If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III – NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

We are unable to file the Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2004 because our new independent accountants have not yet had sufficient time to complete (1) an audit of the Company's financial information for 2003 and preceding fiscal years, and (2) applicable reviews of financial information for quarterly periods, including the first quarter of 2004. As we have previously reported, our new independent auditors were hired on March 1, 2004 after our prior independent auditors resigned and withdrew their audit opinions for the years ended December 31, 2000, 2001 and 2002.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

Quarterly Reports on Forms 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2003 and September 30, 2003, and the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

We expect that the results of operations for the quarter ended March 31, 2004 will change significantly from those of the corresponding period of 2003. Although we are not prepared to file such financial information with this Form 12b-25, and our independent auditors have not completed a review under Statement of Auditing Standards No. 100 of our unaudited consolidated financial statements for the quarter, we intend to file unreviewed financial information that discloses these changes in results of operations in the near future.
