Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

Cordovano and Honeck LLP resigned as the independent registered public accounting firm of the Company effective August 27, 2008. The Company is currently in the process of interviewing other public accounting firms in order to select a successor to Cordovano and Honeck LLP. We anticipate selecting a successor before our fiscal year end September 30, 2008.

The reports of Cordovano and Honeck LLP on the Company's financial statements for the past two fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, other than to state that there is substantial doubt as to the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period up to the resignation of Cordovano and Honeck LLP, there have not been any disagreements between the Company and Cordovano and Honeck LLP, on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements if not resolved to the satisfaction of Cordovano and Honeck LLP would have caused Cordovano and Honeck LLP to make reference thereto in its reports on the Company's audited financial statements, nor have there been any "reportable events," as that term is described in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-B.

The Company provided Cordovano and Honeck LLP with a copy of the disclosures made in this report before this report was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company requested that Cordovano and Honeck LLP furnish a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the disclosure made herein. The Company received such letter from Cordovano and Honeck LLP wherein it confirmed its agreement with the disclosure made herein. A copy of that letter is attached as Exhibit 16 hereto.
