with any Governmental Requirements relating thereto.

7.1.6 To indemnify and save Landlord harmless of and from all loss, cost liability, damage and expense, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, penalties and fines, incurred in connection with or arising from (a) any default by Tenant in the observance or performance of any of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Lease on Tenant's part to be observed or performed, or (b) the use or occupancy or manner of use or occupancy of the Premises, the Building, the Building Parcel or Office Park by Tenant or any Person claiming through or under Tenant, or (c) acts, omissions or negligence of Tenant or any such Person claiming through or under Tenant, or the contractors, agents, servants, employees, visitors or licensees of Tenant or any Person claiming through or under Tenant, in or about the Premises either prior to or during the Term or any holdover period or renewal period thereafter, or (d) any claims by any Persons, by reason of injury to Persons or damage to property occasioned by any use, occupancy, act, omission or negligence referred to herein.

7.1.7 To maintain with responsible companies approved by Landlord with a Best's Insurance Guide rating of not less than A+15 (a) commercial general liability insurance, with contractual liability endorsement covering the matters set forth in subsections 7.1.6(b), (c) and (d) above, with a Combined Single Limit per occurrence in an amount not less than $1,000,000 which insurance shall name Landlord and its agents as an additional insured; (b) fire insurance, with extended coverage, vandalism, malicious mischief and sprinkler leakage endorsements covering all fixtures and equipment, stock in trade, furniture, furnishings, improvements or betterments installed or made by Tenant in, on or about the Premises to the extent of at least 100% of their replacement value, without deduction for depreciation, but in any event in an amount sufficient to prevent Tenant from becoming a co-insurer under provisions of applicable policies. Tenant's insurance shall be in form satisfactory to Landlord and shall provide that it shall not be subject to cancellation, termination or material change, nor shall the policies therefor be surrendered for termination except after at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Landlord and, upon Landlord's request, to any mortgagee of Landlord. All policies required pursuant to this paragraph or duly executed certificates for such policies shall be deposited with Landlord not less than ten (10) days prior to the day Tenant is expected to take occupancy and upon renewals of said policies not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of the term of such coverage. Landlord shall maintain, with insurance companies qualified to do business in the State of Washington, all risk property insurance with extended coverage, vandalism, malicious mischief, sprinkler leakage, rental insurance and such other additional coverages as are carried by prudent operators of similar property (including other similar properties owned by Landlord) and in such amounts and with such deductibles as Landlord deems appropriate, but at least to the extent of 80% of the replacement cost of the Building or, if Landlord shall so elect, Landlord may self insure in whole or part any of the foregoing coverages. The premiums for said policy, or, if the policy is part of a blanket policy, the amount of the premium (including any amount for the waiver of subrogation set forth below) allocable to the Building, shall be a Common Area Operating Cost as set forth in Section 3.4. The proceeds of said insurance maintained by Landlord shall be adjusted by and payable solely to Landlord.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Landlord and Tenant mutually agree that with respect to any loss or damage to the real or personal property of either on the Building Parcel, including the Building itself (whether caused by the negligence of Landlord, Tenant or any other cause), which is covered by insurance then being carried by them respectively, or required to be carried, or as to any coverage which Landlord agrees need not be carried, the party suffering a loss releases the other of and from any and all claim with respect to such loss; and they further mutually agree that their respective insurance companies shall have no right of subrogation against the other on account thereof.

7.1.8 To pay on demand any increase in premiums that may be charged on insurance carried by Landlord resulting from Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises.

7.1.9 Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall not be liable for, and Tenant waives all claims for, loss or damage to Tenant's business or damage to person or property sustained by Tenant resulting from any accident or occurrence (unless caused by or resulting from Landlord's breach of its obligations hereunder or the negligence of Landlord, its agents, servants or employees other than accidents or occurrences against which the Tenant is insured or required to be insured) or in or upon the Premises or the Building or the Office Park, including, but not limited to, claims for damage resulting from: (a) any equipment or appurtenances becoming out of repair; (b) injury done or occasioned by wind; (c) any defect in or failure of plumbing, heating or air conditioning or ventilation equipment, electric wiring or installation thereof, gas, water, steam or other pipes, stairs, porches, railings or walks; (d) broken glass; (e) the backing up of any pipe or downspout; (f) the bursting, leaking or running of any tank, tub, washstand, water closet, waste pipe, drain or any other pipe or tank in, upon or about the Building or the Premises; (g) the escape of steam or hot water; (h) water, snow or ice being upon or coming through the roof, skylight, trapdoor, stairs, doorways, show windows, walks or any other place upon or near the Building or the Premises or otherwise; and (i) any act, omission or negligence of other tenants, licensees or of any other persons or occupants of the Building or Office Park.

7.1.10 To permit Landlord and its agents to have reasonable access in and about the Premises including, without limitation, the right to enter the Premises on twenty-four (24) hours prior notice (except in the case of emergency) to examine the Premises or for the purpose of performing any obligation of Landlord under this Lease or exercising any right or remedy reserved to Landlord in this Lease; to erect, install, use and maintain in concealed locations pipes, ducts and conduits in and through the Premises; to exhibit the Premises to others; to make such repairs, alterations, improvements or additions, or to perform such maintenance, as Landlord may deem necessary or desirable provided that any such access, entry, repairs, alterations, improvements shall not materially interfere with Tenant's business in the Premises Landlord shall have the right, from time to time, to change the name, number or designation by which the Building is commonly known. All parts (except surfaces facing the interior of the Premises) of all walls, windows and doors bounding the Premises (including exterior Building walls, core corridor walls, doors and entrances) and the use thereof, as well as access thereto through the Premises for the purposes of operation, maintenance, alteration and repair, are hereby reserved to Landlord

7.1.11 To pay on demand Landlord's expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, at trial and on appeal, or in arbitration or mediation, incurred in successfully enforcing any obligation of the Tenant under this Lease or incurred in any action or proceeding arising out of or pursuant to this Lease.

7.1.12 Forthwith to cause to be discharged of record by payment and to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Landlord from and against all liability and expense arising from any mechanic's lien at any time filed against the Premises or the Building Parcel for any work, labor, services or materials claimed to have been performed at, or furnished to the Premises, for or on behalf of Tenant, or anyone holding the Premises through or under Tenant. Nothing in this Lease contained shall be construed as a consent on the part of Landlord to subject Landlord's estate in the Premises, the Building or Building Parcel to any lien or liability under applicable law.

7.1.13 Upon the expiration or other termination of the Term, to quit and surrender the Premises to Landlord, broom clean, in good order and condition, ordinary wear and tear and casualty not caused by Tenant, its agents, servants, employees, visitors, or licensees excepted, and at Tenant's expense to remove all property of Tenant and, at Landlord's option, any alteration, addition and improvement made by Tenant and to repair all damages to the Premises caused by such removal and restore the Premises to the condition in which they were prior to the installation of the articles so removed ordinary wear and tear and casualty excluded. Any improvements or installations which are required to be but are not so removed shall be deemed to have been abandoned by Tenant and may be retained or disposed of by Landlord, as Landlord shall desire, but Tenant shall be responsible for the cost of restoration of the Premises and removal and disposal.

7.1.14 This Lease is and all of Tenant's rights hereunder are subject and subordinate to any mortgages or deeds of trust that now exist or may hereafter be placed upon the Building, the Building Parcel or any part thereof and to any and all advances to be made thereunder, and to the interest thereon, and to all renewals, replacements, amendments, modifications, consolidations and extensions of any of the foregoing. Tenant agrees to execute such documents with holders of such mortgages or deeds of trust confirming the foregoing subordination as may be requested by Landlord. Any mortgagee or beneficiary under any such mortgage or deed of trust may elect that this Lease shall have priority over its mortgage or deed of trust and upon notification of such election by such mortgagee or beneficiary to Tenant, this Lease shall be deemed to have priority over said mortgage or deed of trust whether this Lease is dated prior to or subsequent to the date of said mortgage or deed of trust. Tenant agrees to execute any subordination or nondisturbance agreement with the holder of any mortgage or deed of trust on the Building Parcel or Building confirming the matters set forth in this section 7.1.14 and such other provisions as are customary in connection with such subordination agreements.

7.1.15 To conform to all reasonable rules and regulations which Landlord may make for the management and use of the Premises, requiring such conformance by Tenant and Tenant's employees, agents, contractors, visitors, servants, or licensees. Such rules and regulations shall be uniform and shall not discriminate against Tenant.

7.1.16 In addition to and not in limitation of subsection 7.1.1, Tenant shall, at its expense, comply with any existing or hereafter-enacted environmental laws, regulations, administrative acts or rulings, including but not limited to any laws governing the use, disposal or release of any Hazardous Substance (as defined in subsection 7.2.5), affecting Tenant's operation at the Premises ("Environmental Laws"). Tenant shall, at its expense, make all submissions to, provide all information to, and comply with all requirements of the appropriate governmental authority (the "Authority") under the Environmental Laws. In addition, should the Authority determine that a cleanup plan be prepared and that a cleanup be undertaken or any other action taken because of any spills or discharges of hazardous substances or wastes at the Premises which occur during the Lease term, Tenant shall at its expense prepare and submit the approved plans. Tenant's obligations under this subsection 7.1.16 shall arise if there is any closing, terminating or transferring of operations of an industrial establishment at the Premises pursuant to the cleanup Laws. At no expense to Landlord, Tenant shall promptly provide all information requested by Landlord for preparation of affidavits required by Landlord to determine the applicability of the Environmental Laws to the Premises, and shall sign the affidavits promptly when requested to do so by Landlord.

Tenant shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Landlord from all fines, suits, procedures, claims, actions costs or liabilities of any kind arising out of or in any way connected with any spills or discharges of Hazardous Substances or wastes by Tenant at the Premises that occur during the Term, including without limitation, a decrease in the value of the Premises, damages due to loss or restriction of rentable or usable space, or any damages due to adverse impacts or marketing of space, any and all sums paid for settlement of claims, attorneys' fees, consultant and expert fees, or any costs arising out of Tenant's failure to provide all information, make all submissions and take all steps required by the Authority under the Environmental Laws or any other environmental laws or regulations. Tenant's obligations and liabilities under this paragraph shall survive termination or sooner expiration of this Lease. Tenant's failure to abide by the terms of this subsection 7.1.16 shall be restrainable by injunction.

Section 7.2 Negative Covenants. Tenant covenants at all times during the Term and such further time as Tenant occupies the Premises or any part thereof:

7.2.1 Not to make or perform, or permit the making or performance of, any alterations, subdivisions, installations, decorations, improvements, additions or other physical changes in or about the Premises including those which are necessary to satisfy any Governmental Requirements (referred to collectively as "alterations") without Landlord's prior written consent except Tenant may move its equipment, furnishings and racks without prior consent provided the floor loading limitations in this Lease are not violated. Landlord agrees not unreasonably to withhold its consent to any interior nonstructural alterations which do not adversely affect the Building's utility and mechanical systems proposed to be made by Tenant to adapt the Premises for Tenant's business purposes. Alterations shall be made only by contractors or mechanics approved by Landlord. All business machines and mechanical equipment shall be placed and maintained by Tenant in settings sufficient, in Landlord's judgment, to absorb and prevent vibration, noise and annoyance to other tenants or occupants of the Office Park. Tenant shall submit to Landlord detailed plans and specifications for each proposed alteration and shall not commence any such alteration without first obtaining Landlord's approval of such plans and specifications; all reports, and all permits, approvals and certificates required by all Governmental Authorities shall be timely obtained by Tenant and submitted to Landlord; all materials and equipment to be incorporated in the Premises as a result of all alterations shall be new and first quality; no such materials or equipment shall be subject to any lien, encumbrance, chattel mortgage or title retention or security agreement. In the event cost of an alteration exceeds the amount of three monthly installments of Fixed Rent, Landlord shall have the right to require that Tenant obtain performance and payment bonds from such surety companies and in such forms as Landlord shall require in amounts at least equal to the cost of the proposed work.

7.2.2 Not to assign, sell, mortgage, pledge, or in any manner, voluntarily or involuntarily, transfer or permit the transfer of this Lease or any interest therein, or sublet the Premises or parts thereof without Landlord's prior written consent, which will not unreasonably be withheld. A transfer or change in the owners of Tenant's stock or a change in the composition of any noncorporate Tenant shall, unless such stock is publicly traded, be deemed an assignment. Consent by Landlord to an assignment, subletting, concession or license shall not be construed to relieve Tenant from obtaining the express consent of Landlord to any further assignment, subletting, concession or license, nor shall the collection of Rent by Landlord from any assignee, subtenant or other occupant be deemed a waiver of this covenant or the acceptance of the assignee, subtenant or occupant as Tenant or a release of Tenant from the covenants in this Lease on Tenant's part to be performed. Tenant and any assignee or subtenant shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations under this Lease.

After completion of the Tenant Improvements, the payment of any amounts for Tenant Improvements, and the taking of the Premises for occupancy, Tenant may, in writing, request Landlord's consent to an assignment of this Lease or a subletting of all (but not less than all) of the Premises. Such request shall include the name of the proposed assignee or subtenant, a copy of the proposed agreements and instruments relating to the transaction, certified financial statements of the proposed assignee or subtenant and such information as to the financial responsibility, business and standing of the proposed assignee or subtenant as Landlord may reasonably require. If Tenant submits such request and information and Landlord refuses to consent to such assignment or sublease, then, unless Tenant withdraws such request within ten (10) days after Landlord's refusal, Landlord shall have the right, to be exercised in writing within thirty (30) days after such failure to withdraw such request to cancel and terminate all Tenant's obligations under this Lease as of the date set forth in Landlord's notice of exercise of such option, which effective date of termination in Landlord's notice shall be not less than sixty (60) nor more than one hundred twenty (120) days following the service of such notice.

(a) In the event Landlord shall exercise such cancellation right, Tenant shall surrender possession of the Premises, on the date set forth in such notice in accordance with the provisions of this Lease relating to surrender of the Premises at the expiration of the Term. In no event shall the Premises be subdivided or partially sublet.

(b) In the event that Landlord shall not exercise its right to cancel this Lease as above provided, the Landlord's consent to such request shall not be unreasonably withheld provided such consent to sublease or assignment is effected by a legal document in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord and subsection (c) shall apply with respect to a possible adjustment of Rent. In no event shall any assignment or subletting to which Landlord may have consented release or relieve Tenant from its obligations fully to perform all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease on its part to be performed.

(c) If under the assignment or sublease consented to by Landlord the net effective rent, additional rent, other charges, and/or consideration, money or thing of value payable thereunder or payable in connection with the transaction exceed the Rent provided in this Lease, Tenant or, at Landlord's option, the sublessee or assignee shall pay said excess rent or other consideration to Landlord as Additional Rent hereunder as and when the same becomes due under said assignment or sublease.

(d) If Tenant is a corporation, Tenant shall have the right, without the consent of Landlord, to assign its interest in this Lease to a parent, subsidiary or affiliate of Tenant or any corporation which is a successor to Tenant either by merger or consolidation, or in connection with the transfer of all of the business and assets of the Tenant or a public offering of Tenant's stock provided that the successor shall have a tangible net worth, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principals, at least equal to the tangible net worth of Tenant as of the date of this Lease. However, no such assignment shall be valid unless, within ten (10) days prior to the effective date thereof Tenant shall deliver to Landlord (1) a duplicate original instrument of assignment in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord, duly executed by Tenant, (2) an instrument in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord, duly executed by the assignee, in which such assignee shall assume observance and performance of and to be personally bound by, all terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease on Tenant's part to be observed and performed, and (3) evidence of compliance with the conditions of this paragraph.

7.2.3 NOT TO AFFIX ANY SIGN TO THE PREMISES OR ITS WINDOWS, OR TO ANY PART OF THE COMMON AREA OR THE BUILDING, UNLESS AND UNTIL THE SIGN HAS BEEN APPROVED BY LANDLORD. TENANT'S EXISTING SIGNAGE IS HEREBY APPROVED.

7.2.4 Not to obstruct or encumber or use the Common Areas for any purpose other than ingress and egress to and from the Premises. Tenant shall not bring or keep or permit to be brought or kept, any inflammable, combustible or explosive fluid, material, chemical or substance in or about the Premises.* Tenant shall not commit or allow to be committed any waste upon the Premises, or any public or private nuisance or other act or thing which disturbs the quiet enjoyment of any other tenant in the Building or the Office Park. If any of Tenant's machines or equipment should disturb the quiet enjoyment of any other tenant in the Building, then Tenant shall provide adequate insulation, or take such other action as may be necessary to eliminate the disturbance.

7.2.5 *Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Substance to be generated, processed, stored, transported, handled or disposed of on, under, in or through the Premises without first obtaining Landlord's written consent which may be withheld in Landlord's absolute discretion. As used herein, the term "Hazardous Substance" means any hazardous, toxic or dangerous substances, waste or material, including any biological waste, which is or becomes regulated under any federal, state or local statute, ordinance, rule, regulation or other law now or hereafter in effect pertaining to environmental protection, contamination or cleanup, including without limitation any substance, waste or material which now or hereafter is designated as a "Hazardous Substance" under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act (42 U.S.C. (s) (s) 9601, et seq.), or under the
------
Model Toxics Control Act (Revised Code of Washington (s) (s) 70.105D); without limiting the foregoing, Hazardous Substances shall include, but not be limited to, any substance which after being released into the environment and upon exposure, ingestion, inhalation, or assimilation, either directly from the environment or indirectly by ingestion through food chains, will or may reasonably be anticipated to cause death, disease, behavior abnormalities, cancer and/or genetic abnormalities.

* See Rider attached.

8. DESTRUCTION: CONDEMNATION.

Section 8.1 Damage or Destruction.

8.1.1 Damage and Repair. In case of damage to the Premises or the
---
Building by fire or other casualty, Tenant shall give immediate notice to Landlord. If the Building is damaged by fire or any other cause to such extent that the cost of restoration, as reasonably estimated by Landlord, will equal or exceed 30% of the replacement value of the Building (exclusive of foundations) just prior to the occurrence of the damage, or if insurance proceeds sufficient for restoration are for any reason unavailable, then Landlord may no later than the thirtieth (30th) day following the damage, give Tenant a notice of Landlord's election to terminate this Lease. In the event of such an election, this Lease shall be deemed to terminate effective as of the date of the damage. Tenant shall surrender possession of the Premises within a reasonable time thereafter, and the Rent and Additional Rent shall be apportioned as of the date of said surrender and any Rent paid for any period beyond said date shall be repaid to Tenant. If the cost of restoration as estimated by Landlord shall amount to less than 30% of such replacement value of the Building and insurance proceeds sufficient for restoration are available, or if despite the cost Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease, Landlord shall restore the Building and the Premises (to the extent of improvements to the Premises originally provided by Landlord hereunder) with reasonable promptness, subject to delays beyond Landlord's control and delays in the making of insurance adjustments by Landlord, and Tenant shall have no right to terminate this Lease except as herein provided. To the extent that the Premises are rendered untenantable, the Rent shall proportionately abate, except in the event such damage resulted from or was contributed to, directly, or indirectly, by the act, fault or neglect of Tenant, Tenant's contractors, agents, employees, invitees or licensees, in which event Rent shall abate only to the extent Landlord receives proceeds from Landlord's rental income insurance policy to compensate Landlord for loss of rent.

8.1.2 Business Interruption. No damages, compensations or claim shall be payable by Landlord for inconvenience, loss of business or annoyance arising from any repair or restoration of any portion of the Premises or of the Building. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts repairs promptly.

8.1.3 Tenant Improvements. Landlord will not carry insurance of any kind on any improvements paid for by Tenant or on Tenant's furniture or furnishings or on any fixtures, equipment, personal property, inventory, improvements or appurtenances of Tenant under this Lease and Landlord shall not be obligated to repair any damage thereto or replace the same.

Section 8.2 Eminent Domain.

8.2.1 Entire Taking. If all of the Premises or such portions of the Building as may be required for the reasonable use of the Premises, are taken by eminent domain, this Lease shall automatically terminate as of the date title vests in the condemning authority and all Rents, Additional Rents and other payments shall be paid to that date.

8.2.2 Constructive Taking of Entire Premises. In the event of a taking of a material part but less than all of the Building, where Landlord shall reasonably determine that the remaining portions of the Premises cannot be economically and effectively used by it (whether on account of physical, economic, aesthetic or other reasons), Landlord shall forward a written notice to Tenant of such determination not more than sixty (60) days after the date of taking. The term of this Lease shall expire upon such date as Landlord shall specify in such notice but not earlier than sixty (60) days after the date of such notice.

8.2.3 Partial Taking. In case of taking of a part of the Premises, or a portion of the Building not required for the reasonable use of the Premises, then this Lease shall continue in full force and effect and the Rent shall be equitably reduced based on the proportion by which the floor area of the Premises is reduced, such Rent reduction to be effective as of the date title to such portion vests in the condemning authority.

8.2.4 Termination by Landlord. In the event that title to a part of the Building other than the Premises shall be so condemned or taken and if, in the opinion of the Landlord, the Building should be restored in such a way as to alter the Premises materially, the Landlord may terminate this Lease and the term and estate hereby granted by notifying the Tenant of such termination within sixty (60) days following the date of vesting of title, and this Lease and the term and estate hereby granted shall expire on the date specified in the notice of termination, not less than sixty (60) days after the giving of such notice, as fully and completely as if such date were the date herein-before set for the expiration of the term of this Lease, and the Rent hereunder shall be apportioned as of such date.

8.2.5 Awards and Damages. Landlord reserves all rights to damages to the Premises for any partial, constructive, or entire taking by eminent domain, and Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord any right Tenant may have to such damages or award, and Tenant shall make no claim against Landlord or the condemning authority for damages for termination of the leasehold interest or the value of such leasehold interest or interference with Tenant's business. Tenant shall have the right, however, to claim and recover from the condemning authority compensation for any loss to which Tenant may be put for Tenant's moving expenses, business interruption or taking of Tenant's personal property (not including Tenant's leasehold interest) provided that such damages may be claimed only if they are awarded separately in the eminent domain proceedings and not out of or as part of the damages recoverable by Landlord.

Tenant shall give prompt notice to Landlord in case of fire or other damage to the Premises or the Building.

9. DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES.

Section 9.1 Tenant Default. Upon the occurrence, at any time prior to or during the Term, of any one or more of the following events (referred to as "Events of Default"):

9.1.1 If Tenant shall default in the payment when due of any installment of Fixed Rent or in the payment when due of any Additional Rent, and such default shall continue for a period of ten (10) days; or

9.1.2 If Tenant shall default in the observance or performance of any term, covenant or condition of this Lease on Tenant's part to be observed or performed (other than covenants for the payment of Fixed Rent and Additional Rent) and Tenant shall fail after written notice by Landlord of such default to remedy such default within thirty (30) days or if said default is not capable of being cured within said thirty (30) day period and Tenant shall not commence the cure within said period or shall not thereafter diligently prosecute to completion all steps necessary to remedy such default;

Then upon the occurrence, at any time prior to or during the Term, of any one or more such Events of Default, Landlord at any time after the written notice and grace periods described in Subsections (A) and (B) above, at Landlord's option, may give to Tenant a five (5) days' notice of termination of this Lease and, in the event such notice is given, this Lease and the Term shall come to an end and expire upon the expiration of said five (5) days with the same effect as if the date of expiration of said five (5) days were the expiration date of the Term, but Tenant shall remain liable for damages as provided herein, or Landlord may relet the Premises without terminating this Lease, or Landlord may exercise any other right or remedy allowed by law or provided herein.

9.1A See Rider attached.

Section 9.2 Remedies of Landlord.

9.2.1 Summary Proceedings. Subject to notice and grace periods provided in Section 9.1 above an Event of Default has occurred, Landlord may without notice, institute summary proceedings, terminate all services, dispossess Tenant and the legal representative of Tenant or other occupants of the Premises, and remove their effects and hold the Premises as if this Lease had not been made, and Tenant shall remain liable for damages as provided in subsection 9.2.2.

9.2.2 Landlord's Re-entry. Upon an Event of Default, subject to the notice and grace periods provided in Section 9.1 Landlord, in addition to any other rights or remedies it may have, at its option, may enter the Premises or any part thereof, either with or without process of law, and expel, remove or put out Tenant or any other persons who may be thereon, together with all personal property found therein; and Landlord may terminate this Lease, or it may from time to time, without terminating this Lease and as agent of Tenant, re-let the Premises or any part thereof for such term or terms (which may be for a term less than or extending beyond the term hereof), and at such rental or rentals and upon such other terms and conditions as Landlord in its sole discretion may deem advisable, with the right to repair, renovate, remodel, redecorate, alter and change the Premises, Tenant remaining liable for any deficiency computed as hereinafter set forth. In the case of any default, re-entry and/or dispossession by summary proceedings or otherwise, all Rent and Additional Rent shall become due thereupon and be paid up to the time of such re-entry or dispossession, together with such expenses as Landlord may incur in connection with such default for attorneys fees, advertising expenses, brokerage fees and/or putting the Premises in good order or preparing the same for re-rental.

9.2.3 Re-letting the Premises. At the option of Landlord: (i) the Rent shall become due thereupon and be paid up to the time of such re-entry, dispossess and/or termination; (ii) Landlord may relet the Premises or any part or parts thereof, either in the name of Landlord or otherwise, for a term which may at Landlord's option be less than or exceed the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the Term, and may grant reasonable concessions of free rent; and (iii) Tenant or the legal representative of Tenant shall also pay Landlord, as damages for the failure of Tenant to observe and perform said Tenant's covenants herein contained, for each month of the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the Term, any deficiency between (x) the sum of (a) one monthly installment of Fixed Rent, (b) the Tax Rent that would have been payable for the month in question but for such reentry or termination, and (c) the current monthly minimum Common Area Rent, and (y) the net amount, if any, of the rents collected on account of the lease or leases of the Premises for each month of the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the Term. The reasonable refusal or failure of Landlord to relet the Premises or any part of parts thereof shall not release or affect Tenant's liability for damages provided Landlord shall have made the same effort and on the same terms to relet the Premises as with respect to other vacant space in the Office Park, however, Landlord shall not be required to prefer the reletting of the Premises over any other space in the Office Park. In computing such damages there shall be added to the said deficiency such reasonable expenses as Landlord' may incur in connection with reletting, such as court costs, attorneys fees and disbursements, brokerage and for the expenses of putting and keeping the Premises in good order or for preparing the same for reletting as hereinafter provided. Any such damages shall be paid in monthly installments by Tenant on the rent day specified in this Lease and any suit brought to collect the amount of the deficiency for any month shall not prejudice in any way the rights of Landlord to collect the deficiency for any subsequent or prior month by a similar proceeding. Landlord, at Landlord's option, may make such alterations, repairs, replacements and/or decorations in the Premises as Landlord in Landlord's sole judgment considers advisable and necessary for the purpose of reletting the Premises for the purpose of reletting the Premises to another user of warehouse space; and the making of such alterations and/or decorations shall not operate or be construed to release Tenant from liability hereunder as aforesaid. Except as expressly provided herein, Landlord shall in no event be liable in any way whatsoever for failure to relet the Premises, or in the event that the Premises are relet, for failure to collect the rent thereof under such reletting.

9.2.4 Appointment of Receiver. If an Event of Default has occurred, Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent and conduct Tenant's business. Neither the filing of a petition for appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

9.2.5 Waiver of Redemption Rights. Tenant, for itself, and on behalf of any and all persons claiming through or under it, including creditors of all kinds, does hereby waive and surrender all right and privilege which they or any of them might have under or by reason of any present or future law, to redeem the Premises or to have a continuance of this Lease for the term hereof, as it may have been extended, after having been dispossessed or ejected therefrom by process of law or under the terms of this Lease or after the termination of this Lease as herein provided.

Section 9.3 Trial by Jury; Counter-Claim. Landlord and Tenant shall and they hereby do waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counter-claim brought by either of the parties hereto against the other on any matters not relating to personal injury or property damage but otherwise arising out of or in anyway connected with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, and any emergency statutory or any other statutory remedy.

Section 9.4 Holdover by Tenant. In the event Tenant remains in possession of any portion of the Premises after the expiration of the Term as to such portion and without the execution of a new lease, Tenant, at the option of Landlord, shall be deemed to be occupying such portion of the Premises as a tenant from month to month, at a monthly rental equal to the sum of (a) twice the monthly installment of Fixed Rent payable during the last month of the Term, (b) the monthly installment of Tax Rent payable for the last month of the Term, and (c) the Common Area Rent payable for such month, subject to all the other conditions, provisions and obligations of this Lease insofar as the same are applicable to a month-to-month tenancy. Tenant shall not and hereby waives the right to interpose any counterclaim or counterclaims in a summary proceeding or other action by Landlord based on holdover.

Section 9.5 Landlord's Right to Cure Defaults. Landlord may cure, after notice of default is served, any default by Tenant under this Lease, and whenever Landlord so elects, all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in curing a default, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest on the amount of costs and expenses so incurred at the rate provided in Section 3.10 hereof, shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord on demand, and shall be recoverable as Additional Rent.

Section 9.6 Waiver of Default. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by Landlord or Tenant to or of any breach of any covenant, condition or duty of the other shall be construed as a consent or waiver to or of any other breach of the same or any other covenant, condition or duty of Landlord or Tenant, unless in writing signed by the party against whom waiver is sought.

10. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Section 10.1 Notices. Any notice or demand from Landlord to Tenant or from Tenant to Landlord shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly served if mailed by Registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed, if to Tenant, at the Building, or to such other address as Tenant shall have last designated by notice in writing to Landlord, and if to Landlord, at the address of Landlord set forth herein or such other address as Landlord shall have last designated by notice in writing to Tenant, with copy to Managing Agent. Notice shall be deemed served when mailed.

Section 10.2 Brokerage. Tenant and Landlord warrant that they have had no dealings with any broker or agent in connection with this Lease other than the Broker, if any, named herein and each covenants to pay, hold harmless and indemnify the other from and against any and all cost, expense or liability for any compensation, commissions and charges claimed by any other broker or agent with respect to this Lease or the negotiation thereof with whom they had dealings.

Section 10.3 Estoppel Certificates. Each of the parties agrees that it will, at any time and from time to time, within 10 business days following written notice by the other party hereto specifying that it is given pursuant to this section, execute, acknowledge and deliver to the party who gave such notice a statement in writing certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications), and the dates to which the Rent and any other payments due hereunder from Tenant have been paid in advance, if any, and stating whether or not to the best of knowledge of the signer of such certificate the other party is in default in performance of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Lease, and, if so, specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge.

Section 10.4 Applicable Law and Construction. The laws of the State of Washington shall govern the validity, performance and enforcement of this Lease. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Lease shall not affect or impair any other provision. The submission of this document to Tenant for examination does not constitute an offer to lease, or a reservation of or option to lease, and becomes effective only upon execution and delivery thereof by Landlord and Tenant. All negotiations, considerations, representations and understandings between the parties are incorporated in this Lease. Landlord or Landlord's agents have made no representations or promises with respect to the Building, the Office Park or the Premises, except as herein expressly set forth. The headings of the several articles and sections contained herein are for convenience only and do not define, limit or construe the contents of such articles or sections. Whenever herein the singular number is used, the same shall include the plural, and the neuter gender shall include the masculine and feminine genders.

Section 10.5 Relationship of the Parties. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto, or by any third party, as creating the relationship of principal and agent or partnership or joint venture between the parties hereto, it being understood and agreed that no provisions herein, nor any acts of the parties hereto, shall be deemed to create any relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of landlord and tenant.

Section 10.6 Construction on Adjacent Premises or Buildings. If any excavation or other building construction shall be about to be made or shall be made on any premises adjoining or above or below the Premises or on any other portion of the Building, Tenant shall permit Landlord or the adjoining owner, and their respective agents, employees, licensees and contractors, to enter the Premises and to shore the foundations and/or walls thereof, and to erect scaffolding and/or protective barricades around and about the Premises (but not so as to preclude entry thereto) and to do any act or thing necessary for the safety or preservation of the Premises. Tenant's obligations under this Lease shall not be affected by any such construction or excavation work, shoring-up, scaffolding or barricading. Landlord shall not be liable in any such case for any inconvenience, disturbance, loss of business or any other annoyance arising from any such construction, excavation, shoring-up, scaffolding or barricades, but Landlord shall use its best efforts so that such work will cause as little inconvenience, annoyance disturbance and cost to Tenant as possible consistent with accepted construction practice in the vicinity and so that such work shall be expeditiously completed.

Section 10.7 Recording. Tenant agrees not to record this Lease.

Section 10.8 Binding Effect of Lease. The covenants, agreements and obligations herein contained, except as herein otherwise specifically provided shall extend to, bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective personal representatives, heirs, successors and permitted assigns. Each covenant, agreement, obligation or other provision herein contained shall be deemed and construed as a separate and independent covenant of the party bound by, undertaking or making the same, not dependent on any other provision of this Lease unless otherwise expressly provided.

Section 10.9 Effect of Unavoidable Delays. The provisions of this section shall be applicable if there shall occur, during the Term, or prior to the commencement thereof, any (a) strike(s), lockout(s) or labor dispute(s); (b) inability to obtain labor or materials, or reasonable substitutes therefor; or (c) acts of God, governmental restrictions, regulations or controls, enemy or hostile governmental action, civil commotion, fire or other casualty, or (d) other conditions similar to those enumerated in this item beyond the reasonable control of the party obligated to perform. If Landlord or Tenant shall, as the result of any of the above-described events, fail punctually to perform any obligation on its part to be performed under this Lease, then such failure shall be excused and not be a breach of this Lease by the party in question, but only to the extent occasioned by such event. If any right or option of either party to take any action under or with respect to this Lease is conditioned upon the same being exercised within any prescribed period of time or at or before a named date, then such prescribed period of time and such named date shall be deemed to be extended or delayed, as the case may be, for a period equal to the period of delay occasioned by any above-described event. Notwithstanding anything herein contained however, the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to Tenant's obligations to pay Rent or its obligations to pay any other sums, moneys, costs, charges or expenses required to be paid by Tenant hereunder and time shall be of the essence with respect to timely payment thereof.

Section 10.10 No Oral Changes. Neither this Lease nor any provision hereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated orally, but only by an instrument in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change, waiver, discharge or termination is sought.

Section 10.11 Executed Counterparts of Lease. This Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts and each of such counterparts shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original; and all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same Lease.

Section 10.12 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of this Lease is held unlawful or invalid, then this Lease shall continue in full force and effect but such unlawful or invalid provision shall be deemed omitted. If any portion of Fixed or Additional Rent shall at any time be held to be higher than the amount which the Landlord may lawfully reserve then the amount thereof shall be reduced to the highest lawful amount.

Section 10.13 Entire Agreement. This Lease is the final and complete expression of Landlord and Tenant relating in any manner to the leasing, use and occupancy of the Premises, to Tenant's use of the Building and other matters set forth in this Lease. No prior agreement or understanding pertaining to the same shall be valid or of any force or effect.

Section 10.14 Managing Agent. Landlord has advised Tenant that it has appointed Collier's Real Estate Services, Inc. as managing agent of the Building (said managing agent and any successor or substitute managing agent is hereinafter referred to as Managing Agent) and as its agent for service of process in the State of Washington. Tenant shall, until otherwise notified by Landlord, make all payments of Rent to be made pursuant to this Lease to the Managing Agent payable to the Landlord and direct all notices, inquiries or other communications to The Estate of James Campbell, Director, Mainland Operations/West, Suite 1000, 425 California Street, San Francisco, California 94104 with a copy to the Managing Agent at Collier's Real Estate Services, Inc., 800 Fifth Avenue, Suite 3930, Seattle, Washington 98104.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Landlord and Tenant have hereunto executed this Lease as of the day and year first above written.

Exhibit 99

July 26, 1995

Mr. Daniel H. Bushell
Chief Financial Officer
United Stationers Inc.
2200 East Golf Road
Des Plaines, Illinois 60016

Dear Dan:

Note 2 of Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements of United Stationers Inc. as constituted after the Merger on March 30, 1995 (the "Company") included in its Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 1995 describes a change in the method of accounting for the cost of inventory from the FIFO method to the LIFO method. You have advised us that you made this change in contemplation of your acquisition of United Stationers Inc. (which was accounted for as a "reverse acquisition") so that the Company's method of accounting for the cost of inventory would conform to that of United Stationers Inc. as constituted before its acquisition by the Company and that you believe that the change is to a preferable method in your circumstances because after this change, your method conformed to that of the company you acquired, and in an inflationary environment, the LIFO method provides a better matching of current inventory costs and current revenues, and earnings reported under the LIFO method are more easily compared to that of other public companies in the wholesale industry where this method is common.

There are no authoritative criteria for determining a `preferable' inventory costing method based on the particular circumstances; however, we conclude that the change in the method of accounting for the cost of inventory is to an acceptable alternative method which, based on your business judgment to make this change for the reasons cited above, is preferable in your circumstances. We have not, however, conducted an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards of any financial statements of the Company as of any date or for any period subsequent to December 31, 1994, and therefore we do not express any opinion on any financial statements of the Company subsequent to that date.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Ernst & Young LLP
