Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Information regarding the approval by The Mosaic Company (“Mosaic” or the “Company”) of a severance agreement with, and compensation arrangements for, James T. Prokopanko, an individual who has been elected as an executive officer of the Company, is incorporated herein by reference to the information set forth in Item 5.02 of this report.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On July 7, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Company elected James T. Prokopanko as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, effective July 31, 2006. Mr. Prokopanko was elected to serve until his successor is elected and qualified or until his earlier death, resignation or removal from office.

Mr. Prokopanko has been a Corporate Vice President of Cargill, Incorporated (“Cargill”) since 2004. He has been Cargill’s Corporate Vice President with executive responsibility for procurement since 2002 and a platform leader responsible for its Ag Producer Services Platform since 1999. Cargill is the holder (directly and through subsidiaries) of approximately 65.3% of the Company’s outstanding common stock. After joining Cargill in 1978, Mr. Prokopanko served in a wide range of leadership positions, including being named Vice President of the North American crop inputs business in 1995. During his Cargill career, Mr. Prokopanko has been engaged in retail agriculture businesses in the United States, Canada, Brazil, Argentina and the United Kingdom. Mr. Prokopanko will resign from all of his current positions with Cargill and its subsidiaries (other than Mosaic) in connection with his election as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company effective July 31, 2006.

In his capacity as a Corporate Vice President of Cargill, Mr. Prokopanko may in certain cases have participated in or supervised, on behalf of Cargill and its other subsidiaries, their transactions with the Company and its subsidiaries. Further information regarding the relationships between the Company and its subsidiaries and Cargill and its other subsidiaries is incorporated herein by reference to the material (a) under “Certain Relationships and Related Transactions,” other than the information under the heading “Other Agreements,” in the proxy statement dated August 25, 2005 for the Company’s annual meeting of stockholders held on October 5, 2005 (the “Proxy Statement”) and (b) in the Company’s current report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 18, 2006.

Mr. Prokopanko, age 52, has served as a director of the Company since October 2004. He currently is a member of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and the Environmental, Health and Safety Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors. His current term of office as a director expires at the annual meeting of stockholders in 2008 or until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

Mr. Prokopanko will continue as a director of the Company, but will no longer receive compensation as a non-employee director.

Mr. Prokopanko was designated as a nominee for election as a director of the Company by Cargill, pursuant to an Investor Rights Agreement dated October 22, 2004 between Cargill and the Company (the “Investor Rights Agreement”). Under the Investor Rights Agreement, as amended, during the four-year period commencing on the effective date of the business combination between IMC Global Inc. and Cargill’s crop nutrition businesses (i.e., October 22, 2004), Cargill has the right to designate seven nominees as directors of the Company.

On July 7, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Company also approved certain compensation arrangements for Mr. Prokopanko. Pursuant to such arrangements, Mr. Prokopanko is entitled to base pay of $525,000 per year, a target bonus under the Company’s Management Incentive Plan equal to 80% of his base pay, and long-term incentive awards under the Company’s 2004 Omnibus Stock and Incentive Plan. The long-term incentive awards will be in the form of stock options to purchase the Company’s common stock equal in value, on the date on which awards are granted generally to participants in the Company’s long-term incentive plan in 2006, to $550,000, and restricted stock units providing grants of the Company's common stock that vest after three years, equal in value, on that date, to $550,000. In addition, in lieu of long-term incentive compensation from Cargill valued by the Board of Directors at approximately $1.8 million that Mr. Prokopanko will forfeit upon his resignation from Cargill, the Board of Directors approved the payment to Mr. Prokopanko of $600,000 on July 31, 2006 and the grant to Mr. Prokopanko of additional stock options equal in value, on the date on which awards are granted generally to participants in the Company's long-term incentive program in 2006, to $600,000, and restricted stock units equal in value, on that date, to $600,000.

On July 7, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Company also approved a severance agreement between the Company and Mr. Prokopanko. The terms and conditions of the severance agreement, which have not yet been finalized, are expected to be generally similar to those of the Company's severance agreements for executive officers with a level of benefits equal to two times annual salary and target bonus. Further information regarding the terms and conditions of the Company's severance agreements for executive officers is incorporated herein by reference to the material under "Executive Compensation-Severance Agreements" in the Proxy Statement.

No "family relationship," as that term is defined in Item 401(d) of Regulation S-K, exists among Mr. Prokopanko and any director, nominee for election as a director or executive officer of the registrant.

JIM PROKOPANKO NAMED CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER OF THE MOSAIC COMPANY

PLYMOUTH, MN - July 11, 2006 - The Mosaic Company (NYSE: MOS) announced today that Jim Prokopanko will be named Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer effective July 31, 2006. Prokopanko currently serves as a Corporate Vice President of Cargill, Incorporated.

“Jim’s 25 years of experience in the crop nutrition industry makes him an ideal choice to be Mosaic’s Chief Operating Officer,” said Fritz Corrigan, President and Chief Executive Officer of Mosaic. “This position will strengthen our organization. Jim’s credentials, including his strong leadership as a Director of Mosaic since our launch in October 2004, will allow him to hit the ground running. Jim has not only helped address our major issues, he’s helped shape our strategy,” Corrigan added.

Prokopanko, 52, will have day-to-day responsibilities for the production and commercial teams and will report directly to Corrigan. Prokopanko also will continue to serve as a Director of Mosaic.

“Today’s announcement reflects the Board’s intent to make certain that Mosaic has the right resources to fulfill its vision of being a global leader in the crop nutrition industry,” said Robert L. Lumpkins, Chairman of Mosaic’s Board of Directors. “Jim’s extensive expertise in the retail fertilizer and distribution businesses, coupled with his solid track record of performance, will position Mosaic to successfully compete in the global marketplace,” added Lumpkins.

In addition to serving on Mosaic’s Board of Directors, Prokopanko also serves on the Board of Directors of Saskferco Products Inc., a nitrogen-based fertilizer company located in Saskatchewan in which Mosaic maintains a 50% ownership interest.

Prokopanko joined Cargill Canada’s Financial Information Services Group in 1978, where he worked on business expansions and acquisitions. From 1981 to 1983, Prokopanko led the development of Cargill’s fertilizer retail business in Western Canada. Following his work in Western Canada, Prokopanko held various positions of increasing responsibility in Cargill’s crop inputs business in the United States and Canada. Prokopanko also helped develop agriculture distribution businesses in Brazil, Argentina and the United Kingdom.

Prokopanko received a Bachelor of Science degree in computer science and a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Manitoba, and a Masters in Business Administration from the University of Western Ontario in London, Ontario.
