ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

1. PENNSYLVANIA BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW OF 1988. Section 1741 of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988 (the "BCL") provides that unless otherwise restricted in its bylaws, a business corporation shall (subject to the limitations described below) have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action or proceeding, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that such person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 1742 of the BCL provides that unless otherwise restricted in its bylaws, a corporation shall (subject to the limitations described below) have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation. Indemnification shall not be made under Section 1742 in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court of common pleas of the judicial district embracing the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located or the court in which such action was brought determines upon application that despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court of common pleas or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 1744 of the BCL provides that unless ordered by a court, any indemnification under Section 1741 or 1742 shall be made by the business corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee had met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the relevant section. Such determination shall be made:

- (1) By the board of directors of the corporation by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action or proceeding; or
- (2) If such a quorum is not obtainable, or if obtainable and a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or
- (3) By the shareholders.

Notwithstanding the above, Section 1743 of the BCL provides that, to the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a business corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action or proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section 1745 of the BCL provides that expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending any action or proceeding may be paid by a business corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

Section 1746 of the BCL provides that the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to the subchapter on indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such persons's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. Section 1746 also provides that indemnification may not be made in any case where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. Such indemnification may not be provided in the case of willful misconduct or recklessness.

Section 1747 of the BCL provides that, unless otherwise restricted in its bylaws, a business corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the director, officer, employee or agent against such liability under the provisions of the subchapter governing indemnification. Section 1747 declares such insurance to be consistent with the public policy of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 1750 of the BCL provides that the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the BCL subchapter governing indemnification shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such director, officer, employee or agent.

2. DIRECTORS' LIABILITY ACT. Act No. 145 of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, effective January 27, 1987 (the "Directors' Liability Act") provides that the rights to indemnification provided by Sections 1741-1750 of the BCL (see No. 1 above) shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or directors or otherwise, and that rights to indemnification may be granted by a corporation under any by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or directors or otherwise for any action taken or any failure to take any action whether or not the indemnified liability arises or arose from any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation, provided, however, that no rights to indemnification may be provided in any case where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. The Directors' Liability Act also provides that expenses incurred by an officer, director, employee or agent in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by a corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the officer, director, employer or agent to repay the amount advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that the officer, director, employee or agent is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The provisions of the Directors' Liability Act do not, however, apply (i) to the liability of a director under any criminal statute or for the payment of taxes, pursuant to Federal, state or local law or (ii) to any claim against a director arising out of his role as an officer or in any other capacity except as a director, and they may not apply to liability imposed on a director by the Federal securities laws or other Federal statutes. Also, while the provisions accord the directors protection from awards of monetary damages for breaches of the duty of care to the Company or its subsidiaries, they do not eliminate the duty of care of the directors as such. Therefore, the provisions do not affect the availability of equitable remedies such as an injunction or rescission based upon a director's breach of the duty of care.

3. INDEMNIFICATION ARTICLE. In implementation of the above-stated provisions of Pennsylvania law, the Company's shareholders adopted an amendment to restate Article EIGHTH to the Company's Articles of Incorporation (the "Indemnification Article") which provides that, except as prohibited by law every Director and officer of the Company is entitled as of right to be indemnified by the Company against expenses and any liabilities incurred by such person in connection with any actual or threatened claim, action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other, or whether bought by or in the right of the Company or otherwise, in which the Director or officer may be involved in any manner, as a party, witness or otherwise, or is threatened to be made so involved, by reason of the Director or officer being or having been a Director or officer of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company or by reason of the fact that the Director or officer is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or other representative of another company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other entity. The rights to indemnification do not, however, apply (i) where any act giving rise to a claim for indemnification for expenses or liability is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness or (ii) where Federal law would prohibit such indemnification, and in an action brought by a Director or officer against the Company, the Director or officer is only entitled to indemnification for expenses in certain circumstances. Each Director and officer is also entitled as of right to have his expenses in defending an action paid in advance by the Company prior to final disposition of the action, provided the Company receives a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Director or officer to repay the amount advanced if it should ultimately be determined that the Director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified. In addition, rights to partial indemnification for expenses and liability are provided in certain circumstances, and a procedure is established under which a Director or officer may bring an action against the Company if a written claim for indemnification or advancement of expenses is not paid by the Company in full within 30 days after the claim has been presented. The Director or officer is also entitled to advancement of expenses in this proceeding.

Under the Indemnification Article, the Company may create a trust fund, grant a security interest, cause a letter of credit to be issued or use other means to ensure the payment of all sums required to be paid by the Company to effect the indemnification provided by the Indemnification Article. The Company may also purchase and maintain insurance to protect itself and any Director or officer against any expenses or liability incurred in connection with any action, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify the Director or officer against the expenses or liability by law or under the Indemnification Article.

The rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by the Indemnification Article are also not deemed exclusive of any other rights, whether existing or created after the adoption of the Indemnification Article, to which a Director or officer may be entitled under any agreement, provision in the Articles or By-Laws of the Company, vote of shareholders or Directors or otherwise; and the rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses continue as to each Director or officer who has ceased to have the status pursuant to which he was entitled to indemnification and inure to the benefit of the heirs and legal representatives of the Director or officer. Any amendment or repeal of the Indemnification Article or adoption of any By-Law or other provision of the Articles which has the effect of limiting in any way the rights provided by the Indemnification Article will operate prospectively only and will not affect any action taken or failure to act, by a Director or officer prior to such amendment, repeal, By-Law or other provision becoming effective.

4. DIRECTOR AND OFFICER LIABILITY INSURANCE. As permitted by Section 1747 of the BCL (see No. 1 above), the Company has purchased Director and officer liability insurance covering its Directors and officers with respect to liability which they may incur in connection with their serving as such. Under the insurance, the Company will receive reimbursement for amounts as to which the Directors and officers are indemnified under the Indemnification Article (see No. 3 above). The insurance may also provide certain additional coverage for the Directors and officers against certain liability even though such liability is not subject to indemnification under the Indemnification Article.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

(a) RULE 415 OFFERING.

The Company hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required to be filed by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;
- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 or Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) FILINGS INCORPORATING SUBSEQUENT EXCHANGE ACT DOCUMENTS BY REFERENCE.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "1933 Act") may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Registration Statement on Form S-8 re
1992 Stock Incentive Plan

Gentlemen:

We have acted as special counsel to Matthews International Corporation (the "Company") in connection with the above-captioned Registration Statement (the "Registration Statement") relating to up to 600,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share (the "Class A Common Stock"), and Class B Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share (the "Class B Common Stock" and together with the Class A Common Stock, the "Common Stock"), of the Company which may be purchased or acquired under the Company's 1992 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan provides that either authorized but unissued or reacquired shares of Common Stock may be issued upon the exercise of stock options granted or upon the award of restricted shares under the Plan. In rendering our opinion below, we have assumed that any previously issued shares reacquired by the Company and used under the Plan will have been duly authorized, validly issued and fully paid at the time of their original issuance.

In connection with this opinion, we have examined, among other things:

- (1) the Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Company;
- (2) resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company on May 8, 1992 adopting the Plan, authorizing the issuance of up to 600,000 shares of Common Stock thereunder and reserving 600,000 shares of Common Stock for such purpose;
- (3) the Plan, as currently in effect; and

(4) a certification confirming the approval of the Board of Director's adoption of the Plan by the shareholders of the Company at the special meeting held June 6, 1992.

Based upon the foregoing and upon an examination of such other documents, corporate proceedings, statutes, decisions and questions of law as we considered necessary in order to enable us to furnish this opinion, and subject to the assumption set forth above, we are pleased to advise you that in our opinion:

(a) The Company has been duly incorporated and is a corporation presently subsisting under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and

(b) The shares of Common Stock being registered and which may be issued by the Company pursuant to the provisions of the Plan upon the exercise of stock options granted or upon the award of restricted shares under the Plan have been duly authorized, and upon such issuance in accordance with the provisions of the Plan such shares will be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an Exhibit to the Registration Statement and to the use of our name in the Prospectus under the caption "Legal Opinion".

Yours truly,

Reed Smith Shaw & McClay
