Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01 – Other Events

On January 10, 2013 the Company was made aware that a former employee sent communications that contained intentionally misleading and harmful disclosures as well as confidential information regarding the Company to a selected group of shareholders. These communications included allegations that the Company's chief executive officer and president engaged in acts of malfeasance, misfeasance and negligence in the management and conduct of the Company business. The Company believes that this employee made multiple unauthorized disclosures of confidential information and misinformation to these shareholders on January 10, 2013 and thereafter. On January 10, 2013 the reported volume of the Company's shares in the over the counter markets increased about 30 times over the prior three month average daily trading volume as reported by OTCmarkets.com. We have concurrently also experienced severe price declines in our shares since these unauthorized and misleading disclosures have been made. In the view of the Company these allegations are without merit and are being made with malicious intent. The Company is continuing an investigation of these and other acts of misconduct by this former employee and intends vigorously to pursue its available legal remedies and other proper causes of action.

On January 11, 2013 the Company issued a press release regarding these incidents. A copy of this press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by this reference.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

All American Pet Company Addresses Libelous Statements and Meritless Accusations Disseminated by a Disgruntled/Dismissed Former Employee

LOS ANGELES, CA--(Marketwire - Jan 11, 2013) - All American Pet Company, Inc. ( OTCQB : AAPT ) -- Announced today that the company's former controller by a letter dated January 10, 2013 to a select group of company investors, made a series of libelous statements and meritless accusations regarding its Chief Executive and President. The company believes that as a result of this former employee's selective, but unauthorized series of inaccurate disclosures to these investors -- the volume of the company's stock traded as of the close of business on January 10, 2013 increased to 41.18 million shares from a three month average daily volume of 1.374 million shares as reported by OTC Markets.com. The price per share of our common stock as of the close of business on Thursday, January 10, 2013 dropped -38.66% from the prior closing price of $.0269 to $.0165 per share. In his letter this former employee also solicited signed ballots from shareholders seeking the removal of the directors of the company.

The company views the statements made as libelous and defamatory, made with the intent to deceive and believes that those statements and the former employee's actions violate federal securities laws as well as civil and criminal law. These activities by a disgruntled former employee of AAPT have needlessly damaged the company and severely harmed company shareholders. The company has notified the appropriate regulatory authorities and is reviewing appropriate further actions.

Barry Schwartz, AAPT CEO, stated, "We regret this reckless and unscrupulous behavior." He further noted that, "I have spoken to dozens of investors today by phone from our Kansas facility where I am overseeing the production of millions of food bars and tons of treats to meet retailer demand. We remain focused on and confident of, the company's business and its future."
