- (1) Does not include any expected interest payments on the securities. The hypothetical Redemption Amounts set forth above are for illustrative purposes only and may not be the actual returns applicable to the investor. The numbers appearing in the table have been rounded for ease of analysis.
- (2)

Benefits

- Offers the potential for above-market interest payment versus ordinary fixed income investments
- Reduced downside risk due to a 35.0% contingent buffer

Product Risks

- Investment may result in a loss of up to 100% of principal.
- The value of the securities and the payment of any amount due on the securities are subject to the credit risk of Credit Suisse.
- The securities will not pay more than the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, at maturity or upon early redemption. If a Knock-In Event occurs during any Observation Period, the Applicable Rate for the corresponding interest period and each subsequent interest period is expected to be 1.00% per annum (to be determined on the Trade Date). The Redemption Amount will be less than the principal amount even if only one Underlying causes a Knock-In Event and the Final Level of only one Underlying is less than its Initial Level.
- If a Knock-In Event occurs and the Final Level of the Lowest Performing Underlying is less than its Initial Level, the Underlying Return will be based on the Lowest Performing Underlying.

Product Summary

Early Redemption Notice Dates: Early Redemption Notice Date at 100% of the principal amount plus accrued but unpaid interest.
 March 5, 2013, April 3, 2013, May 3, 2013, June 5, 2013, July 2, 2013, August 5, 2013, September 4, 2013, October 3, 2013, November 5, 2013, December 4, 2013, January 3, 2014, February 5, 2014, March 5, 2014, April 3, 2014, May 5, 2014, June 4, 2014, or July 2, 2014, as applicable.

Knock-In Level: For each Underlying, approximately 65.0% of the Initial Level for such Underlying (to be determined on the Trade Date).

Knock-In Event: A Knock-In Event occurs if, on any trading day during any Observation Period, the closing level of any Underlying is equal to or less than its Knock-In Level.

Initial Level: For each Underlying, the closing level of such Underlying on the Trade Date.

Final Level: For each Underlying, the closing level of such Underlying on the Valuation Date.

Redemption Amount: Subject to Early Redemption, for each $1,000 principal amount of securities (a) if a Knock-In Event occurs, $1,000 x (1 + the Underlying Return of the Lowest Performing Underlying); (b) if a Knock-In Event does not occur, $1,000.

Lowest Performing Underlying: The Underlying with the lowest Underlying Return.

Underlying Return: For each Underlying, calculated as follows: (Final Level – Initial Level)/Initial Level; subject to a maximum of zero.

Additional Risk Considerations

- The securities are exposed equally to risk of fluctuations in the levels of the Underlyings to the same degree for each Underlying.
- Anti-dilution protection is limited.
- Prior to maturity, costs such as concessions and hedging may affect the value of the securities.
Liquidity – The securities will not be listed on any securities exchange. Credit Suisse (or its affiliates) intends to offer to purchase the securities in the secondary market but is not required to do so. Many factors, most of which are beyond the control of the - Issuer, will influence the value of the securities and the price at which the securities may be purchased or sold in the secondary market. For example, the creditworthiness of the Issuer, including actual or anticipated downgrades to the Issuer's credit ratings, may be a contributing factor.
Potential Conflicts – We and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of the securities including acting as calculation agent and hedging our obligations under the securities. The agent for this offering, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC ("CSSU"), is our affiliate. In accordance with FINRA Rule 5121, CSSU may not make sales in this offering to any discretionary account without prior written approval of the customer.
- As a holder of the securities, you will not have voting rights or rights to receive cash dividends or other distributions with respect to the equity securities comprising the Underlyings.
The risks set forth in the section entitled "Product Risks" on the preceding page and this section "Additional Risk Considerations" are only intended as summaries of some of the risks relating to an investment in the securities. Prior to investing in the securities, you should, in particular, review the "Product Risks" and "Additional Risk Considerations" sections herein, the "Selected Risk Considerations" section in the pricing supplement and the "Risk Factors" section in the product supplement, which set forth risks related to an investment in the securities.
