AllianzGI Retirement Income Fund

(formerly Allianz Global Investors Solutions Retirement Income Fund)

Before you invest, you may want to review the Fund's statutory prospectus, which contains more information about the Fund and its risks. You can find the Fund's statutory prospectus and other information about the Fund, including its statement of additional information (SAI) and most recent reports to shareholders, online at www.allianzinvestors.com/prospectuses. You can also get this information at no cost by calling 1-800-498-5413 or by sending an email request to Orders@MySummaryProspectus.com. This Summary Prospectus incorporates by reference the Fund's entire statutory prospectus and SAI, each dated April 2, 2012, as revised or supplemented from time to time.

Investment Objective

The Fund seeks current income and, secondarily, capital appreciation. The Fund is intended for investors who have already retired or begun withdrawing portions of their investments, or are seeking a conservative allocation fund.

Fees and Expenses of the Fund

The tables below describe the fees and expenses that you may pay if you buy and hold shares of the Fund.

Shareholder Fees (fees paid directly from your investment): None

Annual Fund Operating Expenses (expenses that you pay each year as a percentage of the value of your investment)

⁽²⁾ Highlights table of the Fund's prospectus, in part, because the Ratio of Expenses to Average Net Assets in the prospectus reflects the operating expenses of the Fund and does not include Acquired Fund Fees and Expenses.

The Manager has contractually agreed, until March 31, 2013, to irrevocably waive its advisory and administrative fees and reimburse any additional Other Expenses or Acquired Fund Fees and Expenses, to the extent that Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses After Expense

⁽³⁾ Reductions, excluding, interest, taxes, and extraordinary expenses, exceed 0.55% for Institutional Class, 0.65% for Class P, 0.90% for Administrative Class and 1.05% for Class D shares. Under the Expense Limitation Agreement, the Manager may recoup waived or reimbursed amounts for three years, provided total expenses, including such recoupment, do not exceed the annual expense limit.

Examples. The Examples are intended to help you compare the cost of investing in shares of the Fund with the costs of investing in other mutual funds. The Examples assume that you invest $10,000 in the noted class of shares for the time periods indicated, your investment has a 5% return each year, and the Fund's operating expenses remain the same. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, the Examples show what your costs would be based on these assumptions. The Examples are based, for the first year, on Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses After Expense Reductions and, for all other periods, on Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses.

Share Class	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
Institutional	$56	$213	$384	$879
Class P	66	234	416	943
Administrative	92	313	552	1,237
Class D	107	360	632	1,410

Portfolio Turnover

The Fund pays transaction costs, such as commissions, when it buys and sells securities (or “turns over” its portfolio). The Fund’s portfolio turnover rate for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2011 was 74% of the average value of its portfolio. High levels of portfolio turnover may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes for you if your Fund shares are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses or in the Examples above, can adversely affect the Fund’s investment performance.

AllianzGI Retirement Income Fund

Principal Investment Strategies

The Fund seeks to achieve its objective by normally investing primarily in certain affiliated mutual funds and exchange-traded funds (ETFs) sponsored by Allianz and Pacific Investment Management Company LLC (“PIMCO”) (the “Underlying Funds”). The Fund may invest without limit in Underlying Funds and may invest significantly in one or a small number of the Underlying Funds. Underlying Funds in turn invest in or have exposure to (i) return-generating assets, such as U.S. and global equities, commodities, real estate, mortgage securities, high yield securities, corporate bonds, emerging market bonds, public securities of infrastructure companies and private equity companies, and alternative investment strategies such as long-short and market neutral strategies and/or (ii) defensive assets, such as Treasury Inflation-Protected Securities (“TIPS”), short-term U.S. and non-U.S. bonds and core (e.g., investment grade) U.S. and non-U.S. bonds. The Fund may also invest in ETFs and mutual funds and pooled vehicles other than the Underlying Funds (together, “Other Acquired Funds”). The Fund does not currently intend to invest more than 10% of its assets in Other Acquired Funds that are not advised by the Manager or its affiliates. The Fund may also invest significantly in other securities and instruments as a complement or adjustment to its exposure to Underlying Funds and Other Acquired Funds. The Sub-Adviser normally seeks to maintain significant economic exposure to a number of countries outside the U.S., and the Fund may have exposure to companies in a broad range of market capitalizations and geographic and industry distributions, as well as to fixed income and convertible instruments with a broad range of credit quality ratings and durations. The Fund may also utilize derivative instruments, such as options, forwards or futures contracts and swap agreements. Normally, the Sub-Adviser will generally seek to maintain an allocation of 25% of the Fund’s assets in return-generating assets and 75% in defensive assets, though may cause the Fund to deviate from these allocations, for example, during periods of significant performance differential between the two categories. The Fund may also deviate from its allocation targets when expected returns are judged to be below or above long-term averages. In these cases, the Sub-Adviser would seek to overweight what it deems to be the undervalued category and underweight the overvalued category. These decisions will normally be within the allocation ranges of 15% to 35% for return-generating assets and 65% to 85% for defensive assets. More information about the Fund, the Fund’s asset allocation and portfolio construction strategy, and the Underlying Funds is available in the Fund’s statutory prospectus.

Principal Risks

The Fund’s net asset value, yield and total return will be affected by: the allocation determinations, investment decisions and techniques of the Fund’s management; factors, risks and performance specific to the Underlying Funds, Other Acquired Funds, issuers of securities and other instruments in which the Fund invests, including actual or perceived changes in the financial condition or business prospects of such issuers; and factors influencing the U.S. or global economies and securities markets or relevant industries or sectors within them (Management Risk, Allocation Risk, Underlying Fund and Other Acquired Fund Risks, Issuer Risk, Market Risk). Equity securities may react more strongly to changes in an issuer’s financial condition or prospects than other securities of the same issuer, and securities issued by smaller companies may be more volatile and present increased liquidity risk (Equity Securities Risk, Smaller Company Risk). There is no guarantee that the Fund will provide adequate income at and/or through an investor’s retirement and it is possible to lose money on an investment in the Fund. Other principal risks include: Commodity Risk (commodity-linked derivative instruments may increase volatility); Convertible Securities Risk, Credit Risk, Fixed Income Risk, High Yield Risk, Interest Rate Risk (convertible and fixed income (debt) securities, particularly high-yield or junk bonds, are subject to greater levels of credit and liquidity risk, may be speculative and may decline in value due to changes in interest rates or an issuer’s or counterparty’s deterioration or default); Derivatives Risk (derivative instruments are complex, have different characteristics than their underlying assets and are

Performance Information

Class P, Administrative Class and Class D performance would be lower than Institutional Class performance because of the lower expenses paid by Institutional Class shares. Past performance, before and after taxes, is not necessarily predictive of future performance. Visit www.allianzinvestors.com for more current performance information.

The performance information below provides some indication of the risks of investing in the Fund by showing changes in its total return from year to year and by comparing the Fund's average annual total returns with those of a broad-based market index and a performance average of similar mutual funds. The bar chart and the information to its right show performance of the Fund's Institutional Class shares.

After-tax returns are estimated using the highest historical individual federal marginal income tax rates and do not reflect the impact of state and local taxes. Actual after-tax returns depend on an investor's tax situation and may differ from those shown. After-tax returns are not relevant to investors who hold Fund shares through tax-deferred arrangements such as 401(k) plans or individual retirement accounts. In some cases the return after taxes may exceed the return before taxes due to an assumed tax benefit from any losses on a sale of Fund shares at the end of the measurement period. After-tax returns are for Institutional Class shares only. After-tax returns for other share classes will vary.

Payments to Broker-Dealers and Other Financial Intermediaries

If you purchase shares of the Fund through a broker-dealer or other financial intermediary (such as a bank), the Fund, its distributor, its investment manager or their affiliates may pay the intermediary for the sale of Fund shares and related services. These payments may create a conflict of interest by influencing the broker-dealer or intermediary and your salesperson to recommend the Fund over another investment. Ask your salesperson or visit your financial intermediary's Web site for more information.
