EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS, TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE IN CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

Employment Agreements.

We have entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Jackson and Sprengle. We had also entered into an employment agreement with George W. McGeeney, who left ARC in November 2004, at which time his employment agreement was terminated. The employment agreements provide for Mr. Jackson to serve as our Chief Executive Officer and Mr. Sprengle to serve as our Vice Chairman. These employment agreements require the executives to devote substantially all of their business attention and time to our affairs, with certain specified exceptions with respect to Mr. Jackson.

The employment agreements each have a term of three years, with automatic one-year renewals having commenced on February 18, 2005, unless either party provides at least 60 days' notice of non-renewal.

The employment agreements provide for:

an annual base salary of $500,000 for Mr. Jackson and $375,000 for Mr. Sprengle, subject to increase by our board of directors in its sole discretion; eligibility for annual cash performance bonuses under our management incentive plan, conditional upon and subject to the satisfaction of performance goals established in accordance with the terms of such plan, with no minimum bonus amount guaranteed;

eligibility for participation in our 2003 equity incentive plan; and participation in all of the employee compensation, welfare and benefit plans and arrangements made available by us to our similarly situated executives.

Mr. Jackson's employment agreement provides that, if his employment is terminated by us without "cause" (which is defined as the willful and continued failure to substantially perform his duties which has not been cured within 30 days after notice is delivered to him; the willful engagement in conduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to us; or his having been convicted of or having pled guilty or no contest to a felony) or by Mr. Jackson for "good reason" (which is defined as a material breach by us of our obligations under the employment agreement; any termination of Mr. Jackson's employment with us not made in accordance with the terms of the employment agreement; or a substantial reduction in Mr. Jackson's base salary or his opportunity to participate in the aggregate in our incentive compensation or other employee welfare and benefit plans) regardless of whether a change in control has occurred, Mr. Jackson will be entitled to the following severance payments and benefits:

payment equal to two times the sum of Mr. Jackson's then-current annual base salary plus his average cash bonus payment for the last three years following December 31, 2003, with the amount paid out over two years;

his prorated target annual bonus for the year in which the termination occurs; and medical and other benefits for the two-year period immediately following termination of his employment, subject to reduction to the extent that comparable benefits are made available by a subsequent employer.

Mr. Jackson's employment agreement also provides for payment of the same severance payment and benefits in the event of his death or "disability" (as defined in the employment agreement), except that in the case of Mr. Jackson's death, benefit continuation will be for a period of one year rather than two years, and in the case of Mr. Jackson's death or disability, all equity incentive awards then held by Mr. Jackson will become fully vested, to the extent not then vested.

Mr. Sprengle's employment agreement provides that, if his employment is terminated by us without "cause" (which is defined as the willful and continued failure to substantially perform his duties which has not been cured within 30 days after notice is delivered to him; the willful engagement in conduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to us; or his having been convicted of or having pled guilty or no contest to a felony) or by Mr. Sprengle for "good reason" (which is defined as any termination of Mr. Sprengle's employment with us not made in accordance with the terms of the employment agreement or a substantial reduction in Mr. Sprengle's salary, incentive compensation plans and other benefits in the aggregate), prior to a "change in control" (which means, in general, (i) the acquisition of 50% of the Company's voting securities by any "person"; (ii) a change in the majority membership of the Company's board of directors; (iii) the consummation of a merger or consolidation of the Company with another corporation or (iv) the Company's stockholders approve a plan of complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company), Mr. Sprengle will be entitled to the following severance benefits:

payment of his then-current annual base salary for a period of two years; and continuation of medical and other benefits for the two-year period immediately following termination of his employment, subject to reduction to the extent that comparable benefits are made available by a subsequent employer.

Mr. Sprengle's employment agreement provides that if his employment is terminated by us without cause or by him for good reason following a change in control, he will be entitled to the following severance benefits:

payment equal to two times the sum of Mr. Sprengle's then-current annual base salary plus his average cash bonus payment for the last three years following December 31, 2003, with the amount paid out over two years;

his prorated target annual bonus for the year in which the termination occurs; and

Pursuant to his employment agreement, in the event of death or disability, Mr. Sprengle will be entitled to receive the same severance payments and benefits as described immediately above, except that in the case of his death, benefit continuation will be for a period of one year rather than two years, and in the case of his death or disability, all equity incentive awards then held by him will become fully vested, to the extent not then vested.

Each of the employment agreements requires us to make an additional tax gross-up payment to the executive if any amounts paid or payable to the executive pursuant to his employment agreement or otherwise in connection with a change in control would be subject to the excise tax imposed on certain so-called "excess parachute payments" under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code.

Each of the employment agreements contains confidentiality provisions which apply indefinitely, non-competition covenants which apply during the employment period and for a two-year period thereafter and non-solicitation provisions which apply during the employment period and for a two-year period thereafter, unless termination follows a change in control.

Mr. Jackson's employment agreement also contains an exception to his non-competition covenant to permit him to devote time to the management and operation of Global Mobile Limited Liability Company and JJ&T Enterprises, Inc. consistent with past practice. In addition, Mr. Jackson's agreement prohibits him from directly or indirectly acquiring any manufactured home communities and also provides us with a right of first refusal, for so long as he serves as our Chairman or Chief Executive Officer, in connection with any proposed sale by Mr. Jackson of any or all communities he owns directly or indirectly. Pursuant to this right, we may acquire such community or communities at 95% of their fair market value.

Severance Agreements.

We have entered into severance agreements, which became effective on February 18, 2004, with each of Messrs. Gesell and Kreider. Both of the severance agreements have a term of three years, with automatic one-year renewals commencing on the first anniversary of the severance agreements, unless either party to the respective agreement provides at least 60 days' notice of non-renewal. The severance agreements provide that if, prior to a change in control, the executive's employment is terminated by us other than for "cause" (as defined in the severance agreements) or by the executive for any reason, the executive will be entitled to receive continued payment of his then-current base salary, paid in accordance with our ordinary payroll schedule, for the one-year period immediately following termination of employment.

The severance agreements also provide that if, following a change in control, the executive's employment is terminated by us without cause or by the executive for "good reason" (which is defined as a substantial reduction in the executive's salary, incentive compensation plans and other benefits, in the aggregate), the executive will be entitled to the following severance payments and benefits:

payment equal to the sum of the executive's then-current annual base salary plus average cash bonus over the last three years following our initial public offering in February 2004, with the amount paid out over one year;

the executive's prorated target annual bonus for the year in which the termination occurs; and the opportunity to elect continued coverage under the Company's group health plans in accordance with Section 4980B of the Code for the two-year period immediately following termination of employment, subject to reduction to the extent that the executive receives comparable benefits from a subsequent employer.

If at any time during the term of the severance agreement, the executive's employment is terminated because of his death or "disability" (as defined in the severance agreements), the executive will be entitled to receive continued payment of his then-current base salary, paid in accordance with our ordinary payroll schedule, for the one-year period immediately following termination of employment. In addition, all equity awards previously granted to the executive will become immediately vested and/or exercisable.

The severance agreements also contain confidentiality provisions which apply indefinitely, and non-competition and non-solicitation provisions which apply during the employment period and for a one-year period thereafter. Each of the severance agreements requires us to make an additional tax gross-up payment to the executive if any amounts paid or payable to the executive pursuant to his severance agreement or otherwise in connection with a change in control would be subject to the excise tax imposed on certain so-called "excess parachute payments" under Section 4999 of the Code.

Management Incentive Plan.

We have adopted the management incentive plan, which provides for cash bonus awards to those key employees of our company and its subsidiaries selected by our compensation committee for participation in the plan. A participant may receive a cash bonus under the management incentive plan based upon the attainment, during each performance period, of performance objectives which are established by our compensation committee. These performance objectives may be based on one or more of the following criteria, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, where applicable:

total stockholder return;

earnings per share (which may include the manner in which such earnings goals were met);

net income (before or after taxes);

earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization;

revenues;

return on assets;

market share;

cost reduction goals;

any combination of, or a specified increase in, any of the foregoing.

Performance objectives may be applied to one or more of our company, any of our subsidiaries or affiliates, or any of our divisions or strategic business units, and may be applied to performance relative to a market index or a group of other companies. The compensation committee will have the authority to make adjustments to the performance objectives in recognition of unusual or non-recurring events. The performance goals may include a threshold level of performance below which no compensation will be earned, levels of performance at which specified compensation will be earned, and a maximum level of performance beyond which no additional compensation will be earned.

The amount of each participant's bonus will be based upon a bonus formula determined by our compensation committee, in its sole discretion, that ties such bonus to the attainment of the applicable performance goals, and will, unless otherwise determined by our compensation committee, range from 75% to 125% of certain specified target amounts. Under the management incentive plan, none of our executive officers may receive a bonus payment for any performance period that exceeds 125% of his base salary. Except as otherwise provided in a participant's employment or other individual agreement, the payment of a cash bonus to a participant for a performance period will be conditioned upon the participant's continued employment on the last day of the performance period. However, in the event of a change in control (as defined in the management incentive plan) the performance period then in effect will be deemed to have been completed, the maximum level of performance will be deemed to have been achieved, and all participants will receive payment within ten business days after the change in control, regardless of whether the individual is then employed by us or any of our affiliates. We may amend, suspend or terminate the management incentive plan at any time, provided that no amendment of the plan may adversely affect an award granted prior to the amendment without the participant's consent.

2003 Equity Incentive Plan.

On December 23, 2003 we adopted the 2003 equity incentive plan, which provides for the grant of equity-based incentives, including restricted shares of our common stock, stock options, grants of shares and other equity-based awards, to our directors, officers and other employees and those of our subsidiaries selected by our compensation committee for participation in the plan. Up to 1,992,387 shares will be available for grants pursuant to this plan, of which 625,000 shares were granted on February 18, 2004, 80,000 of which were subsequently forfeited during 2004 pursuant to the terms of their issuance and returned to the plan. No participant in our 2003 equity incentive plan may be granted awards in any fiscal year covering more than 500,000 shares of our common stock.

The 2003 equity incentive plan is administered by our compensation committee, which has discretion, among other things, to determine the persons to whom awards will be granted, the number of shares of our common stock to be subject to awards and the other terms and conditions of the awards, including whether the vesting and/or exercisability of the award will be subject to the attainment of one or more performance goals. These performance goals may be based on one or more of the following criteria, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, where applicable:

total stockholder return;

earnings per share (which may include the manner in which such earnings goals were met);

net income (before or after taxes);

earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization;

revenues;

return on assets;

market share;

cost reduction goals;

any combination of, or a specified increase in, any of the foregoing.

Performance objectives may be applied to one or more of our company, any of our subsidiaries or affiliates, or any of our divisions or strategic business units, or may be applied to performance relative to a market index or a group of other companies. The compensation committee will have the authority to make adjustments to the performance objectives in recognition of unusual or non-recurring events. The 2003 equity incentive plan provides that in no event will the compensation committee be authorized to reprice stock options, or to lower the base or exercise price of any other award granted under the plan, without obtaining the approval of our stockholders.

Stock options granted under the 2003 equity incentive plan may be either "incentive stock options" within the meanings of Section 422 of the Code, or nonqualified stock options. Holders of restricted stock will generally be entitled to vote and receive dividends on their restricted shares, but our compensation committee may determine in its discretion that dividends paid while the shares are subject to restrictions may be reinvested in additional shares of restricted stock. Except as otherwise permitted by our compensation committee, awards granted under the 2003 equity incentive plan will be transferable only by will or through the laws of descent and distribution, and each stock option will be exercisable during the participant's lifetime only by the participant. We intend that the portion of director fees to be paid to our outside directors that is to be paid in shares of stock will be paid through this plan.

In the event of a change in control of our company (as defined in the 2003 equity incentive plan), all awards then outstanding under the 2003 equity incentive plan will become vested and/or exercisable, and any performance goals imposed with respect to then-outstanding awards will be deemed to be fully achieved.

Directors Clayton, Green and Mercy each received 563, 257 and 299 shares under the 2003 equity incentive plan on November 5, 2004, January 7, 2005 and April 8, 2005, respectively.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

During fiscal year 2004, Messrs. Mercy and Santos-Buch and former directors Thomas M. Hagerty (Chairman) and Todd M. Abbrecht served on the compensation committee. There are, and during fiscal year 2004 were, no compensation committee interlocks or participation on the compensation committee by any of our employees.

Except as otherwise indicated in the footnotes to this table, the persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock shown as beneficially owned by them, subject to community property laws where applicable.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

GLOBAL E PORTFOLIO

Our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Scott D. Jackson, is the sole stockholder of JJ&T, and together with JJ&T is the 99% owner of Global Mobile. Global Mobile and JJ&T own 100% of the membership interests of Global E, which owns six manufactured home communities with 554 total homesites located in Wyoming. One of our subsidiaries is a party to a property management agreement with Global E pursuant to which the subsidiary manages all of the communities owned by Global E in consideration for a management fee equal to 3% of gross revenues. This subsidiary also is a party to an accounting services agreement with Global E whereby it provides accounting services for Global Mobile in exchange for a fee of $800 per month. For the years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003 our management services subsidiary received $132,000 and $96,000, respectively, pursuant to these agreements. Neither the property management agreement nor the accounting services agreement can be amended without our consent. Mr. Jackson has agreed that he may not terminate either the property management agreement or the accounting services agreement for so long as he is serving as our Chairman or our Chief Executive Officer. We may terminate either of these agreements upon 30 days prior written notice. The right of first refusal granted to us pursuant to his employment agreement would apply to the disposition of any communities currently owned by Global E.

In addition, beginning April 1, 2005, we entered into a written lease agreement with JJ & T for a homesite for our Cheyenne, Wyoming city manager's office for a monthly rental fee of $230. We have placed a manufactured home we own on the homesite. In the event that the lease is terminated or the property management agreement discussed above is terminated, then JJ & T is obligated to buy the home from us at our cost for the purchase and set up of the home.

LEASE BY WINDSTAR AVIATION CORP.

Global Mobile also has an airplane hangar located at Centennial Airport, Englewood, Colorado. Windstar Aviation Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of our operating partnership, owns airplanes that we use in connection with our operations and leases office and airplane hangar space from Global Mobile at Centennial Airport in Englewood, Colorado. The leases were entered into in June 1999, with a 60-month primary term and a renewal option for an additional 60-month term. Lease payments total $4,400 per month during the initial term, and an adjustment tied to the consumer price index is provided for the renewal term.

AFFILIATE ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

At December 31, 2004 companies owned and controlled by Mr. Jackson owed our management subsidiary approximately $68,000 in accounts receivable, primarily related to rental homes acquired and property management services performed on behalf of these companies. Pursuant to the terms of the property management agreements between these companies and our management subsidiary, monthly fees for property management services are paid by these companies in the month following incurrence of the fees. At March 31, 2005 these companies owed our management subsidiary approximately $9,000.

DIRECTORS HOLDING OP UNITS

Two of our directors, Eugene Mercy, Jr. and J. Markham Green, hold OP units through which each of Mr. Mercy and Mr. Green has deferred gains associated with certain properties we own. Any decision by our board of directors to dispose of one or more of these properties in which Mr. Mercy or Mr. Green has an interest could have tax consequences for Mr. Mercy or Mr. Green, as the case may be.

In connection with any such decision, our board of directors will determine whether either of Messrs. Green or Mercy has a material financial interest in the transaction that is different from the interests of stockholders generally, and if either Mr. Mercy or Mr. Green has such an interest, then such director will abstain from the vote of our board with respect to such proposed transaction.

CLAYTON HOMES

During 2004, we purchased manufactured homes, related materials, supplies and services from Clayton Homes, Inc. for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $4.7 million. During 2004 we also paid servicing fees to Vanderbilt Mortgage and Finance, Inc. ("VMF"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Clayton Homes, in the aggregate amount of approximately $1.6 million. We expect to continue to pay loan servicing fees to and purchase repossessed manufactured homes from VMF. Prior to August 2003 and before joining our board, Mr. Clayton and members of his immediate family held a greater than 10% equity interest in Clayton Homes and Mr. Clayton served as its Chairman. In August 2003, Berkshire Hathaway Inc. acquired all of the outstanding common stock of Clayton Homes. Immediately following that transaction, Mr. Clayton's ownership interest in, and role as a director of, Clayton Homes terminated. Mr. Clayton joined our board of directors in February 2004 immediately following the completion of our initial public offering. Mr. Clayton's son currently acts as the chief executive officer of Clayton Homes.

These fees for 2003 related to Rule 3-14 audits associated with our Hometown acquisition.

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees for other services for the year ended December 31, 2004 were $2,400. The fees related to subscriptions for accounting references(s) and financial statement disclosure checklist tools. No such fees were incurred in fiscal year 2003.

AUDIT COMMITTEE PRE-APPROVAL POLICY

In accordance with applicable laws and regulations, the audit committee reviews and pre-approves any non-audit services to be performed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to ensure that the work does not compromise their independence in performing their audit services. The audit committee also reviews and pre-approves all audit services. In some cases, pre-approval is provided by the full committee for up to a year, and relates to a particular category or group of services and is subject to a specific budget. In other cases, the chairman of the audit committee has the delegated authority from the committee to pre-approve additional services, and such pre-approvals are then communicated to the full audit committee.

The policy contains a de minimis provision that operates to provide retroactive approval for permissible non-audit services under certain circumstances. No services were provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP during 2004 under such provision.
