ArcelorMittal to strengthen position in Brazil through tendering a cash tender offer for the remaining outstanding shares of ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil S.A. (ex Acesita)

Luxembourg, 4 December 2007 (12.40 noon GMT) - ArcelorMittal ("ArcelorMittal" or "The Company"), the world's largest steel company, today announced its intention to launch a de-listing cash offer to acquire the 43% outstanding shares in ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil S.A. (ex Acesita) ("ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil") it does not currently own. The Company currently owns a 57% stake in ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil.

Commenting, Lakshmi Mittal, President and CEO, of ArcelorMittal, said: "This tender is strategically beneficial to ArcelorMittal because it not only reinforces our position in the high growth area of Latin America, but it also strengthens our position in silicon steel, ferritics and specialty stainless steel".

The price for the Offer should be R$ 100.00 per common share and R$ 100.00 per preferred share of ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil, representing a premium of approximately 22% to the 60-day average preferred share market price. Payment for the shares tendered in the Offer shall be made in cash payment and adjusted in connection with any dividends paid by ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil between now and the date of the physical settlement of the Offer. Currently ArcelorMittal owns 96% and 36% of ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil's total outstanding common and preferred shares respectively. Approximately 1,066,476 common shares and 30,615,489 preferred shares of ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil are eligible to be tendered in the Offer, representing a total value of R$3.2 billion at the Offer price, equivalent to USD 1.75 billion as of 4 December 2007.

At a price of R$ 100.00 per common share and R$ 100.00 per preferred share, a group of shareholders owning 157,300 common shares and 7,914,147 preferred shares, have committed to ArcelorMittal to sell their shares of ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil in the Offer.

Important Information

The request for registration of the Offer by ArcelorMittal will be subject to analysis and approval by the CVM and its features will be subject to adjustment until such registration is obtained. In addition, ArcelorMittal has reserved the right not to proceed with the Offer in the event the CVM requires material modification to the terms and conditions thereof. This document does not constitute an offer to acquire ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil securities in any jurisdiction.

Any offer that may be made will be made to all holders of shares of ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil located in Brazil. In addition, holders of shares of ArcelorMittal Inox Brasil located outside of Brazil may participate in the offer on the condition that such holders are permitted to do so under the laws and regulations of the jurisdiction in which they are located.

About ArcelorMittal

ArcelorMittal is the world's number one steel company, with 320,000 employees in more than 60 countries. The company brings together the world's number one and number two steel companies, Arcelor and Mittal Steel.

Joseph Kinsch to step down as Chairman of ArcelorMittal

Luxembourg, 4th December 2007 - ArcelorMittal today announces that Joseph Kinsch, Chairman of ArcelorMittal, will step down as Chairman of the Board of Directors at the company's next AGM, to be held on 13 May 2008.

Lakshmi Mittal, President and CEO of ArcelorMittal said: "On behalf of all the members of the Board of Directors, I would like to thank Joseph for the leadership he has shown as Chairman since the merger. He has played a very important role, overseeing the company during the critical integration phase where the vast experience he gained during an illustrious 50 year career in the steel industry was invaluable. With the integration now complete, as Joseph approaches his 75th birthday, he has decided this is the right time for him to step down. However, I am pleased that we will not be losing all of his expertise as he has agreed to remain Chairman of the ArcelorMittal Foundation."

As per the post-merger arrangements detailed in the Memorandum of Understanding, signed on 25th June 2006, the Board has unanimously nominated Lakshmi Mittal to become the new Chairman. Mr Mittal, who will also continue in his role as Chief Executive Officer, will take up this position following the 2008 ArcelorMittal AGM.

Joseph Kinsch said: "ArcelorMittal is a great company, with a great future. Over the past year the company has firmly established itself as a true global business, demonstrating leadership and transforming the long-term potential of the steel industry. I am proud to have chaired such a company during what has been arguably the most important chapter yet in its history. The Board and I are pleased to have appointed Lakshmi Mittal as the new Chairman. Lakshmi is clearly the most recognized steel industry professional in the world today. I have no doubts that under his guidance the Company will continue to go from strength to strength."

An announcement on the position of a new President, who will fulfill the role of lead independent director, will be made at the time of the AGM.
