1. On July 21, 1995, the shareholders of the funds listed above (the "Funds") approved the reorganization of the Funds under Delaware law as business trusts and elected a board of 14 trustees. It is anticipated that the reorganizations will be completed within the next 60 days.

2. Effective August 1, 1995, the rights of accumulation available to investors will be expanded.

For purposes of determining volume discounts, cumulative purchase discounts and amounts covered by letters of intent an investor may combine shares of any open-end investment company (other than Van Kampen Merritt Money Market Fund ("VK Money Market"), Van Kampen Merritt Tax Free Money Market Fund ("VK Tax Free"), American Capital Reserve Fund, Inc. ("Reserve") and The Govett Funds, Inc.) distributed by Van Kampen American Capital Distributors, Inc., (the "Participating Funds"). For additional information see "Purchase of Shares" herein.

3. Effective August 1, 1995, the exchange privilege available to shareholders will be expanded.

A shareholder will be permitted to exchange his or her shares in any Participating Fund other than American Capital Government Target Series for shares of the same class of shares of any other Participating Fund without sales charge, provided that shares of certain Van Kampen American Capital fixed-income funds are subject to a 30-day holding period requirement. A shareholder will also be permitted to exchange his or her shares in a Participating Fund for shares of VK Money Market, VK Tax Free or Reserve subject to certain conditions. For additional conditions applicable to the exchange privilege, see the "Exchange Privilege" section of "Shareholder Services" herein.
