Re: Rule 24f-2 Notice

Ladies and Gentlemen:

John Hancock Current Interest (the "Trust") is a Massachusetts business trust organized under a written Declaration of Trust dated, executed and delivered in Houston, Texas on October 3, 1991, as amended October 22, 1991, February 15, 1994 and December 16, 1994 (as so amended the "Declaration of Trust"). The beneficial interests thereunder are represented by transferable shares of beneficial interest, par value $0.01 per share.

The Trustees of the Trust have the powers set forth in the Declaration of Trust, subject to the terms, provisions and conditions therein provided. Pursuant to Article VI, Section 6.1 of the Declaration of Trust, the number of shares of beneficial interest authorized to be issued under the Declaration of Trust is unlimited. Pursuant to Article VI, Section 6.9 of the Declaration of Trust, the Trustees are authorized to divide the shares into one or more series of shares and one or more classes thereof. Under Article VI, Section 6.4 of the Declaration of Trust, the Trustees may issue shares for such amount and type of consideration, including cash and property, at such time or times, and on such terms as they may deem best without action or approval of the shareholders. Pursuant to Article VI, Section 6.9, the Trustees established one separate series of shares designated "John Hancock U.S. Government Cash Reserve."

We understand that, pursuant to Rule 24f-2 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"), the Trust has registered an indefinite number of shares of beneficial interest under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "1933 Act").

We understand that you are about to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a notice pursuant to Rule 24f-2 (the "Rule 24f-2 Notice") making definite the registration of 215,745,531 shares of beneficial interest of the Trust (the "Shares") sold in reliance upon said Rule 24f-2 during the fiscal year ended May 31, 1995.

We have examined the Declaration of Trust, the By-Laws, resolutions of the Board of Trustees, a certificate of the Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Trust to the effect that the Trust or its agent received the consideration for the Shares of the Trust in accordance with the terms of the Declaration of Trust, and such other documents as we have deemed necessary or appropriate for the purposes of this opinion, including, but not limited to, originals, or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, Trust records and other instruments. In our examination of the above documents, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of all submitted to us as certified or photostatic copies, the authenticity of the originals of such latter documents and the legal competence of each individual executing any documents.

For purposes of this opinion letter, we have not made an independent review of the laws of any state or jurisdiction other than The Commonwealth of Massachusetts and express no opinion with respect to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the laws of The Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Further, we express no opinion as to compliance with any state or federal securities laws, including the securities laws of The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Our opinion below, as it relates to the nonassessability of the shares of the Trust, is qualified to the extent that under Massachusetts law, shareholders of a Massachusetts business trust, such as the Trust, may be held personally liable for the obligations of such Trust. In this regard, however, please be advised that the Declaration of Trust disclaims shareholder liability for act or obligations of the Trust and provides that notice of such disclaimer may be given in each note, bond, contract, certificate or undertaking made or issued by or on behalf of the Trust. Also, the Declaration of Trust provides for indemnification out of Trust property for all loss and expense of any shareholder held personally liable solely by reason of his being or having been a shareholder of the Trust; provided, however, that no Trust property may be used to indemnify any shareholder of any series of the Trust other than Trust property allocated or belonging to that series.

We are of the opinion that all necessary Trust action precedent to the issuance of the Shares has been duly taken, and that the Shares were legally and validly issued, and are fully paid and non-assessable by the Trust, subject to compliance with the 1933 Act, the 1940 Act and the applicable state laws regulating the sale of securities.

We consent to your filing this opinion with the Securities and Exchange Commission together with the Rule 24f-2 Notice referred to above.

Except as provided in this paragraph, this opinion may not be relied upon by, or filed with, any other parties or used for any other purpose.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Hale and Dorr
